'FRAME' ROBBERY CASE REVERSED

BOY, 15, IS HELD FOR SLAYING

"I thought he was going to shoot, and I beat him to the draw," is what Varner Corry, 15, below right, told Police Captain Patrick Collins, left, when the boy confessed he killed a policeman who surprised him and two chums who had broken into a Chicago school building and were swimming in the school's pool. Sarl Corry, who was with Varner when the shooting took place, is standing in the center.

CANNON SUES FOR LIBEL

MASSACHUSETTS SOLON IS DEFENDANT IN $500,000 SUIT

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 3—Bishop James Cannon, jr., filed suit in the District of Columbia supreme court today against Representative Tinkham, Republican, Massachusetts, for $500,000 for alleged libel.

Cannon based his charges on the charges Tinkham made in connection with his 1928 anti-Smith campaign activities.

The Southern Methodist bishop alleged Tinkham had written and caused to be published, June 19, 1930, an article charging him with violating the federal corrupt practices act.

Brother Of Mrs. J. L. Dow Dies Tuesday

COLORADO, June 2 (AP)—Friends here have been notified of the death Tuesday of A. A. Dorn at McAllen. The body will be brought here for burial. Dorn was a pioneer settler of Mitchell county and served six years as county commissioner. He moved recently to the Rio Grande valley.

Mrs. J. L. Dow, 2003 Broadway, is leaving Thursday for Colorado City to attend the funeral for her brother, A. A. Dorn, who will be buried there on Friday. Whether or not any other members of the Dow family will go had not been decided this morning.

Lynn Legion Posts To Hold Barbecue

TAHOKA, June 3 — (Special)—O'Donnell and Tahoka will join hands Thursday night when legionaires of the two cities will meet on half-way ground at the Big Lake for a chicken barbecue. Members of the women's auxiliaries will also be present.

The Marion G. Bradley Post, Tahoka, now has a membership of 145, and the Fern Allen Post, O'Donnell, has 51. With auxiliary members present, those in charge are planning to feed over 300 people.

Sterling Puts Veto On Ginners' License

AUSTIN, June 3 (AP)—Gov. R. S. Sterling yesterday applied his first veto.

The bill which received the executive's disapproval would have provided for licensing of ginners. Sterling said the bill would place an additional burden on gin operators and would be of no benefit to producers of cotton.

Girl IS Killed In Houston Bus Crash

HOUSTON, June 3 (AP)—One girl was killed an two were injured today in a bus accident at entrance of a rice mill in industrial section. The children were members of the boy and girl builders' clubs who were being entertained with the bus trip by the optimists club.

NEW YORK, June 3. (AP)—Domestic copper dropped to 8 cents a pound today, the lowest price on record.

CASH TOTALING MORE THAN $39,000,000 BACK IN USE

ATLANTA, Ga., June 3—Gradually the pocketbook of the south is being reopened as scores of banks resume business after being forced to close their doors in 1930 and early in 1931.

Since January 1, deposits of more than $39,000,000 have been restored to circulation with the reopening of 159 banking houses in Arkansas, Mississippi, North Carolina, Kentucky and Florida.

In Tennessee, where a legislative investigation is being made of politico-financial alliances, two banks with deposits amounting to $130,000 have reopened and 20 banks with deposits of $13,577,500 were forced to suspend operations.

408 Were Closed

Four hundred and eight banks capitalized at $23,063,000 closed in the other five states and tied up deposits totalling $190,270,000.

Institutions permanently closed total 269.

In Arkansas 143 banks with $39,000,000 in deposits, suspended business, and 73 banks with $12,250,000 in deposits have reopened. Sixty-nine banks are permanently closed.

Mississippi with 100 bank failures involving $46,000,000 in deposits, has reopened 35 banks with deposits of $12,600,000. J. S. Love, superintendent of banks, says six more banks probably will resume business within thirty days, restoring $2,500,000 to circulation; 56 probably will remain closed.

An optimistic note is expressed in the report of J. S. Love, Mississippi superintendent of banks.

"Confidence has been increased in going banks and the tide has been stemmed in the restlessness of the public regarding banks generally."

Nancy Carroll Is Seeking A Divorce

NEW YORK, June 3. (AP)—Jack Kirkland, playwright, today confirmed reports that his wife, Nancy Carroll, screen actress, had filed suit in Mexico for divorce. Today was the seventh anniversary of their wedding.

The action, Kirkland said he understood, was filed in Nogales.

Nancy Carroll, red headed cinema star, came to the screen along the hard road that starts up from around Tenth Avenue and led through the drudgery of the chorus.

When she was married in June, 1924, she was an unknown. So was Kirkland, at that time a newspaperman.

PROBE IS MADE OF DEATH OF L. S. KINDER

PLAINVIEW BANK HEAD IS KILLED AS CAR STRIKES TRUCK

(Special To The Journal)

PLAINVIEW, June 3.—L. S. Kinder, 65-year-old president of the Plainview National bank and former district judge, was killed instantly last night near Melrose, N. M., when an automobile in which he was riding struck the trailer of a truck parked on a highway.

An inquest was to be conducted in justice court at Melrose at 9 o'clock this morning. Funeral arrangements are incomplete. The body was received here at 8:30 a. m.

Fred Lowe Is Along

Fred Lowe, also a Plainview resident and driver of the car in which Kinder was riding, said the truck and its trailer were without lights and his machine struck the trailer in attempting to pass another automobile. Lowe said his vision was impaired by lights of an approaching car.

Two men were reported to have been asleep in the truck, alleged property of a construction company, when the fatal collision occurred at 10:30 p. m. about two miles east of Melrose.

Thrown 15 feet from the automobile, Kinder suffered a broken neck, fractured skull, and a broken arm. Although Lowe was bruised severely about the chest, his con-

SCOUTS WILL STAGE MEET

BOYS FROM SIX TOWNS TO GATHER FRIDAY AT TAHOKA

TAHOKA, June 3. (Special)—Boy Scouts from six towns composing the southern district of the South Plains Area council will participate in a district field meet here Friday, following an overnight encampment on school grounds here.

Preparations have been made for 150 boys of nine troops from Slaton, Post, Wilson, Lamesa, O'Donnell, and Tahoka. The scouts will sleep in the open and cook three meals.

To Bring Provisions

Assembling at Tahoka, Thursday afternoon, southern district troops will bring their own provisions, cooking utensils, and bedding. Wood and water will be furnished. Bread and cold drinks will be supplied by Tahoka bakery and bottling works.

Joe Spikes, scoutmaster of troop No. 22 of Lamesa and district activities chairman, will direct a campfire program Thursday night. Games will be played Friday morning.

Contests To Vary

The field meet will be conducted Friday afternoon, and scouts will return to their homes that night. Contests will include races, pyramid

SAN BENITO, June 3 (AP)—Chief of Police Luke Waters was stabbed and critically wounded last night by an unidentified man who escaped. A posse was organized and began a search for the officer's assailant. Waters was taken to a hospital.

A messenger boy called Waters when he found the man lying in a vacant lot. The officer was attacked when he approached the man.

WASHINGTON GIRL IS CHAMPION LIP READER OF U. S.; QUEER CONTEST HELD

BY RUTH BALDWIN COWAN

CHICAGO, June 3 (AP)—Miss Frances Harrod Downes of Washington, D. C., is the champion lip reader of the United States.

She won the honor last night, defeating four contenders, in a contest conducted by the American federation of organizations for the aid of hearing at its annual convention.

When seven years old, scarlet fever affected Miss Downes' hearing. Today she is totally deaf in one ear and can hear only slightly out of the other. But she has gone through high school with her more fortunate schoolmates and is on the threshold of college.

As the hour for the lip-reading tournament approached, half a hundred delegates from hard of hearing leagues throughout the country gathered in a hotel ballroom. The audience — except those who could not hear at all and those who could hear normally—adjusted audiphones, which had been especially attached to the backs of their chairs. In various sections of the room were relay stations. At these were grouped those who could not. As she heard the speakers, she silently moved her lips and those who could read lips thus

Governor Ritchie Urges Return Of Liquor As A Means Of Aiding Taxes

MARYLAND EXECUTIVE SAYS MOVE WOULD SOLVE PROBLEMS

(By Associated Press)

FRENCH LICK, Ind., June 3—Criticizing the annual governors' conference for its policy of avoiding controversal subjects, Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland took control of the closing session here late yesterday to advocate return of liquor control to the states as a solution of taxation problems.

The Maryland executive, presiding at the final discussion meeting, said were this done, the system of excise taxes which may again be built up might do away altogether with federal income taxes and 'at one stroke relieve capital, labor and agriculture from the tax problems which rest so heavily upon them."

Constitutes Challenge

Of economic conditions, Governor Ritchie said, "you cannot have from five to eight million people wanting work and unable to get it without knowing that this constitutes a challenge to our social order and that it is the strongest argument for communism unless it is solved.

His departure from the conference agenda followed that of Governor Gifford Pinchott of Pennsylvania, who refused the assigned subject of reforestation, and attacked public utilities charging that electric power interests are "milking the public" of an estimated half billion dollars a year through overcharges.

OFFICERS TELL OF SHOOTING OF SPIKES

LAS VEGAS MAN TELLS OF DETAILS; ADAMS DEPOSITIONS READ

BY J. SAM LEWIS
Journal Staff Writer

Cleofas Romero of Las Vegas, N. M., today testified as to his efforts to arrest a group of five men on warrants charging them with the larceny of cattle when the sheriff of Guadalupe county refused to make the arrest. The story was told on the witness stand in 99th district court in the trial of the $200,000 libel suit of Fred Spikes against J. Evetts Haley and the trustees of the Capitol Reservation Lands, charging libel in connection with "The XIT Ranch in Texas" a book written by Haley.

Following ex-Sheriff Romero, of San Miguel county, the deposition of Cabe Adams, now a resident of Old Mexico but 30 years ago a rancher and cowboy in eastern New Mexico and a member of the posse that shot and killed John and Dick Spikes and wounded the plaintiff, was read. Deposition reading was not completed at the close of the morning session. These two were the only testimony offered Wednesday.

Romero was led through his testimony by E. L. Klett of the defense staff. He was submitted to a detailed cross-examination by G. E. Lockhart for the plaintiff.

Details Events

Opening his testimony Sheriff Romero detailed the counties in eastern New Mexico at the time of the trouble; Guadalupe with Puerto de Luna as the county seat; Union, with Clayton as the county seat; Mora, with Mora as the county seat and San Miguel with Las Vegas, his birthplace, as county seat. Distances from these county seats to Mesa Redonda and to other points were given. These comprised

WHEAT PRICES GO ON DROP TODAY

CHICAGO, June 3 (AP)—Wheat prices on American markets fell today to new low levels for the season on a report that the federal farm board had withdrawn its support from the old crop.

June wheat, the last of the old crop futures, led the downturns a 10 cent early drop at Duluth, 12 1-2 cents at Minneapolis and 3 1-4 cents at Chicago.

All other deliveries, comprising the new 1931 crop, followed to new lows. At 11 o'clock July wheat in Chicago was selling at 57 1-2, off 1 3-4 from yesterday's close. September was off about a cent at 56 3-4 and December about the same at 60.

Utilities Company To Build Texa Unit

CHICAGO, June 3 (AP)—The Central and Southwest Utilities company announced today that more than 200 carloads of material would start rolling this week into Eagle Pass, Texas, to build a $1,000,000 hydro-electric development.

The project will open up 60,000 acres of arid land to irrigation in southwest Texas, adding substantially to the fresh vegetable and fruit output of Texas' winter garden area, which supplies northern markets during the winter months.

The Fields and McCelvey Construction company of Lubbock is engaged in conttructing a two-mile road west from the Del Rio highway to the construction camp site for the plant.

NATURAL LAW VIOLATED, HE SAYS

VATICAN HEAD FLAYS GOVERNMENT ACTION ON CURBING CLUBS

(By Associated Press)

ROME, June 3.—In a speech to the college of chaplains of immigrants reported today in the newspaper Osservatore Romano, Pope Pius last night heaped ridicule on official statements by the Italian government in connection with the dissolution of all the Catholic youth clubs in Italy.

That dissolution, he said, violated the right of the church to form and guide young people and violated also the natural law, "made for the good of souls," under which men form themselves into associations.

No Incident Charged

He ridiculed and denounced the government's official communique asserting that Catholic societies "not directly connected with the nationalist Fascist party" had been dissolved "without the slightest incident."

NUMBER OF LEADERS MAY BE DEPORTED

ROME, June 3. (AP)—A number of leaders of Catholic young peoples' organizations have been arrested on political warrants signed by the prefect. After being questioned they were held for further disposition, which may mean confinement to the island of Lipari.

"There'll Never Be A Last One," Vets Of Confederacy Say

(By The Associated Press)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 3—With leaders declaring that this is not the last reunion and "there never will be a last one," the remnant of Lee's army started business sessions of its forty-first annual gathering here today.

