Next Move On Laos Issue Up To Reds

Kennedy Waits On Khrushchev

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy looked hopefully to Soviet Premier Khrushchev today to call a halt to the Soviet-backed rebel offensive in Laos and avert mounting danger of a U.S.-Soviet military showdown in Southeast Asia.

But behind-the-scenes preparations were reported continuing here and at far-flung U.S. military bases for greater intervention on the side of the pro-Western Laotian government if hopes for a negotiated settlement collapse in the next few days.

The United States has obligations under the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) to deal with aggression in Laos, Kennedy told a news conference Thursday night, "and no one should doubt our resolution on this point."

Kennedy expressed confidence that the country would back his decisions, made in concert with the SEATO allies, to act if necessary. He declared "every American will stand with his country to honor its obligations to the point that freedom and security of the free world and ourselves may be achieved."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk is flying to Bangkok, Thailand, today for a crucial meeting of SEATO foreign ministers at which allied plans for forceful action are expected to be developed.

Kennedy declared a three-point U.S. policy on the Laos crisis, giving Khrushchev a plain but softly spoken warning that Soviet-backed military attacks "must end if peace is to be achieved in Southeast Asia."

Oil Outlook Is Brighter

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—Independent oil producers of Texas today heard a Fort Worth banker cite several favorable factors that indicate a brighter immediate future for the petroleum industry. This optimistic note was sounded by Lewis Bond, president of the Fort Worth National Bank. Bond was the first speaker at the general session of the 31st annual meeting here of the North Texas Oil and Gas Association.

Crude demand "looks a little better this year, maybe up 2.5 to 3 per cent over 1960," Bond declared.

"Prices seem firmer and there is even talk of a crude price increase—a pleasant change from the sporadic touch of the last few years."

Others scheduled to address the session include John Hurd of Laredo, president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association.

Soviet Delegate Continues Cool At Geneva Conference

By DORIAN FALK GENEVA (AP)—The marathon three-power nuclear test ban talks are expected to carry on another week before the Soviets give any official response to the new Western plan to break the stalemate.

Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin so far has showed a distinct coolness to the joint U.S.-British compromise proposals but he said he would hear them out without saying an official word. Tsarapkin was chairman of today's session—the 27th since the negotiations began 2 1/2 years ago. U.S. delegate Arthur H. Dean has taken the initiative since resumption of the talks Monday after a three-month recess. Each day he discussed in detail another point in the program.

Western sources say it will take Dean at least eight more days to spell out the new Western proposals for a treaty banning testing of nuclear weapons.

Talking with newsmen outside the wood-paneled conference room of the Palace of Nations, Tsarapkin said he detected "a slight advance" in some aspects of the Western proposals. But he asserted that they contained "too many conditions, too many ifs."

The general belief is that the Soviet delegate is waiting for word from Moscow before taking a definite stand, leaving Premier Khrushchev room to maneuver on the Soviet position until the last minute.

Pencils Face A Busy Day

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A lot of pencils will be worn down in 10 to 15 days from now when a million and a quarter Texans scratch 70 names in the special race to select a senator to succeed Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

It's the greatest number ever entered for one race in the state. The entry fee is only $50.

At the filing fee and announced as write-in candidates. One of these said he joined the mob to give voters a little more choice. The 71 on the ballot are those who pay their $50.

The voter by law must scratch out the names of all candidates except his choice. A few cities, however, have voting machines. The Texas Election Bureau, the unofficial tabulating agency organized by Texas newspapers and financed now by newspapers, radio, and TV, faces special problems.

The bureau's employees must take by telephone 71 names and votes from each of 254 county correspondents several times during election night April 4.

The citizen with a special case can pretty well find a champion in the list.

H. P. Holland, for instance, wants to lead an expedition against Cuba, using shrimp boats. Charles Otto Foerster Jr. advocates backing up the nation's currency with titanium, thus, he says, paying off the federal debt in three years.

Harry Diehl insisted on being listed as Harry (Republican) Diehl and tried to pay his $50 filing fee on the installment plan "to show I am conservative."

Martha Trobway is a handsome platinum blonde of 40 who is indignant at legal discrimination against women and has pegged her campaign solely to that issue.

Erasmus Sams is the first Negro in modern history to run for the Senate in Texas. His is not a racial issue, however; he wants the government to license professional farmers and thus stop city men from farming as a hobby.

The Rev. M. T. Banks became a write-in candidate when the Postoffice Department didn't deliver his application and filing fee by the deadline. The post office offered to refund his postage.

Actually, six candidates are waging campaigns for major proportions. Only one, Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, has won a state-wide race of any kind although some others on the list have tried.

The others are John G. Tower, a college professor supported by the Republican organization; interim Sen. William A. Blakley, majority stockholder of Braniff Airways and other extensive property; State Sen. Henry B. Gonzalez; Maury Maverick Jr., son of the late, fiery congressman; and U.S. Rep. Jim Wright.

All except Tower are Democrats.

Laotians Say New Troops Are Attacking

By JOHN RODERICK VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The government charged today six new battalions of troops from Communist North Viet Nam have attacked across the border into Laos. The United States sent 15 helicopters to help Laotian government forces.

