Aliens Finding Schools

DALLAS, AP—Illegal alien children being into Texas schools are taking advantage of an elusive...

ened their doors to undocumented children Friday and ended the last major challenge to a Supreme Court justice's decision clearing the way for alien children to enroll...

struck down a Texas law prohibiting the use of state funds to educate illegal alien children.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals stayed Seals' order in August, but Supreme Court Justice Lewis Powell set aside the...

stay Tuesday and left the original order intact.

Texas has appealed Seals' ruling, but Powell's order requires Texas schools to admit the children until the courts can resolve the issue.

The Justice Department is in charge of immigration laws and its failure to enforce those laws has resulted in these people being here in the first place, Texas Attorney General Mark White said.

Now they're asking us to make up for their failure, he added.

The burden for educating undocumented children should not fall on the state.

If the federal government wants the illegal alien children educated, it should be ready to pay the costs, White said.

Texas Lt. Gov. Billy Hobby said he doubts the Texas Legislature will provide financial aid to Texas school districts troubled by an influx of undocumented children.

And beleaguered educators worry that the flow of new students will dilute the quality of teaching by overburdening teachers and crowding Texas classrooms.

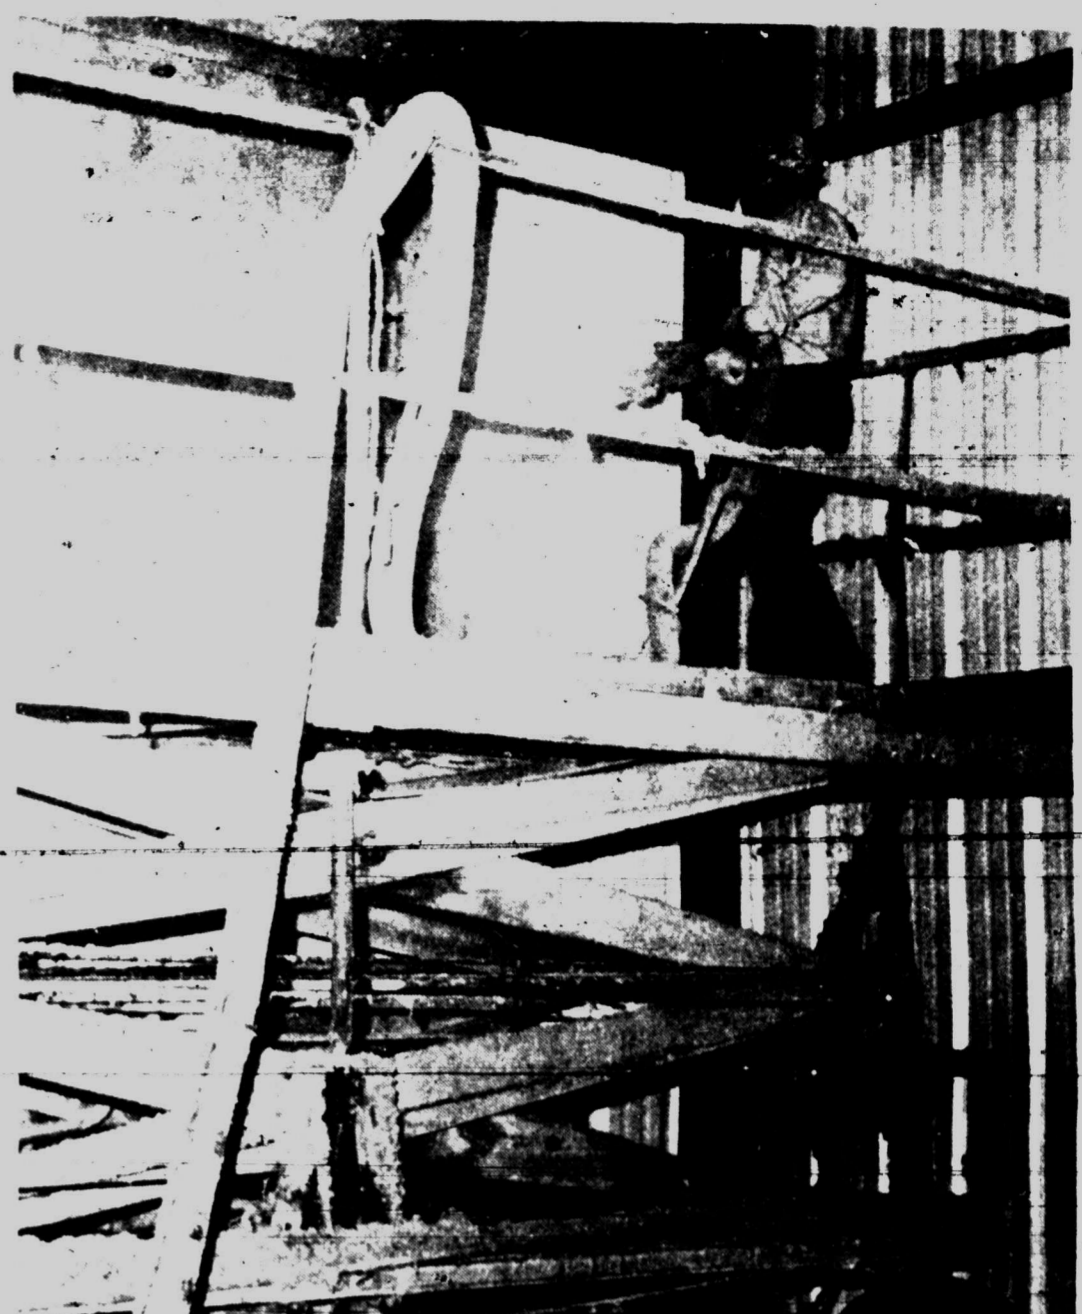

This is really going to put us in a bind as far as teachers and space are concerned, Brownsville School Superintendent Raul Besterro said. I have mixed emotions about this. I don't want to hurt the kids, but I don't want to hurt my educational system components either.

School officials complain they'll have to hire more teachers to set up bilingual programs for the mostly Spanish-speaking children.

Hobby predicted districts that increase bilingual education programs would be eligible for more state funds but warned that the Legislature was not going to earmark money for districts with large alien enrollments.

Immigration is a federal responsibility and federal aid should be here to help educate the undocumented children, he said.

Some cities, such as San Antonio, have accepted aliens into their school systems as a matter of course because of their large Mexican American populations. They required that students be residents of their school districts, but didn't require American citizenship.

WASHINGTON, AP—The Agriculture Department says the number of cattle being fed for slaughter in feedlot states on Sept. 1 totaled 7.9 million head, up 3 percent from a year ago.

Tax Equalization Session Finished

HOUSTON, AP—The publication of the maximum tax rate for each taxing entity. The governing bodies of the entities are required to hold hearings and vote on the tax rates. In cases where tax levies will increase by three percent or more over last year, they must meet to declare their intent to increase taxes, then hold another session to formally vote to raise taxes. When these sessions are completed, tax rates may be set at the next regular meetings of the boards, councils or commissions. Thus no tax rates can be set until the October regular meetings of the governing bodies of the entities.

33 Feared Killed In Freeport Plane Crash

FREEPORT, Bahamas, AP—A chartered DC-3 plunged into the Atlantic Ocean in a driving rain storm moments after it was cleared for an instrument landing here. Officials said none of the 30 passengers or crew of three was thought to have survived.

By early Saturday 11 bodies had been recovered, and Coast Guard helicopters, a cutter and the Bahamian Search and Rescue Squad were searching the choppy seas amid a heavy squall.

esman Jack Barker in Atlanta. The passengers reboarded the plane, and the flight left for the 70 mile trip at 8:20 p.m., 20 minutes behind schedule. The pilot had not reported any trouble prior to the crash, 20 miles west of here, the Coast Guard said. Cmdr. Jim Sutherland of the Coast Guard's Miami air station said the DC-3 stopped into the ocean at 9:05 a.m. EDT Friday. "It was making an instrument approach, and the Freeport tower cleared, but the plane never showed up," he said. The tanker Ralph B. (See Crash, Page 10A)

Those aboard were thought to be Americans on a "junket flight" from Palm Beach, Fla., to the Bahamas for a gambling trip, Freeport authorities said.

Wreckage from the plane, a life raft and 12 bodies were spotted in the water Friday, about 50 miles east of West Palm Beach, said Coast Guard Petty Officer 1st class Carlos Martinez.

The SDN Column

Roger Staubach, the retired quarterback of "America's football team" (the Dallas Cowboys) is the avowed choice of a group seeking a candidate for the U.S. Senate in 1992.

