Keeping tab on our neighbors:

Kim Pease of the Rotan Advance and Roby Star-Record reports that Mrs. Clarence Huckaby of Rotan found an old one-cent postcard that was mailed out by the George W. Young and Sons Grocery Store there in 1937 which listed some "specials" in the store. They listed tomatoes at five cents per pound, smoked bacon at 28 cents per pound, sugar at 10 pounds for 55 cents, jelly at 43 cents for a five-pound can, lettuce at four cents a head.

Sounds fantasic, doesn't it? But Pease had a word of caution.

"If those prices make you want the good old days, remember for just a minute that grown men were picking cotton for $1.25 a day," he reminded.

Walter Buckel of the Lamesa Press-Reporter said he was happy to see the price of gasoline coming down in Dawson County.

"Some of the folks say no gas war is imminent, but as you head up and down the highway around here you see more 46.9...and even 45.9 signs on the self-service pumps," wrote Buckel. "Gas war or not it's a good feeling to be able to fill-er-up for under ten bucks."

Primary elections in Texas will be unusual this year, one reason being the presidential primary vote, something Texans are not accustomed to, and the Post Dispatch says this situation may be confusing to some voters. For example, presidential candidates will have slates of delegates on the ballot in the various presidential primary districts. But all candidates will not have slates in all districts. Texan Lloyd Bentsen, Jimmy Carter of Georgia and George Wallace of Alabama will have slates of delegates on the Democratic ballot throughout the state, but Fred Harris of Oklahoma is "running" in only 14 of the 31 districts, and Sargent Shriver, Ted Kennedy's brother-in-law, will have slates in only six districts. And then there will be slates of "uncommitted" delegates in 18 districts.

"The candidates are in for some confusion, too," says the Dispatch. "When they get down here in Texas they will find they have a whole lot more ground to cover than they imagined if they want to see a big slice of the voters."

It does seem that efforts to simplify voting and assure that all get a fair shot at voting their preferences always seem to wind up with additional complications.—WACIL McNAIR.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Feb. 6, the 37th day of 1976. There are 329 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1952, King George VI of Britain died. He was succeeded by his daughter, Elizabeth II.

On this date:

In 1693, the College of William and Mary was chartered at Williamsburg, Va.

In 1701, the War of Spanish Succession began, and French troops occupied the southern Spanish Netherlands.

In 1715, the Peace of Utrecht ended a war between Spain and Portugal.

In 1778, France recognized the independence of the United States.

In 1788, Massachusetts became the sixth state to ratify the U.S. Constitution.

In 1964, Cuba cut off the normal water supply to the American naval base at Guantanamo Bay in Cuba.

Ten years ago: The United States disclosed it had dropped 30,000 tons of bombs on North Vietnam in the year since bombings began.

Five years ago: The U.S. Apollo 14 astronauts were preparing to head for home after spending more than 30 hours on the moon.

One year ago: Sen. Henry Jackson of Washington announced he was a candidate for the 1976 Democratic presidential nomination.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago today, the Spanish government decided to inform the British that Spain would not sell arms and ammunition to the rebellious American Colonies but would carry on ordinary commerce as in the past.

JUDGE JOHN SIRICA
...Collapses Thursday

Sirica Making Progress

By MIKE SHANAHAN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica today was reported making satisfactory progress after suffering a heart attack which doctors said stopped the Watergate judge's heart for 15 minutes.

"We couldn't ask for more considering what he's been through," said Dr. Joel Gorfinkel. "There is every conceivable chance that he will resume a normal life."

Gorfinkel said a "minor problem with lung congestion" was responding to medication. The doctor, associate director of the coronary care unit at George Washington University Hospital, described Sirica's condition as "critical but satisfactory."

Sirica, 71, was stricken with a massive heart attack Thursday while delivering a luncheon speech.

Gorfinkel credited quick emergency treatment with saving the judge's life.

Almost immediately after the judge collapsed, a deputy U.S. marshal, a military doctor and ambulance rescue workers gave mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and applied pressure with their hands to Sirica's chest. This kept the blood flowing to Sirica's brain, the doctor said.

Gorfinkel said 80 per cent of such heart attack victims never make it to a hospital, but among those who do, four of every five survive, he said.

Nixons To Revisit China

TOKYO (AP) — Former President Richard M. Nixon and his wife Pat have been invited to visit China beginning Feb. 21 and have accepted "with pleasure," the official Hsinhua news agency said today.

It said the visit will mark the fourth anniversary of the Nixons' first visit to China.

"The historic visit to China made by President Richard Nixon of the United States of America and Mrs. Nixon and the issuance of the joint communique by China and the United States in 1972 have played a significant role in improving Sino-U.S. relations," Hsinhua said.

"The Chinese side and former President Nixon both consider that a revisit to China by him will be appropriate. The government of the People's Republic of China has extended an invitation to him and Mrs. Nixon to revisit China on February 21, 1976, the fourth anniversary of their first visit. They have accepted the invitation with pleasure."

Barbara Walters of NBC's "Today" show quoted government sources in Washington as saying China plans to send a plane to pick up Nixon in California.

Nixon wasn't immediately available for comment.

AFS Chapter Meets Saturday

The local chapter of the American Field Service will hold its February meeting at 8 a.m. Saturday at the Smorgasbord Restaurant.

The AFS sponsors the exchange student program at Snyder High School. Anyone interested in its work is invited to attend the "Dutch treat" breakfast session Saturday.

JOBLESS DECLINE LARGEST IN YEARS

Job Outlook Improves

By R. GREGORY NOKES
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) —The nation's unemployment rate dropped from 8.3 per cent to 7.8 per cent in January, the largest monthly decline in the jobless rate in more than 16 years, the government said today.

The Labor Department said total employment in January increased by 800,000, the largest monthly job increase since early 1960. Total employment in the economy in January was 86.2 million, which was close to the prerecession peak employment in July of 1974.

The Labor Department figures are sure to win the Ford administration support for its economic policies in 1976.

The gains in employment were widespread throughout the economy, with only the teen-age jobless rate failing to improve.

The Labor Department gave the following unemployment breakdown:

—Adult men, 5.8 per cent, down from 6.6 per cent in December.

—Adult women, 7.5 per cent, down from 8 per cent.

—Whites, 7.1 per cent, down from 7.6 per cent.

—Blacks and other races, 13.2 per cent, down from 13.8 per cent.

—Heads of households, 5.1 per cent, down from 5.7 per cent.

—Married men, 4.1 per cent, down from 4.8 per cent.

—Full-time workers, 7.3 per cent, down from 7.9 per cent.

—White collar workers, 4.7 per cent, down from 4.8 per cent.

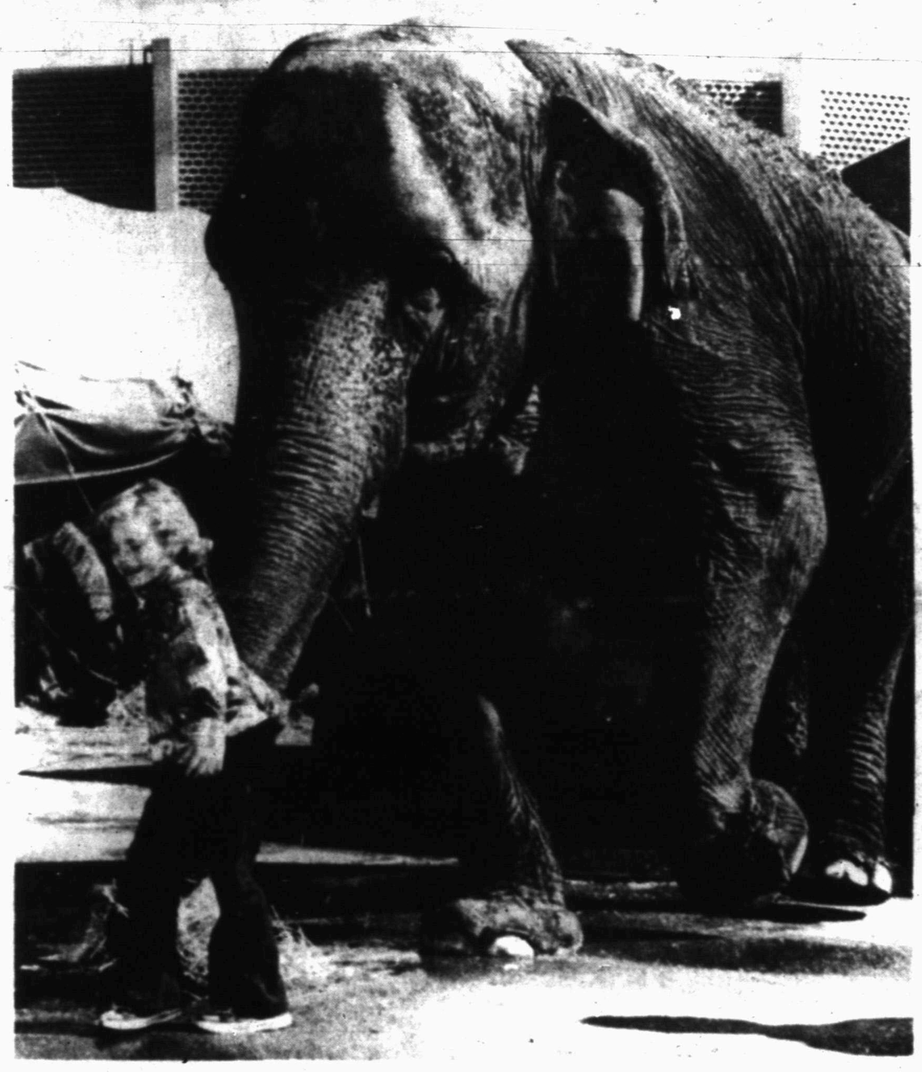

—Blue collar workers, 9.4 per cent, down from 10.7 per cent.

