Johnny's Getting Tired Of It

More Light Is Shed On Hitler Picture Hoax

By NE. Service

CLEVELAND, May 11—Freckle-faced Johnny Warren is getting pretty tired of the kids razzing him about Adolf Hitler.

He wishes his schoolmates would just forget about the picture which sent Der Fuehrer into a sputtering rage five years ago, and which still remains the center of an international mystery.

Mystery Is Cleared

Here's how it all happened:

In 1933 a photograph purporting to be that of Hitler at a very early age was widely published in the United States. The baby in the picture wasn't a pretty baby. In fact, he looked like a most terrifying brat—obviously a very tough customer at a very early age.

Herr Hitler was made very unhappy by the picture, because it really wasn't Baby Adolf at all. The German government obtained a true picture of Hitler as a baby and sent it over here to be published. The newspapers all said they were sorry, but they didn't know how it happened or the identity of the baby whose picture they had published.

Snapshot Returned

Now it has been discovered who the baby was—none other than John May Warren, now a husky 8-year-old who lives in Lakewood, a suburb of Cleveland. It was a picture of Johnny at 2 years of age which had been published as that of Baby Hitler. But the pic-

The counties were Fayette, Hockley, Nacogdoches, Terry, Jones, Collin, Dawson, Dickens, Rockwall, Floyd, Cooke, Kaufman, Crosby, Chambers, Archer, Fannin, Wichita, Comanche, Goliad, Fisher, Shackelford, Val Verde, and Comal.

Airdale Is Bequeathed $20,000; Relatives Plan Fight On Will

WOBURN, Mass., May 11 (AP) — With dignity befitting the holder of a $20,000 bequest for dog biscuits, Brownie, the Airdale, remained in seclusion today as his owner's relatives began efforts to void her will.

Brownie was adopted nine years ago by Mrs. Marion B. Stringer of Woburn. She died in Florida a month ago, setting aside half of her estimated $40,000 estate in a trust fund for the dog. At his death it would go to a Boston animal hospital.

Army's War Games Are On

BY DEVON FRANCIS
Associated Press Aviation Editor

NEW YORK, May 11.—An attack by a "coalition of enemy powers" who will try land troops by parachute and seize landing fields on the Atlantic seaboard was outlined today by umpires for the start of the army's war games.

Almost 200 airplanes and 3,000 men of the general headquarters air force, the highly mobile, combat portion of the air corps, under the command of Maj.-Gen. Frank M. Andrews, begin coping with an unseen and elusive—and make-believe—enemy at midnight.

Enemy Is "Nation B"

Designated merely as "nation B" in an otline of the tactical problem to be presented to 465 officers at that hour, the enemy presumed to be approaching the northeastern seaboard with a formidable fleet "is known to have accomplished considerable peacetime training in mass parachute tactics."

To prevent his landing parachute riflemen as far south as the

John L. Lewis To Stay Out Of Pennsylvania During Primary

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP) — John L. Lewis intends to stay out of Pennsylvania during the Democratic primary campaign, informed persons said today.

The C. I. O. chief is backing Lieut.-Gov. Thomas Kennedy for the Democratic nomination for governor, but friends said he would neither issue a statement nor take the stump in Kennedy's behalf before the primary.

Kennedy, secretary of Lewis' United Mine Workers, is running against Charles Alvin Jones, Pittsburgh lawyer, and Charles J. Margiotti, recently dismissed as state attorney general. Senator Guffey (D-Pa), C. I. O. leaders and labor's Non-Partisan league also are backing Kennedy.

A. F. of L. leaders have joined the state committee in supporting Jones. Also in the Jones camp are David Lawrence, secretary of the commonwealth, and Governor George H. Earle, candidate for the senatorial nomination against S. Davis Wilson of Philadelphia.

Jesse Jones To Be Honored In Ceremonies At Arkansas School

SILOAM SPRINGS, Ark., May 11 (AP)—Chairman Jesse Jones of the RFC will arrive here early tomorrow from St. Louis to be guest of honor at Jesse Jones day at John Brown university here. He will be met en route at Neosho by Harvey C. Couch, Arkansas utilities official and chairman of the board of the Kansas City Southern railway, and party. At ceremonies in the afternoon Jones will be introduced by Gov. E. W. Marland of Oklahoma.

Minority Bloc Files Report On Spending

Program Is Decalred "Threat To National Solvency"; Texas Solon Defends Measure

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 11—Republicans attacked the administration's lending - spending program as a "threat to national solvency" today while a Democrat declared it was "much better" than any previous relief measure.

The Republican attack centered around an appropriations committee minority report written by Representatives Taber and Bacon of New York and Wigglesworth of Massachusetts. The report distributed to the press by the Republican national committee referred to current business conditions as a "Roosevelt depression."

Maverick Replies

Representative Maverick (D-Tex), replying to the house floor, said such criticism "doesn't solve any of the economic ills of the United States." He charged the critics with having no program of their own.

The minority proposed a 12-point program calling, among other things, for a congressional investigation of the Works Progress administration, local-federal bi-partisan administration of relief, and sweeping changes and revisions in much of the Roosevelt administration's economic program.

Criticism Breaks In House

A storm of bi-partisan criticism broke in the house over a provision in the pump-priming bill which some members said attempts to inveigle states and municipalities into breaking their own debt laws.

The section would authorize federal loans for public works projects to public agencies already in debt up to legal limits. These agencies then would pay back to the government 55 per cent of the cost of the projects, with interest in 25 years.

"Another New Deal Raid"

Opponents singled out that provision for specific criticism after Republican house members issued a statement denouncing the entire bill. They termed it "another New Deal political raid on the treasury" that promised to increase next year's deficit to $5,000,000,000.

Supporters of the public works lending proposal said it was the only means by which some cities and states could participate in the new program.

Reward Posted In Lamesa Fires Cases

(Special To The Journal)

LAMESA, May 11.—Reward of $1,000 was subscribed at a mass meeting Tuesday night of aroused Lamesa residents "for information leading to arrest and conviction of the party or parties who burned one or all of four cotton warehouses recently in Lamesa."

Approximately 50 business men and James Byrnes, arson investigator for the state fire commission, and E. L. Mitchell, state agent for the National Fire Underwriters commission, of Dallas and New Orleans, attended.

The session, conducted in the district court room, was conducted "so Lamesa might face the facts," as one spokesman said.

Insurance cancellation is feared unless something is done to apprehend those believed responsible for the heavy loss.

Truett Smith, district attorney, recently promised grand jury investigation of the fires, origin of which had not been determined.

Mother Makes Plea For Return Of Little Daughter To Home

BRADFORD, Pa., May 11 (AP) — Mrs. Shirley M. West, expressing fere her four-year-old daughter Marjory, had been abducted, appealed today for the return of her child to any American Legion post or her home.

In a brief statement, the first she has made since the daughter disappeared from a family picnic last Sunday while picking flowers, the mother said:

"I want notice given that anybody who has her should return her to any American Legion post anywhere or bring her home. No questions will be asked."

The kidnap theory came after a fruitless search of the woods in which she disappeared and reports from Thomas, W. Va., that a girl wearing clothes similar to Marjory's was brought there Monday by an unidentified man.

Two Lubbock Girls Had Fun In Turning In False Calls But Things Not So Funny Today

Two Lubbock girls who had their fun Tuesday night at expense of the fire department, Lubbock doctors, taxi cabs and messenger boys this morning found themselves in court — "between a rock and a hard spot," as a police authority put it.

A pretty 17-year-old brunette and a 20-year-old companion admitted to Walter Wharton, city recorder, they turned in a false fire alarm, called drug stores, taxis and messenger boys —sending all to an address in 1600-block Avenue L on an assortment of missions.

One said their malicious mischief had included the ordering of embarrassing articles to be delivered "as a joke."

Their antics were not a joke to the fire department, however, and before Chief W. E. Twitty and his firemen had returned from a run to property which was not burning the telephone calls had been traced and police officials had been informed to get warrants and arrest the girls.

What disposition would be made had not been determined late this morning, said Wharton, who said the girls "are to be brought back before officials at 1 o'clock." They had been released on their own recognizance to appear at 9 o'clock

Cold Reception Awaits Haile Selassie At League Council; Chile Warns She May Quit

(By The Associated Press)

GENEVA, May 11 — A cold reception awaited Ethiopia's titular King of Kings today at Geneva where Great Britain and France drove their plans through The League of Nations council to make peace with his Italian conquerors.

With the exiled Emperor Haile Selassie on his way from London to make a dramatic personal fight against the two powers who were his leading champions three years ago, his advisers fought for delay with complicated questions of procedure.

Might Withdraw

Meanwhile Chile's ambassador to London, Augustin Edwards, warned the council that Chile might quit the league carrying other nations with her unless action was taken on her demands for covenant reform.

He said the only way to bring the league back to full vigor was to cut out dead articles of the covenant and draw new ones. His speech was devoted to defense of Chile's plan, which was supported by Peru at last February's meeting of the committee of twenty-eight, named to consider league reform.

He denied "rumors" Chile was

Ruling Made Today In Case Of Wide Interest In Oil Leasing

AUSTIN, May 11. (AP)—The supreme court today refused a rehearing of the case of Elliott F. Cowden vs Broderick & Calvert, Inc., and others, which was of wide interest to persons interested in oil leasing. In the opinion which the tribunal refused to set aside it held the defendants could retain possession because a single well drilled by them satisfied both an escrow agreement and requirements of the lease but added Cowden possibly could obtain damages for their alleged failure to sink a reasonable number of wells.

Ward County Seat Question Is In Court Again; Move Is Voted

BARSTOW, May 11 (AP)—To move or not to move—

Yesterday Ward county voters for the second time in six months balloted for removal of the county seat from Barstow to Monahans. The margin in favor of it was even more decisive than the first election Nov. 9. But that still doesn't settle the question.

Barstow citizens contested validity of the first election and it was upheld in court. Yesterday Barstow representatives filed suit claiming the second election illegal on grounds it followed the first too soon.

House Passes Naval Report

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The house approved a senate-house conference report today on the administration's billion dollar naval expansion program, overriding a brief outburst of minority opposition.

The measure, as revised in the conference, would authorize construction of 46 warships, 26 auxiliary vessels and one experimental airship at a total estimated cost of $1,090,656,000.

Senate Approval Assured

The compromise must be approved by the senate before the legislation is ready for President Roosevelt's signature but Chairman Walsh (D-Mass) of the senate naval committee asserted senate approval was assured.

Before the house approved the conference report, by a standing vote of 67 to 31, Republican Leader Snell (NY) criticized the agreement on the ground it delegated more power to President Roosevelt.

Hundreds Of Requests Received Asking Probe Of Jersey Case

WASHINGTON, May 11. (AP)—The senate civil liberties committee has received "hundreds of requests" to investigate the New Jersey political organization headed by Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, Senator Thomas (D-Utah) said today.

Thomas, a committee member, said requests have come from widely scattered sections of the country and even from Jersey City.

The committee would have to determine whether it has authority to inquire into activities of a municipal government and also obtain additional funds, the senator said, before it could consider such an investigation.

Army And Navy See No Reason For Barring Sale Of Helium

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP) —The army and the navy see no reason why United States helium, on which this government holds a world monopoly, should not be sold to German Zeppelin interests, General Malin Craig, chief of staff, said today.

Chapter One

ON THE WARPATH

With undisguised pleasure, Asey Mayo abandoned himself to a prolonged survey of the new post office.

Opened the day before, that post office had played the beanstalk which, overnight sprouted Quanomet into the headlines, lifting it forever from its unquestioned position as Cape Cod's forgotten hamlet. For twenty years, while others sprightlier towns continued to burgeon and flourish, Quanomet had steadily withered and decayed. Finally, when people recalled the place sufficiently to mention it at all, they spoke in tones of deepest condolence. Poor Quanomet, they said. Poor Quanomet, it's Gone to Seed. But Quanomet, thanks to the post office, had sprouted.

Ordinarily Quanomet would have been thrilled to the core by the picture of Asey rolling along Main Street in his newest streamlined

Three Hundred Civilians In Suchow Killed

More Than 300 Bombs Are Dropped On City; Attack Is Made On Amoy Also

(By The Associated Press)

SHANGHAI, May 11—Chinese reported today 4,000 houses had been damaged and 300 civilians killed and wounded in an air attack on Suchow, base of the huge Chinese army defending the Lunghai railway.

More than 300 bombs were said to have been dropped on the city, leaving sections of it burning fiercely. Japanese said large stores of military supplies had been ignited.

Continue Bombardment

Japanese warships and planes also continued intensive bombardment of Amoy, gateway to Fukien province on the south China coast, where the United States gunboat Asheville and the British destroyer Diana stood by ready to evacuate Americans and Britons if necessary.

Fires were reported spreading rapidly through Amoy while 30 foreigners, including 15 American missionaries, watched in comparative safety from Kulangsu island nearby.

U. S. Destroyer Due

The United States destroyer Edsall, ordered from Tsingtao to Amoy, was due at Shanghai tomorrow for quick refueling.

Japanese marines reported a section of the city had been occupied after bitter street fighting. All hospitals were said to be filled to capacity as a result of the heavy rifing from both sides.

A Japanese naval spokesman said 24 Chinese planes had attempted to bomb Japanase warships off Macao, at the mouth of the Canton river, but had been driven off before they did any damage.

