Britons Land In Jordan; U. S. Troops To Turkey

By The Associated Press

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—British troops landed in Jordan today—to thwart an imminent plot against King Hussein, the British said. U.S. forces flew into Turkey. Russia announced big military maneuvers on its frontiers nearby.

The United States had 3,400 marines in Lebanon, and more than 1,000 combat-ready paratroopers in Turkey with more on the way. The size of the British forces landing in Amman was not announced.

The British Navy's 43,000-ton aircraft carrier Eagle neared Lebanese waters where the U.S. 6th Fleet, the most powerful ever assembled in the Mediterranean, is on guard. Other British warships and fighting men were gathered in a big buildup of power in the eastern Mediterranean.

Young King Hussein of Jordan called for help against a mounting wave of anti-Western Arab nationalism that dethroned and killed his cousin, Faisal II, in Iraq Monday.

Britain reacted swiftly, flying in British paratroopers from Cyprus.

Hussein declared "evil agents" had begun to smuggle in arms and ammunition from the Egyptian-controlled Gaza strip and Syria to start a mutiny in Jordan. He charged that radios under Communist control were urging Jordanians to overthrow the legal authorities.

Prime Minister Macmillan of Britain said the British troops were flown to Jordan to help forestall a plot scheduled to explode today against Hussein's government. He told parliament the king also had appealed to the United States for help and Washington was considering the request.

Macmillan accused President Nasser's United Arab Republic (U.A.R.) of being behind the plot against Hussein. He said Jordanians had spotted Syrian troops moving toward Jordan's borders.

Close on the heels of Hussein's broadcast came a call from the Iraqi rebel-controlled radio in Baghdad for Jordanians to overthrow their monarch.

Baghdad said Hussein "is disrupting our effort to get rid of imperialism" and that Jordan is being occupied by "the forces of imperialism." Baghdad then told the Jordanian people: "It is high time for you to act now."

The Iraqi rebels have proclaimed their solidarity with Nasser and his republic of Egypt and Syria.

Nasser, traveling home by yacht from conferences with President Tito in Yugoslavia, issued a statement declaring the U.S. landings in Lebanon were "a danger to Middle East peace." President Camille Chamoun of Lebanon asked the United States for military help. He accused the U.A.R. of massive support for rebels fighting his pro-western government.

Opposition to the marine landings in Lebanon developed among some members of the Beirut parliament normally friendly to the West.

Speaker Adel Osseyran said many of the lawmakers believed the Marine landing infringe on Lebanon's sovereignty and complained they were not consulted in advance.

King Hussein told his people that the request for outside troops had been authorized at an emergency session of parliament. The news caused no excitement in Amman.

11-Day Oil Flow Pattern Set For Texas In August

By ED OVERHOLSER

AUSTIN (AP)—An increase of 327,338 barrels a day in the August oil allowable was ordered today by the Texas Railroad Commission, based on an 11-day producing pattern.

The statewide allowable was set at 2,977,211 barrels a day.

This was the third consecutive monthly boost in permissive production in Texas. It was ordered because the oil regulatory commission found that stocks had been reduced to a desirable working level from the excess accumulated earlier in the year.

There was no mention of the Mideast crisis during the monthly statewide proration hearing here.

All but four of the 13 major crude-buying companies making nominations to the commission asked for at least 11 days of production. One company went as high as 14 days in its request.

Jake Hamon, Dallas independent producer, speaking for a group of Dallas operators, told the commission "we are apparently on the threshold of great improvement in the industry." He recommended 11 days.

The only other independent speaking was James Lauderdale of Abilene, representing the West Central Texas Oil and Gas Assn. He said there appeared to be a strengthening in demand for oil, but warned the commission to be cautious in not setting production so high that companies would go back to purchaser proration.

Three of the largest Texas crude buyers recommended 12 days of production for August. They were Humble, Texas and Magnolia.

Charles Shaver of Houston, attorney representing Humble, said "unless we can obtain the oil which a 12-day schedule in August would yield, we will not be able to supply our markets for Texas oil during that month."

Shaver said the company's inventories had been reduced by the end of June to a point below minimum working levels. He added that during July Humble was forced to reject a substantial amount of business. He said that by the end of July the company would have reduced stocks "to a point where a further draft is impracticable."

J. C. Edwards, said stocks of the Texas Co. were "below the safe minimum working level. We were unable to supply some of the demand in July" on cargo shipping.

He said the desirable working level of crude oil east of California had been figured at about 228 million barrels for this time of year and stocks now were only 210,139,000 barrels for this area. Shave said Texas stockers are at the lowest point since April 1950.

D. R. Wall, for Magnolia, said his company would make spot purchases of 12,000 barrels daily for each day the production schedule fell below his firm's nomination of 12 days.

Other daily nominations were 14 days for Atlantic, 13 days for Standard of Texas, 11 days for Gulf, Indiana, Sinclair and Cities Service and 10 days for Sun, Shell, Continental and Phillips.

Rodeo Fans See Fast Show Here

One of the fastest-moving rodeos ever staged in Snyder opened here last night as the Scurry County Rodeo completed the first of four nights of performances.

The opening night crowd looked large but was smaller than many first night crowds. Joe Robinson, secretarry of the rodeo association, said there were some 1,900 paid admissions.

About 75 cow hands competed in last night's events, without injury, beginning work toward the $3,600 in prizes offered in the show.

A 30-minute parade downtown officially opened the show yesterday, led by the Snyder Shriners drill team and the high school band.

The Gay 20 Club had the winner for the $150 prize in float competition in the parade with a large replica of a bull rider being thrown. Second prize of $90 went to the Lucky 13 Sports Club for its replica of a calf roper. The Desk & Derrick Club won the $60 third prize with a covered wagon, with its passengers dressed in garb of the late 1800s. Fourth place was a float of the Scurry County Boys Club promoting the United Fund.

The Fisher County Sheriff's Posse took the first place trophy for riding group competition in the parade, while trophies were awarded to the Lynn County Sheriff's Posse and Dawson County Sheriff's Posse. Also riding in the parade were the Big Spring Mounted Patrol, Eastland County Sheriff's Posse, Scurry County Sheriff's Posse, which did not compete for the trophy.

The remainder of the parade was made up of floats or cars promoting businesses or political candidates, as well as a large group of rodeo contestants.