—Teen-agers, 19.9 per cent, up from 19.6 per cent in December.

The Labor Department said total employment in January was 2.1 million above the recession low of last March, when the unemployment rate was 8.5 per cent. The peak unemployment rate during the recession was 8.9 percent in May, when the labor force had shrunk to a low level.

Among signs of an improving employment outlook have been a big decline in new unemployment insurance claims in January, an increase in the average work week to 40.3 hours and an increase in work overtime.

Any decline in unemployment would be eagerly welcomed by the Ford administration, since its program for reducing unemployment in 1976 is being criticized as inadequate.

SENATE, HOUSE BILLS DIFFER

Compromise On Gas Decontrol Is Unclear

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House approved a measure that would boost natural gas prices slightly by removing controls from independent producers, but it rejected administration plans to deregulate the big producers.

The House voted Thursday to lift federal price controls from an estimated 3,500 independent producers but to retain price controls on the 25 to 30 largest producers and extend the ceilings to gas transactions within individual states. Those intrastate sales have hitherto been unregulated.

The House bill differs fundamentally from a measure passed by the Senate which would gradually end all price controls on natural gas. The two measures now go to a conference committee where the outlook for a compromise is unclear.

The administration had backed complete decontrol of the industry to allow prices to rise enough to stimulate exploration for new gas.

One congressman who worked for total decontrol later complained that the House bill would actually regulate 75 per cent of the U.S. supply of natural gas, compared to 65 per cent that is now regulated.

The independent producers which would escape regulation are defined as producing less than 100 billion cubic feet a year and account for only about 25 per cent of the natural gas produced in the United States, with the other 75 per cent accounted for by the larger producers.

Rep. Neal Smith, D-Iowa, sponsor of the bill, estimated the legislation would allow prices charged by independent producers to rise from an average of 35 cents per thousand cubic feet to about $1.

But what this price rise would mean to the consumer was not as easily forecast, mainly because of the wide variety of possible combinations of gas derived from both unregulated and regulated producers.

However, the Federal Energy Administration said any increase to the consumer is likely to be minimal. In addition, only about 17 per cent to 25 per cent of the residential consumer's gas bill is for the actual cost of the fuel. The rest is for pipeline transportation charges and the local utility's charge for delivering the gas to customers.

Meanwhile, there were these developments:

—Louisiana Gov. Edwin Edwards said the House bill was "patently unconstitutional." If it becomes law, Louisiana, which leads the nation in gas production, will seek a court ruling that the federal government has no constitutional right to regulate the price of natural gas within state borders, Edwards said.

—The House action was also denounced by Exxon, the largest American petroleum company, as "an extreme example of punitive legislation against major oil companies."

—The president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, which represents natural gas independents, criticized the measure as an effort to cause a split between independents and major companies.

Rannefeld Is Candiate For City Council

Vernon O. Rannefeld filed Thursday afternoon as a candidate for the Snyder City Council, Place 6.

Rannefeld, owner of Snyder Heating and Air Conditioning Co., is seeking the post which will be vacated by Charles Blakey, who has indicated that he will not be a candidate for re-election following two terms on the council.

There is a candidate for each post on the council which will have a term expiring this spring. The election is set for Saturday, April 3.

Mayor W.A. Vestal is a candidate for re-election, as are Jack Cummins, Councilman, Place 2, and John Fagin, Councilman, Place 4. March 4 is the deadline for candidates to file.

TO PROMOTE SALES

Lockheed Bribed Foreign Leaders

By HARRISON HUMPHRIES
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lockheed Aircraft Corp. paid more than $1 million to a "high government official in the Netherlands" to promote aircraft sales to the country, Lockheed's chief operations officer testified today.

Chairman Frank Church, D-Idaho, of the the Senate subcommittee on multinational corporations, called the payment a bribe. A. C. Kotchian, a Lockheed vice president and chief operations officer, called the money a gift but said he would not quibble with Church's characterization.

The testimony on money paid to the Netherland's official follows disclosures by the committee Wednesday that Lockheed paid more than $15 million in the last few years to romote aircraft sales in other countries of Europe and in Japan.

In Los Angeles, Lockheed said a four-member panel of its directors has been formed to investigate the charges that it bribed foreign officials to buy its aircraft.

In Tokyo, Prime Minister Takeo Miki declared today that all allegations of payoffs to agents in Japan must be cleared up to protect Japan's honor.

The Senate subcommittee said Lockheed paid more than $7 million to Yoshio Kodama, an ultra right-wing political leader.

Kotchian also acknowledged that Lockheed paid $10,000 from an "off the books" account in Switzerland to an organization in London which he said included at least one CIA official.

He said the purpose of the money was to bolster Lockheed's knowledge about foreign intelligence. He said a one-year contract with the London firm was allowed to lapse when it failed to pay off.

Another $25,000 was paid to an official of an airine in the Netherlands for "general intelligence and to establish a climate which we hoped would be helpful to us," Kotchian said.

Kissinger To Fight Congress

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger will meet Congress head-on over issues instead of emphasizing conciliation, according to policy decision he has made.

At the same time, Kissinger has decided to keep up his grass-roots speaking campaign, which this week took him to Los Angeles, San Francisco and Laramie, Wyo. That means chancing charges of partisanship as the elections draw near.

Meanwhile, friends of Kissinger are saying that he has given up any thoughts of quitting before the November elections and that he plans to stay on, provided President Ford wants him in the job.

One of the principal reasons for this attitude is said to be Kissinger's reluctance to leave his successor with the complicated and delicate job of completing terms for a new 10-year treaty with the Soviet Union to limit offensive nuclear weapons.

His new gloves-off stance toward Congress drew an attack Thursday from Sen. Mike Mansfield, the usually placid Democratic leader, who said Kissinger ought to accept that Congress will speak its mind on foreign policy instead of "pointing the finger" at Capitol Hill.

In New York, the Louis Harris polling organization said Thursday the success of Kissinger's foreign policy may determine who gets the Republican nomination for president.

The Harris group said a survey of 1,710 Republicans and independents across the country showed former California Gov. Ronald Reagan, who is challenging Ford for the Republican nomination, is favored on most domestic issues, but that Ford is favored on most foreign issues.

"If Mr. Ford were able to produce further agreements with the Russians or in the Middle East," the polling organization said, "he could draw his primary opponent out on the foreign policy issue and win.

"However, if Mr. Ford makes foreign policy an issue during the primary campaigns and then cannot deliver measurable progress toward peace, his move could backfire badly."

The Harris group said that "ironically" the outcome may depend on Kissinger's success, rather than on the campaigns of either candidate.

Cold Spell Tightens Its Grip

Cold weather continued its grip on the Snyder area today and forecasts indicated it could become even colder before a warm-up.

The official low reading here this morning was 23 degrees. There was vitually no moisture in the immediate area, but much of Northwest and North Central Texas had freezing rain which made driving conditions treacherous.

Temperatures dropped into the mid teens in the Panhandle although no precipitation was reported in that section.

At dawn, scattered showers along with patches of freezing rain and drizzle fell from north of Abilene to Stephenville and west of San Angelo. Dense fog cloaked the Midland-Odessa area, making travel in that area more hazardous.

Travel advisories were issued until late morning for the Texas South Plains and parts of North Central and Northwest Texas.

Freezing temperatures covered an area north of a line from near Dallas to near San Angelo and westward to the Pecos River Valley.

In the southern half of the state, small craft advisories went up along the coast. North winds gusted 15 to 25 miles per hour. Some light rain fell on the middle and upper coastal plains.

Temperatures at 5 a.m. varied from 14 at Dalhart and 16 at Amarillo to 68 at Brownsville and 69 at McAllen.

Forecasts called for intermittent freezing drizzle to become more widespread over West Texas tonight.

Precipitation was widespread but mostly light over the state Thursday. Texarkana received .52 inches, high for the state.

US AIRLIFTS AID

Quake Toll Is Still Climbing

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala (AP) — The U.N. Disaster Relief Organization — UNDRO — estimated today that nearly 6,000 persons died and 40,000 were injured in Wednesday's earthquake in Guatemala as the United States began a 17-plane airlift of aid to the devastated country.

A U.N. spokesman in Geneva said the estimate, much higher than that by officials in Guatemala City, came from UNDRO representatives in Guatemala who reported about 800 dead in Guatemala City and about 5,000 in other areas of the country.

