Along The Waterfront

Sea Gun Sports Inn reports that Cedar Bayou got much of the action the past week. Capt. Al Hagy's "Peggy H." with the Pat Jones party from Childress aboard, brought in 223 trout on two trips to the bayou.

On Thursday, muddy waters and wind resulted in a catch of only 17 reds and trout for the Henry Bonner party, but fishing picked up nicely on Saturday for the San Antonio group as they made up for the slow days with a stringer of 105 trout.

The "Peggy H." out of Sea Gun Sports Inn marina switched to San Antonio Bay where the Melvin Hill party of four from Dallas, caught 81 trout.

On Sunday morning H. W. Batsell of Lamar, and friends, fishing in Copano bay, caught a stringer of 119 trout. The W. J. Strickland party reported a catch of 107 trout.

Chester Johnson VFW National Deputy Chief

Chester Johnson has been named National Deputy Chief of Staff of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. His appointment was announced by Julian Dickenson, Adjutant General at National Headquarters of VFW in Kansas City, Mo.

"Your duty as National Deputy Chief of Staff is to assist your Department in organizing new Posts," Mr. Dickenson said. "The 'New Post Program' is the Commander-in-Chief's Number 1 Program of this year."

CORPUS CITY PLANNER ADDRESSES CLUB

William Anderson, City Planning Director for Corpus Christi, was the principal speaker at yesterday's luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club held in the Woman's Club.

Mr. Anderson was one of a group of Corpus Christi civic leaders who recently made a trip to California to observe how the state and many of its coastal cities have solved problems related to growth and development.

He told how the beauty of California bays has been maintained with full cooperation between oil companies and the cities. As a result of proper planning, he said, platform structures of oil wells sunk in the bay are concealed from sight.

Using colored slides to illustrate his talk, Mr. Anderson also described shopping malls in California which have proved popular.

Among non-Rotarian guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Mary Juergens and Bob Shannon of Rockport, Norm Toddington of Calgary, Canada, and Robert Grossman of Corpus Christi.

Out-of-town Rotarians present were Carol Weaver, Sinton; Dale Hagy and A. C. Blunt of Aransas Pass; John Mitchell, Corpus Christi; Ernest Simmons, Loving, N.M., and Mr. Anderson.

Under the guidance of the Tourist Entertainment Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, extensive plans are being developed not only to welcome tourist guests to Rockport but also to provide continuing entertainment for them.

The first phase of this pro-

Pirates to Battle Flour Bluff

The Aransas County Pirates will take on the Flour Bluff Hornets in a gridiron struggle to be held there at 7:30 Friday night.

The Rockport players are determined to go all out in an effort to crush Flour Bluff and redeem themselves for last week's shellacking by Tuloso-Midway, according to Coach Benny Bloomer.

Flour Bluff, with a district record of one victory and two losses, is a rugged team. Last week they downed Gregory 48 to 37.

The Hornets outweigh the local team by an average of 15 pounds per man and most of this "beef" is concentrated in the five senior linemen. Tackle Emmett Weyand, for example, weighs 220 pounds.

Flour Bluff has two extremely fast backs in Joe Buttler, who is expected to be an all-district nominee, and Bobby Roenje. They use a straight T on offense and generally employ a 6-2 defense.

Deputy De La Garza In Hospital With Gunshot Wound

Deputy Sheriff Joe De La Garza, 35, is recovering at Memorial Medical Center in Corpus Christi from a gunshot wound in his left shoulder allegedly inflicted by his wife, Oralia, 26.

His wife, placed in the County Jail last Saturday following the 3 a.m. shooting outside a local cafe, has been released after posting $1,000 bond set by Judge G. D. Johnson, Justice of the Peace.

Mrs. De La Garza was arrested by Assistant Chief of Police E. A. Stautzenberger. Assisting him in the investigation were Chief of Police Bob Hewes and Sheriff Joe Earl Hunt.

Chief Hewes said Mrs. De La Garza will be brought before the Grand Jury in February on a charge of assault with intent to murder.

Eighteen Whooping Cranes Sighted

Passengers aboard the 65-foot vessel, "Whooping Crane," making the 4½-hour cruise across Aransas Bay past Birdworth Island, were rewarded with sighting 10 cranes on Saturday and eight on Sunday.

The Department of Interior in Washington reports that at least 14 of the whooping cranes have arrived at the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge on Blackjack Peninsula. Two of the 14 birds were young. The Department also noted 42 cranes wintered at the refuge last year and believes that there will be a few more this winter.

