Portrait of Beloved Librarian Presented in Ceremony Sat.

A portrait of the late Miss Katherine Boverie, beloved county librarian for more than 30 years, was presented to the people of Collingsworth County by members of her family in a simple ceremony Saturday, August 23, at the library.

The portrait will hang in the new room of the library, which will house the Katherine Boverie Memorial Bookshelf and other memorial books.

Judge R. L. Templeton was master of ceremonies, and in paying tribute to Miss Boverie, described her as "The most unselfish person I ever knew—and the saintliest".

Others on the program were the Rev. Charles Knapp, pastor of Our Mother of Mercy Catholic Church; Tipton Miller, a long-time friend; and the Rev. J. F. Michael.

Mrs. Constance Schulz of Tucson, Arizona, presented the oil portrait on behalf of members of her family to the City Federation of Women's Clubs for the people of Collingsworth county, regardless of race, color or creed.

Mrs. Esdel Bartlett received it on behalf of the City Federation.

Here for the Dedication were two sisters and two brothers of Miss Boverie, along with their families; Mrs. Schulz; Mr. and Mrs. Clement Hendricks of El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boverie and children of Wichita Falls; and Mr. and Mrs. Clem Boverie and children of Lubbock.

Unable to attend were two brothers, Adolph Boverie of Olton and Dr. Robert F. Boverie of El Paso.

Friends of Miss Boverie filled the library to capacity for the ceremony, and called throughout the day, with approximately 225 registering.

Take Steps to Get Money for Topographic Work

The next step by directors of the Collingsworth County Water Control and Improvement District will be to secure the federal and state funds for topographical surveys of the district, John Coleman, president of the board, said Monday morning, August 25.

This must be done by September 1, if the district is to participate in the program. In this, the district will put up $5,000, the state $5,000 and the federal government $10,000.

Water District Gets 5 to 1 Approval

Collingsworth voters Saturday, August 23, gave almost five to one approval of the confirmation of the Collingsworth County Water Control and Improvement District; provided for the issuance of preliminary bonds by more than two to one, and named Judge C. C. Bishop as the next county judge.

In the only state race, local voters followed the trend and voted for Judge Robert Hamilton of Midland, over his opponent, J. Edwin Smith of Houston.

The confirmation election carried by a a vote of 1107 to 230 — winning in every box. In only two boxes was the vote close: Buck Creek, where 14 voted for and 10 against; and Samnorwood, where the vote was 26 to 20.

The issuance of preliminary bonds passed 870 to 359. This empowers the newly confirmed water district to issue $12,500 in bonds for preliminary surveys, studies, mapping of the water resources of Collingsworth county.

This measure failed to carry in only one box, Marella, where the vote was 16 to 15 against, although voting at Buck Creek was 13 for to 11 against.

Judge Bishop, who served as county judge for 2 terms approximately 20 years ago, received a vote of 983 to 532 for Wayne Cudd.

Glen Lewis Delivers First County Cotton of Season

Wellington and Dodson opened the 1958 cotton season with bales ginned during the past week.

The first bale of county-grown cotton was delivered by Glen Lewis to the Davis Gin at Dodson Thursday evening, August 21, and it was ginned Friday morning, Marvin Wynn, manager, reported.

Wellington's first bale was grown by Alva Adcock of Swearingen and delivered to the Farmers Co-op about 6 p. m. Monday, August 25.

The first bale ginned in the county was brought to the Davis Gin earlier Thursday by Curtis Trammell, woh farms in Oklahoma.

Lewis, who farms a mile east of Dodson, just inside Collingsworth county, had 2,000 pounds of seed cotton and got a 460 pound bale which graded middling 31/32, Wynn said.

The cotton was grown on sub-irrigated land and will make close to a bale per acre, Lewis reported.

The cotton was bought by Davis Gin at 35 cents per pound.

Adcock had 2050 pounds of seed cotton and got a 496 pound bale with 790 pounds of seed, J. N. Glasgow of the Co-op reported.

The gin is buying that cotton at 40 cents per pound and giving the traditional ginning and wrapping free.

This year's first bale was delivered 12 days earlier than the first bale of the 1957 crop, delivered by Carl Stout, who also farms at Swearingen.