Three battalions are assaulting Kam Keut, 40 miles north of Thakhek in southeast Laos, a government spokesman said.

The pro-Western government repeatedly has charged North Vietnamese troops were taking part in the fighting but never offered conclusive proof. On Jan. 29, Cabinet Minister Nhoay Abhay admitted government charges of North Vietnamese intervention were partly propaganda-inspired by a "fear that we could be invaded one day in force."

Western military observers agree, however, on the validity of government charges that Vietnamese technicians, artillerymen and combat specialists are supporting the Pathet Lao rebel movement much in the same manner the Embassy says is backing the royal army.

The U.S. Embassy announced today 15 helicopters from the U.S. 7th Fleet have arrived in Thailand en route to the U.S. mission supporting the beleaguered government army commanded by Gen. Phoumi Nosavan.

The delivery, which brings the number of American-operated helicopters here to 20, is expected hourly at bases in southern Laos.

The decision to quadruple the helicopter strength coincided with President Kennedy's statement on American aims in Laos.

News of the helicopter transfer and arrival of a contingent of 150 Marines to service them at the transit base in Udorn, Thailand, just 35 miles south of here had been a well-kept secret in Vientiane.

Government forces have been demoralized by a succession of defeats since the March 7 rout at Sala Phou Khoun, 80 miles south of Luang Prabang on the vital north-south highway. The government claims it is pushing back the rebels in the junction area while moving upward from the Vang Vieng region, 100 miles north of Vientiane.

Patched-Up Wage Bill Is Nearing Vote

By JOHN W. BECKLER WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic leadership steered a patched-up minimum wage bill toward a vote today in a sharply divided House.

The compromise measure retains the two-step raise from $1-an-hour to $1.25 requested by President Kennedy but makes major concessions to the opposition in the field of new coverage.

It was put together Thursday in a dramatic last-minute huddle in the office of Speaker Sam Rayburn, where the debate raged on the House floor up to midnight.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg and White House aide Lawrence O'Brien took part in the hastily called conference with Rayburn, Rep. Adam C. Powell, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Labor Committee, and Rep. James Roosevelt, D-Calif., floor leader for the bill.

Also present was Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., who apparently holds the key to success of the compromise effort.

Southern Democrats and Republicans have lined up almost solidly against the administration's original bill. If Vinson supports the compromise the leadership hopes enough Southerners will follow him to put it over.

Vinson left the conference in Rayburn's office early and refused to disclose his stand. He asked for a copy of the compromise for further study.

SEARCH ENDURES FOR ESCAPEES IN KENT COUNTY

The Salt Fork of the Brazos River in Kent County was the scene of a continuing search by area peace officers today for two prisoners who escaped in Jayton late Thursday.

The search went on throughout last night as officers and bloodhounds from Jones County sought the pair who overpowered a Kent County sheriff's deputy and fled in a patrol car. An airplane was to join the search this morning.

The escapees were identified as Doyle Ray Moore, 23, of Spur, and William Ray Perry, 19, of Girard. They had received five-year prison terms Monday after pleading guilty in 26th District Court to burglary charges.

Deputy Richard Brownlee said he was taking the men to a cafe for supper at 5:30 p. m. Thursday when one of them pulled a razor and overpowered him. They fled in a patrol car, which was found abandoned eight miles west of Jayton.

There is no surplus in the inherited Eisenhower budget for 1961, Kennedy advised Congress. It is "over $2 billion" out of balance, he said. The actual estimate is $2.2 billion. It means the debt limit must be raised again, the President said.

The surplus heralded for fiscal 1962 has become a $1.8 billion deficit on the civilian side alone, Kennedy announced. He said the Eisenhower administration, which never admitted there was a recession, based its revenue estimate on "a much rosier economy."

Officials said Kennedy's military program, plus revised estimates of the cost of defense programs, will send the total 1962 deficit beyond $3 billion and swell the public debt by mid-1962 to a record of about $290 billion.

Nowhere in this message was there the slightest indication of a possible temporary tax cut to combat the business slump.

As Eisenhower had done, Kennedy asked a $643 million postal rate increase to eliminate the Post Office deficit.

The President's defense program is due to reach Congress next week. Today's $600-million message will deal only with civilian matters. Many paragraphs were devoted to documenting Kennedy's pledge—made in his State of the Union message—that his program would not unbalance the budget "of and by themselves."

"It is my determined purpose to be a prudent steward of the public funds—to obtain a dollar's worth of results for every dollar we spend," the President said.

His 1962 budget is precisely balanced at $83.2 billion of income and outgo, Kennedy said, if the Eisenhower estimate of defense spending and tax collections is accepted. But a "more realistic" judgment of the impact of the business slump reduces receipts to $81.4 billion, he added.

The 1962 fiscal figures in brief: income, $83.2 billion; income, $81.4 billion. The total cost of Eisenhower's proposed $80.9 billion of outlays and proposed $82.3 billion of revenues.

But the totals didn't mean much to the military proposals still to be heard by Congress.

