Star Lites

By Bill Ellis

IT HARDLY SEEMS possible that an entire year has passed since we were in the process of watching our nation's Bicentennial celebration come to a climax.

However, Monday will mark the 201st anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, and the end of the first year of our nation's third century.

In comparison with last year's gala Bicentennial programs, the buildup to July 4th this year has almost been anti-climatic. However, in our own city, the celebration will be much the same as it was last year.

About the only difference will be the absence this time around of the Bicentennial choir, a community-wide effort that added considerably to last year's festivities. Local civic clubs have once again gone overboard to help local residents enjoy their holiday. We hope that each one will avail themselves of the opportunity, and take part in the activities.

ACCORDING TO A REPORT published in the U.S. News and World Report, Parmer County is a member of an elite list, according to a compilation of the 100 richest counties, ranked according to per capita personal income, using figures obtained from the Internal Revenue Service.

Parmer County ranked 11th nationally, according to the report, with a per capita income of $11,715. Loving County, an oil-rich county located in west central Texas, headed the list as the richest county in the nation with a per capita income of $18,892.

You'll realize that "per capita" income means that much income for EACH man, woman and child. The figures quoted are NOT family income totals.

Outside of Loving County, the only other Texas county to rank higher than Parmer in the study was Sherman, whose county seat is Stratford, located at the top of the Panhandle. Sherman rated four notches above Parmer in seventh place with per capita income of $13,143.

Seven other countries from the Panhandle-Plains region made the list, and they included Armstrong, with Claude as county seat, ranking 35th, with per capita income of $9,277. Hansford County (Spearman) rated 44th, with figures of $8,863; Dallam County (Dalhart) ranked 55th with $8,546; Carson County (Panhandle) was 59th with $8,254; neighboring Castro County (Dimmitt) was 71st with a per capita figure of $8,245, and another neighbor, Deaf Smith (Hereford) ranked 73rd at $8,195.

This speaks well for our "bread basket of the nation." Apparently, Parmer County's diversification, as well as its irrigation helps its per capita income figures.

Of course, our relatively sparse population helps when you are figuring averages. This is how little Loving County led the list. There are just 164 souls in Loving County, according to the 1970 census, and one report said the county had more oil wells than it did people.

Sherman County, with 3,657 folks according to the last census, is considerably below Parmer's 10,509 population, and that makes our per capita income figures even more impressive.

The figures were based on per-person incomes for the year 1975. The national average for that year was $5,903.

Texas was well-represented on the list, with 13 of the top 100 counties. Neighboring states did not fare quite so well.

A FEW WEEKS AGO, we were deploring the proposed switch of this country's system of weights and measures to the metric system, and in particular we were opposed to the federal government making changeovers in its highway marking system, which would cost millions of dollars.

The past week we heard the report that the Federal Bureau of Roads & Highways (this may not be their official title, but it's close), is giving up its drive to change the road signs to include the metric distances, at least for the present.

Gala July 4th Events Slated

The ninth annual July 4 fireworks display will again highlight this year's Friona Fourth of July celebration, with at least eleven other events scheculed at the Friona Community Center.

The Evening Lions Club is sponsoring a few traditional fun events such as a turtle race, bicycle race and baseball throw. These events were such a success last year the Evening Lions are expecting an even larger turnout and participation this year.

The Friona Noon Lions are sponsoring their fourth annual July 4 dinner and are serving smoked and barbecue beef this year. The dinner is scheduled to start at 11:30 a.m. and last until 2 p.m. Tickets for the dinner are $3 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12. Proceeds of the dinner will go to Girlstown.

Following the dinner will be a water polo match sponsored by the Friona Volunteer Firemen, an event which really keeps the contestants cool.

A sack race will be sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, and other events will be a ping pong tournament, a partnership domino tournament and a tennis tournament sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce beginning at 8 a.m. A concession stand will also be available manned by the Rebekah Club.

The Progressive Study Club will conduct a ceremony and present essay awards.

The fireworks display, which was saved from being dropped this year by the fire department and donations from more than 30 local merchants, civic clubs, and individuals, will begin at about 10 p.m. at Reeve Lake.

The fireworks, which drew a record crowd last year estimated at around 1,000 cars and 5,000 spectators, will once again provide an appropriate climax to the Independence Day celebration.

Fire Chief Ralph Shirley says "Our display will be virtually the same as the one we had last year for the Bicentennial." Included in the hour-long program will be a number of rockets, colorful design displays, an American Flag, bombs and other attractions.

The turtle race might appropriately be called "The West Texas Championship," since it is the only race of its kind known to be held in the entire area.

Children are reminded to be finding their turtle entry and getting him all primed for the event. Prizes are generally given for not only the fastest steed, but also the biggest entry, the smallest,and the best decorated turtle.

It will be the fourth year for the turtle event. Defending champion in the racing divison is Daylen Gallman.

MBPXL Board Votes Dividend

The MBPXL Corporation Board of Directors voted a regular quarterly dividend of ten cents ($.10) per share of common stock to be paid on August 10, 1977 to holders of record on July 20, 1977.

Friona Hosts Three-City Plan Session

The City of Friona will serve as host for a joint meeting with officials from Hereford and Bovina on Thursday, July 7, as the three cities hear Bob Guthroe, from the Department of Housing-Urban Development Adminstration, Washington, D.C.

The HUD representative will discuss with officials the availability of federal funds for construction of low income type housing units in the area.

The meeting will be held at 4 p.m. Thursday at the Council Meeting Room in Friona.

Anyone interested in the housing situation in the area is urged to attend the meeting.

Most Businesses Will Close Here

With July Fourth falling on Monday this year, most Friona businesses will be closed in observance of the nation's birthday.

Only four businesses will be open all day Monday. They are Perry's, Houser's, Gibson's and Piggly Wiggly. Bi-Wize Drug will be open until noon only.