General Harry Rene Lee of Nashville, adjutant general and chief of staff, who was first to declare this was not the last reunion, reiterated his statement yesterday, telling the veterans, "save your money and get ready for 1932. There never will be a last reunion. We're going to meet next year either at Washington, Richmond or Houston, Texas.

Behind the scenes the battle for the commandership now held by General L. W. Stephens, of Coushatta, La., was developing, with General Rice A. Pearce of Union City, Tenn., commander of the Tennessee division, and General C. A. De Saussure of Memphis, Tenn., mentioned as candidates for the honor.

Richmond, Va., apparently was in the lead as the veterans' choice for next year.

Humble Discontinues Posting Its Prices

HOUSTON, June 3 (AP) — The Humble Oil and Refining company today announced it would discontinue posting prices for crude oil in the East Texas fields. At the same time, Humble met price reductions in Texas put into effect yesterday by the Texas company to meet mid-continent reductions begun by the Stanolind Crude Oil purchasing company and followed by other purchasers.

Mills To Be Tried Again On Charges

WACO, June 3 (AP)—Court officials said today that a new trial for Arthur Mills, former McLennan county tax collector charged with embezzlement of county funds totaling $18,800, would be held within the next three weeks. MAN'S DEATH IS PROBED

HILL COUNTY PIONEER IS FOUND DEAD IN POOL OF WATER

WACO, June 3—Officers were investigating a possible theory of murder today in the death of Harry Sills, 74, bachelor and Hill county pioneer, whose body was found late yesterday in a pool of water ten miles west of Hillsboro.

The body was found by his sister-in-law, Mrs. George Sills, near the Sills home, after he had been missing several hours.

Sheriff J. W. Freeland said there were scars on his throat, as though made by a rope, and a scar on his cheek and over one eye, as well as bruises on his wrists, indicating he sought to protect himself from blows.

Justice O. O. Pait reserved a coroner's verdict until further investigation could be made.

POLICEMAN IS GRANTED NEW HEARING

APPEALS COURT SAYS CHARGE IN CASE IS FAULTY

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, June 3.—The court of criminal appeals today reversed and remanded the case of John Alsup, Fort Worth police officer, convicted of murder in connection with the death of a negro during an alleged robbery of the Polytechnic bank at Fort Worth.

Alsup was convicted of the murder of Isaac Tate, April 10, 1930.

The state's theory in the trial was that Alsup and others had induced Tate and another negro to go to the bank and attempt to rob it so they could be shot by Alsup and the others and collect a $5,000 reward.

Charge Faulty

The case was reversed on the grounds of a faulty charge by the judge to the jury in the matter of accomplice witnesses. The opinion criticized the court for failure to instruct that a defendant cannot be convicted on the corroborative testimony of accomplices. The appeals court said "it is to be regretted" that the case must be reversed on a principle of law of such long standing.

The trial court also was criticized for its action in calling in the jury and asking the foreman how the jury stood. The appeals court opinion said the trial judge asked the three dissenting jurors to hold up their hands in the presence of several spectators. In less than an hour after this incident, the jury returned a verdict.

This was conduct on the part

ONE DEAD IN DALLAS BLAST

NINE ARE INJURED IN FORD MOTOR PLANT; CAUSED BY GAS

(By Associated Press)

DALLAS, June 3—One man was dead, another seriously injured, and eight more either suffering from injuries or gas today as the result of two sewer gas explosions in the Ford Motor company's assembly plant here yesterday.

W. L. Cory, engineer, died today of injuries received in the first blast yesterday. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Paul Woodall whose husband, Paul Woodall met a tragic death in an air-plane wreck at Sherman, three weeks ago.

One Hurt In Second Blast

William Schumacher was seriously injured in the second blast when, in company with eight other workers, he was seeking the cause of the first explosion.

The gas which caused the explosion was believed to have accumulated in a shallow waste well which drains water and soft refuse from the plant to the sewers.

DISSATISFACTION OVER SELECTION OF TECH BEAUTIES CHARGED; OFFICIALS OF ANNUAL POST STATEMENT ON LIST

Following distribution of La Ventana, yearbook of Texas Technological college, for 1930-31, which was begun Saturday and continues through this week, a wave of dissatisfaction has swept over groups of students regarding selection of favorites for the beauty section, according to information gathered by the Journal this morning. "Politics" is charged.

Disapproval is not directed against individuals who are in the special pages so much as the lack of proof that "politics" have not played a strong part in the choice.

Sensing the unfavorable criticism, F. M. Coker, Paducah, business manager and acting editor-in-chief, and R. M. Marshall, Hillsboro, editor, have posted a letter on bulletin boards at the administration building which reads as follows:

"To the students of Technological college:

La Ventana staff has exhausted every effort to communicate with McClelland Barclay, the nationally known illustrator, since he selected the beauties for the yearbook. Numbers of telegrams and letters have been sent to Mr. Barclay, but we have failed to receive any answer in order to prove to you the authenticity of his personal selection.

La Ventana staff members pledge their word of honor that Mr. Barclay did select the beauties and regret that we have failed to have shown the neces-

"BROADWAY, HERE WE COME", TEXAS GUINAN'S "GANG" SAY AS THEY SAIL

(By Associated Press)

HAVRE, France, June 3.—Texas Guinan and her dancing "gang" sailed as first class passengers for New York today on the liner Paris at the expense of the French line.

"Broadway, here we come," they shouted as the liner headed out to sea.

The troupe was conveyed to the pier in two French line buses. Miss Guinan, accompanied by her manager John Stein, made a brief visit to the offices of the line and joined the party at the pier by taxi.

They were all in good spirits, shouting "they will be inviting us back." The American hostess, wearing a velvet riding habit, black patent leather boots and a white beret, boarded the boat amid cheers.

La Guinan had a heated argument with her European manager, William Edelston, before embarking, saying that her failure to enter the country was due to "poor management."

Harry Aslett, the Londoner who proposed marriage to Miss Guinan, with the understanding that she could enter England as his wife and then divorce him, arrived this morning from Plymouth to press his case. She was too preoc-

Fall Fur Fashions Are Predicted Now

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—A new process for treating sealskin which leaves the fur as soft as a fabric, combined with this season's artful fashioning, has made the sealskin today something more than just a practical, warm wrap, "good for several seasons."

This year fur coats will adapt themselves to the trend of the mode in the exact manner of the cloth coat. They will be draped. They will hang with a subtle fullness. They will give as slenderizing an effect as a sheer cloth coat conforming easily to the details that definitely influence the fall silhouette.

They will come in three lengths. Evening and formal afternoon coats reach to three inches above the ordinary hem-line. The three-quarter length coat is popular for sports, street, and formal dinner wear. The short coat is worn for sports but certain adaptations of it are particularly smart for evening.

Logwood brown is the popular color, while black is very good for formal wear and for the street. White moire lamb, ermine, Russian sable, blue fox, silver fox, and sable-dyed kolinsky are used for contrast in the shawl, scarf and cowl collars huge cuffs and often muffs.

O. P. Herm and his sister, Miss Hattie Herm, of Snyder, are visiting in the G. R. Scott home, 1901 Main street, and making arrangements to enter Tech this summer.

GARRY C. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

PRECOCIOUS CCHILDREN

PARENTS of precocious children have good reasons to be proud of them. They also have good reasons to feel the weight of a grave responsibility, if they do most that is possible for their children they will achieve superior self-control. Being human like the rest of us, they will frequently be tempted to do their children harm and do it unawares.

In my forthcoming book, "Building Personality in the Child at Home," I say: The average home has serious hazards for the gifted child. His parents, upon learning that he has a very high I. Q. are overwhelmed with joy. But instead of centering attention upon the child's development and social adaption they are distraught with intoxicating pride. Believing firmly in inheritance, they see some brilliancy reflected in themselves In the fact that the child is very bright these parents see and feel distinction socially. Almost unawares they exploit this fact. They spread the news among their neighbors, friends and relatives. They even boast about the child's ability in his presence just as if he by mere dint of effort, had acquired his "brains."

Their associates and relatives, in turn, remind the child of his superior power. "I'm a high I. Q." shouted an overbearing lad of seven, as he came into my study. He rated 135, but had been in school two years without having learned to read He memorized so well what he heard others read that he had fooled his teacher all the while. When I attempted to teach him he was so conceited that I had great difficulty to lead him to learn.

Not all high I. Q. children are so intolerable; some are very likeable, indeed; nevertheless they have more opportunities to be prigs than do dull and average children. How unfortunate, since they are the potential leaders of society, inventors and creators in business and in commerce in science, art, and music. Unless more parents of such children turn about and cease to rob these children of an intelligent home training, most of them will merely be as "flowers born to blush unseen, and waste their sweetness on the desert air." They may be worse; they may be social nuisances.

Superior children need more at home than mere absence of reminders of precocity. They need definite training in responsibility. They should have to do some hard things about the home and be held strictly to performing such things very well. They need training in doing simple tasks with accuracy In their ordinary routine habits about the home they should acquire a passion for precision They should have training in self-sacrifice and in sportsmanship. Accustomed to excel often through their cleverness, they should learn to win in games without bragadocio and to lose without anger or undue discouragement. Above all, they need training in humility and appropriate regard for others' rights and feelings.

Color Important Fashion Element

BY LUCIEN LELONG
Special Cable to Central Press
PARIS.

Color is one of the most important elements of the new fashions. Indeed, it has always been important, but this season it has become self-assertive and has stepped out of the sartorial background into the limelight.

Color combinations are smarter than flat tones, and this lends a gaiety to the fashionable scene that is in harmony with Nature's early summer symphony.

I have played with giving colors their musical value, embracing in the whole composition a very wide, rich range of tones, based on three fundamental keynotes; blue, green and brown.

Though tones for afternoon are necessarily less striking than those for evening, yet the daytime mode is far from the boresome monotony that, for some reasons, predominated the social scene.

Obviously, choosing colorful costumes is much more dangerous than when one could feel smartly secure, in black or some plain dark tone. One tone variation in the wrong direction and the ensemble is irretrievably spoiled.

A safe rule to follow for the street is to enliven one's dark basic tone with white. Dark brown, navy blue, dark green or corinthe red with white all make smart and distinguished daytime clothes scapes.

Mix Contrasting Colors

If one has a sure eye for color graduations, one may go a step further and mix two contrasting colors. Usually, this season I have preferred to combine shades at almost opposite ends of the color scale, such as dark brown with pale blue or with vivid leaf green; I like green with grege, with plum or with slightly lemon yellow. Navy blue with grege is a little more unusual than navy and white, but it is equally restrained in effect.

Violet I have combined only with a mauve that is a lighter tone of itself; it is a beautiful tone that requires to be treated with peculiar discretion.

Black, white and red is a striking street combination which is nevertheless not too striking, and is becoming to many women. Navy blue, gray and red is a fresh sports variation. Rust gains in value united to rosy beige. It is also pretty for sports wear with several of the slightly warm medium browns.

Some of my evening colors, particularly in prints, are very brilliant and even hard, but I feel that this definite quality is not disagreeable because it corresponds to a clear-cut quality in modern woman, and for that reason does not seem out of place.

These somewhat uncompromising effects are produced by the juxtaposition of clear primary colors like blue, yellow and red on a white background, which allows them free play and against which they look quite dazzling under the vivid, yet diffused, rays of modern indirect lighting.

Review Class Has Luncheon Meeting

Members of the Lu Beta Delphian review class, which has been meeting since last fall, closed the year's work Tuesday with a meeting and luncheon in the home of Mrs. W. T. Milam, 1108 19th street. The meeting was from 11 until 3 o'clock.

Two years of Delphian work have been completed by this group during the year and meetings will be resumed in September for the third year's work.

Lubbock People To Attend Y Meet

Eleven local people are to leave Thursday morning for Hollister, Mo., where they will attend a summer conference of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. during the next ten days. They are motoring through to the camp.

The party consists of Jack Boyd, secretary of the Tech Y. M. C. A., Mrs. Boyd, the Rev. Bradner J. Moore, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Misses Alice Beckett, Lilah Gaye Rodgers, Inez Hensley, Marie Price, Mrs O. C. Corry, Don Wellenman, Houston Hinson and William Luce.

Large Bridge Party Is Given Tuesday Afternoon By Trio Of Hostesses Here

A delightful affair of the early week was a bridge party given Tuesday afternoon by Mesdames Horace B. Hawkins, Allen T. Stewart, Vernon Brown and R. S. Williams at the Hilton hotel.

Thirty tables were arranged for bridge on the mezzanine floor and a rainbow color scheme was carried out in apopintments for the tables.

Mrs Lattie Rankin made high score with Mrs K. L. Riggs scoring second high. Mrs Leroy T. Patton scored low and Mrs. Calvin Henson was high in a general cut.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. O. W. Turpin of Fort Worth, Mrs. J. E. Chapman of Honey Grove and Mrs. Joe Canon of Waco.