Administration men explained the two-part budget message in this way: Kennedy wanted to show Congress and the country that his civilian programs were not budget-buster—that he has real respect for prudent budgeting. But defense needs get overriding priority, and national security programs won't be cut to fit the budget.

The biggest increases from Eisenhower's budget asked by Kennedy were these: Agriculture Department, $478 million; Commerce Department, $48 million, mostly for aid to depressed areas; aid to education $500 million; aid to children of the jobless, $215 million; temporary jobs pay, $340 million; space projects, $85 million.

Today's message was so skimpy on details that newsmen had to draw on other sources—administration aides and Democratic leaders in Congress—to discover many of the fiscal facts which the message itself merely implied.

Congress therefore got no explicit statement from the White House on the actual estimated 1962 deficit, on the new estimates of 1961 income and outgo, on the actual appropriation requests (as distinguished from planned spending), or on the outlook for the federal debt. However, the figures were clearly implied and provided on a non-attribution basis by responsible officials.

Kennedy announced the federal debt "will exceed $285 billion on June 30." That is the date on which the present temporary ceiling of $293 billion reverts to the permanent ceiling level of $285 billion.

As Eisenhower did annually, Kennedy asked for another debt ceiling increase before June 30. The specific request, he said, will be delayed until May.

Ike's Guess Is Discarded

By STERLING F. GREEN WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy broke the bad budget news to Congress today—two years of red ink financing for an apparent combined deficit of $5 billion, sending the national debt to new records.

In a special budget message, Kennedy discarded as "over-optimistic" the January estimates of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who forecast a slim $80 million surplus this year and a $1.5 surplus in fiscal 1962, starting July 1.

There is no surplus in the inherited Eisenhower budget for 1961, Kennedy advised Congress. It is "over $2 billion" out of balance, he said. The actual estimate is $2.2 billion. It means the debt limit must be raised again, the President said.

The surplus heralded for fiscal 1962 has become a $1.8 billion deficit on the civilian side alone, Kennedy announced. He said the Eisenhower administration, which never admitted there was a recession, based its revenue estimate on "a much rosier economy."

Jobless Pay Bill Signed By Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today signed legislation providing additional unemployment insurance payments for as much as 13 weeks for jobless workers who have exhausted their benefits. Payments now can start in 15 days.

The measure has been lagged the No. 1 bill, for quickest action, of the Kennedy administration. It was the first specific anti-recession measure enacted by the new Congress. Legislative action was completed Wednesday.

The administration estimates the benefits may go to some three million persons and amount in all to nearly $1 billion during the two-year authorized life of the program.

Persons who exhaust their basic benefits under the state-federal unemployment insurance system during the two years starting last July 1 are eligible to benefit from the new law.

The actual total of payments under the bill will depend on the course of the national economy during the coming months—on how many long-term unemployed there are.

It provides additional payments up to one-half the duration of the original benefits. This provision sets the maximum at 13 weeks, since the longest basic state program is for 26 weeks.

The unemployment compensation payments are made by the states. The federal government will, however, turn over to the states the money needed for extended payments.

With the aim of getting the money back for the U.S. Treasury, the bill provides for a special 4 of one per cent increase in the payroll tax paid by employers. This will be effective on wages paid during the two years starting next Jan. 1.

The basic tax will become 3.3 per cent on payroll. Existing arrangements under which some states reduce the tax for some employers with records of stable employment are not changed.

The Treasury advances to the states, as provided in the bill, are to be repaid out of the yield of the extra 4 per cent payroll tax levied nationwide.

The Senate Finance Committee reported that a minority of the states—those with heaviest unemployment—would obtain more in benefits than they would pay in tax. Among these states named were Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, New Jersey, Alaska, Ohio and West Virginia.

Boys Aid In Work Toward New Vaccine

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Mention doctors, shots or medicine in most youngsters, and they head for the tallest tree.

Not so for three sets of Phoenix area brothers who were guinea pigs in a 30-state research project which may produce a "Before-bite" human rabies vaccine.

For several weeks the boys visited the Maricopa County Health Department, where doctors gave them blood tests and serum shots.

Scientists now are studying blood samples taken from the nervous youngsters to determine what antibiotic affect the serum had, if any.

To those who would term the project inhuman to little boys it should be noted they all volunteered with their parents' approval.

Participating in the Phoenix phase of the project were: Arthur Alessi, 14, brothers Craig, 12, Gary, 15, Tommy, 11, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Allen of Litchfield Park; Edward, 12, and Tim Peterson, 11, sons of Mrs. Ruth Mann; and Kurt, 11, and Mike Redfern, 12, sons of Mrs. Carol Redfern, all of Phoenix.

Dr. V. H. Eckert, county health department veterinarian, said the boys were injected with a vaccine derived from chicken embryo, called Hep, meaning high egg passage.

A similar vaccine, designated Lep, for low egg passage now is sold as a rabies vaccine for dogs.

"Were the boys ever in danger?" Not in the least said Dr. Eckert. "But" he added "there are many persons who shy away from agreeing to allow their children to take part in such a research program."

No one has even suggested it but perhaps these kids were trying to prove who was the bravest.

