Answerline

Q. What does "lobo" mean?
A. It's the Spanish word for wolf. In American zoological terms, lobo refers to a coyote. Despite the Spanish meaning, it's doubtful that the Colorado City Wolves will ever become the Colorado City Lobos. A team of wolves sounds menacing and ferocious—might as well clearly warn opponents.

Wolves begin playoffs Friday night

The Colorado City Wolves, riding a four-game winning streak, enter the state Class 3-A playoffs Friday night against the state's sixth-ranked team. The Wolves will battle Monahans, winner of District 3-3A, at Memorial Stadium in Midland.

The Wolves enter the playoffs as runnerup in District 4-3A. District winner Crane will take on Alpine in Crane.

The Wolves playoff appearance is the first time in almost 15 years a Wolves team has entered the playoffs for two consecutive years.

at all that Monahans is getting all the attention. In fact, one area newspaper went so far as to say that Monahans will have an easy time in the playoffs due to their experience at the 4-A level and may find this 3A stuff easier and easier each week.

"They are a great football team on both sides of the football," said Coach Grissom. "They are big and quick. They deserve the ranking they have."

Monahans, 10-0, is ranked number six in the state and has dominated most of its opponents, outscoring them by over 300 points this season. The Lobos have a balanced offensive attack, led by running back Tyler Lee.

"Lee is as good a running back as we've seen," said Wolves Defensive Coach Gerald James. "He has good speed and is a very hard runner."

If there is a downside to Monahans' season, it has been the lack of quality competition they have faced. The Lobos outscored their district opponents 258-20 in five games.

Trade Days should draw big crowd

More than 6,000 people are expected this weekend, November 16-17, at the Railhead Trade Days in downtown Colorado City. The doors will be open Saturday from 9 a.m.-6 p.m. and Sunday from 11 a.m.-5 p.m.

"We are really excited about this Railhead," said Mary Kay Williamson, chairperson of the Railhead committee for the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce. "This marks the one year anniversary of the Railhead Trade Days in its new home and the 24th year of the Railhead event."

The Railhead Trade Days headquarters is located at 1st and Elm in downtown Colorado City, and the downtown merchants also participate in the activities. More than 110 vendor spaces will be filled in the Railhead building and throughout downtown.

The chamber has also acquired the Apache Flats

Airplane crash kills one in south county

INVESTIGATORS FROM THE FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION were in Colorado City Wednesday investigating the crash of a single engine Cessna 182 plane that crashed Tuesday morning south of Colorado City. The plane was scattered for hundreds of yards. An Eastland man died in the crash.

An airplane crash in south Mitchell County Tuesday morning claimed the life of an Eastland attorney.

Richard Kenneth Nunley, who would have turned 63 Thursday, died when the Cessna 182 he was flying went down in Ross Hargrove's field, 20 miles south of Colorado City. The plane crashed approximately one-half to three-quarters of a mile west of Sterling City Hwy. 163.

Mitchell County Game Warden Randy Bullard radioed the Mitchell County Sheriff's Office at 9:53 a.m. that he had observed a plane going down.

Two federal government trappers said they heard a plane go over their house that sounded as if it had engine problems, said Department of Public Safety Trooper Monty Kea.

According to the sheriff's office, Deputies Jimmy Brown and Kevin Frizzell flew over the area and located the crash site at 10:50 a.m.

The cause of the crash has not been determined, Trooper Kea said.

Investigators from the Federal Aviation Administration arrived in Colorado City late Tuesday to conduct the investigation. More investigators were expected to arrive Wednesday.

Local merchants to give away 32 holiday hams

Colorado City's merchant's will give away 32 hams to some lucky winners this month.

Participants must complete the coupons on pages 8 and 9 of today's Record, cut them out and take them to the participating merchants.

The winners of the hams will be announced Monday night, November 25.

No purchase is necessary and participants need not be present to win.

This is the third year local merchants and the Colorado City Record have sponsored the event.

Play ball! Girls' softball to begin this spring

Parents won a victory Monday night when their organized request for a girls' softball program was approved by the Colorado Independent School District Board of Trustees.

School Board President Larry Blessingame emphasized that the board had not been against the program by asking parents at the October school board meeting to bring back a petition signed by people in the community.

"No one on the board objected to the program. We were just trying to go through the process," said Blessingame.

Leslie Scott, the spokesperson for the group, gave the board petitions containing 1,100 signatures.

A softball interest survey conducted by Colorado High School showed 69 girls saying they would be interested in participating in the program. Sixty-two said they would not be interested in participating.

Girls' softball will begin this spring. It will be an after-school program rather than held during the school day because of the schedule of Coach Linda Mathis who volunteered to coach, said CISD Superintendent Russell Merket.

The varsity team will play in the district that in-

Exchange students enjoy new experiences

EXCHANGE STUDENTS and their host families: Paikie Morris, Andrei Naoumovk from Russia, Vesta Shaw, Nicol Mazarova from Slovakia, and D'Dee Morris.

Colorado High School exchange students Andrei Naoumov and Nicole Mazarova have plunged into experiencing as much of American life as possible during their year-long stay in Colorado City.

Naoumov, 17, of Russia, went hunting for the first time on the opening day of deer season here. Although he didn't bag a deer, he did shoot and kill a rattlesnake.

"He blew it all to bits," Vesta Shaw, his host mother, said with a laugh. "It was impossible to figure out later how many rattles it had."

Naoumov said he enjoys farming and the outdoor life here but what he likes most in Colorado City are the people and the weather.

"Before I came here, I had imagined that Texas would be cactus and cowboys," he said.

He enjoys photography and would like to be able to go on to college here.

Mazarova, raised in a city in Slovakia, has had an opportunity to experience country life while staying with the Tommy and D'Dee Morris family. She's already fulfilled her dream of riding a horse and owning a cowboy hat and boots.

She's found that she has a knack with animals and as an active member of 4-H she is raising and showing three goats. Her plans include traveling to the big shows this winter in San Antonio, Fort Worth and Houston.

"We didn't meet animals on the road at home like you do here," she said.

Mazarova, a bubbly 17-year-old, is working very hard to adopt a Texas accent.

"She learned British English and now wants so much to sound like a Texan," said D'Dee Morris.

Both of the seniors said that school here is very different from those they attended in their home countries. While they

COOK'S CORNER

Sharon Gilbreath

Sharon Gilbreath, owner and operator of the Rain Stick, really enjoys sharing what she cooks with others. She said that her mother gave her some good advice that she tries to follow: "Always have more food than you need so no one goes home hungry."

Before she married, Sharon didn't know much about cooking. Since she didn't learn to cook while growing up, she resorted to "trial and error" to learn. Of course, her mother was there by phone for last minute instructions. Learning by experimenting certainly worked for her.

Sharon shared two flops with us, although she admitted to trying to hide her mistakes in the garbage or down the disposal. She said that the first time she cooked turnip greens, she didn't know that they had to be washed thoroughly, so she hardly rinsed them. She had a lot of company coming over for dinner and the greens "were like eating mud".

Another time while preparing a four-layer pie, she got her sugars mixed up and the pie turned out hard as a rock.

Holidays are very special around the Gilbreath home. Sharon finds ways to celebrate all of them. She especially likes Thanksgiving. Her kids come home expecting to find lots of decorations and plenty of food. They are rarely disappointed.

Sharon and her husband, Donnie both choose Mexican food as their favorite. She told us that Donnie would eat it three times a day if he could. Sharon said that she likes to cook Mexican food; however, no matter how hard she tries, she can't make tortillas come out right.

A "down-to-earth person" describes Sharon well. She said, "I want everybody to feel welcome around me . . . in my home and my business."

