City Faces Increases In Water & Sewer Fund

The City Council of Colorado City, meeting for the third time within a week Tuesday night, spent the better part of four hours discussing and rehashing the water and sewer section of the proposed 1979-80 budget.

In the end, what it all amounted to was that even with the "threadbare" budget presented by Acting City Manager Brenda Tarter, there will more than likely have to be increases in all city water and sewer fees.

As an example of the proposed increases in the budget, the water tapping fee for a three-fourth inch pipe is now $75. It would increase to $150.

The water tapping fee for a one inch pipe would increase from $150 to $250 and the fee for a two inch pipe would increase from $350 to $450.

Cost of a sewer tap would jump from $2 to $75 plus cost and the cost to reconnect a customer's water after it has lapsed because of nonpayment would rise from $3 to $7.

The tentative budget finally worked out by the council Tuesday night called for an increase of $23,900 in the water and sewer fund, excluding pay raises for any city employees.

Entries Needed By Chamber

There had been two entries in the Chamber of Commerce emblem and slogan contests as of Monday afternoon, according to Executive Vice-President Larry Winders.

These two contests are being sponsored by the chamber to find an emblem and slogan which can be used to promote the city. The emblem will be used on stationery on chamber jackets and on anything else of significance.

Entries in the logo contest should be artistic renderings and the slogan should be a name, such as formerly used slogans, "Power City," and "Mother City of West Texas."

Entries should be submitted to the Chamber Office and the deadline for entering is 5 p.m., March 15.

Winners will be announced April 3.

Plaques will be presented to both the winners in the emblem and slogan contests.

All entries will become the property of the Chamber and it has the right to reject all entries according to Winders.

Sweek, who was appointed Postmaster at Westbrook effective Feb. 10, has been with the postal service for 23 years having begun as a letter carrier in Sweetwater in 1956. He served there until 1967 when he was transferred to Columbia, S.C.

In 1972 he moved back to Texas to work with the postal service in Odessa where he stayed until his recent appointment.

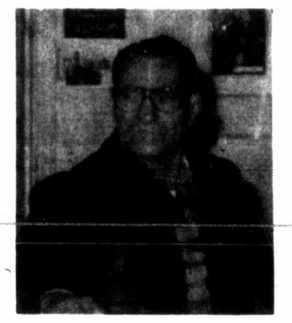

Sweek and his wife, Billie, have four children, Billy Jr., Connie, Kathy and Debbie, all of whom are still in Odessa at the present time. He stated that he would move his family to Westbrook when school ends.

He is first vice president of the Lions Club and is Commander of the Civil Air Patrol here.

In addition to these responsibilities, he is Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors and also is a partner in the Colorado City Flying Service.

A Word Of Thanks

The following letter, dated Jan. 15, was written to Tex Blankenship of Colorado City by K. S. Sandanam, a native of India who is presently living in Dallas.

Blankenship was one of a group from the First Baptist Church who aided a number of travelers who were stranded in Colorado City during the snow and ice storm in early January.

"We left Colorado City at noon on Monday and reached Dallas safe without any further problems the same evening.

"Ever since our arrival we have been talking to our friends here how you and other members of the church took care of us when we were stranded and had no place to go that night. It was perhaps God's will that we should meet under such circumstances as otherwise we would never have known each other.

"In spite of your other commitments to your family you were wonderful and outstanding. It is hard to find such persons to care for stranded persons on a night when it was so cold and uncomfortable for anyone to move around. I do not think we will ever be able to forget it. We pray God to give you and your family long and healthy life.

"Please accept our grateful thanks for all that you personally did to make our stay in the church comfortable and convey to your wife and to other members our sincere thanks and appreciation.

"With warm personal regards to you and your family, Sincerely yours, K. S. Sandanam."

Eddie Mitchell

Mitchell To Be Candidate

Eddie Mitchell was first appointed to the Colorado School Board last July upon the resignation of Jimmie Bolin. Last week Mitchell became the first person to file for a full term for the April 7 school board elections.

Mitchell, who is vice president of the Sweetwater Production Credit Association, has lived in Colorado City for six years. He is a native of Trent.