Our first thought was that they were merely using Staubach's name to attract attention. After all, how does a career in professional football qualify anyone for one of the highest political offices in the land?

But on second thought, it is not a far-fetched idea. Look at Jack Kemp. He earned a living and then some for several years throwing passes and dodging blitzing linebackers before retiring into the law-making business in Washington, D.C. He even got some consideration as a possible running mate for Ronald Reagan during the Republican convention.

And, if you want to take the long way around, many professional athletes have moved into the entertainment field, and everybody knows that entertainers are just politicians waiting for a call to get into the race, like Reagan himself.

Ask Us Q: How long does it take Texas Electric to replace a burned out street light? Who pays for the maintenance? A: The service crews can normally replace a light within one or two days, and sometimes on the very day the report is received, said Henry Clark, local manager for Texas Electric. Clark added that Texas Electric pays for maintenance.

Why don't actors stick to acting and athletes stick to their games? That is a question you still hear occasionally. Well, it is fairly well established now that when actors are past their prime on the stage and in front of the cameras, they still have some expertise in reserve. And it is firmly established that not all star athletes have the knack of making it in management and/or coaching after their playing days are over. The best player in the business may not be able to teach or coach a lick. Consider the problems Bart Starr as having at Green Bay, and the total lack of success Jim Shotner had coaching at TCU. But guys like Alex Karras, Dandy Don Meredith and Joe Namath seem to be making it big as actors, and they say Jim Brown has done as well as an entertainer as he did for the Cleveland Browns. So, who is to say what qualifies a person to become a politician? Perhaps it would be an improvement if more of the athletes did go into politics. It might reduce the number masquerading as television commentators.

Sign Language Course Popular At WTC For Various Reasons

Registration for a sign language course at Western Texas College Thursday night was an unusual experience.

Each of the 18 persons who enrolled has a special reason for wanting to be able to communicate effectively with the deaf and they explained their reasons when the teacher, Ellen Rumpff, asked them to introduce themselves.

The class members represent a cross-section of the community. Some have deaf children or relatives and feel that by being able to communicate through signing they can help open new avenues of communication and learning. Some are business and professional people who feel they can work more easily with the deaf if they can communicate better.

Mrs. Rumpff is thrilled to have the class underway. She has had a strong desire to help improve communication with deaf individuals for several years, and studied at the Collier Hearing and Speech Center in Dallas with the hope that she could someday serve as a teacher for others who shared this wish. She did have the opportunity to do some teaching while living in Abilene.

The course which started Thursday is the first to be offered at WTC, and it is a beginning course. An intermediate course can be scheduled in the spring if there is sufficient interest. Sign language (officially titled Manual Communication) is an Adult Vocational Education (AVE) course. These courses do not carry college credit and students are not required to have a high school diploma or a GED. Persons who would like to have information about any AVE courses on the schedule are invited to call the Continuing Education office at 573-8511, extension 240. The college is always interested in hearing from the public about courses which would be useful to them in their work or hobbies. The scheduling of the sign language course came about largely because of Mrs. Rumpff's interest and because there had been some inquiries over a period of time about the possibilities of the college arranging the course.

Other AVE courses which have been offered at WTC include bookkeeping, welding, small engine repair, floral design and farm and ranch records.

Community residents interested in working with the production are invited to contact Jim Rambo at 573-8511, extension 233, for further information.

Welfare Workers Indicted For Failing To Take Abused Child

EL PASO (AP) - Welfare workers who decided that 14-month-old Angelica Priego should be allowed to remain at home even after she was scalded now face felony charges of criminal neglect in the first case of its kind ever filed in Texas. The little girl died June 23, nine months after the scalding incident brought in Department of Human Resources caseworkers. Her mother has been charged with the actual abuse. But Charles Gembinski Jr., director of child welfare, Kay Helton, a child welfare supervisor, and Ophelia Tse, a caseworker under Helton, were accused of neglect for failing to remove the baby from her parents in time. They were arraigned Friday and released on personal recognition bonds. Assistant District Attorney William Moody said it was the first criminal neglect case in Texas ever brought against welfare workers. The charge is a felony punishable by up to 10 years in prison and a fine of $5,000. Welfare workers were assigned to the case after the child was hospitalized in September 1979 with scalded buttocks. Prosecutors filed child abuse charges against the girl's mother at the time, but they were later dropped. The welfare workers decided to allow the little girl to remain with her parents, and she died on June 23. Medical Examiner Juan Contin said at the time of her death the little girl had bruises on her head, chest and abdomen. Her mother, Virginia Priego, 21, told police the baby suffocated under a blanket. The indictments against the welfare workers say the trio failed to relocate the little girl from her home when the removal was needed to protect her from serious physical injury. Welfare officials declined to reveal specifically why Angelica was allowed to remain at home after the scalding incident. "In general, we make every effort to keep families together," said Bernard Lopez, regional director for child and family services. In Austin, welfare Commissioner Marlin Johnston said, "Our investigation leaves us unconvinced of improper action on the part of staff workers involved."

Woman Held In Stabbing

A 15-year-old boy was stabbed once in the stomach as the result of an altercation early Saturday morning. Injured, reported police, was Jesse Delao. A hospital spokesman said late Saturday morning Delao was in surgery but was otherwise in stable condition. The knifing occurred about 3:30 a.m. at a residence in the 600 block of Ave. T. A 24-year-old woman was taken into custody in connection with the incident, but charges are pending, reported police. The knifing was investigated by Sgt. Wade Norris and Robert Harbin. Friday, two traffic accidents were worked. One occurred about 9:25 a.m. in the 2400 block of Ave. Q and involved a 1970 Nova driven by Elvie Blacklock and a 1979 Chevrolet driven by Jerry Paige. The accident was worked by Kerry Fritz. Officer Don Cheek worked a two-car collision at 5:15 p.m. in the 500 block of East Highway. In that accident, a 1974 Oldsmobile driven by Jewell L. Wimberly was in collision with a 1979 Chevrolet driven by Sahala E. Davis.

FERTILIZE LAWNS NOW. Fertilizing lawns now will boost fall growth and get them in shape for next spring. A fall application of fertilizer prolongs green color in lawns and also stimulates root growth, reduces winter injury and promotes early spring recovery. Fall fertilization also increases turf density and reduces weeds. Warm fall days and cool nights provide conditions favorable for grass to accumulate carbohydrates that promote root growth and help the grass survive winter months. Leaf growth is also less during the shorter fall days. You need to apply a fertilizer high in nitrogen and potassium and low in phosphorus. Both nitrogen and potassium are important to leaf growth and color and root growth. Potassium is also important to winter survival, disease resistance and drought tolerance. While phosphorus is essential, it is required in much lesser amounts than the other nutrients. Use fertilizer such as 15-5-10-12-4-8 or similar analysis for the fall application. Base the rate of application on the nitrogen content, the first number in the fertilizer analysis. Apply 1 to 2 pounds of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of lawn. So, with a 12-4-8 fertilizer, use 10 to 13 pounds per 1,000 square feet, depending on when the last fertilizer application was made. If the lawn has not been fertilized for the past three months or longer, use the higher rate. Lawns can be fertilized through October in most areas of the state.

For the homeowner interested in an attractive lawn this fall and early recovery next spring, fall fertilization is a must. SMALL GRAINS NEED FALL NITROGEN. Applying nitrogen for small grains this fall will be important. Four important reasons why wheat and other small grains need nitrogen at planting or a short time afterwards are: -aid in development of good root system. -for early grazing. -to hasten decomposition of excess residual straw, and -for high production of forage and grain. Sufficient fall growth for early grazing cannot be expected without adequate nitrogen at planting. The advantages of early planting and favorable fall growing conditions can be lost if nitrogen fertilization is delayed until the condition of the stand can be determined. Establishing a good uniform stand requires nitrogen, and most soils are deficient in this nutrient. To meet nitrogen requirements during the fall growing period, producers can apply the total requirement before planting on heavy textured soils. Of course, fall nitrogen fertilization is also affected by the amount of straw from the previous crop. The bacteria and other microorganisms needed to decompose the straw require nitrogen and can use that already in the soil as well as that applied, thus reducing the amount available during the fall. The general rule in applying nitrogen has been to increase the rate about 20 pounds per acre for each ton of undecomposed straw. However, a portion of this nitrogen is recovered during the final stages of decomposition so that as much as half of this may be available during the spring months. With the shortage of hay and roughage for livestock, good winter grazing will be very important this fall and winter.

Says Sen. Tower...

Farmers Hampered By 'Stupid Regulations'

By SOLL SUSSMAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—
Sen. John Tower says "stupid regulations" are hampering the efforts of the nation's farmers to produce and to profit.

