West Texas 'Ski' Runs

2 Hurt on Icy Roads

Car and truck accidents broke out like a rash on ice coated Mitchell County highways.

Injuries resulted in only two of half dozen mishaps investigated by State Highway Patrol and these were reported minor.

Mrs. Lilly Raschke of Westbrook received a nose cut Thursday afternoon when her auto went out of control on the ice of the Morgan Creek bridge on Farm Highway 670 north of Westbrook.

Mrs. Raschke was traveling alone when her car skidded, hit a guard rail and skidded across a highway intersection.

Mike Long escaped injury when his pickup on slick

Highway 208 at 5:30 p.m. went off the pavement into a ditch, flipping over on its top. He was traveling south.

Two cars collided Friday afternoon in Loraine but no injuries resulted. One of the cars was a 1959 Chevrolet driven by Mr. Rosas and the other was a 1958 Plymouth driven by Floyd Huber.

A Coahoma youth received minor injuries Friday afternoon when his 1964 Chevrolet went out of control on the Conaway Rd. overpass on Interstate 20, west of Westbrook. The auto skidded into a guard rail and youth's head struck the windshield.

Another wreck was reported on Interstate 20, just across the county line in Howard County Friday.

Two Currie Motor Line trucks out of Lubbock skidded into the ditch on State 208 Saturday at about 8:30 a.m. 18 miles south of Colorado City. No injuries resulted.

Another car flipped over on Rogers Road overpass Saturday at about 5 a.m. on Interstate 20, but no one was injured.

State Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger re-emphasized a warning for all motorists to "respect the ice" whenever they have to drive during the cold blast.

3 Soldiers Home From Fort Polk

Three Colorado City servicemen arrived home Friday night from Fort Polk for Christmas holidays.

They are Frank Conard, II and Wayne Parham, in basic training, and John Thompson, now in advanced infantry training. Frank Conard, the soldier's father met the trio in Abilene and the trip to Colorado City required 2 1/2 hours.

Yes! For Sales Tax

Ballots Are 308 To 44

Colorado City merchants will begin collecting next Spring a 1 per cent sales tax for the city.

A whopping 7 to 1 majority of voters, who braved icy weather Friday voted for the new tax which Texas Legislature authorized this year as a companion to the state 2 cent sales tax.

The vote was 308 for the city sales tax and only 44 against.

City officials called the election and urged approval of the tax as a financial must for Colorado City's municipal progress and to keep from increasing taxes on already burdened real estate.

It is estimated that the sales tax will provide the city with approximately $10,000 additional income per year. This estimate is based on current state sales tax collections.

Although the sales tax was approved by voters Friday, it can not be placed in effect until April 1. The city's first rebate from the state will not come, however, until next fall.

Mitchell County grand jury Friday named 17-year-old Willie Ross Emerson in indictments charging him with nine separate house burglaries extended over a three-week period from Sept. 29 to Oct. 21.

Emerson, who was arrested last month following a daring daylight burglary at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Halbert, is accused in the indictments of burglarizing houses of the following:

Sept. 29 — Don Guitart; Sept. 30 — Charles Alexander; Oct. 1 — Miss Ruthel McKenney; Oct. 3 — Mrs. Frank Ramsdell; Oct. 10 — Lynn Halbert; Oct. 14 — Mrs. L. W. Sandusky; Oct. 16 — Mrs. Lark Costin; Oct. 20 — Lynn Halbert; Oct. 21 — O. R. Pharris.

Emerson was arrested the night following a late morning burglary at the Halbert residence, 912 Waco. The intruder in the Halbert house frightened Mrs. Connie Sanchez from the residence.

Police have recovered a sack of loot which has been identified as being taken in several of the burglaries. The loot includes a variety of articles ranging from small radio to coins and rings.

Five other persons were named Friday in indictments returned by the grand jury.

Henry Garcia Jr. is charged with theft over $50 by stealing a 1955 model Chevrolet belonging to Ruby Willard. Garcia was apprehended after the Willard car was driven Oct. 21 from Villa Inn Restaurant to Sweetwater.

Jesse Hernandez, Raymond Gonzales and Pete Martinez were named jointly

Doctor's Office Burglary Fails

Burglary Wednesday night at the downtown office of Dr. Melvin Crymes resulted in no loss of loot.

Police Chief Jesse Browning said the break-in may have been interrupted by police patrol or Dr. Crymes.