Classes Begin in Wellington Schools Monday

Classwork begins in the Wellington schools Monday, September 1, at 9 a. m., Supt. Bennett Goodloe announced this week. Registration in Elementary, as well as Junior High school and high school will be completed this week.

There will be no change in the high school curriculum, and little change in the faculty, the superintendent explained. The two new teachers are Mack Odell, assistant coach and Bill Miller, band director. Mrs. Charles Little, a former teacher, is returning to the system.

The school will operate with one less classroom teacher than last year, a total of 38 teachers and administrators.

Two changes in policy were announced. All beginners in the system must have had shots for smallpox, diptheria and whooping cough.

Prices for school lunches have been raised, with elementary students to pay 30 cents; high school 35c; and teachers 40c and non-school personnel 50c.

As in the past, all beginners must have a certified copy or photostatic copy of their birth certificates.

On Monday, buses will run the same route they did on the closing day of school in May.

High school registration will continue through this week, and all except approximately 20 students have registered.

Jack Davis, elementary school principal, announced the registration for the first grade will be from 1 to 3 p. m., Friday, August 29.

Junior high students were registered before the close of school last spring. Any new students who will attend junior high but who did not attend here last year should come to the school Friday at 9 a. m. to register. There will be a $2.00 enrollment fee for all junior high students to cover the cost of materials furnished.

FW&D Buys Katy Trackage and Resumes Rail Service

The Fort Worth and Denver Railway bought the M-K-T Railway industrial trackage in Wellington to a point 1,500 feet east of the Traders Compress switch, giving the city a rail outlet for wheat, grain sorghum and cotton crops.

With 100 carloads of last year's milo, 150 cars of this year's government-stored wheat and an undisclosed amount of cotton bottled up in storage facilities along a half mile of track abandoned by the Katy, local citizens and elevator owners last week brought protests before congressman, senators and the Interstate Commerce Commission. The ICC took immediate action to restore service.

J. E. Roberts, Denver agent, said the businesses along the Katy track will receive service every other day for the present and if business merits it, every day. Workmen this week are cutting weeds and running sprayers along the right of way.

Four cars of wheat were billed out Tuesday and 20 more were due to go out this week, along with two cars of cotton. By the end of the week, Roberts said he expects milo shipments to begin and this will continue until the end of the year.

He also announced the Railway Express is now at the Denver station, with every-other-day service.

Abandonment of the Wellington line by the Katy was authorized by the ICC contigent upon uninterrupted service to Wellington industries by the Katy until the service was taken over by the Fort Worth and Denver.

On July 31, however, the last Katy train ran, and for almost three weeks Wellington's three major agricultural products handlers, Singley Mill and Elevator, Warrick Feed Store and Traders Compress, had no outlet. Warricks in the meantime received orders from the Commodity Credit Corporation to ship 25 cars of loan wheat, which they were unable to do.

An appeal to Right Armstrong, Denver vice president, brought information his company was unable to secure an agreement to purchase the Katy trackage here.

V. D. Baker, director of the ICC, upon being contacted, pointed out the authority to abandon the line [illegible] provision there [illegible] upted service, and the commission wired the Katy for information as to why this provision was not made. The sale was concluded within a few days.

The amount of the purchase price was not given.

Hail Strips Cotton At Fresno and Loco

Hail which struck about 6 p. m. Monday, August 25, riddled cotton in a strip approximately three miles wide and six long in the Fresno and Loco communities.

In fields where the hail was heaviest, cotton stalks stood stripped of every leaf and boll. In less severely damaged fields, leaves and some bolls were hurt, and in between was cotton on which th bolls were so badly bruised that it is probable they will sour and fall off.

The hail started at the Barney Glenn farm a mile east of Wellington on the Dodson highway and extended southward, then stopped just beyond the county line.

The total cotton acreage lost has not been tallied, but one ginner, Alonzo Cartwright of the Wellington Gins, estimated that the average yield for this area would have been half a bale per acre. Some of it would have been much higher.

Farmers in the hailed-out strip, some of whom lost their entire cotton crop, while others were only damaged, included Fred Covey, Carthel Lewis, R. L. Mabery, J. B. Killian, C. B. Nunnelley, Sidney Elmore, Tiffin Young, Hubert Mauldin, Harold Keller, Marvin Clubb, Woody Wood, Elliott Wynn, Albert Fulcher Paul Wauer and John Eron Forbis.