In addition to the school board, he is secretary-treasurer of the Kiwanis and a past president of that organization. He is also Assistant Chief of the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department and also an Emergency Medical Technician in the fire department.

Mitchell's wife, Cresta, is manager of the Colroado City branch of the Sweetwater Savings Association. They are members of the First Baptist Church and have two children, Brian Paul, 5, and Courtney, 3.

He is a graduate of Texas Tech University with a Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Economics.

Mitchell stated that he thought one of the

Books And Books Of History Are In Mitchell County Clerk's Office

By PEGGY WILLIAMS

The life history of many Mitchell County residents is contained in one room of the Mitchell County Courthouse.

Located on the ground floor of the Courthouse, the county clerk's office is an office packed with history.

Births and deaths are kept on record, and many events in between such as marriages, transactions of property, loans and even the registrations of livestock brands.

Rows and rows of ledgers are lined up in a room next to the office of county clerk, with records dating back to the middle 1800's.

Minutes from each Mitchell County Commissioner's Court meeting from 1881 are housed in the county clerk's office. In the earlier days, the minutes–as well as other official records–were written by hand rather than typewritten as is now the practice.

Records of marks and cattle brands for livestock are listed in ledgers dating back to the 1880's. Numbers, characters and letters were carefully drawn into the ledgers to register the cattle brands. Although most of the brands registered were from Texas, there are several listed from out of state and a few inscribed from other parts of the world, including one brand from London, England.

Births and death certificates are filed at the Courthouse and an index is kept of the names. Juanita Schaffer is the official registrar for Mitchell County and she mails birth and death certificates to the state capitol for official records.

Sometimes a person will not have a birth certificate and the county clerk's office assists in having a delayed certificate drawn up.

Joan Beach, county clerk, noted that the office handles "quite a few" delayed certificates, but that it doesn't happen nearly as often as it did several years ago.

Mrs. Beach was elected to serve as county clerk last year and has been in office since Jan. 1.

Although Mrs. Beach has held the position less than two months, the operation of the county clerk's office is hardly new to her.

County Clerk ...Joan Beach

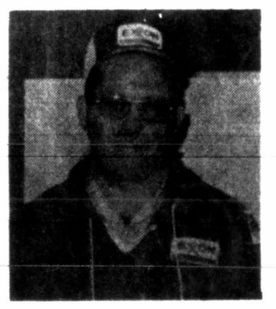

Prior to running for the office, Mrs. Beach worked seven years as deputy to the county clerk.

When Mrs. Beach took office in January, it had been about a year since she worked and she noted that it took some adjusting to become familiar with the records and files again.

But, Mrs. Beach said that the other employees in the office have been a great help to her.

"I couldn't do without them," she said.

Born in Dublin, Ark., Mrs. Beach has lived in Mitchell County almost 23 years. Her husband, Roy, is employed as production foreman for Atlantic Richfield. They have two daughters, Vicki Beach Rinehart and Sue Ann Beach.

G. Blassingame

Re-election Sought By Incumbent

"I have learned a lot and I feel we have accomplished a lot," one term incumbent School Member Gene Blassingame stated Friday as he referred to his first term on the board.

This week, Blassingame filed for a second term on the board.

Blassingame added that in the future he would like to see more progress by the school on its five year self-evaluation program and he would also like to see increased efforts made in improving the academic program.

He further stated that while he thought the curriculum was in good shape, it could always be improved.

Blassingame is a native of Colorado City and a graduate of Colorado High School.

He served four years in the Navy.

Buford M. Rich, head of the water and sewer department appeared before the council to answer questions concerning his department and when the question of pay raises came up, he was asked how many people he had in his department at the present time. He replied that there were eight including himself.

This was followed by a lengthy discussion as to whether it would be possible to manage with fewer personnel than this in the department.

Rich mentioned several names saying that they were good men and that he would hate to lose them. He went on to make a point of the hours that his men were having to work now and that these hours would have to increase if there were cutbacks in personnel.

Rich mentioned specifically the fact that somebody was required to man both the water and sewer plants 24 hours every day.

It was further noted that the starting salary of the personnel in the water and sewer department is $530 as compared with the starting salary in the police department of $710.

Also not included in the $23,900 increase was a $3,000 increase covering what will apparently have to be a salary hike for the new city manager when and if he comes.