Miss Duncan Feted At Affair Tuesday

Complimenting her daughter, Miss Dorothy Duncan, who has recently returned from Baylor college, Belton, Mrs. M. H Duncan entertained Tuesday afternoon in her home at 2205 16th street.

Games of forty-two were played and Miss Kate Pressley gave a reading. Miss Glidewell Mullins played accordion selections and Miss Duncan favored the guests with several piano numbers.

Pink and blue were featured in party appointments.

Guests were Misses Evelyn Stewart, Ilse and Mina Wolfe, Loydell Hill, Virginia and Marian James, Frances Larmer, Mullins, Virginia Conley, Glenys Honey, Georgia Mae Foster, Reve Slater, Bethel Rogers, Mildred Hinds, Dorothy Lomax, Willie Mae Hawthorne, Pressley, Mrs. O. P. Fullingim, Mrs. Steve Lee and the honoree.

LOCALS

Mrs. G. E. Lockhart and daughter, Ernestine, have returned from Austin where they have spent the winter. Mr. Lockhart returned about three weeks ago but Mrs. Lockhart remained until the Austin public schools were out as Ernestine was a student there. They are at home at 1611 Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Phipps and daughter, Edith, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Phipps, jr., and family, left early this week for Marlin where they are to live.

Misses Ruth Love and Margaret Cooper are leaving the first of next week for California where they will work during the summer.

Miss Aurelia Sanders of Quitaque, who visited here as the guest of Miss Julia Blackwell, 2012 18th street, has gone to DeLeon, Fort Worth and Denton for a visit.

Mrs. Odell Rieger and her small daughter, Joan of Roswell, N. M. are expected to arrive today for a visit with her mother, Mrs. T. E. May, 2306 17th street.

Mrs M. K. Richeter of Moulton, is the guest of her daughter, Miss Evelyn Richter of this city.

Jimmie Hamilton Is Hostess To Class

Miss Jimmie Hamilton was hostess Tuesday evening to girls in the First Baptist JOY Sunday school class with a picnic supper at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hamilton, 1701 Avenue Q. The supper followed a swim at the city pool.

Guests included Kathryn Weaver, Mary Geniece Hardberger, Pauline Yeager, Martha Dean Cosby, Katherine Klett, Charlotte Ratliff, Billie Bob Jones and Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson, the teacher.

GOOD MAYONNAISE DEPENDS UPON THE WAY OIL IS ADDED

Likewise, Flavor Development in Coffee Depends Upon Roasting Process

Housewives sometimes can add oil to mayonnaise ingredients in large amounts and not see the mixture separate. But in most cases there is disappointment. "A little at a time" is the best way.

Occasionally big batches of coffee can be roasted to perfection, but this result cannot always be depended upon. Because of this, Hills Bros., after years of study, originated and patented Controlled Roasting—a continuous process that roasts only a few pounds at a time.

A constant stream of the blended green coffees is introduced into a series of roasters in accurately measured lots—about three pounds. As it passes through in a steady, automatically controlled flow, the heat, which never varies, roasts every berry to uniform perfection.

No other coffee tastes like Hills Bros. Coffee because none is roasted the same way. It always comes to you fresh, because Hills Bros. pack their coffee in vacuum cans. By this process, air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is taken out of the can and kept out. Coffee does not stay fresh in ordinary cans, even if air-tight, because there is air inside the can. Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can.

SLATON YOUTH IS HURT BY BLAST; MAY LOSE SIGHT

Ten-year-old L. E Patterson, jr. may lose his sight as a result of ignition of a jar of powder by a playmate. The injured child is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Patterson of Slaton.

The boy is in the West Texas hospital suffering from powder burns about his face and eyes Attending physicians said the bandages would not be removed from his eyes for several days and it cannot be determined before then the extent his sight is impaired.

It is thought that the sight of one eye may be saved, hospital attendants said last night.

Young Patterson was injured Sunday at Slaton when he and two of his playmates filled a small glass jar with powder obtained from army rifle shells and then touched a match to the explosive. The Patterson boy was only a short distance away from the jar when one of his playmates dropped a match into the powder jar The flame struck the wounded boy in the face.

The boy's parents said the powder was obtained from high calibre rifle shells found in a garage.

In addition to optic injuries, the boy suffered severe burns about the face. His companions were uninjured.

MONUMENT IS ERECTED

MERCEDES, June 6 (AP)—A monument of Texas granite, bearing a bronze plaque, is being placed on the site of the battle of the Resaca de la Palma by the Lieutenant Thomas Barlow chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution of Mercedes.

It is planned to have Fort Brown troops participate at the unveiling ceremony, which will be had on Flag Day, June 15.

BIDS ACCEPTED ON CANAL

NEW ORLEANS FIRM IS LOWEST BIDDER FOR INTRACOSTAL UNIT

(By Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, June 3—The lowest bid submitted here before government engineers for construction of the section of the intracoastal canal between the Atchafalaya at Morgan City and Bayou Gregorie was that of McWilliams Dredging company of New Orleans, at 6.6 cents per cubic yard.

Five bids were offered, based on a government estimate of 9.96 cents per cubic yards for construction amounting to 4,988,800 cubic yards.

Others Higher

The other bids were those of Central Dredging company, Chicago, 14.44 cents per cubic yard; Sternberg Dredging company, St. Louis, 8 cents per cubic yard; R. A. Perry, New Orleans, 8.74 cents per cubic yard and R C. Huffman Construction company, Cleveland, 8.65 cents per cubic yard.

Specifications call for dredging a section of the canal 9 by 100 feet for a distance of about 25 miles.

The engineer's office announced that bids would be tabulated and sent to Washington with recommendations that the award of contract be made to the lowest bidder.

Right of Way Nearly Up

Announcement was made that with exception of four abstract of titles to right of way in Jefferson parish yet to be cleared and 18 dumping privlieges to be cleared in LaFourche parish, the government now has complete right of way as far west as the Atchafalaya on the waterway to stretch from New Orleans into Texas.

Construction of the Louisiana area from New Orleans to the Sabine river, a distance of aprpoximately 2275 miles, is estimated to cost $9,752,000. The government expects to complete the canal from Sabine river to Corpus Christi, Texas, or 295 miles, at around $9,600,000.

The bids were opened in the office of Major Raymond F. Fowler, United States district engineer, who is in charge of the canal construction from this city to the Sabine river in Texas.

NEGRO WINS ACQUITTAL ON ASSAULT CHARGE; "FLATS" CITIZENS TESTIFY

Acquittal of assault with intent to murder was awarded Hugh Jordan, 25-year-old negro, by a seventy-second district court jury late yesterday. Jordan was tried for the shooting of another negro, Nathaniel Brown, 26, February 26. Judge Homer L. Pharr presided.

Brown, a hotel employe, was wounded critically by a bullet from a .38 caliber revolver. The shooting occurred late in the afternoon in the 1700-block of Avenue A near Guy Cefres cafe in "The Flats," negro section.

Holding Stakes

Both the prosecuting witness and the defendant agreed the shooting resulted from Brown's holding 50 cents stakes for two negroes playing pool for 25 cents a game in a place managed by Jordon.

Each of the principals was described as a "bully" by opposing counsel. Brown testified Jordan cursed him and then shot him after Brown had said that although he had left the pool hall with the stakes, the players were acquaintances and he would return their money to them.

Said Was "Barred"

Jordan testified he had told Brown he was barred from the "club," and the latter had replied that Jordan could not bar him, that he would not stop coming to the pool hall unless excluded by vote of the "club." Witnesses for both sides agreed the pool hall was operated on a club basis, a membership fee and dues being charged. Both principal witnesses agreed Brown had paid his dues.

"Concealing gambling" in violation of club rules was his reason, Jordan testified, in "barring" the man he subsequently shot.

Both Went For Weapons

Testimony pertaining to the start of the altercation did not dovetail, Brown asserting he had been shot before he struck Jordan, the defendant testifying he did not draw his gun until Brown had struck him and Brown's coat-front had lapped back revealing a revolver, and an eye-witness testifying the two appeared to reach for weapons at about the same time.

The defense attempted to prove Brown had been "picking his fingernails with a knife" immediately prior to the fight. Brown said it was a nail-file. Other witnesses differed on the point. Jordan fired all the shots. He said two were fired and Brown testified there were three, the first striking him. Jordan said he suffered bruises and lacerations on the head and face in the fight, which ended in a yard across the street from where it began.

Other witnesses, all negroes, included:

J. P. Oliver, colored physician, W. B. Carr, operator of the pool hall, "Deacon Brown" Pardner, Tom Johns, George Mayberry, and John Willie Davison.

Jess Levens and O. W. McWhorter defended Jordan, who said he was married and owned an apartment house and cafe.

CAMERONIAN WINS ENGLISH "DARBY"

FAVORITE IS WINNER IN CLASSIC

RACE SAID TO BE THE BIGGEST IN HISTORY OF ANCIENT TURF

(By Associated Press)

EPSOM DOWNS, Eng., June 3—For the first time in recent years, a favorite showed the way home in the English derby as J. A. Dewar's Cameronian, 7 to 1 choice, scored over 25 other three-year-olds in the 148th renewal of the classic here today.

Marshall Field's Jacopo, one of the two American representatives finished in seventh place back of Marcel Boussac's Goyescas, William Woodward's Sir Andrew was far back in the pack as it galloped across the finish line.

Near Million Witness

With a crowd variously estimated from 750,000 to 1,000,000, including King George and the royal family looking on, Cameronian, the big son of Pharos out of Una Cameron galloped home over the one and one half miles, three quarters of a length in front of Sir John Rutherford's Orpen, the second choice. A like distance back in third place trailed Lord Rosebery's Sandwich, another one of the more highly favored.

The race was worth about 15,000 pounds added ($60,000) to the winner while 20 millions of dollars were distributed through the Irish sweepstakes and smaller sweeps. This year's renewal of the turf's oldest race was generally said to be the biggest "money race" of racing history.

FIVE AMERICANS IN LIST OF WINNERS

EPSOM DOWNS, England, June 3 (AP)—Five Americans won big money in the Irish hospital derby sweepstakes today as a consequence of Cameronian's victory and the place and show of Orpen and Sandwich.

Joseph Kennedy of Boston, Mass., was the only American who held a ticket on the winner. He receives one of the nineteen first prizes of $150,000 each.

Thomas O'Connor of New York City, and George Hill of Norway, Maine, hold tickets on Orpen, who came in second. They are worth $75,000 each.

Two Americans held tickets on Sandwich, and will receive $50,000 each. They are S. L. Horowitz of New York City and William Coyle, Cincinnati, Ohio.

BEAUMONT CLINGS TO TOP POSITION

(By Associated Press)

Del Baker's Beaumont Exporters held to their half-game lead in the Texas league through Tuesday games with a 11 to 3 decision over San Antonio Indians, hammering Carson and Hubbell from the mound and collecting 19 hits. Hamlin, steady as a master in the pinches, allowed twelve hits but pitched runless ball until the sixth inning.

They may be down but not out, so the Fort Worth Cats defeated Dallas Tuesday night at Fort Worth 8 to 5 to remain in second place one half game behind the Exporters. It was a fatal fall for the Steers, for they slipped out of fourth place into fifth, allowing Wichita Falls to move up. Erratic fielding again cost the Dallas club.

Wichita Falls is getting a glimpse of the first division as a result of a 9 to 3 verdict over Shreveport. Buck Stanton turned in a home run, triple and a pair of singles to aid in Shreveport's downfall.

Tuesday night found Tex Carleton in superb form for Houston and the Bayou City boys enthroned themselves more firmly in third place by slashing Galveston, 8 to 3. Carleton allowed nine hits, but most of them came when they did not mean so much.

Wesley Ferrel Will Go To Dentist Today

BOSTON, June 3 (AP)—Wesley Ferrell, pitching ace of the Cleveland Indians, has given up struggling along with a right shoulder that has been sore since his no-hit performance of April 29.

Ferrell, who has been battered freely since his history-making game, finally admitted that his shoulder is painfully sore. Manager Roger Peckinpaugh prescribed a trip to the dentist today, and if that fails, treatment by a specialist in baseball arms and shoulders.

"DIZZY" DEAN TO WED NEXT MONDAY IN BUFF BALL PARK, THAT IS, IF—

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, June 3.—Jerome "Dizzy" Dean, 21-year-old pitching star of Houston of the Texas league, has announced plans to be married at Buffalo stadium here next Monday night.

Ratification depends upon Miss Patricia Nash of Houston, vivacious brunette and an ardent baseball fan. Dean filed notice yesterday of their intention to wed. Miss Nash's age was given as 24.

The Buffs will entertain the Beaumont Exporters in a double header Monday night. Women will be admitted free. With the extra attraction of Dean getting married at the home plate, club officers said they expected the double header would draw more than fifteen thousand fans. Dean probably will pitch the second game of the bill.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA IS FAVORED TO CAPTURE NATIONAL COLLEGIATE MEET IN WALK; WYKOFF EXPECTED TO WIN

BL PAUL MICKELSON,
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

CHICAGO, June 3. (AP)—Knute Rockne once said his Notre Dame football teams "saved" Southern California for the union, but there appear to be no Rocknes around to stop the victorious sweep of the Trojan track stars.