Attorney To Ask For Death Penalty

ODESSA, Tex. (AP)—The attorney for Winkler County today said he will recommend that the state seek the death penalty in the kiss-and-kill slaying of pretty, pajama-clad Elizabeth Jean Williams.

Mark Herring, 17-year-old classmate of the victim, was released Thursday on $10,000 bond.

Winkler County Atty John H. Banks said he will recommend to Dist. Atty. Don Sullivan that the death penalty be asked when the case comes to trial.

Said Banks, "I understand he got his shotgun, his lead weights and rope and then picked the girl up. This constitutes murder with malice aforethought."

Herring, who has been charged in the slaying, refused to discuss the case further or to take a lie detector test. He did so on the advice of his family's lawyer.

Wednesday Herring led officers to a shallow pond, waded into it and dragged out the body of Miss Williams. He said she held the muzzle of his shotgun in her head while he pulled the trigger.

"I kissed her goodbye" before firing the gun, he told officers and newsmen.

The handsome high school athlete described his classmate and occasional date as a person consumed with a desire to die. He said she was preoccupied with thoughts of heaven and an after-life.

The girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, in an interview in their home, said her death left them "dumbfounded and shocked."

Both pictured the girl as sensitive and deeply religious, and said she was not the type to plead to be slain.

But conflicting evidence was found when the Odessa American interviewed some of her schoolmates.

She asked me to do it (kill her). She said she would pay me to do it. She asked me for several methods of committing suicide. She told me, "I want to die." "a sophomore said The American did not name him.

Another classmate said he had a date with Miss Williams Tuesday night when the chain of events began. The American said he told police he and Miss Williams were parked in the alley behind her house when a car resembling the one driven by Herring entered the alley.

"Oh, my God—I didn't think he would come," he quoted the victim as saying. She told him she and Herring had agreed to meet at midnight at her house, that she had asked Herring to kill her and that he was going to do so.

The youth quoted her as saying, "I've got to call his bluff, even if he kills me." He said Miss Williams, clad in shortie pajamas and a dressing gown, left his car and entered the one that resembled Herring's.

Two Killed, Four Hurt In Well Fire

HOUSTON (AP)—"We heard the rumbling in the well, and we should have run."

But six men didn't run Thursday night—and two were killed and the other four injured when a flash fire enveloped their work over rig at a gas distillate well near Pinehurst.

The well is located nine miles north of Tomball, 37 miles northwest of Houston.

Five of the men were Houstonians. Three were members of one family.

Burned to death were Ernest L. Leach, 24, of Houston, father of three.

L. E. Wimberly, 53, Houston. Leach died at the scene. Wimberly died early today in Methodist Hospital.

Injured are: Dan Gard, 58, of Houston, in critical condition; J. D. Matheson, 34, of Magnolia in serious condition; James E. Leach, 26, brother of the dead man, in serious condition; and W. R. Thompson, 30, of Houston, brother-in-law of the Leach brothers, in fair condition in Tomball hospital.

The well is owned by Grey Wolf Co. of Houston.

A spokesman for the company said the well wasn't producing as expected, and the men were trying to pull out the tubing to change it.

"The tubing got stuck and we kept yanking," Thompson said from his hospital bed.

BALTIMORE (AP)—"My husband is very sick. He may be dying." Mildred Walters, 61, told the ambulance dispatcher Thursday night.

The ambulance arrived at the Baltimore County suburban home of the middle-aged couple in minutes. The crew found the woman dead. Efforts to revive her husband John L. Walters Jr., 50, who was breathing faintly, failed.

A double heart attack, ruled Deputy County Medical Examiner Charles F. O'Donnell, who said an autopsy would be held.

Lassie's Owners Are In Conflict

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Lassie, television's top dog, may be in the middle of a marital conflict.

Mae B. Weatherwax, wife of Lassie's owner and trainer, sued for separate maintenance Thursday and asked that Lassie be counted as part of the couple's community property.

Mrs. Weatherwax, 50, charged cruelty in her complaint against Rudd B. Weatherwax, 52. She asked $1,113 a month in alimony pending trial of her suit.

She estimated Lassie's value at $100,000 and said her husband has other valuable assets. The Weatherwaxes married in 1951 and have two children.

Mrs. Shaeffer Hostess To 20th Century

The Twentieth Century Club met Thursday at the Martha Ann Club, house with Mrs. D. C. Shaeffer as hostess.

Mrs. Fred Beatty presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. C. W. Hicks. Mrs. John Hamblen was elected delegate to the meeting of the Mesquite District of Federated Clubs to be held at Abilene April 10-11.

The program "Nature And The Bible" was given by Mrs. Harry Vanderpool and Mrs. David Hamblin.

Mrs. Hamblin discussed the various types of birds mentioned in the Bible. In part she said: "there were many bird watchers among the ancient Hebrews, as the Bible contains over 300 references to 30 varieties of birds. Birds of prey are abundant in Palestine. The Hebrews knew awareness of birds may be due to the fact they lived so close to nature and saw birds as creatures of Gods creation."

