Oil Allowable Up Slightly

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission ordered February oil production in Texas held to 29.4 per cent of potential today, a slight increase over January.

The action came at a proration hearing, at which two purchasers asked for an increase over the January factor of 29.2 per cent.

Under the new percentage, February production will be held to an allowable of 2,583,822 barrels daily.

The January allowable was set at 2,938,083 barrels. The February 1964 allowable was set at 2,919,705 barrels daily under a 29 per cent order.

Purchasers earlier had submitted nominations indicating February demand at 2,548,520 barrels daily, down slightly from January. The Bureau of Mines forecast for February demand is 2.8 million barrels, an increase of 10,000 barrels daily over January.

Nominations by percentage and barrels includes:

30 per cent—Texaco 141,000 barrels.

29.5—Humble, 429,675.

29—Standard of Texas 37,800; Sun 107,088; Gulf 213,015.

28.5—Mobil 238,900.

28—Shell 170,000; Atlantic Refining 76,140.

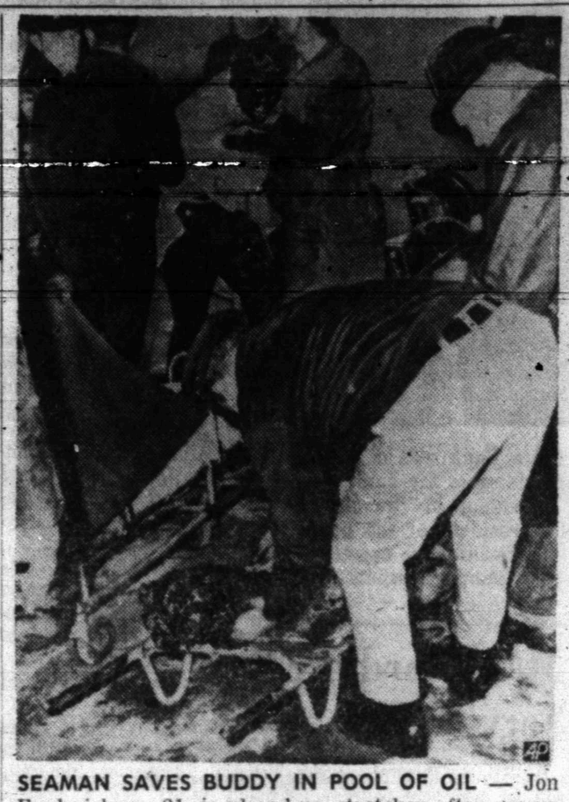

27.5—Continental 26,000.

27 — Cities Service 82,000; Pan-American Petroleum Corp. 250,785; Phillips 122,871; Sinclair 101,000.

Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey praised Ernest O. Thompson, who retired recently from the agency, and introduced his successor, Byron Tunnell, as a "public official who has been noted for his courage, firmness and equity in all matters."

Tunnell said of Thompson: "Succeed him I shall, but I'm sure I'll never replace him."

Ramsey said Thompson joined the commission during a time of "chaos and distress in a great industry and molded a set of conservation laws, rules and regulations" that have been copied by many regulatory agencies.

SEAMAN SAVES BUDDY IN POOL OF OIL — Jon Fredericksen, 21, is placed on stretcher after rescue from pool of crude oil by his shipmate Alf Oleson, 21, center background, aboard Norwegian tanker Artemas in Boston, Mass. Fredericksen slipped on deck while measuring oil and fell into hold. Oleson was lowered by rope and saved Fredericksen who was struggling feebly to stay afloat. LBJ Asks Extension Of Disarmament Panel

Seeks 4 Year Renewal Pact

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to extend the life of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency for four years to "assure the continuing leadership of the United States in the purposeful pursuit of peace."

Congressional approval of the recommendation, along with the President's request for $55 million for the agency's expenses over the next four years, appeared certain.

Johnson told Congress a determined effort to halt the spread of nuclear weapons over the world is essential to the security of the United States. He made clear that nonproliferation is a foremost objective of his disarmament policy.

Despite the vast defensive power of this country, the President said in letters to the House and Senate, the effort to stop the spreading of nuclear weapons "is essential to our security, for a continued increase and spread of modern weapons can actually decrease our security."

An accompanying letter by agency Director William C. Foster said the legislation will be required to keep the agency operating because the present authorization does not provide adequate funds beyond the end of the present fiscal year, June 30.

"Attempts directed toward arms control and other measures to lessen the threat of war are no longer Utopian dreams," Foster said.

He added: "The work of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency has become an integral part of our over-all national security policy. Armaments alone can no longer increase security; the unchecked increase of these weapons of mass destruction can only diminish our safety in the hope for peace."

Johnson noted that four years ago the United States became the first nation in the world to establish such an agency.

He said it had a good record of achievement, citing the conclusion in 1963 of the limited nuclear test-ban treaty by the United States, Soviet Union and Britain. The treaty, which bans all but underground tests, now has been signed by a total of 107 nations. France and Red China have not signed. They are the only nations in addition to the United States, Soviet Union and Britain who have nuclear weapons or are building them.

Furthermore, Johnson said, the United States has established a direct communications link between Washington and Moscow — popularly known as the Hot Line — has joined in a U.N. resolution against introducing weapons in outer space, and has "initiated cutbacks in the planned production of fissionable material."

In addition, the President said, the United States has put before the Geneva disarmament conference — now temporarily in recess — "a number of important, concrete proposals for the control and reduction of armaments on which agreement has not yet been achieved."

Hundreds Due To Attend Annual C-C Banquet Here

Several hundred persons are expected to assemble in the Snyder High School Cafeteria this evening to hear the Hon. Preston Smith, Texas Lieutenant Governor, at the annual banquet of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce.

The banquet meal will be served at 7 p.m. and the program will follow.

During the course of the evening, the Chamber of Commerce will present its new officers and directors for 1965, the "Outstanding Citizen Award" will be presented, and special entertainment will be provided.

The Rev. Miller Robinson, pastor of Colonial Hill Baptist Church, will be master of ceremonies. The Rev. James E. Tidwell, pastor of First Methodist Church, will give the invocation, while Bill Seale will present special awards and Badger Robertson, recipient of the honor last year, will present the "Outstanding Citizen Award."

Lt. Gov. Smith will interrupt a busy schedule to come here. He has been in Austin throughout the week where the Texas Legislature has been organizing for a new session. As lieutenant governor, Smith has the vital responsibility of presiding over the State Senate.

He is scheduled to arrive in Snyder at about 6:30 p.m. and go directly to the banquet site.

The 38th Lieutenant Governor of Texas, Smith has made his slogan: "Working for Texas," well-known throughout the state. Long identified with the word "work," he was born on a farm near Georgetown, the seventh child in a family that came to count 13 children. He attended public schools in Williamson and Gaines Counties, working his way through high school at Lamesa and college at Texas Tech.

Smith was elected to the Texas House of Representatives in 1944, and served there for six years before voluntarily giving up the post. In 1956 he was returned to the legislature, this time as State Senator for an 11-county district. After serving six years there, he moved up to the lieutenant governor's race, ultimately winning the post by a big majority. In 1964 he was returned for a second term as lieutenant governor, again by an overwhelming majority.

As a legislator, Smith was the author, co-author or active sponsor of bills establishing a permanent building fund for state colleges, creating the present underground water code, providing stability for the farm-to-market road system, and installing the "Gilmer-Aikin Program" to improve public schools. During his first session as lieutenant governor, the legislature passed measures to enlarge the state's higher education system, regulate small loan companies, extend women's legal rights in the areas of property ownership and transfer, and create the Texas Tourist Development Agency. He has made many talks throughout the state on the need for expanding tourism and industrialization in Texas, to improve the general economy and provide employment.

New officers of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce who will be introduced tonight are W. Felix Jones, president; Bill Seale, first vice president; Bentley Baize, second vice president, and Dr. Jack Nesbit, treasurer.

The 1964 officers are John Boren, president; Jones, first vice president; Herbert Feather, second vice president, and H. A. Johnson, treasurer.

New directors are Charles Blakey, Ed Dickerson, Billy McCormick, Dr. Nesbit, Seale and R. E. Weber. Holdover directors are Jones, Baize, Feather Johnson and Doug McGlaun. Also to serve this year as ex-officio members of the board are Sallie Blythe, representing the B&PW Club, Dean Floyd of the Jaycees, and Boren.

Retiring directors are Gene Best, Carl Whitfield, Paul Sizemore, Sterling Parker, Guy Sullivan and R. C. Patton.

RIGHT TO WORK

Labor Promised Repeal Of Law

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several hundred AFL-CIO leaders from all over the nation headed home today to spread the word that organized labor has a promise of speedy action on its No. 1 goal in Congress—repeal of Section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act.

This is the so-called "right-to-work" section of federal labor law that allows the states to prohibit contracts that require all employes to join a union.

Chairman Adam Clayton Powell of the House Education and Labor Committee told the 800 labor leaders attending a legislative conference that hearings will begin Jan. 25. He said the repeal bill would be sent to the House floor by March 1.

This was the first firm word of action on the measure. Previously, administration spokesmen from President Johnson on down had been vague about the timing of the repeal legislation, which is sure to set off a pitched battle in Congress.

Rep. Frank Thompson Jr., D-N.J., whose labor subcommittee will conduct the hearings, said:

"We are going to have a hard time. It isn't going to be easy." Johnson reportedly wants to get some other prime administration goals, particularly health care, out of the way before the 14B fight starts.

The health care for the aged measure reportedly still will get priority in the House.

Informed sources said the timing of the 14B repeal measure was worked out between Johnson and AFL-CIO President George Meany.

Powell stepped out ahead of Johnson and pleased the AFL-CIO leaders by announcing he will propose legislation on two prime labor goals still opposed by the administration.

One will be to increase the federal minimum wage from $1.25 to $2 over three years and the other to cut the standard work week from 40 to 32 hours over two years.

He said he expects to get these as well as all other labor bills before the House by March 1.

In pledging fast action on repeal of 14B, Powell warned that in return he expected organized labor to wipe out all vestiges of discrimination in union apprenticeship and training programs.

Viet Nam Mishap Kills 2 Americans

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two Americans were killed and two injured today when their helicopter hit a power line while escorting a road convoy nine miles north of Saigon.

The pilot, an enlisted gunner and a Vietnamese observer died in the crash. The co-pilot and another gunner were injured, and the co-pilot was reported in serious condition.

The crash apparently was accidental. No hostile ground fire was reported.

The deaths raised the number of American servicemen killed in Viet Nam from causes other than enemy action to 109 since December 1961. Another 249 have been killed in action against the Communist Viet Cong.

Communist terrorists Thursday night attacked downtown Thu Dau Mot, 15 miles north of Saigon, exploding two mines and throwing several grenades. At least five Vietnamese civilians were killed and 20 wounded. One of the blasts decapitated one of the terrorists.

There were indications in Saigon that anti-government demonstrations may soon be halted. Two representatives of a central Vietnamese student group opposing the civilian government called on the chief of state, Phan Khac Suu.

About 300 leading Buddhist monks have been meeting at their Saigon headquarters the past two days, planning new strategy. The monks apparently were intent on a continued anti-government line, but informants said the monks were trying to halt demonstrations.

Death Claims Jeanette MacDonald

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Gene Raymond makes a mournful journey to Hollywood today with the body of his wife, Jeanette MacDonald, lovely songbird of a lilting era in American movies who died of a heart ailment in Houston Thursday. She was 57.

Her death brought an end to a brilliant stage and film career and to her 27-year marriage — a childless one. Her last words to Raymond came in a Houston hospital, where she had been flown Tuesday to undergo heart surgery.

"I love you," she whispered.

"I love you, too," he replied.

She died a few minutes later.

The auburn-haired soprano had left her Beverly Hills home in serious but not critical condition as the result of a longtime cardiovascular ailment.

She had been operated upon in June 1963 by Dr. Michael E. DeBakey, who recently performed abdominal surgery on the Duke of Windsor. In December, she had an operation for abdominal adhesions at UCLA Medical Center.

Bank Slate Re-Elected

All officers were re-elected Thursday at the annual stockholders meeting of West Texas State Bank.

The officers of the bank include Wayne Boren, chairman of the board; H. H. Eiland, chairman of the executive committee; H. W. Cargile, president; Martin Brooks, executive vice president; Bill Eiland, vice president; Dale Stuard, cashier; Jeanelle Allen, Syble Bley and Max Shaw, assistant cashiers.

Directors are Boren, Cargile, Brooks, H. H. Eiland, Bill Eiland, Herman Doak, Dan Gibson, C. V. Thompson and Nathan Wade.

Sir Winston Seriously Ill

LONDON AP) — Sir Winston Churchill today suffered a cerebral thrombosis—a blood clot in the brain—and there was widespread concern that the 90-year-old statesman might be at the end of the road.

A medical bulletin from his doctors said Sir Winston also has developed a circulatory weakness, which would appear to indicate that his heart is flagging or that there was a fairly general blockage of the arteries.

The medical bulletin, issued by his personal physician Lord Moran., said:

"After a cold, Sir Winston has developed a circulatory weakness and there has been a cerebral thrombosis."

Sir Winston was 90 last Nov. 30.

"He's had a cold for several days," said Sir Winston's son, Randolph Churchill, from his country house at East Bergholt, Suffolk County.

Lord Moran, Sir Winston's private physician, said he would call at the home of Britain's great wartime leader late today.

After that visit—and a check-up—Lord Moran is expected to issue a medical bulletin on the health of his famous patient.

"He has his ups and downs. At his age every illness must be regarded as a serious one," Randolph said.

"This is a cold, however, and so far as I know, it's nothing more."

In the past, he has suffered a number of illnesses and had at least two strokes.

Invariably, he has bounced back, and birthday after birthday for the last five years or more, he has been able to totter to the ground-floor windows of his London home at Hyde Park Gate, smile and give his famous V-for-victory sign to well-wishers congregated outside.

On his last birthday, Lady Churchill, Sir Winston's Darling Clementine, held her husband's arm as he moved slowly to the window. He looked extremely pale.

After he slowly made his V sign with the first two fingers of his right hand, Sir Winston was gently led away by his wife.

Lady Churchill will be 80 in April.

No More UN Money, Soviet Union Says

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union said today it has paid the last of its 1964 United Nations bills. It reiterated refusal to contribute to U.N. peacekeeping operations.

"Yesterday the delegations of the U.S.S.R., the Ukraine and Byelorussia paid their last installments to the regular U.N. budget for 1964," said Tass, the Soviet news agency.

Jurors Hear Estes Story By Pistol-Toting Associate

PECOS, Tex. (AP)— Jurors heard a former associate of Billie Sol Estes tell Thursday how he carried a pistol in search of the West Texas promoter but "couldn't get to him because he was preaching."

The same witness, J. C. Williamson of Midland, also testified that Estes became incoherent in the spring of 1962 when it became clear his $150 million interests in fertilizer sales, grain storage and cotton growing were being wiped out.

Williamson was a witness in a $4 million suit against Estes and others. The suit, brought by four other Midland men, also asks they be freed of responsibility for $1.3 in fertilizer tank mortgages held by the Walter E. Heller Co. of Chicago.

Williamson, who identified himself as an oilman and rancher, said he was among various persons induced by Estes to sign mortgages on tanks which were never built. Estes in turn sold the mortgages to Heller and other finance companies. He now is appealing prison sentences for fraud and swindling.

Estes telephoned March 7, 1962, to advise that he no longer could pay lease rentals on tanks against which Williamson had borrowed, the witness testified. He quoted Estes as saying: "There just ain't no tanks."

Williamson said this so angered him that he came to Pecos with a gun but was unable to reach Estes, then busy as a lay preacher in the pulpit of the Church of Christ.

Explaining that he also is a writer, Williamson said his anger subsided and he subsequently entered into a $100,000 deal to do a biography of Estes, whose wife was to receive half the money. He did not indicate that the book ever was written.

Shortly before the March 29 arrest of Estes, Williamson related that "even while some of Estes' best friends were being carried out on stretchers because they were so upset there, he was giggling and incoherent."

J. C. Barnes Jr., one of the four plaintiffs in the case, followed Williamson to the stand. Barnes testified briefly about dining with Estes and Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., in October, 1961.

Two Patients Die In Blaze

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A brief, but blistering, general-alarm fire killed two women patients Thursday night at the State Mental Hospital. More than 1,000 other patients were threatened but quick work by firemen and others prevented greater tragedy.

About 1,200 patients, some in wheelchairs, were removed into sub-freezing temperatures from a women's dormitory and then sheltered temporarily in a nearby auditorium.

Most of them wore only night clothes and were barefoot although some managed to drape blankets around them. A majority of the patients were evacuated within 30 minutes after the blaze was discovered.

"We were very lucky it wasn't much worse," said Robert Blackburn, assistant to the mayor. "Only quick work by firemen prevented it from becoming a terrible disaster."

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Where is a girl supposed to sit when she is on a date with a boy who drives a car with bucket seats? Would it be proper for her to sit in the middle, between the two bucket seats so she won't be so far away from her date? Supposing the gear shift is between the two seats? Please answer in the paper because I know other girls who have the same problem.

NOT CLOSE ENOUGH

DEAR NOT: The girl sits in the bucket seat BESIDE the driver. The problem of distance between the girl and her date is a mere drop in the bucket compared to those she'll run into if she tries to occupy the "no girl's land" between the seats. Sit where you belong. He can't drive forever.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am 26 and the mother of four children. When I married (six year ago) I weighed 118 pounds, and wore a size 12 dress. I am five feet six and everyone used to compliment me on my figure. Today I wear a size 18½ dress, and the last time I had the courage to get on a scale I weighed 188 pounds. I don't have to tell you how ashamed of myself I am. I have gone on every diet I've heard of and I've even tried to smoke, but it makes me sick. I just don't have the will power to stick with a diet. I've heard there is a club people join to help them lose weight. It's supposed to be something like Alcoholics Anonymous. People help each other. I need inspiration and encouragement from others who have the same problem. Or doesn't that work, either?

FAT AND DISGUSTED

DEAR FAT: Nothing "works" unless you are willing to work at making it work. "TOPS" (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) is one of the most prominent clubs. Write to their headquarters at 2306 S. Howell Ave., Milwaukee 7, Wisconsin, for information about their chapters in other cities. Good luck.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My daughter was raised in a good Christian home but you would never know it from the way she has acted since she was 14. She is 22 now and is going through her third divorce. She could never keep a husband because she was so crazy about men. And the lower they were, the better she liked them.

She is under a doctor's care now and the doctor told me my daughter runs with bums because of a "VITAMIN DEFICIENCY." Is this possible?

CAN'T BELIEVE IT

DEAR CAN'T: Your daughter's deficiency strikes me as more moral than physical, but maybe the doctor is right. After he fills her full of vitamins, you'll find out.

THE FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY of the West Texas State Bank was observed here Thursday night at a banquet for employes and stockholders of the bank. Lee D. Herring, left, main speaker of the evening and vice president of the Grand Prarie State Bank, is shown visiting with H. W. Cargile, president of the bank; Wayne Boren, chairman of the board; and H. H. Eiland, chairman of the executive committee. Herring spoke on the value to a bank of a good public relations program.

Jenkins Gets Notice Of Subpoena

WASHINGTON AP) — The Senate Rules Committee has notified Walter Jenkins that he will be subpoenaed to testify in its Bobby Baker investigation.

President Johnson's former top assistant got the word by telephone from the committee's special counsel, L. P. McLendon, who said Thursday no decision had been reached on whether Jenkins would be heard in secret or in open hearing later this month.

But Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, one of the three Republicans on the committee, said later Jenkins would have to be heard in public eventually.

Last October, Jenkins' resignation as a White House assistant was requested by Johnson and accepted after it became known that Jenkins had been arrested twice on morals charges.

The Rules Committee plans to resume its questioning of witnesses in the Baker case in about 10 days. Baker, a former secretary to the Senate Democrats, became a millionaire while on the government pay roll. The committee has been poking into his affairs for any evidence that he used his job to promote his private business ventures.

Bears Set Spring Drills For Feb. 20

WACO AP)—The Baylor University football squad will start spring practice Feb. 20 with 20 lettermen expected to report.

The returning lettermen will include six offensive and five defensive starters from the 1964 third-place Southwest Conference finishers.

