Ochiltree County Third War Loan Quota $489,800

Open Drive Today to Raise 15 Billion

Test Capacity of Americans to Match Sacrifices of Sons

How far will Ochiltree county folks go in backing the attack of their fighting men against enemy fortresses? The Third War Loan, starting today, will furnish a clear-cut answer as to how determined, what sacrifices Ochiltree county people are willing to make to keep step with the young men and women from this county, we have put in uniform to do the fighting for us.

The quota for Ochiltree county in the Third War Loan campaign is $489,800, that's a lot of money, $116.26 from each man, woman and child in Ochiltree county. But it is a lot of money, when the banks of Ochiltree county have more than three and one-half million dollars on deposit? It means that less than fifteen per cent of the bank deposits of Ochiltree county will purchase the county's bond quota.

This three and one-half million dollars of deposits is not divided equally among the people of the county. This means that every man, woman and child in Ochiltree county will not be able to buy their proportion share of the Third War Loan. It means that those that have money must buy many more times than the $116.26 per person in order to make up for those that do not have as much money.

It is hoped by the Third War Loan committee that voluntary bond purchases will come in sufficient amounts that personal calls and solicitations will not be necessary. However the machinery for a house-to-house, door-to-door, and office-to-office campaign is being set up and it will be used if necessary.

To the People of this Community:

ARE YOU REALLY AT WAR?

What does being at war mean to you? Less gasoline for your car? Less sugar in your coffee? Higher prices for your food and clothes? Separation from your husband?

Sure, it has meant all those things, some serious and some really trivial for a period when your actual safety is at stake.

But has the war meant BLOOD, SWEAT AND TEARS to you? In many instances YES. The first stage of invasion has already pushed our casualties over the 100,000 mark.

The gold stars which decorate thousands of our homes today are a challenge to the vast majority of us to do our best in the Third War Loan. No good American wants to see one more gold star added to the firmament of life. We educate our youth for life, not for death. If they die, they die so that we might live. Every extra War Bond you buy today will back the invasion so that there will be less blood, sweat and tears for you and your friends.

Money for Smokes For Men Overseas

The American Legion reports that contributions the past two weeks for the purchase of cigarettes for men serving in the armed forces overseas amounted to $23,211. Less than two months ago the local Post of The American Legion placed jars in several business houses with explanatory signs, asking for nickels, dimes, quarters, etc. O. R. Truax, who is looking after this activity for the Legion, reports that to date $143.50 has been contributed. The tobacco companies are cooperating in this project, and cigarettes are purchased for five cents a package. Put in your change and help buy smokes for our boys. You will find jars near the cash registers in the business houses.

Religious Census On October 3

A community-wide religious survey will be conducted by all churches on Sunday afternoon, October 3, according to information released by the Perryton Ministers Association. This is the first church census in about three years.

The committee named by the Association for the survey consisted of Rev. Ward H. N. Greer, pastor of the Christian Church, and Rev. Ralph Durham, Pastor of the Baptist Church. Members from all the churches will assist with the census. Following the survey, on October 3 a meeting of all workers and interested persons will be held. The place of this meeting will be announced. The time will be at 7 p. m.

Clifford M. Tepe Funeral Tuesday

Funeral services were held in Clifford M. Tepe, age 39, who passed away suddenly Saturday night at the home of his father. Burial was in the Canadian cemetery.

Mr. Tepe lived in Perryton in the early 1920s. For the past several years, he has made his home in California. He has been in poor health for some time, and had returned to Canadian about three weeks ago. He is the son of Ben P. Tepe, Canadian. Other survivors are a daughter, Marilee, a son, Benny Dee, and three sisters, Mrs. T. J. Wright, Pampa, Mrs. George Carver, and Miss Vera Tepe, both of Canadian.

Three Inch Rain Drenches Perryton Area

It is thought that every part of the Perryton area was soaked by the downpours of last Friday afternoon and night. Reports from every direction indicate that the rainfall ranged from one and one-half inches to as much as five inches. The measurement at the official government weather station, maintained at the home of District Judge Jack Allen in Perryton, was 2.80 inches.

This is the first rain of general coverage for many months. Rains during the spring and summer were of local coverage and most of them torrential downpours.

Considerable hail accompanied the Friday night rain and some damage was inflicted on feed crops and gardens. Much wheat that was already sowed, some of it pushing through the ground, was covered up and will have to be redried.

It now appears that there is sufficient moisture in the ground to bring up fall pasture for live stock. With the greatest number of cattle and sheep ever in the Perryton area, and an acute shortage of feed, good wheat pasture during the winter is a "must" this year.

Ray Johnson, who is in the sea-bed stationed at Williamsburg, Va., left for camp Tuesday after a few days at home. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Johnson of the New Hope community.

Here Are Securities You Can Buy During Third War Loan Campaign; National Goal 15 Billion

Securities to fit every class and type of investor will be sold to the American people during the Third War Loan campaign opening September 9.

Salient facts about each type of security follow:

United States Savings Bonds Series E. Now the most widely sold security in America. Known as the People's Bond the Series E War Bonds are issued to meet the needs of the small investor. No one person may buy more than $5000, maturity value $3750 purchase price, in any one calendar year. For every $3 invested in Series E Bonds you receive $4 at the end of 10 years. They are dated the first day of the month in which payment is received by an authorized issuing agent. Due 10 years from issue date. Interest return: equivalent to 2.9 per cent compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity. Denominations: $25, $50, $100, $500, and $1000. Issue price is 75 per cent of maturity value. Owners may redeem bond in whole or in part at any time 60 days after issue date without notice at stated redemption values. Cannot be used as collateral for loans.

United States Savings Bonds Series F and G. For larger investors. Series F, issued at a discount, are commonly known as 12-year appreciation bonds. Redeemable at option of owner at increased fixed redemption values. Increase in value represents the interest return, which is approximately 5.3 per cent compounded semi-annually if bonds are held to maturity. Issue price is 74 per cent of maturity value. Issued in $25, $100, $500, $1000, $5000, and $10,000 denominations. Limit on holdings: $109,000 (issue price), of either series or a combination of both F and G, in any one calendar year. Who may buy: All classes of purchasers other than commercial banks accepting demand deposits.

Redemption. On the first of any month, six months after issue date upon one month's written notice.

Series G Bonds are issued at par. They bear interest at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent a year, the interest being payable semi-annually by Treasury check. They mature 12 years from issue date. They are redeemable prior to maturity at option of owner, at fixed redemption prices, which are less than the face amount of the bonds for interest adjustment purposes. In the matter of who may buy, limit on holdings, and redemptions they are similar to the F Series. Denominations are $100, $500, $1000, $5000, and $10,000.

Treasury Savings Notes of Series C. Issued at par in $1000, $5000, $10,000, $50,000, and $100,000 denominations. Designed for Federal tax payments and short term investment. Due three years from issue date. Investment yield is 1.07 per cent a year if held to maturity; lesser yield if redeemed for cash or tendered in payment of taxes at earlier dates. May be redeemed at par and accrued interest, after six months from purchase date. May be used as collateral for loans from banking institutions. Limited amount by any individual, or bank, corporation or other entity.

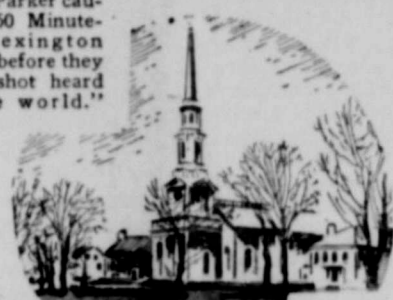

Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness. Dated September 15th, 1943, due September 1, 1944, paying 3 per cent. They will be available for subscription by investors during the entire period of the drive. The certificate of the drive.

Iron Lung Will Arrive In Few Days

County Judge Dave Shanks announces that factory representatives will arrive in Perryton in a few days to demonstrate a respirator, better known as an iron lung. It is manufactured by the same company that made the one from Berger used on a case in Perryton recently. It is of the same type.

While no definite contract has been made for the purchase, it is likely that funds for the purchase will be provided by the County Commissioners' Court.

The factory representatives will give a course of instruction to physicians and nurses if the lung is purchased.

JUST HERE and THERE

Editor Orlando Blackburn of the Texas City Sun has the following to say about those who ask for front page position.

"Please don't ask that your news items be placed on the front page. If, in the editor's opinion it is worthy of that recognition it will reach the front page without asking for it."

"Demanding or requesting that certain items be placed on the front page is just like waving a red flag in front of a bull. It is the same as saying, 'You have a drink, one-page newspaper and no one looks further than the cover.'"

"It is this paper's policy to put live, interesting news throughout the entire paper. It would be impossible to do that and put everything on the front page. It increases the advertising value of our paper to put interesting reading matter on the same pages. That is why we try to put some of our best stories on the inside of the paper."

Alabama Senator John H. Bankhead in speaking on legislation providing for the government buying advertising instead of having same sponsored by private business, said, "The government pays for everything it buys and for all services rendered it in all phases of carrying on the war effort, with one exception... it declines to pay for newspaper space used in raising the money to pay for everything else."

We want to thank Mr. and Mrs. See No. 4, Back Page

Perryton War Dads Have 83 Members

The Perryton Chapter of the American War Dads met at the Legion Hall Tuesday night. President Dave Shanks says that regular meetings will be held at the Legion Hall on the 7th of each month, except when the 7th falls on Sunday or on a day that conflicts with other scheduled meetings of the Legion or its affiliated organizations.

The local chapter now has 83 members. The 7th day of the month was selected in commemoration of Pearl Harbor.

Old Phono Records To Herald Office

The American Legion is anxious to collect all the old discarded and broken phonograph records in the Perryton area. These records are salvaged and used for the moulding of new records that go to the fighting men in camps all over the globe. Records are to be left at the Ochiltree County Herald office.

Supt. Wedgeworth Has Full Faculty Employed for 1943-44 Term Perryton School System

C. Wedgeworth, superintendent of the Perryton Public Schools, announces that everything is in readiness for the opening of school next Monday morning, Sept. 13. Opening of school was delayed one week on account of the polio threat but as only one case has developed in the Perryton area, it is thought the danger is past.

