BRINDELL HELD AS GRAFTER IN BUILDING STRIKES

N. Y. LABOR CZAR EXTORTED VAST SUM, IS CHARGE

Leader, Indicted in Building Probe, Held in $100,000 Bail by Court.

Prosecutor Says Million Is Involved; Ruined One Contractor, Testimony.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The joint legislative committee's investigation into the "building trust" resulted today in the indictment of Robert P. Brindell, president of the building trades council—one of the highest paid labor leaders in the United States—on charges of attempting to extort money from contractors by threats of calling strikes.

Collective extortion charges against Brindell, Special Assistant District Attorney Richter declared in appealing to the court to place the labor leader under heavy bail, will aggregate $1,000,000.

After pleading not guilty, Brindell was held a prisoner in the criminal courts building for more than an hour until his counsel could obtain the $100,000 bail necessary for his release. He was given nine days in which to amend or change his plea or make necessary motions.

Three Counts Cited

The indictment, the second returned by the additional grand jury handling cases growing out of the legislative investigation, contained three counts. In it, Brindell was charged specifically with attempting to extort $7,500 from Jacob Frahus, a house wrecker by threatening to call a strike on a demolition job unless the money was paid him.

Vigorous protest was made to Judge Mulqueen in the general sessions court by Martin W. Littleton, counsel for Brindell, against the heavy bail. He said it was exorbitant, adding that despite the conspicuous new lines and disclosures made before the Lockwood committee, the defendant had evinced no intention of fleeing the jurisdiction of the court.

Because he "refused to produce $25,000," for Brindell, Avadus testified before the committee on October 28, that he "had been bankrupted and put out of business" by Brindell. Later he said, he gave Brindell $1,00 for a letter which secured a $30,000 contract for a company organized by his son.

Indictment Expected

The indictment of Brindell was not unexpected. Payments totalling more than $100,000 were alleged to have been received by the labor leader during the last ten months.

Amounts of payments alleged ranged from $200 to $32,000, the latter being paid by Hugh S. Robertson, a builder on account of an agreement to pay Brindell $50,000 for "strike insurance" and "labor movement information.".

In absolute control of the building trades council with its membership of 115,000 union workers, Brindell has been regarded as one of the most

NATIVE HAITIAN TELLS OF KILLING

Directly Accuses U. S. Marine Corporal of Executing Three Prisoners.

By Associated Press.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Nov. 17.—The direct charge that Freeman Lang, formerly a corporal in the Marine Corps and a lieutenant in the gendarmerie, killed three Haitian prisoners at Hinche in 1917, was made today before the court of inquiry, investigating the activities of the American marines in Haiti, by Adolph Bourgot, a native.

Bougot, who at the time was acting as corporal in the gendarmerie, testified he witnessed the execution of the prisoners, which occurred immediately after a night attack.

He testified that "during the attack, which lasted half an hour, the three Haitians were in prison. When the attack ended, Lang ordered them out, shooting the first one in the back. The others were brought out singly, meeting the same fate in the same way."

Seeking Safety.

"I was in the prison yard with other natives seeking safety," Bourgot stated.

Bourgot testified clearly and deliberately. Answering a request by Judge Advocate Major Jesse F. Dyer to identify Lang, if present, the witness rose and pointed across the table at Lang. At this juncture the court retired, subsequently announcing it would give Lang the right to question Bourgot, obtain witnesses and employ counsel.

Lang, who was formerly a resident of Los Angeles, and now is engaged in business in Hinche, started to question Bourgot, but quickly objected to the translator, declaring he wanted a white man. The court granted the request, adjourning Lang's testimony until tomorrow.

Describes Attack.

Lieutenant Colonel Kooker described the January attack on Port Au Prince, saying 66 had been killed. He declared the attack was made in order to bolster the bandit cause.

Col. Louis Little, commanding the field forces, testified that the only complaint from President D'Artiguenave of Haiti had been investigated and found to be incorrect.

The president charged that a drunken marine doctor had assaulted a judge. Colonel Little declared an investigation revealed that a hospital apprentice while on liberty became intoxicated, assaulted and slightly injured a judge's clerk.

SLAYER IS GIVEN 50 YEARS BY JURY

FORT WORTH, Nov. 17.—Homer W. Barnes, charged by indictment with the murder of James E. Acord, was found guilty by a jury in the district court here this afternoon. His sentence was fixed at fifty years in the penitentiary.

Acord, a motorman on an Arlington Heights car, was killed on the night of October 17.

British Embassy Declines Part in Hearings of Committee at Capital.

BELFAST, Nov. 17—Renewed riot broke out in Belfast today. Nationalists in the New Lodge road district attacked the unionists quarters with stones. They were beaten off by women at the first onset, but returned, using revolvers, and soon were demonstrating again.

The police were rushed up and after an exciting 20 minutes, restored order.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Irish leaders from over the country today completed organization of the American association for the recognition of the Irish republic. At the same time, the commission of seven from the committee of one hundred investigating the Irish question laid plans for opening tomorrow its hearings with two witnesses direct from Ireland on the stand.

The hearings of the commission of seven were to have started today but receipt of information that John Durham, acting mayor at Balbriggan, and Dennis Morgan of Thurles, would be present to testify tomorrow resulted in the postponment.

Malone to Testify

Dudley Field Malone, former customs collector at New York, also is on the list of witnesses for tomorrow and after his appearance on the stand, he is expected to sit at the hearing as the attorney for the American commission on Irish independence.

The British embassy will not be represented at the commission's hearings, formal declination of the commission's invitation having been forwarded by the embassy today to Oswald Garrison Villard of New York editor of the Nation, who appointed the committee of one hundred. In declining to send a representative to the hearings, the embasy declared it could not approve the purpose of the inquiry and expressed the belief that the only result would be the spreading of propaganon.

Supplants Old Bodies

The organization formed by Irish sympathizers after a conference with Eamonn de Valera, president of the provisional Irish republic, was said to be designed to supplant the Friends of Irish Freedom and the leading Irish independent organizations in the country.

The office of the Irish inquiry commission announced tonight that plans had been perfected to send a sub-committee to Ireland to make a first hand investigation. The personnel of the committee will be announced later.

The project resulted it was stated from invitations to send such a committee received by the commission in a round robin signed by British labor party leaders, including Arthur Henderson, Robert Smillie, William Anderson and others and similar proposals from the Irish Catholic Hierarchy and numerous persons prominent in protestant Ireland.

Chester's Trail Is Lost by Dogs

BROKEN BOW, Nebr., Nov. 17.—A large number of private detectives today joined the search for Dennis Chester, who escaped from a train near here on Monday night while being taken from Montana to Kansas City to answer a charge of slaying Florence Barton, wealthy Kansas City society girl.

Kimball Barton, Jr., brother of the slain girl, and Howard Winters, her fiance, arrived here and will assist the officers in their search. Many residents of Broken Bow are also at work on the case, although Sheriff Talbot of Custer county expressed the opinion that Chester left this vicinity last night on a westbound freight train.

Bloodhounds took up a trail as far as Merna, 9 miles from here but lost the scent there.

GROCER HIT BY RANDOM BULLET

A. H. Brown Injured When Supposed "Drunk" Fires; Aged Man Escapes.

A. H. Brown, proprietor of a grocery store at 123 Ohio street, was shot through the left leg and G. H. Stewart, an aged man, Mill street, was uninjured by a bullet which went through the leg of his trousers Wednesday night. The bullets were fired at random by a man believed by the police to have been under the influence of liquor. The shooting took place in front of the Jumbo Restaurant, Mill street, east of the old Kell mill.

Brown received only a minor flesh wound.

F. T. Conway, aged about 24, was arrested by the police and held for investigation in connection with his part, if any, in firing the shots. James Reilly and E. F. Wallace who were said to have been companions of Conway, were also jailed for investigation. The men were arrested by Detectives DeGraffenreid, Johnson and Bullard.

Conway is the especial object of their inquiry.

Brown said that he and Stewart and J. J. Robinson, residence Lee street, near Front, were talking together when a man whom they did not know walked out of the restaurant and passed them. He walked down to a post on the sidewalk, stopped behind it and began firing, Brown told the police.

The men who had been talking together all ran. There was a wild scramble in the Jumbo restaurant and other restaurants along Mill street row to get into dark corners and behind counters.

None of the men fired upon knew their assailant.

SELECT ELEVEN SNOW JURORS

Man Accused as Caples' Slayer to Go on Trial Here Today.

At the end of the second day in the trial of H. C. "Doc" Snow, charged by indictment with the murder of Marvin W. Caples at Kemp City on the night of September 30, the special venire of 200 jurymen had been exhausted and only 11 men had been selected by attorneys for the state and defense.

Judge P. A. Martin, after announcing that the remaining juror would be selected from among the 12 men making up the regular jury for the week, ordered the court adjourned until 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

The jurors who have been accepted so far are: C. Ballard, H. M. Larkin, R. E. Golden, J. C. Galbraith, E. B. Taylor, J. M. Skrehot, A. C. Horn, C. C. Lawrence, J M. Benhau, C M. Reid, and W. R. Rouse.

It is expected that examination of witnesses and taking of testimony will begin in the early forenoon Thursday as not much delay is anticipated in securing the twelfth man for the jury

BRITISH CABINET CONSIDER RUSSIA

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The cabinet today held a long session again discussing the question of the opening of trade relations, with soviet Russia. Premier Lloyd George, Andrew Bonar Law and other members of the cabinet were understood to be pressing for resumption against the opposition of Earl Curzon, the foreign secretary, Winston Churchill, the secretary of war, and Austin Chamberlain, the chancellor of the exchequer, who fear it would be difficult to enforce the provision in the proposed agreement that the bolshevjki cease propaganda against Great Britain.

RECOGNITION OF MEXICO CALLED LITTLE NEARER

Despite Pressure U. S. Will Not Act Until Property Provision Is Cleared.

No Repeal of Article 27 of Wanted, but It Can't Be Retroactive.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Recognition of the new government in Mexico by the United States will be withheld, it was said today at the state department, until Mexico has made clear the effect to be given to Article 27 of the Mexican constitution relating to property in Mexico.

Strong pressure for speedy recognition is being brought to bear on the department by some business and other interests, but a high official stated emphatically today that no corporation, no group of corporations or no group of individuals was going to deliver American recognition to Mexico.

Demand No Repeal.

It was made clear that the United States was not demanding, as a preliminary to recognition, repeal of Article 27, but it was stated if the operation of laws enacted under the section were made retroactive the American government could not accord recognition.

The United States, officials explained, is actuated by a desire to protect American interests in Mexico and in its study of the whole situation has invited and received from American corporations and individuals having interests in Mexico statements as to conditions there and the present application of Mexican laws.

Not Much Closer.

Early recognition of Mexico was forecast in a statement issued at the department some weeks ago, but apparently it is not much nearer now than it was then.

Whether recognition will come before the present administration at Mexico City turns over the government to President-elect Obregon on December 1 apparently still is undetermined.

Obregon Sends Invitation.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 17.—Gov. William D. Stephens today received a telegram from General Obregon, president-elect of Mexico, inviting him to be present at the presidential inauguration at Mexico City December 1. Gov. Thomas E. Campbell of Arizona, a friend of General Obregon, at the request of the latter, also wired Governor Stephens urging him to attend.

General Obregon said he was particularly desirous of having the California government present because his wife was educated in California and his two eldest sons are attending the state university.

YEGGS GET MILLION IN MAIL CAR THEFT

OMAHA, Nebr., Nov. 17.—Following an investigation of the robbery of a Burlington mail car in Council Bluffs Saturday night the Omaha World-Herald, an evening newspaper, today published an article declaring a conservative estimate of the amount secured by the robbers is $1,000,000.

Gas Sent 70,552 Yanks From Fight

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—More than thirty-one percent of all American soldiers admitted to hospital overseas during the world war were gassed, according to a statement made public today by the chemical warfare service. Excluding marines and sailors the total of American soldiers gassed was 70,552 of whom 1,221 died and 2,853 or 4.04 percent were discharged as having suffered some disability from gassing.

Effort to prepare this country with an efficient gas defense in the event of another war is being made by chemical experts, according to officials of the service. Fifteen thousand chemists have been enrolled ready to enter service at a moment's notice and are constantly engaged in research in order to perfect all kinds of gases for use in the event of hostilities.

