Viet Forces To Up Call

By FRANK CROMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson has given American field commanders in Viet Nam broad authority to call for — and get — additional fighting men to step up the war against the Communist Viet Cong.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara told newsmen, after a day-long policy conference Thursday at the LBJ Ranch, that Johnson had "instructed me to meet the requests from our military commanders for additional personnel as they are received."

Some requests for more men already have been received, McNamara said, and troops will move "as they become available for that purpose."

The defense chief said 160,000 uniformed Americans already are stationed in South Viet Nam. He wouldn't speculate on how many more would be sent because "we don't wish to give our opponents advance information on the forces that they will confront in the future."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who joined McNamara and other top policy advisers for the marathon session with Johnson, said Viet Nam actually took second place in the discussions to "the unilateral action of the white minority government in [illegible] power, an action which the United States government deplores."

Promising a further Rhodesia policy statement today from United Nations Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, Rusk said Johnson had ordered the recall of American diplomats in the African country — headed by Consul General Roswell B. McClelland — and the shutdown of activities there by the United States Information Agency.

"The United States government," said Rusk, "in no way recognizes the rebel regime, and continues strongly to support a solution in Rhodesia that will be just and acceptable to the population as a whole" — black as well as white.

Rhodesians' Defiance Is Said Treason

By COLIN FROST

LONDON (AP) — The British government warned Prime Minister Ian Smith and his Rhodesian regime today their defiance of British authority is treason. The penalty is death.

Atty. Gen. Sir Elwyn Jones issued the warning in the House of Commons as the government sought emergency powers to restore Britain's authority over the breakaway, white-run colony in central Africa.

Jones warned Britons inside and outside Rhodesia that actions furthering the aims of Smith's regime would be treasonable.

The bill giving the British government massive powers of retaliation against Rhodesia sped toward adoption in the House.

Quick passage was urged by Prime Minisiter Harold Wilson, who Thursday night accused Smith's regime of taking police state measures and assuming "the sickeningly familiar attitudes of authoritarian rule."

Jones introduced the bill asking for these special powers:

—An order invalidating any laws passed or business transacted by Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith's regime after its unilateral declaration of independence Thursday:

—Authority for the British government to exercise executive control and to make laws in Rhodesia:

—An amendment to British legislation to make it easier for "loyal Rhodesian citizens" to obtain citizenship of the United Kingdom and the colonies:

—An order enabling the British immigration authorities to confiscate passport documents issued or renewed by the Rhodesian regime.

Jones pointed out that other actions by Britain—such as the ban on import of Rhodesian tobacco and sugar—had already been carried out under existing statutory powers.

The bill proclaimed that the Rhodesian government's declaration of independence and all acts that flowed from it were illegal.

Wilson dismissed Smith and his government of white settlers immediately after the Rhodesian leader, 46, declared the central African colony independent from Britain. But the dismissal was a formality designed to allow Britain to intervene in case of internal strife and to forestall African nationalists from forming a Rhodesian government in exile.

Wilson called the breakaway a "rebellion against the crown."

Reds Send Space Probe Toward Venus

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union launched an unmanned space station toward Venus today and said it should reach the planet around the end of February.

It was the second announced Venus probe by the Russians and about 50 per cent heavier than Venus 1, which missed the planet by more than 100,000 miles in February 1961.

Tass, the official Soviet new agency which announced the lauch, said Venus 2 is moving on a course "close to the prescribed one."

Tass said that by noon, the space probe was nearly 34,300 miles from the earth and equipment was functioning normally.

U.S. scientists said the Soviet spacecraft Zond 1, launched April 2, apparently was intended to be a Venus probe although the Russians never announced it as such. The Americans said Zond 1 apparently missed its mark in July 1964.

The U.S. Mariner 2 passed Venus Dec. 14, 1962, at a distance of 21,648 miles after gathering data continuously during its 180-million-mile journey. During the 42 minutes it flew past the planet it collected data on the surface and atmospheric temperatures and cloud structure of Venus. This was relayed back to earth and Mariner sped on toward the sun.

Tass said a multistage rocket launched Venus 2. The last stage was first put into a parking orbit and then it launched the station toward Venus. This is the method the Russians have used in their moon probes.

Reds Repelled By US Detachment

By RONALD I. DEUTSCH

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A detachment of the U.S. Army's 1st Infantry Division fought off a sharp Viet Cong assault today in a day-long battle 40 miles north of Saigon. A spokesman said 100 of the enemy were killed and the toll probably would go higher.

American casualties were described as light at dusk as fighting that raged for 12 hours tapered off into a sporadic exchange of small arms fire.

Striking with recoilless rifles and mortars, a Viet Cong battalion of 500 troops, launched the attack against about 700 men of the division's 3rd Brigade. Reports from the scene said the Americans came under fire without warning. Planes and artillery helped turn back the guerrillas.

The troops were on an operation to [illegible] the edge of Zone D, which has been under Communist control since the end of World War II. In recent months, B52 bombers from Guam have pounded the jungled zone and U.S. troops have pressed major offensives in the area in an effort to deny the Viet Cong a sanctuary from which to operate.

U.S. fighter-bombers hit at the Viet Cong without letup during today's engagement. Pilots flew more than 40 missions against the enemy during the height of the clash.

Liner Swept By Flames

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — A Boeing 727 jet airliner with 90 persons aboard burst into flames on landing at the city airport Thursday night, burning 40 passengers to death in the fire-swept fuselage.

Another 50, including the entire crew of six, dived through windows and emergency hatches seconds before the fire raged forward from the three jet engines in the tail all the way to the flight deck.

Of the survivors, 43 were hospitalized. The dead were in the blackened fuselage.

A spokesman for United Air Lines, owner of the plane, blamed the disaster on the collapse of a nose wheel as the aircraft touched down.

The three rear-mounted engines of the 727 are fed by fuel lines leading back from tanks in the wings.

The flight originated in New York and reached Salt Lake City after stops in Cleveland, Chicago and Denver. Its scheduled destination was San Francisco.

The pilot, Capt. Gail C. Keimierer, 48, of Denver, was among the hospitalized survivors. Hospital officials said he kept repeating, "Terrible, terrible."

It was the third 727 involved in fatal accidents since August and the second this week. The first plunged into Lake Michigan off Lake Forest, Ill., on Aug. 16, killing all 30 aboard. The second hit a hill while approaching Cincinnati Monday night, and 58 of the 62 persons aboard died.

The Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington dispatched 12 invesigators to seek the cause of the crash.

A spokesman for the Federal Aviation Agency said in response to question, "At this point we can see no relationship between the three accidents and we have no plans for grounding 727 jets."

A similar view was expressed by Pader Hogue, chief flight safety engineer for Boeing. "I think it's a fine airplane and recent unfortunate experiences are in my opinion unrelated," he declared.

The survival of the pilot and other crew members provided an opportunity for investigators to obtain first-hand expert opinion on the cause.

Mrs. Lyndon R. Day of Arlington, Va., a passenger who escaped said:

"I heard a loud thud. I knew we had made a crash landing. There were flames on the outside of the plane on both sides. I scrambled through a door on to a wing and dived to the ground."

