... New Manager

Palace—New Management Face Lifting

After almost 40 years of ownership and part ownership of Palace Theater by the family of Ross Dixon Sr., the downtown movie house in Colorado City now belongs exclusively to Rowley United of Dallas.

The Rowley Company recently bought the interest of Mrs. Annie Dixon, widow of the late Mr. Dixon Sr., and assumed complete management Monday.

Raymond Webb, 31-year-old bachelor, is new manager of the Palace and the Lone Wolf Drive-in Theater which is also now property of Rowley United alone.

Webb, transferred here from Taylor where he managed Rowley's Howard Theater and Texas Theater, is supervising extensive remodeling and complete new furnishing of the Palace. Improvements are to be made at the Lone Wolf, later he said.

With Merlon Montgomery of Breckenridge as contractor, Rowley is spending about $20,000 to refurbish the downtown movie house. The exterior is to have a new front with tile. There is to be new marquee. Ticket office is being moved to face south and adjoin the manager's office.

Manager's office will be in the quarters formerly occupied by May and Gordon. Lobby is being enlarged, concession stand increased in size and convenience. Doors for entry have been moved the width of the enlarged lobby.

Inside the theater new carpeting is to be laid, new seats installed, a new screen erected. The Palace will be closed Monday through Thursday.

Trammell Resigns Post As Principal

James Trammell submitted his resignation as a member of the school administrative staff to Colorado Independent School District board here Monday evening.

Trammell, principal of Junior High here for the last two and a half years, has accepted a post of teacher of agriculture in Clyde High School.

The school board in session accepted his resignation, effective July 31. Trammell taught agriculture in Colorado High for eight and a half years before accepting the administrative position as principal.

Mr. and Mrs. Trammell and their two children expect to move to Clyde about August 1.

The post of principal of Junior High school will be filled at an early date, said Superintendent Frank W. Wilson.

★ Ag Teacher Workshop At Lake Site

Farm Electrification workshop for vocational agriculture teachers in Area Two is set to start at 9:30 a. m. Thursday in the Col-Tex Club at Lake Colorado City.

Ag teachers from 85 schools in Area Two are expected to register for the two-day event which will feature lake sports, boating and fishing after work shop hours.

Faculty members for the summer workshop subjects include W. K. Schlotterbeck, Reliance and Electric Engineering Co.; J. E. Wither, vocational agriculture teacher of Grand Falls; Thomas M. Morgan, Anaconda Wire and Cable Co.; Raymond Holt, Lorraine ag teacher; and W. C. Adams, TESCO.

Tour of the Morgan Creek Power Plant at Lake Colorado City is scheduled for Thursday afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30. Bob Browder and L. L. Zeigler, both of TESCO in Sweetwater will help with welcome and introductions preceding the workshop proper.

Directing arrangements for the Thursday-Friday workshop sessions is W. C. Adams. See WORKSHOP Pg. 6

City Accepts TESCO's Rate Reduction Offer

Texas Electric Service Company's official offer of lower over-all electric rates for Colorado City was accepted by resolution of City Council here Monday night.

A. L. McSpadden, manager of the company here, presented to Council the new rates schedule which will reduce residential and general service rates in this town.

"It is a pleasure to appear before you gentlemen," McSpadden prefaced his announcement, "and to bring before you a downward reduction by Texas Electric Service Company for your approval."

After hearing the new rates, R. J. Hoback, councilman moved adoption of a resolution accepting TESCO's proposed reduction which will become effective July 10 which is 30 days after official approval by the city.

Skeet Harkins seconded the motion of approval.

In line with downward reduction of rates throughout its service area, TESCO has already officially offered low rates to Lorraine and Westbrook. In Lorraine average reductions are 6.9 percent in residential area service bills, and a 9.6 percent reduction for commercial and industrial bills.

At Westbrook the reduction, based on the year of 1962, is to be 6.9 percent for residential and 7.7 percent for commercial and industrial bills.

Line Extensions Made For Irrigation & Oil

By RUTH COFFEY
Record News Editor

Rural Electric Association approved Friday a loan of $469,000 to the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative Inc. here.

United States Senator Ralph W. Yarborough notified the Record by wire of the REA loan to the local cooperative which serves Mitchell County, and five other counties—Nolan, Fisher, Scurry, Borden, and Howard.

Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative Inc. services meters for more than 3,000 rural consumers in the six-county area. Extensions made recently have been made chiefly for benefit of irrigation projects and for oil fields, Lone Wolf officials here said Saturday.