According to Friona Postmaster Richard Wilson all postal personnel will also be off. No Star Route will run and no mail will be coming in or leaving Friona. However, he said the Friona Star will be boxed locally as usual during the weekend.

MBPXL will shut down production for a long weekend, taking Monday off. Also closing will be Parmer County Implement Company, Herring Implement and Rockwell Bros. Lumber.

Financial institutions will all be closed Monday. These include Friona State Bank, Tri-County Savings & Loan Assn., the Credit Union and Production Credit Assn.

City offices, as well as the Friona Chamber of Commerce office, and the Friona Star office, will all be closed on Monday.

Also closing will be Foster's, Claborn Floral, Gib's (which is closing all week for vacation), Ethridge-Spring, Wilhelm TV, Roberts Appliance, Reeve Chevrolet-Olds, Friona Motors, Plains Hardware, White's Auto and Panhandle Concrete.

Joining the list to be closed are the Main Place, Nellie Jane's, Poarch Furniture, Carrol's Printing, Walt's Quality Printing, E&M Supermarket, Ruthie's, Rushing Insurance and Collard & Warren Attorneys.

County Ranks High In Cattle Statistics

Parmer County once again rated high in the 1977 Fed Cattle Production report for the High Plains, compiled by Sam Thomas and the Agricultural Development Department of Southwestern Public Service.

However, the county dropped a couple of notches from its customary second place in the state for total numbers fed, as two other High Plains counties edged past Parmer County in the statistics for the first time.

Deaf Smith County, the perennial leader in fed cattle totals, held onto its lofty position, with a total of 512,811 cattle fed during 1976, according to the survey. Deaf Smith County has a one-time lot capacity of 279,500, which leads all cattle-feeding counties.

Castro County slipped into second place for the 1976 totals, with 364,000 cattle fed. Castro has a total capacity of 227,600. Hansford County took third place honors with a total of 300,000 head of cattle for 1976. Their one-time capacity is 142,500.

Parmer County had to settle for fourth for total cattle fed among Texas counties for 1976, with 282,062 head of cattle. Parmer's one-time capacity is 273,500, just below Deaf Smith's capacity.

One other county in the cattle-feeding area, Texas County of Oklahoma, fed more cattle than Parmer County in 1976. Their total was 355,516 cattle, from a capacity of 216,350.

The survey showed that a total of 4,298,629 cattle were fed in a four-state area, from a system with a one-time capacity of 2,653,765 cattle.

The report also showed that 18 packing plants in the tri-state area have an annual slaughter capacity of 4,990,680 head of cattle.

Largest packing plant according to capacity is Iowa Beef Processors of Amarillo, with a capacity of 1,200,000. IBP was followed by MBPXL of Friona with an annual capacity in 1977 of 777,000 head.

Other packing plants in the Golden Spread, and their annual slaughter capacity, are Swift Fresh Meat of Cactus, 520,000; MBPXL of Plainview, 404,000; Armour and Company of Hereford, 400,000; Packerland Packing Co. of Pampa, 350,000; Swift and Company of Guymon, Oklahoma, 225,000; and Swift and Company of Clovis, N.M., 200,000.

Also, Glover Packing Co. of Roswell, N.M., 182,000; Glover Packing Co. of Amarillo, 180,000; John Morrell & Co. of Lubbock, 118,900; Caviness Packing of Hereford, 95,000; Caviness Packing of Dalhart, 95,000; Booker Custom Packing of Booker, 83,200; Farm Pac Kitchens of Lubbock, 52,500; Amarillo Packing Co., 50,000; Palo Duro Meat Co. of Amarillo, 40,000 and Hatch Packing Co. of Portales, N.M., 15,080.

Anti-Fireworks Law Reminder

As the July Fourth holiday nears residents are reminded that there is a fine up to $200 for popping firecrackers inside the city limits.

Police Chief Bill Denney said the ordinance against fireworks within the city will be strictly enforced. He also urges parents to caution their children in the use of fireworks outside city limits to remind them to be safe and prevent injury or fire.

Cattle Vote Set To Start

Voting begins Tuesday at the Parmer County ASCS office in the national cattle referendum, for those cattle producers who registered for the special election.

Producers will have until Friday, July 15 to cast their ballots in the referendum, which will provide funds for cattle marketing and promotion.

A total of 170 people are eligible to vote in Parmer County, which has the second largest number of cattle producers in this section of the country. Only Deaf Smith County, with 290 eligible voters, registered more producers than Parmer County.

Deadline Nears For Workshop Entrants

The annual Friona Summer Drama Workshop, sponsored by the Friona Fine Arts Council, will be held July 18-30.

Conducting the workshop this summer will be Phil Weyland, a veteran professional actor and director who also has served in the educational theatre field as well. Weyland was the director of last year's workshop.

Charge for the workshop will be $15 per individual or $30 for a family group. Minimum age will be 13 years. Registration blanks may be picked up at the Superintendent's Office at Friona High School or from Nancy Edelmon, 401 Oak.

Everyone interested in participating must fill out and return blanks by July 15. Fees may be paid at that time, or on the first day of the workshop.

Sessions will be held at the High School. Anyone who needs further information may call Nancy Edelmon at 247-3497.

REMEMBERING...

By BILL BROOKS

Sights

Some sights, once common are now rare indeed but I've listed some I remember and you may want to add those I've left out.

Remember? When was the last time you saw someone drinking coffee from a saucer, somone cranking a car, an all-leather football helmet, a gas station man "pumping" gas, a road crew working with a fresno, a rumble seat full of kids on Sunday afternoon, someone milking a cow or making butter?

Do you remember the kerosene barrel by the back porch, shade trees with whitewash on their trunks, "FREE" popsickle sticks, a drinking bucket with a dipper in the kitchen, a wash stand and pan on the back porch, a pie safe, a kerosene cook stove, a smoke house in use or a mail order catalog kept in the toilet for something other than reading?