Perryton Bank Deposits Exceed Three And One-half Million

Cashier C. E. Woods of the Perryton National Bank stated today that the deposits of that bank were in excess of $850,000, an increase of $160,000 since the June 30 call. The First National Bank has $2,667,074 on deposit bringing the total deposits of the two banks to well over three and one-half million dollars, by far the largest in the history of Perryton and Ochiltree county. Ochiltree county has been assigned a quota of $489,800 in the Third War Loan campaign that opened today. This quota is less than fifteen per cent of the total bank deposits. Uncle Sam is not asking us to give one cent of this money, but he is asking that we loan him less than fifteen per cent of our savings to feed, clothe and equip the boys who are fighting our battles. With all this wealth, is not fifteen per cent a mighty small part to invest in a war to bring peace once more to the world?

Legion Committees Announced

A. P. Spicer, commander of the Perryton American Legion Post, announced the appointment of the following standing committees for the year, at the Monday night meeting. Executive: H. I. Hudson, A. R. Hogland and H. C. Graham.

Ministers Association Met on September 6

The regular meeting of the Perryton Ministers Association was held Monday, September 6, at the Christian church study, with Rev. Ralph Durham, presiding. Rev. Ward H. N. Gregg was elected secretary-treasurer.

Resolutions were passed expressing appreciation by the Association to Rev. S. R. McClung and Rev. Dan L. Blickenstaff, who have resigned and taken assignments elsewhere. Rev. McClung served as pastor of the Perryton Baptist Church seven years, and Rev. Blickenstaff was pastor at the Waka Church of the Brethren. Due to these members leaving, changes were made in committees of the Association.

Rev. R. L. Showalter is chairman of the Publicity committee, and Rev. W. E. Fisher is chairman of the committee on arrangements and program for the mass meetings.

The opening exercises will be held in the auditorium at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning with the general public invited to attend the program. Following the program, pupils will go to their classrooms to register and receive books. Pupils will be at school all day on opening day. School will take up at 9:30 a. m. and dismiss at 4:30 p. m. Regular class schedule will begin Tuesday morning. Bus drivers and routes are the same as last year.

Faculty is Complete
Superintendent Wedgeworth states that the faculty is complete for the year. About twenty-five per cent of the teachers are new this year. In view of the great change-over in all schools, this per centage of turn-over is less than most schools. Mrs. Roy Ratliff will continue as school secretary.

Following are the members of the faculty:

Senior High School
Martin L. Stevens, principal and mathematics.
Tom Slack, physical education.
Don R. Hayes, music and band.
C. H. Williams, vocational agriculture.

E. L. Goolsby, manual arts.
Warren Marshall, history.
G. B. Henry, science.
Miss Verna Harris, English.
Miss Mary Dean Dozier, English and Spanish.
Miss Eugenia Mitchell, History and English.
Miss Maudie Jo Fields, librarian.
Miss Betty Jane Alexander, home economics.

Legion Picnic At Darrouzett

Plans were announced at the Monday night meeting of the Perryton American Legion Post and Auxiliary Unit for a picnic to be held at the bridge on Highway 117, east of Darrouzett, Monday evening, Sept. 20. The picnic will feature a "pot luck" supper.

Members of the Legion and Auxiliary and their families from Perryton, Booker, Darrouzett and Pollett will join in the picnic.

At the Monday meeting, Commander A. P. Spicer announced the formation of an emergency call system whereby the entire membership of the Post can be contacted in a few minutes.

Plans were also discussed for the providing of a recreation hall for soldiers from Liberal and other nearby bases who come to Perryton on Saturdays and Sundays.

To the People of this Community:

PLAIN WARNING TO YOU!
Here is a plain warning to you...

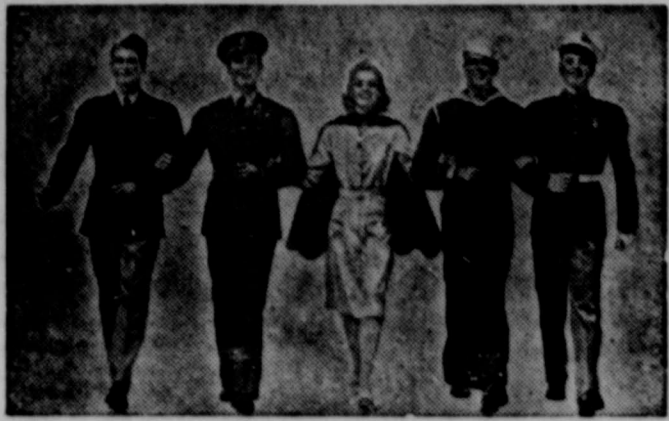

"This war will last until 1949 or longer if the home front fails to back up our men in battle!"

Frank Knox, Secretary of the Navy.

Buying War Bonds to the point of temporary personal sacrifice is the most direct way you can comply with Secretary Knox's appeal.

"Temporary sacrifice" is the correct phrase because you are only lending your money when you buy War Bonds. This government which never has defaulted on an obligation will pay you back $4 for every $3 invested if you hold the bonds for 10 years.

The least you can do is to back the attack with War Bonds today. Buy extra Bonds above your normal Bond buying.

Our Defenders Speak!

The Herald asks that men and women from this community serving in the armed forces write letters to this department for publication. Letters to relatives that would be of interest to the public will be published under this heading.

Good Morning Mr. Stewart:

Business is a little slack for me this Sunday morning so the only thing I know to do, is use up a part of the morning answering a few letters. It's a good idea to get as much of your work as possible done in the forenoon, because so many times by afternoon you find that you don't have the energy left to do much of anything. The nights and early mornings here are swell, but from about eleven a. m. to four p. m. old Sol really puts the pressure on a guy around here.

Since this campaign ended, we have moved way back and are not working any harder than is absolutely necessary. Just so you are stirring around enough to keep awake, is about all that is expected.

It's

Time!

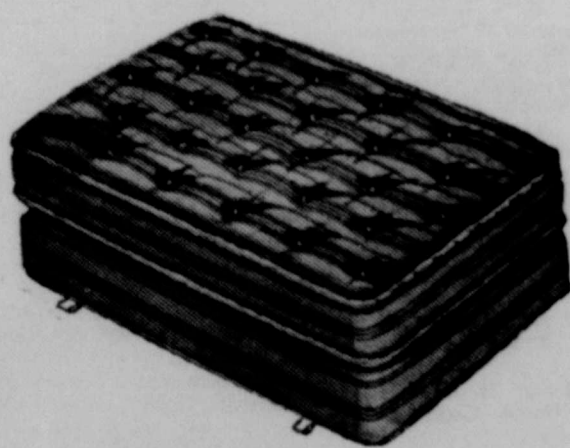

NOW—today or tomorrow—is the time to put your car in tune for summer driving. Since you no longer drive it for fun it's become a strictly business proposition to have it reconditioned for top performance, gas economy, long life and satisfaction.

only four or five inches deep, while others it ranged around eighteen or twenty. Very little breeze in this country, so once you got this dust well into the air, it hovered there like smoke on a damp day. After "bucking" a long convoy for a few hours you'd come out looking like a ghost that had fallen out of a flour barrel. But Van we have one bunch of soldiers with us this trip that the road hazards and dust doesn't bother. Have you ever met the French "Goumbes"? He is as tough as a pig's snout, and twice as nasty to handle. He hails from French Morocco and is the true native of North Africa. (The Arab is not) is as black as the ace of spades and wears a kinky full beard and short kinky hair. They are natural born fighters, because that's all he's done for the last three thousand years. I don't think the "goumbes" were ever completely whipped, because when the battles got too tough for him, he took to the hills of Morocco and lived like a coyote until the conqueror forgot all about him, then he sneaks out and enlists in the conqueror's army and starts fighting with him. At any rate he is not satisfied unless he is in somebody's army.

Well he is now under the command of the French in N. Africa, and took part in this last campaign with us. But he too is working under a handicap, because of this sophisticated idea of fighting now days. The French and British and American officers keep insisting that he wear clothes and a big handsome pair of G. I. shoes and carry a rifle and a lot of other unnecessary equipment. But he lets them have their way, at least until he gets out of sight, then I think he pulls off his shoes and what other clothing that he doesn't want, and goes into battle with a feeling of ease and comfort. He likes to work at night in rough country, and many times single handed. When he gets into a German or Italian bivouac area, it's like a skunk getting into your chicken pen. The next morning when the Jerry mess sergeant lets out his chow call, the only response he gets is the hollow, empty, echo of his own voice. Right away he knows something's wrong, and when he investigates he finds all his "chow hounds" laying around with their throats cut from ear to ear, and the dickens of it is, there is not an enemy in sight. So the next night the mess sergeant puts in a very bad night, full of nightmares, and every little while he is awakened by his yelling and finds that his manly brow is covered with cold sweat, and he doesn't seem to be able to forget how his comrades looked, laying there with their throats cut. He's seen lots of people shot, but somehow this knife business is different, at least when his comrades were shot he knew about it instantly, but this knife doesn't make any noise, "Och Gott un Himmel!" So the "goumb" gets back to his own camp just as his comrades are getting ready for breakfast, he is all smiles and his pants legs are caked with blood where he has wiped his hands and knife many times. When asked why he doesn't want any breakfast, he tells his friends that after he completed his job of the night he found that he was very hungry, so he dropped by the Jerry's kitchen to see what they had on the bill of fare. While ramaging thru their kitchen he came upon some cheese, sardines, and "erstaz" bread. He is very fond of all three, so gathers up a bunch of it and heads back to camp, eating on the way. Now he is a little sleep, all he wants is a little sleep, so crawls up in the shade of a small bush and is soon sound asleep, he goes to sleep with a grin on his face because he is pleased with his success of the night before. Altho he may not realize it, he is a thorn in the side of every German or Italian. A darn good guy to be on friendly terms with. And took first place in an Italian poll, "the man who I would most rather not be marooned on a desert island with." So much for the "goumb."

As for the American soldier, I can't see a great lot of change in him only that he maybe is growing a little more ill-tempered all the time. And maybe belly-aches, a little louder about his work, grab bed clothes or anything that happens to come in sight. But don't worry about him, he'll get in a nice humor just as soon as he is out of cigarettes or razor blades or something else.

Van we are camped here now right up in the middle of a big almond grove, they are just turning ripe now, and the best one's I've even seen. We took the owners completely by surprise when we moved in. As soon as they discovered us they made a desperate attempt to get their almonds harvested, but too late, the dog faces had an even break with them. But on the other hand, hardly a day goes by that we don't get "look" for a few cigarettes, so I guess it just about balances out in the end.

