Chances Good For High Level Of Employment

No Interruption In Production Is Important Factor

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—Good times for the next six years are foreseen by Agriculture department economists.

Even if a moderate recession should come, they regard living standards as sure to remain far above the 1935-39 prewar level.

The economists have set forth their views in an unofficial report prepared for field workers and state agricultural extension workers in advising farmers on future crop operations.

This document—based on the assumption of a relatively stable peace—says that full employment during some and perhaps all years between now and 1955 is a distinct possibility, notwithstanding the likelihood of additional postwar adjustments.

Chances Are Good

"If the adjustment is relatively mild, centering in prices with little interruption to production the chances for an extended period of full employment are good," said the report.

Under such conditions, it added, employment would be maintained close to 1948 levels and might even increase slightly in line with population increases.

The economists figure that under conditions of high employment, spending power would be as high as in 1948. But with a prospect of lower prices, this amount of money actually might buy 10 per cent more goods and services than this year and 50 per cent more than in the prewar period.

In the case of a recession—with 10 per cent fewer jobs and incomes down 25 per cent—total purchasing power would be down only about 5 per cent, they say. This is because prices might drop as much as 20 per cent.

However, the per capita buying power still would be about one-third higher than in 1935-39, when unemployment was of comparable size.

"It is not expected," the economists state, "that the general level of prices would return to prewar levels."

65 Injured As Train Derails

GARDEN CITY, Kas., Oct. 21 (AP)—At least 65 persons were injured this morning when the Santa Fe's eastbound California Limited was derailed three miles east of Mansfield junction.

No deaths were reported.

Ten of the twelve car train left the rails.

The baggage car was split open like a ripe melon and mail sacks were thrown over a nearby field.

Ambulances sped injured from the wreck to St. Catherine's hospital here. About 15 were reported seriously injured.

Rails Ripped Up

Engineer W. R. Henry, Pueblo, who was not injured, said he felt a bump and then the emergency went on and the diesel power off.

The big diesel ripped up several hundred yards of rails but did not leave the road bed. It is believed the rear trucks of the first diesel unit left the rail and tore up the track as the diesel slithered forward.

Brakeman Earl Gentry of La Junta reported finding a broken rail which is believed to have caused the wreck.

Conductor Ed Marshall said about 130 passengers were aboard.

BORDER IS CROSSED

BANGKOK, Siam, Oct. 21 (AP)—Siamese provincial officials charged today 100 French soldiers crossed the Siamese border from Indochina and killed a police constable and two Siamese civilians Oct. 18.

ELISSA LANDI DIES TODAY

Cancer Illness Is Fatal For Actress

(By The Associated Press)

KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 21 — Elissa Landi, Italian-born actress and novelist, died of cancer today at the age of 43.

Miss Landi, reportedly the granddaughter of Empress Elizabeth of Austria, died in Kingston hospital, where she had been a patient for the past 10 days. Her illness previously had been described by her physician only as a "chronic condition."

She Never Knew

Dr. Kenneth Lefever, who announced the cause of death, said the actress "never knew she had cancer."

Her condition, however, had been known to her family for nine months, he said.

He said that her husband, Curtiss Thomas, who was with her when she died, "had done a wonderful job in keeping it from her."

Miss Landi was an artist of multiple facets, equally successful as motion picture and stage star, as a novelist, as a linguist, as a pianist and as a singer.

Had Won Praise

Her varied talents, combined with a subtle blonde beauty, won her praise from both dramatic and literary critics of a half dozen nations.

She was born Dec. 6, 1904, in Venice, Italy, the daughter of Austrian Count and Countess Zanardi-Landi.

She reputedly was the granddaughter of Empress Elizabeth of Austria, but with a reticence rare in actresses she always refused to confirm or deny her royal ancestry.

HST TALKS FROM WHITE HOUSE

Programs Set For Truman And Dewey

(By The Associated Press)

Both President Truman and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey were booked on New York programs today, but with Mr. Truman making his talk from the White House.

The presidential candidates were holding their main fire, however, for next week's campaign windup when they make their final personal appearance tours of the 1948 contest.

Mr. Truman was scheduled to speak tonight on a nationwide broadcast sponsored by the International Ladies Garment Workers union. Actress Tallulah Bankhead will introduce the President from New York.

Dewey will make his speech in person at a memorial dinner honoring the late Alfred E. Smith, former New York governor and Democratic candidate for the presidency 20 years ago.

Speaks On Forum

Dewey spoke last night on the New York Herald Tribune forum where he renewed his strength-through-unity plea.

"Division and dissension are an invitation to the aggressor," he said. "We will put them behind us. The task of waging peace should be above partisanship. We must keep it above partisanship. America will stand before the world as one country and one people, believing deeply in the cause of peace."

U. S. Woman Faces Trial For Slaying

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 21. (AP)—An American woman accused of shooting her soldier husband during a mixed German-American party will face trial soon, U. S. military government officials said today.

They identified her as Mrs. Wilma E. Ybarbo, of Melrose, Mass. Her husband, Sergeant John Ybarbo, 24, of Goliad, Tex., died of four bullet wounds inflicted at his home in Fritzlar Sept. 20.

Trial in a military government court on a charge of "killing a member of the armed forces" is tentatively scheduled to start Wednesday. Her defense counsel, Stanley H. Gaines, of Boston, said however it probably would be delayed.

GERTRUDE NIESEN

Jewelry Jinx To Songstress

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21. (AP)—Songstress Gertrude Niesen reported the loss of $11,000 worth of jewelry last night a few hours after she had identified gems recovered following a robbery of her New York apartment.

Miss Niesen told police she left the jewels in a taxicab while returning to her Philadelphia hotel after going to New York to examine valuables stolen from her apartment last weekend.

Appearing At Club

Police here were unable to say whether the lost jewelry was part of the loot recovered in New York and Miss Niesen was not available imediately for comment. She is appearing currently at a Philadelphia night club.

Miss Niesen went to New York after police there announced the arrest of George Feld, 38, on charges that he stole gems from the singer, Actress Gene Tierney

Dallas Airmen Circle Texas Skies For Endurance Record

(By The United Press)

GRAND PRAIRIE, Oct. 21.... — Pred Vinmont and Bert Simons, out to break the world's endurance flight record and to outlast two California fliers now aloft with the same intention, were more confident than ever today that they would stay up 1,500 hours.

They took off from Dallas' Love field at 6:01 p. m. yesterday.

Five hours later a rainstorm moved in over Dallas. They circled high and wide and reported to their radio contact here this morning that everything is all right, and we think we've got it made."

They refueled—a five hour job—and then dragged up their first meal—breakfast of cereal and fruit, prescribed by a registered nurse, Mildred Nelson, who said she spent considerable time figuring out what was proper foor for men in such a grind.

Both gasoline, in five gallon cans, and the food were lifted up into the plane by a rope and hook system. Vinmont and Simons swooped low

39 Killed In Fiery Crash

Nine American Passengers On Huge Airliner

One Survivor Is Reported To Be In Grave Condition

(By The Associated Press)

PRESTWICK, England, Oct. 21 —A flaming Royal Dutch Airlines (KLM) Constellation crashed in a cow pasture near here today, killing 39 of the 40 persons aboard. Nine of the dead were Americans.

The survivor was Dutch. One American died of her injuries several hours after the crash.

The huge four-engine plane, enroute from Amsterdam, burst into flames after it struck a high-tension wire while groping for fog-shrouded Prestwick airport. It crashed near Tarbolton, a few miles outside of Prestwick.

Nothing More Heard

The pilot radioed the control tower at the field:

"I have hit something. I am going on fire. Attempting to climb . . ."

Nothing more was heard from the plane.

Identification of the victims, some burned beyond recognition had not been completed by mid-morning. Only six persons got out of the flaming wreck alive and five of them died a few hours later of burns and other injuries. The survivor was reported seriously injured.

Two of the 40 persons aboard apparently jumped out seconds before the plane plunged into the pasture.

Mile From Wreckage

One body was found a mile from the wreckage.

The wreckage of the plane was smouldering hours after the crash.

An eyewitness said one dead woman clutched the body of a child. Both were burned almost beyond recognition.

Most of the dead were trapped in the wreckage. Others were thrown as far as 50 yards from the flaming remains of the plane.

John Adams, a miner who was one of the first of the rescuers to reach the scene ,said the flames and heat prevented rescuers from reaching the trapped passengers

Legion Urges Pension Plan

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 21 (AP)—The American Legion today adopted two resolutions calling for pensions for all honorably-discharged veterans of World Wars I and II.

One asked Congress to enact legislation that would provide a $60-a-month payment to veterans of both wars when they reach the age of 55 and $75-a-month payment when the veterans reach 65 years of age.

Was Twice Defeated

The second, which had twice been defeated at previous national conventions, would provide pensions to all World War I veterans and their widows and children on the same basis now provided for Spanish-American war veterans and their widows and children.

The over-all-pension plan, as adopted at the final session of the 30th national convention, would include all veterans who served 90 days or more with the armed services and would be paid "irrespective of any other income received."

Until now the Legion has confined its pension requests td disabled veterans.

Preparedness Urged

Earlier, the Legion asked the next Congress to set the wheels of universal military training in motion.

Prepared in the form of a report by the powerful national security commission and later introduced as separate resolutions, an 11-point program urging strong

Stadium At Stake For Morton Team

SUDAN, Oct. 21 (Special) When the Morton Indians invade Sudan for their district 5-A conference football game with the Sudan Hornets Friday night, they will be fighting hard for a score—there's a stadium at stake.

F. O. Masten, wealthy farmer of Sudan who farms thousands of acres in the Sudan and Morton areas, has promised to erect a stadium for Morton High school—IF they make a score against Sudan.

Three years ago Masten wrote a check for $3,000 which paid for the materials used in the Sudan stadium. With labor donated by other Sudan citizens, the Sudan schools have a stadium now valued at more than $7,000.

And football prognosticators of the area are thinking there's a good chance of a Morton score, if not a Morton victory. The Indians have won three and lost two games, although in conference play they have lost two games. Sudan has won three and lost three, and in conference play have won and lost one.

LAURITZ MELCHIOR

Opera Star To Appear In City

Lauritz Melchior, famed Metropolitan Opera tenor who will sing at the Senior High school auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight and tomorrow night, notices that young people attend his performances in increasing numbers.

He will be accompanied by Lubbock Symphony Orchestra, directed by William A. Harrod. Holders of season tickets are requested to attend the concert tonight, while Friday night's program will be open to single admissions.

Appeared In Movies

Melchior, who has appeared in three motion pictures and made numerous tours over the nation in the hope of increasing the American people's appreciation of classical presentations, feels that he is moving toward his goal. He pointed out that more than 100 choir boys from a town near Corpus Christi heard his recent concert there.

Second Mistrial Is Declared Here After Juror Becomes Ill

Illness of a juror this morning resulted in a mistrial in the Jonie J. Wood burglary trial in Judge G. V. Pardue's 99th district—the second time this week such an order has been issued.

C. S. Black, about 44, listed on court records as living at 2006 Twenty-seventh, was taken from the jury dormitory about 8 a. m. to his physician, suffering of a kidney stone. Two hypos were administered as emergency treatment earlier at the courthouse. Black was ordered admitted to West Texas hospital, where it was indicated he will remain "a day or two." The stone, it was said, is not large, and may successfully be dissolved.

Never before had a juror in a criminal action become ill sufficiently for declaring a mistrial in Lubbock district courts, until Monday, when J. H. Cockerell, 41, of 513 Ave. C, suffered a heart attack and was ordered by a physician to Lubbock Memorial hospital. He was admitted to the hospital, where he made satisfactory recovery. He was

17,000 Acres, 414 Buildings Are Included

Property Transfer Within 2½ Months Is Said Expected

By OPAL DIXON
Journal Staff Writer

Expectations that Texas Technological college would receive the Pantex ordnance plant property of 17,000 acres and 414 buildings near Amarillo within the next two and one-half months were expressed by Dr. D. M. Wiggins this morning upon his return from a conference with War Assets administration officials.

"It looks as if the property will be transferred to the college by the first of the year, barring complications which are not anticipated," said President Wiggins.

No Trouble Expected

The application still must be passed upon by the war assets board in Washington, but the college has met all qualifications and zone officials do not anticipate that any problems will stand in the way of final approval, he said.

Dr. Wiggins, accompanied by Frank Junell, assistant to the president, attended a conference in the War Assets administration zone offices at Grand Prairie Wednesday morning. Government representatives present included C. M. Bushick, chief of the non-industrial division of the Office of Real Property Disposal; F. A. Ramsey, field representative of the U. S. Office of Education, and C. N. Townsend, assistant chief of the institutional branch of the non-industrial division of the Office of Real Property Disposal.

Uses For Property

The property, as specified in the application, would be used for the general purpose of broadening the education of Texas Tech. In the main, training would be related to agriculture and enginering.

Texas A. & M. college has a similar project, having received the Blue Bonnet ordnance plant near McGregor for use in experimentation and research.

Operation of the project by Texas Tech would not involve necessity of large numbers of students being present there, Few, if any, would need to live in that neighborhood in order to receive training on that project, it was stated from the president's office.

17 Miles From Amarillo

The plant is located 17 miles northeast of Amarillo and 139 miles north of the campus of Texas Tech.

Mart Burglary Loss Is $287

A police investigation was directed this morning into burglary of The Food mart, at 1904 Nineteenth.

Police investigators, George Hall and Pete Hubbard, said $287 in currency and checks had been taken.

Entrance was through a toilet room, which gave onto the frozen food lockers.

Collision Evidence Traced

Police indicated they would draw a complaint against a Lubbock woman in connection with an investigation into a collision Wednesday night of a car with a parked machine owned by Joe Fortin of 2307 Thirteenth.

Fortin complained to police, and drove his car to a body shop for repairs.

There it was discovered that a crumpled piece of another car's fender was wedged under one of the fenders of Fortin's car.

Charge Deemed Likely

Police began searching for a car with a large piece of fender missing.

They found the car, they said, but had not been able to make an arrest early in the afternoon.

Two bikes were reported stolen from the George R. Bean school. Not long afterward, an official of the East Broadway school saw two juveniles ride up on bikes. Neither had been known to own bikes. The two will be questioned by juvenile officials and a sher-

Communist Parties In World Are Advance Red Shock Troops

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 — The shock troops—the advance guard—of Russia are the Communist parties in every country.

That's why those parties must be kept in mind in any talk of working out peace with Russia. For example:

Russia can make no deal, stay behind a given line, sit tight, and meantime help and direct the Communist parties in other countries.

Then, if they succeed in taking over a country, they will accomplish just as much—without war—as an invasion by the Red army.

Communist Center Untouched

Those parties are tied in with the main aim of Russia—which is world Communism—and the future of Russia itself.

Communists everywhere know this:

Even if the Communist parties in every country are wiped out tomorrow—

1. Russia, the fountainhead and stronghold of Communism, still exists and is uncrushed.

2. There's a chance, particularly with Russia's help, for Communist parties to spring up again in every country.

3. There's still a gigantic starting point for Communism to spread out from Russia and win the world.

1939 Action Cited

For example, go back to 1939 when Germany and Russia signed their non-aggression pact.

The Communists here screamed out against U. S. help to Britain and France. They did what they could to ruin it with slogans and action.

But later, when Germany attacked Russia, the American Communists did a swift about-face and were all-out for war against Hitler.

That's just one little picture of the Communists at work within one country outside Russia, shooting the works for the benefit of Russia.

At Work In Europe

Right now you can see them at work in France and Italy, trying to weaken those countries from within by strikes and strife.

If the Communists can seize power anywhere—through regular popular elections or through force and violence—it is a victory for Russia.

Every country which has been taken over by its own Communists has tied its fortunes immediately with Russia. And this is to be expected ,since the air of Communists is world Communism.

So long as those Communist parties remain in countries outside Russia, Russia has fifth columns working even though she makes a peace deal.

Youth Near Death Wants Many Cards

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (AP) — Paul Nelson, jr., who does not know that doctors have told his parents he is near death, will be 17 years old next Wednesday—probably his last birthday.

"I'd like to get cards—lots of cards from anybody," said the youth who has been completely paralyzed from the neck down for 14 months as the result of an automobile accident.

"And I'd like a canary bird—one that would be singing when I wake up."

The walls in Paul's room are lined with cards, messages and gifts from sympathizers all over the country. His father asked that persons sending cards not mention the impending death.

Paul recently was removed from a hospital to his home at 2748 Windsor street. A former athlete at Amundsen high school, he now weighs less than 100 pounds.

Hardest Job For Hollywood Star Is To Say "No" Politely

Clark Gable Blushingly Admits "Wowing" Ladies Has Paid Off With 5,000 Proposals

By VIRGINIA MacPHERSON
United Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21.—Clark Gable, who spent years learning to wow ladies, admitted today it's paid off. He says he is the most proposed to man in history.

"In my time," he blushed, "I've had over 5,000 proposals."

Not from the glamour girls who'll drop everything for a call from Gable, now 47 and turning gray. These "will-you-b-mine?" offers come from lady fans. And not very young ones, at that.

"They almost always enclose a picture," Gable said. "And let me tell you, the toughest job a man ever had is saying 'no'—politely—to 5,000 women."

He has to be charming with his brush-offs. Otherwise, the ladies might get miffed and not be Gable fans any more.

He also sends the pictures back. Even the one from the gal in London who air-mailed a shot of her legs as a "teaser."

"If these interest you," she scribbled coyly, "let me know and I will send along the rest of me."

Lady Nudist Writes

A widow in Texas, who said she was 38 and lonesome, wanted him to be the father to her three sons. She was asking mainly on account of them, she said carefully, but she wouldn't mind marying him to get a step-father.

A lady nudist sent a picture of herself enjoying the sunshine all over and scratched this across her bare feet: "Let's go, hon!"

We had a look at a lot of would-be Mrs. Gables. Some of 'em weren't half bad. But then neither are Anita Colby, Dolly O'Brien, Virginia Grey, and the rest of Gable's girl friends.

And they haven't gotten any further than the English girl with the legs.

New Head Of Texas A&I Is Appointed

KINGSVILLE, Oct. 21. (AP)—New president of Texas A. and I. college is Ernest H. Poteet, who had been acting in that office since the resignation of Dr. E. M. Jones in August.

Poteet was appointed yesterday by Frank C. Smith, president of the college's board of directors, at a special faculty meeting.

Poteet has been a teacher and administrator for 30 years. He joined the A. and I. staff as director of the teacher training division.

Before coming here, he was superintendent of schools at Mercedes for 15 years and at Harlingen for seven years.

He holds bachelors and masters degrees from Baylor university.

But Electricity is still cheap

Prices at the butcher's, the baker's and the candlestick maker's have all gone up... but the price of good electric service has come down.

Today with almost every other price much higher than it was a few years ago, the price of electric service is much lower. In fact, today you are receiving almost twice as much electric service for your dollar as you were a few years ago.

We've worked hard to keep the cost of good electric service low. Our costs have gone up, both our labor and material expenses are hitting all time highs. But through the determination to bring as many folks as possible the best electric service at the lowest possible cost, we've kept rates down in the area we serve.

In spite of today's high cost of living, you may still live better the low cost electric way—and enjoy the difference.

Senator Taft Urges Texans To Cast Ballot For Republican Party In November Election

DALLAS, Oct. 21 (AP)—Republican Senator Robert Taft came to Texas with a plea for Texans to vote for GOP candidates who "represent the ideals and the political philosophy of a great majority of the citizens of Texas."

Taft told a Republican rally here last night that the Democratic party was split in factions and predicted that Thomas E. Dewey for president and Jack Porter for U. S. senator would get the largest block of votes in Texas.

Taft left last night for his Ohio home. He arrived in Dallas just before noon to speak on national housing problems at a luncheon sponsored by the Dallas Home Builders association.

Warren To Speak

Today, Gov. Earl Warren, GOP nominee for vice president, was due in Texas for a brief stopover in Fort Worth for another campaign speech for the Republican ticket.

A small crowd which Dallas Police Sergeant George John estimated at 400 to 500 persons gathered in the bandshell on the State Fair grounds here to hear Taft as well as state Republican candidates speak.

Jack Porter, U. S. senatorial nominee, drew applause and a few yells when he declared: "I know I'll be your next U. S. senator."

Porter will go to East Texas today for visits to Gladewater, Longview and Kilgore and a broadcast from the Tyler courthouse square tonight.

Alvin Lane, candidate for governor, said last night at the rally that he was doing "much more than making just a token campaign."

Johnson Mentioned

Top state Republicans were introduced from the speakers platform—national committeeman R. B. Creager and committeewoman Mrs. Lena Gay More, both of Brownsville, and Henry Sweifel, state campaign manager for the Dewey-Warren ticket.

Taft declared that the battle between President Truman and the 80th Congress, "is the same battle between freedom and totalitarian government which is going on today throughout the world."

Everything Texans believe in, he said, "is being attacked by Mr. Truman and his CIO-PAC allies. Mr. Lyndon Johnson, in general, goes along with their views."

Johnson is the Democratic nominee for the Senate.

Law Needs Changes

At a press conference before the rally, Taft said he had no comment to make on the Texas senatorial race but "I can say that I find Republicans in Texas very optimistic."

Commenting on the Taft-Hartley labor bill which he helped write, Taft said undoubtedly there would be recommendations for changes to be made in the next Congress.

He mentioned specifically that it "probably was an oversight" that the anti-Communist pledge was required of labor union officials and not of corporation officials also.

He said also that the part dealing with political contributions was never intended to apply to labor newspapers.

Taft's luncheon speech was nonpartisan and was made before some 450 builders, mortgage bankers, veterans administration officials and members of the Dallas mayor's housing council. He spoke of the need for public housing for the "lower 20 percent of the families on the income ladder."

"But we must not interfere with the other 80 per cent," he said.

"We are doing the best job we can do on the housing problem now," he said. "Time will solve it."

Baby Needs One Burping With New Plastic Nursing Bottles

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—Now they've invented a plastic throw-away nursing bottle which, according to the press agents, will be more fun for mama and baby than glass bottles.

It's a collapsible, disposable job made by the same firm that puts up an "easy color pack" for oleomargarine. (That's the deal in which the oleo and coloring matter are placed separately in a transparent packet. When you squeeze it, you get a product that looks like butter.)

