No, we are not a superstitious nation, but dozens of hotels have no thirteenth floors.

We wonder whether the Texas boxing authorities will now make it legal to use the manly art in the ancient art of wrestling. The two pastimes have been hopelessly mixed for years in this section.

The depression has stopped many wars. This want-ad ran in a New York paper: "Brother, come home; Alex has buried the ax."

Somebody ought to pin a medal or something on Joe Danziger, who has just printed his umpteenth treatise on what is wrong with the oil industry. Just after he hits the nail with fair accuracy on the head, conditions change and he has to do it all over again.

With Mr. Roosevelt drafting the university professors into his "brain trust" administration, it would seem that at least a few college graduates ought to get jobs. Or do the graduates wish position in the cabinet?

When it has not rained for many months, the rain-makers begin to flout their claims with fair hope of success. And when a world "recession" has been in progress nearly four years, we may begin to parade our optimism with possibility of being called prophets.

Musings after deadline: We mourn for Percy, the office mouse, whose eldest son was just murdered by the bookkeeper. Whence that spark of life bundled in soft brown skin and supported by delicate framework? If we could answer that question, the greatest scientists would rush to learn at our feet.

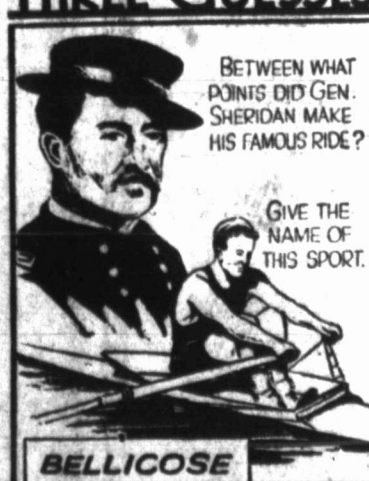

There is so much goodness in the world unorganized that the average person needs to possess little beyond bodily necessities, but to anticipate much in his hoping. We need more ice-breakers. Most people have the capacity for soul expansion, social enjoyment, serious thinking without boredom, if they once get started. One of college life's greatest achievements is introducing students to all-round living. Profanity is boring at any time, used to extremes, but without a spark of originality it is the worst form of Babbity.

GET THIS STRAIGHT

Federal relief assistance and Welfare Board direct relief should not be in any manner accepted as the wage scale in Pampa. The government does not intend to set up a wage scale. It's help at best is relief and is intended to supplement other work which those listed may find. It is not a "living wage" in the sense of being adequate. Persons employing those on the welfare lists, or other individuals, should not call the Welfare Board office and ascertain what help is being given there as a step toward paying the same for work in private homes, businesses, or jobs. President Franklin D. Roosevelt is attempting to help wage-earners by bolstering salaries at the same time that relief in the form of part-salaries is being passed by congress. Citizens who adopt the relief scale of wages are, in the words of welfare workers, imposing on those they hire and are getting more for their money than they deserve.

BANKERS HELD 250 MILLIONS DURING CRISIS

BOUGHT OVER MILLION SHARES AND SOLD OUT YEAR LATER

'TO HALT PRICE DROP'

HUGE PROFIT DIVIDED BETWEEN BANKERS PARTICIPATING

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—The senate banking committee was taken today behind the scenes of financial drama of the chaotic days of late '29 by a J. P. Morgan and company partner who told in matter-of-fact fashion how a few bankers—with $250,000,000 at their fingertips—supported the crashing market.

It was a profitable operation, too. George Whitney, the Morgan partner, testified that although loss had been expected, the 1,146,609 shares purchased were sold for $1,067,355 more than the cost, exclusive of interest.

The massive purchases lasted some three weeks. "It ended, as I recall, on November 11," said Whitney quietly while ears were strained throughout the large, crowded room to hear.

The investigation was recessed until Monday.

Leading up this story in answers to Ferdinand Pecora, committee counsel, Whitney related how his brother, Richard, then vice president and now president of the New York stock exchange, had "come to see us first" about doing something to halt price slides on the exchange.

Profits Divided.

"How much did you buy?" Senator Couzens (R., Mich.) asked.

"We bought 1,246,609 shares," Whitney replied, "at a cost of $137,752,705."

"We sold out in 1930 for $138,820,060."

"How was the profit divided?" Couzens wanted to know.

"Among us according to participation," Whitney said. "We entered this operation without thought of profit. We expected to take a loss and one time our book loss was $40,000,000."

"Why did you take such a large loss on Anaconda Mining corporation?" Couzens asked.

"As I said," Whitney replied, "we sold without reference to profit."

The witness objected to Pecora's use of the word "pool" to describe the transaction.

"We are rather gunshy of the word, as used colloquially," he smiled.

Purity of Water In Pool Proved

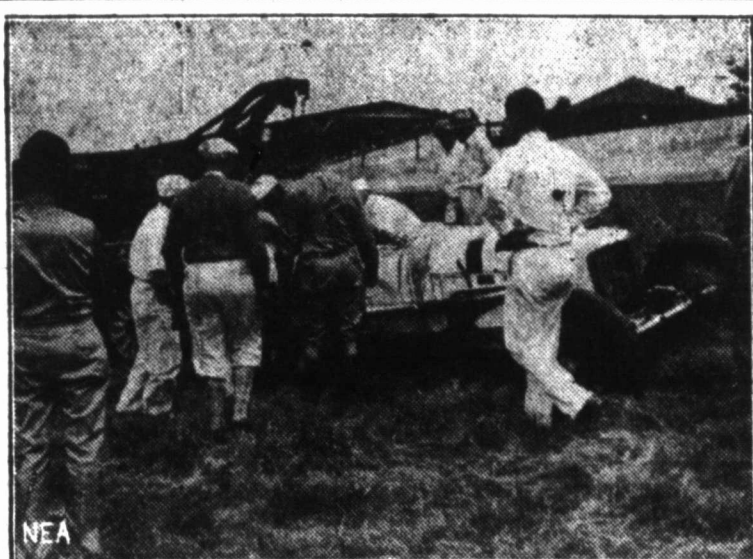

Water samples taken daily from the municipal swimming pool show that it is far above the standard required by the state department of health as to purity. This is before the filter system is placed into use, when the bacteria count will be lowered still more. Dr. T. J. Worrell, assistant city health officer, is chlorinating the water and checking it carefully.

EXCEPTIONALLY LOW RATES ARE OBTAINED FOR PAMPA DAILY NEWS CHICAGO TRIP

Side-Journeys in World's Fair Area May Be Made For Small Expenditures.

NEW low rates for the proposed Pampa Daily NEWS special train to Chicago's world's fair early next month have been obtained through negotiations with railway officials.

Growing interest not only in Pampa but in neighboring towns indicates that the necessary one hundred trippers can be obtained. The rates will not be larger than these:

Railroad fare (round trip) only in day coach, $25.21.

Railroad fare, round trip, with one in lower tourist Pullman, $34.21.

Railroad fare, round trip, with two persons in lower tourist Pullman, $29.71.

Railroad fare, round trip, with one person in upper tourist Pullman, $32.91.

Railroad fare, round trip, with two persons in upper tourist Pullman, $29.06.

That these are exceptionally good rates is shown by the fact that the regular one-way to Chicago from Pampa is $34.50.

Announcement of additional details will be made Sunday, with mention of side-trips which can be made for from 25 cents to $1 in Chicago and on the lake.

Plan now to join the Pampa NEWS special train with your friends from this section. Spend four days or more at Chicago; make use of the opportunity which will not likely be repeated in your lifetime!

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight; Saturday, generally fair.

AMARILLO, June 2 (AP)—Three men and two women were arrested here today in connection with the kidnapping in Kansas city of Mary McElroy, daughter of the city manager.

Police Chief W. R. McDowell said those arrested gave their names as W. H. McGee, sought as the ring leader of the kidnapers, J. E. Gilbert and Mrs. Gilbert, and Wendell Johnson and wife.

Kansas City officers are en route by plane, McDowell said.

McDowell said $4,191 in cash was taken from McGee. The party had stopped at the sales room of a local automobile agency to trade for a new car, their old one having "burned out," on the highway.

Identity of the alleged kidnapers became known when the automobile agency telegraphed to Kansas City to determine ownership of the car. The message was turned over to Kansas City police, who notified Chief McDowell to make the arrests.

McDowell said two pistols and a rifle were taken from the car.

KANSAS CITY, June 2 (AP)—Police announced this afternoon that seven men whom they alleged were involved in the kidnapping last Saturday of Miss McElroy, 25, daughter of City Manager H. F. McElroy, have been arrested.

Police said five of the men were arrested in Amarillo, Tex., and the other two were taken into custody here. Police named Walter McGee, held in Amarillo, as being the reputed leader of the extortion gang.

Officers said part of the $30,000 paid by City Manager McElroy for his daughter's release last Sunday had been recovered.

LOCAL MEN IN NERVOUS MOOD AFTER DELAYS

HAD HOPED TO SPEND SUMMER IN COOL COLORADO

FOREST CAMPS CHOSEN

PRESIDENT MAKES BIG PROGRAM POSSIBLE IN CANYONS

PAMPA youths are nervously waiting at Fort Sill, Okla., for instructions which will send them to some forest camp in Texas—possibly the Palo Duro project—for worthwhile service in return for their $30 per month and board.

