Freeway Crash Kills Oklahoman

Death interrupted a Thanksgiving holiday trip Wednesday for a Sulphur, Okla. couple.

John Clay Thomas, 72, was killed instantly and his wife seriously injured in a two-vehicle accident at 10:15 a.m. on Interstate 20.

Mrs. Thomas was taken by Kiker ambulance to Root Memorial Hospital.

She said they were en route to Hobbs, N.M.

The collision happened 8.5 miles east of Colorado City in the westbound freeway of Interstate 20, according to State Highway Patrolman Tommy Parker.

Uninjured was Haskel Wayne Coker of Big Spring, whose truck collided with the rear of the Thomas's 4-door sedan.

Impact of the collision knocked the sedan off the freeway onto the north service road where it overturned.

The truck driven by Coker was owned by Delbert Stanley, according to Parker.

Investigation into the accident was continuing Wednesday.

Pair Move Up

Kirk, Ginzl Appointed

Top duties in 32nd District Court will continue to be divided between Colorado City and Sweetwater officials when Judge Austin McCloud moves up to State Court of Civil Appeals.

Governor Preston Smith Monday appointed District Attorney Weldon Kirk of Sweetwater to 32nd District Court judge and Mitchell County Attorney Frank Ginzl to the district attorney's office.

Both appointments are effective Jan. 1, the date District Judge McCloud takes his place on the appellate court.

Both Kirk and Ginzl were notified personally by Governor Smith Monday in separate phone calls to Mitchell County Courthouse where they were busy with their current assignments.

When he takes the judge's bench in 32nd District court, Kirk will have completed nine years as district attorney, having been elected to one 2-year and two 4-year terms.

Ginzl, Colorado City resident and father of two daughters and a son, has been county attorney since 1953.

Kirk also served as Nolan County attorney from 1955 to 1960 and has engaged in private practice of law in Sweetwater since 1950.

The 45-year-old district attorney expressed gratification in his appointment to the judgeship and for the confidence expressed for him by Governor Smith.

"I appreciate his personal friendship as well as his professional ability and I will endeavor to follow his example in the conduct of 32nd District Court."

Kirk, who has handled more than 1,500 cases as district attorney, said he is impressed by the attitude of the citizens of this district (Mitchell, Nolan and Fisher counties) for law.

"This community attitude has been evident to me during my public service," he said. "And, in the duties of district attorney I have received splendid cooperation from all levels of law enforcement officials and personnel."

"I especially am appreciative of the cooperation and assistance of Frank Ginzl as county attorney while I have been district attorney. I know he will endeavor to carry out the duties of his office in a conscientious and efficient manner."

Kirk moved to Sweetwater and the 32nd District in 1950 after graduation from University of Texas School of Law. Within five years he began his public office career as Nolan County attorney.

His community life extends over a wide area. He was Sweetwater's outstanding young man in 1953, served as president of Jaycees, has been active in Sweetwater Chamber of Commerce and Downtown Lions.

Currently Kirk is board chairman for Lang-Aycock Memorial Day Nursery in Sweetwater, member of board of directors for state association of United Funds, member of administrative board of Sweetwater's First United Methodist Church and has served as drive chairman and president of Sweetwater's United Fund.

He is a major in Air Force Reserve, having served as a pilot in World War 2.

While district attorney, Kirk has served as director and vice president of District & County Attorneys Association of Texas, president of Nolan County Bar, participated in seminars of Texas and national district attorneys associations, spoken at Criminal Law Section of State Bar, presided at seminars for district and county attorneys.

He and Mrs. Kirk are parents of a daughter, Lisa, 12, and a son, Paul 10.

Just as Kirk has developed his entire legal career while living in Sweetwater, Ginzl has resided in Colorado City since entering the practice of law following completion of studies at University of Texas School of Law.

"I am sincerely gratified for my appointment to district attorney," said the former World War 2 infantryman.

"My effort will be an honest one, working with officers throughout our 32nd District to see that our laws are enforced fairly and impartially."

Ginzl entered law practice here in March 1950 with Dell and Perry Barber. His wife, who died a year ago, and their first daughter, Carol, joined him a few months later after Mrs. Ginzl has completed college.