Sharon and Donnie moved to Colorado City from Decatur almost seven years ago. She and her husband have been married 18 years. He is a state trooper. She has two children, Rebecca Farrar, 25, lives in Dallas and Chad Farrar, 29, resides in Arlington.

Some recipes submitted by Sharon follow. We hope you enjoy trying them and, like Sharon, sharing them.

her co-workers. "I think we have a great medical staff and we, as a community, should all be thankful for them," she said. "I would like to publicly thank my coworkers for being dependable and conscientious in all they do. They have helped me make our hospital one of the best small hospitals in this area.

"I don't know how many more years I will continue to work, but it will be one of the saddest days of my life when I decide to hang it up," she said.

The Mitchell County Hospital District has named JoAnn Merket, director of nursing, Employee of the Month for October.

JoAnn has been with Mitchell County Hospital for 41 years. "I have enjoyed my years of nursing at the Mitchell County Hospital," she said. "I am proud and honored to have been chosen as Employee of the Month. I love my patients and I care about their welfare very much. I feel happy when they are getting well and sad when I know they will never be well again."

JoAnn is a graduate of Shannon Memorial School of Nursing. She married Lindy Merket in 1957 and they have two children, Dondi and Rusty.

Dondi and her husband, Audie, who is a pharmacist, both work for Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. They have two daughters, Lindsey and Lauren. Rusty Merket farms and ranches in Mitchell County. His wife, Kim, teaches at the Wallace Unit. They have one daughter, Kendra, who attends Kelley Elementary.

THIS n THAT

By Sheila Plagens

Had a very nice time at the style show Saturday sponsored by The Rainstick. We saw lots of cute clothes and ate lots of good food! Congratulations to all the door prize winners: Annie May Lee, Marcelene Cox, Connie Waldrip, Sis Jones and Sylvia Reyna all won great gifts. Sharon also gave away many coffee cups.

Shirley DeLaney is anxiously awaiting the arrival of her new grandbaby—due any day now. Her daughter, Cara, and Shirley went out shopping for necessities the other day.

I didn't get to see the cafeteria after it was decorated for Lord's Acre, but from all the reports I've heard, it was beautiful.

Anna and Walt Staats had some surprise visitors this weekend. Pannie and P.D. Shurtleff, the couple who built the home Anna and Walt now live in stopped by there to have their picture made on the front porch. It was to commemorate their 50th anniversary.

Friends asked the couple what they would do if the present owners wouldn't let them take a picture and they said they would sneak up on the porch and have one taken anyway. That wasn't necessary, though, because Anna said that she and Walt were excited to have been a part of the celebration.

The Staats also learned some things about their house that they didn't know, i.e.—that there used to be a breakfast bar (something Anna has always wanted) and a fireplace.

This weekend is Railhead Trade Days. With over 100 booths, you should be able to start your Christmas shopping in a big way. As an added attraction, there will be a carnival, also. Definitely a little something for everyone!

Miss Texas seemed to charm Colorado City. She was the big topic of conversation by male school administration at the school board meeting Monday night.

Mark Merrell said the sixth graders just loved her, as did the elementary kids. She adores kids and Bobby Lemons said the little ones really responded to that. She'll be visiting 300 schools during her reign this year.

An interesting note on the recent election. In 1996, out of 24 major battles over gambling legislation and referenda (in the U.S. Congress, 22 states, and the District of Columbia), gambling opponents won 23 and lost only 1. It is unlikely that any other national interest group can boast a better record of success this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes to celebrate 50th anniversary

Billy Ray and Gladys Hayes will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary Saturday, November 16, 1996 with a come-and-go reception at the Westbrook First Baptist Church fellowship hall from 4-5:30 p.m. Friends are invited to stop by to visit and share memories with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes were married November 16, 1946 in Hamlin and spent most of their married life farming in the Dawson County area. They moved to Colorado City in June 1982. Mr. Hayes became the sewer treatment plant operator for the City of Colorado City until his retirement in November 1992. Mrs. Hayes was a cafeteria worker in the Colorado ISD until her retirement in May 1996. She still enjoys working as a substitute on occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are members of the First Baptist Church in Westbrook. They have two children, Becky Manning of Colorado City and Dwayne Hayes of Corvallis, Ore., and two grandchildren.

Christmas Bazaar set at Wallace Sr. Citizens

The Wallace Center senior citizens will hold their annual Christmas bazaar Saturday, Nov. 23 at the Civic Center from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.

The bazaar will be held in conjunction with the Lions Club Chili Supper, also at the Civic Center. The Lions will be serving from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. and from 5 p.m. until 7 p.m.

"Many handcrafted items made by senior citizens will be available at the bazaar as well as homemade baked goods," said Golda Redwine, Wallace Center director. "Our senior citizens are some of the best cooks in Mitchell County and they have spent many hours working on the crafts."

Bazaar items will include Christmas shirts, vests, door hangings, crocheted items, dolls and much more.

"Handmade pantyhose holders are already proving to be one of the hottest items this year," said Redwine.

Fruitcakes from Corsicana will again be available at the bazaar. Besides the one pound fruitcake, this year visitors can also purchase what is billed as "the world famous deluxe fruitcake" in a limited edition tin commemorating the 100th anniversary of the Collins Street bakery.

While attending the bazaar, people can register to win the Christmas quilt to be given away during the Wallace Center Christmas dinner in December.

All proceeds will benefit the senior citizens nutrition program.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

Lee Jones introduced me to her and it was love at first sight. The day was January 30, 1983 and we had been riding around Colorado City with Lee pointing out sites of historical significance.

Our last stop that day was at the old standpipe south of town behind the Wallace Center. "I'll bet that old thing is over a hundred years old," Jones said as he sat in the car and motioned toward the water storage tank. "You oughta research it and we'll get a historical marker," he added.

After a quick research lesson by my mentor, I was off to the museum where I borrowed the original minutes books of our town. Hurriedly, I thumbed through the heavy books (they weigh about 20 pounds each) looking for some verification of the year Colorado City bought the standpipe.

To be truthful, there's no entry that specifically states Colorado, as it was called back then, had contracted to buy a water storage facility from anyone. Quickly I scanned each page of the big book, through the years 1882, 1883, 1884 and into 1885.

It's difficult to keep one's attention on a certain subject when glancing at the history of our frontier town and reading about a petition from the Ladies Aid Society, laws concerning smoking opium, (uh huh, even in the early 1880s), and what distance horses and buggies must be kept from the railroad track!

Finally, there was an entry dated May 12, 1886. It states: "The city Clerk was instructed to correspond with Riter and Connelly (misspelled) and ascertain if they will accept a bond bearing 8% interest per annum in payment of their account rendered April 1, 1886."

Riter and Connelly? Who were they? I read on, looking for their response. It didn't come in June, July or August. (Mail must have really been slow in those days.) Then came September, but still no answer. But in October of 1886, on the 13th, there was another interesting entry in the council's minutes books.

Riter and Conley (correct spelling) were not interested in financing the standpipe, but they would take bonds at 90 cents on the dollar, a 10 percent discount for the city, if the town fathers would go ahead and pay off the debt.

They city didn't have that kind of money, so a counter proposal was made. The city would pay off the note in scrip, at eight percent interest. (Later the city borrowed some money to finish the waterworks and they made yet another offer to Riter and Conley; cash payoff, but at six percent interest, four percent below the original agreement. There's no indication the city's offer was accepted.)

Satisfied that these cryptic entries might be referring to our standpipe, I made a quick trip back out behind the Wallace Center. Walking around the 90-foot tall structure, I hit paydirt. Attached to the standpipe is a metal plate which was hard to read, but still legible, "Riter and Conley, makers, Pittsburgh, Pa."

Success!! The city had bought this very piece of equipment from Riter and Conley and it had been constructed in 1885.