Intervention of Governors William Murray of Oklahoma and Miriam A. Ferguson of Texas has twice canceled orders to move recruits to Colorado forests. Governor Murray asked that Oklahoma boys be kept in Oklahoma, making reorganization of the camp at Fort Sill necessary and delaying departure of 200 boys from Texas.

The ranks were closed again and the Texans, according to Sam Kieth, The NEWS correspondent at the "front," thought they would leave immediately for Colorado. Then arrived a request from Governor Ferguson that Texas boys be sent to Texas forest camps. Visions of cool days in Colorado faded from the minds of 1,700 Texas men who by this time had been assembled.

Young Kieth writes that the Texans are discouraged by continuing delays and are eager to go somewhere—anywhere. Camp routine and discipline are tiring them. Some of them "won't even work." Very uncomplimentary things are being said about the two governors.

Panhandle residents have been cheered, however, by signing of President Roosevelt's signature to a bill which will establish the Palo Duro as a state park and establish four forest camps there for construction of roads, bridge paths, dams, small lakes, fisheries, and stone administration buildings. The government will spend about $72,000 in the project.

The 14,466-acre Arnold ranch in the Palo Duro is to be conveyed to the state. Likewise a park will be made of the Palisades portion of the canyon, formed out of sections 18 and 22. The two projects will require about a thousand men of the forest army for the remainder of the 6-month enlistment period, a month of which has been used in conditioning the men.

Herbert Maier of Denver, reforestation officer, will be in charge of the work. Army officers will be in charge of the camps. Landscaping will be by the national park service. The state board of engineers has done preliminary work.

Welfare Workers Visit At McLean

Mrs. W. H. Davis and Miss Ivan Mayfield spent the day in McLean doing investigation work for the Texas federal relief committee.

Every family registered for relief work has to be checked, and Miss Mayfield was employed to assist Mrs. Davis in the work. The work will take nearly a month, it is believed.

The amount of work given to each man registered depends on his circumstances and family and dependents. The man with the most responsibility gets the most work.

POSSES CLOSE BEHIND 2 OF HIS PARTNERS

LOUIS BETCHEL TAKEN BY SURPRISE AT FARM HOUSE

FUGITIVE EATING MEAL

CAPTURE OF 2 OTHERS IN WOODS EXPECTED MOMENTARILY

STILOAM SPRINGS, Ark., June 2. (AP)—Louis Betchel, one of the 11 convicts who escaped from the Kansas penitentiary Tuesday, was surprised and captured at noon today at a farm house one and one-half miles from Dripping Springs, Okla. He admitted his identity. Poses were close behind two of his companions.

The scene of the capture was eight miles northwest of here, where search has centered in the remote, hilly section for three convicts since early yesterday.

A posse headed by Floyd Green, Flint Creek deputy sheriff, took Betchel by surprise as he was eating a meal at the farm home. He offered no resistance, according to reports received by telephone a few minutes after the capture.

Betchel admitted his identity after officers compared his features with photographs.

A half dozen other posses, who surrounded the wooded section after a gun battle with the three convicts early today, were reported as closing in on the two other convicts and their capture was expected momentarily.

Betchel was being taken to Jay, Okla.

Betchel is under sentence of 10 to 21 years in the Kansas prison for bank robbery in Wallace county. He previously had served prison terms in Idaho and Missouri.

The captured convict was one of the group of five who kidnapped Mrs. M. J. Wood of Kansas City and two girls in fleeing from the penitentiary. The gang commandeered the Wood automobile near Lansing, Kan., and held the women captive for more than 10 hours, releasing them unharmed near Pleasanton, Kan., Tuesday night.

Betchel and his four companions, all young men, took advantage of the break by Wilburn Underhill, Harvey Bailey and four other desperadoes to make their escape from the penitentiary.

BIG NEWS NEVER ADJOURNS

THE TEXAS LEGISLATURE has adjourned, congress is delegating great powers to the president before it quits, colleges are in the commencement period—but making of big news never ends.

America has abandoned her splendid (?) isolation, industry looks to the national administration for help, farm relief and unemployment relief will continue, the plains country looks to world markets to set the price of wheat and cotton, oil faces federal control proposals. Pampa, as an oil and wheat center, is vitally interested in national and world affairs.

A paper worthy of Pampa, with full coverage of not only local but world interests, is THE NEWS. People buy this newspaper, often to the exclusion of all others, because it alone measures up to the broad, alert interests.

Smart advertisers, too, recognize that THE NEWS is an effective medium because it is desired, bought, and carefully read every day. It is their salesman, and one which is always welcome in the homes of prospective customers.

GENERAL MOTORS INCREASES PAY OF 100,000 WAGE EARNERS

INCREASE OF FIVE PER CENT IS IN EFFECT

HIKE IS RESTORATION OF PREVIOUS SLASHES

DETROIT, June 2 (AP)—Lawrence P. Fisher vice president of General Motors Corp., and president and general manager of the Cadillac Motor Car company, has announced that a 5 per cent increase authorized by Alfred P. Sloan Jr., president of General Motors, will affect 100,000 wage earners employed in the various divisions of the company.

In the majority of plants controlled by the corporation, the wage increases went into effect yesterday, company officials said, while other units planned announcement of the rise today. Although New York officials of the company outlined the general policy of wage increase, final action in each company was left to the individual heads.

Affected by the action are the Cadillac Motor Car company, Detroit, employing 3,000 workers; the Olds Motor Car company at Lansing, Mich., employing 2,000; Chevrolet Motor Car company, employing 10,000 workers; and the Buick Motor Car company, employing 8,000, both at Detroit. The Fisher Body corporation, Detroit, employing between 30,000 and 32,000 workers, probably will act on the increase today, President Fisher said. The remainder of the 100,000 workers are scattered over the United States.

Children Fed At Baker Cafeteria Gained in Weight

Underprivileged children who were fed regularly at the Baker school cafeteria during the last eight months gained from 8 to 15 pounds each, according to a report given by J. A. Meek at the Kiwanis club today. Attendance increased fifteen per cent among the underprivileged children.

Mr. Meek told of one case where two children had not eaten for two days before he noticed them. Afterwards they were not only served a free lunch but were also given a hearty breakfast each morning.

The Kiwanis club makes relief of underprivileged children its leading objective.

Little Miss Patsy Guigan of Skellytown gave two readings at the program today. She was accompanied by her mother and Mrs. McConnell, also of Skellytown.

Dr. R. M. Johnson gave a brief history of the life of Mussolini. He told of the early life of the man and the steps he has taken to be one of the leading powers of Europe today.

A golf tournament between members of the Kiwanis club will be played starting today and closing Tuesday afternoon. The losing team will give a "dutch" lunch for the winners at Schneider hotel at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. About 18 or 20 matches have been made.

CHICAGO GRAINS

CHICAGO, June 2 (AP)—Grain showed a downward trend early today. Sellers predominated, influenced by assertions that conditions directly affecting wheat were bearing, and that a broader demand, particularly when the new crop started to move in volume, would be needed to maintain prices. Opening unchanged to 1/4 lower, wheat afterward sagged all around. Corn also started unchanged to 1/4 off, and subsequently underwent a general setback.

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY BY O.E.H.

WORDS OF WARNING

Dr. J. W. Brown, state health officer, writes the following warning: "As the summer approaches, a word of warning is timely to prospective campers, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, summer vacationists, fishermen, and others who enjoy getting out into the open, relative to the possible dangers that may be encountered from the standpoint of contracting infection under the changed environment. This is especially true of diseases that may be transmitted through food and water supplies.

"Typhoid fever is a disease the amount of which is greatest, as a rule, where there is the least sanitation. It is an unnecessary and preventable disease. It is spread from person to person by water, milk, fingers, flies, and food. Every case is contracted by taking into the mouth some substance contaminated with typhoid organisms, and these occur only in nature in the bowel and bladder discharges of persons sick with typhoid or from carriers, persons who have had typhoid and who after recovery still harbor the germs in their systems.

"Persons planning a vacation or trip where sanitation may not be rigidly enforced, or where food handlers are not regularly examined should protect themselves against this disease by being vaccinated. Three inoculations with typhoid vaccine, a week apart, are necessary to secure protection against this disease, and the immunity established is good for two years. The purity of water or milk cannot be judged by looking at it. Play safe and have your doctor protect you."

CIVIC CLUBS MERGE EMBLEMS IN HEAVY METAL ROAD SIGNS

Pampa civic clubs will soon advertise their meeting days and their renewed fires of speculative and investment enthusiasm. Trading volume was at one of the fastest paces of the year and gains of 1 to 5 or more points were scattered over a wide area. The close was strong. Total transactions approximated 7,000,000 shares.

The signs are of heavy metal fabricated in the Cabot shops out of material furnished by the Magnolia Pipeline company. Metal scroll-work is at the top of the sign, then appear the words "CIVIC CLUBS—CLUBS. WELCOME."

The club emblems appear in the Wednesday, Thursday, Friday meeting order—Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis.

Each sign weighs several hundred pounds, and will be set in the concrete by Al Lawson, who executed the emblem with accuracy of color and design. The signs are about 8 feet high and 3 1/2 feet wide.

