REPEAL OF DRY LAW FAVORED BY PARTY

BRIEF PLATFORM GETS APPROVAL IN FIERY CHICAGO SESSION

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON

CHICAGO, June 30 (AP) — The Democratic party will go to the country this year with a militant platform, sensational in its flat declaration for repeal of the 18th amendment and conspicuous in a never before attained brevity.

Only the prohibition plank, which carried also a demand for immediate Volstead act modification to legalize beer and other beverages, had received approval—by more than four to one—of the entire convention in the session which ran past midnight, but adoption of the rest today was assured. Contests still were faced on three planks, favoring cash payment of the bonus, bimetallism and protection of depositors in federal reserve banks.

ROOSEVELT PLEASED

In a telegram to James A. Farley, the Roosevelt campaign manager, the New York governor said the country and the party ought to be congratulated on the platform and that he was for the prohibition plank, which he said was substantially the same as one on which he ran for the governorship two years ago.

Report Surprising

The party's extreme wet declaration came to the convention as a majority report through the surprising 35 to 17 vote of the platform committee yesterday afternoon. It swung through the convention 934 3-4 to 213 3-4, against the minority report calling for submission of a repeal amendment to the states, without party recommendation.

Besides prohibition repeal, the platform demands "drastic change in economic and governmental policies," and among other things advocates:

A billion dollar cut in federal expenditures with the states making a "zealous effort to achieve a proportionate result," and a balanced budget.

A "competitive tariff for revenue," and repeal of presidential power to change rates.

Flat opposition to cancellation of the war debts.

Federal aid to states for jobless relief when states exhaust their relief funds and expansion of "necessary and useful" public construction.

HOGS REACH 1932 TOP PRICES TODAY

KANSAS CITY, June 30. (AP)—The highest prices of the year were paid for hogs at the Kansas City stockyards today.

The advance begun a month ago continued today to reach a top of $4.70 a hundred pounds, compared with the previous peak of $4.60 recorded last March. The general tone was 10 to 15 cents higher.

The total advance amounts to $1.75 or a gain of nearly 60 per cent, since a top of $2.95 was recorded about a month ago.

Here's New Way To Check Hubby

CHICAGO, June 30. (AP)—There's a new way, via radio, for the delegate husband to let homestaying wife know he's on the job.

At intervals during the Democratic convention, a peculiar whistle has been heard. A delegate explained that an unidentified neighbor was responsible:

"His wife is listening on the radio, and it's his way of proving he's attending to work and not having a good time down town."

TWO ARE HELD FOR BROWN MURDER

B. L. RICHARDSON AND HUGH WALKER ARE IN JAIL HERE

Two men were in county jail today, charged in Justice of the Peace W. S. Clark's court late Wednesday with the murder of Frank V. ("Leather Hat") Brown, and a third man was being hunted in connection with the slaying. Brown was shot to death the night of May 30 near the T. B. Hilton residence at Woodrow. B. L. ("Barber John") Richardson and Hugh Walker were the two men in jail.

Richardson Identified

Richardson, said Sheriff Hardy had been identified by three witnesses of the shooting as the man carrying a pistol. Walker, who is under indictment for prohibition law violation, was returned early Wednesday afternoon from Lovington, N. M., after his $1,000 bond in the liquor case was ordered forfeited by Judge Homer L. Pharr of 72nd district court.

The third man named in the joint complaint filed in justice court is under bond in connection with a prohibition law violation indictment.

Suffers Two Wounds

At least three of the witnesses have identified Richardson, the sheriff said.

Brown, who resided at 1602 Avenue L, suffered two bullet wounds. Flesh of his right hand between his index finger and the thumb was shot away. There were powder burns on this wound. The death injury was suffered in his chest, a bullet ranging downward through his body and emerging from his back.

Walker and Richardson were two of six persons arrested Wednesday, June 1, and questioned in connection with the slaying. After detailed statements were taken by Burton S. Burks, assistant district attorney, and Vaughn E. Wilson, county attorney, all had been released by June 3. Whereabouts of the group

The bill also provides that loans may be made immediately after issuance of the certificate instead of waiting two years as now provided.

Trial Of Curtis Brings Disclosure That Group Of Men Are Suspected

INTERNAL REVENUE AGENT WHO AIDED IN AL CAPONE'S CONVICTION WORKING ON CASE

(By The Associated Press)

FLEMINGTON, N. J., June 30—A statement was read into the court record today in which John Hughes Curtis said the Lindbergh baby became sick after being kidnaped and was treated by a doctor who was pledged to secrecy under pain of death.

Curtis is on trial for hindering capture of the kidnapers and today an attempt by his attorneys to have a mistrial declared failed.

Group Under Suspicion

Out of the trial has come a disclosure that police have a definite group of men under suspicion as the kidnapers.

The disclosure came from tight-lipped, wary Frank J. Wilson, internal revenue agent, credited with helping to put Al Capone behind bars and who now hunts the baby killers.

Pressed by Lloyd Fisher, Curtis' attorney, Wilson refused on the witness stand yesterday to divulge the identity of a certain man, his object being to shield a trail the authorities are hotly pursuing.

"In Touch With Others"

The "certain man" was not suspected of the crime but was "in touch with others whom we strongly suspect," Wilson explained.

Capt. John J. Lamb of the New Jersey state police read a lengthy statement Curtis made on the second and third days after the baby was found dead.

In this statement Curtis said the baby, who was suffering from a cold when he was stolen became sick shortly afterwards.

A doctor was called in by the kidnapers, he said, and the child was given medical attention. The physician was permitted to leave, Curtis continued, after the baby recovered, but he was warned that if he told

TWO TEXANS, GARNER AND OWSLEY, BEING BOOSTED FOR POST

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 30—A flood of vice-presidential candidates were being put forward today by various delegations, and in many quarters sentiment was crystallizing on Speaker John N. Garner.

The Roosevelt headquarters remained silent but friends of both the New York governor and the veteran Texas legislator are booming Garner.

White Is Mentioned

Governor George White of Ohio, ranked second choice in the talk while Harry Flood Byrd of Virginia seemed to be running third. Melvin C. Traylor of Chicago was next. Any of these would throw added strength to Roosevelt, going far toward attaining the necessary 770 votes for nomination.

Many conferences are being held among friends of the possible candidates and supporters of Roosevelt, with indications that the first big favorite son state to break for the New York governor would receive most consideration in the naming of the running mate.

However, Garner's manager, Representative Sam Rayburn of Texas, maintains the Texan has a good opportunity for the presidential nomination.

Other delegations are booming Governor George H. Dern of Utah, Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, permanent chairman of the convention, Representative John McDuffie of Alabama, Governor Harry H. Woodring of Kansas and Governor Ritchie of Maryland.

Owsley Boosted

Ralph R. Whiton, chairman of the Putnam county, N. Y., delegation, this morning, seeking support for Alvin M. Owsley of Dallas, Texas, as a running mate for Governor Roosevelt.

Owsley, a former national commander of the American Legion, married a sister of Arthur Ball of Muncie, Ind.

"Love And Chance" Scheduled Tonight

The curtain will rise at 8:30 o'clock tonight on a comedy, "Love and Chance," by Marivaux in the Lubbock High school auditorium. The play will be presented by the Cornish players, booked for the second number of the Texas Technological college summer artists course. C. S. Mast has charge of ticket sales.

Appearing in the cast will be: Lorraine Keeton, Grace Vivian Davis, Arthur DeHuff, Vernon Worthingham, Ford Rainey and Edgar Johnson.

GOVERNMENT'S EXPENSE CUT BY MILLIONS

HOOVER'S SIGNATURE IS AFFIXED TO BILL TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 30—President Hoover today signed into law the much debated and battle-scarred national economy bill, estimated to save around $150,000,000 in government expenditures.

In signing the measure, the chief executive said he did so with "limited satisfaction."

Cites Lack of Authority

He added the measure "falls far short of the economies proposed" by the administration. He objected also to the measure's lack of authorization for abolishing and consolidating government bureaus.

The measure, Mr. Hoover said, "imposes unnecessary hardships on government employes in minor matters of little consequence economically."

To Aid Employes

He advanced a promise, however, that every effort would be made to alleviate the difficulties and hardships to federal employes on whom the estimated saving is made.

Highway Group Is To Consider Bids

AUSTIN, June 30. (AP)—The state highway commission today planned to consider bids on state highway construction in 19 Texas counties and to discuss road construction problems with 22 county delegations.

Projects were advertised for letting today in Wheeler, Panola, Houston, Calhoun, Jackson, Matagorda, Washington, Madison, Childress, Tyler, Val Verde, Harrison, Erath, Wood, Caldwell, Gray, Delta, Lamar and Coke counties.

Damage Caused By Rain In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 30.—New drenchings swelled a record month's rainfall today in central and northwestern Oklahoma, with accompanying damage from wind and traffic on some roads was halted by water as the government rain guage at Oklahoma City climbed to 14.06 inches for June, the highest it ever has been in one month. About an inch and a half of rain pounded central Oklahoma overnight.

