SENATE CALLS HUEY LONG 'CONSUMMATE LIAR'

County, City And Community Chest Unite In 'Toil Or Travel' Ultimatum

CITY TO BAR 'DOLE DIGGERS' ON FALL JOBS

Scant Sympathy Waits Able Men Who Refuse to Pick Cotton

LEADERS GIVE VIEWS

Municipal and Relief Groups Keep Check On Worthy Cases

Able-bodied men in Wichita Falls who decline employment in harvesting the present cotton crop will find themselves listed as undeserving of any employment the city may have to offer during the ensuing winter, and may find themselves working out fines for vagrancy while their families are cared for by relief agencies, according to a statement made by V. R. Smitham, city manager, Wednesday afternoon.

Statements Issued

Mr. Smitham's statement followed a general statement which he had issued earlier in the day in conjunction with John P. Marrs, county judge; M. A. Bundy, county commissioner for this precinct; and C. E. Basham, community chest president. In this declaration, those officials announced that relief will be refused all physically fit persons who refuse to work in the cotton fields. It was stated that the rule of "try or travel" will be applied strictly to all applicants for aid.

Walter D. Cline, general chairman of the chest campaign, in an address to keymen of groups at the chest headquarters Wednesday night, endorsed the stand of officials here and explained the position of the community chest.

"We are going to let no family suffer where the wage earner of that family is desirous of helping himself," said Mr. Cline. "On the other hand, those who are unwilling to aid in their own support are not our kind of folks and as far as I am concerned they can just pack up and travel on."

Such men as may be added to the city's payroll during the coming few months in an effort to reduce unemployment here will be chosen upon the basis of records to be kept by the Family Relief association, Mr. Smitham said. If that record reveals that a man declined cotton picking, or other emergency employment, without material reason, his name will be struck from the list of those eligible for employment by the city.

In such cases, Mr. Smitham added, men who have dependents living here will be fined for vagrancy, and will be compelled to work out their fines on city labor while their dependents are cared for by local relief agencies. This measure at least will deprive the non-working man of drawing his food supplies from those furnished by the community chest.

Need for Pickers

Cases already have been found, Mr. Smitham declared, in which men with families have chosen to remain unemployed, with their families actually in want, rather than go to the cotton fields. Children of such men, it was said, have ap-

TRANS-PACIFIC AIRMEN SAFE

Moyle and Allen Land on Uninhabited Isle

CORDOVA, Alaska, Sept. 16.—Communication with the Russian steamer Buriat and Platyis Krabodoz indicate that the fliers Moyle and Allen, have been set ashore at the village of Miano Palino island, Siberia, located at latitude 62 north, longitude 80 east.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 16. (UP)—Don Moyle and Cecil A. Allen, the transpacific "jail or glory" fliers given up as dead, are safe and will arrive in Seattle Sept. 22, said a radio message from the far north today.

If the message is authentic and there is no reason to believe it is not, the safe landing of Moyle, who once sold motorcycles, and Allen, who peddled Washington machines, is one of the great surprises in aviation history.

Message to Fiancee

The message travelled a devious route from the Russian steamer Buriat, through the St. Paul island station and the Cordova radio transmitter, to be intercepted finally by the coast guard radio here. It was addressed to Frances Bresson, Moyle's fiancee, saying:

"Landed on uninhabited island Kay. Be in Seattle, Sept. 22. Have Frank put publicity man on the job. Love. Don."

Coast guardsmen tried in vain to reach the Buriat by wireless. The Buriat is not listed in Lloyd's register. They were about to credit the message to a practical joker in Alaska when a later message crackled through the air from a coast guard ship of the Bering sea patrol.

Aboard Russian Boat

"Three messages intercepted from the Russian steamship Perbyi Krabolov seem to indicate that Moyle and Allen landed safely on an uninhabited island and will be home soon," the bulletin said.

"Unable to establish communication with the steamship. The Russian steamer Eskimo, at Penjensk

Psychopathic Hospital Is Declared Success

GALVESTON, Sept. 16. (AP)—With several patients discharged as cured since the opening of the state psychopathic hospital in Galveston a month ago, satisfaction was expressed by Dr. Giles W. Day, superintendent.

At present there are 30 patients in the state institution and these are showing splendid results from the treatment being received. The capacity of the hospital was recently increased to 36.

While the staff of attendants has been increased, with additional appropriations, the doctors and nursing staff have remained the same.

AUTOPSY OVER COLLINGS' BODY ALTERS PROBE

Prosecutor Says Evidence Disagrees With Story Told by Widow

BEATEN, TIED, TOSSED

Official Scoffs at Woman's Claim She Heard No Struggle

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. (US)—After an autopsy tonight on the body of Benjamin P. Collings, wealthy yachtman, washed ashore at Huntington, District Attorney Alexander Blue of Suffolk county asserted:

"In my opinion, Mr. Collings was beaten to death on his cruiser, the Penguin, and his body was thrown into the sea after his hands and feet were tied.

"Let me say further that I believe that the first of many blows inflicted on Collings may have been struck while he was asleep on the cruiser."

Widow Near Collapse

Concerning Mrs. Lillian Chellus Collings, widow of the slain yachtsman, who was reported in a state of collapse at the news of the recovery of her husband's body, the prosecutor exclaimed:

"Among the most fantastic features of her story of the disappearance of her husband was that in which she said she heard no signs of a violent struggle. All the evidence on the boat showed that a prolonged, desperate struggle took place.

"The autopsy has revealed that Collings sustained a terrific fracture of the skull extending from below the eye to the crown of his head and other fractures below it. The large fracture would have been sufficient to cause death. He also sustained many fractures of the arms. Everything indicates that he was beaten to death, tied and cast into the sea."

Bound hand and foot, with the skull crushed in and a hole in the middle of the forehead, the body was left by the tide today on the beach at Lloyd's Neck, Long Island.

The condition of the body indicated that Collings was murdered for revenge, according to Emil Morse, captain of the Nassau county homicide squad.

The hands were lashed together behind the back with quarter-inch manila. The same rope was used to lash the feet together.

The ropes had been drawn so tightly that they cut through the flesh of wrists and ankles.

"Revengeful Knots"

"They were revengeful knots," said Captain Morse.

Juarez Quiet After 'Diez y Seis' Outbreak

EL PASO, Sept. 16. (AP)—Following a demonstration late Tuesday night in which three American women received cuts and bruises when pre-holiday celebrants paraded in Juarez to open the Mexican Independence celebration, the holiday passed quietly in the border city today.

Mexican troops were placed at strategic locations throughout Juarez to maintain order. Officials said today last night's demonstration could not be classed as anti-American. Glass on more than a dozen American automobiles was broken when paraders wielded iron bars and heaved rocks.

New Hurricane Kills Scores in Honduras

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 16. (US)—Reports of a heavy death toll from a hurricane that swept across Honduras trickled in today as savage storms continued to batter both Mexican coasts and a hurricane was forecast for the eastern coast.

Advices from Tegucigalpa, capital of Honduras, reported that 100 are already known dead in a storm that crossed the Central American republic, wiping out six coastal towns. Many vessels are reported to have foundered.

Mass Meeting Today To Draw Program For Valley Development

Plans which are designed to stimulate community interest in the further development of the Wichita irrigated valley, and to inaugurate a program of constructive improvements in the near future, will be launched at a public meeting to be held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the main dining room of the Kemp hotel.

The public discussion planned for Thursday on the subject of irrigation was first announced last Sunday. It is being organized by local business men who have been active in both chambers of commerce this year, particularly in the formation of programs of work and in agricultural development.

In Thursday afternoon's meeting, tentative plans will be proposed for accomplishing a three-fold program which will be declared imperative if the maximum returns from irrigation of the Wichita valley are to be realized. That program will include a complete drainage system, to prevent water-logging of lands; an improved system of marketing; and colonization of the districts by capable farmers, preferably upon small tracts.

Tours Cause Interest

Decision to call the meeting to be held Thursday is due largely to interest manifest among local business and professional men who participated in two tours of the valley conducted during the past few months by the chamber of commerce. Possibilities not formerly conceived were seen by many of these tourists in the irrigated areas west of this city, it was said. It was pointed out also that the depressed state of the oil industry in

$1,500 SEIZED IN HOTEL RAID

Leo Kelm Makes Bond on Game Charge

After officers had seized 14 decks of playing cards and $1,519.50 in currency and silver at a downtown hotel, charges of exhibiting a banking game were filed late Wednesday afternoon against Leo Kelm.

The felony charge was filed before O. L. Gibbs, justice of the peace. Kelm was released after making bond of $1,000 set in the case. He waived his examining trial.

Two witnesses testified they had just entered the hotel preparatory to engaging in a blackjack game, according to George Anderson, assistant district attorney who took the complaint. Play had not commenced, they said.

Two of the decks of cards were said to have been on a table, and the remaining 12 packs, sealed and unopen, were discovered in a drawer. Eighty-five dollars of the seized sum of money was in half-dollar pieces.

Cooperative Industry Suggested by Swope

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. (AP)—A cooperative management - employe plan he said would help eliminate unemployment, stabilize business and remove the worker's fear of idleness, illness and old age, was offered industry tonight by Gerald Swope, president of General Electric company.

"Industry exists basically for serving the needs of the people," he said, "and therefore production and consumption must be co-ordinated. . . . Shall we wait for society to act through its legislatures or shall industry recognize its obligation to its employes and to the public and undertake the task? Coordination of production is impossible under our present laws."

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 16. (UP)—Two youths, who stationed themselves in their watermelon patch armed with guns to end thieving, were held in jail tonight in connection with the death of one who had gone to the garden with four companions to plunder.

The warehouses were empowered to deduct the amount of the advance from the sale price of the cotton and also interest charges. Whatever is left is to go to the government in repayment of the loan.

TRIO EXECUTED BY GANGSTERS IN APARTMENT

Three Detroit Hoodlums Shot in Head by Five 'Friends'

MURDERERS ESCAPE

Woman Gives Account of Slaying in Alcohol Running War

DETROIT, Sept. 16. (UP)—Smouldering underworld warfare broke into the open today when three racketeering hoodlums were shot to death in their apartment as they talked with their killers.

A phonograph droned out a "blues" piece as the gangsters fired at close range. All were shot in the back of the head. They were dead when police arrived.

The shots came from the guns of men the victims considered their friends, it was believed. The dead men all had been smoking cigars. One still clenched a smouldering stub between his teeth in death. The other two held cigars in their hands.

Victims Identified

The dead were identified as "Nigger Joe" Lebold, Herman Paul and Isaac Sutker. They were known to police as members of the "Third street gang," hijackers and purveyors of cut alcohol. All were about 30 years old.

Witnesses differed on the number of executioners. Police believed five figured in the massacre.