Well Mr. Stewart I have no more news here so maybe I'd as well close off for now. And besides I'm way behind with my worrying. I've found that the best way to worry is to take a blanket and a mosquito net and go out someplace where you won't be bothered, find a nice shade tree, spread your blanket down, and erect your net over it. It's best to prop a stick under it, or tie it up to a low branch to keep it from tickling you on the nose. If you don't take this precaution, once you get started worrying, you keep thinking it's a fly pestering you, and it interferes quite a lot, you don't seem to be able to concentrate, also it's better to worry only for a couple of hours at a time, at the end of two hours it's good to take a check on the chow truck, otherwise you're liable to miss chow, and then you WILL have something to worry about.

Lots of luck to all.
Ever,
E. W. (Buck) Garrison

Camp Parks, Pleasanton, Calif.

Dear Van:
I am now in the sailors rest camp. We are about 40 or 50 miles from San Francisco in a little camp near Pleasanton. We very seldom work, we have nice barracks, and good food. Most of the companies are here at least two weeks, sometimes three. We are surrounded by small mountains but there are no trees on the base. There is an air field near the camp and trainers are flying around continuously.

The uniform of the day is whites unless we are on detail. We wear the same uniform all day long here, while in training we wore at least two different ones, sometimes three in one day.

I went to San Francisco on twenty-five hour liberty Sunday. I saw many things I'd never thought of seeing. Going across the Oakland Bay bridge to San Francisco I saw Treasure Island, Alcatraz Island, the Golden Gate bridge and most of all the eastern views of San Francisco. By the way, I was riding with a couple and their daughter named Andrews, from Fresno, Calif. They were very interesting and friendly. They pointed out and told me of all the sights and doings in San Francisco that I might be interested in. They invited me to go through China town with them, as their daughter, who is about twelve years old, wanted to buy a china doll. I saw some of the queerest and most quaint things, a person would dream of seeing. They had a few things I would like to have, but they were priced too high. Betty, the daughter bought a doll priest, "a dumb boy," as she called it. She said her sister, nineteen years old, probably wouldn't let her keep it in their room, now isn't that just like a big sister.

I left them about two thirty Sunday afternoon and went to the USO to find a room. I got a fairly nice room for a dollar in the Will Rogers Hotel. I ate a small lunch at the USO and went for a ride on a street car. I toured the town on foot and went through the USO centers. The USO and Salvation Army are really doing their job to make the fellows feel at home.

I started back from S. F. at nine thirty Monday morning, rode in four or five different cars on the way back. The people are really swell to pick service men up. I got back to camp at eleven o'clock and my liberty was at twelve thirty.

It is now twenty minutes to one and I've eaten chow, and waiting for muster.

Anyone who will write me will get an answer as soon as possible.
Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Stewart:
This is the letter I have been looking forward to writing ever since I wrote you to stop my paper from coming to Camp Berkeley.

It has been about a month since I have had a paper from my home town, and I really miss it. I am a long way from that good old place back there on the plains of Texas, but I sure wish to heck I could set foot on them right now. The climate is just the opposite of that in Texas, because it is rather cold up here. You sure can sleep up here. The climate is not all that different, the people, scenery, towns, and many other things are all different.

You know how the country around Coolidge Springs is, well it is of some similarity to that up here.

I can also add that I am working in a Station Hospital as a ward attendant and during the winter it will be nice and warm, better than out in the cold up here, which is not very nice.

Just thinking you now for the paper you and the USO will be sending me in the future.

As ever,

—FOR VICTORY BUY BONDS—
September 1, 1943

Dear Van:
I wish to thank you and the USO for sending the paper to me each week. Inasmuch as I have moved around a great deal, it has not always been possible for me to get the paper each week, but when it does reach me, I fairly devour all of the news.

I was transferred here some three weeks ago and like everything, including my work. Of course, I naturally wanted to get into some legal branch of the army, but am very pleased where I am. I am temporarily assigned to the field until certain changes can be made in the Training Group I. I take dictation and handle correspondence for the group commander. In my spare time, I take leading lists from the various squadrons who have ships flying, and post them on a bulletin board. In that capacity, I am classified as an operations clerk. I have found the work to be very interesting, and at least, different from anything that I have ever done before. About the only thing I could say against the work is that I have such long hours, but when you stop to think that there is a job to be done, the matter is trivial.

Thanking you again for the paper, and with best wishes to you and the Herald staff and other friends, I am Sincerely yours,
Helen May

August 27, 1943

Dear Van:
Just received your paper of June the tenth, and want to thank you for making it possible for so many nice letters from the home town people. Each one was read twice to make sure I didn't miss anything for their sure help.

To show you how unlucky I have been, I haven't seen a soldier since I left P. still that I knew. And I have seen them from the four corners and always plenty of strange faces.

Have seen lots of beautiful sights since I left home. It's supposed to be the coldest winter in years here. There are always plenty of flowers of all kinds blooming, if this is winter I don't know what they call summer here.

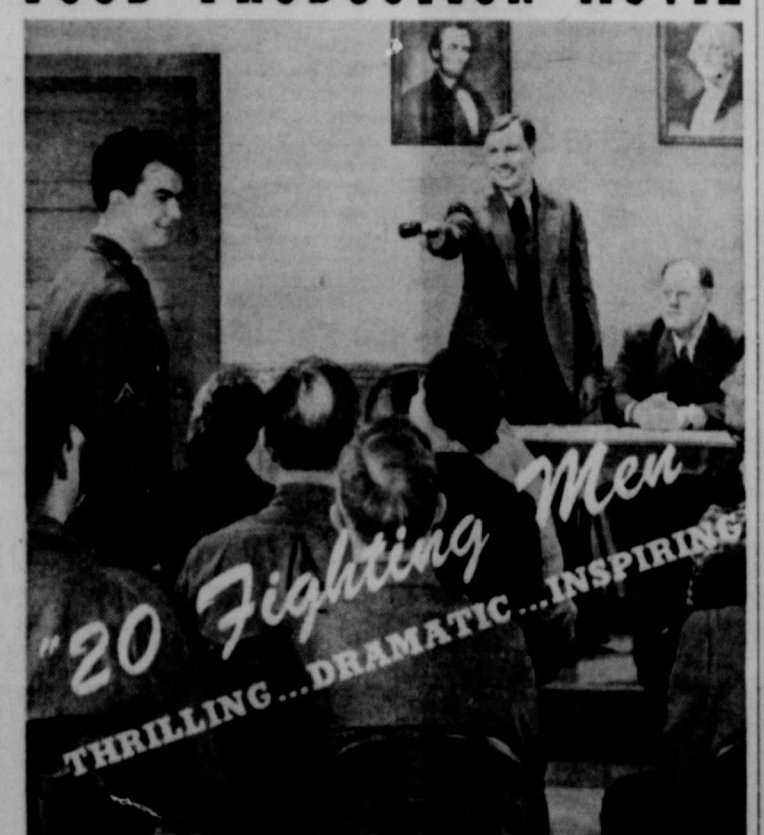

As for my work, I like it fine, even though its long hours and hard work. Just anything to help end this and get back home. My cooking hasn't killed anyone yet. I have the scales up to thirteen stones and six pounds, how much is that?

I had better close for now for it is going to be a long night.

Ever,
Lewis Laley

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: James R. Mason, Alice Reed, E. L. White, W. E. Heffner and Olive N. Heffner, and Geo. E. Montgomery, The Unknown Heirs of any deceased defendant, GREETING:
You are commanded to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 11th day of October, A. D. 1943, at or before 10 o'clock a. m., before the Honorable District Court of Ochiltree County, at the Court House in Perryton, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 24 day of August, 1943. The file number of said suit being No. 728.

The names of the parties in said suit are: Thomas Morrissey, John Morrissey, James Morrissey, John Morrissey, Mary Morrissey, Catherine Morrissey, Annie Morrissey, and Elizabeth Morrissey, as Plaintiffs, and James R. Mason, Alice Reed, E. L. White, W. E. Heffner, and Geo. E. Montgomery, The Unknown Heirs of any deceased defendant, as Defendants.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit: Plaintiff's suit is one of statutory trespass to try title to Section 208, Block 43, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. in Ochiltree County, Texas.

In count one plaintiffs set up that Miss Essie Todd and Mrs. A. C. Nies were visitors in Beaver, Okla., Monday.

They are the sole heirs at law of Wm. Morrissey and Johanna Morrissey, and as such heirs own said land in common and ask the court to establish by judgment such heirship so vested in them.
In Count Two plaintiffs plead twenty-five year Statute of Limitation as a ground for recovery, setting up substantially Article 5519 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, all of which will more clearly appear by reference to plaintiff's petition on file herein, to which reference is here made.

Issued this the 24 day of August, 1943.
Irvin R. Buchanan, Dep. Clk. Dist. Ct. Ochiltree Co., Texas.
Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Perryton, D. 1943.

Fighting Dollars

It may be true, as someone has said, that "Seldom comes a loan laughing home," but never did individuals have greater reasons for sending a loan smiling on its way than under the opportunity to "Back the Attack With War Bonds." Victories in North Africa, Sicily, Russia, and the Pacific, developments in Italy, effective bombings in Germany, Rumania, and elsewhere on the Continent, have eased the burden in many a heart and brought that much closer the time when America's fighting lads will be setting glad faces toward home shores.

This increase in the Allied offensive tempo calls for a corresponding acceleration of every kind of homefront effort, not the least of which is the purchase of War Bonds. Thus the Third War Loan campaign which is to open on September 9 aims at a national minimum goal of $15,000,000,000—the greatest financial task ever undertaken by any nation. Since commercial banks are to be excluded from purchasing the securities, the success of the drive will depend on the readiness of each individual to make every available dollar a fighting dollar.

The American public already has placed many billions in War Bonds, and loyally surpassed original goals in the two previous Bond campaigns. But the men in the service have not stopped with one victory, or two, or three; they continue to put forth everything they have into the onward push for total victory. September will show how the home folks are keeping pace.—The Christian Science Monitor—August 13, 1943

To Curb Extravagance

Several months ago the Special Joint Committee on Reduction of Non-Essential Federal Expenditures, of which Senator Harry F. Byrd is chairman, recommended that more than 3,000,000 federal civilian employees be reduced by at least 300,000. Since then, the Senator from Virginia has expressed the opinion that this reduction should be 500,000 at a minimum.

At the hearings which will start in September, department heads are expected to be called up and asked to justify the sizes of their working forces and to explain what steps, if any, they have taken to reduce personnel.

Commenting on the War Department's announced plans to cut off 105,000 civilian employees, Senator Byrd said this step is "encouraging if it's done."

Another investigation scheduled by the Committee this fall will probe into all operations of the RFC and its subsidiary corporations, including the Defense Plant Corporation. Special attention is expected to be directed to expenditures and commitments made by these agencies on behalf of the Office of Economic Warfare.

