"It's good to be home"

Coming back from our visit to the coast and cousins last week we stopped for the night at a little town about 80 miles from Waco.

We checked into our room and met the motel's resident cat, then walked over to the adjacent cafe.

It was a very pleasant cafe, decorated with large pictures of horses, western art and cactus, as so many Texas cafes tend to be.

The waitress bustled up, apologizing for being late (she was very busy). She took excellent care of us, the food was hearty and delicious, and most of the people were regular customers.

As one couple left the waitress said "have a good evening and I hope your mama gets better, hon".

I turned to Thomas and said "you know, it's wonderful that we're home".

He looked at me in a puzzled manner.

I explained.

"All over this huge state there are cafes and restaurants just like this one. Decorated with pride in the state, staffed by friendly people, serving a good chicken fried steak with gravy, and serving people that they know really well".

"You know, you're right" he grinned.

We might as well have been at the 909, Lonesome Dove or Kountry Kitchen or any other of the many cafes in this area.

They are warm, pleasant places for a meal, a place where strangers can come in and be welcomed, fed and given a pleasant evening, a place where the locals can come to visit, catch up on the latest and be called by name.

Yes, all over the state there are these wonderful little places to eat which provide more than food.

Next time you walk into one, give it a little thought.

PCA announces plans to re-open Deport Medical Clinic

Primary Care Associates has announced their commitment to opening the Deport Medical Clinic. The group of physicians will have Dr. David Salas, M.D. and Dr. William E. Surber, M.D. as co-directors of the facility, according to spokesman, Jim May.

The clinic was originally scheduled to open February 1 with Susan Scholz as Nurse Practitioner, however, Ms. Scholz had chosen not to accept the position.

When the clinic does open, patients will have a choice of which hospital they prefer to use and can expect a wide range of available services.

Patients will also be able to choose which Dr. they want as their director.

The clinic closed on December 31, 1998. It had been operated by St. Joseph's Hospital and Health Center as St. Joseph's Family Health Clinic.

Controversy grows over use of Bogata City resources

Red River County Attorney Jack Herrington confirmed to the Bogata News on Tuesday morning, January 19, that a summons has been issued to Bogata Mayor Mike Garretson and several other members of the Bogata City Council to appear before the Red River County Grand Jury on Wednesday, February 3, 1999.

The summons to testify stems from a complaint filed with the Red River County Sheriff's Department concerning the alleged use of city equipment, manpower and supplies on private property.

In contacting a Red River County Sheriff's Department spokesperson, there is an ongoing investigation and the matter has been turned over to the Red River County Attorney's Office.

According to Bogata Mayor Garretson, a complaint was filed against him for the incident which occurred some time in 1998. The complaint concerns gravel that was allegedly put on a driveway inside the City Limits.

"I don't know who filed the complaint," stated Garretson. "All I know is the matter is before the Grand Jury for consideration. Nothing I can say will change anything. The matter is in their hands to decide what to do."

"I just feel like there are some people out there that are out to get me out of office," continued Garretson. "The allegations are political and just blown out of proportion," concluded Garretson.

Garretson did state that some gravel was used on a private driveway, but the gravel was obtained free to the city, and the city was paid for the work done by the city employees and the use of the city backhoe.

In a telephone conversation with Monty Acres of the Texas Municipal League of Governments, he stated that a law was passed in 1876 to regulate the use of city resources without compensation. Acres says the law allows city government to do work with city equipment, as long as the city is fairly compensated.

According to Acres, if an honest attempt was made to compensate the City of Bogata for the time spent on spreading the gravel in question, no law has been broken.

The Texas Municipal League of Governments represents over 800 cities in the state of Texas.

The Red River County Grand Jury will hear the testimony on February 3.

Cuthand remembered as homecoming time draws near

As we are getting close to Bogata Homecoming time, we want to share different memories and stories with you. Alice Martin loaned us this article about the Cuthand Community. We hope you will enjoy it.

Frances Mayes Rozell

Garvinsville gave way to Cuthand for name

This story is from a February 18, 1958 Paris News article Ramblin' around with Tony Price

History whispers through the oaks, drifts down the sandy lanes in Cuthand.

It's one of those communities bypassed by progress while proudly counting its heritage among the richest in the land. Cuthand's unique name bestirs one of the first legends.

Post Office information briefly traces the name to a Kickapoo Indian (One local historian says it was a Delaware Indian) who cut a hand severely while working in the bottoms. Local legend takes that story a bit further.

