Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet Slated Tomorrow Night

AROUND TOWN — SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

The "dead man" in the JayCee float featuring a wrecked automobile in Saturday's parade was T. J. Clay, our sleuths inform us. Two bottles of cake coloring and one bottle of ink . . . all red . . . were used in creating his demise, according to Dub Reeves, who did the art work. The "wreck" itself is unidentified . . . but came from a local junk yard. The JayCee float as arranged by the committee on safety and accident prevention as an object lesson . . . and judging from the comments of the crowd, it had its intended effect.

NEW ARRIVAL IN TOWN: William Franklin Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stewart, arrived at the Deaf Smith County Hospital Wednesday, February 25.

John Dyer, ace footballer with the Hereford Whitefaces a year ago, and now a pre-med student at Baylor University, took time out a couof weeks ago to win the open Light-heavyweight Championship in the Golden Gloves Boxing tournament at Waco. Dyer defeated Lloyd Russell of Baylor in the finals, flooring his opponent for a count of eight in the third round, but failing to make the knock-out. Although he was eligible for the State Golden Gloves at Fort Worth, he wrote his folks that he couldn't spare the time from his college work and didn't

Group to Austin To Seek Paving Of Harrison

A new plea for state designation and paving of Harrison Highway will be heard by the State Highway Commission in Austin tomorrow.

A committee representing the Hereford Chamber of Commerce and the Deaf Smith County Commissioners Court, and bolstered by a Commissioner from the Bellview, N. M. precinct, will appear before the Commission at a hearing tomorrow morning (Friday) at ten o'clock.

On the committee will be J. A. Pitman, Henry Sears, and Pete Cowart, representing the Chamber of Commerce; Troy Moore and John I. Morris of the Commissioners Court, and George Head, Commissioner from the New Mexico precinct.

New Mexico has completed paving of the New Mexico end of the highway to the Texas line, and the Bellview delegate is urging the Texas Highway Commission to complete the Texas end of the route.

State Senator Grady Hazlewood will join the committee in Austin for the hearing.

"We will ask for state designation of Harrison Highway as a state highway, and allocation of funds for immediate paving of the route west from Hereford to the state line," Cowart said.

The group left Hereford this morning for Austin.

Five Students Are Unhurt As School Bus Overturns

Five school children escaped injury yesterday morning (Wednesday) when a school bus overturned on Highway 60 a mile east of Dawn.

Driver of the bus was Billy Airhart of Dawn.

The accident occurred early Wednesday morning when young Airhart was making his rounds to pick up students for transportation to the Dawn school.

The bus skidded off the icy pavement and rolled over on its side on the shoulder of the highway. Only five students, including the driver, were on the bus, and none were hurt.

The bus was only slightly damaged. One of a fleet operated by the Hereford Rural High School district, it was towed in to Hereford following the accident, but Bob Wilson, superintendent of transportation, said that he was able to drive it under its own power into the bus barn on the school grounds.

The minor repairs necessary were being made there yesterday.

C-C to Probe City's Fire Prevention

An investigation of Hereford's fire-fighting and fire-prevention setup will be made by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce.

Alarmed by increased insurance rates due to Hereford's fire losses in the last two years, Chamber of Commerce directors Tuesday night moved to secure a city-wide survey by a qualified fire-prevention engineer.

Herman Ford and Jim French were appointed by C-C president Frances Hardwick to secure the services of a competent Fire-prevention expert to make a survey and recommendations for improving the local situation.

Results of the survey will be presented by the Chamber of Commerce to City Officials.

Simultaneously, a committee headed by Dudley Green was asked to serve as Chamber of Commerce Fire Prevention and Public Safety committee, to assist in carrying out the recommendations of the engineer.

Committe members are Fire Chief Onias Carroll and City Marshall Bruce Wooddell.

Loss of an additional five per cent "good fire record credit" effective March 1, on top of a 15 per cent loss last year spurred Chamber of Commerce directors to order the survey in an effort to remedy the situation.

Fire insurance rates in Hereford have gone up 20 per cent in the past two years, due to heavy fire losses, Hardwick pointed out. The city enjoyed the maximum (25 per cent) good fire credit in 1946. Last year the credit was cut 15 per cent and an additional 5 per cent cut was announced this year.

A further loss of credit, and consequent boost in insurance rates, is probable next year, due to the insured loss in the Ireland Motor Co. fire last month.

Hearing Damage Suit Underway In District Court

Trial of a suit for damages filed by Ray Barclay and wife against Carl and Hilda K. Straffus, all of Hereford, is underway in District Court here today.

The trial opened Tuesday morning, and hearing of testimony is expected to continue through today, with the case going to the jury either tonight or tomorrow.

The suit is a result of an automobile collison between the two parties which occurred on Highway 51 north of Hereford last November 8.

The crash occurred at or near the driveway entering the Straffus place from Highway 51.

In his suit, Barclay alleges that it was impossible for the plaintiffs to avoid a collison, and states that the acts of the defendants were negligent and careless. He is asking damages covering hospital and medical expenses for himself and Mrs. Barclay, damages to the Barclay car, and $5,000 additional damages.

According to officers who investigated the crash at the time, the collison occurred when the Straffus car, driven by Hilda Katherine Straffus, was making a turn across the highway into the drive-way to their home. The Barclay car, approaching from the opposite direction, crashed into the turning vehicle.

Attorney for the plaintiffs is James W. Witherspoon of Hereford; for the defendants, H. H. Cooper of Amarillo.

On the jury are Charlie Cogdell, Owen Parsons, Clinton Jackson, Cecil Gunter, Orpha Click, Boyd Knox, Jack Kirksey, Jimmie Allred, Doc Roberson, G. B. Hagar, J. W. Dickerson, and Arch Conklin.

Junior Band Meets Monday Afternoon

A meeting of Junior Band members will be held Monday afternoon, March 1, at the band hall, Bandmaster T. V. Brantley announced today.

All Junior Band Mothers are invited to attend. The meeting will be at three o'clock.

CHAMPIONS ALL: 4-H CLUBBERS SHOW PRIZE WINNING CALVES, PIGS AND LAMBS

With tickets nearly sold out at mid-week, a capacity crowd is expected tomorrow night for the Annual Banquet of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. W. H. Alexander, pastor of the First Christian Church of Oklahoma City and a noted radio speaker and lecturer, will deliver the principal address at the banquet.

The dinner will be held in the basement dining room at the First Baptist Church, beginning prompty at eight o'clock. Members of the Deaf Smith County home demonstration clubs will serve, under the direction of Mrs. Argen Draper, CHDA.

Toastmaster for the banquet will be Rev. Roy W. Ford, pastor of the First Christian Church of Hereford.

Featuring the banquet will be the presentation, by Lions Club President D. C. Kinsey, of the annual Lions Club Trophy for Hereford's "Best All-Around Citizen of 1947."

Name of the honored citizen will not be revealed until the night of the banquet. The selection was made by a secret Lions Club committee after hundreds of nominations had been made by local citizens through ballots printed last month in The Brand.

Visitors are expected from Dalhart, Dumas, Amarillo, Canyon, Tulia, Plainview, Dimmitt, Friona, Clovis and Tucumcari. Introduction of guests will be made by R. L. Thompson, assisted by T. E. Seigler Jr., A. O. Thompson, and Wayne Evans.

The invocation will be delivered by Bob Wear, minister of the Hereford Church of Christ.

The welcome address will be made by Frances Hardwick, president of the Chamber of Commerce; and the 1947 Chamber of Commerce report it to be delivered by Homer Brumley, Chamber of Commerce president last year.

The 1948 Chamber of Commerce program will be outlined by Herman

Nearly Half Inch Of Moisture Is Recorded Here

Nearly half an inch of moisture has been recorded in Hereford this week, O. B. Russell of the Soil Conservation Service reports this morning.

Rainfall yesterday and last night totalled .30 inch; and an additional .13 inch had been recorded earlier in the week.

The temperature Tuesday and Wednesday hovered just below the freezing mark, remaining at 28 to 30 degrees, causing severe icing conditions over most of the Panhandle area. Temperature this morning was rising, and had reached 42 degrees at nine o'clock.

Low Temperature for the past week was 20 degrees recorded last Saturday.

The heavy rain which fell last night and this morning was accompanied by some hail and a thunder storm, a rare phenomenon in this area for this time of the year.

Accumulation of ice on power lines caused a break in the Southwestern Public Service highline between Hereford and Dawn Wednesday morning, and service in Herefird and on REA lines served through the local station was interrupted for more than three hours.

Whiteface Band Will Present Fifth Concert Here Tonight

Hereford High school's Whiteface Band will present the fifth in a series of monthly concerts at the High School auditorium tonight (Thursday).

The concert will begin promptly at eight o'clock, Bandmaster T. V. Brantley has announced.

Randolph Thomas, saxophone player, will be the featured soloist for this concert, Brantley said.

Also featured will be a twirling demonstration by the High School Twirlers, Drum Major June Reynolds, Beverly Thomas, Bettye Henry, Bobby Nell Pittman and Billie Ray Johnson.

The program will open with a March, "Men of Ohio" by Fillmore; followed with "Old Vienna" by King.

Randolph Thomas will be presented in a saxophone solo, "Stormy Weather," followed by Franckiser's "Mightier Than Circumstance" by the band to conclude the first half of the program.

After the intermission, the band will lead off with another march, "Our Director," followed by "Dublin holiday" by Buchtel a demonstr-

TICKETS ON SALE

A few tickets for the Chamber of Commerce banquet are on sale today at Close Drug, Halle Drug, City Drug, and the Hereford News Stand.

Only about 50 tickets remained unsold yesterday afternoon, with the supply dwindling rapidly. Tickets are $2.25 per plate.

Wes Izzard to Speak At Rotary Friday

Wes Izzard, editor of the Amarillo Globe-News, will be the speaker for the Hereford Rotary Club luncheon tomorrow noon (Friday).

Bill Harlow, program chairman, reported today that Izzard had accepted an invitation to speak here. Subject for his talk has not been announced.

C. H. Neese Died Monday in Home Of Daughter Here

Claud Howell Neese, 58 year old farmer of Wellington, Texas died here Monday, February 23. He had been visiting in the home of his daughters, Mrs. Earl Nipper and Mrs. T. E. Lindley, for the last three months.

Funeral services were conducted at Wellington this week.

Besides his two daughters he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Vida Neese and a son, Claudie Neese, who is stationed in Panama with the U. S. Army.

Kick-Off Breakfast Scheduled At Ten o'Clock at City Hall

Deaf Smith County's Red Cross Chapter will open its annual Membership Drive next Tuesday morning.

A kick-off breakfast for all workers will be held at the City Hall at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Coffee and doughnuts will be served, and all chairmen, sub-chairmen and block workers in the well-knit county Red Cross organization will launch their drive to fill the county's quota of $6,640 as quickly as possible.

The campaign this year will be under the direction of S. B. McLallen as Membership Chairman.

Campaign plans have already been mapped by the County Chapter. Rev. Roy Ford, pastor of the First Christian Church, will be in charge of the membership drive in the business district.

Already named as sub-chairmen are Henry Sears, L. C. Thomas, Francis Hardwick, and Guy Lawrence.

Rual Ford, Central School principal, will head the drive in the special and Industrial division, including the local schools.

Pete Cowart, Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager, is chairman for the Residential District. Appointed as sub-chairman are Mrs. R. J. Richardson, Mrs. W. H. Russell, Mrs. Ralph Smith, and Mrs. J. L. Davis.

The sub-chairmen will appoint block workers for a block-by-block canvass of the city.

Herman Ford is chairman for the Rural Districts. Asked to serve as sub-chairmen are Mrs. Paul Rudd, Mrs. Richard Evans, Mrs. E. K. Pinnell, Mrs. H. L. Hershey, Mrs. Ira Ricketts, Tandy Legg, Mrs. B. B. Northcutt, Mrs. William Wimberley, Mrs. Walter Galley, Mrs. Henry Kinsey, Mrs. George Benson, Mrs. Ira Ott, Mrs. J. T. Guinn, Mrs. J. F. Matthews, Mrs. Altus Higgins, Mrs. Cord Hammock, Mrs. Clarence Hollabaugh, Mrs. J. B. Roland, Mrs. V. E. Lemke, and Mrs. Henry Melton.