The motor vessel, "Whooping Crane," departs from the Sea Gun Sports Inn marina at 1:30 each Wednesday, Friday and Sunday throughout the migratory season.

METHODIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP WILL COLLECT FOR CROP

Hallowe'en has come to mean CROP "Christian Rural Overseas Program" and a time of Christian sharing to the young people of Texas.

It has come to be a time of collecting for others in a Christian ministry of compassion to a part of the world starving population.

The MYF will again be calling on you this year on Saturday, Oct. 30, between the hours of 5 to 7 p.m. to give you an opportunity to share in this worth while program.

gram is taking place today from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the form of "Open House" at the Paws and Taws Square Dance Club building in Fulton. The Chamber of Commerce wishes to thank the Paws and Taws Club for making its building available for this affair at no cost. Motel and lodge owners have contacted their guests during the past few days to invite them to attend the "Open House" and other events planned for the future.

Already, the following entertainment features have been planned by the Chamber of Commerce to provide a variety of recreation for the tourist guests at the Paws and (Continued on Page 5)

DUCK, GOOSE HEAD COUNT IS UNDERWAY

The fall coastal inventory of waterfowl has been begun by biologists and pilots of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

From now until January, these men will fly the coastline each month and count the ducks and geese. Data are recorded in flight on small tape recorders, then compiled on paper.

Heavy rains in some areas and the unusually high tides have created some fine winter habitat for the birds, especially on the upper coast.

First reports indicate that the population is at least normal for this time of year.

Three-Car Accident Injures Two Women

An accident involving three automobiles occurred last Friday at the intersection of Enterprise Street and Highway 35.

Two women, Mrs. Shari Lewis of Rockport and Miss Opal Owens of Fulton, were slightly injured and treated in the offices of two local physicians.

Chief of Police Bob Hewes reported that the cars were driven by Frank Chavez of Rockport, George Lewis of Rockport (accompanied by his wife, Shari), and Miss Owens.

Chief Hewes said the car operated by Miss Owens struck the Chavez car in the rear, pushing it into the Lewis auto. Miss Owens was ticketed by the police chief for "following too close." Assisting Hewes at the scene of the accident were Patrolman Joe Dominguez and Sheriff J. E. Hunt.

Aransas Co. T.S.T.A. Revise Constitution

The Aransas County Unit of the Texas State Teachers Association met in the Junior High School Cafeteria this week (Oct. 26). During the business meeting the revised local unit constitution and by-laws were approved, committee reports were heard, and support was reaffirmed for Amendment No. 5 to be voted on at the Nov. 2 election.

It was pointed out that this amendment was suggested by a group of Texas bankers, insurance executives and investment lawyers. The proposed change, while not costing the taxpayers any money, will bring increased revenue into the teachers' retirement fund. The meeting was highlighted by the showing of "A Shoe Bob Full of Dreams," a film on the education of migrant children.

CARD PARTY FOR TOURISTS

The ladies of the Aransas County Woman's Club invite all tourist and friends to a card party Monday, Nov. 1, at 2 p.m. in the Woman's Club building.

Mrs. R. L. Eckman and Mrs. J. H. Mills, Sr., will be hostesses for this party which is the first tourist party of the season. These parties are a weekly service of the Woman's Club. Admission will be 50c.

REAL HALLOWE'EN SCARE. It was Hallowe'en night, and a little boy and his dog were on the street, excitedly playing the game of "tricks or treat". Carefree and careless, the boy went running onto the road! A car brake screeched... but it was too late. The pet whines for his young master, but the boy doesn't move. The above scene was posed. Mr. Motorist, don't let it become a reality.—WFS Photo

Vets Service Officer Urges Passage Of Amendment No. 2

James W. Hunt, Veterans' County Service Officer, for Aransas County, strongly recommends that the people support and vote for Amendment No. 2 on Nov. 2, which authorizes the continuation of the Veterans' Land Program.

Hunt says that the program has not only benefited the State of Texas, but it has greatly helped the economy of our local area. There has been one veteran who has purchased 20 acres of land in Aransas County for $6,863.00. This program has been highly successful and has given Texas veterans a chance to own a tract of land that they fought to protect. It is a program that is not only self-supporting but is making a profit for the taxpayers and people of Texas of over $2½ million a year. While making this profit for the taxpayers and people of Texas and helping Texas veterans, it is boosting the economy of the state, something that we all want.