The $469,000 approved loan is earmarked for use to finance 44 miles of distribution lines to serve 350 consumers, Senator Yarborough said.

System improvements including 23 miles of tie-in line and conversion of 35 existing lines to a higher capacity were noted in the Senator's telegram, along with "reimbursement to Lone Wolf for general funds expenses of previously approved headquarters facilities."

Raymond Perdue, manager of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative Inc., told the Record Saturday morning that he has not received official notification of the $469,000 loan to date.

Application for a somewhat larger amount was made, he said, in March.

Asked for details of system improvement, Perdue listed new lines, conversion of existing lines to larger conductors, replacing single phase with three phase.

Some of the new lines are in the Roscoe irrigation area, Perdue said, and in the irrigated countryside around Lorraine.

"Other extensions have been made in oil well areas near Vincent and around Westbrook. The REA loan was applied for to reimburse members' cash already spent by Lone Wolf for the improvements," Perdue said.

W. H. Cooper of Roscoe, president of Lone Wolf, did receive, however, a telegram from Congressman George Mahon informing him of approval of the $469,000 loan.

TOUR 10 COUNTRIES

Mmes. Bridgford Leave for Europe

Tuesday is the day Mrs. R. D. Bridgford and her son's wife Terry, Mrs. David Bridgford Jr., leave for their five-week tour of 10 European countries.

The two Mmes. Bridgford will travel with a Universal Travel Service tour arranged for District 5 Teachers. Mrs. Bridgford Jr. is teacher of typing and business in Sweetwater.

In London and again in Paris the two will be met by Captain Billy Bruce Bridgford, younger son of Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Bridgford. The captain, Air Force dental surgeon, is stationed at a SAC base 70 miles from London and will meet his mother and his brother's wife there, June 19. He also expects to join them in

Grady Ezell Fatally Shot, Funeral Here

Grady Elvis Ezell, 51, died early Thursday morning at his home in the Buford Community where he was a farmer.

Ezell's body was discovered in a bedroom at the family home about 6:50 a. m. a 22 rifle near his side. He was dead of a gunshot wound behind the right ear.

Verdict of T. E. Arnold, justice of the peace precinct one was "death by gunshot wound self-inflicted."

Funeral was held here Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Klitter and Son Funeral Home chapel. Officiating were the Rev. R. O. Browder of Big Spring and the Rev. Fred O. Brown, pastor of First Presbyterian Church here. Ezell was a member of the Baptist Church at Buford.

Born in Wood County March 18, 1912, Ezell was a son of W. H. Cooper of Roscoe, president of Lone Wolf, did receive, however, a telegram from Congressman George Mahon informing him of approval of the $469,000 loan.

IN 1962

379 Mitchell Farms Under ACP Practices

In Mitchell County, Agricultural Conservation Program practices were carried out on 379 farms last year, compared with 321 farms participating in ACP in 1961.

Nationally, indication are that ACP practices were carried out on more farms in 1962 than in any year since 1953, according to Curtis E. Latimer, chairman of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation's Mitchell County committee.

Preliminary estimates put the total number of farms participating in ACP at a round 1,270,000 farms in 1962. Of this number, about 200,000 were "new" participants where conservation work had not been done in recent years, Latimer said.

In this county, under the 1962 Conservation Program, Mitchell County farmers carried out conservation measures of 379 local farms representing a total investment of about $98,320 and with ACP cost-sharing amounting to half that much.

Program practices completed on participating farms included:

Establishing Permanent Vegetative Cover, 30.0 acres; Establishing Additional Vegetative Cover, 86.0 acres; Improving established cover, 41.6 acres; Deferred Grazing, 128.0 acres; Control of Competitive Shrubs, 2095.0 acres; Livestock Wells and Storage, 2 structures; Livestock Tanks, 6 structures; Stockwater Pipelines, 3982.0 feet; Terraces, 929,246 feet; Diversions, 17,546 feet; Reorganize Irrigation Systems, 2 farms; Stubble Mulching, 305.0 acres; Emergency Tillage, 34,426.0 acres; Deep Plowing, 2,831.0 acres; Applying Cotton Burs, 933.0 acres.

The ACP for 1963—the 28th program year—is now well under way. In Mitchell County, 197 farmers have already requested ACP cost-sharing to help expand soil, water, woodland, and wildlife conservation work need on their land.

Although funds are almost exhausted for this quarter, more money will be available in September for practices to be carried out in the fall, Latimer said.

WANTED: RATTLESNAKE

Michigan Couple Winter in C-City

Colorado City has two advantages appreciated by two of its temporary citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lamberson of De Witt, Michigan.