Board Faces A Flour Shortage

The flour situation in this county was discussed at length during a called meeting of the Red Cross chapter yesterday afternoon in the chamber of commerce rooms. A shortage in Red Cross flour is being faced and the committee plans to conserve the supply through careful dispensation.

The date of the annual meeting, for election of officers, was set for the first Thursday in July.

BANQUET

W. B. Irvin of Perryton was elected chairman of the zone in a business session presided over by District Governor C. H. Walker of Pampa, who was principal speaker of the evening at the banquet in the Methodist church dining room.

Van W. Stewart of Perryton was chosen secretary and Perryton was selected as the meeting place in the first week of September. The temporary chairman and toastmaster was J. G. Richards, president of the Higgins club.

Frank Latimer of Higgins made the welcome address, to which Olin E. Hinkle, a guest from Pampa, responded. Miss Mary Hurn of Higgins sang vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. J. R. Weis. A harmonica-guitar team, Davis and Stout, played at intervals. A chicken dinner was served by ladies of the Baptist church.

Enthusiastic reports concerning work of the various clubs were made. President Bog Shindler of the Perryton club told of sponsoring a Boy Scout troop and sending three men to each troop meeting. A male chorus of Lions has been organized and this, with a quartet, is in demand at community gatherings.

John Gex of Follette said his club was about the biggest in Texas in proportion to population. It's Boy Scout troop was the best at the recent Adobe Walls camporee.

Bill McCellan, president of the Spearman club, said the Lions formed the only active men's organization in town. The club sponsors Boy Scouts, holds oldtime athletic contests, and the winner of the club essay contest, Lady Maurine Archibald, took first place in the district.

MORGAN

"But the newspapers called it the bankers' pool," Pecora commented. "Yes," Whitney agreed, "we tried to set them right but they paid no attention."

Spectators laughed, and a smile spread momentarily over the hitherto impassive face of J. P. Morgan, smoking silently nearby.

Whitney testified that he directed Morgan & company's participation in the pool under supervision of Thomas W. Lamont, Morgan partner.

The senate investigation of J. P. Morgan and company was abruptly recessed for the week-end today after John W. Davis, counsel for the firm, protested against a question directed at Thomas S. Lamont, junior partner, apparently relating to his income tax return.

The white-haired Davis, former presidential candidate, leaped to his feet to object when Ferdinand Pecora, aggressive senate committee counsel, called young Lamont to the stand and asked him about sales of stock December 30, 1930.

"This is not fair play," Davis protested, asserting that Lamont had not been advised he would be questioned about the stocks.

While Lamont sat quietly at the table, and his senior partner, J. P. Morgan—listlessly intently from the Church Crowded At Webb Funeral

Another of Gray county's oldest residents was laid to rest at McLean yesterday when funeral services were held at the Baptist church for L. H. Webb, 73, who died Tuesday at his ranch in the eastern part of the county.

Mr. Webb had lived in the county about 30 years. He is survived by his widow and five sons, who are T. V. of Miami, B. L. and Charlie M. of the ranch, and A. A. and Leslie of Canadian. He had 12 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

The church was more than filled with friends. From Pampa went Judge Newton P. Willis, Siler Paulkner, Ewing Leach, John B. Hessey, Henry Lovett, J. T. Crawford, Emmett LeFors, and Charlie Thut.

The senate investigation of J. P. Morgan and company was abruptly recessed for the week-end today after John W. Davis, counsel for the firm, protested against a question directed at Thomas S. Lamont, junior partner, apparently relating to his income tax return.

Knit Your Hat

BETTY FURNESS

By NEA Service
HOLLYWOOD.—A hat for every costume seems to be the Hollywood aspiration these days. But it isn't as extravagant as it sounds, for some of the gals make their own! Betty Furness packs her knitting needles with her all over the R-K-O lot and the result is that she has pink, blue, white and other colored little circus hats—one for every costume.

This is how she makes them: Cast on 120 stitches on a small steel needle, using one ball of medium heavy Germantown yarn for each hat.

Knit two and purl two for ninety rows.

Bind off, and sew up the side. The result resembles a mammoth wristlet, such as grandfather used to wear on his wrist in cold weather. But it looks like a million when it is pulled into place over one side of her mop of blonde curls.

Right now she is working on a handsome striped hat made of all the colors of the rainbow. If anyone is ambitious, the hat may be made on four needles and then you won't have to sew up the seam.

Black-Draught Eased Gas Pains, Headache

"I was a sufferer from gas in my stomach, a pain and sharp headache," writes Mr. W. R. Williams, of Owens Cross Roads, Ala. "I began to take a pinch of Theodore's Black-Draught after each meal and found it gave me immediate relief. I keep this pleasant-tasting medicine in my house all the time. I have found it especially beneficial for constipation. Don't put up with sick headache, sluggishness, gas, distension, bad taste in the mouth, biliousness, coated tongue, bad breath, distress after meals, when due to constipation, but take Theodore's Black-Draught."

CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN CHURCHES
"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the lesson-lesson in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, June 4.

The golden text is from Revelation 15: "Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints."

Among the passages to be read from the Bible will be the following: from Malachi 2: "Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?"

The lesson-lesson will also include from the Christian Science textbook by Mary Baker Eddy, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," citations, one of which will be as follows (p. 262): "Divine Mind is the only cause or Principle of existence. Cause does not exist in matter, in mortal mind, or in physical forms. Mortals are egotists. They believe themselves to be independent workers, personal authors and even privileged originators of something which Deity would not or could not create. The creations of mortal minds are mortal. Immortal spiritual man alone represents the truth of creation."

ZEPPHO OF FOUR MARX BROTHERS LOSES $30,000

Holdup Men Rob Him In His Swanky Apartment

LOS ANGELES, June 2 (P)—Zeppho Marx, of the Brothers Marx, comedians, figures too much robbery is too much.

He was shy today the following articles of jewelry: a platinum ring set with a 12-carat stone and valued at $12,000; a platinum bracelet set with rubies and diamonds, valued at the same amount; a pair of platinum clasps, diamond-set, worth $4,000; and a $200 platinum pen set with diamonds.

That was the haul of a brace of holdup men who invaded the sumptuous Marx apartment here last night, covered Zeppho, his wife, a guest and a maid with weapons and rifled Mrs. Marx's jewel cases.

It wouldn't have been so bad if the same stunt hadn't been pulled about five months ago when the loot was $37,500.

"I'm tired," said Zeppho, "tired of being robbed."

He obtained no description of the robbers.

"No, I had a gun in the middle of my back during the entire visit," The guest, Allan Miller of New York, had arrived in Los Angeles only an hour before the robbery. He and the maid were bound and gagged, and Marx and his wife were locked in the clothes closet.

After the men departed, Marx managed to open the door of the closet and notified police. The loss was covered by insurance.

Police surmised that the robbers were members of the same ring which robbed other film players in the last few months, including Helene Costello, Mae West, and Betty Compson.

For the third consecutive time Gus Turner Moreland, 22-year-old Dallas Country club golfer, is the Texas Golf association champion.

being "down." In none of the matches did he tighten up. He simply walked up to the ball hit it and then would pick out some friend in the gallery to talk with until the next shot. If Moreland was ever really under pressure at the state tournament it wasn't visible.

Goldman Fails.
David Goldman of Dallas, finalist last year in the Trans-Mississippi, has failed to win in his three big tournaments this year. He had Moreland four down in the Houston Country club invitation but lost. He was four up with seven to play in the Dallas city tournament against Lafayette Franks and lost. He was eliminated from last week's state tournament by Reynolds Smith.

Great things were expected of Goldman this year after his fine showing in the major tournaments last year, but he has failed to come through. He is far from discouraged with his failure to win this year. His next tournament bow will be the Dallas Country club invitation and he hopes for another chance against Moreland.

Hamman Improves.
Of all players at the state tournament, Leland Hamman of Waco showed the most improvement over last year's appearance. He has come along fast and today is a splendid tournament golfer. Moreland has played him twice this year, once at the New Orleans invitation and last week at Houston. The state champion had praise for the Waco star, and is sure that some day Hamman will be state champion.

TARLETON'S PROPHECY ABOUT BUCS MAKES KOEHLER LAUGH

Dallasite Was Certain That Galveston Would Never Get Out of Cellar.

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ray Koehler, business manager of the Galveston Buccaneers, is laughing these pennant boom days at the shortcomings of Bob Tarleton, vice-president of the Dallas Steers, as a pre-season prophet.

During the Texas league meeting at Houston, prior to the season opening, Tarleton inquired about Galveston's 1933 pennant prospects. Koehler told Tarleton about the players Galveston had signed.

After listening to the list, Tarleton, with a wave of his arm, said: "Man alive, with that bunch of C and D players you will never get out of the cellar. I tell you Koehler, you fellows had better go get some better players. I have a much better team at Dallas and I am not sure I will finish in the first division."

Tarleton then suggested several well-known players on the auction block that Galveston could get, but Koehler said he did not want any of them.

Now that the pennant race is well under way, the Galveston players are battling Houston for first place, and Dallas is struggling to get a berth in the first division.

Koehler recalled the conversation with Tarleton, looked at the standing and was on the verge of sending Tarleton a wire telling him where Dallas could get some good C and D players but decided the information might not be worth the expense.