During the coming weeks, I was able to find out who the city bought the cast iron pipe from (Shickle, Harrison and Howard Iron Company, St. Louis, Mo.), plus who drilled the first water well (H.R. Hammond at a depth of 125 feet for $300) and the minutes even told who was laying the foundation (D.C. Brynes).

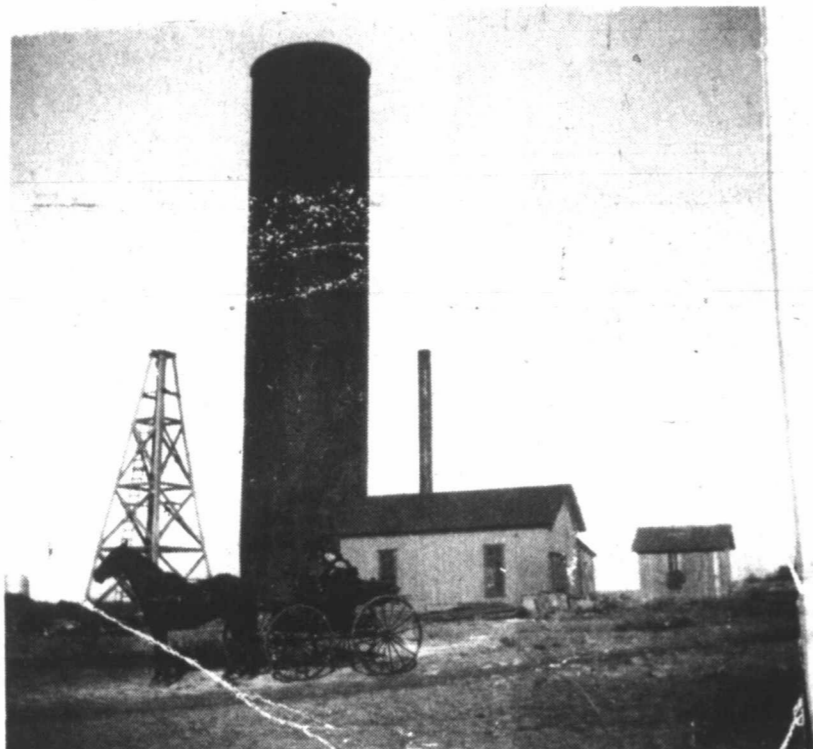

The story reads like an exciting real life drama, which it really is. When all the research was gathered, Lee Jones wrote the application narrative for a Texas Historical Marker, which was paid for by the Mitchell County Oldtimers Association.

Today, the city is in the process of making repairs to the grand old lady, 111 years after she was put into service. Engineers from Hibbs and Todd, Abilene have determined that the city standpipe is the oldest one of its type used by a municipality in Texas and the second oldest in the United States!

Recognition is long overdue and it all started when Lee Jones said he thought the old structure was 100 years old. It's still in operation today. With a capacity of 280,000 gallons it has the same elevation at the top as the north waterworks.

Now, with a little facelift, she's working on her second one-hundred years.

Raff answers cotton questions

Joe Raff, CEA-AG

I have had some questions about cold injury to cotton and planting narrow row next year. Here's what we know as of now.

Cold weather can affect cotton and cotton parts differently. However, no hard and fast rules can be given because of the high variability in temperature reached in different parts of the plant and stages of boll development. When it gets near freezing, slight temperature differences, wind, water, etc., all become critical. Twenty eight to 34 is a big difference compared with 45 to 55 or 15 to 25.

Leaves are much more vulnerable to injury than bolls due to their greater surface to mass ratio and the sensitivity of photosynthesis to stress. When temperatures drop below 55, the leaf is injured by chilling and it takes three days for full recovery. Below 45 degrees, the leaf starts to be permanently injured. Below 40, permanent injury to the leaves is expected. If the leaves turn purple-red-yellow (no green left) then they have been permanently injured and are starting to senesce.

Stems have a smaller surface to mass ratio than leaves but more than bolls. Damage to stems occurs largely below freezing when ice nucleation tears apart the stem and makes barks cotton very likely. Most say that phloem injury in the branches will also occur below 40 degrees, restricting sugar movement to the bolls.

Due to the mass of a boll, injury occurs below freezing. Although bolls may only mature for 50 additional head units when leaves senesce, if they do not freeze and kill the separation zone they can open and produce low mike cotton. Temperatures at or near freezing can blister the boll epidermis and stimulate boll opening but colder temperatures risk freezing the bolls shut that have not started to form an abscission zone.

Bolls seem to be more mature than NACB (nodes above crack boll) predicts (NACB of five generally shows some seed coat color and no jelly), and micronaire damage occurs starting at NACB of five and above with the potential for bolls freezing shut at NACB of seven or larger, if temperatures drop below freezing.

There have been some data collected on narrow row (30 inches) cotton, but keep in mind that most of this data was done 20-plus years ago.

The advantage (planting narrow row cotton) varies from year to year and from field to field: These differences are about the same as skip row versus solid planted cotton. However, one factor that was not taken into account was the cost of converting your equipment to narrow row. I'm not convinced that the added cost of converting your equipment is cost effective. But again, it will vary from operation to operation.

Mitchell Co. farms eligible for FSA loans

U.S. Department of Agriculture Secretary Dan Glickman has designated Howard County a primary disaster area as a result of the drought that occurred from January 1 through August 31, 1996 and continuing, according to Congressman Charles Stenholm.

In reviewing the Damage Assessment Report, Secretary Glickman determined that Howard County did sustain sufficient production losses to warrant a secretarial disaster designation.

The following additional areas were named as contiguous disaster counties: Borden, Dawson, Glasscock, Martin, Mitchell, Scurry and Sterling.

This designation makes family-sized farm operators in both primary and contiguous counties eligible to be considered for low-interest emergency loans from the Farm Service Agency (FSA). Each application will be considered on its own merits, taking into account the extent of losses, security available, repayment ability and other eligibility requirements.

Officer interrupts burglary at Skinny's last Wednesday

A Colorado City police officer interrupted a burglary at a convenience store early Wednesday morning, Nov. 6, and apprehended the suspect after a 70 mph chase was ended by road spikes.

Officer George Oliver saw a burglary in progress at Skinny's convenience store on Second Street when he responded to a burglary alarm warning received at the Colorado City Police Department.

"He saw the glass door busted out, beer cans rolling around on the floor of the store and a vehicle fleeing from the alley behind the store," said Police Lieutenant Patrick Taylor.

Oliver pursued the vehicle south on Highway 163, north on Highway 670 and east on Interstate 20 at speeds ranging from 50 to 75 mph.

Caleb Daniel Johnson, 18, of Colorado City, was apprehended one mile west of Highway 1229, the old Visa Truckstop. Mitchell County Sheriff Patrick Taylor and Deputy Kevin Frizzell assisted the police department by putting down road spikes ahead of the suspect which blew out the tires on the vehicle driven by Johnson.

Johnson was charged with burglary, evading arrest and driving while intoxicated.

Bond was set at $3,500 for burglary and $1,500 each for the evading arrest and DWI charges.

Police Chief David Montgomery, who has been publicly critical of chases done by other law enforcement agencies in the past, said he had commended Officer Oliver for following city policy. He also wanted to thank the local sheriff's department for their assistance.

MISS TEXAS Michelle Martinez speaks during a luncheon at the Civic Center hosted by the Colorado City Rotary Club Wednesday.

cludes Greenwood and Kermit. Merket said that adding a junior varsity team will be up to Coach Mathis because of her schedule.

The Ruddick Park field will be used this year but it's a marginal field because the fence is two feet too short, said Merket.

"We'll have to build our own field or improve on the one we have after next year," said Blasingame.

