Mental Patient Is Charged With Murdering Nine

NORTH BATTLEFORD, Sask. (UPI)—A 21-year-old farmer, less than a month out of a mental hospital, was arraigned today on a charge of capital murder in the deaths of nine members of a Shell Lake family.

Victor Hoffman, a bachelor who farms with his family at Leash, Sask., was arrested without resistance at his parent's home Saturday evening, little more than two hours after the burial in a common grave of the family nearly wiped out last Tuesday morning.

Only 4-year-old Phyllis Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Peterson, survived the massacre in her family's home. A spray of 28 bullets allegedly from a Belgian made Browning .22 caliber rifle killed her father, mother and seven brothers and sisters.

Mounties said they recovered the murder weapon.

Authorities said nothing about a possible motive for the killings.

Hoffman's mother, Mrs. Robert Hoffman, said Victor didn't know anyone in the Peterson family "to my knowledge."

Hoffman was expected to be taken directly to the Saskatchewan provincial hospital following arraignment, which was scheduled for midday.

Conviction of the murders in Canada carries a mandatory sentence of death by hanging. If the jury, sitting as part of the Queen's Bench Court—the province's supreme court — should determine Hoffman guilty of unpremeditated murder, he could be convicted of manslaughter, with up to life imprisonment.

Hoffman, a 5-foot-8, 160 pound high school dropout, was released from the same mental hospital here July 23, completing seven weeks treatment for "emotional problems."

"I am satisfied Hoffman is the man responsible," inspector Brian Sawyer, who headed the 75-man Mountie investigation, said in revealing the suspect's identity Sunday. "I am discontinuing other lines of investigation but we still are pursuing certain inquiries about Hoffman."

In Canada, authorities are not required to advise a defendant of his right to counsel, but Sawyer said, "I've had a man tell his parents that they should get counsel."

Greatest U.S. Assault Hits Commie DMZ Push

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Two U.S. Navy planes apparently strayed into Red Chinese air space today and one was believed shot down.

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. bombers followed up the wars greatest air assault with bombardments of North Vietnam Sunday and today. Near Hanoi a Red missile barely missed America's number one flying ace and hit a Communist MIG fighter.

U.S. Air Force giant B52 Stratofortresses today dropped scores of tons of bombs on units of an estimated 35,000 Communist invasion troops massed in the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) on the North-South Vietnam border.

U.S. fighter bombers Sunday flew 179 missions against North Vietnam, following up Saturday's record 209 missions. For the first time in a week, the American planes hit the industrial complex near Hanoi and Haiphong. Those major targets had been protected by 11 weeks clouds and rain.

Col. Robin Olds, whose four downed MIGs makes him the war's top U.S. pilot and who days ago was named to head the Air Force Academy, was hitting the Ha Gia supply dump 21 miles north of Hanoi Sunday.

The North Vietnamese launched their surface to air missile (SAMs) against the F4C Phantoms Olds was leading.

Olds, whose flight already was being chased by MIGs, said, "I was the last one off the target. I watched over my shoulder and saw several SAMs fired.

"One scored a direct hit on a MIG and down went the Fires Ravish 5-State Area

By United Press International

Hundreds of lightning-sparked forest fires roamed across the tinder dry Pacific Northwest today, some with such intensity that weary firemen walked off the battle lines in frustration.

The rash of blazes, fanned by a record heat wave, already has charred more than 51,000 acres of brush and timber in five Western states and British Columbia.

Major fires were out of control in Idaho, Oregon, Montana and British Columbia, where two Canadian fire spotters were missing in a plane crash.

California and Washington reported only minor blazes, but the continuing hot, dry spell left conditions explosive.

N. Haven First To Try 'Mist'

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UPI) —Waves of policemen armed with rifles and the chemical paralyzer "mace" cleared main streets of four Negro sections to quell a second night of racial violence. More than 250 persons were arrested.

The chemical riot weapon was used for the first time here during the shoulder-to-shoulder sweeps by state and local police through the trouble areas.

Police said at least 24 of those arrested were subdued by officers who sprayed the "apathy mist" into their faces. The chemical burns the eyes slightly and restricts a person's oxygen intake, lulling him into a passive state.

"We had to use it quite a bit," New Haven police Capt. Raymond Wiederland said. "It was very effective."

Wiederland said his men used the spray "only when the man became troublesome and we couldn't subdue him any other way."

He said the action of the "mace" at first caused a burning sensation in the victim's eyes because it contains a small amount of tear gas.

"Then he feels a deep sense

FATHER CONFESSES KILLING HIS FAMILY — Stearns County Deputy Sheriff E. H. Arendt (left) stands guard in St. Cloud (Minn.) Hospital over David Hoskins (in hospital bed), who allegedly shot his wife and set fire to his home killing his four children.

Church Deacon Says He Plotted 5 Deaths

ST. CLOUD, Minn. (UPI)—David Hoskins, a gospel-singing church deacon accused of shooting his wife to death and then starting a fire in his home that killed his four children, was to be arraigned here today.

Hoskins, who was found Friday night tied spreadeagle between two backyard clothesline poles while his house burned, was reported in satisfactory condition today from two bullet wounds police say were self-inflicted as a cover for the murder.

A hospital spokesman said Hoskins "was never very much hurt," and that he may be able to appear in court for the arraignment.

Police said Saturday that Hoskins had signed a statement admitting he shot his wife but said he realized after he had shot himself, set fire to the house and tied himself to two clothesline poles that the children were still in the house.

Hoskins became entangled in his frantic attempts to free himself and rescue the children, police said.

The bodies of the victims were taken to the Hennepin County medical examiner's office in Minneapolis, where officials planned to perform autopsies today.

Stearn's County Atty. Paul Doerner said he planned to file the formal charges today, but declined to say what specific charges would be brought.

Hoskins, 30, was found tied to the clothesline by a group of passing teen-agers. His wife, Loretta 29 and the four children, Julie, 6, Darla, Linda 1 and David Eli, 2 weeks were found in the ruins of the house hours later.

At first Hoskins told authorities five or six men who "wanted to play soldier" wounded him and tied him up and set fire to the house.

On the advice of Stearns County Atty. Paul Doerner, county officials refused to reveal the apparent motive for the shooting of Mrs. Hoskins.

Brown Is Still In Jail, Unable To Raise Bail

NEW YORK (UPI)—H. Rap Brown, black power militant in federal detention on weapons charges, Sunday repeated his call to American Negroes to "arm yourselves . . . freedom is yet to come."

In a statement issued from his cell in the Federal House of Detention, Brown said his confinement will not "rebuild Detroit or save American from its due fate."

Brown, national chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), was arrested early Saturday on charges of carrying a .30 calibe carbine from New York to New Orleans and back while under indictment on charges of inciting a riot in Maryland. Federal law forbids anyone under indictment to carry a weapon accross state lines.

The Negro leader is being held in lieu of $25,000 bail. William M. Kunstler, Brown's attorney, told newsmen Sunday that SNCC has been unable to meet the bail, although the organization has raised about $20,000 in cash, bonds and bankbooks.

Kunstler said four bondsmen had refused to put up the money for Brown. He quoted a fifth as saying he would do so only if SNCC provided 100 per cent security for the bond.

Brown's detention prevented him from appearing at rallies in Cincinnati Saturday and Baton Rouge Sunday.