No Slashing

President Fred Ankerman of the Houston Buffaloes has refused to slash prices for games at Buffalo stadium. Ankerman was a strong objector to cutting prices when the Texas league voted such a move at a meeting some weeks ago. Cutting admission prices was left optional and all have cut except Houston.

With the Buffaloes striding toward the pennant, the popular Carey Selph managing the team well and playing a grand second base, and with the stadium crammed on women's free nights, Ankerman is well-satisfied with the Houston baseball situation. He points out that cities where prices have been cut are drawing their usual small crowds.

Northern Troops To Hold Campaign

Troops of the northern tier of counties in the Adobe Walls council have decided to have a campaign because of their inability to attend the recent one near Morse.

A meeting has been called at Guymon, Okla., by C. L. Matthews, district chairman, for making plans. The session will be held Saturday evening.

'Federals', Not State, Frighten Owner of 3.2

AMARILLO, June 2 (AP)—R. A. Cody today was legally in possession of ten cases of 3.2 beer, but the brew remained in the sheriff's vaults at the court house and Cody was afraid to move it.

District Judge Henry S. Bishop ruled yesterday that the beer was intended for medicinal purpose and was illegally seized. He instructed Sheriff Bill Adams to release it to Cody. But after winning his case, Cody decided he didn't want possession.

Adams stated his willingness to deliver the beer at the vault door "but not a step further." Cody said he had information that a prohibition officer was waiting to seize the brew for a test case in federal court, and was afraid to take it from the court house.

Meanwhile, Cody's health must wait.

Former Marine Is Arrested in China

SHANGHAI, June 2 (AP)—Glenn Mortimer Hargrave, of Birthright, Texas, was arrested today and charged in the American court of China with the murder of Leslie Bell, a British businessman living in Shanghai.

On May 31 Hargrave allegedly assaulted Bell in a street in downtown Shanghai, striking him in the face. The authorities charge that Bell died as a result of the blow.

Hargrave is a motorcar salesman. He was previously in Shanghai in 1929 and 1930 as a member of the fourth regiment of the United States Marines.

Qualifying For Tournament Is Underway Here

Several local golfers have qualified for the Country Club open tournament which will get under way June 11. Closing hour for qualifying will be 7 o'clock June 7, when qualifying scores will be turned over to the tournament committee and drawing for partners and flights will be made.

The course is in the best condition in years and several low scores have been registered. Although the "so called" top-notchers have not yet qualified, several scores between 74 and 80 have been turned in.

Most of the players will qualify Sunday when the Rotary and Lions golf teams will play off a tie which resulted when the three civic clubs played golf two weeks ago. The Kiwanians won the tournament.

A list of valuable prizes has been announced for the winner and runner-up in each flight, for low qualifying scores, low play score, and for other spectacular play.

KIWANIS TO NAME CHAMP

Best Golfers in Civic Club To Be Decided in Week-End Tournament.

Kiwanis club golfers will battle among themselves for club supremacy over the week-end, and the losers will feed the winners. Teams captained by Fred Thompson and Jimmie Weir have been named.

Some of the players will "go round" with the Rotary and Lions teams Sunday afternoon in their play-off. Play will be over the Country Club.

The Kiwanis boys lost two close matches to Amarillo and then won the Pampa civic club tournament with 20 points while the Lions and Rotarians tied with 17 points each. Now the Kiwanians want to know the best players in their organization.

The pairings, without letting the players know which team captain they will play for, are:

GREEN BELT GOLF MEET WILL BE HELD AT CHILDRRESS SOON

Many Golfers in This Section Will Seek to Wrest Title from Billy Holmes.

CHILDRESS, June 2. — Billy Holmes' title as champion of the Green Belt Golf association will be at stake as the ace shots of nine or more Panhandle quints turn to Childress as the center of interest in Panhandle golf circles June 12-16. The 20-year-old Shamrock shot maker copped first honors at Electra a year ago and added further laurels to his record by winning the Caprock tourney in Childress last fall.

Other prominent golf figures of the Green Belt who are expected to tee-off in the qualifying rounds June 12 are Reginald Greenhaw, and Frank Foxall, both of Memphis; Roy Farrell, Vernon; Ira Merchant, of Clarendon; C. P. Sanders of Childress. To this list of the Panhandle's golfing illustrious will be added other names as the final date nears.

Greens, tees, and fairways of the Childress Country club eighteen and also hasards have undergone a program of extensive improvement which has set the course into its best condition. Bunkers and pits and a water hazard have been built this spring to make the course the most difficult in this area. Clarendon players who traversed the course in a dual meet last Sunday praised the course as the best in the belt.

Clubs which have indicated their intentions of entering the tournament include: Frederick, Okla.; Vernon, Paducah, Quanna, Memphis, Shamrock, Clarendon, Crowell, and Childress. Promoters of the event predict that 125 players will be registered.

One of the features of the occasion will be a division for men of more advanced years, the senior flight. Candidates for that and for flights other than the first will be permitted to qualify on Sunday, June 11.

F. D. R.'s Swimming Pool Is Completed

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—The swimming pool given to President Roosevelt by popular subscription was completed today and the happy president after inspecting it expressed the hope of taking a plunge within a few hours.

The pool, constructed in the west terrace of the White House formerly occupied by offices of clerks, was visited by Mr. Roosevelt on his way to the executive office.

After expressing approval of the handsome pool, the president shook hands with the contractors and workmen who installed it.

Mr. Roosevelt is looking forward eagerly to daily use of the pool.

'SCHOOLBOY' ROWE DEFEATS CHICAGO 3-1

TEXAN HURLS SHUTOUT BALL AFTER FIRST INNING

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Detroit's chances of getting out of the American league's second division look mighty slim but as long as they can pin their faith on Tommy Bridges and Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, the Tigers are hard to beat.

Bridges already has two one-hit games to his credit this season while Rowe, the big 21-year-old "freshman" right hander, now appears to be living up to the training camp ballyhoo.

The six foot, four inch, 205-pound "schoolboy" put it over the veteran Ted Lyons and the slugging Chicago White Sox yesterday to win 3 to 1. He gave only five singles, fanned five and pitched shutout ball after the first inning.

Wesley Ferrell, Cleveland's ace, came through with a three-hit game to give the fourth-place Indians a 3 to 1 triumph over the St. Louis Browns and increase their margin over the White Sox to 1½ games.

The last place Boston Red Sox, blanked by Bill McAfee for six innings, rose in the eighth to score four times and tie the count. Then added two more runs off Al Thomas in the thirteenth to beat Washington 7-5. The Yankees and Athletics had an open date.

The St. Louis Cardinals climaxed an almost uninterrupted climb from seventh place in the National league standing to first with a 6-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Dizzy Dean's six-hit pitching was the most important factor in the Cards' seventh straight triumph but his mates pounded Guy Buehler lustily, received the benefit of five errors and put the game away with a four-run rally in the seventh.

The New York Giants continued their unbroken string of victories over the Phillies by winning the other National league game, 7-2, as Fred Fitzsimmons settled after a bad start and yielded only one hit in the last six innings.

Cold weather forced postponement of the Brooklyn-Boston double-header, leaving the Dodgers with three bargain bills to play in as many days.

Youthful Golfer May Enter Green Belt Golf Meet

Pampa may be represented at the Green Belt Golf association tournament in Childress June 12-15. Grover Austin, youthful star, hopes to make the trip and compete in one of the flights. Some of the older golfers of the city would also like to play, but they have not definitely decided.

Prizes amounting to more than $150 will be awarded various winners in a meet that is expected to draw 150 golfers. Contestants will be divided into flights with 32 players in each flight and prizes will go to the winner and runner-up in each flight. A driving contest will also be on the program.

An added feature of the tourney will be a senior division which will include men over 50 years. Prizes will also be awarded in that class.

Besides golf there will be entertainment. A free barbecue for entrants and their wives will be held on opening night along with Calcutta pool. A dance will be given the second night. There will be bridge and other entertainment for women visitors.

The final match in the first or championship flight will be over 36 holes. Other flights will be 18 holes.

MAX SCHMELING CHANGES HIS STYLE OF FIGHTING FOR BAER

German Abandons Crouching and Weaving for Rushing and Headlong Attack.

By EDWARD J. NEIL.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

LAKE SWANNANO, N. J., June 2 (AP)—A great change has come over the fighting style of Max Schmeling, the youthful German whose tenure as heavyweight champion was the shortest in modern ring history.

The ring worms who look for a crouching, weaving model of Jack Dempsey seem certain to be shocked at the new Schmeling posture when the calm young Teuton tackles Max Baer in the Yankee Stadium next Thursday night.

Acting on word from the training camp of the reckless young Californian in Atlantic City that Baer plans a rushing, punching headlong fight on the advice of no less than Dempsey himself, Schmeling has adopted a more erect stance, is stressing defense and, until the night of the fight at least, has abandoned his old crouching, forcing tactics.

He is stressing this style in workouts with the battered sparring partners who have been working with him in the luxurious country club surroundings on Lake Swannano for the past five weeks. He has but three more days of boxing, Saturday, Sunday, and Tuesday, before breaking camp Thursday morning to head for the weighing in and the fight in New York that night.

Yesterday, for instance, he stood erect through six rounds with his mates, dodging, blocking, feinting as they carried the fight to him as he expects Baer to do.