Usually, the annual National Collegiate track and field meet causes almost as much speculation over the probable winner as the Kentucky derby but not this year. Every track expert picks the Trojans to gallop away with the title for the second consecutive year at Stagg field next Friday and Saturday. Their only differences in opinion are in the margin of victory.

To Score At Least 40

A close sifting of past performances today indicated that the Trojans would sweep through with four to six firsts and land enough point winners to score at least 40 points.

With the team title granted to the Trojans in advance, the second guessing revolved about the individual performance, notably the 100-yard dash in which Frank Wykoff of the Trojans will attempt to repeat his triumph of a year ago. While Wykoff won't have to face George Simpson, the Ohio flyer, again this year, he will have plenty of competition in a field of 11 stars of great reputation. Eddie Tolan, Michigan's midnight express, whom he has defeated by narrow margins on two occasions, will finish his brilliant three years of competition for Michigan at the meet and is fired with the ambition not only to beat Wykoff but to equal or better the Trojan's world's record of 9.4.

GIANTS UPSET IN CLIMBING

CARDINALS HAND NEW YORK SETBACK IN NATIONAL RACE

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Giants, battling for the National league lead, apparently will need a lot of help from the other eastern clubs of the circuit. And if their sectional comrades hold the present pace, they may get it. The Giants took a severe setback in the opening game of their "crucial" series with the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday and have few hopes of capturing first place unaided.

The Cards won the opener 4 to 3 in a tight duel between Burleigh Grimes and Fred Fitzsimmons and placed themselves 2 1-2 games ahead of their rivals Grimes drove in the winning run himself with a timely seventh-inning single.

Cards Have Tough Go

But if they escape trouble in their current series the Cardinals must face Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia in succession and all three are fighting for first division berths. The Robins rallied in the ninth inning to beat the Chicago Cubs 7 to 6. The Braves succumbed to the Pittsburgh Pirates 4 to 2 as Ed Brandt who had won eight successive games, finally met defeat. The Phillies had a comparatively easy victory over Cincinnati, 6 to 2.

Cleveland finally broke the spell the eastern clubs of the American league had held as they opened their tour of the dangerous sector. They piled up eight runs in the sixth inning then staggered through to a 12-11 victory.

Leaders Come Through

Philadelphia and Washington, the other big winners of the circuit, came through in their usual form. Bing Miller's sixth inning homer with one on base and Rube Walberg's four hit pitching gave the Athletics a 3 to 2 victory over Chicago. Carl Fischer, young Washington hurler, was hit freely but pitched a good game and the Senators beat the Detroit Tigers 5 to 3. New York trounced St. Louis 9 to 2. Lefty Gomes checked all his rivals except Melillo, who hit four times.

That boxes inviting Christmas gifts for postmen in Scotland be abolished was demanded in a resolution introduced at the recent annual conference of the Union of Post Office Workers at Aberdeen, Scotland.

DALLAS CHAMP LEADS FIELD ON TUESDAY

FINAL QUALIFYING OF TOURNAMENT WILL BE TODAY

(By Associated Press)

DALLAS, June 3.—Headed by Neil Smith, Dallas champion who stroked a 37-34—71 yesterday, one hundred and thirty four golfers were ready to tour the Brook Hollow country club course here today in the final qualifying round of the twenty-fifth annual Texas Golf association state championship. At nightfall, the low thirty-two will be bracketed in the championship flight to battle it out in match play competition Thursday, Friday and Saturday for the 1931 state crown.

Yesterday, an ideal golf day marred only by a wind, fairly sparkled with championship golf rounds in the first 18-holes of the qualifying test. Paced by Neil Smith's 71 and Joe Bailey's 72, twenty-six players finished in the seventies, ten turned in flat eighties and twelve scored eighty-ones.

Lavender Blows Up

Willie Hunt, Houston and defending champion, made qualifying trouble for himself when he required a 40-42—82. Dennis Lavender, 1929 state champion, had an even worse round yesterday and today faced an almost impossible task of placing himself in the championship flight. His 41 46—87 yesterday left his game badly riddled. He had a nine on one hole and four putted the 18th green.

Ossie Carlton, former state champion and alleged to be Houston's best chance this year, played a non-pressure round of golf yesterday with his 39-38—77. Carlton experienced a little trouble on the greens, but was the least disturbed of any concerning his qualifying score, and many believe this perfect mental frame of mind will send the Houston ace far in this year's tournament.

LEO DIEGEL JUST GETS HOLE IN ONE 285 YARDS AWAY

GARDEN CITY, N. Y., June 3. (AP)—Leo Diegel was visiting the Cherry Valley club course yesterday to look over some new wooden clubs. He took one to the first tee and socked away. His caddie found the ball in the hole at the first green, 285 yards away, par 4.

Texas Utilities To Meet Rainbows

The Texas Utilities club, tied with the Legion-Lions for first place in the City League play, will meet the Rainbow team in a regularly scheduled contest this afternoon at 6 o'clock on the Merrill Park field. It is the only City League game slated for today.

In yesterday's games, the Legion-Lions club took the lead with five games won in as many starts by trouncing the Rainbow team, 5 to 1. The Avalanche-Journal club defeated the tail-ending Wholesalers, 13 to 10, in a contest rife with base bingles, errors and runs.

DIAMOND CHIEF

Elected President of the American Baseball League to succeed Ernest Sargent Barnard, who died in Minneapolis two months ago, William Harridge (above), for many years a silent power in the league, is the third man to hold that post. The election was held by the American League club owners at Cleveland, O.

BALL CLUB IS STILL SOUGHT

With three towns reported to be waiting on Lubbock to make up its mind and its money in regard to the newly founded Panhandle Professional Baseball league, a group of local business men set out with renewed hope this morning in efforts to sell the remaining shares of stock in the Lubbock Baseball association.

At their request and through Harry Wanderling, manager of the team, if any, to be brought here, League President J. Alvin Gardner, president of the Texas league, said yesterday he would allow Lubbock until Friday to meet with the requirements and become alligned the league.

It is hoped that enough stock will be sold in the company to be known as the Lubbock baseball association to provide funds necessary for the beginning of the season. About three thousand dollars are needed, and more than half of this has been raised through the selling of shares, it was reported this morning. A committee composed of some of the of the leading business men of Lubbock, who have faith in the city and who believe that the town will support the league, let it be known this morning that it intended to see professional baseball located in Lubbock.

The Panhandle league plans to play night baseball altogether. As soon as it is determined what towns shall compose the league, first class lighting systems will be installed in each of the parks. Lubbock, Amarillo, Pampa and Clovis N. M., are the towns comprising the league. It is reported that each of the three latter towns are waiting on Lubbock to make a decision, they having already raised the required funds.

FARRELL IS IN LEAD IN FINAL OPEN ROUND

SMILING IRISHMAN OF NEW YORK BRINGS IN A 72

(By Associated Press)

CARNOUSTIE, Scotland, June 3.—Johnny Farrell, smiling young Irishman from Mamaroneck, N. Y., today took the lead among the early finishers of the first round of the British open golf championship with a par 72.

Farrell went out in a par cracking 33 and staggered home in 39, a garrison finish on the last three holes giving him his score.

Gene Sarazen Follows

Close behind Joanny was his golfing partner Gene Sarazen, both of them former United States open champions, with a 74.

MacDonald Smith, who led the qualifying field of 09 with two brilliant rounds of 70-71 lapsed just often enough today to pull him down to a 75 and third place among the early American finishers.

It was black magic, the natives, what Johnny did with his putter on that outward swing. Of the nine holes seven were scored with one putt.

Cotton Equals Him

Farrell did not hold his lead alone for long. Henry Cotton, the 24-year-old British pro, coming in with a 72 to match the American's score. As the day wore on and the headliners began to come in the American scores looked better.

Joe Turnesa, who had a fine 34, two under par, going out, ran into trouble on the in nine and took 43 for a 77.

TAHOKA GETS REVENGE

TAHOKA, June 3—Tahoka enjoyed a little revenge on Colorado by defeating the baseball team from that city 9 to 2 here Monday afternoon in the first of a two game series. Colorado defeated Tahoka three straights in a series of as many games in that city recently.

Tahoka collected 16 hits off of Harris and Henderson, while Colorado was credited with 8 hits off of Baize.

Spying On Sports

BY COLLIER PARRIS, JOURNAL SPORTS EDITOR

Since the circulating of a rumor last week that the Wichita Falls Texas League franchise might be moved to some other port because attendance at the games was falling off daily, things, including attendance, have been picking up around the Spudder camp.

Maybe it was a bluff, that talk about moving the team, but it had the desired effect if it was and if was not the idea has been dropped temporarily at least. Wichita Falls has not installed a lighting system, and the crowds there are smaller than at any other Texas League park. The lighted parks continue to bring in the cash customers, which is a natural reaction. Most of the working people, except newspaper employes, finish the day's work in time for some sort of evening entertainment and about three out of six will go to ball games when it is possible.

A group of Tyler business men sent a kind invitation to the powers in the Wichita Falls Spudder club to move the franchise to the East Texas town, generously offering to build a park and otherwise get ready to entertain Texas League crowds. Unless Tyler would support a Texas League team many times more than the East Texas League club there, while it lasts, it would be a disastrous move, like coming to Lubbock or going to Abilene.

* * *

Lubbock has said that it has no use for a professional baseball club. A few of our leading business and professional men have expressed hearty enthusiasm over the possibilities of bringing a professional team here but that was as far as it got. When it came time to lay cash on the line and hunt for some more it was all off.

* * *

But we still have our Hubbers, who shall journey to Amarillo Sunday for a double header with Gib Jackson's Aviators. They're taking it up in Amarillo, and listen to this from yesterday's Amarillo News:

"Boasting one of the best and snappiest clubs in recent years, the Lubbock Hubbers will invade Amarillo next Sunday for a pair of tilts with the Aviators at Metro Park.

"The Hubbers have a great record for the year, having won every game played to date which includes a night victory over the House of David nine, played in Lubbock last month, etc.

"The double header Sunday will begin at 2 o'clock. Gib Jackson, manager of the Aviators, stated Monday he will introduce a couple of new players to the home folks in the series.

"The Hubbers are not so tough', said Jackson, who used to be one of them back in the old days when baseball games between Amarillo and the Hub City used to end in riots. 'We were beaten down there two weeks ago, one run in 13 innings. They're not so tough'."

Oh, no, they're not so tough, these Hubbers. Why, they haven't even won all their games to date. They would have felt badly about losing that 13-inning set-up to the Aviators last Sunday week, but they lost two to Lamesa before ever meeting the Amarillo club. Of course, Gib ought to know all about the Hubbers, having played with them in the riot days, but he was not even in Lubbock last week when Lubbock and Amarillo played, sending his Aviators under the care of the assistant pilot. It might be interesting to Brother Jackson to know that not one of the Hubbers who engaged the Amarillonns in riots in the dim long ago are playing with the Hubbers team now.

Guess we'll go up to Amarillo Sunday to see the series. A West Texas Golf association championship tournament prevented our seeing the first meeting of the teams, but we understand the fans got their money's worth. Thirteen innings of hot baseball, interspersed with a cooling shower, kept a full stand full until the last man was out, so we were informed. We haven't had an invitation from Jerry Malin yet but we're sure of a warm welcome from Mike. But if we run into Mike, who is Jerry's able assistant and adviser, we may never reach the ball park. Mike is like that.

DO YOU REMEMBER?—ONE year ago today—Grover Cleveland Alexander passed from the major leagues as the Phillies gave him his unconditional release. FIVE years ago today—Fine headwork by George Von Elm gave the Americans a 6 1-2 to 5 1-2 victory over the British Walker Cup team at St. Andrews. TEN years ago today—One major league record was tied and an American League mark was broken as the Athletics hit seven home runs to defeat the Tiger's, 15 to 9. The seven homers broke a record of five made by the Yanks in 1913 and tied the National League mark made in 1886 when the Tigers were members of that circuit.

COMMITTEE SEEKS TO OBTAIN FUNDS TO OPERATE SCHOOL

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, JJune 3—Texas Woman's college can be saved, the board of trustees declared at a meeting Monday and vigorous plans to keep the doors of the historic institution open were set in motion.

A committee was appointed to confer with the bishops, presiding elders and other leaders of the Methodist church in Texas for raising funds to maintain the institution.

Rev. T. W. Brabham, Methodist pastor of Pampa, was appointed chairman of the committee and was elected to the presidency of the college.

PAMPA MINISTER TO CONFER WITH BOAZ

PAMPA, June 3 (AP)—The Rev. Tom W. Brabham minister of the First Methodist church here who has been appointed president of Texas Woman's college at Fort Worth, said he would confer with Bishop H. A. Boaz in Dallas before announcing acceptance or rejection of the post, but indicated a favored acceptance.