A whole slab of bacon in a meat market was something to behold as well as a fire engine with a bell instead of a siren. The sunrise (any sunrise is nice) I remember was when we camped out all night for the first time. I also remember the sight of wagons and buggies parked at the county courthouse, shoes that buttoned, water being drawn, a house with no bathroom, a telephone with a crank, a hand painted tie, a garter that was meant to be used, a hat pin, a plow horse, a gasoline powered washing machine with a wringer, clothes hanging on the line.

You've seen a sewing machine you work with your feet — an organ too, also a match holder in the kitchen, a mop made of rags, oiled roads, wooden bridges, people fanning in church, a dish pan, a blacksmith shop, a key hole you could look through, apple boxes made into furniture, wood floors with so much oil on them that when you went barefoot your feet turned black.

Some more sights were a lawn mower without a motor, a stove pipe, a ceiling fan in a dry goods store, penny candy, a 14c show ticket, a keg of nails, silver coins made of real silver, starch you made at home, fly paper. Also there were the baggage carts at the railroad depot, black smoke coming from a train engine, paper dolls cut from an outdated mail order catalog, long handle underwear and a feed sack dress and, of course, the old home place.

Friona Flashbacks

.....from the files of The Friona Star

45 YEARS AGO--JULY 8, 1932

Several weeks ago, Mayor Reeve called a meeting of any and all male citizens of Friona who would be willing to enlist in a volunteer fire department for Friona. It is painful to relate that not one man responded to the call, yet it appears that practically all of our people are strongly in favor of Friona having a fire department.

+ + + +

35 YEARS AGO--JULY 3, 1942

Sometime last Tuesday, a long and fairly comfortable bench was placed by someone in front of the Friona post office, for the convenience of those who have the spare time to loiter there. The ladies of Friona and surrounding community are protesting the presence of the bench, as during the busy harvest season many of the wives or daughters come for the mail and they claim that there are already too many men loafing there to stare at them. The bench, they feel, invites more loafers.

25 YEARS AGO--JULY 3, 1952

Early signing of right-of-way easements is necessary to expedite construction of the rural telephone line mapped for this area, Leo Forrest of Hereford has explained. Miss Mary Reeve is working on the project in the Friona area, and Mrs. Floyd Schlenker is working on the project in the Rhea community. Contract for the construction of the lines is hoped for by July 30.

Contracts were let this week to Kerr and Middleton of Lubbock for constructing additional farm-to-market roads in Parmer County. Two projects are involved. One is from FM Road 690 at Oklahoma Lane south and southwest to the Bailey County line, where it will join another paved road already existing. The other will link Rhea with the two FM pavements running north of Bovina and west of Friona. The combined length of the two projects is about 14 miles.

A rattlesnake struck Monday afternoon from its hiding place in wheat stubble, biting Pamela Ann Jones, 13. She was treated in Parmer County Community Hospital and reported in satisfactory condition by officials at the hospital.

15 YEARS AGO--JULY 5, 1962

There have been a lot of unconfirmed reports about fish being found in irrigation ditches, barrow ditches and the like, but H.G. Houston, who farms three miles southeast of Friona, has gone them one better. Houston captured one of the phenomenoms in an irrigation ditch on the J.L. Stowers farm Monday morning, and brought it to the Friona Star office for photographing. The specimen was about two and a half inches long, and was sort of silvery colored, with flecks of gold.

+ + + +

10 YEARS AGO--JULY 6, 1967

The Friona Industrial fund drive brought in a total of $104,164.94, according to a report this week from the Friona Industrial development Corporation. Members of the non-profit corporation said they were making the announcement in the response to many inquiries as to the amount the drive raised, and to the dispersal of funds. Only one check has been drawn from the account at Friona State Bank, and that was for the purchase of land for the Missouri Beef Packers' site, in the amount of $95,000. This leaves a balance in the fund of $9,164.94, which members of the corporation hopes will continue to grow, for possible future use by prospective industries.

5 YEARS AGO--JULY 6, 1972

The striking employees of the Friona Division of Missouri Beef Packers, Inc. voted July 2, 1972 to end their five-month old strike by accepting a new three-year contract. The employees are represented by local P-777 of Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen, AFL-CIO.

On The Farm In Parmer Co.

by Mack Heald

I have an update on the mosiac problem seen in parts of Parmer County. On June 20, I sent two samples to Dr. Robert W. Toler, Plant Virologist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Texas A&M University. I received his report on June 24, that the samples showed positive MDMV infection. He stated that possibly another virus was present, but wasn't for sure. I sent him more samples on June 27, which hopefully will shed more light on the problem.

At the present time we don't know how much yield loss will be seen from the infected fields. In most fields the infected plants are continuing to grow, which is encouraging. When ear set is complete we should be able to determine more about this situation.

Until then I will keep you posted on any new developments that arise. On June 17, Dr. Robert Berry, Extension Pathologist and I, determined the percentage of MDMV infection on 150 commercial hybrids and experiment station crosses. There are some popular, commercial hybrids that are showing resistance so far. More of these ratings will be made throughout the growing season and made public this fall.

ROTHE TO RETIRE--Joe H. Rothe, who has served with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for the past 30 years, most recently as associate director, will retire on August 31. Rothe has also served as assistant director, State Agricultural Agent, district agent, county agent and assistant county agent. Rothe has been instrumental in organizing action programs to deal with animal health problems and emergency and disaster preparedness efforts. He was awarded the USDA Superior Service Award in 1973, the agency's highest honor.

TEXAS HIGH IN COTTON--The Texas cotton crop is off to a good start and prices look good, says a marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. A crop of well over four million bales is expected, and prices should average near those received for the 1976 Texas crop. The price strength stems from a worldwide shortage of cotton, with current world stocks averaging 40 per cent of world consumption.