Counting the rotating money there has been $236 million invested in land and to date there has been 34,800 tracts of land bought for veterans in the State of Texas. 6,100 of these veterans have paid their tracts off in full. $200 veterans have transferred their contracts after three years. 6,000 have executed oil and gas leases and approximately 500 tracts have producing oil and gas wells on them.

Every individual in the State of Texas is benefited and affected by the Veterans' Land Program. Many veterans daily are asking to purchase land through the program. If the vote on Amendment No. 2 on Nov. 2 is favorable, then the Veterans' Land Program will continue to purchase land. Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler says that a new program will operate on a current basis so that veterans will not have to wait to receive their contracts and necessary papers to purchase land through the program. A veteran will be permitted to purchase $10,000 worth of land compared to $7,500 under the present program. Hunt strongly urges that the people of this area go to the polls on Nov. 2 and support Amendment No. 2, the continuation of the Veterans' Land Program.

State headquarters of the Democratic and Republican parties are urging payment of the poll tax to avoid any possible disenfranchisement.

Texas' poll tax problems began with the federal Constitution change of 1963 which prohibited the requirement of a poll tax receipt, or payment of any other tax, for voting. In the 1964 general election, about 84,000 persons voted "free," without poll tax payment, for president, vice president, U. S. senator and congressmen. However, the poll tax receipt was required to vote for governor or any other state, district or local official because that requirement is still in the state constitution.

Then the 1965 voting rights bill strengthened the poll tax ban by directing that federal court suits be brought against the four states still maintaining the voting requirements—Texas, Mississippi, Alabama, and Virginia.

The suit against Texas' 63-year-old poll tax law was filed Aug. 10 and trial was tentatively set for the week of Nov. 14. Appeals could extend the litigation several months.

ANDY EVERETT TO BE ON NATIONWIDE TV

Andy Everett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Everett, will appear on a coast-to-coast television program Friday night, Oct. 29.

A sophomore at Texas A&M University and a member of the school's "Singing Cadets," Andy will be seen on the "Miss Teenage of America" pageant which will be carried by the Columbia Broadcasting System over KZTV (Channel 19), Corpus Christi, at 9 p.m. Friday.

$300,000 Revenue Bond Election to Be Called By City

The City Council, at its next meeting on Nov. 8, is expected to call a $300,000 water and sewer revenue bond election.

Before taking this action, Mayor Hollis Collum, Aldermen Wallace B. Maley, Charles Garrett, Ernest Harritt and Norvell F. Jackson, and City

Poll Tax Receipts Now on Sale

Poll tax receipts are now on sale in the office of the tax assessor and collector, Mrs. Margaret Weber, in the courthouse.

The issuance of poll tax receipts throughout Texas is taking place in a much different atmosphere than in previous years. Some political leaders fear that a pending federal court suit may discourage payment of the $1.75 tax.

And if the federal court suit is not settled by next Jan. 31, when poll tax payments stop, non-taxpayers may not be able to vote on strictly state and local issues and candidates.

One official in the state comptroller's office in Austin recently said: "As far as we are concerned this is just like any other year. Poll taxes went on sale Oct. 1, and we assume that every county tax collector is issuing receipts."

State headquarters of the Democratic and Republican parties are urging payment of the poll tax to avoid any possible disenfranchisement.

Texas' poll tax problems began with the federal Constitution change of 1963 which prohibited the requirement of a poll tax receipt, or payment of any other tax, for voting. ## Goose Season Opens As North Zone Dove Shoot Ends Oct. 30

The 75-day goose season opens Saturday, Oct. 30, simultaneously with the closing of the mourning dove season in the north zone which includes almost three-fourths of the state.

Also opening Oct. 30 is the sandhill crane season extending through Nov. 28 in certain areas of West Texas, with a daily limit of two and possession limit of four.

Greatest interest naturally concerns the main deer and turkey season opening in most regulatory authority areas Saturday, Nov. 13, and in counties governed by General Law on the statutory date of Nov. 16.

The quail season involving another popular outdoor pastime does not move into the sportsmen's spotlight until Nov. 13. Then the entire Panhandle opens as well as many east central and south Texas counties. The season on quail under General Law opens Dec. 1.

The south zone dove season continues through Nov. 23 except in those counties having an earlier whitewing dove season where the season ends Nov. 19.