One-half of the city manager's salary comes from the water and sewer fund. As presented Tuesday night, this would amount to $11,000 which would be matched by $11,000 from the general fund plus a $1,200 per month car allowance from the general fund.

In addition to salaries, Rich and the council had a lengthy discussion concerning the maintenance of the water pumps in Lake Colorado City.

Rich stressed the need several times that preventative maintenance needed to be done on the pumps now before water usage increases during the summer. A figure of $4,000 was mentioned as necessary to do the work.

In addition to the water and sewer fund, the Colorado City Museum came in for brief discussion.

Mrs. Tarter stated that a figure of $5,140 had been included in the budget for the museum.

In answer to a question as to whether the city had to support the museum, she read an amendment to the city charter passed in 1965 which created the museum and stated that the city would allocate funds for its operation. She finally added, "We are legally bound to the operation of the museum.

Jake Merritt, chairman of the board of the museum, then appeared before the council stating its need for a new roof.

Merritt said that he realized that the city didn't have the money for this at present and as an answer to the problem he said, "I'm willing to try to raise funds to repair the roof, we'd like to give it a try with your support."

This suggestion received the full support of the council with Councilmember J. O. Dockrey stating, "I don't see where you would have any trouble getting all the needed funds.

To get the project started, Councilmember Buddy Hertenberger donated the first $20 of the proposed $5,000 figure to Merritt on the spot.

Last week we took blood tests and learned what our blood types are.

Cheerleading tryouts are here again. They are on March 21st. The tryouts will be closed to everyone except the judges and the cheerleading sponsor. The judges are coming from out of town and will judge each person on two yells and a group yell.

Three people for seventh and eighth grade will be chosen from the field of contests. A practice session will be held two or three days before the tryouts.

Mrs. Bruce, the cheerleading sponsor, had a meeting with all the girls who wanted to try out for cheerleaders. She gave each girl papers pertaining to the tryouts, rules and what each girl should concentrate on. "Good Luck."

This year in athletics there has been a change of choices you can make. Instead of just being able to take track or off-season the last trimester you can take tennis.

Since it is the first year for tennis in Middle School only six girls took it. The girls take off-season during sixth period for conditioning and after school practice from four to five.

After five the girls stay at the courts and practice on what they have learned for the day. Coaches are David Redwine and Kitten Arthur.

Kerry Spivey

The two sixth grade band classes are going to get together in the mornings this week for combined practicing. We have been practicing six songs: "Little Rock," "Coral Rock," "Highline March," "Sing," "Figetts" and "Tie A Yellow Ribbon Round The Ole Oak Tree."

We are practicing for a concert at Hutchinson in the spring.

Last week the student government sponsored another fun day. This one was called Boy-Girl day. The way this is the boys would tell a girl to do something within reason and she would do it most likely.

Some of the things the boys made the girls do were tying shoes, carrying books and feeding them their lunch. The girls had their day the next day with boys opening doors, carrying books and cleaning out lockers.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the fun.

Lots of changes have been made in our library since Mrs. Johnston has joined us. Now the cards are kept in order by date. All of the cards are taken out of the books and stamped when a book is checked out.

The cards are left for seventh period to be put in order. Seventh period also has to count how many fiction and how many dewey decimals are checked out during the day.

The students library cards are also kept. Everytime a person checks out a book this library card is stamped. In this way library helpers know how many books a person has.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin - In the first ever "State of the Judiciary" address, Chief Justice Joe R. Greenhill of the Texas Supreme Court pointed to the paultry sum Texans spend on their courts and called on the Legislature to grease the skids of the judicial system.

Greenhill reminded legislators that only one-third of one per cent of the state's total budget is spent on the judicial system. He predicted that by 1980 the nine-judge Court of Criminal Appeals would face a caseload of 6,000 with each case taking from a year to 18 months to rule on.

To kick the administration of justice into high gear, Greenhill proposed intermediate courts to handle cases now brought directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals. And, to prevent a judicial traffic-jam, the chief justice asked that judges be allowed to speed up the jury selection in criminal matters as they do now in civil cases.