The apartment was rented last month by one of the murdered men, but was not occupied until last night, according to Frank Holt, the caretaker. Police believe the hoodlums may have planned to use it as a scene for a "spot" murder, only to have the tables turned on them.

Woman Gives Account

Mrs. Mary Niss, who occupied the apartment beneath the execution chamber, gave police the best account of what occurred before the three men were killed.

"I heard some one walking about in the apartment last night, and told Holt, because I thought it was vacant," she said. "Again this afternoon I heard several persons there. I was trying to get my baby to sleep at the time, but some one in the alley was sounding an auto horn continuously. I was just going to the window to protest when I heard several shots fired in the room above."

Police believe the horn was sounded as a signal for the murderers, and also to drown out the sounds of shots. It was this car in which the killers escaped.

Mother Grabs Baby

"When I heard the shots I grabbed up the baby and started for the basement," Mrs. Niss continued. "As I reached the back stairs a man came running down. He was about 40. He brushed me aside and ran outside to the car. I ran on to the basement and hid."

The bodies were crumpled on the floor in front of a divan when police arrived. It appeared all might have been seated on the divan when the gunmen stepped behind them and fired.

Anson Jury Frees Hamlin Officer

ANSON, Texas, Sept. 16. (AP)—Within 15 minutes after retiring, the jury returned the verdict of not guilty here this afternoon in the case of W. H. (Bill) Johnson, veteran Hamlin peace officer, charged with the slaying of Stonewall Parker. The verdict was reached on the first ballot.

The defense introduced 17 character witnesses, including sheriffs of all surrounding counties. The defense contended Johnson shot at the ground to scare Parker but that the bullet struck cinders and rebounded, killing Parker instantly.

Parker was killed April 2. A hung jury resulted when Johnson was tried in May.

Four Workers Killed As Train Hits Truck

MERCHANTVILLE, N. J., Sept. 16. (AP)—At least four men were killed and 10 critically injured late today when a Pennsylvania railroad train near here hit a truck carrying 25 workmen to their homes.

A few of those on the truck escaped by jumping. Those who failed to leap were hurled into the air by the collision and some were crushed beneath the train. Police said they expected to find a fifth body in the wreckage strewn along the track.

The men had been working on a grade crossing.

'100-Cent Dollar' Goal Of Farm Conference

CHICAGO, Sept. 16., (AP)—A "100-cent dollar" was the goal today of a conference of farm leaders, economists and editors of agricultural publications.

Today's session was the first of a series to formulate a legislative program designed to place the level of prices once again at the general level of 1926. This program will be presented at the December annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau federation, sponsor of the conference.

Naval Construction Holiday Is Favored

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. (AP)—A sympathetic attitude today became apparent at the state department toward proposals for a world-wide naval construction holiday.

VIENNA, Sept. 16. (US)—The immediate result of the abortive Heimwehr revolt appears today to be that the government of Austria is preparing to disarm all "private armies" maintained by several political parties.

STERLING BARS TAX RATE HIKE

Reduction of Salaries Before Lawmakers

AUSTIN, Sept. 16. (AP)—Gov. Ross S. Sterling said today that the state property tax rate would not be increased this year. Fear had been expressed that the rate would be raised because of the large deficit facing the state.

The automatic tax board, of which the governor is chairman, still had not fixed the rate although that usually is done during the latter part of July.

Last year's rate was 35 cents for schools, 27 cents for general revenue and seven cents for Confederate pensions.

AUSTIN, Sept. 16. (UP)—Reduction of salaries of state officials and employes may be submitted to the "cotton session" of the Texas legislature when a farm relief bill has been passed, Gov. Ross Sterling indicated tonight.

Permission for lawmakers to apply an economy yardstick to state salaries will be granted only "in event both houses agree upon bills providing for a reasonable uniform reduction."

"This is conditioned also upon speedy consummation of the agricultural legislation for which the session was called," the executive declared. State salary cuts probably will prevent a hike in the ad valorem tax rate.

About to Lose Radio, Owner Injures Five

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 16 (UP)—Frenzied because a radio dealer threatened to take away his radio unless he paid this month's installment, Joe La Belle produced a shotgun today and injured five persons, one seriously.

La Belle quarreled with Arthur Bonne, radio salesman, when the latter demanded a payment on the set. La Belle ran to his home, got the weapon and fired two blasts at Bonne.

The shots, while striking Bonne, went wild and injured four passersby. All will recover, physicians said tonight.

La Belle escaped.

LOUISIANA PLAN REJECTED BY LOWER HOUSE

PENALTY PROVIDED

Stinging Rebuke Brings Solons Into Action on Farm Bills

AUSTIN, Sept. 16. (UP)—Gov. Huey Long of Louisiana was dubbed a "consummate liar" in a resolution formally adopted by the Texas state senate tonight.

The resolution was offered by Senator John Hornsby, fiery white-haired uncle of Rogers Hornsby. It says Long's charge of improper influence of the Texas legislature "is a lie made out of the whole cloth and its author is a consummate liar."

An effort by Senator Tom Pollard to tone down the resolution declaring the statement an untruth and calling upon Long to produce facts or, failing to do so, to apologize, was voted down.

Woman Objects to Word

Twenty-five senators signed the resolution with the short and ugly word. Six voted against its adoption. Senator Margie Neal said she had declined to sign considering the language unbecoming to the senate.

"If a man accused you of accepting a bribe what would you call him?" asked Senator Walter Woodward. "I would say it was false," replied Miss Neal. "If a man said that of me, I would use stronger terms," said Woodward.

"If Long ever comes to Texas I prefer to tell him to his face that he is a liar and a coward along with it," said Senator Walter Woodul.

Hornsby Adds Words

Hornsby argued for the unchanged resolution. As he did so he added adjectives. Among them were "pusillanimous," "damnable" and "contemptible." "It would be beneath our dignity if we didn't tell this blatherskate he is a liar," shouted Hornsby.

Miss Neal asked why the resolution was brought up with the Long bill yet to be voted upon. "That has nothing to do with it," replied Hornsby. "The Long bill only got 38 votes in the house today and it will not get six here tomorrow. It's as dead as a Chinaman."

HOUSE DEFEATS LOUISIANA PLAN

AUSTIN, Sept. 16. (UP)—The Louisiana plan for a total cotton holiday in the South for 1932 was rejected by the Texas house of representatives today, 92 to 38. The house then voted favorably on a bill restricting the cotton crop in 1932 and 1933 to one-third of the cultivated land.

Before voting, the house resolved itself into a committee of the whole in order to consider all cotton measures before it. The house will reconvene at 9:30 tomorrow morning to formally adopt the restriction bill.

Rotation Provided

Conservation of the soil was named as the purpose of the bill which also includes a section for the rotation of crops. A penalty of $25 per acre is provided, recoverable by suit and to be placed in the road and bridge fund.

County and district attorneys are directed to prosecute all violators, allowing 10 per cent as legal fee. Should county and district attorneys fail to prosecute, the burden of enforcing the law would fall on the state attorney general's department.

The bill, should it become a law, would be effective regardless of what action other states might take. A resolution accompanying the bill, however, invites other southern states to enact a similar law.

Other States Addressed

Should they fail to do so, Texas legislators are pledged to convene in special session next January to repeal the law.

It was evident tonight that Texas lawmakers were seeking to cut the cotton crop of 1932 by 50 per cent. In the senate a similar measure took the form of a bill restricting 1932 cotton planting to 25 per cent

Britain Capitulates to Sailors As Unrest Spreads to Gibraltar

LONDON, Sept. 16. (US)—Sailors of the British Atlantic fleet, striking because of a proposed 25 per cent cut in pay, today won a partial victory when the government announced proposals would be made to alleviate the hardships which the enlisted men declare they are suffering.

The admiralty board tonight issued a communique stating that in accordance with orders, the 16 warships at Invergordon, Scotland, where the "strike" began, are proceeding for their various home ports to await results of an official inquiry. The crews had spent the day playing cards and singing on deck. Meanwhile the admiralty was also advised that unrest over pay reductions prevailed at Gibraltar. A special meeting of the cabinet was summoned to discuss the situation.

The historic halls of the house of commons for the first time in a century today was concerned with what was described as "insubordination" in the navy. Not since the "pay-mutiny" of sailors under Lord Nelson has British parliament been as excited.

Sir Austin Chamberlain, first lord of the admiralty, a Tory, announced that the government is not pressing the issue, and is momentarily yielding to the extent of making proposals for alleviating the sailors' hardships resulting from the cut in pay proposed by the Socialist chancellor of the exchequer, Philip Snowden. Sir Austen said an investigation is under way and the fleet has been ordered to the various home ports of the ships.

junction with the Chillicothe valley's first fair, which will open here Thursday for three days.

Two Counties Represented

All exhibitors were busy Wednesday arranging booths for numerous displays from communities in Hardeman and Wilbarger counties.

Varied features of entertainment have been provided for each day of the exposition, including the rodeo, water polo, a woman's ball game, music and motion pictures.

The opening afternoon, women's teams from Chillicothe and Vernon will demonstrate their ability at baseball. During the evening free entertainment will be given and will include musical readings, vocal numbers and other attractions presented by citizens of Farmers Valley, Big Valley, King High, Midway and Elmgrove.

Friday's events will be featured with a parade, led by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ayers, pioneer couple of this section. They will be followed in the parade by J. Luther Potts, commissioner. Floats representing schools, communities and business houses will follow. The parade is scheduled for 10:30 a. m.

For Ex-Farm Boys

The rodeo program will be started at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. At 5 o'clock a water polo contest will be staged between teams from Electra, Paducah, Childress and Chillicothe. A second rodeo performance will be staged at 8 o'clock Friday night. A feature of this program will be a cow milking contest between business men of Chillicothe.

Exhibition buildings will open at 8 a. m. Saturday, the final day. Free educational pictures will be shown for farmers at 10:30 o'clock. The subject of the picture will be "smut control" and farmers are urged to attend. At 1:30 p. m. a demonstration of cheese making will be presented by the King High Demonstration club.

Delegations of business men from various neighboring cities will attend the fair on one or more days. Delegations are expected from Wichita Falls, Vernon and Iowa Park. As these groups arrive, business men of Chillicothe will meet and greet them at the outskirts of the city.

M. B. Oates, agricultural agent of the Fort Worth & Denver railroad at Wichita Falls, and J. D. Tinsley of Amarillo have been named to judge the various exhibits on display at the fair, for which a large attendance has been predicted during the entire three days.

State Tax Rate Won't Be Raised

from Anderson county, at once began circulation of a bill that makes a 10 per cent cut in the salaries of judges from the supreme court and the court of criminal appeals down to and including district judges. Tonight there were 17 signatures to the bill. One hundred is two-thirds of the house membership.