The couple are spending their second winter in this town because of those two advantages—dry air and warm temperature. They arrived here for their second extended stay Feb. 4, and will return to their home in Michigan "as soon as Mr. Lamberson feels like it," Mrs. Lamberson said Friday.

Their reason for choosing Colorado City and Texas for a place to live in the winter season is a combination of bad luck and good. Mr. Lamberson, mechanic and farmer, retired because of his health. He suffers from asthma and chronic bronchitis.

Because of the rigorous winter in De Witt, a community which is a suburb of the state's capital city, Lansing, doctors advised a warm-dry climate during the prolonged wet and snowy Michigan winters. Last year, in Jan. 1962, they boarded a bus and started for Arizona. They traveled as far as Carlsbad, N. M., only to find that Mr. Lamberson's breathing complications grew worse. They started searching again for a more comfortable climate and stopped at Hobbs, N. M.

"Too much smell of oil or something," Mr. Lamberson said. So they went to Pecos. Because of a crowding crisis involving a Pecos citizen named Billie Sol Estes, they were unable to find accommodations in Pecos.

They kept coming down Highway 80 in search of a place to live until summer. When they spied C-City from refinery hill, they decided to stop here, attracted by the quiet town, the climate and the West Texas surroundings. They spent the rest of the 1962 winter here.

This year they came back

ANNIE DIXON
... Retiring Manager

SELLS INTEREST

Annie Dixon Quits 'Show Biz' Career

Annie Dixon retired this week as manager of the Palace and the Lone Wolf Theaters here.

Mrs. Dixon, widow of Ross Dixon Sr., has long been a familiar figure to the town's moviegoers. She has been employed in various positions ranging from cashier to manager for Rowley United Theaters for the past 15 years.

She started managing the two movie houses here in 1959 when her husband's nephew Elliott Dixon was moved from managership here to a position as engineer for Rowley with headquarters in Dallas.

The Dixon family has been in the moving picture showing business since shortly after World War I. Mrs. Dixon and the Dixon children Ross Dixon Jr. of Costa Mesa, California, and Mrs. Tommie Williams of Snyder, sold their final interest in the theaters here, recently.

Rowley, formerly Robb & Rowley, first acquired a share of the properties in 1938. The Palace, built in 1926 was originally owned by a corporation formed by Ross Dixon Sr. and the late Max Thomas Sr. During the depression the theater, like the hotel built at the same time, went into the hands of the receiver.

Mrs. F. E. McKenzie, mother of the first Mrs. Dixon Sr. who died, was manager of the Palace until her own death in 1934. Other managers remembered by citizens here were A. E. McClain now of Sweetwater. See DIXON Pg. 6