He became county attorney by appointment following the resignation of Ken Jennings, who moved to Houston. He has continued the private practice of law while serving continuously as county attorney, having been re-elected without opposition.

Ginzl is a member of State Bar, American Judicature Society and County & District Attorneys Association of Texas. He is past president of Mitchell County Bar Association.

He is a deacon in First Presbyterian Church, past president of Kiwanis and is active in community affairs. He has been a scoutmaster, a worker in PTA and an exponent in wildlife conservation.

2 Considered County Attorney Vacancy

Two Colorado City lawyers have expressed interest for the position of Mitchell County attorney which becomes vacant Jan. 1.

They are Joe Earnest, well-known church and civic leader, and Danny Barber, the community's youngest lawyer and son of attorney Dell Barber.

The position will become vacant Jan. 1 when Frank Ginzl, moves up to 32nd District Attorney by appointment of Governor Preston Smith.

Ginzl was notified of his appointment to the district office Monday and has not yet submitted his resignation from the county's post.

Earnest was the first to contact county officials in regard to the county attorney's office. He asked for consideration last week when and if the office becomes vacant.

Barber became an applicant Tuesday after Ginzl's appointment became known.

Council Post To Teacher

New addition to City Council is Frank Brownfield, who combines school teaching with business property investments.

He was named unanimously Monday night by City Council in a special meeting to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Paul Hunter.

Hunter resigned to become Precinct 3 County Commissioner.

Brownfield will fill the remaining four months of Hunter's 2-year term which expires in April.

It is expected that the new councilman will be a candidate for election to a full 2-year term in the April election.

Brownfield, who moved here four years ago to become vocational agriculture teacher, originally is from Snyder, where his father has been prominent in business and property management.

He owns four buildings in the 200 block of East Second which include Anthony's Marshall's Downtown, Wards and Sears.

Tax Value May Go Up

School Board Studies Budget Needs

You can expect your Colorado Independent School District tax valuation base to move upward next year and your tax rate to decrease.

It is not official, but that is the indication from a special school board study Tuesday night with Supt. Lloyd McKee.

The study put the board face-to-face with operational and maintenance budget needs for 1971-72 school year.

And, with those needs in sight, board members are in a serious study to put the budget requirements in balance with tax income.

In addition to about $20,000 more needed in 1971-72 for teacher salary increases already made mandatory by Texas Legislature, the school board has the problem of meeting increased plant maintenance requirements.

During the current year, less than 3 per cent of the school budget (2.95 per cent, to be exact) is allotted for plant maintenance.

If sorely needed repairs, electrical and plumbing improvements, roofing job, painting, heating facilities, and other jobs inside and outside of buildings is accomplished, then plant maintenance's share of the 71-72 budget would move up to about 8 per cent, according to Supt. McKee.

By the whittling away at these requirements, cutting back and putting priority on what is rock-bottom, essential, this may be cut to about 5 or 6 per cent next school year.

But overall, the tax valuation base may move up from its present 45 per cent of fair value to something like 55 per cent or 60 per cent to provide for essentials.

If this action comes, then the board may be in position to lower the school tax rate. Currently, the district's rate is $1.78 per $100 assessed property valuation (with valuation base of 45 per cent of fair value). This is divided $1.50 for operation and maintenance, $0.28 for retirement of bonded indebtedness.

With a boost in the valuation base, then there may be room to adjust the overall tax rate downward, thereby keeping the actual cost increase to taxpayers at the lowest possible level.

Actual decision won't come until the board's regular December meeting. Until then, board members will be studying a thick file of data that has been compiled by the superintendent.

First, they will have to decide what maintenance needs must be scheduled and what can be left out or postponed.

Search Starting For New Coach

School board members Tuesday night officially accepted the resignation of Athletic Director Truman Nix then named a committee to screen applicants for his job.

Screening committee members are Tom Rees, president of Colorado Independent School District board of trustees, and trustees O. B. Trulock Jr. and Ed Thrift.

Ex-Officio member of the committee is Supt. Lloyd McKee.

McKee, in addition to participating in the screening with the committee, will prepare and mail application packets to prospective applicants. In these packets will be blanks for applicant's career resume, college transcript plus information concerning duties and procedures of the vacant position.