Greenhill's suggestion that civil appellate courts with light dockets be allowed to handle criminal cases did not sit well with Court of Criminal Appeals Presiding Judge John Onion—Greenhill's counterpart on Texas' top criminal court.

Onion agreed the criminal appeals system faced an enormous strain but thought intermediate courts would offer the most effective relief.

Interestingly enough, the first bill signed by Gov. Bill Clements since taking office Jan. 16 approved expansion of civil appeals courts in Dallas and Houston.

Primary Pushed

The governor answered: "I'm not much of a referee," when asked about skirmishes that might occur over a new presidential primary law for Texas. "I'm more of a participant," Clements explained.

Sticking to his word, the governor said he would veto legislation moving the date of the election primary from May to late summer or early fall (reducing campaign time), but Clements said he was pleased to hear Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and Speaker of the House Bill Clayton were moving toward passage of a primary bill. "The people of Texas want a presidential primary. That's what's important," said Clements.

The first rattling of swords over the state budget came this week when Sen. Grant Jones of Abilene insisted the governor quit demanding a $1 billion slash in taxes without specifying what state services he would eliminate. Clements said his budget (to come soon) would be less than the spending draft of the Legislative Budget Board. The LBB document would increase state spending by 22 per cent. Clements called that amount "excessive."

In other activities, the governor created the Mayors Advisory Committee by executive order and said again he is opposed to state funding of a proposed superport off the coast of Texas. Clements does support the use of state money to get the project started.

Finally, Clements wanted no "misunderstandings" about his backing of the use of wiretaps in narcotics cases. "I'm for it," he said, with safeguards. "The people of Texas want a strenuous effort with respect to this drug problem."

Speir Speaks

The Texas Department of Public Safety could use 400 more troopers and the $11 million needed to pay them. That's what DPS Director Wilson E. Speir told a legislative committee.

But, if he had his druthers, Speir said he would boost the salaries of those troopers now on the job. Speir asked for a 13.6 per cent pay increase in each of the next two years for troopers already on the payroll. The LBB is recommending a 5.1 per cent hike for troopers and all other state employees.

Texas prison guards would gladly trade checks with the troopers.

With a 64 per cent turnover rate in guards and prison populations growing, W. J. Estelle Jr. appeared before the Senate Finance Committee asking that prison guards be paid what troopers are getting. The Texas prison director said troopers make $175 more a month than guards. A sergeant with two children, Estelle pointed out, is eligible for food stamps.

Senator Eyes Special Ed

Sen. Pete Snelson of Midland has announced he will co-sponsor legislation to open new avenues for educating the more than 300,000 handicapped children in school districts throughout Texas.

Snelson, chairman of the Joint Interim Committee on Special Education said Rep. Bill Blanton of Carrollton will carry the bill in the House.

"The committee has intensely studied the problem of special education during the past one and a half years," Snelson said.

Legislation to be introduced later in the session will incorporate many of the 39 recommendations contained in the committee's final report.

Short Snorts

In his first opinion since taking office Jan. 1, Attorney General Mark White said the state statute making it illegal to use abusive or vulgar language in public is constitutional.

Mason rancher-attorney Gerald Geistweid captured the 56th district seat in the Texas Legislature in a special Jan. 6 election against Scott Stehling. Geistweidt, a Republican, will replace Jim Nugent, who resigned last year when appointed to the Railroad Commission.

House Speaker Clayton survived stalling charges brought by four representatives from Dallas, Houston and El Paso, who said the Springlake-native was delaying the start of important legislative business in order to get his pet projects passed in the final hectic days of the session. Clayton answered the charges by calling them "absolutely asinine." Four Clayton supporters accused the Speaker's critics of "trying to discredit the entire Texas House of Representatives." And the beat goes on, said one capitol observer.

If Texans keep it on the double nickel (55 mph), the state will reap $8 million in federal funds. If not, the feds will keep their money. And it might well happen considering that a Texas A&M University report says only one in four Texans keep to the limit and one-third must comply with the law or the federal money will be lost.

INFLATION FIGHTING ideas

"Check Out 5 Rain Checks."

The U. S. Office of Consumer Affairs suggests that Rain Checks can be a very important inflation fighting weapon. A Rain Check makes it possible for you to take advantage of a price reduction on an advertised special which you might otherwise miss.

