Softball Tourney Begins Friday

The Wellington Softball Association Men's Annual Tournament is this weekend, with 16 teams participating. They will come from Lubbock, Amarillo, Borger, Shamrock and Wellington and possibly others, says Richard Sims, president. The dates are Friday through Sunday, July 13-15.

All four league teams from Wellington are in the tournament, the Players, Bears, Bachelors and Old Timers.

Games will be played at Marian Airpark Ball Park.

This has become a traditional summer event in Wellington, with some of the most enthusiastic softball fans in the Panhandle watching some of the area's top softball talent in action.

Tournament play will start Friday July 13, at 7 p.m., Sims said, and play will continue until about 1 or 2 a.m. Saturday, July 14.

Play will resume at 8 a.m. Saturday and continue until approximately 2 a.m. Sunday morning. Final games will begin at 2 p.m. Sunday and continue through 5 p.m.

The tournament will bring about 250 out of town people into Wellington during the three day event, Sims reported.

Team trophies will be awarded to fourth through 1st place winners. First and second place winners will receive individual trophies.

The Most Valuable Player will be selected and received a $50 gift certificate.

Sims urges that the community support this tournament by attending as many games as possible.

"Wellington Softball League is a leader in keeping this fine support alive in the southeastern Panhandle, and we need your help," said Sims.

First and second place winners from the 1983 tournament will be back, in competition on the Wellington diamond. Wing Nuts of Amarillo took the tournament last year with Sip A of Borger finishing second.

Stacy Urban is bringing Allied, a team from Lubbock.

An all-new team, Wellrock, will be entered. It is made up of a mixture of Wellington and Shamrock players.

Shamrock will have two other teams in the tournament, Adolf's Vest and Mama's Kids.

Two other area tournaments are being held this week, a mixed tournament at Quanah and a men's tournament at Quitaque.

Late entries include the Memphis Jazz, which has competed in all Wellington tournaments, and the A's from Pampa.

The concession stand will be open, Sims said. Operating it will be a group representing Booker T. Washington ex-students, under the direction of Bobby Joe Shrubs.

Exes Invited to Play in Golf Tourney

Wellington ex-students and their spouses can play tournament golf during this year's reunion, which coincides in part with Wellington Country Club's major tournament events, according to Eddie Orr, president.

The Country Club will hold its third annual Two-Man Best Ball tournament Saturday and Sunday, August 4 and 5, and Orr has issued a special invitation to all golfers among the ex-students to play.

"It is one more event in the large number already planned for the reunion, which will be on Friday and Saturday, August 3 and 4.

There will be a free meal for tournament participants Saturday night, and the ex-students participating will also have free access to the pool if they are players or the guest of a member.

The entry fee is $80 per team, and mulligans are $10 per team.

Players will be flighted after the first day and tee times are 8:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Cash prizes will be given.

There will be an additional cash prize each day to the player closest to the pin on No. 7.

The number of flights will be determined by the number of entries, Orr pointed out.

Ex-students--and all other players--who will need a golf cart should call early, as the number of rental carts is limited. Personal carts are welcome.

Those needing more information or wanting to enter should call the Country Club 806-447-5050, or evenings call Eddie Orr, 806-447-5531.

"We'll have players from Canadian to Vernon and Amarillo to Abilene, and all the in-between places," Orr declared. "We can handle 65 to 70 teams--130 to 140 players, and we expect some of these to be Wellington High School ex-students."

Former Bankers Handed Sentences

Two former Wellington bank presidents each received a four year federal prison term handed down by U.S. District Judge Mary Lou Robinson Friday, July 6.

Both were charged with making false entries to obtain bank loans, but the two cases are not related.

Chester A. Long, 58, former president of City State Bank, was convicted of falsifying bank records to obtain a loan for $175,000.

He was indicted by a federal grand jury in early April and arraigned before U.S. Magistrate Robert Sanders. He entered a plea of guilty before Judge Robinson on June 5 and has been free on unsecured bond.

Billy Frank Moseley, former president of Wellington State Bank, who was convicted of falsifying records to obtain loans of $15,000, also pleaded guilty June 5. He told Judge Robinson he had used part of the money to repay personal loans.

A spokesman for the U.S. Probation Officer said both men will report to a federal prison on August 6 to begin serving their terms.

