TWINKLES
If the gods made mad those they would destroy, Austin folk are certainly due to see a lot of destruction.

Well, if they cut the letter postage to 2 cents we'll write that letter we've been postponing for so long.

We hear much of dads helping to rear their sons. As a matter of fact, we know many a dad whose actions would be a lot worse if it were not for the influence of Son.

Sometimes, looking over the city, we see so much work waiting to be done that we wonder why more men do not seek the opportunity of doing it.

Nature is getting warmer, and world politics hotter, most of us are in the red, gangsters frequently "turn on the heat," Russia's Red-hot, and more and more people are being born red-headed.

The North Ouyler widow says that the girls know most bachelors are doubly afraid of moonlight in these trying days, but that is no reason for avoiding dates altogether.

West Foster's grouch says he is for bigger and more elaborate weddings. Says he, so much fuss is being made over divorcing that marrying must be made more ornate to have any dignity at all.

Quoting Robert Quillen: "The causes of the revolution (1776) were: George the Third and taxing two-thirds." Now we do our own taxing and thus ourselves.

Limitation of hours of labor will come, but many of the hard-pressed business men we know will have to work 12 hours a day for at least 18 months to erase all the red ink they have accumulated in recent years, or carried over unpaid.

Pampa's good reputation, gained several years ago after a struggle to live down the small-town census report of 1920, remains intact in the minds of the people of the southwest. Indeed, Pampa is a little too popular with certain classes of traveling salesmen and some men who have nothing to sell.

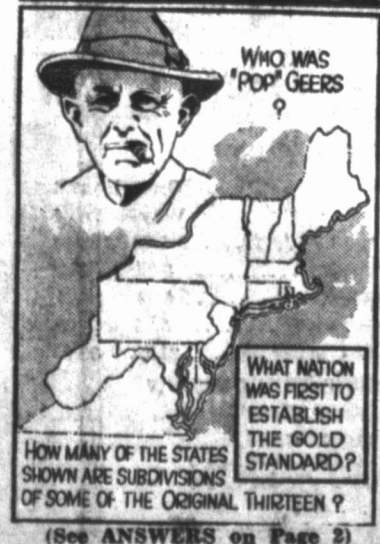

Curbs, running high in water, used to evoke comments about a city of this size which had no storm-sewers. But lately such a sight elicited only thankfulness for the "moisture."

Sheriff Tiny Pipes has thanked this newspaper for working hand-in-hand with county officers in burglary investigations and refraining from premature publication of certain details. The NEWS recognizes that occasionally a newspaper, by over-eager publication of what can just as well be printed in greater detail somewhat later, can seriously hamper officers in their investigations. In delaying publication of an item, however, a newspaper reserves its constitutional right to use its own judgment in such matters.

High school graduates in their thirteenth and fourteenth years are saying that the world has many things wrong with it. Don't we "old folks" know it?

The question of the hour is: Who is an oldtimer? Some people wish to make it 1900—we favor 1885 as deadline for coming to this section. And furthermore, much depends on

THREE GUESSES

SOLONS WELL AGREED UPON ITS NECESSITY

APPROPRIATION EACH YEAR WOULD BE $100,000

MARRIAGE LAW IS HIT

FIGHT INVESTIGATION NEAR END—TRIAL DEMANDED

AUSTIN, April 28. (P)—A bill to establish the Texas Rehabilitation and Relief commission to co-operate with the federal government in disbursement of relief funds, was passed today by the house of the Texas legislature and sent to the senate.

It received 106 to 7 votes and will go into immediate effect if passed by 21 votes in the senate and signed by the governor.

A commission of seven, to be appointed by the governor, lieutenant governor and speaker of the house, would aid federal agencies in carrying on the relief and rehabilitation program. The commission would work without compensation.

The bill provided for establishment in each county of a local commission to work under supervision of the state board. Local units would be appointed by the state commission, with the approval of the county commissioners courts.

An appropriation of $100,000 each year was allowed.

The house adopted the free conference report on a bill to repeal the statute that requires giving 3 days notice of intentions to wed. The law has become known as the "gin marriage" law, so-called because it was enacted to prevent hasty marriages, contracted while either of the parties might be under the influence of intoxicants.

A bill to legalize boxing was laid on the table subject to call in the house. Sponsors hoped to be able to call it up for action soon. Twenty-four hours notice must be given before a bill can be taken from the table.

Trial of Three Attackers Asked

AUSTIN, April 28. (P)—A house committee that investigated a fight in which Representative Gordon Burns of Huntsville was injured today recommended that three alleged participants appear before the house and show reason why they should not be adjudged in contempt. The committee named Charles F. Rooser of Fort Worth, Bryan Payne of Tyler and W. C. Sroube of Corsicana in its complaint and suggested should they fail to show why they should not be adjudged in contempt they be "committed to imprisonment in the county jail of Travis county for a period of 48 hours to purge themselves of said

Lumber Firm Is Burglary Victim

The Independent Lumber company in South Pampa was entered last night and a typewriter stolen, it was reported to city officers early this morning. Entry to the main building was made by smashing a rear window.

Nothing else was reported missing. There were no tracks around the outside of the building. Officers are still looking for the men who hi-jacked the Hampton and Campbell garage Tuesday night. Several persons have been held for investigation, but the attendant has not identified any of them.

HEARD--

Ruey Morgan telling about the 37 he shot last week. Nobert believed him, but Mrs. Morgan said that she kept score and that it was a fact. Of course, no one disputed her word, but they did think she was sticking up for Huey, which was only proper.

C. B. "Brownie" Akers, former Pampa resident, is in a Lubbock hospital recovering from an operation. He will be in the hospital a week, and it will be two weeks before he will be able to be on the streets.

SPANIARDS IN COLLEGE TOWN CLAIM INSULT

Demand Dismissal of All University Regents and Professor of Psychology.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 28. (P)—A mass meeting of Spanish-Americans here last night demanded dismissal of Prof. R. M. Page of the University of New Mexico and the board of regents of the university for alleged insults to Spanish-speaking people in the state.

The demands came after a series of questions calculated to obtain information regarding the attitude of Anglo high school students toward their Spanish-speaking classmates were made public. The questionnaire was drawn up and prepared by Page, psychology professor, and George I. Sanchez, head of the department of information and statistics in New Mexico for the Rockefeller foundation.

Spanish-speaking people in the state charged the questionnaire was insulting and instead of accomplishing a better understanding between the two groups, tended to cause more bitterness and prejudice. Sanchez was quoted in Santa Fe as saying he assumed full responsibility for the affair.

Senior Girls Are Eager to Attend Some College

Senior girls of Pampa high school want to go to college next year. That fact was shown clearly by a survey made this morning by Miss Agnes Hughes, field secretary of Texas Woman's college, Fort Worth, who is visiting here. Of the 40 girls interrogated, only 7 said they were not going to college. Twenty-four said they had decided definitely in favor of higher education, and 9 were in doubt. Most of the girls, however, were uncertain as to what college they were to attend.

Miss Hughes brought greetings from Dr. Tom W. Brabham, former pastor of the Methodist church of Pampa, and from Lew Some, former superintendent of the Panhandle schools but now dean and business manager of the Fort Worth college. Both have many friends here. "The two make an excellent combination," she commented. "Dr. Brabham knows how to raise money, and Mr. Some knows how to spend it wisely." She said the college had operated this year without incurring any debt, being run on a cash, pay-as-you-go program. In spite of this fact, she said, standards have been raised and the campus improved. She stated that the enrollment showed a 15 per cent increase last year, and was encouraged by the fact that there are at this time twice as many girls who have stated their intention of attending the college as there were at this time last year.

Visiting Models To Be at May Dance

Out-of-town models in the recent Business and Professional Women's style show and their escorts will be among special guests at the May dance to be sponsored at the Plaza-Mor Monday evening by the B. & P. W. club.

The Thrill Harmony orchestra, which was praised highly by Pampans and visiting delegates at the dance given during the district club conference here, will furnish the music.

A Maypole dance and other novelty numbers will give added interest.

JAPAN TELLS OF HER PLANS TO GRAB ROAD

WAR IS UNLIKELY THO BICKERING TO BE BITTER

TOKYO, April 28. (P)—Japan hopes eventually to secure control of the Chinese eastern railway and eliminate the influence of Soviet Russia in northern Manchuria but is confident that it will be unnecessary to fight or pay much for the road.

It may take two or three years and may be done directly or thru the government of Manchukuo. This is not the formally acknowledged policy of the Tokyo government but it summarizes the informal admissions of official quarters.

The authoritative consensus is that an armed conflict arising from the present bickering of Russian and Manchukuo over rolling stock and details of railroad management is highly improbable. Authoritative non-Japanese sources here interpret this bickering as a phase of what probably will be a protracted campaign calculated to depress Russia's price for surrender of the Soviet rights to the C. E. R. to the point where Japan or Manchukuo will be willing to buy or trade.

Chinese reports stated that the Japanese launched a terrific attack on the Chinese positions at Nanmen early today, advancing on three sides. The Chinese put up stubborn resistance but they were blasted from their positions by Japanese artillery and air bombers, and were forced to evacuate as darkness fell.

Today alone, it was reported, the Chinese casualties totaled 4,000. Chinese sources asserted the Japanese suffered similar losses, but the Japanese denied it.

Wayside Man Is Whiskers Winner

Citizens of this territory had to take a back seat when it came to growing beards as Tillman Farr of the "Furrow" Ranch, Wayside, operated by Marvin L. McGhee, entered the ring at the Pla-Mor auditorium last night during the first annual western dance. Farr was the winner of the $25 cash prize offered by Manager Andy Andrews for the best set of whiskers.