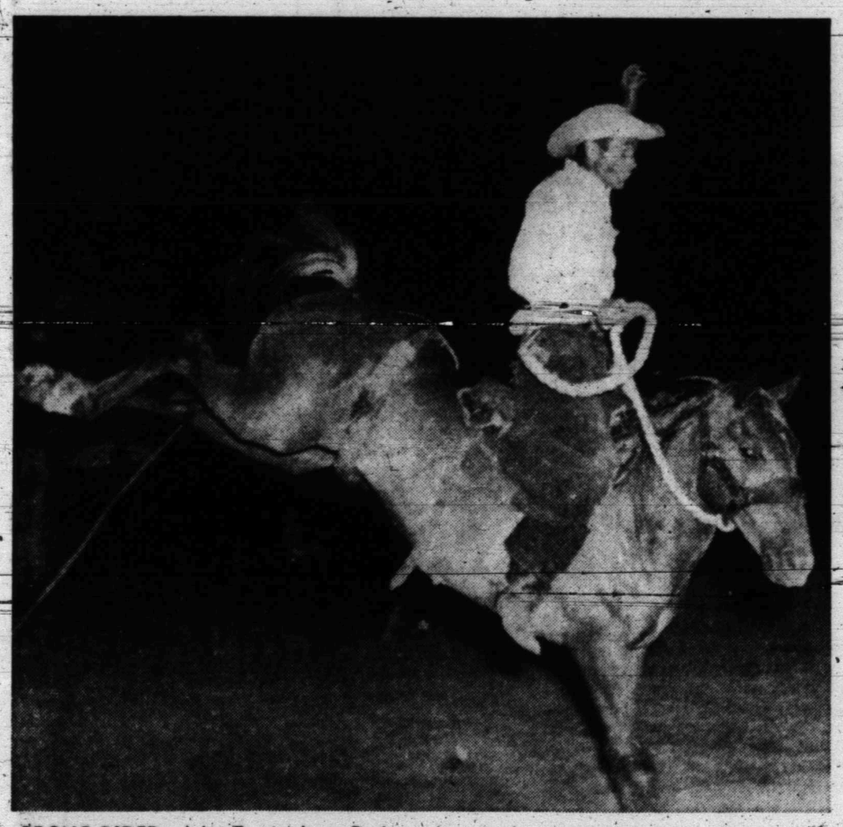

Well-received in the rodeo were the feature events of the Grant Family of Benton, Ark., including trick riding and roping.

Fast times were posted in the roping events, and better-than-usual rides were posted on the wild stock furnished by Goat Mayo of Petrolia.

Three men were tied up for the lead in the opening performance of bareback bronc riding. They were Jim Brock of Plainview, Red Rodgers of Colorado City, and Duke Holland of Childress, each with 154 points. Others getting points for rides last night were John Farris of Iowa Park, 147, and Sonny Edgar of Big Spring, 81. There were 14 bareback riders in last night's show.

Two hold the fastest times so far in calf roping. They are LeRoy Hodges and Alvin Carter, both of Tuscola, with 14.3. Other times, include: T. W. Flennikan, Crosbyton, 15.0; Tommy Flennikan, Crosbyton, 15.5; Lester Parish, Winters, 15.6; Vernon Miller, Gail, 16.4; Donald Rutledge, Abilene, 17.9; Doyle Newton, Gail, 18.1; Pete Rasco, Ira, 19.5; Mack Baggett,

BRONC RIDER—John Farris, Iowa Park cowboy, is shown in a rather rough seat atop "Cactus Jack," one of the saddle broncs in the 22nd Annual Scurry County Rodeo now in progress. The rodeo will continue through Saturday night. Farris' ride netted him second place in the saddle bronc division last night, with Jimmy Moore, Post, on "Black Bottom" earning top points. Jupiter Nose Cone Found After Firing

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Army blasted a mighty Jupiter intermediate-range ballistic missile 1,500 miles across the Atlantic today and recovered its nose cone after a successful reentry from space.

The recovery of the cone was announced about two hours after the missile thundered aloft.

It was the second time a full-scale IRBM nose cone survived the fiery dive from space through the earth's atmosphere at a speed of 10,000 m.p.h., and was recovered.

The Army's missile chief, Dr. Wernher von Braun, observed the spectacular launching.

Officials announced that the recovery today and the first one May 18 "affirmed that Army missile men have found a satisfactory solution to the warhead protection problem."

The Jupiter, which is expected to provide the first stage for the Army's moon rocket, went off with a mighty roar at 4:05 a.m.

It climbed straight up throwing off a thick stream of white flame that illuminated the Florida sky for miles.

After 70 seconds, the missile moved toward a horizontal course and drove toward the horizon.

The 69-foot rocket was visible for more than 13 minutes.

The cone was instrumented to separate from the missile body somewhere in outer space.

The cone's descent is slowed down by a parachute released automatically at a specified altitude.

As soon as it hits the water, a balloon is released and a location buoy inflated to hold the cone near the surface.

The USS Escape, one of four specially equipped ships in the Navy's recovery team, plucked the cone from the sea near Antigua Island an hour and 36 minutes after it streaked back from space.

Goldfine Says Truman Aide Assisted Him

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bernard Goldfine testified today he was at the White House more often during the Truman administration than since the Eisenhower administration took over.

Goldfine said he had contacted John W. Steelman, chief aide to President Truman, in his efforts to get a 12-million-dollar Reconstruction Finance Corp. loan for a proposed garage under the Boston Common.

"The result was very good," he said, adding that the RFC gave him a commitment for the loan although it later fell through.

Goldfine said he had numerous lunches and dinners with Steelman at Washington hotels after it was suggested to him by a Boston bank stockholder that Steelman might help him out with the government loan.

Congressional sources said another series of public hearings appears certain on alleged attempts to gain favors through President Eisenhower's assistant, Sherman Adams.

Parley Set With Milton

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—President Ramon Villeda Morales and his Cabinet planned a meeting with Dr. Milton Eisenhower today to detail their needs for a broad program of economic aid from the United States.

President Eisenhower's brother received a generally enthusiastic reception Wednesday when he arrived in the capital of this banana republic on a 19-day Central American fact-finding tour. University students, who had issued a manifesto attacking U. S. policy as imperialistic, stayed home and did not ask to meet with the traveling U. S. emissary.

Villeda Morales said his country needs more roads, electric power, education, public health facilities and loans for farmers and manufacturers. Housing and social security were put as long-range aims.

U. S. Naval Forces Near Lebanon Hiked

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States heavily bolstered the naval forces in Lebanese waters today with two aircraft carriers, a heavy cruiser and 16 more destroyers.

This largest single group of warships to reach the Lebanon area carried Vice Adm. C. R. Brown, commander of the 6th Fleet, in his flagship Des Moines.

The flagship cruiser was accompanied by the giant aircraft carrier Saratiga, the heavy attack carrier Wasp, and a division of destroyers.

In addition to the 6th Fleet commander, the new force included two other admirals. Rear Adm. G. W. Anderson, commander of Carrier Division 6; and Rear Adm. Edward A. Hannegan, commander of Carrier Division 14.

The arrival of this heavy force brought the total number of 6th Fleet vessels in the immediate Beirut area to 44.

The 6th Fleet is the naval arm of the combined Middle East force led by Adm. James L. Holloway, U.S. commander in chief for forces from all branches in the entire area.

The navy move came as the United States readied more Marine forces for the Middle East and airborne Army troops, pulled from the NATO line in Germany, reached an advanced staging area in friendly Turkey.

The capital ships and their escort arrived off Beirut about 10 a.m. (EST) today.

The destroyers in the force are Taussig, John Willis, Van Voorhis, Rich, Basilone, Damato, R. L. Wilson, W. M. Wood, Steinaker, Noa, Unew, Lester and H. J. Ellison.

The Saratoga is commanded by Capt. A. R. Matter of Butte, Mont. The skipper of the Des Moines is Capt. W. H. Goverman of Huntington, W.Va. Capt. H. T. Utter of Neville, Ohio, commands the Wasp.

Adm. Anderson lists Brooklyn, N.Y., as his home and Adm. Hannegan is from Washington, D.C.

The Army got into the rapid buildup of American power in the eastern Mediterranean yesterday when the 1st Airborne Battle Group of the 24th Division flew in giant Air Force transports to Adana air base.

This base, built for Turkey and her NATO allies, is 300 miles from Lebanon, where 3,600 Marines are already on shore. The eventual destination of the Army troopers, 1,600 strong, is still secret and will remain so pending further developments.

