Johnson sentenced to die

19 year old faces death by lethal injection

SNYDER - Convicted killer Dorsie Lee Johnson Jr., 19, of Colorado City, was sentenced to death by lethal injection here Friday.

Johnson had been found guilty earlier in the week of capital murder by the same jury that sentenced him to death.

Johnson was convicted of killing Jack Huddleston during a March 23 robbery of a Snyder convenience store.

The jury of seven women and five men had heard two days of testimony in the punishment phase of the trial and were asked by District Judge Gene Dulaney to answer two questions, both of which had to be answered "yes" to insure the death penalty. A "no" to either one of the questions would have meant a sentence of life in prison for Johnson.

The first question was "Was the conduct that caused the death of Jack Huddleston deliberate and with the expectation that death would result?". The second question was "Is there a probability that the defendant would commit criminal acts of violence constituting a continuing threat to society?".

After the reading of the verdict, Dulaney polled the jurors at the defendant's request and all 12 answered they had each answered yes to both questions.

The sentenging order read by Dulaney stated that an execution date will not be set until the conviction has been affirmed on appeal. All capital murder convictions with the death penalty assessed are automatically appealed under state law.

Court appointed defense attorney Frank Conard of Sweetwater, formerly of Colorado City, accepted the court appointment to serve as Johnson's attorney on the first appeal.

Courtroom security was tight as the sentence was read following a telephone death threat against District Attorney Ernie Armstrong earlier in the day.

Conard, arguing for a life sentence for his client, said Johnson was under the influence of drugs at the time of the slaying and that Johnson was suffering from "diminished mental capacity".

Council approves ordinances

The Colorado City Council, meeting in regular session Tuesday night, approved two ordinances - one dealing with water meter tampering and the other with junked vehicles.

Both ordinances had been previously approved on first reading and Tuesday night's action will put the ordinances into effect.

Brenda Tarter, city manager, said the purpose of the meter tampering ordinance is to try to stop malicious tampering of water meters. The ordinance calls for a fine up to $200 for each offense. She said that many times when meters are turned off for non-payment of water bills, residents will turn the meters on themselves, sometimes breaking the valve. She said the ordinance will not be used to punish residents who have to turn off the water at the meter in case of an emergency.

The junk vehicle ordinance defines a junked vehicle as one that is inoperative, one that has been dismantled or discarded and one which has expired license plates and inspection stickers. Police Chief Bobby Sparks said the ordinance will enable his department to keep junked vehicles from becoming a nuisance.

The council took no action on a request from Colorado High School student Dwight Upton who asked that the speed limit on Lone Wolf Blvd. be raised from 20 mph to 30 mph. Mayor Elmer Martin deferred action to a committee to study the suggestion.

Upton said traffic on the three-block long street in front of the high school would flow better with a 30 mph speed limit. He noted that school buses do not load or unload passengers on the street.

Mrs. Tarter said that state law requires school zones to have 20 mph speed limits, but it's up to the council to determine the school zones.

In other business, the council approved a partial payment to Panhandle Construction in the amount of $85,414.73 for work done to date on the sewer line

Older taxpayers offered deferral option

Texans aged 65 or older can postpone paying delinquent property taxes on their homesteads by taking advantage of a tax option called over-65 deferral. The elderly homeowner simply signs a deferral affidavit at the Mitchell County Appraisal District office.

This special form of tax relief can also halt a lawsuit already filed to collect delinquent property taxes on an older Texan's homestead, said C. C. Burt, chief appraiser of the Mitchell County Appraisal District. To stop a delinquent tax suit, Burt said, the over-65 homeowner files the deferral affidavit with the court in which the suit is pending.

"This law means that, if the proper affidavit is on file, an older homeowner cannot lose a homestead because of delinquent taxes," Burt said.

Once a homeowner files an over-65 tax deferral affidavit with the appraisal district, no taxing unit can initiate or pursue a suit for delinquent taxes as long as that person owns and lives at that homestead.

Burt stressed, though, that tax deferral for the elderly only postpones paying delinquent taxes on the homestead; it does not cancel them. During the deferral period, taxes and delinquent penalties and interest continue to add up, he said. "When the elderly taxpayer no longer owns or lives in the home, those accured amounts become due. Taxing units can then sue to collect all the deferred tax, penalty and interest."