Another passenger, Ralph S. Nesbitt of Santa Monica, Calif., told interviewers:

"We had a hard bump, started swerving from side to side and flames broke out from the rear. People were thrown all over the place. It was horrible. [illegible]

Council In Brief Session

Snyder City Councilmen this morning approved an ordinance abandoning some un-needed street right-of-way and a developer's plat for a block in Southwest Snyder in a brief special session.

The council, along with other city and chamber of commerce officials, then left at noon for Littlefield where they were to be taken on a tour of municipal improvements there this afternoon. Most of them planned to remain at Littlefield this evening to witness the Snyder-Littlefield high school football game.

Passed on second and final reading at this morning's special session was an ordinance abandoning some surplus street right-of-way along the south side of Thirtieth Street between Austin Avenue and El Paso Avenue.

Also approved was a plat of a block in the same area which had been presented by Dillard Teal, local developer. The plat covers property in the George W. Brown original home site tract out of the Colonial Hill Addition.

3 FAT VOLUMES

Evidence Filed In Poll Tax Suit

AUSTIN (AP) — The federal government had on file today three big volumes of court records seeking to support its assertion that Texas' poll tax discriminates against Negroes.

A 118-page brief and two fat volumes of evidence were submitted to the three-judge federal court which will hear the government's voting rights suits here Dec. 1.

The state attorney general's office said the state is working on its answer, which will be filed about Nov. 20.

The U.S. attorney general's brief went to great lengths to argue that the $1.75 tax is a financial hardship to many Negroes and is often administered in such a way that Negroes are discriminated against in paying it.

The brief said in 67 counties with a "significant Negro population" there were 64 in which a lower percentage of eligible Negroes paid the poll tax than whites.

The brief said FBI agents went into 28 selected counties to count poll tax receipts by race.

"What can be learned from this pattern of disparity is that Negroes are not overtly prevented from paying the poll tax by dramatic forms of discrimination, but by a combination of forces in society over which they have no control and which operate against them on account of their race, negroes find it more burdensome to pay," the brief asserted.

The U.S. attorney general filed the suit Aug. 10, under instructions by congress in the 1965 voting rights bill that poll tax requirements in the four Southern states which still require it be tested in court.

PERMIAN BASIN PRICES

IPAA Questions Legality Of Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — Does the Federal Power Commission have legal authority under the Natural Gas Act to void provisions of contracts made by natural gas producers for selling their gas?

If so, has the FPC used a method of price determination "that is fair and equitable and square with the legal requirements of the act and are the [illegible] prices based upon evidence of record, fair and equitable?"

The Independent Petroleum Association of America says these are the basic legal questions raised by the commission's landmark decision in the Permian Basin gas rate case.

The IPAA asked the questions in appealing the decision to the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals in Denver. The association asked the court to review the decision and to hold up, meanwhile, the effectiveness of all orders embraced in the decision.

William Powell, IPAA assistant general counsel and Dan Jones, general counsel, prepared the appeal. Powell said a general stay is being requested on behalf of all affected gas companies and producers.

Some producers, he explained, might not be in a position to petition for stays on their own.

The Permian Basin decision was issued Aug. 5. Under it, Powell said, producers would be required to reduce their rates for sales in interstate pipelines by Nov. 15 unless they obtained a court order blocking the rates set in the decision.

Several oil companies previously have obtained temporary stays and the 10th Court of Appeals has set hearings in January to determine whether the stays should be made permanent.

Generally, the commission's voluminous decision in the case established a two-price system for gas in the Permian Basin of Texas and New Mexico—one price for "old" gas and another for "new" gas.

"Old" gas is the trade term for gas discovered and produced along with oil. "New" gas is that from wells drilled exclusively for gas.

[illegible] certain criteria and methods which would require producers to make refunds to purchasers.

The IPAA appeal called the decision a "noble experiment" in an attempt to regulate field prices of natural gas.

The IPAA said the commission erred in assuming the role of "price fixer or initiator of rates" whereas its only proper and legal role under the Natural Gas Act is that of "reviewer of contractually negotiated prices."

Early in the Permian Basin proceedings, the IPAA argued that the proper standard for setting area prices of natural gas is "market value" as determined by sales contracts negotiated at arm's length under [illegible] and effective competition.

Harry Byrd, Jr. May Take Post

By JACK BELL

WASHINGON (AP) — There is strong speculation around the Senate that the Harry Byrd name may not be missing from the 1966 roll-call lists despite Sen. Harry F. Byrd's resignation.

The 78-year-old Virginia Democrat quit the Senate Thursday with a formal resignation submitted to and accepted by Gov. Albertis S. Harrison Jr.

Byrd said he was stepping down because of his health. He has been suffering from arthritis.

Harrison is expected to act speedily to name a successor to fill Byrd's seat until next November's election. Virginia will elect two senators at that time, with Sen. A. Willis Robertson, 78, seeking a new six-year term.

At the top—or near it—of Harrison's list of prospective appointees is the name of Harry F. Byrd Jr., 51, son of the retiring senator and a Virginia state senator since 1947. The younger Byrd is publisher of the Winchester Evening Star and the Harrisonburg Daily News-Record. [illegible]

Harrison has had close association with the Byrds since he managed the retiring senator's 1952 campaign. He benefitted when the younger Byrd decided not to seek the Democratic nomination for governor in 1961.

There was some speculation that Harrison might name an interim appointee and seek the office himself. The name of Rep. William M. Tuck, former governor, had been mentioned as a possible appointee. But he said he had called the governor, told him he did not want the appointment, and recommended the younger Byrd for the post.

Byrd's departure from the Senate will deliver the chairmanship of the powerful Senate Finance Committee into the hands of Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La. Long, now 47, carried much of the committee load this year when Byrd was physically handicapped by painful arthritis in a knee.

In Phoenix, Ariz., Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., Senate president pro tempore, said Long is likely to become Finance Committee chairman with Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., probably [illegible] Democratic leader.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My father [illegible]. He is 82 and getting senile. He can remember what happened 75 years ago, but he forgets what you told him five minutes ago. He has always been a habitual cigarette smoker, and since that is his only pleasure in life we are not going to ask him to give it up. But here's the problem.

He has burnt about a dozen holes in the carpet beside his bed. He has also burnt about 40 holes in the night stand table. He has set the mattress on fire twice and there are cigarette holes in all his pajamas and his bathrobe, too. He will be the death of me yet. What can I do? I can't stand and watch him all day.

WORRIED SICK

DEAR WORRIED: He could not only be the DEATH OF YOU — he could be the death of himself and everyone in the house. Someone must keep control of the cigarettes and matches and stay with him while he smokes. Otherwise, the ashes he leaves could be his own.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am the friend of a girl who baby-sits for a family that is quite large. When she gets there she puts the kids to bed and then she does the dishes and straightens up the house. I say she's getting paid to baby-sit, not to do housework, and if she cleans the house she should get paid extra. She says she cleans the house because she LIKES to, nobody ASKS her to. She says she is trying to take a load off the mother's back. Now, she's a sweet kid for wanting to help, but don't you think that mother should feel like a big slob for leaving a messy house for a sitter to clean?

HATES TO CLEAN

DEAR HATES: I don't know the condition of the mother's house, her health or her conscience. But if your friend cleans the house because she wants to take a load off the mother's back, she IS a sweet kid. Now, what's your problem?

