

IOWA PARK LEADER

Vol. 28 No. 35

IOWA PARK, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS 76367

Thursday, May 8, 1997

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE to be recognized for your efforts around your home, as R.L. Good found out last week. The sprite centurian was recognized by the Iowa Park Garden Club with its "Yard of the Month" award. His home is at 501 West Texas, on the corner lot clearly visible to passersby traveling on North Pacific.

Hustlin' Hawks return to state playoff scene

The Iowa Park Hawks started the 1997 baseball season with one goal in mind, to make a return trip to the Class 3A State Playoffs.

Iowa Park reached that goal this week, and much more, as the Hawks not only qualified for a playoff spot, they won the District 5-3A title with a perfect 10-0 record.

"Our goal was to make the playoffs," said head coach David Fuhrman. "Winning the district was just gravy and this is the first time in the five years I've been here that we've gone 10-0. You've got to give all the credit to the kids. This has been a total team effort all season long. Everyone has contributed."

The Hawks were handed a share of the district title last week following Vernon's 14-4 upset of second-place Childress. Iowa Park clinched the district title with a 7-4 win over the Lions Friday and capped off the unblemished district record with a 17-12 over Childress Tuesday.

Iowa Park, now 23-4 overall and winner of 11 straight and 23 of their last 25 games, will play a warm-up game against Ranger, the No. 1 ranked team in Class 2A with a 19-0 mark, on Friday with the time and site still yet to be determined. The Hawks will open the playoffs against either Eastland or Ballinger on Thursday at 7 p.m.. If Eastland finishes second, the game will be played at Graham and should Ballinger finish second, the game will be played at Tarleton State Univ. Both games would start at 7 p.m.

In Friday's district-clinching win over Vernon, Iowa Park jumped on top 3-0 in the first inning. Kevin Braziel led off with a single, then stole second. Jake Dillard followed with a walk to put runners at first and second. Jonathan Clubb reached on a fielders choice as Dillard was forced out at second, putting runners at the corners. Clubb then stole second and Braziel scored the game's first run on an error by the Vernon catcher, which also allowed Clubb to move up to third. Wayland Stewart then walked and stole second and again, the Vernon catcher's error allowed the runner from third to score and the runner to move to third.

Iowa Park's third run of the inning came on a sacrifice by Dusty Crawford which scored Stewart from third to make the score 3-0.

Vernon quickly got back in the game scoring three unearned runs in the bottom of the inning to the game at 3-3.

The Hawks scored twice in the top of the second to go back on top 5-3. Justin Terry and Michael Swenson each singled to start off the inning, putting runners at the corners. Braziel hit a ground ball to second to force out Swenson, allowing Terry to score. Braziel then stole second and third and later scored on the third error by the Lions' catcher.

Iowa Park added another run in the fourth inning when Terry led off with a triple and scored on an RBI single by Braziel. The Hawks added another run in the sixth and Vernon a

Computer equipment returned to classroom

Iowa Park police recovered almost all computer equipment that had reportedly been taken from the junior high school, within an hour after the theft report was received Tuesday morning.

The equipment, estimated in value as high as $2,500, reportedly had been taken some time in January, police said. However, no charges had been made as of Wednesday.

The items recovered and returned to the campus included a monitor and programs, and a hard drive also is to be turned over by Friday, police said.

Two 15-year-old female runaways from Vermillion, South Dakota were taken into custody Wednesday afternoon of last week, in the 300 block of West Highway.

According to the police blotter entry, one of the girls had placed a long-distance call from a pay phone in the city at 1:55 p.m. The call was traced to Iowa Park, police were notified of their vehicle's description, and they were apprehended at 3:45 p.m.

The juveniles were held for transport by authorities, and their vehicle was impounded.

Election poll officials are not only mindful of regulations in their areas during voting, but they are also honest.

Police received a call Saturday from the election poll at Kidwell Elementary, that an official had found $250 in cash, lying on the floor of the voting area.

The official told police it was unclear who might have dropped it, and pointed out only six had been there by the 12:20 p.m. reporting.