The location will be determined by the U.S. Bureau of Prisons, and the U.S. Marshall's office will notify each man of the site.

The spokesman also said that each man will go to the location on his own.

He also said that Moseley should be eligible to make application for probation within about a year or a little more.

Long will serve a longer period before he can apply for probation due to the amount of money involved in his case, it was pointed out.

Skyrocket Band Meets August 6 to Organize

WHS Band Director Frank Aue has announced that an organizational meeting of That Skyrocket Band will be held Monday, August 6, at 7 p.m. to make plans for the coming year.

Early announcement is being made so the students and their parents can begin making plans, he pointed out.

Aue also announced that the Skyrocket Band along with several other area bands, has been invited to play in at the Greenbelt Bowl game in Childress.

There will be a three day clinic preceding the game.

As many high school students as can or who might be interested in playing in that band should attend the August 6 meeting.

Eighth graders can go through the clinic, which will be held August 8, 9 and 10.

The game will be played August 10. The clinic will start about 9 a.m. and go all day, Aue said.

Childress people will keep the band students in their homes Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Other bands playing will be from Floydada, Shamrock, Clarendon and Memphis. The goal is 200 players.

All Band Parents Club members are also urged to be at the August 6 organizational meeting.

The Skyrocket Band will then begin meeting daily for practice on August 13.

TOMATOES

E.B. Peebles is growing 12 varieties of tomatoes this summer in a demonstration project under the supervision of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Dr. Robert Berry, extension plant pathologist, furnished the plants, and Dr. Roland Roberts, vegetable specialist at the Research and Extension Center at Lubbock, advised Peebles on planting and spacing. County agent Don Reeves assisted in the project. Some of the varieties are on the market now and some are experimental. Each variety will be harvested to determine yield and disease resistance. The tomatoes were planted April 30.

Extended Coverage

By Betsy Lemons

However well your home is insured against fire and theft, chances are your valuables are NOT. Fact is, most policies have a $500 limit on the theft of jewelry, watches, and furs. $1,000 or less on silverware.

The additional protection you need is available with a personal articles floater. Your treasures are scheduled individually on this policy, described completely, with worth on an "actual cash value" basis.

In many cases, a bill of sale is adequately descriptive to serve as an appraisal of a new item for insurance purposes. Older valuables should be professionally appraised for value.

Coverage is broad on a floater. Your belongings are covered wherever you take them against almost every risk. In most cases, newly acquired valuables are covered immediately, as long as you report them to the insurance company within 30 days after purchase.

Anything worth keeping is worth insuring. We'll show you how at 1st Wellington Agency.

Family Histories Accepted Through Sunday, July 15

Sunday, July 15, is the final day on which family histories can be submitted for the Collingsworth County History Book, Mrs. Evelyn King, chairman of the book project, has reminded.

"We will meet with representatives of Taylor Publishing Company next week, but we do not know if we can secure another extension of time, even though we are still receiving many histories," she explained.

The Chamber of Commerce office will be closed Saturday and Sunday, Mrs. King said, and those with family histories should bring them to her home, 1410 Bowie Street (corner of 15th and Bowie).

She urged those who have histories started, or who want to write one, to finish by that time.

More than 640 copies of the history book have been sold and more than 750 family histories have been submitted.

Mrs. King explained that the July 15 deadline is only for family histories. The other sections of the book are still to be written, and those who wish to submit histories of family businesses or ranches or of institutions, schools, churches, etc, will continue. Sale of books will continue until time to send the last section for the book.

"If you wrote a history of your family, that is due by July 15. But if your family owned a ranch or a business, you can write about that and the deadline for that has not been set.

There is no section of the county lacking in representation, Mrs. King said.

"We are receiving histories of business institutions, past and present, although the concerted effort to get them in has not started," Mrs. King pointed out.

Mr., Mrs. Herman Belew Celebrate Their 45th Wedding Anniversary

A reception given Sunday, July 1 in the club room of Bura Handley Community Center celebrated the 45th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Belew.

Although the anniversary date is not until August 3, the reception was held at this time to coincide with the annual Belew reunion.

Hosts were the couple's son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Debra Belew and their children, Christopher, Leslie and Victoria, and her niece and a nephew, Mrs. Jimmy Langford of Wellington and Phillip Smith of Dallas.

Other relatives assisted.

Michael Belew received the guests and presented them to his parents, and to Mrs. Langford and to Mrs. Ray Cole, who is Mrs. Belew's sister.