Postwar Planning Now

The more a company looks into postwar planning the more it uncovers the danger of letting postwar planning slide. After its first duty toward winning the war, the second duty of enterprise is toward securing the peace.

With this in mind, a large section of American management is devoting its overtime to postwar thinking and planning. It will be as big a job to get enterprise out of war as it has been to get it in.

Fortunately, management recognizes this and knows that the only way to get planning done in time is to start right now. The larger firms are leading the way, with small companies not far behind. Whether large or small, they want to know where they are going and they feel that their employees too have a right to know about the future.

They don't want the inexperienced, impractical blueprinters of the future to plan them right out of the picture, leaving jobs and materials on paper and nowhere else. Theirs are the plans of men successful in peacetime production, in wartime production, and in every likelihood, in postwar production.

The High Cost of War

Shortly after the President's request for a "truly stiff program of additional taxes, savings, or both," Chairman Walter F. George of the Senate Finance Committee warned that drastically higher income taxes on individuals may destroy the middle class. He cautioned against higher corporate rates that would cripple industry and create disastrous results in the postwar era. The Senator from Georgia estimated that some $5,000,000,000 or $6,000,000,000 is the most that can safely be raised without "destroying our taxpayers."

In order to get five or six billions, the corporate normal and surtax rate must be raised from 40 to 50 per cent. This is drastic. Many businesses have not made more money as a result of the war. Many are making less because of government restrictions and lack of materials. Many have gone out of business entirely. Since corporate normal and surtax rates must be uniform, a 50 per cent normal tax and surtax, coupled with 90 per cent excess profits tax, is the upper limit of what taxes can be imposed without destroying business.—The Georgia Senator said.

Many other legislators reflected the Senator's sentiments that taxes on individuals and corporations had about reached the saturation point. Several advocated a general sales tax to meet the need for more revenue.

Present indications are that there will be a showdown on the sales tax issue (to which the administration has been unalterably opposed) shortly after Congress reconvenes on September 14.

The cost of this war is a matter of vital concern to every American taxpayer, not only from the standpoint of personal income taxes, but from the standpoint of our entire industrial structure as well. It therefore behooves everyone who pays a tax (direct or indirect) not only to watch all developments in connection with the tax program, but to keep a weather eye out for such government expenditures as do not appear to have a direct bearing upon the war effort. No true American would see the armed forces handicapped for the supplies they need, but conversely no one wants to see expenses out of all proportion to the job that has to be done.

Information for Filing of Declaration of Income and Victory Taxes for 1943

If you filed an income tax return for the year 1942, you will, within the very near future, receive a letter from your Collector of Internal Revenue. In former years such a letter at about this time of the year would be a reminder for you to pay another quarterly installment on your income tax for the prior year. This year, however, the letter which you will receive will enclose forms and instructions for filing a Declaration of your estimated income and Victory Taxes for 1943—the current year. The first of such forms were placed in the mail Tuesday, Aug. 17, by the Collector of Internal Revenue for the Northern Division of Texas at Dallas. Additional forms will be sent to others of the approximately six hundred and fifty thousand persons who filed Income Tax Returns with the Dallas Collector for the year 1942, as soon as the forms are received from the printer.

Not all of the people who receive these forms will be required to file declarations on or before Sept. 15. The following persons are required to file such declarations: (1) Single, or married but not living with spouse at the date prescribed for the making of the declaration (whether or not head of a family), if he had for 1942, or reasonably expects to have for 1943— (a) gross income of more than $2,700 from wages subject to withholding; or (b) gross income of $500 or more from all sources, if more than $100 of such income is from sources other than wages subject to withholding.

(2) Married and living with spouse at the date prescribed for the making of the declaration, if he had for 1942, or reasonably expects to have for 1943— (a) gross income from wages subject to withholding which, when added to his spouse's gross income from such wages, exceeds $3,500; or (b) gross income from sources other than wages subject to withholding which, when added to his spouse's gross income from such sources, exceeds $100, and also his gross income from all sources exceeds $624 for 1943, or the aggregate gross income from all sources of both spouses amounts to $1200 or more for either 1942 or 1943.

(3) Also, required to file declarations are: Individuals, regardless of marital status, who were required to file an Income Tax Return for 1942 and whose wages subject to withholding for 1943 are reasonably expected to be less than such wages for 1942.

Heavy penalties are provided for failure to file a declaration required under the law, or to pay the amount of estimated tax which is to be paid when such declaration is filed. Therefore, you will want to study the instructions carefully, and file the declaration on or before Sept. 15, if there is any possibility that you may be required under the law to file the estimate of your Income and Victory Tax for the year 1943. Farmers must file their Declarations of 1943 estimated Income and Victory Taxes on or before Dec. 15. Farmers are deemed to be those persons having at least 80% of their gross income derived from farming operations.

At the present time the office and field officers of the Collector of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Texas, are studying the provisions of the new law so as to be able to assist the taxpayers in the Northern part of Texas in the preparation of their declaration forms. It is planned for the field deputy collectors to visit practically all of the larger cities and towns during the two week period beginning Monday, Aug. 30, and ending Sat., Sept. 11. Further information as to the time these visits will be made and the places which will be visited by the zone deputy collectors will be given in advance by way of posted and newspaper notices, and appropriate radio announcements.

In order to obtain the assistance of these zone deputy collectors, you should have immediately available the following information: (1) The amount of tax shown on your 1942 Income Tax Return.

(2) The estimated income and deduction items expected for 1943.

(3) The estimated amounts of Victory and Withholding taxes withheld by your employer from your wages or salaries during 1943.

(4) The payments you have made during 1943 to the Collector of Internal Revenue to be applied on your 1942 Income tax.

Zone deputy collectors will be glad to render you all possible assistance in properly preparing your declaration forms if you will bring along this necessary information.

In addition to the visits of zone deputy collectors to the various cities and towns in Northern Texas, the zone offices located in the sixteen large cities, Dallas, Ft. Worth, Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Lubbock, Abilene, Eastland, Odessa, Paris, Sherman, Texarkana, San Angelo, Tyler, Corsicana, Longview and Nacogdoches, will be open during business hours for practically all the time between now and September 15th, when the declaration is to be filed. Zone deputy collectors located in these offices will also be glad to render you all possible assistance.

Remember—when you receive the forms and instructions from your Internal Revenue Tax Collector within the next several days—you should study the instructions to determine whether you will be required to file a declaration. If so, you should assemble at the earliest possible moment the information necessary for preparation of a declaration. If you need assistance in preparing the declaration of your estimated Income and Victory taxes for 1943, you should immediately consult a zone deputy collector in one

Expert Rifleman

Pvt. William L. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard H. Robertson, who was inducted March 5, 1943, has been classed as an expert with Browning automatic rifle and grenades. Pvt. Robertson received his first training at Camp Roberts, Calif., and is now receiving his mail out of San Francisco. He was born at Waka, Texas, February 28, 1923, moving to Perryton when small and receiving his education in the Perryton schools. At the time of his induction, Pvt. Robertson was employed at the Cactus plant near Dumas. He was home on a furlough recently. His older brother, Leonard H. Jr., is in the Navy and has received a rating as storekeeper third class.

Cpl. Edward T. Black came in Sunday from Laurel, Miss., for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tyson Black.

Wm. Fulton and daughters, Mrs. Gerald Reynolds and Karen of Webb City, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Dean Conner, Gerry, Billy Lynn and Judy and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leatherman and Gaynell, spent the weekend in Roswell, N. M. visiting with their son and brother, A.C. Billy Fulton, who is in training at the Roswell Army Air Field. Mrs. Reynolds and children left Wednesday morning to return to their home.

Of the sixteen zone offices located in the major cities of Northern Texas as or, if you reside in a smaller city or town, you should watch your local newspapers for information as to the visit to be made by a zone deputy collector during the two weeks period beginning Monday, Aug. 30, and ending Saturday, Sept. 11. Except for farmers who are to file their Declarations on or before Dec. 15, other persons required to file such forms must file them on or before Sept. 15, or become subject to severe penalties. Declaration Forms 1040 ES filed on or before Sept. 15, 1943, may be amended by similar Forms filed on or before Dec. 15, 1943, if events occur after Sept. 15 having a material effect on the estimated Income and Victory Taxes due for 1943.

Book Review at Methodist Church Sunday Night

A book review will be given at the Sunday evening service, Sept. 12, beginning at 8:30, at the Methodist Church, announced Rev. William E. Fisher. "The Soong Sisters," written by Emily Hahn, will be given by Mrs. Manse Wood. The public is invited.

"This book is the story of the most famous family of China. The picture of these three courageous sisters makes a heart warming and unforgettable book," stated Mrs. Wood. "We meet them first as the daughters of Charlie Soong. We follow them through their extraordinary careers as Madam Kung, wife of China's Morgan, Madam Sun, wife of the father of the Chinese Revolution, and Madam Chiang Kai-Shek, wife of China's Generalissimo."

"The book was written while China was being bombed by the Japanese and twice many chapters were destroyed as a result of these bombings. The manuscript was carried into and out of dungeons so often that it became almost indecipherable," further stated Mrs. Wood, the reviewer.

"The story of 'The Soong Sisters' is the story of modern China, a nation that fights on even though the odds are against her. A brother of these famous women, T. V. Soong is now in Washington, and represented China at the Quebec Conference."

Mrs. Clifton Bell and daughter, Janalee, left Wednesday for their home in Lincoln, Ill., after spending three months in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bell, Gray, and other relatives. Captain Clifton Bell is with the armored division in Sicily.

Commissioned in Medical Corps

James Elrick Wilson, age 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wilson, Okla., a second lieutenant in the Medical Administrative Corps at Camp Barkeley, September 1.

Lt. Wilson has been in the armed forces since May, 1941.

Performing non-medical duties in aid stations to general hospitals in the United States, the Medical Administrative Corps officers have made their services a valued part of the army's Medical Department.

This comparatively young corps has earned the nickname of "the officers of the Medical Department," given to it by Brig. Gen. Roy C. Heffebower, commander of the Camp Barkeley Officer Candidate School.

THE LEAST WE CAN DO FOR HIM— IS TO DO MORE IN SEPTEMBER!

Here's what YOU must do to Back the Attack

NOW, as America goes all out for the INVASION—your dollars must join the fight, too! For the very least you can do for your country—and for your loved ones doing the fighting—is to invest in MORE War Bonds in September.