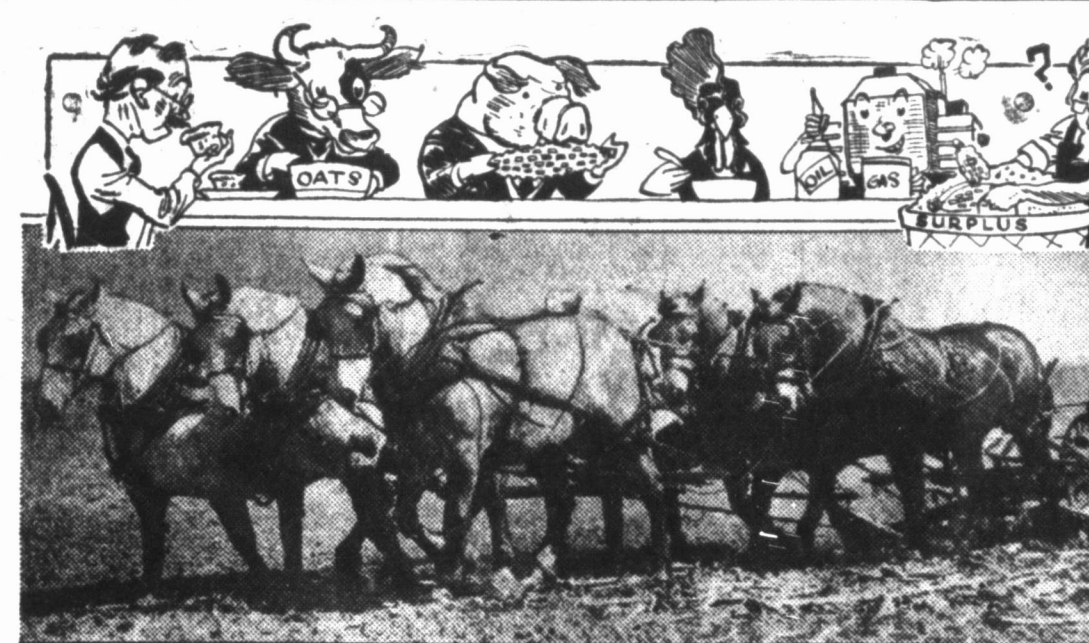

Jimmie Ford, local boy, had the contest won until the Wayside sensation came in and then the three judges had no trouble picking the winner. Farr had a crop of black, silken whiskers that he claimed had been growing less than six weeks.

More than 200 couples enjoyed the music of Joe Norman and his orchestra. Western costumes of big hats, chaps, cowboy boots, and fancy shirts were in evidence. Modern and oldtime music was played by the orchestra.

Mr. Andrews hopes to make the event bigger and better next year.

R. J. Beacham of LeFors was dismissed from Pampa hospital this morning.

HORSES URGED TO "EAT WAY TO PROSPERITY"

BRING back the horse to the farm "table," is the advice of C. W. Crawford, the University of Illinois. He says that restoration of the 8,500,000 work animals that have disappeared since 1915, when there were 21,195,000, would be a partial remedy for the depression on the farm by consuming a great amount of the present surplus.

A. P. Borger Given 2 Years

EXPERT SAYS HORSES NEEDED TO EAT CORN AND OAT CROPS

SHANGHAI, Saturday, April 28. (P)—C. C. Julian, American oil promoter, who is wanted in Oklahoma City to face federal charges of fraud, requested police protection today, saying that he feared kidnappers seeking a reported reward of $5,000 in gold for his arrest.

WASHINGTON, April 28. (P)—A prediction that the 30-hour work week bill when reported to the house would include newspapers and periodicals was made by Chairman Cnenny today in the labor's committee's hearings on the measure.

WICHITA FALLS, April 28. (P)—W. P. Anderson was charged today with murder in connection with the slaying of W. C. "Whitey" Hodges here last night.

GENEVA, April 28. (P)—The United States dramatically allied herself with Britain today at the world disarmament conference when Norman H. Davis announced that the American delegation would oppose any attempt to weaken the draft arms convention prepared by the British.

DALLAS, April 28. (P)—Police here were notified today that two men who kidnapped a Ruston, La., couple yesterday had been identified by photographs as Clyde Barrow and his brother, "Buck."

Wheeler Masons To Give Play

The play, "Ancient Trial," will be presented by a group of Wheeler Masons in the auditorium at the LeFors high school tonight at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 10 and 25 cents. Proceeds from the presentation will go to the LeFors Parent-Teacher association.

It was well received in Wheeler where it was given twice. Other communities also enjoyed the production. Pampans are invited to attend the play.

URBANA, Ill., April 28. (P)—That joke about the old gray mare isn't what is used to be.

It has assumed a serious complexion—involving the whole problem of farm prices.

The decline of the horse has continued to such an extent, according to studies made by C. W. Crawford, horse husbandry expert at the University of Illinois, that his conclusion is this:

Restoration of the 8,500,000 horses which have disappeared off American farms in the last 17 years would do "more than anything else" to wipe out under-consumption of grains and bring back the 68-cent corn and 43-cent oats of 1915.

If there were 21,195,000 horses on United States farms—as there were in 1915—Crawford says:

"They would eat more oats than are now marketed and 85 per cent of the corn which was shipped out of producing counties in 1932."

Crawford discounts the idea that low grain prices are results of increased production.

"Quite the contrary," he contends. "We have been producing about the same amount of corn and oats in recent years as we did before the war."

WICHITA FALLS, April 28. (P)—W. P. Anderson was held on a murder charge today for the fatal shooting of W. C. (Whitey) Hodges in a fight at the home of a neighbor.

Anderson was badly cut about the head and body and Tom Haney was taken to a hospital suffering from what physicians believed to be concussion of the brain. Police questioned four witnesses after the fight last night.

Salesman Slain In Highway Robbery

MUSKOGEE, Okla., April 28. (P)—A bullet wound in his temple, the body of Joe Bell, funeral supply salesman, was found slumped in his motor car today near Summit, 7 miles south of here.

His slayers, officers believe, were robbers, but they apparently overlooked a diamond ring on his gloved hand.

OKLAHOMA: Increasing cloudiness tonight; Saturday, mostly cloudy.

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy to cloudy, probably showers in south portion tonight and Saturday.

ESCANABA, Mich. (P)—For the last year John Manning, Escanaba shoe dealer has been offering a pair of shoes, size 15, to any one who could wear them. The shoes, measuring 12 1/4 inches from heel to tip, were pushed around on the display counter until Robert Vietzke, deputy sheriff of Rapid River, walked into the store. He stepped into the shoes, found them a bit snug, but decided they would stretch a bit.

Engineer Coming To Speed Work On Big Building

H. W. Olmsted, government construction engineer, will arrive May 7 to supervise construction of the new Pampa postoffice building, it was learned through a communication to Postmaster D. E. Cecil this morning. Mr. Olmsted will be accompanied by Mrs. Olmsted and two small children. They will come from Okmulgee, Okla., where Mr. Olmsted has been located for several months.

Digging of the basement for the structure started this morning. John Kiser, local contractor, was awarded the contract Wednesday afternoon. The work will be done with plow, scraper and truck, local labor will be used.

Hundreds of Pampans, employed and unemployed, visited the scene of activity this morning. Many of them had given up hope that the structure would be erected this year, and they wanted to see actual work start.

W. R. Walker, representing the Hubbard Construction company of Detroit has been in the city a week.

Fred Hobart Wins In Vernon Shoot

Setting a new record for rapid fire and making an excellent score in the slow fire, Fred Hobart, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hobart, won the pistol shoot at the Texas-Oklahoma Peace Officers' convention in Vernon yesterday. His rapid fire total was 94 points and slow fire 95 points, both out of a possible 100 points.

He won the matches three out of four years and would easily have won last year only that a gun was fired near his ear as he made one shot. He would have gained permanent possession of the large marksman cup, but for the unfortunate happening.

FLIER VISITS HERE

A Stinson, Jr., monoplane piloted by Leonard Condit, well known pilot, landed at the local air port this morning. The plane is owned by the Kansas Pipe Line & Gas company. Two members of the company stayed in Pampa for the day while the plane was flown to Amarillo by the pilot. Boyd Kennedy took a party to Amarillo late last night. The return trip was made in 17 minutes.

Gray's Quota Of Forest Workers Is 45 Young Men

Gray county's quota of young men eligible to enlist in the 6-month reforestation work is 45, according to information received by C. H. Walker, chairman of the Gray county federal relief committee.

However, only three young men have been asked so far, and it is assumed that the recruiting will be a gradual process until the quota is reached.

Part of the registration blanks received were sent to committees in LeFors and McLean. Applications here were approaching the half-hundred mark today, indicating that not all who wish to enlist can be accepted.

I SAW--

A look of chagrin on the face of B. J. Greene who said he and Miss Ruth Moore married five weeks ago at Cheyenne, Okla., and did not announce it because they wanted to avoid a charivari (correct way to spell "shiv-a-ree"), but that their friends found it out and gave them "the works" anyway.

PRESIDENT TO IGNORE IT IF VOTED POWER

THINKS PAYMENT NOT IN LINE WITH MEASURE

BORAH RAPS INFLATION

CALLING FOR GOLD IS TERMED ILLEGAL ACTION

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, April 28. (P)—The senate today rejected an amendment to the inflation bill to give President Roosevelt the optional power to pay the bonus with new money if the chief executive desires.