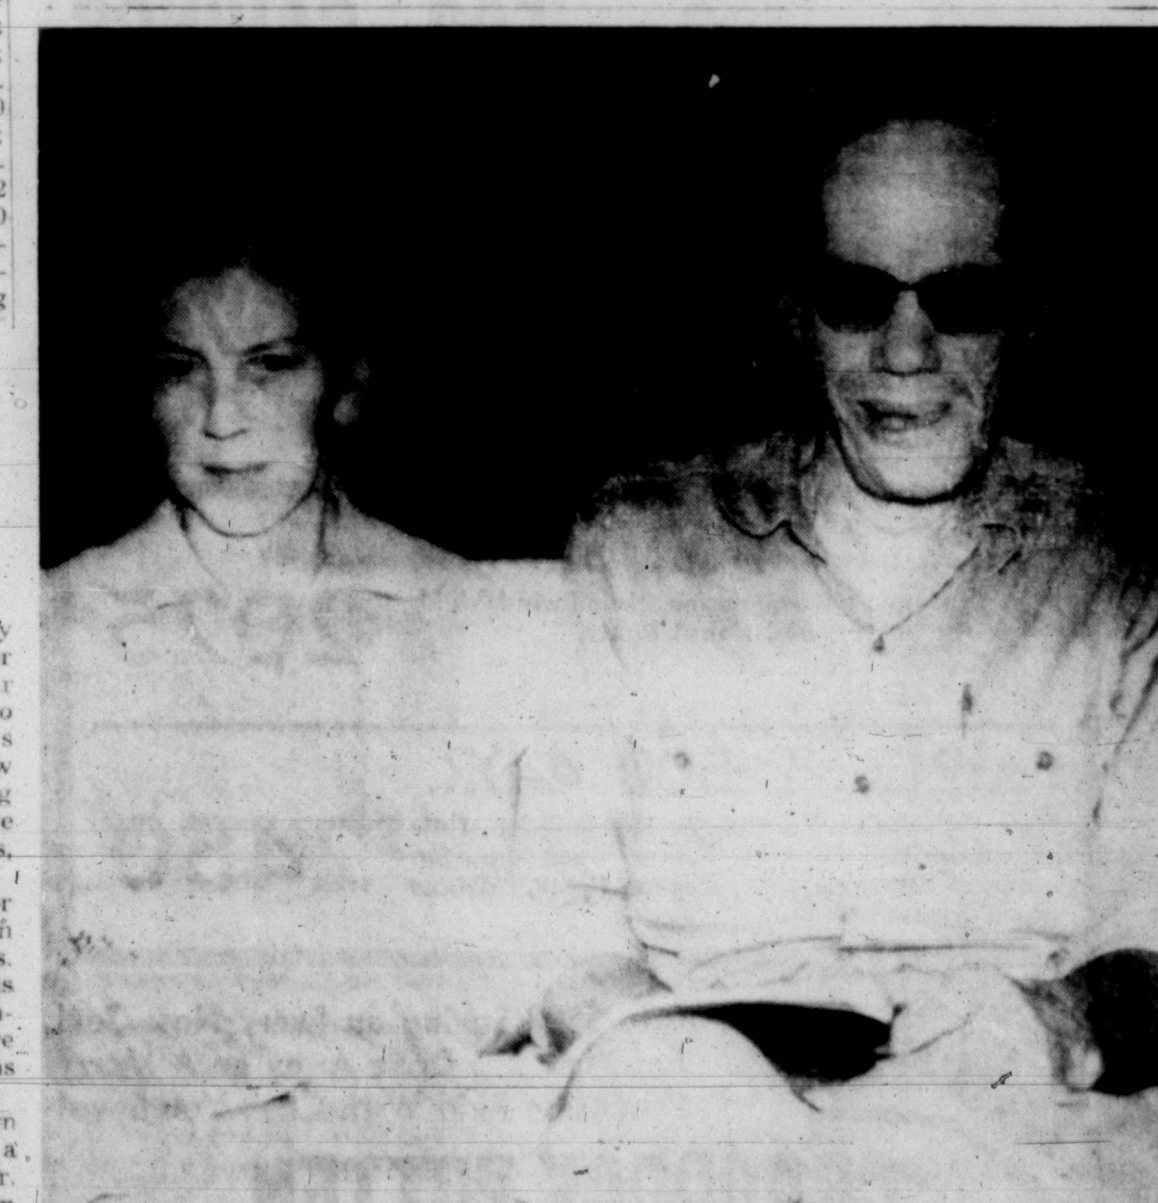

No. 1 Smartt Well In At W'brook

Coastal States No. 1 L. E. A. Smartt has been completed on a 220-acre lease in the Westbrook field.

The new well spots 1,513 feet from the north and 1,807 feet from the east lines of section 16-28, T&P Survey. It pumped 92 barrels of oil on initial potential and had a gas-oil ratio too small to measure.

Elevation is 3,132 feet, total depth is 3,090 feet. Pay was picked up at 2,962 feet and 5 1/2 inch casing set at 3,090 feet was perforated at nine intervals between 2,962 and 3,078 feet.

The well was finished after treatment with 50 gallons of acid and fracturing with 20,000 gallons.

Like C-City Climate

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lamberson have spent the last two winter seasons in Colorado City because of the warm, dry air and the quiet of the town. The couple live in De Witt, Michigan, about 10 miles from Lansing. Lamberson is a former mechanical worker and farmer, retired because of asthma. He likes the warmth of Texas.

the 5th.

Four runs in the 6th by Hart, Pendergrass, Bearden and Danny Kennemur ended the game with final score of 15-0.

Coach for the Colorado City team is Toby Dearen.

Come unto Me

The open door of this church is a fitting symbol for the heart of God, for His heart is open always to all men. The Bible records these words, "Behold, I have set before you an open door which no one is able to shut."
Yes, literally no one can put any kind of block between God and us. His love surmounts every obstacle. That door is open for you today and every day.

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure.
Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God.
Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!

New from the Library

The following is a list of new books just received at the Federation Library. They are available, by request, from Mrs. Boyd Dozier, librarian.

"A DYNASTY OF WESTERN OUTLAWS," Paul I. Wellman (Doubleday). A history of western outlaws—gangs and individuals, from Quantrill, Marauders, just after the Civil War, to Pretty Boy Floyd. Here are the James boys, the Youngers, A. J. Jennings, the Daltons, Belle Starr and many more.