Head Coach and Athletic Director John Bridgers said Thursday that the Bears will start their home games at 1:30 in the afternoon and 7:30 in the evening. In the past they have started at 2 and 8 p.m.

"The earlier starting times seem to be a trend," Bridgers said, "and I saw no reason why we shouldn't follow suit. I believe the public will like it better."

Five Texas Wesleyan Cagers Are Expelled

FORT WORTH AP) — Texas Wesleyan College officials have announced that five basketball players, including two starters, were expelled from the college Thursday "for disciplinary reasons."

The five were Bob Merder, the team's leading scorer with an average of 22.1 points per game, Don Willis, another starter, and reserve Bill Drake, Jeff Saari and Wayne Wilson.

Despite the loss, the school's basketball team downed Howard Payne 79-77 in a non-conference game Thursday night.

Says Gas Chamber Not For Entertaining

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — Oregon legislators protested Thursday a request that a Portland night club operator be allowed to use the state penitentiary gas chamber for entertainment purposes.

The chamber is not being used because the death penalty was abolished in the November election.

Harvey Dick had requested that the state sell him the execution facility for use in a night club now under construction. He said customers could have their pictures taken inside it.

State senators said Thursday that the chamber should be destroyed instead.

LBJs At Home, Awaiting Visitor

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) —President Johnson, working and relaxing at his Texas ranch, awaited the arrival late today of Canada's Prime Minister Lester Pearson to put finishing touches on a pact to wipe out U.S.-Canadian auto tariffs.

Johnson and his visitor may be able to sign the agreement before Pearson leaves sometime Saturday. However, the U.S. Congress would have to pass special legislation before the agreement could be fully effective.

The pact, subject of months of negotiations, would abolish both countries' tariffs on new autos and new auto parts shipped across their common border.

Johnson, who flew to the ranch with his wife Thursday night for a three-day stay, expected to have relaxed, informal talks with Pearson. Most work on their major item of business — the tariff agreement — was done in advance of the meeting.

The two leaders have met face to face several times in the past 14 months, most recently at Blaine, Wash., on Sept. 16 when they signed a Columbia River treaty. Their meetings have been supplemented by seven or eight telephone talks.

Pearson was bound for the ranch from a Florida vacation.

Johnson was here not only to entertain the prime minister, but to push ahead with the drafting of the inaugural address he will deliver next Wednesday after taking the presidential oath.

Only a few aides accompanied the Johnsons on the flight from Washington. Their two daughters, Lynda and Luci, did not make the trip.

Signing of the agreement on auto tariffs was postponed several times by last minute haggling over details. But only a few details remained to be worked out in advance of Pearson's visit.

The pact would abolish an American tariff of 6½ per cent on vehicles and 8½ per cent on most parts. The Canadian duties that would be scrapped range from 17½ per cent on finished vehicles to 25 per cent on parts.

The latest figures, for the first nine months of 1964, show $455 million of American vehicle and parts sales to Canada compared with Canadian exports of $46 million.

Students Are On Program

Members of the Snyder High School Forensic Squad, directed by Bobby Taylor, presented the program Thursday at the Snyder Rotary Club's luncheon meeting.

Students Aleta January, Nan Martin and Donna Daxis explained aims of the Forensic Club and gave some example presentations.

Dr. Robert Hargrove and Ben Brock were in charge of the program.

Guests introduced by Bob Smith included Bob Crowell, Raymond Groves, Harold Lacik, Woody Forrester, Jack Lawrence, Glenn Beard, Truett Hawkins and Bill Graham.

Rayburn Burgess, Rotary president, presided at the luncheon.

Mishap Reported On Highway 84

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated a mishap early Thursday morning one mile north of Snyder on US Highway 84. Involved were a 1963 Oldsmobile driven by Cecil David Gale of Odessa and a 1964 Chrysler convertible driven by Vivian Elizabeth Cox of Denver, Colo.

Officers said that both vehicles were going in the same direction when the Cox car struck the rear of the Gale car causing an estimated $300 damage to the Oldsmobile and $600 to the Chrysler.

No injuries were reported.

Mrs. Nordyke Service Set

BAIRD — Funeral services will be held here Saurday for Mrs. Nancy N. Nordyke, 90, who died Thursday night at Clyde.

Rites will be held at 2 p.m. at Godfrey Funeral Chapel, with the Rev. Harold Watson, pastor of First Baptist Church in Clyde and the Rev. Richard Lewis, pastor of First Baptist Church in Baird officiating. Burial will be in Baird.

Mrs. Nordyke was the mother of Noel Nordyke of Snyder. Other survivors include three daughters, Miss Alda Nordyke of Baird, Mrs. Jewel Ellis of Moran and Mrs. Hazel Dunn of Abilene.

Two sons and a daughter preceded Mrs. Nordyke in death. One son, Clarence was a former Texas Ranger, while another, Lewis, was a well -known author and columnist. Lewis Nordyke was the author of "Nubbin Ridge" and "The Great Roundup," and often had articles in leading magazines.

Malaysia Asks End To Aggression

By TONY ESCODA

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Malaysia demanded today that Indonesia "cease hostilities and all acts of aggression" if it wants a peaceful solution to the crisis between the two countries."

In Jakarta, however, Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio said his government will continue to send raiders into Malaysian territories because Indonesia feels Malaysia and Britain do not want to have a peaceful solution.

Subandrio asserted that his government is prepared immediately to have peace talks without advance conditions with Malaysia and Britain.

A Malaysian government statement noted the "desire so piously expressed by President Sukarno" of Indonesia, who suggested Thursday that an African-Asian group or the United Nations investigate whether the North Borneo states of Sarawak and Sabah want to remain in Malaysia.

Sukarno said he would abide by the result. He also called on Malaysia's prime minister, Tunku Abdul Rahman, to return to the negotiating table.

The Malaysian statement said:

"After experience of a series of abortive peace talks with Indonesia, Malaysia naturally would rather see a genuine demonstration of the professed desire rather than hear mere expressions of it."

Burglary Of Station Is Investigated

The Scurry County sheriff's department is investigating the burglary of the John Vernon service station in Hermleigh.

Reported stolen was about $25 in cash, cigarettes, and service station stock and equipment. No visable signs of forced entry were reported.

Coast-to-Coast NEWSPAPERS SELL THE MOST!

New Telephone Directories To Be Delivered Monday

Copies of the Snyder telephone directory will be mailed to customers on Jan. 18, Jim Brewer, manager for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company here said.

The cover will be of white stock, overprinted in brown ink. There will be 44 "white" or alphabetical pages and 72 classified or Yellow Pages.

Brewer said that almost 10,340 copies of the new directory have been printed but that not all of them will be mailed to customers at this time. He explained that additional copies are always prepared to have on hand for new customers moving to this area and as replacements for books in heavily used locations like public telephone booths.

Customers should throw their old directories away when the new ones are received. Brewer cautioned customers to check them carefully for address and out-of-town number lists as well as other valuable papers before consigning them to the wastebasket.

"Quite often," he said, "customers will keep lists, valuable papers and even pictures between the pages of the telephone directory. Then when the new ones arrive, they throw the old ones away without checking them and things that they wanted to keep are lost forever."

Service Set For Snyderite's Father

Funeral services have been set for 1 p.m. Saturday at the Cherokee Methodist Church in San Saba County for Hugo Alex Bode, 68, who died at his home at Clyde on Thursday morning.

He was the father of Clifton Henry Bode Sr. of Snyder.

Mr. Bode, a retired oilfield worker, had lived at Clyde since 1961. He was a native of Austin and was reared in San Saba County.

Holland Rites Set Saturday

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Bell-Seale Funeral Home chapel for Mr. John M. Holland, 74, who died Thursday morning in Houston.

Don Browning, minister of the Eastside Church of Christ, will officiate at the services. Burial in Snyder Cemetery will follow Masonic graveside rites.

Mr. Holland is survived by his wife, Mrs. Irma A. Holland of Sebring, Fla., one sister, Mrs. Jessie Eva Scott of Snyder; one niece, Mrs. Max Brownfield of Odessa; and two nephews; Donald Ray Scott of Dallas and Grover Scott of Snyder.

THE FASHIONABLE shape of things to come. The classic box coat goes sleek and slim in this shaped selection from the "Wild Western Colors". Casually elegant in any plush surroundings, the classic notched collar and set-in sleeve styling is the background for bright brass buttons and dramatic seaming details, including the front darts that end in pockets.

Five Centuries Of Unusual French Toast Recipes Here

What we Americans call French toast was undoubtedly the result of a need to make the most of stale or lost bread. A recipe for using lost bread by whisking it through a batter of eggs and milk appeared as early as the fifteenth century in a Harleian manuscript.

This centuries - old innovation has been popular from that day to this. The Belgians call it pain trouve, or "found bread." Germans call it Arme Ritter in honor of the knights, later the messengers or reuters, who rode horseback from village to village on missions. A weary knight knocking at a door along the way in search of food and water was greeted by the hospitable housewive with the exclamation, "O der arme ritter ist so hungrig" — the poor knight is so hungry. This situation was taken care of with dispatch by serving a platter of bread which had been dipped in an egg-milk mixture and grilled to golden perfection.

The basic idea of French toast may be five centuries old, but the innovations for serving it are ever new. A test kitchen staff recently got lost in the subject of French toast, and look at what they found — seven unique recipes. Five use fruit in elegant ways. For sheer delight start this gastronomic adventure with blueberry stacks. The two remaining recipes are truly unusual and worthy of keeping company with the other five.

Cinnamon-Orange French Toast

2 eggs, beaten
2-3 cup milk
½ teaspoon finely grated orange rind
¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon
8 slices enriched bread

Combine beaten eggs, milk, orange rind and cinnamon in a shallow bowl. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Grill or pan fry bread on both sides in hot fat. Serve hot, topped with 1 to 1½ tablespoons Brandied Orange Butter.

Yield: 4 serving — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Brandied Orange Butter

½ cup soft butter or margarine
1 cup confectioners' sugar
1 teaspoon finely grated orange rind
2 tablespoons brandy

Combine butter, sugar orange rind and brandy. Whip together until light and fluffy. Serve over Cinnamon-Orange French Toast.

Yield: 1¼ cups Brandied Orange Butter.

Note: May be stored in refrigerator, covered, until needed.

* * *

Coconut-Orange French Toast

4 eggs slightly beaten
1 1-3 cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
12 slices enriched bread
¼ cup butter or margarine
2-3 cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
1 tablespoon orange juice
4 teaspoons grated fresh orange rind
¼ cup flaked coconut

Combine beaten eggs, milk and salt in a shallow bowl. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Grill or pan fry bread on both sides in hot fat; place on a baking sheet. Blend butter and brown sugar; add orange juice, orange rind and coconut. Spread coconut mixture over slices of French toast. Broil under low broiler heat for about a minute, or until topping is bubbly and lightly browned. Serve hot.

Yield: 6 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Apple - Raisin French Toast

2 eggs, beaten
2-3 cup milk
½ teaspoon salt
8 slices raisin bread
¼ cup apple butter
2 tablespoons chopped pecans
2 tablespoons sifted brown or confectioners' sugar

Combine beaten eggs, milk and salt in a shallow bowl. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Grill or pan fry bread on both sides in hot fat. Spread 1 tablespoon apple butter on 4 slices French toast; sprinkle 1½ teaspoons pecans over apple butter and cover with second slice of toast. Sprinkle 1½ teaspoons sugar over top slices. Serve hot.

Yield: 4 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Tomato French Toast

½ cup condensed tomato soup
½ cup water
2 eggs, beaten
8 slices enriched bread
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

Combine soup and water in a shallow bowl; stir until smooth. Blend in beaten eggs. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Bake in a preheated waffle baker or brown bread on both sides on hot greased griddle. Serve hot with grated Parmesan cheese sprinkled over top of toast slices.

Yield: 4 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Crusty French Toast

6 eggs, slightly beaten
¾ cup milk
1½ teaspoons salt
12 slices enriched bread
3 cups medium fine soft bread crumbs
Dash, nutmeg

Combine beaten eggs, milk and salt in a shallow bowl. Trim off crusts from bread. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, then into soft bread crumbs, turning them to coat both sides. Grill or pan fry bread on both sides in hot fat. Sprinkle with nutmeg. Serve hot.

Yield: 6 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Blueberry Stacks

¼ cup brown sugar
¼ cup water
1½ cups blueberries, stemmed and washed
½ teaspoon lemon juice
2 eggs, slightly beaten
2-3 cup milk
¼ teaspoon salt
16 thin slices enriched bread

Combine brown sugar and water in a (1 pint) saucepan; boil gently for five minutes. Add blueberries, cover and simmer for about five minutes, or until berries are plump and tender, but not broken. Remove from heat and add lemon juice. Keep warm. Combine beaten eggs, milk and salt in a shallow bowl. Using a 3-inch cookie cutter, cut bread slices into rounds. Dip bread rounds into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Grill or pan fry bread on both sides in hot fat. To serve: Stack 4 French fried toast rounds, using about a tablespoon of warm blueberry sauce between rounds, and over the top.

Yield: 4 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Strawberry French Toast

½ cup soft butter or margarine
1-3 cup confectioners' sugar
1 (10 ounces) package frozen sliced strawberries, thawed
2 eggs, slightly beaten
½ cup half and half
2 tablespoons lemon juice
8 slices enriched bread

Whip butter until light; gradually add sugar. Drain thawed strawberries; gradually add strawberries to butter - sugar mixture, beating after each addition until a smooth pink butter results. If strawberries do not blend in evenly, set bowl in hot water during beating to soften butter and warm strawberries so they will blend evenly. Combine beaten eggs and bowl. Gradually add lemon juice. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Brown bread on both sides on hot greased griddle. Serve hot with strawberry butter spread over each slice.

Yield: 4 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

Good even in winter: jellied madrilene with a little red caviar fork-stirred into it and topped with sour cream and minced chives.

Rewarding Around The Campfire

ONE MAN'S MONTANA. By John K. Hutchens.

The warm glow which rewards the reader of this book derives from both the colorful yarns with which it is packed, and the mavelously deft skill of the storyteller.

So this is a book for everyone, whether or not they have any palpitating interest in the locale and theme — the state of Montana, with its heritages from the Old West.

Hutchens arrived in Montana in the summer of 1917, when he was nearing his 12th birthday. In nearly half the book he plays the role of the raptly attentive youngster, listening to the Old Timers reminisce about the wild, rugged days of the late 19th Century.

'It was a hell of a time in Alder Gulch and its metropolis, Virginia City, my ancient friends used to say. . ." and the Old Timers summon back the sights and sounds of the gold camps, the stagecoach robberies; the memories of Custer and Chief Joseph of the Nez Perces, Calamity Jane and the fabulous strike of prospector Tommy Cruse — "Gold at the grassroots!"

Then follow some adventures of the author as an adolescent and a young reporter, still seeking out the pulse and color of the old days, as well as a long chapter on three of the greedy titans of the mining industry, who ruled Montana's affairs for so many years. There are affectionate portraits of Helena and Butte, a story about the ghost town at Granite Mountain, and another on the old frontier painter, Charlie Russell.

There even is an account of the Dempsey - Gibbons fight of 1923 and a delightful anecdote about a little old baseball fan known as Postcard Smith.

Hutchens, now widely known as a critic, left Montana for New York in 1927. After all these years, we all can enjoy a fascinating evening of listening around his campfire.

Kitchen notes: If you like to use baby foods occasionally for the whole family, you'll find it convenient to remember that the 4¾ - ounce size yields ½ cup; the 6½ - ounce size yields ¾ cup; and the 8-ounce size yields ⅞ cup.

Light Novel Is Amusing

NINA UPSTAIRS. By Beverley Gasner.

Nina, the heroine of this comedy of the working girl in the big city, happens to be the type who always has to be in love with someone.

But that doesn't mean she's a sentimental, soap opera, clinging vine creature. On the contrary, she has a vinegarish sense of humor, is fast on the uptake and makes easily with the smart remark.

She slaves over a hot typewriter in the advertsiting department of a huge Manhattan store, where the underpaid help cringe under the whip of the lady Dracula who runs the department.

Nina has a friend, Diane, who is a real bubble-head with a yen to paint. Together they spend a vacation in a house full of wacky characters on the far tip of Long Island.

Most of the comedy develops around the store and the vacation, but Nina gets into more serious moods in the matter of romance. Having just broken her engagement to a young but very stuffed shirt, she meets Julien, the store's new furniture buyer. Julien very definitely is the Older Man, and very cagey about making any concessions to the June - moon - croon atmosphere.

It's a light, amusing novel.

Your family will relish creamed mixed cooked vegetables if you use them as a filling for thin pancakes. This combination makes a delicious luncheon or supper course when it is served with crisp bacon and a lettuce and tomato salad. The crispness of the salad will be an excellent texture contrast for the soft pancakes and vegetables.

Old Judge's Story Is Compared

A COVENANT WITH DEATH. By Stephen Becker.

The first degree murder trial of Bryan Talbot, charged with strangling his wife Louise, took place in the summer of 1923 in a little Southwest town of 4,000 population, Soledad City.

There was circumstantial evidence against Talbot, an ambitious but somewhat erratic young business man, but there were no witnesses. The trial uncovered a scandal about the flirtatious 27-year-old Louise and her husband.

The story, as unfolded in this novel, is told by Ben Lewis, known now as the Old Judge, but at the time of the trial as Young Judge Lewis, for he was only 29 that summer.

There were two judges in Soledad City, and Lewis' colleague Alvin Hochstader presided at the murder trial. Then when the case reached a bizarre ending — it wouldn't be fair to give away the plot — Lewis was drawn into the center of everything.

So mainly this is a story of a courtroom struggle, the reactions of the principals, the witnesses and the townspeople. In a way, the culmination of the plot makes this resemble a mystery novel, but not in the usual sense of tracking down a hidden villain. As a trial story, it is in the same field as "Anatomy of a Murder." But this book also is the story of Lewis himself, of the Old Judge reconstructing what he had been like as the Young Judge, and characterizing himself as passing "the crisis of adolescence" at the age of 29. In retrospect, he reaches the disillusioned conclusion that few members of the human race ever get out of their adolescence.

A colorful and vividly written tale, it has many facets to engage the reader.

Julia's Olives

1 can (about 1 pound) ripe olives
2 tablespoons olive oil
3 large cloves garlic, peeled and quartered

Turn olives with their liquid into 1½ pint (or a little larger) jar. Add olive oil and garlic. Pack olives and some of the garlic pieces down so they are submerged by the liquid; allow a few pieces of garlic to float on the oil at the top. Cover tightly and refrigerate overnight. Drain and use in a green salad. Use only 1 clove garlic if you don't like strong garlic flavor.

WOMEN'S CALENDAR

FRIDAY

Cosmorama Study Club meets at Martha Ann Woman's Club. Hostesses, Jo Park, Nonnie Ward, Pat Cloud and Durelle Gorman.

Call meeting of Eastern Star for purpose of initiation, 7:30 p.m.

SATURDAY

Country Cousins Square Dance Club will hold a workshop from 3 to 5 p.m., followed by a covered dish supper. Regular dance at 8 with Darrell Boen, caller. Mr. Boen will also direct the workshop.

SUNDAY

Epsilon Sigma Alpha District 8 meeting at Country Club. Registration starts at 11 a.m.

Buffet luncheon at Martha Ann Woman's Club for members and their guests. Reservations by 9 a.m.

Pecan Cake

3 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons each baking powder and nutmeg
2 cups sugar
1 cup butter or margarine
6 eggs, separated
1 cup plus 2 tablespoons 100-proof bourbon whiskey
3½ cup pecan halves, coarsely chopped
1½ cups seedless raisins
½ cup diced candied fruit

Sift together the flour, baking powder and nutmeg. Cream butter and sugar; thoroughly beat in egg yolks one at a time. Beat in sifted dry ingredients alternately with 1 cup bourbon; batter should be smooth; Stir in pecans, raisins and candied fruit. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold in. Turn into a 10-inch angel food pan whose entire inner surface has been lined with greased brown paper. Bake in a very slow (250 degrees) oven for about 4 hours or until wire cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Place a shallow pan of water on top oven shelf for first 2½ hours of baking. Cool cake in pan on wire rack for 30 minutes; turn out; remove paper and finish cooling. Dribble top of cake with 2 tablespoons bourbon; wrap tightly and store overnight in airtight container. Refrigerate to slice easily.