ELECTRA NOVICE IS RING WINNER

Shriners Hold Giant Ceremonial; Pageant Is Feature.

Hugh D. Miller, darkhorse candidate from Electra, won the Shrine Ring by vote of the novices who were admitted to Maskat entries. He upset the dope that the race lay between Eddie Showers of the City National Bank of Commerce and R. L. Eckerty, local oil man.

A class of more than 160 novices crossed the hot sands Wednesday night. The ceremonial was held in the basement of the First Baptist Church. It was conducted entirely by the local Shrine officers. Many ranking figures in Texas Masonry and Shrinedom were here as guests. A banquet preceded the ceremonies.

Pageant a Feature.

The Shrine parade in the afternoon was the feature of the celebration in so far as the public was concerned. The line formed on Scott street, near Tenth at 3.30 o'clock. It extended for two blocks south of Tenth. Along Scott street from Ninth to Tenth automobiles clogged the way—for a time. Then the big red racer of Fire Chief McClure started through to open a path. A quartet of Shriners were in the machine. With the shrill shrieks of the siren the street was opened.

The parade turned down Tenth to Indiana and thence through the business district. Mounted police headed the procession. Mayor Cline and officers of Maskat Temple, all attired in full Shrine regalia, led the way. They were accompanied by visiting Shriners and Masons of prominence.

Then Band and Patrol.

The Maskat Temple band and patrol came next. The American flag, escorted by a guard of honor, was borne at the head of a marching squadron of Shriners who wore full dress and fez caps. Then came a

'THE CITY THAT FAITH BUILT'

CONSERVATISM NOW IS CRY OF UNION LEADERS

Fitzpatrick, Foster and Other Extremists Dropped From Authority. . .

Federation Will Oppose Unrestricted Immigration; Unemployment Lessens.

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Direct steps to eliminate radicalism from any control of organized labor and to meet the menace of increasing unemployment are being taken by the American Federation of Labor and through its executive council in session here.

Already a decisive victory over radical elements within the organization has been achieved at one point, and the far-reaching nature of the conference of the council for a week past, dealing with economic problems, appeared tonight to foreshadow some action looking to closer co-operation between labor and capital to meet unemployment.

Although leaders were reticent today, it developed that there was a feeling among certain members of the council that it should deal emphatically with the attempts of radicals to "bore from within." They were said to feel that conservatism must characterize labor's leadership.

Two Reasons Why.

This sentiment was based on two premises; first, that organized labor can not hope to exert great power in ensuing years if its foundations are weakened by the permeation of certain radical doctrines, and, second, that the next administration will be conservative. As to the latter, it was said in some quarters labor could gain little from the new congress unless it established policies of a conservative nature.

In the reorganization of the committee to unionize the steel workers, the conservative element showed its strength. It eliminated from the committee John J. Fitzpatrcik, chairman, and William Z. Foster, secretary, both radical members. Fitzpatrick was replaced by M. F. Tighe, recognized conservative in labor policies, and Foster gave place to J. G. Brown, also a known conservative.

President Gompers has declared against the unrestricted admission of radicals from Europe on several occasions and the federation itself is having no intercourse with foreign labor groups of a radical turn.

To Fight Immigration.

Federation leaders expect to go before congressional committees at every opportunity to check the rush of immigrants from radical sections of Europe and Asia. Increased restrictions will be urged, it was said.

Immigration also has a bearing on the question of unemployment, recognized by the labor men to be increasing at a rapid rate.

The department of labor made public today statistics showing that during October there were decreases in the number of employes in ten industrial plants as compared with October, a year ago, while only four plants had enlarged payrolls.

It was declared the real reduction in employes, particularly in the textile industry, had become of importance only this fall, and reports obtained by the various branches of the government were said to indicate further decreases in scores of plants.

Common Ground Sought.

There was no indication as to means which may be adopted by labor to reach a common ground with capital on the subject of the radicals.

Speakers in the executive council conferences continue to blame capital for autocratic and, in some cases, inefficient management, it was said. The council was described, however, as proceeding towards the establishment of a policy which employers might endorse should unemployment compel labor to ask for jobs rather than ask what the employer will pay.

The number of men and women without work now was said to point to a reduction in the number of controversies between labor and capital this winter. While labor officials refuse to admit existence of the situation, government data reported an evident desire among more workers to retain their places on the payroll.

HARDING LEAVES TEXAS FOR TRIP TO CANAL ZONE

By Associated Press.

ON BOARD HARDIN'S SPECIAL, Nov. 17.—President-elect Harding's vacation in Texas came to an end today and he was well on his way toward New Orleans tonight to board a steamer for a voyage in southern waters.

His special train left Brownsville, at 10 o'clock this morning on a scheduled run of exactly twenty four hours along the gulf coast to the Louisiana port. He will stay there five hours, making an address at noon before the New Orleans Association of Commerce and boarding his steamer, the United Fruit liner Parismina, at 3 p. m.

Whether Vera Cruz or some other Mexican port will be visited by the president-elect had not been announced tonight. The Parismina's present sailing orders call for a direct run to the Panama canal zone, but Mr. Harding has indicated that he might request a change to permit him to accept the invitation to visit Mexican territory tendered him yesterday at Brownsville.

Crowds came out to greet Senator Harding at several towns along the way but only a few stops were permitted by his schedule and he made no rear platform speeches.

Finishes Speech

Mr. Harding put the finishing touches on the manuscript of his New Orleans address, which it has been understood will deal among other things with finance and trade as they relate to the development of the south. He has been asked to include a discussion of numerous subjects, such as Latin-American commerce and lakes to gulf waterway, but it is expected that he will confine himself to a general statement of his position rather than to formulation of specific policies.

The president-elect is said by those close to him to be determined that the vacation period shall be kept as free as possible from thought of the administration tasks ahead. He wants to put details aside until he returns to Marion early in December, and then with a refreshed mind go to work laying the ground work of his administration.

It was said aboard the special train tonight that some announcement regarding the suggested stop at a Mexican port probably would be made tomorrow before the party reaches New Orleans. Much is understood to depend on the ability of the steamship company to arrange for such a stop without serious disarrangement of its regular passenger service.

The Parismina will carry a number of others besides the Harding party, and her sailing date already has been delayed one day in order to fit in with the plans of the president-elect. About forty people will be in Senator and Mrs. Harding's party including secret service, newspaper men and a small office staff under the supervision of George B. Christian, Jr., Mr. Harding's secretary.

Senators Hale of Maine and Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, who were in the party at Point Isabel, will be among the guests to go along to Panama, but E. B. McLean, the Washington publisher, who also was at Point Isabel, will bid Mr. Harding goodbye at New Orleans.

SKIPPER IS VETERAN

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—Captain E. W. Holmes, veteran skipper, considered one of the most experienced in the employ of the United Fruit Company, has been awarded the honor of piloting President-elect Harding's vessel, the Parismina, from this port to Panama.

Captain Holmes arrived at this port with the Atenas, which he has piloted for the past several years, last Monday.

All formalities in regard to passports for the Harding party have been waived by government officials and tonight with the vessel cleared for the voyage which begins tomorrow at 3 p. m., everything is in readiness on board of the Parismina for the reception of the party. The local committee has completed all plans for the reception of the president-elect and from the time he arrives at the union station until he boards the ship Senator Harding will be surrounded by local and state officials and a larger crowd will greet Senator Hardplain clothes men.

Two addresses will be made by the president-elect while here, the first from the city hall steps and another at the luncheon to be given in his honor by the Association of Commerce.

Indications tonight are that a large crowd will greet Senator Harding than has ever greeted any other executive who has visited the city. Mr. Harding is the sixth president to visit this city. General Grant came here soon after his term expired; Cleveland spent a vacation here at one time; McKinley came here on the ill-fated tour which ended with his assassination in Buffalo; Roosevelt paid a number of visits to the city enroute to southern hunting grounds, and the visit of President-elect Taft is still referred to. While President Wilson spent a vacation at Pass Christian, near here, he never visited the city.

URGES HARDING TO HELP MISSISSIPPI

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—President-elect Harding was urged to support the movement for revival of traffic on the Mississippi river to develop the resources of the Mississippi valley in a telegram from W. Frank Carter, president of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce tonight. The telegram was sent to New Orleans, where Mr. Harding is to speak tomorrow.

TEN REASONS WHY BUSINESS OUTLOOK APPEARS FAVORABLE

(By International News Service.)

WELLESLEY, Mass.—Ten reasons why the business outlook in the United States is favorable and why business men should assume a more optimistic attitude are given by Roger W. Babson, famous statistician. Here they are:

"First, the working people in this country are in possession of the great majority of the bonds issued by the United States government during the war. This is a very favorable sign, for it shows that the great mass of people are in a sound financial condition.

"Second, that as a result of the coming of national prohibition two and one-half billion dollars previously wasted in this industry yearly is now available for business projects that are more useful and more likely to promote the welfare of all people.

"Third, that in spite of the widespread opinion to the contrary, the federal reserve banking system has been an important factor in stabilizing financial conditions in this country.

"Fourth, that advertising is now an influential means of moulding public opinion. This profession has now reached such an advanced and scientific stage in its development that it is a logical means by which the people of the country can be convinced that contrary to their present opinion business is really on a firm basis and that there is no cause for the present depression.

"Fifth, that the argument that the falling off of our foreign trade will prove ruinous is ill-founded, for such trade only constitutes 5 per cent of the total. What little stoppage takes place in this field, therefore, is of little or no consequence and will have no noticeable effect on the general business outlook.

"Sixth, that recently the standardization of manufacturing processes has been increasing with such amazing rapidity that there has been a considerable reduction in the cost of commodities. This is a permanent influence of no mean importance and should not be slighted in any consideration of the future of industries in general.

Seventh, that all statistics gathered recently offer overwhelming proof that seasonal fluctuations in production in this country are rapidly decreasing. This will prove to be very beneficial, as it will tend to make the demands for labor more constant.

"Eighth, that taxation will be radically reduced in the near future.

"Ninth, that rapid progress is being made in industrial education with the result that the men employed in industrial plants are much better trained for their tasks and are performing them with far greater efficiency. The trade schools that are now established in all sections of the country are accomplishing wonders in this way.

"Tenth, that the United States as a result of the war is now a creditor nation instead of a debtor nation, and, therefore, is in a very powerful position in the business world."

powerful factors in organized labor in New York.

Is Life Member

He holds a life contract as business agent of the Dock Builders Union, which has a membership of approximately 48,000, each member of which contributes fifty cents a month of his dues to Brindell's salary, which from this one union alone is estimated at approximately $30,000 a year.

Brindell's rise as labor leader has been phenomenal. He came to New York less than ten years ago, looking for work, coming from Providence, R. I., where he is said to have been a drug clerk. He first appeared in the local labor movement as a dock builder, having had previous experience in this work in Canada, where he claimed to have been a member of a Quebec Docker's Union at the age of 13.

While building docks, Brindell began organizing the workers and built up a powerful union, one of the strongest in the council he now heads. Later he was a prominent factor in the board of business agents, which ceased to exist less than a year ago when the council was organized.

POLAND REQUIRES ANTI-TYPHUS HELP

"If preventive measures are not taken without delay the mortality rate from tyhus will greatly increase this winter and will be higher than in the winter 1919-20," says the Warsaw "Courier" in summing up the dangers in store for Poland as winter approaches.

"Sanitary conditions in Poland are alarming. According to the statistics of the League of Nations there were in 1917 only 44,000 cases of typhus in Poland as compared to 360,000 in 1920. During the war over half a million homes were destroyed of which only a third have been restored. This shortage of dwellings combined with the influx of emigrants from Russia has been responsible for such overcrowding that cleanliness is almost impossible.

"Realizing the full importance of the typhus dangers, the secretariat of the League of Nations has urged the granting of funds sufficient to provide clothing, food, baths and medical supplies to those in direst need.

"Typhus, being a winter disease, has died out somewhat during the summer, but the fact that it did not die out completely as is usually the case during the summer months, indicates that this winter will see one of the worst epidemics that have so far invaded Poland."