The government bureaucracy is rife with regulations which handicap the farmer in this quest to feed America and the rest of the world," the Texas Republican said in a speech prepared for delivery Saturday.

Tower was scheduled to speak at the annual Great Gobbler Gallop which determines whether Cuero, Texas, or Worthington, Minn., has the fastest turkey. Both towns claim the title, "Turkey Capital of the World."

This year's race is scheduled in Worthington.

Tower blamed the nation's agricultural problems during the four years of the Carter administration on "misguided federal policy, stupid regulations and an ill-conceived grain embargo that has punished our farmers more than the Russians."

He contended that Democrats have a "naive faith" in the government's ability to take care of all problems, usually by issuing regulations.

"It is this philosophy that has pushed the farmer to the brink of disaster, because big government means big problems," the senator said.

The senator said the effect of the partial embargo President Carter declared after the Soviet Union intervened in Afghanistan was to deprive the average Russian of two hamburgers a month.

"It is a sad fact that our military strength relative to the Soviet Union has deteriorated to an alarming degree. But surely we aren't reduced to the point where the only weapon we have is a hamburger," he said.

Tower added the president to the list of disasters farmers have faced during the past four years.

"Coping with natural disasters is one of the occupational hazards of farming. But for the past four years, the American farmer has had to cope with an unnatural disaster—Jimmy Carter," the senator said.

Tower aide Linda Hill said local Republicans were taking care of expenses for the trip.

The Texas senator and Sen. David Durenberger, R-Minn., have bet a turkey on the outcome of the race.

Ruby Begonia of Cuero and Paycheck of Worthington are the competitors for the seventh consecutive year.

Snyder-Midland Vie In Tough Defensive Game, But... Rebels Wind Up On Top, 17-7

By Bill McClellan
Snyder High School came out on the losing side of a 17-7 defensive battle against Midland Lee here Friday night, the Tigers' final warmup match before District 2-AAAA competition.
The loss leaves the locals with an 0-2 mark heading into conference play and their first road game of the season, 8 p.m. Sept. 19 at Sweetwater.
Despite the 10-point victory, Friday's game here was a close one in all respects. Lee couldn't afford to breathe easy until late in the final period, when the Tigers simply ran out of time.

Lee gained 192 total yards for the night, while Snyder chomped 184. Defensively, both teams played hard. Big offensive plays figured in the outcome however, as Midland managed 112 of its total yards on just four plays, including 46 on one touchdown run. Snyder gathered its lone TD on a 35-yard pass.
Midland cashed in on its third possession of the night, instituted when Terry Thompson intercepted a Mike Roemisch pass on the Tiger 29-yard line. Quarterback Barry Corley turned disaster into a gold mine on the next play when he scampered from the clutches of Snyder's Tony Degrafe and Oscar Hernandez and picked his way 20 yards to the 9. Running back Rodney Hemphill ripped for four yards on the next play, but the Rebels were flagged for illegal motion on second down and pushed back to the 10-yard line.

Hemphill made up for the mild setback, however as he took Corley's pitchout and sprinted the distance to the right corner of the end zone with 11:14 showing in the second quarter. Van Gravitt tacked up the extra point.
Snyder reached the Midland Lee 27 and 33 in the first half, but big-play defense by the Rebels, especially by Irl Cahally and Clyde Smith, ended the threats on both occasions.
The Tigers did tie the Rebels on their first possession of the third quarter. Tight end Jason Johnston set Snyder in motion with a fumble recovery at the Lee 46-yard line.
A first-and-10 pass play by backup quarterback Tracy Loyola - after a pitchout from Roemisch - failed to find a receiver on first down and fullback Perry Echols gained only a yard on second, but Snyder found the right connection on third. Roemisch, who opened the night with a zero-for-six passing game, located Glenn Parham racing down the sidelines with his defender lagging behind. He arced a toss to the sophomore, who cradled it in and raced the final 10 yards untouched for Snyder's third touchdown of the season. Parham also added the conversion kick.
Midland Lee retaliated by building a 76-yard scoring drive, aided by two key Tiger penalties. The march began at the Lee 20, but quickly advanced to the 34 when Snyder was flagged for pass interference. Quarterback Corley lost four yards and regained three back on the next two efforts. His third down pass fell incomplete, and Lee was forced to punt. Luck was with the Rebels when a pair of Tigers crashed into the Lee punter however, and Midland was set in motion again with a first down at its own 48-yard line.
Snyder held the visitors to no gain on first and second downs of the rejuvenated drive, but Hemphill broke loose for an 18-yard gainer on third down. Corley then found receiver Kenneth Brown on a 26-yard pass to the Tiger 5-yard line.
Corley, Calvin Riggs and Hemphill each took a turn at taking the ball over the end line, but Snyder's defenders held them out. The third down effort was almost identical to Hemphill's scoring run of the second quarter, but this time Matt Taggart, Neil Evans and Loyola were waiting on him and pushed him back.
A delay of game penalty backed the ball to the 10 yard line, and Gravitt set up his accurate field goal attempt from the 15 with 4:12 left in the third period.
Lee's last score came in the second play of the final period.
Riggs broke two tackles that would have held him for no gain as he snipped through the Tiger line and raced 46 yards to the TD zone. Gravitt put up the extra point with 11:14 still showing on the clock.
The touchdown fired Snyder into its best offensive showing of the night. The Roemisch-engineered march took the Tigers from their own 10 to the Lee 32 before a fourth down pass fell incomplete. Roemisch ran for gains of 10 and 12 yards on the drive, and passed complete to Parham for another 34 yards.
Field position hampered the locals in most of the fourth quarter. Twice, Snyder kick receivers were whistled for catching the ball with a knee on the ground. In both cases it meant over 15 yards of real estate suddenly vanished.
Midland's only other scoring threat came with less than three minutes left in the game when Snyder punted out of its end zone to the 36-yard line. Lee lost six yards on the first play and gained zero on the second, but Hemphill scampered 20 to the Tiger 22 on third down. A two-yard pickup and a penalty put the ball on the 10, but Taggart recovered a Lee fumble on the next play to kill the drive.

2-AAAA Goes 4-5 In Second Week

District 2-AAAA teams posted a dismal 4-5 record in its second week of outside competition Friday, giving the conference an overall 9-8-1 mark heading into loop battles next week.
Fort Stockton evened its record at 1-1 by nipping Alpine 8-7, while Monahans also got on the winning column with a 46-0 blasting of Crane. Andrews and Pecos remained the only undefeated teams in the district. Andrews edged Midland High 18-14, while Pecos cut the corner on Carlsbad, N.M., 7-0.
Three teams which won last week bit the dust this time around as Lamesa fell to Brownfield, 13-6; San Angelo Lake View was ripped by Stamford 21-0 and Sweetwater bowed to Big Spring, 13-8.
Snyder remained the only twice-beaten team in the league by falling to Midland Lee, 17-7, while Odessa Ector saw its record fall to 0-1-1 with a 42-13 loss to El Paso Bel Air.
Next week's lineup calls for Lake View to be at Andrews, Lamesa to be at Fort Stockton; Pecos to be at Monahans and Snyder to be at Sweetwater. Ector will take the weekend off.

Jenkins Pleased With Team Effort

Snyder Tiger head coach Mike Jenkins was in good spirits Saturday morning, despite his team's second loss of the season, a 17-7 defeat at the hands of Midland Lee. "We played a lot better football game (than last week)," noted the coach, whose Tigers showed good defense most of the night. "Midland's defensive front seven had excellent size and were very tough. They didn't give you very much."

Offensively, Lee picked up 192 total yards on the night, but over half - 112 came on just four big plays. One, a 26-yard pass, was well defended; but Lee's Kenneth Brown made a superb effort to come down with the football.

"We thought our defense played real well. That (the big play) is a matter of inexperience. We're going to have a good defensive unit this year," the coach assured.

The Tigers were playing without two starters, veteran tailback Keith McClain and linebacker Bryan Limmer. McClain was found to have a cracked vertebrae early in the week and will be out for the season. Late Friday, it was determined that Limmer was suffering a stress fracture in the lower back and will be missing for six weeks.

"This is my 16th year to coach and I've never run across this situation (similar back injuries) once, let alone twice in one week," noted Jenkins, who said Limmer's injury was "a progressive type thing" which could be traced back several years.

HOBBS, N.M. - Western Texas College overcame a 13-stroke deficit to win the New Mexico Junior College Intercollegiate Golf Tournament in the first round of sudden death play here Friday.