When you invest in kitchen utensils, buy those that suit the size of your family and your particular needs. A widely available food mill, for example, comes in both ¾ - quart and 2-quart sizes.

CRAZY, MAN, CRAZY!

Election Came To Nought In Setting Trend For Solons

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — From the way Democrats and Republicans in Congress have chosen their top leaders in this new session you'd never guess the 1964 election might have had some political significance.

Yet, when President Johnson downed conservative Sen. Barry Goldwater in history's greatest plurality, Republicans lost 38 seats in the House and two in the Senate. Was this a mandate for change?

Apparently not among Democrats or Republicans in Congress where change is slow, maneuverings are intricate, old favors are remembered, friendships can be stronger than ideology, and politicians in both houses seem slow to learn.

In the House, the depleted Republicans threw the conservative, 64-year-old Charles Halleck out of his job as their leader — he had held it six years — and replaced him with equally conservative Gerald R. Ford, 51, of Michigan.

Ford's supporters gave this reason for wanting the change: They thought Republicans needed a younger and more forceful "image" than the rather languid Halleck who, after his defeat, said: "That's how the ball bounces."

Ford had been chairman of the House Republican Conference, or caucus. Promptly House Republicans filled it with Melvin R. Laird, 42, of Wisconsin.

Laird, who calls himself a "creative conservative," helped put together the 1964 Republican platform which so pleased Goldwater's supporters. In getting Ford's old job, Laird beat out Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen, 48, of New Jersey.

Frelinghuysen, considered more moderate if not more liberal, than Ford or Laird, was not discouraged. With the backing of Ford he then tried to get the job of Leslie C. Arends, 69, of Illinois, the assistant leader for 21 years.

The conservative Arends was re-elected Thursday to his old job. This was the first major test of Ford's leadership when he backed Frelinghuysen. So it was as much of a defeat for him as for the New Jerseyite.

One House Republican, Albert H. Quie of Minnesota, a leader of the younger members of his party, said this setback for Ford was "something of a disaster for the already weakened party."

In the Senate, the Republicans changed nothing. They kept all their leaders, headed by Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. He has become famous on television for his prose, sometimes doleful but always embroidered with classical allusions or nimble imagery.

But the Senate Democrats didn't pay attention to the election results, either, when it came to leadership. As expected, and there was no contest, they re-elected the mild but popular Mike Mansfield of Montana to the top leadership job.

The fight was over the assistant leadership, relinquished by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey after he was elected vice president.

Here the contestants were Russell B. Long of Louisiana, John O. Pastore of Rhode Island, and A. S. Mike Monroney of Oklahoma. Pastore and Monroney had supported far more major Kennedy-Johnson programs than Long.

Boyle Jumps To These Conclusions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions:

A leader is a person born with a megaphone in his brain and a desire to shout his ability to the world.

Most great leaders in any field — whether they be politicians, soldiers, businessmen, evangelists, artists or rock 'n' roll singers — are to some extent megalomaniacs. This means, they have a mania for great or grandiose performance, plus a feeling of personal omnipotence.

There are two types of megalomaniacs — the noisy ones and the quiet ones. If you have to work for one or another — and most people do — it is better to work for a noisy one.

You can always tell when you've satisfied the ego of a noisy megalomaniac; with a quiet one you're never sure.

No person is truly educated unless he looks up a word in the dictionary at least twice a week.

You hear a lot about romances between millionaires and hatcheck girls. But when it comes to marrying, most hatcheck girls wind up with musicians or bartenders.

Being cast up on a desert island all by yourself is pretty dismal, but the lonelist men in civilization are those who play golf with their wives on Saturday because they can't find three other guys to make a foursome.

Just holding things together is hardly enough in this world to make you a hero. Whoever built a statue to a paper clip?

A woman always should have something to look forward to. That's why a wise husband never gives his bride a diamond engagement ring until their 50th wedding anniversary.

The average beggar is about as shrewd a judge of human nature as the average personnel manager — but he can make quicker judgment.

It's high time universities gave course in "footballese," the gibberish in which sportscasters describe the art of pushing, kicking, or passing an inflated pigskin up and down a gridiron. It certainly is the most rapidly growing language in America, but I have yet to meet a fan able to tell me in English just what a "flanker back" is, and how he earns his living.

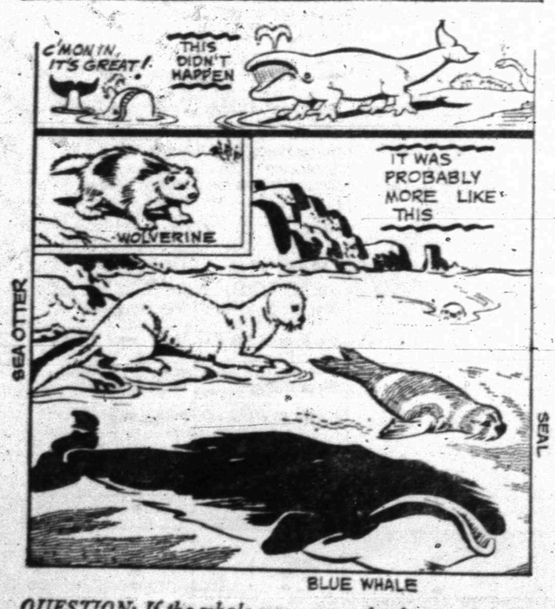

What makes many of us so neurotic isn't that we can't have what we want but that we are faced with so many choices we can't decide what we really do desire. The world was just as happy when ice cream came in only three flavors — vanilla, chocolate and strawberry.

All hobbyists become public bores with their bragging except the fellow who secretly collects French post cards.

You don't have to perform great deeds to become well-known. One of the most talked-about fellows in my neighborhood has a simple distinction. He is the only guy in the block who drinks a glass of sauerkraut juice every morning for breakfast.

Most wives, asked if they could live their lives again, say they would again marry at the same age. Most husbands say they'd remain bachelors at least five years longer.

Junior Editors Quiz on WHALES

QUESTION: If the whale was once a land animal, why did it take to the sea?

• • •

ANSWER: When we think of the whale as a land animal, we are apt to conceive of something like the purely imaginative monster at the top—which never existed. Scientists tell us that whales did come from four-footed land animals. In many whales, there are tiny bones out of sight where the hind legs used to be. Whales are warm blooded and give milk to their young just like land mammals. Futhermore, whales show traces of hair, which is something only developed by land animals. But scientists do not know just what the whale's land ancestors looked like or why they left the land or the stages of change to their present shape. The best we can do is guess, and that's what we're going to do. We show three present-day creatures which, linked together, might suggest how whales changed. We are not saying that whales actually developed from these creature's ancestors. We use them only as suggestions. Such an animal as the hairy, short-legged wolverine might have developed an appetite for fish, turned into a shorter-haired streamlined creature like the sea otter, then into something resembling a seal and finally into the present whale form. The fact that the water held him up allowed the whale to grow to his present enormous size.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Our artist has had fun drawing his imaginative four-footed whale. Have some fun with your own imagination. Draw a flying whale with wings. 1-15

AFL Stars Poised For East-West Tilt

By JACK HAND

HOUSTON AP) — The American Football League's All-Star game, hurridly transplanted to Houston from New Orleans when 21 Negro players claimed racial discrimination, will pit the pride of the Eastern Division against the best of the West Saturday afternoon at Jeppesen Stadium.

Houston Oiler officials who undergook the difficult job of promoting the game under short notice hopefully expected a crowd of 20,000 if the weatherman lives up to his forecast of cool dry weather.

There had been talk of a crowd as high as 60,000 if the game had been played in New Orleans' Sugar Bowl.

The game will be telecast at 1 p.m., CST, by the American Broadcasting Co., with the Houston area blacked out.

The West has won all three previous games in the series, pulling out a 27-24 decision last year at San Diego in the final seconds. There was no All-Star game in 1960, the league's first year.

Coach Lou Saban of the champion Buffalo Bills hanked heavily on his own Buffalo players second place Boston Patriots to put the East in the win column.

Saban will start Babe Parilli, Boston quarterback, but he will have Buffalo's Cookie Gilchrist at fullback and the Bills' Elbert Dubenion and Ernie Warlick at the ends. Larry Garron of Boston will be the running back and the elusive Charlie Hennigan of Houston at flanker.

Later in the game Saban will bring in his own quarterback Jack Kemp who led the Bills to a 20-7 victory over San Diego in the championship game at Buffalo Dec. 26. Tackle Stew Barber and guard Billy Shaw will be among the five Buffalo starters on offense.

Sid Gillman, Western coach, will have five of his San Diego Chargers in the starting line-up — tight end Dave Kocourek, flanker Lance Alworth, running back Keith Lincoln, tackle Ron Nix and guard Walt Sweeny.

Lincoln suffered a broken rib on a crashing tackle by Mike Stratton of Buffalo early in the title game but he has recovered and will play.

Alworth missed the championship game due to a knee injury suffered in the last regular season game but he also is ready to go.

Lenny Dawson, top quarterback in league official statistics with 30 touchdown passes for Kansas City, will start for the West in what is expected to be a passing duel between Dawson and Parilli. Gino Cappelletti, league-leading scorer, will be one of Parilli's top targets, spelling Hennigan at flanker.

With Gilchrist to spearhead the running attack and Garron and Sid Blanks of Houston to help, the East appears to have a strong ground game. However, the West has Clem Daniels of Oakland and Lincoln in its big man backfield and Abner Haynes and Mack Lee Hill of Kansas City in reserve.

Terps Suddenly Team To Watch

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

All of a sudden, Maryland is the team to watch in college basketball.

Overlooked in preseason calculations, the unranked Terps have jelled and now must be reckoned with in the tough Atlantic Coast Conference.

The performances of sophomores Jay McMillen of Mansfield, Pa., Gary Ward of Washington, D.C. and Joe Harrington of Phippsburg, Maine, have sparked the resurgence of the Terps.

They combined for 66 points as the Terps won their fifth straight Thursday night, a 93-85 double-overtime conquest over Wake Forest at Winston-Salem, N.C. It was Maryland's fifth ACC triumph against two defeats and knocked Wake Forest out of a triple tie for first with Duke and N.C. State at 4-1.

Maryland's triumph overshadowed Davidson's 86-77 Southern Conference victory over West Virginia at Charleston, W.Va., on a slim national program.

It was the 12th straight for the eighth-ranked Wildcats, the only team in The Associated Press Top Ten to see action.

In other games, Memphis State beat Loyola of The South at New Orleans 71-65, Wyoming downed home Denver 81-76, Virginia Tech defeated Richmond 68-58 at Blacksburg, Florida, on the road, whipped Mississippi State 74-59 and Gonzaga took Montana State U. 91-79 at Spokane.

McMillen scored 31 points, including 13 straight in the two extra periods, as Maryland upped its over-all record to 9-5, already more games than the Terps have won in each of the last three seasons. Ward chipped in with 25 and Harrington 10.

The regulation game ended 76-76 when Richard Herring of Wake Forest converted two free throws in the last 13 seconds. Bob Leonard, high for the Deacons with 37 points, tied the first overtime at 80-80 and Wake Forest went ahead in the second OT, 84-82, on Ronnie Watts' basket.

McMillen tied it and Phil Carlson hit a jump shot to put Maryland ahead for good at 86-84. Ward then hit a tap-in and two more baskets to sew it up for the Terps.

Lamar Splits Doubleheader

COLORADO CITY — Lamar Junior High basketball teams divided a doubleheader with Colorado City teams here Thursday evening, with Lamar 9th scoring a 64-37 triumph, while Colorado City 8th took a 39-38 decision.

Lamar 9th rolled to a 37-24 lead at half-time and was never headed. Mickey Allmand scored 18 points to pace the Texans, while Frank Grimmett and Tommy Bullard had 11 each, O. L. Cooper and Ronnie Shields 6 each, Dwayne Boydstun and Mike Galyean 3 each, Drake Snyder, Tony Suttle and Jerry Hardwick 2 each. Lightfoot was C-City 9th's top scorer with 8 points.

Lamar 8th was behind, 20-18 at the half, but managed to take the lead in the fourth period before C-City finally edged out for the 1-point victory. Leland Herod scored 10 points for Lamar 8th, while Doyle Gallman and Steve Holder had 9 each, Jodi Williamson and Mitch Rambin 4 each and Richie Thompson 2.

Lamar 8th and 9th will go to Big Spring on Monday night to play Runnels Junior High teams.

Fluvanna's JH Edged

LORAINE — Loraine Junior High basketball teams won two decisions over Fluvanna teams here Thursday.

Loraine girls took a 26-25 victory, while Loraine boys triumphed by 22-18. June Stansell and Charlotte Toombs scored 9 points each for Fluvanna girls, while Nannette Bruner had 7.

In the boys game, Louis Contreras scored 8, Larry Patterson and Johnny Stansell 4 each, and Joe Turner 2. Terry Brewer and Tim Hamilton paced Loraine boys with 8 points each.

Charles Thornhill, sophomore linebacker at Michigan State, tallied 219 points as a fullback at Addison High in Roanoke, Va.

Tigers Face Cubs Tonight

The Snyder Tigers were off to Brownfield today as they continued their District 3-AAA basketball slate.

The locals clash with Brownfield's Cubs tonight, with a B game launching the evening's activity at 6:15 p.m.

The Tigers, firmly entrenched in second place in the district standings, must win to stay in range of Levelland's Lobos, who have a perfect league mark with 4 victories and no defeats. The Tigers are 3-1.

The Cubs are lodged in a three-way tie just back of the Tigers, having won 1 game and lost 2.

NAMED WOMAN ATHLETE OF THE YEAR—Mickey Wright of Dallas, Tex., was named Woman Athlete of the Year by the Associated Press poll. Miss Wright has been a professional golfer for about 11 years. (AP Wirephoto)

Mickey Wright Is Top Fem Athlete

DALLAS (AP) — Golfer Mickey Wright is delighted to have been picked as the Female Athlete of the Year for the second straight time but she says she also is surprised.

"Naturally, I am delighted and honored. But I also was surprised. I didn't think I would win it a second time because 1964 was an Olympic year," she said Thursday night.

The 29-year-old blonde, who now has won more tournaments and more money than any other woman in pro golf, was the first choice of 118 voters on the Associated Press panel of about 250 sports writers and broadcasters.

With a total of 492 points, Miss Wright easily outdistanced Olympic swimmer Donna de Varona of Santa Barbara, Calif., who had 235 points for second place in the year-end poll.

Dawn Fraser, the Australian swimmer who won the Female Athlete of the Year Award in 1962, placed third, followed by tennis ace Billie Jean Moffitt and 15-year-old Olympic swimming star Sharon Stouder.

Despite an illness that kept her out of competition for a month, Miss Wright won 11 golf tournaments in 1964 to equal her 1963 record and was the leading ladies PGA money winner for the fourth straight year with $29,800.

Miss Wright has surpassed most of the golf records set by another Texan, the late Babe Didrikson Zaharias. But the Babe still holds the record for being chosen as Female Athlete of the Year in the AP poll. She won the honor six times — one for track and five times for golf.

Mickey, a former San Diego girl, who now makes her home in Dallas, will renew her lease on the Frederic C. Miller Memorial Trophy at the annual Fraternal Order of Eagles sports banquet in Milwaukee Feb. 14.

Blue, Grey Teams Win

Travis Blue and Lamar Grey won 7th grade basketball games Thursday in the Travis Gym. The Blues defeated Travis Whites, 32-23, while the Greys downed Lamar Reds, 35-30.

Merce Hernandez paced Travis Blue with 17 points, while Don Light had 7, Mark Gilstrap and Rickey Glasscock 3 each, and Howard Murphree 2. For Travis White, Wesley Bishop scored 12, Ronald Ward 7 and Dennis Carlton 4.

In the game matching the Lamar teams, Lee McNair scored 18 points for the Greys, while Phil Ator and Mike Keller had 6 each and Rickey Arnold 5. For the Reds, Steve Boydstun and Ronald Gladson had 6 each, Kent Hargrove 5, Billy Bowden and Ronnie Watkins 4 each, Brad Morgan and Darwin Belt 2 each and Te Floyd 1.

Thursday's games brought 7th action to the half-way mark. The won-lost records so far show the Blues with 5-1, Greys 4-2, Reds 2-4 and Whites 1-5.

'Hot Potato' Handed Back To AAU In Track Squabble

CHICAGO (AP) — The NCAA-AAU feud over control of amateur athletics still is a hot potato no matter whose fire it's under.

The potato again was tossed to the AAU Thursday by the NCAA Council which decided, at the close of the group's national convention, to proceed with a truce bid.

This boils down to co-sanctioning of track meets at the domestic level. The international level was not included, and that's about the only thing new.

The nub of the long power struggle between the two organizations has been the AAU's hold on international sanctioning.

Dual sanctioning long has been the NCAA's ace card in trying to negotiate a truce. Regardless of the newest wording, the AAU rebutted through its executive director, Col. Don Hull that if the proposal were aimed at dual sanctioning "we would be wasting our time talking to them."

This apparently puts the whole thing up [illegible] where it long has been.

The NCAA Council expressed sharp disappointment at "premature AAU disdain and summary dismissal" of the resolution. A meeting between the NCAA-backed U.S. Track and Field Federation and the AAU was urged.

Approval of a bylaw by the NCAA would in effect boycott AAU-sanctioned track meets after March 1. Walter Byers, executive NCAA director, said this revised code would subject schools whose athletes compete in non-federation meets to probation or censure and that it "dramatized and crystallized the issue."

"Our people are convinced that we are right on our side," said Byers. "The whole issue (of sanctioning track meets) is going to be vividly dramatized in the next few months and I think public pressure will force the AAU to re-examine its position."

Among the first to feel pressure was the venerable Cleveland Knights of Columbus indoor track meet scheduled March 19. It draws heavily on collegiate stars.

Cleveland representatives told Byers that the March 1 boycott-deadline, which permits all Eastern AAU-supported indoor track meets to be conducted without interference, was unfair. Bill Weber, director of the Cleveland meet, charged discrimination.

Blue Devils Divide Pair

LAMESA — Travis Junior High's 8th grade team surged from behind in the second half to defeat Lamesa 8th, 20-14, while Lamesa 9th won a 57-43 decision over Travis 9th here Thursday.

Lamesa 9th took a 32-20 lead in the first half, and a fourth period rally by Travis was not enough. Albert Rodriguez scored 11 points to pace Travis 9th, while Ted Winter had 7, Jerry Smedley 5, Jerry Luttrell, Bennie Garrett and Raymond Rodriguez 4 each, Gus Tovar and Alton Patterson 3 each, and Jimmy Ramage 2. Gollnick paced Lamesa 9th with 20 points.

In the 8th grade game, Bennie Ward roped 13 points for Travis. Ken Sehested had 4, George Kay 2 and Danny Brinner 1. Mills and Kinard had 4 each for Lamesa 8th.

Travis 8th was behind, 7-11 at the half, but tied the score at 12-12 in the third and then limited Lamesa 8th to two points in the fourth period.

The two Travis teams play Big Spring Goliad in the Travis Gym next Monday evening.

To Discuss New Coach

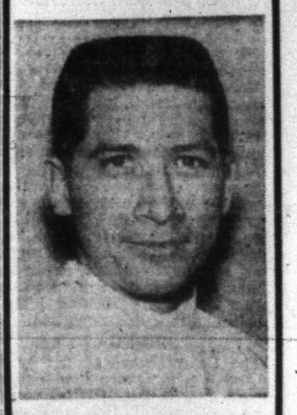

DALLAS (AP) — The addition of an assistant football coach is due to be the main order of business when Southern Methodist University's faculty athletic committee meets Saturday.

And all indications point to Chuck Curtis as the man who will get the job.

Curtis, the 29-year-old coaching ace who has chalked up three straight state schoolboy championships, said earlier this week he would leave Garland to accept a job as assistant coach with some Southwest college but he declined to name the school.

Dr. Edwin D. Mouzon, chairman of the faculty athletic committee, said Thursday that head football coach and athletic director Hayden Fry has been looking for another assistant coach but had not yet made a recommendation to the committee.

Wilt Says He May Retire At End Of Current Season

By RON BERGMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain might retire at the end of this National Basketball Association season, leaving the Philadelphia 76ers holding an empty money bag.