Dallas 'Tigers' Now Sell It From Door to Door—

DALLAS, Nov. 17.—Bootleggers are now making a house to house canvass in this city. An unidentified man drove up to the house of a well known business man in the residential part of the city today and knocked on the door.

"Do you want to buy some whisky?" he enquired, when the owner came to the door.

"Sure" replied the man.

"I have a quart to sell for $20" said the peddler.

The whisky was examined by the prospective purchaser.

"I buy real whiskey but have no use for dynamite," said the prospective purchaser as he closed the door. The peddler continued down the street in search of less informed buyers.

Kemp Hotel Is Host to Press At Gay Dinner

The editorial, advertising and business staffs of The Record News and Wichita Daily Times were guests of Managers Alfred D. Allen and H. J. Forester of the Kemp hotel at a dinner served in the ball room of the hotel Wednesday evening.

C. E. Dulan, advertising manager of The Times, acted as toast master, and informal talks were made by Messrs. Allen, Forester, C. G. Manual, Norris Ewing, N. F. Carter and Mrs. Kavanough.

A short program in which Mrs. Paul Larkin, accompanied at the piano by Mr. Larkin gave a group of popular selections added much to the entertainment of the evening. Miss Dulan also gave a clever interpretation of two working girls attending the movies, which was very much enjoyed by the guests.

Another feature of the evening was a pilgrimage led by H. J. Forester through the culinary department of the hotel which was complete in every detail even to the small ice plant, where the ice for the use of the hotel is manufactured.

Dancing followed. The guests adopted a vote of thanks to the management for their kindness to the newspaper fraternity.

Murder Jury Is Locked Up as Trouble Looms

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Nov. 17.—Ten minutes after the jury had retired to reach a verdict in the case of Tom Slaughter and Fulton Greene, Oklahoma bandits, charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Row Brown Judge Wood sprung a surprise by announcing the jury would be locked up for the remainder of the night and adjourned court until tomorrow morning.

While there had been no specific instructions to return a sealed verdict that was not to be made known until the morning, Judge Wood said the militia in control of the courthouse and grounds guarding the prisoners had requested that no verdict be announced until morning, and in adjourning court Judge Wood complied with the request.

Some excitement was caused during the day by finding in the cells that Slaughter and Greene occupied two table knives, one slightly nicked and the other made into a very useful saw. The knives were discovered by Lieutenant Tremble of the state militia. A small saw also discovered near the cells of the two men and a further search late this afternoon disclosed more saws. How they came into the cells Slaughter and Greene were inable to say.

MEXICAN CONSUL TO HEAD MISSION

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 17.—Mexican Consul Teodula R. Beltran of San Antonio will leave tomorrow for Mexico City where he has been summoned by Provisional President de la Huerta. In Mexican circles here it is reported that Mr. Beltran will head a confidential mission to some European country. Recently Mr. Beltran declined an offer to become consular general of the United States with headquarters in El Paso.

UNUSUAL BILL PLEASES ALL IN WICHITA DEBUT

The turning wheel of the Wichita theatre Wednesday night brought to the playgoers vaudeville of unusual merit, brilliance and ravishingly beautiful women. The entire bill was an oasis in the desert of commonplace theatricals.

Arriving triumphant in the third act was Bobby O'Neill in "Four Queen and The Joker" by Herman Timberg assisted by Dorothy Godfrey, Mabel Ferry, Fay Tunis and Babette Busey. All of them in bizarre peacock-like, eye-smiting costumes representing the four queens with Bobby O'Neill as the joker. In the introduction the joker first appears, stepping from the massive card, to be followed by his four queens, all beautiful girls, handsomely gowned. Their singing and dancing as well as their wit is clean, highclass and vivacious. Later they appear as romantic Mexicans to play a game of cards in which the queen of hearts wins. It is easily one of the best acts of vaudeville in this section of the country, having a fire and splendor which sets apart.

Resista Next

Next in line and extremely good is the final act by Resista, the "ninety-eight pound girl no man can lift." This act is correctly titled "The Masterpiece of Mystery," as Resista is a very pretty young girl bearing a haunting resemblance to Gaby Deslys of old, although she does not dance; rather, she is famous for her ability to maintain her position regardless of the strength of any man attempting to move her. Her average weight is ninety-eight pounds. However she has the ability to make herself much lighter or much heavier ranging from the eighties to three-hundred and seventy-five pounds.

Equally sharing honors were the other three acts, which included a harmony quartette of women whose singing and costumes was far above the ordinary. The songs were new harmonious well rendered by the Misses Virginia Daly, Lucille Dymont Juanita Chefalo and Harriet Miller.

Superior Art

They call themselves "The Four Gossips," never-the-less the act is superior to the title.

Jack Clifford and Miriam Wills gave a rare impersonation of simplicity and rural wit, "At Jasper Junction." Miss Wills has an appealing voice and rendered several musical selections while Mr. Clifford accompanied her with an imitation of a steel guitar.

Just to prove that a sailor has an almost infinite capacity for beans the Busch Brothers presented an amusing bit of comedy entitled "Spilling theBeans." Their acrobatic stunts are of the ordinary run, but their capacity for beans caused the house to roar with side splitting laughter.

Torres' Location Is Kept Secret

The location of the jail in which Joe Torres, arrested in connection with the killing of Archie Martin here Monday with an automobile, could not be determined Wednesday night.

It was intimated in police circles that he was en route to Fort Worth to be held there until brought back to this city later to face a charge of murder for which he has been indicted by the grand jury.

He was not in the jail either at Fort Worth or Henrietta, according to information from Record News correspondents in these cities late Wednesday night.

It was generally believed that he is being held under guard in the jail of some town near this city.

Torres accompanied by police officers was taken from the city soon after his arrest Tuesday night. It was stated by the police at that time that he would be taken to Fort Worth.

STOCK MARKET CRASHES DOWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—After a brief respite, in which hopes were entertained of a recovery from the disturbing conditions which have attended almost every session since election day, the stock market met with fresh liquidation and short selling today. The general list fell to lowest prices for one to three years, U. S. steel making a new low record for three years at 80 7-8.

Gilt-edged rails supported the day's setback losing 2 to 4 points.

General Chemical, on a single sale of 100 shares dropped 19½ points and Famous Players represented the theatrical or film issue at a loss of 11 points.

ACTRESSES DIED OF LIQUOR, EXPOSURE

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Two actresses whose bodies were found in Grant Park Saturday morning, died of alcoholism and exposure, Coroner Peter Hoffman decided today.

Three men who have been arrested in connection with the case confessed to police that they had taken the women for an automobile ride, and that when they reached the park, the girls, who were intoxicated, insisted on leaving the automobile and remaining there.

Police have not decided whether to place charges against the men.

A small tractor dragged along a half dozen cotton wagons laden with white-cloaked novices. Then came three novices in chains. They walked abreast, all linked together.

A gigantic tractor dragged in tow a rope of apparently endless length. Another long line of novices jerked and hopped along the rope. The motor would suddenly speed up and then slow down. Very provoking, the novices laughed.

Band Helped Out.

The Maskat Temple band did its part toward the general public's enjoyment of the day. It paraded the streets and gave selections. The Record News office was one of the places favored by selections. The Record News expresses appreciation of the honor from Shrinedom.

The Maskat Temple band is regarded as one of the best in the fezzed ranks. It was accorded high honor at the last conclave of the Imperial Council of the Shrine in California.

Tris Speaker, manager of the world pennant winning Cleveland Indians, was one of the distinguished guests who rode in the parade with Potentate Cline. Speaker left here on an early morning train for Fort Worth.

Another of the noted visitors was Mike Thomas, grand junior warden of the Grand Lodge of Texas A. F. and A. M. and 33rd degree honorary of the Scottish Rite. Potentate Cline referred to the novices as the "Mike Thomas Class." His influence had much to do with Wichita Falls' success in getting a dispensation for a Shrine Temple here.

Physician Another.

Dr. R. W. Evans, also of Dallas, was another visitor whose presence recalled gratitude for his services at Frisco. He is knight commander of the Court of Honor in the southern jurisdiction of the Scottish Rite.

Al Read, member of the Divan of Hella Temple; Tom L. Monagan, Frank Paulus and Z. S. Armstrong were other noted visitors.

Speaker Talks at Luncheon

Tris Speaker was the guest of honor at a luncheon of the Wichita club Wednesday and made a brief talk outlining his general opinions of the 1919 baseball scandal, which has aroused a nationwide interest and indignation, sketching in detail his attitude relative to the reorganization and revolutionization of the American sport.

Speaker made it understand that while here, he was the guest of Maskat temple and while in this capacity, being more or less a "neutral" explained that he could not play favorites in having connection with the campaign for the Shrine ring.

Accompanying Speaker to Wichita Falls was Leslie Nunnamaker, Cleveland Indian backstop, who is an old pal and crony of his. Both men played together with the Red Sox and since that time have become practically inseparable. It is said that while the usual run of baseball players are lolling around and taking it easy between season ends and training beginnings, Tris and Leslie can usually be found following some sport. Their favorite diversion is hunting, they modestly admitted.

Expects No Change

In speaking of the major league clubs in general, their attitude toward the appointment of Judge Landis, Speaker said that no doubt the game would go along as it always had, although he could not positively assert this as he has been away from the center of activities for some time and has not been keeping in very close touch with the situation.

He condemned the proposed Lasker plan but stated that the appointment of Judge Landis was alright. He declared that the whole Lasker plan was nothing more than an attempt to oust Ban Johnson as leader of the American League. He praised Johnson highly, saying that he is one of the greatest leaders that the game has ever known and has done more for organized baseball than any other individual.

Silent on Mays' Incident

In passing comment upon the Chapman incident, Speaker said: "It was one of the most lamentable things that has ever happened in baseball. Mays alone can answer the question as to whether or not he pitched a 'bean' ball. I have never expressed an opinion."

Baseball is through with the White Sox players who were indicted, he declared, and they will no doubt go over the road if found guilty in the courts.

He is a Texas League product himself and seemed to be mighty happy over the fact that the Texas League rating had been advanced to A classification.

Shocks Greet Novice

The enthusiasm with which a money borrower should be greeted by some of the lenders of our fair city were graphically demonstrated in detail to Novice Red Pervisance after Red had penetrated the sanctum of Noble Lester Jones at the Wichita State bank in quest of a loan, with which he was to obtain immunity from further persecution by his tormentors.

Red was cordially received, overcordially as he expressed it later, and offered a chair which his instinct told him was to be used by one such as he on the presence of a Noble but which he was tempted into using owing to the state of fatigue he was laboring under after being tortured incessantly for two or three hours.

No sooner had he sat down than Noble Jones pointed to pasteboard, which indicated in Red's mind that his loan was there waiting for him. When he lifted the lid, however, to grasp the crisp bills, than his intentions darted to other channels for there in plain view before the perplexed Novice's gaze was a big rattlesnake with ugly fangs all ready to "shoot" n'everything.

Simultaneously with this discovery came a speedier and more nerve racking encounter with several currents of electricity which emulated through his body through the arms and back and cushions of his chair.

21 BILLION IS SHOWN BY BANK CALL OF SEPT. 8

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Resources of all national banks amounted to $21,885,480,000 on September 8, a reduction of $311,257,000 compared with June 30, but an increase of $270,064,000 over September 12, 1919, according to reports of the last bank call summarized tonight by Comptroller Williams.

Deposits totalled $16,751,956,000, the comptroller said, a reduction of $403,465,000 compared with the June call an dincrease of $70,349,000 over September of last year. Loans and discounts increased by $18,662,000 as compared with June.

Between June and September there was an actual net increase in deposits in all the national banks outside of New York of $82,697,000, but a reduction in the deposits of the New York banks of $486,162,000. Between September 1919 and September ofthis year, however, the increase in loans and discounts exceeded the increase in deposits by $1,259,951,000.

States showing the largest increase in deposits since June in country banks were:

Pennsylvania $40,000,000; New York $23,000,000; New Jersey $14,000,000; West Virginia $13,000,000; Ohio $11,000,000; and California $10,000,000, while those showing the largest reductions in deposits were Connecticut and Minnesota $8,000,000; Oklahoma and Texas $5,000,000 each, and Iowa $6,000,000.