While the Army troopers were flying eastward, a powerful force from the 2nd Marine Division, Camp Lejeune, N.C., was boarding transports and at least one aircraft carrier near Norfolk, Va., and Morehead City, N.C.

Although the Pentagon officially described the boarding activity as "a readiness exercise," it had all the looks of an emergency embarkation.

Military officers noted the particular significance of one phase of the Norfolk area activity — the movement of Marine assault helicopters. These were flown up from Cherry Point, N.C., and landed directly on the flight deck of the carrier Antietam.

The Marines already in Lebanon or on ships in nearby Mediterranean waters now have everything to move or fight with — including artillery capable of hurling atomic shells — except enough helicopters. Modern Marine doctrine calls for helicopters to land troops over, instead of on, hostile beaches.

Two Marine battalions, the 2nd of the 2nd Regiment and the 3rd of the 6th Regiment are already in Lebanon. A third, the 1st Battalion of the 8th Regiment, will land soon. Then there will be at least 5,400 Marines on shore, with additional support units on nearby ships.

A smaller Marine unit, flown from North Carolina Tuesday night, is headed for staging areas in the eastern Mediterranean.

The Army troopers flown to Turkey yesterday may be the forerunners of more to follow from Germany. The 24th Division includes a second airborne battle group, already alerted for possible movement eastward.

The Pentagon says the decision to send troops to Lebanon was reached so quickly that no hard and fast plan could be drawn up for their operations when they got to Beirut. The hour-to-hour planning is in the hands of the commander in chief in the Middle East, Adm. James L. Holloway, and his staff aboard the command ship Taconic.

But the over-all strategic plan underlying the various force movements have long been worked out, to meet a variety of military challengers in the Middle East.

America Supports Britain's Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today formally announced support for Britain's action in sending troops into Jordan. No indication was given, however, of the American answer to an appeal from King Hussein for military support from this country.

Secretary of State Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd met at the State Department to decide on their next military and political moves in the increasingly tense situation.

It was understood a critical issue before them was what to do about the revolutionary government which seized power in Iraq Monday after its leaders killed King Faisal and pro-Western officials.

The United States moved Marines into Lebanon to stop any spill-over of that move into another western-allied country.

Wednesday night the British followed suit in Jordan.

Increasing concern is felt in official quarters here, it was learned, over the safety of American citizens in Baghdad, the Iraqi capital. There are 624 U.S. officials and dependents, together with 953 non-official Americans, for a total of 1,577 in Baghdad. With persons scattered in other parts of the country there are 1,964 U.S. citizens in Iraq, according to State Department figures.

The declaration of backing for Britain's action was issued at the State Department in these words:

"The United States government supports the action of the government of the United Kingdom in responding affirmatively to the urgent appeal of Jordan for assistance in defense of Jordan's independence and integrity.

"The United States believes that this is a justified exercise of the inherent right of nations to call for assistance when threatened."

King Hussein of Jordan appealed to Washington as well as London, British Prime Minister Macmillan announced to the House of Commons.

State department officials, however, said privately that there was actually no decision yet on the extent of United States action but that they would not rule out the dispatch of at least a token force of U. S. troops.

Lloyd, accompanied by British Defense Chief Sir William Dickson, arrived here at 10:58 a.m. (EDT) after conferring with Britain's United Nations delegation in New York. He had flown overnight from London.

He was met by Dulles who said "I'm glad to see you."

Lloyd came here at Dulles' invitation.

About the time of Lloyd's arrival here Britain's Prime Minister Macmillan told Commons that King Hussein had asked for U.S. troops and this country was considering the plea.

But at the White House Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen he stood on previous statements that this country has no plans to put troops into Jordan.

Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, was on hand to greet Dickson, who is chairman of Britain's joint chiefs of staff committee.

"I'm very glad to be back in Washington for talks with the secretary of state," Lloyd said. "However good transatlantic telephone and telegraph may be they are no substitute for personal discussion.

"Everyone knows that grave events are taking place in the Middle East and have been since what happened last Monday. It is very useful for me to be here and to have talks with the secretary of state."

The Monday reference applied to the overturn of the pro-Western government in Iraq.

The British move into Jordan came while he was en route.

Lloyd's trip coincided with announcement that British forces had begun landing in Jordan.

Soviets In Maneuvers Near Turkey

By HAROLD K. MILKS

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has ordered its land, sea and air forces to start maneuvers tomorrow in areas bordering Turkey and Iran. A Defense Ministry statement said the war games were being held to maintain "the fighting preparedness of the armed forces of the U.S.S.R."

The maneuvers are obviously intended as a show of Soviet military might in frontier zones nearest the disturbed Middle East.

The announcement said the Soviet Black Sea fleet will join in maneuvers in the Transcaucasian military area under Marshal Andrei Antonovich Grechko, recent commander in chief of all Soviet forces in East Germany.

Other forces will train in the Turkestan area under Marshal Kirill A. Meretskov, who led a brief Soviet campaign against the Japanese in China and Manchuria at the end of World War II.

Both marshals are high in the councils of the Communist party. Grechko is an alternate member of the Communist Party Central Committee and Meretskov is a member of the party's powerful Central Auditing Committee.

Expense Statement Deadline Tomorrow

Tomorrow is the last day in which candidates in local races of the first Democratic primary can file statements of campaign expenses.

The statements must be filed with the county clerk. There is a penalty provided in the Texas Election Code for those who fail to comply, including forfeiture of a place on the ballot.

By late this morning, 13 of the 27 local candidates had filed statements, according to Dan Cotton, county clerk.

WEATHER

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Wednesday, 105 degrees; low, 73 degrees; reading at 7:30 a.m. today, 75 degrees.

North Central Texas: Partly cloudy and warm through Friday.

West Texas: Partly cloudy and warm through Friday with isolated afternoon and night thunderstorms.

Hopes For U. N. Forces To Supplant Marines Dwindles

By JACK BEL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hope dwindled in Congress today that the United States can depend upon the United Nations to supplant the Marines in Lebanon with an international police force.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn), a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and a former U. N. delegate, said he thinks the chance of such action has been reduced because of the attitude taken by Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

Hammarskjold said yesterday the U. N. watchdog team now in Lebanon can prevent outside aid from reaching rebels in that country—a statement quickly interpreted as undercutting the U. S. position.

The U. N. Security Council is scheduled to vote today. A Soviet veto is considered certain.

Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH) said in a separate interview Hammarskjold's statement was damaging to this country's effort to transfer security responsibility to an international force.

Bridges, senior member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said sarcastically that "Hammarskjold is being about as much help to us as he has in some past instances." He did not elborate.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ), a foreign relations committeeman, said he hasn't given up hope that the U. N. General Assembly will support a police force resolution even if it is blocked in the Security Council by a Soviet veto.

Undersecretary of State Herter was reported to have been questioned about the U. N. situation in a closed session of the foreign relations group yesterday.

Humphrey, one of those who sat in on the session, voiced the personal opinion that the United States is in an unfortunate position in its appeal to the international organization.

"If we were going to send in Marines, we should have done it before the U. N. observer team, which we helped set up, reported that there was no outside aggression against Lebanon," he said.

"We are in Lebanon primarily because of what happened in Iraq. I don't think we had any evidence there was going to be an over attack on Lebanon although the internal revolt there was aided and abetted by Cairo and Moscow."

But Smith contended "there was no alternative to the President's action."

Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif) said the United States is not going to be deterred in its course by any Soviet threats such as that voiced by Soviet U. N. delegate Arkady A. Sobolev. Sobolev called for withdrawal of U. S. troops and said the Soviet Union reserves freedom of action in an area it deems vital to its own security.