Cecil Gusoman is in charge of the advance gifts committee.

Plans are to cover the entire county in the shortest possible time. Because of the large quota to be

C-C Committee to Seek Santa Fe Underpass

Construction of an underpass under the Santa Fe tracks, giving uninterrupted access to the industrial area in South Hereford, is on the list of 1948 projects outlined by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce.

Charlie A. Johnston, of Fraser Mills, was named as chairman of a committee in work on the problem. Committee members are Leo Forrest and Sylvester Slagle.

An underpass within two or three blocks east or west of Main street is desired. There has been considerable demand for this construction since the grade crossings along the Santa Fe are frequently blocked by rail traffic.

Trailers, Washing Machines Go Up in Flames

Flames eat through trailer trucks, warehouse and loading dock at Cleveland, O., destroying installations of three interstate trucking firms—Summit Fast Freight, Akron-Chicago Transportation, Interstate Motor Freight System. The fire, believed started by an oil stove, destroyed more than a dozen trailers plus merchandise ranging from washing machines to pinball machines.

Clubwomen To Advertise Hereford

South Texas is going to know more about "The Town Without a Toothache" when delegates from Hereford's Three garden clubs attend the Texas Garden Club's annual convention in Harlingen March 4-5-6.

There are about thirty six women going on a chartered bus from this district and many others will go in cars. Mrs. Lyle Blanton, president of District 1, Texas Garden Clubs Inc, has arranged to have the bus plastered with signs so that people from the Northern tip of Texas to the extreme South will know that Hereford is famous for foods, spuds, beets and onions, as well as good teeth.

Stopping points enroute to Harlingen will be Austin, San Antonio, and Corpus Christi where scenic tours will be made. The convention program will include a tour of the upper and lower Rio Grande Valleys and Reynosa, Mexico.

Hereford may have the largest representation based on population and miles traveled to the convention. Those from Hereford who will make the trip include Mesdames; Lyle Blanton, O. G. Hill, R. A. Daniel Jr., A. L. Manjeot, Dennis Barnard, Forrest Minton, C. D. Kelton, Jim Black, W. S. Pluitt, Maurice Tannahill, Earl Springer and Carroll Whiteside.

Camp Fire Girls Need Help To Select Queen

If you are wondering about all those little cans holding penny votes for prospective queens, that meet the eye on every counter in local stores and business houses, thats the way the Camp Fire Girls are adding to the fund already started for the Camp Fire Hut.

In anticipation of a PTA program which Camp Fire Girls have been asked to present on March 8, when a typical Camp Fire Girl will take the leading role, the girls and their guardians decided to have each Camp Fire and Bluebird group select a girl and let the public name the winner in the voting contest. The candidates were chosen on their personality, attendence records and interest and accomplishments in Camp Fire work. The money will go into the equipment and furnishings of the Camp Fire Hut.

The contest ends February 29 and the girl receiving the most votes in the cans and otherwise, will be named "The Queen" and she will be presented on the Family Relations Program of the PTA at a regular meeting on March 8.

The girls and the groups they represent are; Kathlyn Kester, Shishtinta Group; Dorothy Veigel, Che-De-Naang; Mary Ruth Strange, Tawanka; Verita Sanders, Watamachick; Jo Eddy Scott, Early Bluebirds; Jane Newsom, Happy Bluebirds; and Nelda Dee Skypala, Merry Bluebirds.

Farm and Ranch Club Enjoys Luncheon Meet

George Washington's birthday provided the theme for decorations and appointments Thursday when Mrs. Waldron Melton entertained members of the Farm and Ranch Club at a luncheon-program.

A miniature cherry tree served as the table centerpiece and corsages of cherries were used to mark places for the guests.

A short business session was directed by Mrs. Henry Melton, president, who also discussed rules of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Roy Pruitt led a round-table discussion of parliamentary laws.

Members present were Mesdames; Phillip Miller, Roy Pruitt, Charles Burk, G. S. Solomon, Edd Thomas, Henry Melton, Waldron Melton, and a guest, Mrs. Dorothy Sam Bruce of Vega.

SAFE

It's alright for your child to keep his pennies in a piggy bank, but it isn't very smart of an adult to do it. For money in a bank grows every day—and dollars at home grow less and less. Begin the saving habit now—and bring your dollars here for deposit regularly. You'll be pleasantly surprised at how they accumulate.

BY MRS. GLEN MAY

The Home Demonstration Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. M. L. Simpson. Miss Mattie Lee Seago, H. D. A. gave a discussion of spring gardens and gave each member a planting guide. She also offered some tips on "How to pep up winter meals."

A leap year party was enjoyed Friday night by ten couples of this community. The party was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Adams of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Arnold of Dimmitt and Miss Nina Hartman of Hereford were Saturday night supper guests of the M. L. Simpson family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred May and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin May were Sunday visitors of the F. A. and Glen May families.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dyer and Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scalia and Joan of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Newton of Dimmitt were guests at a birthday dinner Sunday honoring Press Dyer at his home.

The M. L. Simpson family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hunter of Hereford.

P. J. Axe who has been in the hospital for the past two weeks was discharged Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Devin and Gracie, Mr. and Mrs. Holly of Happy visited Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Axe.

Edward Glen May celebrated his eight birthday Wednesday evening with a party. Those attending were, Florence and Donnie Brock, Lynn and LaNelle Claudus, Mona Dell and Richard Hunter, O. C. Renfro, Judith Dyer, Joe Haynes, J. C. and Clifford May.

Mrs. F. E. Cloudus is in the hospital because of influenza.

Among those who attended the basketball tournament in Canyon Friday were Mrs. Finis Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Press Dyer.

This community is invited to attend a "42" social Friday evening at the Jumbo School. Everyone is invited to come and bring a neighbor.

Abraham Lincoln, James A. Garfield, and William McKinley were assassinated while serving as president of the United States.

HEREFORD Bull

By JIMMIE GILLENTINE

Boy, oh boy! Did the big 4-H Calf Show ever turn out to be a whizzer? The Hereford Rotary Club sure deserves a lot of credit. This event is the finest thing that has happened in Hereford in many, many years. Another splendid thing is the way the Rotarians feel and appreciate the help accorded them on every hand by outsiders. They are not interested in the credit they get near as much as in having the outstanding 4-H show in the Panhandle. They sure did work and the show was truly an outstanding achievement.

However, there was one epoch making event which has me wondering. A little old lamb bawled his way into the ring, sold and resold eight times to bring a total of $2.62 a pound, whereas the Grand Champion—a fine Hereford—brought $1.50 a pound. Yes sir, right out here in the heart of the cattle country, where people are actually afraid to make a Ewe-Turn. Kelly Gray even paid 50 cents a pound for the critter on one of the bids. In all fairness, however, we will have to admit that the animal was always donated some worthwhile organization. The tabulation follows:

Clovis Commission Co., paid 30 cents a pound and donated the animal to the Red Cross; R. K. Bruner paid 30 cents and donated to Boys Ranch; Kelly Gray paid 50 cents and donated to Boys Ranch; L. L. Arnold paid 35 cents and onated to Boys Ranch; Mr. Burrell paid 30 cents and donated to Boys Ranch; Leo Singer paid 32 cents and donated to Boys Ranch; Deaf Smith Meat Co., paid 30 cents and donated to Boys Ranch; John Jacobsen finally paid 25 cents and put a stop to the circle—and everyone was happy. Guess Bob Higgins wasn't there. The sheep weighed 105 pounds and was entered by A. L. Williams.

For a while it looked as if we might have to change the name of this column to "The Sheep Herder's Corner," or some other more appropriate name.

Lots and lots of people came to the parade just to see Ed Hedrick on a high-spirited horse. Ed has already promised to ride next year—and says he would have ridden this year if he had thought about having Sunday, plus a bank holiday Monday to recuperate.

Lots of things happened during the big show, and from them all emerges the fact that Leo Forrest is unquestionably "the perfect host." Leo Was escorting Dr. J. P. Cornett, new president of West Texas State College, and sat beside him during the sale. During the pig sale, Dr. Cornett recognized an acquaintance and began waving to him. The auctioneer recorded the waving as a bid and knocked the pig off to the college president. When Bonnie Brumley started searching for the buyer, Leo gallantly stuck up his hand, getting the pig and our nomination as "The Perfect Host."

Dr. Cornett, unfamiliar with auctions, apparently never realized what happened. However, when bidding on the Grand Champion Hereford got up to $1.50 a pound, folks sitting around the pair report that Leo manuevered Dr. Cornett's gaze away from the entrance and was even heard to mutter something about not waving to friends and acquaintances.

Just to show how dumb some people can be: I go all of the way to Dallas and stand around in vain on an icy street in a snow storm to catch a glimpse of the "new look"—and one develops right here in The Brand office. Florence Wilhelm, the attractive young lady in charge of office supplies, has three of those long skirts to go with an outstanding personality and a nice smile. Apparently these "new look" skirts are seen with some jealousy on the part of Corinne Jennings and Atha McIver, who seem to have been busy keeping some sort of tab on Florence's experiences with her "new look."

Anyway, their opinion is that the "new look," although attractive, may be slightly impractical—and they have been kidding the skirts off Florence about the following incidents, which we reprint for consideration of all ladies interested in the "new look":

1. Door episode. Florence closed the door on her skirt the first day or so, and almost lost it. She barely stopped in time.

2. Package incident. Coming up from the back one day with an arm load of packages, she also unknowingly had an armload of skirt—and was highly pleased that no customers happened to be waiting.

3. Dusting. They say that dusting of low shelves leaves a lot of skirt to catch dirt and germs. (This sounds like sour grapes to me).

4. High winds and general comment are other objections offered by the skeptical checkers regarding these "new look" duds.

I'm going to string along with Florence on this deal. I think the "new look" is dignified and attractive. Furthermore, it will tend to eliminate slacks. Did you know that there is an ordinance (an old, old one) on record right now in the City of Hereford archives which forbids women to wear slacks in public on the streets of Hereford? This is a fact.

Hubert White still has a chip on his shoulder regarding the Boy Scouts, whe recently took over the city traffic regulations for a day. Hubert left the City Food Store, darted across the street, and made for an early cup of coffee. He was grabbed by five Scouts, who demanded a 25 cent fine for Jay-Walking. Hubert didn't have but a dime in his pocket, but made a deal with the boys to let him go back across the street to the store for more money. When he started back, Hubert Jay-Walked again—and the boys made him pay another quarter. Hubert had almost as much fun as the boys, who finally collected their 50 cents.

Next Monday is Dollar Day again. This event has become a big feature for the whole territory. The merchants are making special buys for Dollar Day each month—and every month the occasion gets bigger and bigger.

People all over the Panhandle are asking about Hereford's parking meters. They want to know how we like them. It is my opinion that they are indeed popular. Even the farmers seem to appreciate a place to park for a few minutes or an hour. What do you think? Some of the store employees seem to grumble about having to walk a half block or so, but, all in all, the comment I hear is favorable, very favorable. Why don't the Chamber of Commerce take a percentage poll?

Speaking of polls, we have been seriously considering a reader-interest poll by the Brand to determine what you folks like best. We have been running more local pictures than probably any other weekly in Texas. The engraving alone costs us between $80 and $100 a month, and we are wondering if you like them. We think "Around Town" is probably the most popular feature in the paper. What do you think? There are lots and lots of things we would like to know.

MYSTERY IS SOLVED BY APPEAL TO STUDENTS

Joy-ride in Self-Propelled Combine Winds Up With Two Boys in Trouble; Machine Wrecked

The mystery of the wrecked combine has been solved.

The combine in question, a new International self-propelled job, was left on the lot at Jacobsen Brothers Shop in good condition Sunday night, and turned up badly damaged on Monday morning . . . in the same location.

Local officers, unable to find witnesses, were completely at sea. Then Tuesday, Sheriff J. C. Reese and City Marshall Bruce Wooddell went to Supt. George Graham at the High School, explained their problem, and obtained a special assembly of High School students.

Wooddell laid the cards on the table, and asked any of the youngsters who might know anything about the occurrence to give the law a break.

The appeal worked. As soon as the assembly was dismissed, a high school girl came forward. "Mr. Wooddell," she said, "I know who did it." She did.

As a result, P. R. McDermitt, 22, of Hereford, was placed under arrest and proceeded, under questioning, to tell the whole story. He implicated another youth, Dave Williams, employed by a Santa Fe work gang.