The reception table covered with a white linen cloth, had at the center an arrangement of white gladiolas and daisies. Punch was served from a crystal bowl and coffee from a silver service. Other appointments were of crystal and silver.

Mrs. Michael Belew and Mr. Smith served the guests and Connie Langford of Amarillo, a great-niece was at the register.

Brent Long was the photographer.

Only a few days earlier, Belew had another anniversary to celebrate, for 40 years earlier, on D-Day, he had landed with the U.S. Army 4th Infantry Division in

MR. AND MRS. HERMAN BELEW

Normandy. The campaign took this unit into Germany, and through the entire time he was not wounded.

The couple married August 3, 1939, in Hollis. Born at Decatur, Mr. Belew came to Loco in 1931 with his parents, the late Fannie and Grover Belew.

The former Edith Woods, Mrs. Belew was born at Sallisaw, Okla., and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woods.

They farmed and operated the Loco Store, and during the four years he was in the armed forces, she was employed by Douglas Aircraft in Oklahoma City.

Upon returning here, they bought the Arlie Store and operated it a few years.

Since then, Mr. Belew has farmed and has a custom combine business.

She was owner of a dress shop several years, and now devotes her time to her home and their grandchildren.

Both are active in First Baptist Church.

Out of town relatives and friends attending were Grady Belew of Channing; Bob Copeland and Edith Carter of Hollis; Neva Harrison and granddaughter of Amarillo; Dorothy Meares of Roscoe; Jan Meares of Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cole and Justin and Jamie Tuey of Fresno, Ca.; Evelyn Jarvis of Lafayette, La.; Billy Jo Belew of Belle Chasse, La.; Connie Langford and Mike Haxton of Amarillo and Tracy Belew of Youngville, La.

Thanks!

A special thanks to the Wellington Volunteer Fire Department and to those who helped put out the fire in my trailer house.

Thanks for a job well done.

Amy Dean Boyles, Collings Lee Miller, Wed in Formal Ceremony at Abernathy

The Abernathy First Baptist Church was the setting for the wedding of Amy Dean Boyles and Collins Lee Miller on Saturday, June 30 at 2:00 p.m. The wedding vows were pledged before a brass arch entwined with greenery and flanked by heart-shaped candleabras. The unity candle was behind the archway.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boyles of Abernathy and the granddaughter of Mrs. Lottie Henderson of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyles of Wellington.

The bridegroom is the son of J.R. Miller and the late Mrs. Bobbi Miller. He is the grandson of Euna Denton of Eldorado, Okla.

Officiating at the ceremony was Scott Wells, youth director at the church.

Presented for marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white tulle with an organza three-tier overskirt. The fitted bodice was embellished with Chantilly lace, pearls and iridescents, forming a Queen-Anne neckline. The long fitted sleeves were of Chantilly lace. The full three-tiered skirt flowed from the waistline and was also trimmed in Chantilly lace to form a chapel-length train.

To complete her ensemble the bride's veil of white tulle was attached to a wreath of small white flowers.

She carried a cascade of white carnations, daisies and roses in shades of pink attached to the bride's Bible, given to her at the rehearsal dinner by her maid of honor.

Karla Wendland of San Angelo was the maid of honor. Vicky McKenzie, Jan Cecil and Rita Williford all of Abernathy were the bridesmaids. They wore identical tea length dresses of pale pink. Their bouquets were of roses and carnations in shades of pink. Leslie Oglesby of Midland and Jennifer Oglesby of San Angelo, nieces of the bride, were the flower girls. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis Honored on Their 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis who live three miles north of Wellington, observed their 50th wedding anniversary quietly with members of their family on Wednesday, July 4.

Joining them were their children and families: LaVena and Wayne Prichard of Albuquerque, N.M.; Joe and Barbara Davis of Conroe and John and Janice Thomas of Bryan. The three grandchildren present were James and Carolee Davis of Conroe and Pam Pritchard and her fiancé, Carr Pritchett, both students in Texas Tech. Mrs. Jack Davis sister, Miss Sue Ward, of Ada, Okla. joined them.

A celebration dinner was served. Jack Davis was superintendent of schools at Russell, Okla., near Altus, Okla. and she was a teacher when they were married July 4, 1934, near Tulsa. "I guess we picked the date so I could remember it," Davis remarks.