IMPEACHMENT IMPRACTICAL

Senate Scrutinizes Johnson's War Power

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson's authority to escalate the Vietnam war comes under the scrutiny of a Senate committee today, but there is a little likelihood that even the most critical lawmaker will not seek to challenge it.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which is conducting a series of hearings on the "national commitment," was to hear from Undersecretary of State Nicholas Katzenbach and Sen. Charles H. Percy, R.-Ill.

ly impractical and couldn't. I don't think . . ." he was interrupted before he could finish the sentence.

Fulbright said he thought Peking might decide to intervene in Vietnam to "bring about greater unity among the warring factions in China."

In addition, if North Vietnam nears collapse, the Red Chinese "will either come in on their own or at the request of the Vietnamese," he said.

The Arkansas Democrat said that, as he read President Johnson's news conference remarks last Friday, the chief executive thinks he has the right to prosecute the Vietnam war even without the controversial Gulf of Tonkin Resolution. That resolution adopted by Congress in 1964, gave Johnson broad authority to repel aggression in Southeast Asia.

The committee's chairman, Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., acknowledged Sunday that the only "real sanction" Congress has against the President's conduct of the war would be to impeach him.

He said impeachment was "politically impractical" and that opponents of the war would have to continue fighting the administration's policies with words.

Council Convenes For Budget Study

City Manager Jim White and city commissioners scheduled a meeting at 5 p.m. today in City Hall to study the 1967-68 city budget.

The city manager and department heads have been working on proposed budget figures for several weeks.

White said today the City Commission is expected tomorrow to set a public hearing on the budget for 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 26.

The city manager stated he planned to file the budgea with the city secretary Wednesday morning.

Pampa's fiscal year will begin Oct. 1, 1967, and run through Sept. 30, 1968.

This year's budget is expected to show an increase over 1966-67. The city tax rate will be up around 12 cents over the current $1.60 per $100 property valuation, based on a tax assessment of 40 per cent of actual valuation.

17 Minor Fires Started In Baton Rouge Rioting

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—Reinforced police armed with shotguns cleared the streets Sunday night after firebombers had started 17 fires in a Negro neighborhood.

Some 200 of the 2,000 statetroopers and National Guardsmen who kept order during weekend rallies of civil rights marchers and the Ku Klux Klan were ordered back, but the city was quiet early today.

Eight Negro youths were arrested for loitering. Some of them were additionally charged with resisting arrest.

The fires were minor, and were quickly extinguished. Little damage to cars was reported.

Fire Department officials said 90 per cent of the molotov cocktails failed to ignite.

Gov. John McKeithen said the disorders were caused by "a few small bands going around trying to start something." He predicted that they would be tracked down in a matter of hours.

"Whtn we do (arrest them), they shall feel the full weight and severity of maximum punishment by Louisiana law, which I believe is as much as 20 years in the penitentiary," he said.

Fifteen-hundred National Guardsmen and 500 state troopers were ordered here to maintain order Saturday and Sunday, when a civil rights group which had marched in from Bogalusa and members of the klan held rival rallies.

No disorders were reported until a few hours after the National Guardsmen had been disbanded and sent home Sunday night. A group of Negroes who started a march on the governor's mansion turned aside when they were confronted by 22 state troopers ringing the front porch with riot guns.

CORPORATION COURT

New Law Into Effect Monday

By RON CROSS

Any teenager who has business before Corporation Court Judge John Warner knows he, or she, is going to get a fair shake.

During Warner's four - years on the beach teenagers involved in accidents and convictions of teenagers in Pampa have dropped considerably.

One of Warner's first duties when he took over as judge in July, 1963, was to set up a teenage court, which at first was held every Saturday, then changed to every other Saturday, and now, since not many teenagers are committing offenses, may be held once a month.

A little publicized provision of the state's new traffic safety laws requires that one or both parents of juvenile traffic offenders appear in open court with the youthful law breakers, according to Warner.

The law, which doesn't become effective until next Monday, has been in use here for quite some time under Warner's guidance.

The law also states that juveniles can plead guilty only in open court before the judge and that parents or guardians must be present before the teenager is convicted or fined.

"This is a good law and has worked successfully here," Warner said, adding, "95 per cent of the parents have come with their children, and I think, understand the workings of the court better and maybe even their children."

Warner said that only on a very few occasions have parents refused to come with their children.

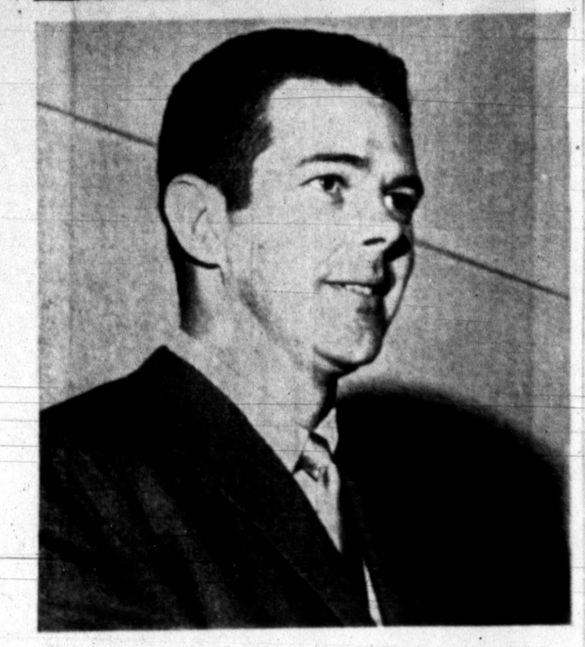

"I have had some of them say, 'If he's old enough to get a ticket he doesn't need me in court,'" Warner said.

"I usually tell the youthful offender that if he brings his parents he'll have a choice of the minimum fine or writing a theme and if he doesn't, then he will probably have to pay the maximum fine which is usually $200."

"We can," the judge said, "issue a process and make the parents appear with their youngsters but I haven't had to do this yet."

Warner said he handles about 250 cases a month with usually 200 of them traffic cases and 50 criminal cases.

Insurance men also pointed out that the driving records of all members of a family household effect auto insurance rates under the Texas Driving Insurance plan.

GUEST SPEAKER — Robert K. Mayfield, manager of advertising and public relations for The Western Company, Fort Worth, will speak to the Pampa Desk and Derrick Club, Monday evening, Aug. 28, at the Coronado Inn. Dear Abby

by Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: After 15 years of living in a two-room apartment, my husband and I finally bought a three-bedroom home. Of course I am delighted, but now my darling husband has informed me that he would like separate bedrooms! I think this is asking for trouble.

I gave in a few years ago when he wakes up three and four times during the night to smoke a cigaret, which disturbs me. I have to get up at 5:30 to get to work, so the twin beds did solve the problem of my being disturbed. But separate bedrooms! Won't that be the beginning of the end of our married life?

RSVP

DEAR RSVP: You will be healthier, happier and better humored if you get your rest at night. And your husband will be easier to live with if he doesn't feel guilty for having disturbed you.

And by the way, a man who gets up three and four times a night to smoke a cigaret may not be around too many more years to worry about.

DEAR ABBY: Recently I asked the 16- year- old daughter of a neighbor of ours down the block to babysit for us for an evening while my husband and I went out. This was the first time we ever had her sit for us.

After we came home we found a note she had left for us, saying, "Clean your filthy house, please." Abby, I know I am not the world's greatest housekeeper, but my house is NOT filthy, either.