The program is estimated to cost around $10,000 a year based on a survey by Merket of area schools. Expenses include annual budget for the program, tournament fees, playing field upkeep, officials, travel, meals and coaching stipend. The average cost of start-up equipment paid by other schools has been $4,850.

Since the program had not been figured into this year's budget, a budget amendment will be necessary later, said CISD Business Manager Geneva Findley.

In other business, the board agreed to award a bid made by a student on a non-operational 1983

Datsun in the CHS auto mechanics department. They rejected two bids on two other vehicles, instead deciding to donate them to the Windham School at the TDCJ unit in Snyder. The prison school had asked that a donation be considered.

The board also:

- *approved a bid from Caldwell Music on band instruments totaling $31,812.72. This is the final year of a two-year plan to upgrade band equipment and replace instruments that are too expensive for parents to purchase.

- *approved a bid from Armstrong Mechanical of Lubbock for air conditioning renovation at CHS. Armstrong's bid for $300,432 was the low bid of seven bids submitted. Work in the classrooms is expected to be done after the end of the school year. The company, who has done work previously for the school district, plans to work on the air conditioning in the auditorium during spring break and the outside buildings during the school year.

praise the school system and the friendliness of their teachers and schoolmates, both say understanding English has caused them the most problems in their classes.

The host mothers say the teenagers have become like members of their families and they are delighted with the exchange program. "Andrei is a super son," said Shaw. "I don't feel like I'm hosting. He's just like our son and is part of our family."

The Shaws' children are grown and Mrs. Shaw said they are enjoying devoting their attention to Naoumov. They've all gone camping and fishing.

D'Dee Morris has become a local representative for the Intercultural Student Exchange Program (AISE).

"The hardest thing about being a host family is realizing that they are part of your family. They're not a guest. Host families find that treating them like a guest is wearing and gets old pretty quick," said Morris.

Being a host changes your family in ways one would never have imagined, she said.

Instead of watching television, the family now spends many evenings sitting at their dining room table talking. They explain things to Nicole and each talks about their country.

"It really is intercultural," said Morris. "We're more aware of what's going on all over the world now. You come to love the country your student is from and your own traditions become more meaningful."

Shaw and the exchange students murmured agreement when Morris said, "it's a wonderful experience."

and you can't legislate against youth. Kids are going to be kids," said Councilman Gary Redwine, who voted against the ordinance.

Councilman Sammy Contreras also voted against the measure.

The ordinance says that the riding of bicycles, skateboards, roller blades and roller skates "presents the possibility of injury to persons and property of the customers of the downtown businesses and threatens health, safety and welfare of the public in general."

The problem was first brought up during a council meeting two months ago by Councilman A. W. Rowe, who owns a business on Second Street. Rowe said that children were riding their bicycles on the sidewalks and using the handicapped ramps on the sidewalks as roller blade launch pads. He also said that horses were being ridden on the sidewalk.

The new ordinance does not include horses but specifies that the prohibition applies to the area between First and Third Streets and between Chestnut and Oak Streets.

In other business, the council approved boarding up the Baker Hotel to try to secure the ground floor of the old building. Mayor Jim Baum said that kids were getting in the building and action needed to be taken to try to prevent serious injury.

The council also approved a Harvest Food Bank Program, operated by People For Progress, Inc. The food distribution program for the needy is designed to fill the vacuum left by the almost non-existent Dept. of Agriculture Commodity Program.

The program will operate without cost to the city although the city will need to provide a building for storage and distributing the food, said Councilman Bob Reily.

including a 45-6 win over Clint. The Wolves defeated Clint 52-6 earlier in the season.

The Wolves' defense may be the key if the Wolves are to upset Monahans. Linebackers John Erwin, Joe Ross Jameson and Chris Fambro are coming off a great game against Sonora and need to have another strong performance Friday night.

Tackles Zack Love and Jeff Anzaldua, along with defensive ends Blake Oden and Brandon Atkins have anchored the Wolves stingy defense this season and match up favorably with the big, strong Monahans offensive line.

The defensive backfield also has contributed to recent success. Terry Green, Roland Nelson, Jamie Gutierrez and Jeremiah Munoz have been improving each week.

"This season, the Wolves' defense has only given up 122 points. "If we eliminate a few mental errors," said Coach James, "our defense can play with anybody."

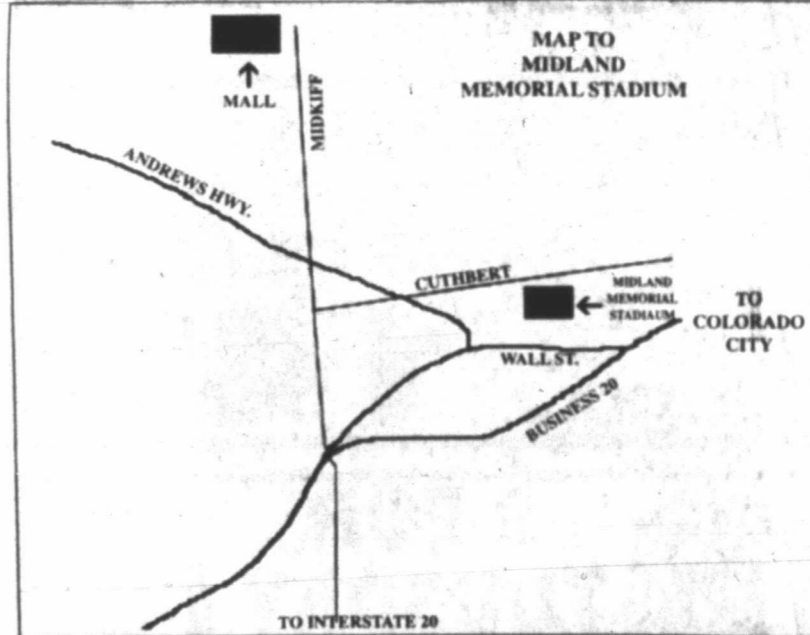

The Wolves will also need a big game from running back Arian Emerson, who finished the regular season with 1763 yards rushing and 21 touchdowns.

The Wolves will be getting back Brad Anderson and Adam Wood from recent injuries. Both saw limited action last week and should get a lot of playing time Friday night.

Should the Wolves win, their next opponent would be the winner of the Friona-Denver City game, with a possible match-up against number one-ranked Vernon looming ahead.

"This is what we've been waiting for," said Coach Grissom. "We are going to have to respond and play a great football game."

Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

VETERANS OF THREE WARS place flowers in front of the memorial at the Mitchell County Courthouse. Monday morning (l-r) Jim Hearin, a Vietnam veteran; Jack Strain, a veteran of the Korean War; and D.M. Smith, a WWII veteran, commemorated Veterans Day by honoring all those from Mitchell County who served and died while fighting for this country.

a 100-year-old, three bedroom building which is equipped with 10 beds.

For up to six weeks, the Noah Project provides residents with food and housing, personal and group counseling, parenting classes, nutritional education, job interview skills, legal advocacy, transportation and referrals to other agency services.

"Leaving the abuser can be the most dangerous time for the victim. That's why it is important to have a safe, secure place for the victim and her children to go," said Dee Wilson, service area director of Noah Project-West.

Since its founding, more than 2,000 people have received services from the Noah Project. However, more than 100 have had to be turned away from the shelter due to limited space. When this happens other facilities are found or the people are referred to other agencies.

A drive is currently underway to raise necessary funds to build a new home for the shelter in Snyder. The age of the present structure makes needed improvements almost impossible to make.

The new building is planned to be located close to a site where a victim of spousal abuse died.

Reins tightened on final water work

The Colorado City Council met again last week in an effort to keep a tight rein on the final water project work.