"PROMISES TO KEEP," Agnes Dooley (Farrar, Straus & Cudahy). A life of Dr. Thomas Dooley, founder of Medicine and famous for his medical work with the people of Laos as well as for "The Night They Burned the Mountain" and other books. His mother tells of his work, his dreams and his hopeful fight against cancer.

"YOUR FUTURE IN MUSIC," Robert E. Curtis (Richard Rosen). Robert Curtis, a musician himself, has written a survey of the field for the young person who might be interested in a career in music. It is tremendously objective in outlook as well as most informative. Careers in music may be divided into three main for classifications: performing, writing and teaching—but this book has many more than three chapters. It explains the symphonic and free lance musician; phonograph, radio and T. V. work; hotel, cafe and night club jobs.

"GIDEON'S RIDE," J. J. Marrie. Murder rides the London bus lines and terror stalks the tubes. Then Gideon of Scotland Yard takes over and flushes a covey of criminals. This offers a fascinating picture of London's transportation system as crime moves back and forth through the huge, sprawling city.

"PROJECT APOLLO," The New York Times Story of America's Race for the Moon. The first full account of man's most challenging adventure as told by a top team of reporters and scientists, contains 40 special photos and drawings and carries an introduction by D. Brainerd Holmes, Director of Project Mercury.

"DAVID, WARRIOR AND KING," A Biblical Biography. Frank G. Slaughter. This universally popular author brings his finest talents and scholarship to retelling the biography of David, one of the most beloved and admired of all Biblical heroes. This is the story of "the sweetest singer of all Israel," who was anointed by the prophet Samuel and grew up to unite the many nations of Israel into one kingdom of unparalleled glory and splendor.

"LAND, WOOD & WATER," Senator Robert S. Kerr. Introduction by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson. The vigorous spirit that impelled our pioneers to forge westward across the continent was stirred by an unyielding belief in the majestic power of the country's vast supply of natural resources. But in a land of plenty, it is difficult to turn back the pages of history and recall that wells can run dry, that civilization can perish. Only through conservation of these vital resources—land, wood and water—can man hope to succeed in his endless struggle to control the environment that surrounds him.

Mrs. Dona Reed Hosts Class Meet

Mrs. Dona Reed hosted the faithful and chose rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the Thursday meeting of the F. delis Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church in her home at 723 Locust St.

Co-hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Willie Whitmore.

Mrs. Perry Barber presented the devotion on the subject, "Stewardship of Faithfulness."

"We cannot determine the realm of our service," she said. "Nowhere in God's Book are we commanded to be successful, but we are commanded to be faithful. Man's way of working has never been God's way."

The name of Moses, the Great Liberator of Israel, is listed in the Hall of Fame, set up in the 11th Chapter of Hebrews, not only because he was a successful organizer and leader, but because he was pleasure of sin for a season," she said.

Refreshments were served to the following class members present: Mrs. Ethel Johnson, M. E. Miller, Sam Thompson, Barber, Jack Eckelberry, Lee Lavender, Pearl Shropshire, Charles Wakefield, Curtis Barker, L. J. Taylor, Chester Hart, Irene Robertson, Reed, Whitmore and Mae Fuller.

Mrs. W. D. McClure was installing officer.

"A garden club is many things to many people," Mrs. McClure said. "Some use it as a step to sociability; some use it as a means of relaxation; some use it as a means of realizing a symbol; and some do use it to learn more about gardening and related subjects. But whatever benefit the individual feels; it also serves another purpose she may not recognize. It fulfills the need to be creative.

"You are the elected officers of this garden club. To you have been entrusted the duties of ensuring continuity and interest in programs that will be helpful and inspiring. It is your responsibility to try to help the group to be creative; not to improve on nature but to make our gardening truly a design for living," said Mrs. McClure.

Mrs. L. L. Comer was master of ceremonies for the luncheon.

Table centerpiece was an arrangement of Gladioli, Daylilies and Bells of Ireland. The coffee table arrangement was of Heliotrope and Mimosa blossoms.

Following the installation of new officers, Mrs. A. H. Jackson, retiring president, thanked the members for their co-operation during the year and pledged her continued support.

Mrs. Elliot, new president, expressed her appreciation of the honor accorded her and promised her service in garden club activities. She read a list of committees for the coming year and conducted a brief business session.