A knife or sharp instrument was used to cut the rear screen door at the office, 137 East Third. After cutting the screen, the burglar unlatched the screen door, then broke glass out of the main rear door and reached through that opening to unlock the second door.

Dr. Crymes reported that nothing was missing, said the police chief. He did not notice, however, that a medical instrument had been removed from a cabinet and left on a table, Browning said.

This equipment was first noticed by the doctor when he went to the office about 10 p.m. Wednesday night to treat a patient, the chief reported. The doctor at that time, though, did not go in to the back room where the intruder had gained entrance to the building and, thus, was not aware of the burglary until Thursday morning.

The unexpected return of Dr. Crymes at night may have caused the intruder to flee or a night patrol may have interrupted the burglary, Chief Browning said.

County Becomes Icicle

Chills Business, School, Travel

Winter chilled Colorado City and Mitchell County like a sheet of ice — playing havoc with school, travel, crop harvest and Christmas shopping.

The coat of ice came Thursday night and Friday with 44 inch of sleet and freezing mist.

It was still around Saturday, despite a warm-up, following three consecutive nights of 26 degree sub-freezing temperatures.

Cars slipped and spun on city streets, but accidents were at a minimum.

However, a rash of wrecks were reported by State Highway Patrol on Interstate 20 and State Highway 208 with ice getting most of the blame.

Mitchell County's cotton harvest — already bucking a sliding market and possible lower grading — stopped entirely as the first big blast of winter blew across fields.

State Highway Department maintenance crews worked around the clock to keep highways open. Still, State 208 (to Robert Lee) was a solid sheet of ice Friday and Friday night.

Cars slipped to a halt on several street inclines throughout the residential area. Businessmen often were busy helping to push cars away from the curb in the downtown area.

At least twice, the paved route through Ruddick Park at Lomb Wolf Creek caused a traffic jam as cars were unable to climb the upgrade. Schools in Colorado City, Westbrook and Loraine kept their doors closed Friday and students had a holiday as bus routes were too dangerous for buses.

Colorado High's weekend basketball schedule was cancelled, the High School choir's concert bowed to the ice, Mitchell County Home Demonstration's annual Christmas party was postponed and other events lost to the cold.

Temperatures began to tumble last weekend, hitting lows of 28 degrees Saturday and Sunday nights. Monday night it was 34, followed by 33 degrees Tuesday.

Wednesday night the thermometer dropped to 26 degrees and with the dawn Thursday came a trace of sleet and snow.

Highest temperature Wednesday was 38 degrees and it was a chilly 26 degrees that day at 5 p.m.

Thursday's high was 29 and the low was 25 with a temperature of 26 degrees again at 5 p.m.

Friday night's official low was 25 degrees and at 9:30 a.m. Saturday the Courthouse low temperature was 28 degrees.

Before this week's wintery blast the season's low was 22 degrees recorded with a heavy frost Dec. 3. But day time temperature then climbed to a balmy 57 degrees.

Buses were off schedule during the ice storm and so was mail.

Motorists on the highway stopped repeatedly in Colorado City in an effort to

Hospital Gets Medicare Okay

Root Memorial Hospital has been okayed for Medicare under its new hospital district ownership.

Approval for the hospital is retroactive to Oct. 1, date in the change from private to public ownership.

This means, as far as the public is concerned, that the hospital has had continuous Medicare service for patients without any interruption.

However, because the Social Security Administration requires re-survey and new approval with any change of hospital ownership, the official notice of "propriety of service" has awaited the re-survey and new appraisal of survey findings.

Root Memorial Hospital now has a backlog of Medicare patient bills which have accumulated since October 1 which will be processed as soon as possible under the new ownership.

Charles Root, administrator of the hospital for Colorado City Hospital District, will be in Dallas Monday morning to present the backlog to officials of Medicare Division, Social Security Administration.

It is expected that the hospital district will receive an emergency payment — a percentage of the total backlog while the two and a half months of bills are being processed through regular channels of Medicare.

Official notice of the Medicare approval for new ownership at the hospital came Friday.

CONVERSATION CORNER

WEATHER full of freezing drizzle... sleet... snow... ice on the streets, glazing the sidewalks, is strictly weather to stay home by.

Even so, it turned out to be fun for those of us who had to slip-and-slide to work, anyhow.

When else... and where else could you view an amiable postmaster like Arlene Morris helping to push cars away from the Postoffice curb during the just before working time?

