Lazbuddie Beats Tatum Coyotes

Frank Hinkson and Troy Steinbock led Lazbuddie to a 26-0 victory over the Tatum Coyotes in a non-conference tilt Friday night. Hinkson chalked up two touchdowns, one in the first quarter and another in the final period, aside to miss a 1955 dive. Steinbock passed 20 yards to Robert Flores for a TD in the third quarter, then scampered 65 yards to score on a punt return in the final period. Steinbock also kicked the two extra points scored in the game. Larry Davis, guard, and Steve Foster, defensive halfback, were defensive standouts for Lazbuddie. The victory gave Lazbuddie a 4-1 mark for the season. Tatum is now 1-5.

The accident occurred as a 1962 Chrysler, driven by Dan Curtis Mullins, Morton, swerved aside to miss a 1955 Chevrolet grain truck which was making a left turn into the elevator. Mullins did not hit the grain truck, but did hit a 1961 GMC pickup which parked on the side of the highway. Mules Scalp Indians 12-10

The Muleshoe Mules, after losing three games in a row, brought home a victory Friday night. The Mules, who didn't warm up until the fourth quarter defeated the Morton Indians, 12-10.

The Indians, who started the scoring a little more than halfway through the first quarter, with a touchdown barreled through the Mules line from about two yards out, with the Mules then attempted the first of three passes to be intercepted. Morton's Donnie Harvey stepped under the high pass and carried it to the Muleshoe 25 where Trevor Ford recovered a Morton fumble.

During the second quarter, both teams were held scoreless until midway through when the Indians' Herschel Lamar kicked a field goal with 5:28 showing on the clock. The second of Muleshoe's pass attempts to be intercepted came when the Indians' Charles Joyce intercepted a pass intended for Mules' Trevor Ford. Morton held until they got to their own 42 yard line and lost the ball to Muleshoe. Late in the second quarter, Morton's Donnie Harvey intercepted another Muleshoe pass and Morton held the ball until the signal for halftime. Halftime score on the board showed Morton 10, Muleshoe 0. During the halftime activities, following a performance by the Mighty "M" marching band, the Morton Homecoming Queen was introduced to the fans. The Queen, Janie DeLeon, and her attendants, Lanya Dolle and Alice Black, were driven around the football field in a convertible, by the Morton high school band playing "Melody of Love," immediately following the Homecoming Queen, the Band Queen was introduced. She is Margaret Ledbetter and her attendants are Donna Hoffman and Dana Webb.

At the start of the third quarter, Muleshoe received the ball and carried it deep into Morton territory before being held and losing the ball to Morton. Late in the third quarter, Muleshoe gained down to the Morton 11-yard line before the third quarter ended. Beginning the fourth quarter, the Mules got a badly needed first down with Roy McCormick being brought down after only a one-yard gain. Charles Beamon lost a yard on the next play when he was brought down behind the line of scrimmage. With 9:21 showing on the clock, Ronnie Barrett received a short pass and went through for the first Muleshoe touchdown.

New Morality Debated

One of the timeliest debates of modern times took place in the Lubbock Auditorium on October 8, at 8:30 p.m.

Dr. William Banowsky, pastor of the Broadway Church of Christ, Lubbock, Texas, debated the issue "New Morality" with Mr. Anson Mount, religious editor of the nationally prominent PLAYBOY magazine.

The debate, billed as "A Clash of Philosophies" lived up to expectations. A near capacity crowd heard Mount and Banowsky expound their views in eloquent language laced here and there with humor and profanity. The majority of the discussion centered around the new liberalized sex code otherwise known as "The New Morality."

Mount spoke first, emphasizing his view that what he called the "Playboy Philosophy" was definitely not a hedonist philosophy. He also made the statement that the Playboy Philosophy, described as non-Calvinistic, contained the belief that it is not wrong to enjoy life, if it is not at the expense of others. He related the Playboy Philosophy to a clash between Humanitarianism and Christianity by stating life begins at birth as opposed to the Christian belief that life begins at death.

Mount pointed out that extramarital sex was not the only deadly sin as stated in the Old Testament. Other sins such as gluttony and drinking were considered just as immoral as extramarital sex. This was an attempt to point out the fact that immorality is relative to the society in which it exists.

He also pointed out the fact that violence on TV is acceptable while sex is not. He made the simple but startling statement that "killing people is worse than going to bed with your girl friend." On this basis he stated that much of the Playboy magazine actually poked fun at sex much the same as other cartoons poke fun at crime, religion and race.

He then associated the Playboy Philosophy of rebelling against Puritanism with the rebelling of Christianity against Epicureanism and Stoicism. He also said that if Christ had a choice of being on the staff of Playboy magazine or a member of one of the fundamentalist churches of Texas, he would choose the former.

He then expressed his views on the "Copulation Explosion" occurring today among young people in general and on college campuses in particular.