Forms for filing a tax deferral affidavit are available at the appraisal district office.

"The homeowner should fill out the form and have the signature witnessed by a notary public," Burt said.

For more information, taxpayers may contact the Mitchell County Appraisal District, 728-5028, 1132 Hickory St., Colorado City.

again," said first year Munday coach Ron Steele, who went to the Moguls after a stay at Graham.

The Moguls will probably be favorites to go on to the area round. Munday, 8-1-1, is ranked number two in the state by the Harris Rating system and number three by the Associated Press poll.

Seymour, ranked near the top of the class A poll almost the entire season before being upset and kept out of the playoffs, is the only team to beat Munday this year. The Moguls were also tied by Haskell.

"We run the wishbone," said Steele. "We rely on the option and pass quite a bit."

Quarterback Anthony Stinnett has rushed for 870 years in 9 games this year to lead a ground attack that has gained over 2,000 yards. Halfback Cornelius Jones has 800 yards rushing and 230 yards receiving.

Stinnett has passed 65 times for 38 completions and another 800 yards. His leading receiver is John Paul Browning with 12 catches for 250 yards.

The leading parts for the Moguls' 4-3 defense are middle linebacker Ricky Taylor, defensive end David Hertel, defensive tackle Chris Baker and safeties Stinnett and Jones.

In last year's '85 playoffs, the Moguls bowed out in the semifinals to eventual state champ Goldwaithe. Steele said he had been to the playoffs at Graham but had the unenviable task of running into Vernon.

The Moguls have 17 seniors from that ball club and expect half of their starters back next season. Munday won the 5A South zone title and last week eliminated Knox City–6A North zone runnerup–in a zone playoff.

The Irion County (Mertzon) Hornets ended the 1985 season 10-1-1 after a first round loss to Roscoe.

"They're big," said Munday coach Steele. "One of the biggest teams we've faced. They put a lot of pressure on you defensively and they have two real good running backs. They run well and the quarterback throws well. They're going to run the sweep."

The Hornets, 6-4, earned the district 6A runnerup spot with a 6-2 record–losing only to champ Bronte and Sterling City. Coach Sid McCown has taken Mertzon to the playoffs twice in his nine years there.

"The power sweep has been the best part of our offense," said McCown. Backs Jason Honea and Ricky West and quarterback Jeff Meyers have led the way. Meyers is completing 50 percent of his passes.

"Our offense and our defense have both been unpredictable. It will be a very tough ball game. We have to play our best game of the year to have a good chance."

The Chamber of Commerce is looking for volunteers to work at the game. Those interested should call the Chamber of Commerce sports committee chairman Earl Plagens at the RECORD, 728-3413.

Munday will be the home team for the 8 p.m. kickoff. Tickets are $4 for adults and $2 for students.

CARL MOORE and Carrie Conley are seen during a scene from the Colorado City Playhouse production of "Husbandry", directed by George Womack. Three more performances are scheduled - Thursday, Friday and Saturday - with performances at 8 p.m. nightly. Other cast members are Marsha Moore and Kent Womack. Tickets are $5 each and are available at the box office.

being installed in the south part of town. The money for the project is being provided by a state grant. Total contract for the project is $299,000.

In committee reports, Councilman Robert Hoback reported that the committee studying handicapped regulations for the city hall had met but has no recommendations at this time. He said since the city council meets on the second floor of city hall, provisions must be made for making the meeting accessible to the handicapped through either an elevator or a stair lift, both of which are costly. He said an alternative will be to move the council meetings to either the Civic Center or Police Department.

The council approved the recommendation of the traffic control committee setting speed limits on the newly constructed Rogers Road. Mayor Pro-Tem Tom Carlock said one part of the state built highway will have a speed limit of 30 mph, another part 35 mph and still another part 45 mph. The road links Interstate 20 to old Highway 80 on the west part of town, east of the Colorado River.

In her report to the council, Mrs. Tarter said there is a chance that a 20-unit apartment complex for the elderly may be built here if there is enough interest in the project. She said Dr. James T. Young is proposing to build the complex for low to moderate income persons and that the location is still undecided.

Mrs. Tarter also advised the council that the city's current animal shelter, housed at the veterinarian clinic of Dr. Nancy Bozeman may have to be moved. She said Dr. Bozeman is contemplating closing her practice here which would necessitate having to find a new location for the animal shelter.