Members present at the luncheon were: Mmes. Ruth Airhart, R. B. Baker, Bridgford Brown, Roy Davis Coles, Comer, Elliot, Foster, Jim Hale, W. C. Hooks, Jackson, H. L. Lockhart, Martin, E. M. Owen, S. A. Palmer, Porter, J. B. Pritchett, L. J. Taylor and one guest, Mrs. McClure.

Mrs. Tie Vowell Presents Devotion

slide action rifle.

Left Winchester's handsome new Model 270 slide action rifle... work its lightninglike positive action and you'll see and feel how and why Winchester pumps have proven themselves as the accepted standard firearm in America's shooting galleries for over 60 years. And that's proving it the hard way... under the toughest shooting conditions. Fires, shorts, fogs, long rifles, interchangeable. Fully adjustable sights. Overall length, 39". Weight, 5 lbs. approximately. Choice of left-hand or right-hand slides in brown or black. Cycles (512-95), or walnut. Finishes (512-95). Try one today at

Mrs. Tie Vowell presented the devotion for the Monday meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of First Methodist Church.

Subject of Mrs. Vowell's devotion was "Roses." She compared the growth of the rose to Faith, Hope and Love in man's lives.

The rose of friendship was accepted as a symbol of this year's guild work.

The guild president, Mrs. Ethel Hardegree, presided during the business session.

Miss Nelda Garrett, as past District Secretary of the Guild, reported that this district is at the top in donations for this conference year. She also said that more studies were participated in than in previous years.

Mrs. Vowell suggested that as a new project, the guild send supplies to the school of underprivileged, Department of Correction, in Huntsville.

It was announced that visits and gifts to the Dawson Rest Home would be another project to be continued this year.

Mrs. Elmer Martin spoke to the "guild on the subject, "A Look Into Our Literature." She described the qualities of "Methodist Woman," "World Outlook" and other program books.

She also spoke on two other subjects, "Communism In China Today" and "I Must Make Time Count."

It was announced that theme for this year is to be "Witness Through Service."

Hostesses for the Monday meeting were Miss Effie Copeland and Mrs. Tommie Vermer and J. W. Hill.

The hostesses served refreshments of cake and ice cream to following members present:

New Church, New Pulpit, New Minister

Roy L. Holland, new minister of the Church of Christ, 22nd and Austin Sts., smiles over his new pulpit in the new $100,000 church building recently completed for the church. Members formerly worshiped in their church building at 5th and Elm Sts. Sunday, all-day, open house will be held with members as hosts in the new white brick structure which boasts a carpeted auditorium seating 450, perfect acoustics, and use of wood paneling, ceiling beams, and white brick facing near the pulpit.

SIX WEEKS

Calvin S. Girvin In UT Theater

Calvin S. Girvin, son of Mr. equivalent of the workshop. They include Mrs. Claire Abbott, Del Rio High School; Mrs. Futrell Jones, Gilmer High School; and Miss Lea Skinner, Judson High School, San Antonio. The teachers direct students in scenes produced for assemblies of the workshop group.

Two one-act plays will be produced July 1 and 2 in the Laboratory Theater by workshop participants. Dr. Winship will direct "Quest for an Answer" and Brown will direct "Hope is the Thing with Feathers."

Girvin was on the cast of the Colorado City award-winning one-act play this year, "Ugly Duckling." The play was presented in district, regional and state competition. For his role as king in the play, Girvin was named "Best Actor" in the district contest and was listed on the All-Star Cast in regional competition. Girvin will be a junior student at Colorado City High School next year.

All-day Open House At Church of Christ

Sunday (today) is the day set by members of the Church of Christ at 22nd and Austin Sts., formerly 5th and Elm Sts., for an all day open house in their new and very modern church building.

All members, former members, friends and interested citizens throughout the town and county are invited to attend. Open house hours are to be all day except, of course, during the Bible School, morning worship and evening service hours.

There will be members of the Church of Christ present to go with any guest who wishes to see the entire new church plant.

The new auditorium, with padded pews to seat 450 persons, is flanked on the east and on the west by rooms for classes of the church Bible school.

Interior is beautifully finished with polished wood paneling, open beams, and a trim of off-white brick which match the exterior brick construction. Floors are carpeted in a warm shade of sandy beige carpeting.

The building was completed recently at a cost of $100,000 with Killingsworth Construction Co., church building specialists of Dimmitt, as contractor.

The new church is 1963 in design, outside and inside, with its low-sloped roof lines marking the exterior and with an arch centering the pulpit dais to accent the V-shaped wood paneled ceiling.

Here in Colorado City, McSpadden told the council, proposed rates, based on 1962 will be reduced 8.3 percent for residential service and 8.1 percent in industrial and commercial bills.