Reserve cities whose national banks showed the largest increases in deposits since the June call were Pittsburgh $24,000,000; Kansas City $8,000,000; Cincinnati $6,000,000 and Louisville and Minneapolis $5,000,000, while cities showing the largest reductions were New York, $486,000,000; Boston $27,000,000; San Francisco $18,000,000; Philadelphia $14,000,000; Detroit and New Orleans and Dallas $4,000,000 each.

LEONARD GETS K. O. OVER EDDIE KELLY

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, scored a technical knockout over Harlem Eddie Kelly in the fifth round of a scheduled 12-round contest at the Commonwealth Sporting club here tonight, the referee stopping the bout.

DISABLED SHIP O. K.

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 17.—The motorship Benowa, disabled Saturday twenty miles south of Jupiter, and which was reported filling rapidly due to the opening of its seams has been pumped out and is now in tow of the navy collier Arthusa, bound for Key West.

GREEKS CHARGE PLOT TO PARTY OF VENIZELOS

ATHENS, Nov. 16.—One of the election aftermaths here is in circulation of a report that supporters of Venizelos planned a coup d'etat to prevent their defeat. M. Montagna, Italian minister, is said to have called upon Venizelos, and, informing him of the plot, told the premier he would be responsible if there was any bloodshed.

It is declared Premier Venizelos, before resigning, issued the strictest orders for the enforcement of order.

The newspapers opposed to Venizelos announce that most of the Venizelist functionaries will be retained in the new government.

RIOTS FROM ELECTION

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 16.—The defeat of Premier Venizelos of Greece, created consternation here, resulting in a number of street riots. The disturbances were easily quelled.

Georges Roussos, Greek diplomatic representative at Constantinople has handed in his resignation as a protest against the action of the Greek people in defeating Venizelos.

The fall of the year doesn't help much, since a year can be neither eaten nor worn.—Nashville Tennessean.

It is the frequently voiced opinion of political observers here that Lloyd George favors the return of Prince George, eldest son of the former King Constantine, to the throne, and that the British prime minister indicated abandonment of Venizelos three weeks ago by his notification that Great Britain would refuse to surrender Cyprus to the Greeks.

BUREAU PLANS BIG WAREHOUSE TO STORE WOOL

DALLAS, Nov. 17.—J. E. Boog-Scott, member of the board of directors of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation has been placed on the advisory committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation, wool marketing division for the purpose of deciding the most economical point for the location of wool warehouses to handle the great Farm Bureau wool pool. The committee has been authorized to get all the technical help necessary in its study of wool market centers. Mr. Boog-Scott says that either Houston or Galveston will likely be chosen as the warehouse center for this section of the United States and he has been in conference with the Chamber of Commerce of both cities. "The water rate knocks 60c off of the freight on wool from San Angelo to either Boston or Philadelphia" says Boog-Scott in explaining the necessity of having the great central warehouse at a gulf port.

The capacity of the new warehouses will probably be 5,000,000 pounds or more. Warehouses of this kind, according to Mr. Boog-Scott enable the growers to grade their wool before selling it. "We never get pay for lamb's wool," he says "because it is put in with the other wool. When we get a big warehouse where it can be properly graded we will get a premium on lamb's wool because we will have enough of it to offer it to the buyers separately."

Black wool, according to Boog-Scott can be sold separately from a warehouse of this kind. Black wool is used to make Monk's caps in which no dye is used to obtain the color. Boog-Scott mentioned the block wool just to show one of the numerous things which can be done if a large wool pool is made. He is to report the result of his committee's work at a meeting of the Fleece States Wool Growers Organization November 29 in Chicago. Other committees arranged for by the wool division of the American Farm Bureau Federation are the legislative committee which is pledged to work for the "Truth in Fabric" bill and also a committee on getting American wool into European countries.

It is planned to send raw wool into Austria for example and let the people manufacture it into the finished product, the wool growers to be repaid by getting a portion of the finished product. Farm Bureau members in South Dakota are planning to trade raw wool to English manufacturers for suits of clothes. Mr. Boog-Scott plans to take up the question before his committee with Bob Martin of Del Rio, president of the Texas Wool Growers Association and also Professors McGee and Jones of the State Agricultural and Mechanical College as well as other experts and interested persons.

FARMERS GROUPING TO PURCHASE GRAIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Co-operative purchase of supplies by farmers running co-operative grain elevators is now under way in a number of middle western states and the movement is rapidly developing, according to headquarters of the Farmers National Grain Dealers Association here. Its officers say there is likelihood that a national co-operating purchasing organization will be formed here in December at the association's first national convention.

Ohio farmers who have organized a $100,000 purchasing company are reported to have contracted for the output of a coal mine and a feed mill and to be buying other materials, such as fencing and sugar, by the carload. In Iowa formation by farmers of a million dollar corporation having purchase of farm supplies as one of its chief functions is reported.

The general plan is stated to be to pool purchases and sell by mail order.

Better Rails in Use on Roads Now

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—A great improvement in rails in use in the United States is reported by the American Railway Engineering Association. Some years ago the number of rails that failed to give normal service or broke under moving trains became alarmingly large, the worst condition being reached about 1905. This led to investigation by the American Association and later by the railway engineering association.

"A drop in the rail failures from almost 400 per 100 track miles for five years' service in 1908 rails to 74 in the 1914 rails is a decrease of over 80 percent," writes M. H. Wickhorst, engineer of tests of the engineering association's rail committee in his report just issued here. "We may well feel elated over this good performance and congratulate the mills and railroads that brought about the result.

"A close study of the detail reports indicates that a further decrease of over eighty percent of the failures of the 1914 rails is possible."

TELLS OF GERMAN FUNDS FOR "MAIL"

NEW YORK, Nov. 17—Money totalling more than $371,000 was received by the law firm of Hays, Kauffman & Lindheim from the German fiscal agency here in 1915 and 1916, but no records of the receipts were entered on the firm's books, defense counsel admitted today in the trial of Dr. Edward A. Rumely, charged with having concealed alleged German ownership of the New York Evening Mail. The attorneys, Kauffman and Lindheim, are co-defendants.

Miss Elizabeth Kirkel, stenographer and bookkeeper in the offices of the law firm, testified that the money was in turn transferred to Rennskorff & Lyons, bankers, who are alleged to have negotiated the purchase of the Evening Mail.

HARRIS TO GO EAST.

M. Harris, manager of the Railroad Wreck sale, expects to leave on an extended business trip to St. Louis and Eastern points the latter part of the week.

Rheumatism

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It

In the Spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a treatment that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with rheumatism, some of them 70 and 80 years old, and results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from such forms of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

Mark H. Jackson, No. 1122 G. Durston Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y.

Mr. Jackson is responsible. Above statement true.

Resinol does wonders for sick skins

That itching, burning skin-trouble which keeps you scratching and digging, is a source of embarrassment, as well as of torment to you. Why don't you get rid of it by using Resinol Ointment? Physicians prescribe it constantly. In most cases, it stops itching instantly and heals eruptions promptly. It is very easy and economical to use.

Sold by all druggists. Resinol Ointment should usually be used by Resinol Soap.

Facts for Sick Women

Reliable Information

All American women know of the great success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in restoring to health women who suffered from ailments peculiar to their sex, yet there are some who are skeptical and do not realize that all that is claimed for it is absolutely true—if they did, our laboratory would not be half large enough to supply the demand, though today it is the largest in the country used for the manufacture of one particular medicine.

The Facts contained in the following two letters should prove of benefit to many women:

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I suffered with organic inflammation and displacement. When lifting I had such pain and bearing down that I was not able to stand up, and it hurt me to walk or go up or down stairs. I was going to a doctor without any results and he said the safest thing would be to have an operation. I met a lady who told me she had three operations and was not well until she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

I felt relief after taking two bottles of Vegetable Compound and I kept on with it until I was cured. I always use Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and they are fine. Everything used to turn sour on my stomach and the Liver Pills relieved that."—Mrs. A. Rogers, 593 Fargo Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sacramento, Calif.—"I had organic trouble and had such terrible pain and swelling in the lower part of my side that I could not stand on my feet or even let the bed clothes touch my side. I gave up my work thinking I would not be able to go back for months. My mother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as it had saved her life at one time, and it put me in a wonderful condition in a couple of weeks, so I can keep on working. I work in a department store and have to stand on my feet all day and I do not have any more pains. I surely recommend your Vegetable Compound to all my friends and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Bertha J. Parker, 3320 M St., Sacramento, Calif.

AS EUROPE SEES IT

Most Americans will smile—some of them a little bitterly—when they read the comment of the European press on the election. Perhaps it is not surprising that most of the European newspapers have not the slightest conception of what it is that has happened in America. Nobody who did not follow this campaign closely from day to day can have even an approximately correct understanding of the reasons for the Harding landslide.

How far most of the European papers are from understanding those reasons is instantly evident. Thus the London Times regards the Republican victory as a disists warning to Bolshevists and extremists of all kinds. Yet the great mass of the pro-Bolsheviks and the extremists in America followed Hiram Johnson into the Harding camp and voted for Harding largely in order to punish President Wilson, whom they hated because of his attitude towards Russia and because of the restrictive measures employed during his administration against extremists in this country.

Most of the British and many of the French newspapers rejoice unreservedly at Mr. Harding's victory. In general the reasons given for their gladness are fantastic and seem to be based on fictions evolved apparently out of the writer's inner consciousness. Most of these writers seem to be blissfully ignorant of the fact that Mr. Harding's victory was largely due to the assistance and votes given him by the large and powerful foreign groups in America which are bitterly hostile to Britain and France. These groups were ranged almost solidly behind Mr. Harding; and, since they were largely instrumental in electing him, they naturally expect to have a large influence in shaping his foreign policy. Undoubtedly they hope and intend to make it a policy hostile to Britain and France.—Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier (Dem.)

Nobody can be greatly surprised that the first foreign comment on the election to reach us doesn't evidence noteworthy understanding of the significance of the landslide.

On the part of the French, we should say that there was complete failure to grasp the meaning of the great mass movement. France is in a terribly hard, cynical state of mind, just at present. France is seriously thinking of going into Germany and taking possession of its wealth-producing resources, using as an excuse for so doing the failure of the Germans to fulfill their treaty obligations. France, too, is exceedingly bitter towards Lloyd George just now, because of Britain's unwillingness to go the full length with France in her program of rigid enforcement of the Treaty of Versailles. So some allowance must be made when reading the remarks of the French in the election. These must necessarily reflect the present temper of the editors. Still, after all seemingly necessary allowances are made, there remains a disagreeable assumption of almost utter materialism as the basis for the Republican victory, but this is regarded as praiseworthy. Altogether unnecessary things are said about Mr. Wilson, without naming him. The French writers who not long ago were almost apotheosizing him now choose to regard the election as a turning away from all idealism whatever, and a turning to mathematics exclusively, and, let us repeat, without naming Mr. Wilson the implication is that he represented nothing but visionism and "biblical reformations."

In Britain, some of the provincial papers come remarkably near the real meaning of our election. They understand it as in no small part an economic movement. They understand its robust nationalism. But the Manchester Guardian arrives at a conclusion much like that of some of the French papers, only, of course, it laments over that which pleases the French. It can see nothing but the climax of a reaction against idealism, a repudiation of that which is good, and an expression of much the same feeling that obtains in Europe where the nations are "snapping and snarling" at each other. Nothing could be further from the truth.—Manchester (N. H.) Union. (Ind. Rep.)

LEADERSHIP NEEDED

In these times of social unrest and class and industrial warfare the people feel their need of wise leadership more than ever before. In the past the United States has been blessed with great men endowed with clear insight and sound judgment. The men who framed our form of government were matchless in far sighted wisdom. Hardly in the history of the world would you find a group of men with such gifts of leadership, able to build political institutions that have survived the shocks of emergency for so many years. There is in the present time no lack of attempted leadership. The newspapers, the street corner soap box, the political campaigns, the halls of legislation, all are forums from which innumerable people attempt to solve the new problems of these times. But it is very easy to tell what should be done, from a theoretical standpoint, and very difficult to outline a program to which the masses will give assent and follow.

As the issues of these new days shape themselves one has faith to believe that history will repeat itself and worthy leaders will rise and help us solve the economic and industrial problems that are crowding upon us.