Bible reading set Friday

The Colorado City Kiwanis Club will be sharing in the Kiwanis International Bible reading, Friday, Nov. 21 from 2-4 p.m.

In his final summation, Armstrong reminded the jurors that Johnson had confessed to shooting Colorado City grocer Don Burrus during a robbery following the Snyder slaying and said it is unlikely that Johnson can be changed.

Loraine graduates honored

SNYDER–Four graduates of Loraine High School are among those awarded scholarships to Western Texas College for the 1986 fall semester, Dr. Jim Tully, Financial Aid Director, has announced.

They are Helen and Patrice Alvarez, daughters of Anastacio and Lydia Alvarez; RaiLynn Rundell, daughter of Mickey and Jeannine Rundell; and Tony Morris, son of Chester and Susie Morris. Tony and his wife, Amy, now live in Colorado City.

Helen, a sophomore student, is a general secretarial studies major. She was the recipient of two scholarships, one from the office careers department and the other a Cunningham Academic Scholarship.

Pat, a freshman, was awarded the George and Helen Mahon scholarship. This scholarship is reserved for a Mitchell County high school graduate each year.

Margaret Alvarez, sister of Helen and Pat, also attended WTC and is currently a student at Angelo State University.

RaiLynn is a sophomore elementary education major. She received a Cunningham Academic Scholarship and a designated scholarship from The Shack Restaurant. She was recently inducted into the WTC chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, a national honor fraternity for students in junior-community colleges. She plans to transfer to Texas Tech University in January to continue her studies.

Morris is a sophomore premed major and plans to transfer to Angelo State University to continue his studies. He received a Cunningham Academic Scholarship. In addition to his college work, Morris is employed by Cooper Saddlery.

Almost $90,000 in scholarships was awarded students at WTC this fall and scholarships in the spring semester will be about that same amount. Students interested in information about scholarships and other types of financial aid are invited to contact the WTC Financial Aid Office in the Administration Building. Students planning to enroll in the 1987 fall semester would be wise to begin their applications by January or February, Dr. Tully said, because of the paperwork involved.

WTC established a Scholarship Foundation in 1978 and many of the scholarships awarded come from funds in the Foundation. Families or organizations who would like to set up an endowment or contribute to those already established (like the Mahon scholarship) are invited to contact Dr. Tully's office.

PAT AND HELEN ALVAREZ and RaiLynn Rundell, graduates of Loraine High School, were awarded scholarships to Western Texas College this fall. Tony Morris of Colorado City, also a graduate of Loraine High School, also received a scholarship.

Following any auto accident, no matter how minor, it is important -- and makes good common sense -- to get a chiropractic checkup.

Natural sweetner used in holiday recipes

Honey is a delicious way to sweeten your menus. Honey is a naturally nutritious high energy food. It has been a favorite sweetener and is considered the oldest confection know to man.

In early England, honey was used to pay taxes and tributes to the leaders. In the early Christian church an increase in honey production was due to the demand for wax to make church candles.

In Texas, honey bees play a vital role in our states' agriculture. The bees not only gather the nectar for honey, but also pollinate many of the crops produced within the state. These include, among others, such crops as cantaloupe, melon, broccoli, cabbage, cotton and citrus.

The honey produced by Texas beekeepers is valued at $7 million a year with approximately 190,000 colonies of bees. Texas ranks third in the nation, producing roughly 220 million pounds of honey per year. Because of its importance to the states agriculture, beekeepers can be found in almost any part of the state.

Honey can be purchased from locally grown hives. This honey can be purchased directly from the local beekeepers at local farmers markets, roadside stands, or at some local grocery stores.

Honey is a natural, unrefined food. It is unique because it is only natural unmanufactured sweetener available. The flavor, aroma and color of honey vary with the kind of flowers from which the bees gathered the nectar used to make the honey. The fructose gives the honey a sweet flavor, and the nectar adds the floral taste to it.

Color in honey varies from light to dark. Generally the lighter the honey the lighter the flavor. Honey keeps best in a tightly covered container, stored in a cool place. For more information on Texas honey, and free recipes write the Texas Department of Agriculture, 3652 North Dixie, Odessa, Texas 79762.