The council discussion last Wednesday concerned how to complete as much work as possible with the remaining funds while staying within the 25 percent overrun allowed by the state.

"We need to proceed as cautiously as possible," City Manager Steve Shutt advised the council.

During the previous Wednesday's meeting, the council began the called meeting with a closed door session to hear a staff report on the water project. However, in accordance with the Open Meetings Act, they could not discuss or take action on the project during the executive session.

Last Wednesday's open meeting included a discussion on the cost of the water project with a report that work to date has totaled $3,227,670.

Project engineer Glenn Hemphill's figures showed $25,000 more remaining than had been calculated by Connie Ponko, city financial officer.

"Whichever scenario is correct—both your figures show that we can finish the reconnections on the 57 houses and still be within the state law," said Shutt.

Unexpected expenses have led to the overrun and expenditure of the $358,500 budgeted contingency fund, Hemphill and Ponko reported to the council. Ponko's report listed eight projects that came up and had to be done, but were not figured into the original contract—projects such as the water line to the prison and emergency projects on Seventh and Cedar Streets and one on 15th Street.

Work on Second Street, not part of the original contract, involved taking a big water main out of operation.

FINAL WORK
During the Oct. 30 meeting, the council approved the projects to be completed with the remaining money: finishing the water treatment plant, the intake system at the lake and work on Rusk Street.

Wednesday, the council unanimously voted to add hookups of approximately 57 houses on west Hickory Street to the final project list. The work involves transferring service from the old lines to the new lines and should be completed in two weeks.

The "cut and plug" work, turning loose of all the old lines, will not be done now but will be re-bid, the council decided.

"There's so much to do but we can't afford to do it all in one project," said Shutt. "We can finish these up; step back and reconsider; and then start over again with the cut and plug work."

Hemphill told the council that a final inspection to get state approval when the project is completed should not be a problem because "the inspectors have been out all along."

He told the council that despite the unexpected costs and difficulties encountered in doing the work, "Snyder is paying more for their treatment plant than you're paying for all of this."

Mature driving course to be offered in Odessa

Tolia Eye Clinic has joined with the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) to offer a 55 ALIVE/MATURE DRIVING course. AARP developed the classroom refresher course to help drivers 50 years of age and older improve their skills and prevent traffic accidents.

The first session of this eight-hour course will be held from 1-5 p.m. on Wednesday, November 20 at Tolia Eye Clinic, 6005 Eastridge Road, Suite 100, Odessa. Registration for the first day will begin at 12:30 p.m. The second session will be held at the same time and location on Friday, November 22. The fee for the course is $8, payable to AARP, and includes both sessions of the course as well as course supplies used in class. The 55 ALIVE/MATURE DRIVING course is designed to meet the specific needs of older drivers. It covers age-related physical changes, declining perceptual skills, rules of the road, local driving problems and license renewal requirements. Volunteer instructors recruited and trained by AARP conduct the course, which is presented through a combination of slide presentations and group discussion. Tolia Eye Clinic will provide refreshments for all class participants. All automobile insurance companies conducting business in Texas are required to provide a premium discount of 10% for a three-year period to graduates of the 55 ALIVE/

MATURE DRIVING course, which is a state-approved driver improvement course. This course is offered to interested persons over age 50, who may stop by Tolia Eye Clinic to register and pay the registration fee, or call 362-2020 or 1-800-365-EYES.

Braswell retires from USDA ...worked in Mitchell County from 1963-1970

Coke County native Eddie R. Braswell retired November 1 from USDA-FSA after 39 years and nine months of service. He was honored with a reception at the Texas State Office in College Station October 31.

The son of Oleta Braswell and the late George Braswell of Bronte, he is married to the former Carolyn Childress, daughter of Essie Childress and the late Melvin Childress of Robert Lee.

Mr. Braswell began his career with Agricultural Stabilization Service on February 1, 1957 as the counter clerk in the Coke County office. In 1958 he began county director training in the Runnels County office. The next year, he was named county executive director in Sterling County, where he served until February 1963.

A transfer brought Mr. Braswell to the Mitchell County office, where he served until 1970. He was then appointed district director to the Trans-Pecos area and moved to Alpine. In 1972 he transferred to the Rolling Plains area and continued as district director.

In November 1977 he transferred to the Texas state office in College Station. He served there as training officer, price support program specialist and, for the last three years, as Texas chief of price support.

He has been recognized over the years with many awards, including the Distinguished Service Award for Agriculture presented by both TASCOE and NASCOE.

Mr. and Mrs. Braswell are the parents of four children, Ginger Williams of Muscat, Oman; Van Braswell of McCamey; Sterling Braswell of Houston and Gentry Braswell of College Station; and the grandparents of five grandchildren.

Public Notice

Pursuant to Tex. Rev. Civ. Stat. Ann. art. 1446e, § 5.08 (1996) Lone Star Gas Company and Lone Star Pipeline Company, Divisions of ENSERCH Corporation, and ENSAT Pipeline Company (collectively referred to as "Applicant") hereby give notice of intent to change the city gate rate of Lone Star Gas Company established by Order of the Railroad Commission of Texas in Gas Utilities Division Docket No. 3543.

Applicant proposes a Monthly City Gate Rate Calculation (MCGRC) to replace the rate approved in GUD 3543. The MCGRC recovers the costs of purchasing, storing, and transporting gas to the city gates, including an adjustment provision to recover the carrying cost of working gas in storage. Applicant also proposes transportation and storage rates for city gate deliveries with tracking clauses to recover fuel and lost and unaccounted for gas.

The proposed effective date of the change is November 29, 1996. The change is a major change, and will result in an increase in annual revenues of approximately $24.2 million or 4.8 percent (4.8%). The customers affected are the 1.3 million residential and commercial customers in Texas served by Lone Star Gas Company under the rates established by the local regulatory authorities in the municipalities and the Railroad Commission in the environs areas.

A statement of Intent to make such change has been filed with the Railroad Commission of Texas in GUD 8664 and is available for inspection at the Commission's office in Austin, Texas and at the offices of the Applicant in Dallas, Texas.

Wolves reach playoffs with victory over Broncos

By CASEY EAGAN

The Colorado City Wolves utilized a patient offense and their usual stingy defense to lasso the Sonora Broncos 24-7 last Friday night in Sonora. The victory enabled the Wolves to advance to the bi-district round of the playoffs for the second consecutive season.

The Wolves will face undefeated Monahans, ranked number six in the state, in the first round of the playoffs.

Colorado City (8-2, 4-1) was in another dogfight with the Broncos (6-4, 2-3) until midway through the fourth quarter before gaining control of the game in the final minutes.

"I could tell from our practices last week we were going to have a good game," said Wolves Head Coach Bill Grissom. "Our kids responded to the challenge."

The Wolves have opened most of their district games with scoring drives, and this game was no exception. A 10-play, 67-yard drive was capped off by a 15-yard touchdown run by quarterback Lance Dockrey with 4:29 left in the first quarter. Wolves kicker Chris Ramirez nailed the extra point to put the Wolves ahead 7-0.

The Wolves' defense was awesome from the get go. Defensive tackle Zack Love dominated the trenches, and defensive ends Blake Oden and Brandon Atkins, along with linebacker Joe Ross Jameson, kept the Broncos from gaining any substantial yardage throughout the first quarter.

The Wolves continued to dominate on both sides of the ball the remainder of the first half. Runningback Arian Emerson, who was coming off his worst game of the season a week earlier, raced through the Bronco defense for a 31-yard run to set up the Wolves' second touchdown. Dockrey plunged into the end zone from one yard out to put the Wolves ahead 14-0 with 5:56 to play in the half.