Explaining how the traditional legalistic views of today were inhuman and irrational, Mount stated "sex outside of marriage can be moral." This was another reference to the relativity of immorality.

Dr. Banowsky then took the speakers platform.

He began by explaining that he felt no animosity toward Mount as a person, only his ideas. He agreed with Mount that sex was good. He then stated the fact that religion in the beginning was agnostic and anti-sexual. He then traced the evolution on Christianity to what it is today.

Banowsky's main point of difference with Mount was on the subject of extra-marital sex.

Despite Mount's objection, Banowsky made the accusation that the Playboy Philosophy as outlined by Hugh Hefner encouraged premarital, extra-marital and recreational sex. He expressed his belief that these teachings lead homes and society to destruction.

At this, questions from the audience were directed toward each speaker. Mount further clarified the Playboy stand on such things as "casual sex" and its relative importance. Banowsky expressed his beliefs about the necessity of keeping sex "moral in today's society."

Mount then waived his right to his final statement. Banowsky then summed up his views by arguing that the example set by Christ bore no similarity to the views stated by Mount and that they were in fact practically the opposite.

studies establish the disease. According to Marshall Cook, Administrator of Green Memorial Hospital, although there is no epidemic of Infectious Mononucleosis in Muleshoe, the doctors at Green Hospital are seeing a few Mononucleosis patients and they presently have one hospitalized with the disease. He also said cases of flu are running just about normal for this time of year and no hepatitis has been treated at their hospital recently.

West Plains Hospital officials also reported they had not been treating more than a normal flow of flu patients and no hepatitis. They said they had not been treating much mononucleosis.

not to exceed a total of seven (7) days. Furthermore, for such temporary holding of each person suspected of insanity, or who has been legally adjudged insane, there shall be provided a special enclosure or room, not less than forty (40) square feet and having a ceiling height of not less than eight (8) feet above the floor. Furthermore, the floor and walls of such enclosure shall be provided with a soft covering designed to protect a violent person, temporarily held therein, from self-injury or destruction. One hammock, not less than two (2) feet, three (3) inches wide and six (6) feet three (3) inches long, made of elastic or fibrous material shall be provided in each such special enclosure.

SUITABLE SECURITY AND SAFETY

"For the purpose of this Act, the term 'safe and suitable jail' is further defined to mean jails which provide adequate facilities for maintaining proper standards in sanitation and health. Each cell designed for one (1) prisoner only shall be provided with a water closet and a combination lavatory and drinking fountain, table and seat. Each cell, compartment or dormitory designed for three (3) or more prisoners, shall be provided with one (1) water closet and one (1) combination lavatory and drinking fountain for each twelve (12) prisoners or fraction thereof to be confined therein. Furthermore, all such cells, compartments and dormitories shall be provided with one (1) bunk, not less in size than two (2) feet, three (3) inches wide and six (6) feet, three (3) inches long, for each prisoner to be confined therein. Furthermore, each day room for the confinement of three (3) or more prisoners shall be provided with one (1) water closet, one (1) combination lavatory and drinking fountain and one (1) shower bath for each twelve (12) prisoners, or fraction thereof, to be confined therein. Furthermore each day room shall be otherwise suitably furnished.

"The provision of this Act shall become applicable to all jails hereafter constructed, upon its effective date, and to existing jails within four (4) years from its effective date.

"The Texas State Department of Health shall have general charge and supervision of the enforcement of the provisions of this Act, and it is hereby made the duty of the Texas State Department of Health or any Inspector or Agent of the Texas State Department of Health to make periodic inspection of the aforesaid jails and issue an advisory manual setting forth the principles of safe and healthful provisions, which shall be distributed to Commissioners Courts and/or custodians of jails and, furthermore, to officially notify County Commissioners Courts, in writing to comply fully with the provisions of this Act."

Sec. 2. If any provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or provisions, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Sec. 3. The fact that many jails in this State are not now properly kept in a sanitary, clean and healthy condition and that in some instances are overcrowded and are not suitable for the keeping of prisoners, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Requirement requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and the same in hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The Bailey County jail has one cell block 20 feet, nine inches long and 12 feet, six inches wide. This cell block contains four cells, all adjacent to windows, with sleeping facilities for four prisoners. The entire cell block has access to only one commode, lavatory and drinking fountain.

The day room facilities consist of a walk-around room with plaster walls that can be kicked out. One additional cell cannot be used due to complete lack of water. Cells for the segregation of women, juveniles, first offenders or suspected mental cases do not exist.

The jail in Muleshoe is the only jail in Bailey County and is used by the Border Patrol, Highway Patrol, County and City officers. It has held as many as 35 prisoners at one time with an additional eight to ten boarded in Lubbock. The jail entrance past the first door is 29 feet of winding stairway, and is two feet, five inches in width.

One interesting aspect of the situation is in the event a prisoner should die or suffer ill effects while in jail, would be the fact that the next of kin have legal recourse against the state, county or respective commissioners.