In bull riding, Jack Lowery of Lancaster led out with 165. The only other rider awarded points last night was Jim Brock of Plainview with 162.

Guy Harrell of Crosson, riding Copper, led in the cutting horse contest with 240 points. Others were Dick Hart, Snyder, on Cow Puncher, 221; Billy Holley, Floydada, on Scat Man, 218; Rufus Hart of Snyder, on Sleepy, a horse owned by LeRoy Spires, 219; and Sonny Harrell, Snyder, on Possum, 202.

None of the four in the wild mare race won. Two got saddles on, but none ever rode. Entering were Gene Griffin of Snyder, Sonny Harrell of Snyder, Son Stewart of Snyder, and Roland Cardwell of Sweetwater.

Eddie Kirby won the junior goat sacking contest, with Jackie Hardin running second.

Another group of riders will be featured in tonight's show, which starts at 8.

VA Hospital Bed Shortage Under Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators had figures today showing 1,095 beds have been eliminated at the eight Veterans Administration hospitals in Texas.

Veterans Administrator Sumner G. Whittier conceded these beds, inactivated for varied reasons, were more than enough to accommodate 1,014 eligible patients on the Texas hospitals' waiting lists.

He supplied the information in reply to inquiries from the House Veterans Committee headed by Rep. Olin A. Teague (D-Tex.)

Whittier appeared before the group to answer charges that the Veterans Administration is eliminating hospital beds faster than new ones are supplied to meet a near-record demand.

Teague has asserted the VA and the Bureau of the Budget is doing this through enforcement of arbitrary rules and thereby "circumventing the policy for the hospitalization of war veterans as established by Congress."

Fluvanna Equalization Board Meets July 29

The board of equalization of the Fluvanna Independent School District has set July 29 as the date for its session to determine, fix, and equalize values of taxable property in the district.

The board will meet at 9 a.m. that day at the Fluvanna school, according to Bob E. Warren, secretary.

CORRIGAN'S BIG ERROR

Compass Froze 20 Years Ago

By PATRICK MCNULTY

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP) — Twenty years ago today a pint-sized county fair daredevil named Douglas Corrigan flew a rickety ocean-banned monoplane from New York to Ireland.

The 3,150-mile flight caught the fancy of a depression-glum era and earned the brash young pilot the nickname Wrong Way Corrigan.

"My compass froze" — I guess I flew the wrong way," Corrigan — with a twinkle in his eye — blandly told authorities who had nixed the hop.

An overnight sensation, Corrigan returned to a hero's welcome in the United States and ticker-tape [illegible], a movie contract — and a lifetime membership in the Celebrated Liars Club of Burlington, Wis.

Corrigan, 51 now, lives the life of a country squire with his wife and three sons on his 20-acre orange grove. He's added a few pounds, but still has the toothy Irish grin and the unruly shock of hair so familiar to newspaper readers of 1938.

And he likes nothing better than to reminisce about his flight.

There's still the same twinkle in his blue eyes when he tells an interviewer that a compass error sent his $900 plane winging to Dublin instead of Long Beach, Calif.

"Instead of flying the right heading, I went the opposite way. . . . The weather was foggy and I didn't see the ocean below me."

Corrigan drank a pint of water, ate fig bars and "sang a bit to keep up my spirits" on the 23 hour 13 minute flight. His only instrument, other than the celebrated compass, was a dollar wrist watch that stopped.

Corrigan earned about $85,000 from lectures, magazine articles, a book and a motion picture, "The Flying Irishman." He managed to keep about $50,000, he said, and most of what's left is invested in his orange grove.

Corrigan has flown a friend's light plane just enough to keep up his license. His famous plane is in storage, and the Texas-born pilot hopes someday to reassemble it and donate it to an aviation museum.

Corrigan still avers that the Compass error sent his $900 plane winging to Dublin — instead of Long Beach, Calif.

Beauties In Long Beach For Contest

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — A planeload of beauties descends on Long Beach today and the citizens, particularly the males, are waiting with their eyes wide open.

The feminine invaders are some 50 entrants in the Miss Universe contest.

After welcoming ceremonies one of the first items of business includes fittings for swim suits.

Among those greeting the hopeful beauties will be the current Miss Universe, Gladys Zender of Peru.

She will end one of the strangest reigns in beauty queen history when she turns over her crown to a new Miss Universe the evening of July 25.

The debutante from Lima, who needed neither the money nor the publicity, has remained every inch a queen — regally aloof from all things commercial — since her coronation 12 months ago.

Choir School Opens Monday

Summer choir school for all high school students who plan to be in the choir this fall will begin Monday.

The school will last through Aug. 1.

Bob Clinton, school choral music director, said a registration and organizational meeting will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. in the high school choir room.

Plans will be made at the meeting on how classes will be set up and times for them to meet.

More than 160 students have already signed up for choir for the coming school year, Clinton said, and the two weeks of summer choir will be spent in organizing ensembles, giving individual help to students working on solos, and classwork for various sections of each choir.

Those who are working have been asked to call Clinton, and special classes will be set up at night or early evening.

Clinton said parents are asked not to postpone any vacation plans because of the choir school. Students can go to the school during the time they are in town.

Death Toll From Typhoon Hits 21

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The death toll from Typhoon Winnie mounted to 21 today. Delayed reports from the east coast port of Hualien said 16 were killed there when the storm swept through on Tuesday.

Another 169 persons were reported injured at Hualien and about 50 fishing boats lost in the storm. Ten thousand persons in the port city were left homeless.

MR. AND MRS. J. G. REED
. . . celebrate 65th anniversary

J. G. Reeds To Celebrate 65th Wedding Anniversary

Open house will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Williams on the Roby Highway for Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reed Sunday afternoon, July 20, from 2 o'clock until 6 o'clock, to celebrate the couple's 65th Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed were married July 20, 1893 at Rising Star in Brown County.

They moved to Scurry County in November of 1908.

They have one daughter, Mrs. Ross Williams, 14 grandchildren of which 13 are living, 30 great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed hope all of their old friends will call Sunday afternoon and visit with them.

Mr. Reed is 89 years old, and Mrs. Reed is 82. Both are natives of Georgia.

They farmed near Hermleigh until moving to their present home near Snyder about one and one-half years ago.

He retired from farming about eight years ago, but both are still active in gardening and poultry raising and other household activities.

Lady In Red Almost Lost Movie Role

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—An overnight voyage aboard Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr.'s palatial yacht almost cost a brunette film starlet a movie role.

Lita Milan was the mysterious "lady in red" who sailed on the 350-foot Angelita Tuesday from Los Angeles Harbor.

She came ashore when the Angelita reached San Diego yesterday and then flew back to Hollywood.

But when the yacht was sailing, Miss Milan was supposed to begin a starring role in a movie in Los Angeles. When she didn't appear the director ordered her replaced.

After long conferences with Edward L. Alperson, president of National Pictures, she was reinstated in the role.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

THE 1958 SEASON was a year of "firsts" for the Quarterback Club Giants of the National Little League and the Legion Yankees of the American Little League.

When the Giants clinched the National League flag Tuesday night, it was the first time since the Little League program was introduced here for the Giants to come up with a pennant.

And, in the case of the Yankees, this is the first year the Yanks have failed to win the title since the start of the local Little League program. The Trinity Methodist White Sox broke the Yankee string by capturing the '58 American League title.