* * *

DEAR ABBY: For 12 years we have had a fine, loyal girl working for us. There are six in our family. All the children are in school. I work six days a week and this girl is indispensable to our household. She started working here as a teen, is an excellent worker, has a sunny disposition and never complains. But she steals!

At first we couldn't believe it, but now it is obvious. What she takes is usually not of much value. (Half the time if she'd ask me for it, I'd give it to her.) The older children have repeatedly discovered the pilfered items before she gets them out of the house, and they have recovered them. I thought of going to our pastor, but this girl is a sincere and valuable church worker and I don't want the pastor to think less of her. Another thing—domestic help is almost impossible to get here. If you have any ideas or suggestions, please let me know.

DISTRESSED

DEAR DISTRESSED: Tell her privately, but candidly, that you are aware of her pilfering. Offer to forgive the girl if she promises to shape up. If she keeps her word, keep her. If not, let her go.

Poor Thug Got Her Irish Up!

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — A coed jumped on an armed robber Thursday, knocked him through a plate glass window and grabbed back the purse he had taken.

The incident began when a man entered a Fort Wayne bridal shop and handed Diane Scheiber, 19, a note saying, "This is a holdup. Give me all your money."

Police said the man, identified as Mike Johnson, 38, Saginaw, Mich., then pulled a knife and tried to attack the pretty clerk.

The store manager, Bea Scott, stepped from an alteration room and startled the man. He grabbed Mrs. Scott's purse and ran down a flight of nine steps leading to the store's foyer.

Diane, a sophomore at St. Francis College in Fort Wayne, leaped from the top step and caught the robber at the bottom, knocking him through the window. She dashed out the door, beat him and wrestled the purse from his grasp as money flew into the street.

The man fled but was seized a few blocks away by a policeman.

"Let's just say it got her Irish up," Diane's mother, Mrs. Richard Scheiber, said later. "She's just an average girl, about 5 feet 7, and weighing 125 pounds."

Ike's Pain Now Called Heart Attack

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

FT. GORDON, Ga. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's illness was diagnosed today as a true heart attack.

Reversing their first estimate that the 75-year-old five-star general had suffered only a heart insufficiency, the medical team issued a new report on the basis of late tests.

Eisenhower, vacationing at his cottage on the Augusta National Golf Club course, suffered chest pains Monday night and was taken to the nearby Ft. Gordon Army Hospital.

The finding was that he suffered from a shortage of blood supply to heart muscles, producing angina pectoris or heart pain.

Today Capt. Wallace Hitchcock, the fort's information officer, reported that further electrocardiogram tests had revealed Eisenhower suffered a genuine heart attack.

The statement said, however, that the one-time leader of the nation in war and peace had spent a restful night, has had no further chest pains and was "in excellent spirits this morning."

Humble Oil Plans Major Reorganizing

HOUSTON (AP) — A major realignment of organizational structure for exploration, production and marketing has been [illegible] by Humble Oil & Refining Co.

This establishes clearly defined responsibilities for conducting each function of the company's business, C. E. Reistle Jr., board chairman, said Thursday.

Six operating divisions will make up the exploration and production department. There will be division managers at Houston, Corpus Christi, Midland, New Orleans, Oklahoma City and Los Angeles.

Grandma Has Truck In Control

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — New Jersey State Police were nonplussed recently when they stopped a huge, steel-laden tractor-trailer truck and down [illegible] a [illegible]-old grandmother.

Leona Murphy, who stands barely over five feet in her cowboy boots, said she was stopped the first three times she drove the truck on the New Jersey Turnpike. Each time she produced the necessary license and was waved on.

"I wouldn't be driving except we own the rig," said Mrs. Murphy. "If we didn't then I would be taking a man's job and I don't think that's right."

How do the other truck drivers accept her?

"They mostly gawk," she said, "but they figure if I'm tough enough to drive, they'll go along with me."

Washington The Man

GEORGE WASHINGTON: THE FORGE OF EXPERIENCE (1732-1775). By JAMES THOMAS FLEXNER

Marble statues have no pulse. On that premise, historian Flexner has turned away from the statuesque figure of Washington as a general, President and Father of His Country to seek the man himself.

He has succeeded very well in making a human being out of his subject.

This volume is the first of three. It covers Washington's life to the age of 43, when he was named commander of Continental Army that was yet to be formed.

Young Washington appears here as a member of a small land-owning family who came under the spell of the influential Fairfax clan and fell hopelessly in love with the wife of his best Fairfax friend.

His early military career, his mistakes as Fort Necessity, his fruitless attempts to warn Braddock what Indian warfare was like, his bafflement at the success at Fort Duquesne — all throw light on his growth as a military man.

But there followed 17 years as a country squire, with Washington comfortably married to the widow Custis, eager [illegible] be eager to increase his land [illegible] from tobacco to corn and wheat, a time of fox hunting, gambling and looking after his neighbors.

Flexner makes it clear that Washington, although he participated in the pre-Revolutionary political storms at Williamsburg and Philadelphia, had little concern for ideologies or political [illegible].

The author steers a middle course between idolatry and muckraking. Where others have written dozens of volumes, he has the sense to know what should be left out and what should be pointed up.

Better yet, he has a crush style [illegible] like Catton for the Civil War and Morison for American history, the knack of hitting the mark with an illuminating phrase. That makes all the difference between a soporific compilation and a dramatic re-creation of living history. Now we have a better appreciation of Washington the man.

MAKE-AHEAD CHICKEN DISH—Chicken, sauce and cheese pastry cutouts are prepared well in advance of serving and then are oven-heated.

Party Chicken Dish To Make Ahead

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

MAKE-AHEAD main-dish recipes are treasured. Nowadays women are always on the lookout for such suggestions because they help to make a party run smoothly and enjoyably.

A delightful chicken recipe of this sort was tried recently at our house. Served in the dish in which it is heated, it has a topping of cheese pastry and an excellent sauce. Prepared with well-seasoned chicken broth and light cream, the sauce is not too thick.

You may make this dish the day before a party and refrigerate it. An hour before you plan to serve, you simply put it in the oven. No watching, no worry. While it's heating, you can enjoy being with your guests.

Make-Ahead Chicken With Cheese Pastry

¼ cup butter
½ cup regular unsifted flour (spoon lightly into ½-cup measure and level)
3 cups chicken broth (see Simmered Chicken recipe)
1 cup light cream
5 cups cubed cooked chicken (see Simmered Chicken recipe)
Cheese Pastry Cutouts

In a large saucepan over low heat, melt the butter; stir in the flour. Remove from heat. Gradually stir in the chicken broth, then the cream, keeping smooth. Over moderately low heat, cook and stir constantly until thickened and bubbly. Add the cubed chicken. Turn into a baking dish (about 13 by 9 by 2 inches) that can be brought to the table; cover tightly with foil; chill — overnight if you like. One hour before serving time, remove from refrigerator and place in a moderate (375 degrees) oven. Bake until bubbly hot — 50 to 60 minutes. About 5 minutes before time is up, place Cheese Pastry Cutouts on a large cookie sheet and reheat in the oven. Arrange 8 of the Cutouts over the chicken and sauce; pass the rest of the Cutouts. Makes 8 servings.