The Broncos would fight back late in the half, driving 80 yards on 11 plays in the final two minutes, eventually scoring on a one-yard touchdown pass to close the gap to 14-7 at the half.

The Wolves' offense was sluggish in the third quarter, unable to make a first down on three different possessions. The defense, however, refused to allow Sonora to get any closer, thanks to the spectacular play of linebacker Joe Ross Jameson. The Wolves kept their 14-7 lead going into the fourth quarter.

Sonora received a huge break early in the fourth quarter when Dockrey fumbled the ball after a first down run. The Broncos recovered at the Wolves' 11 yard line and it looked like the tide of the game had turned toward Sonora.

But Wolves linebacker Chris Fambro made a key third down tackle, forcing the Broncos to attempt a field goal. The kick sailed wide, and so did Sonora's hopes of reaching the playoffs.

Dockrey, who had his best game of the year, took advantage immediately. He found Wolves wide receiver Jaime Gutierrez wide open near midfield, and Gutierrez raced down to the Sonora 17 yard line for a 64-yard pass play. Ramirez would later kick a 32-yard field goal, his fifth of the year, to put the Wolves ahead 17-7 with 5:08 to play in the game.

Sonora was unable to move the ball on their next possession, failing on a fourth down desperation pass with 3:40 left to play.

The Wolves smelled blood and went in for the kill. Emerson streaked past the Broncos' defense for a 20-yard touchdown run with 2:07 to play, assuring the Wolves of a 24-7 victory and a berth in the playoffs.

"We played as good a defense the last three or four weeks as I could ask for," said Wolves Defensive Coach Gerald James. "The effort has been outstanding."

Wolves quarterback Lance Dockrey completed six of 14 passes for 100 yards, and ran for 56 yards and two touchdowns for the Wolves. Tight end Brett Hoyle had three receptions and wide receiver Jaime Gutierrez had a 64-yard reception. Runningback Arian Emerson rushed for 114 yards and a touchdown.

The Wolves' defense was led by linebacker Joe Ross Jameson, who had 14 tackles, and defensive linemen Zack Love and Blake Oden, who punished the Broncos' offensive line.

The Wolves open the playoffs this Friday night at Midland's Memorial Stadium at 7:30 p.m. against number six ranked Monahans (10-0).

WOLF SPIRIT is at a season high this week as supporters have put up signs throughout the city encouraging the Wolves to beat Monahans in the upcoming playoff game. The Wolves take on Monahans in the bi-district playoff game Friday night in Midland. Wolf fans believe a victory is imminent.

Lady Wolves fall to Monahans in playoffs

Despite a valiant effort, the Lady Wolves volleyball team could not find the answers against Monahans, falling to the number one-ranked team in West Texas 15-8, 15-6 Thursday night in Big Spring. Monahans had a huge advantage in size and used it to their advantage, but the Lady Wolves were not intimidated.

Down 6-1 in the first game, they fought back through sheer determination to even the score at eight apiece.

"I think our serving killed us. If we had served well we could have won," said Lady Wolves Coach Jessica Lacy. "We worked on our defense to just get the ball up. We went for everything."

The second game was dominated by Monahans, who used their size and strength to put away the close rallies and to stop the momentum swings toward the Lady Wolves, who received fine performances from Jana Redwine and Melissa Rivera.

Nevertheless, it was a terrific season for the Lady Wolves, who should be an even greater force to reckon with next season.

"The girls were very disappointed and upset, but they have come so far," said Coach Lacy. "We have all but two of our girls coming back next year, so I expect us to be much better. This year was something to be proud of."

"The kids feel really good about their finish," said Coach Ritchey. "They feel like they were 5-1. The first four games were just a warmup."

Lady Bulldogs begin basketball season.

The Loraine Lady Bulldogs look to a new basketball coach to lead them to a district title this season.

Victor Garcia, an assistant coach on the Loraine football team, will guide the Lady Bulldogs this season. The varsity and JV girls basketball teams played Midland Trinity in the regular season opener Tuesday night.

According to Coach Garcia, the Lady Bulldogs are more than ready to get things started. "We've got a lot of fire and quickness on this team," said Coach Garcia. "We've worked mostly on our conditioning so far. The only thing we don't have is height."

After doing battle with Midland Trinity, the Lady Bulldogs will take on Midland Christian Saturday, November 16 at 2 p.m. in Midland, followed by a rematch against Midland Trinity at 6:30 p.m. in Midland on Tuesday, November 19. The boys team does not open their season until next week.

"Our goal is to at least have a winning record," Coach Garcia of the Lady Bulldogs said. "The girls deserve that. But we also feel we can win district or at least make the playoffs."

9th grade Wolves comeback falls short

The Wolves ninth grade team lost their season finale last Thursday night at Wolf Stadium to the Sonora Broncos 8-6 despite a gritty second half effort.

The Wolves (3-7) struggled offensively most of the night, but nearly pulled off come-from-behind victory. "The second half we really turned it on," said Doug Boone, ninth grade coach. "We should probably have won. Time just ran out on us."

Despite the losing record for the season, the Wolves had some bright spots. Running back John McSpaddin had a great season for the Wolves' offense, along with Jamarr Smith. Smith led an improving defense consisting of Chris Castro, Drew Potter and Jacob Ryan. Kicker Rusty Jones won one game thanks to his foot.

"There were a lot of positive things about the season," said Coach Boone. "Our defense against Sonora in the second half was the best since early this season, and we have a great group of eighth graders coming up next year."

Sullivan places 13th in state meet

Lady Wolves cross country runner Wendy Sullivan capped off a successful season by placing 13th in the state cross country meet last Saturday in Round Rock.

Sullivan had qualified at the regional championships the previous week. It is the second consecutive year she qualified for the state championships.

"I'm disappointed," said Sullivan. "But I'm looking forward to next year."

The Lady Wolves cross country team won the district championship this season, and finished 11th out of 14 teams in the regional meet.

Wildcats win finale, lose flip

By CARL GRAHAM

Going into the final game of the year, Westbrook knew exactly what they had to do to extend their football season. Win and rely on the flip of a coin to decide who continues in the playoffs or lose and pack up the football equipment and break out the basketball gear.

The Wildcats knew they would be in for the fight of their lives but probably no one realized the final outcome would come down to a missed PAT by Highland sophomore kicker Juan Rodriguez.

Everyone was looking for the game to be a matchup of the running of Highland's senior running back, Cody Muncy, against the pinpoint passing attack of Westbrook's sophomore quarterback, Justin Hill.

"We believed at the beginning of the year it would come down to us and Highland," said Westbrook Coach Jim Hill.

Westbrook received the kickoff and started their series of downs by going into their tight formation and trying to establish a running game. Senior running back George Rincones ran through gaping holes for three straight first downs before Highland's defense stiffened, forcing them to turn the ball over. Highland then took the ball on a drive of their own, which stalled out, forcing Highland to punt.

Westbrook again came out running the ball with Rincones' running setting up the first score of the night by freshman Roland Matos on a seven-yard run. The PAT by Randy Byington was good, giving Westbrook the lead with only 4:11 left to go in the first quarter of play.

Highland took the ensuing kickoff, marched downfield and scored their first touchdown of the night with Cody Muncy going in with 2:38 left to go in the initial quarter. Juan Rodriguez's PAT was true to the mark, bringing the score to an 8-8 tie.

The offense of both teams opened up in the second quarter as both teams began to slug it out. Muncy scored again with 8:36 to go in the second quarter and after a successful PAT by Rodriguez, the Hornets were up 16-8.

Westbrook would waste very little time getting on the scoreboard again, as Casey Hill would take the ball in from the 10 yard line with 6:41 to go in the second quarter. Byington was good on the PAT once again, tying the score at 16 all.