Rev. Brabham, 37, was a ministerial student at Southern Methodist university and came here four years ago.

Oldest White House Employe Is Retiring

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—William Stauss, the oldest employe at the White House in point of service, retired Tuesday.

He entered the White House service in 1888, serving continuously for 43 years. Grover Cleveland was president when he began his duties as an assistant to the gardener at $1.50 a day.

In 1902 Struass became a fireman and when the furnaces were taken out of the White House several years later he took on the duty of building the open fires and polishing up the brass andirons.

Spain's Aristocracy Stripped Of Titles

MADRID, June 3 (AP)—The provisional government has abolished titles of nobility because "Spain has entered a new regime of liberty and democracy."

The cabinet has issued a decree giving members of the aristocracy virtually the same basis as French nobility. They may use their titles privately but must sign their names to legal documents. About 2,000 aristocrats are affected.

Government Buys Its First Autogiro

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—The first autogiro to be sold to the government was delivered Monday to the navy department at the anacostia naval air station. It was given a test flight by David S. Ingalls, assistant secretary of the navy for aeronautics, and Captain John Towers, assistant chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics.

Fights Wage Cut

In answer to the confidently expressed opinion of bankers that the wages of 1,500,000 railroad workers must be reduced if the country's great rail systems are to weather the present economic depression, Alexander F. Whitney (above) president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainsmen, declared that his organization would fight any wage reduction. "The railroad agreement drawn up under the guidance of President Hoover is still in force," said Whitney, "and must stay in force."

Honors Announced For Naval Academy

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 3 (AP)—The honor list of graduates of the naval academy, made public at the naval academy, is headed by Midshipman Thomas D. Tyra, St. Paul, Minn., who completed the four year course with a rating of 902.39 on the basis of a possible 1000.

A. V Veasey, Atlantic City, N. J., was second with 900.67. Twenty-nine were given places on the honor list, out of the 441 to recieve diplomas Thursday. Others include:

A. L. Reed, Little Rock, Ark.; J. S.McAtee, Kerens, Texas; R. A. Pierce, Marked Tree, Ark.

Maurice W. Hibschmann, of Annapolis, won the class of 1897 sword for officer-like qualities.

Five other midshipmen were ranked next to Hibschmann in the following order: Alexander C. Veasey, Atlantic City, Robert Lee Taylor, Battle Creek, Mich.; Horace D. Houlton, Sabetha, Kas.; Ernest C. Holtzworth, Huntington, W. Va.; and Raymond P. Hunter, Sherman, Texas.

Justiceburg Test Now Down To 2,900

Depth of the Justice No. 1 on the Penny and Posey ranch on the townsite of Justiceburg, has stopped drilling temporarily, Mrs. L. A. Pirtle, postmistress there, said while here yesterday.

"The bottom is now 2,900 feet," she said. "I understand they are going to begin drilling pretty soon."

Shutdown was made for repair. The test has attracted wide attention.

It is expected the hole will be drilled to a depth of around 3,000 feet, Mrs. Pirtle said.

JUDGE SATISFIES

Milk Is Fed To Babies In Order To Keep Quiet

CHICAGO, June 3 (AP)—Every now and then Judge John F. Haas of the landlords and tenants branch of the municipal court, halts the processes of the law and says to his baliff:

"Another bottle of milk, please."

The judge does not consume the milk himself but directs the bailiff to give it to crying babies as a means of maintaining silence in his court room. Yesterday a newspaper photographer caught the judge himself feeding milk from a glass to a two-year-old girl.

"That's the way I keep quiet in the court," he said. "Frequently mothers who have been evicted for rent come with little babies. The babies cry, most of the time because they are hungry."

Twelve bottle a day are ordered by the court.

TEXAS WOMAN INJURED

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 3, (AP)—Mrs. E. P. White, 80-year-old Austin, Texas, woman here attending the 41st annual Confederate reunion, suffered a dislocated shoulder yesterday when she fell down a flight of steps in a hotel lobby. She was not seriously hurt.

Spotted Areas Over County Needing Rain

Spotted areas over Lubbock county are suffering from lack of sufficient moisture in the wheat and other small grains, according to reports to D. F. Eaton, county agent.

Damage so far has not been as serious here as in some other sections of the Panhandle-Plains country. However, additional moisture is needed before harvest.

Wheat and oats are heading out in fine shape. Hervast is expected to start soon after the middle of the month.

"There is more trouble from smut than anything else I have heard about," Mr. Eaton said. "The smut seems to be more developed in oats than in the wheat.

"Some farmers have reported to me they are planning to cut their oats and use it for hay, instead of letting it ripen and be harvested, because of the smut."

All small grains more or less are somewhat damaged by the drouth.

SAN BENITO MAN DIES

WHEN you set out to buy tires, what do you expect to get for your money?

What nearly everyone really wants is most miles and the utmost in safety at the lowest possible price.

That being your objective, which tire should you buy?

If the experience of 20,000,000 motorists means anything, you should certainly buy Goodyears.

But if you try to puzzle through the welter of statistics on thicknesses, weights and diameters you lose the main issue and are as much at sea as ever.

A difference of two or three one-thousandths of an inch in the width of a tire carcass is no guarantee against blowouts.

It's what the carcass is made of and how it's made that counts.

Longer wear is not a matter of logarithms.

It is the honest product of materials and craftsmanship.

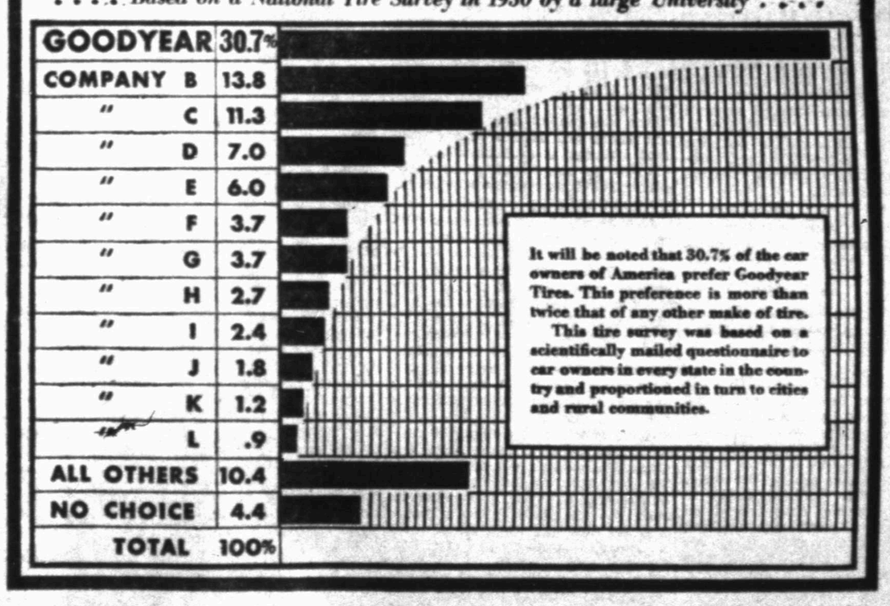

The one and only reliable guide for you to follow is the seasoned preference of the public.

And that preference is overwhelmingly for Goodyear.

This fact expressed year after year by Goodyear's great leadership is concretely told again in the findings of an impartial investigation by the Bureau of Business Research of a great University that asked 205,000 car owners this simple question:

QUESTION: "Regardless of price, convenience, etc., what make of tire do you consider the BEST tire made?"

HOW CAR OWNERS VOTED ON THE QUESTION
"WHAT TIRE IS BEST?"
. . . . Based on a National Tire Survey in 1930 by a large University . . . .

There's the only buying guide that means anything to you car owners.

With Goodyear quality priced so low, why not avail yourself of the long mileage, safety and the good looks that have made Goodyear reputation?

Thought For Today

Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.—Job 35:13.

* * *

Wreckless barbers have made more clean cut young men than tailors.

Privacy Passes On

People can't live to themselves today. Not with society the complex organization that it is. If a certain man's house is needed for the general welfare of the group the house must go.

Margaret Reilley's experience at Thorndale, N. Y., the other day is proof of this. Miss Reilley, who is 93, had spent most of her life in a nice little cottage with a row of purple lilac bushes blooming 'round the door. She took root there. It was home.

The house, as it happened, stood on property condemned for use in connection with the extension of a river parkway. A generous amount of money was offered for it. But the woman wouldn't vacate. For three months she repulsed engineers and deputy sheriffs who tried to make her leave. Finally a police matron, on the pretext that she wanted to buy some lilacs, succeeded in bringing Miss Reilley to the door, where she was promptly seized and spirited away.

Individual happiness has to yield to the common good if we are going to progress. It is quite right that it should. But it is hard on one who makes the sacrifice.

Miss Reilley had never been in an automobile, it is thought, until she was driven away from her house. She had limited her interests. Her uprooting was doubly hard because of this. If she had possessed a community of interests and had various channels into which to conduct her thoughts she might not have minded the moving process. She could have taken her interests with her. Narrowing one's horizon is never wise.

The modern onrush of living hasn't much time to bother with the sentimental association of places. In order to promote the community welfare it must tear down a roof or two along the way, and dig up some flower bushes. Miss Reilley was being treated much better than she realized.

A home and a house are different things. You can carry your home along when you move. The house is just the location of the home. But still, when a woman is 63, and has centered her life in one spot, it is hard to learn how to scrub another kitchen floor or what to do for a new sink when the drains won't work. Sometimes it takes a heap of living in a home to understand its eccentricities.

"Home Sweet Home" which told of the particular charms of one abiding place, is oddly at variance with the modern progress. "Where are you living now?" is the catch question of the 20th century housing question.

Heroism In The Air

Every additional accident on the "hell stretch" of the transcontinental air mail line—the section that crosses the Alleghenies, between Cleveland and New York—merely emphasizes anew the great technical skill and the magnificent devotion of duty that are displayed by the young aviators who fly over the route.

The death of J. D. Cleveland, who crashed near Bellefonte, Pa., the other day is the twelfth to occur on that run. It is probably the most dangerous aviation route in the country, and bad weather can make it one of the worst on earth.

But the air mail goes over the Alleghenies, twice a day each way, in spite of snow, sleet, fog wind and rain. The weather has to be more than usually bad to keep the planes on the ground; it has to be superlatively atrocious to cause an accident.

Canoes, according to a navigation order, must carry lights at night. Which will probably mean less romance in the light of new regulations.

The submarine Nautilus, carrying 15 tons of food, is to bore up through the ice at the North Pole. If worse comes to worse the crew will have a sufficiency of cold cuts.

That Girl on Broadway says next to jury verdicts the most uncertain thing in the world is a canteloupe.

The fellow who wants to cut wages to relieve business depression would probably want to bore a hole in the bottom of the boat to let the water run out.

* * *

NO matter what may be our business or profession, it is natural for us to think—and for our wives to think—that we are working harder and are undergoing more discomfitures than representatives of any other form of endeavor. It's human nature, that's all.

* * *

Not long ago, The Plainsman happened to listen in on a conversation held by three women—wives of managing editors.

"I'm afraid John is going to have another breakdown'", one declared, "he's sticking so close to the office".

"The same is true with Jack", returned another. "You know we're going down with nine editions now, day and night, and Jack feels like he has to sit in on every edition except the morning 'home'. It's just too much".

Comment of the third was practically the same.

Now The Plainsman happens to know that while all three of the men under consideration are hard workers, none is in any great danger of keeling over at his desk. They keep track of details; their responsibility is great. But as far as actual work is concerned, their grandfathers labored much harder and longer in the battle to keep the wolf from the door.

* * *

A SHORT time after the above quoted conversation took place, The Plainsman attended a party at which several of the guests were practicing physicians. The same statements, with the technical side of the conversation thrown out, would fit the wives of the doctors—the concensus of opinion being that Jim, John and Jack were nearing a state of nervous collapse.

* * *

The same condition likely would hold good in conversation held by the wives of grocers, merchants, lawyers or plumbers because grocers, merchants, lawyers and plumbers doubtless believe—and with the same right—that they are working as hard as doctors and newspapermen. As a matter of fact, one group probably works as hard as the other—although representatives of each are certain that no calling is as exacting and as trying as their own.

After all is said and done, it is the natural thing to attempt to forge ahead in any business or profession. And the practice of forging ahead in this highly competitive age demands work and thought, day night, until mind and body are frazzled.

Yet with all of it, The Plainsman doubts that the business or professional man of today is any more abused—or works any harder—than his ancestor, who blazed the trails of civilization, who wrung a living and a home from the soil or from roving herds.

The right kind of life and the right kind of success is a hard taskmaster, regardless of the avenue chosen to attain it.

That Man on Avenue Q says just because his stenographer is kittenish his wife insists on calling her an old cat.

If perfection makes for monotony it's no wonder the world is a thrilling place.