What the Kickapoo was working on was a peg latch on a door at a house several Kickapoos hoped to invade. He stuck his hand through a crack in the door. The lady of the house-one of those hardy pioneers whose name has been lost to posterity - sliced off the Kickapoo's hand at the wrist with a quick chop of the axe.

It was enough to discourage the Indian raid and sufficiently interesting to furnish the name for a nearby creek.

The late Judge A.W. Neville wrote of Kickapoo Chief Cuthand, who said he lost his hand in the Battle of Tippacanoe.

At any rate, the creek was named. The Post Office Department got around to opening an office in 1867 and appropriated the name Cuthand.

Settlers in the area had already passed up Cuthand for a name however. The original settlement was called Garvinsville, after the first settler in the area. Several old-timers still refer to Garvinsville.

The popularity of Cuthand for a name grew on folks some 15 to 20 years ago, according to Mrs. Austin Bishop, a lifelong citizen of the area.

Garvinsville (or Cuthand . . . take your choice) became a thriving stage stop between Jefferson and Red River. The stages changed horses there while passengers adjourned to a nearby whisky store.

The community is over 100 years old. Several rooms of Mrs. Bishop's home were built over 100 years ago by Bick Mauldin, who followed Garvins into the area.

The area was part of Red River County's thriving cotton growing industry. Garvinsville once boasted three gins. The Mauldin Gin burned around 1920. The Co-Op Gin burned before that. The Blizzard Gin probably was the first to close, Mrs. Bishop adds.

One of the Mauldin family figured there were 400 people in a mile radius of his store in the 1920s.

"Now you couldn't scare up 50" Mrs. Bishop says.

Bick Mauldin and Son, Ed Mauldin and Lee Blizzard had stores and there was a café.

The folks started moving to town. The cotton was gone. The school that once produced more teachers than any other rural school in Red River County finally closed. The Post Office closed. In October 1956, Vernon Harville finally shut the doors on the remaining store in the community.

"No store, no post office, no school," Mrs. Bishop eulogizes, "Can't even buy a loaf of bread here."

The Methodist Church remained where three congregations once met for weekly services. The Methodists hold services once a month with a circuit pastor.

Folks aren't bitter. There are too many pleasant memories.

Mrs. Bishop and her family moved to the community in 1919. At 73, she still has some of the pioneer spirit.

Daily, she tends her cows in a neighboring lot, handling bales of hay like a youngster. She also has a garden.

"If you can't grow anything on our sand around here, it's because you didn't plant it," she adds proudly.

Ironically, most of the people moved by the time a farm-to-market road was extended to the store. But Cuthand's remaining citizens aren't idle. A new telephone line has been constructed into the community and installation of telephones will be completed in the near future.

Okay! This week's cook is not really a cook! Well, let me explain. During a day's work at the paper, there is always something to munch on... especially around holidays. With Valentine's coming up in February, we make it our business to eat up all of the left over holiday candy that goes on sale! Naturally there will be a lot of chocolate after Valentine's Day. Easter will then be around the corner and that means a lot of jelly beans and candy hearts.

Halloween gives us an assortment of goodies to choose from! Then comes Thanksgiving! ... I don't believe that there is a candy that goes with Thanksgiving. ... oh yes there is... the little candy corn! But anyway, somewhere between the holidays of this year we got hooked on "Whoppers". You know "Whoppers"... those candies that when you eat too many of them they make your mouth sore, but you keep eating them anyway! Well, there seems to be an abundant supply of them that comes in each week from various employees... we won't name who they are. She knows that when they appear, regardless of New Year's resolutions or what, we have to eat WHOPPERS. We got to looking at the package recently and realized that there were some recipes on the box. So, guess who our cook is this week... Mr. Whopper!

I have also added three new recipes from a cookbook that I received from Santa. It has a lot of good recipes included in it, but having the sweet tooth that I do, I chose a pie crust, pie and a cake recipe!

Hope you enjoy these and we will see you in the kitchen! Whoppers Candy Malt Shoppe Pie-combination of ice cream and Whoppers... got to be good!