Protests Develop Over Repeal Plank

ABILENE, June 30. (AP)—Protest over the Democrat prohibition repeal plank is crystalizing in Texas, Thos. B. Love, Dallas, Hoover leader in Texas in 1928, has called a meeting in Dallas next Tuesday of Texas prohibitionists, it was learned in Abilene when invitations were received by prohibition leaders, including Dr. J. D. Sandefer, who said he would attend.

TEXAS FIRMLY STANDING IN WET CAMP

DELEGATION DECLARES FOR REPEAL OF DRY LAW AMENDMENT

BY FRED DYE

CHICAGO, June 30 (AP) —Texas Democracy today was firmly in the ranks of the dripping wets.

It voted itself there last night when the Lone Star State's delegation to the Democratic national convention decided to throw off the yoke of resubmission voted by the Houston state convention and declare for absolute repeal of the Eighteenth amendment.

The final tally was 67 to 61 and the secretary of the delegation, W. H. Kittrell, jr., of Dallas, very carefully surpressed, at least overnight, the official counting of noses. He said the names of the wets and drys were in the hands of Sam Rayburn, the Bonham congressman who is head of the John N. Garner national organization, and could be made public by him only.

Poll Not Asked

Incidentally, the counting, as publicly revealed, was remarkable in that should any thoughtful, or thoughtless, rival of Mr. Garner for the presidential nomination demand a poll of the Texas delegation, the speaker would lose about 14 votes. While Texas has been, and intends to continue, casting its full 46 vots, only 32 votes were represented last night on the basis of a total of 128 delegates and alternates at one-fourth vote each. While 184 delegates and an equal number of alternates were named at Houston, the greatest mustering of strength has been 129.

Caucus Is Unruly

The decision to go dripping wet was made in a most unruly caucus in a tiny committee room illy suited to the containing of about 200 wildly shouting, shrieking Texans. Chairman Rayburn grabbed a coat hanger and beat on a table with it in an effort to call to order, and failing, resorted to flailing the table top with a walking stick.

It was upon the demand of Roy Miller of Corpus Christi, that the Texas delegation recorded itself in support of the majority platform plank. He made a powerful plea that Mr. Garner not be crucified with a vote for resubmission after he had come out for repeal.

East Texas Field Production Is Set

AUSTIN, June 30 (AP)—The Texas railroad commission today fixed the East Texas oil field allowable at 50 barrels daily per well flat until July 15, and provided a maximum output of 325,000 barrels for the area thereafter, until September 1, each well to contribute an equal share to the top production.

Barbeque Planned For Legion Party

A yearling beef will be barbecued for the annual Fourth of July picnic members of Allen Brothers post, No. 148, of the American Legion here, and women of the post's auxiliary will attend at Shannon park.

O. B. Conley, chairman of arrangements, said the legionnaires and auxiliary women would have barbecue instead of relying on weiners for a "meat course." The outing will begin at 6 p. m.

Today Is Deadline For Paying Taxes

Today is the last day to pay county taxes unless they are to become delinquent and draw penalty and interest.

Persons who took advantage of the installment plan of tax payment last year must pay the second and final installment before the tax collector's office closes at 5 o'clock this afternoon or go on the delinquent rolls.

Unpaid taxes will accrue a 10 per cent penalty and 6 per cent interest will be charged.

Everybody's Having Big Time In Chi

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, June 30—(Special)—We're going to have to quit designating our get-togethers at Lubbock as "conventions". Measured by this one that's going on here, they're not conventions—thy're just little group gatherings. Even the West Texas Chamber of Commerce fiasco is a little thing compared to the 20-round bout that's going on here now—and that's no exaggeration.

Imagine, if you can, 22,000 sweating, worried people in one big building.

Imagine, if you can, a great sea of people—not only on the ground floor but in two balconies, either one of which is capable of seating 5,000 souls or better.

That's what this is here—just a mob of badge-wearing customers from everywhere under the shining sun from Florida to Alaska.

Press cameramen are having a big time; they're enjoying themselves to the limit.

Prior to this convention they have had to use dangerous powders for flashlight expos posures. Now they use electric flashes and are permitted to run up and down the aisle and in and out among the delegations — taking pictures as they go.

For the press box it looks like a lot of fireflies are busy among the spectators. Lights are flickering everywhere as cameramen take pictures of this, that and the other visiting fireman from Keokuck, Milwaukee of Kalamazoo.

THE press box—726 men strong—is the only peaceful place in the whole convention. You'd think it would be a madhouse but it isn't because the reporters have to keep working — moving out thousands of words per hour during the sessions.

Among the 726 reporters on the job about 150 have silent typewriters on their desks. The rest of them—like your correspondent—rely on the good old paper and pencil system.

Mr. William Randolph Hearst, most powerful individual in the world, has gone back to his reporting days. He sits about 125 feet from your correspondent and works harder than any $100 a week reporter here. He is writing nothing but front page editorials which are moved out by wire to his 26 newspapers, scattered over the country and most of his editorials are on the liquor question.

Your correspondent has been watching Mr. Hearst more closely than he's been watching the convention and judging from the number of sheets of paper the old gentleman is throwing in the waste-basket he must be pretty much out of practice.

ARTHUR BRISBANE does not sit close to Mr. Hearst. He is at least 50 or 75 feet away from his chief which is probably because neither wants to know what the other is thinking and writing.

ROOSEVELT IS CONCEDED A MAJORITY

CONVENTION MAY END TOMORROW UNLESS DEADLOCK COMES

BY BYRON PRICE
Associated Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO STADIUM, June 30. —Having nailed the banner of prohibition repeal to its masthead, the Democratic convention turned its attention from measures to men today in a session set aside almost entirely for an hours-long succession of nominating speeches. Governor Roosevelt was pressing his advantage against a scattered field of rivals.

Only two platform planks had remained in dispute when the delegates disbanded early this morning, after a tumultuous night session had cheered for beer and a new prohibition deal all around, and wound up by adopting by more than four to one a declaration flatly asking that the Eighteenth amendment be taken out of the constitution.

McAdoo Plank Up

In the session called for noon but slow in starting, the convention first had before it for a brief time a plank by William G. McAdoo, proposing guarantee of deposits in reserve system banks, and a far-flung economic plan by Gov. Murray of Oklahoma, which included immediate payment of the soldier bonus.

Then all that remained was nomination of the ticket. Some convention officials thought a ballot might be reached at a night session but the general belief was it would go over until tomorrow. It was certain that unless a real deadlock developed, the convention would end tomorrow.

Roosevelt Has Majority

The near approach of the supreme test found the Roosevelt generals in firm command of a majority and driving hard to break down the resistance of the numerous blocs of favorite sons.

Roosevelt apparently was hardly more than 100 votes short of the 770 needed to win.

Even his foes, insistent as ever that he would be stopped, admitted he had more than half of this convention's 1,154 votes.

A check, based exclusively on orders given the delegates back home, on caucuses here and on the predictions of their own leaders, showed today the New York governor could make first ballot claim to 645

OPPOSE BONUS

CHICAGO STADIUM, June 30. (AP)—The Democratic convention today recorded itself as opposed to immediate cash payment of the bonus.

The minority plank on banking offered by William G. McAdoo was defeated.

The convention rejected a platform plank calling for bimetallism. All were vive voce votes.

SEVEN KILLED IN CRASH OF TRAINS

HAMILTON, O., June 30 (AP)—Two racing electric cars of the Cincinnati and Lake Erie railroad smashed head-on north of here today killing seven persons and injuring five. One car carried passengers, speeding northward. The other was southbound, heavily loaded with freight.

The freight crunched through the passenger car, burying its nose in the middle of the lighter vehicle.

Five persons were dead when workmen, burning with torches through tangled steel reached them. H. P. Smith, general claim agent of the road, said he could give no cause for the accident.

The dead: Joseph Brosey, Hamilton, motorman of the passenger car; H. P. Augaburger, Trenton, O.; Jack Augsburger, Trenton, O.; Russell Wilson, Hamilton, O.; George Betz, Hamilton, O.; an unidentified man and an unidentified girl.

WILL DRYS NOW SUPPORT HOOVER?

CHICAGO, June 30. (AP)—The Democratic repeal plank, flouting prohibition sentiment, has brought the organized dry forces face to face with a dilemna of major proportions and the leaders conceded today there is no as yet unanimous choice as to the way out.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling of New York, one of the national prohibition board of strategy, condemned the Democratic stand as vigorously as might be expected and made known that the board, war council of 30 dry organizations, would get together today to talk over their future course.

Poling disclosed the diverging opinions. They are:

To throw the organized dry vote to Herbert Hoover and the Republican modification submission program;

To seek an independent dry candidate for president and register as big as possible a protest vote; and

To stay out of the presidential contest and concentrate on electing dry congressmen.

Apparently these views had been taken in expectation that the Democratic convention would take to the neutral repeal submission plank, less desirable to the drys than the

Roosevelt Nominated For Presidency By John Mack

CHICAGO, June 30. (AP)—Nominating Franklin D. Roosevelt for the presidency today, his old friend, John E. Mack, told the Democratic convention the New Yorker filled the "crying need for a practical American with a clear prospective and a knowledge of the entire nation as our chief executive."

One of the most tumultuous outbursts of a vociferous convention came as Mack, the man who persuaded Roosevelt to run for his first public office more than 20 years ago, placed his name before the 1154 delegates.