We live in a newly developed area (none of the houses is even a year old yet) and we have never met this girl's parents. In a way, I think they ought to know about this rude and uncalled for note, but I don't want to become acquainted with my neighbors under these circumstances. What do you suggest I do?

HURT IN EUGENE

DEAR HURT: Let the matter drop, and the next time you need a babysitter, ask someone with better manners.

think of a man who insists on taking his nap on the living room couch, from one to two hours each day, yells at the kids if they aren't extra quiet, and makes the whole family miserable with no place to sit down? This man has a comfortable bedroom he could go to.

He sleeps at night same as the rest of the family. If he needs more sleep, shouldn't he go to his own room and not upset the whole family? I think he's selfish and stubborn. What do you think?

THE MAN'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: I agree with you. But worse yet, is the example he is setting for the children. If they are going to learn respect and consideration for other people, you will have to do double duty, because unless you can get your man to change his ways, your children will never learn them from their father.

How has the world been treating you? Unload your problems on Dear Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal, unpublished reply, enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Scouting Scoops

By MRS. G. J. BOYD

The "Fly - up" ceremony, usually held during May, at the close of two fun filled years of Brownie Scouts, find girls receiving the Brownie wings. They make the Girl Scout Promise and receive their Girl Scout trefoil pin. The three parts of the trefoil stand for their new three -part Promise. Now they are Junior Girl Scouts.

Learning the Girl Scout Promise, the Girl Scout Laws and their greeting sign is enough to keep the girls busy during their first meetings of their Junior year. If the girl has been in Brownies, she enters Junior Scouting at a Rededication ceremony; if she has not been a Girl Scout before, she becomes one at an Investiture ceremony. Girls may enter Scouting at any time . . . if she has not had the opportunity of joining Scouts before, she will find troop members eager to share their Scouting experience and knowledge with her she will never feel "left out" because of this.

Do a good turn daily is the slogan for Girl Scouts. As a leader, you receive all sorts of answers when you ask the troop members about their daily good turns. Removing a sticker from their dog's paw, I'm sure the dog felt this was a good turn. From that to helping mother shop, helping dad with yard work etc. . . Even helping with a stuck dress zipper . . .which was appreciated . . .for I was in a hurry. I haven't heard of any of the girls helping little old ladies to cross the street. . . guess this is strictly Boy Scout territory.

The girls learn the proper placement of insignia on their badge sash. Council identification, troop crest, troop numerals, membership stars. The Sign of the Arrow, the Sign of the Star, Brownie fly -up wings and proficiency badges.

There are forty-seven badges, each having several requirements to complete, for the troop to earn during the three years in Girl Scout Junior years. Girls set their own pace earning badges, they earn as few or as many as they wish. They must prove they know the requirement well enough to show how it has been accomplished . . . not just having done the requirement.

of apathy and loses his will to resist," Wiederland said. "He usually just slumps to his knee and feels very sad."

During a seven-hour period, ending shortly before 2 a.m. today, police had arrested more than 200 persons on charges of inciting to injure persons or property, breach of peace, theft and curfew violation.

The arrests brought to over 250 the number of persons rounded up since violence broke out Saturday night after a white luncheonette owner shot and wounded a Puerto Rican youth in the predominantly Negro hill section of New Haven.

Enforced Curfew

The steamroller sweeps by officers were ordered by Mayor Richard C. Lee to enforce his 8 p.m. curfew.

Sunday night police reported seven fires, including four buildings and three automobiles. Another car was overturned.

Only a few, widely scattered disturbances were reported after midnight as heavily armed squads of police set up patrols in the neighborhoods.

Lee had alerted the National Guard earlier Sunday and 250 men from a field artillery battalion in Stamford had moved near a trouble spot. The unit was released shortly before midnight without being pressed into service.

Top Secret Viet Cong Document Is Captured

SAIGON (UPI) — The Viet-Cong, according to a captured top secret document made public today, will not negotiate in Vietnam until their "objectives of independence, peace, democracy and neutrality" are realized.

The paper, captured April 21 on South Vietnam's central coast, is entitled "Resolution of the Central Office of South Vietnam" (COSVN). COSVN is the highest Communist echelon in South Vietnam.

The 62-page document released by U.S. authorities covers all aspects of the Communist campaign —goals, strategy, methods and organization. Most significant, were two paragraphs dealing with negotiations:

"We are determined not to entertain illusions concerning a negotiated settlement to the problem of Vietnam, and we must concentrate all our strength to destroy the enemy.

"Only when the American imperialists and aggressive will is crushed and the objectives of independence, peace, democracy and neutrality of the south are guaranteed can we negotiate settlement of the Vietnam problem."

The document dated back to March 1966. But a spokesman added that "the goals, methods, tactics and attitudes enunciated in the COSVN resolution are still valid and are those being used currently by the Vietnamese Communists."

"This is probably the most important Communist document ever to come into our hands," a spokesman said.

MIG and down went the aircraft," said Olds, a ruggedly handsome 44-year-old former football hero who married movie star Ella Raines and became a World War II hero by shooting down 24 and a half enemy planes. He won commands the 8th Tactical Fighter Wing at Udorn in Thailand.

Olds led the U.S. Air Force "MIG Sweep" Jan. 2 that shot down several of the Communist jets to deal North Vietnam's air force its severest blow.

Olds and other U.S. pilots Sunday took advantage of the clear weather near Hanoi and Haiphong to hit trucks, cargo sampans, bridges, anti aircraft sites, storge areas and railroads.

No U.S. plane was reported lost.

In South Vietnam, U.S. troops reported killing scores of Communits.

U.S. Army 4th Infantry Division t roops reported the largest "kill" on the coast 320 miles northeast of Saigon. Sweeping a jungle they caught and killed 53 Communists while suffering only two wounded.

A scout platoon led by 1st Lt. Homer L. Kraut II of Hopewell, Va., and a tank company overhead signaled Draut and E. Hocker of Bowling Green, Ky., made the first contact near a small seaside village, U.S. spokesmen said. The Communists opened fire with machineguns.

Kraut and Hocker pushed in. They called in another company. The Americans first cut the Communist force into segments and then chewed up each piece.

A light observation plane overhtad signaled Kraut and Hocker each time a cluster of Communists tried to sneak away. The fighting was too close for American pilots to use their jet strike power.

In other developments:

—Guided by a defector, U.S. Army 25th Infantry Division troops caught and killed nine Communists on the Oriental River banks 20 miles northwest of Saigon, spokesmen said. A command helicopter carrying command helicopter carrying Lt. Col. Chandler Goodnow of Keene, N.H., the battalion commander, killed two of them.

—The U.S. Navy cruiser USS Boston reported destroying six cargo sampans and damaging 30 plus setting off a huge secondary explosion on the North Vietnamese coast with its gunfire.

—Viet Cong terrorists kidnaped a South Vietnamese woman and a man in a northern village ad left behind a propaganda banner. South Vietnamese troops later yanked down the banner. It had been bobby trapped. A goverment platoon suffered "light" casualties in the trap's explosion, spokesmen said.

A victory that is disastrous to the victor as well as the vanquished is termed a pyrrhic victory.

Ellis Wins Pamcel by Eight Shots

Richard Ellis did several things at Celanese Sunday in the 5th Pamcel golf tournament.

First he successfully defended his title by winning by eight shots over four other golfers who tied for second.

Ellis also served notice he is a prime candidate to win the Top O' Texas tournament next month at Pampa Country Club.