Someone will appear who is big enough and broad enough to show capital and labor how they can gain more by working together than by fighting each other. Someone will show us the way to abolish the pestilential slums of the cities, to reduce poverty to a minimum and place education within the reach of every child.

Those who aspire to lead the nation in solving these problems will need enthusiasm for humanity and practical familiarity with the hard facts of life. The world is weary of idealists who know little about real life and of materialists who are perfectly satisfied with the world as it is.—Lafayette (Ind.) Journal Courier. (Ind. Rep.)

"CONSPIRACIES" TO RETARD BUILDING

Despite the fact that the New York Legislature has appointed a committee to investigate the "criminal practices" with which the head of the building trades in New York city is charged, the press of the country, still interested in the election, has failed as yet to comment as widely upon this phase of the housing question as the display given to the early dispatches promised.

Evidence given to the committee, the Topeka (Kans.) Capital (Rep.) asserts, fully supports the charge of "the existence of a combine or trust of employers and labor unions which holds up the building trades throughout the United States.'

The "master mind" behind the conspiracy, according to the testimony, is the president of the New York Building Trades council, Robert P. Brindell, whom the Philadelphia Bulletin (Ind. Rep.) calls a "a two-gun man working with both hands, holding up contractor and worker alike.' His system of operation is outlined in the Buffalo Express (Ind. Rep.) thus:

"About 18,000 laborers are said to have paid $2 a week each to Robert P. Brindell's building trades council as tribute. Brindell's service for the $36,000 per week as to keep wages high and jobs for the members. A few hundred house wreckers are said to have contributed $10 a week to the same organization for the same purpose."

But more serious than the exaction of tribute from contractors and workers, the Cincinati Enquirer (Dem) believes "the disclosure which will excite the wrath of the public generally is that labor leaders are alleged to have demanded and received huge bribes to call off 'hold-up' strikes," thus holding the power "to stifle construction work in New York City.

Naturally,' the Indianapolis News (Ind.) suggests, "the people who contracted for such work found somewhere in their bills sufficient overcharges to cover all of the money that went into the corruption fund." Ultimately, the New York Times (Ind. Dem.) asserts, "the public, especially the poor, pays the bill. It pays it in the lack of housing and in increased rentals for the old, squalid tenements in which it is forced to live; it pays it in overcrowding, in unseemly and demoralized living conditions; in an increased infant mortality and in the uncontrolled spread of contagious disease. Most of all, the public pays in a lowering of moral standards, in a sense of general and inevitable corruption."

The revelations are probably not more astonishing to the public in general than to the workers themselves, the Philadelphia Bulletin (Ind. Rep.) believes, as they have paid their "dues" without question, and "in implicit faith that they were required for the support of the union." The New York Mail (Ind.) also considers "that for sheer selfishness, tyranny and rapacity,' this "wholesale and unrelenting levying on labor by the building trades council" exceeds any of the "heart-rending charges against the methods employed by conscienceless employers to exploit the worker and profit from his need" And the Detroit News, (Ind.) adds that "in the highbinding tactics of the leaders," employes have been "ruthlessly held up."

Graft in union labor ranks is not an argument against unionism, the New York Tribune (Rep.) concedes, since "the crooked infest all walks of life, and charity comes when the percentage of grafters is approximately the same in all groups." But unionists should realize, "when next they encounter an employer who fights the closed shop, that perhaps all he personally knows of unions has come from the visits of blackmailers."

The New York World (Dem.) also points out the danger to organization in such practices as Brindell is accused of. "A united industry,' it says, "is none too strong to meet employers' organizations on even terms. But the first interest of a graft-pursuing labor leader is to split his industry, not to unite it. His best chance to call frivolous strikes which can be called off as mysteriously lies in camouflaging clear issues by setting rival organizations against each other within the industries.' Further, "to benefit the public by doing honest work for an honest price no trade conspiracies are necessary. Mr. Undermyer and the Lockwood Committee are revealing one cause of the rental situation that has so wronged and robbed the public. They are giving honest builders, both employers and employed, a way of escape from abuses that have put upon them business losses and intolerable wrongs."

Fire Entraps 16 In Kentucky Mine

EARLINGTON, Ky., Nov. 17.—Fire near the opening of the Arnold mine, one mile east of here, has entrapped 16 men and, with the conflagration growing in extent, little hope is held of rescuing them.

The fire, discovered late today, was started from defective electric wiring in a room near the opening and quickly spread. The mine is a drift mine with no shafts, making rescue only through the one opening. The fire can be heard blazing under the ground and smoke is pouring forth in large volumes.

The men entrapped—three white men and 13 negroes—are three miles back from the entrance and it is feared they will suffocate from the thick smoke. Any attempt at rescue thus far has been without result and an effort now is being made to reverse the air through the air shaft, thus keeping the smoke from the miners.

CAPACITY LOADING RESULTS IN SAVING

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The railroads of the country have saved $2,500,000,000 since their return to private ownership through increased efficiency in loading cars, R. H. Aishton, president of the American Railway association told the convention of that body here today.

He said that amount would have had to be spent for new equipment if shippers and the roads by adding a few tons to each car load had not increased the effectiveness of present equipment to the equivalent of 500,000 new cars. Greater dispatch in the moving of cars has resulted in a further increase in efficiency equal to 400,000 more cars, he said.

NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE SOLON TO AID FARMER

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 17.—Dr. E. F. Ladd, first U. S. senator elected as a candidate of the Non-partisan league, announced here that his first aim in congress will be to promote a better system for maketing the grain and other food products of the farm.

"It is a serious problem that faces congress," Dr. Ladd said. "Something must be done and within the next few years if we are to save the farming industry from demoralization. Even now the most of the men left on the farm are middle aged and elderly—the younger men are looking for greater opportunities.

Believes in Futures

"I believe that dealing in futures on shorts—selling grain in which the seller never had an equity, which never existed and which will never be delivered is a species of gambling which does not stabilize prices or benefit the producer or consumer. It is a matter which every legislator ought to study until he has a just compensation of it and then consider whether it is not worthy of his attention.

"The co-operative movement must go hand in hand with helpful legislation in improving the situation. Farmers must come to own their buying and selling organizations.

Farmers Need Help

"If legislation is passed making funds from federal reserve banks and federal land banks available to these organizations farmers will be able to hold their grains until they are needed instead of dumping them on the market at the end of the harvest."

Dr. Ladd added that effort should be made to bring a better school system into rural districts and give the farm children the same chances for education as hold in towns and cities.

FIFTEEN YEARS OF BLACK-DRAUGHT

Black-Draught Highly Recommended by Illinois Man for Liver and Stomach Disorders. Used It for Fifteen Years.

Singerton, Ill.—"For fifteen years we have used Thedford's Black-Draught, and have not as yet found anything that could take its place," writes Mr. W. F. Rister, of this town. "I have used it for indigestion a number of times, and it gives relief," continues Mr. Rister

"For sour stomach, a heavy, bloated feeling, it is splendid. And when the liver gets torpid, so that when you stoop and raise up suddenly you feel dizzy, a few doses will set you straight.

"We keep it and use for constipation and the above troubles, and find it most satisfactory. I can recommend it to others and gladly do so. For the number of years I have used Black-Draught now, I ought to know."

In its 70 years of usefulness, Thedford's Black-Draught has relieved thousands and thousands of persons suffering from the results of a disordered liver. And, like Mr. Rister, many people feel that, after using Black-Draught nothing can take its place.

If you haven't tried Black-Draught get a package today.

DOCTORS USE CALOTABS FOR COLDS AND FLU

Influenza and Grippe, Like Ordinary colds, Require Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors are warning the public that simple colds and mild cases of influenza often lead to pneumonia and other serious complications. They say that every cold should receive immediate attention and that the first step in the treatment is to make sure that the liver is active. For this purpose Calotabs, the perfected, nauseless calomel tablets are the surest, best and most agreeable laxative.

One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all, no salts, no nausea, and no upsetting of the digestion and appetite. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please,—no danger.

For your protection, Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. All druggists recommend and guarantee Calotabs and are authorized to refund the price if you are not delighted with them.—(Adv.)

CITY PLANS FOR ZONES SYSTEM ARE COMPLETED

Extension of Eighteenth street and paving it along the entire distance from Lamar west to the city limits in order to connect up the main part of the city with all of that territory east of the tracks is proposed in revised plans being drawn by George Kessler, municipal planning expert, and Alfred Noyes, his assistant.

Eighteenth street would then cut across some open territory near its present terminus. Eighteenth street is now a dirt road.

Kept No Record Of 2½ Billions Spent on Ships

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—A series of startling disclosures tending to support what he declared to be a "complete lack of adequate accounting system" in the handling of government funds, were made here today by Martin J. Gillen, a witness before the Walsh congressional committee investigating the affairs of the United States shipping board. Gillen was a special assistant to former chairman John Barton Payne.

The name of President-elect Harding was brought into the record when he Gillen said he had informed Senator Harding that it was the duty of congress to see that only big men, capable of handling affairs entrusted to them, be appointed to all departments. He said appointments should be confirmed by the senate only when it was determined the men named were capable and efficient.

"It has been conceded," he said, "that but few men connected with the emergency fleet corporation had an expert knowledge of accounting."

Accounting Trouble

He also said it was due to a complete breakdown of the accounting system that the board had its main troubles. Figures used today by the witness ran into billions of dollars. He testified that one of the first acts of Chairman Bayne when he discovered the condition of affairs, was to go to secretary of the treasury and secure from him the services of Alonzon Tweedale, whom he made treasurer of the board. This was done about August 1, 1919, and he testified that among other conditions disclosed by the new treasurer were the following:

There was no balance sheet showing what funds the board possessed or in what banks its funds were deposited.

There was no record in the hands of the board of securities valued at more than $240,000,000 which the board held. The securities, he added, were found in the vaults of a transit company in Philadelphia, where they had been placed for safe keeping.

2½ Billion Unrecorded

There was no record showing in detail how $2,500,000,000 had been expended up to that time.

There was no record of accounting with operators of shipping board vessels nor no way of determining how much money belonging to the government they had in their possession.

Prior to the advent of Mr. Tweedle he said, the treasurer of the board was only "an issuer of checks" oftimes without supporting claim vouchers.

On November 1 of this year, the witness said, of the sum of $3,800,000,000 expended there had been submitted to the treasurer vouchers to cover only $2,700,000,000. Vouchers representing disbursements of $900,000,000 had been "excepted to" by the treasurer because of lack of sufficient supporting data; and there was yet to be presented vouchers amounting to $1,100,000,000.

Vouchers and data to make possible the accounting so far obtained, he testified have been obtained by going out into the field, starting with bank accounts of various firms and persons with whom the board and the emergency fleet corporation had transactions and tracing the accounts back to the board. In this work he said, a force of 900 men had been engaged.

Did Best Elsewhere

In summing up his evidence Gillen said the shipping board had gone out and obtained the best possible men to handle its ship construction and in operating divisions but it had failed to get a man big enough to establish and carry out a department of efficient accounting.

He made it plain that he had found no evidence of dishonesty on the part of officials of the board—that they had done their very best—but the energies of the board had been concentrated on getting ships and getting them into operation. He also said comptroller of the board and the emergency fleet corporation operated virtually independent of the treasurer of the shipping board.

He further said an order of congress of July 1, 1918 for an accounting of board funds to the national comptroller had not been complied with when Mr. Tweedale took charge, because of the bad conditions of the accounts. Warrants for money issued during a period of two years are still being picked up all over the United States, the witness said.

U. S. CERTIFICATES POPULAR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Total subscriptions for treasury certificates dated November 15 and maturing May 16, 1921, was $292,696,000, Secretary Houston announced today, and the total alloted was $232,124,000. The amount offered was $200,000,000 or thereabouts.

Harding is said to be opposed to a display in Washington society, but the only way to prevent that is by changing the fashions.—Indianapolis News.

Buy Clothes Wisely

Men, its foolhardy to skimp on a suit expenditure. It's pure folly to save a few dollars by buying an inferior garment. The man who spends a little more for a good suit will profit in the long run, for such a suit will produce 100 per cent in quality, service, value and satisfaction, and will save you from $15 to $30 on each suit you buy.

Unquestionable Quality

You have only to compare values here with those in other stores to know that you get your money's worth and more. Every new and desirable fabric, pattern and weave is represented in our big winter showing of clothes for men.