Mack said Roosevelt "comes to this convention with the greatest number of states behind him in the history of the Democratic party; the north, the east, the south and the west—the great central states of the midwest unite."

He said Roosevelt had captured the "heretofore impregnable enemy stronghold of upstate New York, the territory which in all the history of the Democratic party never gave its gubernatorial candidate a majority."

"Why this sudden change in the votes of upstate New York?" Mack asked. "It was brought about, in the first place because he insisted on knowing his own state first. He knew every public institution and county in the state, every public institution and county in the state knew him. It was a repetition of his record as assistant secretary of the navy when, because of his characteristic thoroughness, he knew every port of this country and every port, likewise knew him."

A marked characteristic of the man he advocated for the presiden-

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

SOME young men and women in their teens, having finished high school, and unable to find work anywhere, are much discouraged. A few of them may lose heart and fail to make the most of their opportunities when better days appear.

Greater hazards face those young folk who have come to find idleness rather satisfying; and some do. Many young men and women whose parents have the wherewithal have never learned the alphabet of self-denial. They are given money to spend generously; and life for them is a "grand sweet song". Some youth also are enjoying luxury at great sacrifice to their parents or other friends. The ill effect to the character of these youths is most serious.

Wise parents do well to take their children into their confidence about financial matters. When children know about the limitations of the family purse and are made to feel themselves worthy and responsible members of their family, they are likely to be eager to adjust themselves. They even may find satisfactions at sharing in self-denials together with their parents. In doing so they get wholesome moral training, and the family bonds are knit more closely. When every member of the family bears his due portion of self-sacrifice, family unity and comradeship are inevitable.

Parents who have unemployed children at home owe it to these children to teach them in self-denials, even when such procedure is not immediately demanded by the family purse. Well-to-do parents have a peculiar opportunity to lead their children gradually to acquire simpler modes of living and to cut down on expensive pleasures.

If such parents are thinking of character building in their children, they might induce these children each to pick out a "little brother" or "little sister", turning to that less fortunate child some money which they otherwise would have spent on self-pleasures.

Any young man or woman out of work who, in consequence thereof, does not feel some hardship or endure some deprivations which employment would obviously relieve him of, is suffering great loss to character and future usefulness.

To serious young man and women unemployed, let me urge that you work out a program for yourself, in which you impose some self-denials. Also include in this program a definite time each day for self-improvement, a time in which you are going to cultivate some useful skills and acquire some useful knowledge. You are going to map out a reading program and hold yourself rigidly to it.

You, furthermore, are going to ask yourself what you ought to contribute by way of helping in the home. You don't wish to be a parasite. You want to do your share. Perhaps your mother up to now could never in good conscience take time off to read, relax or find social enjoyment. You have an opportunity to do some of her household chores and to lift some of her burdens.

You are going to keep alive your sense of duty to yourself. You are therefore going to cultivate good habits of industry, giving them some exercise each day just for your own future good.

Nuptial music was played by Miss Margaret Haisell, Lubbock violinist, with Miss Jeanette Ramsey accompanying at the piano. They played Kreisler's "The Old Refrain," Cadman's "At Dawning" and "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell, in addition to the wedding processionals.

The bride, who was gowned in white satin, came in with her father who gave her in marriage. Her wedding veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of rosebuds and valley lilies.

Sister Is Attendant

Her sister, Miss Josephine Adams, was maid of honor and Mrs. Kenneth Kimbro of Dallas was matron of honor. Miss Elizabeth Ann Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Price of Lubbock, was junior bridesmaid.

Mrs. Kimbro and Miss Adams wore Hattie Carnegie models of shell pink lace. Their small hats were of pink maline and they carried bouquets of briarcliff rosebuds. Miss Price wore an off-the-shoulder dress of pink silk net with a hair-braid hat. Her bouquet was also of briarcliff rosebuds.

Mary Ann Wilson and Mary Ann Schmidt, flower girls, wore Martha Washington frocks of pale green organdie. John Frye, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Frye of Lubbock, was ring bearer. He wore a white satin suit.

Theodore Corcanges of Fort Worth attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Ralph Kindel of Weatherford, John Vance of Berkeley, Calif., Claude Denham of Lubbock and Sug Robertson of Slaton.

The bride is a native of the South Plains section where her family is widely known. She attended Slaton high school, graduated from Texas Woman's college at Fort Worth, studied at the American Academy of Dramatic art in New York and returned to Fort Worth to teach dramatics in T. W. C. last year.

Mr. Corcanges attended Washington and Lee and the University of West Virginia. He is a department manager at The Fair in Fort Worth and will return with his bride to reside in that city after July 15. Hesey.

SCORES OF DEMOCRATIC WOMEN RIDE WET TIDE AT NATIONAL CONVENTION

CHICAGO, June 30. (AP)—Scores on scores of Democratic women were crediting their sex today with jubilantly riding—even spurring—the donkey to its new radical wet stand.

That's how much they revelled in the tidal wave which inundated the convention last night.

They said so with votes and they shouted it into microphones to increase the drama of the roll call. Two gave soprano obligatos to the wet chorus from the platform.

Standard Destroyed

True, women snatched the Arkansas placard and tore it to bits to prevent its being swept into the wet parade. There must have been others who felt the same way about it. But the only word of disapproval heard came from Mrs. Edith O'Keefe Susong of Tennessee.

When it was all over Miss Emily Woodward of Georgia predicted "the women of my state will accept the party dictum this time."

Elizabeth Marbury, who calls herself the "grandmother of Democracy" in New York, beamed as she asserted, "I've been working for this since 1920.

"I always said, then, the prohibitionists were entitled to a fair trial. Well, they've had it—and the few fanatics left have been overwhelmed. At least a million women who never voted with Democracy are for us now."

In the debate a feminine voice came from through the microphones.

"Just think—a woman voting for repeal!"

Mrs. Jean Whittemore of Porto Rico, a little brunette with a big contralto voice, was repeating the remark which greeted her vote for the wet plank in the resolutions committee on which she served.

Moderationists came to the platform—but no woman among them.

In the final showdown of the roll call Illinois' announcement reverberated through the coliseum in a deep, emotion-charged contralto: "Illinois enthusiastically and emphatically votes 58 'no'."

Mrs. Elizabeth Conkey, committeewoman and delegate, was polling the "no" vote as against the mild repeal submission plank.

PATRICK THE MONKEY SEEMS CONTENT IN TEMPORARY HOME AT PRIVATE ZOO

In Play Tonight

John O'Shaughnessy, above, is one of the lead characters in the play, "Love And Chance" which will be presente dtonight at the high school auditorium by the Cornish Players. The play, a pleasing comedy, is the second number of the summer artists course of Texas Tech. Prof C. S. Mast, who has charge of the ticket sales, reports only a few seats left. The curtain is scheduled to rise at 8:30.

Patrick the Monkey, recently the object of a neighborhood dispute that led City commission to have two hearings to determine what should be done with him, seems content in his new and temporary home at the private zoo of J. A. Dean in the 1800-block of Nineteenth street.

Patrick has lots of company, including another monkey and a lot of animals he had never seen, heard or dreamed of. Sometimes he sits outside in the sun, taking an airing and enjoying the sights. Most of the time he is behind the bars, a new experience for Pat and one which he apparently does not like.

The new quarters are nice and clean, if not large. He has a stand on which he can perch and just across the hall is a cousin he may talk to—if they speak the same language.

"He is being left here for a while until they decide what to do with him," Mr. Dean explained. "Pat is nice. He is all right and is not much bother."

There are lots of visitors at the zoo, many of whom come just to see the simian. He seems to like company, although he does not perform much for the crowds. Pat wears a collar and chain and goes around only with the chain in the hands of his keeper.

Adjoining the cell of Pat is a place for snakes where five different kinds are kept. They include a bull snake, coach whip, hog nose or ground rattler and road runner. Mr. Dean has a rattler but he does not keep it with the others for it is inclined to fight too much.

The bird life includes ring neck pheasants, a turbits pigeon, pheasants, horned owls, an eagle and some game chickens.

Among the rabbits are: chinchilla, black and white giant and checkered giant.

One of the few porcupines in this section is found here. There is a baby porcupine, born and bred in captivity and one of the few that was born in a small zoo. The youngster seems thriving.

Children and adults are attracted by six baby skunks and a mother. The youngsters were all born in captivity and have been operated on and the sac containing the odor fluid removed. "Dr. Hodges says the young ones will never be bothered with it any more," Mr. Dean said. "He operated on them. He also removed the sac of the mother. I was surprised, she did not once attempt to throw fluid at him."

There is also a family of coons, bred in captivity, four little ones and the mother.

A wolf, a badger and a gray fox are among the animals kept in small cages. There is also a rabbit hawk.

Off in one corner of the zoo is a place for water life. Here are some toads, crawfish and salamanders or water dogs.

CITY FOUNDER PAID TRIBUTE

RITES FOR WHEELOCK READ WEDNESDAY; BURIAL IS HERE

Last tribute was paid Frank E. Wheelock, one of the four founders of Lubbock, who died unexpectedly late Tuesday, at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the First Methodist Episcopal church.