Called "shellies," the new bottles are to be placed on the market by Shellmar Products corp. of Mt. Vernon, Ohio. They were invented by Mrs. Adda May Allen of the Plains, Va., a registered nurse. She is said to have gotten the idea "after she observed another nurse going through the tedious process of washing glass nursing bottles after ten hours of night duty."

An enthusiastic announcement of the new development, written by an advertising firm (J. Walter Thompson Co.), said shellies "will revolutionize infant feeding."

"Described by their inventor . . . as 'the nearest approach to breast feedin'," said the announcement, "shellies have a number of immediately apparent advantages for both mother and baby.

"For mother, there are no bottles to brush, scrub, and sterilize, because shellies are pre-sterlized, are used once and then thrown away.

Advantages Given

"For baby," continued the announcement, "the fact that the new bottles are collapsible means an end to fighting back-pressure or partial vacuum, an end to collapsed nipples, and an end to air-swallowing.

"With shellies, baby need only be 'burped' once, at the end of feeding."

To celebrate the innovation, the company sent out invitations to a cocktail part at a downtown Washington hotel. The invitations failed to make clear whether the drinks would be served in shellies.

Meat Packers Get Pay Boost

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Some 8,000 workers in Swift and company plants, including those in Fort Worth and San Antonio, were in line today for a four-cent hourly wage increase.

Swift and company announced yesterday it had reached an agreement with the National Brotherhood of Packinghouse Workers for the raise. The union, affiliated with the Confederated Union of America, represents 8,000 workers in Swift plants at Fort Worth, San Antonio, Kansas City, St. Louis, Marshalltown, Ia., Cleveland, St. Joseph, Mo., Harrisburg, Pa., and Chicago.

Increase Worked Out

A company spokesman said the increase was worked out under terms of an understanding entered into between the union and the company at the time the last contract was negotiated.

"This wage adjustment, plus the nine cent increase which went into effect in January, 1948, conforms to the national pattern of third round wage adjustments in industry generally," the spokesman said.

The brotherhood is the second largest union among those representing Swift workers. The AFL meat cutters union represents 4,000 employes in Swift plants, while the CIO united packinghouse workers represents 20,000.

Police Stop Woman But Man Has To Pay

TYLER, Oct. 21 (U.P.) — When police stopped a woman driver here yesterday it turned out that it was the man who paid—for the fine, that is.

The police stopped the car because the driver ran a red traffic light. The woman's husband hastily explained he was teaching her to drive. The officers accepted the explanation, excused the woman, and gave a ticket to the husband.

Social and program meetings of college and town women's organizations featured mid-week society.

Sixty guests attended a tea given in the home of Mrs. R. A. Mills, 2627 Twenty-second, for the Tech Newcomers club.

Following a tea hour during which Mrs. Clifford B. Jones presided at the refreshment table, Mrs. Mills displayed her collection of Early American glassware and discussed pieces in the collection.

Mrs. L. D. Blackwell presided for business.

Those attending a meeting of the club for the first time were Mesdames G. A. Lynch, W. H. Tinney, T. Euel Liner, Lewis Jones, Edwin Smith, R. W. Strandtmann, J. H. Cross, J. D. Sadler, T. N. Mallard, Wilson Ward, Vester Wolber, Troy Enis, John Lindsey, E. R. Rose, P. E. Dennis and Miss Fern Alfrey.

On Nov. 17 at 3:30 p. m. the club will meet with Mrs. Clifford B. Jones at 3501 Nineteenth.

REGIONAL DAR MEET TO BE HELD HERE

Mrs. Robert W. Wright was appointed general chairman of arrangements for a regional conference of Daughters of the American Revolution to be held in Lubbock Nov. 11, at a Wednesday afternoon meeting of Nancy Anderson chapter held in the home of Mrs. C. O. Bergholm at 808 Ave. R.

Other chairmen are: Miss Kathleen Brown, luncheon; Mrs. W. L. Baugh and Mrs. R. D. Moxley, decoration; Mrs. L. E. Weathers and Mrs. J. W. Hinton, telephone; Mrs. R. T. Bucy, transportation; and Mrs. Sterling Crumpler, publicity.

Mrs. Edward Rowland Barrow of Houston, state regent, will attend the conference.

Mrs. Isabel Garrison and Mrs. Creek Brown presented the afternoon's program on Dewey and Truman. Following the Salute to Flag, the group sang "America" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. F. A. McLain. Mrs. A. H. Douglas led a prayer and Mrs. Robert Allen, regent, presided.

Plans were made to send gift boxes to DAR approved schools which are Kate Duncan Smith in Tennessee and Tammassee in South Carolina.

Twenty-five persons attended the meeting at which Mrs. W. L. Baugh assisted Mrs. Bergholm as hostess.

LADIES DAY STAGED AT COUNTRY CLUB

Mrs. U. B. Chambers and Mrs. R. S. Prothro were hostesses at the Ladies Day luncheon at Lubbock Country club Wednesday. Afterwards, bridge was played by 28 women.

High and second high scores were made by Mrs. Lear Jones and Mrs. J. T. Price. The door prize was presented to Mrs. Leslie Mitchell of Crosbyton.

Guests not playing bridge spent the afternoon golfing.

LOCAL BLOOD BANK DISCUSSED AT CLUB

The Red Cross Blood Bank was discussed by Mrs. J. H. Stiles when she spoke for Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club Wednesday at Hilton hotel. Luncheon was served.

Mrs. O. P. Harlan was in charge of the program which was attended by three guests, Mrs. Iris Serren, Mrs. Joy Hatfield and Miss Rosiland Lawrence.

The club will have a dinner meeting next Wednesday night at 7 o'clock at the Hilton.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Woman In Middle Age, Free At Last From Being Subjugated To Parents, Is Seeking Confidence

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Are there any practical steps a person in middle age can take to gain social confidence?

Clerks in stores intimate me. I let people push me around. Those I don't know quite well, old or young, awe me into silence or confusion. I get an emotional block or something; my mind goes blank or my thoughts are stampeded, so that I appear to be a perfect dope.

I shun participation on committees, never express myself in group discussions, and I think my friends become disgusted with me. They sometimes say, "With your looks . . . with your talents . . ." and yet I honestly feel unattractive and as if I had no talents.

I have really tried hard to be different, but I just can't. It goes back to my childhood. As long as I can remember, I have never felt really accepted by any group. My parents imposed so many restrictions on my childhood play, lest I get hurt, that I acquired a reputation of being "tied to mother's apronstrings."

MUST TREE REMAIN AS TWIG WAS BENT?

I WAS an only child and "protected" excessively, constantly warned of threatening dangers, everything from germs to railroad crossings. I was surrounded by taboos. No piece of furniture was ever scratched, no dish ever broken. I have a box of my childhood toys, shiny and good as new, meant to be played with and enjoyed, but which were put away "to keep them nice." I look at them ruefully now.

Praise was seldom spoken in our family. I came to expect that an adult glance meant criticism. Comment on minor physical defects, often pointed out to visitors, was usual. I was very sensitive about all this, but not until my late teens did I become self conscious or adopt a "withdrawn" attitude. Since then I have become more and more self effacing.

Most unfortunate of all, after coming of age I was unable to leave home, due to circumstances, so that family domination and criticism continued into middle life. What now? Can you help me? Or has the tree grown too long the way the twig was bent?

(Signed) G. B.

SOCIAL CONFIDENCE GAIN IN ACTION

DEAR G. B.: As I wrote here some days ago, timidity is an aspect of childishness, an admission of predominent self concern and total reliance upon parent-figures to shield one from test-experiences in the larger world.

In your case, at your age, in view of your intelligence and quite engaging humorous sanity, very evident in your concise report of your social difficulties and the childhood thwarting which you rightly recognize as having precipitated them, it no longer "makes sense" to fear adults as if they were dragons, or group situations as if they were "railroad crossings" with a locomotive bearing down.

Of course you can gain social confidence; but not by staying apart from people while mentally rehearsing past incidents in which you acted like a dope, or imaginary situations in which you fancy yourself behaving with the aplomb of Queen Elizabeth.

"Do the thing and you shall have the power," it is said. The apostle Paul instructed the faithful, "Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind." To quote the psychologists' axiom, "Emotion follows action."

PERSONS AND TREES AREN'T COMPARABLE

ACT as if you are afraid, and you shall remain or become afraid. Act as if you had courage and competence, and the blueprint of your personality and experiences will become reshaped accordingly, gradually or with substantial rapidity, depending upon the steadiness of your performance in registering self reliance, or human coequality with other folks.

Fortunately you are not a tree, without sentient power to reverse in age the form to which the twig was bent. You have creative faculties of mind, with which mankind alone, of all living creatures, is endowed. You have the capacity to think, to reason, to understand. You have some measure of selective (or "free") will. You have authority over self; you are plastic; you can change, provided the desire to grow is stranger than the pull of habits ingrained by early conditioning.

For advice: It occurs to me that Dr. Eric Fromm's book, "Man for Himself," (Rinehart & Company, publishers), would be fine food for thought in "renewing your mind" and firming your spirit for adult behavior.—M. H.

Anniversary Party Held By Lubbock OES Chapter

Pat Boone hight was observed by Lubbock chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday night at the Masonic hall and 47th anniversary of the organization was celebrated.

Mr. Boone of Littlefield is worthy grand patron of the Grand Chapter of Texas and Mrs. Boone is grand warder. They were presented with gifts by Mrs. Kirby Nutt on behalf of the chapter.

At a program that followed the stated meeting, Mrs. Rafe Nabors read the history of Lubbock chapter; Anita and Juanita Reynolds sang and officers gave a drill and sang "Happy Birthday."

Seventy-five members and visitors attended.

During a social hour, at which Mrs. Annie Potts was chairman, a huge birthday cake was served. The cake was baked in the shape of an open book and was elaborately decorated and flanked by white and pink net. On one side of the book was lettered "Lubbock chapter 47" and on the other "Welcome to Pat Boone."

Preceding the OES meeting, officers attended a dinner at the Chicken Village honoring the Littlefield couple.

Mrs. Pierce Is Hostess With Club Breakfast

A colorful Halowe'en motif was carried out when Mrs. L. G. Pierce, jr., 2825 Twenty-fourth, entertained this morning for the Pollyanna Breakfast club. The table was laid with a black and orange cloth and was centered with a lighted Hallowe'en face, topped with a large black hat. Orange candelabra completed the decor.

Mrs. Lois Turner was a guest and members present were Mesdames J. C. Youngblood, R. C. Fields, jr., Theo Wright, Louis Jarrell, Bill Stapleton, Louie Lee Holder and Stanley Sigman.

Mrs. Sigman, 2308 Thirty-fifth, will be hostess to the club Nov. 4 at 9 a. m.

Officers Seek Gunman Here

Trail of a gunman who left afoot after robbing Dink's cafe, at 1962 Texas Ave., about 9:15 p. m. Wednesday was obscured this morning, state, county and city officers said.

The man sauntered into the place and held four customers and three of the cafe's personnel at gunpoint, and took an estimated $80 to $100 from the cash register.

Whipped Out Gun

A co-owner of the cafe, Mrs. R. G. Webb, said she was cleaning the griddle when the man walked over behind the cash register, punched the "no sale" key, whipped out a gun and said, "All of you stand where you are, and we'll be through right quick."

"I don't want to have to hurt anyone, but I'm warning you, you had better be quiet."

As the man left, Mrs. Webb said, he tossed back over his shoulder, "Don't anyone try to follow me if you want to stay healthy."

Description Is Given

He was described as being about 6 feet tall, 150 to 160 pounds, having dark curly hair and wearing blue jeans and a brown leather jacket or, as one patron thought, a navy type olive drab jacket with a fur collar.

The gun was believed to have been either a .22 calibre pistol or possibly a German Luger.

Others in the place at the time were F. W. Dodson, Miss Gwen Hobbs, a waitress, Bob Sides, a cook, and Mr. and Mrs. Lavoy Dodson and Finis Miller, the latter of Haskell.

Warren J. Hosmer, 28-year-old Pine Bluff, Ark., man, who was arrested Wednesday morning about 1 hour and 45 minutes after Pine Bluff's Chief of Police Sam Bradley had informed local police that the man was wanted there for embezzlement, was placed under $1,000 bond by Justice of the Peace D. W. Robertson.

Purse Snatcher Sought

Mrs. Felix West of 1610 Ave. K told police that a man had snatched her purse in the 1600-block of Fourteenth street, leaving the broken strap still in her possession. He then ran down the street and turned a corner, she said.

She described the purse as being black leather, of the handbag type, containing about $10 cash, a small red coin purse, a red and blue scarf, her driver's license and other articles. She gave a description of the suspect to police.

Bobby Lamb of 2104 Ave. L said that his bike had been stolen from the vicinity of a local junior high school.

Need For Farm Labor Steady As Average Frost Date Nears

The demand for cotton pulling labor has not slackened in this area, with reports from ten South Plains counties to the Texas Employment commission showing aggregate need for approximately 13,000 workers.

As average frost date approaches, farmers are apparently becoming increasingly anxious about the harvest, the reports indicate, and whether or not the recent mass migration of workers across the Mexico border has or will affect the situation was not made known.

Reports released by the Abilene control center of the employment commission for West Texas show the total need for cotton pullers in ten area counties is 12,985, and the same report indicates that need for hands has declined sharply in areas to the south and east.

Hockley, Dawson Lead

Hockley and Dawson counties lead the list in reported needs, each asking for 2,500 workers, and Lynn county is not far behind, asking for 2,200.

Needs shown in others of the ten counties are Littlefield (Lamb) 1,500, Lockney (Floyd) 200, Lubbock (except Slaton) 1,000, Muleshoe (Bailey) 1,000, Plainview (Hale) 285, Slaton (Lubbock county) 350, Ralls (Crosby) 350, Brownfield (Terry) 1,000.

Pulling prices remain generally at $1.75 per hundred pounds on irrigated crops, and $2 a hundred on dry land, gin delivery basis. In a few points over the area dry land prices are up to $2.25, apparently on poor cotton.

Two Judgments Are Signed By Courts

Judge Dan Blair, of the 72nd district court, this morning approved a compromise settlement in the compensation action of C. W. Durrett against Security Mutual Casualty company, whereby the plaintiff was awarded judgment of $1,250 and costs.

Judge Blair set aside an earlier award of the industrial accident board.

The firm of Berry and Ball represented Durrett, the firm of Crenshaw, Dupree, Milam and Crenshaw the defendant insurance company.

An order entered by Judge G. V. Pardue of the 99th district court in the case of The State of Texas against Weldon Eugene Walker ordered that the defendant pay $35 monthly toward support of a minor child, 2½ years old.

Walker was under indictment of a January term grand jury for desertion of and refusal to support the child.

The order is operative until the child reaches 16.

Pin Ceremony Held By Troop

Lubbock Girl Scouts, Troop 44, of George M. Hunt school held a pin ceremony Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Candles were lighted as promise and laws were made. The table was laid with a white lace cloth, with a miniature wells of ivy at either end. Marigolds surrounded the varnished pine log holders which held three tall green tapers, representing three parts of the promise, and ten smaller yellow candles, representing the laws.

Receiving pins were: Andrew Byrns, Barbara Lambert, Betty Ruth Morris, Bobbie Jones, Ivy Sue Shropshire, Iris Weightman, Jackie Stanton, Joyce Duncan, Kay Odom, Lee Ann Lane, Marsha Brock, Nelda Green, Nelda Patterson, Peggy Owens, Shirley Newcomb, Beth Davidson, Charlotte Koen, Delores Lamb.

Refreshments were served to the troop.

Mrs. C. E. Clark, Miss Joan Marcy and mothers of the Scouts were guests.

Mrs. Jack Stanton and Mrs. L. R. Lambert, co-leaders of the troop, conducted the ceremony.

Testimony Ends In Shaw Case

Testimony was completed shortly before 11 o'clock this morning in trial of the suit contesting the will of the late Mrs. C. D. Shaw in Judge Dan Blair's 72nd district court, and Judge Blair announced that the charge would be read to the jury at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Counsel's arguments, for which an hour and a half was allotted to each side, were to follow, and the jury, which will decide the case on special issues, probably would get the case late this afternoon.

Mental State Questioned

Testimony has centered around the mental and physical condition of Mrs. Shaw during the last four or five years of her life, the period during which she and Mr. Shaw jointly executed a will and codicil directing disposition of property valued in an official court appraisal at slightly more than $76,000.

Mrs. Shaw, who with her husband operated a barber shop, news stand and office building on the west side of the square, died here last Feb. 19.

Last witness on the stand before court recessed late yesterday, Dr. Olan Key, of the Plains Clinic staff, presented testimony that he had treated Mrs. Shaw on numerous occasions between October, 1943 and July, 1946, and that in his opinion she was of sound mind. Dr. Key followed a parade of other witnesses on the stand who testified similarly, although two or three witnesses had testified earlier in the day concerning what was described as unnatural and peculiar actions on the part of the woman prior to and following the date she and Mr. Shaw jointly executed a will on Jan. 25, 1944, and a codicil to the will on May 22 of the same year.

Suit Filed By Son

The suit was filed by Dean Owen of Carlsbad, son of Mrs. Shaw by a previous marriage, on behalf of his two children, who were not mentioned in the will or codicil. Three other grandchildren were specifically named to share in the estate after death of the last survivor of the couple.

Case Is Reviewed

Questioned by Geo. W. Dupree, of the firm of Crenshaw, Dupree, Milam and Crenshaw, Dr. Key outlined with the aid of his office records the dates on which Mrs. Shaw received checkups on treatments from Oct., 1943, when he took over the case from Dr. Sam C. Arnett, who entered military service, until July, 1946. Most of them were calls made at his office, the doctor testified.

On cross-examination by W. W. Campbell, of the law firm of Campbell and Adams, who with Foster Windham of Carlsbad, is representing the contestant, Dr. Key said Mrs. Shaw was afflicted with hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure, and that, in some cases, these maladies, along with a fractured lumbar vertabra which he had attributed in direct testimony to a fall, could affect an individual's mind.

Mrs. Z. L. Wright, 2405 Twenty-second, will be hostess to Friday Needle club at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in her home.

Officers-Elect Of Kiwanis Introduced

New officers and members of the board of directors who will take office first of the year were introduced, and reports by several who attended the annual convention of the Texas-Oklahoma district of Kiwanis International, highlighted the luncheon of the Kiwanis club today at Hotel Lubbock.

The club voted to hold the Nov. 11 meeting at the O. L. Slaton Junior High school, on invitation of Principal G. E. Dawson, who said the meal will be served in the school cafeteria and the program will be given in the auditorium by the school's chorus. The day is to be a public school holiday, along with a general business holiday.

It was announced that Cong. Geo. Mahon will speak at next week's luncheon on the United Nations and its relation to public affairs.

Reporting on the Fort Worth convention trip, each of five members of the club's Hot Shots, spoke briefly. They were Harry Delaney, Ralph Stroup, Jack Hall, Raymond E. Hamilton, and Roy Bass, the latter detailing more of convention activities than the others. Fred Sparks, president-elect of the club, who also attended the convention, was in charge of the program, and also spoke briefly.

Club president L. E. Davis was in the chair, with invocation by Dr. Burton Coffman, Houston minister and past president of a Houston Kiwanis club, who is here in a meeting at Broadway Church of Christ.

Dockers Demand To Pay Taxes Weekly

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Oct. 21. (AP) — Fifteen-hundred dockers struck today because the government won't let them pay their income tax through weekly payroll deductions.

Paying once a year, leaders of the unofficial one-day demonstration said, leaves most workers flat around income tax time.

Legion Auxiliary Elects President

Her only opponent, Mrs. Archie W. Miller of New Cumberland, Pa., withdrew as a candidate.

Earthquake Recorded At Tech Observatory

Instruments in the Texas Tech seismological observatory registered a distant earthquake of moderate intensity a few seconds before midnight Wednesday, Dr. Leroy T. Patton, head of the geology department at Tech, reported today.

College seismometers indicated that the quake probably was most severe at a point 2,700 kilometers (about 1,800 miles) west or northwest of Lubbock, Dr. Patton said.

States' Rights Candidate Says Racial Prejudice Not An Issue

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 21. (AP)—Wisdom in race relations, not racial hatred and prequdice, is the program of States' Rights Democrats, says presidential candidate J. Strom Thurmond.

The North Carolina governor closed a two-day bid for Georgia's 12 doubtful electoral votes with that assertion here last night.

"We have been accused to waging our campaign on racial hatred," Thurmond shouted to a crowd of 1,500, mostly students, in a University of Georgia auditorium.

"They say we are against human rights. I believe in progress and prosperity for all men, regardless of color. There is not an ounce of racial hatred in my soul."

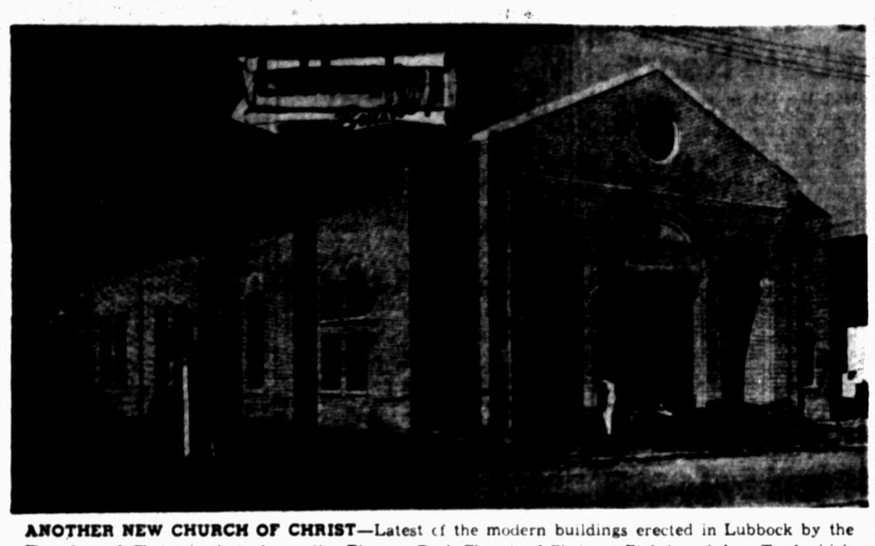

But, the candidate insisted, "such a program of progress for all can be guaranteed only if the constitutional principle of states' rights is preserved with all its force and vigor.