If a supermarket is "out of stock" on an advertised special, Rain Checks entitle customers to buy the advertised item at the advertised price when it's back in stock!

Although Safeway tries very hard not to be out of an advertised item, we do have a long-standing Rain Check policy. So, if Safeway is ever out of an advertised special, say "Rain Check, please" and help us help you fight inflation!

Next week's Inflation Fighting idea: "SAY CHEESE"

Town Talk

By MAC McKINNON

There are two real good shows on stage now in the Permian Basin.

One of these is "The Music Man," being presented throughout this month by Midland Community Theatre. This is a very exciting show and is well done by MCT in their new facility.

Some of the music from "The Music Man" includes "Seventy-Six Trombones," "Lida Rose" done very well by a quartet, "Till There Was You," "Trouble," "Marian The Librarian" plus a number of others.

One member of the cast is a former Mitchell County resident, Don Richard who starred in the Colorado City Playhouse production of "Li'l Abner."

MCT has a number of problems early in the show moving scenery around but the performance by those on stage is very good and enjoyable.

Just next door in Odessa, Dana Andrews is starring at the Mansion Dinner Theatre in "Any Wednesday," a two-act comedy. Also starring with him is his wife, Mary Todd, and two others who probably will be well known on stage and screen within the near future, Jill Basey and Michael Potter.

"Any Wednesday" will be presented through March 18.

As usual, the food at the dinner theatre is very good the play is funny and the performers do a good job.

After the performance at the Mansion, Andrews addressed the crowd and noted that live theatre is in trouble because of competition from television and noted the historical importance to our culture of stage performances. He asked that if you have a chance, see a performance on stage.

Personally, stage performances are much more enjoyable than almost anything you can see on television or at the movies because you can get the feeling of the characters in the play and feel a part of it.

In reference to stage performances, Colorado City Playhouse now has the musical "Oklahoma" in rehearsal and everything is shaping up well so far. It should be a really exciting and enjoyable show. It will be presented the last of March and first week of April.

Wolves Track Squad To Hit Cinders, Asphalt

Football season is six months away, basketball season is over, Spring is just around the bend and as the old saying goes...A young man's fancy turns to... track among other things. At least that's what Colorado City Track Coach Robert Damron hopes his boys have on their mind as track workouts begin in earnest this week.

Damron's track squad has had a great deal of success over the last couple of years, as they have taken two district track titles in a row. Year before last, the Wolves cinder squad ran away and hid from everyone else, as they took the District 6-AA meet by 100 points over the second place finisher. Last year their winning margin was 34 points.

Damron noted, however, that this year there will be no runaway, "The district is getting stronger every year and will be very competitive," he added.

Going down the list of some of the other teams in the district, he pointed out that both Coahoma and Ballinger have abundant speed.

The coach said that Ballinger is especially strong in the sprints, where they have a man who runs a 9.6 in the 100, Damron went on to add that Anson has a man who has done the 440 in 48 seconds. He also said that he thought Merkel would be very tough to beat.

Damron noted that there were a good group of Seniors returning, including Ricky Sanchez who last season placed fifth in the state in the 100 meter high hurdles and also went to state in the 300 meter intermediate hurdles. In addition to these events, Sanchez also runs on the mile relay squad.

Gary Hulme will be returning to throw the discus and shotput for the Wolves. Hulme last season placed second in district and third in regional in the discus.

Other seniors coming back include DaWayne Iglehart, mile; Jim Shoemaker, discus; Gene Carter, pole vault; Mike Womack, discus; Martin Molina, shotput and discus; Jeff Horton, 200 meters; Dwayne Staats, 400 meters, 1600 meter relay, 400 meter relay.

Juniors on this year's Wolves track squad will be Johnny Lowrance, shotput; Britt Chaney, shotput; Squeeky Hanks, pole vault; Clay Hammond, high jump; J. D. Lewis, 800 meters; James Huff, 100 meters, 200 meters; Raul Gomez, shotput and David Alvidrez, discus.

Lewis placed first in district in the 800 meter event last season.