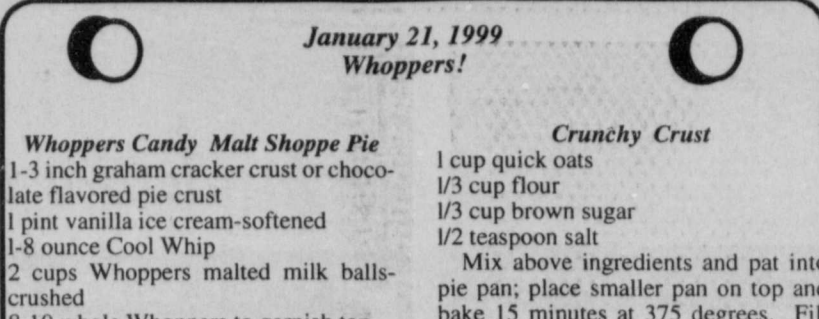

Frosted Whoppers Candy Milkshake-it is still a little cool for this, but hang on to the recipe until summer... or maybe just put on a sweater!

Choco-Vanilla Layered Ice Cream Pie-what is better than vanilla ice cream... vanilla and chocolate in the same recipe... that is what!

Crunchy Crust-a new twist to a pie crust... gives it a nutty taste!

Lemon-Banana Pie-slice bananas for the bottom layer and pour lemon mixture on top! Gotta be great!

Friendship Cake-everyone needs one of these cakes in their household! Take one to a friend!

FOOT NOTES

IN A PINCH?

Burning pain in the forefoot, shooting pain and dull, pervasive ache are some of the most commonly described symptoms of a neuroma. The source of the pain is an enlargement of the sheath that surrounds one (or more) of the intermetatarsal nerves. The most common location is the area between the third and fourth toes and metatarsals. This particular site is most vulnerable because it is the thickest and is the junction of several different nerves. This condition is often caused by shoes that cramp the toes, causing a pinching of these nerves. Pronation of the foot may also exacerbate this condition. Your podiatrist may provide relief with orthotics, steroid injections, or, in severe cases, surgical removal of the neuroma.

It's hard to ignore the burning pain of a neuroma and other foot conditions or injuries, especially when every step places weight and pressure on the affected area. Don't wait for the pain and the problem to disappear. Most likely they won't and you'll be left with a worse condition than when the problem was still new and relatively minor. A better strategy is to call DOCTORS FOOT CLINIC at 784-5585 for experienced attention to your foot concerns.

OFFICE LOCATED AT
3605 N.E. Loop 286, STE 1800
PARIS, TEXAS
P.S. Prevention of this neuroma may, in many cases be as simple as selecting shoes with an amply wide toe box.

Back when it was a game...

By Pinky Griffin

I couldn't help but think back seventy years ago as I passed by the two Little League parks west of Deport.

Two full fields with a fence around them. The dugout even had a bench to sit on and there was grass on a smooth infield. They had a big bag full of baseballs and at least two dozen bats.

The young players had uniforms that were neat and clean. My mind began to wander back to around 1930. D.D. Stringer was the school superintendent, but more than that, he was the manager of our "Little Boy Team".

Our uniforms were blue jeans and/or overalls. We played barefooted and the infield was always rough. Some of the players wore tennis shoes and some played barefooted. We got our bats from the "big boys team". When they broke a bat, they would give it to us. Although it was broken, we would nail and tack it together then wrap the bat with "tar tape" making it as good as new. To make the bat light enough for us to use, we would saw off about three inches of the end of the bat. This would make it weigh about 25 or 26 ounces. To make it look better we would use a blacksmith's hoof rasp and round the end off. This bat would last us for the whole season. The more bats the big boys broke, the more bats we had!

We played teams from Bogata, Detroit, Fulbright, Shadowland, White Hall and Pattonville. Mr. Stringer would load us all in his 1929 Ford touring car and off we would go to Detroit. Detroit and Bogata had real baseball parks with a fence all the way around and lines down first and third base. The bases were not shortened, but left just like the big boys played with pitchers mound 60'-6".

I can remember some of the players and the position they played. Tubby Guest was the catcher; "Polly" Murrell, first base; Nim Hammond, pitcher; I played second base; Worth Seamon, short stop; Hugh D. Evans, third base; Jack Hood, left field; James Loven, centerfield and Hobert Loven, right field.

One of the Smallwood boys was our left handed pitcher and Worth Hood the right handed pitcher. We were a most unlikely looking baseball team as there was but we played as hard as big leaguers.

Most of the balls from former games would wear out, so to get enough balls we had to buy new ones. With no money in the budget, we would go downtown and get money from local merchants to buy a $1.25 ball for the game.