Mrs. Strong said some members object to cutting the salaries of their district judges. The new salary scale would give the supreme court and the court of criminal appeals judges $7,200; judges of the court of civil appeals, $6,300 and district judges $4,500.

Other bills making appropriation cuts of salaries not fixed by statute were being prepared for circulation.

Governor Sterling today refused to allow the legislature to revise state appropriations and taxes. Should taxes prove inadequate, a third special session was forecast.

"The governor told us that he does not intend to submit another thing, but that he wants us to get through and go home," said Representative E. M. Barron, member of a house committee that formally presented their request.

"If it develops later that additional revenues are needed, he said another session could be called," Barron reported.

Two bills were considered tonight by the house committee on revenue and taxation. One would levy a two-cent tax on each barrel of oil. Should the crude price rise above $1 per barrel, the tax would automatically become two per cent. The present tax is two per cent regardless of price.

The second bill would divert one cent of the four-cent state gasoline tax to the state general fund. At present the entire four-cent per gallon levy is given the highway fund.

Repeal of the state peddlers tax was favored in a 69 to 51 vote by the Texas house of representatives today. The repeal bill now goes to the senate.

Hearing for Fort Sill Soldier Set Friday

Special to The Record News.

LAWTON, Okla., Sept. 16.—Preliminary hearing for John Westberry, Fort Sill soldier who allegedly signed a confession early Saturday morning that he shot and killed Homer McFarland, another soldier, and hid the body in the woods ten miles west of Lawton, will be held in justice court here Friday morning.

The whereabouts of the accused man is unknown except to officers who spirited him away from the county jail early Sunday after rumors of an attack on the jail by soldiers of McFarland's company.

TRANS-PACIFIC AIRMEN SAFE

Moyle and Allen Land on Uninhabited Isle

bar, reported that the Perbyl Krabolov is at Olytur gulf, on the Kamchatka peninsula."

"The fliers must have landed on some tiny island near Kamchatka, rather than near the Alaskan peninsula," said Capt. H. D. Hinckley, commander of the northwest coast guard. "The messages indicate they are aboard some Russian boat, probably the Buriat."

WORDS OF JOY FOLLOW NEWS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 16.—(UP)—Tears and jumbled words of joy intermingled with the authoritative tones of a superior court judge today as news of the rescue of Don Moyle and Cecil A. Allen missing transpacific aviators, reached southern California where Moyle's fiancee, Allen's wife and the parents of both reside.

The sober tones of superior court came from Judge B. Rey Schauer, who sentenced Moyle to 30 days in jail and then deferred the sentence until October to enable Moyle to attempt to span the Pacific ocean from Japan to Seattle. Moyle and Allen were found today on an uninhabited island off northern Kamchatka.

Judge Schauer said as far as he is concerned the deferred 30 days jail sentence imposed on Moyle still stands.

"Not even by flying the Pacific ocean can any one purchase one iota of immunity for driving an automobile on a public highway while under the influence of liquor," the judge said in commenting on the charge to which Moyle pleaded guilty July 5.

Miss Frances Bresson's typewriter in the Municipal Power and Water plant's office at Riverside, Calif., changed from a rapid click-click to utter silence when she was informed her fiance, Moyle, had been rescued. For 15 minutes she remained speechless and then broke into tears and hurried words of thankfulness.

A woman's intuition was credited by Mrs. Mary Allen, wife of the rescued aviator, as being the one supporting prop in her faith that Allen was safe.

"Something told me Cecil was out there somewhere in the world alive, well and coming back to me," Mrs. Allen said. The Allens had been estranged but Mrs. Allen said their differences had been patched up in letters written by Allen while he was in Japan pending the take off.

While the office staff crowded about her offering congratulations, Miss Bresson told how she maintained hope until last night.

"Don and I had planned to marry as soon as he returned, but he may wish to make another flight now," she said, "I am willing to marry him as soon as possible."

COTTON OPENS IN HARDEMAN

Ginners Set Flat Rate of 25 Cents

Special to The Record News.

QUANAH, Texas, Sept. 16.—Hundreds of bales of cotton are opening over night in this section, and scores of pickers are needed to enable the fields to be cleaned up as rapidly as possible, according to reports from farmers who are scouring the community for pickers.

Opinion is expressed by many farmers that the yield will be cut down 40 per cent if it does not rain within the next few days. The dry weather is causing the very young bolls to open but a rain would allow them to develop. The plants are shedding a great deal also from lack of moisture.

Planters state that with the price of cotton so low they cannot afford to go south and east for pickers and pay the transportation of crews as they have in times past, and local labor is not furnishing nearly enough help to harvest the crop.

Many farmers are holding such cotton as they have ginned. Prices paid vary from five to six cents for the cotton thus far sold.

Local ginners have reduced the rate of ginning from 35 cents to 25 cents on all cotton ginned in Quanah. This new rate applies to any kind of cotton. The ginners did not deem it wise to make any difference between picked and snapped cotton for the season.

The commission in Oklahoma set the gin rate for that state at 25 cents and 35 cents; the last price being for snapped or pulled cotton. A considerable amount of Oklahoma cotton is ginned in Quanah each year, and it is expected an increase will be shown this season on account of the paved highway No. 51 from Red River to Quanah.

Following the meeting of ginners held here several weeks ago at which time a committee was appointed which suggested prices for ginning, bagging and ties, etc., for this section of Texas many reductions from these suggested prices have been made in various localities.

Archer Officials Hope to Salvage County Funds by Special Law

Special to The Record News

ARCHER CITY, Texas, Sept. 16.—County Commissioner Chas. L. Abercrombie, received a message from Austin this morning stating that the special law, drawn up by A. H. Britain, attorney for Archer county, at the request of the commissioners court, had been submitted to the senate by Senator Ben G. Oneal and to the lower house of the legislature by Representative Sherrill.

Mr. Abercrombie stated that this law when enacted, would save Archer county over a half million dollars, as it would allow the county to bid in the assets of the People's Exchange bank and the property of the partners and bondsmen of the bank that amounts to over $700,000 in chattel mortgage notes and some 40,000 acres of land.

Mr. Abercrombie further stated, "While I voted against the acceptance of the depository bond given by the bank for the reason that I did not consider it came up to the requirements of our statutes, I believe that Archer county by taking over all the assets both real and personal of the defunct bank, the loss of Archer county will be comparatively small. Otherwise the loss of the county would be an enormous sum."

"If the legislature passes the special law Judge Dycus and the commissioners court will immediately prepare to take over the properties."

Archer county has $1,200,000 in claims as against $250,000 of all other claimants.

Judge A. H. Carrigan was recently selected as trustee for the depositors of the defunct bank and the citizens of Archer county acting through the commissioners court has every confidence in him and believe with the aid of the new law, he will eventually save Archer county the sum that Mr. Abercrombie has mentioned as over $500,000.

ONE-PRODUCT AREAS SUFFER

C. H. Cunningham Talks On Pan-America

DALLAS, Sept. 16. (AP)—Dr. Charles H. Cunningham of the United States department of commerce, said today that economic depression in South and Central America can be blamed principally to industrialization programs and the fact that in practically every case the countries are dependent on one product for their prosperity.

In his address before the Foreign Trade club he mentioned Cuba's sugar, Brazil's coffee and Argentine's wheat as examples of dependence on single products. Radical changes in marketing conditions, such as have occurred recently, result in unfavorable economic reactions, he said.

Cunningham pointed out the efforts certain Latin American countries have made in recent years to industrialize. He said that most of these attempts were made without first developing a market for their goods. The result was to disrupt the normal flow of commercial exchange.

Nov. 1, Cunningham will become commercial attache in Mexico City for the United States department of commerce.

Grain Exports Through Galveston Increase

GALVESTON, Texas, Sept. 16. (AP)—Grain exports from Galveston during August showed a slight increase over July, with 4,452,923 bushels of wheat and 15,000 bushels of August being moved.

Although as a result of a late cotton season exports here were light during the past month, exports totaled 20,041 bales, a fairly heavy movement, notwithstanding. During July, 59,034 bales were exported.

A total of 1,456,000 pounds of cottonseed meal was exported, all of it going to Scandinavian ports. Flour, as well as grain exports, showed a substantial increase, with the total for August, 10,601,636 pounds, greater by more than a million than July's total.

LOUISIANA PLAN VOTED DOWN

House to Pass One-Third Law Today

of the cultivated land. Senators preferred the 25 per cent clause to the 33 1-3 per cent restriction by vote of 15 to 12.

Floor debate indicated it was the sentiment of the senate that the one-fourth clause more nearly effected the 50 per cent crop reduction. Such a reduction carries the approval of Gov. Ross Sterling.

Lengthy Debates

Efforts of Senator Joe Moore of Greenville to restrict next year's crop to 50 per cent of land planted in cotton this year were defeated in a 15 to 13 vote.

The house restlessly had toiled today through lengthy debates on the Long plan. Representatives were bitterly flayed by Representative Jack Keller of Dallas for failing to act. "We haven't done a cock-eyed thing thus far," he screamed into the microphone as members dropped their newspapers and came to attention.

"It takes $2,500 to run this house each day it's in session. With nickel cotton, that means Texas farmers must pick over 150 bales per day to pay your bills alone."

House in Furor

The house went into a furor. But Keller, speaking on a plea of personal privilege, held the floor.

"We're simply sitting idly here taking from the pockets of farmers over 150 bales of cotton per day. They have asked us for relief, now. I beg and pray you let us do something," said Keller.

Again a stormy wave of protest swept over the house. Representative Phil Sanders, presiding, hammered his gavel until the mallet flew off. Representative R. M. Hubbard, sitting beside him, caught the mallet as it struck his forehead. He was not injured.

Four times members moved to vote the question before the house resolved itself into a committee of the whole to act.

Holbrook Critical

Senator T. J. Holbrook of Galveston today criticized the legislature for seeking to violate the constitution while outside the statehouse the nation was observing "constitution week."

This session, "born in the passions of the hour and through the rousings of the rabble," strikes at the very heart of Democratic government, Holbrook declared. He asknowledged, however, the legislature was convened at public demand, and recommended the passage of the Long plan if any at all.

The cotton restriction bill was criticized in the senate because of its "clumsy" enforcement clause. Senator W. E. Thomason of Nacogdoches declared it impossible to enforce. He claimed that many tax assessors, who would be required to report cotton acreage under the senate bill, never complete their tax rolls until midsummer. Another year's cotton crop would be in the ground before total acreage of the preceding year had been secured, he declared.

A bill levying a penalty of $5 per bale on cotton under five-eighths inch staple, introduced by Senator Joe Moore, was referred to the agriculture commttee.