The 76ers paid a reported $75,000 Wednesday night to the San Francisco Warriors for the 7-foot-1 scoring machine. Philadelphia threw in a reserve center-forward with a recent history of fainting spells, one of the shortest guards in the league and a forward who has yet to play his first NBA minute this season.

Superficially, this sounds worse than it actually is for the Warriors. But if Chamberlain plays only the three remaining months of the season and retires at the ripe young age of 28, it's a financial bath for the 76ers without the bubbles.

"I told him he made a bad deal," Chamberlain said Thursday about Philadelphia co-owner Ike Richman. "I'm not sure how long I'll play.

"I take one year at a time," Chamberlain continued. "Right now, I'm not sure what I'll be doing next season."

Chamberlain said there were many reasons why he was considering retirement, but he didn't want to name them yet.

Richman, a close friend and lawyer of the highest paid NBA player, took an equally short sighted view from his Philadelphia law office.

"Wilt told me he would only talk about one year," said Richman. "That's all right with me.

"Let the future take care of itself, I know I have Chamberlain this year — definitely.

"I expect to have him for many more years. However, he has a right to do what he thinks is best for himself. And, when he makes that decision, when he wants to retire, we will always remain friends."

The Warriors play the New York Knicks in San Francisco's Civic Auditorium tonight without the services of two of their acquisitions and, perhaps, without the other.

Paul Neumann, the 6-foot-1 ex-Stanford star, said he might wait for the Warriors to come East. Lee Shaffer, who refused to play this season for the 76ers, definitely isn't in shape and probably won't be around. And Connie Dierking didn't appear for practice in San Francisco Thursday.

Chamberlain was given a week to rest, treat his broken nose and say goodby to friends in San Francisco. So the first game he plays for the 76ers could be against the Warriors.

Neumann, a hot-shooting guard, averaged 11.6 last season as a part-time player.

Shaffer, a 6-7 forward from North Carolina, averaged 13.1 last season and 18.6 the year before. Hannum said Shaffer could be one of the greatest players in the league but expressed some concern over his injured knee. They talked for hours last Sunday with the 76ers' permission.

Dierking, a 6-9 graduate of Cincinnati, suffered fainting spells this season. Medical tests failed to show anything physically wrong with him.

Chance For Recovery Seen For Ailing United Nations

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — There's a lot of talk about the precarious state of the United Nations' health, but the prevalent prognosis at headquarters is that the patient will live.

Most U.N. diplomats believe that neither a U.S.-Soviet showdown on peacekeeping assessments nor the withdrawal of Indonesia from the world organization will be fatal. But there may be some scars.

The United Nations was given up for dead several times in the past but made surprising recoveries.

This happened in 1950 when the Russians began a general boycott of U.N. meetings in an attempt to force the seating of Red China. It happened again in 1956 at the time of the Hungarian-Suez crises.

Other critical periods for the organization were in 1960 when Nikita Khrushchev launched his so-called "troika" plan to replace the secretary-general with a three-man executive group, and in 1961 when Dag Hammarskjold was killed in an African plane crash.

Each time gloom settled over U.N. headquarters. Dire predictions were heard, just as now. Some of the more pessimistic are recalling events leading to the collapse of the League of Nations and noting certain similarities.

They could be right. But a majority of U.N. diplomats diagnose the case this way:

If the General Assembly votes to uphold the U.S. position and suspend the voting rights of the Soviet Union, France and 16 other countries, there may be walkouts and other gestures of protest. But there will be no mass withdrawal from the United Nations.

If the Russians win, the United States would be embarrassed and might even cut its financial support of the U.N. to some extent. But it would not go so far as to wreck the organization.

One indication that the Russians do not expect the U.N. to collapse is the fact that they have made two contributions in the past four weeks totaling $5 million. They might have held off if they had been expecting to withdraw.

In some ways, the organization has shown signs of strength in the midst of the current crisis. Many of its specialized agencies continue to expand and have launched ambitious plans for the future. U.N. membership continues to grow. Last month three new countries were admitted.

And the reaction to Indonesia's withdrawal must have been extremely disappointing to President Sukarno. With the exception of Red China, which itself is outside the organization, Indonesia got no support. No country showed any inclination to follow.

State Solons Eye Two Possibilities On Redistricting

AUSTIN (AP)— The Legislative Council suggested two possible solutions this week to the politically painful question of drawing new congressional districts.

Either plan could result in at least two congressional races in 1966 in which incumbents would oppose one another.

The proposals are only advisory and probably will be followed by many plans as legislators try to figure out the best way to comply by Aug. 1 with the Supreme Court's "one man-one vote" edict.

How would the two plans affect your county? Labelled "Plan A" and "Plan B," here is how they would divide the state:

Dist. 1: "A"—Bowie, Cass, Marion, Harrison, Morris, Titus, Red River, Lamar, Franklin, Delta, Hopkins, Rains, Hunt, Fannin, Kaufman, Rockwall, Collin, and part of north Dallas County; "B"—Bowie, Cass, Marion, Harrison, Panola, Rusk, Gregg, Upshur, Morris, Titus, Camp, Wood, Smith. (Rep. Wright Patman is of Bowie County; Lindley Beckworth of Gregg, and Ray Roberts of Collin.)

Dist. 2: "A"—Panola, Shelby, Sabine, San Augustine, Angelina, Nacogdoches, Rusk, Gregg, Upshur, Camp, Wood, Smith, Cherokee, Van Zandt, Henderson; "B"—Shelby, Sabine, Newton, Orange, Jasper, San Augustine, Nacogdoches, Angelina, Tyler, Hardin, Liberty, San Jacinto, Polk, Trinity, Cherokee, Houston, Leon, Anderson, Henderson. (Rep. John Dowdy is of Henderson County, Beckworth of Gregg.)

Dist. 3: "A"—Newton, Jasper, Orange, Jefferson, Hardin, Tyler, Polk Liberty; "B"—Jefferson, Chambers, Galveston. (Rep. Clark Thompson is of Galveston, Jack Brooks of Jefferson County.)

Dist. 4: "A"—Anderson, Houston, Trinity, San Jacinto, Montgomery, Welker, Grimes, Brazos, Madison, Leon Anderson, Freestone, Navarro, Ellis, Johnson and the southern parts of Dallas and Tarrant counties; "B" — Red River, Franklin, Lamar, Delta, Hopkins, Rains, Van Zandt, Kaufman, Hunt Fannin, Rockwall, Collin, Grayson, Cooke and part of north Dallas County. (Note: the same district number is used, but the areas covered differ completely between the two plans.)

Dist. 5: "A"— Chambers, Galveston, Brazoria, Matagorda, Calhoun, Victoria, Jackson, Lavaca, Wharton, Fort Bend; "B"—Brazoria Matagorda, Jackson, Calhoun, Aransas, Refugio, Goliad, San Patricio, Nueces.

Dist. : "A"—Aransas, Nueces, San Patricio, Refugio, Bee, Goliad, Dewitt, Karnes, Wilson, Gonzales, Guadalupe; "B"—Fayette Bastrop, Lee, Burleson, Brazos, Grimes, Montgomery, Walker, Madison, Robertson, Milam, Falls, Limestone, Freestone, Navarro, Hill, Ellis, and part of Southern Dallas County. (Note: The areas covered by the th district differ completely in the two plans).

Dist. 7: "A"—Kleberg, Kenedy, Willacy Cameron, Hidalgo, Starr, Brooks; "B" identical to "A"

Dist. 8: "A"—Val Verde, Kinney, Uvalde, Medina, Maverick, Zavala, Frio, Atascosa, Dimmit, LaSalle, McMullen, Live Oak, Webb, Duval, Jim Wells, Zapata Jim Hogg, and part of Bexar County ringing most of San Antonio; "B"—identical to "A", except for the addition of Bee County, and slight differences in dividing Bexar County.

Dist. 9: "A"—Edwards, Real, Banera, Kendall, North Bexar County, Kerr, Gillespie, Kimble, Sutton, Crockett, Schleicher, Menard, Mason, Llano San Saba, Mills, McCulloch, Concho, Tom Green, Irion, Reagan, Upton, Crane, Ector, Glasscock, Sterling, Coke; "B"—Waller, Fort Bend Wharton, Austin, Washington, Colorado, Lavaca, Victoria, Dewitt, Karnes, Wilson, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Comal, Caldwell, Hays and northeast Bexar County. (The district occupies different parts of the state under the two Comal, Caldwell, Hays, and northeast Bexar County. (The district occupies different parts of the state under the two plans.

Dist. 10: "A"—Waller, Austin, Washington Colorado, Burleson, Fayette, Lee, Bastrop, Caldwell, Travis, Hays, Comal, Blanco, Burnet; "B"—Travis, Williamson, Burnet, Blanco, Llano, Gillespie, Kendall, Bandera, Kerr, Real Edwards, Mason, Kimble, Menard, Sutton, Schleicher, Tom Green, Irion. (Rep. J. J. Pickle is of Travis Count, O. C. Fisher of Tom Green).

Dist. 11: "A"—Robertson, Limestone, Falls, Milam, Williamson, Bell, McLennan, Hill Bosque, Corvell, Lampasas; "B"—Bell, McLennan, Bosque, Corvell, Lampasas, Hamilton, Erath, Hood, Somervell, Johnson, South Tarrant County.

Dist. 12: "A"—Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Stephens Palo Pinto, Parker, Mitchell, Nolan, Taylor, Callahan, Eastland, Runnels, Coleman, Brown, Comanche, Erath, Hood, Somervell, Hamilton, West Tarrant" County; "B"—Most of Tarrant County including Fort Worth. (Areas for the district differ between the plans.)

Dist. 13: "A"—Kent, Stonewall, Haskell, Throckmorton, Young, Jack, Wise, Denton, Grayson, Cooke, Montague, Clay, Archer, Wichita, gwilbarger, Baylor Kn Foard, Hardeman, King, Dickens, Crosby; "B"—Parker, Denton, part of North Tarrant County, Wise, Montague, Jack, Clay, Young Archer, Wichita, Wilbarger, Baylor, Throckmorton, Haskell, Knox, Foard, Hardeman, Stonewall, King, Kent, Dickens, Floyd, Crosby, Garza.

Dist. 14 in plan "A" corresponds roughly with Dist. 16 in plan "B" and vice versa. The two are compared as follows:

Plan "A" Dist. 14—Dallam, Sherman, Hansford Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hartley, Moore, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Oldham, Potter, Carson, Gray, Wheeler, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Donley, Collingsworth, Parmer Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Hall, Childress, Hale, Floyd, Motley; Cottle; "B" Dist. 16 — Dalam Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hartley Moore, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Oldham, Potter, Carson, Gray, Wheeler, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong Donley, Collingsworth, Parmer, Bailey, Castro, Swisher, Hale, Briscoe, Hall, Childress, Motley, Cottle.

Plan "A" Dist. 16—El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Reeves, Loving Winkler, Ward, Pecos, Terrell; Plan "B" Dist. 14—El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Reeves, Loving, Winkler, Ward, Crane, Pecos, Terrell Upton, Reagan, Crockett.

Other districts:

Dist. 15: "A"—Bailey, Lamb, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Gaines, Dawson, Borden, Andrews, Martin, Midland, Howard; "B"—Midland, Glasscock, Sterling, Coke, Runnels, Coleman, Brown, Mills, Concho, McCulloch, San Saba, Comanche Mitchell, Nolan, Taylor, Callahan, Eastland, Borden, Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Stephens, Palo Pinto.

Dist. 17: "A"—Major part of Tarrant County, including Fort Worth; "B"—Lamb, Cochran, Hockley Lubbock, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Gaines, Dawson, Andrews, Martin, Howard, Ector (Closely resembles Dist. 15 of "A".)

Metropolitan districts:

Dallas: In both plans, Dist. 18 is western third of county. Dist. 19, the central and northeastern portion of county. Rest of county assigned to adjacent districts.

Bexar: Central portion in Dist. 20 in both plans, with rest of the county assigned to other districts.

Harris: Divided into Dist. 21 (northern half), 22 (center section running across county, and 23 (southern corner) in each plan.

Tarrant: Dist. 24 in plan "A" — 17 in "B" with excess population assigned to surrounding districts.

Actress June Allison Hospitalized Thursday

SUMMIT, N.J. (AP) — Actress June Allyson was hospitalized Thursday night after suffering what was described as a kidney stone attack in a playhouse dressing room.

She was reported in satisfactory condition and resting comfortably today at Overlook Hospital.

The 39-year-old petite blonde was stricken with vomiting and pains shortly before she was to go on stage at the Paper Mill Playhouse in nearby Millburn, a suburb 20 miles southwest of New York City.

Dr. Anthony F. Coppola, who was summoned to the dressing room said she'll probably be in the hospital for several days.

Tennessee Gas Co. Would Expand Lines

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. of Houston has asked the Federal Power Commission for authority to increase the capacity of its Texas-to-New England natural gas pipeline system.

The new facilities will cost about $18.9 million. The FPC said Thursday any protest or petitions to intervene must be filed by Feb. 10.

Tennessee proposes construction work in Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and Massachusetts. It said the additional capacity is needed to meet growing requirements of present customers.

North America was first peopled by nomads who crossed from Asia, perhaps 30,000 years ago.

Texas GOPs Gather In Dallas

DALLAS (AP)—Texas Republican leaders, described as "very disappointed by the 1964 elections," flocked to Dallas today with an eye toward the future.

The State Republican Executive Committee meets officially Saturday. Some groups were getting together tonight at a cocktail party.

On hand will be state chairman Peter O'Donnell Jr. of Dallas, Sen. John Tower of Wichita Falls, State Rep. Frank Cahoon of Midland—the only GOP member of the Texas House, defeated U.S. Senate candidate George Bush of Houston, the 62 members of the state committee and two national committee members.

O'Donnell said budget matters will be decided and plans laid for Tower's re-election campaign in 1966.

What was to have been the main issue—how the committee stood on the retention of Dean Burch as national party chairman—became moot this week as Burch said he was stepping down.

O'Donnell said Republicans around the state were "very disappointed by the 1964 elections" but most were determined to continue to fight the GOP's cause in 1966 and 1968.

"We want to get back in the ball game," he said.

An exhibit of the Dead Sea Scrolls will be shown at the Smithsonian Institution from Feb. 27 to March 21. Then the scrolls will go on tour to museums in Philadelphia, Berkeley, Omaha and Baltimore.

37th Church of Christ

There will be Bible classes for all ages Sunday at 9:45 a.m. at the Thirty - seventh Street Church of Christ. Everyone is invited.

At the 10:45 a.m. worship hour, Maxie B. Boren will speak on the subject, "Standing for the Right." Cor. I 16:13 and Eph. 6:10-17. At 5 p.m. there will be classes for children from the third grade level through high school, and the evening worship will follow at 6 o'clock. The public is invited to attend all worship and study periods.

"Five Minutes with the Master" is a five-minute program presented each week-day morning at 8:15 over KSNY. This week Mr. Boren has discussed the theory of organic evolution as presented in three BSCS biology textbooks which are among five being considered by the Snyder School District. He has urged interested citizens to take a stand on the matter by expressing themselves in letters to the superintendent of schools and the board of education. Selection of the book to be used will be made by the first or second week in March, which means the time is relatively short.

Growers Say Braceros Are Necessity

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Agriculture Committee takes a look today at the farm labor supply and the complaints of some growers that they can't get along without foreign workers.

Farm employers, ranging from producers of specialty crops now ready for harvest in southern California to sugar growers in Florida and shade-grown tobacco producers in Connecticut, are on the witness list for a special hearing.

Labor unions, religious groups and farm organizations also have asked to be heard, along with representatives of the Labor, Agriculture and State Departments.

A special Mexican farm labor (bracero) program ended Dec. 31.

Farm employers dependent upon the program in effect since 1950 are complaining that they cannot get enough domestic workers to meet seasonal peaks in cultivating and harvesting crops, and that many find the work so hard they quit after a few hours or days. Several packing houses reportedly have been closed by the resulting slowdown in the harvest.

The Labor Department recently proposed a set of wage minima and other employment standards that farm operators would have to meet to be eligible for recruiting of temporary foreign labor under the regular immigration laws.

Invitation To Peruvians Mushrooms

BAIRD, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. W. P. Brightwell and Mrs. A. E. Dyer Sr. sort of said "youall come to see us sometime," and so here come about 100 Peruvian students.

They will be hosts to the students Feb. 5 while the South Americans spend about two weeks in the San Antonio area.

The ladies toured Peru for three weeks last July and August as members of a group named "Asociacion de Hermanos Peruanos-Texanos."

They issued an invitation, expecting 10 to 15 to show up, said Mrs. Dyer. "But we are going to be able to take care of them all," she said after the number mushroomed.

About 125 students and military cadets will make the tour, beginning Jan. 29. They may visit Gov. John Connally in Austin.

Peruvian Consul Walter Meyer at San Antonio said the group will be returning a visit by 28 Texas students to Peru last summer in a program sponsored by the Texas Peruvian Brotherhood.

Cadets from the military school will spend only one week in the state before traveling to Miami and then to Panama. The others, primarily high school and college students, will stay two weeks, mostly in the San Antonio area.

Among other things, they hope to see President Johnson's ranch near Johnson City.

On Feb. 2 the group will be in Austin to see Gov. Connally and watch the legislature.

In San Antonio the cadets will live at St. Mary's University, and the others will stay in private homes.

At Baird the students will see a high school basketball game, something they requested.

They also will watch a cattle roundup while at Baird, will eat the traditional barbecue and attend a square dance.

State Legistators Ponder Tax Plan

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas legislators had their first new tax money recommendation to think over today.

A total of $15.3 million in new revenue can be raised by just revising present tax law, a special study committee reported.

Both houses adjourned Thursday after three days of ceremonies and chit-chat routine in opening the 59th regular session. They will meet again at 10:30 a.m. Monday.

A sizeable portion of the House and Senate may be missing, however, to attend the Jan. 20 inauguration of President Johnson in Washington.

Gov. John Connally and other state officials are flying north Sunday, expecting to return about Jan. 21. Some predict up to 1,200 Texans will watch their fellow Texan sworn.

The Senate approved an official five-man delegation to attend the swearing-in ceremony. Speaker Ben Barnes told the House that any member wanting to attend, at his own expense, would be named an official delegate.

One important bit of business awaiting the Senate Monday will be a resolution postponing Connally's own inauguration for a second term until Jan. 26. The House approved the change Thursday.

Technically, until the Senate acts, Connally is still scheduled to be sworn Jan. 19.

Another vital ritual will be the canvass of Nov. 3 votes by a joint House-Senate committee to the governor and lieutenant governor elected.

Before heading home for the weekend the Texas Committee on State and Local Tax Policy recommended changes in the tax structure which it said would yield $15.3 million additional revenue. The committee is a nine-member study group of legislators and outsiders named by the 1963 Legislature.

Some of the committee's recommendations would reduce revenue by repealing what it called outmoded or inequitable levies. Other changes would produce more revenue principally by changes in the sales tax law.

Briefly, the committee recommended repeal of the entertainment admissions tax, a $1.2 million loss for the next two years; repeal of the chain store tax, a loss of $7.2 million; making the sales tax applicable to telegraph and telephone service, a gain of $11.2 million; removal of the farm machinery exemption under the sales tax, a gain of $9 million; exemption of natural gas used in the same field where it was produced, a loss of $2.5 million, and modernization of the inheritance tax, a gain of $6 million.

WORLD PEACE

WORLD PEACE! That cry comes straight from every heart today. We must not lose heart, we must continue to believe in God and His good will for His world. War is wrong! War is contrary to all the teachings of Jesus. God is no more satisfied than we are with our war-torn earth. Our Lord is the Prince of Peace; His ways are the ways of truth and love. He is calling us to work with Him more faithfully and more intelligently. We have been war-making instead of peace-making.

HAVE we trusted that somebody else would make Peace? Have we trusted that Kings would bring about peace? Their very position makes them war-makers. Our demand that they bring prosperity to the people at the expense of another is a war demand. Have we trusted armies to make Peace? Again we have erred. Their very business is war-making; they must subdue other armies. Have we expected that economic treaties would make Peace? Again, the business of the world is highly competitive; investors demand profits from their money and their toil... profits that come from economic victory. INTERNATIONAL CONFLICT CAN BE SOLVED; WORLD PEACE MUST COME. How?