Buying clothes is a matter of deliberate judgment. No matter what price you pay, the price alone doesn't prove economy—the longer they serve the more economical they are, and the saving of from $15 to $30 on a suit is economy at the start.

Mrs. J. Barnard Gives Affair

Mrs. James Barnard entertained with a pretty bridge party Tuesday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. M. Adickes. It was in honor of her sister, Miss Adele Adickes, whose engagement and approaching marriage to Charles I. Francis was announced.

Twelve tables of players enjoyed the interesting game of bridge. Miss Leila Beall Anderson won the high score prize, a dainty good night candle. Miss Margaret McMahon won the low score prize, a dainty handmade handkerchiefs. Mrs. Clarence Moore won the cut prize, also a handmade handkerchief. Miss Adickes, the honoree, was presented with a pretty embroidered bridge luncheon set with napkins to match.

The reception suits was tastefully decorated for the occasion with pink and white chrysanthemums. It was lighted with pink candles, which lent a subdued glow over all.

Following the game, the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. M. M. Adickes and sister, Miss Frankie Adickes and Mrs. G. D. Anderson served a tempting refreshment plate, consisting of pressed chicken, hot tea, bread and butter sandwiches, olives, cake and white mints decorated with pink rose buds and bearing the initials A. F. in gilt, which told the story of the announcement. Miss Leila Beall Anderson announced the date, December 28.

The bride-elect was charming in a changeable blue taffet. Maybelle model gown trimmed with silver and handmade sweet peas.

New Elixir, Called Aspironal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—(Adv.)

MILLION DOLLAR CO-OPERATIVE SALE!

Fifty manufacturers loaded to the roof with sumptuous and luxurious merchandise, unable to keep up the "Prosperity Bluff" any longer, are forced to come direct to the public to dispose of their surplus stocks, because—

Owing to adverse weather and market conditions these manufacturers cannot sell merchandise through their regular channels because the retailers are not in the market to buy.

These manufacturers are not looking for profit—every garment will be sold direct to you for the same prices retailers pay—they are frankly glad of the opportunity to sell this merchandise now—because they must prepare for the coming season—therefore must sell the Fall stocks before new materials can be bought for Spring.

La Petite Maison obtained for 10 days only the opportunity to act as one of the distributors of this wonderful collection of merchandise—because La Petite Maison, Inc., believed the public would appreciate the opportunity of buying direct from the manufacturers at manufacturers' cose and less.

Just thing of what this means to you—just think of being able to buy at wholesale for the same prices retailors pay. Just think of the values—for instance, you may have always wanted to buy a Fur Coat—

OUTWEIGHED, KEMPER BEATS ST. JOHN SQUAD

Special to The Record News.

BOONEVILLE, MO., Nov. 17.—The greatest intersectional prep school contest ever staged in the southwest between Kemper Military school and St. John's Military academy of Delafield, Wis., resulted in a 62 to 6 victory for the Kemper team here yesterday.

The St. John's team conceded to be the strongest prep team in the northwest, outweighed the Kemper team 15 pounds in the line and 12 pounds in the backfield. In spite of their beef the lightweight Kemper team tore through their opposition line at will, circled their ends; in numerous runs and fordward passed successfully through all stages of the game.

St. John's tried a large variety of plays but to no avail. Failing on line plunges and end runs their quarterback tried only forward passes and in the third quarter succeeded in sending a man across the line for their only score.

Brilliant Playing

They displayed brilliant offensive and heavy defensive playing. T. K. Sims of Oklahoma starred consistently with his spectacular broken field running while W. A. Coglizer of Iowa attracted attention by his long punts and splendid catching of forward passes. Tanner and Shappel also played well for Kemper.

For St. John's Somerville at quarter displayed decided ability in the handling of his team and Gruhn at fullback was the hardest hitting and best ground gaining man. Their forward passing was second only to that of the Kemper team.

Beginning in the first few minutes of the opening quarter with a touchdown from a forward pass the cadets' machine could not be stopped. They scored in every quarer seemingly almost at will, the last counter coming when there was less than a minute left to play.

Coglizer Stars

Coglizer, right end, and Sims, halfback, starred for Kemper.

Kempley, Wolverton and Gruhn played especially well for the visitors, whose only touchdown came in the third quarter when Kempley offtackled, passed several players in a brilliant broken-field run.

The lineup was:

St. John's	Position	Kemper
Peterson	Right Tackle	Coglizer
Martin	Left Tacle	Tancred
Freckman	Right Guard	Seeleye
Olsen	Center	Lathrop
Swayne	Let Guard	Pret
Henderson	Left Tackle	Hood
Martin	Left End	Cleland
Somerville	Q. Back	McNeely
Kempley	R. Half	Shappell
Gruhn	Full Back	Peddycord

Summary for Kemper:

Touchdown, Coglizer 3; Sims 3, Cleland 1, Peddycord 1: field goals: Coglizer; goals from touchdown: Coglizer 1.

For St. John's:

Touchdown: Kempley 1.

STORY OF "DOUBLES" TOLD IN MOVIES

Two women, remarkably alike in physical appearance, but totally different in temperament, are the main characters in "The Broadway Bubble," the Vitagraph feature which may be seen at the Empress theater today only. Corinne Griffith is the star.

They are sisters. One, Adienne, is married, although she abhors maternity and longs for a stage career and its attendant freedom. The other Drina, unmarried, is drudging in a small town, although her tastes run towards the security and contentment of home and husband in the stimulating atmosphere of the metropolis.

A simple but tremendously daring plan is seized on by the wife to release her from her matrimonial encumbrances while she takes a whirl at the footlight life. She cajoles her devoted sister into taking her place in the household with the unsuspecting husband while she answers the overpowering call.

The ruse works, although the husband notices some strange and startling changes in his wife. But, when, by chance, he takes Drina to the theater where his real wife makes her debut the whole scheme flashes on him. The wife, from the stage, recognizes her husband at the same time, and there is a dramatic finish, totally unlooked for, to the play. The curtain is rung down as the dream of Broadway is shattered, but out of its ruins arises a lasting structure of happiness.

ELEVEN KILLED BY CYCLONE IN SICILY

ROME, Nov. 17.—Sicily was visited by a cyclone yesterday, causing eleven deaths in the town of Misilmeri and destroying a number of houses in Bagheria and other places, according to a Palmero, dispatch to the Stefani Agency today.

FROM THE JUDGES' STAND

Assorting the News From the Sport Realm

"My fight with Jack Dempsey won't last more than eight rounds. Whichever of us gets in the first hard punch will win." So declared Georges Carpentier on arriving in Paris Saturday.

"I know Dempsey," he declared. "I have even played golf with him, and I realize he'll be a hard man to beat. The future will show who is the better man. As for me, I am confident. Dempsey's kind thought in sending me a wireless message when our boat was off Nantucket, wishing us Godspeed, was very gentlemanly."

Levinsky's conqueror received a tremendous ovation upon his arrival in France. Admirers carried him on their shoulders to his automobile, while the journey to his home was one triumphal procession.

The French champion expressed himself as annoyed at the injustice shown him by one or two of the American sporting writers in hinting that his fight with Levinsky was a fake, but said the American public as a whole was most cordial and fair.

After a short rest, Carpentier will begin training for his match with Dempsey, and will return to America Probably in January.

An unusual display of grit that enabled Notre Dame to defeat Indiana Saturday, in the hardest contest of the season for Coach Rockne's men was disclosed Tuesday when an examination revealed that George Gipp, half back, played through nearly the entire game with a fractured collarbone. Gipp's injury came shortly after the first whistle. Rockne removed Gipp from the game in the third quarter, but the plucky half back insisted on rejoining his mates in the final period. It is doubtful whether Gipp will be in shape for Notre Dame's game with Northwestern U., Saturday.

The Big Ten title will hang in the balance Saturday as Illinois and Ohio State clash at Urbana. Ohio State seems, by comparative scores, to have the edge on the Illinois eleven but after viewing the Illinois-Wisconsin game Saturday, Coach Wilce, Ohio State, claims the two teams are about evenly matched. Illinois however, will tax every ounce of strength and strategy to break up the Workman-Stinchcomb combination that has so perfected the passing game.

Last year hundreds of thousands of dollars changed hands at Columbus but betting will be at a minimum in Urbana, Saturday, due to crusades both at Illinois and Ohio State.

Members of the American Davis Cup tennis team left Tuesday night for Victoria, B. C., where they will sail on the steamer Niagara for New Zealand to play for the trophy. The American players are William T. Tilden, world's singles champion; William M. Johnston, Watson Washburn, and Samuel Hardy.

Virginia Military Institute, by virtue of Saturday's 98-0 victory over Catholic University, leads all Southern College football teams in points scored. The V. M. I. eleven has scored 407 points to its opponent's 13 and has yet to suffer a defeat, its list of victories including the 27-7 defeat of the University of Pennsylvania.

Auburn in points scored ranks next to V. M. I. in the south with 340 to its opponents' 15, while Centre College has scored 338 points against 55 by opponents.

Football games in the south Saturday left as teams which have been undefeated this season Alabama University, Georgia University and V. M. I. Georgia Tech has not been defeated by a southern eleven, having bowed only to the University of Pittsburg, while Tulane has suffered defeat only from the University of Michigan.

OLYMPIC FEATURES BLACKMAIL STORY

"Blackmail," a screen version of Lucia Chamberlain's Saturday Evening Post story of the skillful workings of the crook world, was shown yesterday at the Olympic theater, with Viola Dana in the star role. The film which is a Metro special production, deals with that strata of society always of fascinating interest to a large percentage of humanity and the special worry of the police.

Miss Dana appears in the role of Flossie Golden, the beautiful daughter of a famous crook who is urged by her dying father not to let the cops forget the name of Golden. With a band of confederates she entangles a wealthy but insipid young man with the intention of blackmailing him into marriage.

But the young man's hard-headed, socially ambitious mother finds a way to block any such mis-alliance on his part and through the efforts of a skillful young lawyer saves him. But the lawyer falls a victim to the charms of the lovely crook and the working out of the unusual plot furnishes many stage thrills.

If your child eats ravenously at times and at other times has no appetite at all, look out for worms. White's Cream Vermifuge is the remedy to use. It clears them out. Price 35c. Sold by your Druggist.

EXTENDS BAR PUT ON PREPAID SHIPMENTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The interstate commerce commission continued today until December its recent suspension of the effort of carriers to require prepayment on shipments into Mexico and Canada of United States currency. The operation of the rule had previously been suspended until tomorrow.

PORTUGAL CABINET STILL READY TO QUIT

LISBON, Nov. 17.—The Portuguese cabinet headed by Antonio Granjo has again submitted its resignation. The president this time accepted the withdrawal of the ministry. The cabinet resigned on November 15, but President Almeida at that time refused to accept the resignation.

RUSSIAN SINGER MAY STAY AWHILE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Temporary admittance to the United States was granted by the department of labor to George Baklanoff, Russian baritone of the Chicago Opera Company, who, on his arrival from Europe last Friday, was detained at Ellis Island and ordered deported by a special board of inquiry.

BULLETIN TELLS OF IRRIGATION IN SOUTH TEXAS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The story of how irrigation is making the desert bloom in two South Texas counties, is told in a bulletin issued by the Census Department. These counties are Cameron, in which is located point Isabel, where Senator Harding is spending his vacation, and Hidalgo, which adjoins Cameron.

There are now being irrigated in Cameron county 66,107 acres as against 20,000 ten years ago, an increase of 104.2 percent. In Hidalgo there are now being irrigated 160,000 acres as compared with 21,048 in 1910, an increase of 662.7.

Acreage to which existing works are capable of supplying water in Cameron county 120,957 acres as against 115,303 ten years ago, or an increase of 4.8 percent. Hildalgo county 388,538 acres as against 71,327 in 1910 an increase of 444.7 percent.

Acreage to be irrigated by works either completed or under construction in Cameron county is 178,423 acres as compared with 156,349 in 1910, or 14.1 percent more. In Hildalgo county 424,538 as against 222,569 ten years ago, or 7 percent more.