The boards action Tuesday night followed the plan outlined earlier for the Record by Rees.

Applications for the directorship--which includes head coaching and director of physical education--will be taken from candidates "inside and outside" the Colorado City school system.

Screening committee members met Tuesday for the first time as a unit to study duties and responsibilities of the position. They will meet at intervals to study applications, then report back to the board when they narrow the list for the board's final selection.

Formal applications from prospective coaches are expected to begin arriving within the next two weeks.

However, inquiries concerning the job began immediately following Nix submitted his resignation Nov. 16. These totaled approximately a dozen and were from persons now coaching in AA, AAA and AAAA High School competition.

Transfer Asked T&P Hearing Sought Here

Texas Railroad Commission notified County Judge Elmer Martin Wednesday afternoon the T&P hearing had been reset for Dec. 10 in Colorado City at 1:30 p.m. in Mitchell County Courthouse.

Texas Railroad Commission is being asked to transfer to Colorado City a hearing on a request to close the local T&P Railway Station.

Asking the transfer and a postponement of the hearing to allow proper time for the community to answer the T&P request are Mitchell County Commissioners Court, City Council and Chamber of Commerce.

Telegrams from the governmental bodies and the Chamber's board of directors were sent Wednesday to Ben Ramsey, chairman of the Railroad Commission in Austin.

Notification was received here this week that hearing on T&P's application to discontinue its station in Colorado City will be Dec. 3 in Austin before the commission.

The application also requests approval for T&P to dismantle the depot building in the downtown area at Walnut & First Street.

Telegrams from the county, city and Chamber emphasized urged the Railroad Commission to:

1. Postpone the Dec. 3 hearing to provide Mitchell County citizens adequate time to formulate plans to oppose T&P closing of the station.
2. Transfer the future hearing to Colorado City so that local citizens may be properly heard on a question vital to city and county.

Sending the telegrams were County Judge Elmer Martin, Chamber of Commerce President J. C. Britton and Mayor Mike Burt.

185 Draft Top Deferment Action Urged

Local Draft Board No. 71 at Big Spring is urging deferred Selective Service registrants with 1970 Random Selection Number higher than 185 to ask for re-classification before Dec. 31, 1970.

The board's action follow the announcement that 185 is the highest random selection number that will be reached by the Big Spring board which administers an area including Mitchell County.

Each deferred registrant whose number is above 185, upon written request to the Big Spring board, will be re-classified.

Initial reclassification will be to Class 1-A, according to the board. Then, on Jan. 1, 1971, the registrant will go into the second priority for induction and each year thereafter will become less vulnerable to call, the board said.

The local board's announcement is a follow-up to the new regulation decreed Oct. 23 by National Selective Service Director Curtis W. Tarr. At that time, Tarr declared that a registrant in a deferred classification, such as student or fatherhood deferment, who has a 1970 Random Selection Number higher than the highest number reached this year by their individual board, can request that his deferment be ended and still not face a call-up under the draft this year.

Ruth COFFEY'S CONVERSATION CORNER

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

THANKSGIVING is a day for being happy. . . happy for all the many blessings all of us have. . . and glad for the many afflictions most of us do NOT have this day.

Thanksgiving is the day for being happy over the sight of family faces. . . the smell of spices filling the house. . . the feel of warmth and light and companionship. . . the taste of roasted turkey. . . and the sound of football in the afternoon.

This is the day for the sound of prayers, too. . . spoken prayers around the table. At our house it has long been a family tradition that even the littlest child present shall say aloud at least a little sentence prayer as everybody participates.

THANKSGIVING is the time for memories. . . memories of faces no longer present except in precious memories. Only the hard and hopeless heart can forget to be thankful for having known and loved them while they were in this world.

Always think of Daddy at Thanksgiving. He was a turkey carver without peer. He always had the turkey brought to the table whole for the carving ceremony with Mother and his four children admiring the act in bright-eyed anticipation.

Bells Visit Relatives In Coleman

By MRS. W. A. BELL,
Record Correspondent.

WESTBROOK - Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Hoyle of Phoenix, Ariz., arrived Saturday to visit during Thanksgiving holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hoyle of China Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell were Sunday guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sloane in Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxey Ware were in Temple during the weekend where his father R. P. Ware had eye surgery.