The second phase of the waterfowl season—that on ducks—does not open until Nov. 24, extending through Jan. 2.

The goose shoot, which continues through Jan. 12, again has a daily bag and possession limit of five geese, and also still restricts both limits to only one white-fronted or speckled-bellied goose. As in the past, hunters may take two Canadas, or one Canada and one white-front. There is no breakdown on the snows or blues, that is within the five-day or five-in-possession limit.

Waterfowl shooting hours are from sunrise to sunset with the restrictions against unplugged guns, against guns larger than ten gauge, using live decoys, and baiting areas. The other standard regulations apply.

Post Office Moves Up to First Class

The Rockport Post Office was one of 17 in Texas which moved up from second to first class rating in the annual Post Office Reclassification. Of the 33,548 post offices in the United States, only 4,025 are rated as first class.

In Texas, 50 post offices moved forward to a higher rating while only 10 were reclassified at a lower level.

According to the Post Office Department, Bureau of Finance and Administration, Program Reports Div., the following changes were effective July 1, 1965. Data was released Sept. 3.

Moving up to FIRST from SECOND were 17 offices including: Copperas Cove, Dimmitt, Duncanville, Giddings, Grapevine, Humble, Kenedy, Kirbyville, Memphis, Pittsburg, Pleasanton, Post, Richmond, Rockport, Willis Point and Woodville.

Now in the SECOND Class after tenures as THIRD are: Boyd, Clarkwood, Coahoma, Justin, Keller, Mont Belvieu, Mount Enterprise, Norman, Robert Lee, Rosharon, (continued on page 8)

Water and Sewer Supt. Tom W. Shults discussed the need for additional funds.

They agreed that the reasons were:

- (1) The need for expansion of the sewer plant facilities.
- (2) The need for additional water wells and storage.
- (3) The need to expand the entire water and sewer systems to keep pace with the expected growth of Rockport.

In other actions, the City Council: Assured a delegation of visitors that an independent contractor will be contacted to make an estimate for paving 1st Street between Church and Water Streets. The delegation included Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Tengg, C. E. Freeman and Mrs. Faye Henderson.

Informed Homer Faber and Tom Rogers that the city will be able to supply water for a new travel trailer park which is expected to open by Jan. 1 on Highway 35 North, just beyond Wyatt's Drive-In Grocery.

Granted a request for a street light at the corner of Hackberry and South Pearl.

Reviewed the annual financial reports.

Two Men Removed From Bus and Fined

Two men from Cold Springs were arrested in downtown Rockport last Friday after being ordered out of a Continental Trailways bus en route through Rockport to Houston. The bus driver reported that the two men starting using loud and vulgar language. At Ray's Texaco Service Station the two men were ejected from the bus for disturbing other passengers.

Sheriff J. E. Hunt answered the call for city police who were busy investigating a three-car accident on Highway 35. Both men were placed in jail by Sheriff Hunt and were later tried before Judge C. D. Johnson and fined $52 each for intoxication and disturbing the peace.

Riding Association Seeks Bridle Path

The Aransas County Riding Association met this week (Oct. 26) in the Rockport Fire Station, with approximately 50 members present.

Dick Fox told the group of plans to utilize land and buildings for a bridal path and facilities for the Association. Interested members are urged to meet with commissioners at the Commissioners Court on Friday (Oct. 29) for further discussion of these plans.

The next regular meeting of the Association will be held at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 2.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITAL

By: Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

There is no such thing as an all-purpose rifle.

Nevertheless, for financial reasons the average hunter must make one weapon do for all his hunting needs.

Let's say that he wants to hunt mule deer in West Texas or Colorado, whitetail deer somewhere else, even antelope. In that case he needs a rifle that will adequately cover his needs.

Then let's consider the .30/.06. With Texans it still is the most popular of all hunting rifles.

This time-honored weapon will do the job even on the bigger mule deer and the huge black bear. And it's adequate for whitetails and even antelope within certain limitations.

Nowadays, however, there are other rifles just as good, like the .308 and the .243. But to operate within full potential and satisfy the needs, the weapon demands a sight that will give comparable performance.

Today the trend is to scope-sight. Under almost all circumstances the scope will do the job better than will conventional iron sights. But a fixed-power scope is, at best, a poor compromise.

Suppose you have a four-power (4x) sight. It isn't quite strong enough for antelope shooting, yet at times it is a mite too powerful for hunting whitetails, particularly when shooting at short range, in fairly heavy brush, or when shooting at a fast moving deer.