Acres available for settlement in Cameron county to be supplied with water by works either completed or under construction is 50,868 and in Hidalgo county 21,000 acres.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY

LONDON, Nov. 17.—John Leo Berman, American manager for a branch of the Lloyds Bank, was charged in police court today with connection with forged bills of acceptance, allegedly involving 45,000 pounds. The officer who arrested Mr. Berman testified that Berman admitted being implicated. The prisoner was remanded for eight days.

FIRE HOLDS UP STREET PAVING

A fire in the plant of Morrison and Coleman, contractors has temporarily delayed completion of the paving on Monroe street, according to City Engineer Montgomery. The tank of Morrison and Coleman, near the Wichita Motors Company buildings, took fire, Mr. Montgomery was informed that the damage was two or three thousand dollars.

The paving on one end of the street has been completed. The foundation has been laid for the entire distance, about eight blocks. The surfacing will be completed as soon as the plant is repaired.

SPANISH COLOR INJECTED IN FILM

True-to-Life 'atmosphere" in motion pictures is of prime importance. It adds considerably to the enjoyment of the picture. That was why so many men from the southern part of Europe had a hand in the filming of "The World and His Wife," which comes to the Majestic theater today.

The scene of this picture is northern Spain. Now, northern Spain resembles in many particulars southern France and northwestern Italy. So Robert G. Vignola, who is a northern Italian, was chosen to direct the picture and Al Liguori, a fellow countryman, photographed it. No wonder they were able to reproduce so accurately the dash and color of the Latin countries.

Gaston Glass, who plays the youthful hero, is a native of southern France and a godson of Sarah Bernhardt. And Pedro de Cordoba, excellent in a semi-heavy role, is from sunny Spain itself. To be sure, Alma Rubens, the heroine and featured player, is a San Franciscan, but she is of a warm, dusky type of beauty and in mantilla looks the ideal Spanish maiden. "The World and His Wife" is a Cosmopolitan production and a Paramount Art-Craft picture.

PRISONER SETS JAIL COT AFIRE IN BURKBURNETT

Special to The Record News.

BURKBURNETT, Nov. 17.—A sensational but not dangerous fire was discovered when a prisoner set his bed afire in the city jail. The fire company hurried to the scene and extinguished the flames; the only loss being the cot mattress in the cell.

The City Council of Burkburnett has accepted a new fire truck which recently arrived from the Stutz Fire Engine Company. Initial payment of $5,000 was made to the representative of the company.

The permit issued W. M. Priddy was held up indefinitely. The permit was given for the erection of a derrick on Block 7.

A motion controlling the parking of cars near fire plugs was also carried.

R. S. Langford's resignation as city treasurer was accepted and W. R. Hill was appointed to fill the vacancy.

KENYON TO REGULATE PACKING INDUSTRY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17—Senator Kenyon, republican, Iowa, announced today he would attempt to obtain action on legislation to regulate the packing industry soon after congress meets next month. Regulatory bills, which were the basis of extensive hearings at the last session, are pending before the senate as unfinished business.

L. N. McCRACKEN TAKES AIR TRIP IN QUEST OF TORRES

L. N. McCracken of McGregor and McCracken, local oil operators, was with E. C. Hall in one of the trio of aeroplanes which searched the country over Holiday creek for Joe Torres, who was later found by the police and charged with having run over and killed Archie Martin at Scott and Tenth streets Monday noon. P. R. Estep, Associated Press operator for The Record News, went up in another aeroplane through the courtesy of Mr. Hall.

SUFFERING CREEK TWINS, AT PLAZA

Thrill follows thrill in "Twin of Suffering Creek," a powerful William Fox photoplay of Western life starring William Russell, which opened at the Plaza Theatre today. Russell never has done a better piece of work than his portrayal of Bill Lark, the man who had only five days to live, and used them well.

"The best is like the worst" in the little mining town of Suffering Creek and "a man can raise a thirst" and quench it at Bill Lark's s aloon. That is to say, he can go there if he doesn't value his life very highly, for Bill Lark's saloon is not a healthy spot.

Bill has handled his crowd of tough customers pretty well for some time, but one night a gambler springs a surprise on him, and Bill finds hanging over him a death sentence imposed by chance and a deck of cards. And Bill is in love. How shall he use his last five days? He uses them well. He defeats a band of robbers who hold up the stage coach and he wins a bride and a right to live.

TO ARRAIGN WOMAN, ALLEGED SLAYER

Malinda Higgs, negro woman, charged with murder in connection with the slaying last July of Homer McClain, another negro, will be arraigned for trial before Judge Edgar Scurry Thursday in Seventy-eighth district court.

County Attorney John Davenport and Assistant District Attorney Sam Holliday will prosecute the case for the state. Attorney Barnard Martin will act as counsel for the defendant.

WANT CANAL DREDGED.

GALVESTON, Nov. 17.—Dredging of the Galveston-Corpus Christi interstate canal to a minimum depth of nine feet was urged by the Gulf Coast interests at a hearing here this afternoon before Major L. M. Adams, engineer in charge of this district.

CTY PLAN MAY LINK UP AREAS BY PAVING 18TH

Plans calling for a division of the entire city into six zones as recommended by George Kessler, landscape architect have been agreed upon by the committee appointed by Mayor Cline Saturday. John Noyes, assistant to Mr. Kessler and a member of the committee, is now completing maps showing the various zones. Other members of the committee are Street Commissioner Curlee, chairman, Hubert Harrison, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and City Engineer Julian Montgomery.

The committee was appointed to investigate the plans for the future development of the city as outlined by the Kessler report of last week and make recommendations as to a final plan that will be adopted by the city.

Meetings of the committee have been held since Saturday and an agreement has been reached as to the zoning divisions to be recommended. The general plans for the physical development of this city, including prospective boulevards, swimming pools, and parks, are being considered by the committee but no definite recommendations will be made until the zoning system has been authorized.

Only minor changes have been made in the zoning systm, recommended by Kessler whose plans were tentative only, being subject to changes thought necessary city officials. Under the zoning plan agreed upon the city will be divided into six zones: Railroads, heavy industrials, light industrials, multiple family residents, single family residents and business districts. The maps showing the zones will be completed by the end of the week.

COTTON MEN PLAN FOREIGN MARKET

DALLAS, Nov. 17.—Plans of the United States Cotton Growers association to finance a foreign market for low grade cotton were discussed at a meeting here today. Governor R. L. Van Zandt of the federal reserve board presided at the meeting. No definite action was taken.

Important to Large Families
Karo Solves the "Sweet" Problem at Less Cost

The mother of a large family cannot help being worried over the extremely high prices of today. In children especially, Nature emphasizes her demand for sweets. We all need a good percentage of sweets each day.

This is the reason why over two hundred million cans of Karo were sold last year—it is the Great American Sweet for every purpose.

There is an every day use for Karo. From breakfast — on pancakes or waffles — to dinner for cooking and baking.

Instead of worrying about and paying high prices for store candy, make Karo Candy at home. It is easy to make, costs but little and its purity makes it best for children.

Your Protection

is the mark Karo on every can of original Karo. Do not be deceived by imitations. There is no substitute for Karo. Karo is Karo.

STRIKERS SEIZE MEXICAN MINE

Perfect Order, However, Is Maintained in Coahuila District.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Nov. 17.—The strike situation in Coahuila became aggravated this afternoon when strikers took over the mines, according to an official message received here from Mexican Consul Emilimno Tamez. The message stated that the government disapproves of the action taken and will hold strikers responsible for all destruction of property and disorders resulting from the step made. Protection to Americans was guaranteed, the message stated.

The strikers are reported to be well organized and maintaining perfect order. Standing firm in their demands for a hundred percent increase in wages they are determined not to relinquish the mines, according to an American who arrived here today from the scene, until their demands are met.

Auto Sales Leap Forward Again After 2 Months

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—After two months of depression there has been an upward turn in the automobile business, both pleasure cars and trucks, according to Alfred Reeves, general manager of the national automobile equipment association, at the coliseum here today.

"Along with other industries we have had poor sales for two months but the business is now moving upward" Mr. Reeves said. "Present production is now averaging more than fifty per cent except in the case of three or four factories. The full year, however, will exceed all records, approaching 1,900,000 cars and 340,000 trucks."

SOCIALISTS HIDE GUN YANKS TOOK

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., Nov. 17.—A big siege gun used by the Germans in the recent world war and secured for Sheboygan by Congressman Edward Voight and Mayor Herman Albrecht will remain in the city tool house instead of finding a place as an ornament in one of the city parks following a majority report by nine socialist members of the common council.

The socialists declared that they were "of the opinion that the citizens of Sheboygan are better served without such field gun and that the public display thereof fosters and inspires a war spirit in the mind of the coming generation" which they feel "should be hampered rather than encouraged."

ÅLAND DISPUTE ARBITER ARRIVES

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 16.—Abram I. Elkus of New York city, member of the commission which will review the dispute relative to the disposition of the Aland Islands, which threatened for a time to result in hostilities between Sweden and Finland arrived here from America this morning.

Swedish newspapers express gratification over the arrival of Judge Elkus, which they consider as significants of America's interest in settlement of European disputes. The king is expected to receive the American representative tomorrow at a special audience.

G. O. P. Standard Bearer Ran Out Ahead of Ticket

Final official returns on the presidential election in Wichita county were made public Tuesday by the county commissioners court. The check showed that Culbertson ran ahead of the republican ticket by about one hundred votes over Harding and about 300 over the average of other G. O. P. candidates. About 5300 votes were polled.

Debs, convict candidate of the socialist party, got about three and a half times as many votes as J. E. Ferguson of the American party in the presidential race. The democratic candidate, Pat Neff, in the gubernatorial race, had a plurality of about two to one over the field. The republicans scored 1540 votes and Neff 3662 for governor.

GRAIN COTTON

PRESSURE PUTS COTTON DOWN TO LOW RECORD

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—Continued selling pressure in the cotton market today sent prices down to new low levels for the season.

Following early declines of about a quarter of a cent on the months under most pressure the market steadied and recovered its losses. The continued wet weather in the Atlantic and freezing temperatures over the greater part of the belt were accepted as meaning that damage to the grade of open cotton continued.

Steadiness did not last long, the market first weakened under rumors of sales of spots in the interior at low prices.

NEW YORK DECLINES

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—There was a further severe decline in the cotton market today with all deliveries making new low records for the season. The market was unsettled from the start with first prices barely steady at a decline owing to weak cables and spot house selling.

The bullish weekly report of the weather bureau and firmer early ruling of sterling exchange promoted the spurt which carried active months higher.

Spot houses were sellers on the advance, and the market became weak and unsettled. Liverpool cables reported hedge and Manchester selling and said that the decline there had uncovered stop orders.

COLD CAUSES HARM

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—Heavy damage to sugar cane in Louisiana because of the recent cold spell will run into hundreds of thousands of dollars, according to advices reachin gthe weather bureau today, supplemented by statements of Joseph B. Chaffe, secretary of the American Cane Growers association.

In East Baton Rouge parish, where a great amount of the state's cane is grown, a temperature of 22 degrees was reached last night. Mr. Chaffe reported cane badly split and unfit for use.

All grinding has been stopped in the cane sections today and efforts are being made to winnow and gather the crop before it sours.

TRAIN STRIKES AUTO—2 DEAD

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lockwood of Manor, were killed late yesterday when a train struck their automobile at Manor, according to dispatches reaching here today.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 17.—Hogs 12,000; fairly active, generally 10 to 15c higher; top $12.30; bulk of sales $11.35@12.25; pigs and packing sows generally steady; good and choice fat pigs $12.00@12.25.

Cattle 12,000; most classes dull, generally steady to 25c lower; steer sales $12.75; bulk she stock $5.00@6.00; canners steady, mostly $3.00@3.25; calves to 50c lower; best vealers $12.00@13.00.

Sheep 2,500; killing classes fully 25c lower; native lambs $10.75; fed yearlings $8.75.

CAPITALISTS VISIT OIL FIELDS HERE

Over 150 capitalists from east and north spent a short time in the city Wednesday. The party arrived here about noon from Burkburnett, where they had spent the forenoon in an inspection trip of the Burkburnett oil fields. The party, which was traveling in a special train, was headed by officials of the Noco Petroleum Company of New York City, several of the capitalists being stockholders in the Noco company. The New York party left Thursday and have been joined by additional parties from Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City.