Northern Votes Factor

"I will defend, support and protect the right of any state to adopt its own civil rights program. But I will fight to the last against adoption of any such program by the federal government in violation of the constitution and against the will of the states."

Thurmond said the entire South had one lynching last year while New York City had a murder every day. "Yet they want to pass a federal law against lynching and not against murder," Thurmond said.

"That is because an anti-lynching bill will appeal to racial bloc voters, to well-organized minorities in the doubtful political machine states of the North."

ANOTHER NEW CHURCH OF CHRIST—Latest of the modern buildings erected in Lubbock by the Churches of Christ is that above, the Pioneer Park Church of Christ at Eighth and Ave. T, of which Hershel L. Dyer is minister. The contractor, T. R. Nicholas of Idalou, estimates the building will be completed in four weeks. Measuring 58 x 110 feet, the building contains an auditorium seating 600, with aluminum windows and amber glass. It will cost approximately $45,000. (Staff Photo).

Fifth Texas City Blast Victim Dies

TEXAS CITY, Oct. 21 (AP)—A fifth person died last night of burns suffered when manufactured gas exploded Monday night near the Stone refinery here.

He was C. C. Gilliam, 48, of Houston.

Six other victims remained in critical condition in Texas City and Galveston hospitals.

Four persons died within 12 hours of the flash explosion. Fire Chief Fred Dowdy of Texas City said butane gas leaking from a pipeline was to blame for the explosion which sent flames swirling around more than a dozen automobiles waiting for a switch engine to cross a highway.

Character Has Fun Playing Fire Chief

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21 (AP)—Some local character had fun playing fire chief last night and got away with it.

First, he swiped second Assistant Fire Chief Elmer Cain's bright red auto. Then he tore around town announcing phony positions to central headquarters over the chief's radio.

At one point, he announced he had donned the chief's hat. Then he had the gall to cut loose with a loud blast on the siren.

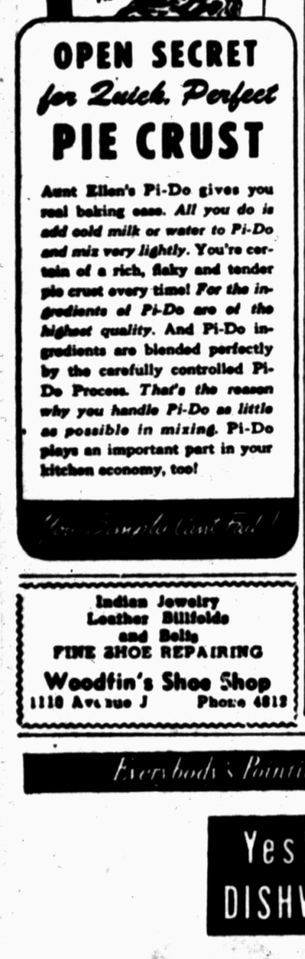

Distraught cops finally found the car—empty.

Girls May Be Cause Of Jalopy Accidents

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Teenage girls who never set foot in a car may be the cause of a lot of "jalopy" accidents, according to Mrs. Frank J. Dowd of the Illinois parent-teachers association.

Mrs. Dowd thinks a lot of the reckless driving by the high school set is a simple attempt to impress the girls.

"The solution is simple," she concluded. "If the girls refuse to be impressed but instead treat the jalopy drivers with the coldness and aloofness they deserve, "hot rods' will disappear."

U. S. Air Forces Add Another Continent To Training Ground

By ELTON C. FAY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The United States' global air force, already operating in Europe and the Far East, is adding another continent to its training ground—Africa.

B-29 Superfortresses taking off from American-used bases in England and Germany now are winging down to Accra, a British colony on the Gold Coast of Africa.

The airfield there was built originally by the British, primarily for commercial operation. With America's entry into World War II, the Air Transport Command developed the base as one unit in the ferry route to the Middle East and southeast Asia.

No U. S. Field At Accra

Air Force headquarters said today there is no United States military installation at Accra now. The superforts use facilities there for refueling on their training excursions down to the Gulf of Guinea, then turn around and head back. Under the present training program, the B-29s do not continue south or east to other war-built fields in Africa.

The new training operation began about a week ago. Its aim is to familiarize present day air crews with conditions in a part of the world proved by World War II to be vital to the United States.

The runway at Accra is understood to be 7,300 feet long. This is ample for the B-29s and such transports as the C-54. But it is not clear whether heavier aircraft now being used or built by the United States Air Force could operate from the field.

Thickness Important

Runway length is not so much of a factor as the thickness of paving. A B-36 weighs 278,000 pounds loaded; a B-29 only 105,000 pounds.

The distance to the Gold Coast from England—where three groups of B-29s are now based—is about 4,400 miles. The B-29 training route takes the planes over France, down across the western rim of North Africa. For refueling purposes, the American bombers stop at Roberts Field, Libya, or at the French-operated base at Dakar.

In returning, the route extends northwestward to the Azores (where United States planes land under an agreement with Portugal, thus getting in more over-water experience for pilots and navigators.

Planes Go To Middle East

The Air Force began sending B-29s on training flights to the Middle East early this year. They flew from the United States base at Furstenfeldbruck, Germany, to Dhahran, Saudi Arabia.

In addition to the operations in Europe, with individual or small flights of Superfortresses making trips to the Middle East and Africa, B-29s are based in Guam and operate into Japan. Two routes are flown on the Far East run—the southern leg from the United States to Hawaii and the Philippines and the northern route up from Japan, across to the Aleutians and Alaska and down across Canada to the United States.

Lubbock Boys Hurt In Scooter Mishap

Two 14-year-old Lubbock boys were in West Texas hospital today as a result of a collision involving their motor scooter and an automobile at the intersection of Twenty-seventh and Ave. S at about 5 p. m. yesterday.

Condition of Gordon Gibson, of 2001 Ave. R, apparently the more seriously injured of the two, was described as fair this morning by hospital attendants. Early hospital reports indicated that young Gibson, driver of the scooter, suffered three broken ribs, a compression fracture of the seventh thoracic vertabrae, minor concussion of the brain, a laceration on the back of the neck and a possible hip injury.

Jack Vaughn, of 1505 Ave. Q, who was riding on the scooter with the Gibson boy when the accident occurred, suffered a fracture of the right ankle. His condition this morning was given as "satisfactory."

The two youths were going south on Ave. S and a 1940 Chevrolet coach driven by Venice Alton Ryan, 32, of Lubbock, Route 7, was going west on Twenty-seventh. The car struck the left side of the scooter. Ryan was given a ticket charging negligent collision because of defective brakes, and the driver of the scooter was charged with having no operator's license on his person.

Martin Dies Hints Return To Texas Political Scene In 1950

HOUSTON, Oct. 21. (U.P.)—Former congressman Martin Dies hinted today he would not stay out of politics, and that his re-entry may be in the form of a candidate for governor in 1950.

In Houston to speak before the annual conference of the Texas Manufacturers association, Dies said he might lead a campaign to "revamp election laws and halt corrupt political practices in Texas."

Politics "Auction Sale"

Dies, former chairman of the House committee on un-American activities, said he might shove his hat in the ring in 1950 if election laws were not done over by the next session of legislature.

"If Governor Jester and Attorney General Price Daniel don't do something to amend our election laws in the next session of the legislature, I may be a candidate for governor in 1950," Dies declared.

The Texas political situation today, said Dies, could be viewed as "an auction sale' where public offices are sold to the highest bidder."

Dewey Is Praised

That was the same claim Dies made last spring, when he dropped out of the race for the U. S. Senate seat vacated by W. Lee O'Daniel.

Dies also had a word to say in behalf of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, claiming that a congressional group now probing un-American activities could expect more cooperation from a Dewey regime.

"If Dewey is elected, the nation soon will be rid of all Communists in government jobs," he said.

However, Dies emphasized he would still support the Democratic party nominees in next month's election, because he is a "a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat and always will be."

Watchmakers Elect Thomas New Proxy

Lucian Thomas of Lubbock was elected president of the West Texas Watchmakers' guild at a dinner meeting of that organization at Chicken Village Wednesday evening.

Twenty-two members, representing Lubbock, Plainview, Levelland and Muleshoe, and four guests were present.

Other new officers elected were Lester Harrison, vice president; Burl Pigg, secretary; and Woody Carlton, treasurer. All reside in Lubbock.

Retiring President Larry Kennedy of Lubbock presided at the meeting, which also featured two films on watchmaking.

Port Arthur Meets John Reagan In Week's Standout Tilt

Tech Favored Over Arizona's Wildcats

The Wildcats of Arizona university, who will face Texas Tech Saturday night at Tucson in the second Border Conference game for each team, appear to be a team in the building stage that might find themselves at any moment.

While the Red Raiders continue to get ready their offensive and defensive plays for Saturday, this would be a good time to look over the Arizona eleven.

Coach Mike Casteel, in his eighth year at the Wildcat controls, has been counting on three men to carry the main load. It is significant that two of them are linemen which, in this case, indicates development of an offensive team, around Fullback Charles Hall, Tackle Harry Varner and End Bob Larsen, Casteel is building his eleven.

Hall was a bruising, line-smashing fullback last year who teamed with Fred Enke, Jr., to give the Wildcats a powerful offensive. This year, without Enke, Hall hasn't been quite so effective, but he still has packed a lot of power.

The 190-pounder at present ranks third in the nation for kick-off returns in four games, running back seven kickoffs for a total of 225 yards. This is nine yards more than Charley Reynolds of Tech has accomplished on the same number of efforts to rank fifth. It is a good indication of Hall's ability.

Larsen Ranks Seventh

Larsen at end has been turning in brilliant performances, both offensively and defensively. He ranks seventh in the nation of pass reception, taking 15 aerials for 194 yards. Last year he caught Enke's heaves 17 times for 247 yards, including three scores. He remains as potent a threat this year and, should he catch two passes Saturday and make them good for 54 yards, he will have surpassed the 1947 mark.

Varner is a rough customer, even on an off-day. He made the second All-Conference team last season and in this, his junior, year he is giving no indication of getting worse. Rather, he has been turning in fine jobs consistently He is a fast man for all his 212-pounds and backs up the line on defense as well as he runs offense as a blocker.

Arizona's biggest loss last year was Enke, who now is a top performer with the Detroit Lions. In addition, they lost Guards Fred Knez and Verne Wuertz, Center Donald Corbitt, Tackle Roy Pizula and Backs Shanty Hogan, William Lovin and Jack Rubel.

But Casteel has come up with good replacements, not as potentially strong as last year's eleven, but still strong threats. Their two losses to Utah 48-14 and Michigan State 61-7, are offset by victories over San Diego State and Hardin-Simmons.

The Wildcats promise to give Tech a rough night, even though the Red Raiders are heavy favorites.

Juniors Stage A 'Double Bill'

Three Lubbock junior high grid teams will tangle in a "double bill" here tonight under the lights at Chapman field, in two of the four tilts slated in the South Plains Junior High football league.

The powerful Carroll Thompson Cowboys, who took over the league lead with a victory over the O. L. Slaton Redskins last week, will tangle with the Lamesa juniors in the first setto at 7 o'clock. The Cowboys, paced by the running and passing of Fullback Don Jones and Halfback Charles Hodges, can clinch the area junior grid championship by winning the remainder of their circuit games. The Thompson crew, coached by Finis Vaughn, is undefeated and untied in four games and has had only one touchdown scored against them.

Lamesa Shows Improvement

Lamesa's juniors have shown steady improvement, following a slow start, and have won two tilts while losing three decisions this season.

Probably the most interesting tilt, at least for Hub city fans, will be the O. L. Slaton-J. T. Hutchinson setto in the second game at 8:30 o'clock. O. L. Slaton's Redskins were undefeated until last week's loss by the Thompson Cowboys, and are still rated as a strong title threat. Hutchinson's Rangers, although outmanned by both of their city rivals, have chalked up several impressive wins in competition this season and will be shooting for one of the major upsets of the circuit.

The Redskins, coached by Bennie McWilliams, feature a dangerous T-formation and single wing attack built around a quartet of outstanding backs. Handling the quarterback chores in the "T" is Charles Brewer, a deft-ball-handler and capable passer, while big Duane Rampy and Johnny Tatum pick up most of the yardage on the ground. Guard Bob Newell paces a steady forward wall.

Heading the Hutchinson Ranger assault will be stocky Billy Presley, triple-threat fullback on Coach Howard Price's single wing. Presley has kept the Rangers in the league race with his jarring line smashes and long aerials, as well as turning in an outstanding punting job. He is aided in the secondary by halfbacks Don Stephenson and Jerry Rooker.

In other league games improving Seminole will invade Littlefield and Brownfield will journey to Levelland. Seminole has surged back toward the top in recent weeks, after an early season lapse, and will be favored to defeat the junior Wildcats. Levelland is making a strong bid for a "first division" spot and will have a definite edge over the Brownfield gridders.

Michigan Opposed To Big Nine Rule Change

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 21 (U.P.)—University of Michigan officials said today they were "definitely" against any change in Big Nine rules to allow the Wolverines to make a trip to the Rose Bowl again on Jan. 1.

Herbert O. (Fritz) Crisler, Michigan's athletic director and Prof. Ralph W. Aigler, Michigan Big Nine representative, agreed that it would be a "breach of faith" to alter the rule which prohibits a Big Nine team from going to Pasadena more than once in three years.

Crucial Games Are Scheduled

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Mighty Port Arthur meets undefeated, untied John Reagan of Houston in the standout game of a crowded Texas schoolboy football schedule this week.

It's another test between the best of class AA and the City conference and its overshadows the most important array of conference games on a week-end this campaign.

Port Arthur, rated No. 1 from the start of the season, already has turned back the Brackenridge (San Antonio) powerhouse, and now moves against a top club of the Houston district in the City conference where there are three unbeaten teams.

Others Get Together

Two more undefeated clubs also get together, both in district 14 of class AA where they will be battling for the top rung. They are Alice, unbeaten and untied, and San Benito, undefeated but tied by Weslaco of class A.

There are 54 games on the week-end card with conference tilts in 17 of the 18 districts in the City conference and class AA.

Most important conference contests are the Alice-San Benito battle; Odessa and San Angelo in district 3, Breckenridge-Stephenville in district 7 and Gladewater-Texarkana in district 8 of class AA and Brackenridge-Alamo Heights in district 4 of the City conference.

At Least Two Will Fall

At least two teams will fall from the state's unbeaten list. The Reagan-Port Arthur tilt will remove one undefeated, untied outfit—or both; the Alice-San Benito will take out either one undefeated, untied team or an undefeated, once-tied eleven, and Stephenville, a member of the select circle, faces trouble aplenty from Breckenridge.

The week's schedule by districts (conference games except where indicated otherwise):

CITY CONFERENCE

1—Thursday: Crozier Tech (Dallas) vs Adamson (Dallas); Friday: North Dallas vs Sunset (Dallas); Saturday: Forest (Dallas) vs Woodrow Wilson (Dallas).

2—Thursday: Fort Worth Tech vs North Side (Fort Worth); Friday: Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) vs Poly (Fort Worth).

3—Thursday: San Jacinto (Houston) vs Milby (Houston); Friday: Reagan (Houston) at Port Arthur, Austin (Houston) vs Jeff Davis (Houston); Saturday: Lamar (Houston) vs Sam Houston (Houston).

4—Thursday: Jefferson (San Antonio) vs Harlandale (San Antonio); Friday: Brackenridge (San Antonio) vs Alamo Heights (San Antonio); Saturday: Lanier (San Antonio) vs San Antonio Tech.

CLASS AA

1—Friday: Brownfield at Amarillo, Bartlesville, Okla., at Borger (nonconference); Plainview at Pampa.

2—Friday: Bonham at Childress (nonconference), Quanah at Hollis, Okla., (nonconference), Electra at Graham.

3—Friday: Midland at Abilene, Odessa at San Angelo, Sweetwater at Lamesa.

5—Friday: Gainesville at Sherman, Paris at Denison.

6—Thursday: Jesuit (Dallas) at McKinney (nonconference); Friday: Sulphur Springs at Denton, Wichita Falls at Highland Park (Dallas) (nonconference).

7—Friday: Mineral Wells at Brownwood, Cisco at Weatherford, Breckenridge at Stephenville.

8—Friday: Henderson at Tyler, Longview at Kilgore, Gladewater at Texarkana.

9—Friday: Cleburne at Hillsboro, Ennis at Waco, Greenville at Waxahachie (nonconference).

10—Friday: Nacogdoches at Jacksonville, Lufkin at Conroe, Bryan at Palestine.

12—Friday: Texas City at Baytown, Galena Park at Galveston, Freeport at Pasadena.

13—Friday: Laredo at Kerrville, Corpus Christi at Victoria, Temple at Austin (nonconference).

14—Friday: Brownsville at Robstown, Kingsville at Edinburg, Harlingen at McAllen, Alice at San Benito.

Baseball League In South Texas Formed

LAREDO, Oct. 21 (AP)—A class D South Texas baseball league of six teams was formed here last night.

Franchises went to Laredo, Corpus Christi, Kerrville, Del Rio, Victoria and Brownsville.

Bill Lacy of Del Rio was named league president, Autrey Walker of Del Rio treasurer and Jim Driver of Laredo publicity director and statistician.

AGGIES HAVE INJURIES

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Coach Harry Stiteler continued to work his Texas Aggie football squad hard today in preparation for Saturday's contest with the Baylor Bears, but the farmers still were plagued by injuries.

Mobley And Trout Wrestling Victors

The South beat the North last night at Sled Allen's wrestling arena, Rex Mobley (of Borger) and Dick Trout pinning Rod Fenton and Benny Trudell, both of Canada, in two out of three falls in their Australian tag team match.

Trudell tossed Mobley in 16 minutes for the first fall, using ar arm stomp and body smother. But Trout came back to pin Trudell in eight minutes of the second canto, using a rocking chair split to put the grapplers even.

All Four In Ring

In the final fall, all four wrestlers were in the ring at the same time and Referee Olan Boynton first counted out Trout, who was pinned by Fenton, before realizing that they both should have been behind the ropes. Finally he tapped Mobley as the winner over Trudell after four minutes of wrestling.

Spectators called the featured Australian tag team match one of the best ever shown at the local arena and there is suspicion that the same men will be paired again soon. Fenton and Trudell claimed they were robbed by Boynton and probably will demand another chance.

Jack Steele Wins

In the opener, two of three falls, Jack Steele held the upper-hand over Boynton, who doubled last night.

Steele won the first fall with a double toehold, consuming 10 minutes before the match ended. Boynton came back to grab the second in seven minutes with a reverse crab and Steele took the deciding go with a knee stomp and body smother, taking only four minutes to turn the trick.

Stage Is All Set For Upsets In Class A

Ralls Jackrabbits And Lockney Meet In District 3-A Game; Others On Tap

The stage is set for the possibility of a stunning upset in District 3-A conference football this Friday night, but it would call for an investigation.

Lockney, with five victories, three of them in conference play, travels to Ralls for a conference game against the Jackrabbits and appears to be in little danger of having its spotless record marred. Ralls, of course, might upset the heavily favored Longhorns, but it doesn't appear likely. It is one of four conference games on tap, as all eight teams return to loop play.

* * *

In other conference tilts, Spur goes to Crosbyton, Matador visits Floydada and Paducah invades Abernathy, with only the first game having a strong bearing on the race.

Spur's Bulldogs, undefeated until they met Lockney last Friday night, should have the upperhand against Crosbyton's Chiefs. Coach Sam Hawks has brought his team along in fine shape and they have rallied from initial defeats to field a strong contender.

Chiefs Have Record

But the Chiefs have played the stiffer schedule and present a better record. On comparative scores, Crosbyton beat Paducan 14-0, while Spur beat that team 40-6. On the other hand, Lockney beat Spur 13-0, while beating the Chiefs only 13-6.

Crosbyton's record is four wins, one loss and one tie. They beat Hale Center 9-0, Tahoka 13-0, Paducah and Abernathy 14-7 Lockney tripped them and they tied O'Donnell 13-13.

Spur boasts only three wins and three losses. They lost to Haskell 26-6, to Post 13-7 and then beat Hamlin 28-6, Matador 40-0 and Paducah, before losing to Lockney.

The winner of the game might take over undisputed possession of second place and there is the possibility of a first place tie through victory.

Ralls Jackrabbits don't appear to have enough ammunition to stop Lockney. They have won only once, while losing four games. Post beat them 40-6, Levelland took them 32-0, Tahoka edged them 19-6 and Floydada whipped them 39-6. Their one victory is over Matador 13-0.

Coach Curtis Kelley's Steers need four more victories to clinch the crown and only two of their four games appear to be dangerous. This shouldn't be one of them.

Whirlwinds Favored

Floydada's Whirlwinds should breeze past Matador's Matadors with little trouble. The Whirlwinds have won only two games but the lone comparative score indicates a romp. Floydada swamped Ralls 39-6, while Ralls licked Matador 13-0.

Floydada lost games to Slaton, 21-12; Tulia, 19-12; and Phillips, 31-6. They beat Ralls, followed with a 20-6 victory over Abernathy and last week were nosed out 20-19 by the defending champions, Paducah.

Matador has only one victory. They lost to Turkey 19-0; beat Estelline 19-13, and lost successive games to Amarillo B 39-6, Spur 40-0 and Ralls 13-0.

The Paducah-Abernathy tilt should be a good one, with a slight edge to the defending conference Dragons. It's a slight edge only, with Abernathy in the developing stage. The Antelopes have shown a better defense and an improving offense, while Paducah has shown a weak defense and only a fair offense.

Only two games can be used for comparative analysis, with Paducah edging Floydada 20-19 and Floydada beating Abernathy 20-6. But Crosbyton beat Paducah 14-0 while beating Abernathy only 14-7.

The Dragons should win, but it wouldn't be an upset if the Antelopes won.