THERE should still be a few cash customers left who remember Sutton Christian and Allen Carney, who for a couple of years scribbled straight news and sports for The Journal. Last July the boys left Lubbock on a tour around the world. They did well until they got to Shanghai, where they permitted themselves to be talked into taking regular jobs, and today they are honored staff members of 'The China Press'.

* * *

A copy of The China Press, received in The Journal news room a day or so ago, discloses China's leading English language paper with 'by line' stories on page one by both the former Lubbockites. Carney is still writing sports and in the copy of The Press received here had written the lead descriptive yarn on the Champion Sweepstakes, the 'Kentucky Derby' of China.

* * *

Christian has graduated or slumped to the ranks of the columnist and is penning a front page feature signed 'By Axel'. Although the Chinese and expatriates of Shanghai don't know it, 'Axel' is the name plastered on Christian in Lubbock by fellow-workers, who saw in him a counterpart of Stuart Erwin's great interpretation of 'Axel Braumstropp' in the talkie 'Sweetie' at The Palace.

From the 'Letters to the Editor' column in The China Press, Christian's column is the most popular feature in the paper.

JUDGING from its appearance, The China Press is a good newspaper. It is well made up, carries news from everywhere and, peeping from its columns are the favorites of the Avalanche and Journal comic pages, such as 'Out Our Way', 'Our Boarding House', 'Wash Tubbs', 'Freckles', 'Boots' and the others. From American standards, it probably boasts an editorial staff of 12 to 15 persons—a total force of 60 to 65 people in all departments.

Since Carney and Christian evidently have climbed to staff positions of prominence, this may be taken as another recounting of 'Home Town Boys Make Good In The City'.

It's Just One Break After Another In The Milk Bottle Business; 300,000,000 Lost Or Smashed In U. S. In Year

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The average life of a milk bottle is 37 1-3 trips, although records show that a milk bottle's life varies from six to 91 trips.

Milk dealers spend nearly $15,000,000 a year for between 300,000,000 and 400,000,000 milk and cream bottles, most of them used to replace bottles lost or broken. About a third of the bottle loss is due to breakage in bottling plants, but two-thirds of lost bottles never get back to the milk dealer.

Those are facts from the 1931 yearbook of the Department of Agriculture and, with your permission, here are some more:

Airplanes are now used to chase insects, some of which have migratory movements extending thousands of miles. A special trip has been devised to be attached to planes. The insects are caught on a series of screen trays, coated with a light application of a sticky substance and so arranged that each screen constitutes a separate record of insects caught at given altitudes and locations. Over a square mile near Tallulah, La., it is estimated that an average of 25,000,000 insects are operating in the upper air. Many insects are caught as high as 14,000 feet above ground, but there are half as many 2000 feet aloft as at 1000 feet, and a quarter as many at 3000 feet. Above 10,000 feet many wingles insects are caught.

Airplanes also collect plant rust spores a mile or so above ground.

The future of the popcorn business is bound up with popping expansion and there is a high correlation between tenderness and high popping expansion. The popping expansion of an improved yellow pearl popcorn has been raised by selection to 26 volumes of popping expansion, which means that one cup of the corn unpopped pops out to 26 cupfuls.

State gasoline taxes in 1929 netted $431,636,454 on more than 13,400,000,000 gallons of motor fuel. The first gasoline tax was Oregon's of one cent a gallon, established in 1919. All tre states have a gasoline tax now and three states have a six-cent tax—South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. It is "the most cheaply collected of all imposts" and "one of the most willingly paid of all taxes." Total "rural road expenditure" had grown to $1,445,000,000 in 1929, of which automobile operators paid more than 50 per cent—$406,000,000—in gasoline taxes and the rest in license fees, permits and similar charges.

The beekeeping library of the Department of Agriculture has approximately 200 volumes, to say nothing of many pamphlets, devoted entirely to various phases of agriculture. The oldest one, printed in 1634, is "The Ordering of Bees" by John Lovett. About 175 journals devoted exclusively to the honeybee are published throughout the world and beekeeping library subscribes to 80 in 72 foreign countries.

Thirty-eight members of the dairy herd at the U. S. experiment station at Beltsville, Md., have died in the last four years and 18, or nearly half, of those deaths were due to foreign bodies swallowed with the feed. Twenty-two other animals were made seriously ill by swallowed foreign bodies. Foreign bodies most frequently found among the dead cows were pieces of wire and nails. Needles, splintered wood, knives, stones, bolts, money and watches are sometimes found in the digestive tracts of cattle. Cattle chew their food only superficially before swallowing it.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1439 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are "Reducing and Gaining," "Feminine Hygiene," "Indigestion and Constipation," "The Care of the Hair and Skin," "Infant Feeding," and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

MUCOUS COLITIS

We began this week by discussing the subject of mucoous colitis, and pointing out that among the causative factors of the disease is a certain type of body build; that 8 per cent of the people who have mucous colitis were of this build.

Dr. Clendening

Then in yesterday's article we discussed briefly the new researchers in medicine into body structure in its predisposition for the individual to acquire certain diseases. Certain people for instance have a stomach ulcer type of face, and more of them seem to get ulcer of the stomach than other people.

The way in which human beings differ in build most frequently is in being long or wide. If you range friends you will find that they will fall into one or the other of these divisions; you won't have to strain your imagination much to classify them in that way. Of course, there will be extreme examples of each kind, and many intermediate types, so that you can create a third division, if you wish, of normals.

The wide people flare away from the midline, and the long people hang up and down the midline. The wide people have round faces, short necks, arms and legs, and wide chests and abdomens. The long people have long faces, long necks, long arms, long legs, long chests and long abdomens.

These external differences correspond to certain differences in the structure and form of the internal organs. And also to differences in the predisposition to disease. Thus the wide people have high, wide stomachs and good digestion, high bowels and normal evacuation; wide hearts and a likelihood to heart disease in middle life, high blood pressure, apoplexy, increase of weight and diabetes.

The long people are subject to certain stresses also. Their long, thin lungs seem adapted to the development of tuberculosis. What interests us in this study is that their stomach and intestinal architecture predisposes them to dyspepsia and constipation and other digestive disorders. It is hard to prove absolutely that the low stomach creates dyspepsia or the low bowel constipation, because we frequently find people with the stomach and intestines low who are in perfect health. But, by and large, certain types of digestive complaint go with this type of body.

In connection with mucous colitis we see that in a study of 500 cases 58 per cent of the patients have the long or visceroptic bodily build. With them constipation usually alternates with periods when there is a painful and crampy discharge of mucous from the bowel. These patients are also subject to forms of stomach dyspepsia—gaseous distention following meals, nausea, lack of appetite—possibly indicating that food is not thoroughly prepared for its journey through the digestive tract. They are also liable to intestinal indigestion and stasis—sometimes of a fermentative and even putrefactive type. Focal infection, either of the teeth, tonsils, gallbladder, or from other sources, adds a final touch for a body prepared to blow up with sudden and dramatic intestinal crises—which is what mucous colitis is.

In New York With Gilbert Swan

SWAN

NEW YORK, June 3.—It was Wah Shee, the Oriental gentleman who removes scattered notes from my cuffs, who supplied the important information that the anniversary of the first Chinese laundry in America is close to hand.

Within a few days, it will be exactly 80 years since the first Chinese laundry sign appeared in this land. The year was 1851, and the scene was California.

Just two years prior to this historic event, the '49 days were getting under way in a large manner. Something like 500 Chinese had numberd themselves among the pioneer residents of the gold rush country.

And the times being what they were, a clean shirt was of slight consequence. These hardy pioneers did not leave behind them a reputation for changing underwear, or collars, or socks. Some of the more primitive pictures portray them more interested in "washing" gold than washing wool shirts and linens, if any.

Furthermore, most everything brought a fabulous sum and many were fortunate to leave with a shirt. There were others, however, who managed to buy up whole haberdasheries and still have plenty of gold for their heirs and assignees forever.

The occasion of a Chinese laundry opening was considered front page news in the mining camp belts and in and around San Francisco and Sacramento. Paragraphs were devoted to the fact that shirts could now be washed at so many dollars per bundle and hundred. It was an extreme drop in price from former figures, and later records revealed that never had so many clean shirts been seen in the length and breadth of the golden state.

Today, the Chinese laundry is one of our quaint and colorful institutions.

No matter what the city, the home town Chinese laundry is likely to be housed in some dingy looking basement or just beyond some back street in a building that possibly was an old shed or a barn. Few members of the populations ever see the proprietor or his fellow workers, except when laundry is delivered. His methods have remained pretty well unchanged during the years. That old washtub and washboard will not perish from the earth so long as the Wah Shees of the country survive.

In my own town, it roused a youthful curiosity second only to the blacksmith shop and the saw mill.

And speaking of things Chinese New York's Chinatown now sits back and, between smiles, sighs with relief.

A feverish tension has finally been broken. Two tongs, with a long record for wars and feuds chose to hold a convention in Manhattan at the same time. No one could account for this parallel of dates unless trouble was anticipated.

Tong wars are no longer in favor, and had one broken at this time it would have been most bloody and, furthermore, would have been considered by leading Chinese as the worst possible sort of notoriety. Every public gesture in the direction of peace and good feeling was outwardly made, what with dragon parades and lanterns bobbing gayly in the streets.

No one knows what went on behind the scenes. Still, on the night both conventions opened, the delegates were invited to the native playhouse. A crowd of about a hundred stood up in the rear. When their pockets were frisked by police, more than a dozen guns were found.

That was the last menacing note. Overnight all hints at trouble were silenced. One of Chinatown's tensest moments had been peacefully passed.

In England a typewriter has been invented that can be operated under water. Just the thing for stenogs susceptible to sinking spells.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

"THAT looks just like a mandolin," said Clowny. "Won't you please begin another bit of music? We all think it's mighty sweet. If you would like, we'll dance for you. That's one thing that we all can do. The Travel Man can watch and listen. That will be a treat."

The Japanese girl smiled a bit and said, "Well, lads, I'm feeling fit to play a lot of music. Then she sat down on the ground. And as the strains rang clear and true, the next thing that the kind girl knew, the Tinymites all joined their hands and started dancing round.

"Well, this is quite a lovely show," the Travel Man exclaimed. "You know that I am fond of music and I like nice dancing, too. Just keep it up and I'll clap loud. I know that that will make you proud. And then I'll buy a dandy meal for every one of you."

In half an hour they grew tired out. Then Scouty jumped, to loudly shout, "Come on, let's go and have that meal. I'm hungry as a bear." The Jap girl thanked all, but said, "I must go to my home, instead. I'm sure that one of you wee lads can easily eat my share."

And so they left the maid behind. It didn't take them long to find a nice, clean-looking eating place. The whole bunch ate with zest. Then Coppy said, "Gee! That was good, and I ate every bit I could, I think, of all the meals we've had, that really was the best."

A short time later, as they walked around the streets and gaily talked, they came upon another maid who worked around a fire. "Why, look!" cried one, "She's cooking fish. That's new to me and I just wish that we could watch a little while flames shoot higher and higher."

...r. Selecman Given Vote Of Confidence

DALLAS, June 3 (AP)—Dr. Charles C. Selecman, president of Southern Methodist university, today held a vote of confidence from the board of trustees of the institution. Along with its action on the president, the board also voted confidence in its executive committee of which R. H. Shuttles is chairman.

The board also accepted the resignation of Dr. R. N. Blackburn, business manager of athletics at the institution the past three years, to become effective February 1, 1932.

The vote of confidence in the president came after reports of dissatisfaction of some members of the faculty with his policies.

While Michael Duncan, aged 65, was receiving radium treatment at the Royal Infirmary, Dundee, Scotland, he left, unwittingly taking the radium, valued at $3,000, with him, and it was not recovered for several hours.

Rates, Rules and Requirements of Classified Advertising Of The Lubbock Daily Journal (Afternoon) Lubbock Morning Avalanche (Morning) Sunday Avalanche-Journal (Sunday Morning)

All classified advertising will appear in both the Morning and Afternoon papers—both papers counting one insertion. All classified advertising is printed in the Lubbock Morning Avalanche first and the Daily Journal of the same date, no classified originating the afternoon paper.

Classified for Sunday's issue will appear in the Avalanche-Journal counting one insertion, as this paper is sent to all subscribers of both the afternoon and morning papers.

AVALANCHE-JOURNAL Combined Rates:

Minimum words, per insertion, 10. . . .
One insertion, per word 4c
Two insertions, per word 6c
Three insertions, per word 7c
Seven insertions, per word 12c
Thirty insertions, per word 45c

These rates are for consecutive insertions only. Additional consecutive insertions over 30 times, of 1½c per word each.

All out of town ads, received by mail must be Cash with order. No exceptions.

PHONE 13 or 14

Our experienced ad taker will receive your ad and help you to word it, then our collector will call the following day. These accounts are "accommodation accounts" for our patrons and for one day only. No advertisements accepted on an "until forbid" order. A specified number of insertions must be given.

We reserve the right to place an advertisements under the proper classification and reject unclean or objectionable copy.

Obituaries and cards of thanks at regular classified advertising rate.