GOVERNOR LONG SAYS HE'S THROUGH

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 16. (AP)—Gov. Huey Long tonight delivered a radio address he said was his cotton holiday "swan song," blazed out one last time at the Texas legislature, and announced he was "through" in his fight for cotton prohibition in 1932.

The governor hurled denunciation and scorn at the Texas senate for its resolution late today describing him as a "consummate liar," saying the Lone Star senators had "resoluted themselves honest."

Governor Long said he had given up the fight for banning cotton production in the south and would have no more to say. He declared he "had done his best with the salvation of the south his only motive." He devoted his final remarks to heaping all blame of any future drop in cotton prices on what he said was the action of Texans in "cutting the throats of all southern states along with their own."

Commenting on the Texas senate resolution, Governor Long said:

"The senate passed a resolution saying they were honest. They are the only body in the world that will say that group of men acted honorably. Why don't they ask someone else to pass that resolution. They tried to knife the farmers in the back—why don't they go to the farmers now and get them to pass such a resolution.

"Any man that believes that legislature acted honestly ought to be bored for the hollow horn. How do I know they didn't? It's a matter of common knowledge and report. I am no more certain of the existence of a city in California named Los Angeles—though I have never been there—than I am that the Texas legislature was bought like a sack of corn."

Escaped Quanah Prisoner Captured in Unusual Hiding Place

QUANAH, Texas, Sept. 16.—Bryan Pollard, 18, one of three youths held in connection with numerous thefts and holdups, escaped from the Hardeman county jail Saturday night by tearing a weight out of a window and using the steel bar to open a steel door of the woman's ward where he was held. He was captured Monday by local officers in a pasture about four miles west of Quanah. He had dug a hole under a mesquite tree where he could sit and be hidden from view of any passerby.

YACHT MURDER IN NEW TURN

Autopsy Over Collings' Body Completed

Collings has been seen by residents of Asharoken Beach, L. I., in the company of a gray-haired man, answering the description of the elder of the two pirates furnished by Mrs. Collings.

The woman made mysterious trips from the Collings yacht Penguin to the beach. She would be met at the shore by the gray-haired man and together they would cut across private property to the south road. The meetings occurred several times during the last week in August and the first week in September, the residents said.

Body on Field Estate

Collings' body was found on the beach at Caumsett, the estate of Marshal Field III, about two miles from Huntington harbor, where Collings' cruiser, the Penguin, lay at anchor last Thursday night when the two pirates who murdered him came aboard.

Until she defied authorities to continue their repetitious questioning Tuesday at the end of four days of harrowing examination, Mrs. Collings had held throughout her ordeal to the essentials of her original story.

The only point in her narrative that suffered change in her long questioning was that concerning an attempted attack on her by the elder of the two "pirates" who boarded the Collings yacht, Penguin, and took her off in a canoe. This was after her husband had vanished.

Young Publisher Testifies From Cot That Senator Threatened His Life

HOLDENVILLE, Okla., Sept. 16. (UP)—Reclining on a stretcher, Tom R. Phillips testified this afternoon that State Senator Tom Anglin threatened to shoot him.

Phillips, young newspaper publisher, was the state's chief witness against the veteran political leader in his trial on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

He was the tenth and last witness the state called in an effort to show political differences between the two men prompted the alleged attack by Anglin on the streets here April 16, this year.

Failing to obtain a continuance of trial when he was stricken with acute indigestion at Chickasha, Phillips came here under care of physicians. They refused to permit him to sit in the witness chair.

He told of talking with friends on a street corner and of Anglin's approach. He said that without provocation the senator produced a gun and that he remonstrated with him not to shoot.

One of the nine witnesses preceding Phillips to the stand testified he overheard the editor say to Anglin:

"My God, senator, don't shoot me."

The defense had 10 witnesses ready to testify when the state concluded its case.

Paroled Youth Held in Theft of Mother's Car

An 18-year-old youth, paroled from a federal juvenile institution, faced the prospects here Wednesday of being returned to the training school following his arrest for the theft of his mother's car.

A few months ago the boy was paroled to his father, who resides in Oklahoma, for the remainder of his term, about two years. He had already served a similar period in the school.

The youth's mother discovered during the early hours of Wednesday morning that her car had been taken from its garage at her home on North Burnett street. Wednesday afternoon Herbert Pogue, city motorcycle officer, saw and recognized the car as it was being driven by the son in the neighborhood of the junior college. A half-mile chase ensued before the boy was taken into custody.

The body was taken in charge by the Hines mortuary. Funeral services will be held Thursday at an hour to be set later, it was said.

Mrs. Holmes had resided in Wichita Falls for about 32 years, the last 22 years of which she lived at one place, her home at 501 Adams street.

Mrs. D. M. McHarry of Kansas City, Mo., a niece, is the nearest living relative.

PEEPS AT PEOPLE

By MRS. L. N. CASON

F. Scott Fitzgerald announced recently that the jazz age ended with the stock market crash of 1929, which if true, goes to show that some good may yet come of evil and that the world may settle down to a peaceful life when it recuperates from the depression accompanying and following said crash.

Jazz was never so beautiful to us as the theme of its preceding decade. Melody in music charms us more than syncopation; the grace of the waltz was far more witching than the tangled movements of jazz dancing; books that tell of character in life and the smooth and beautiful composition of which charms the brain, last longer than those stories whose greatest virtue was in expose of some untouched theme or in the wit of ready "lines."

We are hopelessly old-fashioned in our taste in this line, but not at all ashamed of boasting it—no more than our mother was ashamed of boasting the beauty of the polka and the interesting square dances she danced as a girl, or our grandmother, the quadrille and the Virginia reel.

There's a golden period in each life that lingers always on the edge of memory; a golden period that women tell to their children as the romance of their youth and that is most often adventure of a sort with men.

Our father told us tales of his life in the civil war; we have heard our children's father tell his children of his dog, the dog without a peer in the county where he was born, and of his horse that he drove in his early traveling days—a horse that knew his voice and answered his call and that nickered pitifully to him from the livery stable fire in which he died.

What they will be telling to our children's children, we do not know. But those grandchildren will probably smile over this period as we smile over that which we see in pictures of the first automobiles and women with great hats and floating veils and dust coats.

But those grandchildren will have something we have not had. We have laughed at the solemn infant that was our father in the old family album and we have looked at his brave and handsome young man's face and wondered how many of his dreams and ideals came true. But our grandchildren will see our age in action. Which makes us realize how powerful an adjunct to history the movies are.

If there had been movies all these years, we might know if Cleopatra was really a person with an "infinite variety of charms"; whether Nero did fiddle as Rome burned and why Elizabeth did so hate her cousin, Mary Stuart; or most important of all just now, we might have seen the reaction of the people in times of depression.

Central American Rare Mountain Coffee

"Drink It Without Anxiety," They Say . . . . Far Finer Flavor Too, Because Free From Rank Offensive Oils

(LUCIUS GALLOWAY)

COFFEE is not only good, but good for you! If you drink the right KIND. This is what your doctor will tell you today. For the so-called ills of coffee such as nervousness, indigestion, and headache, they now find, actually come from certain noxious oils found largely in cheap, rank coffees.

But the world's finest coffee, the richest and most invigorating coffee, is free from these. Any normal person may drink all he wants within reason. And that is why thousands are changing to Folger's.

From Central America

Folger's is not just another brand of coffee. It is a different kind of coffee. There are thousands of brands of coffee in the market, but they most all come from practically the same place and are about the same grade. Folger's is made from Central American coffee—high-grown, which, experts and doctors agree, is free from the so-called coffee ills. And Folger's is packed in key-opening vacuum tins. Any can you buy is always fresh. As fresh as it was 30 minutes after it left the roaster.

Endorsed by Doctors

Only recently we received reports from 2,571 doctors* who, after testing samples of Folger's Coffee, confirm what we say above.

Try Folger's for a week. Note its finer flavor. Note its wonderful invigoration. Note its after effects. If you do this, we'll wager you'll never go back to ordinary and doubtful kinds of coffee.

*Signed statements to this effect, from 2,571 physicians who have actually tested Folger's Coffee, are on file in our offices.

Bexar County Plans Big Highway Program

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 16. (AP)—Financing of a $6,000,000 highway improvement program for Bexar county through the combined efforts of the county, state and federal government is being contemplated.

The new plan will involve appropriations in equal amounts from the three branches of government. Members of the state highway commission have indicated their willingness to assist.

The plan provides for elimination of railroad crossings in the county and would create a 44-mile loop road circling the city. It calls for a $2,000,000 county road bond issue.

Contractors awarded work under the plan would be called upon to use only Bexar county labor.

State Drops Blue Sky Proceedings Against Western Service Corp.

AUSTIN, Sept. 16. (AP)—Proceedings instituted against the Western Service corporation of Oklahoma City by John N. Martin, Texas blue sky commissioner, will be dropped, Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state, said today.

Martin recently obtained a temporary injunction against the corporation restraining it from acting under its permit to sell $100,000 worth of its stock in Texas. He said today the corporation had agreed to file an answer to the injunction suit and tender its permit to the court for cancellation without prejudice to a new permit.

A new application will be filed. Martin indicated it would be approved.

The application for the temporary injunction alleged the corporation used fraud in obtaining the permit.

Martin said the recent hearing at Austin disclosed the officials of the company had not perpetrated fraud but had been betrayed by a person hired to do certain work for the corporation.

The following statement was issued by Mrs. McCallum:

"The secretary of state has just concluded the hearing and examination of the Western Service corporation and its officers concerning statements made to obtain a permit to sell stock in Texas.

"As a result of this hearing and after fully going into all the facts, the secretary of state is convinced that the officers of the Western Service corporation were acting in good faith and were not guilty of an attempt to commit a fraud upon the people of Texas."

Three Share Farmers Held as Night Riders

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 16. (UP)—Three Mississippi county share croppers faced trial here today charged with night riding and attempts to demoralize cotton pickers in the southern section of the county.

The men, Alton Summerlin, Bill Peyes and A. G. Seals, purportedly have confessed posting notices warning laborers to refuse to pick for 35 cents a hundred pounds, the prevailing scale over most sections of Arkansas. The notices threatened violence should pickers be caught working for less than 60 cents a hundred.

HOOVER DEAF TO DEBT PLEAS

Extension of Moratorium Is Asked of President

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. (UP)—Pressure on the White House for extension of the international debt moratorium from one to four or five years is being firmly resisted. President Hoover is represented as having determined to stand on the one-year program announced on June 20.

The desire for extension centers among banking elements.

The opinion is expressed by officials that any move at this time toward extension of the moratorium would eliminate the possibility of demonstrating whether she can recover in a single year sufficiently to resume payments. Mr. Hoover desires the one-year program to have a fair trial. Many officials are convinced that sanction of extension at this time would prevent that.