The 19 - year -old University of Texas sophomore also tied the course record for 18 holes by shooting a 66, set by W. R. Flippin of Electra on Aug. 30 of 1964.

Ellis' 103, for 27 holes Sunday was two under regulation figures as he had no trouble driving or putting his way over the 6,242 yard course.

Four golfers tied for second in the championship flight and went into a sudden death playoff for second and third place.

Tied at 111's were Hack Cogburn, James White, Bob Loerwald and Mack Hickey. In the playoff Cogburn won second with a par on the first hole and White and Hickey birdied the second hole and Leorwald pared. The next four holes were halved with pars and on No. 7 Hickey parred and White boggied.

There were playoffs to decide the winners and consolation winners in the other four flights also.

In A flight Rodney McDaniel, Max Webb and C. F. McGinnis finished regulation play with 38's but McDaniel won the playoff and Webb finished second.

B. Burson won the A consolation with a 37 while J. Kaplan was second with a 38.

In B flight G. Adams and Larry Stephens tied with 40's with Adams winning on the third extra hole in the longest match of the day.

In B flight consolation Coyle Winborn won with a 38 while J. Railsback was second, one shot behind with a 39.

In C flight H. Lockhard and H. Jarrard tied with 43's with Lockhart winning the playoff on the first extra hole.

L. Ogden won the C flight consolation with a 42 while J. Daugherty and J. Johnson tied for second with 43's with Daugherty winning the playoff.

In D flight H. Jarrard won with a 47 with J. Wheeley and J. Gincorf tied for second with 49's and Wheeley won.

In D. flight consolation S. Arnold won with a 42 with B. Cornmas second with a 49.

Ellis played near perfect golf the whole day and even a 30-minute rain delay Sunday afternoon didn't seem to bother him.

He birdied the par 5,503 yard second hole by sinking a 12 - foot putt and then sank an eight footer on the par 3, ninth hole. He picked up two more birdies on the back nine at the 395-yard 16th, a par 3 when he sank a three footer. His longest putt of the day came on the 379 yard, 18th where he putted in a 29-footer.

Ellis had two boggies on the back nine at No.'s three and five.

Richard took only 49 putts for the 27 holes.

HOLEING OUT is Pampan Richard Ellis as he climaxes his Pamcel tournament win Sunday with an 12-under par 103 for 27 holes. Ellis won the tournament by eight strokes over four golfers who tied for second.

COWBOYS EVEN RECORD

Morton Shines in SF Game

United Press International

Craig Morton was so outstanding in his three varsity seasons at the University of California, he made Bear sports fans forget the baseball exploits of Mike Epstein, currently the Washington Senators glamour first baseman.

Sunday, Morton returned to his old collegiate haunts in a Dallas Cowboy uniform and many of the 31,212 fans who turned out to watch the exhibition football game with the 49ers had a tough time rooting for San Francisco.

Morton, who backs up Don Meredith as the Dallas quarterback, uncorked a 28-yard touchdown pass to Pettis Norton in the final two minutes of play to give the Cowboys a 30-24 victory over San Francisco.

Recalled Old Days

It was Craig's collegiate glamour days all over again. Suddenly the fans recalled his All America days for the Bears, his 185 completions in 308 tries during his senior year and 2,121 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Morton certainly was not flustered Sunday as he led the Cowboys to their first victory in two exhibition games.

The game was marred by a free-swinging brawl, first between Cowboy defensive tackle Bob Lilly and 49er fullback Gary Lewis and then by a flock of fans who stormed out on the field to protest the nullifying of two 49er pass completions by clipping and holding penalties.

The Detroit Lions gave the National Football League three victories in four games with American Football League rivals this weekend by whipping the San Diego Chargers 38-17.

The Lions, led by Karl Sweetan's passes, plus four pass interceptions and a recovered fumble, won their second game in three tries, both against AFL teams.

The Chargers suffered their second setback in three exhibitions and the defeat marred their debut in the new $28 million San Diego sports sta- the city of 45,988.

Gino Cappelletti's 37-yard field goal with 2:55 left to play gave the Boston Patriots a 13-10 victory over the Buffalo Bills in the other Sunday exhibition game.

It was Cappelletti's second field goal of the game. Earlier, he gave the Patriots a 10-7 advantage with a 43-yard kick.

One game is scheduled tonight —Baltimore (1-0) at St. Louis (0-1).

Friday night, Denver upheld the AFL's honor by beating Minnesota 14-9 and Green Bay blanked Detroit 18-0 for its third straight exhibition success.

Saturday, the New Orleans Saints, the NFL's newest expansion team, conquered the Pittsburgh Steelers 20-17; Atlanta rallied for a 27-17 victory over the Miami Dolphins; the Washington Redskins conquered the New York Giants 31-13; the Los Angeles Rams handed the Cleveland Browns their third straight setback 24-17 and the Philadelphia Eagles ripped the New York Jets 34-19.

Race in AL Tightens Up

United Press International

Jerry Adair calls himself a streaky hitter and the Boston Red Sox just hope his current streak lasts another six weeks.

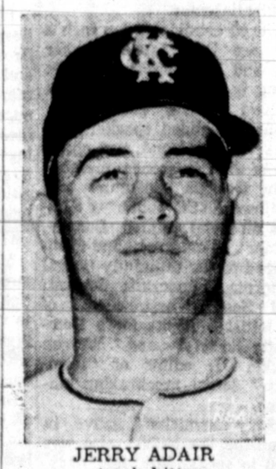

Adair, who was traded off a pennant winner last season and hopes he was traded to a pennant-bound team this year, cracked an eighth-inning homer Sunday to give the Red Sox a 9-8 victory over the California Angels after they had once trailed 8-0.

It completed a doubleheader sweep for the amazing Red Sox and concluded a wild day of American League action in which league-leading Minnesota lost a single game and second place Chicago, third place Boston and fourth place Detroit all won two games.

The White Sox are now just one-half game back, the Red Sox trail by 1½ and the Tigers, who play five games with Minnesota this week, are only two games behind. There are just six weeks left to the season which ends Oct. 1.

Remarkable Effort

Boston, which clobbered the Angels 12-2 in the opener, turned in the most remarkable effort of the day as it wiped out an 8-0 deficit to complete a four-game weekend sweep over California that left the Angels

JERRY ADAIR
streak hitter

6½ behind in fifth place. The Angels have lost seven straight.

"Sure this was a big win," Boston manager Dick Williams admitted, "right now it's our biggest but if we win tomorrow, that'll be our biggest."

Adair, who is 12-for-25 in his last six games, singled in the tying run to climax a four-run sixth - inning rally and then cracked his homer off Minie Rojas in the eighth to break the tie.

"I'm usually a streaky hitter," Adair said, "in fact, I'm usually a slow starter and am just getting used to playing regularly again."

Adair had spent his entire career with Baltimore and was the Orioles' regular second baseman, playing 155 games in 1964 and 157 in 1965. But last reason he lost his job rookie Dave Johnson and was shipped to Chicato—missing a chance to play on the Oriole pennat winning team.

This year the White Sox traded Adair to Boston—and now he'd like to play on a pennant winning team for the Red Sox. A versatile player who can play second, short or third, Adair is currently filling in for Joe Foy at third. But he also has spelled both Rico Petrocelli at short and Mike Andrews at second for the Sox.

Adair's homer was the seventh of the two games for the power hitting Red Sox. Reggie Smith had three while Carl Yastrzemski added his 30th and 31st to pace the attack.