The publishers are not responsible for copy omissions, typographical errors, or any unintentional error that may occur further than to correct it next issue after it is brought to their attention. All advertising orders are accepted on this basis only.

Classified Advertising accepted until 5:30 P. M. on week days, and 5:30 P. M. on Saturdays, and all advertising received after 5:30 P. M. will be placed under "Too Late To Classify."

FAIRBANKS CAN RUN SWORDS THROUGH OPPONENTS ON SCREEN BUT GOLF IS HIS NEMESIS; HE'S FULL OF ENERGY

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following story on Douglas Fairbanks is another in the series giving little known facts about personalities frequently in the news.

BY BRIAN BELL
(Copyright, 1931, by Associated Press.)

HOLLYWOOD, June 3 (AP)—Douglas Fairbanks, hero of a score of swashbuckling plays, runs an opponent through with rapier or broad sword on the screen and thinks nothing of it, but gets sick at the sight of a golf ball.

"I don't see how you do it," he told Bobby Jones after the Atlanta lawyer had won the British amateur golf championship last year and was preparing to enter the British open only a few days away.

"Would Kill Me"

"You win a big championship and then start out on another one right away. That would kill me. I was sick three days before and in the hospital three days after playing in a team match in San Diego."

Fairbanks is a good golfer, far above the average. He was eliminated from the British amateur championship this year when he conceded his opponent a three-foot putt. Many three foot putts have been missed. Conceding the putt was a typical Fairbanks gesture. Probably he was tied and certainly he wanted to go to London to see his wife, Mary Pickford.

Great Pep Talker

He is the greatest pep talker in the motion picture industry. Soon after he reaches the lot every one is rushing around in characteristic Fairbanks fashion, leaving only the more intricate acrobatics to the star himself.

"How do you keep up with him?" Mary Pickford was asked.

"I don't," was the reply. "I don't even try."

If the sun shines, he takes a daily sun bath and rain or shine, he has a steam bath, followed by a cold shower.

When he made "Robin Hood" and "The Thief of Bagdad" he invited the public to see the pictures in the making, providing guides, as many as seven at one time to show the visitors around the studio. One day, when two conventions were being held in Los Angeles, a check showed 30,000 looked in on Fairbanks.

"And Douglas spoke to at least 25,000 of them," said a studio associate.

Fairbanks' hero is Robert T. Jones, jr., golfer extraordinary.

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—Stocks started well today but were unable to maintain an early rally which carried most prominent issues up at least one to two points.

The advance was either sharply reduced or lost by noon when weakness reappeared in specialties. Atchison, which had led the upturn in the rails, surrendered its gains of more than five points. American Telephone lost a free of 9 points but U. S. Steel held about half of its 1 3-4 advance. Gains of 2 to 2 1-2 in Westinghouse American Tobacco "B" and Air Reduction were cut. Standard Oil shares were firm.

Weak spots included Eastman Kodak which reacted 3 after an early gain of 2; Coca Cola, Northern American, American Water Works and Industrial Rayon.

Call money renewed at 1 1-2 per cent.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, June 3. (AP)—Cotton opened steady today, unchanged to 5 points higher on covering and trade buying which seemed to be based on price rather than any particular factor in the early news.

Offerings were light following recent declines and were readily absorbed, with the active months selling about 8 to 10 points net higher right after the call on a continuation of the demand. This bulge met a little more cotton but it was absorbed on reactions of 3 or 4 points with the market holding steady at the end of the first half hour.

The earlier cables from Liverpool were steady on covering but prices there weakened later owing to the weakness in Alexandria where Egyptian futures were 10 to 35 points lower. The New Orleans market was closed. A little southern selling was reported here early but it was in small volume.

Early advances attracted local and Wall Street selling later in the morning and the cotton market lost its gains. Renewed weakness of stocks and the favorable weather outlook were said to have caused the selling which carried July contracts from 8.37 down to 8.27 and December from 8.56 to 8.45. At around midday the market was quiet at around the lows which represented net losses of 1 to 2 points. The weekly report of the weather bureau stated that while the warmer weather was helpful for cotton it continued cool during most of the week over considerable areas and growth is rather generally slow.

NEW YORK OPEN

NEW YORK June 3 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady today: July 8.29; Oct. 8.65, Dec. 8.89; Jan. 9.01; March 9.21; May 9.37.

CANADIAN GRAIN SUFFERS

OTTAWA, Ont., June 3. (AP)—Grain crops of virtually the entire Canadian western region, of normally heaviest production, are in critical condition as a result of severe and prolonged drouth, the dominion bureau of statistics said today. Reduced precipitation, high winds, frost and cutworms have caused serious damage.

the fourth judicial district over which Judge W. J. Mills, later the last governor of the territory, presided. Most of the county seats were 75 to 80 miles distant, or more, from the scenes.

Sheriff Had Declined

Romero served as sheriff from 1898 to 1910, resigned to become warden of the state penitentiary; then was named insurance commissioner; elected county collector, then mayor of his native city. He told of during the term of Judge Mills of representatives of the Howry Cattle company asking for warrants against suspected cattle thieves and of their being issued. He was asked to serve the papers when the sheriff of Guadalupe county declined to serve the papers. Names of the parties in the warrants were given, McAdams, Carmack, the Smith brothers and a man named Williams. "I am not mistaken one was against John Spikes," Romero testified. He added there were "five John Doe warrants."

John Doe warrants were issued "in case any more connected with the case were found we could put their names on the warrants later," witness said. "They were to be served on anybody that we knew were connected with the gang."

Details His Trip

Romero detailed his trip to the then Guadalupe county, now Quay county, via Trinidad and Dalhart and to Logan. He told of arresting five men. First, he arrested "the two Smith boys", he stated. Then, at a roundup he found Carmack and McAdams, armed. "I told them to look at some calves," he said. "That gave me time to get my gun out." Later he arrested a man named Williams, known as John Williams, Old Man Logan, Sim McFarland and others were deputies.

"I did not arrest John Spikes because I had my hands full with the five men," Romero testified. Once while at Tucumcari on another occasion members of the Spikes family were pointed out to him. He saw them and knew of their general reputation. He also knew of Henry Hawkins' reputation.

Lockhart asked "who asked you to come here as a witness" and was told "Mr. Roberts." He talked to the attorneys last night. "Who paid your way?" he was asked by counsel. "Nobody has paid my way yet," witness said.

Did Not Seek John

The ex-officer detailed procedure of securing warrants. He admitted "I did not try to arrest John Spikes", adding "I did not see or look for him."

Lockhart cross-examined him as to the trials of the five men he arrested, why they were or were not tried and the final disposition of the cases. He did not recall the time John Spikes attended the trial of Jesse Smith in the fall of 1901 at Puerto de Luna, as a witness. He never heard of any of the Spikes boys having personal difficulties. Lockhart tried to get the witness to admit the occasion was the only time he was ever in Guadalupe county but Romero said he was there a number of times. "I went there every time I had a subpoena to serve there," he added.

Cabe Adams, who admitted he was a member of the posse that shot the two Spikes boys, in his deposition, detailed the shooting. Plaintiffs sought to bar the deposition of Adams on the ground that he had been convicted of a felony and then on the ground that Adams "had been in Lubbock all during this trial," but Judge Mullican overruled the motions.

Knew Them Personally

Adams knew the Spikes boys, John, Sam, Dick and Fred, personally and by reputation very well and Ernest "slightly." He lived in the Mesa Redonda community from 1900 to 1905, was a cattle man, worked for G. L. Lee, better known as Bud Lee, was a deputy sheriff and an inspector for th estate sanitary board. He had visited the home of John Spikes, knew the reputation of John Spikes as a cow thief, also Dick and Fred; knew John, Dick and Fred as violent and dangerous men. He knew their associates and the reputation of the men; knew Henry Hawkins, and his reputation and knew that Hawkins and the Spikes boys were "intimate," he declared.

Both he and his employer "lost cattle" and he had been on the Spikes range many times. He had found there unbranded calves and calves with a "slow" or unrecorded brand. Witness told of his visits to the cave and what he found there. He related the events of the arrest of Lee Rasberry with 18 calves allegedly taken from the Howry ranch.

Negotiated Loan

On one occasion, he said, he gave John Spikes a note to Tol Ware, Amarillo banker whom he knew, asking that John be loaned $500. This was done by the banker. After the return of John witness said he talked to him about his associates. "I wanted him to cut out this bunch that was laying around there," he stated. "He said he would, but he never did."

Details of the shooting were given. In the posse were: Vin Cissel, Sam Gohlson, Bud Lee, Louis Nance, Will Cissel, Emmet Hicks, John White and himself. There were "two old men" with the horses, whose names he has forgotten. "None of the party were XIT employes," he said. Vincent Cissel was the officer. Cissel order him to join the posse the day before the shooting and they met at the Lee ranch, leaving early in the morning for the Spikes ranch. He was with Nance at the shooting.

All Had Rifles

"All three of the Spikes boys, rifles in hand, were riding towards the posse. Nance and others ordered them to surrender" he said. "Consider yourselves under arrest," was the order.

"Surrender, Hell," the boys answered, said witness "Then they up with their rifles," he stated, adding, "they began to shoot. I began to shoot and so did Nance." Quite a number of shots were fired. "All three Spikes were shooting," he testified. John's horse ran off, and "Fred ran off on his horse" he added. "Fred turned and fired at us. I know he fired twice."

With John and Dick down, he walked up to them. "Dick said to Old Man Gohlson, "well, old man, you got me at last," said the witness. Dick lived about five minutes. "I shot at Fred's pony with John's gun—my gun had jammed" witness stated. "John asked me not to kill him." John lived 15 or 20 minutes. He asked the witness to go up to his house and tell his wife.

Cissel and Gohlson said there were other men there. "John said there were no men," said the witness. He did not go. Persons in the house, the witness stated "could see what was taking place." Later some people came from the house and the party left.

Witness testified that he believed I was in danger of losing my life" so he fired at the Spikes boys, he testified. He said they had the "name of being dangerous men," but that "I met them all the time and they never bothered me."

Seven hundred Boy Scouts of El Paso Texas, have started a survey to locate all odd jobs and thus relieve unemployment.

"THE WILD MAN FROM TEXAS" DRAWS A LAUGH FROM ALABAMA'S GOVERNOR

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 3 (AP)—"The wild man from Texas" self styled, called on the governor of Alabama Tuesday and got a laugh.

Colonel C. C. Carroll of El Campo, Texas, a Confederate veteran, strode into Governor B. M. Miller's office and announced himself as "the wild man from Texas."

"I ride an alligator before breakfast every morning to keep myself in trim," he said as he cut the pigeon wing.

The governor who kept open house in his office, laughed as he returned the greeting.

COURTS DECISIONS

of the court that should not be indulged in, the opinion said, since it might easily be construed as an effort to bring pressure to bear on the three jurors who were holding out for acquittal.

Fritts Loses

The death sentence of Will Fritts, convicted in Kent county of the murder of D. W. Hamilton, was affirmed.

The court reversed and remanded the death sentence of Hess Tyler, convicted in Hall county of the murder of Bryan Nall.

Fritts was convicted of the murder of D. W. Hamilton in Haskell county and tried in Kent county on a change of venue.

In a companion case he was convicted in Jones county of the murder of Hamilton's son, Earl and sentenced to life imprisonment. Young Hamilton was a witness against Fritts in a liquor case, the opinion state, and the altercation leading to his death and that of his father was alleged to be an outcome of ill feelings over this incident.

Middleton Loses Case

H. W. Middleton, convicted in Milam county of the murder of his father, J. J. Middlton, and sentenced to 99 years imprisonment, lost his second appeal today the court affirmed the sentence.

Middelton was convicted of placing poison in medicine administered to his father. The offense occurred October 8, 1927 in Bastrop but Middleton was tried in Milam county on a change of venue.

One of the chief witnesses against Middleton was Mrs. Rose Waybourn, convicted and then acquitted of plotting the death of her husband. Middleton had testified against her. She in turn claimed Middleton had confined to her he had poisoned his father.

"I was a sucker to come 3,000 miles to go to jail," Miss Guinan said just before she left, "when every jail in America is waiting for me."

She is not angry with France, she said, and she threatened to come back again.

JUDGE KINDER

dition was not believed serious.

Plainview Men At Inquest

Several of the Plainview residents who accompanied an ambulance to the scene of the accident remained for the inquest. Lowe was brought to Plainview by a passing motorist.

Kinder is survived by his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Herold Hughes of Huntington Park, Cal., two brothers, T. A. Kinder of Brownville and H. B. Kinder of Jefferson City, Mo., and a grand-daughter, Evelyn Mae.

T. A. Kinder is enroute to Plainview. Mrs. Hughes and a relative are expected to land at English field at Amarillo at 5:40 p. m. by airplane from California. Plainview friends will meet them at Amarillo.

Born In Missouri

Born in Cape county, Missouri, November 9, 1865, Kinder lived in that part of Missouri until he entered the University of Missouri in 1881. Receiving his bachelor of laws degree in 1887, he was admitted to the bar the same year, and came to Texas in March, 1888.