Williams, who had already been transferred to Kansas, was immediately contacted by Sheriff Reese, and agreed to return voluntarily to face Grand Jury action Friday. Reese said Williams agreed to waive extradition proceedings. McDermitt was released yesterday under bond, also to appear before the Grand Jury.

Charges of theft have been filed against both youths.

The story, as told by McDermitt. The two boys had been drinking, saw the combine, and thought it would be a good idea to take it for a ride. McDermitt blamed Williams, saying that he "just went along for the ride."

From the Jacobsen lot, the two cruised east on 2nd street, circled the Davis-McCracken building, proceeded north to the City Hall, and then west one block on 3rd street. Turning north, they ran the combine into a tree, and then, backing away, smashed into a parked truck. Deciding the ride had gone far enough, they returned the wrecked machine to the Jacobsen lot and abandoned it.

The combine belonged to Eddie Reinauer, and had been left at Jacobsen's for some work. Damage was estimated at between $1,000 and $1,500.

The episode occurred at about 7:30 p. m. Sunday night, according to McDermitt.

"Skinny Angel" Given For Child Study Club

The book "Skinny Angel" by Thelma Jones was presented in a review given by Mrs. Carrol Whiteside at the Child Study Club meeting held with Mrs. Clinton Jackson Thursday evening.

"The cleverly written book tells the story of an underpaid college professor, his wife Alice, who has an abominable sense of humor, and their five children, and also presents a study of character contrasts," Mrs. Whiteside said.

During the business session Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. Marlin Gilliland and Mrs. Carrol Whiteside were named to serve on a nominating committee.

Members of the club voted to accept the invitation from the El 'Nino Study Club to attend a guest day program on March 8. The next regular meeting of the club will be held on February 26 when husbands will be honor guests.

Mrs. Joe Story and Mrs. Carl Oldham were welcomed as new members of the club.

Members present were Mesdames; Cawthon Bryant, Ira Foster, J. R. Fowlkes, George Heard, Merlin Kaul, D. C. Kensey, E. J. Pepper, J. C. Reese, Deward Roberson, John Robinson, Earl Springer, Carrol Whiteside, F. G. Witherspoon, J. L. Woodford, and the hostess.

1948 Sugar Beet Contracts Will Be Offered Tonight

Farmers who plan to grow sugar beets this year will meet at the Courthouse in Hereford tonight to hear the terms of the 1948 contracts.

O'Dean Nixon, field man for the American Crystal Sugar company has announced that company officials will be in Hereford tonight to present the new contracts.

The company is prepared to sign up between six and seven thousand acres of beets in the area. Plans have been already announced to add three loading dumps, in addition to the one at Hereford, at Umbarger, Dawn and Summerfield to handle the greatly increased crop.

H. E. Knapp, manager of the Rocky Ford Refinery; Advertising manager McHaffey, and George Nixon, agricultural superintendent for the plant, are expected to be in Hereford to discuss the terms of the new contracts and advise growers on any problems.

The entire 1948 setup will be explained thoroughly, Nixon said.

The meeting will be held at the District Courtroom in the Courthouse at 7:30 o'clock tonight (Thursday, February 26).

Oliver Cromwell who ruled England between 1649 and 1658 was a commoner.

Lack of Vitamin A Causes Night-Blind Cattle

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 23—Strange as it may seem, the lack of vitamin A in rations will cause night blindness in cattle—just as it will in humans.

The results of experiments conducted by the Spur substation of the Agricultural Experiment Station of Texas A & M College prove that statement, and the results were even more convincing this year.

Paul T. Marion of the Spur substation, says that a group of 14 yearling steers, made up of five Herefords, five Jerseys, and four crossbreds, ranging in weight from 700 to 1000 pounds, were fed a ration of cottonseed meal and hulls (a ration that is deficient in vitamin A) for 84 days. They developed advanced symptoms of vitamin A deficiency within that time. They were night blind, have poor appetites and their average daily gain of 2.25 pounds per animal for the first 50 days dropped to 1.10 pounds for the last 28 days.

When green grass, wheat pasture, alfalfa or other green feeds are available, yearling steers are able to store carotene—a form of vitamin A—to supply their body requirements for as long as 100 to 180 days. This particular group developed the symptoms in less time because they had no green grass from the middle of July through October, due to the late summer and fall drouth.

Fifteen similar steers grazed side by side with the first group all summer, Marion says. In the feed lot, these 15 were fed a ration of alfalfa hay and ensilage, both of which contain carotene. None of these steers have developed vitamin A deficiency symptoms.

Marion warns that the recent drought may have left many cattle throughout the midwest without a reserve of vitamin A. This is particularly true of cows and calves wintering on dry grass.

"It's easy to check your cattle for night blindness," he says. "Drive them around in the pen after dark. The blind ones are usually slow to move and will run into feed troughs or other obstacles. If they are night blind, two to four pounds per day per animal of good quality green alfalfa hay will correct the condition within a short time."

What's This---a Capitalistic Frill?

Those high heels seem to smack of capitalistic frills—but no, couldn't be! This is the main conveyor in the new women's shoe department in a Moscow factory. Apparently the product is for city women. They get little use out of such a style down on the farm in Russia.

G. B. Owens On Honor Roll at Hardin-Simmons

New-Type Kitchen Designed By USDA For Demonstration

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 25.—A kitchen with maximum amount of comfort and conveniences has been designed and built by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to demonstrate to farm women an arrangement where two women may work with the maximum amount of walking, stooping, lifting and stretching. Although planned primarily for farm women, it fits other homes in most respects. The room was on exhibit in Washington, D. C. the first part of January.

Mrs. Bernice Claytor, extension home management specialist of Texas A & M College, says that there are several outstanding features in the kitchen which Texas women might use in planning or remodiling kitchens. The unbroken U-arrangement of equipment around three adjoining walls forms a compact work center and provides a convenient dining center outside the work area.

The three key pieces of equipment—sink, refigerator and range are placed within easy reach of each other, yet there is enough space for two to work comfortably. The work moves from right to left and there is plenty of counter space for each job. Ample storage space is planned and all suppliess and equipment are within comfortable reach of the place where they will be used.

Special features of the kitchen, are double deck flour bins. A small bin is just above the mixing center and above that is a big reserve flour bin which quickly feeds flour into the small bin when a metal shutter is opened. The pull-out boards automatically lock in place when pulled out. They push back under counters when a simple gravity-stop underneath is released. The corner cupboards are circular, "lazy Susan" shelves which turn on center poles and are built in two corners of the kitchen, above and below counter space. Mrs. Claytor points out that shelves of this type require skilled workmanship and excellent materials.

Plans are being made, Mrs. Claytor says, to make working drawings of this experimental kitchen available to the public.

Truman Signs Bill to Hike Veterans Pay

President Truman has signed Legislation increasing benefits of 2,000,000 veterans attending school under the GI bill.

It raises the monthly subsistence allowance for veterans without dependants from $85 to $75, those with dependents from $90 to $105, and those with two or more dependents from $90 to $120.

The new schedules go into effect April 1.

The Veterans Administration has estimated the increases will cost the government approximately $217,000,000 a year.

The measure was backed strongly by Veterans organizations.

It was passed by the Senate last summer and by the house Feb. 3.

The House Veterans Committee's working part time while they go to school will be eligible for the new allowances. However, such a veteran's combined allowance and salary will be held under ceilings.

The present earnings of $175 a month on combined earnings and allowances for veterans without dependents, and $20 for those with dependents are not changed by the new law.

For example, a veteran with dependents who is earning $200 a month or more while he goes to school will collect no subsistence allowance. If his salary comes up to only $150, he will get a $50 allowance.

The limit is the same as that in effect for veterans taking the in-the job training, also under the GI bill.

A bill to raise the trainee's ceiling has passed Congress. It is waiting action of a conference committee to settle differences in figures in the House and Senate versions.

If the ceiling eventually is raised, it will not affect veterans in school who work part time. The measure applies only to those working full time.

Baptist Sunday School Class Has Meeting Thursday

The 13-year girls of the First Baptist Church held a class meeting Thursday afternoon.

President of the class, Joann Thompson, called the meeting to order.

After some debate, class members decided to order lapel pins and to make a poster with every member's name on it. Gold stars for attendance will be awarded.

Games were played and refreshments served after the meeting to Joann Thompson, Johnnie Burkett, Alma Lou Scroggins, Florence Bradley, Jeanette Kopp, Abbie Longbottom, and Mrs. T. B. Cox, the teacher.

Visitors were Elaine Cox, Marjene and Clydene Allred.

March 1 Deadline For New Grower Spud Allotments

March 1 is the deadline for new potato growers to apply for acreage goals, F. G. Collier, ACA secretary, announced this week.

All prospective new growers who want goals set under the price support provisions of the farm program this year must place their applications in the County ACA office before that date.

Truck Farming Is Bringing New Income on Plains

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 25— In sections of the High Plains where deep irrigation wells have been dug to bring in the neccssary water for truck crops, farmers are finding a new source of income, says J. F. Rosborough, extension horticulturist of Texas A & M College. This area of Texas has been very successful with its production of truck crops.

Lubbock county came out with a brand new truck crop last year; 1947 was the first year that lettuce had been tried. Several farmers in the Monroe community grew a potato crop using intensive fertilizer and irrigation methods: The potatoes were followed by lettuce, grossing $600 per acre. The truck crops in Lubbock County included 1000 acres of potatoes with a yield of 130 sacks per acre; 230 acres of lettuce with a yield of 230 crates per acre; 360 acres of sugar beets, 14 tons per acre; 150 acres of sweet potatoes at 400 bushel per acre; and 400 acres of blackeyed peas.

Vegetable farming in 1947 paid high gross returns per acre in Bailey county. Two hundred and fifty acres of green beans were planted, producing a little over 30,000 cases —30 train carloads— for the crop. One venture in tomato growing has caused mucch enthusiasm throughout the county. Seventy acres of tomatoes were planted with an ordinary grain sorghum planter, and germination results were high. Five tons of "green pack" tomatoes per acre were shipped out to a ready market, and about 10 tons of tomatoes per acre could have been produced if they had ripened for canning.

Hale county reports that vegetable production in that area is new, but such crops as carrots, onions, lettuce, beets, tomatoes, sweet potatoes and Irish potatoes have been grown in sufficient quantities to show that exceptionally good yields may be produced.

Chamber of Commerce Committees for 1948 Program Are Named by Directors Tuesday

Directors of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, meeting Tuesday night, completed committee organizations for the 1948 program.

A monthly Chamber of Commerce luncheon, to be held at the City Hall, was agreed upon by the directors for the purpose of establishing an open forum for Chamber of Commerce members.

Purpose of the luncheon is to provide members and any other interested citizens an opportunity to meet with the directors and present plans and criticism of the work of the organization. The first of the luncheons will be held next month. The date has not been set.

Eighteen committees were appointed to carry out the 1948 program. They are:

Retail Merchants Committee: Sam McLallen, chairman; Jesse Stanford, T. W. Alderson, J. W. Thomas, and Dale Tinnin.

Trade Extension & Good Will: H. A. Close, chairman; W. J. Reeves, Urlin Streu, Ernest Kendall, and J. R. Johnson.

Christmas Decorations and Hallowe'en Carnival: Junior Chamber of Commerce and Service clubs.

50th Anniversary Celebration: B &PW Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Harrison Highway: J. W. Witherspoon, chairman; J. A. Pitman, Alton Fraser, and J. H. Sears.

Highway 51: J. E. Hill, chairman; and Robert Veigel.

Highway 60: Earl Phillips, chairman; Deward Roberson and B. F. Cain.

Sanitation and Public Health: Dr. Norman Harris, chairman; Mrs. Elmer Patterson and Frances Young.

Fire Prevention and Public Safety: Dudley Green, chairman; Onias Carroll and Bruce Wooddell.

Underpass: Charles A. Johnston, chairman; Leo Forrest and Sylvester Slagle.

Water Hearing Set By Farm Bureau at Plainview on 8th

The Texas Farm Bureau Federation will sponsor a water hearing to be held at Plainview on March 8, it was announced today by J. Walter Hammond of Tye, state Farm Bureau president. The hearing is scheduled for the purpose of studying the underground and surface water situation in Texas and to discuss the desirability of underground water control legislation, Hammond said. The meeting will begin at 10:00 a. m. in the City Auditorium.