The Red Sox, who edged the Angels 12-11 on Saturday, scored a total of 33 runs in the last three games of the series against Angel hurlers.

Elsewhere in the American League, New York topped the Twins 7-3, Chicago whipped Baltimore 4-2 and 2-1, Detroit edged Cleveland 4-2 and 4-0 and the Kansas City-Washington game was rained out.

The Yanks scored three runs in both the fifth and sixth innings to turn back Minnesota n Horace Clarke and Ruben Amaro, who collected three hits each, sparked the two rallies as they both scored in each inning and Amaro singled in the first two runs in the sixth. Mel Stottlemyre, who went 7 1-3 innings, got credit for the victory while Jim Perry took the loss.

The relief work of Bob Locker and Don McMahon paced the White Sox to their sweep of Baltimore. In the opener, Locker pitched two scoreless innings of relief to preserve Gary Peters' 14 victory. Don Buford singled home the tie breaking run in the seventh and scored on Pete Ward's double to pin the loss on Tom Phoebus.

In the second game, McMahon worked 4 1-3 innings of oe-hit relief to get credit for the victory as Pete Ward hit a two run homer off Wally Bunker. The game also featured a pair of controversial calls on Frank Robinson by umpire Emmett Ashford that touched off violent arguments. Ashford ruled Robinson's looping ball that Tommie Agee appeared to catch was a hit. First base umpire John Rice overruled him on the second call and Causey was out.

John Hiller, making his first big league start, pitched a four-hitter to give the Tigers the victory in the second game and the sweep over Cleveland. Al Kaline hit a homer for the Tigers in each game to boost his season total to 22.

In the first game, the Tigers sapped a 2 - 2 tie in the eighth on run-scoring singles by Norm Cash and Ray Oyler. Denny McLain picked up his 16th victory of the year although he needed relief help in the ninth innig from Fred Lasher.

Astro, Cards Trade Pitches

United Press International

The St. Louis Cardinals are enjoying such a cakewalk to the National League pennant that they can honestly say the Houston Astros are giving them more trouble than any other team.

The Cardinals aren't worried about the ninth-place Astros over taking them of course, but they'd like to see an end to the brushback incidents between the teams. At the same time, the Astros would like the Cardinals to forget that Julio Gotay made five hits in a game against them on June 19.

The brushback battle flared up again Sunday when umpire Lee Weyer was forced to warn both teams after Don Wilson hit Larry Jaster with a pitch and Jaster retaliated by hitting Wilson with one.

"They've been going around hitting our players all year," said Wilson. "I told Weyer not to worry because we were just having fun."

Not Light Hearted

"The Astros knock us down more than any other club," said Jester, who wasn't as light hearted about the incident as Wilson. "I'm not trying to hurt anyone, just trying to protect our club. I know he threw at me because I hit Gotay the last time.

The "last time" was back on June 20 when Jaster brushed back Gotay because the Houston infielder went five-for-five in a previous game.

The Astros also won the battle of the scoreboard Sunday when they beat the Cardinals 2-1 behind Wilson's six-hitter. The Astros scored their runs in the second inning when Bob Aspromonte doubled home a run and then scored on two throwing errors.

The victory was Wilson's ninth of the season, including four on Sundays, while the loss was Jaster's sixth against seven losses.

Sifford Wins Maior Tourney

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI,— The nation's top golfers had a new man to reckon with today after unheralded Negro beteran Charlie Sifford abandoned his usually steady game and charged from five strokes back to win the $100,000 Greater Hartford Open.

Sifford, 44, had five birdies and an eagle for a seven-under-par 64 and a 72 hole total of 272, 12 under par. It was only th e second tour victory ever by a Negro.

In second place was young Steve Oppermann of San Fraicisco, at 273, whose strong final round nearly sent the tournament into a sudden-death playoff.

Randy Suffers Loss in Discus

VIAREGGIO, Italy (UPI)— The all - conquering United States track and field team is steping up its pace on its majestic sweep of Europe.

Not content with winning one battle at a time, the Yanks took on both Italy and Spain during the weekend and came through with two solid victories. The U.S. beat Spain 136-76 and Italy 133-90 in the two-day meet which concluded Sunday night. Italy took consolation honors by topping Spain 136-76.

Earlier on their tour, the Americans routed both Great Critain and West Germany in individual meets.

The U.S. had to settle for six of the 10 gold medals at stake Sunday after having won all 11 events Saturday night.

Perhaps the unhappiest member of the American contingent today was Randy Matson, the world shot put record-holder from Pampa. After being beaten in his specialty by Neal Steinhauer of Eugene, Ore., on Saturday, Matson tried his luck in the discus Sunday and this time lost to Silvano Simeon of Italy, who had a toss of 188 feet, 2½ inches.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS

TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license, nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself. No more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

To Help Prevent a Riot

With rioting and its accompanying violence steadily creeping across the nation, individuals shaken out of their apathy are beginning to ask: Can it happen here and what do we do if it comes?

In answer to the first part of the question, it can happen anywhere if people let it. Riots are instigated and carried out by people. There are people wherever there are towns and cities. As for the latter half of the question the answer, obviously, is not to let riots occur.

And how does one go about that? By not participating in them and by minding one's own business, of course.

That sounds like a negative approach, doesn't it? But, actually, it is not. Not if "minding one's own business" manifests itself in upgrading one's capacity to understand and respect the other person's viewpoint and in improving one's ability to serve others while making a profit for oneself.

Let's face it, people without exception are profit - motivated. Riots occur simply as the result of a breakdown in human relations and lack of respect for individual property rights; the profit-motive is misdirected into destructive rather than productive channels. Looting, burning, violence occur.

A community whose people understand and respect the property rights of each other, a community of individuals who, rather than resorting to theft and violence to satisfy their human needs and desires, are willing to depend on the market place and its voluntary exchange, is a community morally and psychologically armed to send troublemaking firebrands packing should they show up in their midst.

And we do not know of any institution better equipped to teach or any method better calculated to instill improved human relations than the day-to-day, individual-to-individual contracts made in the everyday business world. It is here, in the stores, shops, establishments, institutions, parlors, and factories of commerce and trade, where people, to a greater degree than anywhere else in society, meet, size up, and form impressions of one another.

Moreover, it is from these individual contacts in the world of business that people carry away either, a sense of satisfaction, well-being, and the milk of human kindness or, a sence of frustration, ill-will, and pent-up latent violence.

Did it ever occur to the salesman or saleslady reading this—and we are all sales-persons in one way or another; we are continually selling or failing to sell ourselves—that the way that last customer was handled may have been the determining factor in whether riots come to a community or not? Think about it. It is worth pondering. Your life, the safety of your loved ones, your home or place of business may depend upon it.

Individualize and humanize your way of approaching and dealing with people; in the business world and elsewhere People are not numbers and resent being treated as such.

"Seven Keys to Success," a series of seven booklets designed, primarily, to show sales and service personnel the secrets of dealing successfully with today's customers but adaptable for use by anyone, makes the point with great clarity:

"Today's consumer is hungrier than ever before for the human touch. Numerous 'polls' deal with him (and her) en masse. Practically everywhere he does business he is 'processed' as a number. On every hand he sees evidence of machines taking over. The old fashioned person- to- person relationships seem to be disappearing.