Mrs. Davis taught for 34 years; he was a superintendent, principal and teacher for 37.

He was superintendent at Dodson; principal of Wellington elementary Schools, and a teacher at Quail. She taught in all three schools. Additionally Davis taught at Prairie View, north of Samnorwood, which the family affectionally remembers by its old name, Wrinkle Sox. He retired after his 13-year tenure at Wellington. Mrs. Davis' teaching fields were science and math.

Both taught at Mobeetie, Centralview at Russell, and Vinson, and he taught at Arnett.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Davis have been active in the First United Methodist Church and he has served on the official boards many times. Mrs. Davis directed the choir many years and she served as an officer of United Methodist Women on the local and district levels.

She is also a member and officer of LaPaisana Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and she has worked extensively in geneological research. Davis has used the summer months for farming for many years, and Mrs. Davis received a Bachelor's Degree from Oklahoma College for Women, Chickasha, and her Masters Degree from West Texas State University.

Davis received a Bachelor's Degree from Southwestern Oklahoma State University. His Master of Arts Degree was conferred by Western State College, Gunnison, Colo., where his thesis was written on the 100th meridian controversy between the States of Texas and Oklahoma—a boundary 10 miles east of Wellington.

It is one of the few pieces of writing on that episode that dragged on for so long but actually had its beginning in 1819 with the boundary treaty between President John Quincy Adams and the King of Spain. There were still loose ends to be tied up when Davis wrote his thesis in 1941.

Cudds Come from Throughout U.S. as Wellington Members Host Reunion

BY INEVA CUDD BOWEN

The descendants of the late Joseph Nathan and Mary Lou (Tatum) Cudd were hosts to a Cudd Reunion at the Villa Inn, Amarillo, Friday and Saturday, June 29 and 30. Jean Light Cudd (Mrs. Wayne) was in charge of the arrangements at the Villa Inn.

Thomas J. and Dorris Cudd and the Blounts from Stockton, Calif. and Lucille Cudd Campese from Wichita Falls, arrived Thursday afternoon with others arriving early Friday from all parts of the United States.

When the first census was taken in the United States there were four Cudds, head of households, and they were all in Union County, South Carolina.

There were two women who are Cudd descendants that came to the reunion from Union County, S.C., Margaret Cudd and Ossie Cudd Whaley. They came to Wellington for another couple of days and Corky took them back to Amarillo to catch their flight Tuesday. Cudds were still arriving when at 6:00 a bus load left for Palo Duro Canyon for a tour of the canyon, bar-b-que dinner and the musical drama "Texas."

The pool in the motel patio was a great attraction for the younger members of the family. We all had rooms around the patio and pool and there was a coffee shop on the patio which was convenient to all.

About 9:30 Saturday morning, brunch was served to 56 on the patio. We then went to the meeting room and all set up our pictures, genealogy, etc and there was a visiting good time. Every one had been asked to bring their old pictures and family data and as representatives from other lines were there we had a swapping of information and pictures.

About 2:00 p.m. a table of snacks was set up and as we continued our visiting we snacked. When everyone began moving around again we had a "What has your family been doing" session which led to "I remember" as everyone took part, for about 2 hours.

We had dinner on the patio, about 7 p.m. with 66 adults and five children attending. Pictures of the whole group were taken as were pictures of the family groups.

Attending were E.E. and Nell Cudd, Monte and Sharon Rogers and James and Winnie Davis, Memphis; Tom and Doris Cudd, Tyler and Nancy Cudd and Dee and Grace Blount, Stockton, Calif.;

Tom, Jr. and Cathie Cudd, Walnut Creek, Calif.; Faye Beisner, Frieda F. and John Barlow, LaMesa, Calif.; Herschel and Maxine Cudd, N. Palm Beach, Fla.; Joseph Otis Cudd, Cranford, N.M.; Fred Allen Cudd, Towson, Md.; Margaret Cudd and Ossie Cudd Whaley, Union, S.C.;

Lee May, Simonton; Ethel May Wilson, Houston; Toni Campese Wilford, Dallas; Lucille Cudd Campese, Wichita Falls; Loyd and Earleen Cudd, Willow Park; Kenneth and Earline Cudd, Cleburne; Randy, J.B., Shelia and Don Cudd, Corpus Christi;