Reports from Hongkong said a Chinese air fleet of at least 30 planes

League Formed For Accident Victims

CLEVELAND, May 11. (AP)—The first meeting of the Automobile Accident Victim League will be held tonight at the home of Joseph Kraiger, whose spine was injured seriously in a 1934 traffic crash.

The league, Kraiger said, has a membership of 21. Of these, he said 1 had sustained injuries and three had lost sons in traffic accidents.

"We have a humane society to care for injured dogs," Kraiger said, "but we have nothing to care for people who have been hurt by cars."

Club Head Says 'Equal' Rights For Men, Women Is 'Misnomer'

KANSAS CITY, May 11 (AP) —The club president for approximately 2,000,000 women called equal rights for men and women "a misnomer" here today.

"It is impossible, either physically or biologically, for men and women to be labelled 'equal', in all things," said Mrs. Roberta Campbell Lawson, of Tulsa, Okla., in her presidential address to the General Federation of Women's clubs.

"Mentally, women will challenge the masculine mind to any heights. We know that in many of the industries women cannot take the place of men. However, women should receive full wage consideration for services rendered or work done."

Bailey Announces Candidacy For Re-Election To Office

PIGGOTT, Ark., May 11. (AP)—Gov. Carl E. Bailey last night announced his candidacy for renomination in the August Democratic primary.

Already in the field for the governorship were Judge R. A. Cook, Little Rock, W. E. Phipps, and Dr. Walter Scott McNutt.

Ector R Johnson, Little Rock attorney who never before ran for public office, announced as a candidate for United States senator in opposition to Senator Hattie W. Caraway who is seeking re-election.

Death Penalty Cases Upheld

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, May 11.—The court of criminal appeals today affirmed death penalties given Fobie Grays and Sam Cash for the strangulation slaying of Paul Henig, Glenflora store proprietor, and granted a third trial to Lonnie Mitchell, a negro given the extreme penalty for slaying Chester Hutchenson, Merkel city marshal.

Grays and Cash, tried jointly, were charged with strangling the store proprietor in an effort to rob him. The court rejected all defense exceptions to trial procedure.

Judges Charge Inadequate

Mitchell's conviction had been reversed once before on a technicality. In reversing the case a second time the appellate court said the trial judge failed to charge the jury adequately on lawful and unlawful arrest.

It said testimony showed Hutchenson attempted to arrest the negro without a warrant and in a manner that indicated he intended to do bodily harm to Mitchell who allegedly was operating a gambling establishment. The slaying occurred April 11, 1931.

Coordinators Are Named For Next Year At Lubbock High

Announcement of Lubbock public public school coordinators selected for the next year was made by W. B. Irvin, superintendent of Lubbock schools, after a meeting of Senior and Junior High schools faculties.

Coordinators are: Ross Ayers, physical education; G. E. Dawson, industrial education; Mrs. Bruce Bryan, art; Mrs. E. E. Key, music; Miss Gertrude Watson, homemaking; Floyd Honey, commercial work; M. E. Witt, science; Mrs. Vida Baisden, mathematics; C. C. Cox, social science; and Miss Grace Padley, language arts.

Miss Dorothy Lomax will be curriculum director. She will work with the superintendent, principals, coordinators, and teachers of both schools.

New personnel relationship for instructional purposes in Junior and Senior High schools of Lubbock was explained by Supt. Irvin.

Parking Meter Receipts Higher In May; Officials Are Puzzled

City officials frankly are puzzled as to the reason, but they reported this morning that parking meter receipts since May 1 have averaged higher than at any time since the Christmas holidays.

Collections for the three days ending Monday totaled $297, an average of $99 per day. Average for the month thus far has been approximately $95, as compared with $81.50 daily through April when receipts were reduced by unfavorable weather.

Revenue from the meters during the holiday period approximated $110 daily.

Vargas Leads Personally In His Defense

Number Of Rebels Killed And Hundreds Arrested; Leaders Of Abortive Plot Are Named

(By The Associated Press)

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, May 11—President Getulio Vargas, pistol in hand, personally led defenders of Guanabara presidential palace today as government forces swiftly smothered a fascist revolt against its authoritarian regime.

An undetermined number of rebels were killed or wounded and hundreds were arrested.

Inspired By Greenshirts

The short-lived uprising, inspired by the outlawed integralist (greenshirt) faction, flared and died in the heart of the capital, where street disorders and futile assaults on public buildings marked its ineffective course.

Martial law was declared, effective at noon today.

Authorities said Admiral Eduardo Tavares had been arrested as a participant in the uprising.

Had Advance Knowledge

Police declared they had advance knowledge of the plotted rebellion and said they had even slipped agents into the ranks of the integralists to follow more closely progress of the scheme to overthrow Vargas, totalitarian ruler of Brazil since his seizure of power in his coup of Nov. 10, 1937.

A gun fight at the presidential palace between besieging fascists and Vargas' household staff highlighted the abortive rebellion.

Rages Three And Half Hours

For three and a half hours the heart of the city was in agitation, with traffic disrupted and police detachments ranging the danger zone suppressing revolutionaries. Hundreds were arrested.

Firing echoed through downtown Rio de Janeiro and uncounted casualties resulted from the fighting. The minister of war, General Eurico Gaspar Dutra, was wounded slightly.

The rebels also made an attack on the Pan-American Airways airport near the center of Rio de Janeiro but were beaten off.

Capture Naval Arsenal

The only brief measure of success the greenshirts had was at the naval arsenal, which was captured and held briefly.

Then a bayonet charge by a force of marines brought rebel surrender

Engineering Session To Be Held In City

Autumn convention of the Texas section of the American society of Civil Engineers has been awarded to Lubbock and will be held in October on dates yet to be set, according to announcement this morning by Harry N. Roberts, Lubbock consulting engineer and a member of the association's board of directors.

Lubbock was selected by a mail poll of the directors conducted by John Focht, secretary, who is professor of highway engineering at the University of Texas. J. T. L. McNew, professor of highway engineering at Texas A. and M. college, is president.

The convention, Roberts said, will bring to Lubbock 150 to 200 men outstandingly prominent in their profession. Speakers likely will include engineers of national prominence.

Cooperation of the chamber of commerce in preparing for the convention and entertaining visitors was assured.

Vast Power Distributing Unit For 4 States Said Planned

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—The New York Times says the federal government, through the Tennessee Valley authority, is considering the creation of a vast electric power distributing network covering Tennessee and parts of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and North Carolina.

The project would include, says the Times, the purchase of private utilities in those areas by the TVA directly or for municipalities and enterprise to a specified area.

CLASS TO ENTERTAIN

First Baptist Bethenian class members will entertain for their husbands at 8 o'clock Thursday night at the church activity center.

"When I eat the wrong kind of food, or when my stomach turns sour, I often have the worst colic pains. And do I yell! But my mama is a smart mama and she gives me Tonthina, because Tonthina is a mild, gentle laxative. It cleanses my tiny bowels of irritating waste. This relieves my pain and relaxes me too, and I'm all set to go back to sleep. Tonthina tastes good and you get twelve powders for only 25c. All little babies like me also need Tonthina for temporary constipation and for those bowels caused by a faulty diet." TONTHINA.

This Didn't Come From Europe

Lovely for spring and sure to be useful next fall and winter—this navy blue wool suit, styled on youthful peasant lines, was designed by Elizabeth Hawes, pioneer American designer. The exaggerated fullness of the graceful skirt is accented by a wide, gray suede belt with large circular plastrons in light tan at each side. The long-sleeved, fitted bolero jacket is lined with peasant printed cotton and may be worn open or closed. The blouse is a simple, well-cut model of coarsely woven white linen with gathered neckline and elbow-length, push-up sleeves.

Selections Given By Junior High Boys

Twelve pledges to the Kappa Gamma sorority were formally initiated preceding a dinner hour Tuesday night at the Hilton hotel.

Cape jasmine and white candles in crystal holders were table decorations.

Entertainment included songs by the junior high boys glee club directed by Mrs. M. E. Ware.

Initiated were Misses Bonnie Gary, Nancy Oliver, Pauline Hooser, Lennie D. Johnston, Ruby Hill, Lola May Grundy, Ernestine Richmond, Mary Lois Thompson, Joyce Johnson, Mesdames Ameral Payne, Lucile Smith and J. D. Leftwich.

Sunshine Cake Is Baked When Caldwell Club Has Meeting

ABERNATHY, May 11 (Special)—The mixing and baking of a sunshine cake were demonstrated at a called meeting of the Caldwell Home Demonstration club Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. F. Hess. Miss Clara Pratt told club members the success of this cake depends on beating of the egg yolks since it contains no leavening agent.

Mrs. Hess gave a council report. Mrs. Ozro Dooley was selected to represent the club at council meeting May 28 when three women will be elected as council delegates for an annual short course at A. and M. college in July.

While the cake was baking Miss Pratt decorated an angel food cake and this, with a shower of handkerchiefs, was presented to Mrs. M. O. Pugh as a birthday greeting from the club.

A refreshment plate was served to Mesdames Dooley, Odie Hamilton, A. F. and R. F. Hess, Pat Nix, Pugh, R. S. Veazey, Ralph Young, C. S. Wales, R. A. Young, members, Miss Pratt, Mrs. Opal Duty and Mrs. W. F. Bell of Lubbock and Miss Jewel Hughes of Kress visitors.

Delegates And Alternates To VFW Encampment Elected

Four delegates and corresponding alternates to a department encampment in Waco June 12-15 were elected at a regular meeting of the V. F. W. auxiliary Tuesday night at the Hilton hotel. Delegates will be Mesdames Floyd Jackson, Henry Guetersloh, J. B. Jones and F. H. Zeitz. Alternates will be Mesdames Stanton Rhea, Lloyd Johnson, W. R. Wilhite and Frank McPherson.

Mrs. C. E. Lenning was initiated into the membership.

Others attending were Mesdames Cal Robbins, R. W. Amick, D. L. Poston, F. C. Wendt, R. L. Pelton, T. H. St. Clair, A. I. Glassman and J. D. Rondeaux.

An "electric-eye" enables C. H. White's cotton picking machine to select ripe bolls.

Sew-A-While Club Meets With Mrs. Clyde Rogers Tuesday

Sew-A-While club members were the guests of Mrs. Clyde Rogers, 2123 Ninth street, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Vernon McCullough, who resigned from the club because of ill health was presented with a pot plant.

Others attending were Mesdames Craig Bond, Raymond Land, George Long, Cliff Elliott, Earl Kerr and Homer Moss.

The club will meet with Mrs. Elliott May 24.

Centennial Club Party Will Be Given Friday Afternoon

Centennial Bridge club will be entertained with a one o'clock luncheon Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Garvin with Mrs. W. P. Eisenberg as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. James Albert Carroll of Tulsa are expected to arrive Friday morning for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. T. J. Sutherland, and Mr. Sutherland, south of town. The Sutherlands plan to take their guests to Roswell and the New Mexico mountains this week-end and will return Monday.

Texas Oil Wells To Go On 5-Day Week Starting Saturday

Shutdowns On 2 Days Now

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, May 11 — Texas oil production will go on a five-day-a-week basis starting Saturday in a drastic step to curtail overproduction "threatening" to undermine the market, Ernest O. Thompson, a member of the state railroad commission, said yesterday.

Trompson said the order closing down wells for the next three Saturdays was being drawn in Austin and that he would sign it today.

Sunday Shutdowns Since January

Sunday shutdowns have been in effect since January following a four-week trial in the East Texas field.

Such action was hinted at Austin Monday by Thompson and Terrell, who pointed to excessive stocks of crude and gasoline.

Thompson, chairman of the Interstate Oil Compact commission, said "overproduction of crude, large overhanging gasoline stocks, together with under-consumption, caused by the recession, have combined to bring about a situation that demands prompt, vigorous action by the regulatory authorities charged with the duty of preventing physical waste in oil production.

Leader Is In Accord

Dr. Harold Byrd of Dallas, president of the Texas Independent Petroleum association, expressed himself in full accord with measures taken by the commission to curtail the oil flow in the state but "not at the expense of Texas operators or the state."

He mentioned companies "which continue to overproduce in Louisiana, Arkansas and to a lesser degree in Oklahoma."

Morgenthau Says State Bank Officials Are To Cooperate

WASHINGTON, May 11. (AP)—Secretary Morgenthau said today that state banking authorities had "given every indication they want to cooperate" with any federal action to relax restrictions on bank loans so as to encourage greater extension of credit to business men.

Representatives of federal banking agencies met Monday but spokesmen said they failed to reach any final agreement on the nature of the modifications they may put into force.

ALLRED ISSUES PROCLAMATION

AUSTIN, May 11. (AP)—Governor James V. Allred in a proclamation urged Texans to take cognizance of the superior quality of Texas tomatoes during National Tomato week, June 5 to 11. Jacksonville and Yoakum will hold traditional tomato festivals during the week.

Lions Adopt Resolutions

Reiteration of advocacy of safe driving campaigns was included among resolutions approved unanimously at the closing session of the district Lions club convention which closed here Tuesday afternoon.

Sam Braswell, Clarendon, past district governor, was chairman. W. W. Whipkey, Colorado editor and W. C. Langford, Iraan club president, were on the committee.

Resolutions were:

To the district governor and annual convention of District 2-T Texas, Lions' International greetings.