Particularly did he watch for sweeping left hooks of the type the burly Baer heaves to the head. One sparring partner, Barney Baker, let one go and Schmeling, pulling in the soul of the way, crossed his right to the jaw. Despite the sixteen ounce padding of the training gloves, Baker fell flat on his face and was helpless for several seconds though he managed to blunder through the remainder of his two-round stint.

Three Baseball Teams Organized In White Deer

O. W. "Hootie" Harrah has organized three baseball teams in White Deer and will be ready for games next week. The senior team is composed of high school students and the other two teams are of boys who failed to make the senior nine. If there are any junior teams in this section, they can find competition from the White Deer nine.

"Hootie" says he is through with senior teams because the players always know more than their manager, and that in the future he will spend his time developing young ball players. The well known baseball booster has sent several ball players to the upper leagues.

It is more than likely that Busby's Indians will challenge the Harrah men for a game in the near future.

Hamilton Given Life Term For Bucher Slaying

HILLSBORO, June 2 (AP)—Raymond Hamilton was sentenced to life imprisonment today for the slaying of John N. Bucher, filling station and store operator, here in April last year.

It was the second longest term ever assessed in this county. At a trial in March, the jury could not agree and was dismissed after deliberating several days.

Mrs. Bucher, widow of the slain man, related at both trials how her husband was shot down before her when two youths who entered her husband's store to buy guitar strings demanded the contents of the safe.

Hamilton previously had been sentenced to long prison terms for a bank and a packing house robbery in Dallas county and participation in a bank robbery at Carmine.

Scout Officials Off To Roundup At Kansas City

A. G. Post, president of the Adobe Walls Boy Scout council, and Executive C. A. Clark left today for Kansas City, where they will attend the 23rd annual council meeting and roundup of the Boy Scouts of America.

Some of the most noted speakers of the nation will be heard, and 6,000 Scouts of Kansas City will perform.

SUBWAY VACATION
NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—Helen Jacobs, 13, was back home today after six days and six nights in subway trains. Her parents scolded her a week ago so she ran away. She went down into the subway and started to ride. Whenever she got hungry, she said, she would get off the train, beg a nickel from some one and buy a biscuit or a piece of chocolate from a subway newsstand.

The dates of the roundup are June 2 and 3.

ALL LINES OF INDUSTRY GAIN EXCEPT CRUDE

PRODUCTION IN APRIL
EXCEEDS 1932 BY
22 PER CENT

WASHINGTON, June 2. (AP)—Assurance that conditions in many lines of industry have improved in recent weeks was received today by Secretary Roper, encouraging the administration's business-boosting efforts.

From all over the nation came reports of gains—slight, for the most part, but noticeable—in response to an invitation from the department of commerce for "facts and conservative opinion."

Most responses said employment was increasing in line with the upward trend of business. Several expressed hope the Roosevelt legislation to bring about a "partnership" between the federal government and industry would be hastened.

Industries in which improvement was discerned included wool, cotton-textile, electrical appliances, automobiles, office equipment, furniture, paint, steel, dry goods and meat packing.

Based on information from 127 affiliated organizations, the National Association of Credit Men, said inquiries and requests for credit information established "a new peak, indicating unusual interest and accelerated volume of business with emphasis on business placed by houses previously practically out of the market."

The National Automobile Chamber of Commerce said: "Since the low point of the bank holiday production and sales of motor vehicles have shown a steady increase, some of which was no doubt due to the postponed demand resulting from closed banks and some due to the usual spring seasonal rise."

"However, production of 189,284 units in April exceeded April a year ago by 22 per cent, indicating an upturn greater than seasonal."

Employment and production in the cotton textile industry this month were said to "compare favorably" with conditions prevailing in 1932, and said the Cotton-Textile Institute: "For the first time since 1929 prices for the average cotton mill reflect replacement cost."

The National Association of Wool Manufacturers said general conditions "are improving, more people are employed, production is increasing, sales are larger and prices have been advanced to meet the advance-

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Jesus Faces Betrayal and Denial.

Scripture Lesson: Mark 14:17-31.

17. And when it was evening he cometh with the twelve.

18. And as they sat and were eating, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you shall betray me, even he that eateth with me.

19. They began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I?

20. And he said unto them, It is one of the twelve, he that dipperth with me in the dish.

21. For the Son of man goeth, even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had not been born.

22. And as they were eating, he took bread, and when he had blessed, he brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take ye, this is my body.

23. And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them; and they all drank of it.

24. And he said unto them, This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many.

25. Verily I say unto you, I shall no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26. Howbeit, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee.

27. But Peter said unto him, Altho' all shall be offended, yet will not I.

28. And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that thou today, even this night, before the cock crow twice, shall deny me thrice.

31. But he spake exceeding vehemently. If I must die with thee, I will not deny thee. And in like manner also said they all.

ing prices of wool."

A doleful picture was painted by the American Petroleum Institute, which said betterment would "be come immediately apparent upon rational control of crude oil production without which further distress is inevitable."

Luke 22:71; John 13—18:27.

Introduction

Peter and John were sent into the city, and told to follow a man bearing a pitcher of water. Mark 14:12. He would be readily discerned, since that work was usually done by women. He was to follow that man and request a guest chamber for the feast of the Passover.

Over from the master of the house to which he would go. All Jerusalem kept open house for strangers pilgrims coming to the feast, and a large upper room was readily shown Peter and John, well prepared with table and couches and dishes for the feast. The two apostles were with him to obtain the pascal lamb, and the bread and wine, and bitter herbs which were to be eaten with it. All this was done, Mark being possibly "the man with a pitcher," and Mary, his mother, the owner of the upper room—probably the meeting place of the Christians during the excited days that followed Christ's resurrection.

Prophecy of the Betrayal

"And when it was evening he cometh with the twelve." Even with Judas, who after his base interview with the chief priests had had the effrontery to return to Bethany and spend the day in the sacred company of his Lord. "And as they sat (reclined on the couches) and were eating," Luke tells us about the disgraceful strife for precedence among the disciples, each seeking the most honorable seat. Jesus alone gives us the account of Christ's washing the disciples' feet, an act common and necessary in that hot and dusty land, where all wore only sandals over their bare feet, but in their angry struggle for the chief seats no disciple would humble himself to perform a task usually performed by slaves. What they in their pride would not do, the Son of God, the Lord of heaven and earth, condescended to do for them.

The Disciples' Question

"They began to be sorrowful." They were horrified that one of their number should be guilty of such baseness. "And to say unto him one by one, Is it I?" The Greek question is in the form which expects a negative reply: "Surely it cannot be I?" Note that no one of them pointed to Judas, and said, "Is it he?" They had no idea that he was a traitor; but Jesus knew (Matthew); for when, not daring to keep silence, he raised the question which all the others were asking, "It is I, Rabbi?" Our Lord replied sorrowfully, "Thou hast said," a form of affirmation.

"And he said unto them, It is one of the twelve, he that dipperth with me in the dish." There was on the table a dish of sauce made of broths, figs, dates, almonds, and spice into which bits of bread ("sops") were dipped at the passover feast.

"Peter was eager to know the villain's name, and signalled John to ask the Master. The beloved disciple leaned back upon the bosom of Jesus and whispered Peter's question. Our Lord gave him a token by which to mark the traitor: 'He it is to whom I shall give a sop when I have dipped it.' Then Jesus offered Judas a morsel of food dipped in a sort of broth, which the ingrate accepted, thus turning the symbol of friendship into a curse upon his soul. 'That thou doest, do quickly,' said the Master under his breath; and Judas went forth into the night to finish his fell purpose."

Meaning of the Bread

"And as they were eating, he took bread." The Lord's supper was instituted after the passover service had been nearly completed. "Bread is the staff of life." And when he blessed, "and he brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take ye, this is my body," Christ, who all ignorantly forsake Christ, and fled. All—even Peter, even James, even John. Mark was probably the young man who fled naked, leaving his linen cloth in the hands of his would be captors.

June 15 Set For Date Of Lions Club Election

Pampa Lions will have their annual election June 15 and installation of new officers June 29, it was decided at this week's luncheon.

Lion C. E. Hutchins announced that his committee had placed two benches in the city park, bearing the name of the club. Lion C. L. Craig exhibited a club road emblem-sign which will be placed with Kiwanis and Rotary emblems on main highways entering the city.

A report on the Baker school cafeteria assisted by the Lions and other civic clubs by Principal J. A. Meek revealed that 6,580 free meals had been served to 46 children regularly and to 14 part of the time. The children showed gains in weight ranging from 8 to 15 pounds. Many were underweight at the beginning of the term. Many are fatherless or motherless.

A committee composed of Ed Damon, Julian Barrett, Roy Wight, and Roy Bourland was appointed to assemble a Lions war ball team to play the other civic clubs at the formal opening of the municipal pool, June 9, 10.

Guests were Dr. Paul Owens, Clyde Gold, C. E. McGrew, A. N. Dille, and Dan Gibbon.

to them, and said, Take ye; participation in the Lord's supper is optional with Christians, it is command.

Meaning of the Cup

"And he took a cup." No account of the institution of the Lord's supper speaks of "wine," but the "cup." In using fresh, unfermented grape-juice, therefore, "the fruit of the vine" (verse 25), we are using the symbol that best conforms to the original account. Our Lord left no commandment that his memory should be perpetuated by the use of an intoxicant. "He gave to them; and they all drank of it." As he commanded, for he said (Matt. 26:27), "Drink ye all of it."