Westbrook stretched their lead when Davy Daniels caught a 10-yard pass from Justin Hill with 5:38 to go until halftime. Byington's kick was good, pushing the lead for Westbrook to 24-16.

Highland came back to close the gap on a touchdown run by Cody Muncy with 4:48 left to go in the first half. Rodriguez's PAT was good, leaving the score tied once again at 24 all. It only took Westbrook a little over a minute until they answered with another touchdown pass from Justin Hill to Davy Daniels. The PAT by Byington was good, leaving the score 32-24 in favor of Westbrook.

The determined Highland Hornets refused to quit as Jacob Ballenger tucked in a pass from Scott Etheridge and scored with 2:58 left to go in the half. The PAT by Rodriguez was good, tying the game up again this time at 32 all.

Highland regained the lead once again when Cody Muncy scored with only 36 seconds left to go in the half. This time Rodriguez's PAT was no good, leaving Highland up by a margin of 38-32.

On the kickoff to Westbrook, Randy Byington took the ball and later to the trailing Tony Alaniz, who took it in for the score to tie the game at 38 all. Byington's PAT was good with 12 seconds left to go in the half, putting the margin of difference at two points, 40-38 at the half.

The scoring barrage plowed somewhat in the second half, with one team scoring, only to have the other come back to match it. Highland opened the half with Muncy scoring with 8:34 left to play in the third quarter. The kick was good by Rodriguez, putting the score 46-40 Highland.

Westbrook answered on a pass from Justin Hill to Scott White with 4:20 left in the quarter. The PAT by Byington was true, bringing Westbrook 48-46.

Highland came right back on an Etheridge to Montgomery pass. The PAT by Rodriguez was good, putting Highland back in control with a 54-48 lead. The lead didn't last long as Westbrook scored on a Justin Hill to freshman Justin Bolt pass play, and after a successful PAT by Byington, Westbrook closed out the third quarter in the lead.

The fourth quarter was somewhat like the opening quarter, as both teams had trouble putting together a successful drive. Finally with fourth down and inches, Stoney Burke broke free to score for Highland with 4:28 left in the game.

The Highland fans began to smell victory after Rodriguez's PAT went through the uprights, giving them a 62-56 lead, with time running out on the Wildcats. Justin Hill drove his team to the two yard line, where he hit brother Casey with a pass to close the scoring for the night with only 1:18 showing on the clock.

"It was the best game Justin has ever played," said Coach Hill of his quarterback, who threw for 289 yards and five touchdowns in the game.

The win by Westbrook threw the conference into a three-way tie among Westbrook, Highland and Borden County with 4-1 records. After the game, officials from the three schools met to flip a coin to decide who would proceed in the playoffs. Westbrook was odd man out, putting an end to their hopes to continue playing.

"We're hoping they may change the system in a couple of years," said Coach Hill. "We've heard that they may go to a three-team format for the playoffs in this situation."

Nevertheless, Coach Hill believes his team couldn't have finished the season any better. "We did what we had to do to win. I think the kids learned a valuable lesson that they have to get up for every game," said Coach Hill. "I am extremely proud of these kids."

Westbrook's junior high team also played its final game of the year last Thursday in Westbrook, defeating Highland 58-34.

Lorraine falls in last game of season

The Loraine Bulldogs ended a tough season Friday night in Hermleigh, falling to the Hermleigh Cardinals by a 36-32, despite a furious second half comeback.

The Bulldogs (3-7, 1-4) held the Cardinals (3-7, 2-3) to -27 total yards in the second half, but a 20-plus point deficit was too much to overcome.

"We played very well in the second half," said Loraine Head Coach Rick Cooper. "But it takes a complete game to win." Raymond Limones had a terrific game for the Bulldogs, rushing for 192 yards and a touchdown, and added 62 yards and two touchdowns receiving.

Despite the disappointing record this season, Coach Cooper is very proud of his team. "The attitude of the kids is great," he said. "They didn't get down, they didn't quit. That is all I could ever ask."

Snyder Pee Wee All-Stars narrowly defeat C-City

The Pee Wee All-Star football team from Snyder had all they could handle against the Colorado City Pee Wee League All-Stars before prevailing in two highly contested battles last Saturday at Wolf Stadium.

The fifth grade game went to the all-stars from Snyder 36-26, while the sixth grade game went into two overtimes before Snyder pulled it out 12-6.

"Both our teams played very well," said Colorado City Coach Mike Ratliff. "Everybody had a good time and they are looking forward to next year."

The winner of a trip for two to see the Dallas Cowboys face the New England Patriots on December 15 at Texas Stadium will be announced during the Snyder-Sweetwater Pee Wee All-Star game this Saturday in Snyder.

Lorraine News

By BESSIE ANN VAUGHN
Greetings from Lorraine.
Now that we are soon approaching a new year I wonder if you made and kept any last year's resolutions?

I can't remember making any, but I do know my last year of living was very predictable.

Maybe I should make some big changes for next year.

I could bungee jump (not even in my dreams); ride a camel or an ostrich; fly the Concorde; plan the murder of several mudswallows, win the lottery; make some fried pies; make someone happy, or learn to do the Macarena.

I do know that I talked too much when I should have been listening and threw caution to the wind once or twice.

I plan to do better next year and do something different (my early resolution for 1997).

Craig Finley was in town last weekend visiting with his family and friends. Robert Dale and Debby Finley are his parents, as most everyone knows. While here, Craig did some hunting and Sunday morning he attended church at First Baptist.

Craig is going to school at McMurry University in Abilene.

While talking with Debby Finley, I learned that her cat friend just recently passed away and she was still a little saddened about it.

It seems we should all be happy for the family pet, though. It had lived 14 years and went to church every Sunday. The Christian cat was greeter at the church parking lot. He will be missed. Our condolences to the family.

Chris Hall and Orville Mow of Brownwood were recent guests of Chrystene Hall. Before leaving Lorraine, Chris also visited with his aunt, Iris Preston.

Basketball is now in full swing at school and will last until February.

Our condolences go out to Willadean Forbus and to the Mearse family, as Nathan Mearse recently passed away. Nathan was a former Lorrainean, going to school here.

We learned that Marian "Kroutt" Zettsman passed away last week and was buried in Roscoe. Marian was Sarah Pratt Zettsman's husband.

Our sympathy and well wishes go to Sarah, her son and to Hazel Pratt.

Our condolences also go to the families and friends of Boad Cain, who passed away last week. Boad was Ham and Blondie Hamilton's son-in-law and husband of Charla Cain.

Most everyone will remember Earlene Brown Faulkenberry. We are sad to report the death of her mother, Lillie Brown.

After returning home from a trip to Midland recently, Pres and Billie Powell's dog came out to the car to greet them. "Sandy," who doesn't know she's a dog, told the Powells through barks and whines that something was under the hood of their new Buick.

After continued insistence on her part, they humored her and raised the hood to find a rat in his little nest with two porter tomatoes near the engine. Rat Fink had made the entire trip to and from Midland.

It's only natural that any good pack rat would take along a picnic lunch.

School will close November 26 for the Thanksgiving holidays and resume December 2.

Parental involvement took place recently at school when parents picked up their children's report cards. Seems like a great idea for all concerned—parents, teachers and students alike.

Dr. Lynn Moore, superintendent at Big Spring Methodist, came to attend the quarterly conference meeting at Lorraine Methodist last Sunday.

A Mexican supper was enjoyed Sunday night, compliments going to Brenda Martin and Shirley Kendall for their culinary skills.

Susan and Harold Preston visited with Matt Preston in Odessa. They attended the H.S.U. football game at Sul Ross, and on their return trip home stopped by to visit with Iris Preston.

An early Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed at First Baptist last Sunday after morning worship services.

Members are still talking about the blessing of the Word and the bountiful meal.