Your resolutions committee begs leave to submit the following report for your consideration:

1. First of all, your committee desires especially to commend our district governor, Honorable Joe Pond of Big Spring, for his able services as leader and executive of this district for the past year. He has labored unremittingly in a spirit of warm brotherly Lionism, and his achievements will long stand as a monument to his work among our clubs.

2. It is our special pleasure to call attention to the fine work and hearty cooperation of our district secretary, Joe Earnest of Colorado. The work in the district could not have been accomplished without his efficient aid and assistance to the district governor.

3. Not often is it the privilege of a district convention to profit so largely from the presence, fellowship, and inspiration of the first vice president of Lions International, Honorable Walter F. Dexter, of California, whose address before the convention Monday afternoon was the highlight of this convention. His high idealism, his clear and concise delineation of the "Philosophy of Lionism" will forever rank among the fine pronouncements of any official representing Lions' International, and we thank the International office for having assigned him as the representative of this convention.

4. We desire to re-emphasize the position taken by this convention one year ago in the matter of "safe driving" and to re-urge that the Lions club of this district promote the teaching of traffic rules, and safe driving in our public schools. Delegates to this convention are specifically invited to present this matter to their respective clubs after the adjournment of this convention.

5. The convention will join this committee in an expression of sincere appreciation and hearty thanks for the hospitality and courtesies extended during these sessions in Lubbock. We mention particularly every member of the Lubbock Lions club, and its president, Honorable Wm. H. Evans for the thoughtfulness and careful planning which has made this convention a success in every respect. We thank the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, the Hilton hotel, and the Hotel Lubbock for their many courtesies and accommodations; we thank the First Methodist church for the generous use of its auditorium, we thank the Baptist church for making possible the special Sunday night pre-convention service. We thank the South Plains Coaches for the buses tendered the convention yesterday, the Texas Technological college for the engineering show prepared for the delegates in attendance on this convention.

Indeed, we desire to include each and every person in the City of Lubbock who has contributed in the smallest degree to the success of our convention of the last two days.

Organization Of Teachers Is Recognized As Direct Collective Bargaining Agency

(By The Associated Press)

GOOSE CREEK, May 11.—For the first time in Texas educational history, an organization of teachers was recognized by school authorities as a direct collective bargaining agency for its members this week at Goose Creek.

The Goose Creek Independent school district board of education unanimously adopted a job tenure agreement with the 126 members of the Goose Creek Classroom Teachers association.

Artificial Breeding Unit For Dairy Cattle To Be Formed

NEW YORK, May 11. (AP)—Dr. K. A. P. Larsen of Samsoe, Denmark, arrived today to help organize what he said would be the world's second artificial breeding unit for dairy cattle.

Leader of such a movement in his native country, Dr. Larsen predicted it would result in a higher percentage of conception, lower rate of disease transmission, reduced costs, improved herds and increased milk production.

Losing Your Pep? Feel "Run Down"?

Do you bolsh and blast after eating? Is your sleep restless? Do you feel strong, are you losing strength and pep? These are very bad symptoms and, if neglected long, may lead to serious organic disorders. They mean that your food is not digesting; your blood is becoming weaker and your body robbed of its nourishment.

Perhaps your trouble is functional and all you may need is a bottle of B-L Tonic. It's a splendid laxative and aid to digestion. Used by millions. Every drug store sells it. You may have friends who can tell you what wonderful things "B-L" has done for them.

B-L Tonic is very economical,—only 10c a day if it helps you; price of first bottle refunded if you are not delighted. Don't you think that "B-L" must be a wonderful tonic to justify such a strong guarantee? Why delay? Try B-L Tonic today!—(Adv.)

"I'm selfish—and proud of it!"

"YES, I'm just plain selfish. I want to make sure that my family and I get everything out of life that we possibly can.

"That's why I own life insurance . . . to give my wife and children at least a measure of security, no matter what happens.

"But that's only half the story. When I'm ready to quit working, I want something to show for it beside a baggy suit and a worried expression. And I will have—thanks to the monthly income I'll get from the life insurance plan I'm building up, step by step.

"Yes, you bet I'm selfish—so selfish I'm not trusting my future, or my family's future, to luck!"

Fight Between Government And Power Industry May Be Near End

Companies To Obey New Act

WASHINGTON, May 11 — Chairman William O. Douglas of the Securities commission welcomed as a "constructive move" today an agreement by 14 utilities companies to try to work out methods of compliance with the "death sentence" clause of the utilities holding company act.

Douglas would not comment further, but it was expected he would send an immediate reply to a letter from two utilities executives announcing the agreement. Five utilities officials were chosen to confer with the SEC in a few days.

Foreshadows Resumption Of Work

In other quarters the announcement was interpreted as meaning that the long fight between the government and the power industry may be near an end.

Some administration officials expressed hope that this foreshadowed an early resumption of utilities construction, including expenditure in the next five years of between $2,000,000,000 and $5,000,000,000 for line and plant equipment.

When told of the agreement at his press conference yesterday, he said he hoped it was true.

Studying Power Angle

The chief executive also disclosed that he is studying the power problem from another angle — the country's power needs for national defense purposes. He has discussed this phase, he said, with Louis Johnson, assistant secretary of war, and Basil Manly, acting chairman of the Federal Power commission.

The president noted that New York City has no physical power connection with the west side of the Hudson river.

The purpose of the forthcoming utilities negotiations, as SEC officials understand them, will be to determine exactly how individual holding companies must be simplified in order to comply with the law.

The law requires each holding company to have operating properties in only one geographical area. Thus a company which has properties in the East and the Midwest would have to dispose of one group or the other.

Brief Bits Of News . . . .

Hogue Is Speaker—A. W. Hogue of Dallas, former vice president of the Texas Association of Life Underwriters, addressed 23 persons at noon, when a special luncheon was conducted by the South Plains chapter. Chas. A. Whitacre, president of the chapter, said the luncheon, in Hilton hotel, was the last of a series of monthly gatherings.

Problem Before Court—An unusual problem confronted Judge E. L. Pitts of 99th district court at noon. Herbert Aduddell of Lubbock had entered plea of guilty of drunk driving and had made application for suspended sentence. Someone walked into the court room and "tipped" Burton S. Burks, district attorney, that Aduddell had been given a three-year suspended sentence in 1933 in Hall county for burglary, said court officials. Since the sentence has expired, there is an "open question" the courts presumably have not ruled on as to whether application again can be allowed. Judge Pitts will rule on the question this afternoon, it is expected, and the state hinted "more testimony will be put on." Testimony will be continued this afternoon in the case of E. R. Phegley, charged with swindling over $50.

Swing Band To Play—Radio program in connection with clean-up-paint-up campaign will be broadcast over KFYO at 8:30 o'clock tonight by the swing band and chorus of Sanders school. Mrs. Luis F. Trigg, principal of the school, has made the arrangements. T. C. Root, professor of economics and business administration, will be speaker at the same hour Thursday night, according to campaign officials.

Transferred — A 28-year-old Wasson man held in city jail for investigation into forgery today was to be transferred to C. E. Luce, U. S. deputy marshal.

Selection Remarked — Police said a Mexican boy broke a window of a Lubbock establishment and stole, of all things, a case of soap.

Bond Posted — M. E. Northam, 30, of Lynn county this morning was released from custody after executing $750 bond on a forgery charge, said the sheriff's department. He had been arraigned in the court of S. E. McMillan, justice of peace.

Bond Is Set — Bond of $750 was set this morning by Walter Davies, justice of peace, for Glen Burke, charged with forgery of a $42.50 check. Bill Mabray, police identifications officer, was complainant.

Accepted By Marines — Frank W. Montfort, jr., former student in Texas Technological college and a graduate of Senior High school in Lubbock, has been accepted for service in the United States Marine corps and sent to the base at San Diego for training and duty. His parents live at Branson, Mo. He lived in Lubbock with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fulton at 2307 Tenth street. Russell Fulton accompanied him to Dallas for enlistment.

Kent To Make Addresses—Dr. Harry L. Kent, director of administrative research at Texas Technological college is scheduled to speak at three high school commencement programs this month, it was announced Wednesday. He will address the Forsan High school graduating class May 18; Sonora High school, May 20 and Memphis High school, May 24.

Patient Dismissed—M. C. Butler, jr., of 2405 Broadway was dismissed from West Texas hospital this morning after treatment for bruises and lacerations suffered when his bicycle was in collision with an automobile Tuesday morning.

Pender To Speak — The Sino-Japanese situation will be discussed by H. C. Pender, acting head of the government department at Texas Technological college, at a meeting of First Presbyterian Men-of-the-Church at 8 o'clock tonight at the church. The meeting will be open to women, said R. E. McDonald, president.

Board To Meet—Littlefield school board will meet Thursday afternoon with Haynes and Strange, architects, to discuss plans for a proposed grade school building there.

Smith Is Elected — J. H. Smith was elected president of the Amarillo ex-Texas Technological college students at a meeting Tuesday night there. John E. Speer was named first vice president; Alice Rogers, second vice president; Cecile Parsons, secretary; Ward Garrison, treasurer; Eugene Struve, reporter; E. E. Jordan, J. S. Evans and Robert S. White, directors. Calvin Haslewood, alumni secretary, attended the meeting.

Final Radio Program Of School Year Is Being Held Today

Members of the National Forensic league of Senior High school will receive certificates at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon when Senior High school presents its final radio program for the year. Miss Alice M. Beckett will present certificates to 18 members, 16 of which will be recognized as charter members.

The National Forensic league chapter in Lubbock Senior High school was organized this year.

A girls' trio, directed by Mrs. Waldo Trotter, will sing the theme song and special numbers. Personnel of the trio is Marilyn Riggs, Reuby Tom Rhodes, and Rena Mae Kidwell. Talks will be made by Harold Cogburn, Charles Hvass, Lucille Hall, John D. Smith, W. C. Estes, Reuby Tom Rhodes, Ruth Monk, Edgar Shelton, and Miss Beckett.

Others to take part on the program are J. W. Reid, D. M. Howell, sponsors; and Clark Kimmel, Leon Clinton, John Freeman, Betty Nash, Muriel McWhorter, Martha Parnell, Maisie Coon, and Ida Love Erenbrack.

Final Session Of Cement School Will Be Held At Tech Tonight

Second and last session of a concrete school sponsored by the Portland Cement association and West Texas-New Mexico Association of Architects will be conducted at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the engineering building auditorium at Texas Technological college.

Approximately 100 architects, engineers and contractors attended the first session Tuesday night. Modern methods of producing inspiring and attractive effects in architectural concrete are being explained.

C. F. Boulden of the cement association's headquarters in Austin will preside and Chas. A. Clark of Abilene, district engineer, and A. G. Royther, of Kansas City, Mo., formerly a construction superintendent in California will participate on the program.

Iron ore was discovered on the west slope of the Alleghenies in 1792.

License Tests Held In City

Thirty-six milk sanitarians of West Texas besides several senior students in the dairy manufacturing department of Texas Technological college were expected to take an examination for registered milk sanitarians licenses this afternoon, W. E. Roberts, milk sanitarian of the state health department, said at noon.

The examination will conclude a three-day short course sponsored by Tech, Texas A. & M. college, the milk committee of the Texas Public Health association, and the state department of health.

Purpose Of Move Cited

Purpose of the movement, under which certificates are being issued to milk sanitarians for the first time, is two-fold, said Roberts. Primary purpose is to raise the general level of milk sanitation personnel, and second is to protect positions of qualified sanitarians through political changes.

Roberts said he was gratified at response to the movement. Men are enrolled from as far west as El Paso, from Fort Worth, and from the Panhandle and other parts of West Texas. A few more are registered for the course here than attended the recent course conducted under the same auspices at A. & M. college. Only two were scheduled in the state.

Several Officers At Course

Among men taking the course are several general health officers of cities, counties and districts.

Speakers at the short course this morning were M. L. Raines and Curtis B. Williams of Austin, milk inspectors of the state health department; K. M. Renner, head of the Tech dairy manufacturing department; Dr. F. A. Clark, associate milk specialist of the United States Public Health service; and W. L. Stangel, head of the college animal husbandry department.

The examination is written. The T. P. H. A. milk committee will make arrangements for grading of papers.

Tax Rolls Are Being Drawn

Preparation of 1938 tax rolls for the state and county and for Lubbock independent school district are nearing completion, according to information given by tax officials this morning.

Assessments for the city tax roll also are in progress but will not be completed for several weeks. The city tax rate usually is not set until several weeks after those of the state, county and school district have been established, it was explained.

First meeting of the county equalization board, who are members of the county commission, is scheduled late this month.

Dedication Ceremony Held On Yearbook

A brief dedication service and distribution of the 1938 Westerner yearbook were on the program of an assembly that opened at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Senior High school.

Watson Carlock, editor, and W. C. Estes, business manager, directed the dedication. Members of the staff; Mrs. Ross Ayers, sponsor; H. B. Adams, editor of the Lubbock County Herald, which published the book; Winston Reeves, photographer; and Mrs. Ethel Terrell were introduced.

Hospital Day Will Be Observed Here

Open house will be observed by Lubbock's three hospitals from 2 to 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon in observance of National Hospital day.

The mayor has proclaimed observance of the day, when opportunity will be offered to residents to secure first hand knowledge of hospitals.

Visitors will be directed through Lubbock sanitarium, West Texas hospital, and Plains hospital during the two hours.