Elder Liff Sanders of the Quanah Church of Christ officiated. Rev. J. O. Haymes, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church here, assisted him. Burial was in Lubbock cemetery, for which Mr. Wheelock had labored as president and business manager of the cemetery association.

Survivors of the pioneer, who came to this section 45 years ago from Moline, Ill., are the widow, the former Miss Sylva Hunt whom he married Dec. 9, 1891, here, and seven sons and daughters.

Sanders funeral home directed arrangements.

Virtually all offices in Lubbock county courthouse were closed during the funeral hour. The courthouse is located on one of two entire blocks of land donated to the public by Mr. Wheelock when the town was laid out.

BRONXVILLE, N. Y.—Residents here are agog over an alligator hunt. Small boys found two small ones, now policemen comb the underbrush with nets, flashlights and generous pieces of liver. Experts figure some one must have brought them from Florida and turned them loose when they refused to become nice pets.

HOLLIS THURSTON WINS FOR DODGERS

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Somebody's home run record is in danger of being eclipsed. We see by the papers that one Jimmie Foxx, who plays first base and hits fifth in the batting order for the Philadelphia Athletics, has whammed out 29 home runs since April 12, not including games of June 30.

A fellow by the name of George Herman Ruth holds the present home run record. It was established in 1927 when he hit 60 times for four bases. On June 25 of this year Jimmie Foxx, of the double-X Foxxes, rung the bell for his 29th homer of the season. On June 25 of 1927, when he set a new record, he had clouted 24 home runs. Yesterday Mr. Ruppert's boy friend had hit his 22nd home run of the current season.

Another interesting point to note in connection with Mr. Foxx's numerous home runs this season is that three of them have come against the efforts of Lefty Gomez, whom is being heralded as the Lefty Grove of 1932 and who barely failed to hang up his twelfth straight victory yesterday. Gomez is the only American league pitcher off whom Foxx has hit three home runs. Bridges of Detroit has watched two of his offerings go over the wall as a result of Jimmie's slambanging nonchalance. The other 25 homers were taken off 25 pitchers.

It is unusual, at that, for the Babe to be trailing the leading home run clouter. But this time he isn't even in control of second place. Chuck Klein, right fielder for the Phillies, has also hit 22 homers this season.

Lubbock baseball players, some of them are in such demand along about this time of season when various towns round about throw their invitation tournaments. Just when we were getting ready to whoop it up about the great prospects of the Hubber club since the return of Messrs. Marshall, Hambright, Dirty Waller and Ray Waller, strong men of the 1931 club, it pops up that their services have been solicited by teams ambitious of winning tournament titles and cash.

These afore mentioned lads, together with some others of local abode, have been "signed by the Wolfforth club to play in the Morton tournament which begins Saturday. We had hopes that they would stay at home and start the Hubber machine rolling anew in the Fourth of July series against Tahoka here Sunday and Monday. As it is, Manager Fox will pit his youngsters against Skip Taylor's outfit with the advice to go after revenge. It's only fair, after all, that the boys who lost to Tahoka last Sunday should have a chance to get even next week.

Invitations will be mailed out soon to managers of various ball clubs over this and other sections in connection with getting the first Avalanche-Journal and Lubbock baseball tournament organized. All amateur and semi-pro teams everywhere will be eligible, and it is hoped that the tournament will be one of the bigger things in Lubbock this season. This city stayed abreast of the times last year with numerous conventions, the biggest coaching school in the country, a couple of track meets, etc., etc. In order to keep the distinction of being a meeting place for politicians and athletes, active men have arranged for the baseball tournament. If it's successful it will become an annual affair. In time it should be able to compete with the Amarillo News-Globe tournament for attendance and quality honors.

Fred Rich's Wolfforth baseball tournament will precede the Lubbock joust. Limited to ten teams, the Wolfforth affair will be worth about $125 to the winning club. Second and third prizes will also be awarded and a free barbecue thrown in. The tournament starts on July 16.

DRAWINGS FOR PLACES WILL BE AT TECH

MATCHES OPEN TO ALL LUBBOCK AMATEURS; NO ENTRANCE FEE

The Lubbock all-city tennis tournament, which probably will become an annual affair, gets under way this afternoon following drawings for first round matches at the Texas Tech gymnasium. Most of the matches will be played on the Texas Tech courts.

Open to all Lubbock amateurs, men and women, boys and girls, who may play without paying a cent for entrance fees or other expenses, the tournament promises to be one of the largest in several seasons, according to manifestations of interest as reported by Renford Taylor, general manager of the affair.

Numerous phone calls to Taylor's residence from local netters indicate that the starting field will consist of more than fifty players. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the tournament entries were to meet at the Tech gymnasium for drawings for first round matches. If the field is large enough to warrant an early start, the tournament will get under way immediately after the drawing. It will continue through Friday and Saturday.

No Prizes Offered

No prizes are to be given in the all-city tournament. Winners will be recognized as city champions in their various departments.

The city tournament precedes a larger affair to be known at the Lubbock Invitation tournament. The latter probably will begin early in August. All amateur players of the South Plains and from other localities will be eligible. A small entrance fee will be charged and trophies will be awarded the winners.

As an added attraction for local golfers, a mixed doubles tournament will be included in the city championships. Several players have inquired as to this department and Manager Taylor announced late yesterday that championships would be declared in the mixed doubles event.

AMERICAN NET CHAMPS WIN

ELLSWORTH VINES AND HELEN WILLS MOODY IN SPOTLIGHT

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 30.—(AP)—America's tennis champions, Mrs. Helen Wills Moody and Ellsworth Vines, jr., jointly occupied the spotlight today in the all-England tennis champions.

Playing as individuals, they first were scheduled to attempt to gain the finals of women's and men's singles, then they were to team together in an important match of mixed doubles.

Mrs. Moody's semi-final opponent was Mary Heeley, the unseeded English girl who has supplied one of the surprises of the tournament by reaching the last four in women's singles. The American star was an overwhelming favorite to win today and meet her long-time rival, Helen Jacobs, in an all-American final.

Vines, was matched with Jack Crawford, Australian Davis cup star, in the semi-finals of men's singles and was a slight favorite. The day's other semi-final brought together H. W. (Bunny) Austin, England's top ranking star, and Jiro Satoh of Japan.

TWO DENIED BOND IN SLAYING CASE

VICTORIA, June 30 (AP) — Two of six men charged with murder for the slaying of Domingo Cisneros on the advice of a fortune teller were held without bond today to await grand jury action.

They were Manuel Eguia and Alfredo Flores, each 35, father and uncle of 16-year old Henry Eguia, to whom officers attributed the actual shooting. They were given preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace T. P. Lenoir. The youth, who surrendered immediately after the killing, was released on $2,000 bond.

Sheriff's officers and Texas rangers endeavored to find the woman fortune teller blamed for instigating the killing. She assertedly said that epileptic attacks to which Henry Eguia was subject were caused by Cisneros and could be ended only by his death.

Cisneros, 23, was a nursery tenant farmer.

Ninety thousand "saw-flies" have been sent from England to battle a Western Canada wheat pest.

Youths Get Credit For Pirate Climb

PITTSBURGH, June 30. —(AP)— George Gibson, skipper of the Pirate brig, attributes the sensational climb of the Bucs from the cellar to the roof of the National league to the scintillating play of two "kid" infielders and a young catcher.

Gibson, whose charges have copped 21 out of their last 30 contests, heaped praise on Floyd Vaughan, shortstop, Tony Piet, second baseman, and Earl Grace, backstop.

Lindbergh Kidnap Suspect Is Sought

YUMA, Ariz., June 30. —(AP)—A posse of 15 Mexican police were searching today for a man who fled San Luis, Sonora, Mexico, under gunfire and who, police said, answered the description of the Lindbergh baby kidnaper who received $50,000 in a Bronx, N. Y., cemetery from John F. Condon, intermediary.

Frank Dominguez, resident of the Mexican City, fired several shots at the fleeing suspect, reports received here said.

The entire countryside was reported aroused by the hunt. The mysterious stranger had been in the vicinity of San Luis since June 24 and had made inquiries about crossing the Colorado, asking if the ferry was guarded by Mexican officers.

EIGHT HOPEFUL BALL CLUBS START ON SECOND HALF

(By The Associated Press)

Eight hopeful ball clubs started the second half of the Texas league season yesterday and every game played was won or lost in the final inning.

In three cases the winning run came in the victors' last time at bat. In the other, Outfielder Russell Scarritt of Fort Worth choked off a Dallas rally by throwing out Rip Radcliff at the plate as Rip came in from second on a single with what would have been the tying run. The score was 7-6 for the Panthers.

Beaumont, first half champions, beat the Houston Buffs, runners-up, 4-2, with a three-run rally in the ninth. Schoolboy Rowe held Houston to four hits.

Tyler beat Longview, 2-1, in ten innings. Each team scored in the fifth and that was all the scoring until the visitors' half of the tenth.

San Antonio beat Galveston 3-2 in the ninth as the battery of House and Mealey worked the venerable squeeze play for the winning run.

WESTERN GOLF MEET OPENS

FIELD FULL OF DARK HORSES TEES OFF AT CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, June 30. (AP)—A field full of dark horses and a herd of par shooters teed off this morning in search of the Western Golf association open championship at the Canterbury course.