WASHINGTON, April 28. (P)—A warning that President Roosevelt was opposed to cash payment of the bonus was tacked up in the senate today by Robinson of Arkansas, the democratic leader, today in advance of an impending vote on the issue.

Speaking on the amendment to the inflation measure by Senator Robinson to give the president optional power to pay the bonus with new money, the democratic leader said:

"I am authorized to say for the president, that he is unqualifiedly against this amendment because he believes it will reverse the policy of the bill and defeat the purpose he has in mind, of using the new credit and currency to meet maturing obligations of the government."

Robinson added if the discretionary power were placed in the bill for the president to pay the bonus, the president would not exercise it.

WASHINGTON, April 28. (P)—An attack by Senator Borah upon government efforts to have citizens turn in their gold, in which the Idaho senator said if he had $5,000 in gold he would "defy the government to come and get it," pitched the senate into gold and banking debate today and delayed a vote on the bonus.

As the senate drove toward a ballot on the administration's currency expansion program, the independent republican asked:

"Why should citizens be threatened with criminal prosecution if they fail to return their gold, when the nation is off the gold standard?"

"There is no security, no assurance the citizen will ever get his gold back if he turns it in."

"We are asking the people to have confidence in the government. Ought not the government to have some confidence in the people?"

He demanded a guaranty for bank deposits.

INFLATION ISN'T A CURE-ALL

We Americans seem to be an incurably hopeful people. And there are times when our excessive optimism is apt to flip around between our ankles and trip us up. For some reason the nation's departure from the gold standard has raised a new crop of hopes. To a certain extent these hopes are justified. We are getting bold and decisive action, at least; for better or for worse we are on the move, and there is every indication that the rise in price of commodities and basic securities will have a deeply beneficial effect on the life of the country.

But we shall simply nullify these gains if we take it for granted that the controlled inflation plan is going to solve all of our troubles.

Senator Thomas, commenting on the proposed issuance of United States notes to retire government bonds, remarked:

"If this amendment goes into the farm bill it becomes the chief element. The rest of the bill will be forgotten. Inflation in itself will be farm relief and bank relief. In my judgment this amendment solves every problem we have so far as a money policy can solve them."

This statement is probably true enough—provided that its final words are always remembered. The new scheme will solve our problems "so far as a money policy can solve them"; but it must not be forgotten that some of them cannot be solved by a money problem, and that the reform and recovery program previously outlined by the administration still needs to be pushed ahead.

The problem of direct relief for unemployment is still with us, for example. The affairs of the railroads need straightening out. The measures designed to rectify the glaring faults in our banking system are just as much needed as ever. The federal "blue sky" proposition is as vital as ever. The plan to float a huge bond issue for public works still is to be considered.

A start has been made, and there is plenty of reason to believe that it is going to do us a lot of good. So long as we don't get so optimistic that we assume there is nothing more to be done we ought to make out splendidly.

Don't know how Premier MacDonald and President Roosevelt will get along, but as for Herriot, we presume he can be depended upon to be quite franc.

Bankers, you might suppose, prefer their on draught, while lawyers prefer to get their by the case.

Two-thirds of the human body is water, says a medical report. Some smart fellow will probably have it incorporated any day now, and sell stock.

University of California scientists achieved a temperature of 459.1 below zero. They can get a still lower one if they will put a thermometer beside Mrs. Ella Boole while she reads reports on the success of 3.2 beer.

Conductor Stokowski has presented a concert by an invisible orchestra. All right for music-lovers, but how about us fellows who only keep awake at concerts by keeping our eye glued on the kettle-drummer?

HALF OF WORLD LEANS ON SILVER AS MONETARY BASE

Paying of War Debts With Silver Discussed—Many Nations Would Benefit.

By J. R. BRACKETT

NEW YORK (AP)—Silver, once man's principal money metal, has been cast by its advocates for an important role in both the world and the American inflationary drama.

How might silver be used to raise prices, the object of inflation? For many years before and for awhile after the more general adoption of the gold standard, the value of silver was set by law just as the value of gold is defined. When silver was abandoned by the major nations, its value declined because the demand for it as a currency support fell.

Silver Extensive Money Base
Even today the buying power of more than half the world's population—China, India, Mexico, and South American countries—is dependent on silver. With the decline of the value of silver in gold standard countries, the trade of these nations with gold standard countries has been severely curtailed.

Silver advocates argue that it declined because it required more silver to buy from the gold standard countries the money with which to buy their products.

Thus any plan which raises the price of silver either by making it money on a larger scale or by holding it off the market is calculated to benefit these countries.

Linked To Debt Question
Tentative plans of the government suggest the possibility of allowing the debtors of the United States to pay part of their debts at least in silver. This would involve the purchase of huge amounts of silver and accordingly a rise in its price, of benefit to the trade of all gold standard countries with silver standard countries.

Congressional advocates of silver have urged the use of silver as a basis for the money along with gold. This would have a theoretical effect similar to using it for debt payments.

If the currency had a silver backing, the government would have to store silver just as it now stores gold. The removal of the silver from the market would increase its price even if a legal price were not set for it.

The proposal for the coinage of silver at 16-to-1 means that silver would be valued by law at one-sixteenth the value of gold, and that the government would buy all silver offered and sell silver on demand at that price. The phrase "16 to 1" is simply a definition of the proposed value of silver.

The further inflationary effect of encouraging the use of silver as money would be in lowering the value of each unit of money by increasing the amount of money.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rainouard, Mrs. Alex Schneider, Sr., and Mrs. Alex Schneider, Jr., spent Thursday in Amarillo.

POP GEERS WAS A LEADING REINSMAN of the country for nearly fifty years. MAINE, VERMONT AND WEST VIRGINIA were formed from parts of Massachusetts, New York and Virginia. PORTUGAL was the first country to establish gold as the standard medium of exchange.

ADVOCATES of silver as a monetary base, along with gold, picture it as having the power to help gold in carrying world trade. The inflation angle appears in the accompanying increase in monetary units.

More Dimes Per Democrat Asked

The Gray county Dime-a-Democrat drive to pay the debts of the national committee for the recent presidential campaign is going much too slowly, although quite a number of persons have contributed their dimes.

Precinct chairmen are being urged by Siler Faulkner, county chairman, to assist in the campaign. Dimes, or larger contributions, may be left with Mr. Faulkner at his office in the courthouse.

Gray county's quota is about $340, or a dime for every voter.

Bluestem Grass Drawing Cattle Herds to Osage

PAWHUSKA, Okla., April 28. (AP)—It's the lush green of bluestem that brings hundreds of thousands of head of cattle to the Osage every spring for fattening.

This fast growing grass that blankets the Osage hills country is reported by the United States department of agriculture as probably second only to Kentucky blue grass for grazing purposes.

The soil of the Osage contains much lime that imparts to this tall native prairie grass all the essentials for fattening livestock.

Ranchers report that more than 250 carloads already have been received at Blacklands, Bigheart, Forker and Bettis. Many of these came in for pasturing on leased Indian lands, others being shipped in by Osage county ranchers who own land also in Texas and New Mexico where stock is wintered.

Blacklands is considered the greatest shipping point for grass fed steers left in the west. More than 200,000 animals went to market from that point last year.

The branding, dehorning and dipping of these heavy shipments into the Osage has brought a lively, business-like and picturesque aspect to the grasslands, with only modern equipment and the scarcity of hand labor mustaches to indicate the time is not that of a generation ago.

Judge Cary Will Speak to Parents

Merten Parent-Teacher association will have installation of officers at a meeting this evening at 8 o'clock.

Judge C. E. Cary will be principal speaker, and a program by the school will include the following: Rhythm band number, second and third grades; News Boys Clog, third grade; reading; Mr. Sore Thumb, Kenneth Nelson; songs, fourth grade. Other numbers will be given both by children and by patrons of the school.

Havana Physicians Flee to Legations

HAVANA, April 28. (AP)—Two physicians were believed to have taken asylum today in foreign legations as a result of police activities to stamp out demonstrations against the Machado government.

One of them, Pedro S. Nunez, filed an application to organize a demonstration to welcome Sumner Welles, new United States ambassador, which was denied. Charges against Nunez were unknown.

The other was Abilio Valdes-da-da, whose two brothers were killed ten days ago by police.

DALLAS, April 28. (AP)—The long fight to determine custody of H. J. Jenkins Jr. was renewed today when an insurance company challenged in a petition in federal court the fitness of H. J. Jenkins Sr. to act as guardian for the boy.

The petition was part of a suit the insurance company instigated to determine the child's legal guardian in order that it might know to whom it must pay a $10,000 life insurance policy left him by late T. L. Bradford, former mayor of Dallas. William H. Atwell, federal judge, set the case for June 15.

Jenkins now has the boy in Louisville, where he was appointed guardian by a Kentucky court. T. L. Bradford Jr., the boy's uncle, claimed to be his legal guardian on the strength of authority from a Dallas court.

—AND A SMILE

SHREVEPORT, La., April 28. (AP)—It seems ridiculous, but it is so. An enterprising Shreveport drug store today displayed a large sign, offering to barter two bottles of 3.2 beer for three barrels of East Texas crude oil. The 12-ounce bottles of beer sell for 15 cents each, while the 52-gallon barrels of oil, at the present market, sell for a dime each.

OUT OUR WAY..... By WILLIAMS

The White Cockatoo

by Mignon G. Eberhart

SYNOPSIS: Sue Tally confides to Jim Sunden that she has in her possession a token which will entitle her to share her father's huge fortune, and that she believes the man murdered in the hotel corridor near Sunden's door had some connection with her claim. Sunden is suspected of the murder, and David Lora, a detective sent by Sue's brother, to investigate her claim has helped him. Sue shows Sunden a letter she has from Francis.