It seems that this bureau has received thousands of letters on the subject, with some 98 per cent of those responding voicing their opposition to such a ridiculous waste of money.

Also, we hear that some of the country's leaders have voiced their opposition to the proposal to the switching over to the metric system in our nation's schools.

Apparently there are still a few people, and hopefully some of these in our congress, who are opposed to the "one world" concept that the people planners would have us join, under which we would lose all of the distinguishing characteristics that have made our country great.

Thank God for this ray of hope. Perhaps we are not doomed yet.

At Home In Parmer County

By Jana Pronger

NINE "HOME SAFE" precautions can make vacationing less worrisome, Jana Pronger, County Extension Agent, says.

+Ask a neighbor or your apartment manager to watch your home while you're away.

+Tell the police if you plan to be away several weeks. Some police departments will patrol homes for vacationers. Tell police who you expect to be in your home during the vacation--and give them your departure and return dates.

+Leave several low wattage lights on, or connect them to a timer so they are only on for the evening hours. A radio that's on also can be a deterrent.

+Request that mail and newspapers not be delivered while you are away.

+Arrange to have the lawn mowed--if the vacation is longer than a week.

+Check locks on all outside doors and replace unsafe ones with a dead bolt lock. Ask a locksmith for specific information.

+Be careful about telling strangers or casual acquaintences that you'll be away.

+Inventory your possessions--and have all household valuables engraved with your social security number or driver's license number. Ask the police about borrowing an engraver.

+Consider a burglar alarm system if any homes in the neighborhood have been burglarized. A wide range of devices and prices are available, so compare them to find one that really suits your needs.

The 4-H Council has engravers and will be glad to help you mark your household valuables. Just contact the County Agent's Office in Farwell to set up an appointment (phone: 481-3619) or write Jana Pronger, Box 683, Farwell, Texas, or contact your local 4-H Club leaders.

SMILING STATE....Each year citizens are selected at local levels from students who have just completed their junior year in high school to attend Girls State at Seguin, Texas. The purpose of the Girls State program is to provide citizenship training for girls to afford them an opportunity to live together as a self-governing group. The white arrow points to Faith Mays, of Friona, who attended Girls State last week, sponsored by the local American Legion Auxiliary.

Faith Mays Reports On Girls State Session

(Editor's note: Faith Mays of Friona, recently attended Bluebonnet Girls State at Texas Lutheran College in Seguin, Texas. The following was written by Faith after her return to Friona last week.)

When people ask me what Girls State is all about, I find it hard to tell them. It is an experience I wish every young girl could have.

We left Amarillo on a chartered bus at 12 midnight on June 13. All the girls in the 18th District rode together. We arrived in Seguin at 2:00 Tuesday afternoon. Registration was immediately. All of our money was put in the G.S. bank and we were assigned to a "city," a party (nationalist or federalist) and the House or the Senate. I was a federalist senator from City L. The name of my city was Lukenbach.

Each dorm had two cities, which made a county, two counties made a district and all the districts made up the state. We studied government on all those levels and had party meetings and House and Senate meetings. We had several guests speakers, all of which were very good. On Monday, the 18th, we went to the capitol. It was a very exciting trip. We made a record in the rotunda. The Senate and House met in the chambers for four hours. Governor Briscoe was out of town so we didn't get to see him. Our governor and other state officials were installed in the rotunda also.

The day we left was really something. After ten days away from home everyone was ready to return, yet no one wanted to leave. Long-lasting friendships were made, everyone had new friends, no one wanted to say good-bye. The day we arrived the directors told us that we would cry when we left and we didn't believe them. We should have; there were tears of happiness, sadness and some just because.

I have memories that I will cherish forever. I only wish more girls could go. We were lucky enough to be the first G.S. in the nation to make a sound-color film. Now after the film is produced, more people can see what we do. We learned loads of government! So don't be surprised if the next senator is a G.S. citizen. I want to thank the American Legion Auxiliary for allowing me the chance to go. I will never forget it.

Hereford Rebekahs Hosts Guests

By the order of Jack O. Morrow, sovereign grand master of the International Order of Odd Fellows, June 14, was observed as Memorial Day.

In recognition of this special day, Hereford Rebekah Lodge No. 228 and IOOF No. 476 were hosts to all lodges of District 5.

Highlighting the evening was a memorial service rendered by Friona Rebekah Lodge No. 308 and Friona IOOF No. 203 in honor of all the deceased Rebekahs and Odd Fellows of District No. 5.

Those presenting the program were Geneva Williams, Sam Williams, Floyd Brookfield, Louretta Brookfield, Joe Moyer, Pat Fallwell, Jewel Claborn, Wilma Wise, Fern White and Lillie Taylor.

Deerings Have Boy

Travis and Debby Deering of Friona announce the arrival of a baby boy on Monday, June 27 at 5:23 p.m. at the Dimmitt Clinic.

Named Aaron Travis, he weighed seven pounds, twelve and one-half ounces and was twenty inches long at birth.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morgan of McLean, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Deering of Lubbock. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Nash of Hayden, Arizona.

Clayton Donates To Children's Homes

The second of two $6,000 checks from House Speaker Bill Clayton to children's homes in his legislative district was presented on Sunday, June 26.

Clayton, who is state representative of District 74, made the contribution to Boy's Ranch at Old Tascosa. The presentation was made to Virgil Patterson, ranch president, following the 11 a.m. church service and conducted on the chapel's steps.

The money is the total of contributions presented Clayton by friends and employees at Speaker's Day observance during the recently concluded legislative session.

No stipulations as to use of the funds was made by Clayton, who indicated that it could either be used for general expenses or for special projects the homes might undertake.