"In the story of Noah and the Ark, the raven and the dove are mentioned; God provided quail for food to the Hebrew people in the wilderness; Solomon the king talked about birds, and the flying eagles are spoken of in Revelation. One of the most wonderful stories is that of Elijah and the ravens who fed him. In the New Testament it was the cock who crowed twice to remind Peter of his denial. There are also many legends of birds of Bible times."

Mrs. Vanderpool, using colorful illustrations, gave a selection of poems and readings depicting flowers and shrubs of the Bible. Included were palm trees, the legend of the Dogwood Tree, in the Heart of a Child is the Kingdom of God, and an Easter poem.

Refreshments were served to members and three guests, Mrs. L. E. Wheeler of Houston, Bill and Patty Hamblin.

Omelet Is Hearty Dish During Lent

A plain omelet is a good standby for meatless lunches and suppers. But when you want to serve it as a main course for dinner, make it more substantial by preparing a cheese omelet.

Tasty American blue cheese is an ideal choice for the popular egg dish, not only because of its zesty taste but due to its protein and calcium content. It'll help provide that "stick-to-the-ribs" quality you want.

To make a creamy blue cheese omelet use one egg per serving. Beat in one tablespoon milk or coffee cream, a dash of salt and pepper. Pour egg mixture into a buttered skillet set over low heat.

Cook eggs slowly. As the underside becomes set, tip pan slightly, lifting cooked eggs so that uncooked portion can flow underneath and cook. When mixture seems barely set, sprinkle about two tablespoons coarsely crumbled American blue cheese in center, then fold or roll omelet. Serve at once.

Modern Israel Has Trouble 'Living Up' To Uris' Book

BY INEZ ROBB

TEL AVIV. — A sore problem here is how in the midst of growing prosperity, ease and industrialization shall it live up to the ideal of heroism, privation and hardship created by Leon Uris in his book "Exodus" and furthered by the movie.

This problem and the alarming prospect of disappointing tourists who expect to see every Israeli packing a gun and dressed in homespun is examined in a light-hearted column by an unidentified writer for the Jerusalem Post who journeyed to Tel Aviv to inspect the new Sheraton-Tel Aviv Hotel. This is a splendid $4,000,000 American-Israeli venture on the shores of the Mediterranean, where every prospect pleases and even man seems improved.

It is fairly ethical to steal from another newspaper, so I shall borrow a paragraph from the Jerusalem Post on the Exodist problem from the Jerusalem Post.

"The Sheraton Hotel is large," the article begins. "There is plenty of space for people to sit about, both where everybody will see them and in corners where they won't be bothered even if they are well-known."

"The hotel also says its services will be good. That is all one can reasonably ask, and if we feel at home here then the tourists who have been reading 'Exodus' will be most disappointed."

"This is R. of course," the story continues. "And not too many of us make enough effort to live up to Exodus well."

"Exodus has laid a heavy responsibility on Israelis. There is even discontent among the guides here in the Holy Land. Tourists no longer ask to see the great Biblical sites that attracted tourist for thousands of years and for which they risked their lives in arduous journeys and in long wars.

"Now they fly in by El Al jets," a friend explained to me, "and I have the car all gassed up to take them to Nazareth or Jerusalem or even from Dan to Beer-sheva. But they say take us out to that place where 'Exodus' was filmed."

To be honest, "Exodus" has set a standard not too difficult to

Women Have Secret Of Longevity

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Well, boys, I've learned the secret of longevity.

If you want to live longer, here's the real inside tip. Treat yourself as a woman does herself with respect and confidence.

Many men in this world kill themselves through boredom. Very few women do.

The difference is that men find themselves less exciting to themselves than women do to themselves.

A woman enjoys an endless fascination in paying attention to herself. She physically and mentally enjoys spending hours fixing her toenails and her fingernails, in making rubber-mouth faces at herself in the mirror, as she adjusts her lipstick or trims an errant eyebrow.

She stares into that mirror and what she sees is not a homely lump of feminine misfortune, a girde-fry lump of womanhood, but a radiant and ravishing Cinderella, eager to be recognized by a rich prince.

She has the art of kidding herself. She sees herself not as she is, but as she dreams herself to be.

It is this art that separates the girls from the boys. The pity that kind-hearted men feel toward a homely girl is largely wasted. The homelier a woman is the more arrogant sometimes is her assumption that she has a special and individual kind of appeal that stamps her apart.

If her nose be long and her legs be skinny, she consoles herself with the idea her bust is remarkable or her hair has a ruinous beauty.

It is this ability to kid themselves that makes many women able to outlive most men.

The daily need of shaving is what destroys a lot of men in their prime. They look in the mirror with a terrible sense of masculine honesty.

"Don't tell me that pot-bellied, bald monstrosity I see before me is the real me! Oh, no, no, no, a homely girl is largely wasted. The homelier a woman is the more arrogant sometimes is her assumption that she has a special and individual kind of appeal that stamps her apart."

There is something touching and truly terrifying to someone like myself, who has never lived in danger of his life, to walk along the street these warm, sunny days and see on the bare arms of men and women the tattooed numbers of the concentration camp. One can only thank God that these men and women are smiling and animated and that they can laugh at themselves. Because tourists may be disappointed that the Exodist days are fading and that some of the pioneering hardships are ending.