Among reports published today was one that Secretary of Treasury Mellon had returned from Europe convinced that the moratorium should be extended.

Texas Facts

By BILL EDWARDS

Texas' gross income from leading lines of activity as shown in the U. S. census for 1929 was $502,133,000 from farm crops, $238,915,000 from livestock, $1,449,801,000 from manufactures (mostly petroleum products), $483,806,000 from minerals (mostly petroleum), $245,502,000 from railroad income.

HELPING BUILD TEXAS

Along wth the straightening and shortening of existing routes come new highway construction projections. . . . Two surveys of proposed routes for the additional Dallas-Fort Worth highway are being completed by state and Tarrant county engineers, and choice between them is to be made by the Tarrant county commissioners tomorrow. The new road will materially lessen the congestion on the heaviest traveled stretch of road in the state and somewhat shorten the distance between the two cities. . . . Mineral Wells is interested in a proposal to designate a new north and south route across Palo Pinto county, connecting with other highways at Stephenville on the south and Jacksboro on the north. . . . Tarrant county has let contract for grading, drainage structures and a 20-foot concrete slab on the Mansfield cardinal highway to the southeast at a cost of $157,000. The recently completed section of No. 2 from the Johnson county line into Fort Worth is one of the model stretches of concrete road in the state. . . . Another decided improvement in travel facilities was marked by the formal celebrations at Gainesville and Denison of the opening of new free bridges across Red river. The one north of Denison has been in use several weeks, but the one north of Gainesville could not be used because of the approaches on the Texas side not being completed. On the Oklahoma side the bridge opens for traffic the concrete slab through Red river bottom in place of the unimproved stretch that served the old toll bridge. . . . Contract for paving 13 miles of state No. 51 near Vernon has been let.

Smuggling of Aliens About Stamped Out

EL PASO, Sept. 16. (AP)—Smuggling of aliens from Mexico into the United States, says R. B. Mathews, assistant director of immigration for this district, has about disappeared.

Murray W. Garson, assistant secretary of labor, recently said smuggling of aliens from Canada and Mexico was widespread and ordered a campaign to stop it.

"Running aliens from Mexico used to be a profitable business for crooks," said Mathews, "but the immigration border patrol and the cupidity of the smugglers themselves has about destroyed the racket."

Kansas City's safety council recommends when a man is arrested for driving while intoxicated he should be held until he is sober. Evidently there is too much free wheeling in Missouri.

A crusader against crime in New York urges that people be taught how to shoot. But wouldn't that be pretty hard on the truck drivers who think the middle of the road is the place to drive?

The Cause of Crises

RAMSAY MAC DONALD, seeking and getting almost dictatorial powers to balance Great Britain's budget and avert a financial catastrophe, is a living illustration of the way in which ordinary modes of government can get scrambled when finances are at a crisis.

Whenever a parliament is called to handle urgent difficulties of this kind, no one can tell just how things are going to turn out. In England's case, of course, the chances are probably several hundred to one that the old order will survive unchanged. But history is full of similar cases that didn't work out that way.

Indeed, one of the earliest of such cases was furnished by the English themselves. The disagreement between king and parliament that wound up with Charles I on the scaffold came into being because of a financial crisis. It started mildly enough as a row over appropriations for the expensive and inglorious wars in which Charles had embroiled the country; it ended, some years later, in Oliver Cromwell.

The French revolution got its start in the same way.

That also began very mildly. French finances were in a chaotic condition—due partly to France's intervention in the war for American independence. Louis XVI was forced to summon the states general to help find a solution. The confusion that followed did not end until Louis had gone to the guillotine and Napoleon had arisen to vex and rearrange all of Europe.

Those are probably the two outstanding examples. There are other minor ones. The emergence of most of Europe's present-day dictators came in just such a manner, although usually with less violence.

To be sure, the chances that the financial crisis in England will result in a revolution, or in anything even resembling a revolution, are microscopic. England's genius for orderly self-government can be counted on to meet almost any kind of emergency.

But the seeds of danger are there, nevertheless. Government seldom faces a graver risk than when it has to devote all of its energies to setting its finances in order.

Bluebonnet Vindicated

THE Texas bluebonnet, official flower of Texas, has been acquitted of a grave charge. It has been vindicated; and it will flourish in all the glory of its majestic beauty.

It was accused of being a killer.

Cattle growers had claimed that the bluebonnet poisoned livestock that fed upon it.

A. & M. college extension service sat as judge and jury. The charge was a grave one. If sustained, beauty would have had to give way to the beast; the bluebonnet, instead of gratifying one's eye, arousing his patriotism and uplifting his soul in rapture, would have been frowned upon with suspicion and outlawed.

A. & M. college officially has reported that a test was made of the charge that eating the bluebonnet gave cattle paralysis. An animal was led to the sacrificial altar of feeding upon the ambrosial flower. That animal, a fat steer, was fed on bluebonnet seed for 120 days, a total of 13 pounds of the seed. He showed no effects. He stands as supreme proof of the innocence of Lupinus Subcarnous.

Didn't they know that in the horny-handed lariat days of Texas the bluebonnet was known as buffalo clover, and recognized as an important part of the food of the herds? Didn't they know a flower so beautiful, one that on its merits compelled official recognition of the Texas legislature, would even lift a Texas longhorn into the realm of the ethereal for having grazed upon it?

More glory to the cerulean flower that brings gladness to man and no longer withers under the suspicion of causing harm to any beast. Maybe it was marihuana those cows ate.

Sensible Censorship

AN EXCELLENT way of avoiding the evils of censorship of moving pictures has been developing lately in various parts of the country. It is the system by which women's clubs, religious organizations, civic societies and similar groups appoint representatives to examine current films and issue lists of "approved" pictures.

This system is especially valuable for the children. Many parents do not have the time to find out for themselves which pictures are proper for their youngsters to see. In the past they have relied—too largely—on official censorship to solve the problem for them.

But censorship is a repellent and stupid solution. This new system is infinitely better. By it, each group can give its members the guidance they want—and can do it without restricting the right of outsiders to see pictures of a different type.

Quotations Worth Noting

Things I Never Knew Before
(And they slaughter houses!!!)

That one drop of iodine in your glass of whisky will put you to sleepy-by-by for four hours. (Personally, I prefer opium).

That an actor went up to Equity headquarter yesterday and paid his dues—so the entire office staff finally went to lunch!

That Ray Miller, who knocks out opponents in one round, with one of the deadliest wallops in the world, is a milliner.

That New York taxis must have their licenses on the center or right side and privately owned cars must show theirs on the left.

That the Central park mazdas are turned on before sunset and turned off before the sun rises. (Dopes!)

That a divorced femme or one who gets a divorce in Britain (so that the records will be accurate) cannot be presented at court or gain admission to the royal enclosure at Ascot, or visit the palace. Outside of those boring functions they have a swell time.

That Alice White, the movie star, once was a phone operator.

That Kay English of the "Follies" is one of the few natural platinum blondes in the world. Jean Harlow isn't.

That Peter Finley Dunne, creator of "Mr. Dooley" and other grand characters, invented the expression "southpaw" for port-siders.

That the speed limit on our Speedway is 35 m. p. h.

That "Shine On, Harvest Moon," revived by Ruth Etting, is one of the nation's biggest song hits now. It is only 20 years old.

That the sepias in Harlem call Lenox avenue "Sugar Hill" because the whites once lived there and it takes a lotta "sugar."

That England controls its radio stations and no advertising is permitted over the air. (Oh, to be in England, etc.!)

That there were grocers in Johnstown, Pa., named (Joe) Love—(Bill) Sunshine—and (George) Bliss. It is now Love & Sunshine.

That the word "air" means information.

That "fool" formerly meant a term of affection, you fool!

That Canzoneri won decisively from Berg, but that one punch in the eighth round was lower than the stock you were advised to buy, put away and forget!

That the best way to make a man dislike you is to call his bluffs.

That humming birds cannot walk. They can, however, dart backwards, or in any direction, something other birds cannot do.

That the Broadway trams (trolleys to you!) only stop at even-numbered streets. (Lived here all my life and just discovered it!)

That 75,000 locals have permits to carry pistols.

That Weber & Fields have been signed for the radio at a wage only second to Amos and what's his name-again?

That George Washington's son was a playwright. And not bad!

That if there were no dust in the atmosphere it would never rain or snow. (What yould you people amount to without me?)

That a yellow arm band is worn by the deaf, dumb and blind people in Denmark to protect them in traffic when crossing streets.

That that one reminds me of this silly story: A girl ran across a street in heavy traffic and a man on the other side warned her: "You'd better not do that again, because a truck will mow you down!" So she did—and it did!!!

That if it weren't for The Pathfinder I wouldn't even know that the U. S. has 47 kinds of stamps and 15 different shades. Imagine!

That I could keep on like this for days and days, but you ingrates wouldn't appreciate it. Oh, I know, I know! You are all alike.

That the strongest of all antipathies is the antipathy of a second-rate mind for a first-rate one.

That, to hear the wags tell it, if all the columnists were laid end to end—it wouldn't be a bad idea.

That people who growl at dramatic critics should kiss their tootsies. They're the ones who had to sit through the season's first 10 ordinary shows so that playgoers could be warned to save their coin.

That page 989 of the Manhattan phone tome shows nude figures.

EXPLANATIONS OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

GEORGE WASHINGTON HELD THE BROAD JUMP RECORD FOR 120 YEARS—At the age of 19 George Washington was a splendid specimen of manhood—six feet 2 inches (his postmortal measurement was 6 feet 3 inches) heavily built with hands and feet and shoulders of enormous proportions—and he excelled in almost every kind of outdoor sport. To this day a spot is pointed out in Piedmont, Va., where the youthful Washington broadjumped 23 feet across the Rappahannock river in 1752. This record stood for over 120 years until an Irishman, J. Lane, succeeded in jumping 23 feet 1½ inches at the Irish civil service sports in 1874. Sixty-two years after Washington hung up his record, sport authorities still maintained that "21 feet is extraordinary, and 22 feet is, indeed, very rarely accomplished."

THE FIGHTING IRISHMAN—The battle of Sabine Pass, Texas, which established Dick Dowling as a second Leonidas, took place in the civil war as a result of the only federal attempt to land on Texas soil. On the federal side 15,000 troops took part in the affray. Dick Dowling's band numbered only 42 Irishmen and two cannon. The battle was over in 30 minutes, and in that time over 100 federals were killed, 429 were captured, two federal gunboats, the Clifton and the Sachem, were disabled, and another gunboat was crippled, but Dowling did not lose a single man. The federals were compelled to withdraw, and never again was the attempt to land on Texas soil renewed. There is an oil painting of Dick Dowling in the Confederate museum in Richmond, Va., and a statue has also been erected in the honor of the heroic Irishman.