Chapter 19

SUE'S HELPLESS STATE

FRANCIS' letter began rather coolly: "My dear Madame:" I glanced at Sue. She smiled into my eyes, but there was a determined look about her face and a spark of anger in her eyes; I guessed that brother Francis' reluctance had had its share in molding her determination to prove herself. I went back to the letter, reading it slowly.

"My dear Madame: Mr. Lora's report has been favorable. However, I think it advisable that I and my lawyer visit you in order to make further inquiries. You will kindly await our arrival in Armenia, which may be somewhat delayed owing to pressing business matters. Of course, you understand that our projected trip to see you does not bind me in any way to grant your claim. While, as I say, my detective's report has been favorable, still there is one matter in particular to be satisfactorily proved.

"You will understand that my sister's portion of the estate, if she is still alive and can prove her identity beyond a shadow of a doubt, is considerable, and since the whole matter has been left in my hands to solve at my discretion I feel deeply responsible.

"I must add a word to the effect that if you actually prove to be Sue Tally, having in your possession every means of proving this to my complete satisfaction in this case I must warn you to take no one into your confidence. Owing to my father's indiscreet action, we have been troubled with several impostors, and it is not out of the question that you are in danger yourself.

"With this in mind, I am sending Mr. Lora again to Armenia. He will remain there and is under orders from me to give you every possible protection, which under the circumstances is, I think, really more than you can expect from me. I trust that you will reciprocate by following my wishes in the matter. Which are, I repeat, to await our arrival at Armenia and to take no one into your confidence."

It was all typed, even to the "Yours truly, Francis Tally," although he had placed very intricately interwoven initials below the typed signature.

She was watching me thoughtfully.

"Your brother Francis," I said slowly, "appears to be a somewhat canny sort of person. Not over eager, perhaps, to welcome his sister."

Her eyes lit.

"Then you do believe I'm what I say I am."

"Why—see here, do I look as if I doubted it?"

She shook her head slowly. "No," she said smiling, and her eyes shined. "No, you look as if you believed it." Her voice trembled a little. "It hasn't been very pleasant for me, you know. But I quite understand why he writes like that. He's got to be—cautious."

"He's cautious enough," I said briefly. "One might even call him overcautious."

I wondered if Francis had given up half his fortune to his sister. I didn't, of course, say all this, but Sue read my look. She said:

"You must remember that he's been troubled with impostors, and that he has not even seen me since I was a baby. We have practically it for me and later told me why my father had given it to me. She was fair according to her views."

"Is it possible that your mother, before her death, told anyone else of it?"

She frowned.

"That's something, of course, that I've wondered about for the last two or three weeks. I've felt—apprehensive. Oh—except for the abduction, I've nothing definite to go on. I've been a little nervous—once or twice I've thought my room was searched—at least, things seemed to have moved themselves mysteriously about."

"It was searched," I said grimly. "Look here, why don't you go to Paris? I'll go with—that is, I'll go at the same time. Go to a good hotel and wait for your brother there."

"I'd thought of that," she said quietly. "But Francis would never believe that I'm Sue Tally if I turned up in another place. He seems—unduly suspicious already."

"What about these records—marriage and birth and all that—are they, too, in a safe place?"

"Oh, quite," she said at once. "They are in the safe in Lovschlem's office."

"In Lovschlem's safe?" I cried incredulously.

"Why, yes," she said, looking at me in a puzzled way. "Why not? They—Grethe and Marcus Lovschlem have been very kind to me. They have been almost my only friends. They and—well, Marcel. The porter, you know. He's been kind in many, many small ways. And the Lovschlems did everything they could for my mother."

"Do they know anything of all this?"

"Lovschlem isn't prepossessing," she said, sensing the suspicion in my tone, "but I think he means well. However, I have told them very little about it."

Pennsylvania Will Vote on Blue Laws

HARRISBURG, Pa. April 28. (P)—Blue laws of 139 years standing have been given their first modernization and today legislation of Sunday baseball and football is up to the voters.

Committing himself for the first time on the question which has caused many memorable legislative battles, Governor Gifford Pinchot last night signed the Schwarzschild bill to permit each community to decide whether it wants football and baseball between 2 p. m. and 6 p. m., on Sundays.

The voters cannot act on the question until the November elections so the governor's action does not affect the present baseball season.

C. P. Bishop of Wichita, Kan., was here for a few days.

M. J. Adams of Wichita Falls was a visitor here this week.

LITTLE THEATER, SUCCESSFUL IN PRODUCING GREAT PLAYS, IS CONFIDENT OF 'HOLIDAY' HERE

Plays which have achieved national fame as stage and screen attractions have been produced with the greatest success by the Pampa Little Theater, and members of that organization are expecting the city auditorium to be packed when "Holiday," three-act comedy by Philip Barry, is presented next Tuesday night.

There were many calls for tickets before the paste-boards were placed on sale this week. In the last three days, one member of the Little Theater has sold 20 tickets and has contracted to sell 10 more. Tickets are on sale at drug store in the city and Gordon store, 1. A. Freeman is in charge of ticket sales.

"Holiday" had a long run on Broadway before it was produced on the screen. Many Pampans will remember that it was shown at the La Nora about a year ago.

Descriptions of the various roles follow:

Johnny Case (Ben Guill) young attorney who makes $20,000 and wants to take a holiday with his fiancée, Julia Seton (Mrs. Raymond Harrah), whose too-great respect and love for mere money prevents her from enjoying any life that is not conventional and dull; Linda Seton (Mrs. William T. Fraser), sister of Julia, whose philosophy of life resembles Johnny's and who is secretly in love with Johnny; Edward Seton (Dick Hughes), father of Julia and Linda, who cannot conceive of a person, much less Johnny, ever taking a holiday; and who believes that the amassing of dollars should be the only reason for not committing suicide immediately; Ned Seton (Bert Hobson), son of Ed and brother of Linda and Julia, who agrees with Linda and Johnny on the significant issues of life, but who hasn't the "nerve" to thwart his father's plans, and who in order to "forget it all" drinks incessantly.

Nick and Susan Potter (Neil Bean and Mrs. Earl Powell), who are friends of Johnny's and Linda's and who love fun, gaiety, sophisticated talk, Seton and Laura Cram (Dub Williams and Mrs. Carson Leftis), priggish cousins of the Setons, who also worship money in the manner of Edward.

Mrs. T. F. Morton is director.

Citizens Hurt As Bank Is Robbed

MADISON, Wis., April 28. (AP)—Three citizens were wounded, none seriously, and a bank official was slugged today by bank bandits who raided the Klein National bank and fled with $2,000.

Spraying city streets with machine gun, rifle, and pistol fire as they escaped, the four bandits endangered the lives of at least 20 persons, firing pointblank at a group of workmen in an alley back of the bank and shooting promiscuously as their car roared out of town.

Nine Negroes Of Scottsboro Are On Bread, Water

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 28. (AP)—The nine Scottsboro case negroes were on a bread and water diet today, after a jail mutiny.

They rebelled in the "day room" yesterday, where they had been taken for exercise, threatened their guards with clubs improvised from water pipes and light fixtures, and refused to return to their quarters. They said their rebellion was against mistreatment.

Warden F. L. Erwin announced the rebellion of the men, accused of attacking two white women in a case which has attracted international attention.

Warden Erwin said Heywood Patterson, 19, recently convicted a second time in the case and re-sentenced to death, was the leader of the rebellion. The mutiny, he said, apparently was due to resentment over their being locked in a separate room on visitor's day.

Fugitive Woman Juror, Husband And 2 Sons Die

ST. PAUL, April 28. (AP)—Rather than face what she had termed the "disgrace" of serving a six months term for contempt of federal court, Mrs. Genevieve A. Clark of Minneapolis, juror in the first Foshay mail fraud trial, sought refuge in death with her husband and two sons.

Their bodies, crowded together in a sedan, were found near here last night, three days after Mrs. Clark was to have appeared to begin her sentence in jail here.

Carbon monoxide gas, carried in to the car by a rubber hose attached to the exhaust pipe, snuffed out their lives. In the rear seat was found the body of Mrs. Clark, her arms round the two boys, Rowland, 10, and Dean, 7. Her husband, Daniel D. Clark, had placed himself in the front seat after closing all the windows.

Mrs. Clark was convicted of contempt for failing to reveal her former employment by a Foshay enterprise and business transactions carried on by her husband with a Foshay firm.

During the trial of W. B. Foshay, H. H. Henley and five associates on mail fraud charges, eleven jurors voted for conviction, but Mrs. Clark held out for acquittal and after a week of disagreement, the jury was discharged. Foshay and Henley subsequently were convicted after their associates had pleaded guilty or not contending and were given suspended sentences.

The conviction of Foshay and Henley has been appealed and the case is scheduled for re-trial soon.