Five sophomores will round out the team roster. Mike Beights will run in the 800 meter event and will be joined by Jay Green, 300 meter intermediate hurdles, 400 meter relay, 1600 meter relay; Doug Johnson, 100 meters, 200 meters, 400 meter relay; Mark Carter, pole vault and Charles Johnson, 100 meters and 400 meter relay.

"I wish to announce that I will not be running for City Council again this year, This has not been an easy decision for me to make. I have enjoyed my tenure and the people I have worked with very much.

"I am very concerned, for Colorado City has made and is making some definite strides forward. This is exciting, both to observe and to be a part of. Even with the present financial status, which can be managed, working for your community is very satisfying.

"I would like to direct some though to you caring citizens. Men and women, who are forward thinking, openminded and willing to invest some time toward bettering your immediate living conditions. You are needed! Your thoughts, talent, your input, are necessary for a community's growth.

"There is a back to basics trend in government, that is gratifying to be a part of. No 'playing politics,' just good sound business practices.

"Please, don't 'let George do it!' Qualified individuals, who are busy, are who we need.

"We've had good council participation in the past few years. Open to the citizens thoughts and feelings. You are working for them. Always be open to their ideas.

"Give serious thought to serving on your Council. You must file by March 5th, at City Hall. Remember my original campaign slogan? 'It is so good to care...'!"

Weather KO'S Boxing Tourney

Due to bad weather conditions, icy roads, and a gymnasium without heat, the boxing tournament sponsored by the Mitchell County Boys' Club and the Colorado City Optimist club was called last weekend.

The tournament has been re-scheduled for March 3rd.

All of the teams originally involved: Abilene, Sweetwater and Snyder have indicated that they can be here on that date, and due to the interest shown by the Eastland and Early boxing teams Director Pat Barber and Coach Vince Gaona are considering expanding the tournament to include Friday night as well, making the tournament dates March 2nd and 3rd with the finals to be held on March 3rd.

"We will notify the public as soon as possible about the possible extra fight night as soon as we have contacted all of the participants," Barber said.

Wolf Band To Shampoo City

The Colorado High School Band will kick off a fund raising campaign Friday to raise money for their trip to the Six Flags Festival on May 3-5.

The band will be taking orders for hair care products including five types of shampoos and a balsam creme rinse.

In addition to the campaign by the band, the Colorado City Band Boosters will be holding a bake sale at Fuller Foods and at E-Z Way on Saturday to raise money for the trip.

The boosters are also sponsoring a garage sale at the Colorado City Auction House, 1160 West Point (Old Hwy. 80), on March 22-24 as a final money raising project for the band.

The Six Flags Festival to which the band is going is by invitation only and to be invited, a band must have received a sweepstakes rating the year before.

Archery Program Saturday

There will be an archery demonstration Saturday at 6 p.m. at the Wallace Center.

Jack English of Odessa will present a program and demonstration on archery for the Colorado High School Archery Club. The public is invited to attend. There will be no charge.

After the program and demonstration there will be an archery clinic. Anyone wishing to shoot or participate in the clinic should bring their own equipment.

Wildcats Lose To Sands 53-52

A dramatic comeback fell one point short for Westbrook's Wildcats Tuesday night in their bid for a bi-district championship as they lost 53-52 to the Sands Mustangs.

A cold first quarter got the Wildcats behind. The final score was as close as they came to Sands. At one point early in the third quarter, Sands led by 14 points and with two minutes to play, Sands led by nine points.

Westbrook couldn't score until more than 3½ minutes had elapsed in the contest and with 4:25 left in the first quarter, they made the score 5-2. At the end of the first quarter, the score was 15-8 and at halftime, Sands led 25-17. At the end of three periods, Westbrook trailed 38-31.

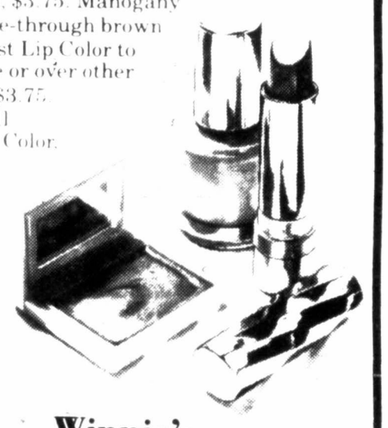

However, in a last minute flurry, the Wildcats proved the game wasn't going to be over until the final buzzer and closed the score to 52-50 with 54 seconds to go. In the final minutes of the game, Sands put on a four corner stall offense that possibly kept Westbrook from pulling the game out of the loss column.