Residing at Dallas, Kinder first came to Plainview in September, 1888. He became a permanent resident of the Hale county seat early in 1889. Subsequent he played major roles in the history of Plainview and the Panhandle-Plains.

Active in organization of the Plainview independent school district in about 1905, he was school trustee from 1905 to 1909.

A member of several Masonic bodies, including the Shrine, at the time of his death, Kinder had been instrumental in formation of the Plainview Masonic lodge, the first on the Plains.

The first legal office he held in this section was that of county attorney, to which he was appointed in 1889, to succeed Green Wilson, who had been elevated to the position of district attorney for a newly organized district.

Served As Judge, Attorney

The banker-lawyer had served as district judge from 1905 to 1915, and from 1892-96 as district attorney of the old fiftieth judicial district composed of 13 counties having an area of nearly a thousand square miles.

Becoming president of the Third National bank here when he assisted in its reorganization in 1924, Kinder continued as president when the Plainview National bank was organized.

The former judge was a member of the B. P. O. E. lodge and the Plainview Rotary club. He was president of the Plainview Board of City Developments in 1918 and 1919.

Lowe said he and Kinder left Plainview for Las Vegas, N. M., at 2 p. m. Tuesday. Forced to stop at Clovis for repairs at noon, they remained in Clovis to eat dinner, Lowe said. The truck in the collision was en route to Logan, N. M., it was said.

LUBBOCK COUNTY BAR HOLDS SPECIAL MEET

Members of the Lubbock county bar met this morning in special session in the 99th district court room at 9 o'clock to discuss plans for the paying of tribute to Judge L. S. Kinder, a former judge and district attorney of this court, who was killed in an automobile crash near Melrose, N. M. late Tuesday night.

After a brief discussion R. A. Sowder, president and chairman of the meeting, named W. H. Bledsoe, Roscoe Wilson, Hampden Spiller and J. E. Vickers a committee to attend the funeral services, whenever they are held.

G. E. Lockhart, G. R. Bean, Roscoe Wilson and W. H. Bledsoe were named a committee to draft resolutions expressing personal regret of the bar at the death of the former jurist. On motion of Mr. Lockhart the president was named a member of each committee.

The committee was to meet this afternoon to draft resolutions.

Judge Kinder was district attorney of the old 50th district from January, 1893 to December, 1896. He was the second district attorney to officiate in Lubbock county. From January, 1905 to December 1910 he was judge of the 64th district, the successor of the 50th district in Lubbock county.

Nearly every member of the local bar group was personally acquainted with Judge Kinder. Mr. Sowder stated that he had telephoned to Plainview this morning and that details of the funeral had not been arranged.

CIVIL APPEALS PROCEEDINGS

AMARILLO, June 3 (AP)—The following proceedings were had in the court of civil appeals for the seventh district at Amarillo today:

DISSATISFACTION

sary proof of his selection."

"We wrote to the artist early in September", Coker said today, "and he answered that he would be glad to select the beauties and later we sent him 35 pictures secured through entrants made by campus people. The pictures were returned marked in order of Mr. Barclay's selection with his name written across the backs but he sent no word. We deeply regret the incident."

Several times within the past few years, students of the college have asked that they be permitted to participate in the selection of favorites for the beauty section but members of the publications board have refused, fearing that this would cause campus political strife. With the release of the annuals this year, however, it was learned that all of the prominent girls' social clubs on the campus, with the exception of one, were represented and this fact is also causing a great deal of comment among groups.

Robert Huff of San Antonio, editor-in-chief stated this morning that it is his wish that the beauties be selected by popular vote next year, if the publications board approves.

"Everyone who subscribes to La Ventana would be given a chance to name his choice of several beautiful girls on the campus," said Huff. "There would be about 1,800 students voting and necessarily there would be some overlapping in choices. We would select the favored ones by popular vote in this way and perhaps avoid the friction that arises yearly as to whether the editor and a few friends or an artist and judge of pulchritude is the critic."

Cecil Horne a member of the publications board, stated that he knew nothing of the matter but approved of a more supervised manner of selection than has been practiced in past years.

HELD FOR ROBBERY

AUSTIN, June 3. (AP)—A man identified by the county jailer as Frank McMullin, wanted in El Paso for a drug store robbery, was arrested here last night by the sheriff's department. He was being held in the county jail.

Prime Minister MacDonald of England recently reported that a charitable organization received more anonymous subscriptions from Aberdeen, Scotland, than from any other city.

The women's rowing club of Warsaw, Poland, will go to England in August to compete against the Women's Amateur Rowing Club at Greenwich.

POLICE ASKED TO WATCH FOR GIRLS

Lubbock police last night were asked to watch for two young women whom Mrs. H. F. West of Memphis, Texas, reported were her daughter and niece and were believed en route to Lubbock.

Mrs. West described her daughter as 18 years old, 5 feet 9 inches tall, 185 pounds in weight, and as having blue eyes. Her niece, Mrs. West said, weighed 125 pounds, had a dark complexion and brown eyes and hair.

Police this morning had not reported sighting the two missing young women.

A negro woman summoned police Tuesday night to Seventeenth street and Avenue A. She said three white men had held her up. Two suspects were released after the woman was unable to identify them, police said. Report of whether money or other articles were taken from the negro was not recorded.

Two men were reported to have been flashing lights Friday night in a house in the 900-block of Avenue R. A neighbor called police and said residents of the house in which the lights were seen had gone fishing.

An arrest was made Friday for assault and another for theft. Charges had not been entered this morning.

FINE, SENTENCE GIVEN FOR THEFT

A fine of $1 and about $30 costs and a day in jail was dealt Jimmie Wuertenburg after he had pleaded guilty of theft in county court Tuesday before Judge E. L. Pitts.

Wuertenburg admitted taking four bowels, two bedspreads, a blanket, perfume and soap from Mrs. Gentry's rooming house at Slaton early yesterday, officers said. The man spent the night at the rooming house and when he and his family were preparing to leave he loaded the articles into his automobile, according to his testimony.

Three aggravated assault complaints were dismissed by Judge Pitts yesterday upon motion of the county attorney's office. The men freed from such charges were Leonard Johnson, Leroy Struggs, and Fedo Struggs. The cases were dismissed because of insufficient evidence, County Attorney Vaughn B. Wilson said.

TRAINING SCHOOL TO GET WATER LESSONS

Students in the Boy Scout leadership training school here will assemble at Tumble-N pool in city park at 6 p. m. Thursday to receive instruction in swimming and life-saving, D. T. Jennings, area executive, said.

The eleventh session of the school was conducted Tuesday night in the basement of the First Presbyterian church. The class convened at 7:45 p. m.

The last session will be an overnight outdoor event next Tuesday night on Meadowbrook golf course, Jennings said.

Invitations Sent Out On Convention

More than 1,100 invitations to the annual Texas League of Municipalities convention here June 15-17 will be mailed this week by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce to city officials and members of the league.

In addition to the invitation of the chamber of commerce, letters from the City and two of Lubbock's hotels will go to each member of the state organization, members of the local arrangements committee said yesterday.

A copy of the tentative program and data about Lubbock are contained in the letters.

All Completely Yours for

One Large Twin Box Vivani Exceptional Face Powder

(Two Shades)

In lavish orchid case, gold lettered. Actually two boxes of powder in one long, beautiful case. One powder for day use, another for evening use—both natural blending. An original new Vivani idea. Included in your souvenir set.

One Large Size Vivani Exceptional Waterproof Rouge

In artistic opal jar with genuine bakelite cap. A fitting container for such a fine, natural blending rouge. A new creation, effecting greater living color with the greatest degrees of naturalness. Many women who appreciate fine rouge and who live in sections where there is no Vivani dealer write direct to the makers and consider it an exceptional value at 75c. Vivani has made this type of rouge popular and now other leading makers are selling similar rouges at as high as $2.50 or more. This is really the best rouge, because it is the most natural. Included in your souvenir set.

One Large Size Vivani Exceptional Beauty Cream

In exquisite modernistic straight-line opal jar, white cap with rolled gold edge. Surpassed in appeal only by the immaculate cream inside. A marvelous tissue preparation preciously necessary to the woman who would retain the alluringly vivid, translucent skin of youth. Many women have and will regularly pay $1.00 per jar for this fine beauty cream. Included in your souvenir set.

One Large Size Vivani Exceptional Brilliantine

Subtle amber in color, in attractive, dainty French square bottle with golden cap. Marvelous for creating the aristocratic lustre so much desired; decidedly excellent for retaining the wave. Vivani Brilliantine is fragrant and adds much luxury to the hair. Like the other Vivani products, this Brilliantine is so good that, if a dealer doesn't carry it, those who have used it would rather send 75c per bottle to the makers of it than to accept a substitute. There's a big, exquisite bottle of this really fine Brilliantine in your souvenir set.

One Large Size Vaza—(Egyptian Emollient Lotion)

In French square flint bottle of generous proportions and intriguing design, effusively and contrasted by the cap of jet black bakelite. Here is one of the finest lotions ever created for keeping the skin soft, smooth and clear. It prevents and relieves chapping and other irritations. It is excellent for sunburn and wind-rough. Delightfully perfumed. Leaves the skin sweet smelling hours after using. Really no home need be without it, as it will ordinarily cost only 50c for same generous bottle that is in your souvenir set.

One Large Size Vivani Exceptional Shampoo

A rich, pure, crystal green liquid in the shapely flint bottle of long, graceful design, set off by polished golden cap on sprinkler top. Refreshing and invigorating, it immediately gives a sense of supreme head and hair comfort. Adds exquisiteness to the hair. There's a bottle in your souvenir set.

One Large Size Vivani Exceptional Skin Tonic and Freshener

Beautiful amber lotion in clear, crystal bottle artistically capped with bakelite. A delightful preparation and a rare achievement for correcting large pores and refining the skin. Tones the muscles and stimulates. Vivani Exceptional Skin Tonic and Freshener is to the cultured woman a necessity after cleansing. Many women have paid $1.25 for this preparation. The large bottle of it is in your souvenir set.

One Large Size Vivani Exceptional Bath Salt

Rich lavender color, delicately perfumed in unique, ovalbottle bottle, with Vivani gold seal and jet black bakelite cap. An added pleasure for the bath. Just a little produces the most refreshing effect, besides adding delightful odours. Bath Salt is sold at many prices, depending on perfume, kind of bottle, etc. Prices of Bath Sal. may range up to $3.00 or more, yet $1.00 should ordinarily purchase a generous bottle of good bath salt. There is an attractive bottle of exquisite Vivani Bath Salt included in your souvenir set.

THESE ARE ACTUALLY THE WORLD FAMOUS VIVANI BEAUTY AIDS

Let the postman bring you this big box full of exquisite toiletries, direct and fresh from the laboratories.

Even though you may not be in the habit of ordering anything by mail—please remember that is the only way it is possible to give you this luxurious set filled with eight genuine Vivani store size beauty necessities. No dealer, large or small, should be burdened with so tremendous a distribution of these Vivani Souvenir Sets at no profit.

Advertising of Vivani Beauty Preparations has appeared in most of the metropolitan newspapers in the United States, and in such magazines as Saturday Evening Post, Cosmopolitan, Harper's Bazar, Etc., as well as in foreign countries.

Three Years Ago — Three Million

Approximately three million of these genuine Vivani Souvenir Sets were issued through dealers three years ago, and they were eagerly grasped by the women of America as fast as they could be distributed. The charge required with the certificate then was twice as much as this year, when we expect to issue only one million of the sets.

SO IT CAN BE READILY SEEN THAT THE DEMAND FOR THESE VIVANI SETS IS GOING TO BE FAR GREATER THAN THE SUPPLY, AND THIS YEAR THE BIG SOUVENIR VIVANI SET IS FAR MORE WONDERFUL THAN EVER BEFORE.

AVOID POSSIBLE DISAPPOINTMENT — MAIL THE CERTIFICATE IMMEDIATELY — NOW — WHILE YOU HAVE IT IN HAND.

Why the Distribution This Year is Direct Instead of Through Dealers

Dealers do not make anything like a fair profit for the effort in the distribution of the souvenir sets, and it gives them a tremendous amount of work. The dealers make a fair profit, however, on the regular sale of Vivani preparations. The big souvenir sets are issued periodically, about every three years, to acquaint you generously with the new and leading Vivani products. Send for your souvenir set direct, then buy your favorite preparations as required later from your own favorite toilet goods dealer.

These are the suggested retail prices of each item as contained in your souvenir set:

The Box of Face Powder (Twin Box)	$2.00
The Jar of Rouge	.75
The Jar of Beauty Cream	1.00
The Bottle of Skin Tonic and Freshener	1.25
The Jar of Vaza Egyptian Lotion	.85
The Bottle of Bath Salt	1.00
The Bottle of Shampoo	.75
The Bottle of Brilliantine	.75