An embarrassed man contacted police at 7:54 p.m., acknowledging he had lost the money, which had been turned over to police.

And he got his money back.

The only criminal mischief report listed on the week's police blotter concerned a damaged mail box in the south part of town.

A man called police at 10:38 p.m. Friday, reporting one of his family members had observed someone smashing the box.

During investigation Saturday, three male juveniles were confronted, and an agreement was made to make full restitution, according to the report.

Mercer, House win in city, school bids

Two former office holders were returned to posts by voters who cast ballots in Saturday's school and city elections.

Wendall House was successful in his bid to return to the school board, and Bud Mercer was the voters' choice for the city council.

Those two were the only contested races in the elections.

Including early votes, there were 282 ballots cast in the school election and 244 in the city's.

House, who was unseated three years ago by Larry Dutton by a 536-352 count, defeated Jeff Nolan 165-115. This was Nolan's first attempt to seek an elective position.

Incumbent Dutton was unopposed this year, as was Martha Dudley. Dutton garnered 235 votes and Dudley received 232.

Mercer out-poll incumbent Mark Raby by a margin of 159-123 in his bid to be returned as a city alderman. Raby had served three terms.

Mercer, who has served numerous years as an alderman, decided last year not to seek re-election, but rather to challenger Tim Hunter as successor of the mayor's post, after Wayne House had announced he would not seek another term.

Hunter, however, garnered 340 votes in that election, to Mercer's 301.

Incumbent aldermen Tracy Fears and Bob Hamilton ran unchallenged this year. Fears has served one term and Hamilton three.

Results of the election were canvassed Monday night during a called meeting of the city council, and the victors will be sworn in Monday.

The school's election results will be canvassed during tonight's meeting of trustees, and the victors are to be sworn into office immediately following announcement of those results.

Election observers have blamed the low turnouts of the two elections on either a lack of issues, or a lack of interest.

The city's 244 total votes paled in comparison with the 753 which were cast in 1995.

That was similar to the 282 cast by school patrons, because there were 898 votes cast in the 1994 election.

Council meeting Monday

Winners of Saturday's elections were appointed, during Monday night's city council meeting.

The meeting is to begin at 7 p.m. in council chambers.

Oaths of office will be administered to aldermen Tracy Fears, Bob Hamilton and Bud Mercer, all of whom were elected to two-year terms last week.

Also related to the election's outcome, Mayor Tim Hunter is to read a proclamation designating Tuesday, May 13, as "Mark Raby Day" in Iowa Park.

Monday will be Raby's final meeting as an alderman, because he was defeated by challenger Mercer, after serving six years on the council.

The council is to consider awarding a bid for the sale of six lots owned by the city in the south part of town.

Three resolutions are listed on the meeting's tentative agenda, including a general fund budget to include the operation and maintenance of the swimming pool;

* authorize the mayor to execute a lease agreement with Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Spruiell; and,

* authorize the mayor to sell the six lots, if the bid issue is approved.

Administrator Mike Price is to discuss setting dates for aldermen to hold budget workshops for 1997-98.

Called Meeting

Besides canvassing Saturday's election results in a called meeting this past Monday, aldermen approved the administrator's proposal for the operation of the Bicentennial Swimming Pool.

Included in the presentation was to open the pool on May 31, and adjust pool hours during weekdays after classes begin in August, in order to have the facility open through the Labor Day weekend.

Trustees' meeting tonight

Votes in the school election will be canvassed and newly-elected trustees will be sworn in at the regular meeting of the school board this evening. The meeting is scheduled to begin at 7:30 in the junior high school library.

Incumbents Martha Dudley and Larry Dutton, who were unopposed in Saturday's election, and newly-elected trustee Wendall House will be administered the oath of office.

This will be followed by an election of officers for the board.

The board will recognize members of the powerlifting team, some of whom are national champions, and Keith and Wendy Meadows for their work on the high school greenhouse.

Following the business meeting, a closed session is scheduled to employ new personnel, accept resignations, and interview an applicant for the assistant superintendent or finance position.