CHRIST is our answer, and we must answer to Christ. RELIGION IS OUR HOPE; RELIGIOUS PEOPLE WHO FOLLOW THE GREAT TEACHER AND FRIEND AND SAVIOR WILL MAKE PEACE. The Cross is the symbol of Peace. SWORDS MUST GIVE WAY TO PLOUGHSHARES, AND SPEARS MUST BE REFASHIONED INTO PRUNING-HOOKS. What is that word you spoke yesterday? Did it make for Peace or for strife? When you finished the business transaction, did you leave a friend on the other side of the bargain? THE PRINCE OF PEACE IS NOT A RULER OF MEN, BUT A FRIEND AND A SUFFERING SERVANT. Are you and I willing to suffer in the cause of Peace? We have suffered enough for war. Our boys want to live, and to live abundantly; to construct, not destroy; to love, not hate. Peace will cost us much; kind words, generous dealings, goodwill, helpfulness and patience and self-control. Do we pray first for our own success, or for Peace? God is the Peace-maker; Peace-makers are the children of God. Grace and Peace belong together; graciousness of spirit will go ahead of abiding Peace. Are you and I gracious toward every other person? PEACE IS A MATTER OF SPIRIT AND OF SACRIFICIAL BEHAVIOR. We are being watched. Shall we make sacrifice for Peace? Shall we forget the Crown and the Thorn? Shall we carry a cross?

THE SNYDER DAILY NEWS

VOL. 15, NO. 223 SNYDER, TEXAS (79549) FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1965 EIGHT PAGES—PRICE 5c

Oil Allowable Up Slightly

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission ordered February oil production in Texas held to 29.4 per cent of potential today, a slight increase over January.

The action came at a proration hearing, at which two purchasers asked for an increase over the January factor of 29.2 per cent.

Under the new percentage, February production will be held to an allowable of 2,583,822 barrels daily.

The January allowable was set at 2,938,083 barrels. The February 1964 allowable was set at 2,919,705 barrels daily under a 29 per cent order.

Purchasers earlier had submitted nominations indicating February demand at 2,548,520 barrels daily, down slightly from January. The Bureau of Mines forecast for February demand is 2.8 million barrels, an increase of 10,000 barrels daily over January.

Nominations by percentage and barrels includes:

30 per cent—Texaco 141,000 barrels.

29.5—Humble, 429,675.

29—Standard of Texas 37,800; Sun 107,088; Gulf 213,015.

28.5—Mobil 238,900.

28—Shell 170,000; Atlantic Refining 76,140.

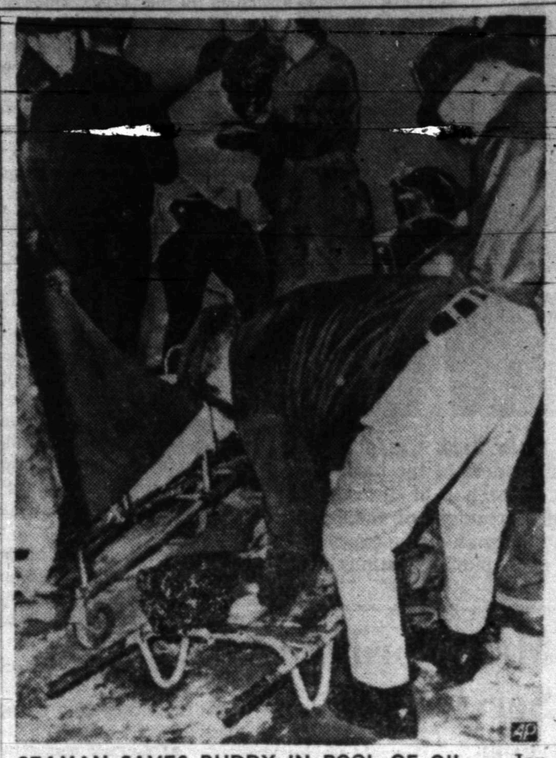

27.5—Continental 26,000.

27 — Cities Service 82,000; Pan-American Petroleum Corp. 250,785; Phillips 122,571; Sinclair 101,000.

Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey praised Ernest O. Thompson, who retired recently from the agency, and introduced his successor, Byron Tunnell, as a "public official who has been noted for his courage, firmness and equity in all matters."

Tunnell said of Thompson: "Succeed him I shall, but I'm sure I'll never replace him."

Ramsey said Thompson joined the commission during a time of "chaos and distress in a great industry and molded a set of conservation laws, rules and regulations" that have been copied by many regulatory agencies.

LBJ Asks Extension Of Disarmament Panel

Seeks 4 Year Renewal Pact

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to extend the life of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency for four years to "assure the continuing leadership of the United States in the purposeful pursuit of peace."

Congressional approval of the recommendation, along with the President's request for $55 million for the agency's expenses over the next four years, appeared certain.

Johnson told Congress a determined effort to halt the spread of nuclear weapons over the world is essential to the security of the United States. He made clear that nonproliferation is a foremost objective of his disarmament policy.

Despite the vast defensive power of this country, the President said in letters to the House and Senate, the effort to stop the spreading of nuclear weapons "is essential to our security, for a continued increase and spread of modern weapons can actually decrease our security."

An accompanying letter by agency Director William C. Foster said the legislation will be required to keep the agency operating because the present authorization does not provide adequate funds beyond the end of the present fiscal year, June 30.

"Attempts directed toward arms control and other measures to lessen the threat of war are no longer Utopian dreams," Foster said.

He added: "The work of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency has become an integral part of our over-all national security policy. Armaments alone can no longer increase security; the unchecked increase of these weapons of mass destruction can only diminish our safety in the hope for peace."

Johnson noted that four years ago the United States became the first nation in the world to establish such an agency.

He said it had a good record of achievement, citing the conclusion in 1963 of the limited nuclear test-ban treaty by the United States, Soviet Union and Britain. The treaty, which bans all but underground tests, now has been signed by a total of 107 nations. France and Red China have not signed. They are the only nations in addition to the United States, Soviet Union and Britain who have nuclear weapons or are building them.

Furthermore, Johnson said, the United States has established a direct communications link between Washington and Moscow — popularly known as the Hot Line — has joined in a U.N. resolution against introducing weapons in outer space, and has "initiated cutbacks in the planned production of fissionable material."

In addition, the President said, the United States has put before the Geneva disarmament conference — now temporarily in recess — "a number of important, concrete proposals for the control and reduction of armaments on which agreement has not yet been achieved."

Hundreds Due To Attend Annual C-C Banquet Here

Several hundred persons are expected to assemble in the Snyder High School Cafeteria this evening to hear the Hon. Preston Smith, Texas Lieutenant Governor, at the annual banquet of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce.

The banquet meal will be served at 7 p.m. and the program will follow.

During the course of the evening, the Chamber of Commerce will present its new officers and directors for 1965, the "Outstanding Citizen Award" will be presented, and special entertainment will be provided.

The Rev. Miller Robinson, pastor of Colonial Hill Baptist Church, will be master of ceremonies. The Rev. James E. Tidwell, pastor of First Methodist Church, will give the invocation, while Bill Seale will present special awards and Badger Robertson, recipient of the honor last year, will present the "Outstanding Citizen Award."

Lt. Gov. Smith will interrupt a busy schedule to come here. He has been in Austin throughout the week where the Texas Legislature has been organizing for a new session. As lieutenant governor, Smith has the vital responsibility of presiding over the State Senate.

He is scheduled to arrive in Snyder at about 6:30 p.m. and go directly to the banquet site.

The 38th Lieutenant Governor of Texas, Smith has made his slogan, "Working for Texas," well-known throughout the state. Long identified with the word "work," he was born on a farm near Georgetown, the seventh child in a family that came to count 13 children. He attended public schools in Williamson and Gaines Counties, working his way through high school at Lamesa and college at Texas Tech.

Smith was elected to the Texas House of Representatives in 1944, and served there for six years before voluntarily giving up the post. In 1956 he was returned to the legislature, this time as State Senator for an 11-county district. After serving six years there, he moved up to the lieutenant governor's race, ultimately winning the post by a big majority. In 1964 he was returned for a second term as lieutenant governor, again by an overwhelming majority.

As a legislator, Smith was the author, co-author or active sponsor of bills establishing a permanent building fund for state colleges, creating the present underground water code, providing stability for the farm-to-market road system, and installing the "Gilmer-Aikin Program" to improve public schools. During his first session as lieutenant governor, the legislature passed measures to enlarge the state's higher education system, regulate small loan companies, extend women's legal rights in the areas of property ownership and transfer, and create the Texas Tourist Development Agency. He has made many talks throughout the state on the need for expanding tourism and industrialization in Texas, to improve the general economy and provide employment.

New officers of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce who will be introduced tonight are W. Felix Jones, president; Bill Seale, first vice president; Bentley Baize, second vice president, and Dr. Jack Nesbit, treasurer.

The 1964 officers are John Boren, president; Jones, first vice president; Herbert Feather, second vice president, and H. A. Johnson, treasurer.

New directors are Charles Blakey, Ed Dickerson, Billy McCormick, Dr. Nesbit, Seale and R. E. Weber. Holdover directors are Jones, Baize, Feather Johnson and Doug McGlaun. Also to serve this year as ex-officio members of the board are Sallie Blythe, representing the B&PW Club, Dean Floyd of the Jaycees, and Boren.

Retiring directors are Gene Best, Carl Whitfield, Paul Sizemore, Sterling Parker, Guy Sullivan and R. C. Patton.

RIGHT TO WORK

Labor Promised Repeal Of Law

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several hundred AFL-CIO leaders from all over the nation headed home today to spread the word that organized labor has a promise of speedy action on its No. 1 goal in Congress—repeal of Section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act.

This is the so-called "right-to-work" section of federal labor law that allows the states to prohibit contracts that require all employes to join a union.

Chairman Adam Clayton Powell of the House Education and Labor Committee told the 800 labor leaders attending a legislative conference that hearings will begin Jan. 25. He said the repeal bill would be sent to the House floor by March 1.

This was the first firm word of action on the measure. Previously, administration spokesmen from President Johnson on down had been vague about the timing of the repeal legislation, which is sure to set off a pitched battle in Congress.

Rep. Frank Thompson Jr., D-N.J., whose labor subcommittee will conduct the hearings, said:

"We are going to have a hard time. It isn't going to be easy." Johnson reportedly wants to get some other prime administration goals, particularly health care, out of the way before the 14B fight starts.

The health care for the aged measure reportedly still will get priority in the House.

Informed sources said the timing of the 14B repeal measure was worked out between Johnson and AFL-CIO President George Meany.

Powell stepped out ahead of Johnson and pleased the AFL-CIO leaders by announcing he will propose legislation on two prime labor goals still opposed by the administration.

One will be to increase the federal minimum wage from $1.25 to $2 over three years and the other to cut the standard work week from 40 to 32 hours over two years.

He said he expects to get these as well as all other labor bills before the House by March 1.

In pledging fast action on repeal of 14B, Powell warned that in return he expected organized labor to wipe out all vestiges of discrimination in union apprenticeship and training programs.

Viet Nam Mishap Kills 2 Americans

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two Americans were killed and two injured today when their helicopter hit a power line while escorting a road convoy nine miles north of Saigon.

The pilot, an enlisted gunner and a Vietnamese observer died in the crash. The co-pilot and another gunner were injured, and the co-pilot was reported in serious condition.

The crash apparently was accidental. No hostile ground fire was reported.

The deaths raised the number of American servicemen killed in Viet Nam from causes other than enemy action to 109 since December 1961. Another 249 have been killed in action against the Communist Viet Cong.

Communist terrorists Thursday night attacked downtown Thu Dau Mot, 15 miles north of Saigon, exploding two mines and throwing several grenades. At least five Vietnamese civilians were killed and 20 wounded. One of the blasts decapitated one of the terrorists.

There were indications in Saigon that anti-government demonstrations may soon be halted. Two representatives of a central Vietnamese student group opposing the civilian government called on the chief of state, Phan Khac Suu.

About 300 leading Buddhist monks have been meeting at their Saigon headquarters the past two days, planning new strategy. The monks apparently were intent on a continued anti-government line, but informants said the monks were trying to halt demonstrations.

Death Claims Jeanette MacDonald

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Gene Raymond makes a mournful journey to Hollywood today with the body of his wife, Jeanette MacDonald, lovely songbird of a lilting era in American movies, who died of a heart ailment in Houston Thursday. She was 57.

Her death brought an end to a brilliant stage and film career and to her 27-year marriage — a childless one. Her last words to Raymond came in a Houston hospital, where she had been flown Tuesday to undergo heart surgery.

"I love you," she whispered.

"I love you, too," he replied.

She died a few minutes later.

The auburn-haired soprano had left her Beverly Hills home in serious but not critical condition as the result of a longtime cardiovascular ailment.

She had been operated upon in June 1963 by Dr. Michael E. DeBakey, who recently performed abdominal surgery on the Duke of Windsor. In December, she had an operation for abdominal adhesions at UCLA Medical Center.

No More UN Money, Soviet Union Says

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union said today it has paid the last of its 1964 United Nations bills. It reiterated refusal to contribute to U.N. peacekeeping operations.

"Yesterday the delegations of the U.S.S.R., the Ukraine and Byelorussia paid their last installments to the regular U.N. budget for 1964," said Tass, the Soviet news agency.

Bank Slate Re-Elected

All officers were re-elected Thursday at the annual stockholders meeting of West Texas State Bank.

The officers of the bank include Wayne Boren, chairman of the board; H. H. Eiland, chairman of the executive committee; H. W. Cargile, president; Martin Brooks, executive vice president; Bill Eiland, vice president; Dale Stuard, cashier; Jeanelle Allen, Syble Bley and Max Shaw, assistant cashiers.

Directors are Boren, Cargile, Brooks, H. H. Eiland, Bill Eiland, Herman Doak, Dan Gibson, C. V. Thompson and Nathan Wade.

Sir Winston Seriously Ill

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill today suffered a cerebral thrombosis—a blood clot in the brain—and there was widespread concern that the 90-year-old statesman might be at the end of the road.

A medical bulletin from his doctors said Sir Winston also has developed a circulatory weakness, which would appear to indicate that his heart is flagging or that there was a fairly general blockage of the arteries.

The medical bulletin, issued by his personal physician Lord Moran, said:

"After a cold, Sir Winston has developed a circulatory weakness and there has been a cerebral thrombosis."

Sir Winston was 90 last Nov. 30.

"He's had a cold for several days," said Sir Winston's son, Randolph Churchill, from his country house at East Bergholt, Suffolk County.

Lord Moran, Sir Winston's private physician, said he would call at the home of Britain's great wartime leader late today.

After that visit—and a check-up—Lord Moran is expected to issue a medical bulletin on the health of his famous patient.

"He has his ups and downs. At his age every illness must be regarded as a serious one," Randolph said.

"This is a cold, however, and so far as I know, it's nothing more."

"In the past, he has suffered a number of illnesses and had at least two strokes.

Invariably, he has bounced back, and birthday after birthday for the last five years or more, he has been able to totter to the ground-floor windows of his London home at Hyde Park Gate, smile and give his famous V-for-victory sign to well-wishers congregated outside.

On his last birthday, Lady Churchill, Sir Winston's Darling Clementine, held her husband's arm as he moved slowly to the window. He looked extremely pale.

After he slowly made his V sign with the first two fingers of his right hand, Sir Winston was gently led away by his wife.

Lady Churchill will be 80 in April.

Jurors Hear Estes Story By Pistol-Toting Associate

PECOS, Tex. (AP)— Jurors heard a former associate of Billie Sol Estes tell Thursday how he carried a pistol in search of the West Texas promoter but "couldn't get to him because he was preaching."

The same witness, J. C. Williamson of Midland, also testified that Estes became incoherent in the spring of 1962 when it became clear his $150 million interests in fertilizer sales, grain storage and cotton growing were being wiped out.

Williamson was a witness in a $4 million suit against Estes and others. The suit, brought by four other Midland men, also asks they be freed of responsibility for $1.3 in fertilizer tank mortgages held by the Walter E. Heller Co. of Chicago.

Williamson, who identified himself as an oilman and rancher, said he was among various persons induced by Estes to sign mortgages on tanks which were never built. Estes in turn sold the mortgages to Heller and other finance companies. He now is appealing prison sentences for fraud and swindling.

Estes telephoned March 7, 1962, to advise that he no longer could pay lease rentals on tanks against which Williamson had borrowed, the witness testified. He quoted Estes as saying "There just ain't no tanks."

Williamson said this so angered him that he came to Pecos with a gun but was unable to reach Estes, then busy as a lay preacher in the pulpit of the Church of Christ.

Explaining that he also is a writer, Williamson said his anger subsided and he subsequently entered into a $100,000 deal to do a biography of Estes, whose wife was to receive half the money. He did not indicate that the book ever was written.

Shortly before the March 29 arrest of Estes, Williamson related that "even while some of Estes' best friends were being carried out on stretchers because they were so upset, there he was giggling and incoherent."

J. C. Barnes Jr., one of the four plaintiffs in the case, followed Williamson to the stand. Barnes testified briefly about dining with Estes and Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., in October, 1961.

Two Patients Die In Blaze

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A brief, but blistering, general-alarm fire killed two women patients Thursday night at the State Mental Hospital. More than 1,000 other patients were threatened but quick work by firemen and others prevented greater tragedy.

About 1,200 patients, some in wheelchairs, were removed into sub-freezing temperatures from a women's dormitory and then sheltered temporarily in a nearby auditorium.

Most of them wore only night clothes and were barefoot although some managed to drape blankets around them. A majority of the patients were evacuated within 30 minutes after the blaze was discovered.

"We were very lucky it wasn't much worse," said Robert Blackburn, assistant to the mayor. "Only quick work by firemen prevented it from becoming a terrible disaster."

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Where is a girl supposed to sit when she is on a date with a boy who drives six and everyone used to compliment me on my figure. Today I wear a size 18½ dress, a car with bucket seats? Would it be proper for her to sit in the middle, between the two bucket seats so she won't be so far away from her date? Supposing the gear shift is between the two seats? Please answer in the paper because I know other girls who have the same problem.

NOT CLOSE ENOUGH

DEAR NOT: The girl sits in the bucket seat BESIDE the driver. The problem of distance between the girl and her date is a mere drop in the bucket compared to those she'll run into if she tries to occupy the "no girl's land" between the seats. Sit where you belong. He can't drive forever.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am 26 and the mother of four children. When I married (six year ago) I weighed 118 pounds, and wore a size 12 dress. I am five feet and the last time I had the courage to get on a scale I weighed 188 pounds. I don't have to tell you how ashamed of myself I am. I have gone on every diet I've heard of and I've even tried to smoke, but it makes me sick. I just don't have the will power to stick with a diet. I've heard there is a club people join to help them lose weight. It's supposed to be something like Alcoholics Anonymous. People help each other. I need inspiration and encouragement from others who have the same problem. Or doesn't that work, either?

FAT AND DISGUSTED

DEAR FAT: Nothing "works" unless you are willing to work at making it work. "TOPS" (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) is one of the most prominent clubs. Write to their headquarters, at 2306 S. Howell Ave., Milwaukee 7, Wisconsin, for information about their chapters in other cities. Good luck.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: My daughter was raised in a good Christian home but you would never know it from the way she has acted since she was 14. She is 22 now and is going through her third divorce. She could never keep a husband because she was so crazy about men. And the lower they were, the better she liked them.

She is under a doctor's care now and the doctor told me my daughter runs with bums because of a "VITAMIN DEFICIENCY." Is this possible?

CAN'T BELIEVE IT

DEAR CAN'T: Your daughter's deficiency strikes me as more moral than physical, but maybe the doctor is right. After he fills her full of vitamins, you'll find out.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WAITING FOR TOMMY": He seems more interested in having a ball, than in having a ball and chain. Give up.

THE FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY of the West Texas State Bank was observed here Thursday night at a banquet for employes and stockholders of the bank. Lee D. Herring, left, main speaker of the evening and vice president of the Grand Prarie State Bank, is shown visiting with H. W. Cargile, president of the bank; Wayne Boren, chairman of the board; and H. H. Eiland, chairman of the executive committee. Herring spoke on the value to a bank of a good public relations program.

Jenkins Gets Notice Of Subpoena

WASHINGTON AP) — The Senate Rules Committee has notified Walter Jenkins that he will be subpoenaed to testify in its Bobby Baker investigation.