Think of Jim fighting with Eisenhower... or Bill with MacArthur in the Solomons... or Bob up in Kiska. They've given their pledge to fight—and die if need be—for their country. They're ready to go all the way.

And we at home must see them through all the way, too! That means every individual in the country who earns a wage or draws an income or has accumulated funds must invest in at least one EXTRA $100 War Bond if he can possibly do so. Those who can, must invest more. This in addition to your regular War Bond subscription.

Yes, the least you can do for your men in service is to do MORE in September. MORE in the safest securities in the world—U. S. Government War Bonds. But do it now—it's for the INVASION!

A Few ??'s To Ask the Printing Peddler

When the Peddler selling Stationery and Printing Supplies solicits your business there are a few questions which he should be willing to answer to your satisfaction.

If he can answer all the questions in the affirmative, he is entitled to your business.

Among Them Being:

Does he pay taxes in this community?

Does he donate space in his newspaper to your local community enterprises?

Does he support with both time and money, the local Red Cross, USO, Chamber of Commerce, and the dozens of other community and war efforts?

Does he buy War Bonds and Stamps to enable Ochiltree county to meet its monthly quotas.

Does he pay wages to a force of employees located in this City, County, or State?

Does his paper devote its entire space toward the betterment and upbuilding of this community?

Does he grant you every favor that you would ordinarily ask of a local newspaper?

Is the quality of his merchandise stand inspection—is it on quality paper stock and the printed matter attractively arranged?

Will he submit proof of your work before finishing and mailing it to you C. O. D.?

Does his price include postage and insurance charges?

Can he supply your order on short notice?

Red Cross Room Notes

A $10.50 check was sent to the local chapter by the Perryton Sales Patron recently. This represented the sale of four pups that were brought to the sale by J. O. Wooten.
Thanks folks!

Miss Anna Boyce Blackley, Albuquerque, New Mexico, is the new field representative for the Texas Panhandle and eastern New Mexico counties. She is prepared, through special training in Red Cross service, to give assistance in problems of allotment and allowances, claims, benefits, emergency family service and communications.

The Red Cross has an agreement to furnish the war shipping board 120,000 knitted garments to be used when men on board ships routed north lack adequate clothing. The expenditure represented is near $175,000.

Check up the hazards around your own home and farm and you may realize better why more than 32,000 American civilians are killed each year in home and farm accidents.
This is more Americans than have been killed so far in World War II and nearly as many as were killed in World War I. While we bemoan the killing of war, we ought also to bemoan the toll of life taken by our own carelessness and do something about it. One-third of all fatal accidents and half of all injuries occur in and about the home.

Get your knitted articles finished and be ready to help with the new fall work program, which will be ready for announcement when the work rooms reopen the last of this month. Turn your finished garments over to Mrs. J. F. Cox, production chairman or Mrs. Henry Richardson, knitting chairman.

Our Defenders Speak!

The Herald asks that men and women from this community serving in the armed forces write letters to this department for publication. Letters to relatives that would be of interest to the public will be published under this heading.

St. Louis, Mo.
Aug. 30, 1943

Dear Mr. Stewart:
I've been wanting to write to you folks for sometime but I've been moving around so much that I just haven't had time and consequently have not received all copies of the paper. Those I did receive I read with a great deal of interest.

I'll most likely be here for a period of nine months so I can safely give you an address that will be permanent.

My wife is with me now, and is residing at 6164 Westminister Place, St. Louis.

It makes a soldier proud of his home town and home people when he reads that unlike many places, they are buying bonds in numbers exceeding their quota and without a lot of fuss and bother.

May I also put in my congratulations among the many others for your splendid cooperation in behalf of the war effort.

Another formation is about due, so I'll close for now. You might be interested in knowing my classes start the 13th of Sept. I'll be studying foreign areas and languages under the army specialized training program.

Sincerely,
Pfc. L. H. Heidrich.

Southwest Pacific
August 15, 1943

Dear Mr. Stewart:
I received the first copy of the Ochiltree County Herald today that I have received since April 19. You can not imagine how good it made me feel to read a paper from home.
When you are 7,000 miles away (most of that water) you can sure enjoy a home town paper.

I have been intending to write to you sooner, but my time is pretty well taken up. I want to take this opportunity to thank the USO and you for sending it. The people on the home front sure are doing a fine job. The USO is doing a wonderful job too in the coastal towns.

I am getting along just fine on my job, and I enjoy it very much.
I know I am doing an active part in speeding up the victory for America and I don't mind the long hours I put in. Over here we don't go by union time. We work until we are finished and then quit. No one over here argues over the job they do, but do their work with no questions asked.

The natives over here are remarkably smart. If you do any trading with them you have to watch out or you will come out second best. They are very friendly though and they hate the Japs worse than anything else.

I will probably be at this place for quite a while and I expect to be in this outfit until I get back to the U. S.

Dear Mr. Stewart:
I finally got my wish. I am now in the Navy School of music in Washington, D. C.

I will be assigned to a newly formed band this coming Monday. I got here last Monday at 2:00 a. m.
from San Diego.

I worked very hard to get in this school and I will have to work hard in order to stay here. I have been taking examinations of all kinds, and I passed them, but I don't know how.

As soon as I got here I signed an agreement to change from the Navy Reserve to the regular Navy for 6 years duty if I passed the examination by this school and, as I said, I passed, so I guess all my papers will be changed in the near future.

We have nice barracks here. It is like home here, only it still isn't home either.

The regulations are kind of stiff here, but it is only for our own good.
They told me that I would probably be here for 18 months or a year and a half in the school and then

Green Lawn For Winter

COLLEGE STATION—A green winter lawn refreshes the surroundings of a rural or urban home, and is easily planted. Sadie Hatfield of the A. and M. College Extension Service recommends Italian rye grass, used in growing winter stock pastures, because it does not injure bermuda. It comes up about the time bermuda stops growing and dies shortly before bermuda sprouts in the spring.

Seeding of lawns begins in north Texas between the first and middle of September, about October 1 in central Texas, and two weeks or a month later in south Texas. Normally one and one-half to two pounds of seed are used per thousand square feet of lawn. Planting may be made well into the winter but cold delays sprouting of the seed. On the other hand if seed is sown before the cool season young plants are likely to be killed by heat.
Italian rye grass thrives in cold weather.

Preliminary to seed sowing, the existing lawn grass is mowed to a height of about one and one-half inches, says Miss Hatfield who is the Extension specialist in landscape gardening. Seed is scattered evenly over the lawn and will come up within about three days. Watering helps if the soil is dry, and young plants should be kept moist until their roots have grown well into the earth . . . a few days perhaps.

With suitable moisture rye grass grows rapidly and needs mowing like summer lawn grass. It normally doesn't produce seed until it reaches a height of 18 inches, and for this reason annual seeding is necessary.
Roots do not remain dormant during summer.

Seed may be obtained from feed stores, seed companies and nurseries.

The World's War-Free Frontier! ... be ready to drive right over

THE 3rd WAR LOAN DRIVE STARTS —TO BACK THE INVASION!

What you will be asked to do—

MARK WELL the date—Thursday, September 9th. For on that day, you must answer to your country's call.

On that day, the 3rd War Loan Drive opens. To you—and to every other true American—a clarion call goes forth to rally to the support of our flag.

You will be asked to back our fighting forces to the very limit of your resources. You will be asked to go ALL-OUT FOR INVASION by investing in EXTRA War Bonds—more War Bonds than you perhaps think you can possibly afford.

To meet the national quota, every individual in the country who earns a wage or draws an income or has accumulated funds must invest, if he possibly can, in at least one EXTRA $100 War Bond. Those who can, must invest more—thousands of dollars' worth more. Each and every one must do his full part.

Scrape up the money from every source you can... turn in all the loose cash you carry with you... dig out what you had tucked away "just in case." Go without pleasures, luxuries, even necessities this September. And give our fighting men the things they need to fight with—and win.

These men are throwing everything they have into this fierce invasion push. They are giving their blood, their lives. No one can put a price on such courage, self-sacrifice, devotion. But you can show you're with them to the limit! You can say it with Bonds... EXTRA Bonds this month.

World's Safest Investments

For this 3rd War Loan, you will be offered your choice of various government securities. Choose the one that fits your requirements.

United States War Savings Bonds Series "E"; gives you back $4 for every $3 when the bond matures. Interest: 2.9% a year, compounded semiannually, if held to maturity. Denominations: $25, $50, $100, $500, $1,000. Redemption: Anytime 60 days after issue date. Price: 75% of maturity value.

2½% Treasury Bonds of 1964-1969; readily marketable, acceptable as bank collateral. Redeemable at par and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying Federal estate taxes. Dated September 15, 1943; due December 15, 1969. Denominations: $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. Price: par and accrued interest.

Other securities: Series "C" Savings Notes; ¾% Certificates of Indebtedness; 2% Treasury Bonds of 1951-1953; United States Savings Bonds series "F"; United States Savings Bonds series "G".

Finnell Develops Simple Formula for Forecast Next Year's Wheat Yield at Planting Time

ARILLO, Texas, Sept. 8.—A formula has been developed to help Southern High Plains farmers forecast next year's wheat yield at planting time, and to take advantage of favorable conditions or to avoid soil erosion hazards when they plan for fall wheat.

The formula was developed by Dr. H. W. Finnell, research specialist in soil conservation, U. S. Department of Agriculture, who is now at the University of Texas at Austin.

proaching an all-time record. This condition, the research specialist pointed out, coupled with the further accumulation of a soil moisture supply between now and sowing time, will have much to do with giving the crop a good start which will enable it to weather the hazards of uncertainty natural to the spring growing season.

His long experience in erosion control research and use of soil conservation practices has led Finnell to accept this formula as a reasonably accurate way of forecasting next year's wheat crop on the basis of this year's known conditions.

Multiply the number of inches of July rainfall by 2-1/3. Divide the number of inches of depth of soil moisture penetration at wheat sowing time by 3. Add these two values together and subtract 6 1/2.

The number obtained, Finnell declared, will be the average expected yield per acre in bushels of wheat; and, he added, "the chances are two to one that this average will be within three bushels of the actual yield harvested."

If a crop failure, or an extremely low yield is indicated, wind erosion dangers are greatly increased. Preparing and seeding the land, without getting a good cover of wheat to protect the soil, will leave fields subject to severe wind erosion during the winter and early spring "blow season."

"Since the efficient use of soil and moisture resources in the production of essential crops is of great importance to the national interest in wartime, taking advantage of favorable seasonal conditions to increase production is just as important as avoiding a waste of seed and labor where conditions are so unfavorable as to predict an almost sure failure," Finnell said.