"Today's consumer doesn't WANT to be just another customer standing in line waiting to buy your product or service. He does not think of himself as 'just another customer,' and he doesn't want you to think of him that way, either. He's tried of being number 892.3431" (people in government take note), "a face in the crowd. He yearns to be appreciated, approved, and accepted as a person! He's hungry to be treated as an important individual in his own right. Give him this vital satisfaction, and he'll give you his business gladly, over and over again." And, it is appropriate to add, if you don't he will take that business to those who will!

Moral: Apply the Golden Rule in your person-to-person relationships. It very well may stop trouble at the source. . . .and, besides, it will be profitable for YOU.

The Practice of Law

Beginning with the common law down to the complex statutes that govern modern society, people have been inculcated with the belief that government by law and not by men is the best guarantee of individual freedom and security. History has borne out this belief. Yet, the administration of the law is today up against critical problems.

Courts are overcrowded and questions are being raised as to the standards, ethics and competency of lawyers. The Christian Science Monitor recently devoted a series of articles to a discussion of the legal profession by one of its staff correspondents. In one of these features, it noted that, "At last leading lawyers are talking openly — at least within their own ranks — about the bitter complaints aimed at their profession." These complaints, justified and unjustified, have grave consequences for the reason that the layman's respect for the law can be shattered by an unscrupulous lawyer who is supposed to represent the law.

Surveys have shown there is justification for public mistrust of the conduct of the members of the legal profession. Therefore, it is encouraging to note that a committee of the American Bar Association is reframing the cannons of ethics that govern the practice of law and that in the opinion of the president of the American Bar Association,". . . most lawyers want a vigorous disciplinary program." The lawyers have a heavy responsibility to help maintain public confidence in the concept of government by law instead of men.

Degeneration

Once a principle is deserted—whether in the "spirit of compromise" or whatever—there is no logical stopping place thereafter. No better example of the degenerative process exists than in our own experiences since departing, compromise by compromise and law by law, the basic principles enunciated in the Declaration of Independence.

In 1966, the death toll of an earthquake in Turkey rose to the 2,000 mark.

PINE TREE FEATURES

THE ROAD TO FREEDOM

People keep looking around expecting to find freedom. An Irishman named Curran once suggested that eternal vigilance was the price of liberty. I have an idea that he was wrong. Lots of people seem to be vigilant these days, but they are losing their freedom as rapidly as anyone. It seems to me that the problem most people have with freedom is that they imagine it to be a word, an idea, related exclusively to themselves. Thus, they want freedom for themselves. Any curtailment of their liberty is viewed as a violation of their rights. But they seem to shift to a different set of values and standards whenever they consider the freedom of the other fellow. For they appear to be quite willing to impose restraints and costraints upon others, if this process will result in greater freedom for themselves.

Of course, it takes only a moment for an average mind to detect that if my freedom depends upon your loss of freedom, neither of us is going to be free long. So freedom ought to be viewed not as an individualist word relating to each single person, but rather to inter - human relationships. A condition of freedom pertains when all parties in any human relationship refrain from molesting one another obviously, the man who elects to molest another is free, in the sense that he is unrestrained. But an action of aggression on the part of one, cannot be viewed as an act of freedom by his victim. Freedom must always be a two - way street or it cannot exist. If this reasoning is correct, then it follows that vigilance is not vital in respect to freedom. Rather, self - control is the vital factor. If you control yourself so that you don't molest others, you can reasonably expect not to be molested in turn, when others understandt he meaning of freedom in the same context.

So if you are looking around to find out where you lost your freedom or how it became mislaid, you might begin by looking in your mirror. Freedom like happiness, must be earned it is never bestowed upon you by others. As to your ability to earn it, many will express grave doubts. And it is easy to share these doubts and to become pessimistic. But if this simple examination has any merit, the fact would remain that freedom is so important that life without it isn't really life, but merely a vegtable existence. And if it is all that valuable, then possibly we'll come in time to the willingness to exert a major effort to obtain and keep it. That effort is going to have to be directed at self - control, rather than the control of others.

Naturally, the cry will be raised that this is absoulute folly. How can you control yourself in the face of physical threats and all kinds of legalized incursion But that is the real test of character and the real indication as to whether you will be willing to work to obtain freedom. We have never had a time in the long story of man's inhumanity to man, when shysical threats were absent and legal incursions were lacking for very long. But we have made progress toward an understanding of freedom even in the face of these difficulties.

So it can be done. What is desperately required is the recognition that you cannot carve your freedom out of the enslavement of others. Support of ocercive practices, even when legally sanctioned and popular, never advances the cause of liberty.

CP and SNCC Busy Organizing To Make 'New Politics' Conference in Chicago a Front for Their Programs

ROBERT ALLEN — PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Congressional investigators have significant evidence that the National Conference for New Politics convening in Chicago late this month is to a considerable degree a front for two extremist organizations evincing increasingly close ties—the U.S. Communist Party and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

Aim of both at the NCNP meeting is to lay the groundwork for a third party that will put a so-called "peace and civil rights" ticket in next year's presidential race.

Favored candidates for such a slate are Dr. Martin Luther King and Dr. Benjamin Spock.

King is to be "keynoter" at the New Politics "convention."

Other scheduled speakers are Spock; Julian Bond, a co-chairman of the Conference, member of the Georgia legislature and one-time SNCC public relations director; Simon Casady, another co-chairman and former head of the militantly liberal California Democratic Council; Paul Booth, expresident of the leftist Students for a Democratic Society; and Warren Hinckle III, editor of "Ramparts," leftist muckraking magazine.

Stokely Carmichael, active in organizing the NCNP, also was listed to speak. But the fiery, violence preaching former head of SNCC, who recently was the fanfared "guest" of Fidel Castro at his Communist conclave in Havana, is now on a "free loading junket behind the Iron Curtain.

Congressional investigators have information Carmichael is likely to turn up in Cairo and other Arab capitals. On this expected tour, he will publicly espouse the Kremlin-Arab propaganda line accusing Israel of "atrocities" and "aggression" in the recent war.

Viewed by the probers as a definite portent of such a blast by Carmichael is the virulent anti-semitic attack on Israel in the latest issue of SNCC's bimonthly newspaper.

The two-page article and accompanying doctored photographs and cartoon are an exact duplicate of the Soviet-Arab theme.

PACKING THE HOUSE—Both the Communist Party and SNCC are busy making certain there will be a large turn-out of their adherents and partisans at the New Politics conference.

It's clearly evident they are bent on dominating it.

Following a meeting of the CP National Committee in New York, Arnold Johnson, the party's public relations director, sent a letter to all district leaders instructing that "immediate attention" be given to the selection of "friendly" delegates to the NCNP.

Subsequently, Gus Hall, general secretary, cautioned that identified Communists are not to accept prominent positions in the NCNP.

While stressing that every effort be made to ensure a large attendance of "proper delegates," and that leaders among them be singled out for election to the "right spots," Hall banned out- and- out Communists from filling such roles.

To do so, he warned, would seriously impair NCNP's value as a party front.

However, no restrictions have been put on the Illinois Communist Party in arranging housing and other accommodations for "friendly" delegates.

SNCC leaders are still deliberating whether H. Rap Brown, their torrid revolution and violence - preaching chairman, should put in an appearance at the Chicago session. He faces an extradition proceedings in Virginia prior to that, on a grand jury indictment of inciting a destructive riot in Cambridge, Md., and may not be "available.

Meanwhile, SNCC is taking steps to have a big representation of its activists at NCNP — to work hand- in- glove with the numerous "friendly" delegates with which the Communists are carefully packing the meeting.