Fourth Year For 2-League Alignment

The '58 season marked the fourth year for the two-league setup, the National and American Leagues. The Little League program was started three years prior to that but in those first three years there was only one league.

The Yankees, charter members of Little League baseball here, won the flag the first three years when there was just one league and then they proceeded to win the American League title the next three years before having their streak broken this season by the White Sox.

The Giants are also charter members of local LL baseball and up to this season the Giants had been buried deep in the cellar just about every year.

Three Have Won National Titles

The Rotary Cardinals won the National League flag in 1955, the first year of the "two-league" setup. Then the Lions Club Cubs won the National crown in 1956-57 with the Giants taking home the honors for the '58 campaign.

Here in a nutshell is the way the Little League titles have been handed out since the program was introduced here in 1952:

1952—Yankees.
1953—Yankees.
1954—Yankees.
1955—American League, Yankees; National League, Cardinals.
1956—American League, Yankees; National League, Cubs.
1957—American League, Yankees; National League, Cubs.
1958—American League, White Sox; National League, Giants.

Tour Is Tiring, But Aces Endure

BY JERRY GREEN

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Pro tennis players are something akin to the hearty breed of mailmen.

"Through snow and rain etc—they go on their appointed rounds."

The racqueteers who play for pay don't let long journeys, adverse weather or injuries stand in their way. They show up to play on schedule — often after a trip of several hundred miles — most of the time fatigued.

"Sure the travel has an effect on my game," says Panco Gonzales, who headlines Jack Kramers's nationwide tour. "But it effects my opponent too, so things are evened up."

His rival is Lew Hoad, the former Australian Davis Cup ace. Hoad, who has been guaranteed around $125,000 for two years, played night after night with a painful leg injury. He hardly could walk at times. But tape patches up ailments temporarily and Hoad played.

The pros travel from one engagement to the next in a caravan of two cars. Much of their rest comes in the back seat. They sleep in shifts on the highway. It's arduous.

"I played with flu, blisters and a sore toe," says Tony Trabert, who exhibited a tennis shoe that had a piece cut away to relieve pressure on his foot.

"The weather slows up down and we have to eat. Then we have to allow for flat tires and motor trouble. We have to be at each place early; we can't get there on the dot and ready to play."

Trabert outlined a typical week in the life of the net tourists.

The week began with a match on a Saturday night in Palm Springs, Calif. Next morning at 8, the troupe was in Phoenix, Ariz., ready to play Sunday afternoon. Monday was open for travel and then it was another match Tuesday night in Alburquerque, N. M.

Then it was onto a Wednesday match in El Paso, Tex., and a Thursday match in Corpus Christi, Tex. Thursday night the tennis travelers drove to San Antonio and played there Friday night. I was onto Houston for a Saturday afternoon match.

"Texas is a pretty big state," says Trabert. "But we had to leave it and get to Tampa, Fla. for a match the following Tuesday.

Little League Season To End Friday Night

The final two nights of the 1958 Little League season here will come up tonight and tomorrow night.

After tomorrow night's games, the all-stars of the two leagues will take over. The All-Stars will compete in the area tournament to be held here next Monday and Tuesday.

Champions of the two leagues have already been determined, the Trinity Methodist White Sox having already clinched the American League title as has the Quarterback Giants in the National League.

The runnerup slot in the American League is all that remains to be settled in the final two nights of play. The Von Roeder Indians currently are second place with a 9-8 record. The Legion Yankees are just a game back with an 8-9 showing and could tie the Indians for second by defeating the Tribesmen tonight.

The Yankees and Indians clash in the second game of tonight's doubleheader. Meeting in the first game at 7 will be the Lions Cubs and Kiwanis Braves of the National League.

All places have been settled in the National with the Cubs second, Cardinals third and the Braves fourth.

Following are the league standings to date:

AMERICAN LEAGUE

GPL Meeting Set Tonight

A meeting of all managers, officers and directors of the Graduate Pony League has been called for tonight, according to league president Clifford Hale.

The meeting will be held immediately following today's scheduled league game between the Optimist Cats and Furr Yankees. The Cat-Yankee game will start at 4:30.

Purpose of tonight's league meeting is to discuss the upcoming tournaments in the GPL program.

Following are the local GPL standings:

GRADUATE PONY LEAGUE

TEAM	W	L	PCT.
Optimist Cats	11	0	1.000
Furr Yankees	7	4	.636

Jean Fisher Wins Girls Batting Title

Jean Fisher of the pennant-winning Black Socks won the Girls League batting title for the 1958 season with a healthy .613 mark.

Fisher collected 19 hits in 31 official trips to lead all other regulars. She edged our Mireles of the Braves who hit safely 13 times in 22 at bats for a .590 mark.

Four others hit .500 or better. They were Moi Stone of the Black Socks with .556; Helen Ivison of the Black Socks with .530; Mary Ann Reaves of the Braves with .512; and Jane Beeks of the Black Socks with .500.

The Black Socks won the league title with a perfect 11-0 record. The Braves finished second with a 6-5 record followed by the Fireballs in third place with 4-7 and the Legionettes last with 1-10.

The girls season ended Tuesday night. Efforts are now being made to arrange some games for the league all-stars.

Following are the season batting averages: (Includes all girls who hit safely at least one time):

Braves, Giants Continue To Run Neck-And-Neck In NL

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who's going to crack first in the National League race? While three of the so-called contenders fade away, Milwaukee and San Francisco are stepping along just half a game apart, and the suddenly competitive Chicago Cubs are at their heels.

The Braves kept that half-game edge with a 6-5 decision at St. Louis last night after blowing a 4-0 lead. Just .003 percentage points behind are the Giants, who whipped Philadelphia's fizzling Phillies 9-2.

The Cubs kept their third-place perch, 2½ games behind Milwaukee, by running up a five-game streak for the first time this season, sweeping their second doubleheader in four days with comeback 5-4 and 7-5 decisions over Cincinnati.

That gave the Redlegs a seven-game losing string, and they escaped the cellar only because of Pittsburgh's 7-4 victory over Los Angeles.

In the American League first-place New York defeated Detroit 3-2. Second-place Boston, 12 games behind, beat Kansas City 5-2. Baltimore split a twi-night pair with Chicago, winning 6-5 after a 6-1 White Sox victory. And Washington clipped Cleveland 7-6 as Roy Sievers' second two-run homer of the game capped a four-run ninth.

Solo homers by Hank Aaron and Eddie Mathews, who hit a pair, gave it to the Braves in the fifth against reliever Chuck Stobbs (0-2). Mathews' first homer and Billy Bruton's first of the season helped Warren Spahn to a 4-0 lead, but the Cardinals took over with a five-run third capped by Ken Boyer's grand-slam.

Spahn, now 11-6, needed more help after the fifth. He got it from reliever Don MacMahon, who came on with the bases loaded in the eighth, and left fielder Andy Pafko, who made a diving catch of Don Blasingame long liner to end the eighth.

Things were easier for the Giants. They counted four runs in the second, three of 'em unearned. Johnny Antonelli, who hit a two-run triple in the deciding second, won his 10th with a nine-hitter and had the Phils blanked until the seventh. Willie Mays cracked his slump, getting three hits for the first time since June 6, one a two-run double. Jack Sanford (6-8) lost his third in a row.

The Cubs, held to four hits for eight innings, won the opener with four consecutive hits off Harvey Haddix and loser Hal Jeffcoat in a three-run ninth inning. Bobby Thomson's two-run double put it away. Relievers Glen Hobbie and Don Elston didn't give the Reds a hit over the last 5 2-3 innings wit Elston (7-5) winning his first since May 30.