Thanksgiving is for special memories and not all of them twist the heart.

SOME Thanksgiving memories bring nostalgic smiles after all the years between then and now.

Once, for instance, this mother leaned how unwise it is to limit the Thanksgiving prayer of even the smallest member of the family. At about the age of seven, the daughter had a way of praying at great length when it came her time to ask Sunday blessings. The food had a way of getting cold while she did it.

So, that long ago Thanksgiving Day when there was company at the table her mother announced before the sentence prayer session, "Now Doris will open with a BRIEF prayer.

Instead of asking God's blessings as usual on everybody from parents, grandparents, cousins, uncles, aunts, to household pets, and missionaries in Africa, she said in one breath a little Sunday School prayer she knew.

"Father make us thankful for this food, teach us to be kind and loving and good," she said in one short breath. Then in the next breath she added "Mother, was that brief enough?"

THAT, friends and readers, is one Thanksgiving prayer this mother could never live long enough to forget.

"Out of the mouths of babes" can come many lessons. Moral is that it's surely better to have warm hearts than hot giblet gravy.

May all your hearts be warm this day. . . your memories sweet. . . and your prayers heart, whether they be long or short. And may the Good Lord bless hour house.

ROY DAVIS COLES and his wife Alice left Wednesday for Houston where they will share the feast in the home of their son Roy D. Coles, Jr., his wife Genie, and their daughters Lisa, Ellen and Janine. To join the family Thanksgiving Day will be the Coles' daughter Rebecca, her husband Bob Price, their children David, Douglas, and Mary Alice of Arlington.

Coming to Colorado City Friday for the holiday weekend will be Grace Doss Shelton, her husband Bob Shelton, and their son Tim of Tyler. The Sheltons will have Thanksgiving dinner with Bob's parents in Dallas, then visit Grace's parents Bill and Nettie Doss here.

FAMILY celebration for the family of Mrs. R. P. Price will take place today at the family cottage at Lake Colorado City.

All the Price daughters will join their mother for the holiday reunion dinner. Marcelja Fee and her husband Bob Fee, Sr., Loyce and Arnold Ewald of San Angelo, Kack and Fred McClellan, Frances Elaine Prude, her son Bill and his wife Lyn Prude, of Lubbock, will be around the table. Also joining the family will be Pat and Bob Fee, Jr.

HEAR TELL Ruth (Mrs. E.L.) Latham and Lucille (Mrs. Oren) Trulock left Wednesday for Austin. Ruth will visit daughter Mary Ann, her husband Tom Bradford and their three daughters. Lucille will holiday with her son Lt. Col. C. A. Wilkins, Jr., his wife Marian, their son Walt, and daughter Cecilia.

J. Ralph Lee had an early celebration last weekend in Waco with son Rodney Lee, his wife Sara (Norman) their three children, and with Ralph's daughter Iva Helen Lee. Iva, by the way, plans to spend her holiday from college teaching at Waco with friends in Ames, Iowa.

Lela (Mrs. Oscar) Price will be guest in the Odessa home of her daughter Mary Irene, her husband Jack Womack, and their sons Price and Kyle.

RANDLE family, Josie and Bill, their daughter Ann Randle Davis and her children Randle and Jill, will share the feast in the home of Bill's sister Lucy and her husband Ed Warren at Hereford. They will also visit Amarillo during the holiday weekend.

Chester and Parnesa Hart are expecting a full house with both sons, Dr. Bill Hart of Corpus Christi, his wife and children, Dr. James Hart, his wife and children of Lubbock, as Thanksgiving guests.

Jack and Kathy Parse and small son Andy are in the Alamo City as guests of Jack's parents who live in San Antonio.

BIG SPRING home of Myra and Bob Robinson, former Citizens, will stage a family dinner for Myra's mother Flora (Mrs. John) Brown and uncle Corley Rozeaman. To be there, too, are Myra's sister Lucy, her husband Tom Sve, their son Tim and daughter Terry of Clarendon.

Reynolds Brown Jr., his wife Floy, their son Reynolds Brown Jr. of Tulsa, Okla., will bring Mrs. Glen Robinson, Bob Robinson's mother who is another former Citian, with them. She lives in Miami, Okla.