When else... and where else could you spy His Honor the Mayor, Dr. John Chinn, deliberately skating with his tan boots in front of city hall? Or booted Sheriff's Deputy Forrest Smith sliding to his car... Joe Earnest, attorney, wearing a red hunting cap to town... Oscar Haney shoveling ice and snow from in front of the theater?

WINTER weather will, low readings in the twenties is fairly rare in our part of Texas.

We aren't equipped to handle it in wardrobe, housing, or transportation.

Still, winter weather is usually a welcome visitor if for no other reason than that it's different. It gives a different feel to everybody and everything, everywhere.

Winter weather is a lot of invigorating things. Winter is when all the kids go "Whoopie!" when schools close for the day because of hazardous roads and streets. And all their mothers sigh deeply at the same time.

WINTER is a group of boys scooting along on homemade sleds.

Winter is homemade vegetable soup on the stove for supper... it is a batch of fudge... a kettle of popcorn.

Winter is a stack of new magazines... a steaming cup of coffee... enchiladas.

Winter is a warm blanket at night. Winter is home at twilight. Winter is to go to bed with.

Winter is Christmas trees blinking in the frosted windows. Winter is Christmas shopping.

Winter in West Texas is wishful thinking that maybe before this papers gets off the press and delivered it will go away... the ice, the icy mist, the glass-like look of the world.

Winter is slippers and an easy chair. Winter is to stay home by.

HEAR TELL that Flora (Mrs. John Brown) spent last week as guest in the home of her youngest daughter Lucy, her husband Tommy Saye and their son and daughter at Clarendon.

Mrs. Brown's brother Corley Bozeman drove to Clarendon for the weekend and they returned to C-City, Monday.

Hear tell, too, that District Judge Austin McCould drove home from Roby, Thursday, at 10 miles per hour in the sleet storm.

And that the D.A. Weldon Kirk of Sweetwater, spent an hour and 45 minutes getting to C-City from his hometown.

SEEN LATELY included former C-Citizen Elliott Dixon who works in Dallas and lives at Blooming Grove, Navarro County.

Saw County Judge Elmer Martin easing along on foot. Battery died right on the courthouse parking lot.

Bob Ratliff was crunching along the newly paved alley... David Harder was sledding with Jim Mann and Carl Guelker over on Marshall St.

WESTBROOK Mrs. Herman Parsons was hostess in her home to members of Ruth Sunday School class of Baptist Church, Thursday, December 7 at 7 p.m.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Pope, Edwards, Shackelford, Ranne, Ralph Bryant and Sam Scroggins, president. Also Jana and Steve Shackelford, Linda Ranne, Melanie Parsons and the hostess.

Mrs. Homer Rice, teacher, will host the January meeting.

Joey and Debra, was on the downtown scene with a little blue knit cap matching her coat.

FAMILIAR FACES have been few and far between what with the weather putting on such a show.

Did see Joan Mann Watlington and her husband Raymond (Blackie) both on the same day at different times.

Bill Doss was an office visitor... So was Leslie Keith... and Bobby Lemons, county agent.

Talked via dial-system to Janice Miller, Betty Garrett (Mrs. J. C.) Rhett Sanders, wife of Dave, and F.P. (favorite person) named Mrs. J. Ed Richardson.

OFF THE CUFF - winter is "call it off" in C-City. Called off Friday were all public schools in the county plus St. Ann's parochial school... the 1921 Study Club party in the home of Nettie (Mrs. Bill) Doss... The annual Christmas installation dinner in Medallion Room for the Home Demonstration Council... the Basketball turney at Stamford where Wolves were scheduled to play.

Billy and Louise Wilkinson, First Methodist pastor and his wife celebrated Christmas at Thanksgiving when all their children were here for a daughter's wedding. They'll keep Christmas at home, minus children or grandchildren.

Did you know our Myrtle Wulfjen (Mrs. Sam) hurt her back in a fall several weeks ago? Just the same she plans a trip to Richardson to see son Robert Wulfjen, his wife Maxine (Craddock) and their children, come Christmas - if she is able to ride by then.

Met for the first time nice young Oak Street Baptist pastor, Calvin Gustin, father of two boys, two girls.

Gus and Frances Chesney plan to fly to El Paso for a visit with daughter Linda and her husband Lt. Tim Bennett at Fort Bliss, for Christmas.

Primary PTA Program Attracts 160 Members

Primary Parent-Teacher Association attracted 160 members to the program in Primary School auditorium Tuesday afternoon.