Western Texas was down 283-296 after 18 holes, but shaved seven strokes on the second nine and six on the final 18 to lock with NMJC after the 54-total at 874. The Westerners then defeated the hosts on the first hole of sudden death, comparing five scores against five scores. WTC shot even par on the hole while NMJC came up two over.

Western Texas has won the tournament four times and placed second three times in its seven year history. Coach Bob O'Day noted it was the first time for WTC to come "from that far behind (16 strokes with 27 holes remaining) to win a tournament" in the 10 years he has coached golf at WTC.

Western teams also placed fourth with a 892 total, and tenth with a 928 total.

Individually for the winning team, sophomore Gary Hodge shot 70-70-70 for 210 (six under) to win medalist honors by four strokes over Odessa's

Bulldogs Outlast Stubborn Lueders

LUEDERS-Ira's Bulldogs fought through a blanket of yellow flags to pull off a 60-56 victory over Lueders-Avoca here Friday night.

The Dogs, 2-0, take on Loop next Friday. Officials tossed 35 flags for a total of 306 yards in the contest here, hitting Ira for 19 infractions and Lueders for 16.

Ira opened the game with a 24-0 lead, but saw it dwindle to 24-20 shortly before halftime. Wade Pierson scored three touchdowns and passed for two more. Scott Kesner and Robert Mitchell added two more TD's for the Dogs and James Crowder scored one touchdown, passed for another and kicked six extra points.

"We really did play good defense, though you can't tell it from the score," said Coach Tom Pierson. "We just had a few mental breakdowns and let them score in the second quarter, then hung on for life in the third and fourth quarters. It gave us a good test. Lueders has a tough team."

Ira was intercepted six times and fumbled three while Lueders built up 199 yards rushing and 250 passing. Ira had 173 rushing and 103 passing.

Coyotes Top Dawson In Defensive Battle

DAWSON -- Borden County bought its first victory of the season here Friday night, winning a defensive war against Dawson's Trojans, 22-6.

The victory sets Coach Randy Roemisch's Coyotes at 1-1 going into next week's home game with Wellman, a 30-0 victor over Hermleigh.

"We won on sheer effort," said Roemisch. "The boys played hard, they wanted this one bad." Borden County scored in the second quarter when Jym Rinehart returned a punt 15 yards, then later-ally to teammate Van York who hustled another 45 for the touchdown. Maurice Herridge tacked on the extra-points kick to make it 8-0.

Rinehart later broke loose on a 52-yard scamper for the second Coyote TD. This time the conversion failed.

Dawson garnered its lone touchdown in the second quarter when Allen Webb and Randy Server blocked a Coyote punt which was then recovered in the end zone. The conversion failed.

Borden County returned the favor in the third quarter when Herridge and Junior Benavidez blocked a Trojan punt and Mike Peterson-Jell on the football. Peterson later ran it in from a yard out.

The final score of the evening occurred in the fourth quarter as Phillip Benavidez sacked a Dawson ball carrier in the end zone for a safety.

Rinehart led the rushing game with 99 yards on eight carries. Defensively, Peterson had two interceptions and Jr. Benavidez had two fumble recoveries. Herridge was the leading tackler with nine.

Roemisch also praised his secondary of Troy King, Peterson, York and Rinehart, who have now allowed only one pass reception in 25 attempts this year.

much to go back and play the game over.

"But this is another game. All I know is that Denver has beaten Dallas only once, in the pre-season. We've never beaten them in a regular-season game, and I think it's time we did that. I don't like that kind of record."

The oddsmakers have installed Denver as a slight favorite in the game, which comes as a surprise to those who saw Dallas dismantle Washington 17-3 on Monday night and the Broncos get blitzed by Philadelphia 27-6 on Sunday.

The Cowboys were apprehensive about the 1980 season. After all, Danny White was replacing the retired Roger Staubach at quarterback, and the defense had to be rebuilt somewhat.

But there were no signs of weakness last week as the Cowboys, sticking mainly to the ground, generated 177 yards rushing and 107 passing. The defense, meanwhile, shut off Washington's ground game with just 58 yards and forced the Redskins into a desperation passing game.

Wildcats Whip Hermleigh, 30-0

WELLMAN - Wellman's Wildcats blanked Hermleigh 30-0 here Friday, giving the Cardinals their second loss of the season. Coach Clarence Spieker's Cards will look to remedy the situation next Saturday as they host Blackwell at 2 p.m. in a homecoming celebration.

Wellman got its first score on a safety with 19 seconds left in the first quarter. Hermleigh then held the Wildcats out until two minutes remained in the half when 6-5 end Doug Young caught his first of three TD receptions, this one for 35 yards.

The Cats scored again on a 40-yard toss to Young in the third quarter and a 15-yard completion to Young in the fourth. Tony Servantez got Wellman's final touchdown on an eight-yard run.

"I was more pleased this week than last week," said Coach Spieker, whose Cards were defeated 62-14 by Dawson in the opener. "Our defense on the ground did an excellent job. I felt like we were more aggressive. We just played harder."

Hurting the Cardinal cause was the fact that starting safety Dennis

Museum Luncheon Events Scheduled

Why not have lunch in the Scurry County Museum on Monday? Bring your own brown bag lunch and hear a program on Aerobics starting at 12:10. Lee Burke, Director of Health and Physical Education at Western Texas College, will be the speaker. Tea and coffee will be furnished by the museum.

If you don't have time to fix a lunch, call the museum office at 573-6107, by 11 a.m., and they will pick up a box lunch for you. You can pay for that lunch when you arrive at the museum.

Monday's luncheon program is one of a series planned through the fall in the museum in cooperation with the Scurry County Museum Association.

Persons attending do not have to be members of the Association, but anyone who would like to join is invited to do so. The Association and the museum are also sponsoring a John Wayne film series starting Sept. 22, a style show and luncheon featuring original designs by Star Shelton on Nov. 8, and a "Christmas Happening."

No reservations are necessary for the brown bag luncheons. The museum building is on the south side of the Western Texas College campus and visitors may park in the West Parking Lot adjacent to the building.

CRASH

Johnson located wreckage, and the Coast Guard cutter Cape Current spotted the bodies, Martinez said. A fixed-wing aircraft and Coast Guard helicopters also were heading for the scene of the crash.

Freeport constable Joseph Major said a Bahamian Search and Rescue Squad was at the scene of the crash. The people aboard were believed to be Americans, he said.

Another Freeport constable who declined to give his name said the plane could have been on a "junket flight" bringing passengers here for a gambling trip.

The airline early today refused to confirm the nature of the flight or who was aboard.

The U.N. General Assembly approved Dag Hammarskjöld of Sweden as secretary-general in 1953.

Miss Dozier, Nelson Marry In Andrews

ANDREWS - The Second Baptist Church was the setting for the formal wedding uniting Miss Julie Anna Dozier and Timothy Jesse Nelson at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 15. The Rev. Dale Dozier, father of the bride and pastor of the church, officiated.

Parents of the pair are the Rev. and Mrs. Dozier, Andrews, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Glendive, Mont.

The church was decorated with an archway of fresh greenery with a prayer bench centered in front, entwined with smyplex and bows. Two 15-taper spiral candelabras with a palm tree in front of each and a palm tree behind the archway completed decorations. Fresh greenery and bows marked ten pews.

The bride was attired in a formal white gown of chiffon and re-embroidered alençon lace with a lace covered bodice featuring a Queen Anne neckline and bridal pearls. Sheer, lace trimmed bishop sleeves with wide lace cuffs were enhanced with lace ruffles falling over handcovered buttons closing the cuffs. Edged with wide lace, the pleated skirt ended with a chapel train. A veil of sheer lace was held in place by a hat made of matching lace and pearls with a brim of pleats matching the dress and white rose. The bride carried a fan with a cascade of peach and turquoise roses.

For something old, new, borrowed and blue, the bride wore pearl earrings and necklace borrowed from Alma Shafer of Vincent; her wedding gown, blue flowers on her fans and a sixpence in her shoe. She also wore a garter given to her by Bonnie Crenshaw of Snyder.

The groom was attired in a white tuxedo with tails and white shirt.

Rhonda Skidmore, of Lafayette, Ind., the bride's sister, served as matron of honor and wore a turquoise gown with pleats to match the bride's gown and hat. The bridegroom's sisters, Mary Lou Nelson of Glendive, Mont. and Tracy Nelson of Lake George, N.Y., served as bridesmaids. They wore gowns and hats in peach, matching the attire of the bride.

Nieces of the bride, Valinda Dozier of Midland, and Misty Skidmore of Lafayette, Ind., served as flower girl and ring-bearer, respectively.