Monahans Will Meet Andrews

A crucial clash between the powerful Monahans Lobos and the dangerous Andrews Mustangs, scheduled at 8 o'clock Friday night at Hamilton field in Andrews, will hold the Class A grid spotlight in West Texas this weekend, although six other conference games and three non-title battles will be unreeled in Districts 4-A and 5-A.

The Monahans eleven, undefeated and untied in five games this season, is rated as a top favorite in the 5-A circuit and has even been ranked by many West Texas mentors and sports writers as a strong contender for the state Class A championship. Andrews has been marked as a title threat since early season and, despite a loss to Kermit last week, is still expected to give the Lobos one of their two roughest battles within the district.

Monahans' Coach F. O. Scroggins, who guided the Lobos to a regional championship in 1946, Wednesday night confirmed reports of serious injuries to key players.

Three Regulars Out

"At least three regulars will miss the game against Andrews," Scroggins reported, "and two of the boys will be out for the rest of the season." Injured are Ben Parish, regular right end, Tackle Howard Greenlee and Right Half Charles Robinson. Robinson's leg is broken and he will definitely be out of action for the remainder of the schedule.

"Several of the other boys are ill," Scroggins said. "We just started with a squad of 24 players, and the injuries and illness during the last two weeks have dropped us to 17 at the present time. We still have some good players, but our reserve strength is gone."

In other 5-A games Denver City's Mustangs will play host to Fort Stockton, Pecos will journey to Crane for a non-conference tilt and McCamey will travel to Wink. Saturday Seminole will battle Kermit in a title clash.

Sundown Meets Muleshoe

Two conference tussles will be unreeled Friday night in the north half of 4-A, with Sundown's Roughnecks invading Muleshoe and Morton tangling with the Hornets at Sudan. Sundown, although practically eliminated from the loop race, will be battling for a spot in the "top bracket" of the circuit.

In south 4-A one conference and two non-title battles are slated. Slaton will go to Seagraves for a loop setto that will have little effect on the district race, while Tahoka is host to Farwell and O'Donnell takes on Whiteface of District 4-B.

"Fearless" Is Looking For Upsets

Fraley Picks Michigan, Army To Remain At Head Of Class

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A leading contributor to dollar delinquency—Fraley's Follies and the weekend football "winners."

NATIONAL

Army over Cornell—The common denominator is Harvard, beaten 40-6 by Cornell and 20-7 by Army. Same name: two different teams. And you have to go with a rugged Army line and crack backfield which looks better every week. The seven point spot doesn't look big enough, either.

Michigan over Minnesota—This easily could be an upset but the nod goes to Michigan from the record. A fairly even line battle with Michigan holding a backfield edge. With 12 points, Minnesota appears a good thing. Add famous last words.

THE EAST

Penn. over Navy—The tenth torpedo.

Penn. State over Michigan State—Don't risk a sou.

Harvard over Dartmouth—The blueplate special.

Indiana over Pittsburgh—Hoosier choice?

Vanderbilt over Yale—The Bulldog overate last week.

Also: Columbia over Princeton, Holy Cross over Colgate, Rutgers over Lehigh, Brown over Connecticut, B. U. over NYU, Georgetown over Fordham, W. & M. over St. Bonaventure and Lafayette over Bucknell.

THE MIDWEST

Notre Dame over Iowa — the "Irish" don't even need their luck.

Purdue over Illinois — They're marching now.

Ohio State over Wisconsin—Hello Harry.

Northwestern over Syracuse—Big bullies.

Also: Missouri over Iowa State, Kentucky over Marquette, Kansas over Nebraska, Colorado over Kansas State and Miami, O., over Ohio U.

THE WEST

California over Washington — Bear with me.

Oregon over Washington State—Bounce me gently, baby.

Southern Cal over Stanford — Don't say no.

Oregon State over UCLA—Say maybe.

Also: St. Mary's over Denver, Idaho over Montana, and Utah over Wyoming.

THE SOUTHWEST

Texas over Rice—With cream and sugar.

Baylor over Texas Aggies—buried deep.

S.M.U. over Santa Clara — On the lone prairie.

Oklahoma over TCU — Strictly from flip.

Also: Oklahoma A. & M. over Temple, and Nevada over Tulsa.

THE SOUTH

Alabama over Mississippi State—Blueplate dessert.

North Carolina over L. S. U.—Another whistle stop.

Mississippi over Boston college—Fine southern hospitality.

Clemson over South Carolina—I'll have the same, governor.

Also: Tulane over Auburn, Georgia Tech over Florida, Georgia over Miami, Tennessee over Tennessee Tech, VMI over Virginia, Duke over VPI, and N. C. state over Chattanooga.

CORNELL'S NEW FOES

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 21 (INS) — The two military academies—Army and Navy—and New York university have been replaced on Cornell's 1949 football schedule released today by athletic director Robert J. Kane. Niagara, Yale and Princeton are the three newcomers to the schedule.

Fans' Interest In Plane Trip Is Low

Apparently Texas Tech doesn't have 21 friends who want to travel by special plane to the Arizona game in Tucson, Ariz., Saturday.

Ridgely Mills, Continental Airlines agent, said yesterday that not one passenger had bought a ticket on the plane yet. Mills went on to say that it would be impossible to hold the charter indefinitely.

If Lubbock followers of the Red Raiders wish to make the trip by special plane, they should contact Mills not later than Friday noon. The round trip fare, cheaper than straight air travel, will be $72.

Georgia Tech Defense Tops

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (AP)—By holding Auburn to a net gain of 65 yards last Saturday, unbeaten Georgia Tech became the defensive standout among the nation's collegiate gridiron powers, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau announced today.

The Yellowjackets, who yielded 69 yards through the air but threw Auburn for a loss of four yards on the ground, moved up from third place in the bureau's defensive rankings as North Carolina State dropped from first to fourth while losing to North Carolina.

Defenses Crumbling

Vanderbilt, Tulane, Washington and Lee and Auburn have hurled a total of 213 plays against the Rambling Wreck, which has yielded a total of 169 yards on 135 running plays and 321 yards on 78 aerials. That's an average yield of 42.3 yards per game on the ground and an overall average of 122.5.

Still, defenses continued to crumble all across the country's collegiate gridirons with unprecedented regularity. Such teams as North Carolina, Ohio State and Minnesota, for instance, were able to vault into the top ten despite yields of 100, 112 and 140 yards to their respective foes.

Penn State, which finished the season with the best defensive record in the nation last year, tumbled completely out of the bureau's total defense listings when West Virginia amassed 285 yards in losing to the Nittany Lions, 157 of them by air.

A native in Sierra Leone claims to be 131 years old.

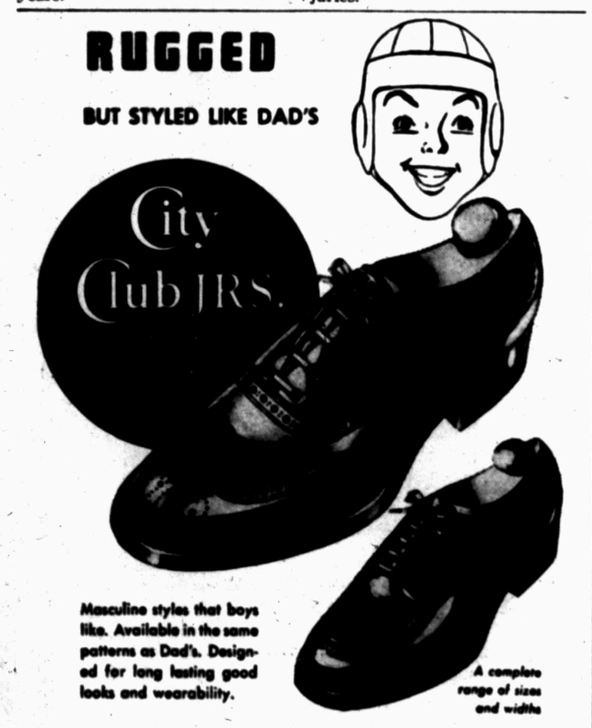

Houston Lightweight Takes Boxing Crown

GALVESTON, Oct. 21 (AP) — Chief Gordon House, 134, of Houston captured the Texas lightweight boxing crown here last night with a unanimous 15-round decision over Tony Mar, 134½ of Sonora, Mex.

The Houston Indian landed most of the blows during the early rounds, pulled through a tough time in the 11th and 12th, and turned in a strong finish.

Michigan Given Nod In Battle For "Little Brown Jug"

Between ... The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

There's no question that the Raiders themselves feel that they can win each week. They were confident they could beat WTSTC and they did. They were even more certain that they'd beat the Aggies and they did. Then they keyed themselves up for SMU and lost. They went up to Tulsa down, but drummed up enthuiasm during the game and won going away. They were keyed high for the Baylor game, only to lose in that disgusting muck and mire.

● ● ●

Of their first five games, three were against Southwest Conference teams and there's no question the Raiders were keyed up to win them. The Buffalo game was the opener at home and they were up for that tilt. They were a little down for Tulsa, but worked up during the game. You can't keep keying up a team indefinitely without a reaction setting in. If it sets in against Arizona, the Raiders might well come home on the short end of the score.

● ● ●

TheWildcats suffered losses of 48-14 and 61-7 and everyone we've talked to seems to think that those two games alone are enough to make Tech the favorite in a romp. We disagree. Hardin-Simmons may not have the best team around these parts, but they are always tough. And Arizona beat them 20-14 in Tucson. That game sobers the two bad lickings the Wildcats took. It's entirely possible that when they got far behind against both Utah and Michigan State, the Tucson eleven gave up. One reason SMU didn't run up a bigger score is that Tech didn't give up for a minute.

● ● ●

So, if Tech gets rolling Saturday night and runs up a good lead, Arizona may get careless, might even quit, although the chances are slim. If they should, Tech could run up a big score. On the other hand, if the game is close, it could be a real battle. For that reason, we imagine, the gamblers are keeping away from the game. Tech scored three touchdowns against Tulsa on kickoff and punt returns that went for long distances. There was one long run from scrimmage, one long pass and a two-yard TD plunge. In other words, the actual scoring potential from scrimmage shown by Tech hasn't been overly impressive.

● ● ●

And unless the Wildcats have slipped tremendously, they will score against Tech. It might well turn into a replica of last year's 41-28 battle out here, with both team's showing more offense than defense. The Raiders will be up against a team that outweighs them on the starting line again, as well as a squad that had weight in reserve. One thing is in the Raiders favor; they will have Quarterback Milton Rathbone and Tackle Bobby Broyle available for duty this week. Rathbone will help tremendously on offense and Broyles will be an asset on defense.

● ● ●

Coach Mike Casteel has a way of turning out offensive elevens at Arizona. The Wildcats score and score a lot, one of the reasons they are always up near the top in the nation and why Fred Enke, Jr., was the top man last year. They have a fine man in Charles Hall at fullback, while there are other backs in ability. Their passing also is in capable hands and Tech has been notoriously weak against passes this year. The Aggies, SMU and Tulsa all scored against Tech through the air, with Bob Larsen around for receiving duties and a flock of backs to pass, Tech could be in for a rough night through the air.

● ● ●

It's too early to be considering bowls around here, but we're pretty sure that Tech, even if it wins the Border Conference, will not be going to the Sun Bowl. They would, of course, be receptive to a bowl bid that carried financial remuneration commensurate with its importance. For instance, Tulsa has accepted a bid to the Delta Bowl in Memphis, Tenn., but we doubt if they go through with their acceptance. They have a possibility of winning one, maybe two, of their remaining games. That wouldn't be a bad bowl possibility. And the Dixie Bowl at Birmingham, Ala., which last year had Arkansas-William and Mary, is another prospect. Personally, we'd like to have New Year's Day free to go to the Cotton Bowl!

Westerners Given Workout On Offense

Head Mentor Pat Pattison sent the Lubbock Westerner gridders through their second consecutive rough scrimmage session Wednesday afternoon at Chapman field, with emphasis again being placed on offensive drills.

Following the pattern of previous workouts this week, two groups of players alternated on the offensive and defensive lineups, with play assignments, blocking and timing receiving special attention from the mentors. Most of the Westerner backs were given an opportunity to perform with the offensive and the results of the session were considered "satisfactory."

Only one squadman, Center Wendell Gailey, is still sidelined by an inury, and officials believe that the squad will be at top shape by the end of the week—barring additional accidents or illness.

The rough drills will continue through Friday, officials announced, with a light "limbering up" session scheduled Saturday. Hard work will be resumed Monday afternoon in preparation for the clash with Amarillo's powerful Golden Sandies here Oct. 29.

Ohio State To Stay In Rose Bowl Race

By DR. E. E. LITKENHOUS

That "Little Brown Jug" is going to stay right in Ann Arbor, the Litkenhous Difference by Score System indicates. In the annual battle for the legendary crockery Michigan is given a two-touchdown margin over the Gophers.

Michigan, the No. 1 team in the System, is ranked at 111.9 to 98.2 for the men of Bernie Bierman.

Ohio State can stay in the race for the ticket to the Rose Bowl; the Buckeyes will master Wisconsin by 30 points. The Illinois-Purdue tilt will be a close one with the Illini taking this one by two points.

5th Straight

Notre Dame, pushing Michigan for the Litkenhous leadership, will knock over Iowa by 15.2. North Carolina, third in the standings, will add its fifth straight victim this season by disposing of Louisiana State by 34.7.

Army is an 11.1 choice over Cornell but Navy will succumb to Pennsylvania by 12.7. Columbia and Dartmouth are due for Ivy League triumphs, the Lions by 8.7 over Princeton and the Indians by 7.3 over Dartmouth.

Texas and Baylor can look forward to pleasant outings in Southwest Conference competition. The Longhorns of Blair Cherry will down Rice by 18.5 and Baylor will sock the Texas Aggies by 22.9.

On the coast it will be Southern Cal over Stanford by 11.5, U. C. L. A. by 2.7 over Oregon State and California by 17.2 over Washington.

Kentucky should snap back from its loss to Vanderbilt with a close decision over Marquette. The System gives the Wildcats a 3.9 advantage.

Following is the week-end schedule of college football games with Litkenhous Difference by Score predictions. The figure after the name of each team is its power-point rating. The figure in the last column is the difference between the ratings and therefore the approximate probable difference between the scores they will make in the games. The names of the probable winners are set in boldface type. The N. R. in the tables means that a team has not played enough to have a rating.

A & I Team Now Has Kicker With Shoes

KINGSVILLE, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—The Texas A and I grid team now has a point-after-touchdown kicker who wears shoes.

Sheridan Jochetz, who has been booting the ball a la natural, suffered a broken toe two weeks ago in the Southwest Texas game. However, it was only on Tuesday that x-rays verified that the toe was broken.

Jochetz kicked the pigskin with the ball of his bare foot. He went through a high school career of shoeless kicking, but in his first collegiate game ran afoul of the broken toe. Halfback Bennie Liska, who wears shoes, now is doing the booting.

OREGON'S STOCK RISES

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 21 (INS) — Oregon's stock for its homecoming game against Washington State Saturday rose today when Johnny McKay showed improvement indicating that the high-scoring left halfback may be back in the line-up.

To maintain the milk ration in Northwest England, 13 aircraft recently began a two-month air lift between Northern Ireland and Liverpool.

Bears Of 1910 Plan Reunion

WACO, Oct. 21 (AP)—The football team that got mad at the referee, walked off the field and lost the championship will hold a reunion here Saturday on the occasion of the Baylor-Texas A. and M. game.

It was 38 years ago that Baylor university had one of its greatest teams, headed by T. P. Robinson, a gridiron immortal in Golden Bear annals. In those days Baylor was in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic association, forerunner of the present Southwest conference.

One Was Undoing

The team won six games and tied two, rolling up 217 points to the opposition's 17. But one of those ties was the undoing of the Bears. Baylor and Texas were deadlocked 6-6 when the Bears strode from the field in protest against a referee's decision. It resulted in a forfeit and Baylor didn't win the title.

Saturday 13 of the 18 boys who made up that team will be here to be entertained with a breakfast, luncheon and ride in the homecoming parade. Then they'll sit behind the Baylor bench during the game.

All 18 members of the Baylor 1910 squad are still living but two couldn't be located and several sent word they wouldn't be able to attend the reunion.

Both Coaches Dead

Coaches of the team were Ralph Glaze of Dartmouth and Enoch Mills of Colorado university. Both are dead.

Those who will attend the reunion are: Robinson, who lives at Eldorado; O. M. Harrell, Hillsboro; H. G. Isbell, McGregor; John M. Fouts, Dallas; E. T. (Bull) Adams, Glen Rose; C. M. Henry, Dallas; C. P. Mosley, Jacksonville; L. C. (Pat) Newman, Dallas; R. L. Hefley, Crist; Col. Neil S. Edmonds, Oklahoma City; W. A. (Jack) Little, Dallas; Horace Murphy, Ballinger, and V. D. Slaughter, Sherman.

BOWLING SCORES

Carl Maxey's keglers were the only team to make a clean sweep in the Business Bowling league Wednesday night at Plamor Lanes, winning three straight games from the West Texas Gas pin-toppiers.

Cunnyngham's representatives retained the top spot in the loop by taking two of three tilts with the Reeves crew while Hub Laundry gained a two of three decision over Household Supply and Reeves Insurance took two games from the City Employes.

The standings:

Teams	Won	Lost
Cunnyngham's	12	6
Hub Laundry	10	8
Reeves Inc.	10	8
Carl Maxey	9	9
City Employes	9	9
West Texas Gas	8	10
Sears	7	11
Household Supply	6	12

Baylor Homecoming Tickets Available

WACO, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Plenty of end zone tickets for the big homecoming game here Saturday between Baylor and Texas A. & M. still are available, Baylor Athletic Director Ralph R. Wolf has announced.

Approximately 400 end zone seats will be on sale to the general public through the week, Wolf said yesterday.

He said tickets for the Texas University-Baylor game still can be obtained. About 1,400 end zone ducats will be available to this contest.

Ace Lineman's Great Ambition Is Just To Make A Touchdown

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 21 (AP)—The "lineman of the week" wants to be a fullback.

Laurie Niemi, 240-pound tackle for Washington State college, was thrilled today to be named the country's top lineman for the week in an Associated Press football poll.

But it would be a greater thrill for him to make a touchdown.

"That's been my ambition," he said. "In college and all through high school I wanted to play in the backfield."

You'd never think he was dissatisfied with his job if you had watched him Saturday rearing up out of the line like a freight elevator to bat down University of Washington backs.

You wouldn't expect discontent in a lad described by Coach Phil Sarboe as "the inspiration and sparkplug of our team."

But Niemi wants to make a touchdown.

He tried out for the backfield once at Clarkston, Wash., high school "But I was too big and clumsy," Niemi said.

Doak Walker Still Amazes Grid World

DALLAS, Oct. 21 (AP)—About the only thing Doak Walker hasn't done with a football is blow it up. Some of these days they may call on him for that and what'll you bet he can't do it?

Right now he's busily engaged in setting a new scoring record in the Southwest conference. The Southern Methodist All-America has made 53 points in four games and has six to go. The record is 125 set by Joel Hunt at Texas A. and M. in 1927. At Doak's present pace he will have over 130 when the season ends.

Tops All Others

If ever there was a more versatile football player, they don't remember him in the Southwest.

Walker is a runner (he's gained 191 yards on 42 carries); passer (he's completed eight out of 14 for 79 yards and two touchdowns); punt returned (he's taken four back for 106 yards); pass receiver (he has caught seven for 228 yards and three touchdowns); kick-off returner (he has taken two back for 68 yards); defensive player (he has saved a flock of touchdowns with jarring tackles and has intercepted three passes and run them back 75 yards); blocker (he's the best at this on the Southern Methodist squad); punter (he leads the Southwest conference with an average of 37.2 yards on nine boots).

Can you think of anything else?

Not Working As Much

Doak isn't working as much this season as last or he would have more impressive figures. He hasn't had to. The Mustangs have been far ahead more times than last season, so the little man could rest up.

Last year he averaged 55 minutes per game; this year he's averaging only 48. The only time he's gone over 45 minutes was against Missouri. He played 58 in that one because SMU needed him all the time trying to keep from being defeated.

There's really nothing much new can be said about Walker, the nation's magazine pin-up boy. Lester Jordan, publicity man at SMU, was asked for an angle.

"It's worse than trying to find an angle to a straight line," quoth Jordan. "I can't think of any and if you do please let me know."

But regardless of whether there's anything new, it does seem that some kind of story ought to be written on a football player like that.

Official Scores Two Winning Game Points

HOUSTON, Oct. 21. (AP)—A negro football team that watched an official score the winning points for it in a game here may have to settle for a tie.

It happened when Jack Yates of Houston defeated Central of Galveston, 15-13, last week.

Central drew a clipping penalty when it had the ball on its own 13-yard line. An official picked up the ball and started stepping off 15 yards.

He hesitated at the goal line, but then took two steps across it and signaled a safety.

The public address system announcer told the crowd: "The rule book says that can't happen, but it did just now."

L. A. Morgan, principal at Central and chairman of district 3 of the high school negro football leargue, said he has discussed the matter with principal W. S. Holland of Yates.

"As far as are concerned, the score should be a 13-13 tie," Morgan said. "We will recommend that such a score be recognized when the committee meets."

Class A Title Play Continues In State

(By The United Press)

Scattered upsets marked title play in class A schoolboy football ranks last week, but favorites came through in most of the 32 districts as expected.

In the upper Panhandle's district 1-A, Phillips came through with an impressive 38-0 rout of Dalhart for their fifth straight triumph and remain the favorite; and Tulia stayed in the running by downing Dumas 26-13.

Knocked From Perches

But, in 2-A two major upsets wrecked the form chart as favored Shamrock and runnerup McLean were knocked from their perches and a four-team race has developed. Lefors ko'd Shamrock 12-7 and oft-beaten Wellington rose up to down McLean 13-7 to remain unbeaten in title play.

And, in 3-A, Paducah favored Floydada 20-19 to leave Lockney the top club with a 13-0 win over Spur. Lockney is unbeaten in five starts.

Levelland beat Sudan 27-0 and Littlefield downed Muleshoe 12-7 to stay at the top of the heap in the north half of 4-A and Post remained the favorite in the south half by downing Tahoka 27-7.