Marianne Armstrong, Grand Prairie; Joe Bob, Mary, Karen, Robert and Rebecca Cudd, San Antonio; Juanita Cudd Russell, Noel, Jr. and Nonnie Cudd, Amarillo; Phyllis and Brent Lee, Kress;

Glenn, Jan, Chad, and Tatum Stallings, Lubbock; Judy Cudd, Earl Lynn, Barbara, Kay Lynn and Joe Lynn Bartlett, Richard and Jane Nall, Cheryl, Terry Lynn and Jay Lindsey,

Wayne and Jean Cudd, Ineva Cudd Bowen, Wellington; David and Kelly Baxter, Colorado Springs and Janet Shaley James, Pueblo, Colorado; Hayden C. Combest, Mooreland, and Tonya Combest, Oklahoma City, Okla

Straight Talk

Many people have questions about funerals and funeral prices.

We want to answer those questions.

The cost of a funeral varies a great deal from family to family, depending on the type of services and merchandise selected. You choose what you want and what you want to spend.

There are many factors which affect the price of a funeral. Caskets, for instance, vary from several hundred to several thousand dollars in price. Outer enclosures also vary in price. We offer a wide variety of outer enclosures, including concrete, fiberglass and steel vaults and pine and concrete grave liners. Other factors which affect funeral prices are cash advance items which are charged for services rendered by those outside the funeral home, such as opening and closing the grave, funeral notices, and certified copies of death certificates.

In other words, we have a funeral to fit the need of every family.

We'd like to answer your questions about funerals, so come by or give us a call and let us show you the differences in funerals and funeral prices. That way you'll be able to make a well-informed decision when the need arises in your family.

We're proud to be able to offer the very best services and caskets at competitive prices, and we invite you to compare

Scoopin'

The new taxes that we'll soon be paying to finance education and highway improvements will help our own community considerably if projections on which legislators based their votes are accurate.

State Senator Bill Sarpalius said this week that Wellington Independent School District is projected to receive $663,400 in additional state money for the coming school year and Samnorwood ISD is projected to receive $84,400 more from the state than last year.

That's an increase of almost 80% in state aid for Wellington ISD. Last year the district received $837,194 in state money.

If the projections are correct, the finance package recently passed by the special session of the legislature will be the first step in a long time toward equalizing funding between rich and poor school districts.

The state funding is based on the local tax effort. Districts such as ours (where there's not much wealth to tax and the tax rate is high) will receive more state aid. Wealthy districts (where there is a lot of taxable property and a low tax rate) will receive less. Canadian ISD, for example, is projected to lose $199,200 from what it received in state aid this year.

Sarpalius, who at one point during the special session called the proposals a "nightmare" for rural districts, said he voted for the final compromise measure because it left most of the proposed changes up to the local school boards and because it provided better financing for most of the schools in the area.

Wellington school business manager Tommie Watts is still skeptical, however. Mrs. Watts, who has seen legislative promises vanish before, says she wants to see the new figures in writing from the Texas Education Agency before she'll believe them and begin to figure a new budget based on them.

Here's a terrific idea for the Chamber of Commerce: promote Wellington as a honeymoon hideaway. We attended last weekend the wedding of Tom and Susan Byrne in Dallas, and they came to Wellington this week for their honeymoon. I can see it now: young couples frolicking in the surf at Salt Fork, dashing to catch flights at Marian Airport, climbing the courthouse roof ladder for a romantic view of the city. I think we're on to something here. I'm convinced that the Byrne's spent the first night on their wedding trip in Wellington for just such reasons, and not at all because it was a handy stop on the way to Colorado and points west.

You may have noticed the new format in the newspaper beginning last week. We've replaced 8 narrow columns with 6 wider ones. It makes for easier reading, better looking paper. And it conforms to the new Standard Advertising Unit system that newspapers, advertising agencies and retailers put into effect across the country on July 1. Newspapersmen have been as notoriously independent as farmers, pursuing that independence usually to their economic detriment. Some newspapers had columns that were 8 picas wide, some 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 or 14 wide. (A pica is an old printer's measure in which 6 equal 1 inch.) It was a nightmare for an advertiser or ad agency that wanted to place ads in several different papers. The new industry standard is a column that's 2 1/16" wide, and that's what we began using last week. We think you'll like the change. The longer line length means fewer hyphenations and fewer trips for the eye back and forth across the column.