Students to sell subs

Students of the Iowa Park Junior High School Hawk Band will kick off their annual subscription drive to the Iowa Park Leader today, according to Ed Hefu, director.

Proceeds from their effort this year will be donated to the Recreational Activities Club.

Last year, the musicians' proceeds, $1,018, were donated to the Friendly Door.

The Friendly Door and Recreational Activities Club are Iowa Park's two functions primarily funded by the United Way.

Monday, May 19 will be the final day of the students' drive.

Besides benefiting the local organizations, three students also will be vying for individual prizes, based on most subscriptions sold, most new subscriptions and most renewals.

Names of those winners will be announced during the band's annual Spring Concert.

Health Notes Head Lice

by Joe Hughes, R.P.H.

Head lice is most common in children ages 5 to 12. Lice do not "jump" and are not carried on pets, but are passed from one person to another by sharing items that have touched the head.

Lice are usually brown and about the size of a sesame seed. Nits are tiny, yellowish-white, oval eggs, and are most often found on hairs at the back of the neck, behind the ears, or on the crown of the head. The safest products which kill lice and nits contain 1% permethrin and are available without a prescription. The prescription medication lindane is no more effective, and can cause side effects, so it should only be used to treat cases that have not responded to other products, or when a person is unable to use permethrin due to allergy. Prevent spread by vacuuming floors and furniture, and properly washing clothing and toys, or sealing in plastic bags for ten days.

Card of Thanks

With people in such a hurry today, they seldom take the time to stop and ask if they can help someone in trouble, especially a stranger. I had the misfortune one day last week to have an axle break on a trailer in which I was hauling water. It also broke a glass and messed up my radiator. Several who knew me passed by, but didn't offer to stop.

A young man saw I was having trouble and stopped to see if he could help. He fixed the parts so I could continue to pull the trailer. But, he would take no pay for the time he spent or for fixing the parts.

I want to publicly thank Robert Benson for what he did and let people know there are still young men who are willing to take their time to help others.

Fire safety house to be open at RAC Monday

Monday and Tuesday, Iowa Park youngsters will get a "hands-on" lesson in fire safety, according to Belvin Lytle, fire marshal.

The state fire safety house will be set up at the Iowa Park RAC from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. those days.

The Iowa Park Fire Dept. will conduct a lesson in home fire safety using the Texas Commission on Fire Protection's new fire safety house.

The $26,000, two-story fire safety house was donated to the State of Texas in April by the Texas Fire Chiefs' Foundation. The safety house can be filled with non-toxic "safe smoke" to simulate a real emergency. Children will learn to identify home fire hazards and will have an opportunity to practice exiting a home safely in the event of an emergency.

"With the extreme fire conditions Texas is facing this year, The City of Iowa Park, Iowa Park Fire Dept. and the Texas Commission on Fire Protection are dedicated to teaching young children about the actions they need to take in the event of a fire," Lytle said.

GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Wars have produced an incredible number of records on millions of people that are of inestimable genealogical value. Not only will they be useful in extending your pedigree, but they also contain valuable historical information.

There are two kinds of Military Records, Service Records and Pension Records. Generally the Service Records give only minimal information. On the other hand Pension Records often contain a great deal of information of interest to the genealogist.

Records relating to wars prior to the Revolutionary War are mostly historical and are of little genealogical value. There were no official records before that time.

There are, however, a few Colonial and local Militia records, mainly rolls and rosters. The information is extremely limited.

What is available can be found in Val Greenwood's "Researchers Guide to American Genealogy" and E. Kay Kirkham's "Military Records of America".

During the colonial and early federal period each state had its own army called the State Militia. Often they would have special nicknames such as the "Squirrel Hunters" or the "Corn Huskers Brigade". In 1824 the names of all state militias were changed to the National Guard.

It is important to note that there may be as many as eight times more military information, that is of value to the genealogist on the state and local level as there is at the Federal level.

However, since there is more information available in one place at the federal level, it should be checked first. For records prior to 1900 check the National Archives at Washington, D.C. Since 1900 the Military military records have been kept in the National Record Center in St. Louis, Mo. After checking these two locations check the appropriate state records.