"TRAP" KILLS NEGRO

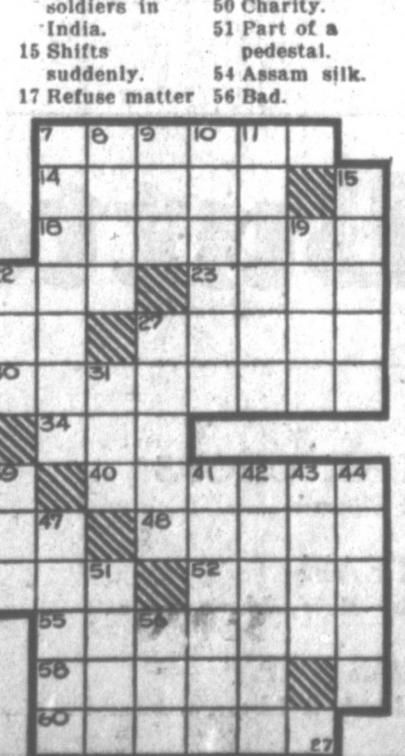

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 28. (AP)—A home-made electrical trap designed to prevent the theft of automobile accessories resulted today in the death of a negro prowler.

The body of the negro, who police said was Richard Young, was found in the garage of O. P. Dodson, a fireman, who had connected a 110-volt wire to the front fender of his motor car following repeated theft of tires and other accessories.

Murray Freundlich and J. M. Sween are expected home tomorrow from eastern markets where they have been on a buying trip.

INCOME TAXES MAY BE USED IN STATE PLAN

HIGHWAY MEASURE IS NOT ACCEPTABLE TO "JIM"

AUSTIN, April 28. (AP)—The Texas legislature today had made partial, and in some instances almost complete, disposition of some of the biggest issues that have been before it the more than three months it has been in session.

The senate had passed back to the house with amendments a resolution proposing submission of a constitutional amendment to legalize the manufacture and sale of 3.2 per cent beer and a bill regulating that manufacture and sale.

The house has sent to the senate a bill proposing a state income tax bill. It also had engrossed a bill proposing to make the state highway commission elective with a way commission elective with a

With eleven more days left of the $10 per diem 120-day session many saw in the aggressiveness of the legislators an indication that a regular session would end soon after May 9.

Representative P. L. Anderson of San Antonio and other leaders advocating quick legalization of beer said the house would readily concur in the senate amendments to the constitutional amendment to the voters on August 26 and the other fixing a tax on the sale and regulating and licensing dealers.

The thirty senators present voted unanimously to submit the constitutional amendment to legalize beer and only two out of 29 present opposed passage of the regulatory bill. Those voting against it were Senators Grady Woodruff of Decatur and Joe M. Moore of Greenville.

The absentees were Senators J. W. E. Beck of Littlefield and Arthur P. Dunn of J. C. 21, 32, 33, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

The house finally passed a bill by Representative Sarah Hughes of Dallas that would levy an income tax on individuals and corporations. Individuals would be taxed from one per cent for the first $1,000, seven per cent on the next $1,000. Married persons would be exempted up to $2,500 and single persons up to $1,000. Each would be allowed additional exemptions of $500 for each dependent. Corporations would be taxed from two per cent to six per cent.

Mrs. Hughes estimated the bill would produce from $12,000,000 to $14,000,000 in revenue.

The house engrossed the Ferguson administration bill proposing an elective highway commission of five members to replace the existing three-member appointive group, but amended it until it probably would not be acceptable to the governor.

As originally proposed it would have permitted the governor to appoint the five commissioners to serve until the next general election. It was amended to make it ineffective until the commissioners were elected in 1934 and qualified in 1935. Also a conflicting amendment was adopted proposing election of the commissioners on August 26 in a special election, when it is proposed to submit legalization of beer.

Still another amendment proposed that present members of the commission would continue in office until their successors were elected and qualified.

The senate committee on constitutional amendments recommended passage of a proposed amendment that would authorize the issuance of $20,000,000 in state bonds to provide funds with which to supplement federal unemployment relief money.

Pampa Daily News-Universal Reel Shows Strike of Chicago Students

Striking scenes of the desperate battle against floods along the lower Mississippi river, with convicts and emergency crews feverishly repairing broken levees as the water pours over entire counties; interesting views of the new "forestry recruits" being trained at army posts and then initiated into reforestation work, and the landing at Atlantic City of wreckage from the Akron and the body of Rear Admiral W. E. Moffett are among the highlights of the current Pampa Daily News-Universal Newsreel. Graham McNamee, noted radio announcer and the screen's talking reporter, describes the events shown in the reel at La Nora theater.

Many other important happenings are reported by McNamee, including the gala scene along the Potomac at Washington as thousands view the Tidal Basin to see the famed Japanese cherry blossoms; an impressive ceremony in which Premier Mussolini of Italy reviews 4,000 aviators on the tenth anniversary of the founding of the Fascist Air Corps, and a student strike by more than 10,000 Chicago high school pupils protesting the city's delay in paying teachers' salaries.

The interesting ceremonies attending the dedication of a new wing to the national portrait gallery in London by King George; impressive scenes of the observance of the Passover by Jewish and patriarchy in New York; unusual views of the racing crews of the U. S. of California at Los Angeles, training for a west coast triangular regatta, and an unusual dog parade and demonstration against muzzling laws staged by dog owners of Vienna, also are among the worth-while events shown in the new reel.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, April 28. (AP)—Material for grain values took place early today. Weakness was attributed largely to active selling on the part of eastern holders. Opening 1-1 cent lower, wheat afterward fell further. Corn started at 1/4 cent off, and continued downgraded.

Wheat closed unstable at almost the day's bottom figures, 1 1/2-2 1/2 under yesterday's finish, corn 1/4-1/2 down, oats 1/4 off, and provisions showing 10 to 15 cents set-back.

GENEVA, April 28. (AP)—Germany gave concrete expression today to her demand for equality in armaments when she filed a series of amendments to the draft convention before the world economic conference.

These indicated dissatisfaction with the size of the army accorded to Germany. Germany insisted it must get all the weapons of defense allocated to other nations.

HOUSE FIGHT

The complaint alleged that Roeser, who is president of the Texas Oil and Gas Conservation association, Payne and Stroube, "acting together, did unlawfully and wilfully," in the lobby of a hotel, "make an assault upon" Burns "by hitting, striking, kicking, and cursing him, because of words spoken by said member in debate on floor of the house."

It set out that "by reason of said assault" Burns "was painfully injured and for two days thereafter he was confined in a hospital... and for the third day has been confined to his room in a local hotel and has been unable to attend the sessions of the legislature and to discharge his official duties."

The report said that "by reason of privileged statements and arguments made in debate" by Burns on the floor of the house, Roeser, Payne, and Stroube, "without just cause, take exception thereto and assault and beat Burns, which assault was in violation of the constitution of the State of Texas granting immunity to the members of the legislature for words spoken in debate, and the said Roeser, Payne, and Stroube did by said assault obstruct the proceedings of said legislature; and that said assault has caused and does continue to cause unwarranted obstruction of the proceedings of the legislature."

whether one came by train, buckboard, trail, or stork.

Republicans are saying that President Roosevelt's "honeymoon" of legislation is over and that he will have to fight for what he gets henceforth. But maybe the country "loves a lover" and wishes the honeymoon to continue, eh G. O. P.?

With the dust settled, now is the time to use paint of the approximate quantity needed to fill the municipal swimming pool. Let's really "paint up" Pampa.

Texas is the only state not keeping standard birth and death records. Ask your family doctor if all your family has been legally born. And if you're dead, we suppose there isn't anything you can do about it. But this problem is important.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Jesus Sets New Standard of Living.
Scripture Lesson: Mark 10:13-17.
13. And they were bringing unto him little children, that he should touch them: and the disciples rebuked them.

14. But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me: for such is the kingdom of God.

15. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.

16. And he took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands upon them.

17. And as he was going forth into the way, there ran one to him, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18. And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, even God.

19. Thou knowest the commandments. Do not kill. Do not commit adultery. Do not steal. Do not bear false witness. Do not defraud. Honor thy father and mother.

20. And he said unto him, Teacher, all these things have I observed from my youth.

21. And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

22. But his countenance fell at the saying, and he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

23. And Jesus looked round about, and said unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24. And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answered again, and said unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25. It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26. And they were astonished exceedingly, saying unto him, Then who can be saved?

27. Jesus looking upon them said, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for all things are possible with God.

28. And they said, As ye would that men should be able to do ye also to them likewise.—Luke 6:31.

Time: March, A. D. 30, the closing period of Christ's ministry.

Place: Peraea, the country east of the Jordan.

Parallel Passages: Matt. 10:1-30; Luke 18:15-30.

Introduction
The time came, five months before Christ's crucifixion, in November of A. D. 29, when the persistent pressure of our Lord's enemies made it necessary for him to leave Galilee, the field of his ministry, and to go to the greater part of his ministry. He foresaw that the sacrificial death of the Lamb of God should take place at the next passover. Where should he spend the intervening five months? There remained an extensive region of Palestine which our Lord had hardly touched, namely, Peraea, the country "beyond," or east of, the Jordan, and within this region, probably, the concluding ministry of Jesus was conducted.

Christ's Peraean Ministry
Luke gives us our account of the events of this ministry up to the time of our lesson. They included the sending forth of seventy disciples as traveling evangelists; many rich discourses, especially the glorious parables of the good Samaritan, the great supper, the lost sheep, the lost piece of silver, the prodigal son (the crown of all the parables), the unjust steward, the rich man and Lazarus, the Pharisee and the publican. To this period belong Christ's visit to Jerusalem at the feast of dedication, with the discourses given then; also the chief of our Lord's miracles, the raising of Lazarus, to accomplish which Christ risked his life by returning to Bethany.

Blessing the Children
Having rebuked the disciples for hindering the children who had come to him and given them a most needed lesson, he turned to the children and took them in his arms, that is, "in the crook of his arm." The word means here "to place a little one's head to rest on the bend of one's arm." Nowhere is there a more beautiful picture of childhood or of Christ.