We gave each person who gave money a free pass to the ballgame. If we were lucky, the ball would last two or three games. We would work out one time a week and play one game a week. We played only when school was out from May to September. Cotton picking would sometime shorten our schedule.

This was my first introduction to organized baseball and I have never played a game more important than the ones played in the parks at Detroit and Bogata. We were sure not the greatest or best dressed or as good as Little Leaguers of today, but it was a game and we all played as hard as Texas Rangers or New York Yankees.

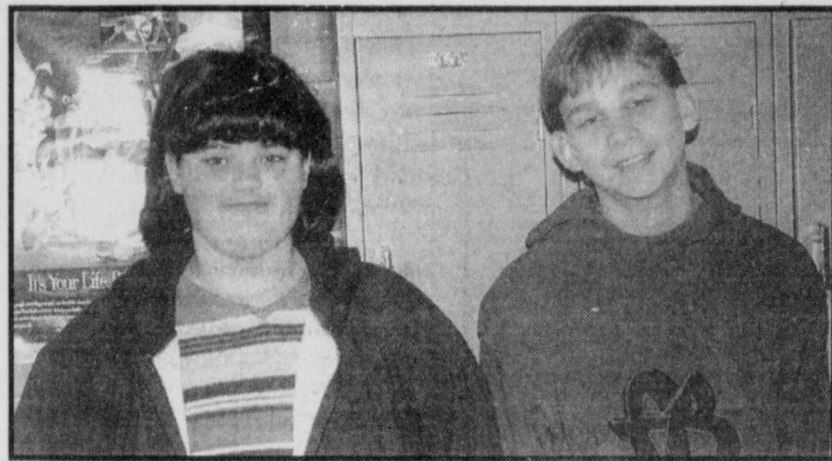

One thing that stands out in my memory was a game with Detroit. Tubby Lawson was the manager and my friend Jack Ellison played for them. We played the game in the Detroit park. We were all barefooted as it was July, but the Detroit team all had shoes on. The ballgame started and in the last of the first, we went to the field. When Detroit hit a ball to the outfield, we started to run after it. Sandbars were all over the outfield and we would stop to pull the burs out of our feet and the hitter would keep running for a home run. Tubby really had a field day laughing as the blackland kids from Deport limped around the diamond. Now we saw why they wore shoes! The next time we played them in Detroit, we made sure we wore shoes.

"Pepper" Martin, the great St. Louis big leaguer once played a game with Deport big boys. He hit three home runs out of the park in Detroit. He spent several hours at the local "cotton office" talking about playing in that game. He made a big impression on me, as they had just beat the Detroit Tigers in the World Series and I had heard the games on the radio.

The big boys club was managed by Lee Lawler. Pitchers were Russell Lawler and Frank Westbrook. Kenneth "Rooster" Westbrook played second and Grady Jackson was the first baseman. "Runt" Harvey was the short stop and William Evans was at third. The outfield was Boyd Reece, Ned Haydock and Bob and Ferris Read. I was the bat boy and ball chaser.

I remember that Valliant, OK would come to Deport for a three day stay. The players would stay in the homes of local people and eat and sleep there. We always had one or two stay in our home and that was a great time for me. Sometime there would be a real Indian on the team and his name was Bohanon. Everyone called him "Chief".

Although I never went to the Big League, I was fortunate to be just good enough to make the "Little Boy Team" in Deport, a time and place I will never forget.

Dietary Supplement Helps Promote Blood Sugar Control

Blood Sugar Control

Published clinical studies confirm that consistent use of the herb G. Sylvestre supports healthy blood sugar levels and pancreatic function.* Study participants gained greater control of their blood sugar levels while using the herb. Long term use resulted in no side effects.

The studies repeatedly confirm the herb's ability to support healthy blood sugar levels by altering the body's perception of sweets orally and glucose internally.* Researchers concluded that the herb promotes pancreatic function (possibly via beta cell regeneration) while altering glucose absorption.* The herb has been used safely in India for centuries.

This exceptional herb is now available as Informulab™ BETA FAST™ GXR™. The highest quality G. Sylvestre extract is BETA FAST™ GXR™, convenient, coated, extended release tablets. INFORMULAB NATURALS

LADY REBEL-Candias Nickerson goes up to the goal as the Lady Rebels met the Paris High Lady Wildcats on Dec. 22 at RHS. The Lady Rebs were defeated following a tough game. (Staff Photo Nancy Brown)

Everyone had a great time playing basketball, war ball, Nintendo 64, Playstation, watching videos, playing Twister and other board games. There are already plans being made for the upcoming New Year's Eve, but the chaperones believe the event will end a little earlier this year!