Simmered Chicken

2 whole broiler-fryer chickens, each about 3 pounds
3 cups cold water
1 medium onion, sliced
Tops from 3 celery ribs
2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons monosodium glutamate
1 bay leaf
8 peppercorns
¼ teaspoon crumbled thyme

Tie together the legs of each chicken; tie another string around each breast to keep wings close. Into a large kettle put the 2 chickens with the remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil; cover tightly and simmer until tender — about 45 minutes. Strain broth and refrigerate; after fat hardens on top remove it; there should be at least 3 cups clear broth. Remove chicken from bones and cube into fork-size pieces — there should be about 5 cups. Use broth and chicken as directed in recipe for Make-Ahead Chicken with Cheese Pastry.

Cheese Pastry Cutouts

Make up enough of the flour-shortening mixture for a flaky two-crust 8 or 9 inch pie; stir in 2 cups (½ pound) medium-grated cheddar cheese; add water called for. On a prepared pastry cloth with a prepared stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll out ⅛ inch thick. Cut out with a chicken-shape cookie cutter; add peppercorns for "eyes." Place on ungreased cookie sheet and bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven for 12 to 15 minutes. When cold, store in tightly covered container until ready to use for Make-Ahead Chicken and Cheese pastry recipe.

Tangy Cranberry Sauce

1 pound (4 cups) cranberries
2 pounds sugar
1 cup water
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ cup orange marmalade

In a large saucepan over low heat, stir together the sugar and water until sugar dissolves; boil for 5 minutes. Add cranberries; without stirring, until skins pop — about 5 minutes. Remove from heat. Skim off foam. Stir in the lemon rind, lemon juice and orange marmalade. Cool in saucepan, then chill. Makes about 1 quart.

Reynolds' Macapagal Made Book

MACAPAGAL THE INCORRUPTIBLE. By Quentin Reynolds and Geoffrey Bocca.

Quentin Reynolds excited people with words for many years. A lesser man, given his notes after his tragic death, stumbles through adjectives and makes of this book an exercise in inept illusions and superficialism.

Diosdado Macapagal, the subject of this cowering biography, and Fernandos Marcos shortly will run for the presidency of the Philippines. Macapagal is a singular and dynamic man. The Philippnes - and this viewer can testify because his father, mother and sister were Japanese prisoners there - is the lonely friend of the United States in Asia.

One million Filipinos died in World War II, on a percentage basis more than died in Russia, the U.S., Germany or Britain. Most of them died because they refused to make life a cliche, and to the end said that the United States was great.

This is a book to read because under the pattern of verbalism the story of a nation and a great man is told. But it is a book which Quent Reynolds would have cried to see under his name.

Rhodesia Borrowed Freely From July 4th Declaration

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two documents were separated by the Atlantic Ocean, 189 years of history, and broad changes in the attitudes of mankind but there was an ironic similarity betwen them.

In Africa's Rhodesia, a British colony, the white inhabitants Thursday declared their independence of the mother country, the first time that had happened since the American colonies broke away in 1776.

And the Rhodesian prime minister, Ian Smith, read from a declaration that borrowed unashamedly from the American Declaration of Independence of July 4, 1776.

The American declaration had started off: "When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another. . ."

The Rhodesian declaration began: "Whereas in the course of human affairs history has shown that it may become necessary for a people to resolve the political affiliations which have connected them with another people. . ."

Smith is a white racist. In the 150,000 square miles of Rhodesia, which has been a self-governing British colony 43 years, there are 225,000 white people and 4 million Africans.

The whites are boss, and keeping the Negroes down economically and politically, they want to remain boss. That was why, despite all British efforts to the contrary, they declared their independence Thursday.

When Thomas Jefferson wrote the American Declaration of Independence, which Congress adopted, the overwhelming number of Negroes in this country were slaves.

And, although Jefferson went on in the declaration to say all men are created equal, he was a slaveholder when he wrote it and when he died 50 years to the day after his declaration, his will freed only three of his slaves.

And although Americans every July 4 celebrate Independence Day, white supremacists to this day still oppose equal treatment for Negroes.

Successive British governments had offered Rhodesia independence if the white rulers would give guarantees that political responsibility would then be shifted fairly swiftly to that black majority of 4 million.

But the white supremacists in Rhodesia refused. Smith argued it would take 15 to 100 years for Rhodesian Negroes to attain the educational and economic levels necessary for equality at the polls.

Now Rhodesia is one of a few islands of white supremacy in a sea of new Negro-run nations on the African continent.

The British prime minister, Harold Wilson, who tried to get the white Rhodesians to hold up on independence unless the Negroes were guaranted a full role, found himself from the start in a bit of a fix.