Guatemala's National Emergency Committee estimated the toll at 2,500 to 3,000 dead, 15,000 injured and 200,000 homeless.

Sources close to the committee said the casualty estimates were conservative.

The committee said it had information from 80 per cent of the area hit hardest by the quake, a region which stretched across 75 per cent of the nation of 6 million people.

An American survey team from the Panama Canal Zone flew over the country in helicopters Thursday, locating the worst damage in a region north and northwest of Guatemala City.

The U.S. Embassy said the survey confirmed the total destruction of several cities, including Joyabaj, population 32,000; Tecpan, 24,000; and Patzicia, 11,000. The town of Chimaltenango, 20,000 population, was 98 per cent leveled.

The emergency committee said other towns leveled by the quake were Cornalapa, 18,000; El Progreso, 12,000, and Zaragosa, 8,000, and that many smaller towns and villages suffered the same fate.

"Up to Wednesday, it did not look so bad because all we could see was Guatemala City. Today, it's an entirely different situation," an embassy spokesman said.

No deaths or injuries were reported among the estimated 5,000 Americans living in Guatemala or visiting there as tourists. But hundreds of Guatemalans were believed dead here in the capital, where slum districts in the center of the city were hit hardest. Adobe huts and shops were flattened, but most major buildings were left standing.

A massive relief effort was under way from the United States as well as from neighboring countries, which suffered varying degrees of damage but had no reported deaths and few injuries.

The U.S. Embassy said 16 big C141 transport planes from American bases began landing at the rate of one an hour at Guatemala City's international airport Thursday night.

U.S. aid included a 100-bed hospital manned by 25 doctors that was airlifted from Ft. Sill, Okla., and 500 family tents, 500 pints of blood plasma, 5,000 doses of antibiotics, a dozen 3,000-gallon water storage tanks, electric power generators, pumps and other supplies.

Ambassador Francis E. Meloy Jr., whose home was wrecked by the quake, met with President Kjell Eugenio Laugerud Thursday night to discuss the American effort. They were expected to send the hospital into the countryside north of Guatemala City to begin work by Sunday.

The U.S. Embassy also reported that CARE, the relief agency, was beginning to distribute 11 million pounds of food that had been stockpiled in Guatemalan warehouses for emergencies in Central Amrica.

Guillermo Echeverria Vielmans, the top coordinator for the National Emergency Committee, said more aid is desperately needed.

"The backbone of Guatemalan commerce has been broken" by the loss of two key bridges on the highway from Guatemala City to the Caribbean ports of Puerto Barrios and Santo Tomas de Castillo, Echeverria told newsmen.

Veterans' Checks Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — About 647,000 checks for veterans and dependents were delayed this month by processing problems caused by an outmoded and overworked computer, the Veterans Administration says.

But William R. Martin, the VA's chief data management director, said the rest of the seven million checks due to arrive Feb 1 were sent out on time.

In answer to inquiries, Martin said Thursday that there was a delay of two or three days in the mailing of the 647,000 checks but all should have been received by now. He said most probably were delivered early this week.

Most of the checks involved in the delay were pension checks for non-service-connected disability, which range from about $5 to about $195 and for low-income survivors which range from about $235 to about $592, Martin said. Some of the checks, he said, involved compensation for service-connected disability, but there was no special problem with checks for those going to school under the GI bill.

Three factors complicated the check processing, Martin said:

—The processing workload at the VA Data Processing Center in Hines, Ill., has more than doubled in the last three years. However, the VA is awaiting approval of proposals to install new high-speed computer equipment and expects that to be in use by April or May.

—The checks reflected annual adjustments based on questionnaires answered by the 1.2 million pensioners. The questionnaires dealt with the beneficiaries' income, which determines the amount of the checks.

—Pension payments were further complicated last month by the need to take into account a new law providing an 8 per cent increase in pension payments and $300 increase in income that recipients are allowed to earn from other sources. The law went into effect Jan. 1.

Martin says he doesn't expect any delay for the March 1 checks, especially considering the once-only impact of the annual income questionnaires.

IN HEARST TRIAL

Robbery Film Highlights Day

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — After twice watching a two-minute film of herself toting a rifle at a bank robbery, Patricia Hearst listened quietly as a witness recalled "looking right down the barrel" of her sawed-off carbine and falling to the floor in fear.

James Norton, a recreational therapist, testified Thursday that Miss Hearst was a peppery, foul-mouthed desperado who was the first one in the bank the day of the robbery.

Norton, called to the stand by U.S. Atty. James L. Browning Jr., was scheduled to undergo cross-examination today, and chief defense attorney F. Lee Bailey said it would be "lengthy."

Norton was the second witness to testify Thursday that the newspaper heiress shouted obscenities when she and four Symbionese Liberation Army members held up the Hibernia Bank here April 15, 1974, two months after the tiny band of terrorists kidnaped her.

Norton said he was about to deposit a check when Miss Hearst burst through the front door of the bank and pointed a carbine at him.

Avoiding a profanity he said he heard Miss Hearst utter, Norton quoted her as saying: "'Get on the ground, or I'll blow your dash head off, your brains out,' or something like that.

"By then, I was on my way to the floor."

He said he was the last one to fall to the floor because he initially thought it was a staged holdup for a television show. His comment drew laughter from the spectators, and U.S. Dist. Judge Oliver J. Carter sternly reprimanded the audience for laughing.

Browning held up a brown-barreled military carbine and asked if it was similiar to the one used by Miss Hearst. Norton replied that it was.

The highlight of the first day of testimony was the showing of a two-minute film of the robbery pieced together by an FBI agent from 800 still photos taken by the bank's two surveillance cameras.

In the eerie and jerky footage, Miss Hearst is seen sprinting to the center of the bank lobby and bouncing from foot to foot as the other four bandits moved in precision to other areas.

Twice, she glanced over her shoulder at Donald "Cinque" DeFreeze, the SLA leader who died along with five other SLA members, including three who helped robbed the bank, during a shootout with Los Angeles police a month after the holdup.

Once, Miss Hearst adjusted the harness that held her carbine and toward the end motioned for SLA member Camilla Hall to leave the bank. She followed DeFreeze out, running sideways while keeping her rifle pointed toward customers and tellers.

When the lights went up, the pale 21-year-old Miss Hearst nervously fingered her lips and quickly took a sip of water. She stared at the surface of the defense table.

Later, during cross-examination of another witness, the film was shown again at the request of Bailey. When it was completed, Miss Hearst rubbed her temple and had a pained expression on her face.

Nine witnesses were called by the prosecution Thursday. Bailey had no questions for four of them.

Connally Says Congress Too Busy With Probes

By MAX B. SKELTON
Associated Press Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — John Connally says Congress is too busy trying to win Junior G-man badges.

The former Treasury secretary and Texas governor said Thursday the Congress is so involved in the investigation of the Central Intelligence Agency it is not solving such problems as inflation.

"They want the glare of publicity, the glare of lights," Connally said during a question and answer session after speaking before the Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

Connally called for a strong CIA but declined comment reports President Ford plans to appoint him to the Foreign Intelligence Board, a post Connally formerly held.

Connally told the oilmen a CIA investigating committee headed by Senator Frank Church, D-Idaho, "obviously is more interested in looking into that TV Tube and generating the publicity that eminates from it than they are in doing something that is in the interest of the United States.

"There is need to explain to the American people what the CIA does and the necessity for an intelligence agency," he said. "When you do that you put the proper correlation on the Church committee. And that is something we need to understand. The Congress is today so concerned with trying to win their Junior G-man badges by conducting investigations that they are not able to do the problems they ought to be concerning themselves with."

Connally said the CIA might have been guilty of some transgressions but it would be foolish to think the Soviet Union has completely changed its goal or hope of world domination by Communism.

"The truth of the matter is what the CIA does primarily is react to circumstances and situations that exist around the world and are instigated primarily by the Soviet Union," he said.

"And yet we sit here and constantly dismantle the only organization we have that is effectively able to counteract the type moves the Soviets are engaged in."

Connally said the Soviets perceive this United States weakness.

"They understand it and I predict for you you are going to see a more aggressive Communist movement throughout the world during this election year than yo have seen since the years of the Cold War," he said.

Connally told the oilmen the most effective way to reduce the pump price of gasoline would be to reduce petroleum products taxes.

"If you cut all the corporate profits of the major oil companies in half you might reduce the cost of gasoline 1½ cents a gallon to the consumer," he said.

"The way to reduce the price of gasoline at the pump is to cut half of the taxes. If you cut all the taxes on oil and gas in half you could reduce the price of gasoline at the pump 13 cents a gallon."

He described as a "monstrosity" the new energy bill that extended oil price controls 40 months.

"It should not have been passed and having been passed it should not have been signed," he said.

"It was passed and it was signed, but that doesn't make it reasonable or right."

Connally was to leave today for Japan as the head of a Houston Chamber of Commerce trade mission.

Duval To Have Free Election

SAN DIEGO, Tex. (AP) — The common man is running for office in Duval County.

Ten, 15, 20 years ago such a thing was unthinkable—unless the common man was the pawn of powerful, backstage political bosses.