Monahans undefeated in 5-A competition, tangles with Andrews this week to help narrow the three-way race which also has Seminole unbeaten. Monahans downed Denver City 32-0 last week, Seminole pasted Wink 20-7 and Kermit tripped Andrews 20-0. Seminole meets Kermit this week.

Rotan Is Favorite

Rotan established itself as the 6-A west half favorite by walloping Colorado City 33-6 last week, while Albany continued its domination of the east half by drubbing Stamford 40-0.

District 7-A fur will fly this week with unbeaten Brady, 13-0 winner over Georgetown last week, meeting Ballinger, and Coleman, loser only to class AA Stephenville this season, meeting Winters, a team that's dropped only a 12-12 decision to Eastland in six starts.

Eastland was a good bet in 8-A, while Archer City remained undefeated and unscored on in 9-A and shared the lead with Holliday, which defeated Iowa Park 6-0 last week.

Jacksboro and Henrietta were at the top in 10-A, but Bowie and Nocona still were ranked in that order.

Handley and Diamond Hill, top clubs in 11-A won non-conference victories over Memphis 32-0 and Nocona 13-0, respectively.

Irving Stands Alone

Irving stood alone in 12-A as Carrolton upset Pleasant Grove's hopes 14-0 last week.

Honey Grove looms as the top club in 13-A.

Atlanta and Mount Vernon continued to rule districts 14-A and 15-A.

London and Leveretts Chapel stand out in district 16-A.

Plano knocked Terrell out of the unbeaten class 13-6 last week in 17-A to leave Kaufman and Athens the best bets.

Van remained unbeaten by downing class AA Jacksonville 21-6 to head the class in 18-A.

Lavega and Gatesville emerged as the 19-A leaders last week and will settle the issue Oct. 28. Lavega beat McGregor 26-13, while Gatesville remained unpressed for the year with a 32-7 defeat of Itasca.

Mexia continued to edge its way through the west half of 20-A competition by eliminating Hearne 6-0, while the eastern half is muddled.

Cameron's Yeomen and Rosebud rule the roost in 21-A with their Nov. 12 clash due to decide the title. Cameron downed Taylor 20-6 last week while Rosebud defeated Waco B 34-7.

San Saba On Top

San Saba stayed in the top spot in 22-A by blasting Llano 44-0, while Lampasas hung up close with a 27-13 win over Goldthwaite, while Navasota and Caldwell kept up their winning ways in 23-A, Navasota beating Franklin 21-6 and Caldwell walloped Legrange 34-7.

Undefeated, unscored on New Braunfels, which beat Luling 56-0 last week, collides with untested Lockhart in a district 24-A sizzler this week. Lockhart downed San Marcos 20-0.

Alvin and Aldine ride herd over 25-A, while Jasper took over control of 26-A by downing Challenger Nederland 13-6 last week.

El Campo, which hasn't lost a game in two years, will be after their sixth win of the year in a 27-A feature against Boling this week.

Cuero remained the team to beat in 28-A by downing Kenedy 18-7, while Edna remained in the chase by blasting Three Rivers 53-0.

Favored Falfurrias defeated Mission 7-6 in a non-district scrap in 29-A.

Weslaco still looms as a shoo-in in 30-A, where they have won four straight titles. Weslaco trimmed Laferia 32-6 last week.

Devine, 31-A favorite, toppled San Antonio Edgewood 19-0 last week, while Hondo defeated Crystal City 14-13 in the only 32-A game played. Carrizo Springs still rated the favorite's nod.

Five Big Powers In Favor Of Settling Troubles Peacefully

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Oct. 21.—The five big powers declared themselves today in favor of settling their differences peacefully.

While the security council's six neutrals polished their new formula for settling the Berlin crisis, the "Big Five" announced support of a Mexican resolution appealing to them to settle their differences.

Pledge Is Given

John Foster Dulles of the United States, in his first speech at this U. N. session, pledged "renewed efforts" to reach agreement with the other big powers.

Dulles agreed with the Mexican proposal that the great powers had a special responsibility to the world as a result of their strength and importance.

The political committee wound up debate on the Mexican proposal in a rare atmosphere of friendship and conciliation. Everybody agreed on the Mexican resolution and it was sent to a drafting subcommittee for preparation of a final text.

Has Slim Chance

Informed sources agreed meanwhile that the neutral formula for solving the Berlin crisis had at least a slim chance of success.

An official American spokesman told a news conference the new compromise was "acceptable" and "satisfactory."

He added a warning, however, against too much optimism until the Russian attitude became known.

The plan was submitted to the Big Four powers last night and will be presented to the security council as a draft resolution tomorrow.

Neutral sources said the resolution provided for:

1. An appeal to the four powers to make no move which might lead to war.

Call Upon Russia

2. A call to Russia to lift the Berlin blockade.

3. The four powers to put into action the Moscow pact making the Soviet-sponsored mark Berlin's sole currency under four-power control.

4. Raising the blockade within 48 hours after approval of the resolution. The foreign ministers council to meet immediately afterward to discuss all German problems.

The proposal, climaxing two weeks of behind-the-scenes maneuvers won qualified acceptance as a basis for discussion from both sides.

Official sources said the United States, Britain and France agreed it might form a basis for settlement. Some quarters said the resolution was "eminently satisfactory" to the western powers.

Russian Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky was reported by one neutral source to have given his conditional approval to the plan. There was no confirmation of this from the Soviet delegation or any other source, but Vishinsky agreed to send the draft to Moscow for study.

Daily Markets

Stock Market

ADVANCE IS HALTING

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (AP)—Steel and railway issues led a halting advance in the stock market late today.

Closing gains ranged from fractions to around a point or more.

The comeback was hardly decisive but in numerous cases earlier losses were trimmed or converted into small gains.

Trading activity continued relatively fast. The day's total ran at the rate of around 1,100,000 shares or close to yesterday's 1,180,000. A couple of steel issues reached new highs for the year or longer after just about holding their own or balking during the day.

Marked up late in the session were National Steel, Bethlehem, J. I. Case, American Telephone, Commonwealth Edison, General Electric, Dow Chemical (also a new 1948 peak), Johns-Manville, Union Pacific, Pacific Western Oil, American Airlines, and Eastern Airlines.

American Woolen and Pullman each lost around two points. Superior Oil dropped 5 and Pepsi-Cola dipped to within shooting distance of the low for the year.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (AP)—Cotton futures were easy today under pressure of hedge selling along with scattered local liquidation.

A leading spot firm bought about 3000 bales of nearby December, March and May futures which was credited mostly to domestic mill account, while at the same time sold 2500 bales of nearby December delivery.

Commission house buying was discouraged by the increased hedging orders overhanging the market after it had moved up about ¾ of a cent a pound above the loan level at Memphis.

Grain Market

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Oct. 21 (AP)—Wheat—No. 1 hard 2.40-2.43.

Oats—No. 2 white 94 ½-96c.

Corn—No. 2 white 1.83-1.95.

Sorghums—No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs 2.50-2.55.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (AP)—Reports that Holland was in the market for corn boosted that grain slightly on the board of trade today. Otherwise, the market was a dull affair. Wheat and oats did nothing.

Rains in the southwest caused a little selling in wheat, but this was taken without any large decline in prices. Cash corn was a little lower and purchases on a to-arrive basis totaled more than 100,000 bushels.

In the closing minutes a little increase in selling, coming apparently from traders who had bought earlier, left prices just about the day's lows.

Wheat ended ½-½ lower, Dec. $2.27 ½-⅝, corn was unchanged to ⅜ lower, Dec. $1.40 ¾-1.41, oats were ½-⅝ lower, December 76 ⅜.

Co-Eds Claim They Tire Of Beer Dates

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 21. (AP) — Cornell University co-eds are "fed up with boering dates," some of them claim.

Girls taking part in a broadcast over the University's radio station (WVBR), suggested a stroll, periods of intelligent conversation, card playing, hiking, and "any number of things except boering." They called for "dating on a less strenuous financial scale."

a member of the jury hearing evidence in the Walter Echols murder case.

The Echols case, like the Wood trial, was reset by Judge Pardue for Nov. 15.

Wood had pleaded innocent of burglary of property of Smith Keller. The case is one of three burglary charges naming the 24-year-old Plainview defendant. Arthur D. Harris, 33, also of Plainview, was convicted by a plea of guilty Wednesday in a companion case, and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. He waived a jury.

In another jury action Wednesday, Daniel D. Floyd, 30, was assessed a four-year sentence for theft by bailee of an automobile.

Three cases were decided this morning by pleas of guilty, E. G. Pharr and A. W. Salyars, assistant district attorneys, said.

Charlie Lee Smith, 38, of Texarkana was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary for theft Sept. 2 from Roy Miller; Jean Thomas Welch, 30, of the Slaton highway, was allowed suspension of a five-year sentence in a companion case; and Robert Louis Scales, 31, a Lubbock negro, was allowed suspension of a five-year sentence for burglary Aug. 16 of property of Surlester Hereford, another negro.

Judge Pardue said he would dismiss his jury panel this afternoon. A civil jury panel will report to him Monday.

Two Men Burned By Explosion, Fire At Ohio Gasoline Plant

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 21. (AP)—Two men were burned early today in a spectacular fire and explosion at the Sun Oil company's bulk gasoline plant at the western limits of the city.

All available fire fighting units responded to fight the flames which began spreading after the explosion.

Injured were William Love of Columbus, a Sun company employe, and Layton Royse, Cincinnati, a truck driver. Both suffered minor burns about the head. Mount Carmel hospital attendants said.

Storage Tanks Not Reached

Love said he and Royse were unloading batteries from a truck when the first blast accured. Bits of metal and wood were hurled from a nearby building "and the next thing I knew, flames were everywhere and I was running," Love said.

The fire was confined to a warehouse and three trucks and did not reach five large storage tanks. Firemen said the blaze started inside the warehouse and a series of blasts occurred as oil barrels were set afire.

The explosion awakened residents within a block of the scene, but no houses were menaced.

In event the application is approved, the contract will contain a security clause which provides that in case of war the government could take the property back for government use.

The application from Texas Tech board of directors to the War Assets administration for the Pantex plant is dated March 3, 1948. Prior to that date, however, negotiations preparatory to the applications had been underway.

Requirements Are Met

Numerous requirements have been met. For instance, statement of the director of the Agriculture Experiment station at Texas A. & M. college that Texas Tech is qualified to conduct research work was necessary. The U. S. Office of Education approved the application.

Another example of necessary preliminaries was the agreement Texas Tech entered into to operate a sewage disposal plant serving a housing project on a small part of the land. The housing project is operated by the City of Amarillo.

The application explains in detail various types of research, experimentation and training into which Texas Tech expects to enter.

Texas Tech has farmed about 8,000 acres of the land on lease basis during 1947 and 1948, operating a research project on wheat poisoning.

Speaking on the same forum with Dewey, the Rhode Island senator added:

McGrath said "a handful of isolationists in high places" of the 80th congress "came dangerously close to sabotaging the European recovery effort."

Trusty Sought On Prison Farm In Slaying Of Official's Wife

ANGOLA, La., Oct. 21. (AP) — Searchers afoot and on horseback fanned out over an 18,000-acre prison farm here today in quest of a negro trusty missing after the slaying of a prison captain's wife.

Prison Supt. R. H. Lawrence identified the trusty as James Bruce, who was assigned as cook and houseboy to Capt. and Mrs. John H. Spillman.

Mrs. Spillman's body was found early Wednesday behind a clothes locker in the Spillman home on prison grounds. Her neck was broken and several stab wounds were in her chest.

Escaped In Disguise

Dr. P. A. Neibergall, assigned to assist the West Feliciana parish coroner, said the wounds were apparently made by an ice pick.

Prison officials said Bruce is believed to have escaped by donning a new party dress belonging to the slain 44-year-old woman. The dress and a pair of Mrs. Spillman's gloves were found at the edge of the Mississippi river, which borders Angola on three sides.

Captain Spillman said his wife had planned to attend a tea yesterday at Afton Villa at which Mrs. Earl K. Long, wife of Governor Long, was guest of honor.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Spillman is survived by a 12-year-old daughter, Jo Ann.

Hal Boyle Meets Beautiful, Golden-Haired Mermaid While Dream-Swimming In Pacific

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK.—This morning I was sleeping peacefully, and all of a sudden I started dreaming.

I dreamt I was swimming again in the sapphire seas of the south Pacific. A light breeze dimpled the waves and sun shone warm and fair.

A dim shape moved up through the waters before me and broke the surface. It was a merimaid . . . a beautiful mermaid with tan cheeks and blue eyes. She had long wet golden hair, and there were crimson poppies tangled in it.

Shore People Useless

"Hello, big boy," she said, laughing. "Have you got a pocket comb I can borrow?"

I reached for my comb and then felt embarrassed. For some reason—you know how silly dreams are—I didn't have any pockets along.

"I must've left my comb on the beach," I mumbled.

"How annoying," said my lovely companion. "You shore people sure are useless."

W swam along together for a while, and then she said:

"Did you ever kiss a mermaid?"

"No."

"Wouldn't you like to, big boy?" she said, brushing against me softly. Her scales felt smooth as silk.

I thought it over as I switched from a sidestroke to an Australian crawl. Why not? Who would ever know the difference?

"Sure I would."

"Well," she said. "Let's play tag. If you catch me, you can have a kiss."

Sea Grew Cold

She tossed her golden head and gave a flip of her shining tail. The race was on. The blue waters churned to white foam. I flailed the waves. I was gaining . . . gaining . . . gaining . . .

All at once the sky darkened and hid the sun. The gulls flew away with shrill calls of terror. A freezing wind sprang up. The sea grew icy cold.

The mermaid sank below the surface. I dived and swam after her. But I had no breath left and I was strangling . . . strangling.

Then I woke up. My face was wet and my arms were tangled in the bed clothing. Frances, my wife, was standing over me, holding a glass of water.

"Wake up, Rover Boy", she said, "You have to go out and earn us a living."

Will Fry Again

"But why did you have to drip water on my face?" I asked.

"To stop your awful snoring," said France. "I was desperate."

"Couldn't you just've made me turn over on my side?"

"Listen, Rover Boy, I've been turning you over and over like a flapjack. Every time I got you on your side you flopped over on your back again. And the way you wave your arms around—why, a person would think you were swimming."

"I'll get up and go to work on one condition."

"What is that?" said Frances.

"That if I start snoring tomorrow morning you'll drip warm water on me instead of cold water."

"Why?"

"Never mind. I'll explain the whole thing tomorrow. And will you be surprised!"

Tonight I'm going to eat some pickles, chili, and ice cream before going to bed. And I'm going to put a comb in my pajamas pocket. I feel sleepy already, waiting to go fishing in dreamland.

"How about scaffold?" suggested McDonnell.

"That's it," the woman said. "Thanks."

Senator Glen Taylor Heckled, Egged During Florida Address

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 21 (AP)—Senator Glen Taylor of Idaho, the Progressive party's vice presidential candidate, was heckled and egged last night during a speech in downtown Hemming park.

Taylor delayed the start of his speech when demonstrators shouted for him to "go home," and he cut it short when a loudspeaker company took its equipment away. Numerous interruptions marked the Democratic senator's address, which lasted almost an hour and a half.

Song Leader Hit

One egg thrown in Taylor's direction struck a song leader and splattered into Taylor's hair. Another egg just missed the senator and broke against a picture of Taylor and Henry Wallace, the party's presidential aspirant, at the rear of the speakers platform. One rock was hurled.

A representative of the loudspeaker company said its equipment was taken away because the contract had expired and was not renewed.

Taylor said in his speech that "our only hope of getting along with Russia is electing a man they have confidence in—Henry Wallace." President Truman, he said, "doesn't know what's going on."

Would Plunge Into War

He declared that three prominent Americans would plunge the United States into war unless they are repudiated—John Foster Dulles, banker and foreign affairs expert, Defense Secretary James V. Forrestal, and William Draper, under-secretary of the Army.

Taylor charged that President Truman is "a stooge of this group of evil men" and said Gov. Thomas E. Dewey "will be a collaborator with these three if he is elected."

Brazil's Education Program Expanding

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 21 (AP)—Brazil is at war on illiteracy. A nationwide program started last year now has 700,000 students learning to read and write. Its aim is to teach a million persons a year.

Because of its wide application and its combination with instruction for useful citizenship, it is considered by educators as the leading literacy program in all Latin American countries. Government authorities, alarmed over the fact that only 55 percent of the 18-year-old age group in 1940 were able to read and write decided to do something about it.

In 1944, a full program was proposed by Clemente Mariani, Minister of Education. It became effective in 1947 and has since grown with surprising rapidity. Initiated at a cost of $31,000,000 it was made accessible to persons ranging in age from 15 to 40 years of age.

The program has been extended throughout all parts of Brazil. This year 500 movie projectors were installed for visual education on such subjects as health, civics, geography and history.

The University of Illinois football team got its name "Illini" from the tribe of Indians for which the state was named.

Charges Filed In Meat Sales

DALLAS, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—A wholesaler here faced charges today of selling meat to six Dallas public schools which had been treated with sulphite, an illegal preservative.

Assistant District Attorney Grundy Williams and state Health Inspector G. H. Close filed charges yesterday against G. L. Dubose, of the Superior Wholesale market, on the basis of laboratory tests made at Austin a week ago.

Fines Are Levied

Meanwhile, two meat market operators were fined $100 each after pleading guilty before County Judge Joe E. Brown to charges that they sold sulfited meat to Dallas cages. The men were W. E. McKissack and Roy Richardson.

In another case, market owner Hahn was charged yesterday on five counts similar to the single ones against McKissack and Richardson.

At least 19 other cases will be filed Friday, according to District Attorney Will Wilson.

An agreement to take meat supplies from Dubose, now charged with selling treated meat, has been cancelled, the purchasing agent for the public school system said.

Detection By Analysis

Close, state health department inspector, said fresh meat samples were sought from 27 of the 74 Dallas schools on Oct. 11 and 12. Thirteen of them did not serve fresh meat on either day, and eight of the remaining 14 supplied samples which showed no trace of sulfite.

The preservative can be detected only by laboratory analysis of suspected meat. It is odorless and tasteless. Its use constitutes a misdemeanor which may be punished by fines ranging from $25 to $500.

Absentee Balloting In Nov. 2 General Election Is Started

Thirty-Eight Already Cast In County; Others Being Mailed

By R. C. HANKINS
Journal Staff Writer

Thirty-eight absentee ballots had been cast up to today in the Nov. 4 general election, and applications had been made for mailing of 98 others to Lubbock county voters who will not be in the county on general election day.

The announcement was by Louie F. Moore, county clerk in whose office the ballots are marked and applications made.

County Auditor Joe Boyd said 25,750 of the two-by-one-and-a-half foot "blanket" ballots had been printed for Lubbock county.

The county has a potential voting strength of in excess of 22,000, records in the office of J. B. Johnston, county tax assessor-collector, indicate

For partisan choice, there are eight columns to decide from: Democratic, Republican, States Rights, Prohibition, Progressive, Socialist, Independent and write-in. No candidates are listed in the Independent party and write-in columns.

The Democrats, as usual, list a complete slate of 43 candidates—from president to public weigher—and the Republicans have put forward 26 aspirants, 12 of them for state offices and eight for county and precinct places.

The States Rights and Socialist parties have candidates only for president and vice president. The Prohibition and Progressive parties list eight and 10, respectively.

Electors' Names Missing

Names of electors are missing from the ballot, which identifies candidates for president and vice president.

Aside from state and other national races, the Republicans alone dispute the Democrats for Congressman on down to the tail of the ballot.

Disputed races on the tag-end of the ballot pit:

For congressman, 19th district: George Mahon (D), Mohler D. Temple (R).

For county judge: Walter Davies (D), Mack Hiatt (R).

For sheriff: Grady Harrist (D), George J. Young (R).

For tax assessor-collector: J. B. Johnston (D), F. E. Carter (R).

For Commissioner, precinct 2: George G. Green (D), Ira Brown (R).

For constable, precinct 1: George B. Jones (D), W. H. Castleberry (R).

Amendments Are Up

The voter, in addition, will be called upon to decide his preference for or against eight constitutional amendments, relating to:

1. Providing workman's compensation insurance for county employes.

2. Providing for a board for apportionment of the state into senatorial districts and representative districts in event the legislature fails to make such apportionment.

3. Providing that husband and wife from time to time may in writing partition between themselves in severalty or into undivided interests community property existing at the time of partition so as to convert same into separate property of the respective spouses without prejudice to the rights of pre-existing creditors.

4. Providing for gubernatorial succession in event the governor-elect dies, or becomes disabled, before qualifying for such succession in other contingencies.

5. Exempting $3,000 of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads from all state taxes.

6. Providing that all sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables, deputy constables and other law enforcement officers shall be compensated on a salary basis

7. Providing that no ad valorem tax shall be levied for state general revenue purposes after Jan. 1, 1951, and authorizing the several counties to levy adidtional ad valorem taxes, providing for a $3,000 residential homestead exemption, and providing for tax levies in counties having tax donations.

8. Authorizing that the legislature provide for retirement and compensation of judges and commissioners of the appellate courts and judges of the district and criminal district courts of the state on account of length of service, age or disability and for their reassignment to active duty where and when needed.

London Singer Will Marry Disc Jockey

SAN FERNANDO, Calif., Oct. 21 (AP)—Beryl Davis, young London singer, and Peter Potter, Hollywood disc jockey, plan to marry.

Potter, 38, and Miss Davis, 24, daughter of London archestra leader Harry Davis, applied for a license here yesterday. No date for the wedding was set.

Miss Davis, a favorite of American GI's in London during the war, is co-starred with Frank Sinatra on NBC's "Hit Parade."

LUBBOCK ARTIST PAINTS WEST TEXAS SCENES—Mrs. Mae Owens of 2014 Eighteenth pauses beside a recent oil painting she has done. In this painting she has made a "composition", drawing on experiences in different times and places to make the picture. Her studio-home is filled with pastels and oils of West Texas subjects. (Staff Photo).

GREAT RANGE OF SUBJECTS CHOSEN BY ARTIST

Lubbock Woman Paints West Texas Scenes For Numerous Homes And Others In Area

By BILL CLARK
Journal Staff Writer

A Lubbock woman who captures the spirit of West Texas in oils and pastels believes that "a picture should tell you something or it isn't worth hanging in your home."