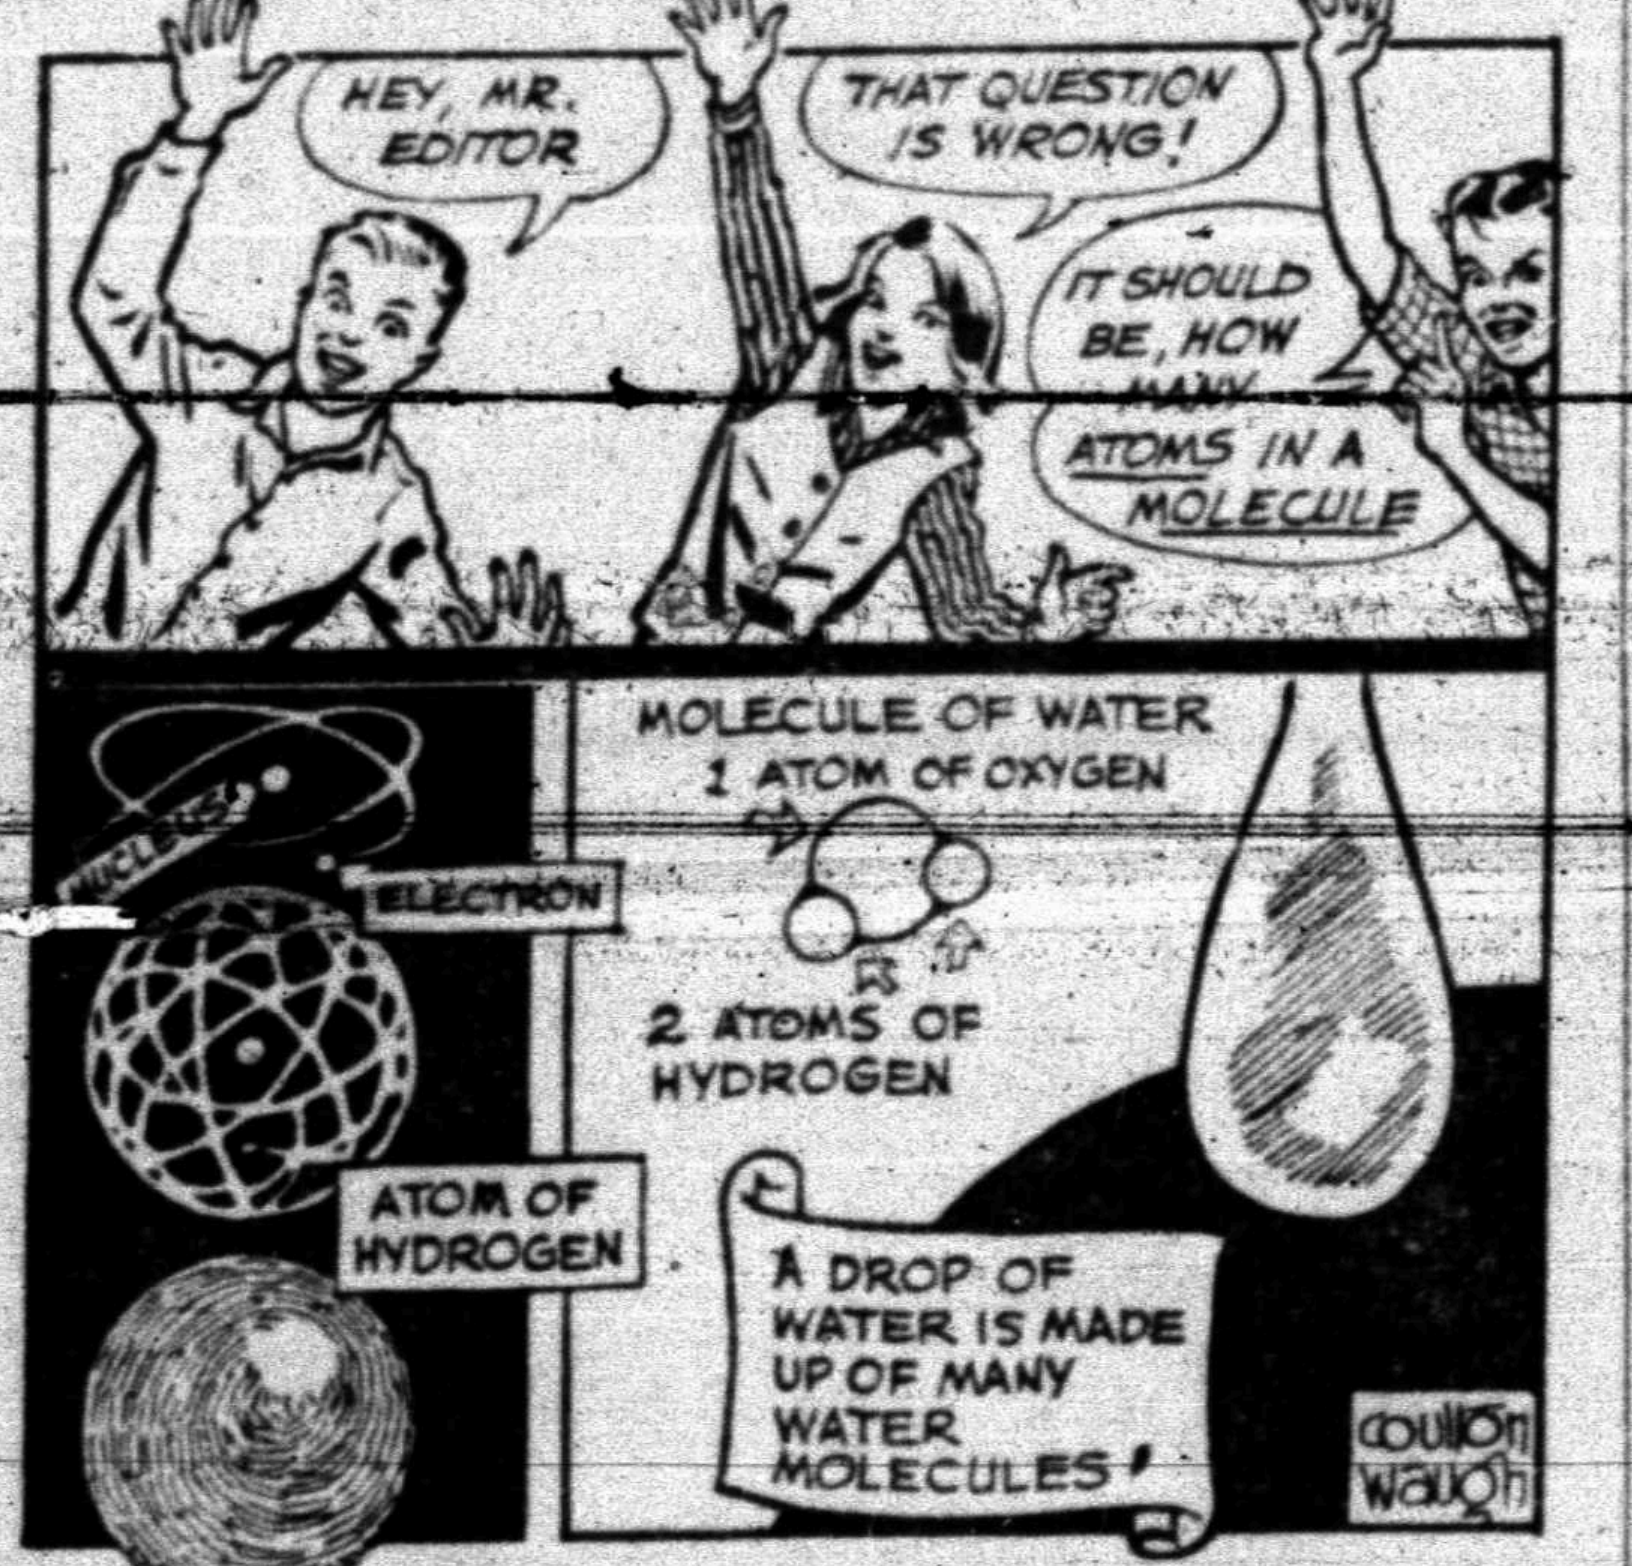
He had been pushed toward compromise by signs that a head-on clash with the white Rhodesians, who are mostly of British origin, would cause serious strains in Britain.

At the same time Asian and African leaders of nations which are part of the British Commonwealth were demanding stronger action and he didn't want to offend them.

So, while he has said Britain would not use force against Rhodesia if it declared independence, Thursday he invoked a series of economic sanctions intended to force the new Rhodesian government to its knees.

And President Johnson, who has fought hard to push through Congress one civil rights bill after another to protect Negroes' rights in this country, had promised Wilson he would back up Britain in economic actions against Rhodesia.

Junior Editors Quiz on MOLECULES



QUESTION: How many molecules make up an atom?

ANSWER: The question actually should be, how many atoms in a molecule? A molecule is made up of atoms and not the other way around.

Break down substances as far as you can go, and you get elements, or basic substances. The smallest bit of an element is an atom, like an extremely minute solar system. There is a nucleus in the center, like the sun, with one or more smaller electrons, circling around, like the planets, only at inconceivable speed. We show an atom of hydrogen; the single electron dashes around the central nucleus at such furious speeds that its paths make a kind of shell. Atoms of different elements may combine with each other, such a combination being a molecule. As atoms may be different, so the combinations making molecules may be different. Each kind of substance we see is composed of a great many of its own special molecules, like the water molecule we show, which has one atom of oxygen and two of hydrogen. Many of these molecules together make up water. Since different kinds of molecules may have different numbers of atoms, it is impossible to give a general answer to this question.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Gain a rough idea of the size of a molecule by holding up the tip of your finger and looking at it. Think of all the molecules going across it and imagine each is as large as a grain of sand. How wide would your finger then be? About a mile across.

(Jeff Papke of Superior, Wisc., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.)

Remarks That Make A Patient Sick

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that hospital patients get tired of hearing:

"Now remember, when we get into Joe's room, no matter how he looks, tell him he looks great."