I went to charity ball in the Sheraton-Tel Aviv the other night and it might have been a similar soiree in the ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria. Shades of Exodist! Still they can laugh at themselves. The Jerusalem Post, after noting that the new hotel is the first in this country to provide good linen, silver cutlery, and handsome china for its tables together with comfortable chairs, concludes, "but that is part of American hotel-keeping, not of Exodist, where nobody had time to eat with anything but his fingers."

It may be a blow to Exodist partisans, but in Israel today forks definitely come before fingers.

Moreland Blanks Bulldogs, 6-0

Moffett, Dyer Carry Big Sticks In Win

By Jerry Jackson

Right-hander Keith Moreland, who serves 'em up with a highly effective overhead cranking motion, set the Plainview Bulldogs down on three scattered singles here yesterday to lead Snyder's Tigers 4, a 6-0 repeat win over the visitors.

Meanwhile, the Tigers led at left-hander Austin Wilborn with a quick and deadly vengeance, pounding him for seven base hits and all six runs in the first two stormy frames. They warmed up to the occasion with a pair of markers in the first frame, then snowballed to four big ones in the second to win with ease.

Masterful Moreland was in charge of the situation throughout, and allowed only one base runner to get as far as third over the course of the contest. Ronnie Ragland, the first man to face him in the game, greeted him with a looping single just over first baseman Bennie Greenfield's outstretched mitt, but eventually died on second after advancing per fielder's choice.

George Ragle lined a single to left in the fourth and Novice Nicholson a comparable blow in the dying-gasp seventh for the other two Bulldog safeties. Nicholson was cut down on a snappy game-ending double play, however, as Tiger third sacker Spencer Dyer raced to his left to scoop up a Ragle grounder, flipped to Bubba Fleming at second to nail Nicholson, then over to Kenny Welborn at first to put the wrappers on the contest.

It looked as though the Snyder nine would make it a complete and total rout early in the game, but Winter settled down in the latter innings to allow the Bengals only two singles over the last four innings of play. Also, the Bengal bench took over in the third, with reserves manning many of the positions and playing credible ball in the process.

Mike Moffett beat out a bunt to start the over half of the first, then proceeded to piffle second. Steve Free went down swinging, after which Fleming sent a bouncer to Bulldog shortstop Ragland, who threw wild to first, with Moffett taking third on the bounce and Fleming holding second because Fleming's via steal, though, and both tripped home as Dyer laced a screamer to left for the final bit of the inning.

Eight Tigers took their licks in the rousing second frame, in which no less than five base hits were landed. Ronnie Wyle led things off by singling to center, after which Weldon Ware scattered a grasscutter to deep second which Andy Taylor could only knock down and was unable to field, Freddy Miller, who was in to run for Wyle holding at second, Moreland laid down a sacrifice bunt to advance both runners, who came in easily when Moffett lofted a deep fly to center which dropped in for a two-baser.

Free next singled to center, scoring Moffett and taking second on the throw to the plate. Dyer followed up by doubling down the left field line to platter Free with what proved to be the final run of the game.

Snyder threatened seriously in the third following a walk to Greenfield and a single as pushed to short right by Bob Smith which stirred up the baseline chalk. They were both eventually left stranded on second and third, however.

Moffett and Dyer were the leading Bengal stickmen with a double and single in two appearances for each. Free singled twice in four trips, also.

The victory elevated up the local record at 6-6 for the year, and gave Moreland a 1-0 mound mark. The Tigers take a trek to Lubbock tomorrow for a twin bill against Lubbock High beginning at 1 o'clock. In the only previous meeting between the two teams the Lubbockites took a narrow 3-2 decision.

Tomorrow's action will help to serve as another prep for the district meet, which is to be held in Sweetwater April 8. Prior to that the Bengal thinclads will be in San Angelo March 31-April 1 for the meet being held off there on those dates.

To date the Stehley men have enjoyed a large amount of early season success, with a second place finish in the Border Olympics and third placings in the Comanche and Canyon Reef Relays being to their credit.

Buckies Fly High; Now In Semifinals

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Ohio State's mighty Buckeyes enter the semi-final stage of their quest for a second straight National Ball crown in a game with the capable St. Joseph's (Pa) Hawks tonight.

The odds — 14 points — point to success for All-America Jerry Lucas and the defending champion Buckeyes, who carry a 31-game winning streak and their No. 1 national ranking into the fray.

The second semifinal matches the second-ranked Cincinnati Bearcats (25-3) against the Utah

Redmen (23-6).
If Ohio State and Cincinnati, which is a 6-point favorite, live up to their billing, Saturday night's finals will be the first of the NCAA's 23 basketball tournaments matching two teams from one state.

Cincinnati and Ohio State haven't met in basketball since 1922.
Municipal Auditorium's 10,500-seat arena has been sold out for weeks. The championship game will be televised locally and by a number of stations in the areas from which the finalists come.

Indians Searching For More Scalps

ABILENE — With two major track victories already under their belts this season, McMurry College Indians will fight it out with East Texas State, probably their arch rival in track for the past two seasons, Saturday in Commerce.