W. R. Tilson of Meadow, state Farm Bureau director of the Plains area, will be host for the hearing. Farm Bureau Directors Joe M. Hatton of Amarillo and C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma will be co-chairmen, with Hatton presiding during the morning session and DeVaney at the afternoon session.

The meeting will be expected to draw a large attendance of farmers from all sections of the state. State legislators and representatives from other interested groups will participate, and water engineers and geologists have been invited to furnish information on the surface and underground water situation in the state.

In explaining the purpose of the hearing, Hammond said, "In the last session of the legislature, there was an effort made to pass legislation to regulate the use of underground water. The measure failed of passage because there was insufficient information to determine what legislation, if any, should be enacted. Therefore, the board of directors of the Texas Farm Bureau believe it is advisable to sponsor a hearing to seek in formation as to the available source of supply of surface and underground water, with an eye to making the best possible use of the water supply to meet the approval of the present and potential water users."

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Deaf Smith County at the Court House thereof, in Hereford, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 12th day of April, A. D. 1948, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 25th day of February, A. D. 1948, in this cause, numbered 3046 on the docket of said court and styled E. L. TURNER plaintiff vs MARY LOUISA CLEMENT ET AL defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit:

Suit in Trespass to try Title to the following described land situated in Deaf Smith County, Texas, to-wit:

Block No. 96 of Whitehead Addition to the town of Hereford, as shown by the plat of said Addition of records in the Deed Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas.

Plaintiff alleges in his petition that he was in possession of said land on March 19, 1947, under a Sheriff's deed executed by the Sheriff of Deaf Smith County, Texas, on February 6, 1945, which conveyed said property to C. E. Rea; that plaintiff and his privies in title acquired title to said property by reason of a suit for foreclosure of a tax lien upon said property and the sale thereunder to satisfy the tax judgement rendered in said suit, and that the period of redemption provided for by law has expired without the defendants exercising the right of redemption, and that the defendants are asserting some claim of right to said property which is inferior to the claim of plaintiff and that such claims by defendants cast a cloud upon his title and plaintiff prays that such cloud be removed and that Writ of Restitution issue.

as is more fully shown by plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and seal of said court, at office in Hereford, Texas, this the 25th day of February, A. D. 1948.

Attest:
R. L. Thompson
Clerk, District Court, Deaf Smith County, Texas.

WASH DAY-1948

Washday blues are a thing of the past when you install one of the new electric home laundry units,

There's nothing to it. Just put your clothes and soap in the machine, turn the switches and relax. Before you know it you'll be looking at the cleanest, brightest wash you ever saw...ready for the line.

To make sure that you can enjoy the convenience and pleasure of an electric home laundry, make sure your home is adequately wired.

Adequate Wiring MEANS:

1. ENOUGH CIRCUITS for serving efficiently and safely all the appliances you have,
2. LARGE ENOUGH WIRE for serving your present and future needs.
3. ENOUGH OUTLETS AND SWITCHES for convenient living.

We have nothing to sell but good electric service.

Summerfield Study Club Meets With Mrs. Roberson

SUMMERFIELD, Feb. 24—The Summerfield Study club met Thursday in the home of Mrs. B. E. Roberson, with the president, Mrs. J. B. Noland, in charge of the business meeting.

The club reported a gift of $27 to the polio fund.

Mrs. J. B. Noland was named as a delegate to the Federation convention. Mrs. Lee Curry was elected alternate.

Mrs. Kenneth Neill reported that a play book for a projected performance had been ordered.

Mrs. Charlie Noland was in charge of the program, which was on "Poetry of the Southwest." Mrs. Noland read selections from the Victory Edition of the Southwestern Anthology of Verse and Poets of the Southwest, edited by Pearle M. Stevens. She also read from "The Silver Fawn" by David Russell, and "Joseph's Coat" by Whitney Montgomery.

Mrs. J. E. Larrick gave sketched from "Oklahoma," and also played some recordings by the cast of the famous Broadway musical.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Britt Clark, Mrs. Jim Clark, Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. Lee Curry, Mrs. J. E. Larrick, Mrs. Kenneth Neill, Mrs. Ivan Black, Mrs. Charles Noland, Mrs. Mack Noland, Mrs. J. B. Noland, Mrs. O. B. Sumner, Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill, Mrs. Guy Walser, and one visitor, Mrs. Hardy, and the hostess, Mrs. Roberson.

Federation Board To Meet Here Saturday

The Deaf Smith County Federation of Woman's Clubs board meeting will be held at 3 o'clock Saturday, February 28 at the county court house.

Plans will be made for the March 12 meeting of the county Federation when the Seventh District president, Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard of Memphis, will address the clubs. All club delegates are urged to be in attendance.

S. O. Wilson has just returned from Hot Springs, New Mexico where he has been for the last four months.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Swim of Wichita Falls visited in the homes of her sisters, Mrs. E. Ramey and W. A. Gentry and a niece, Mrs. H. H. Caraway this week. Returning by way of Amarillo where they visited a nephew, James Stone and family.

Taylor and Elliston Report on Lecture Tour in Eastern States

Returning from a three week lecture tour Dr. Edward Taylor and Beryl Elliston made a report at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce office Monday.

Results were accomplished beyond their greatest expectations, they said. Many letters are being received by them and by Pete Cowart secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, resulting from the tour.

Dr. Taylor who heads the dental division of the Texas Department of health lectured in Dallas, Chicago, other eastern cities and Canada. Deaf Smith county had a leading place in his lectures as a "Town Without a Toothache."

At his request, Beryl Elliston accompanied him showing color films of Deaf Smith County.

In a detailed resume of their tour, Dr. Taylor and Elliston cited Canada, her people and their response as the highlights of the trip.

"Our aim," said Dr. Taylor, "was to introduce ideas that would promote plans by the Canadians for research to improve their dental conditions rather than to sell them Texas and Deaf Smith County land. "They have a wonderfull country of their own," he added.

Elliston claims, as does Dr. Taylor, that the Canadians are very much like the Texas people. They got along so well that a gigantic plan was hatched up in which the huge pipe line that carries gas from Texas to the Eastern States is to be extended to Canada to carry them fuel for winter heat and then in summer it is to bring us Niagra Falls water for irrigation.

In a serious vein Elliston urged people of Deaf Smith County to be ready now to benefit and profit from our foods as health products which are being sold at high prices in the east and on the west coast.

He warned that a recession has already begun in the east and said that now is the time to get ready for one by making the most of what we have.

Dr. Taylor again brought out that the people of Hereford are not indifferent to what they have but are merely self satisfied. But, he said, there are many who would do something about it if they had what we have to offer.

Dr. G. W. Heard, who was present made only one comment during the meeting in which he stressed the need for the community to keep and use its produce for their own sake as well as to have it to offer people coming here to seek health and to benefit from the foods we raise. At present practically all of our foods are being shipped out, he said.

Ford H. D. Club Meets Wednesday

Ford Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. F. D. Ferguson, with Mrs. A. S. Allmon and Mrs. H. M. Benson acting as hostesses.

Roll call was answered by members giving uses of the sewing machine attachments. Mrs. Chris Wegner conducted an interesting recreation period. Mrs. Tom Draper won a lovely waterpitcher for making the highest score on a questionaire.

During the business meeting plans were completed for the Chamber of Commerce Banquet which will be served by the Home Demonstration Council members Friday February 27.

Mrs. L. J. Strafuss was welcomed as a new member into the Club.

The demonstration planned was omitted and Mrs. Draper, CHDA agent, directed an interesting discussion on year books and gave an outline for program arrangements for second monthly meetings.

Mrs. Luther Lesly, program chairman made assignments for the next meeting to be held March 3 in the home of Mrs. Epting at 2:30 P. M.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames L. J. Strafuss, Lawrence Jentzen, Chris Wegner, Luther Lesly, Cecil Cayton, George Epting, Mrs. Draper and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Robinson returned home from Galveston Galveston where they attended the graduation exercises of their daughter, Betty Jane from John Seale, as a nurse. Mrs. Robinson's mother, Mrs. W. G. Nation is visiting them this week.

Flower Show Committees Are Named

Spring flower show plans were launched in the Hereford Garden Club at its meeting held Friday February 20 in the home of Mrs. G. G. Heard. Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., was assistant hostess. The show will be conducted on April 23, a date set by the committee to feature blooming bulbs planted by Garden Club members last fall.

Committee members are; Mrs. C. D. Carnahan, chairman, Mrs. A. L. Manjeot and Mrs. Homer Brumley general flower show; Mesdames Earl Springer, C. D. Kelton and M. T. Rutter, staging; Mesdames O. G. Hill, John Jacobsen Jr., and N. E. Gass, horticultural division, Mesdames N. E. Gass, G. G. Heard, and Lyle Blanton, arrangement, entries committee; Serving on the classification committee, which is also divided into two divisions, will be Mesdames J. P. Slaton and A. G. Thompson, horticulture and Mesdames E. E. Fridly and Charles Dones, properties. Other committee members include Mrs. Homer Brumley, publicity; Mesdames F. M. Kenter, Tom Draper and John Robinson, judging; Mesdames C. H. Dyer and Fred Axe, clerks; Mesdames W. S. Fluitt and E. Ramey, awards; Mesdames Dennis Barnard, C. C. Ferguson, Roy Crutchfield and Walk Boston, hospitality; Mesdames Jim Black and Deward Roberson, finance; and the general committee, clean-up.

During the business session Mrs. Homer Brumley was named to serve with the past-president and the president on the Garden Club council. Mrs. W. S. Fluitt was named delegate and Mrs. Jim Black alternate to the Texas State Garden Club convention to be held in Harlingen March 4-5-6.

Mrs. Deward Roberson, gladioli chairman, reported that twenty five hundred gladioli bulbs have been ordered and that the bulbs will be distributed for March 12 planting.

Mrs. W. S. Fluitt was program chairman for the afternoon. Mrs. John Jacobsen gave a talk on proportion and balance in flower arrangement and Mrs. Will S. Kerr spoke on color, basing her suggestions on the book, "Flowers-East and West" by Gregory Conway. She suggested the reading of "Flower arrangement" by Tatsuo Ishimoto, a Japenese American.

Mrs. Homer Brumley told how to select and care for specimens for the flower show, recommending that as soon as schedules are available, those desiring to make entries study the schedule well in advance of the show so that they will know how to classify their own entries before they are placed in the show.

Mrs. J. P. Slaton urged the members to begin assembling materials for dish gardens now in order to ready for the February 28 planting date.

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames; Walk Boston, Jim Black, Lyle Blanton, Homer Brumley, C. D. Carnahan, Roy Crutchfield, Charles Dones, C. C. Ferguson, E. E. Fridley, W. S. Fluitt, N. E. Gass, E. W. Harrison, O. G. Hill, Will S. Kerr, A. L. Manjeot, E. Ramey, John Robinson, M. T. Rutter, J. P. Slaton, A. O. Thompson, Tom Draper, and the hostesses.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Womble last week were his daughters, Mrs. Dewey Hasley from Tulsa, Okla., Mrs. L. E. Henrichsen and husband from Hagerman, N. M., and a granddaughter, Mrs. Hill and her husband of Roswell, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gilbreath Jr., arrived home from Galveston by plane Thursday where they had been visiting his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gilbreath.

Dottie Hendrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hendrick, was home for the week end from Abilene Christian College and was accompanied by two of her class mates

Hereford Cagers in Semi-Finals of Plains AAU Tournament; Play Freshmen Saturday

The Hereford Independents advanced to the semi-finals of the Plains AAU Basketball Tournament at Amarillo last night with a 46-40 victory over Amarillo's YMCA All-Stars.

Manager Earl Stagner, Doug Groom, and Stan Barrett paced the Hereford entry, Barrett and Stagner each racking up 13 points, with Groom a close third with 11. Neill with 7 points and Stewart with four completed the scoring for the local quint.

The game was a fairly close contest, with the two teams even on field goals with 16 apiece. The winning margin was in the free-throw department, with the Independents netting 14 to 8 for the losers.

McFarther of the YMCA quint led the scoring with 17 points.

The game was played Wednesday night in the new Sports Arena at the Tri-State Fair Grounds.