Even before the first twosome had left No. 1, there was plenty of conjecture among players and gallery as to the ultimate winner. From the field of 130 one could select no less than 15 potential victors without stretching the imagination.

Light Horse Harry Cooper established himself a prime favorite yesterday afternoon when he toured Canterbury's wind-swept hills in 68 strokes, four under par. Then there's Walter Hagen, four times winner of the event and tied for second a like number of times. Jose Jurado, from Argentine, has his followers.

GRETA GARBO IS NOT AMONG LIST TO BE FEATURED

NEW YORK, June 30. (AP)—Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer last night announced the roster of 18 motion picture stars it will feature in 1932-33 production —and Greta Garbo was not among them.

The Swedish actress who at times has been reported anxious to return to her native country to live was not even mentioned in the announcement of the film company's future plans.

At the M.G.M. offices here, however, an official said:

"The only reason Greta Garbo is not on the list is that her contract is still in the process of negotiation. Her option expired in May and as yet we do not know whether she will sign a new contract or not."

He expressed the belief that negotiations were being delayed by a disagreement over Miss Garbo's demand for a higher salary.

LEFTY GOMEZ KNOCKED FROM BOX BUT YANKS DEFEAT SENATORS

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Max Carey, manager of Brooklyn, did his best bit of master minding of the season when he decided a month ago to give Hollis Thurston a break.

Up to then, Thurston had been doing relief pitching. May 28, Carey sent the 32-year-old righthander against the Giants. Thurston went the route and won, 6to 4. Since then, Thurston has gone to the hill five times and yesterday he marked up his sixth straight victory. Yesterday's 7 to 0 win over the Phillies was Thurston's second straight shutout. Hack Wilson's 18th home run with two on featured the Brooklyn assault.

Although they rallied to score four runs in the last of the ninth, Cincinnati dropped another one-run decision to St. Louis, 10 to 9. Charlie Gilbert hit into a double play with the tying run on base.

Lefty Gomez, seeking his 12th straight victory, was knocked from the hill in the eighth, but the high-flying Yankees defeated Washington, 6 to 5, and maintained their long lead in the American league. George Pipgras relieved Gomez and received credit for the win.

Detroit tightened its hold on second place by thumping Cleveland, 13 to 4, behind Earl Whitehill's tight pitching.

Irving Hadley allowed only four hits in pitching St. Louis to a 6 to 1 win over Chicago. Lyn Storti hit a home run for the winners.

ATHLETES FACING COMEBACK TRAIL

LONG BEACH, Calif., June 30.—(AP)—The long, weary comeback trail confronts several of the nation's former greats of track and field as athletes of the west compete in the semi-final olympic tryouts here tomorrow and Saturday.

Chief interest will center on Claude Bracey, former Rice (Houston, Tex.) institute sprinter who was a member of the 1928 United States team, and Vic Williams, University of Southern California quarter miler who ran 47.4 in defeating Ben Eastman of Stanford last year.

Bracey, who is only 23, believes he is in better form than he was in 1928, but with the advance of speed since that date he will need to be faster.

Williams, national A.A.U. and intercollegiate champion of 1931 is running his first serious race since operations for appendicitis and tonsilitis sent him to the hospital for a long sojourn last winter.

KRESS TO PUT UP BUILDING

CONTRACT TO BE LET IN JULY FOR STORE STRUCTURE HERE

Lubbock contractors have been informed that a contract for erection of a two-story building costing about $50,000 for the S. H. Kress company at 1107-09 Broadway here will be let in New York City, July 13. Work on the building, which will house the company's 5-10-15-and-25-cent store, will start soon afterward and is expected to be completed by next January 1.

Plans and specifications for the structure have been received by several local contractors who will compile bids.

To Be Latest Design

The 50 by 115-foot structure is to be one of the most modern buildings in Lubbock, the plans and specifications reveal. It is to be of high grade face brick with terra cotta finish. Modern type of architecture makes up the building plan.

A full length glass front, protected by an eleven-foot marquee will run the length of the building on Broadway. Deep terra cotta finished windows grace the front second floor plan.

Fixtures Are Complete

Complete plumbing, heating, ventilating and lighting units are included in the building plan. Elevators, dumbwaiters, and inside and out time system and numerous other features are also in the plan. The building will have a full-length 13-foot basement.

The plans and specifications also call for extensive interior decorations including ornamental walls and ceilings.

The company is specifying local labor as far as possible on the building, information to contractors said. Union labor is preferred.

The present building on the site is to be torn down and only such material as is specified under special permission will be used in the new structure, it was said.

The company obtained a fifty-year lease on the building formerly occupied by Minter-Gamel company early this year. Mrs. K. Carter is owner of the building.

Airplane Is Seized For Rum Smuggling

SAN ANTONIO, June 30. (AP)—A $5,000 airplane was seized here Tuesday for alleged transportation of large quantities of liquor from the Mexican border to San Antonio, the customs service reported.

This makes the third plane seized since the aerial patrol was started against smugglers of liquor by airplane. One was seized at San Angelo and another later in the south section of McMullen county, both said to have had liquor cargoes on board.

Phil Fairless, alleged pilot of the plane, was arraigned before United State Commissioner Goodrich at Brownsville Tuesday, the customs service here was advised.

LITTLEFIELD TAX RATE CUT LOOMS

LITTLEFIELD, June 30—(Special)—A reduction in Littlefield's 1932 tax rate of at least 25 cents on $100 valuation, or from the present rate of $1.50 to not less than $1.25, has been forecast by Mayor T. S. Sales and Homer Hall and Pat Boone, commissioners.

The board of equalization is expected to make a report soon. On this report the tax rate will be based.

Bonded indebtedness, including warrants, amounts to $300,000. The rate will be high enough to meet the sinking fund requirements and to build up a reserve.

Revenues from the city water and sewer plants the past year was sufficient to meet current operating expenses of the city and also to pay off past indebtedness of $2,900, the officers said.

The city water rates are $2 minimum for 3,000 gallons and 15 cents per thousand additional. In May the plant pumped 3,653,740 gallons of water.

HIGH SPEED MAIL

WASHINGTON.—E. V. Moore, of the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce, has proposed to the House Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads a super-speed air mail service. His plan is to establish a new first class air mail system, raising first class postage rates 25 per cent. This increase in rates would aid in developing an air mail system which would assure 36 hour delivery between any post offices in the country.

STALE GAS IS FEEBLE—fresh GAS PACKS POWER

LEAVE an uncorked bottle of gasoline around your house and what happens? It evaporates—the light ends—the "easy starting" elements—go slowly off into thin air.

But more than evaporation takes place as gas gets stale. A chemical change occurs. That's why the older gas gets, the weaker it gets. That's why gas can get so stale—so "powerless"—it won't even kick over a motor!

And as gas gets staler, it gets stickier, too—is more apt to clog valves. And it decreases in anti-knock value—is more apt to knock and thump.

The whole petroleum industry has long known these facts. Gulf has worked on the problem—and has now perfected a system that assures the motorist of getting FRESH gasoline. Here's how...

Gulf makes the best gas that can be produced—and so refines that gas as to take out the very elements which cause rapid deterioration. Hence, Gulf gas stays FRESH longer.

Next, Gulf has organized its distribution system to rush that FRESH-MADE gas to you in a hurry.

It handles gas as though it were perishable food. The huge Gulf refineries have been carefully placed in many sections of the country, so that it is easily possible to rush FRESH gasoline to every one of the 45,000 Gulf filling stations. A vast fleet of tank trucks speeds FRESH gas to Gulf stations every day in the year.

When you buy gas you're really buying power. Stale gas can't give you all the power you pay for. Get FRESH gasoline. FRESH-MADE—delivered FRESH. Get Gulf. Use nothing else. Your motor will have more power. It will be cleaner and quieter.

Thought For Today

And that he would shew the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.—Job 11:6.

I HAVE lived to know that the secret of happiness is never to allow your energies to stagnate.—Adam Clarke.

Meaning Of March

The senate may have killed the bonus bill, but the war veterans who descended, ragged and penniless, on Washington seem determined to stay there. Organizing themselves into what looks very much like a permanent body, they have presented the nation with one of the very oddest problems it has ever faced.

That they have no business in Washington is too obvious to need saying. That the senate did well to reject the bonus bill is equally obvious. But the strange significance of the bonus expedition as a whole remains, nevertheless, something that deserves attention.

These chaps are misguided, foolish, grasping—well, of course. But some current is stirring in the depths of American life, and it picked them up, like so many pieces of flotsam, from quiet eddies and backwaters thousands of miles away, and deposited them on the doorstep of the capital; and it would be worth our while to study that current thoroughly.

In ordinary times these men weren't bums. They were, for the most part, respected wage-earners, family men, staying home and plugging away at jobs like the rest of us. Now they are floaters, men who live on the charity of others while they wait for a handout from the government. What caused the transformation?

What, in other words, made these men feel that they had a right to bum their way across the continent and camp out at Washington? What made them sure that it would be nothing less than justice for the federal government to give them several hundred dollars apiece?

Deep down there is working a very real discontent; a feeling that America has somehow failed to deal justly with millions of people who have been good citizens; a subconscious but potent notion that it is high time for a new deal of some kind or other.