Hospitals throughout the country will be open to visitors. National Hospital day was designated by the American Hospital association and governors and other officials are cooperating by urging persons to take the opportunity to see the type of medical service offered in their communities.

REPLACE YOUR SMOOTH WORN TIRES AND BE SAFE

LAST year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 40,000 men, women and children and nearly a million and a quarter more were injured. More than 52,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires. A recent survey discloses that 59 million tires now in use are, or will become smooth this year. Do your part to make driving safer. Replace smooth tires on your car. Come in today and equip with Firestone Convoy Tires and save 25%.

FIRESTONE CAN GIVE YOU SUCH A HIGH QUALITY TIRE AT SUCH A NEW LOW PRICE

Because Firestone saves money by controlling and securing rubber and cotton at the source and by more efficient manufacturing and distribution. These savings make possible more extra values at low prices:

New High Quality—First choice rubber and selected cotton that conforms to Firestone's high standards and rigid specifications.

Long Mileage — Safe, silent tread design made of tough, slow wearing rubber that assures long mileage. Sturdy bars and rugged notches that give full protection against skidding.

Blowout Protection—Nine extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord by the Firestone Patented Gum-Dipping process. Every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber which counteracts internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

Puncture Protection — Firestone's patented construction of two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread that protects against punctures.

Come in today. Let us put a set of these large size, rugged, long wearing Firestone Convoy Tires on your car — remember, you save 25%.

FDR Adopts Hands-Off Policy In 'Free Speech' Controversy

Says Case For Local Police

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 11 — President Roosevelt has adopted a hands-off attitude today in the Jersey City "free speech" controversy.

In response to a question, he told reporters that because it was a local police matter he could do nothing about complaints that the right of free speech and free assembly had been denied by Mayor Frank Hague.

He referred to Chairman James A. Farley another question whether the president, as head of the Democratic party, could remove Hague from the vice-chairmanship of the Democratic national committee.

In a letter to the White House yesterday, Representative O'Connell (D-Mont) asked the president to demand the immediate resignation of Hague from the party post. The president said he had not received the letter yet.

The Montanan was prevented from speaking against Hague in Jersey City Saturday night.

Suit Is Filed Against Brinkley In Death Of Women's Father

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 11. (AP)—Eleanor Harris Billingslea and Mary Harris Youngue, Franklin, N. Y., have filed suit in federal district court against John R. Brinkley, Del Rio, Tex., asking judgment for $55,750 in connection with the death of their father, Alpha Harris, 73.

The suit charged that Harris was operated on at the Brinkley hospital here last January 5, and that as a result of "improper treatment, carelessness and neglect," he died at a Nashville, Tenn., hospital April 16.

Revue To Be Held At Littlefield Tonight

LITTLEFIELD, May 11—At least 18 high school girls of Lamb county will participate in a personality revue and style show to be sponsored by the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce tonight and Thursday nights in the Palace theater here.

Winners, one for girls of the four towns, Sudan, Amherst, Anton and Littlefield, and one for seven or eight rural communities, will have an opportunity for a screen test in Dallas about May 16, said W. J. Chesher, manager.

Entrants Are Chosen

High school students have chosen girls for entrants. These will compete, with judges from Lubbock selecting the best.

Town contestants will compete tonight. Judges will be: Richard Flowers, peech department, Texas Technological college; Maurice Erickson, economics department and Mrs. Edna A. Lyles, assistant professor of clothing and textiles.

Rural contests come Thursday night Judges will be: Flowers, Arlie Crites, manager of the Palace and Lindsey theaters, Lubbock and Ruth Taylor, of the Decorator's studio, Lubbock.

Go To Dallas For Tests

May 16 has been decided on for the winners to go to Dallas for a screen test and audition. If successful, the winner will have an opportunity for further work, probably in Hollywood. Test films will be sent to the cinema capital for inspection.

Rural communities to be represented include Bula, Spade, Whitharral, Spring Lake, Hart's Camp, Fieldton and Pep.

From Amherst will be: Claude Morris, Chrysteen White, Carrie Lou Phillips, Mary Helen Whitfield, La June Oxford and Mrs. L. A. Dunn, sponsor.

Anton: Frankie Lou Teague, Hertha Lee Newton, Dorothy Rice, Virginia McGowan, Lottie McPherson and Myrtle Marion Shaw, sponsor.

Sudan: Margaret Hunt, Betty McLarty, Glenna Kennedy, Lucille Skinner, Edna Cocanougher and Miss Wooten, sponsor.

Littlefield: Della Mar Arend, Barbara Stivers, La Veta Dowdy, Marjorie Lee Wilson, Frances Dunne and Miss Harriet Dickinson, sponsor.

Hapsburg Marries Commoner And Loses Place In Family

BUDAPEST, May 11. (AP)—Archduke Albrecht has married a commoner and lost his place in the ancient house of Hapsburg.

Expulsion of the archduke from the family dominant in Europe for 700 years was announced shortly after he took for his bride Katherine Bucskay, 27-year-old country school teacher and daughter of a small town mechanic.

It was disclosed in a statement by Count Josef Hunyadi, representative in Hungary of Archduke Otto, head of the house of Hapsburg and pretender to the non-existent throne of Austria.

To stimulate the sale of used cars, dealers in Manchester, England, have induced insurance companies to insure certified cars which have been sold by recognized dealers in that market.

Charges Are Filed Against Jim Johnson In Parking Meter Case

Charges of violating the city parking meter ordinance were filed in corporation court here Tuesday against Jim Johnson, barber, as the outgrowth of so-called "sit down strikes" in connection with the meter last month. Lewis Kittrell, police traffic sergeant, served the warrant.

Specifically, he was charged with parking an automobile in a space adjacent to a parking meter from 9 o'clock on the morning of last Thursday until 6 o'clock that afternoon and with failure to place a nickel in the meter.

On a plea of not guilty, bond of $250 was set. Bond was posted. Roy Sanford, police patrolman, swore to the complaint which was prepared by Walter Wharton, city recorder.

The case is scheduled for trial in corporation court at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

In a recent decision in a case appealed to county court, Judge J. J. Dillard ruled the parking meter ordinance invalid and unconstitutional.

Conflict Among UAW Members Disclosed; Martin Opposed

DETROIT, May 11. (AP)—Conflict among members of the United Automobile Workers' international executive board was intensified today by disclosure that President Homer Martin had demoted assistant President Richard T. Frankensteen.

Although Martin said he expected the board meeting to be entirely harmonious, some observers predicted a bitter fight over Martin's action and on other proposals to end factionalism within the union by curbing Martin's power.

PRICE OF OIL CUT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11. (AP)—Standard Oil company of California cut 10 cents a barrel off the price of fuel oil and Diesel oil today.

A statement said:

"These reductions reflect the very serious situation which exists in California owing to production of crude oil far in excess of market demands. . . ."

Potato Marketing Agreement To Become Effective May 12

WASHINGTON, May 11.(AP)—Secretary Wallace announced a potato marketing agreement program would become effective May 12 in the five Gulf states following approval today by the president.

Designed to assist in regulating marketing of the unusually large early potato crop, the agreement will apply to all handlers in 114 designated counties in Texas, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida and Louisiana.

Wallace said 89.1 per cent of 2,100 growers in the area voting in a recent referendum approved the program.

Visibility at Cabrillo National Monument, California, is frequently so clear that with the naked eye visitors can discern Catalina Island, 100 miles away.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food decays. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet sure in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. —adv.

Ladies Day Inaugurated By Hubber Officials Today

Bryan Likely To Be In Box For Locals

It is Ladies Day at Parris field this afternoon when the Hubbers and Midland take the field at 3:30 o'clock to play the second game of the current series. Women and children under 15 will be guests of the Hubber management.

Mound assignments were not definite this morning but Manager Hack Miller intends to send Charley Bryan against the Cardinals and Manager Fincher Withers will call on either tall Cliff Neighbors or little Frankie Nelson.

Battles Reports Tuesday

Larry Battles, regular shortstop for the Withersmen last year, reported to the club Tuesday morning and likely will be in the lineup today.

Clovis plays again at Hobbs today and Big Spring meets Wink on the latter's diamond.

Tuesday's play dropped Big Spring a game and a half back of the Hubbers and Spudders. Hobbs displaced Midland in fourth place.

Gramly Wins Tuesday

Behind the nine-hit pitching of Marvin Gramly the Hubbers coasted to a 11-to-5 trimming of the Cards. Hank Froschauer hurled well for Midland until the sixth when he was relieved by Nelson.

Al Carr collected his sixth home run of the season, Malcolm his fifth, and Jimmy Morris hit one for the Redbirds.

Wink Bests Barons

Wink cashed in on Roberts' hurling to down the Barons, 7-0, under the arcs at Wink. The Spudder righthander let Big Spring down with a brace of blows. Quick hit for the circuit.

Two homers by Cecil Smyly for Hobbs overshadowed one each by Manager Dick Ratliff and Jim McDonald as the Boosters beat the Pioneers in a thriller, 7 to 6.

New York Giants Find Lead-Off Man Who Bangs 'Em Out Next To Good Pitchers, Sluggers

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Next to a good pitching staff and a couple of sluggers in the "cleanup" spots, one of the most valuable assets a ball club can have is a good lead-off man. And there you have another reason for the success of the New York Giants, who are breezing along with a 4 1-2 game lead in the National league.

In Joe Moore, the Giants have an outfielder who is about as adept at getting on base and stirring up trouble as anyone in the circuit. He's hitting a cool .356 now with 31 hits, and 16 times comrades Jim Ripple, Mel Ott and Hank Leiber down in the "waist" of the lineup have brought him home.

Provides Thunder Tuesday

He provided the hitting thunder yesterday and Harry Gumbert was equally successful on the pitching mound as the Giants whipped the second-place Chicago Cubs for the second time, 5 to 1. Jo-Jo made four hits, twice when he was leading off. He opened the game with a single and before the inning was over the Giants had three runs and Bill Lee, Chicago's starting flinger, was taking a shower. Moore drove in another tally when the Giants completed their scoring off Charley Root in the sixth.

Gumbert, marking up his fourth victory in five starts, limited the Cubs to five singles although he narrowly escaped trouble in the first two innings with the aid of Giant double plays.

Dodgers Best Cards

The Brooklyn Dodgers also found the value of good lead-off hitting as they belted over the St. Louis Cardinals, next opponents of the league leaders, 10 to 2. Goody Rosen, recently promoted to the No. 1 spot, connected safely three times in five attempts, scored one run and drove in one as he hoisted his average to .368. At that his hitting was overshadowed by Ernie Koy, who made two singles and two doubles in five times up.

The Brooklyn victory came after Leo Durocher, the noted "Jockey" had stirred up his teammates by riding Bill Posedel for his wildness in batting practice. He almost got into a scrap with his teammate, but the Dodgers turned to fighting the Cards instead of Luke Hamlin who gave no grounds for similar criticism as he hurled seven-hit ball and walked only one.

Attendance Is Slight

Although Washington's Senators increased their American league lead to a full game by defeating the St. Louis Browns 8-6 and the Cincinnati Reds belted over the Phillies, 7-3, these games might as well have been called off, as were four others, from the front-office viewpoint. Only about 3,000 customers turned out at Washington and 1,133 at Cincinnati. The St. Louis attendance was 1,410.

The Senators just did manage to stretch their winning streak to seven straight, scoring three runs to win after two were out in the eighth.

The Reds sewed up their victory with a three-run seventh as Jim Weaver and Joe Cascarella collaborated on a six-hit flinging job. The Phils might have done better if Herschel Martin, after hitting safely twice, hadn't been beaned by a thrown ball while trying to steal second. He wasn't badly hurt but had to leave the game.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)

HARRY GUMBERT, Giants — Tamed Cubs with five hits, all singles, and clouted two himself in 5-1 defeat of Chicagoans.

DUSTY COOKE, Reds — Got four hits, two of them doubles, in five trips to plate to lead way in 7-3 trimming of Phillies.

ERNIE KOY and LUKE HAMLIN, Dodgers — Koy banked out two doubles and two singles, while Hamlin turned back Cardinals, 10-2, on seven hits.

RICK FERRELL, Senators — His triple and double drove in four runs as Nats turned back Browns, 8-6.

Meadowbrook Play Starts On Sunday

Reversing an earlier decision to postpone the Meadowbrook championship tournament, club officials announced Tuesday night plans to hold qualifying rounds through Sunday.

Qualifiers may turn in their cards anytime this week through Sunday.

In qualifying, members of the ladder who are tied for positions may play their matches at the same time. This will speed up the ladder play according to Bryne.

Ed Doherty is the defending champion.

Deadlocks on the ladder are as follows:

At 68—Bob Hale and Joe Bihl.

At 75—J. A. McCauley, Jim Shaw, and Buddy Grant.

At 77—P. H. Polk, Andy Anderson, Bert Pinson, W. T. Rogers, O. A. Terry, R. V. Sandlin, and Tige Formby.

At 78—Fuzzy Davis, J. B. Powers, Sled Allen, Si Fluke, Doc Jones, and Carl Nail.

At 79—A. Yaggy, J. B. Galland, and A. C. Straley.

At 83 — E. W. Settle and Grady Knight.

At 90—C. W. Goodgion and Jack Goodgion.