Craig Nelson of Lake George, N.Y., served his brother as best man and wore a silver tuxedo with a turquoise shirt. Grooms-men were Roland Aldinger and John Haase, both of Glendive, Mont. They wore silver tuxedos and peach ruffled shirts.

Danny Dozier of Midland, brother of the bride, and Mark Skidmore, the bride's brother-in-law, served as ushers.

Organist was Christy Smith of Andrews while Tim Skaggs of Midland accompanied Lou Dozier of Midland, sister-in-law of the bride, in "Follow Me," "Time in a Bottle," "Lady, My Sweet Lady," "Sunrise, Sunset," and "One hand, One heart."

Andra Conner of Snyder passed out programs while Lawanna Vincent of Snyder registered guests. Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts to a reception at the Andrews Commercial State Bank Directors Room.

The bride's table held a centerpiece of turquoise and peach colored silk flowers which carried out her chosen colors. The wedding cake was three layers over a fountain and four heart-shaped layers to the side.

The bridegroom's table held a silk flower arrangement in a saddle-shaped vase and horse-shoe cake with the groom's brand on it.

Servers for the bride's table were Miss Vincent and Tami Hill of Snyder, and Rhessa Wolf of Vincent. Miss Connor and Leslie Davis of Andrews served at the bridegrooms table.

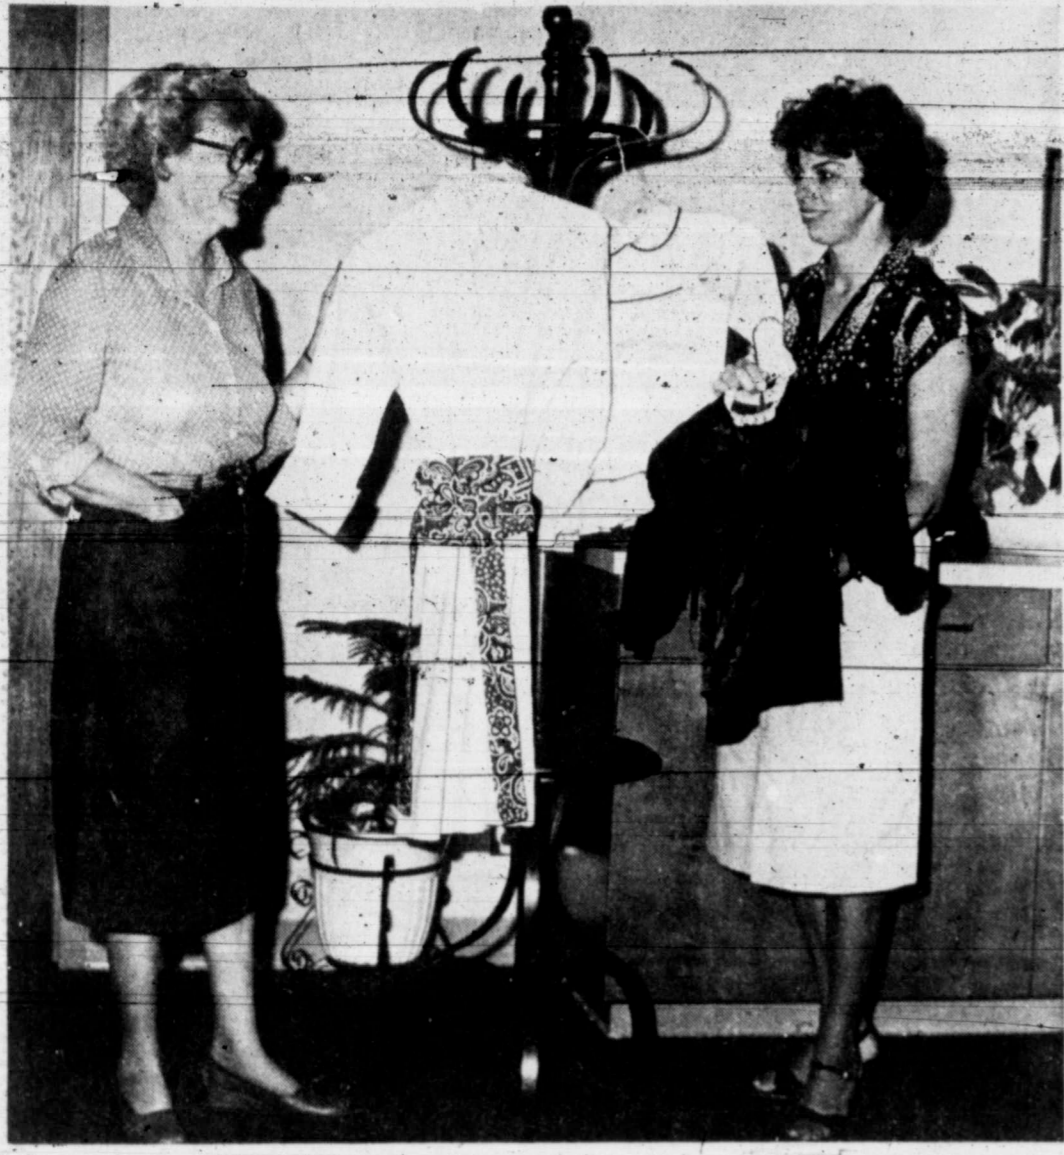

The bride attended Northeastern High School in Richmond, Indiana, House of James Beauty School in Indiana, Western Texas College and the University of Texas of the Permian Basin in Odessa.

Her husband attended Dawson County High School and Dawson Junior College in Montana and graduated from Montana Tech. He is a petroleum engineer with ARCO Oil and Gas Company.

Following a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple reside in Thermopolis, Wyo.

Textile Division Highlights Scurry County Fair Events

The Scurry County Fair promises to be pretty and fashionable with its adult textile wearable division. The fair is set for Thursday through Saturday at the Scurry County Coliseum.

Superintendents of the adult division are Virginia Trevey and Sue Lloyd. The superintendents have asked that all persons interested in entering garments in the fair to bring them to the coliseum Sept. 17 at 1 p.m.

To be entered, the garment must not have been shown previously and must be complete. All exhibits must stay in place until 1 p.m. Saturday. A professional seamstress may exhibit her garments, but she will be ineligible to receive the rosette for best show.

Youth work will be entered and judged separately. Awards will be the same as in the adult division.

Kathy Blagrove will serve as judge and will give comments on the garment entered.

A style show is scheduled for 3 p.m. Friday to display the fashions. There is no admission charge to the show.

Microwave cooking time is about one-fourth to one-half of the time recommended to cook a product by conventional cooking methods, says Dr. Rose Tindall Postel, a foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

One exception: foods which require time to rehydrate or tenderize in which case more time is required.

JTB over two notrump bid

By Oswald Jacoby and Alan Sontag

Transfers to a major are a cinch here. You bid three diamonds for hearts and three hearts for spades.

Minor transfers present some difficulty since they would take you past three notrump. Therefore, best practise is to use three spades as a general minor-suit hand. Opener goes to three notrump if his strength is concentrated in majors — say S-K Q 10 6 H-A K Q D-Q 5 4 C-A J 5 — and otherwise bids his better minor. With minors the same, he bids four clubs. If responder bids four notrump next, he is suggesting that he is willing to stop at four notrump, but has some slam interest since otherwise he would have just raised two notrump to three.

Thus, with S-5 4 H-K 7 6 D-K 10 5 4 3 C-9 8 5, you would not bother with any effort to get to a diamond contract.

But with S-6 H-K 7 6 D-K 10 9 7 5 2 C-10 5 4, you would bid that three spades to see what might happen.

In 30 years experience with JTB over two notrump, Oswald Jacoby has played exactly one hand at a major-suit part score and he says that was a mistake. His two-notrump opening was S-A x H-A K J x D-K Q x x C-A J 9. His partner bid three diamonds and he just bid three hearts. His partner with a real horror passed, but four was a laydown.

He explains that he should have jumped to four hearts rather than take the chance of missing game. A word to the wise: if you start using JTB over two notrump, make sure that you and your partner have a complete agreement as to what bids, if any, ask for aces.

Thus, in the sequence 2 NT - 3 D - 3 H - 4 C, is 4 C Gerber, or is it just some sort of club bid? (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Baby Shower

Causes Alarm

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A neighbor saw nurses going into Marlene Uhlers' home at 7:30 a.m. recently and called to inquire if anything was wrong.

It turned out that the nurses, who had worked the 11 p.m.-7 a.m. shift at a hospital, were merely holding a baby shower.