THE CHURCH OF NO SERVICES—At Cowichan Bay, Vancouver Island, is a lovely little church built of stone by the Quamichan Indians, which has been standing ready for service for many years but in which no congregation ever has gathered. No one knows exactly why it has never been used. Some say that it has not been consecrated and others say the Indians will not go near the building because all those who actually built it died mysteriously. In any case, the church stands there today overlooking the bay, empty and desolate, still waiting for its first service.

Tomorrow: "The child who prefers pipe smoking to candy."

STATEWIDE GAS QUIZ PLANNED

Rail Commission Prepares For Investigation

AUSTIN, Sept. 16. (AP)—The railroad commission today instructed Laten Stanberry, head of its gas utilities division, to draft specifications for a statewide gas rate investigation to be made soon.

Stanberry said details of the proposed investigation would be worked out the next two days. These will be submitted to valuation engineers, who will bid on the work. C. V. Terrell, chairman of the commission, said he expected the contract to be let within the next two weeks.

Lines of distributing companies will be valued, their books will be audited and a geological report on their producing properties will be made. If bids for the work as not sufficiently low, the commission will set up it sown investigating force, Terrell said.

Sheriff Empties Jail When Funds Of Arkansas County Reach Bottom

TEXARKANA, Ark., Sept. 16. (AP)—Sheriff R. W. Turquette announced today that law enforcement would continue in Miller county, despite the bankrupt condition of the county treasury.

He practically emptied the county jail of prisoners today in order to reduce expenses. Prisoners serving out fines were released after posting notes to cover the amount of their fines.

Others, faced with more serious charges, were liberated on greatly reduced bonds. Sheriff Turquette refused to release certain prisoners whom he believed should remain in confinement.

Meanwhile, county officials were faced with the problem of operating the government with but $125 in the treasury. The salaries of all officials were stopped.

Five school districts found themselves without funds, but there was a prospect of them obtaining funds next week.

School and College Notes

By HELEN BROODO

More than 1,200 copies of the Wichitan, student news publication of the Wichita Falls Junior college and high school, were distributed Wednesday, when the first edition of the fall semester was issued.

Of the 1,200 copies, more than 200 were mailed to staffs of the school paper exchange and to out-of-town subscribers, according to A. F. Edwards, faculty sponsor of the Wichitan.

Wichitans were sent to Alaska, Hawaii, South Africa, and 31 different states as well as to every town within a radius of 30 miles of Wichita Falls, Mr. Edwards said.

All members of the Wichitan staff are urged to attend a meeting of the group of students and faculty sponsors Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the high school.

20 Enroll in Band

At least 20 students enrolled for the football band of the Wichita Falls High school Tuesday, and several other musicians are expected to join the band before the week is over, according to Tom McCarty, director and instructor of the members.

The band is not only a new acquisition of the music department of the school but also an incentive for pep for the entire student body. The new Coyote band will be in reality more than on ordinary football band, as it will play at all athletic activities of the high school teams here.

New Students Enrolled

Five new students were admitted to the Wichita Falls Junior college Wednesday, and a few more are expected to register before Monday, Registrar A. K. Presson stated Wednesday afternoon.

The present number of students attending the college is 175, an increase over last year.

Monday will be the last day for ordinary entrance into the college, Mr. Presson declared.

Book Sales Heavy

With 52 books sold Wednesday and 57 Tuesday in the book store of the high school and junior college, a total of 109 books were purchased by the students of the different divisions, according to Mrs. G. C. Moore, clerk and manager of the store.

The school trade covers the purchase of dozens of second hand books by the student body, as well as the necessary new books that students must have.

The high school students have the advantage of many text books issued by the school, but the college students must buy all their books, and the result is that large orders were mailed from the store Wednesday.

FOUR ESCAPE PAWHUSKA JAIL

Guards Overpowered and Locked in Cells

PAWHUSKA, Okla., Sept. 16. (UP)—Four prisoners in the Osage county jail overpowered two jailers, locked them and five trusties in cells and escaped today.

The four were:

Johnny Pryor, Osage Indian awaiting delivery to the penitentiary for a six-year term on two charges of pointing a pistol.

George Smith, held on a federal charge of robbing the postoffice at Nelagoney last June.

Bill and Bud McCoy, held on federal charges of assault with intent to kill and robbery on restricted Indian lands in connection with a bandit raid on two Indian homes near Hominy last May.

The break started at 7:15 a. m. when McCoy called Jailer Jake Wallet to his cell on the top floor to take a note. Wallett said he was covered with a pistol, forced to unlock the door. He was stripped of his keys and locked up.

The other prisoners were released and the four armed with pistols and blackjacks went to the main floor where they overpowered Jailer Jim Sykes and five trusties and locked them in cells. One trusty was struck with a blackjack.

None of the other more than 150 county and federal prisoners in the jail attempted to join in the break.

Officers described the fugitives as "desperate." Posses, heavily armed, went in search for the fugitives.

Parchment is being made from sheepskin in England by the same methods and tools used more than 1,000 years ago.

Stop this theft of Coffee Flavor!

Oxygen, the racketeer, steals 45% from old-fashioned cans

THIS is a warning to every lover of fine coffee.

Beware of Oxygen, that light-fingered thief of flavor, now known to attack coffee the instant roasting is complete.

Just read these amazing facts established in the laboratories of a leading Eastern University:

(1) Loose or bag coffee loses 65% of its flavor in nine days after roasting.

(2) Coffee in old-fashioned cans loses 45% of its flavor in nine days after roasting.

All due to the attack of Oxygen!

Think of it! Forty-five to sixty-five per cent of the flavor gone from nine-day-old coffee. Even vacuum packing, a definite improvement over old-fashioned methods, removes only part of the air from the can, leaving sealed in enough Oxygen to cause flavor loss and deterioration.

The new Vita-Fresh Process removes the air so completely that the most rigid chemical analysis reveals no trace of Oxygen in the Vita-Fresh can after packing.

Remember—Oxygen is the destroyer of coffee freshness and flavor. The Vita-Fresh Process alone gives full protection to coffee goodness. Maxwell House and Maxwell House only gives you this guarantee of full flavor, full value in every pound.

Try a cup of fresh coffee—it will amaze and delight you

After trying Vita-Fresh Maxwell House Coffee, if you and your family do not agree that it is the finest coffee you have ever tasted—simply return the can with unused portion to the grocer from whom you bought it and he will gladly return the full purchase price.

Apples Now Plentiful

As far as we can tell from a study of the history of the development of the apple, its earliest form was probably that of the crab-apple. From intensive cultivation many varieties of apples have been produced in recent years, so that now there are over 1,000 varieties.

The apple tree is very hardy and does not reach its full prime until about 50 years of age, and will bear fruit in commercial quantities over 100 years.

North America is the greatest apple country in the world. Its annual output exceeds 100,000,000 barrels.

In the early New England days, the fruit was valued chiefly for its cider product, but with our modern methods of refrigeration apples can now be preserved all the year through so that they can be eaten raw at any time.

It is only during the past quarter of a century that the raising of apples has really become a valuable agricultural industry. Well cultivated and fertilized trees will now yearly bear as high as 10 tons of fruit to the acre.

The modern method of wrapping the apples with paper and packing them in boxes has proved superior to the old method of carelessly packing them away in barrels where the ripe, unripe, and wormy fruit came in contact with each other, the whole barrel often becoming spoiled after a month or two.

It costs more to produce good apples, so the consumer must be content to pay a higher price for this fruit than he formerly did when apples were sold merely as a product of diversified farming.

In the districts where most apples are grown, they have formed large fruit growers associations and the distribution of the different varieties of apples is now so regulated that only certain varieties are sold during different times of the year, and the fruit that is picked before it has completely ripened is allowed to reach a certain stage where the flavor has developed before it is put on the market.

The Baldwin is probably the most popular apple with those who have their own orchards and grow the apples for their own use. This apple is well flavored and is good for both cooking and to be eaten raw.

The Northern Spy is another handsomely colored apple, which is excellent in flavor and flesh qualities.

The Winesap, the White Pearmain, Stayman Winesap, Delicious and many other varieties have been developed to their present state in the last 25 years and are the ones grown mainly by the large orchardists of the Northwest, as these apples develop to a large size with a beautiful coloring and a texture which makes them suitable for marketing during the entire year.

During the fall and winter when apples are so plentiful, it is a good plan to take an exclusive apple diet for a few days, eliminating all other food and eating whatever apples are desired.

An apple may be eaten every two or three hours, or they can be eaten three times daily in place of the regular meals, when two or three apples may be used at a time.

An apple will make a palatable and satisfying luncheon the year round for those who are especially fond of this fruit.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Longevity Limited by Heredity

Question — Inquisitive writes: "Some months ago you wrote an article about longevity and stated that a man ought to live much longer than he does now. It seems to me entirely possible that one might live over a thousand years if the proper physical care is taken. Consider the giant redwood trees and other trees that lived over a thousand years; also, elephants, whales, etc., exceed man. My argument is, if these have such perfectly balanced metabolism to survive, why can't man?"

Answer — It is quite likely that in the future the longevity of the human race will be greatly increased. At the present time the human body is seldom capable of surviving over 100 years even with the best of care. This is probably because of hereditary defects.

Ice Water

Question — J. W. Writes: "Is it true that drinking ice water really makes the body hotter in warm weather?"

Answer — The drinking of ice water in hot weather does not make the body warmer in hot weather. It is better, however, not to drink the water too cold, as it may produce a shock to the stomach. When the ice water enters the stomach, it produces a temporary stomach anemia, driving the blood to other parts. This might give a person the feeling of temporary warmth but it would not be permanent.

Phosphates

Question — Joan states: "I recently had a urinalysis report which showed phosphaturia. What does this mean?"

Answer — The appearance of phosphates in a urinalysis report is not a sufficient symptom upon which to base a diagnosis. It is generally an indication of some nervous disease, worry or nervousness.

Lamb Shippers Ask Faster Rail Run

STERLING CITY, Texas, Sept. 16. (AP)—With practically all fat lambs destined for the Fort Worth market being trucked to Colorado for shipment over the Texas & Pacific railroad to save 48 hours, livestock raisers in Sterling and Glasscock counties have asked the Santa Fe for faster service and lower rates from Sterling City. J. T. Davis, local ranchman and banker, is leading in the movement.

Cattle raisers also are interested in the quicker service, since many cattle are being driven to Big Spring, Iatan, Colorado and Stanton on the Texas & Pacific instead of being shipped from Sterling City. Davis estimated that 14,000 to 15,000 fat lambs have been trucked to Colorado recently.