But the walls of corruption which isolated this South Texas area have crumbled and hordes of candidates are streaming over the rubble into the sunlight of what many feel is their first taste of true political democracy.

"We're having our free election ever," Duval County Auditor Walter Meek said after 87 persons filed as candidates for 30 posts in the Democratic primary election.

Contested elections have been rare in Duval County in this century. But the downfall of the Parr regime last year and the legal problems of the Carrillo family have left Duval County without a strong political leader.

"We have no leader and we're not going to have one for a long, long time," Meek said.

Since not long after the turn of the century there has always been a leader named Parr who could select candidates for the posts in Duval County. They were rarely opposed and Meek recalls some of them ran, but were "just laughed at."

First it was the late Sen. Archie Parr—first man to be called the "Duke of Duval." He was followed by his son, the late George B. Parr, who took his own life last April while facing a prison term for income tax evasion.

Warning On Payoffs Issued

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld said today "I will land on" any military or civilian officials who accept entertainment from defense contractors or who engage in any other improprieties.

Rumsfeld told a news conference "there is no question that I will take a personal hand" in cracking down on such improprieties. Congressional hearings have disclosed visits by military officers and civilian Pentagon officials to contractor-owned hunting lodges.

The defense chief said that "I can think of few things more damaging and distracting from the fundamental issue" of maintaining the nation's military strength than a stream of disclosures "about people not conducting themselves in a way that is above suspicion."

Ford To Visit New Hampshire

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)— President Ford hopes to perk up his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination with a weekend blitz through New Hamphire, where some observers say he lags behind Ronald Reagan in both organization and momentum.

The visit, which also will bring Mrs. Ford and two of their four children to the state with the nation's first primary, is aimed at giving the President maximum exposure in a limited time. Aides concede they will try to emphasize his incumbency.

Although Ford strategists insist the President's voter appeal will stem from "the job he's doing in Washington," they said the visit will be crucial in the tight race against Reagan in the Feb. 24 primary here.

The state's election in past years has been a barometer of candidates' strengths and weaknesses. Reagan hopes to combine strong showings in New Hamshire and Florida on March 9 to build momentum in his drive for the Republican nomination.

Ford's first and perhaps only—hunt for New Hampshire voters comes as national polls show Reagan gaining ground among Republicans and independents, and amid continuing reports that Ford's grassroots effort in New Hampshire is sputtering.

Ford organizers have tried to counter Reagan's numerous trips into the state by bringing several surrogates here from both within and outside the administration. But their impact, observers note, nas been minimal.

Although saying the campaign is "going quite well," one key worker admitted the other day the candidates' absence has posed a problem. "I've never been involved in a campaign for someone that isn't there," the worker said.

Only in the last two weeks have Ford's organizers launched an intensive telephone canvass from 10 telephone banks around the state. Reagan's forces have been conducting a similar canvass using a dozen workers in Leonia since October.

A Lou Harris poll of Republicans and independents in January showed Ford holding 46 per cent of those surveyed nationally, but also showed Reagan climbing from 40 to 44 per cent since an earlier poll in November-December.

Senate OKs Bill To Honor Douglas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed and sent to the House a bill to dedicate to retired Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas the Chesapeake and the Ohio Canal National Historical Park.

Panel Denies Decision

AUSTIN (AP) — The Senate Review Committee issued a statement denying it had reached a final decision in the case of Alex Martinez, who was fired by Senate Secretary Charles Schnabel.

The Associated Press learned Thursday that the committee decided Schnabel did not discriminate against Martinez because of his race when he fired him.

"The committee wishes to inform the news media and the public that the committee has not reached a final decision in this matter, and furthermore, that this matter is strictly confidential and any resolution and final report made by this committee may only be released by the complainant (Martinez)," the statement said.

The committee also apologized to Martinez and said, "... we strongly feel that his basic rights under the law have been violated by the publication of this article."

The committee agreed on the lack of discrimination shortly after 5 p.m. Thursday.

Gov. Briscoe Praises Texas

CLUTE, Tex. (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe has praised Texas for its role in producing energy, saying the state has done more than its share.

He also urged other states to step up energy explorations and criticized those which have not allowed offshore oil drilling due to environmental risks.

The governor addressed about 350 persons Thursday night at a Brazosport Chamber of Commerce banquet.

"We've done more than our share," the governor said, after noting that Texas both produces and consumes more energy than any other state.

Settlers Favorite Breakfast

By Aileen Claire
NEA Food Editor

Bicentennial stories remind us that early settlers made do with the basics of life. Many of their foods, though simple in origin, are being revived as almost exotics to serve to a new generation. Examples are New England corn cakes and Hasty Pudding which were breakfast favorites of John Adams when he was President of the United States. These reflected his austere New England heritage.

Corn was relatively plentiful in New England, and corn cakes made with fresh or canned whole kernel corn and topped with an orange maple syrup make a delicious breakfast. The Adams' enjoyed Hasty Pudding served as a hot cereal or chilled until firm, sliced and browned in butter in a skillet. These are variations with orange juice for added flavor.

NEW OLD FAVORITES—Colonial corn cakes and Hasty Pudding are new old favorites.

ORANGE CORN CAKES

1½ cups unsifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon salt
2 eggs
½ cup milk
½ cup orange juice
3 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
1 can (1 pound, 1 ounce) cream style corn.

In large bowl mix together flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. In small bowl beat eggs. Stir in milk, orange juice, butter and corn. Add all at once to dry ingredients and stir to mix well. Heat griddle or lightly greased skillet. Measure ¼ cup batter for each cake, pour onto griddle and cook until bubbles form on top, turn and cook on other side. Remove to serving platter, keep warm, and repeat with remaining batter. Serve with Orange Maple Syrup. Makes 16 four-inch pancakes.

Orange Maple Syrup

1 can (6 ounces) frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed, undiluted
½ cup maple flavored syrup
½ cup butter or margarine

Combine undiluted orange concentrate, maple flavored syrup and butter in saucepan. Simmer about 5 minutes. Serve warm. Makes one and three-quarter cups.

HASTY PUDDING

1½ cups orange juice
4½ cups water
1½ cups yellow cornmeal
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup molasses
3 tablespoons butter or margarine, divided.

In a large saucepan bring orange juice and water to a full boil. Gradually stir in cornmeal. Stir in salt and nutmeg. Boil, stirring constantly, 10 minutes, or until mixture is very thick. Stir in molasses and 2 tablespoons butter. Serve immediately in cereal bowls with remaining 1 tablespoon butter or turn into 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan and chill until firm. Unmold and slice. Heat 1 tablespoon butter in a large skillet over moderately low heat, add pudding slices and brown slowly on both sides. Serve with maple syrup. Makes 6 servings.

LVN Seminar Slated Feb. 20-21

"Obstetrical Nursing and Care of the Neonate" are topics of the two-day seminar in Austin February 20-21 at Austin Hilton Inn. Open to all nurses and students of nursing schools, the seminar is sponsored by Licensed Vocational Nurses Association of Texas and is cosponsored by UT at Austin Division of Extension and Industrial Business Training.

Registration hours are 2-5 p.m. Thursday, February 19th and 8-9 a.m. Friday and Saturday. Registration fees are $10.50 for LVNA members, $20.50 for non-members and $3.00 for student nurses.

Instructors are physicians William L. Kelly, Fellow, American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology; Ellis C. Gill, Fellow, American College of Pediatricians, and Arthur T. Mattingly, Fellow, American College of Anesthesiologists. Also on the seminar program are RNs Sandra Wilkerson, Becky DeVillier and Martha Miller, all on the staff of UT at Austin School of Nursing. Ms. Miller, also an OB-GYN nurse clinician, discusses importance of prenatal education; Ms. Wilkerson talks on nursing care of the high risk mother during labor and delivery and Ms. DeVillier, recipient of the Denton Cooley Society award for "Outstanding Performance in Cardiovascular Nursing," will discuss intensive care of the neonate with congenital heart defects.

The seminar closes Saturday after luncheon when Larry Niemann, Austin attorney speaks on "Legal Issues in Health Care." Luncheon tickets ($5.75) may be obtained at Thursday and Friday registration.

Further information may be obtained by writing LVNA of Texas, 105 W. Riverside Dr., 274, Austin, 78704, or by contacting these local area LVNA representatives: Clellia Flournoy Phone 573-2036, or Ruth Harden phone 573-5723.

Take Care Of Winter Tires

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Despite their heavy, aggressive tread, winter tires can't take any more abuse than regular tires, warns Goodyear.

For at least three full seasons of wear, the tire company says:

—Maintain proper air pressure and avoid road hazards.

—Never mount bias or bias-belted snow tires with radials on the front. That produces bad handling characteristics.

—Studded snow tires should be marked "L" and "R" in chalk when removed. If direction of travel is reversed, studs will loosen and pop out.

—To store, lay tires on their sidewalls with white sidewalls facing inward toward each other. Keep them dry — away from water, petroleum products, electric motors and excessive heat.

—If stored mounted on wheels, reduce inflation to 12-16 pounds.

Concerts To Be Commemorated

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — The first public concerts in the American colonies will be commemorated here in June by the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center in New York.