Rivercrest travels to Chisum Jan. 15

The Rivercrest JV girls and boys and Varsity girls and boys basketball teams traveled to Chisum on Friday, Jan. 15. The Lady Rebel JV opened the evening play. Following two quarters the Lady Rebs held an 18-8 lead over the Lady Mustangs. Scores had come from Cassee Wilcox, Brittany Bull, Charla Hines, Jennifer Hays, Molly Moles and Misti Tucker.

In the final quarters the Lady Rebs continued to hold the lead to take the win 38-20. Posting high score for the Lady Rebs was Jennifer Hays with 10 points. Also scoring were Wilcox-7, Bull-2, Moles-2, Tucker-6, Hines-8, Kendall Stansell-1 and Kayla Sears-2.

The JV Rebels went head to head with the Mustangs and trailed 3-9 after one quarter. Myron Ellis was sent to the line off a Mustang technical foul to score one of two in the second and Steven Shade put in a good defensive quarter for the team. At the half the Rebs trailed by 5. Score 15-10.

In the third the Rebels worked to gain on the Mustangs but ended the quarter still behind 29-24. The excitement came in the final quarter when the Rebels scored on steals to bring the score to 29-28. The Mustangs quickly recovered to go up by 5 but the Rebels were not through. With 1:44 seconds left and the score 37-35

Chisum, Rebel, Brandon Bell hit a trey off and inbound play to put the Rebels ahead. A field goal from Kerry Posey pushed the score to 40-37 with less than a minute left. The lack of time forced the Mustangs to foul and Myron Ellis hit 2 free shots. The Rebels fouled and the Mustangs scored. With :19 seconds left Ellis was again sent to the line where he hit 2 of 2 and the Rebels took an exciting win 44-42. Great game boys! Posting high score for the Rebs was Kerry Posey with 19 points. Also scoring were Myron Ellis-14, Clinton Cheatwood-4, Jeremy Grissom-3 and Brandon Bell-3. Myron Ellis shot 99% from the free shot line for the Rebels.

The Varsity Lady Rebels also started off hard and by the end of the first quarter trailed 22-16. Like the JV boys the Lady Rebs were still behind at the half time buzzer with a score of 37-29.

The third quarter saw the Lady Rebels working hard. Candias Nickerson was benched after an injury to her good knee and the Lady Rebs were forced to take up the slack. The Lady Mustangs still held the lead at the quarter's end 58-43. The final quarter saw the Lady Rebels play their hearts out. Cheryl Griffin was sent to the bench with foul trouble early in the quarter. Katie Hare was all over the court for the Lady Rebs making steals and forcing the Lady Mustang mistakes. Kim Shirley came through at the free shot line and from the field, as did Missy Carroll and the Lady Rebels caught up. Time ran out on the Lady Rebs and they went down by one. Final 71-70. Great game girls! Posting high score was Candias Nickerson with 20 points. Also scoring were Missy Carroll 13, Tiffany Prentice-8, Katie Hare-7, Kim Shirley-16, Cheryl Griffin-2 and Kim Ross-2.

The Rebel varsity also had a tough game with the Mustangs after what seemed like a mediocre first half and the Rebels in the lead 31-25 a change came.

The third quarter saw the Mustangs drive hard and get within 1 point of the Rebels and then go up by 2. At the end of the quarter the Rebels trailed 44-42. After the easy first half where Josh Posey and Michael Galloway both had blocks on Mustang shots and the Rebels not being forced to play hard, finding themselves behind was enough. The Rebels came to life moved back into the lead and Chase Collins made the free shot that put the tie out of the Mustangs reach. Final 57-52. Posting high score was Keith Hines with 16. Also scoring were Chase Collins-13, Michael Galloway-7, Josh Posey-4, Jason Freelen-14, including 3 treys and Josh Griffin-3.

Rivercrest goes 3-1 with Prairiland

The Rivercrest JV girls and boys and Varsity girls and boys played host to the Prairiland Patriots on Tuesday, Jan. 12. The JV ladies took the floor and held an 11-4 lead following one quarter of play. The Lady Pats were left behind in the second as the Lady Rebels drove to a 26-4 lead by the half time buzzer.