It now is necessary for livestock to be moved from Sterling City in the morning to be penned there the night before, Davis said. It then does not leave San Angelo until the next afternoon. A feed bill of around $4.50 a car is incurred and the lambs lose an average of two pounds in 24 hours, he said.

Fat lambs from Sterling and Glasscock counties lately have averaged 67 pounds and have brought 5 1-3 to 5¾ cents per pound, or $3 to $3.15 a head.

BARONS TRIUMPH OVER DIZZY DEAN IN DIXIE OPENER, 1 TO 0

RAY CALDWELL CHECKS BUFFS

Whataman Doesn't Register Single Strikeout

BIRMINGHAM, Ala, Sept. 16. (AP)—Ray Caldwell, the old master, triumphed over Jerome "Dizzy" Dean, in as great a pitchers' battle as any Dixie series has produced when Birmingham defeated Houston, 1-0, in the opening game of the eveleenth annual series before a record crowd of more than 20,000 here today.

Greeted with a barrage of hits in the opening frame, Caldwell was forced to call upon the strategy and cunning 23 years of professional baseball has taught him to pull himself out of frequent holes. The Buffaloes touched him for a pair of hits in each of the first, second and fourth innings and one in the sixth, after which he settled down.

The Barons scoring machinery was set in motion in the eighth after Dean had set them down for seven frames with only two safeties. With two down, Ellis Taylir, Baron catcher, singled to right field. Caldwell shuffled to the plate and duplicated with a one-base hit through the pitcher's box. Bancroft, second baseman, topped off the proceedings with a double into the left field bleachers. Abernathy closed the inning with a line drive to Selph at second base.

Caldwell beat Dean at his own game, striking out five men, two of them in the eighth and one in the ninth. Dean, who left behind a strikeout record in the Texas league, failed to register in the strikeout column.

Manager Joe Schultz of the Buffaloes tonight indicated his choice for the pitching assignment for tomorrow's game would be Dick McCabe, a right-hander borrowed from Fort Worth. Manager Clyde Milan of the Barons said he would use Jimmy Walkup, a southpaw, in an effort to make it two straight for Birmingham.

Grandfield Beats Burkburnett, 26-0

Special to The Record News.

GRANDFIELD, Okla., Sept. 16.—The Grandfield High school opened their football season here Wednesday afternoon with a 26-0 victory over the Burkburnett Bulldogs. Grandfield presented a beautiful running attack around Creighton and King which the plucky little Burkburnett line could not hold. The Burkburnett eleven held the Sooners in check for the first half, the only Grandfield counter in the first half came on the end of a beautiful 18-yard dash around end just as the half ended. Bob Creighton carried over the remaining touchdowns on a series of long runs. The entire Grandfield line played splendid ball. Burkburnett built their offense around Al Ragsdale, plucky little quarterback, who left the game early because of an injury. The Burkburnett line played a stellar game on the defense, a much better game than the score would indicate with Senate Hill leading the linesmen with Blondy Buckner running him a close race for the honors. Because of many fumbles both teams lost many chances to score. Dudenhafer, Due, Hosmyer, Williams and Gilger stood out in the Grandfield line. Score by quarters:

Argentine Polo Champs In Finals of U. S. Open

MEADOW BROOK CLUB, Westbury, L. I., Sept. 16. (AP)—The four galloping horsemen from Santa Paula, polo champions of Argentina, rode into the final round of the United States open championship with a thrilling 11 to 9 victory today over Tommy Hitchcock's Greentree team.

The Argentines, as a result of their triumph in another breathtaking battle on horseback will play Stephen (Laddie) Sanford's spectacular Hurricanes, defending champions, in the title match Saturday on International field. They are the first South American combination to reach the final round of the United States championship since 1922, but it will be an upset if they conquer the Sanford outfit, featuring 10-goal "Pat" Roark and 9-Goal Winston Guest.

Texas Aggie Signal Barker Is Injured

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Sept. 16. (AP)—Another name was added to the Texas Aggie football casualty list today when W. E. Williams, a promising quarterback candidate from Greenville, sprained his ankle in scrimmage.

He will be limited to light workouts for a week or two and probably will be set back considerably in training because of his injury.

In the scrimmage, which was the first of the season, Henry Graves, Hank Irwin, George Lord, Clifford Domingue and Rue Barfield ran the ends and tore through the line for scat gains.

Cards Cinch Pennant by Downing Phils as Reds Defeat New York

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16. (AP)—Not content with winning the National league championship today by virtue of Cincinnati's victory over New York, the Cardinals downed the Phillies 6 to 3 for a clean sweep of a six game series. Hallahan, who will probably face the Athletics in the second game of the world series, gathered a few preliminary honors today by pitching a 6-hit game, and winning his 18th of the season. Score:

GABBY SAYS HE'LL BEAT A'S

St. Louis Celebrates Cards' Success

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16. (AP)—St. Louis tonight celebrated the winning of its fourth National league baseball pennant but not in the boisterous, noisy manner of 1926 when the Cardinals brought the first flag to St. Louis in 28 years.

With the clinching of the 1931 pennant accomplished this afternoon when Cincinnati defeated the Giants of New York in the first game of a double-header, fans gleefully grinned and said "they're in."

Manager "Gabby" Street said he had known the team would win and predicted victory for the Cardinals in the world series with the Philadelphia Athletics, starting here Oct. 1.

"I knew my club would win," Street said. "I have a great club. A game ball club, and I'm proud of it. I've never been worried, but I'm glad it's all over and we can turn our attention to the big series.

"Connie Mack is right when he says he's going to have a tough time in the world series. My team is going into those games just as they have gone into the season's contests. The boys never have been in a long slump; they have accepted every challenge and I have every confidence as I look forward to our meeting with the American league champions."

Manager Street said he would continue to use his regulars daily, although he planned to take some of them out after five or six innings each day during the remaining games. Pitchers will take their turns he said, as that is considered the best way to keep them in condition.

TURNS PIRATE

Bear Allday to Play on Galveston Football Team

Bear Allday, Spudder second baseman, will join the Galveston Pirates!

But don't become alarmed. It's not for the purpose of playing baseball next season. For the Pirates have forgotten all about baseball now, and have turned into a football team.

Del Pratt, skipper of the Bucs, formerly a college player and football coach, finding several football stars on his baseball team decided to have some fun in a football way. The team is now practicing, and will play the Dr. Pepper eleven, a Galveston amateur team, Sept. 20. Later, it was said, the team may go to Mexico City for an exhibition game.

Allday should put plenty of backfield punch in the Pirate eleven. The Bear formerly was a star at Centenary. Allday and Charles Lindsey, assistant coach of the Coyotes, manned the halfback posts on the famous Centenary elevens of 1927 and 1928.

Frogs Put Through Day of Learning

FORT WORTH, Sept. 16. (AP)—Today was entirely a day of learning for the Horned Frogs.

In the morning it was scholastic work with the gridiron their blackboard in the afternoon. On the practice field, the Frogs' minds were busy absorbing and executing the plays which will be used against Texas Military college and North Texas State Teachers college here Friday and Saturday, respectively.

In order to be sure that the non-letter men would be well drilled for their battle Friday, Coach Francis Schmidt had Grassy Hinton, who looms as the first string quarterback this year calling signals for them.

QUANAH READY FOR OPENER

Indians Meet Eldorado, Okla., Team Friday

Special to The Record News.

QUANAH, Texas, Sept. 16.—The Quanah Indians are all set for their opening contest which will be played here Friday, Sept. 18, against the Eldorado, Okla., squad. This is a non-conference game, the first of four to be played prior to the conference opening Oct. 17 at Electra.

Indian squad has been strengthened the past week by the appearance of two new tackles and a fast halfback. These new men are Gregory, who showed up well in spring training, and Mills, both tackles. Price, the new halfback, is very fast and promises to make a real ball carrier.

Following is the starting lineup for Friday's game: Faircloth, Marsalis and Cox, halfbacks; Rogers, fullback; Norman and Jones, ends; Richardson and Harrell, tackles; Blue and Bolton, guards, and Barnett, center. Hall, Smith, Price, Page, Mills and Gregory will also see service.

Coach Dan Stallworth is putting the boys through stiff practice twice daily. The team is showing lots of spirit and fight and seems to be in fine condition.

Coyotes Whip in Shape for Temple Game in Heavy Scrimmage Session

A new spirit pervaded the Coyotes practice field Wednesday as Coaches Barry Holton and Charles Lindsey drove their charges relentlessly through the most stubborn and gruelling scrimmage of the season.

Not until nightfall did the plunging stop.

It marked the real beginning of football training for the 1931 season, and if the youngsters who are counted on to give Wichita Falls a winning team plug away in practice and on the field of battle the rest of the secson as they did Wednesday afternoon, followers of the red and black may expect to see some real football here this season.

Perhaps the realization of their mediocre showing against Olney and Archer City in recent practice games was at the bottom of the savage spirit that took the gridsters through yesterday's grind. Whatever it was, it inspired players and coaches alike. Coaches Holton and Lindsay were untiring in their insistence that the players work, and the players bore down with a willingness that was good to see.

Today's practice is not likely to be so severe, as the team goes into action Friday against the Temple, Okla., Tigers. The game will be played on the school field, and an admission price of 50 cents for adults will be made.

FALL INJURES BOY

A severe gash was cut in the face of Donald Burl, 16-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burl, when he fell from a high chair against a wash tub Wednesday afternoon at the home, 306 Virginia street. Several stitches were taken in the child's face at the Wichita General hospital, after which he was removed to his home.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. (AP)—A slight opening advance in response to relatively firm Liverpool cables was followed by declines in cotton here today under liquidation and some southern selling. December contracts, after selling up to 6.94 early, broke to 6.75 in the late trading and closed at that figure or within 4 points of the low record for the season. The general market closed barely steady at net declines of 13 to 16 points.

While Liverpool was better than due on the New York close of yesterday, this appeared to be attributed partly to a readjustment of differences and reports of unrest in the British navy owing to the cut in pay seemed to make rather an unfavorable impression on sentiment. Houses with Liverpool connections were among the early buyers here, however, while there was also buying by brokers with Japanese connections. This helped to absorb the offerings and imparted a rather steady tone to the market during the early trading, but the demand was not active, and when offerings increased later in the day prices yielded quite readily.

Liverpool cables said hedging and liquidation in that market had been absorbed by covering and foreign buying and reported an improved inquiry for cotton cloths from China and South America. Exports today 12,720, making 434,793 so far this season. Port receipts 23,102. U. S. port stocks 2,862,077.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 16. (AP)—The cotton market was a very quiet affair today and prices developed no particular trend, although advancing at the start on favorable Liverpool cables.

The market soon started to ease off, however, owing to continued favorable weather in the belt and fair hedge selling attracted by the early advance.