There will be three concerts at the historic Dock Theater in Charleston, the city in which U.S. concert history began in 1731.

Dieters Stuffed Celery

By Aileen Claire
NEA Food Editor

Next time you want to make some nibblies that are inexpensive, filling and not too fattening just stuff some celery. Make a "liver pate" stuffing using liverwurst and cream cheese. Dieters may find this is a firm way to forestall urges for raiding the refrigerator for deserts.

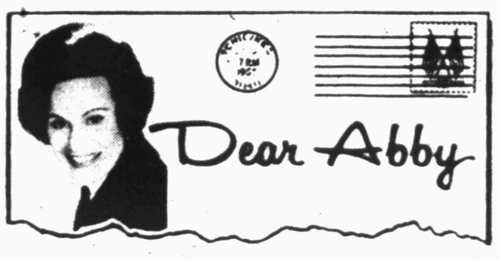

LIVER PATE STUFFED CELERY

½ pound liverwurst, softened
1 package (8 ounce) cream cheese, softened
¼ cup cup milk
1 teaspoon onion powder
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
12 ribs celery, cut into 3-inch lengths.

In a medium bowl beat together liverwurst, cream cheese, milk, onion powder, salt and black pepper. Beat until smooth. Refrigerate at least 1 hour. Stuff celery with cheese mixture or, if desired, spoon liverwurst mixture into a pastry bag with a star tip. Pipe into celery. Garnish plate with celery leaves, if desired. Makes about 2 cups filling.

The Bosses Meet with 'Surprise' Welcome

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1976 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Before Christmas my husband phoned me from the office to say he was bringing home a surprise for me and that I should fix a pitcher of martinis. I was so sure he was bringing home the earrings I wanted for Christmas that I prepared the martinis, got myself all prettied up, minus my clothes, laid down on the living room sofa and waited for him.

Well, the door opened and in came my husband with his two bosses! I was so stunned I just laid there. My husband immediately threw me his coat jacket. I guess I should have put it on, but instead I held it in front of me and ran out of the room, leaving my backside exposed.

The two men left immediately, and my husband was furious. I refused to go to the Christmas party because I couldn't face those two bosses. My husband hasn't had anything to do with me since. Can you help me?

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: You have more reason to be furious with your husband than he has to be furious with you. If that's the "worst" surprise a husband ever has when he comes home from work, he's lucky. I think you should both forget it.

DEAR ABBY: My question isn't exactly earth-shaking, but I need an answer. I am a happily married woman and want to have my ears pierced, but my husband has forbidden me to do so. He won't give me a reason; he just says he doesn't want me to do it.

Abby, I want very much to pierce my ears. I enjoy wearing earrings, and if I screw them on tight enough to stay on, after a while my ears hurt so much I have to remove them. And if I screw them on so they'll be comfortable, invariably I lose one—or both. Pierced ears would eliminate this problem.

Does my husband have the right to dictate what I should do with my body?

LOVING WIFE

DEAR WIFE: No one has the "right" to dictate what another shall do with his (or her) body. If you want to comply with your husband's request, fine—but he has no "right" to demand it.

DEAR ABBY: Recently my daughter was married at a church wedding, which was followed by a sit-down dinner and reception.

A shirt-tail relative whom we rarely see socially asked to be invited, so we invited her.

She and her husband attended the wedding, dinner and reception, but they didn't send a gift.

It's been six months and still no gift from them. I have run into her accidentally several times, and she always says, "I'm going to send that wedding gift soon."

If she says it again, how should I handle it?

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: What's to handle? A gift is a gift—not an obligation. Forget it.

Kathy Tully To Present Slide ProgramSunday

Slides made during a four-week trip to Belize, Central America, will be presented for Las Damas members at their meeting at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Science Lecture Hall at Western Texas College.

Kathy Tully, biology instructor at the college, made the slides last summer when she went to Belize as a member of a graduate level tropical biology class from Angelo State University. She has programmed the slides into a 25-minute time period and will be showing them for the first time.

Mrs. Tully will also show a short film of diving off the Bahamas, depicting experiences similiar to those of the class.

Belize, formerly British Honduras, is located on the southern base of the Yucatan Peninsula of Mexico. Mrs. Tully and the other members of the class drove to Belize and made their headquarters in Belmopan, the new capital of Belize, while studying the vertebrate species in the rainforest. The last week was spent on the barrier reef with headquarters on Cay Calker.

Membership in Las Damas is open to all women interested in Western Texas College and visitors are welcome to attend the Sunday meeting. The Science Lecture Hall is in the Academic Science Building on the north side of the Central Courtyard and east of the Student Center.

Divorce Can Be Bitter, Bloody

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Divorce can be bitter, bloody business, a 28-year-old Polytechnic area man found out.

The man told police he returned home from work about 5 p.m. one day this week to discover all of his animals slaughtered in the back yard.

The toll included a quarter horse, two calves, 15 rabbits and eight goats—all shot to death.

The throats had been slit on 70 guinea hens, 30 ducks, 20 chickens and three geese, he said.

Also, the back door of the house had been forced open and $50 worth of meat taken from the refrigerator, he said.

The man told police he is in the process of obtaining a divorce, and his wife is very "bitter."

Opening lead — 9♠

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Betsey Wolff uses our acronym ARCH in her teaching of play. A is Analyze the lead, R is Review the bidding. C Count your winners and losers. H the all important: How can I make (or if defending, defeat) this contract?

The Analysis of the nine of spades lead is top of nothing and probably a doubleton. Review of the bidding indicates that West will hold the club ace since with five spades to the ace-jack and a side ace East would have overcalled one spade.

How can I make the contract leads to the play of the queen of spades from dummy. This unusual second hand high play guarantees declarer's success as long as Analysis of the opening lead has been correct. As you can see if East plays the ace of spades and leads a second spade it will run around to dummy's 10. If East ducks West will get in with the ace of clubs but declarer's king of spades will be a second stopper.

Ask the Jacobys

A California reader wants to know if she can open three diamonds with:

♠ 10 4 ♥ 10 9 ♦ A Q J 10 9 4 ♣ Q 7 3

She is not vulnerable.

The second part of her question is. Does she need a seven-card suit?

Our answer is that a three-diamond opening usually should be based on a seven-card suit, but if she wants to open this hand with three diamonds she should go ahead and do so.

Quilt Up Own Period Piece

By Joanne Schreiber

The history of our country can be read in her quilts.

The quilts of the Revolutionary period used small bits and pieces of cloth in a variety of geometric patterns. Because cloth was imported to the colonies, not a scrap was wasted, and the pieces tended to be small and closely stitched.

As the country became more affluent, it was not so important to use up scraps and the applique quilt became fashionable. This was made of new materials, cut into fanciful designs and stitched to a background with tiny stitches.

As the country developed, quilts were named for historical events: General Sherman's Quilt, the Railroad, the Harrison Quilt, Road to California.

To celebrate the Bicentennial, quilters across the country are making Bicentennial quilts—the old patterns interpreted in new fabrics and colors.

As part of our Bicentennial salute, we are offering our readers a new Bicentennial Quilt book. It contains patterns and instructions for 16 quilts, each with its own historical footnote. Some are simple, some fairly complicated, but all reflect some part of our country's heritage.

In addition to the patterns, the books give you detailed instructions for making a quilt: getting the right size, fabric selection, use of newer materials such as dacron batting, making the pattern pieces, joining the pieces, assembling the quilt, doing the quilting. Instructions are even included for caring for your quilt. In the fabric suggested, it can be washed in a modern washer and partially tumble-dried.

To order your own copy of the Bicentennial Quilt book, send just $1.25 to Stitchin' Time, care of this newspaper, Box 503, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019. Ask for Bicentennial Quilts and be sure to include your own name, address and zip.

When the Tricentennial rolls around, your quilt can take its place in history.

Western Texas Grabs Share Of Loop Lead

The Western Texas College Westerners defeated Amarillo's Badgers, 86-70, here last night to grab a share of the Western Junior College Athletic Conference lead.

The Westerners are 20-4 for the season while Amarillo is 16-5. Both teams are 9-3 in conference play. New Mexico Military Institute, which beat Clarendon last night, also shares the loop lead.

It was a close and exciting game most of the way and very physical, especially in the second half. The lead changed hands about five times in the first half, but the Westerners went ahead for good with about 10 minutes remaining in the half. Amarillo never regained the lead, and the closest they got in the scond half was seven points. WTC had a 41-34 halftime lead.

"I thought we played about as well as we did all year," said Westerner Coach Mike Mitchell. "I was well pleased with the way we bounced back after a bad effort Monday night."

The Westerners used a man to man defense all the way while the Badgers pressed a lot and used a 1-3-1 zone defense. In the last five minutes, Amarillo was forced to play desperation ball trying to catch up and committed several fouls. They used a man to man in the last few minutes.

"Our boys were emotionally keyed up for the game," said a happy Coach Mitchell. He pointed out the Westerners played an outstanding game on the offensive boards, getting a lot of second and third shots. WTC led in rebounds, 29-12, at halftime.