So what's the answer? Nearest thing to an all-around sight is a variable!

Modern engineering improvements have made the variable scope adequate for almost all hunting needs. And the price tag is coming down to compare favorably with fixed-power scopes.

You'll pay more for the variable, but the old saying that "you get just what you pay for" certainly is apt here.

Early variables weren't too favorable. For one thing, they tended to be unnecessarily bulky. For another, the size of the crosshairs changed size as you switched power. And in damp weather they often fogged up and were practically worthless.

Any resemblance between this first model and modern day variables is purely coincidental. At first glance it is difficult to tell a variable from a fixed-power scope anymore. And when you change power the crosshairs remain constant in size.

Modern scopes are fogproof and greatly improved. Sturdy mounts make them almost as durable as iron sights. Sure, the scope is sticking up there just begging to be knocked out of alignment, but it takes quite a blow to throw one off anymore.

One model even has a range-finder built into the scope. In long-distance shooting, like with antelope, you actually can tell how far the game is away. So, if you know the range your rifle is sighted in, you can compensate for any added distance by holding it slightly high, to offset any drop of the bullet. Or aim lower at closer targets.

Most variables range from about 2-1/2X to 7X or 8X or even 9X. This means at lower power you have two-and-one half times the magnification of your normal eyesight, and with 8X you have eight times.

But magnification is just part of the scope story. A quality glass has the ability to gather and intensify light. This makes it much easier to use early in the morning and late in the day or during heavy overcast. These are the times when iron sights tend to blur.

With a scope it's also easier to pick out game standing still in under-brush. Good scopes almost seem to "see" through the brush. Only real drawback is that a scope is difficult to use on running game at close range, such as when hunting deer. But this is more a matter of experience than anything else... as we quickly learned.

Idea is to leave both eyes open when you raise your weapon. The power should be at the lowest setting possible, to give you a wider field of view (as the power increased, the field of view decreases). With both eyes trained on the target you can readily pick it up in the scope. Then it is just a matter of leading it the correct amount and squeezing the trigger.

In long-range shooting, when after a mule deer or antelope, you can dial the power up to its strongest magnification. Also, if you

DEER HUNTER TIP

Most deer hunters check out the area they intend to hunt before hunting season opens.

When you find a deer run and want to know if it is used often, sink a forked stick in the ground on each side of the trail. Then lay a thin twig across the trail, resting it in the forks of the uprights.

Next morning if you find that the horizontal twig has been knocked off the forked sticks, you will know the game trail is in use.

NEW EMPHASIS ON BAD HABITS

Tax rates on cigarettes, gasoline and liquor have been boosted in most states this year, according to a recent survey.

Here in Texas, we set the pace on cigarette sales tax to the tune of 11 cents per pack. Vermont, Wisconsin and New York now collect 10 cents a pack, and 18 other states have raised their cigarette tax by three or four cents a pack. Gasoline tax rates during the year have been boosted in eight states with a present high of 7.5 cents per gallon. Six states so far in 1965 have raised tax rates on alcoholic beverages, and others are contemplating similar boosts.

Law makers have always followed a trend of taxing these items heavily, chiefly because they are excellent revenue producers, and because people generally accept the fact that they are as near non-essential as any items one could choose and regardless of what one says, the argument does have considerable merit. At the same time it offers another side in that the most patriotic thing an American can do these days can be condensed as follows:

"Get drunk, drive your car, and become a chain cigarette smoker."—Hereford, (Texas) Brand.

LET 'EM EAT HOECAKE

As any chef will tell you, oysters this time of year tend to be lean because they lack glycogen, a substance which puts oyst in the oyster.

A world-wide search to find food to fatten the oysters ended recently in a Florida cornfield when scientist rediscovered the potency of pulverized cornmeal.

"We heard," said a scientist, "that old-timers fattened oysters in a tub of water with cornmeal. So we powdered some as fine as talcum powder, and fed it to our oysters, and they got fat."

And if the scientists took the fine, yellow, water-ground cornmeal and turned it into hoe cake, they could make any oyster, or oyster-eater, even fatter, and happier, too. —Norfolk Virginian Pilot.

REV. LEOS SPEAKS TO PRESBYTERIANS

The Rev. Jesse L. Leos, pastor of the El Mesias Presbyterian Church in Corpus Christi, was the principal speaker at a Family Night Supper meeting at the Rockport Presbyterian Church, sponsored by women of the church Sunday night.