Prices by the end of the first hour had lost 3 to 12 points from the high. The market continued to ease off during the balance of the morning mainly on selling by recent buyers who were disappointed at the delay in action by the Texas legislature on the acreage question. By mid-session, prices had declined 11 to 12 points from the early highs and 2 to 4 points from the previous close.

Prices made new lows right at the end 20 to 21 points under the highs and closed steady at the bottom, showing net declines for the day of 11 to 13 points. Liverpool is due tomorrow 6 to 7 penny points down on New Orleans.

Port receipts 23,102; for week 113,989; for season 581,639; last season 1,471,946. Exports 12,720; for week 63,924; for season 426,506; last season 770,911. Port stocks 2,858,412; last year 2,189,514. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans Galveston and Houston 74,140; last year 60,891; spot sales at southern markets 45,175; last year 41,233.

Effects of Feeble Rally Erased By Another Wave of Stock Selling

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. (US)—The stock market today enjoyed a feeble rally, but the slight improvement was quickly erased and prices slumped to new lows.

There was no change apparently in the character of the pressure exerted against the market. Early rallying tendencies were produced almost exclusively by technical conditions, with a somewhat oversold condition prevalent in various stocks, but not of sufficient amount to produce more than the most modest of rallies. Selling in persistent fashion came into the market on the slightest price upturn, and the offerings were probably divided equally between liquidation and short-sellings.

An increased number of rumors were abroad in Wall street, all of the same general character as recently, but the stories were generally disregarded as the market itself was observed for guidance to immediate prospects.

Washington advices that bankers' request for a further extension of the debt moratorium had been denied by the president were rather discouraging, although there was considerable confusion as to the exact attitude of the president toward such a proposal. This much seems certain: the so-called banking leaders of the country are hardly in agreement among themselves as to the best methods of curing the depression. Nevertheless, the opinion prevails in reliable quarters that some action by Germany and France, toward a more friendly cooperation, must precede any further constructive steps by Washington with respect to debts. This was the opinion expressed today by an all-dominant banker.

The stock market community is taking its cue almost entirely from Washington and, pending definitely constructive measures from that quarter, there's a powerful element which continues bearish towards stocks. These interests have enormous resources and while some part of their funds today are employed on the bear side, the weight of their purchasing, if their attitude could be served to the bullish side, would be sufficient to swing the entire market. For the present, however, they are little interested in the buying side.

Westinghouse Electric directors' decision cutting the dividend to 62½ cents for the quarter caught the short interest in the stock napping and it closed up almost two points net. However, simultaneous reduction in the preferred dividend to 62½ cents, which if maintained would be only $2.50 annually, served notice that the common dividend is not yet secure.

All of the important stocks continued under pressure once the short-lived rally proved to be nothing more than a technical affair. Only a very small minority were able to hold above their previous lows.

The most disconcerting development was the increased selling of public utilities, which seem to be under severe pressure not only from professional quarters but from outright liquidation.

An ordinance amending ordinance No. 511, passed and approved on the 19th day of May, 1924, entitled "an ordinance regulating the construction, alteration, maintenance, repair, and removal of buildings within the city of Wichita Falls, Texas, and prescribing penalties for violations," by adding to said ordinance section 65 (a) providing regulations for the installation and maintenance of water heaters. Be it ordained by the board of aldermen of the city of Wichita Falls, Texas:

Section 1.—That ordinance No. 511 passed and approved on the 19th day of May, A. D. 1924, be and the same is hereby amended by adding to said ordinance section 65 (a), which shall read as follows:

Sec 65 (a). No water heater, using fuel of any type for heating, shall be installed or operated in any building within the city limits of the city of Wichita Falls, without a vent pipe of the proper size connecting the water heater with the flues of the building or to the outside air. Where ventilation pipes pass through walls, ceilings, or roof, ventilating thimble shall be used as provided for in section 72, of this ordinance except however in the case of vent pipes three (3) inches or smaller, the diameter of the outside guard may be eight (8) inches with at least one and one-half (1½) inch ventilating space between outer and inner guard.

All ventilating thimbles through a roof shall be properly flashed to prevent leakage.

In any building hereafter constructed within the city limits of the city of Wichita Falls, Texas, no water heater, using fuel of any kind for heating, shall be placed within six (6) inches of any unprotected wood or combustible walls or partition. If water heater is placed in a cabinet or otherwise inclosed the entire enclosure shall be lined with hard-pressed sheet asbestos at least one-fourth (¼) inch thick or other approved fire proofing of equal quality. If water heater be placed closer than six (6) inches to a combustible wall or partition, the wall or partition shall be protected with hard-pressed sheet asbestos at least one-fourth (¼) inch thick or other approved fire proofing of equal quality for a distance of six (6) inches below the fire box to twelve (12) inches above the fire box. No water heater shall be placed closer than two (2) inches to any combustible wall or partition in any event.

Any water heater now installed in any building within the city of Wichita Falls which does not comply with the above provisions, applying to water heaters, the owner or agent shall make such changes as prescribed and if upon written notice from the building inspector such changes are not made by the owner or agent within ten (10) days time, the building inspector shall order the gas service disconnected from the building until such improperly installed heaters are corrected.

Passed and approved this 14th day of September, A. D., 1931. Walter Nelson Jr., mayor. Attest: (Signed) W. E. McBroom, city clerk.

CITY WARNS WORK DODGERS

Leaders Tell of Plans to Bar Unworthy

pealed directly to the offices of the Family Relief association for food and clothing.

Cotton pickers are being sought daily in Wichita Falls by growers from Northwest Texas and Oklahoma, Mr. Smitham said.

"The city is going to be very strict," he declared, "in demanding that a man accept any remunerative employment which it is possible for him to accept before he may expect any help from the city."

The statement issued by the quartet of officials relative to such cases follows:

"We notice in our morning paper that what we consider quite proper publicity has been given to the fact that cotton farmers in our territory are unable to secure sufficient help to harvest their cotton crop. That the public may be kept correctly informed we want to state that Mr. J. R. Calloway, who has had charge of our employment agency during the past several months, has numerous applications on file from Wichita and adjoining counties for cotton pickers. We could easily place several hundred at this time.

"We consider it only fair to the citizens of Wichita Falls that when the cotton picking season opened we immediately got in touch with all possible prospects in order that we might place as many laborers from Wichita Falls as possible, and quite a number have accepted employment. Finding that some physically fit people were unwilling to work for the prices offered, or were giving other excuses that we did not consider valid, the executive committee of our family relief organization unanimously passed an order several days ago, instructing those in charge of giving relief, to refuse any assistance whatever to any applicant who appeared physically able to work and who in turn refused to accept any employment offered, it being understood that the employment offered would pay enough to contribute something toward the maintenance of those asking for help.

"Knowing that the community chest and its participating agencies only represent voluntary social organizations and have no legal authority to enforce their opinions and decisions, we are working out a plan to coordinate the community chest relief work with the city and county to the end that when instructions are issued they can and will be enforced.

"Strict registration requirements for all applicants for relief are being worked out. Thorough investigation will be made of each applicant. Agencies will be put into operation properly coordinating employment for those in need and all unnecessary overlapping and duplication will be dispensed with.

"We are keeping close to this problem and giving our best thought and effort to its fair solution.

"In brief, our program for administering relief this winter in this community will mean that applicants must try or travel.

LIONS HEAR H. J. BRUCE

Address on Constitution Given at Luncheon

Greater individual responsibility for the preservation of the constitution of the United States should be assumed by the citizenship, H. J. Bruce told members of the Lions club Wednesday noon in an address commemorating the 144th anniversary of the adoption of the constitution, which will be Thursday, Sept. 17.

"It is a matter of great satisfaction and pride to every American," the speaker said, "to contemplate the stability of our government, and the established state of our constitution in an age when crowns have fallen, constitutions are being shattered, governments are toppling, and the very foundations of our economic society are being shaken."

Greatest Legal Document

The strength, durability and adequacy of the constitution, Mr. Bruce said, is drawn from its excellent blending of opposite ideals in government. Conservatives headed by Alexander Hamilton disbelieved the capacity of common for self-government. Extremists, headed by Thomas Jefferson, showed the influence of the French revolution in a determination to swing too far in vesting governmental powers in the local committees. A proper harmonizing of these two elements produced "the greatest legal document ever put together," Mr. Bruce said.

"Our constitution has a long history," the speaker continued. "It has its beginning in the creation of man as an intelligent being, for liberty is a God-given privilege. It was given a beginning of form when Moses received the ten commandments on the flaming hillsides of Sinai—the greatest constitution ever granted to mankind. Our American liberty was born originally at Runnymede, England, back in 1215, when King John was forced to grant certain liberties to his subjects. What the English gained that day they forgot somewhat during the subsequent 550 years. But it was not forgotten in the colonies. Lexington, Concord and Bunker Hill; Saratoga and Yorktown became stars in the firmament of historic names, and the constitution followed as the charter of American liberty."

The bill of rights was eulogized by the speaker as one of the most cherished and valued portions of the constitution. He warned also against indifference to the constitution, against any diminution of the powers of the supreme court, and against adherence to extreme theories of government.

Delegation to Vernon

"We, the people, are the government," he declared. "If ever those who represent us no longer speak the voice of the people, their right to represent us shall cease. Only so long as we preserve and maintain this precious document shall we have peace and happiness."

Mr. Bruce was introduced by Judge John P. Marrs.

President Roy Mann appointed J. W. Lyle, J. P. Marrs, and J. L. Eggleston as a committee to investigate the needs of a blind girl near this city for a loom with which to weave rugs.

Cecil Metzger, recording secretary, read a letter from the Vernon Lions club inviting local Lions to attend an inter-city meeting at that place next Friday night. It was indicated that a considerable number from the local club will attend the fair at Chillicothe on Friday, and will return to Vernon for the night Lions meeting.

Musical entertainment Wednesday was furnished by Willard Undewood, tenor, who sang three "bachelor melodies" dedicated to Leo M. Underwood, accompanied by Mrs. A. H. Mahaffey, pianist.

Miss Pauline Fulcher played popular numbers during the luncheon, and was introduced by Tom Vague as the new Lions club musicmaiden.

Man Held for Assault On Wife's Complaint

Three misdemeanor complaints were filed in the county court at law by County Attorney Louis V. Abernathy Wednesday, one for aggravated assault and two for disturbing the peace.

The charge of aggravated assault was lodged against a local man upon the complaint of his wife, who declared he had beaten her severely. The defendant was said to have declared that upon returning home he found another man there. His wife explained that the man was waiting there for a street car. The alleged punishment followed. The wife denied the charges of her spouse in registering her complaint.

A man and a woman, in separate cases, were charged with having used abusive language in public places.