In the nightcap, the Reds made 9 of their 11 hits good for extra bases, with Pete Whisenant hitting two solo homers. But the cubs busted through with three in the eighth. Winning reliever Bill Henry singling home the tying run and Tony Taylor's single counting the clincher. Brooks Lawrence (6-7), who also gave up Ernie Banks' two-run 24th homer, lost his third in a row.

The Pirates took over fifth place as Hank Foiles clouted a three-run homer. Bill Mazeroski and Frank Thomas added solo shots. Bob Friend won his 11th.

Campy's Condition Is 'Better Than Normal'

NEW YORK (AP) — The progress toward recovery of Roy Campanella, injured Los Angeles Dodger catcher, is "better than normal."

This was reported today by a spokesman for the New York Unversty - Bellevue Medical Center Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

Campanella suffered a broken neck in an automobile accident last Jan. 28, the injury leaving him paralyzed from the chest down.

Cuban Sympathizers Interrupt Yank Tilt

NEW YORK (AP) — Seven young men, Cuban sympathizers, had their inning at Yankee Stadium Wednesday night, but it was a short one.

They were arrested on disorderly conduct charges for interrupting the New York Yankee-Detroit Tiger baseball game. Police said they marched out on the field in the seventh inning carrying an American flag upside down, a Cuban flag and banners.

Fresh Fruits, Vegetables Move At Attractive Prices

By The Associated Press

Texas markets offered fresh fruits and vegetables at the best price in years this week.

Watermelons, peaches, lettuce, pole beans, cabbage, yellow onions and new crop potatoes are in the bargain class, says the Agricultural Marketing Service.

So many watermelons are moving from competing areas that they are selling at almost giveaway prices in some spots. Quality is exceptionally good for this season due to good growing conditions.

Lettuce, mostly from California, continues to decline, but prices have about reached the low point of the season.

Top quality tomatoes are coming mainly from California and are slightly higher, but local tomatoes are still about the same price as a week ago.

Supplies of Crowder peas, black-eyes and other field pea varieties are increasing from South Texas and East Texas. Okra, still in light supply, is becoming more plentiful with hotter weather.

California long white potatoes and West Texas round reds account for most new crop offerings. Prices are unchanged from a week ago.

Yellow squash, cauliflower, Pecos cantaloup and film packed carrots are slightly higher this week. Bananas are sharply higher.

Pineapples have almost disappeared from the market, but mid-season plums and nectarines are beginning to show up in quantity.

Mexican limes are a shade lower, but California lemons are unchanged.

Strawberries are about the same price as in recent weeks as the California shipping runs much longer than last year when rains cut it short.

About the only price change at the meat counter is on processed meats such as frankfurters and cold cuts used as specials.

Fryers slipped a little reflecting lower farm prices, but top quality eggs advanced with hotter weather.

Beirut Evacuees Arrive In London

LONDON (AP) Two planeloads of 105 evacuees from Beirut arrived in London today. Most of them were British employes of Lebanon's Middle East Airline and their families.

The one American on board, Capt. Jack Griffin, a 35-year-old pilot from Miami, said the people in Beirut were "doing a roaring trade selling coconuts and souvenirs to the American soldiers."

Griffin has been flying with the Lebanese airline since last November.

Houston Man Picked

U. S. Can't Rely On Foreign Oil Supply, Says Yarborough

By WHITEY SAWYER
Associated Press Staff Writer

The oil-rich Middle East held the stage in Texas politics Thursday.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough said in a television speech at Tyler Wednesday "This country is in greater danger than at any time since Pearl Harbor" because of a "Communist conspiracy in the Near East and Middle East.

"By intrigue, propaganda, murder and assassination the government of Iraq has been overthrown. A similar fate might follow in other oil-rich Arab states," he said.

Yarborough said the Middle East situation has shown the United States it cannot rely on foreign oil as a safe source in time of peril.

"More reliance on oilmen for aggressive drilling in Texas and the Southwest is necessary," he said. The senator said the August oil allowable in Texas should be increased.

He said "I am ready at a minute's notice to return to Washington. This world crisis is much more important to the United States than the coming election."

William Blakley, who opposes Yarborough, said the Lebanon situation pointed to the importance of "developing America's own oil and gas industry to the point where we can rely on our own resources. It appears," he added, "that this country is headed into a repitition of the Suez situation when the domestic industry increased production immensely, and then was left suddenly with a heavy surplus of overproduction."

Blakley spoke at Sherman.

State Sen. Henry Gonzalez, a candidate for governor, said at Tyler the domestic oil industry has been "sold down the river by elements engaged in international trade." He said he considered it the governor's duty to "inform the people of the circumstances controlling domestic oil proration and the reasons for the imports." These, he continued, "were partly due to secret trade agreements made by the federal government at the expense of the Texas oil industry."

Gov. Daniel spoke at San Antonio. He addressed a Future Farmers convention, then made a political speech outlining what he called the accomplishments of his administration. He stressed water conservation and planning, highway building and highway safety, attraction of industry, old age pension and teacher salary increases.

Another candidate for governor, W. Lee O'Daniel, said at Houston Wednesday conditions in Austin are much worse than they were in 1938 when he was elected governor.

"The greedy money changers and their public puppet officials have again gotten control of every department of the Texas state government and they are milking dry the vast resources of our domain," he said.

O'Daniel said the governor has appointed committees "to figure out what kind of new taxes must be loaded onto the weary backs of the already overburdened taxpayers when the new Legislature convenes."

Blakley, speaking on farm problems, said farmers should have the right to make a living "without government controls, but until the time comes when a proper solution to the farm situation can be found, the farmer must have compensations."

He said the government is morally obligated to protect the farmers' buying power and give him a chance to earn a decent living without government control.

"This can best be accomplished through price supports until such time as the government can set up a system whereby farmers can be offered adequate financing to set up production and marketing corporations of their own, controlled solely by them, thereby producing and marketing their own products in a manner conducive to good business principles."

He said "This could be done by agencies similar to the Intermediate Credit Bank, the bank for co-ops and the Federal Land Bank, where he can be financed at reasonable rates."

Both Blakley and Yarborough planned statewide television speeches Thursday night.

Yarborough was to speak over TV from Houston and Blakley from Wichita Falls.

Course On Cotton Pest Control Set

A special three-day course in cotton insect control has been scheduled for Monday through Wednesday here for all farmers interested.

The course will include studies in the high school cafeteria, which is air conditioned, beginning at 8:30 a.m. daily, and several field trips around the county.

Sponsored by the Future Farmers of America of Snyder, Ira, Hermleigh, and Fluvanna, the course will be conducted by H. A. Turney, insect control specialist for the Texas Education Agency, which supervises the vocational agriculture program in Texas schools.

The course will initiate a new program designed to make specialized training available to farmers on a short course basis through the public schools, enabling them to do a better job in developing and carrying out economical and effective programs.

There will be no charge for the training.

The schedule calls for a study of insects Monday morning at the high school. That afternoon, from 2 to 6 p.m., there will be a field trip to cotton fields around Snyder.

On Tuesday morning, there will be study of insecticides and samples of poisons, including mixing and checking output of sprayers. From 2 to 6 p.m. that day the group will study sprayers and dusters, filling and checking for correct output.

On Wednesday there will be field trips and individual checking of farms in Fluvanna, Ira, and Hermleigh communities.