BAKLAVA

1 pound (4 cups) finely chopped pecans
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
1 pound phyllo (strudel leaves)
1½ cups melted butter
1 cup honey
Zest of 1 lemon
1 stick cinnamon
3-6 whole cloves

Butter a 13-inch baking dish. In a large bowl mix together pecans, sugar, cinnamon and cloves; set aside. Cut phyllo into rectangles to fit baking dish. As you cut, cover phyllo sheets with plastic wrap and a damp towel to prevent drying. Place one sheet of phyllo in dish, brush with butter; repeat to make five more layers of phyllo. Sprinkle with one cup pecan mixture. Layer mixture with six sheets of phyllo, brushing each with butter. Sprinkle with one cup pecan mixture. Repeat phyllo layering and pecan mixture two more times. Top with remaining layers of phyllo, overlapping any small strips to make rectangles, if necessary, and brushing each layer with butter.

With a sharp knife cut just half-way through layers in triangle shape to make 24 servings. Bake at 300 degrees F. for 1 hour and 15 minutes, or until top is golden brown. Meanwhile in small saucepan, heat honey, lemon zest, whole cinnamon and whole cloves over medium heat until hot. Do not boil. Remove spices. Pour honey mixture over Baklava. Cool in pan on wire rack at least one hour. Cover and leave at room temperature until ready to serve. Makes 24 2-inch triangles.

HONEY PUMPKIN PIE

¾ cup honey
3 eggs
1½ cups fresh or canned pumpkin
1 cup light cream
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon ginger
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 (9-inch) unbaked pie shell

Combine all ingredients except pie shell. Blend until smooth. Pour into shell. Bake at 425 degrees F. for 10 minutes. Reduce oven temperature to 350 degrees F. Bake 35-40 minutes or until custard is set. Cool. Serve with honey-sweetened whipped cream. Makes 8 servings.

ORANGE NUT HONEY BREAD

2 tablespoons shortening
1 cup honey
1 egg
1½ tablespoons orange peel, grated
2½ cups flour, sifted
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup orange juice
¼ cup nuts, chopped
2½ teaspoons baking powder

Cream shortening and honey together thoroughly. Add well-beaten egg and grated orange peel. Sift flour with baking powder, soda and salt. Add the flour mixture to the creamed mixture and the orange juice. Add the nuts. Bake in a greased loaf pan at 325 degrees F. for 70 minutes.

"Beef is back" promotion set

Lucille Sterling, Colorado City, and other members of the Beef Promotion and Research Board have approved a new beef promotion program designed to tell consumers that "beef is back."

Sterling returned recently from a meeting in St. Louis of the Beef Board, which has overall responsibility for a new $1-per-head national check-off program. Collections also are made on cattle and beef imports.

The board approved a promotion and research budget for the current fiscal year. Included are funds which will be part of a new industry advertising and promotion program scheduled to begin Jan. 12, 1987. The advertising program, costing $25-30 million, will be seen and heard on national network television and network radio and in national publications.

The theme of the new campaign will be "Beef. Real Food for Real People." Serving as spokespersons in the ads will be television and film personalities James Garner and Cybill Shepherd.

Total industry promotion and research dollars in the current fiscal year will be more than $50 million. This total includes funds administered by the Beef Board and also funds handled by the state and national beef councils. The Beef Board directed that check-off money be used for nutrition research, product development, consumer education and public relations, as well as promotion and merchandising.

Information about your changing telephone service from Jim West, Manager-Community Relations

A look at phone services of the future

It may be hard to believe but 1987 is a little more than a month away. I don't know about you, but every year about this time, I start to think about the future. It's as if the passage from one year to the next is a window, and every November I get the urge to step up to that window to look at the images on the other side of the glass.

As an employee of Southwestern Bell Telephone, I am naturally inclined to think about the changes that will be taking place in the telecommunications industry. Certainly, this industry has had more than its share of changes in the last few years. However, when I look to the future, I see technological advancements that will literally change — no, revolutionize — our way of life.

Business Week recently published an excellent article on the future of the telecommunications industry, titled, "The Rewiring of America." It told of how current research is working toward forming one compatible coast-to-coast network, called the Integrated Services Digital Network or ISDN. This system would simultaneously carry voice and data messages over one line, acting as a sort of telecommunications super-highway.