Family friends the Jas. O. Jarmans will complete the party.

SUNDAY is the day for the reunion of Margaret (Mrs. Truman) Bodine's family.

At the Bodine house will be Margaret's mother Mrs. Lola Dean of Wingate, her five brothers and their families, two sisters and their families.

Brothers and sisters are Wesley and Hollis Dean, both of Wingate, R. B. Dean of Lubbock, C. R. Dean of Abilene, A. J. Dean of Big Spring; Mrs. Bob Brannan of Big Spring, and Mrs. Bill Poke of Stanton.

Bodine first daughter Vickey, her husband Dale Bynum, and their baby son Kip of Lubbock will be part of the party, too.

DID YOU KNOW that Jackie and J. L. Harder and their four children spent a fishing-hunting vacation last weekend as guests of the Fred McClennans at the lake cottage? The Harders live in Dallas but their hearts are still part of C-City.

Virginia and Raymond Fuller and daughter Judy Myers will be hosting dinner for Virginia's mother Mrs. Warren Tayman of Stamford and for Raymond's father P. G. Fuller of Farmington, N. M.

THANKS

Most of us are taking a holiday for Thanksgiving.

And while enjoying our big dinners and family visits we might give a thought to a few like our city police, sheriff's officers, highway patrol and volunteer firemen who continue to serve us when we need help the most... night or day, holiday or workday.

Sure there are others who contribute necessary services while most of us relax and enjoy a rest.

But these who protect our property and lives are due a special thanks... don't you think.

MRS. GLENN RAY FANT, former Janice LaVegne Miller.

Miss Janice Miller Becomes Bride of Glenn Ray Fant

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ray Fant are at home in Farwell following their marriage Saturday evening in Second Baptist Church in Lubbock.

Mrs. Fant is the former Janice La Verne Miller, former home demonstration agent here and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miller of Weatherford.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fant of Quanah are parents of bridegroom.

Rev. Jimmy McGuire read double ring vows before an altar accented with candelabra.

Mrs. Lon Miller, soloist, was accompanied by Larry Douglas, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white doeskin crepe. The high waisted fitted bodice, attached to a gathered and tucked skirt, was overlaid with white imported lace. Long gathered sleeves had wide lace covered cuffs edged in ruffles.

Her tiered tulle veil, which extended into a chapel-length train, was attached to a satin petal headpiece.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white carnations, tied with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Gene Ward of Abilene, matron of honor, wore an apricot stain pea gown fashioned with a high waisted fitted bodice defined with inset banding and button trim. The gathered and tucked skirt was floor length.

Her cascading bouquet was made up of apricot carnations. Darrell Fant of Huntsville served his brother as best man.

Ushering guests were Ronnie Miller of Weatherford, brother of the bride, and Lyndon Box of Lubbock, cousin of bridegroom.

The couple was honored at a reception in church parlor following the ceremony.

Bride's table was covered with an off-white linen cloth and complimented with a fall arrangement of apricot spider chrysanthemums and turquoise carnations. Crystal candelabras, holding turquoise candles, flanked each side of the bouquet.

For a honeymoon trip to points of interest in New Mexico the bride wore a two-piece costume of brown and off-white.

The bride, a graduate of Floydada High School and Texas Tech University in Lubbock, is now Parmer County Home Demonstration agent.

Her husband was graduated from Quanah High School and attended Texas Tech. He is a graduate of Department of Public Safety Academy and is now a highway patrolman in Farwell.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pinkerton of Turkey.

Texas Target In Mail Cuts

Burleson Blames Washington Policy

Congressman Omar Burleson has joined the growing list of government officials criticizing mail service in the area served by Dallas region office.

Burleson's full comments follow:

"For the past several months numerous complaints have been received about mail service.

He blames the deterioration of service in the Dallas region--which includes Colorado City--on orders for "cutbacks" from Washington.

"The United States Post Office exists for one purpose and that is to provide prompt and dependable mail service.

Burleson's criticism, in a weekly newsletter to newspapers, follows that of Congressman Graham Purcell, who originally made the charge several weeks ago during the political campaign period prior to General Election. Purcell at that time said Texas had been "singled out" for inferior mail service.