Also advancing to the semi-final round last night were the West Texas State Freshmen, who defeated the Phillips Gassers in the quarter final match.

Already in the semifinal round by virtue of Tuesday night victories were the Frank Phillip's Men's Club from Phillips, victors over Joiner Motors (West Texas High); and Graham-Hoeme Plow Company of Amarillo, who defeated the Thalia All-Stars.

Phillips and Graham Hoeme will be paired in the semifinal round Saturday night, with the Hereford Independents meeting the West Texas Frosh. Both games will be played at the Sports Arena Saturday night.

Finals in the Tournament will be played Friday night, March 5, at the Fair Grounds. The losers in the semifinal bracket will also meet at that time to battle for third place in the tournament.

Grand Jury Will Convene Friday Morning Here

Deaf Smith County Grand Jury has been summoned to convene again tomorrow morning (Friday) at ten o'clock, Sheriff J. C. Reese reported today.

Four cases in which charges have been filed are to be presented to the Grand Jury for action, Reese said.

One, charging theft, involves Dave Williams and W. R. McDermitt, the two youths who allegedly took a joy-ride on a new self-propelled combine last Sunday night. (See story on Page 5).

Two forgery cases are to be presented. One, Alfred Marshall, is now being held in Deaf Smith County jail. The other, Porter L. Gilreath Jr., who gave his address as Los Angeles, was returned to this county this week following his arrest near Woodward, Oklahoma, on Tuesday.

Gilreath, 19, is accused of passing forged bank drafts on the local Santa Fe Railway freight office. The blank drafts were reported stolen from the Hereford depot. One, for $137, cashed at the First State Bank here, Sheriff Reese said. An unsuccessful attempt was made to pass another at Levine's in Amarillo; a third was cashed at Pampa Monday afternoon, and a fourth at Woodward, Oklahoma, Tuesday. Gilreath was arrested near Woodward.

The fourth case charges John H. Tow of Colorado City with child desertion. Tow is under bond to appear before the Grand Jury Friday, Reese said.

SUNDAY LESSON

Courage, Christian Faith Is Our Hope Of World Salvation

The International Sunday School Lesson for Feb. 29

Scripture: Romans 13:8-15; Ephesians 3:8-12

WHEN one considers the greatness of the world and the smallness of the little land of Palestine, it is surely the miracle of history that out of that same little land should have come a religion destined outwardly to conquer Rome, and inwardly and spiritually to be the inspiration of saints and heroes.

Before the coming of Jesus Judaism had already taken root in many parts of the Grecian and Roman world.

Jesus, though He declared He had come to fulfill the law and the prophets, was despised and rejected by leaders of His own race.

He gathered a few disciples around Him, who at first very inadequately grasped the meaning of His real spirit and mission, and 70 others, whom He sent two-by-two on preaching missions through the villages. What hope was there that a movement thus unostentatiously begun should attain world conquest?

Yet Jesus spoke in terms of the world and of world salvation. It was a vision and faith so stupendous that one can think of it only as Jesus himself did. He knew that He had come from God for this very purpose. When He read in the prophets of the Messiah who was to bring peace and blessing, He said "this day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears."

How Christianity grew and spread we know. The religion of the persecuted and despised became the religion of the Roman Empire, outwardly at least, and it has been the religion officially of many countries. More important has been its triumph over the hearts of men. But Christ's mission of salvation is only partly accomplished. Yet every day it becomes clearer that the only hope of the world's future is in the Prince of Peace.

And that hope depends upon whether the Christians of today can have the faith, the vision, the courage, and the will, to do what the early disciples did—accept our world mission as they accepted theirs.

Ford, member of the Board of Directors.

Special music by Mrs. J. C. McCracken and Mrs. Norman Harris will feature the program.

Mayor W. E. Dameron will introduce the principal speaker, Dr. W. H. Alexander.

The benediction will be pronounced by Rev. Russell Wingert, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Alexander will be flown to Hereford Friday afternoon from Oklahoma City by Lyle Blanton. Widely heralded as a magnetic personality and an accomplished speaker, his address is expected to draw a capacity crowd for the annual dinner.

Dr. Alexander spoke last year at the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce banquet, where he was heard by a number of local citizens, and is known to many more through his radio broadcasts from Oklahoma City stations.

Due to the limited seating capacity of the dinig hall, only 275 tickets have been placed on sale. These were offered first to members of the Chamber of Commerce, and the remaining tickets were placed on sale Wednesday morning for the general public.

raised this year, however, Mrs. Dyalthia Bradly, County Red Cross supervisor, said this week that the chapter has no hope of being the first in the state to go over the top. Deaf Smith county was No. 3 last year.

More than 85 per cent of the funds raised this year will stay in the treasury of the Deaf Smith county chapter, with the remainder going to the National Red Cross.

The percentage remaining with the county this year is unusually high, due to the heavy expenditures from the Disaster and Home Service funds here last year.

The county's quota of $6,640 is Deaf Smith County's share of a $97,000,000 National Budget to be raised this year by the American Red Cross.

Thousands of Visitors Throng City Saturday for Biggest Club Show

Sale Brings Top Prices For 4-H Club Livestock Entries

Grand Champion Calf Brings Record $1.50 Per Pound Bid

Sale of livestock at the auction, climaxing the second annual Deaf Smith County 4-H Club Show here Saturday, grossed over $27,000.

Calves, pigs, and fat lambs entered in the show by 4-H Clubbers of four counties Saturday sold at an average price of 54 cents per pound, with a big percentage of the proceeds going to Boys Ranch. Spirited bidding held up through the entire sale.

Dwaine Walker's Grand Champion calf, an 890-pound Whiteface, brought the top price at the sale, going for $1.50 a pound to Pitman, Guseman and Singer for a gross price of $1335. Young Walker, Hereford 4-H Clubber, gave 10 per cent of the sale price to Boys Ranch.

Jimmy Joe Hill, a Vega club boy, sold his Junior Champion calf, an 820-pound Whiteface, to Porter and Cook of Vega for $1.00 per pound, and also gave ten per cent of his sale to Boys Ranch.

Carol Miller of Dawn, owner of the show's Reserve Champion calf, a 1,000 pound Whiteface, sold his entry to Blanton Butane for 75 cents a pound, offering 25 per cent to Boys Ranch.

The Grand Champion Fat Lamb, a 100-pounder owned by Joe Percy Hart, Castro county 4-H club boy from Hart, was knocked down to Lyle Blanton of Hereford for $1.00 per pound.

The Grand Champion Pig, owned by Anthony Acker of Nazareth, was not consigned for sale. The Reserve Champion, 212 pounds, owned by David Acker, was sold to Carl Kemp of Dimmitt for 50 cents per pound.

The gross sale of livestock totalled $27,864. Sale of 58 calves consigned to the auction totalled $25,967. Lambs brought a total of $1,034.53; and hogs brought a total of $863.85.

Among the heavy out-of-town bidders at the sale were the Interstate National Bank and the Stockyards National Bank, both of Kansas City; First State Bank of Vega; First State Bank of Dimmitt; Friona State Bank; and Security State Bank of Farwell.

Several animals were resold several times during the sale for the benefit of Boys Ranch, the Red Cross, Hereford school cafeteria, and Oldham-Deaf Smith county Polio funds.

Sale lists, in the order of sale by divisions, follow. Name of consigner, club, weight of animal, price per pound and buyer are listed in that order:

HEAVY CALVES

Grand Champion, Dwaine Walker, Hereford, 890 pounds at $1.50 to Pitman, Guseman and Singer.

Reserve Champion, Carol Miller, Dawn, 1000 pounds at 75 cents to Blanton Butane.

Leo Hennington, Hereford, 1020 pounds at 75 cents to Johnston Pump Co.

William Hunter, Dimmitt, 995 pounds, at 50 cents to Clovis Cattle Commission Co.

Highlights And Sidelights

Mike Wilson, mounted on "Whitey" and Wanda Jean Holt on "Molly" won the judges' eye in the "Kid Pony Section" of the big parade last Saturday. The two youngsters were promised appropriate prizes by the Rotary Club.

Grand Champions are worth big money in Hereford 4-H Shows. Dwaine Walker, whose prize Whiteface Calf walked off with top honors Saturday, is probably the best-heeled 4-H Club boy in the country today. In addition to his $1335 from the record-breaking $1.50 per pound sale price of his top calf, he has a brand new wrist watch, and two brand new registered Whiteface calves to groom for next year's show. One was his prize for taking the blue ribbon . . . donated by Ted Walhouser of Clovis. The other was a gift of a proud breeder, Colby Conkwright. The winning calf came from the Conkwright herd, and Colby would like to see Dwaine do it again . . . preferably with a Conkwright calf!

Dwaine's away ahead on next years profits too. Bud Bradley of the Terrell Feed Store has donated enough feed concentrates to take care of one calf for one year . . . and that's worth $150 to any young feeder.

The Clovis Mounted Patrol wasn't really "in distress" in the parade Saturday . . . even if they were flying the Stars and Stripes upside down. How many people noticed? Parade Marshall Faust Collier says he did . . . but was too late to stop the

Fourteen Boys Win Calves in Madcap Calf Scramble to Climax 4-H Show

Fourteen 4-H Club boys won free calves in a madcap Calf Scramble which wound up the 4-H Pat Stock Show here Saturday.

Five of them were "repeaters," having won calves by the same hard route at last year's scramble. They were Carrol Miller, Franklin Springer, Don Hooper, Bobby Dzuik, and Joe Hershey.

The only rodeo event on the day's program, the calf scramble provided hot competition for the club-boy exhibitors and a first rate show for the spectators.

The scramble was divided into three classes, according to the weight of the boy.

Winners in the class of boys that weighed under 110 pounds were Gene Kinsey, Franklin Springer, and Bobby Dzuik, Ross Miller and Don Veigel.

In the 110-140 pound class, the winners were Don Hooper, Joe Hershey, Ray Strickland and Pat Miller.

In the class for boys weighing over 140 pounds, winners were Wayne Massey, Carrol Miller, Anthony Acker, Edward Dzuik, and Howard Hill.

The calves were "salty" and competition was stiff. Several boys took hard spills in the arena, but the only serious injury occurred after the last calf had been haltered and tied. Edward Dzuik had won his calf, but the salty Angus still had a lot of fight, and in the resulting scramble, Edward was kicked and suffered a fractured leg.

Several boys received minor cuts and major bruises, but no others were seriously hurt.

Donors of the scramble calves were Cy Wilson, Phillip Miller, Paul Rudd, Buck Parsons, Alton Fraser, Joe Reinauer, Colby Conkwright, Jack Bradly, Dayton Chisholm, J. R. Allison, W. L. Davis, Bill Harlow, J. C. McCracken, Tom Robinson, Mrs. J. L. Woodford, L. H. Woodford, C. T. Guseman, Jack Gilliland, J. C. and C. S. Perrin, The Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce, and the Friona Lions Club.

Boys Ranch Is Big Winner At 4-H Club Auction Sale Here

Boys Ranch at Old Tascosa is nearly $2500 richer as a result of the Deaf Smith 4-H Club Show here last Saturday.

A total of $2,423.21 in cash, plus several head of cattle, has been turned over to the ranch, thanks to the generosity of local 4-H Clubbers and cattle buyers.

The boys themselves had voted, before the show, to turn over three per cent of their gross sales at the auction Saturday afternoon to Boys Ranch. Several 4-H Club boys, individually, did better than that.

Carrol Miller of Dawn, whose calf was selected as Reserve Champion of the show, turned over 25 per cent of the $750 he received for his prize Whiteface to Boys Ranch.

Carrol, who had two calves entered in the show, turned over ten per cent of the $405 he received for his second entry to the boys at Old Tascosa.

Dwaine Walker, whose Grand Champion calf brought $1335 at the sale on a record bid of $1.50 per pound, gave ten per cent of his sale money to Boys Ranch. On two other calves sold at the auction, he gave three per cent.

Others in the "ten per cent brac-

Grand Champion Calf Fed by Dwaine Walker

Thousands of visitors poured into Hereford last Saturday to witness the Second Annual Deaf Smith 4-H Club Fat Stock Show—and were well-rewarded.

Living up to all advance billing, the 1948 show, sponsored by the Hereford Rotary Club, was the biggest in local history and laid claim to being the biggest 4-H Club show in the Panhandle.