After taking the children tenderly in his arms, Jesus "blessed them," bestowing lovely and individual benedictions upon them which no doubt the fond parents remembered ever afterward.

In the bestowal of his blessing Jesus laid his hands upon each one of them. That was a great moment for the child, and a great moment for the mother and father and friends who witnessed the happy event.

Rich Young Ruler
The rich young ruler addressed Jesus very courteously as "Good Teacher."

The question he asked was a vital one from his point of view: "What shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?" The response of Jesus, instead of defining the duty as desired by the young ruler, first revolved around the question of deity. "Why callest thou me good? None is good save one, even God."

"You have called me good," he says. "Good is a title which belongs to God only. You have given it to me. Do you really mean it?"

So we are driven to one of two conclusions. "In that word our Lord either repudiated goodness or Godhead; or else he claimed goodness and Godhead."

Did he mean that he was not good? Then he meant that he was not God. Did he mean that he was God? Then he meant that he was God. There is no escape from the alternative.

(Morison.)

"Treasure in Heaven"
And thou shalt have treasure in heaven. Many and many a man, after twenty years of toil, stands on his half-million, and looks proudly at the position he has made for himself. He has given his brain, his muscle, his time, and his character to the acquisition of a fortune; and at last he has won it. But, perchance—how often is this the case!—he has forgotten to lay up treasures in heaven. He is not dishonest, not wilfully bad; he has simply ignored religion. In one fell, dreadful moment the whole is swept away, and he stands impoverished and alone. At first he is inclined to believe that God has been very unkind; but little by little he creeps up closer and closer to God, until he finds that he has paid just half a million dollars for a strong religious faith, and feels that he has bought it very cheaply indeed.

—Rev. George H. Hepworth.

"The Great Refusal"
"But his countenance fell at the saying, and he went away sorrowful." The young man made what Dante called "The Great Refusal." He turned away, within sight of the portals of heaven, away from the Lord of the kingdom in his love and gentleness, away from a love that could not indeed lower the terms of salvation one whit, yet opens the doors of life to the sinful but penitent heart. In his breast there seems to have come at least some consciousness of the awful fact, for as the interview closes, or he goes back to his rich home, the poorest of the poor, Luke says, "He heaved a deep sigh, the cry of a soul almost saved, but lost."—Rev. Neal Anderson, D. D.

Peril of Riches
Very solemnly Jesus said to his disciples, "How hardly shall they that have riches enter the kingdom of God!" The doctrine of Jesus as well as his demand of the rich young man struck the disciples dumb with astonishment. They had been thinking that riches were a sign of divine favor. Now they were told in terms unmistakable that riches are often a hindrance to the spiritual life. To their amazement Jesus answered again and said unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God! So the essential hindrance in connection with wealth is putting one's trust in it rather than in God.

Stewardship Application
Throughout the lesson it has been a series of teachings in Christian stewardship, the use for Christ of all that we have and are, since he has given it to us. That is where the rich young ruler failed: he did not hold his possessions as a sacred trust, which he was to surrender instantly at the call of Him whose they were.

"Lord Jesus, blessed Giver, We give of thine to thee; Thy gifts are like a river, Full-flowing, wide and free. So let our love, out-going Thy strength and joy bestowing, Return thy gifts again."—Amos R. Wells.

THAT'S CALLING 'EM
DETROIT (P)—A. E. Dixon called his shot and got a "hole in one" but it didn't count.

He dropped his teen shot on the 136-yard thirteenth green, six feet from the pin.

"That's nothing," he told his fellow players. "Give me another shot and I'll put it in the hole."

They gave him permission to play another ball and in the cup it went.

'Missionaries' To Be Sent To 'Sticks' Section

TEXARKANA, April 28. (P)—A concerted program of religious education has been planned for the rural sections of Bowie and Cass counties by the Paris Presbytery of the Southern Presbyterian church. The "Devil Murder" of an invalid child and tales of religious horrors that have come from the backwoods sections of Cass and Bowie counties were responsible for centering the program in that locality.

Religious workers will go into the rural sections, organizing Bible schools, Sundays schools and conducting evangelistic services preliminary to the organization of churches in the district.

Plans for the home mission work were laid at the presbytery session recently at Paris in which a number of Texarkana women took a leading part. Elders of the various independent churches of the Presbytery will do evangelistic work and then the Bible and Sundays schools will be organized under the leadership of Miss Myrtle Williamson, religious education worker of the Presbytery.

Texarkana and Marshall will serve as the two principal cities from which the home mission work will be conducted. The congregation of the First Presbyterian church here will take an active part in the work. Mission work also will be done at Kilgore.

'Rabbit Tail' Currency To Be Used at Olney

OLNEY, April 28. (P)—Regardless of what medium of exchange economists and financiers think is best for the country, Olney is going to establish a "rabbit tail" currency.

In order to encourage participation by the public in jack rabbit drives by the farmers of northwest Young county, Olney merchants have donated articles of merchandise which will be auctioned to the highest bidder, using rabbit tails for money, at auction to be held subsequent to a series of rabbit drives now under way.

The rodents have multiplied rapidly of late and are a serious menace to crops, according to Edwin Hill, chamber of commerce secretary, who is aiding G. R. Warren, county agent, in directing the work of extermination. Shot guns are being used.

Mrs. Lora Green, manager of the Alamo hotel, underwent a major operation in Worley hospital Wednesday. Her condition was favorable this morning.

Childress Tried 26 Years Before It Got Building

CHILDRESS, April 28. (P)—Workmen clearing a site for Childress new federal building happened upon an account of efforts 26 years ago toward fulfillment of the hopes for this new building. They took from the corner stone of the old Methodist church building being wrecked to make way for the building, the following account in a June, 1907, issue of the Childress Index.

"Reports have reached the Index that the federal government is considering constructing for the use of the postoffice a building at Childress. Theories have already been made about lots. We trust that something definite can be given soon."

The "something definite" materialized last fall when the government ordered plans for a building and later selected the site on which the abandoned church building has stood.

Mary Pickford To Give Fair Trip To Happiest Couples

Mary Pickford, "America's Sweetheart," will bring the twenty-happiest married couples she can find in the United States to a Century of Progress as her guests, it was announced here.

For three days in July, these idyllic couples—if she can find them—will be housed at a leading downtown hotel, permitted to dine on whatever their palates crave, entertained royally and escorted about the Exposition grounds to the most interesting exhibits and amusements.

News of Miss Pickford's offer was received from Hollywood, where the queen of the silver screen has just completed her latest picture "Secrets," in which she is starred with Leslie Howard.

"I am thrilled at the prospect of visiting A Century of Progress myself and have decided to take as my guests the twenty-happiest married couples I can find in the country," was the message Miss Pickford sent.

"For those who have found the secret of marital happiness, I intend to furnish a complete honeymoon—a visit to the greatest attraction of the decade with all expenses paid."

Transportation with a compartment on the finest train to and from Chicago will be provided the winning couples.

Miss Pickford has asked newspapers in twenty large cities to assist her in finding the happiest couples by submitting brief letters on the "Secrets of Marital Happiness," as well as their photographs.

Because A Century of Progress will be held in Chicago, however, happily married Chicagoans will be unable to take part in the contest.

S. F. Kelley of Skellytown was dismissed from Pampa hospital Wednesday following a serious illness.

Location Tests For Observatory In Texas Made

FORT DAVIS, April 28. (P)—Prof. G. Van Biesbroeck and Fred Granbury, Williams Bay, Wis., astronomers, are making tests for locating the McDonald astronomical observatory on top of Mount Locke near here. Plans for locating the observatory are regarded here as in the final stage.

The observers are making tests every night at the site and will remain for about a week. Prof. Van Biesbroeck said that the accessibility to Mount Locke would offset the difference between that location and Spring Mountain notwithstanding Mount Locke is only 6,600 feet high while Spring Mountain is 7,000 feet.

The observatory site will be less than a mile from the new Davis mountain state park highway. There is plenty of level land on top of Mount Locke, which is 14 miles north of Fort Davis.

A number of scientists have been here in connection with the establishment of the McDonald observatory, which will be sponsored jointly by the University of Texas and the University of Chicago. Material already is being gathered for the library of the observatory and various observatories over the world will be invited to exchange their journals and publications with the McDonald project.

Childress Also Has a Prodigy

CHILDRESS, April 28. (P)—Six weeks ago Pat Powell Jr., five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Powell, of Childress, volunteered insistently for the job of score-keeper in a domino game between his father and a neighbor.

To test the child, the neighbor asked him to add several numbers and was given the correct answer. After handling the scoring duties without a flaw, using the familiar one-two-three-four and cross system, the boy challenged the neighbor to a game and beat him.

After this latent mathematical ability had been discovered the boy was given daily exercises in addition and simple multiplication problems. Being unable to read or write, the exercise was oral.

Since this unusual ability of the child has come to the attention of residents of the city he has gained recognition as a mathematical prodigy. The correct totals of lists of numbers with three digits, reaching as high as 10,000 are given by the boy after only a moment's pause. Lists of single numbers can be given him for several minutes with the correct answer coming promptly.

The parents are teaching Pat Jr. to read and write.

SNAKES KILLED
SNYDER, April 28. (P)—Fifty-seven reptiles were killed by four men in the first rattlesnake hunt of the season here. It was held on the Hood ranch near Camp Springs. Will Nichols, Ben and Marion Hamilton and Gurley Carney did the killing with shot guns.