4 Officers Are Cleared

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. (AP) — Four Vermont law enforcement officials have been cleared in a false arrest suit brought by James C. McCann, 49, Denison, Tex., cattleman.

Directed verdicts in favor of the defendants were ordered yesterday by Federal District Judge Ernest W. Gibson in the $75,095 suit.

The suit was brought against State's Atty. Ray Poquette, Sheriff Charles Blair, state trooper Robert Richardson and Justice of the Peace Clarence Tubbs.

The judge told the jury of six men and six women that Poquette and Tubbs had judicial immunity and that no evidence was presented to support McCann's claims against Richardson and Blair.

McCann brought the action after he served four months of a three to five year term in connection with a highway death in June, 1955. He claimed he was denied his rights, including the right to obtain counsel.

Interest In Field Bought By Magnolia

DALLAS (AP)—Magnolia Oil has bought Freeport Sulphur's interest in a Louisiana oil and gas field for 100 million dollars cash.

J. L. Latimer, Magnolia president, and Langbourne Williams, Freeport president, said yesterday the Freeport directors approved the agreement.

Part of the cash will be paid by Magnolia and part from the sale of a reserved production payment.

Williams said Freeport expects to pay about $26,250,000 in taxes, leaving a balance of $73,750,000.

The announcement did not mention other bidders. But the Houston Post said John Mecom, Houston independent operator and discoverer of the field, had bid more than 800 million dollars for the half-interest obtained by Magnolia.

Mecom owns the other 50 per cent and will continue to operate the field of some 60,000 acres of marshland about 40 miles southeast of New Orleans. The field has about 100 wells producing from 16,000 to 17,000 barrels a day.

Freeport came in on a 50 per cent operating basis after Mecom discovered the field July 1, 1952.

Lake Washington is an extension of the old Grand Ecaille Dome, which was discovered by Humble in 1932.

Hot Weather To Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Weather Bureau expects a large part of the country is in for a spell of abnormally warm weather.

It gave this report today:

"The Weather Bureau's 30-day outlook for mid-July to mid-August calls for temperatures to average above normal over the southern third of the nation, along the West Coast and in the middle Atlantic states. Below normal temperatures are in prospect for the northern half of the country between the eastern Great Lakes and the northern Rocky Mountain states. In unspecified areas near normal averages are indicated.

"Precipitation in the northern half of the country is expected to exceed normal between the Rockies and the Appalachians. Subnormal rainfall is indicated for the Gulf and south Atlantic states as well as the far West. Elsewhere near normal rainfall amounts are predicted."

Wheat Discussion Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Problems of controlling production and of marketing wheat in world markets will be discussed by federal farm officials at wheat surplus conference to be held at South Dakota State College at Brookings July 20 to Aug. 2.

New Advance In Harness For H-Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new advance in the American quest to harness the H-bomb reaction for industrial power was reported today.

U. S. scientists have generated temperatures of an estimated 10 million degrees centigrade — almost twice the previous record high reported by the United States —testimony released by a House Appropriations subcommittee reported.

Dr. J. H. Williams, director of the Atomic Energy Commission's Divison of Research, told of the development at recent hearings on AEC requests for supplementary appropriations for its various activities.

Williams said scientists at the University of California Radiation Laboratory and AEC facility, achieved the high temperature in research aimed at duplicating the powerful hydrogen fusion reaction for peaceful use.

He said this is about 10 per cent of the temperature that would be necessary to sustain such a reaction for power purposes—and is thus "well along the road" to the temperature objective.

In other testimony, the AEC asked for a 100-million-dollar increase in fiscal 1959 for all phases of its weapons program, including weapon research and development.

It was reported during the hearing that the United States now is the largest uranium producer in the world.

Women, Kids Screaming At Postmen

KILLEEN, Tex. (AP) — Killeen postmen find themselves treated like afflicted persons these days.

Women scream at them. Children stare. And they hear expressions of pity.

The trouble started when postman Kenneth J. Rogers bought a portable radio. It straps to his belt with a wire running to an ear plug. The assembly resembles a hearing aid.

That is what most people think it is.

Eight other postmen quickly acquired sets.

Leroy Biels says most people talk louder to carriers with the radio sets.

When a carrier reaches to his belt to turn down the radio's volume, housewives think he's trying to turn up his hearing aid volume and begin screaming their message to help him understand.

Children and their mothers rush from the house saying, "Junior, don't say a word and don't stare!"

Most carriers say they listen to music during the morning and baseball in the afternoons. The postmen say they tend to walk in time to the music.

Carrier Robert Stubblefield has one solution to post office deficits. "If radio stations played fast march music all day, it would save money. We would walk our rounds much quicker," he said.

Project Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Public Works Committee approved yesterday the Upper Lake Fork Creek watershed project in Hopkins, Hunt and Rains counties, Tex. The project, covering 145,472 acres, has an estimated cost of $2,409,000, of which the federal cost is $1,386,000 and the local share is $1,023,000.

The Wonders Of Science

In the words of the big-nosed comedian, Jimmy Durante, it's a revoltin' situation.

We refer to an item distributed this week by the Texas Tuberculosis Associaton, which quotes recipes for some ancient TB "cures."

"Take a wolf's liver boiled in thin wine, bacon of a sow fed on herbs, and the flesh of a she-donkey. Eat with the broth." That one reportedly came from ancient Rome.

The purpose of the piece sent out by the TB Association is to emphasize the fact that man has been hunting a remedy for TB for hundreds of years, and that no possibilities have been overlooked. Today, there are many drugs which help tuberculosis patients, but the association reminds that there is not yet one ideal drug that will cure every case.

But the subject of drugs and ancient cures is enough to stir not-so-pleasant memories among many people today who are merely at the "life begins" stage.

The wonder-drug era has brought the greatest change in our opnion, one that will spare the upcoming generation the experience of speculating whether the "cure" is worse than the disease. The apprehension surrounding use of the hypodermic needle undoubtedly is the nearest thing to it today, and it is peanuts compared to a swig of castor oil.

However, we believe the greatest invention of all in this field is the gelatin capsule.

Wages, Prices Are Continuing Upward

By NORMAN WALKER
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both wages and prices are continuing to spiral upward despite the recession and despite President Eisenhower's call for moderation.

Government data show that business and labor are paying little or no attention to the President's plea for restraint as both prices and wages climb to new record levels practically every month.

The government itself is largely ignoring its own advice. Pay raises amounting to about 1½ billion dollars a year have recently been put into effect for government workers. Eisenhower said they couldn't be helped.

There is some hint the wage-price inflationary spiral may be slowing down. Consumer prices hit another peak in May, the latest report, but the rise from April was only a tenth of 1 per cent, the smallest monthly increase in many months.

New government and private surveys on wage trends for the first half of 1958 show in general that labor unions are negotiating pay boosts of about the same amount as this time last year.

The Labor Department, in a report on first-quarter wage trends this year, said, "there was no evidence of any general reduction in the size if wage increases as compared with corresponding quarters of the past few years."

Experts of the department's Bureau of Labor Statistics said while second-quarter 1958 wage gain results still are being tabulated they seem to be running about the same, with some cases of increases slightly less than last year.

Fringe benefits gains, such as vacations, health-welfare and pension improvements, are coming along a bit under the 1957 clip.

Most new negotiated wage settlements are running around the 10-cent per hour raises of last year. There has been some decline in wage gains in manufacturing, the segment of the economy hardest hit by the recession. But factory worker earnings rose to a record $83.10 a week in June.