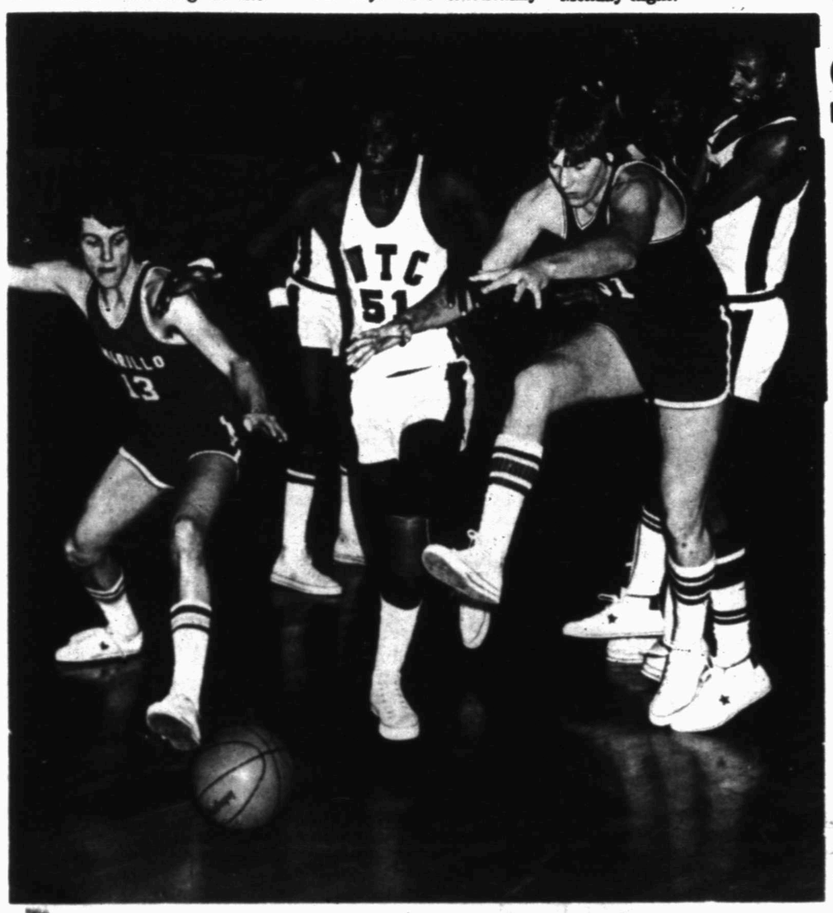

The Westerners had four lads in double figures, led by Lawrence Butler, who pitched in 28 points. Tyrone Clopton contributed 14 while Darryl Smith and Larry Orton each put in 12. For Amarillo, Darryl Hollimon was high point man with 21. Alonzo Campbell added 18, and Ricky Kenon put in 10.

The Westerners have another important conference game at Frank Phillips at 8 o'clock Monday night.

"They beat us 86-71 here in the first round and probably have the best offensive team in the conference," declared Coach Mitchell.

Dusters Defeat ACC, 74 To 48

The Western Texas College Dusters defeated Abilene Christian College Wildkittens, 74-48, here last night in a non-conference women's basket contest.

The Dusters led all the way, and the big difference in the game was their pressing defense which forced 41 turnovers. The local lasses also dominated the boards, outrebounding ACC 40-23. Theresa Beal claimed 14 rebounds to lead WTC.

The Dusters hit 29 of 67 shots from the field and 16 of 25 from the line.

"We did not play well the first half," said Coach Sid Simpson, "But I thought we played with poise in the second half. The only bad point was that our outside scorers didn't get many points as the forwards and post people all did the scoring."

The Dusters had three girls in double figures. Theresa Beal pitched in 19 points, Marilyn Payton contributed 17, and Annie Tillman put in 10. For the 'Cats, Teresa Rubart tallied 24 points to win scoring honors, but she was the only visitor in double figures.

The Dusters have a conference clash slated against Claredon at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the WTC gym. They are 17-2 for the season and lead the conference with a perfect 3-0 mark.

SHS Teams See Action

Snyder High School's girls and boys varsity and junior varsity basketball teams swing into action tonight. The girls host Ft. Stockton at 6 p.m. and 7:45 p.m. today in the local high school gym. The boys visit Lake View for 6:15 p.m. and 8 p.m. encounters today.

The local varsity girls have made steady improvement throughout the season, and Coach Geral Greene said he is expected a close contest.

"If we can hold Debbie McIver to 30 points we ought to beat them," Greene pointed out.

He said Debbie, Ft. Stockton's best scorer, is averaging 33 points a gqme.

The Tigerettes also have a talented girl in Cathy Minton, who is averaging 31 points a game in district play.

She will be joined in the forecourt by Diana Underwood and Thelecia Hopper for tonight's game. In the backcourt will be Patti Ayers, Paula Grimmett and Jeri Farren.

Greene said probable starters for the girls JV are Kathy Dever, Kristi Hughes and Marcy Franks at forward and Brenda Owens, Cristi Sellars and Jill Hodges at guard.

The varsity Tiger boys take a 17-8 season and 2-1 second half district record into the Lake View game tonight. The Tigers bested Lake View in the first round, 73 to 39.

Coach Bob Moore of Snyder said Randy Gressett, starting post man for the Tigers, is out with the flu and will be replaced by Joey Arnold. Other starters for the Tigers tonight will be Chester Cobb and Kenny Thompson at wing and Kelly Ragland and Earnest Brandon at guard.

Cobb is the sparkplug of the Tiger team, and he has made All-District in each of the past two seasons. Lake View will be led by Ted Butts, 6-0 forward, who is averaging 16 points a game. Other probable starters for the Chiefs are Charlie Warren, a better than average post man; Terry Wallace, the other post man in Lake View's double post attack; and, guards Kelly Mullins and Levi Cauley.

The Tiger JV has an outstanding 21-2 record. Coach Ken Plumlee said probable starters will be guards Richard Crayton and Anthony Lewis, wingmen Kirk Johnson and Russell Sutton, and post man James Wells.

Coach Moore said Lucious Jeffery, Robbie Moore and possibly Kirk Johnson will be moved up to the varsity for tonight's game.

Jefferson Nips Gold

The Snyder 8th Grade Gold basketball team dropped a hard-fought 49-43 decision to Abilene Jefferson last night in the final game of the season for the Snyder team.

The 8th Grade Gold team finished with an 8-9 won-lost record for the season.

The first quarter was a nip and tuck affair with Jefferson holding a 10-9 advantage, However, Snyder took command in the second period and led at the half, 24-18. Jefferson came back to win it in the fourth when it outscored the Snyder team, 16-9.

Sam Willis had 15 points and Bobby Degrate 13 to pace Snyder 8th's scoring. Martin was Jefferson's top scorer with 20.

Young Skater Gives US First Gold Medal

By WICK TEMPLE
AP Sports Editor

INNSBRUCK (AP) — Speed skater Sheila Young, the powerful 25-year-old who earned a silver medal Thursday, gave the United States its first gold of the 12th Olympic Games today, flashing through the 500 meters in Olympic record time.

Miss Young sprinted around the fog-shrouded track in 42.76 seconds to smash the record of 43.33 seconds set four years ago at Sapporo by American Anne Henning. Miss Young set the world record for the distance of 40.91 at Davos, Switzerland last week.

"It was weird. When I found out I had won the gold medal a rush went through my whole body," she said. "It wasn't a perfect race. On the last hundred meters, I started coming back on my heels. I didn't think I made the last turn too good."

Miss Young's performance was the lone bright spot for the U.S. squad in today's action. The Soviet Union picked up a gold medal, its third of the Games, in the 20-kilometer individual biathlon and the East Germans held the lead after three of the four runs in single-seat luge competition.

The young United States hockey team was scheduled to face its first, and stiffest, test of the Games later today when it squared off against the powerful Russian squad, favored to win the gold medal, in the opening game for both teams.

Russia continued to lead the unofficial medal standings with three golds and a total of seven. The U.S. was second with one gold and two silver and Austria was third with its one gold.

Miss Young, a versatile performer who took up cycling three years ago and won the World Sprint Cycling Championship in 1973, picked up her first medal Thursday by finishing second in the 1,500-meter speed skating event. She has a strong chance for a third medal Saturday when she competes in the 1,000-meter event.

Canada's Cathy Priester won the silver medal today in 43.12 seconds and Tatiana Averina of the Soviet Union took the bronze in 43.17, just four-hundreths of a second faster than 24-year-old Leah Poulos of Northbrook, Ill., who had to settle for fourth.

Lori Monk, 19, of Madison, Wis., the only other American entered, wound up ninth in 44:00.

Miss Young, who announced her engagement to James Ochowicz, a cyclist from Milwaukee, earlier in the week, appeared at the interview room with a large bouquet of yellow tulips.

"I don't know where they came from — someone just thrust them into my hands," she said. She said she skates without socks because "I feel more comfortable. I like my toes to move around. I have more rapport with my skates."

Miss Young was on the U.S. team four years ago at Sapporo and just missed a medal as she finished a close fourth in the 500 meters. She has said this will be her last Olympics.