Rain in varying amounts accompanied the hail. In Wellington .04 inch was measured by T. H. Franklin, Weather Bureau Observer, at the corner of 9th and Dalhart streets. Rain was heavy at the east edge of town, but a short distance west of Wellington there was no rain at all.

CROSSROADS * REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where some Congressmen are wanting the Federal Trade Commission to crack down on people who sell anti-fat pills which don't perform as advertised.

Seems the FTC has done a pretty good job of protecting us born suckers, but has been slow about putting a curb on cheaters who have been getting our money by promising to reduce our waistlines.

My corpulent neighbor says he hopes they also step in and shield us from being took by politicians promising to reduce our taxes.

I see where the Governor's race in New York has got narrowed down to where the folks there have got to choose between two millionaires.

Which my cynical neighbor says is going to work a hardship on many a kind-hearted voter.

On acount of they won't know who to vote for in this case, having always favored the candidates who were not smart enough to make a living outside of public office.

I see where one line of 1959 cars is going to come out with only 25 different color combinations to pick from, whereas in 1958 they offered 300 of same.

My triple-teen neighbor says this is pure regression and with such a limited range of colors, a man is liable to have to drive a car at times which don't anywhere near match his socks.

Having more people in a town driving the same color cars will also be a handicap to the gossip gluttons in getting out their reports on who they saw parked where.

I see where the bull-throwing Senators of Washington are unhappy about the support which sports fans thereof are giving the ball-throwing Senators.

My vote-bearing neighbor guesses baseball don't much appeal to folks in the government city on account of you can't change the rules while on the way from first to second base.

Or, he says, maybe the bureaucrat sect prefers participant sports, such as the $300 billion hurdles, the poll vault, the pass-the-buck relay, and the weight-throwing events.

My traffic-worried city neighbor is giving away a book on his town's traffic rules, so folks can get out of there unticketed just by memorizing 48 pages of fine print and using same as a guide to their faith and practice.

Same neighbor is ready to print up a book on outer space traffic rules also, to help people who may wish to go moon-shopping without getting a ticket while there.

Chamber of commerce on the Moon ought to appreciate him going to all this trouble and expense to help keep their out-of-orbit customers bitterless and coming back.

I see where a Swiss scientist has dug up a skeleton over 10 million years old, which may prove that man was first and so couldn't be descended from the ape.

Which my scientific neighbor says don't necessarily explode the theory of evolution. Just shows maybe we need to change to textbooks on the points as to who descended from who.

Says if it turns out that the natural evolutionary program is actually man-to-ape instead of ape-to-man, it would somewhat clear up the mystery of such things as our seasonal women's fashion monkeyshines.

"Made $15 an acre grazing wheat—cut a 40-bu. crop"

Bill D. Wood, who farms 640 acres, says: "My records show the dollar profit in applying Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia pre-plant to wheat land. On my irrigated wheat, I paid for my seed and fertilizer and made $15 net an acre grazing it, when I used Phillips 66 Ammonia. The next year, I cut a 40-bushel wheat crop."

Other successful Southwestern farmers use Phillips 66 ammonia to give them higher grain yields . . . and more profitable grazing. The 82% nitrogen in Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia gives young wheat a fast start, supplies plenty of lush, protein-rich forage that puts on more beef at less cost per pound.

Many of these farmers plow down Phillips 66 ammonia in the fall on maize land. They know that the 82% nitrogen helps decompose crop residue, to provide extra plant food and make the soil more productive. Remember, Phillips 66 ammonia gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.

In Memoriam

In Memory of Eugene (Rus) Tow on his birthday, August 19, who passed away April 5, 1958. Dedicated to Mother Tow.

I am home in heaven, Dear Ones,
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this ever lasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly,
Trod the Valley of the Shade;
Oh, but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.

And he came himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows
Pray to Trust our Father's will.

There is work still waiting for you
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now while life remaineth
You shall Rest in Jesus' land

When that work is all completed
He will gently call you home.
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come.

His wife,
Mildred

Study New FM Road Program on Thursday

Palmer Massey, district highway engineer, will meet with the Commissioners court Thursday, August 28 on the county's new farm to market road program.

Massey will present his ideas on the new program and the commissioners will present theirs, Judge R. L. Templeton said.