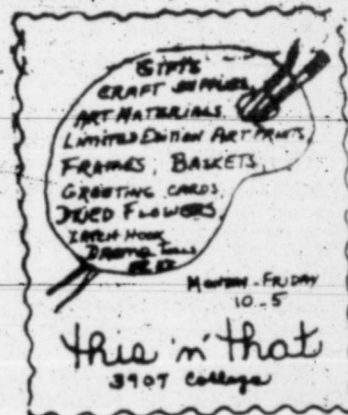

The oldest musical organization in Canada is the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir. It was founded in 1894.

World Illiteracy On The Increase

PARIS (AP)—According to experts at the U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the number of adult illiterates is currently estimated at 814 million - or three adults in 10 - and the problem is increasing because of soaring population growth.

Nearly three-quarters of the world's illiterates live in Asia, approximately 20 percent in Africa and 5 percent in Latin America. Twenty-three countries have an illiteracy rate higher than 20 percent, UNESCO reports.

Every Hudson figurine and sculpture is an original work by an American sculptor.
Please do not confuse our fine pewter with pewter substitutes (mostly lead) advertised as "pewter", "pewterized" or "pewter finish". Fine pewter is priced by the ounce, lead by the pound.
An art foundry works with an artist's original work, usually sculpted in wax or clay. The foundry transforms this work through moldmaking, casting, cleaning, soldering, oxidizing and buffing into a finished pewter figurine. Every Hudson figurine and sculpture go through this same process.
Special Moments is the authorized Hudson dealer in Snyder and is now carrying pieces priced from $6 to $125. The more expensive items are parts of limited edition collections and are numbered and signed.

Stephenville Service Unites Pair School Menus

FORMER RESIDENT-Miss Lisa Sconyers of Carrollton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sconyers of Poteau, Okla. and formerly of Snyder, and Greg Patterson of Farmers Branch, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Patterson of Dallas and also formerly of Snyder, have announced their engagement and approaching marriage. The wedding has been set for Sept. 27 at the Highland Park Gazebo in Dallas.

STEPHENVILLE - Miss Jennifer Sue Foree and William James Muncey were united in marriage July 19 at 10:30 a.m. in a backyard ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robitaille of Stephenville. Dr. Morgan Garrett, minister of the United Methodist Church, officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer G. Godair of Snyder. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Muncey of Baldwin, N.Y. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white, floor-length Mexican peasant dress trimmed with lace and satin. She carried a bouquet of yellow daisies trimmed with yellow and white satin ribbons, surrounded with baby's breath. She wore yellow daisies in her hair.

Matron of honor was Marilyn Robitaille of Stephenville, and maid of honor was Debbie Gains of Oswego, N.Y. The attendants wore pastel floor-length dresses and they carried bouquets of white daisies tied with yellow satin ribbon.

Chrystal Godair, the bride's niece, and Janice and Joan Godair, the bride's sisters, were flower girls.

The bridegroom's brother-in-law, Phil Gaines of Oswego, N.Y. served as best man, while Charles Robitaille of Stephenville was groomsmen.

Music was provided by Cheryl Rampley and Don Baldwin of Stephenville. Baldwin accompanied Ms. Rampley on the guitar as they sang "If" and "Love Song." "Let It Be Me" was sung while the bride was escorted by her father. The wedding party grouped around the trellis decorated with English ivy, yellow daisies and white satin bows. The bride's sisters each carried a yellow long-stemmed silk rose and stood on each side of the trellis during the ceremony.

Alter Old Clothes

For Fall Fashions

You can have this fall's fashions at a fraction of the cost of new clothes by altering some of your old garments. You, your tailor or dressmaker can narrow lapels on a tailored jacket and shorten it to the new hip length. Turn a pair of pleated pants into cuffed walking shorts. Shirts get a fresh look when you change long, pointed collars to small, rounded ones. Use a pattern for best results.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM JAMES MUNCEY

ried a yellow long-stemmed silk rose and stood on each side of the trellis during the ceremony.

Following the service, a brunch was given by the wedding hosts in the backyard. The bride and bridegroom exchanged wedding gifts at the brunch.

The Robitailles were also hosts for a wedding reception and dance at 7:30 p.m. The best man presented the champagne toast. The newlyweds cut the cake as champagne, fruit punch and hors d'oeuvres were served. The bride's sisters served the three-tiered wedding cake while Terri Godair, sister-in-law of the bride, served the punch.

Guests were registered by Connie Wooley, Saffire, a local Stephenville band, performed during the festivities.

The bride is a graduate of Tarleton State University and received her Masters of Arts from the Breadloaf School of English in Middlebury, Vt. She is presently employed by the Mineral Wells Independent School District.

Her husband is a Tarleton State University graduate and is employed by Caporal Forging Company in Stephenville.

Out-of-state guests were from Baldwin, Oswego and Freeport, N.Y. Out-of-town guests were from Houston, Snyder, Odessa, Saginaw, Mineral Wells, Millsap, Aspermont, Dallas, Fort Worth, Seymour, Austin, Cleburne, Dublin, Bellaire and Bluffdale.

Children derive untold pleasures when allowed to "help" adults, especially their parents. Each experience they participate in helps build a strong self-concept - it tells them, "Yes, I can do that." It also enables the child to develop independence and a sense of accomplishment. Parents would also notice a decline in disciplinary problems for a child who is occupied and not-bored is less likely to be disruptive.

Parents need not be educated in child development to implement these concepts. The keys to success are imagination and creativity. Here are some possibilities.

Let your child help with meals, setting the table, cracking eggs, turning pancakes, putting dishes away.

At the post office, children can lick stamps, seal letters and put them in the mailbox.

At the grocery store, children can lead the cart, pick out items, pay the cashier, and collect the stamps.

Children also like to push elevator buttons, dial telephones, clean bathrooms and run simple errands.

An old stump or piece of wood can be used to hammer, saw and drill holes. They may be handy with a broom or rake (though they may not be up to your standards, it is the experience that counts).

Shoplifting Is Aim Of Coalition

ATLANTA (AP)-The National Coalition To Prevent Shoplifting, with headquarters in Atlanta, is patterned after a Georgia anti-shoplifting program begun in 1976 and is the largest citizen-based crime-prevention program in the United States.

Organized in 1979, it is funded by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the Department of Justice for the purpose of helping other states organize shoplifting prevention programs, for the production of educational materials and for research and training.

"Education, particularly of young people to the point that shoplifting is a crime, is one of our big jobs," says Judi Rogers, director. "But we've also got a long way to go to get retailers, law enforcement agencies and the judiciary working together under uniform standards that will have a preventive effect."

France abandoned the national revolutionary calendar in 1806.

MR. AND MRS. GERALD SPARKS JR.

Couple Exchange Vows In Double Ring Service

ODESSA - Miss Audrey Renee Gray became the bride of Gerald Sparks Jr. in a double-ring ceremony at 8 p.m. June 27 at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Vernon Burrow, church pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Gray of Odessa, and the granddaughter of Velma Smith of Snyder. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sparks Sr. of Odessa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza and lace. The fitted bodice was overlaid with lace and featured a Queen Anne neckline and long full sleeves, both finished with bands of Venice lace. The bouffant skirt featured a panel extending from the waist to the hemline, giving a princess look with overlaying ruffles edged in Brussels lace flowing from each side of the front panel to the hemline, extending to form a Cathedral train. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies and apricot ribbons with long streamers of ribbons tied in lover's knots.

In keeping with tradition, for something old, the bride wore an heirloom gold wedding band that belonged to her maternal great-grandmother, the late Flora Smith. Something new was her wedding gown and hat, something borrowed was a pearl drop belonging to her cousin, while something blue was an ivory lace garter with blue satin trim.

The bridegroom was attired in a brown tuxedo with a white ruffled shirt. Miss Melanie Vestal served as maid of honor, while bridesmaids were Miss Kimberly Gray, the bride's sister, and Miss Meschill Stevens, the bride's cousin. The attendants wore formal length gowns of apricot chiffon and matching hats, and carried colonial bouquets of white daisies and lace accented with apricot ribbons.

Larissa Robinson was flower girl. She wore a white eyelet embroidered dress over an apricot lining, belted with apricot ribbons.

Kirk Harmonson served as best man, while Chris Cagle and Leslie Harbin were groomsmen. The attendants all wore identical brown tuxedos with ruffled apricot shirts.

Ring bearer was Chad Everett, while Jay David Gray, the bride's brother, and Steven Sparks, the bridegroom's brother, were ushers. Debbie Hobbs served as organist.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of Permian High School. Her husband is employed by the Alexander Corp. in Odessa.

The couple reside at 4900 West University in Odessa.