"These percentages are over all averages," McSpadden told the city fathers. "Some bills will be reduced more than the overall average percent, while some will be reduced less than the overall average. Some bills will not be affected by the rate change."

"No electric service bills will be increased by the rates," he stated.

All residential bills for consumption in excess of 70 kwh will be lower on the proposed residential rate than on the present residential rate. Post-dential bills for consumption of 70 kwh or less will be unchanged by the proposed residential rate.

Rhythmic Choir To Give Program
Today (Sunday) at the First Methodist Church, the Rhythmic Choir composed of four youths and a vocal accompanist, will present a special music program.

The Rhythmic Choir is an ancient form of worship which is being revived in churches around the world. This choir is symbolic of the fine arts being used for inspiration in worship.

Junior High Youth Group Stages Meet
The Junior High Youth Group of First Methodist Church met at the church Saturday evening to attend a group swimming party.

The Junior High Council will meet next Friday morning to plan summer activities.

Registration for Junior High Camp is fast approaching the deadline, so if there is any youngster who wishes to register, he is asked to contact the church youth director.

BRIDGFORD—

Paris July 17.23
Countries the Colorado City woman and her Sweetwater daughter will visit are England, Holland, Leichtenstein, Germany, Austria, Monaco, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy and France. They leave Dallas for New York at 10 a. m. Tuesday, depart New York at 9:30 p. m., via Lufthansa Airlines charter flight, to arrive in London at 8 a. m. Wednesday June 19.

In England they will visit Stratford and Oxford June 22 then embark by overnight steamer for Amsterdam. They will go to Volendam on the Zuider Zee and drive to Cologne. They board a Rhine steamer June 28 for a trip through the Rhine Valley to Boppard, then to Heidelberg via motor coach.

From Heidelberg they will visit Rothenberg, Munich then Berlin. Back in Munich the party will drive through Southern Germany to Oberammergau, then proceed through the Swiss Alps to Lucerne June 30. After a full day of leisure in Lucerne they leave July 2 for Innsbruck.

Venice will mean transfer to their hotel by gondola. Next will come visits to Florence, a sight-seeing tour of Rome, Naples, Capri, La Spezia, Nice, Lyon. From Lyon they depart for Paris July 17. Another highlight is to be a drive along the Mediterranean coast — Monte Carlo, Versaille.

July 21 they leave Paris for Brussels, spend a morning in Cologne and leave for New York via 707 jet at noon July 22. They will arrive in New York in late afternoon.

Accompanying the Bride, fords, in addition to a number of District 5 teachers, will be Miss La Marvill Oliver, teacher of business administration classes in Sul Ross College. Miss Oliver is the sister of Mrs. Bridgford Jr.

Webb said, while the interior is being renovated. A complete new system of refrigerated air is to be installed.

The new manager is a native West Texan who grew up in San Angelo and is a graduate of San Angelo High School. He has been with Rowley United for the past six years. In Taylor he was a member of the Rotary Club. He is a Baptist.

Rowley is planning to redecorate and furnish an apartment upstairs above the theater to be used as living quarters for Webb when the apartment is completed.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 Church of Christ members and their minister Roy L. Holland also invite the public to an old-fashioned gospel singing in the new auditorium. The gospel singing is the only formal program planned for the church open house date.

Gospel meeting for the church begins Monday and is to continue through Sunday June 23 with Bob Hoover of Lubbock as speaker. Three daily services are scheduled for 7 a. m. — a 30 minute service; for 10 a. m. and for 7:30 p. m. each evening.

Johnnie Prude now of Lubbock and Elliott Dixon.

It was after his return from overseas duty with the cavalry in World War I that Ross Dixon Sr. opened his first movie house. Located where the Ben Franklin store is now the first show was destroyed by fire.

Dixon then built the old Ritz Theater which he operated for many years at the corner of Walnut and 2nd. In the early fifties he also built two drive-in theaters, the Texan on Highway 288 no longer in existence and the Lone Wolf, Highway 80, still in operation.

Annie Dixon expressed feelings of mixed emotions about the sale of the Palace and her retirement as a Rowley employee.

"I'm a little blind," she said "to consider a change of name. And I'm a little sad, too." Her eyes for the future are indefinite. She is working right now as relief coffee shop cashier and desk clerk for Baker Hotel.

She looks forward to several things she counts as intangible bonuses. It pleases her to think she can now have Sundays off and go to church. Nights free. And more time to visit her daughter, the former Miss Judy Dixon, Judy's husband Tommy Williams and their two-year-old child Sherri Dawn.