Four-H Club boys from four counties entered top calves, sheep, and pigs for prizes amounting to well over $1500 in value. Fifteen hundred guests were fed at a big free barbecue on the show grounds. A mile-long parade featured hundreds of mounted riders, two bands, and countless marchers.

But the 4-H Club boys and their livestock stole the show.

Dwaine Walker, Hereford 4-H Club Boy, walked away with top honors when his 890-pound Whiteface calf was picked, over 64 entries, as Grand Champion Of the show.

The Grand Champion brought its owner, in addition to $1335 in the auction sale, a wrist watch, (as prize for winning first place in the Senior division); a registered Whiteface calf, donated as Grand Prize by Ted Walhauser of Clovis; another prize calf given by Colby Conkwright, breeder of the Champion.

The Grand Champion Lamb was shown by Joe Percy Hart of Hart, Castro County 4-H clubber, and brought its owner a registered lamb, donated by the Consumers Fuel Association, plus a price of $100 on a bid of $1 per pound by Lyle Blanton of Hereford in the Auction sale.

The Grand Champion Pig of the show was shown by Anthony Acker of Nazareth, Castro County, and earned for its owner a registered pig donated by Otto Smith of Clovis as the Grand Prize, plus an insurance policy, with one-year premium paid, from Herman Ford as first prize in the Senior division.

The Reserve Champion Calf was a 1000-pound Whiteface shown by Carol Miller of Dawn, and was second place winner in the Senior division. Prize for the Reserve Champion was a Mantola Radio given by Lee Little; and for second place in the Senior division, a Schaeffer Pen and Pencil set from Close Drug. The calf brought 75 cents a pound at auction.

Jimmy Hill of Vega showed the first place winner in the Junior Calf Division, to take the first prize of a pair of boots from C. R. Anthony's Company; and Pat Miller of Dawn placed second in this division to win a Parker Pen and Pencil set given by Haile Drug.

Other winners in the various divisions were:

CALVES (SENIOR DIVISION)

1. Dwaine Walker, wrist watch.
2. Carrol Miller, Schaeffer pen and pencil set.
3. Bob Hennington, Hereford, Stetson hat from Fox Man's Shop.
4. William Hunter, Dimmitt, a hat from the Scottish Rite Club.
5. Bill Kelly, Hereford, Club set from F. G. Collier.
6. Floyd Acker, Nazareth, A halter from Ernest Wade.
7. Joe Hershey, Hereford, a halter from Hereford Auto Co.
8. Stanley Slagle, Hereford, a belt and buckle from City Shoe Shop.
9. Raymond Childers, Hereford, barbecue set from Simmons Tire & Supply.
10. Richard Frye, Dawn, western shirt from Popular Store.
11. Dwaine Walker, western shirt from J. C. Penney Co.
12. Gene Kensey, Vega, sack of Omalene from Packard Mill.
13. Bill Kelly, Hereford, 100 pounds of feed from Frank Terrell.
14. Carrol Miller, bottle of hair tonic from Reed Williams.

Local Breeders Give Registered Herd to Ranch

Ezra Norton, Hereford rancher and cattle breeder, topped all gifts to Boys Ranch at the 4-H Club Show Saturday.

As the livestock auction sale opened Saturday afternoon, he took the microphone and announced the gift, from the Hereford breeders, of "at least 25 head of registered Whiteface heifers, 16 head of beef cattle" and promised, in addition, a good bull to go with the heifers.

Norton said he expected to be able to add a few more head of cattle to the herd within a few days.

Estimated value of the gift is well over $10,000.

Bob Lindsay, one of the Boys Ranch directors who was present for the show her Saturday, with a delegation of boys from the Ranch at Old Tascosa, officially accepted the gift on the part of Boys Ranch.

"This is the kindest, sweetest, most human gesture that Boys Ranch has ever had extended to them," Lindsey said with tears in his voice.

The herd, be said, would go to the South Ranch (Boys Ranch Farm) near Spring Lake.

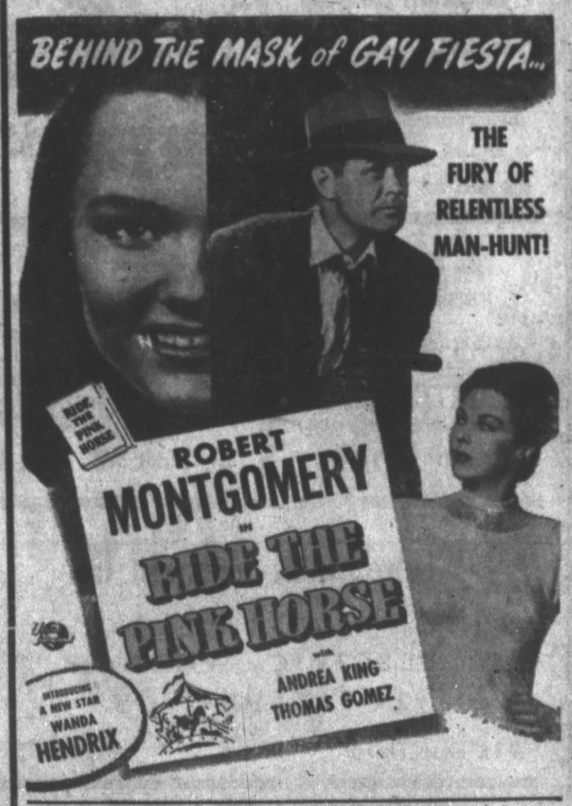

A saddle horse, donated to Boys Ranch by W. W. Lacewell of Bellview, New Mexico, was offered for sale at the auction, and was bought by the Clovis Cattle Commission Company of Clovis for $100.

Eamonn de Valera was the Irish Republic's first president.

(Fifth of a Series)

You have to keep left to be right, according to W. J. Elliott, Chief of the Texas Highway Patrol.

"But let me tell you what I mean, before you think I sound mixed up," he said. "A left turn in heavy traffic is one of the most difficult maneuvers in an automobile, and it causes traffic tie-ups and accidents when bungled."

Chief Elliott said that the Texas Highway Patrol is cooperating in a nationwide "Know and Obey Traffic Laws" program, and he cited National Safety Council statistics to show the need for such a program.

At least 3½ per cent of all fatal pedestrian and non-pedestrian accidents involve a turning vehicle, and improper turning was reported in from 4 to 5 per cent of all accidents.

Pointing out that about twice as many turning accidents involve left turns as right turns, Captain Polk Ivy of the Amarillo District listed these five rules to remember in making a left turn.

1. Keep next to the centerline or center of the roadway, so that no car will approach from behind on your left as you turn.
2. Turn around two points, one where the center of the street or road you are on meets the crosswalk or property line, and the other where the center of the street or road you are turning into leaves the crosswalk or property line.
3. Start to get in the proper lane for turning far enough back, at least a block before the turn.
4. Use hand signals before making the turn and be sure to make a full turn. Don't cut corners!
5. Always respect the right of way of other drivers who are at the intersection or approaching so close as to be a hazard.

"Night in Hawaii" Theme of Banquet

"A Night in Hawaii" was the theme of one of the most beautiful affairs of its kind ever given in Hereford when the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church honored this year's seniors in Hereford High School at the annual banquet given by the church Friday night.

The fellowship hall was transformed into a veritable "Little Hawaii" with palm groves (in effect) giving background for profusions of flowers in all the colors of the rainbow and their varying shades. Stars twinkled down in the blue-of-the-night scene in the flickering flames of dozens of candles which marked the "V" shaped table at intervals. Sprays of fern strewn with bright colored flowers centered the entire tables' length. Tiny boat shaped nut cups marked each guest's place and favors were brilliant leis, or wreaths of flowers worn about the neck, which is a native custom of the Hawaiians. The colorful program covers depicted Hawiian scenes and the menu, for the most part, featured food raised in Hawaii. Hawaiian dinner music was furnished by Jimmie Allred, and young girls in Hawaiian customs served.

Rev. R. H. Cagle, pastor, was toastmaster and introduced George Graham who gave the invocation and Mrs. George Graham who welcomed guests. Eugene Roberson spoke for the seniors in response.

In keeping with the theme of the banquet, Hawaiian students from Wayland College and Hardin Simmons University gave native entertainment. Before the Hawaiian music was presented, Billy Nunnally, Autry Barron and Florence Goldston, students at Wayland, made up a vocal trio, with Ulaliah Burk of Hawaii accompanying. Harry Kong and his sister Eileen, students at Hardin Simmons, sang several selections with Harry accompanying on the ukelele and Edward Arakawa, also of Hardin Simmons, joining them to form a trio for the final number. Tad Kikugawa introduced them.

Muriel Okamoto, a talented student at Wayland, entertained with vocal numbers with Miss Burk accompanying.

Sam Choy, student at Weyland and who was stationed in Texas at one time during the war, was the principal speaker. He used as his subject "Christian Education" urging the members of the senior class to take advantage of Christian education in order that they might be prepared to lead happy, useful lives.

Marthiziha Ramey gave the benediction.

The annual banquet honoring the high school students, which has been sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Union for the past several years, has for its purpose the directing of the seniors thoughts to further education in Christian schools.

Those in charge of the banquet were Mrs. George Graham, president of the Woman's Missionary Union; Mrs. Jimmie Allred, general chairman; Mrs. Gerald Wilson, decoration; Mrs. Delbert Kinsey, invitations; Mrs. F. A. Tucker, food; Mrs. G. P. Owen, serving; and Mrs. Carroll Whiteside, program.

Young Vocalist To Give Recital

Louise Simpson, young vocalist, will be presented in recital by Miss Mattie Mae Swisher's Studio of Music, in a preparatory concert at the Presbyterian Church Sunday February 29, at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Simpson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Simpson of the Jumbo Community and she will be assisted on the program by O. C. Renfro and Richard Hunter, piano students, also of the Jumbo Community.

The recitalist will present a varied program and will be accompanied at the piano by Mary Helen McGillvary. She is a member of the Voco Club and won a superior rating in the elementary division of the Junior Musical Festival last year. Ushers will be Myra Jo Sowell and Wynogene Sowell. The public is invited.

Dessert-Bridge Party

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Black were hosts Thursday night entertaining members and guests of the Thursday night Bridge Club. Spring flowers added a gay color note to tables with a dessert course served before the contract games which furnished entertainment for the exening.

Trophy for high score in the games fell to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fluitt, guests, and to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson, members.

Special guests playing with members were Messrs. and Mesdames; W. S. Fluitt, Paul Mathers, Frank Gyles and Frank Lucas.

Members present were Messrs. and Mesdames; Roy Jowell, Jim Lipscomb, Reed Williams, Bob Wilson and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Dean of Nara Visa, N. M., were week end visitors in Hereford in the home of their son Jack.

Masons-Order of Eastern Star Hold Annual Washington Celebration

The annual George Washington celebration was held by Masons and members of the Order of Eastern Star at the Masonic Hall on Friday night. Chief event sponsored by both organizations each year, patriotism keynoted the program with the colors of the American Flag in flowers, lighted tapers and appointments evidencing the significance of the occasion.

O. T. Higgins, worshipful master, presided and seated with him in the East were Mrs. W. C. Hromas, worthy matron of the O. E. S. and W. C. Hromas, worthy patron.

Led by Mrs. B. E. Roberson, the National Anthem opened the program with Sallie Womble accompanying at the piano. Five Rainbow Girls, Patsy Longbottom, Mary Catherine Carroll, Martha Thomas, Earlina Phillips and Sallie Womble, and Alma Faye Knox, entertained with vocal selections and Mrs. Henry Melton provided humor for the party with a reading "New News."

Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor of the First Methodist Church, was the speaker for the evening. He talked of George Washington and his life as related to Masonry throughout the years. He showed by giving dates and data, how Masonry has been closely interwoven with the history and progress of the American nation, and in conclusion he said, "we must accept the challenge by keeping the obligations extended to us through the rich heritage of our forefathers."

Copies of New Texas Highway Map Ready for Distribution

AUSTIN, Feb. 23—The Spring Edition of the Texas Highway Department's official travel maps is being released for public distribution, State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer has announced.

The new four color map incorporates all changes in the state road system through December occasioned by the Department's vast post-war road building program.

There is a generous display of color pictures representing a cross section of the State's industrial and recreational assets.