The Labor Department said instances where unions failed to get any wage increase at all are running at the same tempo as 1957 and considerably under the no-increase settlements of 1954 and 1955.

The technique of long-term labor contracts, providing annual wage boosts and built-in living cost allowances, is conducive to labor-management peace but a factor in keeping wages rising.

Strikes are at a low ebb. But millions of workers get automatic pay boosts and living cost adjustments under three and five-year contracts. This creates a pattern for unions negotiating new wage terms.

The experts are watching to see whether the steel industry raises prices, following a big prenegotiated pay hike for steelworkers that went into effect July 1. They also are watching the now-stalemated auto industry labor negotiations.

The outcome of these two situations will have an impact, both actual and psychological, on the rest of the economy. They may determine largely whether the wage-price race will even off or spurt onward to higher levels.

County Fears It Will Lose Record For Size

SAN BERNARDINL, Calif. (AP)—Just like Texas, San Bernardino County is afraid it will lose its record for bigness to Alaska. The 20,000-square mile Southern California county is now the biggest in the nation. But Alaska is divided into only four judicial districts, and if these become counties, any one of them would be far larger than San Bernardino.

Outdoor Theaters Gaining Popularity

By HAL BOYLE

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Culture by moonlight is becoming a bigger part of the national entertainment picture.

Outdoor summer dramas are getting to be big business.

"These big productions, live and in color, give people a feeling of opulence they are starved for," said Richard H. Berger, producer of the Starlight Theater here. "They are getting tired of sitting in their living rooms watching small-scale television."

At 53, Berger is one of the most experienced men in this form of after-dark art. Brooklyn-born, he went to the St. Louis Municipal Opera in 1936.

He left St. Louis in 1942 and produced movies in Hollywood and some of the tip television shows in New York. In 1951, partly to get away from metropolitan tensions, he took over as producer of the newly built 1¾ million-dollar Starlight Theater here in historic Swope Park.

The civic-sponsored, nonprofit theater operates on a $600,000 budget during its 12-week season. Its losses are guaranteed by some 700 business firms, but the venture has more than broken even in five of its eight seasons.

"Rain is your big enemy," said Berger, "and that you can't control. It always seems to rain most the week you've got a high-priced star sure to draw big crowds. Two or three days of rain in a week like that—and there goes your season."

"On a capacity night the St. Louis Opera and the Starlight Theater here will have a total of 20,000 customers," Berger pointed out. "That's more than attend all the theaters on Broadway in an ordinary summer week.

"Where is the theater? During the summer it isn't on Broadway. It's out here."

The shows have a six-state audience. People out here will get in their cars and drive 500 miles to see a favorite performer.

Time was when the hinterland clientele was content with revivals of Victor Herbert and Gilbert and Sullivan. Today they demand and get top Broadway productions.

They also demand and get some of the leading performers in show business.

The summer theaters also are wide open to challenging new talent. The Starlight Theater this week is offering the world premiere of a new musical comedy, "Mark Twain." Drama critics from New York and Chicago flew out to cover the opening.

"It would cost perhaps $300,000 or more to put such a show on in New York," said Berger. "Here it can be done for $50,000.

Wall Street Fears May Be Premature

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market has been steeling itself against the impact of unfavorable earnings statements expected in a steady stream in the next few weeks. But a look today at profit reports already in shows that some of its fears may be exaggerated.

A pleasant handful of companies report their operations in the April-May-June quarter more profitable than in the first three months of the year.

And an impressive number report their profits in the second quarter or in the first six months ran ahead of the same period a year ago.

When all the earnings statements of industry are in, there's little doubt that the combined first-half profits will trail 1957. But the exceptions to the rule give the optimists some cause to cheer.

Among those reporting their second-quarter profits better than their first are: General Electric with second-quarter profits of 62 cents a share compared with 56 cents in the first quarter; Jones & Laughlin Steel with second quarter up 143 per cent, or 47 cents a share vs. 17 cents; Youngstown Sheet & Tube, $1.23 a share vs. $1.04; Allied Chemical, up 27 per cent, or 87 cents vs. 68 cents; Continental Can, 84 cents vs. 60 cents; and Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing, which says second quarter profits topped the first quarter's 47 cents by an unspecified amount.

Among companies reporting their second-quarter earnings ahead of last year are: American Telephone & Telegraph, $2.72 a share vs. $2.67; three food chains — Safeway, Grand Union and Kroger; Beatrice Foods; two cement companies — General Portland and Penn-Dixie; Colgate Palmolive; Northrop Aircraft; and General Transistor.

Among companies reporting first six months earnings higher than last year are: International Business Machines, $4.27 a share this year against $3.38 last year; American Encaustic Tiling; Missouri Portland Cement; three meat packers, Cudahy, Armour and Wilson; and the drug companies, Plough and Smith Kline & French.

These make for cheerful reading in the stack of less favorable reports. Especially those reporting a better second quarter than first suggest that the tide of steadily declining profits may be turning at last, even if a dull summer may keep business in general near the bottom of the slump.

Alaskans To Vote Aug. 26 On Statehood

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Gov. Mike Stepovich yesterday set Aug. 26 as the date for a referendum vote on statehood for Alaska and for Alaska's first primary election as the 49th state in the Union.

Alaska's first general election as a state was set for Nov. 25.

The statehood act passed by Congress June 30 specified that Alaskans must approve, in a referendum vote, three propositions before statehood becomes a reality.

Those propositions are that Alaskans approve (1) immediate statehood, (2) the state boundaries as outlined in the statehood act and (3) all other provisions of the act.

Junior Editors Quiz on NEWSPAPERS

QUESTION: What is an editor?

* * *

ANSWER: The number of persons necessary to produce a newspaper varies greatly. Small weekly papers may have only one or two men or women; daily papers in medium-size cities may have 200 or 300 employes, and large metropolitan dailies may have as many as 2,000 persons organized into large and complex staffs.

Such a staff, headed by a publisher, is divided into three departments—editorial, business and mechanical. The editorial department is responsible for gathering, writing and editing the news, features and editorials which go into the paper; the business department is concerned with advertising and circulation, and the mechanical department with printing the paper.

A large newspaper has many editors who supervise various phases of the news operation. At the head of the editorial department is an editor-in-chief who directs the overall news and editorial policies. Heading the news staff is a managing editor or a news editor whom he appoints. Under the managing editor (or news editor) are the city editor, in charge of local news coverage; the foreign (or cable) editor; the telegraph editor, in charge of news off the press association wires; the sports editor and probably other editors of specialized departments.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: Ask your teacher if you can tour your local newspaper. You'll be amazed at how much work goes into getting out a paper.

* * *

(Debbie Metzel of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, receives $10 for this question. If you have one send it on a postcard to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures, in care of this newspaper. Tomorrow: Can rainmakers really make rain?)

Space Agency Bill Passed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation creating a new civilian agency to coordinate nonmilitary problems of space exploration is awaiting President Eisenhower's signature.

Eisenhower is almost certain to sign it. The bill, passed in quick succession by both House and Senate yesterday, gives Eisenhower practically all he requested in an agency to supervise civilian space age efforts.

The bill, a compromise of Senate and House space measures, puts the new space agency under the direct control of the President. He would be advised by an eight-member council, including three experts outside the federal government.

Under the bill, the Pentagon will continue to control space activities connected with national defense, with the President settling any disputes between the civilian agency and the Defense Department.