"Hi, Joe, gee, you're looking great."

"Don't worry about your work. The guy who took it over is doing a great job — handles it between his regular duties and says it's no trouble at all."

"Talk about your operation. Did I ever tell you about mine?"

"I hear while you were under ether the doctors were playing marbles with your gallstones."

"It's time to take your temperature again."

"Wake up. It is almost dawn."

"Of course, a few pains are to be expected. After all, as the French say, we can't make an omelette without breaking a few eggs, can we?"

"Well, I guess I won't get to be one of your pallbearers this week."

"Joe, I hate to bring this up while you're lying here flat on your back. But remember that $5 I loaned you just before they carted you off to the hospital? Naturally, I am not one to crowd anybody in your position, but—"

'Just sign here, Honey. The lawyer said it was only a formality and a kind of precaution. But, according to him, it is only common sense that every man should make out a last will and testment."

"Joe, you have no idea how much your missus misses you. I saw her at a night club the other night, and she cried all through the floor show. The guy with her had to lend her his handkerchief."

"You know I'm your buddy, kid. We passed the hat at the office in your honor. The collection came to a total of $3.97. What kind of a present would you really like most?"

"Do you mind showing me the scar? Is it okay if I count the stitches?"

"My cousin had exactly the same kind of operation. That was 12 years ago. He has never been the same since. But of course in your case—"

"Is that all they give you to eat?"

"I'm sorry, sir, but doctor says we mustn't snack between meals."

"You mean you're paying $35 bucks a day to stay in this dump?"

"You're coming along nicely. I think you should be able to leave anytime after another few days — or a week or so."

"Hi, there, fellow. I'm a patient from down the hall. While I'm here I thought I ought to have a hobby, so I decided to take up life insurance salesmanship. Now, the policy I have in mind for you offers—"

"Hey, Joe, some dame in a white dress just drove up on a broomstick outside your door. Don't tell me she's your nurse. What does she do between Halloweens?"

"Yeah, before I got this job as intern I used to be a veterinarian in Yugoslavia. But when you come to a new country you got to earn a living any way you can."

Attendants For Cardinal Queen Named

Five pretty girls have been chosen as attendants for the Football Sweetheart at Hermleigh High School, and they will accompany the Sweetheart onto the field during halftime ceremonies of the Homecoming game when Hermleigh's cardinals host the Jayton Jaybirds at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

The attendants are: Cecile Hall, senior head cheerleader; Jeanette Grossman, senior cheerleader; Charlotte Ince, senior flag bearer; Peggy Rannefeld, senior flag bearer; and, Betty Grove, senior twiler.

Homecoming festivities will begin with a bonfire at 6:30 p.m. Friday. Registration begins at the school at 1:30 p.m. Saturday as exes hold their annual reunion. Dinner will be served from 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, and a pep rally will be held in the auditorium at 5:30 p.m.

The Football Sweetheart whose identity will be revealed at the football game, will be crowned during halftime ceremonies.

Gridders Are Fined

CANYON, Tex. (AP)—County Judge Lloyd King fined three freshman football players Wednesday for setting off a small explosion in a West Texas State University post office box.

Guilty pleas were entered by John Bost Jr., 19, of Brownfield; David Bowen, 19, of Fort Worth and Raymond Godeke, 17, of Houston.

King also placed them under probation for a year. On recommendation of County Atty. George Dowlen, they were required to pay $100 fines, plus court costs.

The blast damaged five mail boxes in the university's student union building.

Each youth said the school has expelled him.

Ags Say Pay For Damage

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Texas A&M indicated today it would expect Rice University to pay for the removal of traces of vandalism on buildings and signs over the campus.

Dean of Students Jampes P. Hannigan said he had informed Rice that nine buildings and other property had been defaced with "Rice" and "Go Owls" in yard-high letters, painted in blue—the Rice school colors.

Texas A&M and Rice meet in football at Houston Saturday.

The cost of cleaning up the paint will be $350.

The raid occurred Wednesday night but wasn't discovered until early Thursday. It was the third this semester and the total damage had been $734.40.

Thirteen Baylor students, now on probation, painted signs, buildings and a student automobile. They promised to pay $376.22.

Tiger, Pony Tilts Hold Key To Race

Crucial District 3-AAA football games are on tap tonight with the Snyder Tigers at Littlefield and Lamesa at Sweetwater in clashes that will go a long way in deciding the final outcome of the league race.

Lamesa is in a position to win the flag outright with a victory over Sweetwater, regardless of what happens elsewhere. A pony triumph coupled with a Tiger loss would give Sweetwater an opportunity to take the crown the next week with a win at Levelland.

If Snyder and Sweetwater both win, the Tigers can win the title if the Ponies falter the following week. Levelland and Littlefield still have slim chances to gain at least a tie for the title. Only Brownfield and Lake View are out of the running.

In the "other" [illegible] this week, Levelland is at Lake View in San Angelo.

Long Lamar Runs Trip Travis, 16-0

Two spectacular runs by halfback Randy Levens propelled the Lamar 8th grade past Travis, 16-0, here Thursday night in a hard-fought Junior High grid contest at Tiger Stadium.

Travis 8th		Lamar 8th
8	First Downs	7
105	Yards Rushing	165
39	Yards Passing	29
0	Intercepted By	2
2 for 24.5	Punts, Avg.	2 for 29.5
3 for 15	Penalties	0
2 of 4	Fumbles Lost	3 of 5

Levens, a 130-pounder, stepped 32 yards for the first TD with 2:17 showing on the clock in the first quarter. Fullback Neil Rinehart set up the score with a 20-yard punt runback to the Travis 35. A crack at the line gained three prior to Leven's ramble.

The same type of play—a counter play — paid off again in the second quarter with Randy scooting 82 yards from scrimmage. Good blocking in both instances cleared him past the line, and he turned on the power and outran the safety. There was 6:08 showing on the board following the second TD.

Neil Rinehart crashed over tackle following each tally to collect four extra points.

Lamar clearly held the upper hand in the first half as the Texans almost scored again before time expired in the half. Tommy Anger fell on a loose ball at his 37. On first down Lee McNair hit Ronnie Watkins on the button with a 20-yard toss at the Blue Devil 43. Two plays later, Anger fought his way to a first at the 28, then took a pass up the middle from McNair to the 19. Rinehart skirted right end to the 12, then he and Levens combined forces to move the pighide to the two before a fumble wiped out the opportunity.

Travis' 8th graders crossed midfield only twice in the first half, attaining the 42 in the opening stanza and the 31 on the second quarter on a pass, Mark Gilstrap to Merce Hernandez, and runs by Ricky Glasscock and Hernandez. But Anger's fumble recovery stopped the Blue Devils.

The Texans demonstrated their defensive prowess in the second half, stopping the Blue Devils outside the 20 in the third frame after Hernandez and Glasscock had turned in some fine gainers.

Hernandez was the game's outstanding runner, not counting the sparkling runs by Levens. The Travis back seemed determined to score, and he almost did in the final quarter, gaining 15 yards in three carries as the Blue Devils swept from the Texan 45 to the five. In the same drive, he also took a 23-yard pass from James Patrick, making a great catch surrounded by Texans.