Three projects are under consideration by the court: Commissioners Pat O'Hair and Cortez Barnett are backing a 12-mile road that would link FM 1442 in the Buck Creek community west of Wellington, with FM 1036 west of Abra, going through Quail. This would be along the four miles north of Quail already paved, and such a road would cross both Salt Fork, at a point where the county bridge washed out in 1955, and Buck Creek.

Another road under study would extend from the end of FM at Swearingen school house with the Memphis highway.

The third road proposed locally would be three miles in the Beanhill community.

Judge Templeton also announced that all rights of way on projects already approved will be ready to turn over to Mr. Coil, highway engineer in charge of this work, by September 1. Easements must be secured from only four landowners in the three programs.

...TRADE

is a Builder

(Does your trade build for you?)

Trade built this community . . . its homes, its churches, its schools, its business houses, its jobs, its pleasant way of life. Without Trade . . . the exchange between neighbors of labor's fruits for goods and services . . . none of these would — nor could — exist here.

Quite naturally . . . more trade builds better communities. Every single additional dollar that is spent here at home does its bit to bring greater prosperity for you and for all of us who live here.

As a matter of fact, Trade builds wherever it exists. Spend your money at home, the trade it creates builds here. Spend it in the city, the building takes place there.

There is contentment, security and opportunity in a growing community. These are the most important things that your trade dollar buys . . . but they can't be wrapped up and taken home with you from a city store.

The dollar you spend in another town or city buys more real benefits for somebody else than it does for you. You get a bit of goods; the folks who live there get more prosperity . . . paid for by your money.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

Our railroad problem has been settled and the Denver is now switching cars on the old Katy tracks. Our feed and cotton will move to market in an orderly fashion. Just what Dodson and Hollis will do for heavy transportation is a matter of question. Perhaps the Denver could be induced to operate the line from Hollis westward. After all there was a tremendous amount of wheat shipped over thsoe rails last summer. We do not realize how important the railroads are until we have to do without them.

We take a lot of other institutions for granted until their services are curtailed or stopped such as hospitals, schools, banks, good stores, newspapers, etc.

Morris Wells says there is some mighty good news in the offing concerning St. Joseph's. More about that next week.

We took a step in the right direction last Saturday when the county wide water district was created, but there is a lot of work to be done before there will be any lakes on our streams. Oklahoma is still eyeing the water on Salt Fork. Elm is practically useless to them because it runs through the Salt Beds before it gets to Oklahoma. It is the stream that should have been named Salt Fork, but the folks in Austin got their signals crossed so one of the sweetest water streams in the Panhandle bears a bad name. Elm is also sweet water as it runs in Collingsworth.

The ceremonies dedicating the new section of the library and the presentation of the portrait of Miss Katherine Boverie was a heart warming ocasion. The artist has done a splendid job with the painting.

The smell of fall is in the air and football and hay fever will soon be with us. In fact hay fever is here now. The dove season will open next Monday and the crop has never been more bountiful. The quail population is also the highest in years.

The first paper drive for Kids baseball netted over two tons. Mrs. John Coleman says that this will be held once each month so save your old newspapers. No magazines are wanted.

The peach season is coming to an end, but you can still get fine peaches at some of the orchards. The quality is the best anybody can remember. We had peach ice cream Sunday made with Bearden's Best and half and half cream and was it larruping good. Mrs. Richard Bailey took one taste and remarked — you must have made this out of cream.

B. F. Wheeler, 407 Arlington, has some extra fine cling peaches in case you want to put up some peach preserves.

The civil defense department says that every family should have at least a two weeks supply of canned goods on hand. They point out that people who have cellars full of canned food will fare the best in the event of a sudden attack. Locker food could ruin due to power failure.

Miss Sheri Graham and Miss Edna Wright of Amarillo spent the week end with their families here, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Morris, Miss Graham's grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright.

Mr. ad Mrs. J. B. King and girls, Jacqueline and Marcia, have returned from a vacation to Monument Lake, Colorado, and Raton, N. M.

Burglars Take $175 From Howell Grocery

Burglars broke into the J. C. Howell grocery at Dodson some time Saturday night, August 23, pried open the drawers of a cash register, and took approximately $175 in cash, Sheriff John Rainey reported.

Officers believe more than one person was involved in the burglary, and it is not known definitely how entry was gained, although a screen was torn off one barred window and that window was raised.