The party will return to Kansas City via Gainesville and Oklahoma City.

PAROLE BOYS ON GOOD BEHAVIOR

After serving 18 months in the state reformatory at Gatesville, Jack and Frank Elmore, 14 and 16 respectively of 211 Seymour street, reached home Thursday on parole for good behavior according to a statement late Thursday from County Juvenile Officer R. W. Morgan.

The two boys were sent to the reformatory on an order from the county judge following their conviction on charges of misdemeanor offenses.

HELD IN JAIL FOR BURGLARY TRIAL

Oscar Lafferty and Bert Smith, who were arrested Tuesday at Burkburnett by Deputy Sheriff Frank Watkins, were brought to the county jail here Wednesday to await examining trial on charges of burglary.

According to court attaches, the youths confessed to having entered and robbed the Burkburnett Mercantile Company about a week ago of approximately $60 in cash and a quantity of cigarettes and cigars.

ARKANSAS DELEGATES MEET.

CAMDEN, Ark., Nov. 17.—Delegates began arriving here today for the Arkansas Methodist conference, which opens here tomorrow. Bishop H. B. Monzon of Dallas, Texas, will preside. Appointments of ministers will be announced at the closing session Sunday night.

IMPORTS, SALES SEND WHEAT TO LOWER LEVELS

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Aggressive selling emphasized by reports that three vessel loads of Canadian wheat were on the way here and that Chicago concerns were buying wheat at Minneapolis to bring to Chicago had a decided bearish effect today on the price of wheat. The market closed nervous, 3 to 5c net lower, with December $1.84 1-4 to $1.84 1-2 and March $1.72 3-4 to $1.73.

Corn lost 2 1-2 to 3 1-2c.

Corn touched the lowest prices yet this season. The weakness was due to general selling precipitated by a break in cash corn values at Kansas City.

COFFEE FUTURES UNSTEADY

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—After opening at a decline of 3 to 5 points coffee futures rallied slightly on covering inspired by the firmer ruling of sterling and Rio exchange rates. It soon weakened again, however, owing to the unsettled ruling of the markets for stocks and cotton. December $6.92; January $7.15.

Spot coffee was nominally unchanged at 7 1-4c for Rio 7s and 10 3-4 to 11 1-2c for Santos 4s.

REDUCE CONGRESS, HIKE PAY, PLAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Talk of raising the salary of senators and congressmen is again being heard here. At present the salary is $7,500. The talk is that this will be raised to $10,000 or $12,500.

It is no secret that senators and congressmen, unless they had other sources of income, have found it difficult to live in Washington on the salary now received.

Bound up with the gossip of increased pay is the question of cutting down the present membership. The house membership is now 435 and if the apportionment is not changed it is likely that there will be more than 500 members in the 68th congress, which convenes in 1923. This would not only make necessary an enlargement of the house chamber, which will be a difficult architectural feat, but it will also require the enlargement of the house office building at a cost of approximately $2,000,000.

The first congressman to announce that he would fight an increase in his own pay is Representative Thomas L. Blanton of Texas, who says his present pay is large enough.

PRODUCTION IN WICHITA FIELDS 85,000 BARRELS

Production in the Wichita Falls district remained steady around 85,000 barrels daily for the past week, according to averages based on pipeline runs for that period. The Waggoner and Northwest extension and townsite production showed a slight decrease, with a daily average of 52,500 barrels and the Texhoma pool was also slightly under the past week's totals in the daily average of 5,200 barrels. The old Burkburnett pool's daily average is now around 10,300 barrels.

Electra shows an increase of 300 barrels over last week, the new average being 10,900 barrels. The Kemp Munger, Allen district, and the Iowa Park shallow field has a daily average of 6,000 barrels.

Petrolia is still making around 400 barrels, Holliday around 200 and the oung county average, without the new Oklahoma Petroleum and Gasoline Company's well, is around 500 barrels.

RAW SUGAR UNCHANGED

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Raw sugar was unchanged at 5½c for Cubas, cost and freight.

No further changes occurred in refined locally, although out of town refiners made further reductions, some selling as low as 9.50 for fine granulated.

The volume of business in sugar futures was the largest since the reopeing of the exchange, although most of it was in the form of switches. Closing prices were 5 to 15 points net lower.

SAYS STATE NEEDS LARGER REVENUE

HOUSTON, Nov. 17.—Tax reform will be asked of the legislature by the tax assessors' association of Texas when the state solons meet in January, it was stated at the second day's session here today of the association's fifteenth annual convention.

James A. Kieg, state tax commissioner, told the convention that "the state will be on a deficiency inside of two years unless it taxes millions of dollars of property not now taxed." He urged additional assessments against public service corporations.

TEXTILE MILLS REDUCE OUTPUT FIFTY PER CENT

BOSTON, Nov. 17.—Curtailment of production which began some months ago in New England textile industries employing 300,000 operatives has reached a point where the total output is less than one-half that of one year ago, according to estimates made from a canvass today of the great mill centers. In some instances the curtailment runs as high as 8 percent. A few mills have shut down entirely. The majority have adopted a working schedule of three or four days a week. Mills that continue in operation on full time with full crews are exceptional. Thus far, only isolated announcements of wage reductions have appeared, and those have been for the most part in small mills where operatives have presented the choice of a 10 percent wage cut or a shut down, the manufacturers contending that they had found themselves to continue business under the former wage expense.

Rhode Island mills are operating at from 50 to 60 percent of capacity. There have been few wage cuts. The curtailment in mills in Maine has been limited in most cases to three or four day schedules, none of the larger mills closing entirely. Production in Vermont's textile industry in Burlington and vicinity is at about one-third normal. Short time schedules are in force in the large cotton mills in Manchester and Nashua, N. H., without wage reduction.

NO REDS REACH U. S. THROUGH CANADA

OTTAWA, Nov. 17.—Denial of reports that bolsheviki agitators were slipping into the United States across the Canadian border because of lack of passport control by Canada was made today by A. C. Blair, under secretary of the department of immigration and colonization.

"The laws of Canada, as well as those of the United States, bar the dangerous agitator," he said. "The statement that Canada has abolished passport regulations is a misapprehension. Canada does not require a passport from a British subject coming from the mother country but all other immigrants must have passports."

STOCKS FAIL IN EFFORT TO GAIN NEW STRENGTH

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Stocks evinced a disposition to throw off their protracted unsettlement at the outset of today's trading but before the session was half spent the market encountered another selling movement in which many new low records for a year or more were registered.

Lacking definite or specific reasons, the relative firmness at the opening was credited to assurances issued overnight by foremost banking interests which dwelt on the soundness of fundamental financial conditions.

The character of the day's reaction suggested that a considerable part of the new liquidation was proceeding from such quarters. Obscure speculative issues more or less exempt in the recent setback broke through to over ten points, finally affecting popular issues at extreme declines of 2 to 7 points.

Short covering in the final dealings resulted in rallies of one to almost 3 points from the lowest prices but a weak tone prevailed at the close.

Sales 1,125,000 shares.

Call money's decline to six percent and further strength of foreign exchange exerted no influence over the stock market. Bonds were disturbed by the fresh pressure in the stock list although liberty issues closed at gains.

Total sales, par value, $13,200,000.

Farming Bureau Wins Its Fight On New Land Tax

DALLAS, Nov. 17.—The American Farm Bureau Federation has won its first skirmish in the battle to keep interests from shifting the burden of taxation to the farm, according to C. O. Moser, secretary of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation.

J. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation and expert of the organization appeared before the taxation committee of the national industrial conference board recently and convinced the members that the "Ralston-Nolan" bill providing for a one percent tax on land valuation above $10,000 would do untold harm to the farming interests of the United States and in many instances would force them to sell their farms.

The farmers also opposed the proposed tax of one percent on sales of all commodities and they presented their side of the matter so clearly that they convinced Otto Kahn, New York banker that his advocacy of the sales tax was wrong. The farm bureau intends to continue its fight to protect the farmers from the burden of unjust taxation.

U. S. MAY END WESTERN UNION CABLE RIGHTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Relations between the Western Union Telegraph company and the state department, already strained to the point of open rupture, reached a stage today where the government was understood to be considering seriously revocation of landing permits under which the company's existing cables are operated.

The power of the executive branch of the government to take such a drastic step has never been established in the courts, but a veiled intimation of the purpose to bring it to an issue was contained in a formal statement on the controversy given out today by the state department.

After announcing the refusal of the company to handle government cable messages except upon prepayment or to carry messages originating outside of the United States at reduced government rates, the statement said it had been the uniform policy of the government to allow the landing of cables only on condition that the United States should be entitled to enjoy the same privileges with regard to the control and use of such lines as were exercised by foreign governments.

It was obvious, the statement added, that the United States could not be expected to allow the Western Union company, an American corporation, to charge for government messages twice the rates charged the British and other governments.

Because of the Western Union company's demand for prepayment on government cable messages, it is understood that orders have been issued in some departments that business be routed over the lines of other cable companies as much as possible.

Lawyer's Fraud Gains Time for Doomed Negro

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 17.—Governor Brough today granted a thirty days' stay of execution in the case of Orfie Norsworthy, negro, who was scheduled to be electrocuted next Friday, to allow attorneys to prepare an appeal.

According to information reaching the governor an attorney at Wynne, Ark., where the negro was convicted of murder, accepted a fee with the understanding that he would perfect an appeal, but shortly afterward disappeared.

SLEW MAN IN RAID, DRY OFFICER HELD

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., Nov. 17.—S. Glenn Young, a federal prohibition enforcement officer, was indicted late today on a murder charge in connection with the killing of Luka Lukovic, an Austrian on the night of November 6 last while he and Walter Cowgill, a Granite City policeman were raiding the Lukovic home in Madison in search of liquor.

REPORT SHOWS TEXHOMA 13TH IN PRODUCTION

The Texhoma Oil and Refining Company of this city ranks thirteenth among the oil companies of the state in amount of oil produced, according to state reports covering production for the first six months of the year, ending June 30. The report shows that the local company produced 762,979 barrels of oil during the six-month period. The same report shows that the Panhandle Refining Company, which until recently maintained their general offices in this city, ranks seventeenth in the state in production, and Kansas-Gulf Company nineteenth. The latter company last week purchased the partnership holdings of the firm of Staley, Langford & Chenault. The firm has been the largest individual operators of this city for several months, according to the quarterly production reports.

The production report covering the first six months of the year shows that practically half of the oil produced in the state during that period is credited to four companies. The four companies—Texas Company, Gulf Production Company, Humble Oil and Refining Company, and the Magnolia Petroleum Company—produced 35,230,007 barrels of oil valued at, $81,411,730 during the first half of the year.

The twenty leading companies in the state produced a total of 53,276,619 barrels of oil, which represents 68 per cent of the total production of the state from January 1 to June 30. The value of the oil is increasing as shown by the quarterly reports. For the first quarter of the year, ending March 31, the value was $43,635,059 with an approximate increase of $20,000,000 credited to the next quarter, ending June 1. The value of the oil for the second quarter was $62,045,035.

Total production figures for the first six months are:

Pay Taxes Now And Avoid Rush, Official's Advice

Special notices are being sent out to tax payers by City Tax Collector Anderson regarding city and school taxes due since October 1. Less than five percent of the 650,000 city and school taxes then due have been collected according to Mr. Anderson.

Those who wait until the last few days before the time of payment expires will have to wait in line until the clerks at the office can take care of them, he pointed out. The previous custom of people rushing in ahead of the line during the last few days and leaving checks on the desk of which no accounting could be made at the time has resulted in considerable confusion and will not be tolerated this year.

Harding Invited To Visit Here

President-elect Harding was invited Wednesday to visit this city before his return from the Panama canal zone. The invitation, which was sent Wednesday was signed by N. H. Martin, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and C. W. Reid, president of the Wichita Club. In the event the invitation is accepted, plans for an elaborate reception for the president-elect and his party will be gotten under way at once by the Chamber of Commerce and other civic bodies.

The telegram sent by Mr. Martin and Mr. Reid was as follows:

"Wichita Falls invites you and your party to visit this city, the center of the world famous oil district, upon your return from Panama. Our citizens will count it a privilege and an honor to have you as our guest and believe you will find this section of Texas extremely interesting."