In the final quarters the Lady Rebels scored freely and their defense held off Lady Pat scores. Final 55-6 Lady Rebels. Posting high score was Lady Rebel Charla Hines with 22 points. Also scoring were Kendall Stansell-2, Misti Tucker-7, Brittany Bull-9, Jennifer Hays-9, Cassee Wilcox-4 and Mollie Moles-2.

The JV boys game was a different story. Following one quarter the Rebels held a slim two point lead, 6-4. The Rebels pushed to the lead 22-13 by the half. The Pats received two technical fouls in the game as tempers flew.

In the third the Pats made a move to take the lead and moved to within 4 points of the Rebs. While things were going well for the Pats, the Rebels were finding shots and rebounds hard to come by. Score 30-26. In the final quarter the Pats worked hard and the Rebels fell behind. A trey from Jeremy Grissom sent the Rebs back ahead but they were unable to stay there and the Patriots took the win 44-39. Posting high score for the Rebels was Myron Ellis with 13 points. Also scoring were Clinton Cheatwood-12, Kerry Posey-4, Jeremy Grissom-5, Nathan Carroll-4 and Brendin Jones-1.

The Varsity Lady Rebels also took the win over the Lady Pats. Following the first quarter the Lady Rebs had the Lady Pats down 24-7. By the half the score stood 47-24. When the Lady Pats worked to shut Candias Nickerson, who was having a field day, down another Lady Rebel would take her place in scoring. The game ended with a 79-40 Lady Rebel win. Posting high score was Candias Nickerson with 23 points. Also scoring were Missy Carroll-6, Katie Hare-6, Tiffany Prentice-16, Kim Shirley-5, Cheryl Griffin-6, Kim Ross-8, Courtney Jones-2, Kembre Baker-7 and Cara Morgan-1.

The Varsity Pats were ready to give the Rebels a game and they succeeded. After one quarter the Rebels held a 14-7. In the second Keith Hines, Michael Galloway and Chase Collins scored to put the Rebels up 27-16 at the half.

In the third Kyle Stansell had a good quarter for the Rebels on the defense. Stansell also made key passes for Rebel post scores. The quarter ended 37-20 Rebels. The fourth saw the Pats struggle and the Rebels control. Final 51-33 Rebels. Posting high score for the Rebs was Keith Hines with 18 points. Also scoring were Michael Galloway-10, Chase Collins-6, Josh Posey-10, Jason Freelen-2, Kyle Stansell-2, Josh Griffin-2 and Chad Holland-1. Josh Posey shot 100% from the free shot line for the Rebs.

Herveys visit Europe during holidays

Buford and Gale Hervey spent the Christmas Holidays with their daughter, Lynda Woodward, and family in Wassenaar, The Netherlands, and traveled with the Woodward family to Edinburgh, Scotland for the New Year's Holiday. While in The Netherlands they toured the fishing villages of Edam and Vollenham along the IJmeer. They also drove through the polderland farms to the towns of Gouda and Schoonhoven, "The Silver City".

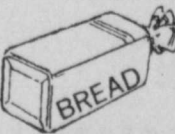

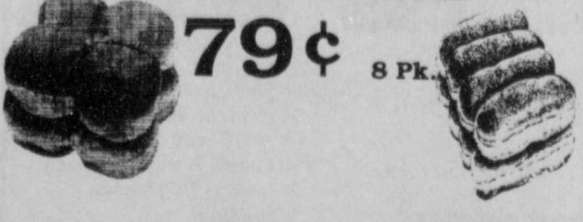

After Christmas Day, they rode the ferry from Rotterdam to Hull, England and spent the day in York, England, where they visited the York Castle Museum and York Minister Church. They spent two nights in Pitlochry, Scotland, seeing the Queen's View of Loch Tummel, the fish ladder, The Hydro-electric Dam and driving to the nearby town of Dunfermline where they saw the oldest church in Scotland. The next day they drove through the highlands to Inverness near the Moray Firth and down to Loch Ness where they toured the Loch Ness Museum. The next night was spent in Ballachulish, near Loch Linnhe, being entertained by ghost stories about the hotel where they were staying. They drove back by way of Loch Lomond and Glasgow. Three days were spent in Edinburgh. Some of the highlights were: The Edinburgh Castle, Holyroodhouse Palace, a woolen mill, Scotch Whiskey Heritage Centre, The Ghost Walk and the New Year's celebration. They enjoyed this beautiful scenic country with its rugged mountains, green valleys, blue lakes, stone fences, countless sheep and highland cattle.