President Johnson's former top assistant got the word by telephone from the committee's special counsel, L. P. McLendon, who said Thursday no decision had been reached on whether Jenkins would be heard in secret or in open hearing later this month.

But Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, one of the three Republicans on the committee, said later Jenkins would have to be heard in public eventually.

Last October, Jenkins' resignation as a White House assistant was requested by Johnson and accepted after it became known that Jenkins had been arrested twice on morals charges.

The Rules Committee plans to resume its questioning of witnesses in the Baker case in about 10 days. Baker, a former secretary to the Senate Democrats, became a millionaire while on the government pay roll. The committee has been poking into his affairs for any evidence that he used his job to promote his private business ventures.

Bears Set Spring Drills For Feb. 20

WACO AP)—The Baylor University football squad will start spring practice Feb. 20 with 20 lettermen expected to report.

The returning lettermen will include six offensive and five defensive starters from the 1964 third-place Southwest Conference finishers.

Head Coach and Athletic Director John Bridgers said Thursday that the Bears will start their home games at 1:30 in the afternoon and 7:30 in the evening. In the past they have started at 2 and 8 p.m.

"The earlier starting times seem to be a trend," Bridgers said, "and I saw no reason why we shouldn't follow suit. I believe the public will like it better."

Five Texas Wesleyan Cagers Are Expelled

FORT WORTH AP) — Texas Wesleyan College officials have announced that five basketball players, including two starters, were expelled from the college Thursday "for disciplinary reasons."

The five were Bob Merder, the team's leading scorer with an average of 22.1 points per game, Don Willis, another starter, and reserve Bill Drake, Jeff Saari and Wayne Wilson.

Despite the loss, the school's basketball team downed Howard Payne 79-77 in a non-conference game Thursday night.

LBJs At Home, Awaiting Visitor

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) —President Johnson, working and relaxing at his Texas ranch, awaited the arrival late today of Canada's Prime Minister Lester Pearson to put finishing touches on a pact to wipe out U.S.-Canadian auto tariffs.

Johnson and his visitor may be able to sign the agreement before Pearson leaves sometime Saturday. However, the U.S. Congress would have to pass special legislation before the agreement could be fully effective.

The pact, subject of months of negotiations, would abolish both countries' tariffs on new autos and new auto parts shipped across their common border.

Johnson, who flew to the ranch with his wife Thursday night for a three-day stay, expected to have relaxed, informal talks with Pearson. Most work on their major item of business — the tariff agreement — was done in advance of the meeting.

The two leaders have met face to face several times in the past 14 months, most recently at Blair, Wash., on Sept. 16 when they signed a Columbia River treaty. Their meetings have been supplemented by seven or eight telephone talks.

Pearson was bound for the ranch from a Florida vacation.

Johnson was here not only to entertain the prime minister, but to push ahead with the drafting of the inaugural address he will deliver next Wednesday after taking the presidential oath.

Only a few aides accompanied the Johnsons on the flight from Washington. Their two daughters, Lynda and Luci, did not make the trip.

Signing of the agreement on auto tariffs was postponed several times by last minute haggling over details. But only a few details remained to be worked out in advance of Pearson's visit.

The pact would abolish an American tariff of 6½ per cent on vehicles and 8½ per cent on most parts. The Canadian duties that would be scrapped range from 17½ per cent on finished vehicles to 25 per cent on parts.

The latest figures, for the first nine months of 1964, show $455 million of American vehicle and parts sales to Canada compared with Canadian exports of $46 million.

Students Are On Program

Members of the Snyder High School Forensic Squad, directed by Bobby Taylor, presented the program Thursday at the Snyder Rotary Club's luncheon meeting.

Students Aleta January, Nan Martin and Donna Daxis explained aims of the Forensic Club and gave some example presentations.

Dr. Robert Hargrove and Ben Brock were in charge of the program.

Guests introduced by Bob Smith included Bob Crowell, Raymond Groves, Harold Lacik, Woody Forrester, Jack Lawrence, Glenn Beard, Truett Hawkins and Bill Graham.

Rayburn Burgess, Rotary president, presided at the luncheon.

Mishap Reported On Highway 84

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated a mishap early Thursday morning one mile north of Snyder on US Highway 84. Involved were a 1963 Oldsmobile driven by Cecil David Gale of Odessa and a 1964 Chrysler convertible driven by Vivian Elizabeth Cox of Denver, Colo.

Officers said that both vehicles were going in the same direction when the Cox car struck the rear of the Gale car causing an estimated $300 damage to the Oldsmobile and $600 to the Chrysler.

No injuries were reported.

Says Gas Chamber Not For Entertaining

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — Oregon legislators protested Thursday a request that a Portland night club operator be allowed to use the state penitentiary gas chamber for entertainment purposes.

The chamber is not being used because the death penalty was abolished in the November election.

Harvey Dick had requested that the state sell him the execution facility for use in a night club now under construction. He said customers could have their pictures taken inside it.

State senators said Thursday that the chamber should be destroyed instead.

Malaysia Asks End To Aggression

By TONY ESCODA

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Malaysia demanded today that Indonesia "cease hostilities and all acts of aggression" if it wants a peaceful solution to the crisis between the two countries."

In Jakarta, however, Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio said his government will continue to send raiders into Malaysian territories because Indonesia feels Malaysia and Britain do not want to have a peaceful solution.

Subandrio asserted that his government is prepared immediately to have peace talks without advance conditions with Malaysia and Britain.

A Malaysian government statement noted the "desire so piously expressed by President Sukarno" of Indonesia, who suggested Thursday that an African-Asian group or the United Nations investigate whether the North Borneo states of Sarawak and Sabah want to remain in Malaysia.

Sukarno said he would abide by the result. He also called on Malaysia's prime minister, Tunku Abdul Rahman, to return to the negotiating table.

The Malaysian statement said:

"After experience of a series of abortive peace talks with Indonesia, Malaysia naturally would rather see a genuine demonstration of the professed desire rather than hear mere expressions of it."

New Telephone Directories To Be Delivered Monday

Copies of the Snyder telephone directory will be mailed to customers on Jan. 18, Jim Brewer, manager for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company here said.

The cover will be of white stock, overprinted in brown ink. There will be 44 "white" or alphabetical pages and 72 classified or Yellow Pages.

Brewer said that almost 10,340 copies of the new directory have been printed but that not all of them will be mailed to customers at this time. He explained that additional copies are always prepared to have on hand for new customers moving to this area and as replacements for books in heavily used locations like public telephone booths.

Customers should throw their old directories away when the new ones are received. Brewer cautioned customers to check them carefully for address and out-of-town number lists as well as other valuable papers before consigning them to the wastebasket.

"Quite often," he said, "customers will keep lists, valuable papers and even pictures between the pages of the telephone directory. Then when the new ones arrive, they throw the old ones away without checking them and things that they wanted to keep are lost forever."

Service Set For Snyderite's Father

THE FASHIONABLE shape of things to come. The classic box coat goes sleek and slim in this shaped selection from the "Wild Western Colors". Casually elegant in any plush surroundings, the classic notched collar and set-in sleeve styling is the background for bright brass buttons and dramatic seaming details, including the front darts that end in pockets.

Five Centuries Of Unusual French Toast Recipes Here

What we Americans call French toast was undoubtedly the result of a need to make the most of stale or lost bread. A recipe for using lost bread by whisking it through a batter of eggs and milk appeared as early as the fifteenth century in a Harleian manuscript.

This centuries - old innovation has been popular from that day to this. The Belgians call it pain trouve, or "found bread." Germans call it Arme Ritter in honor of the knights, later the messengers or reuters, who rode horseback from village to village on missions. A weary knight knocking at a door along the way in search of food and water was greeted by the hospitable housewive with the exclamation, "O der arme ritter ist so hungrig" — the poor knight is so hungry. This situation was taken care of with dispatch by serving a platter of bread which had been dipped in an egg-milk mixture and grilled to golden perfection.

The basic idea of French toast may be five centuries old, but the innovations for serving it are ever new. A test kitchen staff recently got lost in the subject of French toast, and look at what they found — seven unique recipes. Five use fruit in elegant ways. For sheer delight start this gastronomic adventure with blueberry stacks. The two remaining recipes are truly unusual and worthy of keeping company with the other five.

Cinnamon-Orange French Toast

2 eggs, beaten
2-3 cup milk
½ teaspoon finely grated orange rind
¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon
8 slices enriched bread

Combine beaten eggs, milk, orange rind and cinnamon in a shallow bowl. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Grill or pan fry bread on both sides in hot fat. Serve hot, topped with 1 to 1½ tablespoons Brandied Orange Butter.

Yield: 4 serving — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Brandied Orange Butter

½ cup soft butter or margarine
1 cup confectioners' sugar
1 teaspoon finely grated orange rind
2 tablespoons brandy

Combine butter, sugar orange rind and brandy. Whip together until light and fluffy. Serve over Cinnamon-Orange French Toast.

Yield: 1¼ cups Brandied Orange Butter.

Note: May be stored in refrigerator, covered, until needed.

* * *

Coconut-Orange French Toast

4 eggs slightly beaten
1 1-3 cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
12 slices enriched bread
¼ cup butter or margarine
2-3 cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
1 tablespoon orange juice
4 teaspoons grated fresh orange rind
¼ cup flaked coconut

Combine beaten eggs, milk and salt in a shallow bowl. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Grill or pan fry bread on both sides in hot fat; place on a baking sheet. Blend butter and brown sugar; add orange juice, orange rind and coconut. Spread coconut mixture over slices of French toast. Broil under low broiler heat for about a minute, or until topping is bubbly and lightly browned. Serve hot.

Yield: 6 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Apple - Raisin French Toast

2 eggs, beaten
2-3 cup milk
½ teaspoon salt
8 slices raisin bread
¼ cup apple butter
2 tablespoons chopped pecans
2 tablespoons sifted brown or confectioners' sugar

Combine beaten eggs, milk and salt in a shallow bowl. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Grill or pan fry bread on both sides in hot fat. Spread 1 tablespoon apple butter on 4 slices French toast; sprinkle 1½ teaspoons pecans over apple butter and cover with second slice of toast. Sprinkle 1½ teaspoons sugar over top slices. Serve hot.

Yield: 4 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Tomato French Toast

½ cup condensed tomato soup
½ cup water
2 eggs, beaten
8 slices enriched bread
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

Combine soup and water in a shallow bowl; stir until smooth. Blend in beaten eggs. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Bake in a preheated waffle baker or brown bread on both sides on hot greased griddle. Serve hot with grated Parmesan cheese sprinkled over top of toast slices.

Yield: 4 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Crusty French Toast

6 eggs, slightly beaten
¾ cup milk
1½ teaspoons salt
12 slices enriched bread
3 cups medium fine soft bread crumbs
Dash, nutmeg

Combine beaten eggs, milk and salt in a shallow bowl. Trim off crusts from bread. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, then into soft bread crumbs, turning them to coat both sides. Grill or pan fry bread on both sides in hot fat. Sprinkle with nutmeg. Serve hot.

Yield: 6 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

* * *

Blueberry Stacks

¼ cup brown sugar
¼ cup water
1½ cups blueberries, stemmed and washed
½ teaspoon lemon juice
2 eggs, slightly beaten
2-3 cup milk
¼ teaspoon salt
16 thin slices enriched bread

Combine brown sugar and water in a (1 pint) saucepan; boil gently for five minutes. Add blueberries, cover and simmer for about five minutes, or until berries are plump and tender, but not broken. Remove from heat and add lemon juice. Keep warm. Combine beaten eggs, milk and salt in a shallow bowl. Using a 3-inch cookie cutter, cut bread slices into rounds. Dip bread rounds into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Grill or pan fry bread on both sides in hot fat. To serve: Stack 4 French fried toast rounds, using about a tablespoon of warm blueberry sauce between rounds, and over the top.

Yield: 4 servings.

* * *

Strawberry French Toast

½ cup soft butter or margarine
1-3 cup confectioners' sugar
1 (10 ounces) package frozen sliced strawberries, thawed
2 eggs, slightly beaten
½ cup half and half
2 tablespoons lemon juice
8 slices enriched bread

Whip butter until light; gradually add sugar. Drain thawed strawberries; gradually add strawberries to butter - sugar mixture, beating after each addition until a smooth pink butter results. If strawberries do not blend in evenly, set bowl in hot water during beating to soften butter and warm strawberries so they will blend evenly. Combine beaten eggs and bowl. Gradually add lemon juice. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, one at a time, turning them to coat both sides. Brown bread on both sides on hot greased griddle. Serve hot with strawberry butter spread over each slice.

Yield: 4 servings — 2 slices toast per serving.

Good even in winter: jellied madrilene with a little red caviar fork-stirred into it and topped with sour cream and minced chives.

Old Judge's Story Is Compared

A COVENANT WITH DEATH. By Stephen Becker.

The first degree murder trial of Bryan Talbot, charged with strangling his wife Louise, took place in the summer of 1923 in a little Southwest town of 4,000 population, Soledad City.

There was circumstantial evidence against Talbot, an ambitious but somewhat erratic young business man, but there were no witnesses. The trial uncovered a scandal about the flirtatious 27-year-old Louise and her husband.

The story, as unfolded in this novel, is told by Ben Lewis, known now as the Old Judge, but at the time of the trial as Young Judge Lewis, for he was only 29 that summer.

There were two judges in Soledad City, and Lewis' colleague Alvin Hochstader presided at the murder trial. Then when the case reached a bizarre ending — it wouldn't be fair to give away the plot — Lewis was drawn into the center of everything.

So mainly this is a story of a courtroom struggle, the reactions of the principals, the witnesses and the townspeople. In a way, the culmination of the plot makes this resemble a mystery novel, but not in the usual sense of tracking down a hidden villain. As a trial story, it is in the same field as "Anatomy of a Murder." But this book also is the story of Lewis himself, of the Old Judge reconstructing what he had been like as the Young Judge, and characterizing himself as passing "the crisis of adolescence" at the age of 29. In retrospect, he reaches the disillusioned conclusion that few members of the human race ever get out of their adolescence.

A colorful and vividly written tale, it has many facets to engage the reader.

Julia's Olives

1 can (about 1 pound) ripe olives
2 tablespoons olive oil
3 large cloves garlic, peeled and quartered

Turn olives with their liquid into 1¼-pint (or a little larger) jar. Add olive oil and garlic. Pack olives and some of the garlic pieces down so they are submerged by the liquid; allow a few pieces of garlic to float on the oil at the top. Cover tightly and refrigerate overnight. Drain and use in a green salad. Use only 1 clove garlic if you don't like strong garlic flavor.

WOMEN'S CALENDAR

FRIDAY

Pecan Cake

3 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons each baking powder and nutmeg
2 cups sugar
1 cup butter or margarine
6 eggs, separated
1 cup plus 2 tablespoons 100-proof bourbon whiskey
3½ cup pecan halves, coarsely chopped
1½ cups seedless raisins
½ cup diced candied fruit

Sift together the flour, baking powder and nutmeg. Cream butter and sugar; thoroughly beat in egg yolks one at a time. Beat in sifted dry ingredients alternately with 1 cup bourbon; batter should be smooth. Stir in pecans, raisins and candied fruit. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold in. Turn into a 10-inch angel food pan whose entire inner surface has been lined with greased brown paper. Bake in a very slow (250 degrees) oven for about 4 hours or until wire cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Place a shallow pan of water on top oven shelf for first 2½ hours of baking. Cool cake in pan on wire rack for 30 minutes; turn out; remove paper and finish cooling. Drizzle top of cake with 2 tablespoons bourbon; wrap tightly and store overnight in airtight container. Refrigerate to slice easily.

When you invest in kitchen utensils, buy those that suit the size of your family and your particular needs. A widely available food mill, for example, comes in both ¾ - quart and 2-quart sizes.

Rewarding Around The Campfire

ONE MAN'S MONTANA. By John K Hutchens.

The warm glow which rewards the reader of this book derives from both the colorful yarns with which it is packed, and the mavelously deft skill of the storyteller.

So this is a book for everyone, whether or not they have any palpitating interest in the locale and theme — the state of Montana, with its heritages from the Old West.

Hutchens arrived in Montana in the summer of 1917, when he was nearing his 12th birthday. In nearly half the book he plays the role of the raptly attentive youngster, listening to the Old Timers reminisce about the wild, rugged days of the late 19th Century.

'It was a hell of a time in Alder Gulch and its metropolis, Virginia City, my ancient friends used to say. . ." and the Old Timers summon back the sights and sounds of the gold camps, the stagecoach robberies; the memories of Custer and Chief Joseph of the Nez Perces, Calamity Jane and the fabulous strike of prospector Tommy Cruse — "Gold at the grassroots!"

Then follow some adventures of the author as an adolescent and a young reporter, still seeking out the pulse and color of the old days, as well as a long chapter on three of the greedy titans of the mining industry, who ruled Montana's affairs for so many years. There are affectionate portraits of Helena and Butte, a story about the ghost town at Granite Mountain, and another on the old frontier painter, Charlie Russell.

There even is an account of the Dempsey - Gibbons fight of 1923 and a delightful anecdote about a little old baseball fan known as Postcard Smith.

Hutchens, now widely known as a critic, left Montana for New York in 1927. After all these years, we all can enjoy a fascinating evening of listening around his campfire.

Kitchen notes: If you like to use baby foods occasionally for the whole family, you'll find it convenient to remember that the 4¾ - ounce size yields ½ cup; the 6½ - ounce size yields ¾ cup; and the 8-ounce size yields ⅞ cup.

Light Novel Is Amusing

NINA UPSTAIRS. By Beverley Gasner.

Nina, the heroine of this comedy of the working girl in the big city, happens to be the type who always has to be in love with someone.

But that doesn't mean she's a sentimental, soap opera, clinging vine creature. On the contrary, she has a vinegarish sense of humor, is fast on the uptake and makes easily with the smart remark.

She slaves over a hot typewriter in the adversiting department of a huge Manhattan store, where the underpaid help cringe under the whip of the lady Dracula who runs the department.

Nina has a friend, Diane, who is a real bubble-head with a yen to paint. Together they spend a vacation in a house full of wacky characters on the far tip of Long Island.

Most of the comedy develops around the store and the vacation, but Nina gets into more serious moods in the matter of romance. Having just broken her engagement to a young but very stuffed shirt, she meets Julien, the store's new furniture buyer. Julien very definitely is the Older Man, and very cagey about making any concessions to the June - moon - croon atmosphere.

It's a light, amusing novel.

Your family will relish creamed mixed cooked vegetables if you use them as a filling for thin pancakes. This combination makes a delicious luncheon or supper course when it is served with crisp bacon and a lettuce and tomato salad. The crispness of the salad will be an excellent texture contrast for the soft pancakes and vegetables.

CRAZY, MAN, CRAZY!

Election Came To Nought In Setting Trend For Solons

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — From the way Democrats and Republicans in Congress have chosen their top leaders in this new session you'd never guess the 1964 election might have had some political significance.

Yet, when President Johnson downed conservative Sen. Barry Goldwater in history's greatest plurality, Republicans lost 38 seats in the House and two in the Senate. Was this a mandate for change?

Apparently not among Democrats or Republicans in Congress where change is slow, maneuverings are intricate, old favors are remembered, friendships can be stronger than ideology, and politicians in both houses seem slow to learn.

In the House, the depleted Republicans threw the conservative, 64-year-old Charles Halleck out of his job as their leader — he had held it six years — and replaced him with equally conservative Gerald R. Ford, 51, of Michigan.

Ford's supporters gave this reason for wanting the change: They thought Republicans needed a younger and more forceful "image" than the rather languid Halleck who, after his defeat, said: "That's how the ball bounces."

Ford had been chairman of the House Republican Conference, or caucus. Promptly House Republicans filled it with Melvin R. Laird, 42, of Wisconsin.

Laird, who calls himself a "creative conservative," helped put together the 1964 Republican platform which so pleased Goldwater's supporters. In getting Ford's old job, Laird beat out Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen, 48, of New Jersey.

Frelinghuysen, considered more moderate if not more liberal, than Ford or Laird, was not discouraged. With the backing of Ford he then tried to get the job of Leslie C. Arends, 69, of Illinois, the assistant leader for 21 years.