Tech Golf And Net Teams Off Today For Border Meet

The Border conference tournaments as their goal, Texas Tech golf and tennis teams left this morning for Tempe, Ariz., for the loop meets Friday and Saturday.

Enroute the golf team will play New Mexico Aggies of Las Cruces Wednesday and possibly Arizona State Teachers college of Tempe Thursday. Members making the trip are Manson Allen, captain, Donald Doherty, Ford Sturdivant, and Lindsey Telford, who will defend the championship.

Netters entering the meet will be Wilson Chapman, Harry Jordan, Sidney Moore, and Aubrey McCarthy. Chapman will defend the singles title and team with Jordan to defend the doubles title. Moore and McCarthy will play both singles and doubles in the second division.

A third title for team excellence is being added this year. Points are based on number of rounds survived by the four players.

Bob Pastor Scores Technical KO Over Ramage Last Night

LOS ANGELES, May 11. (AP)—Bob Pastor, 183, of New York, scored a technical knockout over Lee Ramage, 197, of San Diego, Calif., on two minutes and 25 seconds of the ninth round of a scheduled 10-round fight last night. A towel sailed into the ring from Ramage's corner.

About 6,000 persons witnessed the bout.

Pastor was never able to knock the veteran Californian down, but was shooting heavy punches to his head when the referee stopped the fight.

TEXANS INCLUDED

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 11. (AP)—Sixty-nine athletes and nine managers were awarded their varsity letters today for winter sports at the naval academy.

Included were: Small bore rifle: H. J. Weiler, Austin, Tex.; and J. W. McCoy, Clarksville, Tex.; swimming: J. J. Keough, Austin, Tex.

RISKO IS WINNER

AKRON, O., May 11. (AP)—Babe Risko, former middleweight champion from Syracuse, N. Y., batted out a clean-cut ten-round decision last night over Gorilla Jones, also former champion from Akron.

There's Growing Suspicion That National League Ball 'Hopped' Up; They're Hitting Too Hard

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 11.—There's been a growing suspicion lately that the National league put over a fast one during the winter and supplied its boys with a hopped-up ball.

They were supposed, as you may remember, to have taken some of the rabbit out of the official pellet and made things easier for pitchers by adding a strand to the lacing.

King Carl Complains

Yet all the evidence has been to the contrary. The batters have been knocking homeruns like they never knocked them before, and such a veteran flinger as Carl Hubbell of the Giants has complained that the ball is coming back at him so fast he doesn't have a decent opportunity to duck.

King Carl already has been cracked on the ankle by a sharp-hit ball, and his teammate Hal Schumacher caught one in the groin the other day. Hub says it's the fastest thing he's faced since 1929, and Manager Bill Terry of the Giants caught on so quick that he's dropped his old bunting game and ordered his lads to sock the apple.

Leading In Homers

Up until two days ago the Nationals actually were leading their American league rivals in total homeruns, and even now the Giants and the Chicago Cubs are ahead of them all in this important phase. Fourbase blows have accounted for approximately 40 per cent of all the Giants' runs.

Ford Frick, president of the National league, was asked if somebody hadn't possibly made a mistake about subtracting some of the ball's voltage. He professed to be as puzzled as the next one.

"All I can figure is that we must have a new bunch of sluggers this year," he ventured, a trifle uncertainty. "They do look like the same names, don't they? But I guess they're just hitting better—or maybe our pitchers aren't so good."

That hardly seemed likely. Didn't he think maybe this extra strand in the seams might accidentally have added some gusto to the ball.

"No, that's impossible," he said stoutly. "All that fifth strand does is give the pitcher a better grip. The ball underneath is the same. Maybe, like I said, our pitchers aren't as good. Or maybe our batters . . . Shucks, I can't explain it."

Ray Wolf's Contract At North Carolina Extended 5 Years

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., May 11. (AP)—R. A. Fetzer, director of athletics at the University of North Carolina, announced today that the contract of Head Football Coach Ray Wolf had been renewed for five years.

Wolf came to Chapel Hill two years ago from Texas Christian university.

YOUR DOLLAR NOW BUYS MORE

In a General Electric Refrigerator than ever before!

TODAY'S GENERAL ELECTRIC MODELS CLIMAX 12 YEARS OF EVER INCREASING VALUES!

PRICE — Today, this first choice of millions is popularly priced! G-E refrigerators purchased 12 years ago—the first G-E to have the now famous G-E sealed mechanism—have proved excellent investments. Today's G-E prices are approximately 50% less!

OPERATING COST — The first G-E Monitor Mechanism revolutionized refrigeration costs. Today this famous Thrift Unit uses an average of 60% less current than the original.

COLD CAPACITY — More cold producing capacity with less current consumption has resulted from G-E's research. Since 1927 the cold capacity of the famous General Electric mechanism has been increased 56%.

FAST FREEZING — The freezing speed of today's G-E is over three times as fast as that of the 1927 G-E. In 6 tray models 48 lbs. of ice can be frozen in 24 hours.

QUIET — You can scarcely hear the murmur of today's G-E Monitor Mechanism. Since the first "quiet" G-E, acoustic mufflers, "floating power" and forced-feed lubrication have reduced operating whisper 78%. And also added to the long life of a General Electric!

1. Thrifty in PRICE
2. Thrifty in CURRENT
3. Thrifty in UPKEEP

LOOK AT THE PRICE TAGS! COMPARE VALUES!

And Check The Multiple Savings of a New 1938 General Electric

The new 1938 G-E Triple-Thrift Refrigerators are now on display. A dozen beautiful superbly styled models offering the greatest values in General Electric history. Last year America bought more General Electric Refrigerators than ever before—and today's G-E is even a bigger buy! It climaxes a 12 year record of ever increasing values.

LUBBOCK SLATON

Towns Will Be Visited Friday

Twenty-one South Plains and eastern New Mexico towns will be included on feeder routes out of Lubbock in connection with the approaching airmail pickup test here, members of the aviation committee of the chamber of commerce decided Tuesday.

Good will trips by air will be paid to each of the towns Friday, it was decided further.

Members of the committee, of which Postmaster Amos Howard is chairman, also decided to attend a conference at Big Spring Thursday morning at which the schedule of an airmail plane from Amarillo to San Antonio will be completed.

Pickup Test Set May 19

Actions of the committee here were in preparation for the airmail pickup test along the route May 19 in connection with observance of national airmail week. Loads on the feeder planes operating on loop routes out of Lubbock will be transferred to the Amarillo-Lubbock-San Antonio trip here.

Itineraries of the planes from Lubbock will be:

No. 1—Littlefield, Muleshoe, Clovis, Morton, Levelland.

No. 2 — Brownfield, Seagraves, Hobbs, Seminole, Lamesa and Tahoka.

No. 3—Floydada, Lockney, Plainview, Hale Center and Abernathy.

No. 4—Slaton, Post, Spur, Crosbyton and Ralls.

Heading the good-will delegation will be the postmaster with Clent Breedlove, manager of Municipal airport, at the controls. Two others who will have seats in the four-place ship are yet to be chosen.

Cooperation Is Urged

Letters from the chamber of commerce to postmasters along the route have asked that committees await the Lubbock group at their landing field. In towns without airports, the postmasters have been asked to arrange for the marking of the landing field with a large white cross.

Another proposal being studied by the chamber's aviation committee which probably will be adopted, it was disclosed, is that the active cooperation of every school pupil be sought. The proposal, as outlined to C. E. Maedgen, chairman of the committee, is that each pupil address a letter to the teacher of his grade in some other city with the request that it be delivered to some pupil in that grade. The letter would tell of Lubbock and the South Plains.

The same plan also likely will be adopted in numerous of the towns on loops out of Lubbock.

Business institutions also will be asked to cooperate by putting such mail as they conveniently can on the plane, members of the committee said.

Oilers Still Boast Leadership Of Loop

There was a good deal of jockeying for places by the second division clubs yesterday in the hurly-burly Texas league race but little change was noted in the upper bracket, even though the leading Tulsa Oilers dropped their second straight game.

The Dallas Steers, took offense at rumors of a shakeup and proceeded to snap a losing complex that had run to six straight by blasting the San Antonio Missions into third place 6-3.

Polly's triple in the seventh with two on was the pay-off blow and it edged Dallas into sixth place in the standing.

Tulsa, which had won nine straight up to Monday night, lost to Houston 4-0 but the Oilers still boasted a three-game lead over the second-place Beaumont Exporters. Morton Cooper, sent to Houston by the St. Louis Cardinals on aption, held Tulsa to seven hits and fanned eight.

Beaumont moved into second place with a 7-2 win over Fort Worth, which thereby fell into a tie for the cellar with the Shreveport Sports, who found the range against Oklahoma City, 3-0.

Cloyd Smith scattered six Fort Worth hits and was tight in the clutches. Shreveport celebrated the dedication of a new stadium before a crowd of 7,000 with a sterling exhibition in which Bill Glick was stingy with his hits, limiting the Indians to four, none for extra bases.

Jamie Gough Bobs Up Today As Favorite In Conference Golf

DALLAS, May 11. (AP)—Stringbean Jamie Gough, Southern Methodist university star, bobbed up today as the slim favorite to win the Southwest conference golf championship—a 72-hole medal play event starting tomorrow over Brook Hollow's par 35-35-70 course.

Semi-finalist in the recent Texas Golf association at Fort Worth, Gough, who holds the Dallas Country club course record at 63, finished second to Bill Welch in the conference meet last year.

Prominent challengers to his bid for the title will be bespectacled Bob Glover of Rice Institute, a lean youngster who only yesterday aided in the rout of the Methodist team in a match at Brook Hollow by defeating Rufus King; Walter Benson and Wayne Middleton, Texas stars; Lawrence Reilly of Rice, and others.

Every conference school with the possible exception of Arkansas will have a squad in the field.

Thirty-six holes will be played Thursday and Friday, with Thursday's scores to be tabulated in the team play event.

New Champion Is Expected In Southern Women's Tourney

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 11 (AP)—Unless a lot of the guys and gals of the clubhouse brigade miss their guess, a new Southern golf champion will be crowned come Saturday's twilight.

As the championship eliminations entered the second round, 16 matches being on today's program, the ruling choice was still Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, N. C., the national titleholder.

But any way one sized up the field, the completion for the 1938 crown shaped up as a "wide open" struggle down the stretch. Miss Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta, 18-year-old schoolgirl, and present title-holder was far from out of the running along with such potential threats as Miss Marion Miley, of Lexington, Ky., tournament medalist, Miss Kathryn Hemphill of Columbia, S. C., Mrs. Dan Chandler of Dallas, Texas, and a number of others.

Three other former champions were in the running for the crown, Mrs. Frank Golthwaite of Fort Worth, the 1933 winner, Mrs. Mark McGarre of St. Petersburg, Fla., champion of 1936 and young Betty Jameson of San Antonio, the 1934 titleholder.

The world's largest noise, the volcanic explosion of the Island of Krakatoa was heard by human ears as far off as Bangkok, 1,400 miles away.

WOMEN IN TOURNEY

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 11. (AP)—A field containing 63 of the Southwest's leading women golfers teed off at the Albuquerque Country club today for the qualifying round of the eleventh annual Southwestern Women's tournament.

Mrs. R. D. Roper of Phoenix, defending titlist, was favored to repeat.

Among other favorites were Mrs. Otto Armstrong, and Mrs. W. T. Chapman of El Paso.

East Texas League Scramble Is Close; Tyler Is Leading

(By The Associated Press)

The East Texas league scramble was so close today the top clubs could use the same water bucket.

The three leaders continued to pound along with a half game separating each and the fourth place team was but a game and a half out of third position.

The top hands at Tyler had a narrow squeak but managed to nose out Kilgore, a team not so far down itself, by a 9-8 count.

Second place Longview beat Henderson's ears down 7-3 with a wild seventh inning in which the Cannibals chased across six tallies and handed young Orval Grove his third pitching win of the season.

Third place Texarkana downed Jacksonville 8-6.

Marshall nudged out Palestine 7-6 in 12 innings behind relief Pitcher Jim Reninger.

Roosevelt Seniors To Stage Annual Class Play Tonight

A three-act comedy will be presented by the senior class of Roosevelt Rural High school tonight in the school auditorium.

The play, "Big Brother," has been directed by Mrs. Dick Green.

The cast is made up of the eight members of the senior class: Tracy Weaver, Geneva Taber, Lee Searay, G. C. Davis, Cletta Belle Simpson, Katherine Harmon, Marie Galyon Fugate, and Gilford Cox.

Admittance charge will be 10 and 15 cents and proceeds will go toward defraying expenses of the school's yearbook.

Members of the senior class will leave at noon Thursday to spend the weekend at Palo Duro canyon. They will return Sunday.

Applications for Crop And Seed Loans Must Be In By May 31

Applications for emergency crop and seed loan should be filed not later than May 31, according to statement Tuesday by Fred N. Warren, field supervisor.

The Farm Credit administration has set that date as the last on which supervisors may accept applications. Warren has offices in room 215, federal building. He will be there Saturdays, he said, and Monday.

Girls under 25 in Germany who have not worked for a year on a farm or in a private household are forbidden by the government to engage in industry.

That Girl on Broadway says in Germany only married men are permitted to vote, so it's no wonder Hitler gets nothing but "yes-es" at the polls.

The bride of a few weeks noticed that her husband was terribly depressed.