ESCAPES CAVE-IN....Sabador Perez, Jr. (seated) was thankful and happy last week after fellow workmen and members of the Friona Fire Department dug him out of several tons of corn which had caved in on him at the Tri-County Elevator at Black. Perez was not injured, but the situation was very critical for a few minutes. (Star Photo)

Rape: A Crime Not Reported

Who believes a prostitute when she says she has been raped? Hardly anyone.

Yet, according to the chief of the National Center for the Prevention and Control of Rape, prostitutes are the victims of many violent rapes. But because their complaints are often met with skepticism or ridicule, prostitutes seldom report sexual assault to the police or receive appropriate, sympathetic medical or psychological treatment for their trauma.

Ms. Elizabeth Kutzke, chief of the Rape Center (which is part of HEW's National Institute of Mental Health) says that this example points out some of the special problems encountered by rape victims who are members of certain population groups, such as children, adolescents, the elderly, persons living in rural areas, the disabled, Blacks, Asian and Native Americans, Spanish-speaking persons, homosexuals, prostitutes, and those who live in an institutionalized setting.

"Myths and biases about these specific groups affect the availability of rape-related services to them, influence their ability to make a credible report of rape, and raise certain ethical concerns that must be considered in addressing these population groups," Ms. Kutzke says.

"Previously these unmet needs have either been ignored or handled in a biased manner. The result is that prevention and treatment programs for many individuals with varying life styles, ages, or environmental circumstances are either non-existent or inappropriate," she continued.

Ms. Kutzke's comments were made following a recent NIMH-sponsored conference in Arlington, Virginia, to discuss problems associated with rape and rape prevention among special population groups. It was the first such conference to focus specifically on the ramifications of sexual assault on specific population groups.

Myths and biases which interfere with establishing credibility or with receiving appropriate treatment are not limited to prostitutes. Ironically, among the special population groups most victimized by myth are children. The following examples were cited at the conference:

--Myth: Children should be warned against strangers since strangers commit most sexual assaults on children.

--Fact: Four out of five children who are sexually abused are assaulted by persons known to them.

--Fact: Child sexual abuse crosses all socio-economic lines.

--Myth: Most sexual assaults on children are reported to the police.

--Fact: Very few child rapes are reported, thus making it difficult to estimate the extent of the problem. Estimates are that 5 to 10 times as many child sexual assaults occur than are reported.

--Myth: The physical injury inflected should be the main concern in treating a child who is a victim of sexual assault.

--Fact: Psychological trauma is the greatest concern. Often it is how parents and authorities deal with the rape that is more damaging emotionally to the child than is the rape itself.

Similar examples could be given for each of the special population groups discussed Ms. Kutzke says. Certain changes in societal attitudes are needed, she said, to ensure that appropriate services are not closed to any group and that all segments of the population feel equally comfortable about seeking rape-related services.

Cotton Council Endorses Protest

The National Cotton Council has registered a strong protest with a Congressional panel about the Occupational Safety and Health Administration's arbitrary actions in recent cotton dust rule-making procedures.

In a statement filed with a House Small Business subcommittee, the Council charges that OSHA's actions were characterized by "double standards" and "abuse of authority."

Among examples cited were: (1) OSHA's refusal to grant an extension of the hearing date on the proposed standard despite the fact that the industry had no advance knowledge of the standard's scope; (2) the agency's double standard that required industry witnesses to file advance copies of their testimony but allowed proponents to testify without prior filing; (3) OSHA's moving ahead with an industry-wide standard while another branch of the Labor Department was conducting studies to determine whether a standard was needed; and (4) the agency's disregard for the government's own authorities who recommended that the standard not apply to all sectors of the cotton industry.

The Council quotes a memorandum from a high-ranking agency official to the head of OSHA advising that there was no basis for applying the standard to the industry's non-textile sectors. The memorandum noted that 12 government and industry experts had been polled on the issue and their unanimous opinion was that the agency would be on "very shaky ground" to propose an industry-wide standard.

According to the Council statement, OSHA also was "irresponsible" in stating on the opening day of the hearings that it would ignore the costs or inflationary impact of the proposed standard.

"OSHA chooses to ignore an installed cost for dust abatement equipment of $3.2 billion and total annualized costs of $947 million," it points out. "These are costs that impact very largely on small businesses and the smaller the business the greater the impact."

Citing the cotton ginning industry as an example, the Council says dust abatement equipment costs for small gins would be 80 per cent as much as the typical plant's total value.

"The regulatory agencies created by the Congress are theoretically accountable to Congress, but in many cases the Congressional oversight procedure has proven to be less than satisfactory in establishing accountability," the statement notes.

The Council strongly urges Congress to "systematically and carefully" examine the records of federal agencies in order to establish and maintain better accountability.

Frionan Returns From REC Tour

Joyce Acker, Nazareth, and Bryan Johnston of Friona, recently returned from a two-week, all expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. They earned the right to this trip by winning the speech contest conducted by Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative, who is also the Youth Tour sponsor.

Joyce and Bryan were among thirty-six high school students from rural electric cooperatives all over the state who made the journey. The tour left by bus from Waxahachie, and traveled through Arkansas, Tennessee and Virginia, visiting many points of interest on the way, including Lookout Mountain, the Shenandoah Valley and Williamsburg, Virginia.

While in Washington, each student visited with his congressman and toured many places of importance, including the Capitol, Smithsonian Institute and Mount Vernon. The group was greeted by President Carter while touring the White House.

The participants described the trip as being very exciting historically, but unsurpassed in an experience of making friends and sharing in unity among all the students from Texas.

James Hull, Manager of Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative, expressed deep concern about the continuation of the tour, depending on future participation.

---- SCS Report ----

Have you noticed the "unconservation" that is going on. It may be your neighbor's farm.

With wheat harvest virtually complete there are a lot of fires in Parmer County.

Wheat straw on the soil surface does a number of good things for the soil.