Terry Webb was leading scorer for Westbrook with 13 points while Mike Petty had 12, Daryl Rich had 10, Ricky Reyes had 8, Clark Sweatt scored five points and Larry Dawson dropped in four points.

Westbrook was undefeated in district competition and earned the right to play in the bi-district contest held in the Howard College gym in Big Spring.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Pugh of Merritt Island, Florida. Her mother is the former Betty Jane Horton, a former Loraine resident. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Horton and great grandmother is Mrs. W. L. Swafford of Merritt Island. They are also former long time residents of Loraine.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white bridal satin. The bride and her mother designed and made the bridal gown. The gown featured a high neckline accented with a sheer inset delicately appliqued with lace flowers and seed pearls. The sheer bishop sleeves and the empire waist of the bodice were decorated with the same lace and pearl appliques. The skirt was fully flaired with a wide flounce encircling the hem and full chapel train.

To compliment her gown the bride and her mother designed and made a full length veil and circular blusher of French illusion edged with a border of lace that matched the dress. Her headpiece was a circlette of silk flowers. She carried a cascade of phalaenopses orchids and English ivy atop her mother's white Bible.

Miss Diane Pugh of Orlando, Florida, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a chelsea gray and primrose print quiana gown. Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Jones of Decatur, Georgia; sister of the groom; Miss Suki Chambers of Jacksonville, Florida; Miss Beverly Seward of Fort Worth; Miss Janis Pepper and Miss Linda Patzke of Titusville, Florida. They wore dresses that matched the maid of honor. They carried lighted oil lamps decorated with matching silk flowers and ribbons.

The groom was attired in white tails with a phalaenopses orchid boutonniere. His father, William F. Jones of Decatur, Georgia served as best man. Groomsmen were John Cipola of LaGrange, Georgia; Bill Haynes and David Cowan of Atlanta, Georgia; Robbie Goss of Titusville, Florida and David Pugh, brother of the bride of Merritt Island. They wore chelsea gray tuxedos with primrose boutonnieres.

A reception honoring the couple followed the ceremony in the church fellowship hall.

Following a wedding trip to the Bahama Islands the couple will be at home in Titusville where the groom is employed by Young's Tire Centers. He also serves on the youth staff of the Park Avenue Baptist Church.

Esquirel Named Bellringer

Mrs. Ninfa Esquirel of Loraine was named Mental Health Bellringer Chairperson for the May '79 campaign announced Dick Fredrick, president of the Mental Health Association in Texas.

"The Mental Health Association is comprised of citizens concerned about the quality of life in their communities. They are aware of the problems of the mentally ill–the lack of treatment or information–and have formed a statewide association to help solve these problems," said Fredrick.

Current concerns of the Association include: community mental health center funding; mental health coverage in national health insurance; child care licensing; patient's rights and the impact of deinstitutionalization.

The Association utilizes a variety of information and education services in order to eliminate misconceptions, educate the general public about symptoms and encourage early detection and treatment of mental illness.

Recommended temperature setting

The higher you set your thermostat, the higher your energy consumption.

"Try lowering the temperature in your home to 68° this winter. You'll save on your heating bill!"

"A setting of 68° during the winter is the one Texas Electric recommends for both comfort and energy efficiency.

For each degree above 68° the energy used for heating your house is increased by approximately 4% per degree.

As shown by the chart the difference between the recommended thermostat setting and 74° is 24%. At 78° the increase in energy usage is 40% or more.

Clearly, the lower you set your thermostat the lower your heating bill is going to be. And after last winter, one of the coldest on record, we think a lot of people are going to be trying their best to use less energy.

Remember to change the filter in your heating system regularly, too. A dirty filter causes your heating system to work longer and that costs you more. Check the filter at least once each month.

All forms of energy are costing more these days. If you're serious about saving energy and money, request a copy of our energy efficiency tips booklet on the comment portion of your electric service bill."