The conservative Arends was re-elected Thursday to his old job. This was the first major test of Ford's leadership when he backed Frelinghuysen. So it was as much of a defeat for him as for the New Jerseyite.

One House Republican, Albert H. Quie of Minnesota, a leader of the younger members of his party, said this setback for Ford was "something of a disaster for the already weakened party."

In the Senate, the Republicans changed nothing. They kept all their leaders, headed by Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. He has become famous on television for his prose, sometimes doleful but always embroidered with classical allusions or nimble imagery.

But the Senate Democrats didn't pay attention to the election results, either, when it came to leadership. As expected, and there was no contest, they re-elected the mild but popular Mike Mansfield of Montana to the top leadership job.

The fight was over the assistant leadership, relinquished by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey after he was elected vice president.

Here the contestants were Russell B. Long of Louisiana, John O. Pastore of Rhode Island, and A. S. Mike Monroney of Oklahoma. Pastore and Monroney had supported far more major Kennedy-Johnson programs than Long.

Boyle Jumps To These Conclusions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions:

A leader is a person born with a megaphone in his brain and a desire to shout his ability to the world.

Most great leaders in any field — whether they be politicians, soldiers, businessmen, evangelists, artists or rock 'n' roll singers — are to some extent megalomaniacs. This means they have a mania for great or grandiose performance, plus a feeling of personal omnipotence.

There are two types of megalomaniacs — the noisy ones and the quiet ones. If you have to work for one or another — and most people do — it is better to work for a noisy one.

You can always tell when you've satisfied the ego of a noisy megalomaniac; with a quiet one you're never sure.

No person is truly educated unless he looks up a word in the dictionary at least twice a week.

You hear a lot about romances between millionaires and hatcheck girls. But when it comes to marrying, most hatcheck girls wind up with musicians or bartenders.

Being cast up on a desert island all by yourself is pretty dismal, but the loneliest men in civilization are those who play golf with their wives on Saturday because they can't find three other guys to make a foursome.

Just holding things together is hardly enough in this world to make you a hero. Whoever built a statue to a paper clip?

A woman always should have something to look forward to. That's why a wise husband never gives his bride a diamond engagement ring until their 50th wedding anniversary.

The average beggar is about as shrewd a judge of human nature as the average personnel manager — but he can make quicker judgment.

It's high time universities gave course in "footballeese," the gibberish in which sportscasters describe the art of pushing, kicking, or passing an inflated pigskin up and down a gridiron. It certainly is the most rapidly growing language in America, but I have yet to meet a fan able to tell me in English just what a "flanker back" is, and how he earns his living.

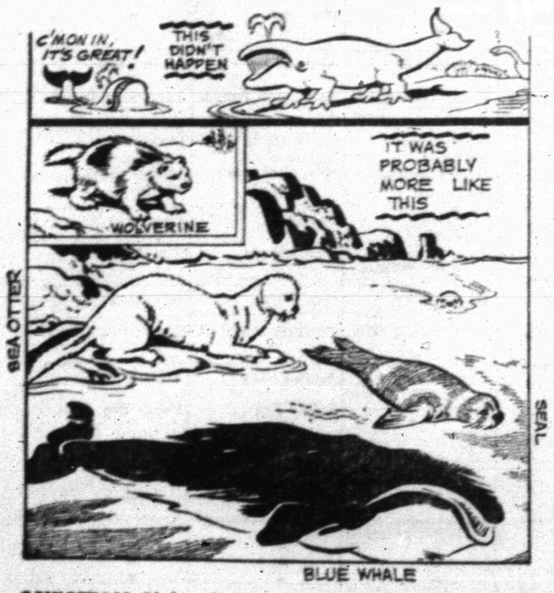

What makes many of us so neurotic isn't that we can't have what we want but that we are faced with so many choices we can't decide what we really do desire. The world was just as happy when ice cream came in only three flavors — vanilla, chocolate and strawberry.

All hobbyists become public bores with their bragging except the fellow who secretly collects French post cards.

You don't have to perform great deeds to become well-known. One of the most talked-about fellows in my neighborhood has a simple distinction. He is the only guy in the block who drinks a glass of sauerkraut juice every morning for breakfast.

Most wives, asked if they could live their lives again, say they would again marry at the same age. Most husbands say they'd remain bachelors at least five years longer.

—Junior Editors Quiz on— WHALES

QUESTION: If the whale was once a land animal, why did it take to the sea?

• • •

ANSWER: When we think of the whale as a land animal, we are apt to conceive of something like the purely imaginative monster at the top—which never existed. Scientists tell us that whales did come from four-footed land animals. In many whales, there are tiny bones out of sight where the hind legs used to be. Whales are warm blooded and give milk to their young just like land mammals. Furthermore, whales show traces of hair, which is something only developed by land animals. But scientists do not know just what the whale's land ancestors looked like or why they left the land or the stages of change to their present shape. The best we can do is guess, and that's what we're going to do. We show three present-day creatures which, linked together, might suggest how whales changed. We are not saying that whales actually developed from these creature's ancestors. We use them only as suggestions. Such an animal as the hairy, short-legged wolverine might have developed an appetite for fish, turned into a shorter-haired streamlined creature like the sea otter, then into something resembling a seal and finally into the present whale form. The fact that the whales held him up allowed the whale to grow to his present enormous size.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Our artist has had fun drawing his imaginative four-footed whale. Have some fun with your own imagination. Draw a flying whale with wings. 1-15

AFL Stars Poised For East-West Tilt

By JACK HAND

HOUSTON AP) — The American Football League's All-Star game, hurridly transplanted to Houston from New Orleans when 21 Negro players claimed racial discrimination, will pit the pride of the Eastern Division against the best of the West Saturday afternoon at Jeppesen Stadium.

Houston Oiler officials who undergook the difficult job of promoting the game under short notice, hopefully expected a crowd of 20,000 if the weatherman lives up to his forecast of cool dry weather.

There had been talk of a crowd as high as 60,000 if the game had been played in New Orleans' Sugar Bowl.

The game will be telecast at 1 p.m. CST by the American Broadcasting Co., with the Houston area blacked out.

The West has won all three previous games in the series, pulling out a 27-24 decision last year at San Diego in the final seconds. There was no All-Star game in 1960, the league's first year.

Coach Lou Saban of the champion Buffalo Bills hanked heavily on his own Buffalo player's second place Boston Patriots to put the East in the win column.

Saban will start Babe Parilli, Boston quarterback, but he will have Buffalo's Cookie Gilchrist at fullback and the Bills' Elbert Dubenion and Ernie Warlick at the ends. Larry Garron of Boston will be the running back and the elusive Charlie Hennigan of Houston at flanker.

Later in the game Saban will bring in his own quarterback Jack Kemp who led the Bills to a 20-7 victory over San Diego in the championship game at Buffalo Dec. 26. Tackle Stew Barber and guard Billy Shaw will be among the five Buffalo starters on offense.

Sid Gillman, Western coach, will have five of his San Diego Chargers in the starting line-up — tight end Dave Kocourek, flanker Lance Alworth, running back Keith Lincoln, tackle Ron Nix and guard Walt Sweeny.

Lincoln suffered a broken rib on a crashing tackle by Mike Stratton of Buffalo early in the title game but he has recovered and will play.

Alworth missed the championship game due to a knee injury suffered in the last regular season game but he also is ready to go.

Lenny Dawson, top quarterback in league official statistics with 30 touchdown passes for Kansas City, will start for the West in what is expected to be a passing duel between Dawson and Parilli. Gino Cappelletti, league-leading scorer, will be one of Parilli's top targets, spelling Hennigan at flanker.

With Gilchrist to spearhead the running attack and Garron and Sid Blanks of Houston to help, the East appears to have a strong ground game. However, the West has Clem Daniels of Oakland and Lincoln in its big man, backfield and Abner Haynes and Mack Lee Hill of Kansas City in reserve.

Terps Suddenly Team To Watch

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

All of a sudden, Maryland is the team to watch in college basketball.

Overlooked in preseason calculations, the unranked Terps have jelled and now must be reckoned with in the tough Atlantic Coast Conference.

The performances of sophomores Jay McMillen of Mansfield, Pa., Gary Ward of Washington, D.C. and Joe Harrington of Phippsburg, Maine, have sparked the resurgence of the Terps.

They combined for 66 points as the Terps won their fifth straight Thursday night, a 93-85 double-overtime conquest over Wake Forest at Winston-Salem, N.C. It was Maryland's fifth ACC triumph against two defeats and knocked Wake Forest out of a triple tie for first with Duke and N.C. State at 4-1.

Maryland's triumph overshadowed Davidson's 86-77 Southern Conference victory over West Virginia at Charleston, W.Va., on a slim national program.

It was the 12th straight for the eighth-ranked Wildcats, the only team in The Associated Press Top Ten to see action.

In other games, Memphis State beat Loyola of The South at New Orleans 71-65, Wyoming downed home Denver 81-76, Virginia Tech defeated Richmond 68-58 at Blacksburg, Florida, on the road, whipped Mississippi State 74-59 and Gonzaga took Montana State U. 91-79 at Spokane.

McMillen scored 31 points, including 13 straight in the two extra periods, as Maryland upped its over-all record to 9-5, already more games than the Terps have won in each of the last three seasons. Ward chipped in with 25 and Harrington 10.

The regulation game ended 76-76 when Richard Herring of Wake Forest converted two free throws in the last 13 seconds. Bob Leonard, high for the Deacons with 37 points, tied the first overtime at 80-80 and Wake Forest went ahead in the second OT, 84-82, on Ronnie Watts' basket.

McMillen tied it and Phil Carlson hit a jump shot to put Maryland ahead for good at 86-84. Ward then hit a tap-in and two more baskets to sew it up for the Terps.

Lamar Splits Doubleheader

COLORADO CITY — Lamar Junior High basketball teams divided a doubleheader with Colorado City teams here Thursday evening, with Lamar 9th scoring a 64-37 triumph, while Colorado City 8th took a 39-38 decision.

Lamar 9th rolled to a 37-24 lead at half-time and was never headed. Mickey Allmand scored 18 points to pace the Texans, while Frank Grimmett and Tommy Bullard had 11 each, O. L. Cooper and Ronnie Shields 6 each, Dwayne Boydstun and Mike Galyean 3 each, Drake Snyder, Tony Suttle and Jerry Hardwick 2 each. Lightfoot was C-City 9th's top scorer with 8 points.

Lamar 8th was behind, 20-18 at the half, but managed to take the lead in the fourth period before C-City finally edged out for the 1-point victory. Leland Herod scored 10 points for Lamar 8th, while Doyle Gallman and Steve Holder had 9 each, Jodi Williamson and Mitch Rambin 4 each and Richie Thompson 2.

Lamar 8th and 9th will go to Big Spring on Monday night to play Runnels Junior High teams.

Fluvanna's JH Edged

LORAINE — Loraine Junior High basketball teams won two decisions over Fluvanna teams here Thursday.

Loraine girls took a 26-25 victory, while Loraine boys triumphed by 22-18. June Stansell and Charlotte Toombs scored 9 points each for Fluvanna girls, while Nannette Bruner had 7.

In the boys game, Louis Contreras scored 8, Larry Patterson and Johnny Stansell 4 each, and Joe Turner 2. Terry Brewer and Tim Hamilton paced Loraine boys with 8 points each.

Charles Thornhill, sophomore linebacker at Michigan State, tallied 219 points as a fullback at Addison High in Roanoke, Va.

Tigers Face Cubs Tonight

The Snyder Tigers were off to Brownfield today as they continued their District 3-AAA basketball slate.

The locals clash with Brownfield's Cubs tonight, with a B game launching the evening's activity at 6:15 p.m.

The Tigers, firmly entrenched in second place in the district standings, must win to stay in range of Levelland's Lobos, who have a perfect league mark with 4 victories and no defeats. The Tigers are 3-1.

The Cubs are lodged in a three-way tie just back of the Tigers, having won 1 game and lost 2.

NAMED WOMAN ATHLETE OF THE YEAR—Mickey Wright of Dallas, Tex., was named Woman Athlete of the Year by the Associated Press poll. Miss Wright has been a professional golfer for about 11 years. (AP Wirephoto)

Mickey Wright Is Top Fem Athlete

DALLAS (AP) — Golfer Mickey Wright is delighted to have been picked as the Female Athlete of the Year for the second straight time but she says she also is surprised.

"Naturally, I am delighted and honored. But I also was surprised. I didn't think I would win it a second time because 1964 was an Olympic year," she said Thursday night.

The 29-year-old blonde, who now has won more tournaments and more money than any other woman in pro golf, was the first choice of 118 voters on the Associated Press panel of about 250 sports writers and broadcasters.

With a total of 492 points, Miss Wright easily outdistanced Olympic swimmer Donna de Varona of Santa Barbara, Calif., who had 235 points for second place in the year-end poll.

Dawn Fraser, the Australian swimmer who won the Female Athlete of the Year Award in 1962, placed third, followed by tennis ace Billie Jean Moffitt and 15-year-old Olympic swimming star Sharon Stouder.

Despite an illness that kept her out of competition for a month, Miss Wright won 11 golf tournaments in 1964 to equal her 1963 record and was the leading ladies PGA money winner for the fourth straight year with $29,800.

Miss Wright has surpassed most of the golf records set by another Texan, the late Babe Didrikson Zaharias. But the Babe still holds the record for being chosen as Female Athlete of the Year in the AP poll. She won the honor six times — one for track and five times for golf.

Mickey, a former San Diego girl, who now makes her home in Dallas, will renew her lease on the Frederic C. Miller Memorial Trophy at the annual Fraternal Order of Eagles sports banquet in Milwaukee Feb. 14.

Blue, Grey Teams Win

Travis Blue and Lamar Grey won 7th grade basketball games Thursday in the Travis Gym. The Blues defeated Travis Whites, 32-23, while the Greys downed Lamar Reds, 35-30.

Merce Hernandez paced Travis Blue with 17 points, while Don Light had 7, Mark Gilstrap and Rickey Glasscock 3 each, and Howard Murphree 2. For Travis White, Wesley Bishop scored 12, Ronald Ward 7 and Dennis Carlton 4.

In the game matching the Lamar teams, Lee McNair scored 18 points for the Greys, while Phil Ator and Mike Keller had 6 each and Rickey Arnold 5. For the Reds, Steve Boydstun and Ronald Gladson had 6 each; Kent Hargrove 5, Billy Bowden and Ronnie Watkins 4 each, Brad Morgan and Darwin Belt 2 each and Te Floyd 1.

Thursday's games brought 7th action to the half-way mark. The won-lost records so far show the Blues with 5-1, Greys 4-2, Reds 2-4 and Whites 1-5.

'Hot Potato' Handed Back To AAU In Track Squabble

CHICAGO (AP) — The NCAA-AAU feud over control of amateur athletics still is a hot potato no matter whose fire it's under.

The potato again was tossed to the AAU Thursday by the NCAA Council which decided, at the close of the group's national convention, to proceed with a truce bid.

This boils down to co-sanctioning of track meets at the domestic level. The international level was not included, and that's about the only thing new.

The nub of the long power struggle between the two organizations has been the AAU's hold on international sanctioning.

Dual sanctioning long has been the NCAA's ace card in trying to negotiate a truce. Regardless of the newest wording, the AAU rebutted through its executive director, Col. Don Hull that if the proposal were aimed at dual sanctioning "we would be wasting our time talking to them."

This apparently puts the whole thing up in the air where it long has been.

The NCAA Council expressed "sharp disappointment at [illegible] immature AAU disdain and summary dismissal" of the resolution. A meeting between the NCAA-backed U.S. Track and Field Federation and the AAU was urged.

Approval of a bylaw by the NCAA would in effect boycott AAU-sanctioned track meets after March 1. Walter Byers, executive NCAA director, said this revised code would subject schools whose athletes compete in non-federation meets to probation or censure and that it "dramatized and crystallized the issue."

"Our people are convinced that we are right on our side," said Byers. "The whole issue (of sanctioning track meets) is going to be vividly dramatized in the next few months and I think public pressure will force the AAU to re-examine its position."

Among the first to feel pressure was the venerable Cleveland Knights of Columbus indoor track meet scheduled March 19. It draws heavily on collegiate stars.

Cleveland representatives told Byers that the March 1 boycott-deadline, which permits all Eastern AAU-supported indoor track meets to be conducted without interference, was unfair. Bill Weber, director of the Cleveland meet, charged discrimination.

Blue Devils Divide Pair

LAMESA — Travis Junior High's 8th grade team surged from behind in the second half to defeat Lamesa 8th, 20-14, while Lamesa 9th won a 57-43 decision over Travis 9th here Thursday.

Lamesa 9th took a 32-20 lead in the first half, and a fourth period rally by Travis was not enough. Albert Rodriguez scored 11 points to pace Travis 9th, while Ted Winter had 7, Jerry Smedley 5, Jerry Luttrell, Bennie Garrett and Raymond Rodriguez 4 each, Gus Tovar and Alton Patterson 3 each, and Jimmy Ramage 2. Gollnick paced Lamesa 9th with 20 points.

In the 8th grade game, Bennie Ward roped 13 points for Travis. Ken Sebested had 4, George Kay 2 and Danny Brinner 1. Mills and Kinard had 4 each for Lamesa 8th.

Travis 8th was behind, 7-11 at the half, but tied the score at 12-12 in the third and then limited Lamesa 8th to two points in the fourth period.

The two Travis teams play Big Spring Goliad in the Travis Gym next Monday evening.

To Discuss New Coach

DALLAS (AP) — The addition of an assistant football coach is due to be the main order of business when Southern Methodist University's faculty athletic committee meets Saturday.

And all indications point to Chuck Curtis as the man who will get the job.

Curtis, the 29-year-old coaching ace who has chalked up three straight state schoolboy championships, said earlier this week he would leave Garland to accept a job as assistant coach with some Southwest college but he declined to name the school.

Dr. Edwin D. Mouzon, chairman of the faculty athletic committee, said Thursday that head football coach and athletic director Hayden Fry has been looking for another assistant coach but had not yet made a recommendation to the committee.

Wilt Says He May Retire At End Of Current Season

By RON BERGMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain might retire at the end of this National Basketball Association season, leaving the Philadelphia 76ers holding an empty money bag.

The 76ers paid a reported $75,000 Wednesday night to the San Francisco Warriors for the 7-foot-1 scoring machine. Philadelphia threw in a reserve center-forward with a recent history of fainting spells, one of the shortest guards in the league and a forward who has yet to play his first NBA minute this season.

Superficially, this sounds worse than it actually is for the Warriors. But if Chamberlain plays only the three remaining months of the season and retires at the ripe young age of 28, it's a financial bath for the 76ers without the bubbles.

"I told him he made a bad deal," Chamberlain said Thursday about Philadelphia co-owner Ike Richman. "I'm not sure how long I'll play.

"I take one year at a time," Chamberlain continued. "Right now, I'm not sure what I'll be doing next season."

Chamberlain said there were many reasons why he was considering retirement, but he didn't want to name them yet.

Richman, a close friend and lawyer of the highest paid NBA player, took an equally short sighted view from his Philadelphia law office.

"Wilt told me he would only talk about one year," said Richman. "That's all right with me.

"Let the future take care of itself, I know I have Chamberlain this year — definitely.

"I expect to have him for many more years. However, he has a right to do what he thinks is best for himself. And, when he makes that decision, when he wants to retire, we will always remain friends."

The Warriors play the New York Knicks in San Francisco's Civic Auditorium tonight without the services of two of their acquisitions and, perhaps, without the other.

Paul Neumann, the 6-foot-1 ex-Stanford star, said he might wait for the Warriors to come East. Lee Shaffer, who refused to play this season for the 76ers, definitely isn't in shape and probably won't be around. And Connie Dierking didn't appear for practice in San Francisco Thursday.

Chamberlain was given a week to rest, treat his broken nose and say goodby to friends in San Francisco. So the first game he plays for the 76ers could be against the Warriors.

Neumann, a hot-shooting guard, averaged 11.6 last season as a part-time player.

Shaffer, a 6-7 forward from North Carolina, averaged 13.1 last season and 18.6 the year before. Hannum said Shaffer could be one of the greatest players in the league but expressed some concern over his injured knee. They talked for hours last Sunday with the 76ers' permission.

Dierking, a 6-9 graduate of Cincinnati, suffered fainting spells this season. Medical tests failed to show anything physically wrong with him.