Before ISDN can become a reality, however, new types of equipment must be installed nationwide. Especially critical to ISDN is the digital switch, which Southwestern Bell Telephone is installing at an aggressive pace in its central offices across the state. This year alone it is estimated that we will spend $253 million on this project.

As part owner of Bellcore, the research wing of the seven regional Bell operating companies, Southwestern Bell Telephone is participating in experiments relating to the ISDN. The developments initiated in the coming years will not only improve the quality of your call transmission, but will expand the ways in which you use your phone.

Technology permits new uses for your phone

For example, your phone line will be able to serve as a home security system, mail carrier and, with the help of your personal computer, a video newspaper. You will also be able to use your phone to check the status of your bank account in another city.

The new technology will make your phone even more reliable than it is now. Among the service-related developments on the horizon is a computer system that will detect trouble on your line — even before you do — and automatically make the necessary repairs.

What's more, you will have a wide choice of phone features — far beyond what you may have ever imagined. For example, our network will know the originating location of an incoming call. Then, as the phone is ringing, a computer-generated voice will announce the caller's name so you can decide if you would like to answer it or not.

Farfetched? Not at all. Austin customers have been trialing early versions of similar services for nearly two years. One of the most popular, Automatic Recall, addresses a frustration we have all experienced. Inevitably, when you rush to answer a ringing telephone, it stops just as you pick it up. With this phone feature, you can call that number back by simply dialing a two digit code.

Another feature being tested allows you to block certain numbers from ringing through to your phone. Another still, enables you to forward only certain calls to a third number. And perhaps one feature that could have the greatest impact of all, will allow you to trace annoyance calls.

The ultimate winner in this technological explosion will be you, the phone customer. You will have advanced telecommunication systems at your fingertips. And if you prefer only to use your phone for that most basic of reasons — to make a call — you will have faster, more dependable phone service than ever before.

We are proud of the research under way at Southwestern Bell Telephone. It is part of our pledge to provide you with the best possible phone service — today and in the future.

Girls, boys lose in season openers

Midland Greenwood's Rangers defeated the Colorado City Wolves 50-41 in a season opening boys basketball game here Monday night and won an 80-18 girls contest.

The Wolves boys led throughout the first half but lost the lead for good during a six point third quarter. Head coach Mike Hart was not very displeased about the outcome.

"I think we're going to be alright," said Hart. "We didn't rebound as well as we need to and we were not very aggressive. A couple of players missed good chances to score."

Junior Ken Woods led Colorado City with six goals and two free throws for 14 points. Senior Terry Jackson and sophomore Mark Russell both scored eight points.

Colorado City led Greenwood, of district 4AAA, 12-10 after one period and 24-21 at halftime but lost the lead early in the third period as the Rangers' Brian Morgan and Steve Groeschel worked the lane.

Morgan led all scorers with 19 and Groeschel scored 10.

The Rangers took a 33-30 lead after three periods and slowly increased their lead in the fourth quarter as the Wolves failed to capitalize on possessions.

The Wolves made 4 of 8 free throws but only 18 of 47 field goal attempts for 38 percent. Midland made 15 of 27 free throws for an 11 point edge in that category. The Wolves were whistled for 21 fouls to 12 for Greenwood.

The junior varsity boys team was the only Colorado City squad to win in four games at "The Pit". The Wolves edged the Rangers 40-37 behind a thieving defense.

Greenwood led 7-6 after the first period but the Wolves rallied for a 19-13 halftime lead behind Bubba Bailey, who led all scorers with 14 points.

Bailey's offensive rebounds allowed him to score 8 second period points. Chris Perkins added 8 points and 12 rebounds.

Bailey and George Rivera, who had four assists, graded as the top defenders for Colorado City. The Wolves made 4 of 10 free throws and 18 of 51 field goal attempts for 35 percent.

Greenwood led 18-4, 39-10 and 64-14 after the first three periods.

Seniors Holly Tarter and Audy Rivera both scored 6 points to lead the Wolves. Tarter made 3 of 4 field goals and got 5 of the team's 17 rebounds. Rivera scored on two goals and two free throws.

Now is the time to contact Social Security if you plan to retire at the end of the year.