She is Mrs. Mae Owens, and the orders that flow into her home studio at 2014 Eighteenth indicate that most West Texans agree with her line of reasoning.

Mrs. Owens is an attractive woman with snow-white hair and friendly blue eyes. The Texas material she draws on for subjects to paint is familiar to her, for she has lived in Texas virtually all her life.

She was born in Bastrop county, near Paige. Her father was born in Fredericksburg in 1850 after her grandfather had come with the Germans who colonized that town in 1846.

Mrs. Owens has recently completed a number of pictures for the Andrews public schools. They include portraits of George Washington, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Mark Twain, Will Rogers, James Bowie, and paintings of the Alamo, cattle and oil scenes in Andrews county.

She frequently receives commissions from interior decorators or home owners for a series of paintings for an entire home. Her prices range from $15 to $250 or more.

A great range of subjects are painted by Mrs. Owens. Flowers, she believes, are one of the most popular subjects with the public. She also paints pictures of prize-wining cattle, horses, dogs and other animals, as well as mountain scenes and landscapes.

Historical Places Selected

She has just completed "West Texas Sandstorm," an unusual pastel showing two horses on the prairie in a sandstorm.

"I study the faces of animals I paint," she explains. "I believe that animals have facial expressions and characteristics, and I like to paint those with unusual

Homecoming At Tech Planned

Plans for the October 30 Homecoming celebration at Texas Tech are rapidly advancing according to D. M. McElroy, executive secretary of the Texas Tech Ex-Students and Alumni association, who says he expects the largest crowd of exes in the history of the college.

Ticket sales to ex-students for the Tech-Rice game already number over 5,000, excluding those who hold season tickets, he said, adding that probably more than 1,000 season tickets are held by exes. An additional 2,000 tickets will be held for ex-students and sold on the morning of the game.

Lights To Be On

The campus will be a blaze of light on the traditional night, with all the lights in the buildings on and other lights strung up all over the campus. The Texas Tech chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers are in charge of lighting the campus for the event.

For the Homecoming dance the Tech gymnasium will be decorated in appropriate style with figurines representing the 23 classes who have graduated from Tech since its beginning in 1925, each figurine being dressed according to the prevailing style in the year it represents.

Interwoven into this theme will be the shields of all the campus social clubs, with an inscription designating the year they were founded. The decoration will be done by Alphi Phi Omega, men's service club on the campus.

Russia Inclined To Rely On Submarines

LONDON, Oct. 21 (AP)—Jane's Fighting Ships, authoritative publication of the world's navies, said Russia has about 250 submarines in service and "fully 100 more" under construction.

"It is evident, therefore, that Russia, like Germany, is inclined to rely chiefly on the submarine as a naval weapon," said the foreword to the 50th edition of Jane's, which is just off the press.

The publication said the "total strength of this (Soviet) fleet has been substantially increased," but that former German, Japanese and Italian warships figure conspiculously in the additions.

"Some wrecks which would not seem to have been worth the cost of salvaging have been resuscitated, apparently with the idea that nothing must be wasted if it can possibly be utilized," said Jane's.

AFRICAN TRIBAL HEIR AND ENGLISH BRIDE — Seretse Khama, 27-year-old heir-apparent to the Bamangwate tribal throne, Bechuanaland, Africa, and his 24-year-old bride, the former Ruth Williams, London office worker, sit for a photograph in their London apartment. The groom, who went to London to study law, leaves for home alone today to explain to his uncle, the regent of his tribe, why he became the first member of his tribe to wed a white girl. He says he will either come back for his bride or send for her "whatever happens."

ATOMIC ORGANIZATION INCLUDED

Eight Subversive Groups Are Taken From Tax-Free Status

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21. (AP)—The International Revenue bureau disclosed today that eight organizations listed by Attorney General Clark as "subversive" have been stripped of tax-free status.

They were among 40—including an atomic study group—taken off the bureau's roll of organizations entitled to special tax privileges as non-profit religious, charitable or educational concerns, not engaged in propaganda or lobbying.

No Reasons Given

No reasons were given for any of the removals except that the 40 do not meet the necessary qualifications. For instance, operating for profit is sufficient to disqualify an organization.

Not only are the 40 organizations barred from tax exemption on their own income, but persons contributing money to them are barred from deducting the gifts in computing their income taxes.

The eight that went off the bureau's list after going on the attorney general's are:

Abraham Lincoln School, Chicago; the Samuel Adams School for Social Studies, Boston; American committee for European Yorkers' relief, New York; George Washington Carver school, New York; Hollywood (Calif.) Writers Mobilization; the Ohio School of Social Sciences, Cleveland; the Philadelphia School of Social Science and Art, Philadelphia, and School of Jewish Studies, New York.

Extension Of Greek Military Aid Program For Another Year Indicated By Officials

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Officials said today the Greek military aid program almost certainly will have to be extended another year.

That would mean asking Congress for new funds to finance a second Greek army offensive next spring against the country's Communist-led guerrillas.

At the moment, it was learned, State department and military authorities are engaged in a resurvey of the whole Greek situation.

Recent Washington and Athens reports have said variously that the American-supported effort to secure Greece against Communist expansion: (a) so far has been a "conspicuous success" and (b) has not proven entirely satisfactory.

Task Not Complete

One fact which persons of both viewpoints here appear to agree upon is that the task first outlined by President Truman to Congress early last year is not completed and more money, barring some unexpected break, will have to be asked of Congress at the next session.

Estimates are not yet ready, but some informants said a "wild guess" is that the Greeks may need about the same amount of help next year as they are getting this year.

For the 12 months which began July 1 they are receiving between $150,000,000 and $175,000,000 out of the $225,000,000 fund which Congress apropriated for military aid to both Greece and Turkey.

It is uncertain yet whether Turkey will require more money, but officials said the situation there has been greatly improved.

Economic Aid Now Given

Under the original appropriation of $400,000,000 for Greek-Turkish aid last year, Greece received a total of $300,000,000. Of that almost one-half went for economic assistance, the remainder to build up the Greek army.

Greece now is receiving purely economic aid through the European recovery program.

The conflict in reports on the Greek situation began early this month when President Truman reported to Congress on the results of the aid program up to last June 30.

While he said much hard fighting remained, Mr. Truman's letter dated October 4 said the program had proved a "conspicuous success" in meeting the military and economic crisis of the strategic eastern Mediterranean country.

More Rebels Indicated

About the same time press dispatches from Athens said there were more guerillas operating in Greece than were believed to have been there when the Greek army started its big offensive in the Grammos mountain area last April.

The situation was further dramatized by Secretary of State Marshall's visit to the little country last weekend and by statements made to the press by United States Ambassador Henry F. Grady at Athens. In response to questions, Grady said the situation is "not completely satisfactory."

Meanwhile, on October 12, George McGhee, Marshall's coordinator for Greek-Turkish aid in the State department said in a speech at Baltimore that the rearmed Greek army had dealt crushing defeats to the guerrillas—as in the Grammos campaign. McGhee added that despite setbacks there was hope that isolated guerrilla groups would be "wiped out" before long.

Events Are Traced

Inquiry among officials here indicates that what actually has happened in the Greek situation is about as follows:

At the start of the big offensive against the guerrillas last April military authorities estimated that the back of the guerrilla movement could be broken by fall and thereafter small-scale policing operations would suffice.

This expectation was based partly on the hope of successful action by the United Nations in closing the border between Greece and its Communist neighbors of Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria—a hope which has not been realized.

The original timetable still looked good however, at the time Mr. Truman's report to Congress was being prepared.

What did not appear until later—while the report was being printed—was that additional thousands of guerrillas from the Grammos area had escaped to the Communist countries to the north and later showed up in other sections of Greece.

Yuletide Decoration Plans In Lubbock Take Definite Shape

Plans for downtown music, lighting and decorations during the holidays took definite shape today.

The total cost of approximately $3,500 will be prorated among downtown merchants and collections now are in progress, according to O. W. Ribble and Ruel C. Martin, co-chairmen of the chamber of commerce decorations committee.

Reports Are Urged

They asked committees in individual blocks to make their final collections reports not later than next Tuesday to Jim Crook, assistant manager of the chamber. The decorations have been ordered and delivery is expected within the next few days, the co-chairmen said.

Approximately 23 to 25 downtown blocks will be decorated, they added. The proposal to extend the areas beyond the central business district to such thoroughfares as Nineteenth street and College avenue were abandoned because merchants there were not interested.

The cost to downtown merchants on decorated streets will average about 65 cents a front foot, the co-chairmen estimated. This assessment, however, will vary in individual cases. Corner establishments will pay more per front foot, but less for decorations along the side of their buildings.

The decorations will include strands of colored bulbs, twined with heavy spruce roping, strung across all decorated streets. The green roping also will be wrapped around light standards.

The personnel of the city electric department will place and remove the decorations. The city will supply the necessary electric current.

Contributing to the holiday atmosphere will be the playing of Christmas music for a few minutes at half-hour intervals during business hours. A carilion will be used, the keyboard in the lobby of the Hilton hotel. Loud speakers on the top of the hotel will broadcast the carols.

Plans are to turn the lights on Thanksgiving day, Nov. 25. The decorations will remain in place until after the New Year.

Body Is Shown And Silk Clerk Sells

SHANGHAI, Oct. 21 (AP)—Silk is getting hard to get in Shanghai.

A customer appeared at a store with the silk ration coupon of another man. The clerk refused to sell him any.

"But," argued the customer, "the man is too old to come down himself to buy it."

The clerk was adamant.

Later the customer was back—this time with the corpse of the old man.

"He died," he said.

He got the silk—for a burial shroud.

U. S. Senate Investigator Will Probe Johnson-Stevenson Race

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP) — A Senate election investigator has been sent to Texas to check returns by which Rep. Lyndon Johnson defeated Coke Stevenson for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator.

Stevenson asked formally yesterday for a senate committee investigation of Texas' runoff primary election. The investigator was ordered to Austin, the state capital, to make a preliminary investigation.

Coke Renews Charges

In his request, the former governor renewed charges he had made in federal courts that runoff election returns from three Texas counties—Duval, Jim Wells and Zapata—were false.

He unsuccessfully carried his fight to bar Johnson's name from the general election ballot to the U. S. Supreme Court after the state Democratic convention declared Johnson the nominee by a margin of 87 votes out of nearly 1,000,000.

Stevenson asked for the investigation in a letter to Sen. Brooks (R-Ill), chairman of the rules committee. He said the committee should act promptly because Texas law allows ballots to be destroyed 60 days after the runoff. That will be Oct. 27.

To Report Findings

Brooks turned the letter over to Nelson B. Derenian, chief counsel of the rules subcommitee on elections.

Derenian told a reporter he got in touch late yesterday with an investigator in Oklahoma City and told him to go promptly to Austin.

He would not identify the investigator. He said the man should reach Austin by today and was supposed to report back to Washington by telephone as soon as he finished a preliminary investigation.

bureau were the Front Line Fighters Fund of the International Workers order, New York; New York City Council of the American Youth congress and the Peoples Institute of Applied Religion (Inc.), Evansville, Ind.

Clark's list of "totalitarian, fascist, communist, or subversive" organization includes the International Workers Order, the American Youth Congress and Peoples Institute of Applied Religion, without reference to individual chapters or localities.

Another organization deleted was the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear studies, Oak Ridge, Tenn., site of the atomic energy plant.

Church Assistance Asked For Refugees

GENEVA, Switzerland, Oct. 21 (AP) — Five religious organizations with headquarters in Geneva have sent an "appeal to action" to church congregations around the world asking for assistance in resettling refugees from Europe and elsewhere.

"In the final analysis, the only way to enable these people to start a new life is to find homes and jobs for them," the appeal says. "This can be done if every local congregation and Christian agency will take responsibility for securing work and housing for at least one family. Many of these uprooted people are fellow Christians from protestant and orthodox churches."

The appeal is being sent particularly to Church organizations in North and South America, the British commonwealth and western Europe. The appeal is concerned not only with the 800,000 displaced persons under the mandate of the International Refugee Organization, but also with an estimated 9,000,000 to 10,000,000 other persons not eligible for IRO care.

Joined in the appeal are The World Council of Churches, Church World Service, Inc., Lutheran World Federation and the World Alliances of the YMCA and YWCA.

She paints her subjects just as she sees them. She has never tried to imitate the "modern" school of art, although she says she enjoys looking at such work done by other artists. Her goal is to paint pictures that can be enjoyed by all ages.

Mrs. Owens looks forward to painting historical places in Texas and she has selected a number of such places that she plans to work on in the future.

Rancher Drops Gun, Ropes Buck Deer

LARAMIE, Wyo., Oct. 21. (AP)—J. H. Starr, a rancher, missed a deer when he shot at it yesterday so he lassoed it.

Starr missed the five-point buck from 75 yards. Discarding his gun, he got on his horse, uncoiled a lariat and roped the deer.

New Nash "Airflyte" Models To Be Shown By Massey Motor Co.

Two completely new lines of 1949 Nash cars are to be shown this week-end by the Massey Motor company, 102 Broadway. Six models of the new cars will be on display and showings will be held Friday and Saturday nights so that the public will have an opportunity to view the drastically-changed cars.

The new Nash 'Ambassador' and '600' models are so drastically changed in design that all body dies and major assembly line equipment used on 1948 models had to be scrapped in order to produce them, according to Floyd Massey, owner of the motor company which has the Nash dealership in the Lubbock area.

"These cars are so completely new that they have been given a brand-new name, 'Nash Airflyte for '49," Massey said. "By going all the way in aerodynamic design, Nash has achieved not only amazingly beautiful cars, but also revolutionary advances in roominess, comfort and performance. They are America's first cars with fender openings completely eliminated, and with the entire structure from bumper to bumper and road to roof streamlined in swift, low racing curves."

Drastically New Styling

The '49 Nash cars are the first of the industry's postwar models with front wheels totally enclosed. This styling advance, permitting full wheel swing on curves, was made possible because the new fender line is well outside the wheels. Tire removal is accomplished without difficulty. Rear fenders also are fully enclosed.

The new cars feature Nash-pioneered body building methods that incorporate all body and frame parts into a single electrically-welded unit that is strong, rugged and free of rattles or squeaks. Without sacrificing road clearance, the new, larger cars are lower than previous models, standing 62 inches high compared to 68 inches for 1948 models.

Distinctive front-end appearance is achieved with a broad low hood and flowing body lines that taper gracefully.

Improved riding comfort and greater roominess are features of the new Nash 'Airflyte,' which is engineered on aerodynamic principles. The new cars, which have a lower center of gravity, feature frictionless coil springs on all four wheels to provide improved body suspension and contribute to smooth roadability.

"Super-lounge" interiors of both cars are 9 feet 4 inches in length with abundant leg room. The front seat has 5 feet 3 inches of "elbow room," and the rear seat width is 5 feet 1 inch.

Twin Beds Featured

Full-length twin beds are an outstanding new development available in all 2- and 4-door sedan models. The beds are quickly convertible to provide a single bed en route or a double bed when the car is not in motion. The new bed arrangement is entirely contained in the passenger compartment, and to use it, it is unnecessary to disturb contents of the luggage compartment. These comfortable beds can be made up by dropping the divided backrest of the front seat.

A large one-piece curved safety glass windshield, standard equipment on all 1949 Nash cars, is four inches wider than '48 models. Because of its curved sides and elimination of the conventional center post, it provides greatly increased visibility.

The Nash-originated 'Weather Eye' conditioned-air system with automatic temperature control has been improved to provide increased flow of heated or unheated filtered fresh air and faster defrosting at low speeds.

Better Performance

Improved performance features are incorporated in both the 'Ambassador' and '600' series.

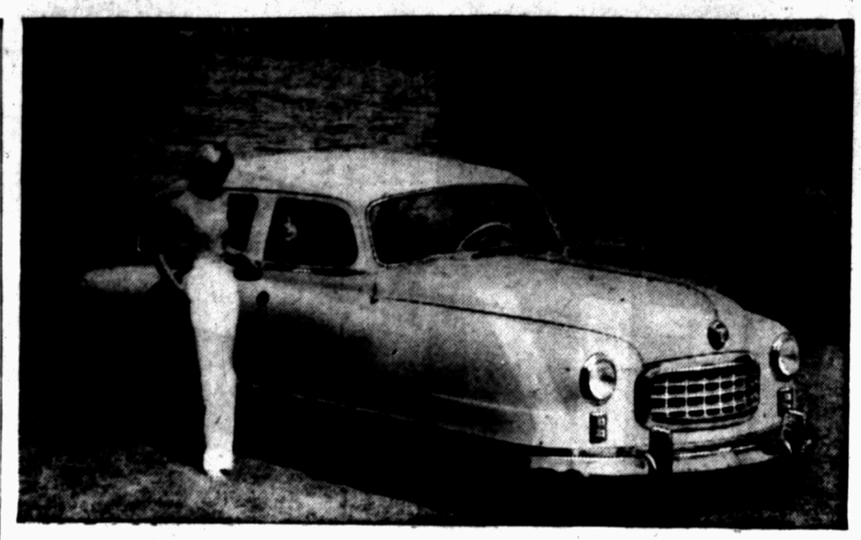

The new 'Ambassador' is powered with an improved six-cylinder, overhead-valve 112 h. p. engine, and the '600' with an improved I-head type, 82 h. p. six-cylinder engine which retains the traditional Nash economy of more than 25 miles per gallon at average highway speeds.

Models And Colors

Body styles of both the 'Ambassador' and the '600' series include the 4-door sedan, 2-door sedan and the brougham. The 1949 brougham features a novel rear seating layout with two wide single seats angled slightly to face toward the center.

Nash designers and stylists have developed two new interiors with more massive chrome hardware, combining smartness, pleasing color, practicability and refinement.

Exterior colors consist of eleven basic selections, including Sunset Maroon, Everglade Green, Horizon Blue, Marlin Blue, Ashland Green, Fawn Brown, Nile Green, Peru Gray, Arlington Gray, Black and New Nash Ivory. In addition, there are seven 2-tone combinations. The 'Ambassador' Custom interior comes in four attractive pin-stripe color combinations: brown with gray stripe, gray with brown stripe, gray with blue stripe and gray with green stripe.

ACCENT ON BEAUTY IN '49 NASH—Accent is on beauty in the completely new '49 Nash, from enclosed front wheels to gracefully tapered back. Long, low, roomy, it offers new concepts of styling, comfort, performance and safety. The new cars go on display Friday in the Massey Motor Company, 102 Broadway.

Quadruplets Born To English Couple

EDMONDTON, England, Oct. 21 (AP)—Quadruplets—a girl and three boys—were born today to Mrs. Bessie Taylor, 28, wife of a sewing machine mechanic. Doctors said the mother's condition was satisfactory and the quads have a good chance to live.

Different colored ribbons were placed on the infants to tell them apart and they were placed in oxygen tents.

The father, Robert, said he has been promised a lease on a larger house. The Taylors have two other sons, five and seven.

Without Painful Backache

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills. Adv

Korean Army Units Seal Rebels Off From All Directions In Southern Peninsula Mountains

By WILLIAM R. MOORE
Associated Press Staff Writer

SEOUL, Oct. 21—Four Korean army units tonight pressed insurgents into the south peninsula mountains.

Quick moving loyal troops sealed the assertedly Communist-led rebels off from all directions. Even the harbor at Yosu, where the uprising started yesterday, was blocked to prevent escape by sea.

The government of the new Korean republic—American occupied south Korea—announced "army troops are suppressing the riot."

Spreading from Yosu yesterday, the insurgents swept through Sunchon, 20 miles northward, and moved on Namwon, 30 miles beyond. Between the two points a loyal force intercepted some of the rebels and put them to flight after a fight.

Rebel Force Splits

Near Namwon the insurgent force split. Its strength was estimated at 4,000 after the original rioters were joined by freed Communist prisoners and some civilians—some of the rebels, carrying red flags, reportedly took to the hills near Namwon and another segment headed toward Kwangju, capital of south Cholla province.

Prime Minister Lee Bum Suk said 400 soldiers and policemen had been killed and that several women were raped by the insurgents.

Korean army headquarters here tonight was uncertain whether most of the rebels were skulking in the hills or planned a stand against loyal troops.

U. S. Army headquarters said no American troops were involved. They had been alerted but it appeared unlikely any of them would be needed to restore order.

U. S. Adviser Recalled

As a precaution, one American adviser with a constabulary company at Sunchon was recalled last night. He had not reached Seoul tonight. His name was not given.

There was no indication here that any large scale fighting had taken place. Because of the ruggedness of the terrain and poor communications it may be days before the whole story is known.

Government sources here, where martial law for the whole American zone was declared, said that Yosu was chosen for the outbreak because it is on an isolated spit and is closest to Cheju island, scene of extensive activity.

The prime minister said Communists had long planned the outbreak and that it was purposely started deep in the south to get away from any charge that Communists from the Soviet zone above the 38th parallel had anything to do with it.

Former Home Of Red

Loyal Koreans pointed out that south Cholla province was the former bailiwick of Pak Huen Young, foreign minister of the Soviet sponsored government in north Korea. He was once a Communist organizer in the province.

The Communist controlled north Korean radio at Pyongyang of late has been plumping for south Koreans to rise up against American occupation forces and the new government of President Syngman Rhee.

Prime Minister Lee said the outbreak in the army at Yosu was led by Major Oh Dong Khee, commandant of the garrison who recently had been freed from arrest.

Lee said the rioting soldiers, some 80 in number, killed or captured 100 policemen at Yosu.

It was at Sunchon that the worst fighting took place with some 300 killed.

Seoul newspapers were forbidden by the government to mention the uprising for fear it might provoke other outbreaks in the new republic.

Elephant Boy Of Movies Marries

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21 (AP) — Now it's Mr. and Mrs. Sabu.

It was disclosed last night that the "elephant boy" of the movies and actress Marilyn Cooper were married Tuesday night.

The news leaked out after Sabu, 24, telephoned his brother, Shaik Dastagir. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harley W. Smith at St. Nicholas Episcopal church, Encino, which Sabu has attended for several years.

The 21-year-old bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gillespie of Los Angeles, formerly sang on the New York stage.