1. The straw insulates the soil from extremely hot summer temperatures.
2. The straw prevents a large amount of evaporation of water from the soil.
3. The straw allows the rainfall to filter down into the soil. Bare soil seals over and water runs off.
4. The straw improves the texture of the soil by adding organic matter. Organic matter also keeps the microganisms alive in the soil and you have a healthy soil.

Contact the Soil Conservation Service in Friona on how wheat residue management can help you with your particular soils.

Following are the three winning essays:

WHY I AM PROUD TO BE AN AMERICAN
By Kipi Fleming
First Place

Why am I proud to be an American? There are many reasons. Our rights and privileges are something that we should treasure deep in our hearts, but do we? Don't most of us take these precious freedoms for granted? Without freedom of speech and of the press, you might not be reading this paper, in fact, I might not have been allowed to write at all. Freedom of religion should be maybe the most precious of all our rights. Whether we attend church or not and which church we want to attend is our choice. But that's just it. We have a choice. No one in this country can tell us where we go to church. The pilgrims came to the New World in hopes of finding a home where they could worship God in their own way. They treasured this freedom and so should we.

America is not only free, but she is also beautiful. No where else in the world can you see an Old Faithful shooting steam high in the air, or an Old Southern plantation home, or hear the constant whispered dripping of limestone water making new formations in Carlsbad Caverns. Our country is covered with beauties such as these, both natural and man-made. Can anyone tell himself truthfully that our land is not beautiful? I don't think so.

Now I'm not saying America is perfect. We still have many faults and problems, but we heave realized this and are working to eliminate these problems. Pollution, crime, and drug abuse are being fought against all the time. Sometime soon these may be conquered.

We have a wonderful heritage. Colored with the greatness of democracy, but also stained with the blood of men and boys who loved, fought, and died for this great nation. They knew that if a nation is to live and strive, everyone has to pull together, a few people can't do it alone. People can't be luke warm, citizens who are willing to live in a country, but don't really care about it at all. They shouldn't be called citizens at all. They are hurting our country. Let's all work together to make these luke warm citizens hot. Let's all be proud to be Americans!

WHY I AM PROUD TO BE AN AMERICAN
By Lynn Blackburn
Second Place

The heritage of a country is a lot to what the country becomes; whether it lives or fails. I think this is what makes our country live as it is living.

Our country in the early beginning was a small country made of several nationalities, but they all believed in one thing: Freedom. England, who owned the thirteen colonies, didn't think we should have our freedom. So there was war.

For several years men fought for freedom. Many men died in the war, but their cause still lives. Everyone suffered in the war. Families sending off their husbands and fathers, and their brothers. Some of them not to come back. It was over finally. Many men died for freedom, and that is why I am proud to be an American.

After the war our country expanded. As it expanded slavery became an important issue. The North believed that there should be no slaves. The Southern plantation owners thought there should be slaves. So our nation became divided. For about five years the South and the North fought for what each thought was right.

The North finally pulled through, and won the war. The war was the bloodiest war of our nation.

At the conclusion of the war Grant set a good example for the country. Grant didn't take Lee's sword as a sign of victory. The North did not mock the South, but instead lent a helping hand.

I am very proud to be an American. The freedom we have did not come easy. We fought hard for it and earned it.

I think in the future if we have any trouble, we should think of how this country got its heritage.

The heritage of our country is important this is why I am proud to be an American.

WHY I AM PROUD TO BE AN AMERICAN
By Mark Blankenship
Third Place

I am proud to be an American for many, many reasons. I feel that is a privilege and an honor to live in a country as great and as proud as ours. One reason that I love this country is because of our freedom. We have the freedom to choose our occupation, an occupation that will help our great nation. We also have the right to worship as we please.

Another reason I love my country is because of the trust I have in it. The willingness of citizens to join our armed forces and maybe give their lives for our country really proves the love and pride we have.Many of our citizens join special groups to help others in need. These people show they care for our nation.

Also, being able to look back in our history and smile makes me feel proud. Many people have given their own lives to help us today. We should be grateful. Our country is the best on Earth, and it takes every one of us to make it the best. I hope that the things we do now will make future Americans proud to live in America.

REPAIRED TOWER....Workmen repaired the radio tower at the Friona Law Enforcement Center after it was knocked out of service during an electrical storm last week. The city went to an alternate communication system for several days before the main service could be fixed. (Star Photo)

55 Traffic Deaths Recorded Last July 4th

The Fourth-of-July holiday period was the deadliest 3-day weekend of last year. Fifty-five traffic related deaths were recorded in Texas. Statistics also show July to be the heaviest traveled month of 1976.

Mindful of the long weekend and increased travel, Governor Dolph Briscoe asked Texans to rally to face the problem of traffic accidents. Said Briscoe, "Texans pride themselves on their sense of individual responsibility. If they are properly informed of a problem, it is my conviction they will respond positively and quickly. The fatality rate on our streets and highways during the Fourth-of-July holiday must be considered a critical problem facing all Texans. Any real solution depends on each of us taking full responsibility for his own behavior behind the wheel," said the Governor.

Briscoe's Traffic Safety Representative, Ken Nevil, said if motorists would not rush they would have a much better chance of survival as they travel. "Interstate accidents have increased by 45 per cent over last year. This is due to several factors including increased travel, disregard for speed limits, heavy alcohol use and the like. Frequently, drivers concentrate on their holdiay fun rather than the heavy responsibility of maneuvering an automobile. As drivers, we must anticipate the unexpected and be prepared to react. We must rely upon good judgement and skills. But, we must be compassionate in our driving. The basic rules are: leave early enough for trips, limit the use of alcohol, maintain moderate speed and keep totally alert to potential traffic hazards. The traffic accident problem requires everyone's help, collectively and individually. If we drive as a team, together we could reduce the death toll," concluded Nevil.