Opening the program was a musical group staged by third grade public school music pupils of Mrs. Olson A. Sweet.

The children sang carols and accompanied themselves at the piano and on the bells. Highlight of their part of the program was the finale, the singing of a "round," titled "Happy Christmas."

Speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Austin McCloud, special reading teacher. Introduced by Mrs. Leonard

Petty, speech therapist for Colorado Independent Schools, Mrs. McCloud told her audience "Read to your children, talk to them so that they will know the sound of words."

She urged parents present to provide books for their children to read, to get books from the library. Mrs. McCloud suggested books should be "one level below the reading level in school classes so that a child may find reading fun and a pleasure."

The speaker reminded her listeners to encourage a child's love for hopping, skipping and jumping. These physical activities, she said, are a great help in teaching a child coordination, which influences the ability to read well.

Following the program, the PTA had a book fair with 200 books for first, second, and third grade pupils on display. Purchased during the fair were 39 books.

A plea was issued at the business hour, for den mothers to assist with the Cub Scout organization sponsored by the Lions Club. Bob Payne is Cub Master. A number of den mothers are urgently needed; the appeal said.

Coffee and cookies were served after the book fair.

Mrs. L. R. Robinson, sister of Maurie Kirschbaum and of Mrs. Philip Berman, died Wednesday, Dec. 6, in Dallas.

She was also the mother of a former Colorado City resident, Mrs. Frank Bodzin.

Mr. and Mrs. Berman and Mr. and Mrs. Kirschbaum attended funeral services for Mrs. Robinson in Dallas, Thursday.

Coach Nix said playing dates are the same as the initial schedule, but the rest is all new. In the early schedule — manned by the district — a couple of weeks after 3-AAA was enlarged to include Colorado City, Estacado and Station. Had the Wolves following their Station owner with Snyder (there), Lake View (there), Sweetwater (there), Littlefield (there), Estacado (there), Loveland (there), Brownfield (there), Lamona (there) and Dunbar (there).

Main reason for revision of the district schedule was to avoid home date conflicts between Lake View and San Angelo High.

Needed to stage Lil' Abner will be a cast of almost 50 persons. Lil' Abner will unquestionably be the amateur theater's most ambitious production.

Garden Club Entertained In Two Homes Wednesday

Colorado City Garden Club met Wednesday in the Chester Hart and Dr. E. D. Bridgford homes.

Theme was "Beauty for the Holidays" with Mrs. Effi Brown as leader for the afternoon.

In the Hart home the high school concert choir sang Christmas carols, directed by Curtis Baker.

The second part of the program was given in the home of Mrs. Bridgford, where Mrs. A. H. Jackson gave a program "Christmas Through The Ages," which was followed by a social hour.

"Time was," Mrs. Jackson said, "when horse-power meant one or two horses hitched to a sleigh, cutter or bobbed, and folks went shopping to the accompaniment of sleigh bells... Today the outside world comes inside by way of TV."

She then made a vivid comparison of yesterday's customs and today's. "But when Christmas comes whether the trees are pink, blue, white or green, when shopping is done and gifts are wrapped, when candles are lighted in church and homes throughout the land, then the same old story is read from the gospel by Matthew and Luke. 'Although time has changed a lot of things, the spirit of Christmas has not changed,' she said.

Mrs. Jackson climaxed Guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ranne last Sunday were Walter Rabb of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Feaster and son, Tracy, of Big Spring, and Mr. and Mrs. Leeman Jones and son Marvin, of Midland.

her program with the reading of the birth of Jesus as told by Matthew and Luke in the New Testament.

Members present were Mrs. Ruth Airhart, Mrs. R. D. Bridgford, Mrs. S. A. Palmer, Mrs. Earl Brown, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Roy Davis, Mrs. L. L. Comer, Mrs. Ben Elliot, Mrs. Chester Hart, Mrs. W. C. Hooks, Mrs. A. H. Jackson, Mrs. W. P. Jarnon, Mrs. Leon Jenkins.

Mrs. Jesse L. Jones, Mrs. Bruce Johnson, Mrs. H. L. Lockhart, Mrs. A. R. Northcutt, Mrs. E. M. Owen, Mrs. J. B. Pritchett, Mrs. Kirk Taylor, Mrs. L. J. Taylor, Mrs. Cephas Tidwell, and a new member Mrs. W. C. Smith. Mrs. W. N. Crosthwaite was a guest from Clyde.