She and Sabu met about two months ago on the set of "Song of India" in which he is starred.

Mexico Group Seeks To Expel Russians

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 21 (AP) — The National Anti-Communist committee today petitioned the government to expel 22 Soviet citizens it alleged are "fifth columnists."

In a report to the interior department, the committee said the 22 arrived here during the past month in several groups. It said they have diplomatic passports permitting them to enter Mexico "for scientific study."

The committee asked expulsion under constitutional article 33 which prohibits foreigners from meddling in Mexican politics, and grants the president the right to expel any foreigner whose presence is "inconvenient."

Britain has decided that toy whistles and drums are not musical instruments and will tax them hereafter at a lower rate.

Missing Galveston Teacher Is Found

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 21 (AP) — Jane Stevens, 31-year-old Galveston teacher who became the object of a nationwide search when she disappeared more than a week ago, was located here yesterday.

A reporter, acting on a tip, checked with Mayor Raymond McNeiland of the Salvation Army. McNeiland confirmed that Miss Stevens was under Salvation Army care.

The brunette teacher of handicapped children had complained of feeling overworked before she disappeared on Oct. 12.

Senator Barkley Predicts Big Victory For Democratic Party

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP) — Back from a 20-day airborne campaign trip through 18 states, Senator Alben W. Barkley today predicted "an overwhelming victory for the Democratic party."

The Democratic vice presidential nominee planned to leave Washington at noon for four speeches this afternoon and tonight in New York City, including a major labor address at a CIO [illegible]

Confident After Trip

"Not only will we regain control of the Senate," Barkley told reporters upon his arrival, "but I am going to win the House of Representatives and re-elect President Truman. And I am going to be the new vice president."

The Kentuckian said his trip by special plane to the west coast and the South "has convinced me that the people are aroused as never before and believe that only the Democratic party will give them good government.

Surprise In Store

"A lot of Republicans who thought the election was in the bag for them are going to get the surprise of their lives when the votes are counted on November 2," he said. "And the pollsters who have been predicting a Republican victory are going to feel like the Literary Digest felt in 1936 when it predicted that Alf Landon would defeat Franklin D. Roosevel."

Barkley still has more than a week of active campaigning before he closes on election eve, at his home in Paducah. He goes to Baltimore tomorrow night and speaks three times in Kentucky Saturday. Next week he is billed for speeches in Indiana and Illinois.

Bake a meat loaf in a ring mold for a company supper; fill the center with fluffy mashed potatoes sprinkled with paprika, and surround the outside of the meat ring with crisp green rounds of cucumber pickle.

Memorial Rites To Honor Naval Dead

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 21 (U.P.) Memorial services Sunday at New Orleans and Corpus Christi will honor naval dead from Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Oklahoma.

Rear Admiral L. F. Reifsnider, USN, Eighth Naval district commandant, said the services would precede the observance of Navy week. Blankets of flowers will be scattered over the Gulf of Mexico.

Similar services will be held in 24 other U. S. and foreign ports.

Flowers received from relatives and friends of the war dead will be placed aboard planes following navy-conducted rites, then they will be flown to sea and scattered on the water.

Flowers should be mailed to arrive by midnight Saturday and should be addressed to the public information offices either at district headquarters at New Orleans or at the Naval Air station, Corpus Christi, the Navy said.

Smoking Spoils Day For Burglar Catcher

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Paul Poulos' glory as a burglar-catcher went up in smoke when the lunchroom owner lit a cigarette.

Poulos floored a burglar in his lunchroom and propped his unconscious form in a booth. Before calling police, Poulos lit a cigarette "to quiet my nerves."

Stevenson Backer Supports Johnson

DALLAS, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Curtis Hall, former assistant state attorney general who actively supported former Gov. Coke Stevenson in the Democratic primary elections for U. S. senator from Texas, threw his support today to Stevenson's opponent, U. S. Rep. Lyndon Johnson.

"I still entertain a high regard for Stevenson," Hill said, "but I can't join him in deserting the Democratic party and its nominee for U. S. senator."

Hill said that, in his opinion, Johnson won the Democratic nomination honestly and was certified as the nominee by the state democratic convention.

This action, he said, was upheld by the court of last resort.

U. S. Officer Accuses Russians Of Blocking Elections To Save Communists From Defeat

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Oct. 21—Col. Frank L. Howley, U. S. commandant of Berlin, accused his Russian counterpart today of blocking citywide elections to "save the Communists from overwhelming defeat and condemnation."

Prospects for an all-Berlin city election, scheduled Dec. 5, faded with an announcement by the Soviet commandant of conditions which must be met before he will agree to citywide voting.

The Soviet commandant, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, laid down the conditions in a letter to Berlin's acting mayor, who had asked approval of election procedures similar to that already extended by the Western powers.

Howley commented:

"In the light of what he and the German Communists already have said, this is just his way of saying 'no.'

"As for all the strings he attaches and the rest of his double talk, it's the same type of obvious soapbox oratory he has been giving us for years and it does not deserve comment. The people of Berlin will understand that very well.

"Kotikov has always opposed elections until, as he once said in the Allied kommandatura 'I'm sure the reactionaries won't win.' However, we got elections for Berlin in October, 1946, when the Western powers took the issue all the way up to the Allied control council for Germany and there—over Kotikov's head—got the Russians to agree. The result was that the people of Berlin rejected the Communists . . . If elections were held today the Communists would be lucky to get three or four per cent of the vote.

"The Communists don't dare submit to an election and take the overwhelming condemnation the people of Berlin would give them. They would prefer rather to hire a few people to go down to city hall and riot and beat up elected representatives of the people."

Other Conditions Specified

Kotikov's conditions were broad and demanding. Acting Mayor Ferdinand Friedensburg, expressing regret at Kotikov's reply, asserted:

"In my opinion elections can now be held only in the three Western sectors with the possibility Soviet sector residents will be invited to come over and cast their ballots."

Kotikov's demands indicated he not only wanted the withdrawal of Western-sponsored currency from Berlin, but that he wanted non-Communist leaders erased from the ballot. The Russians have referred to their political opponents in Berlin as Fascists and warmongers. His reply also indicated he wanted a purge of the anti-Communist press and anti-Communist labor unions.

Russian Charges Published

The military governers of the three Western sectors already have approved their plans for the city elections. The Russians forced a postponement from the original date by banning the printing of various districts of the Soviet sector. Later the Berlin city council rescheduled the voting for Dec. 5.

Kotikov's statement was carried last night by the Soviet-licensed news agency ADN. It said there are restrictions on free German trade unionism and on committees of "the German popular movement for unity," and that such restrictions must go. It said "German democratic organizations" are being persecuted and supporters of unity jailed, and this must stop. It said there are militarist and fascist organizations in Berlin which must go and that "warmongers must be stricken from the election list.

Police Force Split

As a further condition for elections, Kotikov said "the unity of the Berlin police is to be restored after cleaning the police of fascist and military elements."

The Berlin police force has been split ever since the Russians refused to recognize the firing of the Communist police chief, Paul Markgraf, who is set up separately now as chief on the Soviet sector.

"The Soviet Kommandatura," said Kotikov, "is of the opinion that communal elections are necessary in Berlin shortly, since promises made the voters before the 1946 elections have been grossly violated by most of the deputies of the present city assembly."

Film Stars Reveal Who Gave Them Boosts Toward Success

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21—Who is the person behind the star?

For every famous figure there is another behind the scenes that gave him the first push toward success. That's especially true in the movies, in which it takes a lot of pull and no little push to get ahead.

For an insight into the road to stardom, the AP Hollywood forum has asked film personalities this question: "The influence of what single person made you a movie star?" Here's how they replied:

Given Stage Work

Gregory Peck: "Katherine Cornell and Guthrie McClintic gave me my first professional stage work—four lines. I worked with them for two years and learned a lot about acting. I turned down Hollywood offers until economics drove me west. I was in debt and couldn't see any other way out."

Lizabeth Scott: "Seeing Charlotte Henry in the picture 'Alice In Wonderland' convinced me that I had to be an actress."

John Garfield: "Angelo Patri, principal of the school I attended in New York. I was sent to the school a little delinquent and Patri kept my mind out of mischief and got me interested in debating and acting."

Joel McCrea: "William S. Hart was my inspiration. When I was 12, I delivered papers to him. He was very nice and his job seemed like a good way to make money. Will Rogers actually got me into the business. I played his son in two pictures and that set me up with the public."

Esther Williams: "My mother was responsible for my movie career. She made me feel it wasn't the most important thing in the world. Once when I was in a swimming meet she wrote me, 'remember there is as much value in failure as in success'."

Zachary Scott (a frank fellow): "Me. I wanted to make some money and acting was the thing I could do best."

Jack Carson: "Ginger Rogers rejected me as a suitor in five or six pictures at RKO. I decided to change studios and concentrate on comedy roles."

Danny Kaye: "There is no single person or event. It is an accumulation—Danny Kaye is an accumulation."

Take Off Ugly Fat With Grape Fruit Juice Recipe

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of Liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears — how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Saddle Horses Work Way Through College

WATERVILLE, Me., Oct. 21 (U.P.) Elizabeth Koster's two saddle horses are working their way through college.

The blonde, 18-year-old Miss Koster refused to leave her Pownal home to enroll at Colby College unless she could take her favorite mounts, Lady Chesterfield and Bonny Bright.

The horses were vanned from Pownal to a Waterville riding stable, where they are rented out to earn their keep.

Two Foreign Policies May Be Real Key To Riddle Of Russia

By RELMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

The real key to the Russian riddle lies, I believe, in the fact that the Soviet government forever leads a double life.

Simultaneously it is pursuing not one, but two foreign policies. One is a "plain" policy, concerned with security, trade, and all the interests that go to form the foreign policy of any nation. The other is the foreign policy of the Communist party.

These two are not always either parallel or compatible. The objectives are by no means the same. Sometimes, they seem to oppose each other.

Line Twists And Turns

At such times, gorgeous contradictions are succeeded by stunning paradoxes. The Russian line twists and turns and denies itself. It changes direction like a frightened dog on a football field.

Here is an example:

From the appearance of Hitler to the outbreak of war the Soviets were fiercely opposed to Germany. The two governments fulminated against each other, for years in such terms as "Fascist beasts," "Bolshevik Mongolian savages," and similar pleasantries. The Nazis hunted down and ruthlessly destroyed their Communists; the Reds, by deed and word, were openly hostile to everything German.

Yet, in 1939, Russia suddenly signed a non-aggression treaty with Germany. Magically, overnight, the two governments became "friendly."

Acrobats Amazing

Do you remember the amazing circumlocutions and mental acrobatics performed by the American Communist leaders in trying to explain this to the shocked and bewildered brethren?

What they couldn't say, by way of explanations, was this:

That, at that moment, Communist party policy, with its line and its objectives, had been forced to give way to the "plain" foreign policy, which had, as its objective, military security.

The Kremlin saw a war coming. Sooner or later, the German hordes would be turned on Russia. The Red army wasn't ready, then.

So, even though Nazi Germany represented the deepest and worst and blackest type of capitalist state—the very type the Communist has sworn to destroy—party policy, for the time being, had to be abandoned. It was a case of plain necessity.

Germany Attacks

Then, in 1940, Germany attacked Russia, as the Kremlin had foreseen. Russia suddenly found herself "allied" with some other filthy capitalists. But was she? Not according to Eugene Varga, a Soviet political expert. He wrote—

"The fact that the Soviet Union and highly developed capitalist states were in the same camp against Fascist aggression meant that the struggle of the two systems was relaxed and temporarily stopped. It did not mean, of course, that the struggle was ended."

Pipeline From West Texas To Gulf Set

DALLAS, Oct. 21 (AP)—Construction of a $10,000,000 pipeline from the West Texas Permian basin to the lower Gulf coast will begin about Jan. 1, an Atlantic Pipeline company official said last night.

John H. Wood of Dallas, vice president of the company, said first shipments of pipe for the 382-mile, 10-inch line are expected by the first of the year.

Blonde Girl Friend Kills Chicago Man

CHICAGO, Oct. 21. (IP)—James Noble, 35, a bus boy at the University club, was shot and killed today by his 250-lb. blonde girl friend when he interrupted her tryst with another man.

Miss Anna Terry, 23, told police she grabbed the gun and shot after Noble attempted to shoot her friend, Melvin Reener, 28.

She was quoted as saying Noble burst into the apartment they had been sharing together and declared:

"I though you were through with this guy a year ago. I'll fix that."

She said he ran into a bedroom and returned with a pistol.

Miss Terry said Noble fired one shot at Reener which missed.

She said a furious struggle followed during which Noble dropped the gun and she grabbed it.

Taking Off Weight Easier For Men Than For Chubby Females

(By The Associated Press)

BOSTON, Oct. 21 — When it comes to taking off excess weight, men have it all over women.

And that's a woman's opinion.

Miss Adelia Beeuwkes, Michigan University nutritionist, finds men "more business-like" about reducing.

"They nearly always see a physician and follow his advice," she said in an interview at the American Dietetic association convention.

But the girls are suckers for "dangerous reducing pills" or trick diets.

Magic Way Sought

The roly-poly ladies are always looking for some magic way to lose 15 pounds in one week, reported the attractive Ann Arbor professor. "They forget how many years it took to make them overweight."

Miss Beeuwkes, who is slim—but not scrawny—disclosed no safe, speedy formula to retain the girlish figure.

The only sure way, she said, is to discipline the sweet tooth by avoiding whipped cream, candy bars, pasteries and gravy.

The majority of fad diets don't contain enough proteins, she said, so "give up meat, eggs, butter and milk, and you may improve your figure but you ruin your health."

Fortunately the unbalanced diet addicts get so irritable and unhappy, they can't keep at it very long.

The ideal approach, she said, is to get in touch with a doctor "who gives more than a diet—he gives encouragement."

Miss Beeuwkes, an officer of the American Dietetic association, thinks people tend to put on weight as life grows more complex.

"The more tied up in modern living we get, the more we release emotional tension by eating," she said.

What to do about it? Here's her advice:

"Every time the electrical people come up with a new labor-saving gadget, Americans should learn to eat a little less."

A Quart of Medicine For One Dollar

Mertox goes to work quickly to overcome the torturing pains of rheumatism. It tones the bowels into a more rhythmic action. Expels waste matter that may have been in your system over a long period of time, causing many days, weeks and months of misery.

Gas and bloat, indigestion, sour stomach are quickly relieved.

Kidney and bladder troubles are helped so that the annoying broken rest from having to get up frequently at night is lessened.

Dizziness and run-down feeling is overcome quickly so that you feel, look and act like a different person. Mertox helps to build rich, red blood—creates a better appetite, so that you have a real zest for food.

Mertox may be taken by every member of the family. It contains no narcotics, opiates or calomel and will not make you sick, gripe, or nauseate you in the slightest degree.

Ask any druggist in Texas for a package of the new Mertox. Add to a quart of water and you have an excellent tonic medicine which will save you approximately $4.00.

Legion Hears U. S. Air Chief

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 21 (AP) — The Berlin airlift faces dangerous winter flying conditions but it will keep going, Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg told the American Legion convention today.

In an address prepared for delivery before the national Legion parley, the U. S. Air Force chief of staff said:

"To date the operation has been handled with remarkable safety. We have flown special equipment across the Atlantic for installation along the corridor but even so one must expect a less favorable safety record when bad weather descends."

There will be plane crashes with some loss of crewmen, he declared.

"But casualties or no casualties the Berlin airlift will keep going just as long as the American people say to us: 'Do the job, deliver the goods to Berlin'," Vandenberg promised.

Accomplishments Cited

He called the airlift the number one achievement of the Air Force since it became a separate military arm.

As other accomplishments, the general pointed to a new world speed record on a measured course of better than 670 miles an hour by an F-86 jet fighter; proof that a B-36 bomber can deliver a five ton bomb load more than 8,000 miles; and flight faster than sound (760 miles an hour at sea level) by a rocket-powered X-1.

Next to the expected winter problems on the Berlin airlift, Vandenberg said the Air Force is most concerned about a shortage of medical personnel and inadequate housing at its bases.

REAL DOG HOT DOGS

PORTO ALEGE, Brazil, Oct. 21 (AP) — Alexander Lau, a carpenter, was arrested here under charge of selling "hot dogs" with real dog meat.

Lau told the police "I used to kill dogs to meet the shortage of meat and feed my family." He explained that he got the idea when he saw a man on the street advertising "hot dogs." He thought it would be a good business and started it with real dog meat.

The police released Lau as there is no law in Brazil to punish such cases.

Lop-Eared Pup Watches Over Pair Of Shoes Near Railroad

ATLANTA, Oct. 21 (AP)—A pair of old, worn out shoes have brought widespread notoriety to a lop-eared brindle pup here.

The shoes are down by the railroad tracks, and the brindle pup watches over them as zealously as if they were the best dog biscuits in the world.

The pup has guarded them for more than three days. Members of a construction gang toss the pup food, which he eats, but he comes up fighting whenever a move is made to touch the shoes

The pup's picture was taken and publicized, and a call was sent out for the anonymous owner of the shoes to come around and get his pup.

W. H. Phillips, a member of the construction gang, says he's afraid the dog-catcher might show up and take the pup away.

"We've called the pup everything in the book, but he don't answer" Phillips said yesterday. "He just lies there and grieves —until somebody makes a move toward those shoes."

Pair Claims Scientists Play Decisive Role In Arms Race

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (AP)—American scientists and engineers working on weapon development play a decisive role in the arms race, say two men who once worked on the atomic bomb project.

The scientists, they said, can contribute to peace if they will "make it clear that they stand ready to restrain themselves from work liable to be used for killing people."

In an article in the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientist, Guthbert Daniel and Dr. Arthur M. Squires said:

Question Posed

"They (scientists and engineers) must ask themselves whether their present professional activities contribute to peace or war. They must submit to scrutiny the motivations of their present activities. They must decide whether they should accept responsibility for the use of the results of their studies, or whether they dare delegate this responsibility to other men."

Daniel is consulting statistical engineer and Squires is physical chemist for Hydrocarbon Research, inc. They said in their article that "many scientists now say and believe: while we ourselves would prefer not to work on new weapons, we must nevertheless do so, because if we don't others will, both here and in Russia.

"The atomic scientists of America have been frantically asking for a peace in which they can act as free scientists, and not as vendors of death. Today scientists are being made accomplices in civilization's suicide. They must act to prevent this tragedy."

New Zealand has ended tea rationing.

Rites Set At Ralls For Whitharral Man

RALLS, Oct. 21 (Special)—Funeral services for J. A. Butner, 59, of Whitharral, long-time Ralls resident, are to be conducted at 3 p. m. today in Ralls Baptist church, with Rev. H. G. Verner of Whitharral officiating, and Rev. James S. Abernathy, pastor, assisting.

Mr. Butner moved from Ralls to Whitharral about seven years ago. He died at 12:15 a. m. Wednesday in General hospital in Wichita Falls of a malignant ailment. He had been ill about seven months.

Survivors include the wife, one son, Glenn Butner of Levelland; one daughter, Mrs. Ondal Jordan of route 5, Lubbock; one sister, Mrs. S. L. McQueen of Wichita Falls; two brothers, M. A. Butner and Bob Butner, both of Bronte; and two grandchildren.

Palbearers will be Wayne Matthews, Doug Horton, Dick Epperson, Ed Hohnson, all of Whitharral; Joe Moore, Ralls; Joe Ashlev, Baileyboro; David Mitchell, Levelland; and R. A. Jordan, Lubbock.

Burial will be in Ralls cemetery with Marr Funeral home of Ralls directing.

Mother Is Charged With Embezzlement

FORT WORTH, Oct. 21 (AP)—A widowed mother of four small children was arrested at her home near Midland yesterday on charges of embezzling $2,181.87 from the Trinity State bank here.

The widow, Mrs. Emma Louise Wilson, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace B. D. Girdley of Midland.

Mrs. Wilson was charged with taking the money between Aug. 12, 1947, and March 4, 1948, while a central teller at the bank.

That Girl on Broadway says when two egotists get together, it's an I for an I and a toot for a toot!

★ ★ ★

That Man on Avenue Q says in this queer peace, instead of burying the hatchet, nations are sharpening their battle-axes!

★ ★ ★

GOV. J. STROM THURMOND of South Carolina, and Gov. Fielding Wright, of Mississippi, candidates, respectively, for President and Vice President on the States Rights Democratic ticket, are fighting for a principle, rather than running for the offices for which they are filed.

Both are intelligent and well informed in matters political. They know that only a miracle can land them, officially, in Washington. Their principal aim is to awaken the people of the South to their mistreatment at the hands of those who have kidnaped the once proud and respectable Democratic party. Through such an awakening, they hope to force the reorganization of the party with the South again having something to say about its platforms, policies and operation.

Whether or not one agrees with the principle for which Governors Thurmond and Wright are contending, one must admire their political courage and their placing the best interests of their beloved Southland above their own political futures.

Men who are that politically unselfish are all too few in this or any other country.

Governors Thurmond and Wright have only the barest chance of being elected. But that does not mean they have only the barest chance of victory in the fight in which they and their supporters currently are engaged.

The only way they can gain the Presidency and the Vice Presidency is to figure in election results which give no ticket as many as 266 electoral votes, and then they must be successful in being chosen by action of the national House of Representatives. That's next to impossible.

But they can win their fight against a continuation of the present operation and leadership of what is called the Democratic party by carrying so many Southern states that a reorganization of the wrecked party will be forced upon its present sorry leadership, thus bringing back to the South a fair share of influence and control.

★ ★ ★

THAT is what Strom Thurmond and Fielding Wright are fighting for. That is what they are risking their political lives on.

They are big enough to say:

"Whatever happens to us makes no difference. What is important is to help the whole country, and especially the South, by making the Democratic party once again the party of the rank and file of the American people instead of the tool of the bosses of the big city political machines; of the racial and other minority blocs; and of the selfishly ambitious leaders of predatory industry and labor."

Since both Governors Thurmond and Wright are Southern Democrats — which means they are real Democrats of the Jefferson-Jackson school as opposed to so-called Democrats of the Roosevelt-Truman-CIO stamp — their only hope of success lies in the reaction to their crusade by their fellow Democrats in the so-called "Solid South."