Despite Miss Young's victory, there was a cloud surrounding the U.S. speed skating team. Coach Dianne Holum accused Phil Krumm, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee, of tampering with the selection of skaters. "They told us not to discuss the Olympic selection policies but we simply don't have all our best skaters entered," said Miss Holum, a gold medal winner at 1,500 meters four years ago at Sapporo.

She charged that Krumm forced speed skating officials to reverse themselves on a plan to hold skate-offs to select the third starter for the 1,000 and 3,000-meter women's races and the 1,500-meter men's race. MissHolum said Krumm's action kept skaters out of those races that should have been in them.

Krumm denied the charges centering on the selection of Peggy Crowe over Kim Kostrum for the women's 1,000 meters and the choice of Charles Gilmore over Eric Heiden in the 1,500 meters.

Calling Miss Holum inexperienced, Krumm said, "You can't hold trials after Olympic trials." He said the rules called for the fastest skaters at the Olympic trials to compete in the Games and that is that.

"Simply because someone is better-than someone else, you can't remove them from the team," said Krumm, conceding that the best performers don't always make the Olympics.

Krumm said Miss Kostum had been faster than Miss Crowe in pre-Olympics competition in Europe but said Miss Crowe was ill at the time.

Meanwhile, Nikolay Kruglov of the Soviet Union picked up his country's third gold medal in the 20-kilometer (12.4 miles) individual biathlon — a curious event that combines cross country skiing and markmanship with a rifle. Kruglov finished in one hour, 14 minutes, 12.26 seconds to beat out silver medalist Heikki Ikola of Finland and bronze medalist Aleksandr Elizarov of Russia.

Martin Hagen, 21, of Jackson, Wyo., was the only other U.S. finisher in the biathlon, taking 47th place in 1:28:49.20. The rest of the team was beset by misfortune. John Morton of Anchorage, Alaska, had to drop out of the race after he fell and broke his rifle. And Dennis Donahue of Worcester, Vt., was sidelined with the flu.

"Everything went wrong for us today," said U.S. Coach Peter Karns. "We had hoped to do much better than this."

Capt. Lyle Nelson, 27, of Boise, Idaho, was the top American finisher, coming in 35th in 1:25:27.50.

8th Black Wins

The 8th Grade Black defeated Stamford 49-20 there last night.

Dayton Robertson was high point man with 15 points, and Darryl Collins was runnerup with eight. Shawn Ragland and Robert Bartlett each scored six, William Robinson tallied four, John Erwin 2, Alan Pollard 2, and Brant Kitching 1.

Corbell Scores 54 Points

Ronda Corbell scored 54 points to lead Ira over Hobbs, 75-33, Tuesay night. Tammy Gober of Hobbs collected 3 points.

The Hobbs boys beat Ira, 58-47. High point man was Fred Kesner with 20 points while C. Wright pitched in 18 for Hobbs.

Allin In Lead At Palm Springs

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — "Up until now," Billy Casper said, "it looked like a pretty good day for the old guys."

Casper made the observation when Buddy Allin came ambling in with a 68 and the second-round lead in the $180,000 Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic with a seven-under-par 135 total.

That took an edge — just a tiny edge — off the excitement created by the record runs of Casper, 44, and Arnold Palmer, 46, winners of a combined 112 tour titles.

Palmer, who scored his last American victory in this tournament three long years ago, one-putted 10 times on his way to an eight-under-par 64, his best round in years.

And Casper played his back nine in 29 strokes, the best on the tour this season, on the way to a 65.

'It's kind of interesting," said Casper. "I don't ever remember shooting a 29 before. And I had to wait until my 21st year to do it."

"I felt like I was going to make it every time I got the putter in my hand," said the obviously-delighted Palmer, who used only 26 strokes on the greens. "I can't remember the last time I had a putting round like that."

Casper's seven-under-par effort left him in second place, two shots back of the pace-setting Allin, with three rounds to go in this unique five-day, four-course, 90-hole tournament that Palmer has won five times.

And Arnold's 64 — like Casper, shot at Eldorado — put him in a tie for third at 138, three strokes back.

He shared the position with Dwight Nevil and Bob Murphy.

School Closed By Riot

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — "It's killing the school — it's going to be like this for a long time," says a 16-year-old high school quarterback shot in the leg during a four-hour riot triggered by a feud between black and white pupils.

Authorities said Escambia High School will remain closed today after the rock-throwing and club-swinging melee Thursday over the school's nickname, "Rebels."

Three white students suffered minor gunshot wounds, 27 other persons were treated for injuries at local hospitals and five adults and three juveniles were arrested.

Escambia football quarterback Keith Hughes was shot in the left thigh as a group of whites exchanged taunts with a smaller group of blacks.

A black, Raymond Lindsey, 23, of Pensacola, was arrested and charged with three counts of aggravated assault in the shootings. Several whites later overturned his van, ravaged it and taped a poster advertising a March 6 Ku Klux Klan rally to the front.

Trouble broke out at the school when a large number of whites walked out minutes after school started and hoisted a Confederate banner up the flag pole.

Black pupils, 27 per cent of the school's 2,518 population, reacted angrily, and rock and brick-throwing confrontations raged in and around the school.

"Things kept building up and building up and the blacks kept making fun of us and we had to do something," Hughes said.

Escambia High called its athletic teams the "Rebels" until 1973, when U.S. Dist. Judge Winston Arnow of Pensacola ruled in favor of protesting blacks and banned use of Confederate symbols.

The banned nickname became a sore point with whites and festered for nearly three years.

Hughes said the school should have been allowed to keep the nickname favored by whites because "it's been like that for a long time.

"The war was a long time ago. I don't think it should change anything now," he said.

The regular mid-week celebration of Holy Communion will be at 7 p.m. Thursday.

Episcopalians Urged To Unite

HOUSTON (AP) — The presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church in the United States has urged Episcopalians to end so much debating and start talking about the needs of the world.

The Rt. Rev. John M. Allin of New York addressed the opening service of the 127th diocesan council of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas Thursday night.

Episcopalians have been divided in recent years over whether a small group of women should or should not be ordained and whether or not their Book of Common Prayer should be changed.

Allin told the Texas Episcopalians a starving world "does not give a damn whether we change the prayer book or ordain women."

"Let's get beyond maleness and femaleness," he said. "We ought not to worry about our rights, but submit to God's rule," he said.

The first business session of the council was scheduled today. Dean Francis B. Sayre of the Washington Cathedral in Washington, D.C., was to address a banquet tonight. The council will close Saturday afternoon.

Allin urged the delegates to unite so they will not be "destroyed by differences."

"There are so many opportunities for serving," he said. "Healing wounds, feeding hungry people, helping people learn."

He said a church preoccupied with service "would cut down on debates and eliminate a lot of resolutions."

He also talked about "the sheer pride of not wanting to be wrong" and added that "divided we cannot possibly meet the overwhelming needs of the world."

"We need to affirm the goodness in one another and not put each other down," he said. "In this present day when thousands are dying we must hold out our hand and say what we have got we will share."

Green Hill Bapt.

Green Hill Baptist Church won the attendance contest with Avenue D Baptist Church. Avenue D will host a noon meal on Feb. 15 and members of Green Hill will go directly to Avenue D from their morning worship services on that date.

Bible study in the Book of Hosea will begin Monday. It will continue nightly from 7:30 to 9 through Friday night. The Rev. Roy Taylor, pastor, will lead the study.

Sunday School will begin at 9:45 a.m., with classes for all ages. There also is a couples' class. Morning worship begins at 11.

Church training is set for 6 p.m. and evening worship for 7. There is a class for everyone in church training.

Sermons for both worship services will be taken from Hosea and will be titled "The More I Called." Rev. Taylor will be in the pulpit for both services.

Due to the Bible study, there will be no visitation Tuesday night. The business meeting scheduled for Feb. 11 has been changed to Feb. 18. Also, there will be no meeting of the Baptist Women on Feb. 11.

A carpet fund has been started to pay for new carpet installed in the auditorium. Members contributing are urged to use the special envelopes available for this purpose.

Green Hill Baptist Church is located at 208 Clairemont Road, a block north of U.S. Highway 84. Visitors are welcome at all services, and nursery facilities are available at all services.

East Side C of C.

Sam Kitching will be the host on the Saturday morning program on KSNY Radio at 8:15, "Love of Living." He will be the speaker Sunday morning on KSNY Radio at 8:15, "Give Me the Bible." His subject will be "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled."

His sermon topic for the 10:25 a.m. worship service will be "Faith That Unites." At 6 p.m. his sermon subject will be "Love That Cements."

Bible classes for all ages are held each Sunday morning at 9:30. Ladies' Bible classes are held each Wednesday morning at 10. A nursery is provided and there are classes for all pre-school children.

The mid-week worship service is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. each Wednesday. Visitors are always welcome at all services. For a free bus ride to services, please call 573-5666 or 573-3583.

Students Divided Over Pop Singer

PROVO, Utah (AP) — Students at Brigham Young University are apparently divided over whether pop singer Neil Diamond should have been scheduled to appear in a concert.

The problem is that Diamond may not meet the grooming standards of Brigham Young, a Mormon-operated school.

Grooming standards, including short hair, are rigidly enforced at the school. Diamond has traditionally worn his hair long.