Brown, possibly in anticipation of having considerable time on his hands, has agreed to write a book about his views on the race issue and provocatively arrogant attitude toward whites, whom he calls "honkies."

Until recently, SNCC was largely financed and championed by white liberals. Congressional investigators are checking on reports that the Communists are now funneling funds into SNCC.

RED STRATEGY —Graphically illustrative of the length to which Communist leaders are going to weld a united front of Vietnam war opponents, anti-draft and pacifist groups, civil rights militants and various radical elements for the purpose of engineering a "peace ticket" into the 1968 presidential contest are pronouncements by top party officials.

General secretary Gus Hall, at a Berkeley, Calif., meeting, declared that al facets of the a Berkeley, Calif., meeting, declared that all facets of the Communist apparatus must be brought to bear to halt the war in Vietnam and to effect a sweeping political change in the U.S. This can only be done, he thundered, by defeating both the Democratic and Republican tickets and electing "peace" candidates.

Martin Luther King and Dr. Spock were hailed as the anointed spear bearers. Hall vigorously directed the comrades to start working immediately toward that end.

At a New York meeting, Herbert Aptheker, member of the party's national committee and its chief theoretician, warmly lauded King and Spock as civil rights and anti-Vietnam war crusaders, and acclaimed them as ideally suited for the White House.

Significantly, in these and other influential Communists' harangues, chief emphasis is placed on two points: There must be a "peace" ticket in 1968 as a key stratagem in the party's overt and covert machinations to halt the Vietnam conflict; Communists must join and collaborate with "all types" of groups, organizations and elements for that purpose.

That this united-front strategy is making some headway is indicated by a "call" issued by a number of leading Black Power advocates urging a big turnout at the NCNP. Among the signers are Floyd McKissick, head of CORE: comedian Dick Gregory; and Georgia legislator Julian Bond.

A strikingly revealing statement in this round-robin is that the Chicago conference could make it possible to "forge a permanent radical alliance for political action."

PREDICTIONS—Senator John Tower, R-Tex., will enter the New Hampshire primary on March 12, the first in the presidential sweepstakes. Tower has told intimates he has definitely decided on that in the belief he can make an impressive showing. . . .President Johnson continues to give every indication of intention to seek another term. He has told Senator Wayne Morse, D-Ore., leading anti-Vietnam opponent, that he will wholeheartedly support his re-election, and has given the same word to other Democratic critics of his policies. . . .The Senate Commerce Committee will report out next month a bill designed to put the natural gas pipeline industry under federal regulation. Legislation to do that has been pending for some 15 years, and is still vigorously opposed by pipeline concerns. But the committee, headed by Senator Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., is set to send a strong bill to the Senate for a vote. Its prospects there are conjectural.

The Civil Aeronautics Board will take no action for the present on revising domestic airline rates. The fares have been under scrutiny for some time, but the board has decided no changes are needed as of now. . Uruguay, one of the most complete welfare states in the world, is verging on financial bankruptcy. By the end of this year, some $65 million in short-term loans to foreign banks, mainly in New York, come due and Uruguay has virtually no foreign reserves to pay. If the banks refuse to extend the due dates, Uruguay may be forced to sell $40 million in treasury gold reserves it still has.

The Doctor Says:

Doctor-Prescribed Drug Helps Curb Hair Growth

Q—Is there any way of preventing the growth of hair on my thighs? What would cause a woman to have hair on her thighs?

A—Although it is unusual for the excessive growth of hair in women to extend to the thighs, this may occur as a hereditary trait or as the result of a glandular imbalance. Recent studies indicate that norethynodrel with mestranol (Enovid) taken over a period of several months will reduce hair growth in about 67 per cent of those who try it. The drug requires a doctor's prescription.

Q—Recently my hair has started to fall out. I have been taking birth control pills for the past two months. Could the pills be the cause? Will cutting my hair stop it from falling out?

A—Some contraceptive pills may reduce hair growth, but there have been no reports that they cause thinning of the hair on the scalp. Cutting your hair will not affect its rate of growth nor its ability to maintain its foothold.

Q—I have trouble with hair growing back under my skin after I shave. It causes itching and redness. I have tried not shaving quite so close but my beard is so heavy I am then accused of not shaving at all. What would you suggest?

A—If you switch to an electric shaver you should have no more trouble with ingrowing hairs.

Q—About a year ago I started taking reducing pills. Since then my hair has been falling out. Does the lack of a vitamin cause this?

A—In some persons taking supplementary vitamin B complex helps to prevent baldness. This would suggest a deficiency of these vitamins. At the other extreme, thinning of the hair may be caused by getting too much vitamin A.

Q—I am 57 and have had several attacks of diverticulitis. My doctor prescribed Cantil. What is this drug and are there any bad side effects?

A—Mepenzolate (Cantil) is given to relieve cramps, diarrhea and bloating. It requires a doctor's prescription. It may cause dryness of the mouth and it should not be taken by anyone who has an enlarged prostate or glaucoma.

Q—For the past three years I have had granuloma anulare on my hands, arms and neck. My doctor is giving me Medrol but the side effects are very unpleasant. Is there any other treatment?

A—Because these lesions usually clear up spontaneously in time, the treatment is hard to evaluate. Meanwhile, your doctor may want to give you X-ray treatments or freeze the lesions with carbon dioxide snow.

GLOBAL VIEW

State Dept. Fouled Up By Meddlers

By LEON DENNEN
Foreign News Analyst

NEW YORK (EA) —The Logan Act adopted by Congress as long ago as 1799 prohibits private American citizens from engaging in diplomatic negotiations with foreign nations without offical authorization.

Yet each generation of Americans produces its own private meddlers in international diplomacy who violate the law with impunity.

In 1915 it was Henry Ford who was convinced that by launching his "peace ship" he would bring a speedy end to World War I. He was discouraged by President Wilson. But the automobile magnate was arrogant enough to believe that he could succeed where the president of the United States failed.

The fantastic story of "Ford Folly" has just been recreated vividly by the veteran journalist Burnet Hershey, in his new book, "The Odyssey of Henry Ford and the Great Peace Ship."

It is a fascinating account, often hilarious and sometimes sad, of a bit of true - blue Americana that has long been forgotten.

Ford's odyssey, as was inevitable, ended in failure. But it caused considerable damage to American interests. For many years it was also a rich source for diplomatic jokes. The assorted intellectuals, preachers and doves of the 1915 vintage who crowded the peace ship took to fighting among themselves even before they crossed the submarine-infested Atlantic under the benevolent eye of the kaiser.

Hershey, then 19, was only an obscure member of the ill-fated expedition. But, fortunately for us he was then as now, a keen observer and gifted journalist.

With the current crises in the world and the mushrooming of private peace negotiators in Russia, North Vietnam, Cuba and elsewhere, Hershey's book has more than its share of relevance to the present day.

Consider the activities of Cyrus S. Eaton, another wealthy American industrialist who, ironically enough, has long been a great admirtr of Russia's Communist leaders.

He recently informed the press Soviet Premier Kosygin feels there can be an agreement to settle the war in Vietnam without the consent of Red China. This, if true, is news that Americans will welcome. But is it true?

Kosygin, we are to believe, gave this extremely important information to Eaton in a conversation that lasted four hours. Yet during a two - day conference with President Johnson i- Glassboro, N. J. the Soviet premier never hinted once that Russia was ready to act as peace broker in Vietnam.