Hug Ends Monkey Holdout

SEATTLE (AP)—A hug from a holdout ended the great monkey hunt at Woodland Park Zoo. Eight lion-tailed macaques scampered off "Monkey Island" Wednesday evening by leaping onto cattail reeds in the moat around the island. Four were recaptured almost immediately and three others were brought back without injury or incident Thursday morning. But the whereabouts of the last escapee remained a mystery until it was spotted sitting forlornly on top of the zoo's south gate. When the monkey saw the familiar face of senior keeper, Laurie Gledhill, it jumped into his arms, said Helga Freeman, zoo spokeswoman. Now that the monkeys are back, "There will be no lockdown. They've got all their privileges back. Actually, they're our guests, not inmates," Ms. Freeman said. Police declined to become involved in the hunt. "They haven't committed any crimes," Police Sgt. Ken Starkweather explained Thursday. County, four miles southeast of Gail. It is No. 1 Chilton. Scheduled to 8,950 feet, it is 2,200 feet from north and 800 feet from east lines of section 11, block 30, T-4-N, T&P survey and one mile south of an 8,474-foot failure. An imperial proclamation banning Christianity in Japan was enacted in 1614.

Drilling Contractors Suspicious Of Boom

By MAX B. SKELTON AP Oil Writer HOUSTON (AP)—Domestic oil and gas drilling operations are booming these days, but Ed McGhee says some drilling contractors are sounding a note of caution. An Arkansas contractor, McGhee said, recently advised others to enjoy the boom while it lasts "because it won't be this good forever." "This note of caution sums up the sentiments of his peers everywhere," said McGhee, executive vice president of International Association of Drilling Contractors. "Fresh in their minds is the downturn that began in late 1978 and persisted through the first half of 1979. Not forgotten is a disappointing 1976. And still haunting the industry's consciousness is the memory of the debilitating depression that began in 1957 and that didn't bottom out until 1971." He said few contractors, however, question that the demand for drilling rigs will continue to grow. "Most speak in terms of surpassing the previous all time high of 3,136 active rotary rigs before year end," he said. "They envision the count reaching 3,500 by 1982 and 4,000 by 1985." The record 3,136 weekly average for rotary drilling rigs making hole was set in late 1955. The next year, the industry completed a record 58,160 wells. The two records, however, were followed by a prolonged drilling slump that, as McGhee said, did not bottom out until 1971 when active rotary rigs averaged only 975 and well completions totaled only 27,300. Weekly active rig averages in 1971 ranged from a low of 814 to a high of only 1,189. McGhee said one factor that now sobers contractors is the rate at which the supply of new rigs is mushrooming. Most contractors, he said, take it for granted the 1980 count of available rigs will show a net increase of 400 over 1979. "Some believe the increase may even reach 450," he said. "This compares to additions of 331 last year and 369 the year before. Can anyone predict when the next rig oversupply will set in?" McGhee said that for land units, no one offers a clue, but for marine units, Loran Sheffer of Offshore Rig Data Services proposes one yardstick. Sheffer says one of the indicators to watch is the lead time between delivery of the rig and the time the unit is contracted. "Right now, it is about 12 to 15 months," Sheffer says. "When this lead time begins to shrink, watch out! It will mean the oil companies have filled their baskets, that they have locked in all the rigs they anticipate using for the next few years." McGhee says Sheffer believes lead time, right now, is growing in that some North Sea rigs coming off contracts are picking up renewals for three or four years. "When extrapolated to the worldwide fleet of 'competitive' mobile offshore drilling units, this boom in demand has brought effectively 100 percent utilization," McGhee said. "In the United States, land rig utilization has hovered near 99 percent for two months." McGhee wondered if the contractors have heeded the advice to enjoy the boom while it lasts. "Certainly, the frantic pace rig building bespeaks unaccustomed profitability," he said. "But specifics are hard to come by. Only from that minority of firms which are publicly held does any information on day rates of profits ever leak." McGhee said an oversupply of rigs may already have developed in Canada, where a 600 rig count is anticipated by the end of the year. More Added To Disaster Areas AUSTIN (AP)—The U.S. Small Business Administration has designated another 28 Texas counties as disaster areas due to the drought and severe weather conditions, Gov. Bill Clements said Tuesday. Earlier, the SBA declared 47 counties disaster areas as a result of the long summer heat wave. Use Snyder Daily News Classified Ads 573-5486

those foreign devils

You've probably heard more than you want to hear by now about Ronald Reagan's two-China policy. And quite possibly the same can be said about Ronald Reagan, who continues to give the impression that he can't quite figure out what the fuss is all about.

Well, maybe. But more likely not. One suspects the Chinese, despite their possibly justified irritation, and Reagan, if he is elected, will find a way to avoid the looming mini-Armageddon.

And for all that it has produced the first dust-up of the post-convention campaign, Reagan's mixing of foreign policy with domestic politics is nothing unusual. Very much to the contrary. It is in the American campaign tradition.

A tradition in which China, if you'll take a minute to recall, has figured prominently before. The "who lost China" (to the same Communists all parties are now so concerned about offending) debate got started in the late 1940s and had Democrats on the defensive and Republicans scoring largely rhetorical points for decades.

There was less and less to be gotten out of it, however, as China's relations worsened with the Soviet Union - American relations with which power are at issue in every U.S. election of recent times.

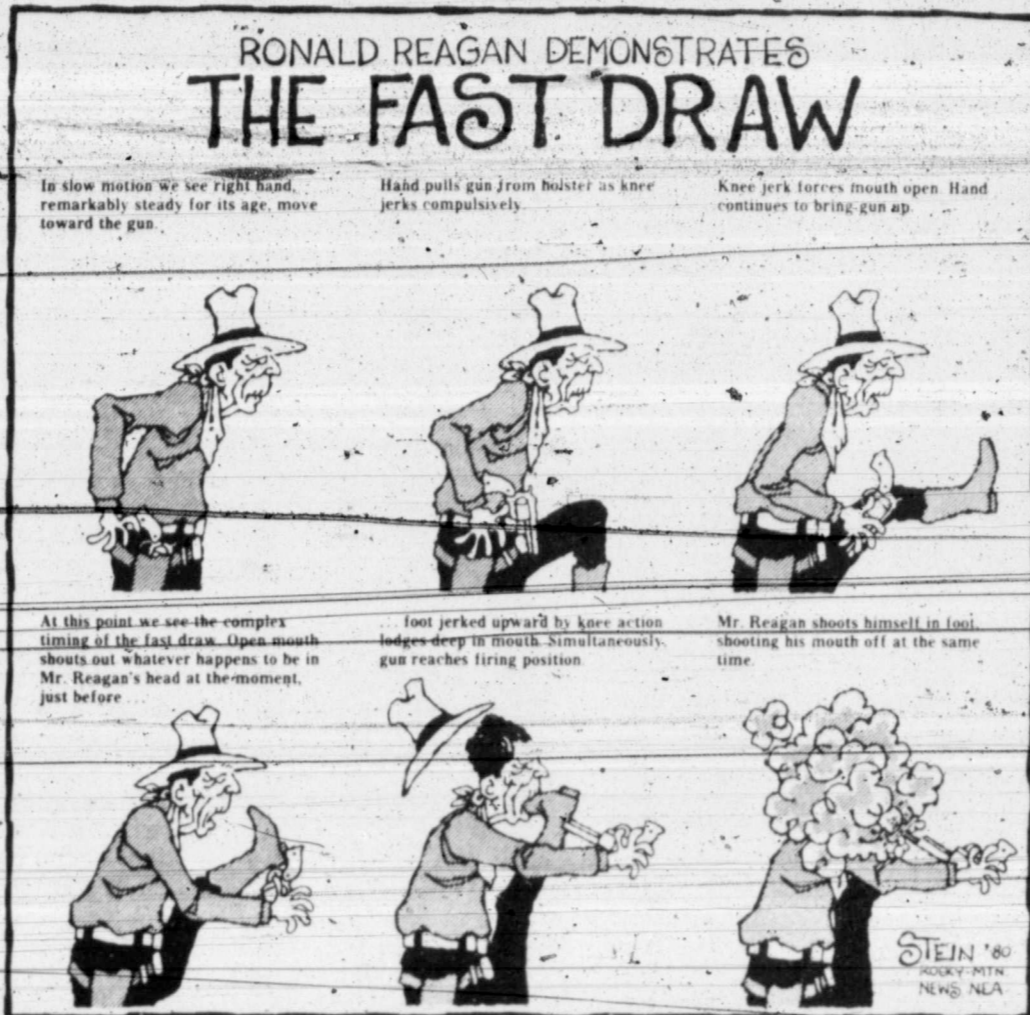

The 1976 presidential race provided something a little different when Gerald Ford's problems with either the English language or the facts of cool-war politics brought Poland briefly to center stage.