"Gerald, dearest," she said, "I know there is something troubling you and I want you to tell me what it is. Your worries are not your worries now; they're our worries."

The old boy drew a sigh of relief.

"All right," he said. "There's a girl in New York who is suing us for breach of promise!"

JOSEPH T. Mackey, president of the Linotype company which manufactures the machines that set nearly every line in every edition of the Avalanche-Journal, wrote a very sensible article for his company's magazine "Shining Lines."

It should be interesting to every business man, so we're passing it along.

"Rotifers," says Mr. Mackey, "are little things. One might almost call them things of no importance. People who know about such things tell us that a large rotifer is about the size of a pinpoint. The microscope shows it to be a complicated creature. It has forcep-like mandibles, a kidney that is in its throat, a large stomach, coiled intestines, a definite eye-spot, brain cells and complete muscular and nervous systems. Each also has distinct sex, the male being smaller than the female.

"These rotifers are sometimes called wheel animalcules. With tiny hairs in the form of a crown they beat the water rythmically, and so create a swirl about themselves. This draws to them protozoa, or still smaller rotifers. They thrive by the billions in calm waters and are virtually invisible to the naked eye. We saw a microscopic picture of one of them extracting food from the inside of a spike of moss.

THOSE rotifers started us thinking of the billions of little things, insignificant in size, that are eating the very hearts out of many businesses. They have many names. They are unanswered correspondence, delayed shipments, errors in orders, discourtesy, smart Aleck remarks by salesmen, bad telephone manners, chilling collection letters—lengthen out this list to suit yourself.

"The big things that are so big they attract the attention of everybody are of far less importance. They call public attention to themselves. They, usually, are the ones that receive special attention from those highest up in the organization. But the things that really matter are not the occasional big things that go wrong, but the billions of little things that, like rotifers, are so small that they can eat their meals inside a spike of moss, rob many a great business organization of its strength and power."

There isn't a business man, or a professional man, or a craftsman selling his services who can't get something out of that thought of Mr. Mackey.

The Plainsman believes the above article, if taken to heart and its dictates followed, will be worth money to many a reader.

Few of us realize that it's the little things which usually make or break a man, or his business.

We'd all be better off if we watched them more closely and corrected them when we discovered them.

YOU'LL notice Mr. Mackey mentioned, among other things, "bad telephone manners."

There's a fault which is not alone found in business establishments, but in a great percentage of homes.

Although there are more telephones—and more telephones per capita—in the United States than in all the rest of the world put together, Americans probably are the worst misusers of the gadgets to be found anywhere.

The fellow who gets mad over being mistreated over the phone often will turn right around and show bad manners, himself, on the very next call he makes or receives.

The answer to the whole thing seems to be that we don't know any better. We don't know how to use the phone as we should.

* * *

THE PLAINSMAN will wager that our telephone manners can be improved 90 per cent if we will only think before we speak and if we will only apply the same courtesy to conversations over the wire that we do to personal conversations.

Isn't that right?

Unable to resist the temptation of trotting out a couple of pet peeves regarding telephoning, The Plainsman makes this suggestion:

When you get an answer to your call, don't bawl "Who's talkin'" as soon as the party on the other end of the line says "hello." And when you answer the phone and someone asks for another person at your address, don't demand "who is this?"—because that's usually none of your business, and that's the way the caller feels about it!

That Man on Avenue Q says the doctor tried to get an x-ray of his wife's jaw but had to compromise on a moving picture.

Sign on a door of an Alabama business house:

"Back in an hour. Gone to lynch."

WE note with interest that the Texas Department of Public Safety is arranging a series of "patrolmen exchanges" with similar departments in the United States, as well as with the Northwest Mounted police, of Canada.

Colonel Carmichael, boss of Texas' highway patrolmen and ranchers, believes the boys will learn a good deal more that way than they will attending conventions.

Aside from proving that the colonel knows his conventions, the decision is packed with sense.

State police organizations in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York—to name a few of the leaders — will be wonderful training grounds for Texas patrolmen who are "farmed out" to them. All are older than the Texas organization and are considerably advanced in all sorts of policing and crime detection work.

The Plainsman is more interested in the Texas Department of Public Safety than he has been in any other state project for a long time.

Handicapped for funds and with a short background and no tradition, the department nevertheless is stepping out rapidly. It won't be long until Texas will rank with the best of the states in the matter of policing.

That is, if politics is kept out and a fair measure of financial support is furnished by the legislature.

* * *

SURPRISE! Surprise! By the time this reaches the reader The Plainsman will be fur, fur, away.

Worn out and "writ" out, he's long gone and will not be back on the job for the next few days.

This column, therefore, will be missing until he gets back—which will be sometime next week.

Be seein' you then!

Porter sixteen roadster. But that Friday noon, Asey was not even noticed. He got only the shortest nods from the state cop who was helping unsnarl traffic in Depot Square. Reporters, who usually dogged the heels of the man they had popularized as "The Hired Hand de Luxe," "The Hayseed Sherlock," "The Homespun Sleuth"—today they dismissed Asey with a lanquid wave.

Parking his roadster in the square's last available slit of space, Asey joined the crowd milling towards the post office. The building would have inspired unabashed awe in a good sized metropolis. In Quanomet it assumed an aura of complete unreality.

Fort the most part the structure was red brick, but here and there whimsical areas of concrete had been introduced. The front pillars were dazzling chromium, the steps pink granite, the windows were strangely barred casements. A self-conscious placard announced that the architecture was Early Colonial Modified.

"Modification my eye!" Asey murmured. "It's out an' out repeal. Wow!"

Inside he found most of the summer residents of the Cape, gazing up in spellbound fascination at the mural. Asey gazed, too.

Peace, her wings protruding from beach pajamas, was starting a side chancery on a clam digger, who resented it vigorously. Ignoring three heavily armed apes in gas masks who belabored her from virtually every angle, Peace beamed down at a stalwart youth whose full nelson on Capital was definitely getting results. Capital, Asey decided, was mighty sick.

From the clam digger's left knee tottered a leering British Grenadier, and a pirate hugging a mussed Red Cross nurse. Near her, two tired women stirred something steaming in a kettle. Out of the steam emerged a Model T Ford driven by a child who looked like Shirley Temple. Miles Standish sat in a cramped position on the spare tire, making faces at John Alden and a tubercular Indian.

'Bewitching Marina'

"Whee!" Asey said. "Whee!" He didn't realize that he had spoken out loud till the girl standing beside him chuckled.

"Say it, Asey," she advised pleasantly. "Don't try to hold in."

"Do you suppose," Asey asked, wondering who she was, "that feller with the scythe who's ficatin' on top—is he death, or the tax collector?"

"He's father, and I think he's got grounds for libel. Have you come to the Civil War yet?"

Asey shook his head and tried to figure out where he had met this girl before who so obviously knew him. She had a nice voice and a nice laugh, a well tanned face and wide brown eyes.

"Well," she said, "the Civil War's a fat Aunt Jemima in the far left pannel, frying pancakes. Grant is badly burned."

In the general shushing that followed Asey's unrestrained roar of laughter, he and the girl tiptoed outside to the pink steps.

"I shouldn't have let myself go," Asey said, leaning weakly against one of the chromium pillars. "What's that artist wastin' his time on federal pictures for? With a sense of humor like that, he'd ought to be sellin' things over the radio. My, I'd like to meet him."

The girl looked at him quizzically. "I don't think," she remarked, "that you would not. Not unless you've changed a lot since I knew you. You see, the artist has no sense of humor. Not a whit."

"Go on!" Asey didn't believe her. "He don't!"

"He's Jack Lorne, my brother-in-law," she said, "and it pains me to say I speak the truth about him. After the tumult and the shouting die, come over to the house some day, and I'll take you over to their place and introduce you. That is, if you'll promise not to hurl anything very large. Most people want to."

"What house do I get you from?" Asey's eyes twinkled.

Pamela Frye

"You mean, who am I anyway? Oh, Asey, I'm so crushed! I was so sure you recognized me. I live in Octagon House—"

"Octagon House!" Asey said. "The old eight sided Sparrow place—why, I ain't thought about that in years. That makes you Pamela Frye, an' you mustn't hold my not remembering against me. It ain't often that a spindly little shrimp like you was, Pam, grows into such a nice lookin' young lady as you are. Sure I remember you now. I taught you to sail a boat."

"It's still the thing I do best."

"An' you used to drive me crazy," Asey said "always wantin' to go ashore to hunt for ambergris. Mornin', noon an' night, you combed the shore for ambergris."

"And I still do," Pam Frye said. "I still do, in spite of what everyone, including my excellent and talented sister, says. Look, come over in a few days and I'll show you Jack Lorne and the bewitching Marina. Don't look so puzzled, you knew her too. She was plain Mary Hosannah Frye in those days, but she's turned out to be the bewitching Marina Lorne. You'll recognize her. She's that, quote, beautiful tawny creature, unquote, that lives in tobacco ads."

"A model, huh?" Asey asked.

"Yes, she's the figure of Peace, inside in the mural. I'm one of those weary wenches next the kettle, but happily no one's recognized me yet."

"You model, too?" Asey, whose curiosity rarely got the better of him, unashamedly pumped. The girl interested him. Suddenly he got the impression that she lived in Quanomet all the year round, but he could not imagine what possible charm or opportunity the place held for her.

"Oh, I do most anything to earn money," she told him with complete candor. "In a nice way, of course. I've done any number of things for Peg Boone's stuff. I'm ladies with dishpan hands, and gray sheets—Heavens, it's nearly one o'clock! I've got to dash."

"Wait a second," Asey said with sudden inspiration. "If you still like sailin', why not come back to Wellfleet with me, an' help me try out this new craft of mine that's just been delivered?"

"The new Mary P? Oh, Asey, I saw her Monday, in the creek—She's a beauty! I'd love to go. But I've got this new crop of boarders to feed—"

"Of boarders? Whose boarders?"

"Father and I and Octagon House," Pam said, "we have boarders, with stewed prunes for breakfast. Our first two—boarders, Asey, not prunes! They came today, and it behooves me to put my best foot forward. They're very nice—more decent than most, and father can't be trusted to cope with a whole meal. He's absent minded. Look, will you ask me sailing next week, when Quanomet's back to normal? Is that a date? And in return, I'll display the Mighty Jack and the Bewitching Marina."

'Wide Open'

As she paused to light a cigarette, it suddenly occurred to Asey that never in all his life had he heard such hatred as Pam's quiet voice held while speaking of her sister and brother-in-law.

"I'll even show you," she went on. "Father's collection of odd and curious clocks, and—oh, look at those tourists eating their filthy lunches in the old cemetery! What horried people! I suppose it's what comes of headlines."

"The headlines won't last," Asey assured her.

"You don't know the half of it. This town is torn wide open. Quanomet's in upheaval."

"What's it upheavin' about?" Asey inquired. "The new P. O.?"

That, and the mural, and Jack Lorne. They never did want the post office," they loathed the thought of the mural, and they've cordially disliked Jack for the five years he's been here. And in the mural he's been unwise and misguided enough to caricature half the town."

"Come to think of it—"

"Yes. You go gape again," Pam said, "and you'll see why fifty per cent of Quanomet itches to tar and feather Jack Lorne and why the other fifty per cent is convinced that tarring and feathering is far to good for him. What's going to happen when they finally come to their senses and begin to realize that Jack hasn't the brains to be that malicious all by himself, without outside inspiration!"

"Who prompted him?" Asey knew the answer even before he asked the question.

"Three guesses," Pam said tartly. "Thank heaven, the town likes Father even though they secretly think he's slightly daft, and I play the church organ and help run the Women's Club, so I'm reasonably safe. But what's going to happen to the rest of the family, I can't bear to think. Quanomet's aroused for the first time since I've known the place. It's on the warpath. And some of the mutterings are downright ugly. And if these headlines keep up—"

"They won't." Asey said. But they did.

HAGUE GOING TOO FAR

Any city is justified, of course, in protecting itself against occurrences which may lead to disorders, but it appears that Mayor Frank Hague has gone far beyond that point in his dictatorship over Jersey City.

This statement is not intended as a defense of two congressmen who were prevented by Boss Hague's hirelings from delivering labor speeches in New Jersey, the excuse being that their appearance there might result in disorders. The Evening Journal does not know, nor is it interested, in what the two men intended to say. But it is interested, and keenly resents, that any mayor of any American city can flaunt that portion of the constitution which guarantees freedom of speech.

The suggestion that Boss Hague was motivated in his action by concern for the welfare of his citizens is an insult to intelligence. He was thinking of his own hide and of the grasp he holds on that worst of machine-dominated cities. He, like other dictators, demonstrated in that case as he has in others, that bossism cannot stand the light of free speech.

The fact that conditions in Jersey City stink to high heaven is borne out by cold figures. Jersey City's debt, for example, is by far the largest in proportion to population of any large city in the United States. On the same basis, the property is assessed for taxation at the highest figure. It's tax rate is among the highest, if not the highest, of any large city. Its police force, on the same basis, is the largest—which might be condoned if its size was dictated by the desired to provide protection. That is not the case. The Jersey City police department is, notoriously, no more than an important cog in the machine.

If the citizens of Jersey City wish to continue to stomach Hague and his gang, that of course is their business. But when he attempts to hold himself bigger than the cocnstitution, then it is time that the American government should take a hand.