At this point, the Texans held, but fumbled the ball back to Travis at the nine. Billy Bowden stopped a "sure' 'touchdown with an interception in the end zone, and he ran it out to the six for Lamar. Time remained only for two plays.

Three Pee-Wee Games Slated Here Saturday

A football "triple-header" will unfold at Tiger Stadium Saturday when the Lamesa PeeWee All-Stars come to town to test the mettle of Snyder's youngsters.

The program begins at 1 p.m. with the Snyder Red All-Stars meeting the Snyder Gold All-Stars. This is for 11 and 12-year-olds. The second game features a contest between the 9 and 10-year old Snyder and Lamesa All-Stars. The feature attraction of the day follows at 3 p.m. when the Super All-Stars of Snyder and Lamesa collide. This game pits the best 11 and 12-year-old players of the two towns against each other.

Tickets for the game cost $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. Proceeds will support Boys Club programs.

The Snyder Super All-Star roster includes Mark Bostick, Jackie Murray, David Thompson, Mitch Butler, Clifton McIntyre, Kenneth Cumbie, Mike Dennis, Jack Gorman, Travis Bunch, Terry Arnold, Harold Buchanan, Jim Waters, Gary Lankford, Mike Line, Jerry Harden, Dwayne Riggs, Alton Thompson, Lane Johnston, Gary Durst, Sherman Floyd, Randy Wright, Tommy Johnson, Tommy Mayfield, Jim White, Mike Glasscock, Sandy Land, Louis Loyd and Kent Horsley.

Members of the Red All-Stars are Danny Andrews, Jimmy Brandon, Don Durst, Johnny Elledge, Tommy Garrett, Randy Peitchsinsky, Allen Grimmett, Darwin Harber, Mike Hill, Curtis Landon, Horace Loper, Neil Magee, Dusty Ownbey, Eddie Romero, Paul Timmons, Bill Stokes, Steven Weyel and Berry Womack.

Gold All-Stars are Jack Callaway, Scott McCaleb, Johnny Spears, Melvin Cobb, Randy Glasscock, Danny Chaney, Mark Brock, Tom Wilson, Terry Clay, Kerry Clay, Randy Gillum, Tom Early, Fred Murphy, Joe Bullard and Kenneth Jones.

French Nags Win International Race

By GEORGE BOWEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — You had better believe in French cooking when it comes to international competition. And horse racing.

The 1-2 finish of Diatome and Carvin in Thursday's Washington, D.C., International race was a shocker of a sorts. The runner-up lost by only a nose and beat a hopeful for best horse of the year in the United States, Roman Brother, by a length.

Yet the French pair isn't acknowledged as the best in Europe.

Geoffrey Watson, the English trainer of Diatome, was matter of fact about the $90,000 triumph.

"He won the international, but he's still only the third best in Europe," said Watson. "That Sea Bird and Reliance, they would still beat Diatome."

Diatome finished behind Sea Bird and Reliance in France's Arc de Triomphe and other races. The front two were among several who declined or dropped out of the International.

Diatome had won only two races this year. Jean Boutillier's Carvin had only one minor victory and went off the longest shot 51-1, in the fieild of seven in the International.

"Let them eat their words," crowed Jean Sens, the trainer of Carvin, a 3-year-old.

He, too, took a bow to the superiority of Diatome, the 3-year-old pride of Baron Guy de Rothschild.

"We're used to running behind him," said Sens.

Jockey Jean Deforge, winning his first International in three appearances, said he had only one scary moment with Diatome. "Coming into the home stretch, we were boxed in for awhile," he said. "If it hadn't been for that, we would have won by four lengths."

Snyder 'B' Socks Lee Rebs, 19-6

MIDLAND—Snyder's Kittens scored three touchdowns in the last half for a 19-6 come-from-behind victory over Midland Lee—a team that had defeated the Junior Varsity earlier in the year.

Snyder "B"		Midland Lee
11	First Downs	[illegible]
187	Yards Rushing	140
125	Yards Passing	20
1	Interceptions	1
4	Fumbles Lost	1

Midland scored first in the first quarter on a 42-yard drive, but the run for extra points was stopped shy of the goal. The 6-0 margin held up through the first half, although Snyder drove 55-yards to the half-yard line before the gun signaled the band to take over.

Ronnie Shields got the Kittens on the scoreboard in the third quarter with an 8-yard plunge, capping a 33 yard march. A fumbled snapback left the count at 6-6.

With the score tied and only four minutes remaining in the game the junior Tigers captured a fumble at the Midland 24. On first down Quarterback Mickey Almond passed to end Frankie Grimmett in the end zone, but an offsides penalty nullified the play. On the next down, Almond hit the other end, O. L. Cooper, on the 10 and he took it on in for the go-ahead tally. A run for points was wiped out.

After an exchange of punts, Midland gambled on 4th down, failed, and Snyder took over at the host 22. Facing 4th and five, Almond hit Cooper on a bootleg pass play from the 15 and Grimmett tacked on the final point.

Snyder had to resort more to passing than is its custom due to injuries to numerous running backs. The Kitten line provided sound protection in the second half with ends Ronnie Fisk and Alan Rasco, tackles John Brinner and Tim Mebane, guards Jack Green, Bobby Clayton and Drake Snyder doing an excellent job of blocking.

Frankie Grimmett kept Midland's young Rebels in the hole in the second half with his fine punting. He also did a superb job of kicking off, twice putting the ball into the end zone. Midland was held to only one first down in the second half.

TIM MARCUM

Marcum Is Indian Star

Tim Marcum, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Marcum of Snyder, led the "Fighting Indians" of McMurry College to a 16-0 victory over Texas Lutheran College Saturday in bilAene.

Marcum, a junior at McMurry, quarterback for the Indians was runner-up for the "Fighting Indian" award this season for the first time. Tim had a good day against TLC in getting 181 yards running and passing. Marcum also scored one touchdown for the Indians on a 57 yard run.

Opponents of the Indians have come to fear the passing of Marcum as he has took to the airwaves 125 times and completed 49 passes. He has thrown two for touchdowns and had 14 intercepted. He is also threat as a running quarterback as he proved with his 57 yard touchdown scamper in the TLC game.

Owls Edge Bruins In Frosh Action

WACO (AP)—A safety was the difference as the Baylor freshmen beat the Rice Freshmen 22-21 Thursday.

Bill Bruss blocked a kick which bounded out of the end zone for a safety.

Each team scored three touchdowns.

Baylor's came on a 29-yard pass from Rusty Clark to Jackie Allen, a pass from Clark to Greg Beesley and an 11-yard run by John Lerma.

Rice's scoring was a three-yard run by Bobby Shelton, an 88-yard kickoff return by Shelton and a six-yard pass from Shelton to Louis Gardenia.

Lamar 9th Graders Rally For 8-6 Win

Lamar Junior High School's 9th grade football team capitalized on a fantastic series of events in the last three minutes of play at Tiger Stadium Thursday night to turn defeat into an 8-6 victory over upstart Travis.

Credit also must be given to end Jerry January, who turned in a key tackle that got the ball to rolling for the then-thwarted Texans. The situation was this:

Travis 9th		Lamar 9th
11	First Downs	11
88	Yards Rushing	69
38	Yards Passing	106
3 of 7	Completions	7 of 23
3	Intercepted By	1
4 for 35.3	Punts, Avg.	6 for 29.5
2 for 20	Penalties	4 for 30
4 of 5	Fumbles Lost	0

Lamar trailed 6-0 to a Travis team that had dominated play throughout the first three quarters and appeared to be enroute to a "clincher" touchdown early in the final quarter. With second and goal from the three, January crashed through and hit the ball carrier so hard he fumbled. A teammate recovered it and Lamar had a new lease on life at its own five.