Library Report

"Russia, The People and The Power," by Robert G. Kaiser is available at Friona Public Library.

A unique examination of Russia and the Russians, Robert G. Kaiser has written a lively and engaging portrait full of Russian voices, Russian jokes and most of all Russian reality.

Kaiser lived among the Russians for three years, speaking their language, traveling throughout their country, and reporting on the USSR for the Washington Post.

Now he has written about Russian life from birth to death; he takes us to the baths and to the Moscow Hippodrome, where he learned the Russian way to bet on a horse race---A gifted analyst of Soviet society, its political system and its economy. He describes the significance of communist ideology as defty as he recounts a family birthday party in Moscow.

After he left Russia, Kaiser traveled to Israel to record the recollections of former Soviet citizens, Jews who recently immigrated to Israel. Their stories of Soviet life have never been set down before.

The effect of this book is to put the second superpower into more realistic perspective. It describes a nation whose industry, science and technology are far behind the advanced western societies--a country which still cannot be crossed on a paved road. In a provocative final chapter Kaiser challenged the traditional image of an aggressive, expansionist USSR, and suggests that the western world has long ignored the Soviet Union's many weaknesses.

Christopha Milton, Rickey Hurst United In Church Ceremony

On Saturday evening, June 11, Christopha Helen Milton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Homer Virgil Milton of Marianna, Florida, became the bride of Dr. Rickey Lee Hurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hurst, Jr. of Friona, Texas. The wedding was solemnized at 7 p.m. in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, with the Reverend Jere Smith, rector of the church, and the Reverend Bob Livesay of Houston, Texas officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated for the wedding with assorted white flowers. On either side of the cross on the altar, brass candelabra were fitted with burning white tapers. These were flanked by urns holding handsome arrangements of roses, chrysanthemums, snapdragons and gladioli. Family pews were marked with white satin ribbons and floral sprays.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Warren Blackmon, of Cornelia, Georgia. Serving as bride's matron was Mrs. Scott Williams of Marianna. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Travis Graves of Friona, sister of the groom, Miss Elizabeth Milton and Miss Valerie Milton, nieces of the bride, of Marianna; and Miss Elaine Boston of Athens, Georgia.

They all wore floor length gowns of melon maracaine jersey, featuring empire waistlines and sleeveless bodices styled with scooped necklines. Their sandals were of matching peau de soie.

Helen Victoria Reese of Conroe, Texas, niece of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. She wore a gown of melon knit fashioned on lines similar to those worn by the other attendants.

All of the bride's attendants carried nosegays of daisies and Belinda roses tied with streamers of picot edged ivory satin ribbon.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Dr. David McClellan of Houston, Texas. Groomsmen were Joe Morris and Dr. John Blevins, Houston, Texas; Phil Swatzell and Mark Leaverton, Dallas, Texas; Jim Bob Jones, Lubbock, and Travis Graves of Friona, the groom's brother-in-law. Acolytes were Matt Sherbourne and Richard Nelson of Marianna.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, William Hall Milton, III, wore a floor length gown of ivory silk chiffon with a floating watteau train of the same material. The empress bodice of re-embroidered alencon lace encrusted with clusters of seed pearls featured a graceful scoop neckline. The full bishop sleeves of sheer chiffon were gathered at the wrists onto wide cuffs of alencon lace and pearls which fastened with a row of tiny covered buttons. A veil of silk illusion bordered with a row of tiny seed pearls fell softly over the shoulders and back of the gown from a coif of matching lace and seed pearls.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white roses, stephanotis, and gypsophilia centered with a large white cattleya orchid and tied with streamers of picot edged satin ribbon.

Mrs. William H. Milton, III, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a floor length gown of mint green chiffon highlighted by a set-in accordion-pleated capelet. Her corsage was a cymbidium orchid.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Mel Reese of Conroe, Texas, was attired in pink qiana with full sleeves and a high rolled neckline. She also wore a cymbidium orchid.

Mrs. Glen Holley, aunt of the bride, wore a gown of blue and white print and an orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a light mint green chiffon gown with a cowl neckline and wrist length sleeves. Her corsage was a cymbidium orchid.

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Holley and Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Milton, III hosted a reception in the Parish Hall of the church.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. A.C. Evans and Mrs. Roy P. Singletary, aunts of the bride.

Miniature wheat lights illuminated the patio and yellow potted mums on pedestals were placed at vantage points. The patio table was covered with a long ruffled white cloth topped with a melon and white-striped overlay edged in eyelet. On one end of the table was a large punch bowl embedded in shaved ice decorated with fresh fruit, from which Mrs. Milton Wynn and Miss Fran Harris served refreshing fruit sherbet punch. On the other end of the table, large melon candles glowed in tall hurricane globes surrounded by daisies and melon-colored gladioli. The center of the table held scalloped melon baskets filled with melon balls and assorted cold fruits.

Mrs. Frank Harris assisted as hostess on the patio.

Inside the Parish Hall, sunburst wall arrangements of melon-colored gladioli and jade foliage formed a background for the bride's table. The mantel was banked with jade and centered with a fan-shaped arrangement of melon gladioli and daisies interspersed with silver branches of twinkling wheat lights. On the opposite end of the room, a floor stand held a handsome silver brandy snifter arranged with gladioli. A silver goblet holding a nosegay of daisies and roses decorated each window of the room. All of the tables were covered in floor length sheer white cloths with lace inserts and ruffled lace borders.

The bride's book was attended by Mrs. Phillip Smith. The long bride's table in the middle of the room was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake frosted in white and decorated with daisies and Belinda roses. The top tier held a replica of the bridesmaids' bouquets, and was held in place by filigree columns. Mrs. Leroy Jackson, Mrs. Hays Lewis, Mrs. R.N. Joyner, and Mrs. J.E. Amos cut and served cake.