Reverend Leos described work being done by Presbyterians throughout the state to assist Latin-Americans in many ways. Nine local Latin-Americans were among those who attended the affair and they contributed greatly to the question-and-answer period which followed Rev. Leo's address.

The supper meeting concluded the Church Extension season which emphasized programs initiated for the benefit of Latin-Americans.

The room and tables were decorated with dolls and other items made in Mexico, and on the main table was a centerpiece in the form of an open gate bearing the inscription, "My House is Yours." Each place setting was a colorful puzzle-mat imprinted with a map of the United States and questions and answers about Latin-Americans.

Mrs. L. W. Hight was in charge of the program, and Mrs. C. S. Sharpe, social chairman, was in charge of the supper.

HEALTH INSURANCE APPLICATIONS BY OLDER PEOPLE DUE NOW

Social Security headquarters in Baltimore has completed the mailing of Medicare information kits to all of the 15½ million persons 65 and over on the Social Security and Railroad Retirement benefit rolls.

All elderly Social Security or Railroad Retirement beneficiaries in this area should have received their kits and the enclosed application for the Medical Insurance part of Medicare.

About 650 other older persons—those not on the Social Security or Railroad Retirement benefit rolls—have already been in touch with the Social Security office in Corpus Christi. Many others need to enroll to protect their Medicare rights.

The enrollment period for those who will be 65 or over before the end of the year closes March 31, 1966.

The March 31 deadline is very important. Everyone who is 65, must return the Medical Insurance enrollment card by that date if he wants the health insurance protection when the program goes into effect July 1, 1966.

Social Security representatives make regular visits throughout this area to give information, and to assist eligible persons to complete their applications. The Corpus Christi district office is located at 1802 South Staples Street. The telephone number is TU 3-5511.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank everyone for their prayers, cards, flowers, telephone calls, food and visits, in our recent bereavement. May God bless you all.

Health and Safety Tips From The American Medical Ass'n (atherosclerosis)

Atherosclerosis is a form of arteriosclerosis, or hardening of the arteries.

Most heart attacks can be traced to atherosclerosis of the coronary arteries, through which travels the blood which nourishes the heart muscle, says Today's Health Guide, the manual of health information and guidance of the American Medical Association. Most strokes result from atherosclerosis in the arteries that deliver blood to the brain.

Most people have atherosclerosis to some degree without troublesome symptoms and live a normal life span.

In atherosclerosis, the inner walls of the arteries are gradually thickened and roughened by deposits of fatty material. As more layers of deposits are formed, they narrow the channel through the artery, hindering the flow of blood. When the artery wall is considerably roughened, blood clots may form on the roughened areas and block circulation at that point.

Research scientists are seeking the causes of atherosclerosis and ways to prevent and cure it. Changing the fat content of our diet may be one approach, and long-range studies are underway to discover whether a modified fat diet will help prevent heart attacks and strokes. Other factors being investigated include the role of exercise or its lack, emotional stress, excessive smoking and sex hormones.

Excessive smoking, especially of cigarettes, is thought by some scientists to be related to heart and blood vessel diseases, because of the constricting effect of smoking on the smaller arteries.

Usually a heart attack is caused by a sudden blocking of one of the arteries that supply the heart muscle with blood. A clogged artery may be closed by a blood clot (thrombus), and the part of the heart muscle fed by that artery may deteriorate or die from lack of blood.

In such cases, healing begins almost immediately and scar tissue begins to form in the damaged area of the heart. Treatment and rest give the heart time to heal itself. For some patients, doctors prescribe drugs to prevent new clots from forming.

Heart attack symptoms vary greatly and are not easy to identify. However when the following symptoms occur, a doctor should be called at once:

Moderate or severe pain or an uncomfortable sensation of pressure in the front of the chest. This sometimes spreads to the arms, throat or back, and sometimes is accompanied by sweating, shortness of breath, weakness or loss of consciousness.

Nausea and vomiting. These symptoms can be mistaken for acute indigestion; only a physician can tell the difference.

Until the doctor takes charge, the patient should be placed in a position most comfortable for him, either lying or sitting. Tight clothing should be loosened. The patient should be kept from chilling but should not be made to perspire by use of too many blankets. He should not be lifted or carried without the doctor's supervision, or given anything to drink without the doctor's advice.