Travis held, but an off-sides penalty gave Lamar a chance to try for a 1st with one yard to go on fourth down. The Texans gambled and won with Mitch Rambin doing the honors. Rambin then proceeded to take a long aerial from quarterback Steve Holder to the Travis 33 yard line. The Blue Devils drew a 15-yard penalty on the end of the down and Lamar put the ball in motion at the 15.

On first down, David McGinnis intercepted on the goal line and ran it out to the 15. Then began the fantastic series of events that resulted in a Texan victory, alhough credit must be given them for helping to create their own luck.

The Texans held the Blue Devils and blocked a punt, taking over at the 17-yard line. But Travis was equal to the occasion, thwarting a passing attack on good defensive work by Roy Lee and others in the Blue Devil secondary.

On first down Travis fumbled the ball back to the Texans, setting up first and 10 at the 12. Lamar moved in from there. Rambin plowed over from the four on fourth down, then swept left end and fought his way into the end zone for the margin of victory. Only 1:39 remained on the clock and Jerry Tate intercepted to preserve the status quo.

Travis got into position for that "clincher" that didn't pay off with a 40 yard drive following an interception by Jerry King. Raymond Rios, who was a wheelhorse on offense for the Blue Devils, gained 11 yards in two runs after Benny Ward lofted a 25-yard pass to Willie Garcia.

Travis scored its touchdown by taking the opening kickoff 63 yards into the end zone in 12 plays. It was a beautifully-executed sustained march, kept alive by a halfback pass from Kenny Sehested to Harold McCulough for 15 yards. It set up first and 10 at the Texas 14. Rios blasted at the line three times in a row, covering the final four yards on the last try. A fumble wiped out a run for extra points.

The Blue Devils threatened again in the opening stanza after Harold McCullough blocked a punt at the Texan 28. But the Lamar defense stiffened and [illegible] down as he was trying to spot a receiver.

Travis clearly outplayed Lamar until the final three minutes. Lamar crossed the midfield stripe only once, reaching the Travis 46 in the second quarter, until the final period. But when opportunity presented itself and the Texans had to score, they did. And when the extra point try spelled the difference, they were equal to the occasion.

Cotton Bowl Scouts Study Possibilities

DALLAS (AP) — The Cotton Bowl will scout three games Saturday in a drive to get the visiting team for the Jan. 1 gridiron classic.

Officials will be at Gainesville, Fla., to watch the Florida-Tulane game, at Memphis to see Tennessee and Mississippi and at Houston to look over Kentucky are three of the five teams left in the picture. The others are Missouri and Georgia Tech, who already have been viewed by Cotton Bowl people.

Nebraska, which had been the No. 1 team on the list, has been dropped in view of indications the Cornhuskers will vote to go to the Orange Bowl and play Alabama.

Forces Work To Help South Viets

By RALEIGH ALLSBROOK

NEW YORK (AP) — Far from the sound of gunfire, an army of American civilians is working to ease the pain of war among the South Vietnamese.

These homefront forces labor under the banners of a score or more of private relief agencies sendng food, clothing and other supplies to that battle-torn land.

The value of materials shipped last year reached $4.6 million, more than a half million above the 1963 figure. This year's total is expected to increase considerably.

All of the help goes to South Vietnamese civilians: The dependents of military personnel, widows, orphans and the poor and uprooted in battle areas.

"It's wonderful the way everyone is working together there to assist the people," a spokesman for Catholic Relief Service said. "It's created a feeling of one big family."

The agency is one of the largest providing help. Other major ones are CARE, Mennonite Central Committee, Foster Parents Plan and Project Concern.

Catholic Service began its South Vietnamese program in 1954 and now is feeding more than a half million persons daily. It expects to double the number shortly.

CARE is distributing food, clothing, blankets, tools for development, first aid equipment and school supplies. It also plans to help farmers rebuild their war-ravaged lands.

Mennonites constructed a 35-bed hospital and clinic and treat 150 patients daily. They also hand out food and U.S. surplus commodities.

Foster Parents Plan is providing social work and counseling assistance to about 5,000 families.

Project Concern operates a 20-bed hospital, five clinics and is planning a 53-bed hospital. Most of its work is with a wandering mountain people called Montagnards, who speak a language of their own and are among the victims of the fighting.

Most of the relief agencies belong to the American Council of Voluntary Agencies for Foreign Service, Inc. A coordinating council in Saigon also helps them put their efforts to the best advantage.

Sentenced As Draft Dodger

FORT WORTH (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge Leo Brewster sentenced David Myers, 26, a Jehovah's Witnesses minister from Irving, to two years in prison Thursday for draft dodging.

Brewster chided Myers for refusing military service. Others, he said, "are putting their lives on the line so there can be a court like this."

Myers registered as a conscientious objector in 1962. The government offered not to prosecute him if he worked in a military hospital for two years.

Myers refused the offer then and again Thursday when it was repeated by Brewster. He told the judge:

"I don't mean to be rebellious but I don't believe in this. I can't compromise with my religious beliefs."

Champion Pedro Oliva made 185 hits for the Minnesota Twins last season. He led the league in most hits while batting .321.

Ever try cucumbers? Pare the cucumbers and cut into ¼-inch rounds. Dip in slightly beaten egg mixed with salt and pepper, then roll in fine cracker crumbs. Fry the coated cucumber slices in butter in a skillet.

REV. ROBERT KNUTSON

Missionary To Speak Here Sunday

The Rev. Robert Knutson, missionary to Hawaii with the Bible Baptist Fellowship International, will be the guest speaker at the 10:45 a.m. worship service Sunday at Calvary Baptist Church.

Rev. Knutson, a veteran of over five years of active duty in the U.S. Navy, spent two years as a hospital corpsman and clinical laboratory technician at the submarine base at Pearl Harbor. During that tour of duty, he helped organize and became a charter member of the Fellowship Baptist Tabernacle in Honolulu.

Upon completion of his military duty, Rev. Knutson and his wife entered Baptist Bible College, Springfield, Mo., and graduated with the class of 1963. He received the award for being the honor mission student and his wife the honor of being the class speaker for women.

Since graduation he has spent a year on the staff of the Central Baptisit Church in Anaheim, Calif., where Dr. Bob Wells is pastor. After spending one year as coordinator of Jackson College, Hawaii's first Christian liberal arts college, he is now preparing to return to Hawaii to establish local New Testament churches.

Add a cup of grated sharp cheddar cheese to a package of pastry mix and make up according to package directions. Roll out ¼ inch thick; cut into strips and bake in a very hot oven for about 10 minutes. Serve as a delicious accompaniment to soup.

A wise man looks both ways, B C and A D. He looks B C for wisdom and guidance but A D for character and usefulness. History is B C but Faith is A D. Any man should reach higher than his father because he stands on his father's shoulders. Performance, not pedigree, is the passport to posterity's appreciation. A Bible reading, church-going society is the fruit of God-fearing ancestry. Don't miss a service.