Well, What Are YOU Laughing At?

Al Smith, Still A Happy Warrior, Is One-Man Show At Democratic Circus; Always Antithesis Of Pussyfooter

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

CHICAGO, June 30.—Al Smith of New York—

Roaring, victorious, irresistible lion?

Sacrificial lamb?

Dog in the manger?

Those are the respective attitudes of Al and his friends, of the favorite sons who owe their small chances to Al's candidacy and of the followers of Governor Franklin Roosevelt who would have sewed up the convention weeks ago had Smith not stepped out in opposition.

Dutcher

Take any viewpoint you like—and still Al Smith is the big show at this colorful national Democratic convention. The convention began when Al reached Chicago and it isn't over until he has said his last word.

Still a Happy Warrior, in the face of odds. Still the antithesis of a pussyfooter, sitting gaily and confidently before 75 of 100 newspapermen, snapping off fast answers to their fire of questions. Bringing laugh after laugh in which his broad grin joins every time.

Perfectly self-assured but not belligerent, he sits behind a table at the end of a ballroom, legs crossed and puffing away at a cigar. His unbuttoned vest is held together only by a watchchain. His necktie, a stickpin in it, floats outside despite a general immaculateness. Red-faced and slightly grayer than four years ago, he is a handsomer man than the caricatures would have you believe.

Enjoying the Show

AL, whether or not he believes he can stampede the convention, seems to be enjoying this show more than anybody. He entered the picture in a manner which indicated full awareness that everything prior to his entry had been a mere warm-up. A couple of hundred newspapermen testified to the same opinion when they piled in on his first press conference. Subsequently they demanded two conferences a day, although Al gave them only one.

Next day there were meetings of the resolutions and credentials committees in progress simultaneously, but all the star reporters here were assigned to Al's conference.

His famous wisecracks seem to come more swiftly and effectively than ever. Each time he grins as if to say: "How do ya like that one? Ask me another?"

He answers, usually, directly and with force as well as wit. Answers almost anuything, in fact, except as to promising to support the nominee of the convention.

What about stopping Roosevelt? "I'm out to beat the 'stop Smith' campaign that began a year and a half ago!"

Seen Jim Farley, Roosevelt's manager? "Yeah, going up in the elevator."

Seen the Roosevelt map of Roosevelt strength? "Yeah, what do they represent—acres or people? I see they've got Minnesota colored for Roosevelt. There's a contest up there. There ought to be a stop-light on that!"

And occasionally a sharp, incisive "No!" or "Yes!" which somehow seems to imply far more than the mere word. That East Side accent of Al's often lends itself to infinite tonal sarcasm or even to fervent sincerity.

Contrast With Hoover

ANYWAY, he has been God's gift to correspondents since that dispiriting Republican convention and you automatically contrast him to Herbert Hoover with reference to the president's press conference manner.

Hoover is quiet, dignified and heavy. His humor, always far from spontaneous, is labored and hardly even keen. He appears uneasy of tener than he seems self-assured and he is more petulant than forceful.

Half the time Hoover calls off the press conference altogether. When he does have them the questions must be submitted beforehand and he answers whatever he chooses, discarding the rest. He issues some prepared paragraphs for quotation and says other things, seldom exciting, which must not be attributed to him. You can't fire questions at him. He sometimes beams, but he never seems to have any fun.

The contrast partly explains why most newspapermen are so much fonder of Al—why they made so much of him after he came. Al is copy. He is warm and human.

Whether he would have made a better president is something else again and no concern of a mere writer of feature stories.

Which means that we can now turn to another contrast and take a look at another presidential candidate, Governor Alfalfa Bill Murray of Oklahoma.

Better Than Pictures

BILL is a most extraordinary person. Not even any of the professional freaks who always infest convention is more picturesque than he. You can't appreciate him from his pictures—that great nose, the walrus dirt gray mustache, the long hair bristling behind, the penetrating eyes, the great fang-like teeth, the brown muffler around his neck and the old brown hat.

Murray reminds you somewhat of Smith—he talks so directly, answers so quickly and often pointedly, so fearlessly, though often so gruffly. His language is somewhat cruder than Smith's; he talks longer and more loudly. But he, too, is a master of wisecracks.

He was in bad humor on his first day here. I saw him act brusquely and almost insultingly to a group of successive callers, including some newspapermen—and Bill a presidential candidate! Then he did a much more than risque trick joke with a pen and a piece of paper and proceeded to become amiable. He grinned boyishly and joked incessantly, but insisted he was going to demand platform planks calling for farm mortgage moratorium and guarantee of cost of production to producers. His answers were bitten off with all the snap of Smith.

"We want no prohibition plank for fanatics or hoodlums," he said. "The 'League of Nations' will make more wars than it'll ever prevent. Right now we're likely to get into war any time because of too close financial relations. . . . I wouldn't permit the loan of money to any foreign government, especially for armament. . . . I'm opposed to any co-operation with Europe except the old system of peace and commerce. . . The resolutions committee is taking the thing under advisement and that means to take a drink.

"The nomination? I'm not so sure I want the damn thing. The whole works may blow up before next March. If I could get into the White House before the bust comes I'd like to do it.

"Our state convention in Oklahoma unanimously authorized me to name the delegates to this convention. It was a great surprise to me, but I immediately got up and read them a typewritten list of the delegates and they passed it unanimously, unanimously pledging the delegates to stay for Bill Murray till Bill Murray released them. . . . In Oklahoma fifty thousand Democrats were so disgusted they never went to the polls for ten years. I pulled 'em out of the bush."

And soon Alfalfa Bill was dilating on the possibilities of American trade in the interior of South America, reeling off the names of dozens of remote rivers on which he had traveled, describing the yearning of the natives for American products, explaining the splendid fiscal system of Uruguay, telling how he himself had sold the first ploughs, sewing machines and overalls in the far headwaters of the Amazon.

Herring Denies Any Part In Robbery

The Mineral Wells Index reports it has a letter from Oscar Herring, former Palo Pinto county attorney and now a resident of Seagraves, arrested recently at Wichita Falls in connection with the robbery of the First State bank at Seagraves, stating he "is innocent of the charges against him, and asks that his friends in Palo Pinto county withhold judgment until he is given a chance to prove it."

Three other men were arrested by Lubbock, Terry, and Gaines county sheriffs' departments and Texas rangers as suspects in the bank holdup, and a fifth man, indicted with the four held, is sought.

COST 85 CENTS TO PUT RHEUMATIC CRIPPLE BACK TO WORK AGAIN

Now Joyously Happy

While all his family looked on in astonishment and all his friends were amazed, one man took all the pain, swelling and agony from his tortured Joints in 48 hours and did it with that famous rheumatic prescription known to pharmacists as Allenru—you can do the same.

This powerful yet safe remedy is wonderful—its action is almost magical.

Just get one 85 cent bottle of Allenru from Mark Halsey Drug store or any live druggist—take it as directed and if in 48 hours your pains haven't all left you get your money back.

NEW HOME PLANS JULY 4TH PARTY

Ten fat beeves and three goats have been obtained for barbecue and enough coffee, to be served black, is available for New Home community's first Fourth of July picnic and celebration, J. P. Fulton, justice of the peace and business man there, said late Wednesday. Fulton, who operates an automobile service station and cafe, has charge of arrangements for the event.

Three games, the first round of a baseball tourney entered by eight teams, will be played in connection with the picnic, and all three contests can be seen for a dime, said Fulton. Candidates for public office will speak at New Home the Fourth.

Persons attending the picnic will be expected to bring their own bread and pickles. The merchants of New Home are sponsoring the celebration, which will be on the western outskirts of the town.

Amarillo Attorney Gets Federal Post

An Amarillo attorney, John W. Beveridge, has been appointed assistant United States district attorney for the northern Texas district to succeed Alex M. Mood, who resigned to enter private practice June 15.

Beveridge was formerly associated with Clem C. Calhoun, Amarillo, candidate for the Democratic nomination for attorney general against Jimmie Allred and Col. Ernest O. Thompson, state railroad commissioner and former mayor of Amarillo.

The new appointee is expected to handle criminal matters in the Lubbock district. He was named by C. W. Johnson, who recently succeeded Norman A. Dodge as district attorney. Mood held the place for four years.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex.—For use in teaching pilots flying in fog the Mexican Aviation company has a special plane here, the rear section of which is enclosed in glazed windows. The company has found that the soft gray light penetrating the cockpit through these windows during "blind" flying is the closest approach to light filtering through a heavy fog.

Coppy grabbed the fat cub he said, "I hope he wrestles r. He's hard to get a hold of, use his fur is soft and slick.

He may flop me before we're ne, but we are going to have some n. Perhaps I'll be the winner, ough, if I can pull a trick."

Then Duncy said, "Watch out, beuse I've often heard a small bear aws. Don't make him mad. He'll ratch you and you won't like that all.

"Just tussle till he gets tired out. hen you can throw him down, no oubt. Don't let him land on top f you, if you begin to fall."

The funny bear just pranced round and every now and then 'd bound away from little Coppy. hen he'd jump right back again. "Hey! We are wrestling," Coppy id. "You seem to want to dance, nstead. To keep you right up near e, we should wrestle in a pen."