McMurry and East Texas State will climax the giant East Texas Relays with a dual college meet Saturday night.

The Indians from Abilene have won the college division in both the Southwestern Recreation Meet and the West Texas Relays this season. At Odessa, McMurry bested East Texas, 70 points to 66, in the team totals. The Indians were third in the Border Olympics and at Southwestern Recreation, McMurry was first with 54 and East Texas was second with 454.

So the Lions will be trying to derail the Redskin Express on the home track Saturday.

Individually, several McMurry performers stand out.
Sophomore Bill Miller, second in the NAIA last year, in the broad jump, has won two broad jump events this season—Border Olympics in 23-9 3/4 and West Texas Relays in 23-2, and won the 100-yard dash at Odessa.

Tracy Byrd, senior from Brady, won both the shot put and javelin at West Texas Relays, 81-8 3/4 and 199-6 3/4. The javelin mark is a new school record.

John Dale Lewis, junior from Coleman, was named outstanding athlete at Southwestern Recreation, setting a new record in the 200 there (2:15) and winning the 100 to tie a record (9.6). He was second in the 100 at Odessa.

McMurry's sprint relay team of Lewis, Miller, Mike Stell, and Bruce Land has won two meets, Southwestern Recreation (41.4 for new record) and West Texas Relays (41.5) and set a new school mark of 41.4 in the Border Olympics.

The mile relay team was first last week at Odessa, setting a new record with a 3:15.8 clocking. At Laredo, the team was second in 3:15.0, and set a new school record. Members are Paul Rankin, Jimmy Drake, Bill Blythe, and Gus Umphress.

Bud Morgan, sophomore from Snyder, has won the low hurdles at Fort Worth and at Laredo and tied a Border Olympics record in 23.4.

Disappointed, Not Whipped

BOSTON (AP) — "I'm very disappointed, but I'm not discouraged," Syracuse Coach Alex Hannum said after his Nat's 133-110 defeat by the Boston Celtics.

"We got beat by the great Celtics," Hannum said. "What else can you say."
The Celtics victory Thursday night gave them a 2-1 lead in the best-of-seven Eastern Division National Basketball Association playoff. The series switches to Syracuse Saturday afternoon for a nationally televised (NBC) game.

Travis Girls Divide Pair At Big Spring
BIG SPRING (Special)—The Travis Junior High volleyball girls stormed to a 50-30 win here last night over Rummels, as Nancy Merritt showed the way with a 12-point service to her credit.

Prior to that game the Rummels girls managed to turn the tables on the Snyder "six" in a "B" contest by a 50-34 tab. Mary Waters, with 10 points, topped the losing effort in that one.

The next action for the Travis girls will be Tuesday, when they travel to Roscoe for a pair of clashes beginning at 4:30 p. m.

Dapper Don Blacks Out; Causes Stir

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Don Meredith, the football star, caused considerable excitement last night, it wasn't his idea but when he collapsed in a faint while making a speech at a fraternity meeting, the wires got hot.

Tex Schramm, general manager of the Dallas Cowboys for whom Meredith quarterbacked, checked with Brackenridge Hospital here as soon as he got the news in Dallas.

Schramm, whose club has quite a stake in Meredith, was relieved to hear from Don that he was all right, that he had apparently been a heat victim. "I got dizzy," said Meredith, "and they brought me to the hospital."

Meredith, the 22-year-old former Southern Methodist passing ace, was addressing a meeting of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity when he collapsed. He soon regained consciousness but wouldn't talk to the press immediately.

The mile relay team was first last week at Odessa, setting a new record with a 3:15.8 clocking. At Laredo, the team was second in 3:15.0, and set a new school record. Members are Paul Rankin, Jimmy Drake, Bill Blythe, and Gus Umphress.

Bud Morgan, sophomore from Snyder, has won the low hurdles at Fort Worth and at Laredo and tied a Border Olympics record in 23.4.

Carley Top Man At Alice High School
ALICE, Tex. (AP)—Ken Carley has been named head coach and athletic director of Alice High School to take the place of Theo Rigby.

Carley has been assistant coach eight years after coaching at Fort Stockton and pitching for Fort Worth in the Texas League.

Rigby has been named head coach and athletic director at Richland High School in Fort Worth.

Local Junior Hi Trackmen To Compete
Tomorrow will see both Travis and Lamar Junior High Schools competing in the meet-13 ninth graders, 14 from the eighth, and 11 yearlings. Travis member Bill Harfield will field approximately 45 combatants from that school.

Preliminaries are set to begin at 9 tomorrow morning, and the final event of the day has a time of 4:40 p. m.

District Tilt Set Tonight; Queens Invade

Snyder's Tigerette volleyball girls will be fighting a battle of survival here tonight in Tiger Gym when they entertain the rugged Lamesa Queens in a District 3-A family fray.

The Queens are unbeaten in conference play after three outings, their most recent conquest being Tuesday's 32-18 downing of the Snyder girls. A Lamesa victory tonight would virtually eliminate the Tigerettes and the remainder of the district contenders from the title picture. A win for the locals, on the other hand, would tend to throw the race into a merry winner-take-all scramble.