On either side of the cake five-branched silver candelabra held epergne arrangements of daisies and roses and were fitted with burning white tapers. Massive trays filled with an array of party sweets and sandwiches, hand molded bridal mints and cream puff trees completed the table appointments.

Serving coffee punch from a silver punch bowl on a side table were Mrs. John Milton V and Mrs. Robert Cowen. A matching table held trays of chicken salad balls and shrimp chips with dip.

Others assisting were Mrs. John Milton IV, Mrs. George Bush, Mrs. W.B. Sangaree, Mrs. Dexter McCaskili, Mrs. Martha Lewis, Mrs. Richard Hand, Mrs. Gerald Williams, Mrs. John Burton and Mrs. Ben Barnes.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Capt. and Mrs. Leroy Jackson, USN, Retired, McLean, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Dan McKinnon, Gainesville, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. John Rhodes, Orlando, Florida; Cheryl DuBard, Drew, Mississippi; Dr. and Mrs. Larry Ivey, Arlington, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. David Haron, Atlanta, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. Ford Boston and Mr. and Mrs. A.P. Roper, Greensboro, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Minor, Jr., Atlanta, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. Curt Hall, III and Susan Langstaff, Port Arthur, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hurst, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Travis Graves, Friona, Texas; Jim Bob Jones, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Mel Reese, Vicki Reese, Conroe, Texas; Rev. Bob Livesay, Dr. John Blevins, Joe Morris, and Dr. David McClellan, Houston, Texas; Phil Swatzell, Mark Leaverton, Dallas; Elaine Boston, Athens, Georgia; and Mrs. Warren Blackmon of Cornelia, Georgia.

The reception was directed by Mrs. Jacob Gunter and Mrs. Jerome Turner. Mrs. James MacKinnon assisted with the wedding procedure at the church.

After the trip, the couple will reside at 9714 Chatfield Street, Houston, Texas.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hurst, Jr. entertained with a dinner party at the Marianna Country Club on Friday evening following the wedding rehearsal.

A color scheme of melon and white was used for decorations on the u-shaped table. The centerpiece was a silver basket arranged with melon gladioli and roses and white daisies, and the side tables were decorated at intervals with silver goblet arrangements of matching flowers. Burning white tapers in silver candelabra illuminated the tables. The seating arrangement was designated by place cards tied with silver wedding rings.

Miss Milton was presented an orchid corsage.

A delectable dinner consisting of prime rib roast, baked potato, and green salad was served. Dessert was a chocolate groom's cake topped with a humorous bridal couple ornament.

Forty persons attended the dinner.

Country Music Show Set In Bovina Next Week

"Texas...Cradle of Giants," South Plains College's salute to country music in the Lone Star State, comes to Bovina on Tuesday, July 5.

Showtime will be at 8:45 p.m. in Bovina's Football Stadium.

The local presentation is being sponsored by the Bovina Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. Ticket prices are: adults, $1.50; students, $1.00 and all children under six years of age, no charge.

All proceeds derived from this event will be used to help defray expenses of the Bull Town Days celebration.

The First State Bank, in cooperation with Isaac's Department Store, will conduct a drawing during the evening, giving away a pair of Tony Lama boots and a Resistol hat. Your entrance ticket will be good for the drawing.

"Texas....Cradle of Giants" tells the story of country music in Texas through song and story, from the time Alan Lomax, folklorist, first heard "Git Along Little Doggies" at a cattlemen's convention in Fort Worth in 1910 to the current revolution in country music being spearheaded by native Texans Willie Nelson and Waylon Jennings.

Songs will include "Home On the Range," the cowboys' national anthem; "The Prisoner's Song," the first country music recording to sell over a million copies, and "California Blues" by Jimmie Rodgers, known as the Blue Yodeler and father of modern country music.

Other songs will include "Silver Haired Daddy of Mine," made famous by Gene Autry, one of the first cowboy movie heroes; "Maiden's Prayer," "Faded Love" and "Steel Guitar Rag," made famous by the king of western swing, Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys, and honky tonk songs like "Born to Lose" by Ted Daffan and "Pistol Packin' Mama," by Al Dexter, king of honky tonk.

Also, "Walking the Floor Over You," by Ernest Tubb; Ray Price's "Don't Let the Stars Get in Your Eyes"; "White Lightnin' ", by George Jones; Johnny Horton's "Battle of New Orleans"; Lefty Frizzell's "If You've Got the Money, Honey" and Jim Reeve's "He'll Have To Go."

Also, "This Old House," by Stuart Hamblen; "Hello Walls" and "Funny How Time Slips Away," by Willie Nelson; Buddy Holly's "That'll Be The Day"; Roger Miller's "King of the Road"; Waylon Jennings' "Good Hearted Woman" and Nelson's "Blue Eyes Cryin' in the Rain," plus many others.

About 40 country music songs and dances like the polka, hoe down, Mexican Hat Dance and Put Your Little Foot will be performed, along with a narrator telling the story, both the triumphs and tears of Texas' great country music performers.

Cast members include Keith Brashear of Jackson Lake, Texas Tech junior and fiddler; Danny Crunk, guitar and vocals; Eddie Hill, guitar and vocals; Kristy Brock, vocals; Baxter Vaughan, vocals and guitar; Randy Henderson, drums; Toni Mixon and Scott Yarbrough, dancers, all of Levelland; Carl Sims of Henrietta, guitar; Buddy Faulks of New Deal, harmonica and saxophone; Carrie Vaughn of Tulia, vocals; John Hartin, director of SPC's country music program, guitar and vocals, and Buddy Moore, SPC dean of men, narrator. The script for "Texas.... Cradle of Giants," was written by Helen Roberts, assistant professor of speech at SPC, who also wrote the script for "The Land and a Man," SPC's Bicentennial production.

The show will be staged in SPC's new $20,000 Showmobile, a mobile stage equipped with complete lighting and sound systems.