Danny and Pam Butler went to Sul Ross last week to visit Brian and attend the H.S.U. and Sul Ross ballgame. I heard Sul Ross won.

Margaret Brame told me that she really did enjoy the Rain Stick Style Show Saturday held at the Civic Center.

Also attending from Lorraine were Lisa Mitchell, Denise Marshall and Penny Mitchell. It was reported that the buffet meal was delicious.

North Lorraine F.C.E. Club Members met in the home of Bessie Ann Vaughn last Thursday, November 7.

Installation of new officers for this next year was performed by Mary McMullen, who did a great job.

New officers are Bessie Ann, president; Doris Henderson, vice president; Shirley Kendall, secretary; Billie Schroeder, treasurer; and Margaret Brame, council delegate.

Following the installation, members worked in their new yearbooks listing hostesses. They made plans for the club party and voted to hold it December 19 at the senior center.

Refreshments were served to Billie Ruth Abernathy, Millie Rose, Eva Wells, Wanza Graham, Bertha Fay Snyder, Melba Wilkes, Doris Henderson, Margaret Brame, Billie Schroeder, Shirley Kendall, Mary McMullen and the hostess.

The center is cheerfully decorated for Thanksgiving with a theme of fall colors in leaves, pumpkins, turkeys, etc.

Early in the month, Bill Epperson brought down his guitar and sang for us. He did a great job.

Other than regular activities, we want to mention we will have a make-up meal Tuesday night on the 19th with the Baptist gospel group. It will be special.

On the 20th, Mr. Ken Northcutt will sing for us.

Virgil Parnell is still looking for a home for two kittens...Agnes Haney brought down two new puzzles for the jigsaw workers....

When I left work last Friday, "Hand and Foot" players were still going strong. They were Iris Preston, Billie Schroeder, Doris Henderson, and Wanza Graham.

Ray and Ima Harris celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary Monday the 11th. Congratulations!

Maxine Pierson has been doing some cooking for us while Nora's been away. We are blessed with good cooks.

Our Lorraine postal worker, in town and on rural routes, is kind and helpful to all.

I hear that on his route north of town he is met by one resident with a Frisbee in mouth.

"Levi Bevins" runs and gets his Frisbee when he hears the postal pickup approaching and Danny takes time to throw the Frisbee for him.

Levi is a half blue healer and half border collie. His parents are Ron and Darlene Bevins. Levi sounds like a great friend and Danny sounds like a good carrier!

Pain may be eliminated for millions
(SPECIAL) -- A drug that is exciting researchers in the treatment of pain has been formulated into a new product known as "Arthur Itis," and is being called a "Medical Miracle" by some, in the treatment of debilitating conditions such as arthritis, bursitis, rheumatism, painful muscle aches, joint aches, simple backache, bruises, and more.

Although the mechanism of action is unclear, experiments indicate that Arthur Itis, relieves pain by first selectively attracting, and then destroying the messenger chemical which carries pain sensations to the brain, thus eliminating pain in the affected area. Arthur Itis, is an odorless, greaseless, non-staining cream and is available immediately without a prescription and is guaranteed to work or your money back.

Greetings from Lorraine. Now that we are soon approaching a new year I wonder if you made and kept any last year's resolutions?

Our condolences go out to Willadean Forbus and to the Mearse family, as Nathan Mearse recently passed away. Nathan was a former Lorainian, going to school here.

Most everyone will remember Earlene Brown Faulkenberry. We are sad to report the death of her mother, Lillie Brown.

After returning home from a trip to Midland recently, Pres and Billie Powell's dog came out to the car to greet them. "Sandy," who doesn't know she's a dog, told the Powells through barks and whines that something was under the hood of their new Buick.

After continued insistence on her part, they humored her and raised the hood to find a rat in his little nest with two porter tomatoes near the engine. Rat Fink had made the entire trip to and from Midland.

It's only natural that any good pack rat would take along a picnic lunch.

School will close November 26 for the Thanksgiving holidays and resume December 2.

Parental involvement took place recently at school when parents picked up their children's report cards.

Seems like a great idea for all concerned—parents, teachers and students alike.

Dr. Lynn Moore, superintendent at Big Spring Methodist, came to attend the quarterly conference meeting at Loraine Methodist last Sunday.

A Mexican supper was enjoyed Sunday night, compliments going to Brenda Martin and Shirley Kendall for their culinary skills.

Susan and Harold Preston visited with Matt Preston in Odessa. They attended the H.S.U. football game at Sul Ross, and on their return trip home stopped by to visit with Iris Preston.

An early Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed at First Baptist last Sunday after morning worship services.

Members are still talking about the blessing of the Word and the bountiful meal.

Danny and Pam Butler went to Sul Ross last week to visit Brian and attend the H.S.U. and Sul Ross ballgame. I heard Sul Ross won.

Margaret Brame told me that she really did enjoy the Rain Stick Style Show Saturday held at the Civic Center.

Also attending from Loraine were Lisa Mitchell, Denise Marshall and Penny Mitchell. It was reported that the buffet meal was delicious.

North Loraine F.C.E. Club Members met in the home of Bessie Ann Vaughn last Thursday, November 7.

Installation of new officers for this next year was performed by Mary McMullen, who did a great job.

New officers are Bessie Ann, president; Doris Henderson, vice president; Shirley Kendall, secretary; Billie Schroeder, treasurer; and Margaret Brame, council delegate.

Following the installation, members worked in their new yearbooks listing hostesses. They made plans for the club party and voted to hold it December 19 at the senior center.

Refreshments were served to Billie Ruth Abernathy, Millie Rose, Eva Wells, Wanza Graham, Bertha Fay Snyder, Melba Wilkes, Doris Henderson, Margaret Brame, Billie Schroeder, Shirley Kendall, Mary McMullen and the hostess.

The center is cheerfully decorated for Thanksgiving with a theme of fall colors in leaves, pumpkins, turkeys, etc.

Early in the month, Bill Epperson brought down his guitar and sang for us. He did a great job.

Other than regular activities, we want to mention we will have a make-up meal Tuesday night on the 19th with the Baptist gospel group. It will be special.

On the 20th, Mr. Ken Northcutt will sing for us.

Virgil Parnell is still looking for a home for two kittens...Agnes Haney brought down two new puzzles for the jigsaw workers....

When I left work last Friday, "Hand and Foot" players were still going strong. They were Iris Preston, Billie Schroeder, Doris Henderson, and Wanza Graham.

Ray and Ima Harris celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary Monday the 11th. Congratulations!

Maxine Pierson has been doing some cooking for us while Nora's been away. We are blessed with good cooks.

Our Loraine postal worker, in town and on rural routes, is kind and helpful to all.

I hear that on his route north of town he is met by one resident with a Frisbee in mouth.

"Levi Bevins" runs and gets his Frisbee when he hears the postal pickup approaching and Danny takes time to throw the Frisbee for him.

Levi is a half blue healer and half border collie. His parents are Ron and Darlene Bevins. Levi sounds like a great friend and Danny sounds like a good carrier!

Pain may be eliminated for millions
(SPECIAL) -- A drug that is exciting researchers in the treatment of pain has been formulated into a new product known as "Arthur Itis," and is being called a "Medical Miracle" by some, in the treatment of debilitating conditions such as arthritis, bursitis, rheumatism, painful muscle aches, joint aches, simple backache, bruises, and more. Although the mechanism of action is unclear, experiments indicate that Arthur Itis, relieves pain by first selectively attracting, and then destroying the messenger chemical which carries pain sensations to the brain, thus eliminating pain in the affected area. Arthur Itis, is an odorless, greaseless, non-staining cream and is available immediately without a prescription and is guaranteed to work or your money back.