Hollywood Chit-Chat

BY PAUL HARRISON
Journal Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, May 11—Although openly defending its own prestige and some of its "prestige" stars, the motion picture industry secretly is not displeased by the recent blast from a group of exhibitors against a number of high-pay, low-profit players.

Nation-wide attention was directed to a statement signed by the Independent Theater Owners' Association, which came right out in print and characterized Mae West, Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford, Katharine Hepburn, Kay Francis, and Marlene Dietrich "as box office poison."

The argument was that these people have become less popular with American fans, but have been drawing increasingly large salaries on long-term contracts. Alleged results: Increased costs of production, increased rates for rentals to the theaters, but lower box office grosses.

Now "poison" is a naughty word in Hollywood. Hearing the screams of some of the agents and managers you'd have thought that each of their clients was Snow White and all seven of the dwarfs. There is still grumbling about libel suits and loud threats of business reprisals.

Studios Don't Mind

Yet the studios themselves are not protesting or offering box office statistics to refute the exhibitors' charges. For months producers have been trying to reduce star salaries.

The fact is that Paramount is taking bows for having dropped the contracts of the Misses Dietrich and West. RKO likewise is being congratulated for parting from Miss Hepburn. It is fairly common knowledge around Talkietown that Miss Francis, already demoted to B pictures, will go off the Warner Brothers' payroll in September.

These facts would seem to corroborate, in some degree, the "poison" diagnosis of the group of exhibitors. It also is true that Greta Garbo now has no contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. If and when she returns, a new one or two-picture contract must be negotiated. The studio expects her to return, and it plans to cast her in a comedy as relief from such heavy drama as the notably unsuccessful "Conquest."

Joan Starting Anew

Most of Hollywood has risen to the defense of Joan Crawford, who also was listed among the "poison" stars. Of her last five pictures, none was highly successful, yet the lowest gross of all was $990,000 for the "The Bride Wore Red."

The screen colony knows that she has had some bad stories, that she was reluctant to appear in some of the pictures, but that she went ahead without a fuss and made the best of her assignments.

What Hollywood does not know, yet, is that Miss Crawford soon will begin a new career in celluloid. Here's the story:

Recently a prominent actors' agent, M. C. Levee, invited Louis B. Mayer to hear some operatic and popular recordings made by a "new" girl singer. Mayer listened, pronounced the singing "marvelous."

Levee then identified the girl as Joan Crawford, who has been seriously studying voice with the idea of getting out of ingenuish roles into substantial stardom as a singer.

Result is a new contract, signed last month without announcement. Her current agreement runs to November, and she now is at the peak of her salary. Next autumn she begins a five-year contract. It calls for less money, but it also provides the rare security of being a straight agreement without options.

It gives her the right to refuse a singing role during the first year if she considers that her voice is not ready. It also allows her times out for three stage plays, and if she chooses to appear on Broadway her Metro contract may stretch over a period of seven years. That would make a total of two solid decades of screen prominence.

Will Katie Be Scarlett?

When Katharine Hepburn came to Hollywood she signed a five-year contract with RKO, with options and increases terminating at $100,000 per picture. At option time, recently, she was receiving $85,000 and would have gone into the top bracket if a disagreement had not prompted the studio to drop her. She didn't like "Mother Carey's Chickens," in which she was to appear next, nor did she like the company's scheme to star her in cheaper pictures hereafter.

Her alacrity of departure, together with some other circumstances, has convinced certain RKO executives that Miss Hepburn has agreed to be Scarlett O'Hara when David Selznick and Director George Cukor get around to making "Gone With the Wind."

Marlene Dietrich had one more picture to make under her contract with Paramount. But the financial nose-dive taken by "Angel" sent executives scurrying to her with an offer of a cash settlement and cancellation of the remaining commitment. She settled.

Once Got Top Salary

Her first three pictures, "Blue Angel," "Morocco," and "Shanghai Express," were profitable. But after that, beginning with "Scarlet Empress" in 1934, she was a prestige but not a profit star. Meanwhile, however, Harry Eddington pyramided her salary until at the last she was drawng $250,000 per pcture. In England, due to delays in production, she actually collected $450,000 from Alexander Korda for her services in "Knight Without Armor."

She now is reported to have signed for the picture at 20th-Fox—with Ronald Colman in "The Rains Came." She definitely is under contract to Columbia Pictures for at least one film, and with an option for a second. Her new wage, however, has dwindled to $100,000.

Mae Is "Resting"

Mae West has not been under contract to Paramount for nearly two years. Until recently she was on the payroll of Emanuel Cohn, an independent producer who distributed through Paramount. The distributing contract recently lapsed, and so has the West-Cohn agreement. Mae is out of a job.

While strutting for Paramount she was paid $150,000 per picture, plus a percentage, plus a salary as a writer. "She Done Him Wrong" and "I'm No Angel," made in 1933, and "Belle of the '90's," in 1934, made a lot of money. After those her box office appeal declined.

Kay Francis declares that when her Warner Brothers contract expires in September she will marry and retire. The studio has given her its blessing. Hollywood's most spectacular in-and-outer with a long record of successes and flops, she recently completed, playing opposite John Litel, a Class B production called "In Every Woman's Life." Litel is an actor with whom Miss Francis once refused to pose for still pictures because, she said, he was identified with B films.

The exhibitors' group, in its message to the industry, called attention to the large profits made by economically produced series pictures and westerns. "Does that mean," asked a Metro executive, "that they expect us to teach Garbo to ride a broncho and strum a guitar?"

Fence-Jumpers Prevalent In Pennsylvania; Epic Battle Due To Be Decided On May 17

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 11—A remarkable state—Pennsylvania,
Where politicos all have a mania
To leap hither and thence
Over each party fence
Whenever it enters theircrania.

That's only one curious phase of the Keystone state's epic political battle, which will be decided in the primary election of May 17.

Both candidates for the Democratic senatorial nomination are former Republicans. They are Gov. George H. Earle, who became a Democrat in 1932, and Mayor S. Davis Wilson of Philadelphia, who was elected to his present job as a Republican but subsequently has professed to be non-partisan. They seek the seat of a consistent G. O. P. man, Senator James J. Davis.

Rodney Dutcher

The probable Republican nominee for the governorship—by far the most important prize in this race—is former Governor Gifford Pinchot, an old Bull Mooser. He is opposed by Judge Arthur James. The Democratic candidates are Lieut.-Gov. Thomas Kennedy, Charles A. Jones of Pittsburgh and former Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti, who ran as a Republican four years ago but switched his support to the Democrats and subsequently was rewarded with a job in Governor Earle's cabinet—and recently fired by Earle.

More Fence-Jumpers

C. I. O. Leader John L. Lewis, who insisted that the Democratic state machine endorse Kennedy—a vice-president of the United Mine Workers—for governor and thereby precipitated the great Pennsylvania Democratic split, used to be rated a Republican and backed Hoover against Al Smith in 1928. And Lewis' right-hand man, Philip Murray, head of the Steel Workers' Arganizing committee and active in the Kennedy campaign, was at least until recently a registered Republican in Pittsburgh.

Boss Matt McCloskey of Philadelphia, chief power behind the Jones-Earle ticket, recently was quoted by Senator Joe Guffey as saying, "I used to be a Republican and I can be a Republican again."

Guffey himself is a Democrat from away back, although Andrew Mellon, one of the state G. O. P. bosses, once underwrote a guarantee of $75,000 for him when the government demanded the interest on some alien property funds Joe had been holding.

Many other Pennsylvania politicians, including negro leaders, have found it advantageous to leap the party fence since he Democrats began to emerge from the wilderness.

Labor Big Factor

But all this is insignificant beside the importance of the Lewis bid for political power in the nation's greatest industrial state. Lewis wants not only a labor governor for Pennsylvania, where until a few years ago industrialists and their Republican political allies held undisputed sway; he wants a voice in the next Democratic national convention. Pennsylvania will have a bloc of 72 votes there.

With his own governor in command of the state machine and with his ally, Guffey, operating federal patronage and politics, there's no question that Lewis would have such a voice. The test in Pennsylvania will indicate the extent to which the C. I. O. and its political friends can make headway elsewhere.

The political split in labor ranks is as definite and bitter as that in the Democratic party. A. F. of L. leaders have declared war on the Lewis-Guffey candidates.

Charges of corruption in the primary battle have become Page One headlines over the nation. A result of one exposure has been to remove Earle from serious consideration a sa presidential possibility, even assuming his nomination and election this year.

Rumors say that if the Kennedy-Wilson ticket is licked, Republicans Lewis and Murray are likely to switch back to the G. O. P. and support Pinchot, an old favorite of the coal miners. If Kennedy wins, other former Republican leaders now in Democratic ranks are likely to be back-flopping.

How To Win and Hold the One You Love
Ask Dr. La Rose Ph. D.
Graduate Psychologist

To obtain your heart's desire, see the World's greatest Psychologist, Reader and Healer—gives advice on business and personal affairs. Tells what business or profession best adapted for; teaches mental science, personal magnetism, how to control, fascinate and get the desire of your heart; how to make a person at a distance think of you.

Tells you when and whom you will marry and how to win the man or woman you love even though miles away. Settles lovers quarrels, reunites the separated. Has brought about more marriages, reunited more separated, than any other Psychologist in America.

Auction Sale
TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

BUYERS made no effort to conceal their intentions of establishing 25 to 50c lower prices, but there were few cattle sold at our sales that figured more than 25c off, although all other markets are at least 50c lower. We have lined up many packers and buyers for packers who are making our Tuesday and Friday sales regularly, so we need more good, choice grade killing cattle to supply the market that we have built up. We are going to depend on you to bring us in the cattle to supply this market. Both the Tuesday and Friday sales begins promptly at 10:00 a. m., so get your stock in as early as you can so you will have a good place in the auction.

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—Electric power shares swung to the front to give the stock market leadership for a resumption of the April-May recovery today.

Most industrials were slow to respond to the bullish signals hoisted in the power division but gains ranging to 2 points or more were general throughout the list. Profit-taking retarded the advance as leading shares approached the recent highs, although a number of utility shares succeeded in pushing ahead to new peaks for the recovery.

Transactions slowed a bit, totaling about 900,000 shares.

Buckingham Palace, one of the residences of Britain's king, was built in 1825 at a cost of nearly $5,000,000.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, May 11 (AP) — Cotton futures opened 4 to 6 points net lower here today under hedging and local and outside selling. The selling was influenced by disappointing foreign markets.

May contracts opened at 8.67, Oct at 8.80, Dec. 8.82, Jan. 8.83 and March 8.88. Business was confined to evening commitments in near months after the start and towards the end of the first half hour prices steady at the opening figures.

The weekly summary was more favorable than expected but local and foreign liquidation and some additional hedge selling was absorbed by spot house and trade buying.

Near mid-session July sold at 8.79, Oct. 8.82, and Dec. at 8.82, or 3 to 4 points below the previous close.

In Texas, the reports added, planting was inactive because of wet soil and growths of early cotton were slow, due to low temperatures but the general condition of the crop was fair to good.

The turnover yesterday was 12,550 bales and open commitments 353,950 bales, a decrease of 1,750 bales from the previous day.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP) — Cotton futures opened off 5 to 7 on lower Liverpool cables and under May liquidation against 17 notices and foreign selling. May 8.53; July 8.62; Oct. 8.65; Dec. 8.67; Jan. 8.70; March 8.75.

July advanced from 8.61 to 8.64 and was later selling at 8.63, with the market 2 to 4 points net lower shortly after the first half hour.

Prices moved narrowly later in the morning as May liquidation and foreign selling was taken by the trade and cooperative interests. The weekly weather report showed unfavorable conditions in the west counterbalanced by improved weather in the east.

July at midday was selling at 8.64 and the list was 3 to 4 points net lower.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, May 11 (AP) — Wheat prices in Chicago tilted upward early today. Opening unchanged to ¾ higher, May 80-80¾, July 77¼-78¼. Chicago wheat futures afterward showed a general moderate advance. Corn started unchanged to ¼ up, May 57½-⅝, July 58⅝-¾.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were 1¼-1⅜ higher compared with yesterday's finish, May 81¼-½, July 79¼-⅝; corn ⅝-⅞ up, May 58¼, July 59⅝-½; and oats ¼-½ advanced.

Brazilian Revolt

at that point and the rebellion collapsed.

The war ministry stated that Plinio Salgado, leader of the integralists, headed the rising, but that the actual field commander, was Belmiro Valdeverde, member of the high command of the party before its dissolution.

Palace Thrust Nearly Succeeds

The integralist thrust at Guanabara palace nearly succeeded, however. Witnesses said it might have worked had it not been for the cool, quick action of the president himself.

Disguised as soldiers and sailors, the integralists marched up to the palace, posing as the regular relief for the palace guard. The retiring guard apparantly was decided.

But the household staff, realizing what was going on, notified the president shortly after the spurious guard took over.

Vargas Summons Aid

Vargas summoned aid from the war, navy and police departments. Then, arming his family and the palace staff, he opened fire on the integralists. Military and police relief parties quickly arrived and overpowered the rebels.

At daybreak, Chief of Police Filinto Mueller, speaking for the Vargas government, broadcast a communique asserting the government "absolutely dominated" the situation and the revolt had been suppressed.

The uprising was so closely concentrated in the heart of the capital that suburbs and outlying districts were unaware of it until disorders had been ended and Mueller broadcast his reports.