Eddie T. Smith, 84, Longtime Rodeo Cowboy, Dies July 9

Eddie T. Smith, 84, died at 11:58 a.m. Monday, July 9, a day after he entered Collingsworth General Hospital for treatment. Although he was not well, his death was unexpected.

He had spent his entire life in Collingsworth County.

As a young man, Mr. Smith was the county's most noted professional rodeo cowboy, competing in rodeos through the Middle West and Mountain States, as well as in all major shows in Texas.

Highly respected by people in the business, he judged many shows in the bull riding and bronc riding categories. He was also regarded as one of the best horse trainers in the area.

One year he was among 60 rodeo cowboys and including 15 ropers, from the United States picked to perform in London, England. But his horse, Cutter, also famous on the rodeo circuit, had a club foot and was disqualified. Eddie Smith would not go to London without Cutter.

He was a life member of the Rodeo Cowboys Association, made up of professional rodeo cowboys.

He was a retired farmer and rancher, a Master Mason and member of the Eastern Star. He was also a member of First United Methodist Church.

About 1941, he and 8 other men organized the Wellington Rodeo Association, which sponsored rodeos and the more informal roping nights here until the mid-1950s, when the association was sold.

Eddie Thompson Smith was born April 5, 1900 in Collingsworth County, the son of two pioneers, W.I. and Jane Forbis Smith, who came here in 1888. They established the Smith Ranch before there was either a Collingsworth County or Wellington. He attended the Houselog School, then located on the family's ranch.

He was married to Elizabeth Holloman Towns on Jan. 19, 1928 in Wellington. She died February 3, 1961.

On January 26, 1967, he married Christine Oller.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 11, in First United Methodist Church. The Rev. C.R. Hankins, retired Methodist clergyman, officiated. Pall bearers were Paul Bell, Guy Bell, John Holton, Johnny Holton, John Nash and Jimmy Cochran.

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery with Masonic graveside rites. Schooler Gordon Funeral Directors were in charge of services.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Christine Smith; a step-son, Bill Towns of Winnsboro; a step-daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Babb of Sulphur Springs; one brother and one sister, Mrs. Mary Karnes and Willie Smith, both of Wellington; three grandchildren, Eddie Don Towns of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Clifford Babb of Houston and Donna Beth Witherspoon of Canton.

Two sisters preceeded him in death, Mrs. Cora Carter and Mrs. Julia Thompson.

Hugh L. Bledsoe, Route Six Mail Carrier Dies July 5

Hugh Lawson Bledsoe, 79, died in St. Anthony's Hospital, Amarillo, Thursday, July 5, following surgery.

He was the mail carrier on Route 6, Wellington, a second career which he followed after he had retired as a mechanic on oil drilling rigs that took him to many parts of the world.

Mr. Bledsoe was farming north of Wellington when he went to work for Phillips Petroleum Company in Phillips.

In 1957 he joined Reeding and Bates Drilling Co., in Tulsa, as head mechanic on its drilling rigs. In the next 18 years, he spent little time in the United States.

He went first to Edmonton, Alberta, where wells were being drilled to below 16,000 feet. He flew from rig to rig over a wide area in western Canada.

His next assignment was Anchorage, Alaska, where he worked over much of that section of Alaska.

After a brief period in the United States, Mr. Bledsoe went to Germany, and then to Holland, where his work was in the North Sea, often flying into the rigs by helicopter.

Mr. Bledsoe retired in 1975 and he and his wife returned to Wellington and it was at that point he became a mail carrier.

Many remember him for his singing with quartets. He was an original member of The Phillips 4 Quartet at Phillips. Later he was with a quartet in Olton, and since living in Wellington, he was with a Childress quartet, The Lighthouse Quartet, The Good Neighbor Quartet and others. He was involved in singing activities in most of the places he lived and he once led singing for a revival meeting in Holland, singing in English with the congregation following in its own language.

Mr. Bledsoe was born June 20, 1905 at Sherman, the son of the late Thomas and Millie Curry Bledsoe. He came to Wellington with his parents and attended Bean Hill School.

He was married to Pearl Wilson

March 11, 1925 at Wellington. He was a member of Fundamental Baptist Church.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday, July 8, at 2 p.m. in First United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Howard McCann, pastor of Fundamental Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial was in Quail Cemetery under the direction of Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors.