"As an example of the application of the formula," the research specialist said, "suppose the July rainfall was 3 inches and the soil was moist 42 inches deep. 3 times 2-1/3 equals 14. 42 divided by 3 equals 14. 7 plus 14 minus 6 1/2 equals 14 1/2. Where these conditions exist the chances are two to one that the yield harvested the following year will range somewhere between 11 1/2 and 17 1/2 bushels per acre."

"Suppose the July rainfall was only 1 1/2 inches and the soil was moistened only to a depth of 13 inches, by the same formula an average yield of 2 1/2 bushels would be expected, or the chances are two to one that the yield would be between 0 and 5 1/2 bushels."

"These effects do not hold good, however, above 5 inches of July rainfall and 60 inches of soil moisture penetration," Finnell reminded, "for the reason that excessive quantities of moisture are not utilized by the crop with the same efficiency that moderate supplies are used."

Farmers can't do anything to increase the July rainfall, Finnell said, but they can use soil conservation practices to store more of the water in the soil.

"Although the two factors of July rainfall and fall soil moisture store account for only 41 per cent of the total influence of factors determining the wheat yield, this is a sufficiently large proportion of the total of what it takes to make a crop," the research specialist said. "There is no reason why wheat growers should not begin to take these fac-

Farmers Must Turn in 1943 Acreage

An urgent warning is being sent to Ochiltree county farmers to turn in 1943 acreage measurements to the county office as quickly as possible and sign this year's performance report.

Emphasizing the importance of filing acreage measurements immediately, it was announced that producers cannot sign 1943 applications for payment until individual reports were completed. At the same time acreage measurements are filed, producers also are being asked to submit their soil-building practices carried out under this year's program.

Applications for payment have already been received at the local AAA office and they may be submitted for approval by September 1. Under the AAA program, revised rates of payment include a wheat payment of 85 cents per bushel as compared to 92 cent per bushel as announced earlier in the year. Payments for wheat are made on the normal production of the allotted acreage.

Only the estimated acreage on grain sorghums crops are necessary in filing performance reports.

Factors into account in planning their crop management. Although such other factors as wind erosion, the date of planting, and the spring rainfall enter definitely into the increase or decrease of wheat yield, the amount of soil moisture present at sowing time is by far the most important single factor, exercising more than one-fourth of the total weight of all factors effecting the yield of grain.

Finnell said that a practical method of determining available soil moisture is to bore into the soil with an auger or to sink a posthole digger until the layer of soil too dry to ball up in the hand is reached; then measure the depth to which moisture has penetrated. This measurement, he explained is sufficiently accurate to be used in the formula.

As to the rainfall records, an actual measurement in the immediate locality is more dependable; however, the Weather Bureau record at the nearest weather station can be used with a reasonable degree of accuracy providing it has been observed that the rains were approximately equal in size and number during the month in both localities.

"Try making a forecast," Finnell challenged, "and see how it comes out before accepting this method, and bear in mind that one out of three results may be expected to fall outside the range calculated. The two to one odds are not high but where the necessity for gambling is admitted, it is better to have two to one odds in your favor than none at all. Advance information about your crop production possibilities can be used to increase war production with safety against erosion hazards."

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Henry, Pampa, were guests for the week-end in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Virgil Castle and family.

Get Rid of Feed Saboteurs in Your Poultry Flocks

You can cull 20 per cent or more of your hens now if they have not already been culled, says Clay Spurlock, county agricultural agent. A reduction of 20 per cent of culls in all flocks in Texas would mean a saving of approximately 72,000,000 lbs. of feed during the next two months.

With continued dry weather, fall feed crop prospects are not so good at present. That means we are going to manage to make less grain produce more meat and eggs than ever before, especially since demands are so heavy.

Feed is scarce, so help save by culling now. Confine hens to the house during the night; next morning use a catching hook and work quietly among them. Take out all birds that look like this: 1. shriveled combs, 2. yellow legs and beaks, 3. molters, 4. weak and emaciated, 5. grey eyes, 6. saggy abdomen, 7. coarse, masculine heads, 8. all roosters.

By weeding out the culls you accomplish four important things: 1. save feed, 2. meat for table, 3. ration points, 3. canned chicken for year round use, 4. cash for loafers. Cull today so you can feed tomorrow.

Employment Service For Farm Labor

Plans that were formulated and carried out in assisting farmers in the farm labor problem in the county during the harvest season, are being continued through the wheat sowing and feed shocking rush.

Clay Spurlock, county agricultural agent, says there will not be a labor headquarters maintained in the Spicer Building. Farmers who are now needing help are urged to call at the County Agent's office or contact City Marshall J. W. Buckley in regard to their labor needs. Farm hands are being recruited through the United States Employment Service.

Ochiltree H. D. Club Met on September 3

The September meeting of the Ochiltree Home Demonstration club was held in the home of Mrs. Oscar Blank Friday, Sept. 3, at 3:00 o'clock.

"The home drying of fruits and vegetables saves jars and space," stated Miss Sadie Seward county home demonstration agent. Both sun drying and electric methods may be used. Electric drying is quicker and foods do not lose their original color.

During the business session, programs for our year book were discussed. Mrs. Leon Shrader gave a most interesting report on her trip to Dallas.

Delicious home made ice cream and nut cookies were served to Mesdames Leon Shrader, Robert Thurman, Kirt Williams, James Blasingame, Claude Crouch, Bill Richardson, Ellis Mathews, and Miss Seward. Miss Virginia Williams, Cavita Thurman, Jerry Blasingame, the hostess and Sharon and Dixie Lee Blank.

A layer of sand is first put in the bottom then a layer of sand and another of vegetables etc. The top layer of sand should be sprinkled good with water and sprinkled every few days to keep it moist. As the water works down it keeps the vegetables in good condition. The three most important factors in the proper storage of garden vegetables are, temperature, moisture and ventilation.

We have been asked to raise 20% more garden food yet it has been estimated that 48% of all garden food raised is wasted; either neglected in the garden, lost through handling and in the stores, lost thru preparation in the homes or thrown in the garbage as left overs. Again we stress the saving of food.

The saving of home grown seeds from this year's gardens was urged by the agent. Always remember to save seed from a healthy productive plant. Tomato seed may be saved by the following method. Squeeze seed and juice in a glass and let stand 24 hours or until well fermented. Fill the glass with water and stir thoroughly. Drain off all pulp and immature seeds that do not settle to the bottom of the glass.

A MESSAGE TO EVERY ONE OF YOU

From PERRYTON'S

Retail Store Employees

How did you fare at your job today?

Pushed by work and trouble—pressed by prices?

Too few ration points and little gas?

Your lot is bonds and sweat.

There's a kid Marine over there . . .

Panting his heart out in the thick wet jungle heat,

Watching life run from him in a lazy ooze—

HIS lot is blood and tears.

"Blast such dumb help anyway—they burn you up."

"Why . . . strawberries and a cabbage cost a buck today!"

"The laundry took two weeks—things are getting awful."

"Jack and I saved only a hundred dollars this month!"

How much bonds and sweat is this!

There's a Sailor up where the sea is bitter—

Waiting for a stretcher, groaning in his sleep.

. . . Sometimes such numb legs walk again.

Good God, they're GOT to!

Blood and tears.

Bonds and sweat's our lot—yours and mine at home.

Dollars loafing around are blood money—

Don't own slacker dollars—make them fight!

Every bond you buy means less blood and tears.

Look . . . it's a terrible thing . . . one minute he was here,

Laughin' and scratchin' out a fox-hole

Then a kick of dust in the dirt beside 'im . . .

Dead! I never saw a man die . . . DIE . . . he's DEAD.

Blood and tears!

Our job is selling bonds, to help you do yours, which is buying them. We're buying them, too. Let's be proud of ourselves through bonds and sweat. Meet us halfway and start buying today . . . will you please?

Ochiltree County Third War Loan Quota $489,800

It's EASY to Buy BONDS

Lending money to win the war is easy. Any store or bank or other "issuing agent" can take your money and immediately deliver your bond made out to you. You pay $18.75 for a bond you can cash in for $25 in ten years. A $50 bond is $37.50, a $100 bond is $75. The bigger the bond the less it costs the government, and you in bookkeeping. If you need your money in less than 10 years, you can get it any time—with earned interest. Buy a big bond today to start this $15,000,000,000 loan off with a bang! And for your future!

The War is Not WON

Our armed forces have a continuous fighting job. And so it is with buying bonds. Buying bonds is a continuing responsibility for everyone who can scrape the price of a bond together at any time. You should buy bonds every month, or every week, if you can. Money you lend for bonds goes into the war at once, keeps out of consumer markets, and therefore helps fight inflation. Bond money is double duty money—fighting the war on foreign fronts and inflation on the home front. Keep buying bonds.

NATURAL GAS Rationed!

The War Production Board has rationed Natural Gas throughout the East and in some sections has asked for a reduction of 25% of normal consumption—a drastic request.

In Texas we take Natural Gas for granted because of its apparently unlimited quantity. Even here the WPB has imposed regulations and new consumers can get Gas only after obtaining a permit from Washington.

Gas is vital to the war effort. Gas wasted cannot be replaced. In the interest of national effort do not use more Gas during this national emergency than is absolutely necessary.

"Hoosier Holiday" Opens Thursday

Sophisticates will probably opine that this borrowed something more than its title from Indiana. And they'll be right—but like the corn that grows in the Hoosier state, it is of finest quality, the kind that the great rank and file delight in absorbing in large, unrationed helpings. Here it is served by the bushel, with openhandedness which cannot help but assure the film's success.

Nor will its appeal be hampered by the fact that a large part of the cast was recruited from popular radio shows, outstanding among which are the Hoosier Hotshots and bug's-eat-cute Dale Evans, a little lady who should find stardom an easy hop.

The story concerns an ancient feud between a rich widower with five daughters and a rural widow with five sons.

Latest "Falcon" Film Shows at Ellis

Sixth in RKO Radio's increasingly popular series of mystery films revolving around the action-packed adventures of that gentleman crime detector, The Falcon, "The Falcon in Danger" opening Tuesday at the Ellis for a two day run, is regarded as its most exciting and gripping.

With Tom Conway in the hero role, the film also presents plenty of romance and glamour in the persons of Jean Brooks, Elaine Shepard and Amelia Ward.