A message from Governor Beauford H. Jester is printed on the cover. Addressing "motorists everywhere," the Governor invites all to "see and travel in Texas, revel in its sunshine, its modern cities, and scenic beauty."

Except for revisions in the road system and the new pictures, the edition is similar to others issued since the war which have been acclaimed among the best of the state road maps published throughtout the nation.

Standard highway warning and directional signs are reproduced on the map to familarize drivers with road markers.

Size of the Lone Star State is again graphically told by a table of comparitve distances. The 868 miles from El Paso to Orange is greater than the 815 miles from El Paso to Los Angeles. It is farther than the 760 miles from Larado to Mexico City.

Included also is a small scale map of the United States showing all state capitols and major federal highways.

The Texas map is published under the direction of R. M. Stene, who performed all the cartography, made the color photographs, and attended to the technical details of production. At 76, Mr. Stene's boundless energy and versatile talent uphold his contention that "life begins at 70."

A registered professional engineer, he came with the Highway Department in 1927. He had previously built dams in Arizona and worked for railroads in Texas.

Copies of the new spring edition are available to the traveling public at the Highway Department's main office in Austin, its twenty-five district offices througout the state, and at its nine information bureaus operated at ports of entry into Texas.

MARKETS

(USDA)—Cotton, grains and livestock partly recovered recent losses last week, U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Cotton trading increased sharply at southwest markets, and prices advanced around $3.50 per bale. Dallas closed Friday at 32 cents a pound.

Grains made a comeback from sharp declines of recent weeks. More active demand brought out materially increased marketings as the situation became more stable. Sorghums gained around 16 cents a hundred for the week, as corn advanced 19 to 23 cents a bushel, barley 16 cents oats 5½ cents and wheat 8½ cents.

Rice markets maintained a firm tone but trading moved very slowly. Improved demand absorbed increased offerings of hay at unchanged to lower prices. Although most feedstuffs showed net declines for the week, some strength developed toward the close. Peanuts sold at support prices, and shelled goods found little demand.

Hogs recovered mostly 50 cents to $1 or more of recent losses during the week's trade, though off weights and sows suffered further losses at Wichita and Denver. San Antonio paid a top of $23 for the week as Fort Worth gave $23.50, Oklahoma City $24, Wichita $23.50, and Denver $23.75. Sows ranged from $16.50 to $17.50.

Texas sheep markets held steady to strong for the week, though goats sold weak to $1 lower at San Antonio. Other southwest sheep prices closed $1 to $2 lower on lambs and as much as $1 down on ewes. Medium to choice fat lambs ranged from $18.50 to $22. Top ewes brought $11 to $13 and most goats $8.50 down.

Most cattle classes sold strong to $1 higher for the week, though bulls tended lower at some markets and cows lost at Houston. Common to medium cows brought $15 to $18 at Houston and Wichita, while medium and good grades moved at $17.50 to $19 at San Antonio and $17 to $20 at Oklahoma City. Fort Worth bought beef cows from $15.50 to $18, as Denver took common to good kinds from $16 to $18.40. A spread of $11 to $15 took most cutters and canners, although Denver paid up to $15.50.

Eggs sold lower at Fort Worth and poultry weakened slightly at Fort Worth and Denver, as most other southwest markets remained steady to firm. Dallas bought eggs around 40 cents a doen, Fort Worth 40 to 42, and Denver 39 to 40. Fryers ranged from 33 to 35½ cents a pound at Dallas, Fort Worth and New Orleans.

Heavy shipments and lower prices proved the rule at South Texas fruit and vegetable shipping points the past week. Cabbage movement had passed the peak as many growers refused to sell at prevailing prices of $6 to $8 per ton delivered. Colorado potatoes moved very slowly in dull trade. Louisiana sweet potatoes held steady in slow demand. Denver paid more for carrots and lettuce but less for new potatoes, cabbage, radishes and tomatoes. Citrus fruits moved well at New Orleans.

DON'TMAKECHAINCALLS

on Party Lines

Did you have trouble reading that headline? There's a reason. There are no spaces between the words "Don't Make Chain Calls."

"Chain" calls cause trouble on party lines. Other folks on the line can't make calls, and no one can call in while the "chain caller" goes down his list. If you have a party line and have a number of calls to make, the friendly, neighborly thing to do is allow...a...little...time between calls. That gives others on the line a chance to call or be called.

Great News

for every motorist who breathes!

Come in—see the real thing in automatic all-season heating and ventilation!

HERE'S an amazing new system that combines fresh air . . . automatic warmth . . . and sheer magic!

In winter—it keeps car air automatically at the desired temperature . . . with a gentle blanket of warmth instead of the old-style blast of heat. It circulates warmth fore and aft, side to side. Does away with window-fogging problems. Gives you a complete change of air once a minute!

On rainy days—it picks dry, fresh air right out of the mist . . . keeps interiors crisp and windows clear.

During heat waves—it circulates a quiet flow of fresh air throughout the car . . . even when windows are closed and the car is standing still!

See it and you'll agree—it's the successor to all the car heating and ventilating systems you've ever known!

So drop in soon at your nearest Packard showroom. See how the new Packard Eights let you "tune in" the best of every season!

Does Fertilizer Pay?

How often have we heard that question. And the answers have varied in all possible degrees between a minus negative and a positive affirmative. However as experience and definite knowledge is gained thru fertilizer experiments, the question becomes infinitely easier to answer. The following table is a condensed report of the results obtained on grain sorghum which was performed on Colby Conkwright's farm last year. This experiment was supervised by Hugh Clearman and together they accurately calculated the checks and give us the benefit of their findings.

CHECK NON-FERTILIZED PLOT
Grain per Acre .... 2320 lbs. Forage per Acre .. 7705.5 lbs.
AMMONIUM NITRATE — 100 lbs. Per Acre
Grain per Acre .. 3651.9 lbs. Forage per Acre .. 10,741 lbs.
AMMONIUM PHOSPHATE 16-20-0 100 lbs. Per Acre
Grain per Acre ... 3605.2 lbs. Forage per Acre 10,974.2 lbs.

In the above table it is readily seen that there was a net gain of 1300 lbs. plus of grain per acre in both fertilized plots over the non-fertilized plot. Also significant is the 3000 lb. gain per acre of forage.

DOES FERTILIZER PAY?

HOW MUCH WOULD IT HAVE PAID YOU ON YOUR OWN ACREAGE?

Regardless of just what the specific answer might be, we growers certainly should feel indebted to these men who, in the absence of an experimental station, spent what time and effort that was necessary to carry on this work and give you and me the benefit of it.

In behalf of all growers, I'm glad to express appreciation for your efforts, Colby and Hugh, and hope you keep up the good work.

HOWARD GAULT

P. S.: Let me urge you to estimate your fertilizer needs now and book accordingly. I still think that a rich man is the only man who can afford to farm without it.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Powell returned home after an extended visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Powell.

Boys Ranch

ket" were Franklin Springer of Hereford, whose entry brought $450 at auction; Jimmy Kluck, of Hart, on a $434 calf; Bill Kelly of Hereford, whose Whiteface brought $462.50; William Hunter of Dimmitt, who turned over ten per cent of the sale money from two calves, bringing a total of $992; and Jimmy Hill of Vega, owner of the Junior Champion which brought $1 per pound for a total of $820.

Several boys gave five per cent of their earnings to the Ranch, and all turned over at least three per cent of their gross sales.

In addition, a number of lambs, pigs, and calves were resold by their buyers for the benefit of Boys Ranch, some of them going on the block several times.

One lamb consigned by A. L. Williams, was resold seven times, once for the benefit of the Red Cross, and six times for Boys Ranch. Purchased at 30 cents a pound by the Clovis Cattle Commission Co., it was re-sold for the Red Cross to R. K. Bruner at 30 cents.

"Sell it again for Boys Ranch" Bruner ordered. Kelly Gray then bid in the animal for $50, ordered it back on the block. Next bidder was Leon Arnold, at $36.75, who followed suit. The lamb was then purchased by Burrell at $30, by Leo Singer at $32.50; by Deaf Smith County Meat Co., at $30, and finally by Jacobsen Brothers at $25, the proceeds from the last six sales all going to Boys Ranch.

The one lamb netted, in addition to $31.50 for its owner and $50 for the Red Cross, a total of $204.25 for Boys Ranch.

Another lamb consigned by Kenneth DeHart was bought by Sylvester Slagle at $36, and re-sold for the High School cafeteria to N. D. Bartlett at $33. Bartlett promptly returned the lamb to the block for Boys Ranch, and the next two sales, to the Ross Hotel of Amarillo and the Deaf Smith County Meat Co., netted an additional $66 for the Ranch.

The next DeHart lamb went the same route, selling first to the First State Bank of Dimmitt at $33, and going back on the block for Boys Ranch twice, the buyers being Leo Shellbarger and Paul Metcalf, each paying $27.50 to Boys Ranch.

The bidding fever spread as the hogs were offered at auction. Carl Kemp of Dimmitt bid in David Acker's Reserve Champion pig at 50 cents a pound, and promptly offered it for re-sale for Boys Ranch. Lyle Blanton was the buyer, at $58.20.

Pete Buske, who paid $95 for Roy V. Miller's pig, ordered the porker turned over to the Ranch . . . . on the hoof.

Many calves went the same route The Hereford Fire Department bid in Pat Miller's calf at 50 cents per pound, ordered it re-sold for Boys Ranch and Morrow-Thomas Hardware bid it in at the same price, netting another $362.50 for the Ranch.

A Marvin Metcalf calf was re-sold by G. W. Brumley for Boys Ranch, went to Deaf Smith County Meat Company for $175.

The First State Bank of Dimmitt paid 60 cents a pound for the Boys Ranch Farm Entry, a calf shown by Kenneth Palvidore from the Farm, for a gross sale of $426.

Last item on the docket was a box of cigars, put up by an unidentified donor, and bought by the Clovis Cattle Commission Co., for $10, the proceeds going to Boys Ranch . . . and the cigars to the auctioneers, clerks and buyers around the ring.

Why Not Investigate?

Difficulties which have shattered kingdoms and destroyed empires, daily confront the Catholic Church. Yet the Church goes on with a smoothness and efficiency, a permanence and stability which are the envy of statesmen!

Her subjects belong to every nation and race, differ in culture, language and customs, nevertheless every one of them is under the sway of the same ruler, yielding to him a ready obedience which is not maintained by force of arms, inspired by earthly gain, or prompted by national sentiment.

An Institution that can unite such a vast multitude, maintain among them UNITY OF FAITH and identity of purpose, and—in spite of human weakness, racial prejudice, and great world changes—hold them together under the same rule for more than nineteen centuries surely such an institution is worth investigating!

color guard. The Patrol looked snappy as usual, just the same.

Clovis was out in force for Saturday's show . . . but local Rotarians are wondering just what's happened to Amarillo. Amarillo buyers were noticeable chiefly by their absence at the sale Saturday afternoon, and the only Amarillo delegation present for the show . . . the Will Rogers Range Riders . . . had to be furnished transportation by the Hereford Rotary Club. The Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, which usually pays the transportation bill for the Range Riders, politely refused to sponsor the trip.

Absence of Dr. A. M. Myer, president of Amarillo College, however, was pure coincidence. "Doc" Myer had planned to attend . . . but just couldn't make it. Four other college presidents invited by the Rotary Club were here in force, however: Dr. James P. Cornette of West Texas State, Dr. Floyd Golden of Eastern New Mexico College of Portales; Dr. W. M. Whyburn of Texas Tech, and Dr. Bill Marshall of Wayland all rode in state in the parade . . . and where, oh, where did the Rotarians dig up all those shiny new convertibles?

Dr. Cornette, incidentally, was unwittingly responsible for the purchase of some high priced hog meat by host Leo Forrest at the auction sale. The W. T. Prexy, spotting some friends entering the sales ring at the Bull Barn, waved jovially just as Auctioneer Lloyd Otten was about to knock down Wesley Storey's pig at 24 cents. Otten, always on the alert for a new bidder, caught the waving hand, upped the bidding, and Forrest sportingly accepted the porker at 24½ cents . . . shelling out $52.14 for his hams.

Prexy Cornette probably still does not know what happened . . . but he will when he reads this. A little later, when the bidding on Dwaine Walker's Grand Champion calf had jumped to $1.50, Forrest turned to his guest and urgently requested, "Doctor, if you see any more friends coming in, please wait until this calf is sold to wave to them!" It's the truth, s'help us, folks.