Diamond is scheduled to appear in BYU's 23,000-seat Marriott Center at Provo tonight.

Workshop Is Set At Church

There will be an area workshop at New Hope Baptist Church on Saturday, sponsored by Master Masons of Hunter Lodge No. 920 and the Ruth Chapter No. 921 of the Eastern Star.

The chapter will begin registration at 8 a.m. and the service will begin at 9:30 a.m. There will be a sermon by the Rev. U. Hill, pastor of the Church, and an address by V. Young, grand deputy. Dinner will be served at 12. Young will be in charge of the evening service, and Eld. W.T. Daniels will be master of ceremonies.

Grace Lutheran

Sunday School worship begins at 9:20 a.m. Pastor Henry Hartman's message for the 10:30 a.m. worship service is "Servanthood in Freedom," based on I Corinthians 9:19-23.

The church council will have its regular meeting Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the church.

Pastor Hartman will be attending the Texas-Louisiana Synod Council meeting Friday and Saturday of next week in San Antonio.

Those serving Sunday are: Henry Wenetschlaeger and Richard Wolf - ushers; Shelly Spieker - acolyte; Lynda Cook - nursery attendant; and Pearl Wheeler - organist.

First United Meth.

Church School classes for all ages begin at 9:45 each Sunday orning at First United Methodist Church. The morning service of worship is at 10:55. Rev. David H. Robertson will preach.

Youth programs for both junior highs and senior highs begin at 5:30 with a snack supper and program.

The evening service of worship begins at 7 p.m.

The calendar includes a Crusader's luncheon and Esther Group on Monday, Mary Martha Cluster, Finance Committee, and Chancel Choir rehearsal on Wednesday, and Over 50 Club meeting on Thursday.

Nurseries are provided for all activities at First United Methodist Church.

1st Assembly

First Assembly of God will begin a week of Bible study on Monday, Feb. 9. It will continue through Friday, Feb. 13.

The book for study is "Preparing to Teach God's Word," by G. Raymond Carlson.

The Rev. Haskell Rogers of Lubbock will teach the course from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. each day. The course will deal with such subjects as "The Bible Is for You," "Interpreting the Bible," and "Studying in Depth." The public is invited to attend, said the Rev. John Grappe, pastor.

Ira Church Of God

Pastor June Middlebrooks is currently preaching a series of sermons from the Twelve Minor Hebrew Prophets. Sunday morning worship is at 11. Sunday School classes for all ages begin at 10 a.m.

Choir practice is at 6:30 p.m. Sunday and the evening service is at 7 p.m.

A special prayer service is held each Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. followed by choir practice. The public is invited to attend all services.

Rogers Reclaims Crown

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — The King of Cowboys reclaimed his crown Thursday night at the world premier of his first movie in 20 years, "Mackintosh & T.J."

Roy Rogers, who plays Mackintosh in the western set in West Texas, and his wife Dale Evans were the stars as they appeared at a Lubbock theater for the first public showing of the movie.

The premier, which benefited the Ranching Heritage Center at Texas Tech University, attracted a full house of 1,000 guests.

Rogers, whisked into the theater by an escort of police officers, stopped momentarily to tell newsmen he was "feeling fine" despite a five-week bout with bronchial pneumonia.

The 1940s-50s western hero said he decided to re-enter motion pictures when "this story (Mackintosh & T.J.) came along and I liked it."

Former Olympic star Dean Smith, who plays a ranch hand in the picture, and rodeo cowboy Larry Mahan, also in the movie, attended the premier with Rogers and Dale Evans.

J.J. Gibson, manager of the 6666 Ranch at Guthrie, where the movie was shot, also was on hand for the festivities.

"Roy in this movie is the epitome of a cowpuncher who is over the hill, so to speak," Gibson said.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Your financial prospects are likely to be mixed today. With the one hand you'll acquire, with the other you may spend foolishly.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Try not to depend too heavily on associates today. They may let you down unwittingly. Be as self-reliant as possible.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Get your necessary tasks out of the way early. Plan something fun for you and your special someone.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) It's possible you may feel a bit antisocial early in the day, but this mood won't last for long.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Take extra pains with projects or assignments today. The plaudits you'll receive will make your efforts worthwhile.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) This should be a very pleasant day if you look at things philosophically. Don't take yourself or others too seriously.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your greatest enjoyment today is likely to come from activities the entire family can share.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You're capable of viewing situations very objectively and fairly today. Agreements made will be mutually advantageous.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Things you take a hand in should work out profitably today. Manage your own material interests.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) It's very likely you'll get more than your usual share of compliments today, especially from members of the opposite sex.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Someone for whom you'll go out of your way to be kind to today has a very long memory. Your good deed will later be returned twofold.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Seek companions today who share similar interests, but who also know how to have fun. You're entitled to some laughs.

Dr. Lamb

Cancer progress but no victory

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—What has happened to the progress in cancer research? So many old people are dying with cancer.

My mother was in her 80s and suffered through two years of cancer. It is so painful for everyone concerned.

Has the money for cancer research been drastically reduced or what?

DEAR READER—Progress in treating cancer is alive and well. The American Cancer Society (ACS) reports that one in three persons is saved from cancer today while 25 years ago only one of four patients was saved. That's progress even if the battle hasn't been completely won. That is a gain in saving 55,000 lives a year. What's more the ACS claims that if all available tools were used properly the savings would actually be 111,000 lives a year.

Things have changed in the cancer picture. In a little more than 20 years the incidence of stomach cancer has decreased 63 per cent and cancer of the uterus 37 per cent. Lung cancer is up 125 per cent. Other cancers on the increase are cancer of the colon, prostate, pancreas and of the bladder in men (but decreased in women.)

Note the big winner of the increased sweepstakes is lung cancer. About 90 per cent of lung cancer occurs in cigarette smokers and presumably most of these could be prevented. How? By simply not smoking. There is a 17-fold increased risk of death from lung cancer in the group who smoke just 20 cigarettes a day.

The American Cancer Society gives three reasons for the improved outlook in cancer. Early detection, treatment within four months of diagnosis and the use of new diagnostic and treatment methods.

Dr. Lewis Thomas, President of Memorial Sloan-Kettering, one of the nation's foremost cancer centers predicted recently that the mystery of cancer will be solved in 25 years. He thinks they all represent one disease and one basic mechanism controls all cancer.

He may be right. Certainly cancer is cell growth and replacement, a process necessary to our normal body functions, that has gone wild. When we understand the mechanisms of controlling the regeneration of cells and are able to control these fundamental life processes, we will certainly know enough to control cancer.

I think that is a strong argument for studying aging processes. When we unlock the secrets of basic cell regeneration and how to control this mechanism not only will we be able to do something dramatic about cancer, but we will have made a giant step toward preventing biological aging and many of the medical ills of our time.

For information on where we are on preventing aging send 50 cents for The Health Letter, Number 1-7, Perpetual Youth, Aging. Enclose a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing. Address your letter to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

There is an enormous amount of cancer research going on. Perhaps not enough, but until the problem is solved any amount won't be enough. I think the real neglected area is the basic research necessary to understand the life processes that would lead to preventing physical aging. We know so much about this already that an effort similar to that to land men on the moon could unlock this riddle in less than 20 years. It would make it possible to literally prevent or reverse aging and the social implications are enormous.

Miss Universe Files Suit

HOUSTON (AP) — Miss Houston-Universe—claiming she never received prizes promised her after she won her title Jan 9—has filed a $111,500 damage suit in state court.

The suit, filed Thursday by Valanna Campise, 23, said Miss Campice was solicited by pageant officials in December and told about the prizes and benefits she would receive should she win the contest.

The suit said to date she has received only two of the prizes, a crown and a membership in a health spa.

The suit said other prizes promised included a new automobile throughout 1976, a free luxury apartment for the year, a $500 cash scholarship, along with other benefits such as promotional appearances and modeling.

Defendants named were Sandra Fink and Bill Mevis, officers in the Miss Houston-Universe Pageant Inc.; the Miss Texas Beauty Pageant Inc.; the Miss U.S.A. Beauty Pageant Inc.; and the Miss Universe Beauty Pageant Inc.

The suit seeks $31,500 in actual damages, $75,000 in exemplary damages and $5,000 in attorney fees.

Charles Wehring, an attorney for Miss Fink, said he did not want to comment until he had read the suit.

Friedman Promoted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Milton Friedman has been promoted by President Ford to the position of special assistant, Presidential Press Secretary Ron Nessen has announced.

Friedman has been a member of Ford's writing staff since January 1974.

What is the ideal church? Is it a great cathedral, or a humble country church? Does it have many members or only a few?

In the Bible, the church is never a building, but always a people. In I Corinthians 12, Paul likens the church to the human body. All parts must work together to be most effective. We all know this is true, for we have seen that the best churches are those in which the whole congregation is involved. Each individual whether young or old feels that their services are needed in order for the church to be effective.

The ideal church, then, is neither large nor small, rich or poor, grand or humble. It is one in which every member feels important because they are contributing their services. The ideal church exists not for it's own sake, but for the glory of God. Help to make your church the ideal church.