The minister was not to eat and drink for the people, but each member of the worshipping congregation, through all the future, was to have his share of the spiritual feast. Paul adds the words (1 Cor. 11:25): "This do, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me."

Prophecy of the Denial

"And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended." In "me this night," Matthew adds. They would desert him and flee at his arrest, as came to pass. For it is written: "Christ is quoting Zechariah 13:7, a Messianic prophecy. 'I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered abroad.' Christ had called himself (John 10:11) 'the good shepherd.'"

"Howbeit, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee." After Christ's resurrection, he was at the tomb spoke to the women these very words (Mark 16:7): "But Peter said unto him, Peter, thou shalt go with me, and thou shalt see me in Galilee. Although all shall be offended, yet will not I." He went still farther. "I will lay down my life for thee." (John 13:37) and he declared, "Lord, with thee I am ready to go both to prison and to death" (Luke 22:33). His later life proved that those words were not empty boast, and yet how speedily and completely he proved that in his own strength he was weak as the weakest!

Of Christ's arrest in Gethsemane the three chief evangelists and the shameless kiss of Judas, pointing out his Lord to the soldiers; Peter's silly flourish of his sword cutting off the ear of Malchus, the high priest's servant, which Christ at once miraculously healed; and the desertion of the disciples, who all ignorantly forsake Christ, and fled. All—even Peter, even James, even John. Mark was probably the young man who fled naked, leaving his linen cloth in the hands of his would be captors.

Constitutionality of Horse Race
Betting Law Might Be Contested

AUSTIN, June 2. (AP)—A wide difference of opinion exists on the constitutionality of the "rider" attached to the departmental appropriation bill which would legalize the betting system of wagering on horse races.

Should the rider be tested, the court of criminal appeals probably will have the final decision on the question. It was this court that a few years ago declared illegal the Stevens method of wagering brought to it as a test case from the Arlington Downs race course near Fort Worth.

The main line of attack will be based on the constitutional provision that no bill except appropriation bills, shall contain more than one subject. The question that has arisen is: Can an appropriation bill contain anything except matter that is closely allied with the fiscal affairs of the state?

The rider was attached to the appropriation for the department of agriculture. It provided that a portion of the funds to be derived from the tax on wagers should go to support this department. This provision is regarded as significant by proponents of the bill. They contend this makes the rider an integral part of the appropriation and brings it within the purview of the constitutional limitation restricting bills to one subject.

Coke R. Stevenson, speaker of the house, is among those who do not believe the law will stand up. Had Stevenson not been bound by the rules, some members believe he would have sustained a point of order against the proposal. The rider was attached in free conference committee and the rules do not permit the speaker to entertain points of order on conference reports.

The only thing he can do is to put motions to concur or not concur. Much criticism was heaped on the free conference committee for bringing horse race betting before the house after the house had once defeated the proposal in a straight out vote.

Tuition Fees At Colleges Raised

AUSTIN, June 2. (AP)—A bill to increase the tuition fees at state colleges was finally approved today by the legislature. The senate voted 19 to 8, to adopt a free conference committee report on the proposal. The house previously had accepted the report.

The bill would increase the long term fees from $30 to $50, or $35 a semester. Students from other states would have to pay the same tuition as institutions in their states charge Texans. In event this section should be held unconstitutional, fees for non residents would be $100 a semester.

Summer school fees would be from $20 to $35 to be determined by the college heads. Heretofore they have been $10.

"PAYMENT DEFEND"

DETROIT, June 2. (AP)—"Has the prisoner anything to say before sentence is passed?" intoned the judge in perfunctory routine as the case of Leroy Brown, convicted of armed robbery, drew to a close.

"I have your honor," said Brown. "I want to say that an innocent man has been serving a prison sentence since 1929 for a crime that I committed."

Brown said he committed the robbery for Mich. Marti Murray was sentenced to Michigan state prison for from 15 to 30 years. An investigation was ordered, and Brown's sentence suspended pending its outcome.

The WORLD of STAMPS

By QUINTON JAMES

Something new in stamps is being planned by Italy for use on mail carried on the projected flight of an Italian squadron across the north Atlantic to the Chicago Century of Progress exposition.

It is a long, three-part stamp, said to have been designed by Gen-

Ottawa river, west of International bridge.

Shavings

Ten steps in postal history are depicted on attractive stickers advertising the International Philatelic exposition ("wipa") to be held at Vienna, June 24 to July 9. The first is mail delivery by foot courier; the last, by inter-stellar rocket.

Pardon—that makes nine historic steps and one prophetic. . . . Stamps valued at $8,500,000 are to be shown at the exhibit.

France plans a commemorative in honor of the late President Paul Doumer, assassinated last year. . . . Announcement follows close on the heels of report that, for economic reasons, there would be no new issues until 1937. . . . Officials were criticized recently for not commemorating fourth centenary of birth of Rabelais, writer, creator of Gargantua.

San Marino, tiny republic claiming to be oldest state in Europe, has issued six values—3, 5, 10, 12, 15, 20 lire—for mail carried by the Graf Zeppelin. They show the airship with country's shield as the background.

THE CAPTAIN DEJECTED

NEW YORK (AP)—Capt. George D. Burnside, for 40 years custodian of Grant's tomb, is a bit dejected. Only three trumpeters and 150 other people braved Memorial Day rain to attend exercises at the tomb.

The captain recalled other Memorial Days, with trumpets galore, confusion of crowds, and two-hour services consecrated by as many as a dozen ministers—with even presidents of the United States in attendance.

"The younger people don't take the interest like their parents," he said.

They Dread Body Odor No Longer!

Fear no offensive M.S. either
(MEDICINE SMELL)

New Way Ends Body Odor by Removing Cause, Stale Perspiration Curds, with Deep-Pore Cleansing

THERE are certain people who refuse to believe that a medicine is any good unless it is strong and bitter!

Perhaps you have thought this about remedies for Body Odor—that you could correct it only with a strong and evil-smelling soap. . . .

Now happily the cause of body odor—Stale Perspiration Curds—has been discovered. And research chemists have developed a quick and odorless way to end it instantly.

Stale perspiration contains calcium, salt and particles of fat. The thick and sticky lather of most ordinary toilet soaps is unsuited chemically to mix with this waste material and set it free. Instead, it hardens into clogging curds!

That's why deep-pore cleansing is needed to remove the objectionable curds—and it is a scientific fact that there is only one way to accomplish this. Kirk's Coco Castile, being a 100% pure vegetable oil soap, mixes with the particles of perspiration curds, loosens them, then rinses out completely.

Try Kirk's Coco Castile today. Feel the invigorating effect of its deep-pore cleansing action. Experience the thrill of a clean, odorless body. The cake is half again larger, half again heavier than average toilet soaps—an exceptional bargain. It is made by the largest soap makers in America. Be sure to ask for Kirk's by name.

EUROPE'S PEACE IS AMERICA'S PROBLEM

Sometime in the not-distant future the American people are going to have to make up their minds just how far they care to go in helping to maintain the peace of Europe.

That peace is a very unstable thing. It has been, ever since the war. It was unstable for decades before the war. There is nothing in sight right now to indicate that it is going to be any more stable in the immediate future.

This is because there has not, for many decades, been a situation in Europe which was not deeply displeasing to certain important minorities. Before 1914, France wanted to regain her lost provinces, British patriots dreamed of independence, restless groups in the Hapsburg empire schemed for separation; since the war the central powers, particularly Germany, have felt the Versailles treaty as an irksome restriction which must some day be ended.

Hence every nation must be prepared, ultimately, to appeal to force. As a result, disarmament schemes usually come to grief. Those nations interested in maintaining existing frontiers and treaties will not give up their military predominance unless they are assured that such countries as England and America will join them in preventing the discontented minorities from kicking over the traces.

All of which leads up to the question. How far are we prepared to go in underwriting the status quo overseas?

If we continue to stand aloof the disarmament program must collapse. A new war will become more than likely, and we have no assurance whatever that we shall be any more able to keep out of it than we were able to keep out of the last one.

On the other hand, if we line up firmly for existing treaties we commit ourselves deeply in quarrels that are not of our making and we lend our support to a situation which many of us feel contains great injustices.

It won't be an easy decision. But it is hard to see how we can avoid making it, one way or the other. We are rapidly approaching a great fork in the road, and there is no middle course. Before long we must make one of the most important choices in our history.

To uphold the honor of his department, a zealous police chief in Hutchinson, Kan., fined his own wife $1 for overtime parking. But you can guess who paid it.

Two Men Held In Slaying Of Dallas Dancer

DALLAS, June 2 (AP)—The mysterious death of Jo Betty Sell, attractive 17-year-old night club dancer, was under intensive grand jury investigation here today but findings of the jury probably will not be reported until early next week.

Two men were held in the case. One of them was detained last night for questioning, officers believing he might be able to explain some un-revealed phases of the affair. The other was Louis Rutherford, 24, dancing partner of the Oklahoma City girl, who has been charged with murder in connection with her death.

An analysis of the contents of Miss Sell's stomach showed that her death was not caused by poison. District Attorney Robert L. Hurt was told. An autopsy showed that her death was due to a submucosal hemorrhage by a blow on the left temple. Rutherford, officers said, had expressed the opinion she had taken poison.