All of a sudden Mister Bear gave oppy quite a scare. He grabbed the lad around the waist and squeezed him rather tight.

'Course Coppy grunted right out loud and this amused the Tiny crowd. "Keep up the good work, Coppy," Scouty shouted. "You're all right."

BUT Coppy was a real tired lad. The bear flopped him and he seemed glad that everything was over. "Run away," he told the bear.

As bruin scampered out of sight, the bunch heard Windy Tinymite cry out, "Look at that auto that is coming, over there."

The auto was all broken down and in it sat a funny clown. Said he, "Come on, you Tinymites, we'll have a bumpy ride.

"This auto is a crazy one, but in it I have lots of fun." The Tinymites all laughed and then jumped right in by his side.

(The Tinies see some leaping dogs in the next story.)

Mark Twain Was Wrong!

When he said that people seemed to talk a lot about the weather but didn't do anything about it. Our friends are storing "their" wheat. Bad weather has destroyed considerable wheat and has made the prospects for reaping a nice profit much brighter.

On all wheat shipped to us for storage, we furnish you with protein analysis and government grades on every car—you get back same grade and protein. We want your storage business and we want an opportunity to trade with you when ready to sell your grain. Get our new scale of discounts and storage charges.

INDIAN CAMP TO BE HELD IN SCOUT ENCAMPMENT AT POST DURING JULY

Boys who have attended at least three camps are eligible to be in an Indian camp at the South Plains Area Boy Scout council encampment near Post, July 18 through the 23rd, Chief Dancing John Vickers, Lubbock scout who is medicine man of the Spacs, an informally organized group of scouts, has announced.

Camp awards will be made in the form of feathers strung on coup sticks, which will be made of straight willow shoots about four feet long. The camp will be divided as Plains and southwestern Indians, groups on each side assuming a tribal name.

To Recognize Best Camper

The best camper will be allowed to have an eagle feather on his coup stick and will be leader of the Indians at the 1933 camp.

In an accompanying bulletin, D. T. Jennings, area executive, says: "Scout advancement will not be stressed at camp this year except in such subjects as swimming, life saving, pioneering and kindred outdoor activities.

"Instead, troop camping, relaxation, happy association, fellowship, and fun will be the goal."

The executive declares it is important that all troops send their camp registrations to headquarters here by July 9.

BROWN MURDER

May 29, 30 and 31 were checked.

Probe Is Resumed

When a 72nd district court grand jury re-convened last Monday week, the investigation into the shooting was resumed. Richardson and three other men were taken into custody June 22 for grand jury questioning. The investigation was not completed and all were released. Walker had been arrested in Hobbs, N. M., where he was being treated for wounds suffered in a purported automobile accident. The quartet held here was released Friday, June 24, and the following day Richardson was arrested.

The complaint filed yesterday was prepared by District Attorney Durwood H. Bradley, who has aided in the investigation.

Officers theorize that the third man involved was connected with the automobile used by the trio which appeared at the Hilton residence, 12 miles south of Lubbock. The automobile in which the three men escaped from the Hilton house was described that night as a two-door Chevrolet sedan. The sheriff's department yesterday said the man being sought owns a machine of the same type, and that tire tracks followed that night closely resemble those made by the third suspect's automobile.

Three men stopped their car near the Hilton residence the night of the shooting and walked to where Brown was sitting in his car talking to T. B. Hilton. Hilton, his wife and son, Hubert, 13, and a brother, Joe, were ordered into the house. Brown stepped out of his car and asked the men what they wanted.

Reports were that the Lubbock man grappled with a man carrying a pistol and was shot. One bullet purportedly was fired also from a 30-30 caliber rifle. A .380 automatic pistol shell and a 30-30 rifle shell were picked up at the shooting scene.

Brown was survived by his widow, a son, Xen, of El Paso, and a daughter, Mrs. J. W. Harris, of Lubbock.

THE PLAINSMAN IN CHICAGO

Mr. Brisbane is looking old.

That's going to be a good job for somebody before long, when Mr. Brisbane retires.

Walter Doney, who represents the Avalanche and Journal in the Chicago national advertising field, took your correspondent to a speakeasy yesterday afternoon. It was a junky little joint on the edge of Chicago's business district and was not at all interesting.

All the down-town saloons have been closed by federal agents on account of the Republican and Democratic conventions but the proprietors will admit to you that they'll open up soon as the conventions are over.

FRANKLY, your reporter was disappointed in this speakeasy. He had been led to understand that Chicago 'hot spots' were very similar to the famous watering places of Juarez.

If the "whisper-low" he was in yesterday can be taken as an example of what they have in that line in this town there's nothing to them.

It reminds you of a first class hamburger stand and nothing more.

Harry Mitchell's place is a gold-plated palace compared to what they have to offer here.

Don't ever attend a national political convention unless you just come for the ride. If you're expecting to see or hear anything of importance at the convention hall you'll be sadly disappointed.

The delegates from Hog Wallow, Escota and similar places go to the convention and shout themselves hoarse but you don't see Al Smith, Albert Ritchie, Jimmy Walker, Joseph Shouse or any of the big shots milling about the hall.

They stay in their hotel suites, talking to sectional bosses and making the decisions. They haven't time to go to the convention hall, where the boys from the sticks think they're accomplishing a lot but in reality are not doing a cock-eyed thing.

DEMOCRATS from Texas reverted to type yesterday and did what they've been itching to do for years. They engaged in a good old knock-down, drag out fight right before Mayor Cermack and everybody.

It all started when the keynote speaker, Senator Barclay, of Kentucky, remarked that prohibition is a lot of baloney. Bands struck up and delegations began marching and some Texan decided that the Texas standard should be included in the anti-prohibition parade.

He started to march and then the fun began.

Divided in sentiment, wets and drys from our good old state started pushing and shoving each other. The delegation was in an uproar and a few uppercuts were started and finished.

The whole business was completed by the wets marching in the wet parade toting a makeshift Texas standard. The drys got the original Texas sign but it was torn up in the rumpus.

For your information, you can get along better on a $3,000 per year salary in Lubbock than you can on a $20,000 per year pay check here.

Reason: Increased cost of traveling around Chicago.

about his contacts with the kidnapers and the kidnaped baby he would be killed. The doctor was said to have promised absolute secrecy and to have kept that promise.

Motion Is Presented

A defense motion for a withdrawal of a juror and declaration of a mistrial in the case was denied. Ryman Herr, one of Curtis' attorneys, made the motion on the ground Curtis' case had been prejudiced by an article in the local weekly newspaper which credited the prosecution with stating that the defendant was "as good as convicted already."

The motion came as a surprise and immediately followed a statement by Herr that he intended to make such a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal after the prosecution had concluded its case this afternoon.

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, June 30. (AP)—The stock market ended the first half of the year today with prices still dragging along the average lows reached a month ago.

The list had a momentary upturn early but scattered selling soon cropped out. Gains were lost and a number of shares sagged 1 to 3 points under yesterday's close.

Selling of DuPont and National Biscuit seemed to precipitate the slump. Both reached new lows, Biscuit getting down more than 2 points and Dupont nearly 2. Procter and Gamble registered a similar loss and Air Reduction dropped 3. Early gains of a point in American Telephone, Case, and American Tobacco "B" were converted into losses of like extent. Union Pacific was off 2. Among the so-called wet stocks, gains of 1 to 2 points appeared in Crown Cork, Anchor Cap, National Distillers, Owens Illinois Glass and American Commercial Alcohol but these were considerably modified later. The list was up fractionally from the lows by early afternoon.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, June 30. (AP)—The cotton market had a firmer and more active opening today. Liverpool cables were much better than due and the reduction in the rediscount rate by the Bank of England to two per cent from 2 1-2 per cent. There appeared to be good demand for the July position and that option opened 8 points up and soon gained an additional point at 5.47, of 9 points over yesterday's close. Later positions opened four to six points up but soon rallied on the generally better undertone and active covering by shorts, October trading up to 5.62, and December to 5.75, or 7 to 9 points above yesterday's close. A little later in the first hour prices eased off four to five points on realizing but rallied again on the continued strength of Liverpool and firmer stocks, recovering two points from the lows.

The market ruled very steady all morning with rather more trading that has been the rule recently. Prices moved upward to new highs for the day at 5.63 for October and 5.77 for December or 9 to 10 points above yesterday's close, and 6 to 7 points up from the early lows.

Around mid-session the market was very steady and at or near the highs.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, June 30 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, 5 to 7 points higher on steady Liverpool cables and higher stock market opening.

Reports of rains in Oklahoma were a contributing factor on the upturn which carried July up to 5.46 and December to 5.80, or 7 to 10 points net higher. These prices attracted some realizing but it was absorbed on setbacks of 2 to 3 points and the market was steady at the end of the first half hour. No further July notices were reported and trade interests again bought near months. A private crop report estimated acreage under cultivation at 37,770,000, a decrease of 8.3 per cent and placed condition at 76 with an indicated yield of 12,952,000 bales. Liverpool cables reported continental Bombay buying and covering influenced partly by the decline in the Bank of England rate, but said demand for cotton cloth was less insistent.