There are examples and more examples, but you get the idea. There is nothing new about Americans mixing politics and policies, and in the process often enraging foreign governments. They go all the way back to the nation's earliest years when the new democracy, smugly confident of its superiority, was given to offering unwanted advice as to how other regimes might best run their affairs.

Congress in the early 1800s trumpeted American support - of the moral rather than material kind - for the cause of Hungarians, Czechs and others under the rule of imperial powers. To the powers it was at most an irritating habit that Austrian Chancellor Prince Klemens von Metternich, the Henry Kissinger and more of his day, dismissed as an impertinence. Peking's labeling of the Reagan position as an insult suggests that while much else is different, diplomatic language hasn't changed much in a century and a half.

Actually, there has always been more myth than reality in that business about politics stopping at the water's edge. Perhaps it is only natural that foreign interests should bedevil our domestic debates, not only because of our present world position but as a result of the diverse heritage of Americans as a people.

In other words, don't blame Ronald Reagan judgment or Peking's sensitivity for these recurring flaps - our devils make us do it.

could we relearn?

On my television screen was an ad for "steel doors with dead-bolt locks for your house."

In my hand was a pamphlet by Ivan Hill called "Common Sense and Everyday Ethics."

On the TV screen, the announcer was telling me to replace my vulnerable wood doors with his burglar-proof kind.

And in the pamphlet, Mr. Hill was asking me, "Why do we put up with dishonesty?"

Why do we? Ivan Hill says that worse than the sleazy ethics, bribery, kickbacks, arson, vandalism, burglaries, shoplifting, street violence

- worse - is the way Americans have come to tolerate it.

He says we are coming to accept without protest the triple-locked doors and the risk of being hit on the head as we walk city streets.

Are we afraid to take courageous, positive steps to stop these raging rip offs?

Or is Mr. Hill's indictment valid: are all of us an accessory to escalating crime?

Recently, 700 corporations tested prospective employees. Forty-two percent proved dishonest. That's more than two out of five.

Is it possible that our people have become so morally bankrupt that most of us, given the chance, cheat?

High school students, film executives, often-tempted purchasing managers...

TV repairmen... Auto mechanics...

The FTC's most recent survey indicated that half of all the car repairs you got charged for were not made or were not needed.

Ivan Hill is so anxious, so fearful that our magnificent productive Republic will be lost by default because all of us will have become short-cutters, that he has created an Ethics Resource Center in Washington, D.C., dedicated to trying to win for us all a "good conduct reprieve."

It's a tedious process of re-education. But if the number of educators and industrialists distributing his pamphlets on related subjects - if they are practicing what he is preaching - things are looking up!

During my days as a beat-pounding reporter, during police station interrogation of burglary suspects, I was always fascinated by the amount of time, effort and expertise which these rascals invest - for such a paltry return.

Have we all, by compromise with corruption, backslid into imagining that the crooked way is the shortest distance? It's not, of course.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Folks seem to get along better when their primary purpose is to see one another through, not to see through one another."

A reader was cleaning out the top of a closet the other day, and he came across a Nov. 26, 1946 issue of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

The newspaper was originally addressed to Earl Fish at 2615 Ave. R. in Snyder. Back in those days, the Star-Telegram was the state's most prestigious newspaper. If it didn't appear in the Star-Telegram, then many folks in West Texas assumed that it just hadn't happened.

At that time, and for many years after, the Star-Telegram had the largest daily circulation in Texas - over 200,000 in fact. Now the circulation pattern is more regional in nature, and the number is still just over 200,000 paid subscribers.

It's always interesting to look at old newspapers. The lead story that day was President Truman's move to oust disloyal government employees. Truman, by executive order, created an inter-agency group to be known as the President's Temporary Commission on Employee Loyalty, authorized to discharge or bar from employment any person of questionable fidelity to the best interests of the United States.

Labor strikes were also in the news. A federal judge had just ruled that the United Mine Workers "undertook to decide the law for themselves" and the judge ordered them to trail for contempt. Up in Wisconsin, several hundred Allis Chalmers workers were forced to remain inside the plant at quitting time when CIO pickets paraded outside.

In other news in the fall of 1946, Studebaker had announced a 3 1/2 percent increase in the list price of all passenger automobiles, and taxis in Tyler announced they would cease operation because the city failed to grant an increase on fares.

In an ad, the city of Fort Worth announced that taxes would be delinquent after Dec. 1 and that taxpayers would be charged 12 percent per annum.

On the sports page, the Arkansas Razorbacks had already won the right to represent the SWC in the Cotton Bowl. Bobby Layne of Texas was the league's leading rusher with 1,278 yards on 196 plays.

In high school football, Odessa High was the state's top team, while Sweetwater was listed as No. 11.

Advertisements included Freeman Shoes for men, the loafer was on sale for $10.75 a pair.

A Snyder date-line was on the front page. It seems that a transport driver from Amarillo was killed when his gasoline truck crashed into a concrete crushed guard rail seven miles north of Snyder. Some things really never change.

For as long as I can remember, I have clipped trivia - mainly the useful kind. By strange coincidence, my wife, Gerry, is also a lifelong trivia clipper.

I have picked some items at random from our collection in the hope that you might benefit from them, too. Some might even save you money - and money saved is worth more than money earned because you don't pay taxes on it.

For instance, did you know that ordinary white vinegar can be used for a variety of chores around the house in addition to cooking? That's what the Vinegar Institute says.

If mineral deposits are clogging the inside heating element of your automatic-drip coffee maker, fill the reservoir with vinegar and run it through the brew cycle. Then rinse with water. Similarly, Gerry unclogged her steam iron by letting vinegar steam inside of it.

Try applying vinegar with a caustic sponge to remove sludge on glass shower doors.

Gerry removes those brown and yellow climate stains that appear on clothing and linens in our sub-tropical Florida climate by rubbing the stains with white vinegar and then washing - provided the fabric is washable, of course. Vinegar can also remove those white underarm stains that appear on dark-colored garments.

Gerry cautions to first try vinegar in an inconspicuous place - such as under them - to make sure it does not discolor the fabric.

far behind the scenes. For how long he is not saying, and no one else is in a position to know.

Even so, the changes are like nothing seen before in Peking or any other Communist capital and are an impressive start toward something never before achieved by a Marxist regime - the transfer of power through orderly procedures rather than by purge or death, natural or otherwise.

The official line is that the changes in no way represent deviations from the Communist way. Possibly. But you could probably fool the average objective observer.

The men now running China give every indication of being less interested in keeping true faith according to Karl Marx or any of his Western-oriented disciples than in reverting to the traditional Chinese way. Which is pragmatism.

The Chinese are an intensely realistic and resilient people with a long past in which they repeatedly have recovered strength and purpose after periods of disorder and decline, rising more often than not to new heights of achievement.

What is attracting so much attention in the new China today looks, from the perspective of history, suspiciously like the old, old China beginning to re-emerge.

"I don't mean to criticize, but I think you're wasting Miss Rona on the 'Today Show' and the 'Tomorrow Show.' Personally, I'd put her where she can use all of her talents, and that's in 'Little House on the Prairie' - with the crescent on the door."

Don't panic if you don't get a quick answer. Both companies have a heavy load of requests for replacements.

You will hear relatively promptly if the company has what you need. If the piece isn't in stock, your order will be placed in the files until your pattern is located. You will then be notified.

You can phone to find out quickly if your pattern is in stock.

If you cook for someone on a low-salt diet, you can use wine as well as herbs and spices for added flavor. But the American Heart Association cautions that it must be regular wine, not one of the so-called cooking wines that contain added salt.

If you want to preserve fresh-cut flowers, particularly those sent for a special occasion, prepare a one-to-one mixture of Borax and cornmeal.

Place a thin layer of this mixture in an uncovered box. Place the flowers in the box gently and add more of the mixture until the flowers are completely covered.

Place the uncovered box in a dark, dry place for two or three weeks - or until the flowers are completely crisp and dry.

Some bookstores carry dictionaries with large print for people with limited eyesight. If you can't buy one of these dictionaries locally, write to: G.K. Hall and Co., 70 Lincoln St., Boston, Mass. 02111.

Hall's dictionary contains 57,000 words in 14-point type with definitions in 12-point type. That is pretty big since your newspaper is set in 8- or 9-point type. The dictionary costs about $28 including shipping.

Honestly, Gerry and I aren't training to become aging Quiz Kids. We simply jot down these bits of information because they could be helpful to us and to others. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)