By Dorcas R. Hardy Commissioner of Social Security

Applying for Social Security retirement benefits is not complicated or time consuming. In many instances, applications can be taken by telephone. Whether you decide to apply for your benefits by telephone or in person you can help speed the process by gathering the necessary documents and mailing them to your local Social Security office with your application or bringing them with you if you visit the office. Essential items you will need include:

- Social Security number and original or certified copy of birth certificate or baptismal record for you and members of your family who are also applying for benefits.
- Form W-2 for last tax year, or, if you're self employed, a copy of last year's tax return and proof of filing that return (a cancelled check, for example).
- A marriage certificate and, if you are now divorced and you were married for 10 years, a divorce decree if you are applying for benefits as a husband or wife.

You should also be prepared to provide the following information on your application:

- An estimate of your earnings this year and, if you plan to continue working, next year.
- Dates of any military and railroad service.

In some situations, other documents or information may be needed, but those listed here will be enough in most cases.

The amount of your Social Security benefit depends on the number of years you worked and how much you earned in your lifetime. A worker retiring at age 65 this year who has always had maximum earnings will receive a current benefit of $760 a month; a maximum earner retiring at age 62 this year will receive a monthly benefit of $630. A steady worker with average earnings during his or her lifetime who retired at age 65 in 1986 can expect an initial monthly benefit of about $576 a month; an average earner retiring at age 62 this year will receive a benefit of approximately $482 a month. And a steady worker with low earnings who retired at age 65 this year will get about $380 a month; the age 62 low-earner retiring this year will receive about $320 a month.

If you're undecided about your retirement plans and are at least age 60 you can get an immediate estimate of your benefits simply by visiting any Social Security office. In most cases, a Social Security employee will be able to provide that information on the spot. Or if you prefer, you can call your local office and ask them to send you a Form SSA-7004 ("Request for Statement of Earnings"). Complete the form, write " benefit estimate" at the top of the form, and mail it to the Social Security Administration. Within six weeks after that form is received by Social Security, you will get a history of your Social Security earnings along with a benefit estimate. This service is provided as a public service without charge.

Whatever your retirement plans are, the people at Social Security are there to help you decide and respond to any questions or concerns you may have.

Eligible farmers could receive some tax relief

COLLEGE STATION--Farmers with taxable income from debts discharged are eligible for some tax relief.

Such farmers will not have to wait until the new tax law takes effect to complete a debt forgiveness plan, points out Dr. Wayne Hayenga, an economist and attorney with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Under final language in the new law, the Internal Revenue Service will treat farm debt discharged after April 9, 1986, as if the farmer was insolvent. In general, that means debt relief will reduce a farmer's basis in earnings or assets down to the level of his total liabilities but won't trigger an immediate tax bill, Hayenga explains.

Thus, in most cases, a farmer who faces capital gain recognition from liquidating a farm under a restructuring plan should now get it done before year-end, advises the economist. Also, a farmer can still benefit from the old 60 percent capital gain exclusion which will be eliminated after 1986.

If a farmer is insolvent before the restructuring, he can also avoid the alternative minimum tax on capital gain, adds Hayenga. This provision applies to any sale after 1981.

The new law lifts the statute of limitations on filing an amended return if a farmer is stuck with the alternative minimum tax for post-1981 sale while insolvent.

For further details relating to the taxable income from debts discharged and to the alternative minimum tax on capital gain, Hayenga advises producers to consult an accountant or tax specialist.

Program kits are available

COLLEGE STATION--To help Texas teachers and organizations conduct Arbor Day programs, the Texas Forest Service is again offering free program kits.

Each kit includes a loblolly pine seed packet with planting instructions, program aids for a local Arbor Day observance, suggested classroom activities for teachers, and a copy of the governor's proclamation.

Arbor Day is to be observed on Friday, Jan. 16, 1987 in Texas. It was first celebrated in Texas in 1889. Since 1949 it has been observed annually in Texas on the third Friday in January, although dates vary in other states. The purpose of the event i to promote a greater appreciation of the beauty and value of forests and trees in both rural and urban settings.

The official state observance for 1987 will be held in Euless. The public is invited to attend the state celebration, and hundreds of other public events will honor Arbor Day in other Texas locales.

Program chairpersons and teachers should address requests for Arbor Day kits (limited one per class) to: Texas Forest Service, College Station, TX 77843-2136. Distribution, on a first-come, first-serve basis, begins in mid November.