Woody Ireland didn't know it at the time, but he was doing some spirited bidding the other afternoon against his wife, Meredith, for Bill Kelly's calf . . . from opposite sides of the ring. Cecil Guseman was gleefully prompting Meredith's bidding, and the Missus finally won . . . at 55 cents per pound . . . when Woody finally dropped out at the half dollar mark.

Mrs. Reeves Is Hostess For El-Nino Study Club

Mrs. W. J. Reeves was hostess for El 'Nino Study Club Monday night. Two discussions were heard with Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., giving the first discussion of "Do You Expect Too Much" and Mrs. Ben Childers spoke on "Learning To Love." Both speakers began with the pre-school age child and discussed his development in relation to the subject in question. Mrs. Jim Bookout conducted a parliamentary drill.

Members present were Mesdames; Elizabeth Bonesio, Jim Bookout, Ben Childers, T. J. Clay, Ben Ezzell, Will F. Graham, John Jacobsen Jr., Stanford Knox, M. W. Nobles, Joe Smith, Worth Ware, Gerald Wilson, and the hostess.

William James is the American philosopher most indentified with the doctrine of pragmatism.

Another Letter to the Editor from . . .

The Bootleg Philosopher

Dear . . .

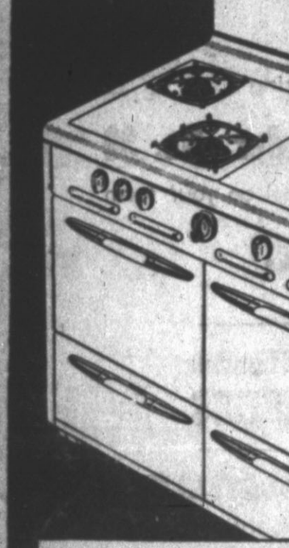

I . . . think Spring is here yet, al . . . the weather warmed up a sp . . . her day and I heard a Bl . . . and it can't be too . . . However I ain't taken in too . . . Jo' these things and figure it . . . talk good while yet before I ca . . . stretch out on the grass in my shi . . . sleeves and in comfort, but I was out Monday walkin around as a man ought to get some exercise in the winter time, but not too much, and the same applies in summer, when I found a copy of The Amarillo News which the wind had blown against a brush heap and findin a spot dry enough to sit down in I sat down and read where Washington is in a turmoil over the recent drop in prices and over speculating in general and some Congressmen is claimin government "leaks" from "inside" information sources has enabled speculators to clean up.

Now what I know about the market ain't no more than what you know about what's behind Russia's iron curtain or even where the curtain is, and it always has puzzled me how a speculator could make money out of fall in prices, but what I want to know is where is the government official who had any inside information on exactly when the turnin point in inflation was gonna happen, if it has, which I doubt? I admit I don't know too many government officials, but I know a few and have read after a good many and I been wrackin my brain and I'm blamed if I can think of one smart enough to have figured out when the spiral of high prices had reached the top and was about to start back down again. I just don't see how it would be possible for any official I know to let any such information leak out, no more'n it would be possible for me to betray the secret of the atomic bomb.

Turn the ones you know over in your mind. You know of any who even knows what caused wheat to go sky high and pecans to fall off and work pants to double in price and thousand dollar automobiles to sell for $2100 second hand, and who has any smithering of an idea of how to stop inflation, other than to just keep talkin and deplorin it and blamin it on the other party until something happens and everything starts comin back down the other way?

If you ask me, ain't no government official been lettin po inside information leak out. They're bucket's empty, same as yours and mine.

Yours Faithfully,
J. A.

Advance Showing Of Spring Styles Slated at Canyon

CANYON, Feb. 12 (Special)—In order to give the women of the Panhandle and Canyon a truly advance showing of forthcoming spring styles the All Saints Protestant Episcopal Guild is sponsoring and producing a spring fashion show in Canyon on Feb. 26. The show will be at 3 o'clock in the evening in the auditorium of West Texas State's Administration Building.

Clothes from Canyon merchants and from the leading stores of Amarillo will be featured. It promises to be an outstanding feature of the spring season and is an excellent opportunity for the ladies to see just how the new looking ensembles are going to be worn. And a chance for the men to get a glimpse of what the "little woman" will be wearing. There's no end to the revivals in fashions noted in the spring styles even to Grandmother's swishy taffeta petticoats and pantaloons.

Dixie Dice and a group of her talented dancers from Amarillo will present a special entertainment feature. The West Texas State string ensemble under the direction of Mr. Glenn Truax will furnish appropriate background music for the showing. Models will be announced, and admission for the show will be $1.00 and tickets may be purchased at the door.

Two Programs Combined For Bay View Club

Two programs were combined at the Bay View Club meeting held Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Herman Ford.

Completeing a series of programs on Russia, Mrs. Paul Mathers opened the program on Russian Literature with a discussion of the poetry of that nation. She traced the development of Russian poetry from the time of the Czarists through modern times, mentioning Boris Pasternak and Tvardovosky and reading excerpts from their works.

Mrs. A. M. Jones told of the short story in Russian Literature. She discussed works and achievements of Gorky and Pushkin, Russian writers, and reviewed the short story, "Twenty Six Men and a Girl" by Gorky.

Mrs. Roy Ford was in charge of Russian music, serving as narrator and giving a description of each recording as it was presented.

Members attending the meeting were Mesdames; Bob Wilson, J. P. Slaton, D. H. Alexander, J. R. Allison, Phillip Barkley, H. L. Benefield, Colby Conkwright, H. G. Conkwright, Roy Ford, E. W. Harrison, G. G. Heard, A. M. Jones, Paul Mathers, F. T. Roloson, and the hostess.

Big Square Resident Is Honored

An event of unusual interest was held in Big Square Sunday when Mrs. Glenn Stiles was honored at a celebration marking the completion of thirty years of service as a primary teacher in the Community Church Sunday School.

Between 250 and 300 people gathered at the church to pay tribute to the record-making teacher. Wes Anthony was master of ceremonies and opened the program by directing the singing of "Jesus Loves Me" a song Mrs. Stiles had taught every class. A corsage of yellow jonquils was presented to the honoree at the conclusion of the song.

George Graham, superintendent of Hereford Public Schools, paid a tribute to the honoree, speaking of the inspiration of a lifetime of service, such as Mrs. Stiles has given in the community.

Betty Joe Haberer and Mrs. Helen Kuntz sang "Memeories" and to call up those memories a roll call of class members was conducted by Roy Haberer. All in all 184 attended her classes during the years with 55 present ranging from tiny tots to 35 years in age. Mr. Haberer then presented the honoree with a beautiful gift from the class members in appreciation of her untiring effort in their interests.

A basket dinner was held at the noon-hour.

Mrs. Dewey Lawrence and son, Bill of Tyler left Monday after spending the week end in Hereford with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Oberthier. Bill is a law student at Southern Methodist University at Dallas.

"Roses" Discussed For Bud-To-Blossom Club

The Bud-To-Blossom Club met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Jimmie Mercer, with Mrs. Arthur Tiefel as cohostess.

Subject for discussion was "Roses" Mrs. Hartland Caraway talked on the proper planting of Roses, Mrs. Ernest Kerr told of the "Species and Varieties of Roses" and Mrs. Travis Caraway talked on "Proper Pruning and its relation to the subject."

Mrs. R. A. Daniel, president of the club, directed a short business session when the Texas Garden Clubs convention to be held soon in Harlingen was discussed.

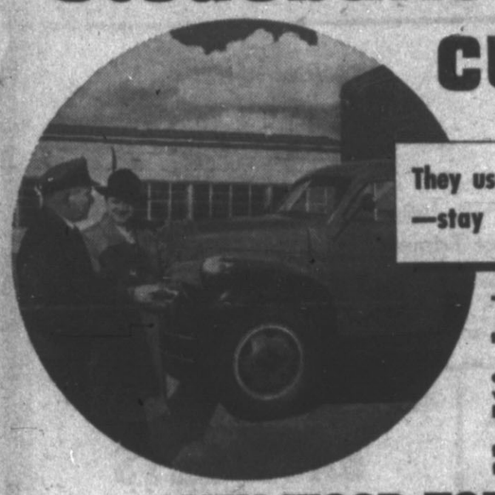

Members of the club present were Mesdames; Hartland Caraway, Travis Caraway, Ben Childers, R. A. Daniel, Paul Harvey, Ernest Kerr, Cecil Parker, W. H. Patton, Arthur Tiefel, J. D. Neill, Tom Howard, Norman Gray, William Hull and the hostess.

L. J. KUPER RECOVERING

According to reports, L. J. Kuper is recovering satisfactorily at the Deaf Smith County Hospital after an accidental fall on the ice February 1.

Mr. Kuper slipped on the icy ground near his home breaking his left leg just below the hip. He will be in the hospital another five or six weeks, or until the cast can be removed from his leg, but his condition is reported as good by relatives.

What Does "Drug Store" Mean to You?

To the kids, it means: soft drinks, school supplies, and candy. To the women, it means: cosmetics, snacks, and magazines, and to the men, drug store means: Havana cigas, shaving cream, and pipe cleaners. To most people, it's a real neighborly place where the druggist's understanding smile means credit "till the check comes."

But to all the folks, the drug store means dependable, precise compounding of their prescriptions and medicines for every ailment, from athlete's foot to dandruff.

Look to your druggist with confidence.

While his father vacations before assuming presidency of Columbia University, Capt. John Eisenhower studies there. He's shown leaving Low Memorial Library after registering for an English refresher course. Later he will teach at West Point.

New Way to Iron Shirt Saves Ten Minutes Time

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 23—Homemakers who spend fifteen to twenty minutes ironing each shirt can save time and energy by learning the "new way" says Florence Low, extension home management specialist for Texas A & M College. In the new publication "Ironing A Shirt" she explains how to iron a shirt in 5 minutes and turn it only three times.

Mrs. Low gives two suggestions in preparing to iron the shirt. The first is to use an ironing board 20 inches wide and a comfortable height. She says that sitting to iron saves much energy. The second preparation is to dampen and roll the shirt so it will be in a good position for ironing.

The rolled shirt is placed at the left end of the ironing board so that the tail will fall over the side of the board and the yoke toward the person ironing. The right sleeve is ironed first and both hands are used to shift the iron over the surface. As the shirt is front side up on the board, the top of the collar and band are ironed next. The shirt is turned and the left sleeve, the back of the collar and band ironed.

The next step is to put the yoke in position to iron and with a one-fourth turn the shirt is placed length wise on the board. The inside of the left side and back and yoke re ironed. The unironed left front is folded over the ironed back, smoothed and ironed. The buttonhole band is given an extra pressing on the wrong side.

The shirt is shifted slightly toward the back of the board and the inside of the right back ironed. Then the right front is ironed over the back and the button band pressed on the wrong side.

Folding is done without removing the shirt from the board so that the finished shirt is ready to be put away.

The bulletin is available in the home demonstration agent's office.

Now the famous Gas Refrigerator that...

STAYS SILENT LASTS LONGER

because it freezes with no moving parts

Come see it—the famous Servel Gas Refrigerator with no motor, no valves, no piston or pump, no machinery at all in its freezing system. Just a tiny gas flame does the work—with no noise, no wear. So Servel stays silent, lasts longer.

More than 2,000,000 families are enjoying Servel Gas Refrigerators right now. Some have had them 15, 18 and 20 years. Ask any of them, and they'll tell you, "Pick the Gas Refrigerator. You'll never hear a sound, never have a moment's worry."

See the new models now on display.

ABOUT THE . . . .

Milton Precision Planter

This planter was developed in the heart of the fertile sugar beet area of Colorado. Its original purpose was to aid the advancement of mechanization of sugar beet production.

This machine is more than just a planter—it is truly a precision spacer of seeds. Unlike most planters, it is not fabricated from corrosive sheet metal and cast iron, which in time will rust and increase friction in moving parts, necessitating added lubricants. The Milton Precision planter is constructed of corrosion resisting cast aluminum, cast bronze and Chrysler Oilite bronze bearings.

The Milton Precision Planter is basically a labor saving machine, and an aid to increase tonnage yield per acre.

WILL FIT ON ANY STANDARD MAKE TRACTOR