As far as can be determined, no merchandise was taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell were out of town at the time, and the store was closed about 8 p. m. Saturday night by their son, Jimmy Howell. He also discovered the burglary when he opened the store about 7 a. m. Sunday morning.

Sheriff Rainey said no fingerprints were found although he believes the burglary to be the work of amateurs.

Next Pickup September 8

Ton of Newspapers Taken in Drive Monday

Approximately one ton of old newspapers was collected in the first pick-up Monday evening, August 25, Mrs. John Coleman, drive director, and member of the youth baseball commission announced.

The next pick-up will be Monday, September 8, immediately after school.

Not all streets were worked, Mrs. Coleman said, and anyone having paper that needs to be picked up should call her, No. 377-J, Mrs. Wayne Cudd, No. 333, or 124, or Mrs. Gorman Owens, 274-M. Those living out of town may contact one of these or leave their papers with someone.

"We have found that papers laid flat in a box are easy for the little boys to carry and will save the trouble of tying, and also some used a peck grocery sack to hold the papers," Mrs. Coleman explained.

Only newspapers can be used. No magazines or glazed paper can be accepted.

"The success of our endeavor to market the paper depends on your saving the papers regularly. Our goal is two tons per month. Find out who is the captain of your street and then tell her what you can do," Mrs. Coleman urged.

More boys 10 to 14 years of age are needed to help with the pickup work.

Booth Space Available at County Fair

Commercial exhibits will be an important part of the Collingsworth county Free Fair, George Shadid, chairman of booth sales reminded this week.

These booths will be available to merchants and will be inside the National Guard Armory, where the fair will be held. Space will be sold at 15c per square foot, and booths of any size may be bought.

Exhibit space far cars, farm machinery and other equipment will be outside the building, Shadid said.

Products exhibits will be in a double row down the center of the armory, with commercial exhibits along the sides of the building.

Merchants interested in obtaining booths are urged to contact Shadid at once.

Floats

Organizations and business firms who will have floats in the Collingsworth county Free Fair are urged to get them ready at once, Polly O'Neil, parade chairman, annuounced this week.

O'Neil also announced that a trophy will be awarded the winning riding club in the parade, and first second and third place ribbons will go to the top three bands.

The most spectacuar cowboy riding in the parade will be chosen.

President Eisenhower has acted favorably on Governor Price Daniel's request for federal disaster funds for emergency repairs to Collingsworth county roads and bridges, William L. McGill, state cordinator of defense and disaster relief has notfied County Judge R. L. Templeton by telegram this week.

The commissioners court in a meeting July 30 declared the county a disaster area and requested aid for the repair and replacement of roads and bridges.

The amountof aid that will be given the county was not set out in the telegram.

Car Recovered, Man Charged

A 1952 Chevrolet stolen from T. F. Holley on August 10 was recovered in Fort Worth and Johnnie Roy Rennels was arrested in Decatur in connection with the theft, Sheriff John Rainey reported this week.

The car was only one of a series of 1950 to 1952 Chevrolets stolen by Rennels on the spree, Sheriff Rainey said.

Released from the Texas State Prison August 4, on his third sentence for car theft, the 25 year old Rennels stole a car in Fort Worth and drove it to Childress, abandoned it and stole another car. In the latter he found an open title in the glove compartment, took the car to Hollis and swapped it for another, forging the title. He then drove there, picked up the Holley car from in front of Jay's Drive-In, and towed it into Oklahoma, where he sold the battery and hubcaps. It was this sale that gave local officers their first tip as to who they were hunting in the case. Rennels drove back to Fort Worth and a few days later stole his final car in Decatur, where he was arrested Wednesday night, August 20.

The man was picked up by Sheriff Rainey and Sheriff Gaylon Smith of Childress and is being held in the Childress county jail. It is not yet decided which county will try him first, or whether he will be tried as a habitual criminal or for car theft, Sheriff Rainey said.

Communities planning to have community products booths at the Collingsworth county Free Fair are urged to notify County Agent Bob Lynch or the Chamber of Commerce as early as possible, in order that booth space may be provided.

"We need to know which communities plan to have booths," Lynch said.

If booth space has not been arranged for, products can still be brought in and shown individually. Those needing information should contact Lynch, Jake Tarter, chairman of the community products division, Monty Mitchell, Frank Kennedy or Wood Coleman.