Dr. B.O. McDaniel, Bailey County Health Officer, has informed the Journal he will inspect the jail in the very near future and determine what corrective action should be taken.

Three One-Act Plays To be Presented by Thespians

GRANNY IN HER SANDBOX--Renee Dyer and Jack Collier discuss the antics of Granny in her sandbox, one of the scenes from the three one-act plays to be presented Monday night at Muleshoe high school auditorium.

The curtains of Muleshoe High School Auditorium will rise three times Monday and Tuesday nights, October 16 and 17, on the efforts of Thespians belonging to Troupe 714. Members are participating in three one-act plays "Mr. Flannery's Ocean," "Six Who Pass While The Lentils Boil," and "The Sand Box." Each of the plays has been selected for its importance in strengthening the acting abilities of young dramatists.

"Mr. Flannery's Ocean" is the heartwarming story of an eccentric old man who has staked claim to a very important geographical feature. He, in his elderly salty softness, shares his property with a diseased Mrs. Pringle. "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil" is the amusing, all of our elderly citizens today, highly animated story of a queen Thespians are directed by who finds herself in a great Kerry Moore, who invites the deal of trouble because of her public to enjoy the plays.

"The Sandbox" is an excellent satire on the respect shown

Admission fee will be 75 cents.

★★ Muleshoe Spirit ★★

GUEST EDITORIAL

By Harriet Glaze and Vicki Stout

(Editor's Note- The following editorial was written by Harriet Glaze and Vicki Stout. Both are seniors in Muleshoe High School. Vicki is president of the Spirit Club and Harriet may be seen every Friday night as the "Muleshoe Mule's" Mascot.)

Denver City displayed a fantastic amount of spirit during the game against Muleshoe. This is one of the main reasons they have a winning team. If the Muleshoe fans had half as much spirit we could have not only a winning team but also a bigger pride in the school as a whole.

The Spirit Club is not only for the football team but for the whole school and whatever it sponsors. No matter where something is being held, the whole student body should be supporting it.

The Spirit Club would like to recognize these Freshmen for bringing posters and wearing them the day of the Olton-Muleshoe game: Greg Little, Tony Reasoner, Steve Black, Dana Cockrell, Ronald Byrd, Keith Turner, Steve Montgomery, Sonnie Glaze, Danny May, Vicki Julian, Ricki Richardson, Susan Wood, Sherry Moore, Kathy McCormick, Ann Newsom, Brenda Jones, Debra Wagon, Kathy Mardis, Sheryl Cable, and Mary Riddle. We want to thank each one of these for bringing posters.

MEASURE OF LENTILS-- The Boy, Delton Bass, quarrels with a ballad singer, Jane Branscum, over the measurement of lentils in "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil."

This week proved to be a busy one for the Muleshoe Student Council, with many projects underway.

LIBRARY News

"The World Series - The Games and the Players," by Robert Smith, is a brand new book about one of this country's most popular sports. No one tells a baseball story like Bob Smith, and in this book you will find all the best stories the game has produced.

Sixty-three times in this century, the top baseball teams in the two major leagues have had it out in World Championship Series - and each series has produced its own unique brand of excitement. It's own memorable heroes and goats. In these pages are recaptured the golden moments of every game of every World Series, thrill by thrill. The Quality of courage is another great book about baseball, written by the old pro-Mickey Mantle, in which he tells you courage can be the most important asset you can possess. This is a book for both parents and young people.

"The Gabriel Hounds" by Mary Stewart, is another absorbing suspense drama from a h a t master storyteller. Charles and Christabel Mansel were cousins-adventurous, engaging and slightly spoiled. When they met by chance in colorful Beirut, their decision to call on their Aunt Harriet, the eccentric recluse of the old castle Dar-Ibrahim, seemed innocent enough; but what began as an escape quickly became an intrusion into a dangerous world from which escape might well be impossible.

Catherine Marshall, the author of "A Man Called Peter," has drawn on her life, and her deep religious faith, in this her first novel, "Christy" is the glowing story of the heights to which faith, when challenged, can rise in the human heart. It is also a dramatic panorama of the mountain people of an Appalachian mission school, their poverty, and courage, their suffering and their humor. The library has an autographed copy of the "The Demands of Discipleship" which was given in memory of the late David Anderson. The author contends that "Bargain Basement religion has no show room for the cross nor the demands of discipleship in the Sermon on the Mount." No book has considered so thoroughly the relevance of the Sermon on the Mount. The Author draws from many years of study on three chapters of the Bible-Matthew 5, 6, and 7.

HIS TROUBLES WON'T GET HIM DOWN

Forgetting his incapacitation, he is happily determined to plan ahead. His spirit is not easily crushed. Life is always full of hope and excitement. The Lord and this young man's Christian friends have taught him to have such an outlook on life.

"But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith." Galatians 5:22.

We invite you to attend the church of your choice regularly to worship, to be uplifted, encouraged, and blessed.