Investigators claimed to have found a claw hammer at the night club, with strands of hair between the claws. They said the hammer was wrapped in a blood-stained towel.

Rutherford told investigators he and Miss Sell had quarreled at the night club Tuesday an hour or so before she was injured fatally. She was brought to a Dallas hospital, where she died Tuesday night.

The girl and Rutherford had come together from Oklahoma City several weeks ago to fill an engagement entertainers at a night club in Grand Prairie, a town between Fort Worth and Dallas.

DALLAS, June 1.—John J. Vay was sentenced to 90 days by federal Judge W. H. Atwell for impersonating an army officer and obtaining money falsely by that means. Vay told the court his wife's vanity in presenting him as "captain" proved too much for him and he never denied the rank before unchivalrous.

Mrs. Homer L. DeShazo and baby daughter left Worley hospital yesterday.

TEN MILLIONS—GONE

"YOU see," I went on, "you want too far to make me think Lovschien was the murderer. You hoped he would try to escape rather than face the police, and your plan was to arrive with the police and catch me red-handed, for if Lovschien was ever to escape he must do so through you. You thought you'd thoroughly frightened him. But it didn't work. You see, you heard the conversation in the courtyard between Stravsky and Lovschien."

"Marianne—" The word came rather shrilly from the coat-collar. "Marianne couldn't have told you. The conversation was in English. Marianne cannot understand English."

"Jim," cried Sue wildly. "It's true. Marianne has told me. I saw her. She saw Lorn—Lorn—in the courtyard the night Stravsky was murdered. He told Marianne and he tried to tell you. And he was killed."

It was then that Lorn lost his head. For he wheeled suddenly and began to run.

He was out the door and was running blindly through the court with his head down.

Well—they caught him, of course.

When the detectives arrived from Paris the next morning they made short work of the whole tissue of horribly interwoven threads.

Lorn was the last man I should have expected to confess, but confess he did. It was late the next day before we had the whole story. The wind was still blowing, and the lounge where Sue and Mrs. Byng and I sat was cold. Mrs. Byng was knitting furiously, and Pucel perched on the table beside us and took the liveliest interest in the conversation.

"So," said Mrs. Byng, "the Lovschien was actually in the business after all. The Lovschien and the dead Stravsky and this young fellow who pretended to be your brother, my dear, and this Elise person who's been wandering about like a lost soul all day. Quite a conspiracy!"

"It arose very simply," I said. "Lovschien has confessed to conspiracy. I gather that when your mother, Sue, told them of the money waiting for you it was irresistible. The rest was simple."

"But how in the world," said Sue worriedly, "could they hope to convince a lawyer that Elise was—Sue Tally? The lawyer would be particularly suspicious, owing to Francis's murder."

"Why not? She would have the token. However, the Lovschien did not know that the priest was Francis. They suspected me of being your brother at first; that is why Madame tried to keep me out of jail."

"I've got to know," boomed Mrs. Byng. "How Lorn escaped from the elevator after he had killed Marcel. He says he simply walked through the corridor while I was struggling with the police, dodged into a vacant room to avoid your coming and the others. There was less chance in walking down the winding stairway, sheltered by vines as it is, and crossing the court to the lobby door after Marcel was killed, for everyone was in the lounge. There was no one to see. Yes, chance favored him that time. But he preferred killing stealthily. By poison."

"And when he killed the priest—Francis Tally?"

"He returned again unobserved by way of the winding stairway, and later, when it was over, left the same way."

"But why did Lorn rescue you twice if his aim was eventually to make you the victim?"

"He wasn't ready for a victim yet. And he wanted Sue's confidence. And he knew that the police still would suspect me. I was in danger from him from the moment he knew that I knew of the broken sent. And he had a pretty plan to catch me red-handed. But Lovschien didn't try to escape. And I didn't shoot. And Pucel found Sue's token."

"In that hussy's hair!" Mrs. Byng was knitting with dangerous abandon. "And you knew—"

"I knew Madame Grethe had put something in her hair when she came from Lorn's room. Pucel pulled it out, and it was Sue's hair. I knew it must be Sue's hair, for she herself had her brother's hair. And it had come from Lorn's room."

"Then Lorn was acting entirely alone?"

"Entirely. It was a simple matter of greed. There was that extraordinary story. There were the mil-

"I haven't ten millions," she said. "What did you say?"

"I haven't ten millions. A cable from the lawyer this morning said so. Something happened; I don't know what exactly yet. Anyway, it's gone. The ten millions."

I walked to her. I said: "See here. Why do you take the dagger from Stravsky's chest and replace it on the clock?"

"To protect you," she said steadily, and then looked up.

It is a mistake to say that the happiest moment in your life does not repeat itself, for it does, and even prolongs itself. Sue came up into my arms, and I loved her so much that there was nothing in all the world but my Sue.

She said she'd marry me and go any place with me.

Then she became silent. I lifted her face and asked what was wrong. "I was only thinking," she said, "that there's a million or so left. But it's too late for you to do anything about it now," she added hurriedly.

FRIENDSHIP IS GENUINE

For 20 Years Ferguson and C. C. McDonald Have Been Close Friends.

AUSTIN, June 2. (AP)—There probably never has been a more sincere political friendship than that between C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls and James E. Ferguson, former governor.

They have fought many bitter political battles together and emerged from each probably a little closer than before. That friendship has existed for almost twenty years, dating from McDonald's service as secretary of state during Governor Ferguson's first administration.

There is precedent for two men as closely associated in politics as Ferguson and McDonald have been, to differ and drift apart. Not so in this case.

McDonald has been recommended by the state democratic executive committee to become national committeeman from Texas if and when J. C. Adams of Dallas succeeds that place. Ferguson espoused McDonald's candidacy for the place, even though another staunch friend and supporter, Maury Hughes of Dallas, chairman of the state group, also wanted to be national committeeman.

It was a hard situation for Ferguson, but he decided he would stand by his old friend "if it took the hide off," but the "hide" remained intact.

Representative Sarah Hughes of Dallas, only woman member of the lower house, has developed into a leader there—many think the only leader in the membership. Her aggressiveness for and against bills is said to have attracted the favorable attention of lobbyists who go into a huddle when they want something to see how they might be able to get "Sarah" lined up.

Quanah Farmer Unearths Bones Of a Mastodon

QUANAH, June 2. (AP)—S. G. Bright, farmer living on Groesbeck creek near Quanah recently unearthed bones of what appeared to be a prehistoric animal. They have been examined by Dr. Floyd V. Studer of Amarillo.

The bones of this exhibit belong to gigantic bison that roamed this country perhaps many thousands of years ago and are in a remarkably good state of preservation. Dr. Studer was especially interested in the head of the animal which, partially excavated, had crumbled when exposed to air. The other bones, which appeared to be thigh bones, belonged to a mastodon.

The Bright farm is especially rich in fossil which scientists believe date probably from the Miocene period. Many remains of mastodons, rhinoceroses and horses may be found. Variations in the teeth of eight species of the latter indicate to fossil hunters the probable age of the deposit in which they are found. Besides the fossil, the hills along the creek team with artifacts left by the Indians camping there in ages past. Altogether Dr. Studer states, West Texas is richer in fossil remains than any other section of the United States and this part of the country is still virgin soil to paleontologists.

Rifle Club To Award Insignia Badges Friday

Rating insignia badges for those who qualified last year will be awarded at a general meeting of the Pampa Rifle club Friday night at 8 o'clock in the board room at the Schneider hotel. The course of fire for this year will be set at the meeting.

Members receiving the badge of marksmanship will be S. C. Barrow, Frank Culbertson, Roy H. Pipkin, George B. Kendall, William J. Turpin, and W. Scott Green. Sharpshooter badges will go to Dr. W. Purviance and Alden E. Spees. Expert badges will be given Dr. A. Cole, Frank Smith, and V. F. Hobart.

To secure expert rating requires an aggregate score of 222, or better, over C course which was shot on the local range last year. A score of 212 and 222 earns the sharpshooter badge. The marksman score is between 187 and 212 points.

The C course consists of 10 shots standing, slow fire, at 200 yards, five shots kneeling, five shots sitting and 10 shots prone, all at 300 yards. The target has a bullseye 10 inches across. Other fire in the course is 10 shots in one minute, sitting position, 200 yards and 10 shots prone in one minute and 10 seconds, prone position, at 300 yards, all at the regular army rapid fire target which represents the head and shoulders of a prostrate man.

V. F. Hobart is president of the club and he wants every member and prospective member to attend the meeting.

Norman Will Play For Plamor Dances

After an absence of several weeks, Joe Norman and his orchestra are returning to Pampa for an indefinite engagement at the Pla-Mor.

Joe Norman is popular with Pampa dancers and never fails to draw a crowd while here. Besides playing for the regular Thursday and Saturday night dances at the Pla-Mor, Norman will play for the Little Theater dance tonight.

For the last few weeks, Norman's band has been playing at the Painters' Hall and El Taos in Amarillo.

VAST 'TOWNS' ARE EXTINCT

Twenty-Section 'Dog Town' In Crockett County Wiped Out With Poison Gas.

BRADY, June 2. (AP)—Some of the most interesting "towns" in West Texas, from a tourist viewpoint, are nearing extinction. They are the prairie dog "towns" which literally covered West Texas long before men found a need for the vast empire.