Kosygin, in fact, made it clear to the President that Russia expected American withdrawal of U. S. troops from Vietnam.

It is possible that the Soviet premier said one thing to his friend Eaton and quite another thing to Johnson. But it is also possible —and much more likely — —that the Soviet premier was using the pro - Russian American industrialist as a sounding board for Communist propaganda.

Private American citizens — whether they be professors, well-meaning pacifists or influential industrialists — who deal illegally with foreign heads of state have long been a "bloody nuisance" to the State Department's professional diplomats.

They meddle in affairs they do not understand. Consciously or unconsciously they often become instruments of foreign propaganda. Their private efforts are usually an exercise in futility detramental to their country. At best they may be good for a footnote in the history books or a momentary laugh like Ford's peace ship.

Anyway, it is high time for the government to remind the meddlers that violation of the Logan Act is still a punishable offense.

A thought for the day—British statesman Edmund Burke once said: "He that wrestles with us strengthens our nerves and sharpens our skill. Our antagonist is our helper."

H. L. Hunt Writes

RUSSIAN AID IN U.S. SHIPS

It is no secret that Soviet Russia is aiding her fellow-communists in North Vietnam by shipping in armaments and supplies. The extent of military aid from Russia since August 1953 has been estimated at $510 million.

What most Americans almost certainly do not know is that some of the supplies have been carried in ships legally owned by the United States. Attention was called to this fact recently by U. S. Senator Clifford Hansen of Wyoming. Senator Hansen labeled the situation "startling and shocking." Few will disagree.

"Russia is aiding the North Vietnamese," the Senator said, "and she is doing it with ships designed and manufactured by American men and women, loaned to Russia in wartime to the end of achieving peace and now as in the past used by the Russian goverment to deliver material for the purpose of killing American boys."

Among the lend-leasee quipment sent to Russia from the United States during World War II were 84 merchant ships and 46 miscellaneous Army and Navy watercraft. The lend - lease agreement provided that at the end of the war all defense articles sent to Russia that had not been destroyed or consumed would be returned to the U.S. But Russia has refused to return them and refused to pay for them.

That is how it happens that our own ships are being used for shipments to the communist aggressors in Vietnam. They were used in Korea against America troops fighting there in 1950-53. They were used by the Russians in Cuba in 1961-62 Always against our interests.

Towles Tile Offers Torginol Flooring

Since man has learned to master the uses of the wheel, he has continuously strived to become the supreme builder of monuments, vessels to soar across the ocean, and even provide his family with a suitable place to live. Our caveman ancestor of the past was not completely satisfied with the bare earthen floors especially during the winter months, so he devised a makeshift rug from the animals that happened to be grazing nearby. Then as man's learning progressed, he learned that the rugs were not sufficient for his cave dwelling and needed something far more suitable.

As time passed the Romans built their floors out of stone. As a matter of fact, so were most of the roads and highways. It was enough to wander around the streets all day with cold feet, without having to come home to another cold stone floor. It was not as hard to keep clean as the caveman's dirt floor, but it wasn't as soft either.

Then came the illustrious pioneers of the American continent. When their feet hit the shores of America they started building their homes in the frontier fashion and much unlike anything they had seen in England. For England still maintained the old Roman-like stone floors and pillars in the castles. The wooden floors of the first Americans started the process of building newer and better things in flooring. When the winter storms pushed the Northern blizzard into their midst, their floors were cold, but not like that of the English, Roman, or their ancestral cavemen.

As men pushed Westward, their knowledge increased with the times. After the passing of the pioneers the early '20's brought a new discovery..... Linoleum. It was durable, flexible, and widely accepted by most everyone. But it too had it's drawbacks. Even if it was the greatest break in flooring in centuries, every traveler left his footprints in the middle of the floor. This aspect plagued and troubled the women until a German scientist discovered a revolutionary new flooring substance called Torginol Duresque.

Unlike the linoleum, the new discovery Torginol was poured from a can onto the old and new floor surfaces. It also meant there would be no limited amount of color patterns, and it could be incorporated into a beautiful finish.

In recent years, Torginol has proved to be the most versatile floor covering in the known world. It can be used for the interior or exterior without any problems. Its uses spread into the hospital lobbies, sterilizing rooms and any place where there is considerable traffic or danger of infectious germs. It has been put to use on the desk of former Presidential yachts, in swimming pool decks, in cocktail lounges and yes, even in zoos.

In the latest model homes of this age of soaring rockets, Torginol is being used to enhance the appearance of the kitchens and just about every room in the house. It has proved to be highly durable, almost maintenance free, can be seen in 27 standard colors, and widely accepted.

The personnel at Towles Tile have been highly trained to install this revolutionary floor covering in your home. To obtain this specialized house care given them a call. Their number is MO 5- 5075.

Hamilton Funds 78th Quarterly Dividend Shared

The Board of Directors of Hamilton Funds, Inc. has declared a quarterly dividend of 2¼ cents per share from net undistributed income, payable July 17, 1967, to shareholders of record June 30, 1967.

Nearly $2.5 million was distributed to some 300,000 Hamilton shareholders all over the world, it was announced by Hamilton President A. R. Tyrone.

This was the 78th consecutive quarterly dividend of the common stock mutual fund, whose investment objectives are long-term growth of principal and reasonable income. Hamilton shares are distributed in 48 states and 22 foreign areas.

This dividend brought per-share distributions in the previous 12 months to 14.75 cents from net undistributed income and 24.77 cents from realized capital gains — a total of 39.52 cents per share.

The net asset value of Hamilton H-DA shares on June 15 was $5.81, up 80 cents from the $5.01 share price at the end of 1966. In addition, the fund distributed capital gains of 24.77 cents per share in January 1967.

Red Agents Are Jailed in Saigon

SAIGON, Vietnam — More than 100 suspected Communist agents, including a number on the government's payroll, have been arrested in Saigon within the past six weeks by South Vietnamese security officials. Among those picked up were a Vietnamese army officer who headed the biggest government ordnance depot in the country.

The arrested Vietnamese officer confessed he was planning to blow up the depot before the September elections. He also revealed that his communications with Hanoi were sent via Paris.

The South Vietnam security officials were assisted in tracking down the Communist agents by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency and the U.S. Army's 704th counterintellige ce company based in Saigon.

BANNER WAR

GENOA, Italy—The crew of the Communist Chinese freighter Li-ming and Genoa port authorities continued their tug-of-war today with the Italians refusing harbor facilities and the Chinese shouting the thought of Mao Tse-tung.

The 13,000 - ton freighter arrived Sunday decked with banners extolling Mao, the Chinese Communist party chairman, and "the friendship of the Italian-Chinese people." The Italians, citing a law against foreign political propaganda demanded the Chinese remove the banners or leave.

TOKYO SLUM RIOT

TOKYO—Tokyo got a taste of the long, hot summer Thursday night when an angry crowd of 2,500 slum-dwellers rioted and stormed a police station, setting fire to nearby buildings.

Authorities said the riot was triggered by a misunderstanding. They said police were putting a man injured in a traffic accident into an ambulance in Tokyo's Sanya slum when persons in a nearby crowd began yelling, "the police are unjustly arresting one of us."

The crowd grew to a mob of 2,500 persons who stormed the district police station during the hot, muggy night. More than 800 helmeted police were rushed in but it took hours before order was restored.

Several persons were injured and 16 others were arrested. Hundres of windows were smashed.