She would like, she confessed to take a trip to California to see Ross Dixon Jr., her husband's son, his wife, the former Miss Ginni Caffey, and their four children.

Right now, she's "mostly resting."

on purpose. The couple, married 38 years, have no children and have no relatives closer than Michigan. They've spent the winter in the Baker Hotel here.

"We like this town," Mr. Lamberson said. "It's a lot more fun than a hospital at home." For diversion, during warmer and dry weather they travel about the countryside nearby (in a little used car they bought for fun) collecting rocks, arrowheads.

He would like more than anything to "find just one rattlesnake." His wife shuddered. But her husband added with a smile "as snakes go" they're the most beautiful reptile of all. As many rattlesnakes as other men catch and kill around here, I don't know why I've not yet seen a single one, as many days as I've looked."

A town with such warm, dry, West Texas air is fine, he said again. One rattlesnake souvenir would be even finer. Mr. Lamberson smiled.

CONVERSATION CORNER

RECENT survey made for the American Restaurant Association solemnly sets forth for publication this information: men and women "dine out" for quite different reasons!

Now wouldn't that frost your iced tea glasses? Women, the survey shows, eat out because they want to. Men eat out because they have to—or because they like to show off by entertaining anybody from a business associate to a wife doing the anniversary waltz.

WOMEN want to eat out as much as possible to keep from cooking and, even more, to keep from cleaning up the kitchen after the cooking.

Men have to lunch or dine out when they're too far away to get home when they get hungry.

Motives for menu scanning are different. Orders are different, too. Women want the exotic. Men stick to steak and spuds.

THERE really isn't anything so world-shaking about a survey stating that women are different from men and vice versa.

As a philosopher holding both the MRS and the MA degrees (MA being short for Mama) we've known since forever that women and men have different reasons for just about everything there is.

A WOMAN buys a hat for its shock value—or for its uplifting influence when all her belts are in the last notch. A man buys a hat to keep his head warm in winter—or to shade his eyes in summer.

WOMEN wear clothes as adornment for various occasions. Men wear them solely to cover their nakedness. Women read daily papers to see the styles and digest the aching heart columns.

Men read 'em to see the standing of the Big Leagues or maybe the price of some stock.

PRACTICALLY everything any man does is because he has to. He "has to" shave. Has to get a haircut. Has to get the car serviced. Has to pay the bills. Has to take a nap. Has to write the kids.

Man is a creature of "has to" and habit. Woman? Why, she's the "want to" party of the second part—and has been since Eden. Woman is 50 percent "I want to" and the rest just "I want."

LIFE being what it is, and largely made up of rules, regulations and laws of nature, we pause this official Father's Day to salute the men, God bless 'em, and to congratulate the fathers of this world.

Without fathers, there'd be no mothers. Without mothers, there'd be no grandmothers. And that would be a real calamity.

Fathers, like husbands, are not born. They're made. Made with some perseverance, a little tact, and much cunning on the part of the mothers of men.

IN ALL seriousness, Father's Day—usually a poor second in money spent and sentiments sent—is a day most of us like to keep for sentimental reasons. The two fathers we've known best—ours and our offsprings' and both better known as "Daddy"—are as different as brandy and buttermilk.

THE THING they have in common is a beautiful, unchallenged fact. Each LOVED their children with fierce pride and deep tenderness and grand parental ambitions for them.

Finest tribute ever made to fathers of this world can be found in the Bible. It is that familiar comparison of love an earthly father has with love of the Heavenly Father.

It goes "As a father pitieth his children . . ." and it is beautifully and simply true. So . . . so blessings on every father who ever wore last year's britches to keep a kid in college. Their name is legion.

LOCAL SCENE brought out the recently returned face of Hattie Ramsdell after an extended stay in Denver, Colorado, with daughter Elsie Ann, Elsie's husband Fred Scalfie, and the grandchildren Joyce Ann and Jim. The Scalfies brought her home and are to return soon for a longer visit here.

Saw for the first time in a month of Sundays Nat Thomas Sr. having downtown morning coffee . . . Bob Carver and his son Johnny.

JOHNNY CARVER, almost 12 and headed for 7th grade, is a Boy Scout, member of the Coyote Patrol here. Knew it for sure Thursday when he backtracked to open with rare courtesy two heavy doors for a lady editor headed for the afternoon desk shift.

SHOPPING SCENE parts were played by the Charles Wakefields . . . Mrs. Oscar Majors . . . The A. K. McCarleys