"Mail service has obviously deteriorated in all parts of the Nation but it seems that the area served by the Dallas Regional Office, which covers 5 states, has especially been chosen for an experimental plan. The plan includes the elimination of window service on Saturday, curtailment of distributing mail to boxes on weekends, elimination of parcel post delivery on weekends, drastic cuts in collection services--all of which have resulted in a slowdown of deliveries.

"It should be pointed out that the local Postmaster is not at fault. The Post Office Administration in Washington has ordered the cutbacks through the Regional Office. The policy indicates that individual Postmasters are granted a certain amount of discretion in implementing changes in service and personnel practices but that discretion has not been broad enough to permit an operation which would not only be cheaper but provide better service.

fact, investigators from the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee reports that the experimental system in Texas is actually resulting in added costs. They found for example that 1st class mail from California destined for El Paso is airlifted to Fort Worth, 600 miles further east, where it is then dispatched to El Paso--a total of 1200 miles in additional transportation costs.

"In instances, newspapers require up to three days for delivery 10 miles distance from the mailing point. The elimination of window service

Lee Funeral In Loraine

Funeral services for Jesse C. Lee, 82, of 833 Oak Street were conducted 2 p.m. Wednesday in First Baptist Church of Loraine.

Mr. Lee, a retired farmer, died at 5:45 a.m. Tuesday morning in Root Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

Services were conducted by Rev. Clarence Minton, church pastor, and Rev. A. C. Hardin of Carbon, Texas. Burial was in Loraine Cemetery under direction of Kiker and Son.

Born in Dallas County, June 28, 1888, he came to Mitchell County in 1901. He married Beulah Gardner in 1910 and she passed away in 1914. In 1921 he was married to Cora Freeman who died in 1946.

He was member of Baptist Church.

Pallbearers were nephews of Mr. Lee.

Survivors are one son B. B. Lee of Colorado City, one daughter, Mrs. Roscoe Hudgins of Loraine, five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

One daughter and one stepson preceded him in death.

nation of window services has precluded patrons from purchasing machines are often left empty or broken.

"In some places banks are having trouble in check returns because of insufficient funds due to mail delays.

"Added to this experiment is the fact that train service has also been curtailed. Mail service is not handled over long distances with the efficiency which the railroads once provided. The abandonment of once-used rail facilities, however, has been the cause of some slowdowns. Mail which cannot be dispatched from the collecting point simply waits until there is room for it, which may be a matter of days.

"The Congress has voted to create a Government-owned corporation with the authority to impose a $40 billion indebtedness on the Government for handling our mails. There is little doubt that the price of postage will be increased and, of course, it remains to be seen whether the services will be improved. Those of us who voted against this measure wanted more answers than were given.

"The vast majority of people employed in the whole Post Office operation are dedicated and want to do the best possible job. The fact that in the supervisory area it is about impossible to get rid of the inefficient, the strikers and goof-offers is another impediment to the service. One working in this capacity has an extra responsibility since he is being paid with taxpayers mon-

5 Students On Trip

Five Mitchell County residents were among thirty Howard County Junior College students who made an annual geology trip to Big Bend this past weekend.

They are Mrs. Betty Norris, Mrs. Tommy Reeves, Jerry Moore, John Sweatt, and Junior Oden.

The group visited and observed such sights as the meter crater at Odessa, the Monahans sands, the tilted Glass Mountains, the Boquillas Canyon, and the Rio Grande.

ey. This will probably be the case in the new setup but it is hoped that there may be some provision for getting rid of the deadwood.

There is no need to look for blame but with all the money spent on the postal service, the deficit of which is staggering, there is little excuse for not having better service, whether under the present system or by the new organization," Congressman Burleson concluded.

"One glaring example of the inadequacy of these tests programs is what is referred to as "managed mail processing program." This is designed to replace the old system of sorting letters at the point where they are mailed. Mail that previously could travel overnight to virtually any place in the Nation now takes from three to five days and particularly if the mail travels less than 750 miles. In some instances it would appear that deliveries could be made more quickly by pony express.

"When the policy of the post office department was inaugurated, it was alleged that there could be expected substantial cuts in costs. From investigations it appears that such is not the case. As a matter of