When a cross-country airliner makes a crash landing minus the pilot and the two passengers who were aboard, The Falcon takes over the case at the behest of a niece and daughter respectively of the missing passengers. When a false trail leads him to a notorious crook and his gang, The Falcon falls under suspicion of being involved in the mysterious air kidnapping. He is cleared, however, when one of the missing men returns with a story of having been held up by two bandits, robbed of $100,000 in securities and forced to bail out. He professes ignorance of what happened after he was forced out of the plane.

Suspicion turns to the other missing passenger when the stolen securities are discovered in his home, but this is dispelled when the man's body, along with that of the pilot is found in a remote mountain region.

How The Falcon arrives at the solution of the crime and risks his life to prove his theory, provide a series of thrill-packed and exciting adventures seldom equalled on the screen.

An exceptionally well balanced cast, in addition to those already mentioned, includes Clarence Kolb, Robert Emmett Keane, Felix Basch, Cliff Clark, Ed Gargan, Ed Dunn, Richard Martin, Erford Gage and Little David.

Sam and I went to the Eton Lawrence farm sale. Some of the men who talk about women spending so much money should notice the men once in a while. You should have seen the wives gasping for breath as their husbands soared the bids on this and that, their eyes were bugged out, they didn't have any idea their dear "Johns" had so much money, the way they had been telling them to save, save, we can't do this, we can't do that, there will be an inflation after this war.

Being almost a stranger at the sale I spent most of my time just listening. One good looking group of ladies were sitting on a table and some on boxes under the shade of a tree, they were talking about the work they had done through harvest driving tractors, hauling wheat, cooking, milking and churning. The conversation drifted to the war, just at the height of the war talk, one of the table legs gave away under the weight and down went the table, and all conversation was ended with a chorus of squeals.

The Dan Nitschke cottage is boasting some new lattice work.

The John King home has turned green on top and adds very much to the appearance. Mrs. King's flower bed in front of the house is the prettiest in this neck of the woods. The Kings finally found the Groesetts at home Sunday. Willis King thinking of all the school days so near in the future began visiting his cousins by spending the day with J. W. Pipkin.

It's apple peeling time in the Gilman Flowers home. I imagine Mrs. Flowers has apple peelings by the tub full, as Gilman bought a load of apples near Wheeler. Now just a couple bushels of apples is a big job for me to peel. Mr. Flowers, borrowed an apple peeler from Pipkins to make the job a little easier for his wife.

Mrs. Orville Fulbright and daughter, Orlean, Mrs. Newcomb, Mrs. Martin and daughter Sylvia, were all in the Pipkin home Wednesday buzzing around and canning.

Mr. and Mrs. Longly and children were callers in the Pipkin home, Wednesday evening.

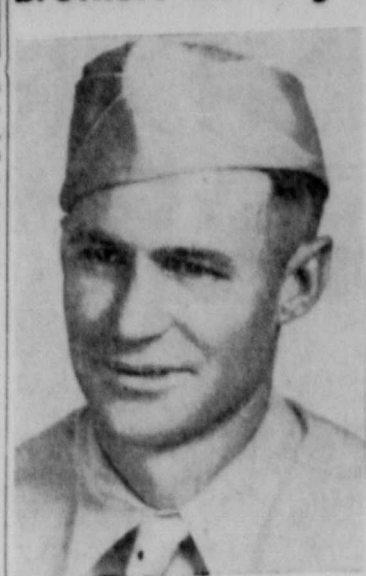

Senna Belle Pipkin visited in Spearman the past week. Mrs. Pipkin and daughters had as a hobby this summer helping different ones paper, they think last Friday was their last day of papering. They don't know I have a room and sun porch to paper a little later on.

Sam Powell started the week running like a sixteen year old kid, driving about one hundred head of hogs and a big bunch of cattle out of his feed. He ran so much that he began to leap, then he got to trotting, and the last I knew he was pacing and panting. He really is not sounding like he is very much in love with that neighbors hogs and cattle, and it isn't all Sunday School words he expresses at home about the neighbor. Friday, he told Mr. McClothlin the man plowing here, to keep the hogs and cattle out of the feed if he had to let the plowing go. Mr. McClothlin did his best, but while he would be driving one bunch out another would get in.

Thinking the Sam Nitschke's had moved to town last week, I dolled up in my best bib and tucker and went to call on them in their new home, found out they had not moved and were still over here at the corner of our place where I could have gone in my house dress.

Ensign Randall Jones volunteered in the Naval Air Corps in Sept. 1941, taking his first training at Corpus Christi. He received his commission at Corpus Christi. He also attended the Dallas Aviation school, and then was sent to the naval air station, Pensacola, Fla. At present Ensign Jones is at the Naval Air Station, Dallas. Prior to enlisting, he was working in Lubbock and Texas Tech.

done so far is to take a smell when I pass a load or go in a store. Joe J. McClothlin is a cook in the army camp at Huthinson, Kansas, he made a cobbler for lunch for that bunch of boys, he used twenty-five gallons of peaches, sixty pounds of flour. I don't know how much water and shortening, but they all got a sample and that is more than I've had this year. I remember when good large peaches sold in Mo. for twenty five cents a bushel.

The Pipkins sent the writer some news items, one read, Mrs. S. J. Powell made a pop corn call in the Pipkin home last week.

Last week I was busy around the house when I heard Sam call like he had his head in a barrel, sack or something. Going out to find what the trouble was, he sounded afar off, I walked toward the lot, he called again, I turned, came back by the wash house. He had gone in the wash house to slip my pliers out, and the latch on the outside had fastened the door. He has lost all his pliers, I have had mine several years and I'm doubting I'll have them much longer for he fixed the latch.

Miss Gene Scroggs was hopping around and looking at furniture in Amarillo, she saw a chair with a big fluffy cushion, that looked so comfortable, she sat down in it, and thought she had missed the chair. The thing didn't have any springs in it.

W. M. Deck is spending the week-end away on business.

Nadene and Thadene Deck, Helen and Kathlene Kenny and Mrs. Sid Beck and Maxine Kenny spent the evening in the Powell home Saturday.

Sam and I were caught in the big rain as we left Perryton, Friday. We found all the roads where we were to turn off the highway covered with water. Sam continued to go west through Spearman trying to find a road he thought he could arvel with a load of coal. We began to think we would go around by Pampa and Canadian and come in from the east as the roads would be dry by the time we made the rounds but he risked turning off the highway straight west of our home and we slowly made our way in. Sam strutted his stuff at good driving.

Miss June Lance, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. W. H. Lance has enlisted in the Nurses Cadet Corps and entered the Harris Memorial Hospital, Port Worth, last week to begin her training.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. George returned home Friday from a month's stay in the home of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Grubb, Cottage Grove, Oregon. They visited with several other relatives and friends enroute.

SGT. Sidney Merl Jines, who has just recently been transferred from Camp Polk, La., to Camp Barkeley, came in Tuesday morning for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sibley Jines.

Christian Science

"Substance" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 12.

The Golden Text is: "The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof."
(1 Corinthians 10:26).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward" (Psalms 40:5).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God's thoughts are perfect and eternal are substance and life" (page 286).

NEWS in the WORLD OF RELIGION by W. W. REID

Dr. Henry Pitney Van Dusen, of Union Theological Seminary, traveller, author and theologian; the Hon. John O. Bigelow, of Newark, N. J., vice-chancellor of the State of New Jersey; and Mrs. Frank C. Hughes, of Loudonville, N. Y., a religious organizer and a former missionary to China, have recently been elected members of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

The Most Rev. J. W. C. Wand, Archbishop of Brisbane and Metropolitropolitan of Queensland, Australia, one of the leading scholars of the Church of England, has been elected bishop of the rural diocese of Bath and Wells, England. Before going to Australia nine years ago, Dr.
Wand was dean of Oriel College, Oxford. The Church of England is boasting of its democracy points to Bishop Wand as the son of an English grocer and a product of the elementary schools of the country.
Second in interest only to the visit of Madame Chiang Kai-shek to America is the presence in this country of Miss Wu Yi-fang, president of Gilling College for women.
The college has long been located in Nanking, but is now "in exile" in Chengtu. Dr. Wu has aroused much interest in academic and other circles in America as she has spoken from many platforms.
She is a past president of the National Christian Council of China, is a chairman of the National Peoples Political Council, and is recognized as the leading woman educator of China. Smith College recently conferred upon her the degree of Doctor of Laws.

The Methodist Service Center at Richmond, Va., is typical of a large number of such centers throughout the country and serving the recreational and social needs of men in the armed forces. The Center is in Centenary Church, downtown Richmond, but is conducted by the twenty-eight Methodist churches of Richmond and vicinity—each serving as host at weekend ministries to the men. Many of these churches have contributed furniture, games, reading matter and other equipment to the Center.
An average of 350 uniformed men are entertained each week-end: refreshments, games, reading room,
and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy: "God's thoughts are perfect and eternal are substance and life" (page 286).

Back the Attack with WAR BONDS

Invasion comes high—in blood and money.

But our fighting men don't stop to count the cost when they come to grips with the enemy. And we at home can't afford to count the cost either.

To raise 15 billion urgently-needed dollars during this Third War Loan, everyone who possibly can is urged to buy at least one extra $100 war bond—over and above regular bond buying. Those who can afford to purchase more should do so.

Sure—it's going to be tough to dig up this extra money—but we've got to do it and we will. Our fighting men are depending on us and we'll never let them down.

Perryton School Executives in Readiness for Opening Monday Morning

To Start Using Ration Book III The first brown "point stamp" in War Ration Book III will become valid September 12. This stamp, A, is good for 16 points through Oct. 2. Brown stamps will become valid on successive Sundays and will always expire on the Saturday nearest the end of a month. They will be used for rationing meats, fats, oils, canned fish, cheese, canned milk, and all other commodities now rationed with red stamps in War Ration Book II. The small stamps bearing pictures of field guns, tanks, ships and airplanes are not yet in use. Anyone who has not received Book III may obtain one by applying to his local ration board.

Farm Items Under Price Control

Used hay loaders, side delivery rakes, and manure spreaders were recently placed under specific price control by OPA. This ruling applies when these items are sold by any person, such as farmers or auctioneers. Maximum prices will be determined on the following basis: 85 per cent of the price of the machine when new, if the equipment is less than one year old, and 70 per cent of the price of the item when new, if the equipment is one year old or more.