Matsuoka Warns Countrymen Of World's Opinion

TOKYO, April 27. (P)—Yosuke Matsuoka, chief Japanese delegate to the league of nations sessions on the China-Japanese controversy, came home triumphantly today while Japan gave a huge demonstration of national solidarity and popular approval of the conquest of Manchuria.

He said the Japanese people do not realize the seriousness of Japan's situation in the family of nations.

A striking Shinto ceremony at Yasukuni shrine for the souls of those who fell in battle for the empire in the last year was coupled with Matsuoka's homecoming, and the whole nation observed a holiday.

The envoy to Geneva, returning from a dramatic walkout on the league of nations last February and what is considered here to have been a successful journey across the United States in the Japanese cause, was welcomed by a cheering throng estimated at 50,000 persons when his ship docked at Yokohama.

In a speech Matsuoka urged the people to forget their factional differences and face the empire's crisis as the Americans were doing under the leadership of President Roosevelt.

HARVESTER CAGERS WILL PLAY SANDIES HERE TONIGHT

AMARILLO TO HAVE STRONG SQUAD READY

'GOOD ENOUGH TO WIN' SAYS COACH DAVIS HILL OF TEAM

The Pampa high school basketball team will test the strength of the Amarillo Sandies on the floor of the gymnasium here tonight at 8 o'clock. The Amarillo hardwood artists will be seeking revenge for three out of four losses at the hands of the Harvesters last season and the game is expected to be a hard fought one.

Coach Mitchell had not definitely selected his starting line-up this morning but said he would probably use Captain Miles Marbaugh at center, J. R. Green and Bill Dunaway, forwards, Orville Heiskell and Leslie Sartin, guards. Lloyd Hamilton and Elmer Irving will be first string substitutes.

The boys went through a stiff workout yesterday afternoon, studying plays and scrimmaging. The Harvesters have been out for practice little more than a week while the Sandies have been working for the last month. It is doubtful if Amarillo will have a full team but Coach Davis Hill sent word that he would have a strong quintet to beat the Harvesters.

The Harvester machine looks like a well balanced team with no individual stars. Although the boys have never played together before, they picked up plays given yesterday afternoon and executed them in a few minutes. Coach Mitchell is expecting great things from the team, especially when Jess Patton is able to get back at guard. Sartin is suffering from a bad ankle which will have to be rested.

Reserve strength should be great for the season. More than 20 boys have been in uniform and most of them have showed enough promise to warrant them consideration. Spring practice probably cease after the game tonight.

TELL-TALE SOAPS SHOUT BODY ODOR!

New Way Ends it by Removing Cause

Scientific tests have made clear at last why body odor—after one bath with ordinary soaps—soon bores up again. Their sticky, sluggish lathers cannot work into the pores, and so cannot remove the embedded stale perspiration. Instead they clog the pores with curds.

The new and positive way to beat body odor is deep-pore cleansing. One soap will do that, Kirk's Coco Castile, made by America's largest soap makers. Even in hard water, it breaks instantly into a searching lather. It cleans deep into the pores, actually removes the embedded perspiration—then rinses out completely and in a flash. Thus it ends body odor at its source—the only effective way.

This 100% pure vegetable soap is odorless—leaves no offensive M. S. (medicine smell)—is stimulating to the skin. Available everywhere in a big generous cake half again larger than the average toilet soap, it is now selling at the lowest price in history. Be sure to ask for Kirk's Castile by name—at your grocer's.

DIZZY DEAN GOES MODEST TO MAKE THE CARDS WIN

ST. LOUIS, April 28. (AP)—Jerome "Dizzy" Dean, baseball pitcher, has joined the ranks of the modest great—at least outwardly.

He has been credited with the loss of two games so far this season, and no victories. He pitched almost flawless ball in defeat, but his mates couldn't aid with base hits.

Yesterday he gave but four hits in eight innings, was jerked for a pinch-hitter, and Tex Carleton, who twirled the final inning, got credit for a victory.

Now he professes a decision to minimize his ability as a great pitcher so as to wean his fellow Cardinals from too great dependence on him, and he hopes that they will grab a few base hits for themselves.

"I've been very open and above board about my pitching," said Dean. "I've admitted how good I am, and all the Cardinals are thinking that all we have to do is our great pitching, and it ain't so. We got to score a few runs."

"Well from now on, or for a while at least, I'm going to change my tack, as we nautical men say. I'll have a sore arm, or I'm not feeling good. I'll be lucky to hold the Reds or any other club to half a dozen runs and I'll tell the Cardinals we'd better pile up some runs in the first inning and in every inning or old Diz won't have a chance."

PAMPA BOWLERS BEAT AMARILLO

Pampa bowlers got revenge from an Amarillo team at the local bowling alley Wednesday night by toppling 2,838 pins to 2,645 pins for the Amarilloans. The Pampa team rolled a game of 1,007 pins despite the fact that Hap Baxter only got 153 pins. Tom Darby was high scorer of the night with 620 pins but Dyke Cullum of Amarillo had high game with 237 pins. Laidley of Amarillo and Darby of Pampa each rolled games of 225 pins.

REPAID NOT TO RACE IN DERBY

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 28. (AP)—The "big four" of eastern contenders for the $50,000 Kentucky derby stake had been out to the "big three" today with announcement by James P. Johnson, owner of the Quincey stable, that he would not send Repaid to Churchill Downs.

Repaid, one of the future book favorites, raced poorly in two starts at Harve de Grace. His withdrawal leaves W. R. Coe's Ladyman, Adolph Pon's Swivel and F. A. Griffith's Sarada to bear the principal hopes of the east in the historic race here May 6.

PHILLIPS IS STILL LEADING PIN LEAGUE

When the smoke of battle had cleared away at the Pampa bowling alley last night, the Phillips Oilers were perched on top of the City league and three teams were tied for second place. The Jaycees, Voss, and Kiwanis No. 2 were the teams tied for second place honors.

Kiwanis No. 1 handed the Kiwanis No. 2 team three straight games to let them tie the Jaycees who were in second place after their last games Tuesday night. Voss then came thru to take two out of three from the Texas company to tie the other two teams.

Texas company finished second last and Kiwanis No. 1 last in the race. Several arguments have to be settled and the standing may be changed before the purse is divided.

SIX-INCH CUPS
AMARILLO, April 28. (AP)—Jack Bush, manager of the Wolfkin park golf course in Amarillo, has installed the six-inch cups designed by Gene Sarazen, but will not continue to use them.

Bush said he installed the larger cups because of the comment they had created over the nation, and because of local curiosity.

"Not a great deal of difference in scores has been noted," Bush said.

Mrs. Reba Jones was able to leave Pampa hospital Wednesday after a major operation.

DALLAS LOSES TO GALVESTON IN 5-2 GAME

TULSA BEATS SHIPPERS 11-7 WITH SAMMY HALE STARRING

By BILL PARKER.

Skipper Billy Webb and his Galveston Buccaneers continue to be head-men in the Texas league pennant race. The Buccaneers retained a slim lead over the Houston Buffaloes Thursday night with a 5 to 2 decision over the Dallas Steers. It was the first night game of the season for Dallas. The Steers were limited to five hits.

The Buccaneers played smart and fast baseball behind the consistent pitching of Chief Moore. John Whitehead, giant right-hander, started for Dallas and hurled commendable ball but could not get hitting support from his mates. The defeat dropped Dallas to the third place tie with the Beaumont Exporters.

Making four hits count, the Houston Buffaloes won the opening game of their series against Oklahoma City in a night contest, 5 to 2. Harry Matrak held the Buffaloes to four hits, but one was a double by Binder and another a triple by Goodman and they were the hits that drove in the runs.

Sammy Hale, third baseman, was the whole show in Tulsa's 11 to 7 victory over the Beaumont Exporters. His three hits, one a home run, drove six runs across the plate. The circuit wallop occurred with the bases loaded. It was a ding-dong battle all the way through and Hale's homer was hit after Stoneham, Tulsa right fielder, had hit a home run to tie the score.

Timely hitting gave San Antonio a 9 to 3 victory over Fort Worth. The Missions attack was featured by Purdy, Bettencourt, Sturdy and Manager Severeid. Kowalik held the Cats to five hits and was never in danger.

Old Settlers To Hold Reunion At 'Old Rock House'

CROSBYTON, April 28. (AP)—The West Texas Old Settlers reunion, held here annually on the anniversary of the death of "Uncle Hank" Smith, will occur August 18 and 19. W. T. "Dunn" Dunn, secretary-treasurer, has announced.

The reunion is held at the "Old Rock House," built by Uncle Hank in Blanco canyon about 10 miles north of here. It was the first permanent building on the plains and was built in the late '70s, of native rock, taken from the canyon.

Penn Relays Get Underway Today

PHILADELPHIA, April 28. (AP)—Trackdom's annual celebration of the birth of relay racing gets underway today for the 39th time today with the firing of the starter's gun opening the University of Pennsylvania's colorful carnival.

With flashing speed and feats of prowess affixed, 3,000 athletes from half-a-thousand schools and colleges compete through 26 events before the curtain is drawn on the 1933 Penn relays tomorrow afternoon.

Fair and warmer weather is predicted and 35,000 spectators are expected to be lured to the gala display of athletic skill by the promise of broken records and stellar performances on a fast track.

NEW YORK, April 28. (AP)—Gene Sarazen, American and British open champion, and Joe Kirkwood, Australian trick-shot artist, embarked today on a 20,000-mile automobile golfing tour of the eastern half of the United States.

The first stop will be at Atlanta this Saturday and, with the exception of the time both men will be in England during the latter part of June and early July, the tour will continue without interruption until October 1, Sarazen said.