Let's take a look at that now not-so-Solid South, and the Thurmond-Wright prospects.

In what we call the Solid South there are 11 states with a total of 127 of the nation's 531 electoral votes.

These states, and their electoral votes, are Alabama, 11; Arkansas, 9; Georgia, 12; Louisiana, 10; Mississippi, 9; North Carolina, 14; South Carolina, 8; Tennessee, 12; Virginia, 11; Texas, 23; and Florida, 8. Thus, if the Thurmond-Wright ticket could carry the "Solid South," and Dewey failed to literally swamp Truman, the contest would be thrown into the lower house of Congress where, conceivably, Thurmond-Wright might merge victorious.

The big fly in the Thurmond-Wright ointment is, of course, the practical cinch that they can't carry all of the "Solid South". And even if they do, Dewey can still get enough votes to top the 266-mark essential for election.

AS THINGS stand now, the Thurmond-Wright ticket is a virtual cinch to carry South Carolina, Mississippi and Georgia.

In addition to these three states, the ticket has an excellent chance to carry Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee and North Carolina. It could carry Virginia. It would carry Texas if the story of what the States Rights party is seeking to do could be impressed upon every voter in this state. Florida is out of the Thurmond-Wright picture altogether, with indications that it will go Republican by a bare margin and, if not, to Truman.

But say that the Thurmond-Wright ticket is successful in carrying only six states: Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, and any other two from among Virginia, North Carolina, Arkansas, Alabama, Tennessee and Virginia. In that event, it would wind up with between 52 and 60 electoral votes, all of which would come from the Truman total.

That would show the present kidnapers of the so-called Democratic party that they can't get to first base without the South, hence would result in the South's ascension to its old post of guardian of a really Democratic party.

The people of the South this election year face the necessity of making what generally is conceded to be an unsatisfactory choice, in-so-far as the national political picture is concerned.

A vote for Mr. Truman is, in effect, a stamp of approval of a weak and wavering administration bossed by too many unsavory characters; of inefficiency in government and a centralized government denying to the states most of their important, basic rights.

A vote for Mr. Dewey is a vote for the traditional Republican policy of denial of states rights; for a cold, machine-like individual far removed from the problems and the desires of the rank and file of the people; and for a party always hostile to the South and favorable to the North in everything from freight rates to tariffs.

A vote for Mr. Wallace is too repugnant to require comment. Not even his Pal Joey in Moscow expects him to accomplish anything by making the race.

A vote for Governor Thurmond almost surely represents a vote which will be lost so far as helping to elect someone is concerned. However, it does give the Southern Democrat an opportunity of voting for the principles in which he believes; and of rebuking the political kidnapers who stole his party away from him and, with it, the very principles upon which it was founded.

★ ★ ★

THE Southern Democrat who next month seeks to cast a vote protesting mistreatment by the party which is Democratic in name only, has two ways to go about it. One is logical. The other isn't.

A Southern Democrat can lodge his protest against some of the policies of the spurious Democratic party by voting Republican—but when he does so he is not protesting against the Truman party's desertion of the historic Democratic states rights policy. The Republicans are now and always have been just as hostile to states rights as the Truman administration is today. A vote for Dewey, then, is not a logical protest.

On the other hand, a Southern Democrat logically can protest against everything he abhors about the Truman-CIO party—including its desertion of states rights—by voting for the Thurmond-Wright States Rights Democratic ticket. At the same time, if he is a stickler for party labels, he will be voting for life-long, real Democrats and, having no truck with the ersatz brand.

There are going to be many protest votes cast throughout Texas and the South on November 2.

It will be interesting to see, after the votes are counted, how many were logical protests and how many were not.

BY DREW PEARSON: MANY DEMOS WILL HELP DEWEY MORE THAN SOME REPUBLICANS

United States Senate Candidates Are Appraised

WASHINGTON. — The record of Congress during recent years is not unlike the present garbled politics of the country. Party lines have been cut. Republicans sometimes voted with Democrats; some Democrats lined up with Republicans.

This will probably continue. It will probably also be true that Dewey will get as much support from certain Democrats as he will from some Republicans. On international issues — now probably the most important before Congress—it is certain that most Democratic senators will give him more backing than such isolationists as Brooks of Illinois, Dworshak of Idaho, or Robertson of Wyoming.

PEARSON

In fact, the irrepressible, lovable Congressman John Taber has already served notice that the GOP isolationists are planning to give brother Dewey a rough time on two issues — economy and international cooperation.

Electing the right kind of senate, therefore, is second only to the election of President. With this in mind, here is the Merry-Go-Round roll-call of U. S. senators up for election next month:

Joseph Ball, Republican, Minnesota — a mixed-up personality who gets tangled in his own emotions. A former editorial writer, Ball came to the Senate determined to do right, but when he swung to Roosevelt in 1944 he was so ostracized by his own Republicans that, to win back their favor, he swung to the reactionary extreme. Joe has now been on so many different sides of so many different fences that he has lost his usefulness.

Styles Bridges, Republican, New Hampshire — a tough, forthright scrapper who has usually voted against his isolationist GOP colleagues. He watches pennies, raises cain over too much spending and frequently votes against the GOP reactionaries. Bridges is an asset to the Senate.

"Curley" Brooks, Republican, Illinois — Brooks has been opposed to almost all of Dewey's New York record. A likable personality with a charming wife, Brooks is wholly controlled by the Chicago Tribune and is almost proud of it. If re-elected he will be in Dewey's hair on many issues.

John Cooper, Republican, Kentucky — has made an excellent record during his brief term in the Senate, has supported Democrats on foreign policy, and will be an asset if re-elected.

Henry Dworshak, Republican, Idaho — along with Curley Brooks, he is the most dyed-in-the-wool isolationist in the Senate. Dworshak permitted his mailing list to be used by a Hitler propagandist, was glad to have the support of Gerald L. K. Smith, and is one of the few western senators who didn't fight hard for reclamation. His mediocre senate record includes trying to get an honorable discharge for an American soldier convicted of rape, murder and running a boy down with a motorcycle. Dworshak will be no asset to Dewey.

Homer Ferguson, Republican, Michigan — came to the Senate with a record for graft cleanup and as long as the Democrats controlled the Senate, Ferguson had a healthy knack of keeping them on their toes. Once he got into power, however, Ferguson lost that knack. He made a fool of himself in the Howard Hughes investigation, was bluffed out of his probe of Senator Thomas of Oklahoma when Thomas threatened to go after Ferguson and, finally, dropped the Tucker auto investigation for reasons best known to himself, but after the GOP national committeewoman from Michigan was paid $17,850. A homey, congenial personality, Ferguson won't stand up under fire. He has lost all chance of being Dewey's attorney general—the job he so ardently coveted.

Ed Johnson, Democrat, Colorado—a tough veteran who knows his legislative onions. Johnson does a good job for his state and his voting record usually represents the folks back home. He is a competent public servant.

James Murray, Democrat, Montana — though a millionaire, Murray has spent all his years in the Senate battling for the underdog. No senator on either side of the aisle has a better record. On international issues and such domestic problems as health and housing he will support Dewey far better than his GOP colleague from Montana.

Edward V. Robertson, Republican, Wyoming — manager of the Coe ranch, owned by his brother-in-law, the senator has been the undying friend of the big sheep and cattle men, but voted against most measures for labor and the little fellow. Born in England, he married the daughter of H. H. Rogers partner of old John D. Rockfeller. Robertson has usually voted isolationist and though a wealthy man has had his wife and chauffeur on the government payroll.

Chapman Revercomb, Republican, West Virginia — handsome, smooth-talking, likable chappie tangled with Dewey over the displaced persons bill and was even criticized by his own church (Presbyterian) for religious discrimination in connection with this bill. Chappie has consistently voted with the big business interests of his state.

George Wilson, Republican, Iowa — a likable, sweet character, Wilson gets along with all his colleagues, but has been unable to conquer one serious weakness. A man in high public life must necessarily remain reasonably temperate. Unfortunately, Wilson has missed many senate sessions and important committee meetings because of his intemperance.

Leverett Saltonstall, Republican, Massachusetts — a Boston blueblood who dates his ancestry back to the pilgrim fathers, Saltonstall votes right more frequently than he votes wrong. He casts rather a thin shadow on the Senate, however, and sometimes seems almost frightened of that shadow.

Kenneth Wherry, Republican, Nebraska — a likable, rollicking legislative roustabout, Wherry has been wrong on a painful number of issues but deserves credit for his untiring leadership of the Republican side. He has harassed and whipped his GOP colleagues into a smooth-working Senate machine, and it took a man of Wherry's energy and brass to do it.

Other senatorial candidates will be covered in future columns.

Hey, Folks, Aren't You Overlooking Something?

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Greek Clique Not Interested In Ending Rebel Resistance

WASHINGTON — If it were not so tragic in relation to the contest between Communism and the west, there would be something almost comic about what is happening in Greece today. It is Graustarkian comedy with the shadows of disaster in the immediate background.

Poor harassed, overworked, weary Secretary of State Marshall has had to go to Athens at this critical moment to try to make some sense out of the Greek riddle. And there is no sense in it, since what we are seeing is the compounding of the errors of the past.

CHILDS

When President Truman first sounded the Greek fire alarm, he announced to the world and to the little ruling clique in Athens that a Greece free of Communist dictatorship was essential to the United States. That was true. But in the way in which he proclaimed the alarm, the President, in effect, helped to give a permanent lease on control of the narrow, reactionary Athens clique.

Their interest is not in ending guerila resistance. To end it would end the flow of American aid and American dollars. So one month we get glowing communiques from the front that tell of heroic victories by the Greek armies. And the next month the press association dispatches suggest that stalemate and even mutiny are just around the corner unless more American aid is forthcoming at once.

• • •

Trying To Do Job

When I was in Greece a year ago, it seemed to me that Dwight Griswold, the aid administrator who retired recently, was trying to do a necessary job of persuading the Greeks to broaden and expand their government. The objective was to get more confidence from the Greek people and thereby cut down the support and sympathy for the rebels.

He succeeded, over the opposition of the State department and the then ambassador, in bringing the liberal leader, Themistocles Sophoulis in as prime minister. That was the limit of Griswold's success and the aged Sophoulis has been to a large degree a captive of the Athens clique represented by the Populist party.

The State department has from the beginning seen nothing but the Populists and the royal family. Both in the department here and in the embassy in Athens they have clung to outward forms and the dead letter of the past.

• • •

THEY have regarded criticism as a form of treason and have pettishly suggested that any newspapermen who did not go along with State department policy were themselves Communists. This attitude conveniently ignores the deep discontent of the Greek people who are certainly not Communists except in a small minority. But they are deeply democratic at heart and they want a government to which they can give some allegiance.

Unfortunately for the State department attitude, the ship owners, the bankers and industrialists who back the Athens clique have shown little inclination to play the game. With few exceptions, their capital is still safely tucked away in New York banks. They are uneasy refugees in their own land, ready to flee to safety at a moment's warning and unwilling to make even the slightest sacrifice.

No one denies that the task of subduing the guerrillas is enormously difficult. From Greece's Communist neighbors, Albania, Yugoslavia, and Bulgaria, aid comes across the border to reenforce the guerrilla bands when they are hard pressed.

• • •

Aid Must Be Small

But the aid these primitive countries can furnish must surely be small and elementary in comparison to the military help that the U. S. has furnished the Greek army. This includes planes and other fighting equipment. While aid of this sort might come from Soviet Russia by way of Albania, there has never been any evidence to show that the guerrillas were being given modern material in quantity. They have relied on guerrilla tactics and the ability to retreat into mountain fastnesses.

The latest press association reports suggest demoralization in the Greek army. An Anonymous American army officer attached to the Greek forces is quoted as saying that the Greek soldier seems to feel he has nothing to fight for. A large-scale offensive is mounted and then nothing happens.

At this strategic moment, when more aid is sought, the government in Athens announces a "solution" of the George Polk murder, an announcement which should be taken with decided reservation. There may still be time for a new approach to the Greek tragedy, although it is already very late.

Anthropologists believe Heidelberg man lived at the second interglacial period, probably 250,000 years ago.

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

SOME women are better wives when the going is rough than when it's easy.

Such women will stick by their husbands through hard times, reverses and disappointments. They're understanding and courageous when their men are struggling to get a start.

MILLETT

But they find their husbands' success hard to take. They're jealous and resentful and they take out that resentment in little ways.

They complain that the husband is "never at home," that he has no time for his family.

They find fault with the husband's busines cronies and their wives — particularly with their wives.

• • •

DEMANDS GO UP

AND because they need to feel important, themselves, they often start trying to outdo the Joneses.

They keep wanting so many things that the family is not much more financially secure than it was when mone was so scarce Mama had to be a real helpmate.

The man always gets the blame when he leaves a wife who stuck by him through the hard years for another woman.

But perhaps that story wouldn't happen quite so often if more women understood that it is just as important to be a real helpmate to a successful man as to one who is struggling to make a success.

And that it is just as important for a woman to stand at her husband's side when he is at the top—as when he is at the bottom.

"Try And Stop Me"

PAUL WINCHELL, the ventriloquist, will not be welcomed again at a certain roadside inn that he patronized recently in the Adirondacks. Winchell noticed there was only one bathroom on the second floor, and that in the morning several guests engaged in a contest to see who could get there first.

He arose at an early hour himself for the sole purpose of standing on the outside of the bathroom door. As soon as he saw somebody coming, he knocked violently on the door and asked, "When are you coming out of there?"

A muffled voice from within answered, "Keep your shirt on. I'll be out when I'm good and ready."

The guests didn't realize until about 9:30 o'clock that the bathroom was empty and that Mr. Winchell was merely practicing his ventriloquism. Their comments at that time cannot be printed in a family newspaper.

Today's Journal Editorial

A PLAN WORTH STUDYING

The proposal to try to develop college ROTC organizations as a continuing source of supply of recruits for the Army and Navy air arms has the sound of logic.

Whether or not the procedure outlined the other day by Brig. Gen. John P. McConnell, chief of the Reserve and National Guard division of the Air Forces, is the best that could be applied to this plan of development, we are not qualified to say. It would involve $50 a month payments for two years to ROTC students who would sign up for two years of reguar and four additional years of reserve duty after graduation. General McConnell estimates the program would cost $150,000,000 a year and provide 69,000 recruits annually.

The plan unquestionably deserves study. The quality of the recruits thus obtained, if obtainable, should be of the very best. The opportunity might be of great appeal to eligible students.

It seems logical that something entirely practical could be worked out along the lines suggested by the departments involved, the students concerned and by a Congress which should study needs with an eye to keeping costs as low as is consistent to an effective plan.

Tidelands Is Porter Issue

DALLAS, Oct. 21 (AP)—Republican senatorial candidate Jack Porter claimed last night that his opponent would not hesitate to take the tidelands away from Texas.

He said in a 23-station radio speech that "the Democratic party and my opponent are committed to confiscating the Texas tidelands for the federal government.

He said the permanent school fund now pays out about $55 dollars a year for each student.

"That means that if you have a boy or girl in the public schools, the permanent school fund is paying each year approximately $55 towards your child's education. It is estimated that the income from oil royalties under our tidelands will provide an additional sum of $30 per student for the next 20 years.

"This means that your boy and your girl have a tremendous stake in the tidelands."

Porter was scheduled to speak in Gladewater at 2:15 p. m. today, Longview at 3:30 p. m., Kilgore at 5 p. m. and here at 7 p. m.

Havana Has Trouble Over Bus Fare Hike

HAVANA, Cuba, Oct. 21. (AP)—Police banned street gatherings in Havana today after one person was killed and 12 were injured yesterday in disorders over increased bus fares.

Fidel Febles, 37, a bus employe, was shot to death in a fare dispute with a fellow worker. His assailant was arrested.

Student demonstrators roamed the strets stoning buses. A girl was hit in the face and gravely injured.

Some demonstrators battled police who fired into the air to scatter the crowds. Many were arrested. Two men were injured by stray shots.

The disorders broke out after the government had authorized a fare increase to 10 cents in half the bus lines and ordered the five-cent charge retained in the other half. The increases were granted to help the company meet a 30 per cent wage increase.

2-YEAR-OLD DRIVES TRUCK

MANHATTAN, Kan. (U.P.)—Lewis Botterman's anger was tempered with amazement when he reached the slow-moving pickup truck which had banged into his car as he backed from a driveway. At the wheel was the two-year-old daughter of Mrs. Yvonne Byrd.

Reds Capture Chinese City

PEIPING, Oct. 21 (AP) — Pro-government reports said today that Changchun, Manchurian capital, was in the hands of Communist troops but that Gen. Tu Li Ming's national forces expected to re-occupy Chinhsien momentarily.

Changchun, long useless to the government because of a Red siege, fell in fighting Monday through Wednesday, the dispatches said.

Capture of Changchun, the Peiping Times said, followed the surrender last Sunday of the 60th army outside of the city. The army had been ordered to fight its way southward to Mukden, where the new Manchurian commander, General Tu makes his headquarters. The Communist radio earlier had broadcast the 60th army rebelled.

Nationalists Send Troops

The official General News agency said the vanguard of General Tu's forces, under heavy air protection, had entered Chinhsien's limits on Tuesday.

Other reports said large numbers of government troops and supplies were being unloaded at Hulatao, government port near Chinhsien.

Tel Aviv Bombed Soon After Israel Agrees To Cease Fire

BY CARTER L. DAVIDSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

TEL AVIV, Israel, Oct. 21—Egyptian planes bombed the Tel Aviv area today, only a few hours after the Israeli government agreed in principle to a cease fire in southern Palestine.

The Egyptians, bombed for five days straight in the south, struck back before dawn. Some bombs hit inside the blacked out Israeli capital. U. N. observers said no casualties were reported. Two Egyptians planes apparently swept over the coastal area just after 3 a. m.

Meet For Seven Hours

The Israeli government met for seven hours during the night, deliberating on the hour at which a truce in the south Palestine fighting could become effective. The cease fire was ordered by the United Nations Security council. The cabinet adjourned only a short time before the Egyptian bombers reached the area.

The government did not reach agreement on fixing the hour at which troops should stop fighting in the battle for the Negev desert.

(Egypt has announced readiness to accept the U. N. order).

An Israeli army spokesman denied reports published here that a cease fire already had been ordered, the cabinet was to reconvene today to make the decision.

There was no information during the morning on what fighting was going on now in the Negev, which has been aflame since Jewish forces began an offensive there Oct. 15 to open a supply route to the desert settlements.

Arabs Bomb Haifa

(Arab planes also bombed Jewish held Haifa in the north before dawn, but little damage was reported.

(In Cairo, Egyptian government spokesmen said last night the battle in the Negev was rising in intensity with both sides throwing in additional troops. The spokesmen said Egyptian planes attacked Jewish concentrations of men and armored vehicles, inflicting heavy losses, yesterday, and bombed Jewish settlements used as supply bases by the Israelis. Cairo had a 35-minute alert last night but a spokesman said it was caused by a "friendly plane.")

Violation Of Hatch Act Is Described

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP)—Chairman Hugh Scott of the Republican National committee said today there has been "scandalous mobilization of federal payrollers" in the New Mexico senatorial campaign. He declared law violators will be prosecuted "by the Dewey-Warren administration."

Clinton P. Anderson, Democrat, former secretary of agriculture, is running against Patrick J. Hurley, Republican, in the New Mexico contest.

Scott made public a telegram to Hurley saying press and radio accounts of Secretary of Interior Krug's "invasion of New Mexico" indicate "flagrant violations of the Hatch act."

IMAGINE THIS—Judges of Italian beauty contests must have imagination. They picked Fulvia Franco Miss Italy of 1948, even though she was wearing a long skirt. To satisfy general curiosity, she reveals that the judges' imagination was pretty good.

China Prosecutors Lose Pilot, Plane

PEIPING, Oct. 21. (AP)—Next time government black market prosecutors will move in secret.

They made no bones about their intention to arrest a P-51 fighter pilot for blackmarketeering at Peiping's south field. They headed out to the field to arrest the flier.

But a friend telephoned the pilot who jumped into his fighter plane and headed for Communist headquarters in Hopei province.

Loss to the government—one pilot and one expensive plane.

Andrews County Project Will Explore Clear Fork Permian

Lario Oil and Gas company is to explore into the Clear Fork, lower Permian, at a West-Central Andrews county project, which is six miles west of the town of Andrews.

This prospector is to be Lario No. 1-B Hayden Miles, located 1,320 feet from south and west lines of section 12, block A-46, psl survey.

It is outside the proven area for production from the San Andres-Permian in the Deeprock field, and had apparently missed that pay in drilling down to 4,516 feet in dry lime.

The development has been shut in for several weeks. Now operator has arranged to continue drilling to at least 7,500 feet using rotary. Drilling ahead is scheduled to start immediately.

Shows Oil Signs

Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 1 Brown, eight miles northwest of Snyder, in Northwest Scurry county, and 1,880 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 440, block 97, H & TC survey, showed some signs of possible oil and gas production in a drillstem test of an unidentified sand at 6,032.5 feet to the then total depth at 6,043 feet.

The tool was open 17 minutes. There was a blow of gas at the surface after 14 minutes, which was not guaged or estimated.

Recovery was 30 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, 90 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud, and 80 feet of mud cut oil. No water developed. Gravity of the oil was 44.8 degrees.

The exploration—unless it develops commercial production before penetrating into that horizon.

Swabbed From Surface

Champlin Refining Company No. 1-F University, wildcat in Central-Southwest Andrews county, 20 miles southwest of the town of Andrews, and 660 feet from south and east lines of section 34, block 12, University survey, had swabbed on perforations at 8,625-60 feet, and swabbed down to 8,450 feet from the surface.

Recovery had been salty water, with a slight show of gas, but with no signs of oil. The project is to perforate and test higher. The section under investigation is in the Devonian. The exploration had some indications of possible production in intervals above the 8,625-60 foot section. It is between the Block 12 and the West Parker-Devonian fields.

Woman Sweeps Her House Too Clean

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 21. (AP)—Mrs. Otto Klatt frantically phoned police today—she said she had swept her house too clean.

Six members of the police emergency squad, led by Mr. Klatt, hurried to the city dump.