For the season the Tigerettes are 8-2, having dropped a non-district decision to Plainview in addition to the Lamesa loss.

Tonight's important clash has a starting time of 7:30, and will be preceded by a "B" game matching teams of the two schools as set for 6:30. The Tigerette "B" is 4-2 for the campaign, and was felled by the Lamesas 19-30, in Tuesday's preliminary bout.

Basin Crude Price Hiked

HOUSTON (AP)—The purchase price paid for sour crude oil from the Permian Basin area of southeastern New Mexico and West Texas was boosted six cents a barrel Thursday by the Gulf Oil Corp.

The firm announced it expects to buy 132,000 barrels a day in the area during April.

The upward adjustment to $3.01 a barrel was effective at 7 a. m. today. The old price was $2.95.

The new price applies to 40 to 44.9 degree gravity crude and carries a two-cent downward differential for each degree below 40 gravity and each degree above 44.9. The old differential was three cents.

Gulf said the hike resulted from a comprehensive analysis of the value of products realized from the various crude oils processed by the company.

Name Suggested For Use In The Future

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A seminary instructor asked the class to suggest new names to replace the title Southern Baptist Convention.

One student offered this one: The Solar Baptist Convention. He explained: "This name would allow the Baptists to expand throughout the solar system. It would certainly indicate to earthlings that the Baptists are thinking ahead."

Plea Is Made To Retain Old Hymns

By GEORGE W. CORNELL, AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Come, a voice from the hinterland protest the moves by church music specialists to eliminate the old gospel songs from the hymnbooks.

The process has been going on for some time now in various denominations.

With a commission now working to revise the Methodist hymnbook, the Rev. Roy Delamotte, a circuit pastor in Kentucky and Tennessee has unleashed a plea for preserving the simple gospel numbers.

"While music may be a matter of principle with the classes it's a matter of taste with the masses," he writes in the current issue of the church magazine Christian Advocate.

Most denominational hymnbooks already have dropped many gospel songs, such as "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Bringing in the Sheaves," and substituted more classical hymns many based on medieval chants and chorales.

The Rev. Mr. Delamotte, a young minister who holds a Ph.D. from Yale, maintains that while gospel songs may not be musically the best, ordinary people sing them with relish, and that's better than "a resplendent silence."

"If a devout Methodist gets a bang out of belting out 'In the Sweet Bye and Bye,' I for one will not object," he writes.

Piracy still flourishes in the China Sea. The pirates operate in motorized, armor-plated junks.

He says the hymn preferences of common folk needs to be recognized "if we still have hopes of preventing our once dynamic denomination from being strangled forever in a white collar."

The Rev. Mr. Delamotte pastor of the Louisville Ky.-Mentor Tenn. Methodist circuit adds: "I fully expect that in our next hymnbook the conscientious masters of music will have dutifully snipped the last tenuous ties that bound the heartstrings of the common man to Methodism—our gospel songs and hymns."

Strawberry Season Is Near Peak

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The strawberry season is nearing its peak and prices are noticeably lower this week. Substantial shipments from South Texas will be supplemented by berries from Louisiana and other states.

Shipments of fresh English peas from California and Mexico are increasing for the Easter trade, reports the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Pricewise, turkeys stand out as a good bet for Easter dinner. Supplies are plentiful. There is plenty of cranberries, too.

Red meats of all kinds, milk and dairy foods, eggs, peanut products and dry beans are other excellent protein foods in excellent supply.

Texas grapefruit and oranges remain on this week's best-seller list. Volume continues good. Lemons and bananas are in good supply. Several apple varieties are still priced modestly. Red delicious apples turned lower.

Among vegetables, look for an abundance of spring greens—even some poke salad from South Texas showed up at some stores this week. Supplies of green onions, cabbage, carrots and lettuce are substantial.

There is a burdensome supply of old-crop onions in some northern areas. Prices are extremely low but you'll want to check quality. New onions from Texas, lower in value, are being shipped. Potatoes, turnips and rutabagas remain economical.

Wholesale prices on cabbage, carrots and lemons rose slightly this week. Also higher are yellow squash, eggplant and tomatoes. Still fairly high but lower than last week are asparagus, and Florida corn and cucumbers. Volume of cantaloups and watermelons is increasing at lower prices. The good supply of emerald grapes has resulted in lower price tags.

POWER that sustains may be found thru regular church attendance

To VICTORY

...that is the cry of the multitude. Today we join the happy throngs around the earth as we shout together, "Hosanna" Whatever the morrow may hold of suffering, today we declare to the world... "Christ has come." Because we are in His company, we know that God ultimately will be sovereign over all the world. We are confident that goodness is stronger than evil. We are sure love will triumph over hate. Whatever a Friday of crucifixion may bring of temporary defeat, we know life will triumph over death, and the Christian way will resolve itself supremely in the final destiny. Then Palm Sunday is a day to celebrate and set up our banner of hope. "For right is right as God is and right the day must win." This hope will convert, for us, spiritual defeat into eternal victory.