Gene said the primary object of the tour is to "toughen me and give me plenty of practice on all types of courses." He and Kirkwood are making the trip in the $12,000 private autocar of Col. Henry L. Doherty, president of the Florida year-round clubs. The car is equipped with kitchen, shower, pullman berths, and other conveniences.

GIANTS LEADING LEAGUE WITH GOOD HURLING

ONLY ONE RUN IN 32 INNINGS MADE OFF CARL HUBBELL

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer.

The boys who follow National league developments are beginning to suspect that Bill Terry, manager of the New York Giants, has something up his sleeve besides a broken wrist. And that something seems to be pitching power.

When they started the season, the Giants looked no stronger than the club which finished tied for sixth place last year. But now, even with Sam Leslie playing first, the Giants have climbed to the top of the National league standing.

Terry has found one great weapon in his star southpaw, Carl Hubbell, who has allowed only one run in 32 2-3 innings. In addition, in the last three days, the Giants have demonstrated that Hal Schmagher could pitch a five-hit game; that Leroy Parmelee could come through with a one-hit performance and finally that Ray Starr, the ex-Cardinal, can do some effective hurling.

Except for some wildness, Starr pitched six good innings against the Phillies yesterday, allowing only four hits before he retired for a pinch hitter and Hubbell came in for three scoreless innings to ring up his third victory as the Giants opened up with a three run outburst in the eighth inning, won 5 to 2 and climbed into first place.

The Chicago Cubs shoved Pittsburgh out of the lead, beating the Pirates 3 to 2 on the strength of a big fourth inning as Guy Bush and Bill Swift fought it out on the hill.

Brooklyn beat the Boston Braves, 1-0, in the season's third mound duel between Walter Beck and Ed Brandt. Brandt gave only four hits to seven off Beck but the Dodgers got one effective cluster. The St. Louis Cardinals took their first decision from Cincinnati, bunting four singles with a walk and a fly for three runs in the ninth, to win 3 to 2.

Three four-hit pitching feats and one slugging which saw the Chicago White Sox, led by their new "dynamite trio," Al Simmons, Mule Haas,

EXPERTS UNABLE TO SELECT WINNER OF KENTUCKY DERBY

Turf Addicts Have Jitters But Ladysmans, Swivel And Sarada are Mentioned

By C. ROBERT KAY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 28. (AP)—Turf followers poring over form charts, histories, and ancestries of nominees, and workout records in an attempt to predict the 1933 Kentucky Derby winner have experienced nothing but dizzy spells for their pains.

W. R. Coe's Ladysman, leading juvenile money-winner last year, retains his position as future book favorite by virtue of a victory in his first race of the year at Harve de Grace two weeks ago. This race, however, was over the six furlong route, a half-mile shorter than the mile and a quarter derby distance.

The Quincey stable's Repaid, among the also runs in two races at Harve de Grace, has been mentioned as secondary favorite to Swivel. Fleet filly owned by Adolph Pons. Swivel showed excellent form in winning a mile and seventy yards race last week, but many conservatives eliminate her from consideration because and Jimmy Dykes, blast out a 10-4 victory over the Detroit Tigers, marked the American league play. Charley Ruffing pitched four-hit ball for the champion New York Yankees, and beat the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-2, as Lou Gehrig, Babe Ruth, and Earl Combs all hit homers off Sugar Cain.

Ed Lusk, Washington's 21-year-old right-handed rookie, turned in a four-hit game against the Boston Red Sox and his first start, winning 3-2 despite a burst of wildness that forced him out in the ninth. George Blaeholder held the Cleveland Indians to four safeties and the St. Louis Browns won 3-2 with the aid of some busy clotting by Jim Levey.

Kentucky Man Tells Why He Prefers Black-Draught

"About three years ago, I began suffering from constipation that made me feel full, tired and worn-out," writes Mr. W. N. Futrell, of Hickory, Ky. "I did not feel like I could keep going. I tried remedies but not anything that gave me the satisfaction that Black-Draught has given me. I have laid them all aside for Black-Draught. I am truly glad to recommend it to others, for it is a good medicine for constipation." Thousands of men and women rely on this famous medicine when they need a laxative. Sold everywhere.

PETROLEUM HAS MUCH SPEEDED RECENT GROWTH OF SOUTHWEST

DALLAS, April 28. —Petroleum has contributed more to the general progress of the southwest in the last 35 years than any other single resource, it is revealed in data assembled by the Magnolia Petroleum company, which is celebrating its "Founders' month" in April.

Magnolia's three founders, J. S. Cullinan, Calvin M. Payne, Henry C. Folger, are being honored for that part they played in starting the development of southwest petroleum resources when they built the first refinery at Corsicana, in 1888.

From its small beginning at the Magnolia refinery in Corsicana, the petroleum industry has become the greatest single contributor to the wealth and welfare of the southwest, it is shown. Since oil was first produced at Corsicana, crude petroleum alone has created more than $9,500,000,000 of new wealth for the five southwestern states. In Texas, more than half a million persons, one out of every twelve, are now entirely dependent upon the petroleum industry for a living while the remaining eleven are affected directly by the spending of petroleum-made money.

Many interesting facts are disclosed in the data compiled by Magnolia and these data confirm the popular belief that petroleum made possible for the southwest a program of progress which 50 years in advance of what it would have been without oil. In one year, 1930, total tax revenue derived from petroleum by the five southwestern states amounted to approximately $120,000,000. In Texas the oil industry paid 56.8 percent of total state revenue from taxation, while Oklahoma received 58.4 percent of its total tax revenue from oil.

With cotton generally thought of as the one big "money" crop, it is interesting to compare the value of crude petroleum which produced $170,315,000 in Texas last year against $128,905,000 for the 1932 cotton crop. In the value of manufactured products the major share accounted for by petroleum is equally surprising. Total value of manufactured products last year was $1,450,246,431 of which $519,005,036 was petroleum.

While the amount of money put in circulation by the sale and purchase of crude oil, by wages paid petroleum industry worker, taxes paid and materials bought, the production, manufacture and distribution of petroleum is enormous, the huge sums paid landowners are not so evident. Royalties, leases, bonuses and rentals paid southwestern landowners by various petroleum companies in 1930 amounted to around $160,000,000. Southwestern railroads received approximately $75,000,000 in freight revenue from the oil industry in 1930 and last year petroleum products accounted for 60 percent of the total export tonnage from Texas gulf ports.

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 28. (AP)—Governor William H. Murray, with an arraignment of "legalized gambling," said today he would allow a bill which would have permitted horse race wagering to die for lack of his signature.

"In my opinion, gambling in every form, whether it be on lottery tickets, horse racing, crap shooting, poker playing, at bridge or on the grain and stock exchanges, and the last is worst of all and the common negro crap shooting the least evil of all, should not be legalized," Murray declared.

Pastor In Iowa; Seeks New Job

RANDOLPH, Ia., April 28. (AP)—The Rev. Sharon C. Inman, suspended pastor of the Cave Springs, Mo., Presbyterian church, was visiting at the home of his father here today with hopes of obtaining a new position.

Inman left his wife and two children two weeks ago with Miss Esia "Pat" Holdridge, 20-year-old blond, the daughter of an Oklahoma minister. Miss Holdridge is now living with relatives at Sanford, Texas. She said she had parted with Inman.

DRUGGIST MEET SET
GALVESTON, April 28. (AP)—The annual convention of the Texas Pharmaceutical association is to be held here May 15 and 16. Sam P. Harben of Dallas, secretary of the organization, stated. About 30 national exhibits are expected to be a feature of the meeting, plans for which are now being completed.

Ben Urbanczyk of White Deer transacted business here Thursday.

Inman failed to appear before the Presbytery of the Ozark Tuesday to answer charges of gross immorality and conduct unbecoming a minister.

The 33-year-old minister did not indicate if he would report for trial.

Mrs. Dach Has Not Eaten in 10 Days

LA GRANGE, April 28. (AP)—Mrs. Anton Dach, charged with murder in the slaying of Henry Stoeber on her farm several weeks ago, has refused food offered her regularly the last ten days.

Confined to jail since shortly after Stoeber's body was discovered buried under a small building near her house, Mrs. Dach cried constantly. R. Nordhausen, mayor of Schulenburg, was named guardian for her children recently.

Court records showed that Mrs. Dach had sold one-half interest in the 162-acre farm to Harvey Clark, Schulenburg attorney, and the other half went to the children.

Solons Invited To C. of C. Convention

BIG SPRING, April 28. (AP)—The West Texas members of the forty-third legislature have been invited by Wilbur C. Hawk, president, to attend the fifteenth annual convention of the West Texas chamber of commerce in Big Spring, May 11, 12, and 13.

Hawk extended a special invitation to the law makers to attend the two group conferences, one on public expenditure and the other on public works and emergency relief.

Several members of the forty-third legislature have been invited to make addresses at a convention, including Senators Walter Woodward and C. C. Small and Representatives H. N. Graves and Penrose Metcalfe.

Prairie Dogs Slain By The Thousands

LUBBOCK, April 28. (AP)—Thousands of prairie dogs were killed and an estimated saving of over $50,000 made to farmers and ranchers of 34 northwest Texas counties during January, February, and March by the U. S. biological survey. This was the report of J. M. Hill Jr., junior biologist, for the first quarter of 1933.

In the district 28,348 pounds of poisoned grain was distributed thru 252 farmers and ranchers. The poison was used on 52,000 acres at a cost of $1,950 for grain and labor.