DRY OPPOSITION

modification ist Republican plank but nowhere near as objectionable to them as the advocacy of repeal with which the platform wound up.

Under the new circumstances, first opinions of neutral observers leaned to the idea that President Hoover would get the organized dry support. But he has yet to deliver his nomination acceptance speech which may have some bearing on the Republican party's prohibition stand in the campaign.

Victory in November for the Democrats, after their platform decision, would amount, as far as the drys are concerned, to a wet victory in a national referendum on prohibition unless President Hoover himself were to advocate repeal. For that reason it would be obviously to the dry interest to use the strongest means at hand for defeating the Democrats' national candidates.

COMIC WATER FETE IS GIVEN LAST NIGHT AT CITY SWIMMING POOL

cy, Mack said, was his ability to get things done through knowing his subject. He cited Governor Roosevelt's success as a business executive and his record as assistant secretary of the navy and as of governor of New York.

"He has put into effect more savings and brought about such efficient administration that the credit of the state of New York is on a higher basis than that of the federal government," Mack asserted.

"Gentlemen of the convention," he said, "our party present to the country no claim for immediate relief from all our present ills.

"We make no reiteration of the glowing but unfilled promises of our opposing candidates of four years ago nor present assurances of recovery within twenty-four hours from the depression which exists under the leadership of a man whose courage is unquestioned and whose word is as good as gold to so conduct our United States by policies as to bring a reco[illegible] ills accentuated an[illegible] Republican uncert[illegible] bility."

The fence enclosing City swimming pool was banked with loaded automobiles and spectators on foot last night as a comic water carnival was presented.

Harry Blocker won first place in diving, based on spectators' applause. Finalists in the tilting event were Charles Sumner and Joe McCloskey against Carrie Jane Thomas and Clarence Mast. Sumner upset Miss Thomas to earn a victory for the Sumner-McCloskey team.

Glynn Shook won the night-shirt race, wearing a purple creation with pink stripes, described by K. N. Clapp, pool manager, as an "1875" model.

The Duval brothers, Morgan and George, weighing 230 pounds each, presented a country-boy-and-girl act on the high diving board and won a first place.

Mayor J. J. Clements, Dr. F. W. Zachary, and Howard Hunt were the judges.

Other winners were Charles Truett in the egg-race, and Glynn Shook and James Hodges in the wallapus race. In the wallapus event, each team is composed of two swimmers, the one in front using his arms only and the rear one swimming with his legs only and holding to his partner's ankles.

This year:

"We favor the repeal of the 18th amendment," states baldly the platform of Democracy. The Republicans here two weeks ago declared: "We do not favor a submission (to the people) limited to the issue of retention or repeal," going on then to outline a new amendment, alternative to the 18th, keeping in the constitution a federal declaration of police power "to protect those states where prohibition may exist and safeguard our citizens everywhere from the return of the saloon and attendant abuses."

To the latter, the Democrats said:

"We urge the enactment of such measures by the several states as will actually promote temperance, effectively prevent the return of the saloon and bring the liquor traffic into the open under complete supervision and control by the states," then continuing:

"We demand that the federal government effectively exercise its power to enable the states to effectively protect themselves against importation of intoxicating liquors in violation of their laws."

"To effect such repeal, we demand," said the Democratic assembly, "that the congress immediately propose a constitutional amendment to purely representative conventions in the states called to act solely on that proposal.

"Such an amendment (as outlined by the G. O. P. platform)," said the Republicans, "should be promptly submitted to the states by congress, to be acted upon by state conventions called for that sole purpose in accordance with the provisions of article V of the constitution and adequately safeguarded so as to be truly representative."

Thus, on the manner of submission alone, the two planks are close.

"Pending repeal," said the Democrats, "we favor immediate modification of the Volstead act to legalize the manufacture and sale of beer and other beverages of such alcoholic content as is permissible under the constitution and to provide therefrom a proper and needed revenue."

To this, the Republican plank did not address itself, but it spoke at length of the necessity of enforcing the law as now enacted, pledging its nominees to that course and adding that nullification "by nonobservance by individuals or state action threatens the stability of the government."

"You can't speak now," Senator T. J. Walsh, the permanent chairman told Hughes, the Texas action having placed the Dallas man on the side of the majority.

"Oh yes I can," Hughes replied. "I decline to be embarrassed before 30,000 persons."

He proceeded not only to speak for repeal but found opportunity to make a pretty good Garner campaign speech. Hughes referred to Chicago newspaper stories of Garner trades and Garner withdrawals and denied them in toto. Garner was in the race to stay and his candidacy was for the presidential nomination only, Hughes said.

The Texans and the Californians, representing Mr. Garner's pledged support of 90 votes, had another "pep" meeting set for this morning, with an organization meeting for visiting Texans a little later. Garner will be placed in nomination today by U. S. Senator Tom Connally of Marlin.

Sheppard's announcement was made in commenting on the repeal plank adopted by his party last night in Chicago.

It came simultaneously with an announcement from Senator Bingham (R., Conn.) that in view of the Democratic platform he would seek to amend the Volstead act to permit four per cent beer before congress adjourns.

Democratic opponents of prohibition were delighted with the platform adopted but the drys were reluctant to comment.

Senator Copeland (D., N. Y.) said it was a good platform, courageous, manly, straightforward and unequivocal."

Senator Coolidge (D., Mass.) said he would "be very glad of an early opportunity to vote for repeal and a more liberal construction of the Volstead act."

Senator Robinson (R., Ind.), a supporter of prohibition, said the Democratic plank was "pretty wet."

"If they attempted to carry it out," he said, "it would be in violation of the constitution."

Commenting on Senator Sheppards' announcement, Robinson said "that leaves me all alone."

FERGUSON FLA... ...ties HIGHWAY RECO...

DALLAS, June 30 (AP)—The highway commission record of Gov. R. S. Sterling was attacked yesterday by former Governor James E. Ferguson during a brief visit here.

He declared there was more than $100,000,000 of highway funds more than sufficient to pay off the $86,000,000 road bond indebtedness of Texas counties.

During the five years Mr. Sterling was chairman of the commission and governor, he said, the commission's income totalled $217,000,000 and 10,192 miles of road had been built. Allowing $105,000,000 for cost and maintenance, plus $12,000,000 for highway machinery and wages, the total, Ferguson said, should be $117,000,000.

"This makes a difference of $100,000,000," he said. "And I call on Mr. Sterling to tell the people what is being done with the remaining $100,000,000."

ALL-DAY CLUB MEET OPENS

LUBBOCK WOMEN HERE FOR GATHERING AT SHANNON PARK

An all-day meeting of Lubbock county home demonstration club women got under way this morning at Shannon park. Miss Isla Mae Chitwood, county home demonstration agent, announced last night that clothing judging contests would be conducted and a program presented at the county community building in the park, east of Lubbock. A basket lunch was to be served at noon.

At 10:30 Miss El Fleda Harrison, Tahoka, Lynn county demonstration agent, was to judge a demonstration of clothing made by club members. After this she was to judge the cotton dresses made by the members, in cooperation with the wardrobe demonstrators of each club.

After lunch, each woman was to give a demonstration on some phase of clothing, or a stunt.

At 2:30 o'clock Mrs. C. M. Ballenger was to talk on "Every Day Attitude in the Home." Following her Mrs. Emma Phillips, local beauty expert, will speak on "How to be Well Groomed."

A large attendance was expected from all sections of Lubbock county.

MILK PRICE TO BE INCREASED AFTER DEALERS AGREE TO END PRICE "WAR"

Inability of Lubbock milk dealers to agree, resulting in retail sales of milk for as little as five cents a quart, has been ironed out and a slight price increase will be effective July 1, E. L. Corbin, executive secretary of the Texas Farm Bureau federation, of Dallas announced last night.

The new minimum price schedule, which was not given officially last night, was fixed at a meeting of directors of the newly formed Lubbock Pure Milk Cooperative association and representatives of the Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions and American Business clubs, the Lubbock County Farm Bureau federation, the Ministerial alliance, the city health department, the county agent's office, and the federation of women's clubs Wednesday night at the courthouse.

Corbin said the minimum would be less than ten cents per quart, the top price which has been received recently. From other sources it was learned unofficially that the minimum price was to be eight cents per quart at the doorstep and six cents at the stores. There is no limit to the maximum price to be charged, and it will be determined by quality of the milk.

A. H. Gearhart is president of the association, T. Teal is vice president, and Clifton Barrier is secretary-treasurer. Besides the officers, other board members are: R. C. Richardson, R. H. McCrummen and W. M. Jackson.

The association controls 1,050 cows in the Lubbock territory, and about 30 other cows under city inspection will be registered by tonight, Corbin declared. Forty-one dairies operating under city permits are included in the membership.

"Had the milk fight continued, it would have hampered quality greatly, and it was on the grounds that the price agreed to by the consumers would permit standards to be upheld that the price was set," Corbin declared.

During the "war," the wholesale price ranged from two to six cents.

SIX "PLIES"?

You can count six layers of cord here, but the first two under the tread in this tire (or in any so-called "six-ply" tire built this way) do not run from bead to bead. Some tire-makers count these as "plies," but they are really "breaker strips," so we call them that.