Japanese Air Raids

had been transferred suddenly to Canton, South China metropolis, and had sunk a Japanese destroyer and destroyed a petrol depot in raids on Sanchu island, near the mouth of Canton river.

The planes, according to Chinese advices, also surprised five Japanese bombers near Canton and brought down two of them. They were said to have made two raids on Sanchu island.

A Japanese naval spokesman said Amoy university had been bombed because Chinese had built strong defense works on the university grounds.

He said Amoy was being attacked because it was a center of anti-Japanese activity as well as an important port of entry for Chinese munitions and supplies. He asserted also that 30,000 Formosans who lived in Amoy had been oppressed and maltreated by the Chinese."

Army's War Games

beaches of North Carolina and as far north as the Maine coast will be one of the objects of the three "wings" into which the G. H. Q. is divided during the five days of the maneuvers.

To Move Against Enemy

From 18 airdromes scattered over Massachusetts Connecticut, New York State, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Maryland, airplanes will move against an enemy force borne westward on the Atlantic by airplane carriers, battelships, heavy and light cruisers, destroyers, troop transports and other vessels.

In all, the enemy's air strength consists of 692 warplanes, capable of daylight attacks on coastal objectives.

A hint was dropped by the umpires that a squadron of the army's "flying fortresses" might fly several hundred miles to sea in an effort to cripple or destroy the enemy's aircraft carriers.

Hitler Baby Hoax

ture wasn't the real Johnny.

Someone, identity unknown, had obtained a copy of a picture of baby Johnny with his pudgy face all screwed up as he squinted into the sun. Then, that same somebody had retouched the snapshot so that Johnny's babyish squint was turned into a diabolical glower.

Somehow—and that's the mystery—the picture got into Austria. Next, the photo was printed by a Dutch paper, which obtained it from an Austrian source which it believed absolutely reliable. The London Daily Herald obtained the picture from the Dutch paper and printed it, after which the photo came to the United States through regular newspicture channels as an authentic picture of Hitler as an infant.

Someone Knows

How did the picture get to Austria? Who was the culprit? Someone knows the answers, but he's not telling.

Johnny's mother, now Mrs. Carl Downs, found out about her son's part in the mixup just the other day when she saw the "Hitler version" of her baby's picture reprinted in a magazine. She can't explain it. All she knows is that the picture was taken when the family lived in Westport, Conn., and in the same manner that millions of other proud parents have pictures taken of their young hopefuls.

In any event, Johnny is a right handsome boy now, and certainly doesn't bear any resemblance to the Nazi Fuehrer. And if people will just forget about the Hitler business, Johnny will be happy.

League Of Nations

acting at the insistence of totalitarian states outside the league.

Ethiopian delegates indicated that, if Britain and France finally won freedom to recognize Italy's conquest of the African spire, Haile Selassie would appeal to the world court at the Hague.

British and French spokesmen, however, called that a "post mortem of little worth." Ultimate success of their efforts appeared assured.

China's plea for aid against Japan was another pressing problem which seemed to have been settled last night but now is likely to be thrown before the delegates again.

Two Lubbock Girls

this morning, when they admitted freely their association with the complaints.

One of the girls admitted the two had telephoned four times to taxi cab companies, three times to drug stores, twice to doctors, once to a messenger boy and once to the fire station.

Nor was that all, so far as false tips were concerned in Lubbock. This morning the highway patrol sent an official to Slaton to investigate a non-existent wreck.

In the case of the fire department, said Chief Twitty, "we automatically get checks on all calls to run to fires. If the public expects to have its joke it should not do so at expense of life and limb. Everytime the fire equipment rolls there is patent danger to property and lives, despite attempts to drive carefully. The cost, too, is high everytime equipment is taken from the station.

"Like all cities, Lubbock protects its investment of equipment, and telephone operators have orders to check all calls to the station where fires are reported. The law is stringent when a person is found giving false alarms."

Approximately 500 Expected To Attend Tech Picnic Today

Approximately 500 persons are expected to attend an annual picnic to be conducted by the Engineering society of Texas Technological college this afternoon in the City park section of Mackenzie state park, said Clarence Rannefeld, president of the society.

Students and faculty members of the engineering division and their guests will attend. They will meet at the engineering building, where transportation will be available at 4:30 o'clock.

The final game of a softball tournament between departments in the engineering division will be played, a picnic supper will be served, and a program presented.

Dairy Banquet To Be Tonight

A. J. Riddle of Denison will be the principal speaker at an annual banquet to be conducted by the Dairy club of Texas Technological college at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the women's dormitory.

Creamery managers and other men in the dairy industry from over the state have been invited, as well as deans and others on the campus. Approximatey 85 persons are expected to attend, said Bill Tinney, president of the club.

Arch Lamb Toastmaster

The banquet honors senior students in the club. A junior, Arch Lamb, will be toastmaster.

Riddle is general manager of the southwestern division of Kraft-Phoenix corporation.

Results of the annual dairy products judging contest conducted Saturday will be announced tonight and awards made by Mart G. Pederson, assistant professor in dairy manufacturing. Pederson will introduce members of the senior and junior judging teams,

Students To Speak

Dean A. H. Leidigh of the agricultural division will present the invocation, and Tinney, the welcome. L. G. Harmon, instructor in dairy manufacturing, will introduce seniors. Four students will speak: James Alexander, on the national judging contest last October in New Orleans; Foy Boone, on the annual senior dairy field trip last month James Huffman, on various accomplishments during the year; and Jack Jenkins, on social events.

K. M. Renner, head of the dairy manufacturing department, will introduce guests, including the principal speaker.

Suit For Damages Filed Against City

Vagrant winds assertedly freighted with objectionable odors from the city's sewage disposal facilities and smoke from the dump grounds this morning were wafted into 72nd district court.

Pleadings filed for Wiley Puckett, who owns three tracts of land, set out the odors of sewage and of smoke from incinerators at the proximate dump grounds have damaged him and his property.

Puckett prayed of the court that on final trial he have judgment for $22.100 for damages to his property and damages of $4.000 to his person; or in the alternative he have his damages of $32.100 as compensation for his property and that he be required to make general warranty deed to the defendant city of Lubbock, conveying the property to the city.

His property was described as totaling 99 acres a mile and a half east of Lubbock.

Condition Of Berry Child Not Considered Serious Today

A broken rib and numerous cuts and bruises were suffered by six-year-old Ludonna Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Berry of 1620 Seventeenth street, when she was struck by an automobile about 8 o'clock Tuesday night. Her condition was not considered serious this morning, but there was danger of complications.

The child was rushed in a Rix ambulance to West Texas hospital and later was removed to the residence.

Dorothy Stinnett of 2113 Avenue M was driver of the automobile, which swerved to the curb on the opposite side of the street as the driver attempted to avoid striking the child, who was crossing the street. The driver carried the child into the Berry home and fainted, said relatives of the child.

Several Tech Faculty People To Attend Historical Meet

Several members of the Texas Technological college faculty plan to attend an annual meeting of the West Texas Historical association in Colorado Saturday.

Dr. W. C. Holden, Dr. Oscar A. Kinchen, Ernest Wallace, and Dr. Karl Ashburn plan to attend.

R. C. Crane of Sweetwater, president, will preside. Speakers will include R. H. Ratliff of Colorado, Crane, Hybernia Grace of Anson, Mrs. Carl Blasig of Colorado, Jesse Williams of Wichita Falls, someone from Tech reading a paper for Dr. S. S. McKay, who is ill, Col. M. L. In the western judicial district of Manitoba, Canada, there hasn't been a single criminal case listed for jury trial in seven years.

El Paso Wins Lions Session

Termed the most successful convention of District 2-T, West Texas Lions yesterday closed their annual gathering at the Hilton hotel, after electing Omar T. Burleson, Jones county judge, as district governor and selecting El Paso as the 1939 convention city.

Visiting Lions were loud in their praise of the host town. President W. H. Evans and Robert H. Bean, first vice president and convention committee chairman, were accorded many congratulatory compliments on their work.

Attendance Below Expectations

Attendance was not as large as had been expected by the local committee. However, every past district governor with the exception of one who died several months ago, were present during the sessions.

The new district governor said he would announce within a short time his deputy district governors and his district secretary. There were 1,850 members reported for the district.

Del Harrington, El Paso, past district governor, invited the convention to meet there next year. The Mexican national convention is meeting in Juarez at the same time and New Mexico Lions have agreed to meet in Las Cruces at the same time.

200 Attend Final Session

Two hundred persons attended the last assembly and luncheon in the Hilton hotel ballroom. Elmer Elliott, Dalhart, immediate past district governor pre ided.

Entertainment included specialty numbers by a German band from the McLean club introduced by Boyd Meador and a program of dance numbers by Big Spring girls. C. L. Rowe, president of the latter club, was master of ceremonies.

Charles C. Thompson, Colorado Lion, banker, former county judge and community leader, was the principal speaker. He was introduced by past Governor Harrington.

Report Of Club Winnings Are Presented To Commissioners

Three out of five first places in the Plainview Dairy show April 19-20 were won by Lubbock county Home Demonstration club members, according to club reports presented to county commissioners court by Miss Clara Pratt, county home demonstration agent. Eighty-five women placed a total of 114 entries and took 12 of the 50 prizes.

Representatives of each of the 15 clubs were present at both the March and April council meetings. Club activities for the two months included planting of frame gardens for early vegetables, angel food cake demonstrations, distribution of broccoli seed from Hastings Seed company to club members in an effort to stimulate growth of this vegetable in Lubbock county, and bedroom improvement planning and demonstration.

Members of the 4-H clubs, sponsored by Miss Elizabeth Brooks, assistant county home demonstration agent, plan to entertain their mothers at an all-day picnic and rally May 21 at Mackenzie State park, the report stated.

Little Jack Little Makes Hit In His Appearance Here

Little Jack Little gave 'em something different Tuesday night when, billed as the attraction of the artist course of Texas Technological college, he murdered some of the classics and swung them dizzy.

Fifteen hundred persons didn't mind, however, as evidenced by applause. The little orchestra director "had his moments" when he played the classics as they had been composed.

The presentation was the final one on the artist course this scholastic year.

The Audience Liked It

The audience responded almost to the move of the conductor's little finger. Little Jack Little trucked, he performed acrobatics on a piano keyboard, he mimicked other leaders, he sang in his "whispering baritone"—in short, he did everything but turn somersaults— and the audience liked him and the scintillating rhythm of his band.

The leader ably mimicked the King of the Keyboard, Vincent Lopez. He led the band as it swung into a representation of Benny Goodman, Wayne King, Guy Lombardo, and other orchestras were represented in that phase of the program.

Arrangements Appreciated

His arrangement of the "Bells of St. Mary's," "I'm Getting Sentimental Over You," "Loch Lomond," "Josephine," "On the Sentimental Side" were among those to which the audience was especially responsive, as well as to some of his own compositions, including "Shanty In Old Shanty Town," "Baby Parade," and "Hold Me."

The only vacant seats were those reserved and not filled, and chairs were placed in aisles to make up for those vacancies, said R. A. Mills, artist course chairman.

Dry Ice Is Described Unfailing 'Eye' For Detection Of Fake Gems; Squeals When Rubbed

WILMINGTON, Del., May 11. (AP)—Dry ice was described today as an unfailing "eye" for the detection of fake gems.

Dr. Samuel G. Gordon, Philadelphia mineralogist, told the Tri-State Jewelers association:

"Any crystalline substance will make dry ice squeal: 'I'm real'."

Most real gems, he explained, are crystalline. Glass "gems" make no sound when rubbed against the solidified carbon dioxide.

Decrease In Oil Production In U. S. For Week Reported

TULSA, Okla., May 11. (AP)—A decrease of 18,667 barrels daily in the national production of crude oil for the week ending May 7 was reported today by the Oil and Gas Journal, bringing the daily average down to 3,374,375.

All the Mid-Continent states except Kansas recorded increases.

Oklahoma production increased 12,900 barrels daily to an average of 486,775, East Texas 701 daily to 433,899 and the total state of Texas 1,999 daily to 1,354,697.

Louisiana had a hike of 1,629 barrels daily to 262,244, California showed a decrease of 19,700 daily to 690,500 and Kansas had a drop of 4,850 daily to 162,900.

During the reign of Queen Victoria a public revolt developed against the use of face and lip rouge. Women then took to smearing their faces with a white powder which made them appear like ghosts.

Only Your Mileage Merchant OIL-PLATES YOUR ENGINE

Do you need any reminder of what oil you bought? Not if it delivers smooth long mileage that you can't forget! Then here's the real big value of the little drain tag you get from Your Mileage Merchant: he marks it with your mileage today as you change to his patented Conoco Germ Processed oil, and then you can keep tabs on how far you go before you ever need another quart in your OIL-PLATED engine.

OIL-PLATING is exclusive with Conoco Germ Processed oil. The patent-guarded Germ Process forces this oil to "magnetize" on to the working parts in the form of implanted slippy OIL-PLATING. The parts that used to wear worst and make your oil "rub out" fastest, now possess this all-over, deep-seated OIL-PLATING. It can neither drain down while your engine is stopped, nor let loose in all the whirl of 4,000 revolutions a minute. Therefore OIL-PLATING, done only by Your Mileage Merchant, distinctly tells you why your Germ Processed oil and your car money won't be doing a "disappearing act." Continental Oil Co.