Pall bearers were Marshall Peters, Sam Adams, Bruce Ward, Jim Henard, Leon Parker and Joey Manuel. Honorary pall bearers were Alvin Horton, Guy Bell, Monty Mitchell, Raymond Ward, Jimmie Kelso, D.C. Lacy and Ernest Nawxell.

Surviving Mr. Bledsoe are his wife; one son, Danny Bledsoe of Lancaster, Calif.; a brother, H.A. Bledsoe of Gentry, Ark.; four sisters, Mrs. Bert Miller of Clovis, N.M.; Mrs. Earl Miller of Memphis; Ms. R.V. (Opha) Wilson of Borger and Mrs. Henry Miller of Dallas.

There are three granddaughters, Stacy, Kelly and Dawn.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Jimmie Bledsoe, Hosea Bledsoe and Burlin Bledsoe.

Edward B. Ball, Jr., 24, a nephew of Mrs. P.M. Scott, was killed instantly June 29 in an automobile accident in Little Rock, Ark.

Mrs. Scott said that according to officers who investigated the accident, Ball's car, moving at an estimated speed of 45 miles per hour, was struck by a 1977 Z-28 Chevrolet Camaro traveling in excess of 100 miles per hour. The driver was identified as Brian Hicks, age 16, also of Little Rock. He was released from the hospital last weekend, she added.

Ball was a graduate of Washington School, Greenville, Miss., where he received many academic and athletic awards. He was valedictorian of his graduating class, state shot put champion and a member of the state championship sprint medley relay team. In 1977 he was chosen to participate in the North-South All State game.

... "we thy people and sheep of thy pasture..."

We realize that the Lord our God created all things and has dominion over the earth. It is through him that we have this wonderful land. We plant and we water, but it is God that gives the increase. "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want... surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Attend church and give thanks to the Lord each Sunday.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH... THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY AGENT REPORT

by DON REEVES

SUMMER OFTEN MEANS LAWN PROBLEMS

Along with hot temperatures, mid-summer in Texas may bring special lawn problems--drought, weeds, insects and disease.

These lawn problems can cause concerns for homeowners unless accurate diagnosis and proper treatment takes place before they become severe.

Dry spots, thin turf and weeds can result from improper watering, fertilizing and mowing practices. Follow recommended cultural practices before applying a chemical to correct lawn problems.

Drought stress most often occurs in mid-summer and shows up as wilted, discolored turf. Adjust watering schedules to wet the soil to a depth of four to six inches, and water only when grass shows symptoms of moisture stress.

Also, raise mowing heights one-half inch to improve drought tolerance in mid-summer.

Lack of nitrogen or iron often creates a lawn problem. Grass with a nitrogen deficiency may have a pale color and be heavily infested with weeds. A light application of a nitrogen fertilizer will improve the lawn's appearance.

Grass leaves that have yellow stripes parallel to the leaf margins may be deficient in iron. A foliar application of iron sulfate at six ounces per 1,000 square feet will usually solve this problem.

FRIDAY, JUNE 29

The Astros forfeited their game June 29 as only 7 players appeared. They forfeited again Monday, July 2 as only 8 players were present.

With the score tied 21-21, the Athletics-A's game was called after the 5th inning due to darkness July

Altus Golf Tourney Slated July 14-15

The Altus Elks Golf and Country Club will hold a two-man partnership open golf tournament Saturday and Sunday, July 14-15.

It will be flighted after the first day of play. Awards will be presented.

Free Enterprise Course at WTSU

A program on the free enterprise system will be taught at West Texas State University during the second summer session July 13-August 7. It will be directed and taught by Dr. Roy E. Thomas, professor of political science at WT and made possible by a grant from the Texas Bureau for the Economic Understanding.

The 6-hour graduate level program, designed mainly for social studies teachers will have approximately 30 scholarships to award, providing free tuition, fees, books and in some cases, free university housing.

Two courses make up the program, "American Government and the Free Enterprise System" and "Political Systems and Capitalism". Both will be offered in the afternoon beginning about 12:30 p.m. For the convenience of participating teachers, the course will be offered on an accelerated basis and will be in a relaxed, friendly and professional seminar atmosphere.

Because time for making application for a scholarship is so short, July 12, anyone interested should contact Dr. Roy E. Thomas, professor of political science. Phone 806-656-2873.