Overseas Christmas Mail

More than 10 million individual Christmas parcels for overseas soldiers are expected in the mailing period, Sept. 15 to October 15. The Army Postal Service will need the full cooperation of the mailing public in time. The public is asked to be sure to put the correct overseas mailing addresses on the packages and to wrap them securely, but in such a manner as to permit inspection prior to their dispatch. Every overseas package must be opened, inspected, and re-wrapped at the port of embarkation. The Army Postal Service and the U. S. Post Office Department strongly urge that packages be mailed September 15 or immediately thereafter.

Ration Point Changes

Reflecting an improvement in civilian meat supplies, the ration cost of most lamb and bacon cuts, sirloin steak, and rib roasts has been reduced from one to two points for September. In addition, several varieties of meat also have lower point values. Creamery butter increased two points to 12 points per pound. Country butter, however, has been assigned a value of six points per pound. The purchasing power of meat-fat stamps in September will be a little larger than in August because the decrease in meat point values more than cancels the higher ration cost of creamery butter.

Blunder Will Not Be Repeated

In spite of a 1944 program designed to achieve the greatest food conservation in U. S. history, good soil conservation practice can be followed. Recently declared Judge Marvin Jones, War Food Administrator, "Thus," Judge Jones said, "the U. S. can avoid the tragic blunder of the other war when land was plowed up

in Navy School

Ray S. Caldwell volunteered in the Navy at the age of 16 and had to wait until he was 17, December 25, 1942, to be accepted. He left Lubbock on June 28 for a navy technical school in San Diego. The latter part of August, he was sent to the Landing Craft School near San Diego. He is to be a radioman in this new branch of service. Ray received his education in the Perryton schools. Always interested in radio, he is continuing in this line in his Navy training. When he finishes at this Landing Craft School he will receive his rating as petty officer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Caldwell, former Perryton residents, who are now living in Booker. He has one sister, Virginia, and two younger brothers, Gene and Sammy.

without regard to its fitness and the soil was allowed to wash and blow without any adequate means to prevent it. That blunder," Judge Jones promised, "will not be repeated."

Nurse Corps Funds Approved

Funds have been approved to provide complete tuition, fees, stipends, maintenance and uniforms for an anticipated 10,175 student members of the U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps. Over 500 state accredited schools of nursing have applied to the U. S. Public Health Service for participation in the program. To date, 67 have been approved.

Prunes and Raisins Rationed

Dried and dehydrated prunes and raisins were restored to rationing September 5. Values were placed at four points per pound. Allocations of dried prunes and raisins to Government agencies will be large. However, the balance of raisins and dried prunes available from the year's production for civilian distribution is expected to be over 90 per cent of the average annual civilian supply for a five-year period preceding rationing.

"The selection of men needed for the armed forces and the deferment of men required for agriculture, war production and war supporting activities are much more difficult than in the days when we had ample men from which to choose," said Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service, in a recent letter to local boards. "Available men will be called for induction in the following order—(1) single men without dependents; (2) single men with collateral dependents; (3) married men without children; (4) men with children (nondeferable activities and occupations); (5) men with children."

Small Engines to Farmers

Distribution of about 37,000 air and liquid-cooled internal combustion engines of 20-horsepower and under will be controlled by county farm rationing committees. Preference rating certificates will be issued to farmers or operators of farm machinery for hire, based on the need for the engine in essential production of crops, livestock and livestock products, poultry and eggs, and bees. When the farmer receives such a preference rating certificate he can take it to his local dealer and buy the engine.

Drops Bombs—Gathers Corn

When the B-24 Liberator Bomber, "Lemon Drop," of the U. S. Army Ninth Air Force came back from its mission of bombing Rumanian oil refineries at Ploesti, corn stalks were clinging to its bomb bay doors. The bombardier, Captain Herbert Light, Ames, Iowa, observed—"Why back in Iowa you'd have to fly 25 feet off the ground to get above the corn tops. No risks involved in that. But when you're heading for a target in the Rumanian oil and corn country, you've got to tear along about six feet off the ground to skim the corn tops."

Some Boots Are Ration-Free

Certain kinds of rubber boots useful in farming and similar work no longer being manufactured for general use have been released from rationing by a recent OPA amendment. All olive drab, clay or khaki colored rubber boots, all over-the-shoe rubber boots and all lightweight ankle-fitting rubber boots which depend upon stretch at the ankle for fitting are included in the order. However, quantities will be small because dealers do not have complete stocks on hand.

To Help You Get Truck Tires

If you own a truck and have tire rationing certificates but cannot locate the proper tires within your county, you may apply to the nearest Motor Transport District Office of the Office of Defense Transportation for assistance. The ODT has reported.

Farm Help from Latin America

A total of 57,489 workers from Mexico, Jamaica, and the Bahama Islands have come to this country for agricultural employment. Marvin Jones, War Food Administrator, recently praised the ability of these workers and described their efforts as being of utmost importance to the production of food and fiber for war needs. Mexican Nationals have been employed in agriculture in 12 western states. Jamaicans and Bahamians have been employed largely in east coast states and in the middle west. The workers have come into this country to relieve farm labor shortages in critical areas. When the need for their services has passed, they will be returned to their home countries.

Peace to Repay for Lend-Lease

"The Congress in passing and extending to Lend-Lease Act made it plain that the United States wants no new war debts to jeopardize the coming peace," President Roosevelt declared in his letter transmitting to Congress the eleventh report on Lend-Lease operations for the period ended July 31, 1943. "Victory and a secure peace," the President added, "are the only coin in which we can be repaid."

Last Rites Held For Mrs. A. L. Allen

Sorrowful last rites were held Saturday afternoon, 4:00 o'clock, in the Baptist Church, for Mrs. A. L. Allen, a resident of this county for the past 27 years. Mrs. Allen passed away in her home Tuesday evening following a heart attack, at the age of 70 years, 9 months and 6 days. W. C. Bryan conducted the services. Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Durham sang two beautiful selections, "Sometimes Its Hard to Understand" and "Beautiful Home Somewhere" with Mrs. Louis Jacquot at the piano. Roy Hogland, accompanied by Mrs. Hogland, gave a solo, "Abide with Me." Pall bearers were W. G. Yeary, C. R. Cudd, Pruner Apple, John E. Johnson, and Alex Johnson. Wives of the pall bearers carried the flowers. Interment was in the Ochiltree Cemetery.

Mrs. Allen is survived by her husband and three daughters, Mrs. Clem Anderson, San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. J. B. Cartwright and Mrs. Lloyd Furnish, Perryton; eight grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and many other relatives and friends.

Rationing restrictions on the use of grade "C" Camel Back for recapping have been removed, according to OPA. Grade "A" Camel Back, previously available for only the largest truck and bus tires, may now be obtained for recapping tires on all trucks and buses although it is still subject to rationing.

Tax Reports Due Sept. 15

Many farmers will be among the 15 million Americans who are required to file a declaration of estimated income for 1943 and make a payment on that basis under the "pay-as-you-go" plan which became effective July 1, this year. Sept. 15 is the date for filing declarations, except that farmers, if they wish, may wait until December 15, since they receive the bulk of their income in the fall. Generally speaking all single persons earning more than $2,700 a year from wages subject to withholding and all married couples earning more than $3,500 will be required to file declarations. In addition, individuals or couples with an income of $100 or more from sources other than wages are required to file, if their total income is such that they must pay an income tax. Individuals who were required to file an income tax return for 1942 and whose wages subject to withholding in 1943 will be less must also file.

Hot-Cholera Serum Output High

The serum used in combating hot-cholera is now being made in record-breaking quantities, according to the Department of Agriculture. Output of the protective serum between July 1, and June 30, 1943, was 25 per cent above last year's high output. The current supply represents large-scale production against hot-cholera, the most formidable swine disease, for the vast number of hogs now being raised in the U. S.

L. T. Tucker for the basket of fine peaches they gave to the Herald staff. They were just about the best peaches we ever ate and we've been turned loose in some mighty fine peach orchards. Again we say thanks!

We think it impossible to surround the boys and girls in the armed services with too much praise and credit for the work they are doing and the sacrifices most of them have made to enter the services.

But we do think there's entirely too much "slobbering" in the press, radio and by the public in general about the sacrifices and patriotism of the home front workers, be they war plant, agricultural or "what-have-you."

We've gone out of our way to do a little snooping of war workers, both town and country, and it is our honest conviction that the almighty dollar, not war service, is the big thing with most of them.

There's too many of us farm and war plant workers whose slogan is "Producing for Profit" instead of "Producing for Victory."

Every day or so, some person tells us about some blankety-blankety so-and-so, supposedly deferred as an essential worker, who is spending most of his time in a pool hall or running around in a high powered car with a bevy of "girls some soldier left behind."

Now here's what we tell them. If you know that so-and-so is not doing the job he was deferred for, then report him to the Selective Service Board. We know that there are men out of uniform that should be in, just as there are lots of very essential workers going in to service. So if you know of a young man that is a "slacker" it's your duty as a good citizen to report him to the draft board.

We say you'll really be doing the young man a favor for when this war is over and the ten to fifteen million victors come marching home, but didn't is going to be pretty much out of the picture. Of course, he'll probably have his pockets full of war-profit dollars, but he won't have much else.

A prominent Perryton citizen said the other day that the OPA was doing a lot of good. When we asked what, he replied that the OPA was making so many people disgusted with the various commissions and bureaus that public opinion would force Congress to do away with most of them. Let's hope that he's right.

Even though many rumors are to the contrary, there have been only one case of infantile paralysis in the Perryton area. This is a fact, not a rumor.

In the Fort Worth Star-Telegram of Aug. 31, there was a picture of L. T. Ted Lehman of the Gray community. The picture was taken in England where Ted is a member of a "Marauder" crew.

Saw Roy Linn from down on Wolf Creek the other day. He was very profuse in his praise of "Curley" Stobbe, owner of Curley's Motor Repair. Curley was returning to Perryton after delivering a car, when he noticed a grass fire had been started by lightning in Roy's pasture. Curley aroused the neighbors and with their help the fire was extinguished with only a few acres of grass lost. As Roy says, not many men would have gone to that much trouble in the middle of the night.

Edward L. Geymann, formerly of the advertising staff of the El Dorado, Kansas, Times, arrived in Perryton Sunday to become advertising manager of the Herald. Ed is married and has two daughters. His wife, Mary, came down to Perryton with him to look the town over. She placed her stamp of approval on the town and returned to El Dorado, Monday, to get ready for moving day.

Ed Geymann comes to the Herald with many years of newspaper experience. While only 27 years old, he has been around printer's ink for 15 years. Starting in at the age of 12, he mastered every phase of the weekly newspaper game, both back shop and front office. Four years of the 15 was