Chance For Recovery Seen For Ailing United Nations

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — There's a lot of talk about the precarious state of the United Nations' health, but the prevalent prognosis at headquarters is that the patient will live.

Most U.N. diplomats believe that neither a U.S.-Soviet showdown on peacekeeping assessments nor the withdrawal of Indonesia from the world organization will be fatal. But there may be some scars.

The United Nations was given up for dead several times in the past but made surprising recoveries.

This happened in 1950 when the Russians began a general boycott of U.N. meetings in an attempt to force the seating of Red China. It happened again in 1956 at the time of the Hungarian-Suez crises.

Other critical periods for the organization were in 1960 when Nikita Khrushchev launched his so-called "troika" plan to replace the secretary-general with a three-man executive group, and in 1961 when Dag Hammarskjold was killed in an African plane crash.

Each time gloom settled over U.N. headquarters. Dire predictions were heard, just as now. Some of the more pessimistic are recalling events leading to the collapse of the League of Nations and noting certain similarities.

They could be right. But a majority of U.N. diplomats diagnose the case this way:

If the General Assembly votes to uphold the U.S. position and suspend the voting rights of the Soviet Union, France and 16 other countries, there may be walkouts and other gestures of protest. But there will be no mass withdrawal from the United Nations.

If the Russians win, the United States would be embarrassed and might even cut its financial support of the U.N. to some extent. But it would not go so far as to wreck the organization.

One indication that the Russians do not expect the U.N. to collapse is the fact that they have made two contributions in the past four weeks totaling $5 million. They might have held off if they had been expecting to withdraw.

In some ways, the organization has shown signs of strength in the midst of the current crisis. Many of its specialized agencies continue to expand and have launched ambitious plans for the future. U.N. membership continues to grow. Last month three new countries were admitted.

And the reaction to Indonesia's withdrawal must have been extremely disappointing to President Sukarno. With the exception of Red China, which itself is outside the organization, Indonesia got no support. No country showed any inclination to follow.

State Solons Eye Two Possibilities On Redistricting

AUSTIN (AP)— The Legislative Council suggested two possible solutions this week to the politically painful question of drawing new congressional districts.

Either plan could result in at least two congressional races in 1966 in which incumbents would oppose one another.

The proposals are only advisory and probably will be followed by many plans as legislators try to figure out the best way to comply by Aug. 1 with the Supreme Court's "one man-one vote" edict.

How would the two plans affect your county? Labelled "Plan A" and "Plan B," here is how they would divide the state:

Dist. 1: "A"— Bowie, Cass, Marion, Harrison, Morris, Titus, Red River, Lamar, Franklin, Delta, Hopkins, Rains, Hunt, Fannin, Kaufman, Rockwall, Collin, and part of north Dallas County; "B"—Bowie, Cass, Marion, Harrison, Panola, Rusk, Gregg, Upshur, Morris, Titus Camp, Wood, Smith, (Rep. Wright Patman is of Bowie County; Lindley Beckworth of Gregg, and Ray Roberts of Collin.)

Dist. 2: "A"—Panola, Shelby, Sabine, San Augustine, Angelina, Nacogdoches, Rusk, Gregg, Upshur, Camp, Wood, Smith, Cherokee, Van Zandt, Henderson; "B"—Shelby Sabine, Newton, Orange, Jasper, San Augustine, Nacogdoches, Angelina, Tyler Hardin, Liberty, San Jacinto, Polk, Trinity, Cherokee, Houston, Leon, Anderson, Henderson. (Rep. John Dowdy is of Henderson County, Beckworth of Gregg.)

Dist. 3: "A"—Newton, Jasper, Orange, Jefferson, Hardin, Tyler, Polk Liberty; "B"— Jefferson, Chambers, Galveston, (Rep. Clark Thompson is of Galveston, Jack Brooks of Jefferson County.)

Dist. 4: "A"—Anderson, Houston, Trinity, San Jacinto, Montgomery, Walker, Grimes, Brazos, Madison, Leon Anderson, Freestone, Navarro, Ellis, Johnson and the southern parts of Dallas and Tarrant counties; "B" — Red River, Franklin, Lamar, Delta, Hopkins, Rains, Van Zandt, Kaufman, Hunt Fannin, Rockwall, Collin, Grayson, Cooke and part of north Dallas County. (Note: the same district number is used, but the areas covered differ completely between the two plans.)

Dist. 5: "A"— Chambers, Galveston, Brazoria, Matagorda, Calhoun, Victoria, Jackson, Lavaca, Wharton, Fort Bend; "B"—Brazoria Matagorda, Jackson, Calhoun, Aransas, Refugio, Goliad, San Patricio, Nueces.

Dist. 6: "A"—Aransas, Nueces, San Patricio, Refugio, Bee, Goliad, Dewitt, Karnes, Wilson, Gonzales, Guadalupe; "B"—Fayette Bastrop, Lee, Burleson, Brazos, Grimes, Montgomery, Walker, Madison, Robertson, Milam, Falls, Limestone, Freestone, Navarro, Hill, Ellis, and part of Southern Dallas County. (Note: The areas covered by the th district differ completely in the two plans.)

Dist. 7: "A"—Kleberg, Kenedy, Willacy Cameron, Hidalgo, Starr, Brooks; "B"—Identical to "A".

Dist. 8: "A"—Val Verde, Kinney, Uvalde, Medina, Maverick, Zavala, Frio, Atascosa, Dimmit, LaSalle, McMullen, Live Oak, Webb, Duval, Jim Wells, Zapata Jim Hogg, and part of Bexar County ringing most of San Antonio; "B"—identical to "A", except for the addition of Bee County, and slight differences in dividing Bexar County.

Dist. 9: "A"—Edwards, Real, Banera, Kendall, North Bexar County, Kerr, Gillespie, Kimble, Sutton, Crockett, Schleicher, Menard, Mason, Llano San Saba, Mills, McCulloch, Concho, Tom Green, Irion, Reagan, Upton, Crane, Ector, Glasscock, Sterling, Coke; "B"—waller, Fort Bend Wharton, Austin, Washington, Colorado, Lavaca, Victoria, Dewitt, Karnes, Wilson, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Comal, Caldwell, Hays and northeast Bexar County. (The district occupies different parts of the state under the two Comal, Caldwell, Hays, and northeast Bexar County. (The district occupies different parts of the state under the two plans.

Dist. 10 "A"—Waller, Austin, Washington Colorado, Burleson, Fayette, Lee, Bastrop, Caldwell, Travis, Hays, Comal, Blanco, Burnet; "B"—Travis, Williamson, Burnet, Blanco, Llano, Gillespie, Kendall, Bandera, Kerr, Real Edwards, Mason, Kimble, Menard, Sutton, Schleicher, Tom Green, Irion. (Rep. J. J. Pickle is of Travis Count. O. C. Fisher of Tom Green).

Dist. 11: "A"—Robertson, Limestone, Falls, Milam, Williamson, Bell, McLennan, Hill Bosque, Coryell, Lampasas; "B"—Bell, McLennan, Bosque, Coryell, Lampasas, Hamilton, Erath, Hood, Somervell, Johnson, South Tarrant County.

Dist. 12: "A"—Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Stephens Palo Pinto, Parker, Mitchell, Nolan, Taylor, Callahan, Eastland, Runnels, Coleman, Brown, Comanche, Erath, Hood, Somervell, Hamilton, West Tarrant County; "B"—Most of Tarrant County including Fort Worth. (Areas for the district differ between the plans.)

Dist. 13: "A"—Kent, Stonewall, Haskell, Throckmorton, Young, Jack, Wise, Denton, Grayson, Cooke, Montague, Clay, Archer, Wichita, gwilbarger, Baylor Kn Foard, Hardeman, King, Dickens, Crosby; "B"—Parker, Denton, part of North Tarrant County, Wise, Montague, Jack, Clay, Young Archer, Wichita, Wilbarger, Baylor, Throckmorton, Haskell, Knox, Foard, Hardeman, Stonewall, King, Kent, Dickens, Floyd, Crosby, Garza.

Dist. 14 in plan "A" corresponds roughly with Dist. 16 in plan "B" and vice versa. The two are compared as follows:

Plan "A" Dist. 14—Dallam, Sherman, Hansford Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hartley, Moore, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Oldham, Potter, Carson, Gray, Wheeler, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Donley, Collingsworth, Parmer Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Hall, Childress, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Cottle; "B" Dist. 16 — Dalsm Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hartley Moore, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Oldham, Potter, Carson, Gray, Wheeler, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong Donley, Collingsworth, Parmer, Bailey, Castro, Swisher, Hale, Briscoe, Hall, Childress, Motley, Cottle.

Plan "A" Dist. 16—El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Reeves, Loving Winkler, Ward, Pecos, Terrell; Plan "B" Dist. 14—El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Reeves Loving Winkler, Ward, Crane, Pecos, Terrell Upton, Reagan, Crockett.

Metropolitan districts:

Dallas: In both plans, Dist. 18 is western third of county, Dist. 19, the central and northeastern portion of county. Rest of county assigned to adjacent districts.

Bexar: Central portion is Dist. 20 in both plans with rest of the county assigned to other districts.

Harris: Divided into Dist. 21 (northern half), 22 (center section running across county, and 23 (southern corner), in each plan.

Tarrant: Dist. 17 in plan "A" 12 in "B" with excess population assigned to neighboring districts.

Actress June Allison Hospitalized Thursday

SUMMIT, N.J. (AP) — Actress June Allyson was hospitalized Thursday night after suffering what was described as a kidney stone attack in a playhouse dressing room.

She was reported in satisfactory condition and resting comfortably today at Overlook Hospital.

The 39-year-old petite blonde was stricken with vomiting and pains shortly before she was to go on stage at the Paper Mill Playhouse in nearby Millburn, a suburb 20 miles southwest of New York City.

Dr. Anthony F. Coppola, who was summoned to the dressing room said she'll probably be in the hospital for several days.

Tennessee Gas Co. Would Expand Lines

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. of Houston has asked the Federal Power Commission for authority to increase the capacity of its Texas-to-New England natural gas pipeline system.

The new facilities will cost about $18.3 million. The FPC said Thursday any protest or petitions to intervene must be filed by Feb. 10.

Tennessee proposes construction work in Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and Massachusetts. It said the additional capacity is needed to meet growing requirements of present customers.

North America was first peopled by nomads who crossed from Asia, perhaps 30,000 years ago.

Texas GOPs Gather In Dallas

DALLAS (AP)—Texas Republican leaders, described as "very disappointed by the 1964 elections," flocked to Dallas today with an eye toward the future.

The State Republican Executive Committee meets officially Saturday. Some groups were getting together tonight at a cocktail party.

On hand will be state chairman Peter O'Donnell Jr. of Dallas, Sen. John Tower of Wichita Falls, State Rep. Frank Cahoon of Midland—the only GOP member of the Texas House, defeated U.S. Senate candidate George Bush of Houston, the 62 members of the state committee and two national committee members.

O'Donnell said budget matters will be decided and plans laid for Tower's re-election campaign in 1966.

What was to have been the main issue—how the committee stood on the retention of Dean Burch as national party chairman—became moot this week as Burch said he was stepping down.

O'Donnell said Republicans around the state were "very disappointed by the 1964 elections" but most were determined to continue to fight the GOP's cause in 1966 and 1968.

"We want to get back in the ball game," he said.

An exhibit of the Dead Sea Scrolls will be shown at the Smithsonian Institution from Feb. 27 to March 21. Then the scrolls will go on tour to museums in Philadelphia, Berkeley, Omaha and Baltimore.

The meeting will begin at 10 and end at 12 with the noon meal which will be a covered dish luncheon. The pastor will be in Dallas Jan. 18-21 attending the Baptist General Convention of Texas Evangelistic Conference.

During a railroad rate war in the mid - 1880s, the fare from Kansas City ot Los Angeles dropped to just $1.

"I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." John 10:10.

Aid us, Father, in our thought life
To overcome all inward strife;
Health is effected by mental state,
Zest and vitality both await
On every man who finds release
From inner struggle, through Thy peace!

WILL CURTIS

Dr. Pedraza Will Speak

Dr. Roberto Pedraza, president of Lydia Patterson Institute at El Paso, will preach at the evening service at Trinity Methodist Church here Sunday.

The Lydia Patterson Institute is a mission school of the Methodist Church ministering to Latin American young people and training Latin American ministers.

The evening service will begin at 7 o'clock, and other Methodist Churches in the area plan to forego their regular Sunday evening services so that members may hear Dr. Pedraza.

The public is invited to attend.

Union Baptist

The Rev. Murray Kay, pastor of Union Baptist Church, will have as his subject for the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday, "The Perfection Demanded of Men by God," Matt. 5:43-48.

For the 7 p.m. worship service, Rev. Kay's sermon topic will be, "The Most Worthwhile Knowledge in the World," Rev. 19:1-6.

Sunday School will begin at 9:45 a.m. and Training Union at 6 p.m.

The Union Baptist WMU will meet at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday for Bible study under the leadership of Mrs. Murray Kay. On Wednesday, officers and teachers will meet at 7 p.m. and the regular midweek worship service will begin at 7:30 p.m.

* * *

Morningside Baptist

The Rev. Royce Sanders, pastor, will bring the messages at both services Sunday.

Sunday School starts at 10 a.m. Teachers will be reminding their classes that Jan. 24 has been set aside as "Absent T" Sunday. Each class is admonished to work for 100 per cent attendance.

Morning worship services are at 11 a.m. Training Service begins at 6 p.m., and evening worship is at 7 o'clock. The church is located at 119 Thirty-sixth Street.

Growers Say Braceros Are Necessity

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Agriculture Committee takes a look today at the farm labor supply and the complaints of some growers that they can't get along without foreign workers.

Farm employers, ranging from producers of specialty crops now ready for harvest in southern California to sugar growers in Florida and shade-grown tobacco producers in Connecticut, are on the witness list for a special hearing.

Labor unions, religious groups and farm organizations also have asked to be heard, along with representatives of the Labor, Agriculture and State Departments.

A special Mexican farm labor (bracero) program ended Dec. 31.

Farm employers dependent upon the program in effect since 1950 are complaining that they cannot get enough domestic workers to meet seasonal peaks in cultivating and harvesting crops, and that many find the work so hard they quit after a few hours or days. Several packing houses reportedly have been closed by the resulting slowdown in the harvest.

The Labor Department recently proposed a set of wage minima and other employment standards that farm operators would have to meet to be eligible for recruiting of temporary foreign labor under the regular immigration laws.

Invitation To Peruvians Mushrooms

BAIRD, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. W. P. Brightwell and Mrs. A. E. Dyer Sr. sort of said "youall come to see us sometime," and so here come about 100 Peruvian students.

They will be hosts to the students Feb. 5 while the South Americans spend about two weeks in the San Antonio area.

The ladies toured Peru for three weeks last July and August as members of a group named "Asociacion de Hermanos Peruanos-Texanos."

They issued an invitation, expecting 10 to 15 to show up, said Mrs. Dyer. "But we are going to be able to take care of them all," she said after the number mushroomed.

About 125 students and military cadets will make the tour, beginning Jan. 29. They may visit Gov. John Connally in Austin.

Peruvian Consul Walter Meyer at San Antonio said the group will be returning a visit by 28 Texas students to Peru last summer in a program sponsored by the Texas Peruvian Brotherhood.

Cadets from the military school will spend only one week in the state before traveling to Miami and then to Panama. The others, primarily high school and college students, will stay two weeks, mostly in the San Antonio area.

Among other things, they hope to see President Johnson's ranch near Johnson City.

On Feb. 2 the group will be in Austin to see Gov. Connally and watch the legislature.

In San Antonio the cadets will live at St. Mary's University, and the others will stay in private homes.

At Baird the students will see a high school basketball game, something they requested.

They also will watch a cattle roundup while at Baird, will eat the traditional barbecue and attend a square dance.

State Legistators Ponder Tax Plan

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas legislators had their first new tax money recommendation to think over today.

A total of $15.3 million in new revenue can be raised by just revising present tax law, a special study committee reported.

Both houses adjourned Thursday after three days of ceremonies and clerical routine in opening the 59th regular session. They will meet again at 10:30 a.m. Monday.

A sizeable portion of the House and Senate may be missing, however, to attend the Jan. 20 inauguration of President Johnson in Washington.

Gov. John Connally and other state officials are flying north Sunday, expecting to return about Jan. 21. Some predict up to 1,200 Texans will watch their fellow Texan sworn.

The Senate approved an official five-man delegation to attend the swearing-in ceremony. Speaker Ben Barnes told the House that any member wanting to attend, at his own expense, would be named an official delegate.

One important bit of business awaiting the Senate Monday will be a resolution postponing Connally's own inauguration for a second term until Jan. 26. The House approved the change Thursday.

Technically, until the Senate acts, Connally is still scheduled to be sworn Jan. 19.

Another vital ritual will be the canvass of Nov. 3 votes by a joint House-Senate committee to the governor and lieutenant governor elected.

Before heading home for the weekend the Texas Committee on State and Local Tax Policy recommended changes in the tax structure which it said would yield $15.3 million additional revenue. The committee is a nine-member study group of legislators and outsiders named by the 1963 Legislature.

Some of the committee's recommendations would reduce revenue by repealing what it called outmoded or inequitable levies. Other changes would produce more revenue principally by changes in the sales tax law.

Briefly, the committee recommended repeal of the entertainment admissions tax, a $1.2 million loss for the next two years; repeal of the chain store tax, a loss of $7.2 million; making the sales tax applicable to telegraph and telephone service, a gain of $11.2 million; removal of the farm machinery exemption under the sales tax, a gain of $9 million; exemption of natural gas used in the same field where it was produced, a loss of $2.5 million, and modernization of the inheritance tax, a gain of $6 million.

Texans Honor JFK

AUSTIN (AP) — Legislators unanimously adopted a resolution honoring President Kennedy Thursday "to Demonstrate the affection and esteem with which our 35th president was held in Texas."

Copies were ordered sent to his family and to the John F. Kennedy Library.

WORLD PEACE

WORLD PEACE! That cry comes straight from every heart today. We must not lose heart; we must continue to believe in God and His good will for His world. War is wrong! War is contrary to all the teachings of Jesus. God is no more satisfied than we are with our war-torn earth. Our Lord is the Prince of Peace; His ways are the ways of truth and love. He is calling us to work with Him more faithfully and more intelligently. We have been war-making instead of peace-making.

HAVE we trusted that somebody else would make Peace? Have we trusted that Kings would bring about peace? Their very position makes them war-makers. Our demand that they bring prosperity to the people at the expense of another is a war demand. Have we trusted armies to make Peace? Again we have erred. Their very business is war-making; they must subdue other armies. Have we expected that economic treaties would make Peace? Again, the business of the world is highly competitive; investors demand profits from their money and their toil... profits that come from economic victory. INTERNATIONAL CONFLICT CAN BE SOLVED; WORLD PEACE MUST COME. How?

CHRIST is our answer, and we must answer to Christ. RELIGION IS OUR HOPE; RELIGIOUS PEOPLE WHO FOLLOW THE GREAT TEACHER AND FRIEND AND SAVIOR WILL MAKE PEACE. The Cross is the symbol of Peace. SWORDS MUST GIVE WAY TO PLOUGHSHARES, AND SPEARS MUST BE REFASHIONED INTO PRUNING-HOOKS. What is that word you spoke yesterday? Did it make for Peace or for strife? When you finished the business transaction, did you leave a friend on the other side of the bargain? THE PRINCE OF PEACE IS NOT A RULER OF MEN, BUT A FRIEND AND A SUFFERING SERVANT. Are you and I willing to suffer in the cause of Peace? We have suffered enough for war. Our boys want to live, and to live abundantly; to construct, not destroy; to love, not hate. Peace will cost us much; kind words, generous dealings, goodwill, helpfulness and patience and self-control. Do we pray first for our own success, or for Peace? God is the Peace-maker; Peace-makers are the children of God. Grace and Peace belong together; graciousness of spirit will go ahead of abiding Peace. Are you and I gracious toward every other person? PEACE IS A MATTER OF SPIRIT AND OF SACRIFICIAL BEHAVIOR. We are being watched. Shall we make sacrifice for Peace? Shall we forget the Crown and the Thorn? Shall we carry a cross?