J. B. Lindsey, West Texas representative of the rodent control department of the United States biological survey, is authority for the prediction that this whimsical little range animal will soon be only an echo of the past. Lindsey is in charge of the extensive eradication campaigns waged all over West Texas against every kind of rodent.

Data compiled by the United States biological survey shows that these apparently harmless watchdogs of the range destroy about 50 per cent to 75 per cent of the grass roots within the area covered by their towns. This devastation amounts to alarming proportions in view of the fact that as late as five or six years ago some prairie dog settlements were densely spread over ten, fifteen, and twenty sections.

"The largest prairie dog town to which my crew ever applied the poison and gas siege covered twenty sections in Crockett county," Lindsey stated. He said poisoned grain is the most effective extermination weapon. "We seldom kill less than 90 per cent, and in some instances 100 per cent, of the prairie dog town population with poisoned grain. The few remaining are killed with 'high life' and other gases," he added.

The best time to poison prairie dogs is during the green grass period, the government expert explained.

As result of the concerted extermination work under the direction of government experts, the prairie dog population is rapidly approaching the zero hour. Government surveys show that three years ago approximately 100,000 acres in Crockett county were infested. Today only about 640 acres are covered in "small towns." Pecos county since 1928 has decreased its prairie dog acreage from 150,000 to virtually 30,000 to 50,000 acres. In Reagan county the infestation has been reduced from about 80,000 acres in 1927 to 300 in small colonies today. Upton county has reduced its dog acreage from approximately 170,000 in 1927 to about 40,000 at present. Midland county, heavily plagued some years ago is now virtually dog-less. Only a few scattered towns remain in the other West Texas counties and they are being rapidly eliminated.

TO CHARGE MURDER
SAN JOSE, Cal. June 2. (AP)—Under Sheriff Earle Hamilton, direct investigation of the violent death of Mrs. Allene Thorpe Lamson, Stanford campus Y. W. C. A. secretary, today said he would ask the district attorney to file a murder charge against her widower, David A. Lawson.

Miss Floy Stanard, student in W. T. S. T. C. returned home yesterday to spend the summer holidays.

Ranchmen report that they can run 25 per cent more cattle on ranches where several years ago about half the acreage was in the possession of prairie dogs, Lindsey said.

These apparently harmless watchdogs of the range destroy about 50 per cent to 75 per cent of the grass roots within the area covered by their towns. A factory representative from the Grunow corporation will be at the Texas Furniture company tomorrow from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. demonstrating the new Grunow electric refrigerators. His demonstrations will also include "carrene" which is used as a refrigerant by Grunow.

One of the Grunow units will be mounted on a table and ice will be frozen in the open air within three minutes, according to Guy E. McTaggart, manager of the furniture store. Tests will also be made to show that it is non-inflammable, non-poisonous, and non-corrosive.

"Carrene is not a new product," says McTaggart, "for it has been used for several years by the U. S. government and large companies in cooling and refrigerating plants. Grunow, however, is the only one who has been able to make a domestic refrigerator that can use car-

JAIL BREAKING BABIES
LA PORTE (AP)—A gypsy band, nine adults and four babies, was lodged in jail after vagrancy charges had been filed against them.

As the inner door of the jail slammed shut, the babies started crying. The wails echoed through the jail's galvanized iron walls until a crowd of citizens gathered. The Gypsies were released.

Miss Lyda Taylor was dismissed from Worley hospital this morning.

His engineers experimented for two years before they completed the details of the new refrigerator, although the mechanics of the unit seem very simple now.

Everyone is invited to attend the free demonstration at the furniture store tomorrow.

'CARRENE', NEW REFRIGERANT, TO BE DEMONSTRATED BY STORE

A factory representative from the Grunow corporation will be at the Texas Furniture company tomorrow from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. demonstrating the new Grunow electric refrigerators. His demonstrations will also include "carrene" which is used as a refrigerant by Grunow.

One of the Grunow units will be mounted on a table and ice will be frozen in the open air within three minutes, according to Guy E. McTaggart, manager of the furniture store. Tests will also be made to show that it is non-inflammable, non-poisonous, and non-corrosive.

"Carrene is not a new product," says McTaggart, "for it has been used for several years by the U. S. government and large companies in cooling and refrigerating plants. Grunow, however, is the only one who has been able to make a domestic refrigerator that can use car-

JAIL BREAKING BABIES
LA PORTE (AP)—A gypsy band, nine adults and four babies, was lodged in jail after vagrancy charges had been filed against them.

As the inner door of the jail slammed shut, the babies started crying. The wails echoed through the jail's galvanized iron walls until a crowd of citizens gathered. The Gypsies were released.

Miss Lyda Taylor was dismissed from Worley hospital this morning.

His engineers experimented for two years before they completed the details of the new refrigerator, although the mechanics of the unit seem very simple now.

Everyone is invited to attend the free demonstration at the furniture store tomorrow.

Cuban Dictator Says He Won't Resign Office

HAVANA, Cuba, June 2. (AP)—President Gerardo Machado, whose regime has been assailed here and abroad as one based on terrorism and whose removal has been asked by several Cuban groups, firmly intends to complete the seven-year term to which he was elected.

"During the past eight years," he told representatives of United States newspapers last night in his first interview in months, "I have demonstrated that my position is strong, and that I have the authority to rule."

"A plebiscite held at any time now would show that I have the popular support to hold my position. For me to yield to the first individual who demands it with-

"In spite of opinion to the contrary, I am governing with the laws and constitution, and only lament that several times the appearance has been that I was governing outside the constitution."

His principal aim, he said, is to maintain the independence and sovereignty of Cuba—an objective, he added, in which he has the sympathy and good wishes of the United States.

Three Killed In Mountain Crash

MARCH FIELD, RIVERSIDE, Cal., June 2. (AP)—The good providence which has attended the flying career of Lieut. Charles M. McHenry of Los Angeles, army pilot, pursued him into his first major crash which brought death to three of his comrades.

Fortune not only permitted McHenry to crawl from the wreckage of a service transport on a mountain side in Cajon Pass a few miles east of San Bernardino yesterday with only bruises to show for his narrow escape, but also allowed three other passengers in the ship to emerge from the shell of twisted metal with injuries not expected to prove fatal.

An inquest was scheduled over the bodies of three privates killed when the ship crashed in a fog.

The dead were Addison C. Spencer, Charlerot, Pa.; Charles M. Leabetter, Rosburg, Ore.; and L. D. Romana, Syracuse, N. Y.

The injured were treated at a San Bernardino hospital and then brought to the field hospital. They are Lieuts. E. D. Kennedy, Kansas City, Mo., fractured leg and possible internal injuries; McHenry, and privates Seymour R. Decker, Elmira, N. Y., broken leg and possible internal injuries, and Paul L. Blinks, Alice, Texas, broken arm and possible internal injuries.

Less than two months ago McHenry went over the side of a smaller ship with a parachute when he collided with another plane while flying in formation. He landed uninjured.

Mrs. R. B. Haynes of Miami was dismissed from Worley hospital Wednesday.

A demonstration will also be given all day Saturday at the paint store at 115 West Kingsmill. Home decoration, blended and glazed effects with wall paint, quick drying varnish and enamel and vase dipping will be shown.

Information on picture framing and a showing of the new Crosley electric refrigerator will also be held Saturday.

A RUN ON THE HOUSE
NEW YORK, June 2. (AP)—"Oh, well," said the lurking stranger, as he surveyed the fraternity houses at New York university. "I don't know what Pi Lambda Phi means, but I guess that's as good a house as any."

So he entered it, in what police called a burglary attempt. But the house chose proved a mistake. Inside was George Weinstein, star sprinter, who collared the man after a short—very short—chase.

POTRERO DE LLANO NO. 4, one of the largest oil wells ever brought in, was located between Tampico and Tuxpan, Mexico. It produced a total of 8,000,000 barrels of oil in the first 90 days of its operation. Much of the first flow was wasted, for the oil gushed forth unexpectedly at the enormous rate of 125,000 barrels a day. Twenty-five hundred men worked feverishly to build the walls of the lake reservoir.

Midget Eposode Amuses Morgan

WASHINGTON, June 2. (AP)—An air of joviality between J. P. Morgan and his associates and members of the senate investigating committee prevailed before today's session started as they joked over the incident of a midget being put on Morgan's lap yesterday.

"It was an unfortunate occurrence," Morgan told Chairman Fletcher, "but I don't blame the photographers."

"I don't want to stand in the attitude of knocking men out of their jobs."

"I haven't been used to advertising a circus."

He was laughing and gesticulating.

Members of the banking group told senators it was not their wish to exclude the photographers, and that the decision was up to the committee.

Morgan said he did not care whether they were permitted to enter or not, that he did not want to interfere.

Nevertheless, Fletcher required that cameras be left outside the hearing room for the present.

Senator Adams of Colorado said afterwards photographers were to be given a day off and then readmitted.

I like to give all jellies and jams two coats of paraffine—one as soon as the jelly stops steaming and the second one when the whole thing is cold. This makes a more positive seal.

Cook, stirring to prevent sticking, for about 40 minutes. Add nuts and cook 10 minutes longer. Turn into sterilized jelly glasses and cover with paraffine.
