U. N. Chieftains Ask For Big Four Peace

Memorial Rites Head American Legion Agenda

Simultaneous Business Meets Will Be Held

A joint memorial service and simultaneous business meetings will head today's agenda at the 19th District American Legion and Auxiliary convention at the Howard County Post club house.

The joint session is due to open at 9:30 a. m., with the memorial service scheduled for 11 a. m. and the separate Legion and Auxiliary business sessions at 1 p. m.

Earlier, however, officials from various posts in the district were to attend breakfast sessions at the Settles and Crawford hotels. Post commanders, adjutants and service officers were to breakfast at the Settles, while membership chairman from all posts were to attend a similar session at the Crawford. Both sessions were scheduled for 7:30 a. m.

The Rev. Preston Denton, chaplain of the Howard County Post will deliver the memorial service address. The special memorial program will include a vocal solo by Arnold Marshall, Kipling's Recessional by Mrs. Harold P. Steck, a vocal trio, "My Buddy," by Mrs. Bill Griese, Mrs. Marjorie Talbot and Helen Duley.

T. A. Thigpen, district commander, will preside at the joint meeting and the Legion business session. Several committee reports will be heard at the business session and a site will be named for the spring convention. District officers are elected at the spring convention each year.

All delegates will be guests of the Howard County Post at a luncheon at 12 o'clock today.

Delegates from throughout the 25-county district were arriving for the convention late Saturday.

Social activities highlighted the opening day program, with an auxiliary tea at 7:30 p. m. and a convention dance at 9 p. m. in the club house.

Stainback Ouster Urged In Hawaii

HONOLULU, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) Immediate ouster of Gov. Ingram M. Stainback by President Truman was demanded today by Hawaiian Democratic Party leaders.

The governor, also a Democrat, was accused by the central committee of his party of ignoring Democrats and siding with Republicans. A central committee resolution said Stainback had supported "false and fancied" charges of Communist infiltration in the island party and was hostile to union labor.

Secularism In U. S. Scored As Danger

BOSTON, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) The Rt. Rev. John Elbridge Hines, Protestant Episcopal bishop coadjutor of Texas, says the real threat to American culture and ideals "is not Communism but secularism."

He said that "what makes it more dangerous to us is that its exponents are our most respectable people."

Urgent Plea Made For Berlin Solution

PARIS, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) Two top

United Nations chieftains appealed directly and urgently to the chief executives of the four big powers over the heads of their UN delegations today to settle the Berlin dispute for world peace.

The unprecedented action was taken by Dr. Herbert V. Evatt, of Australia, president of the General Assembly and Trygve Lie, UN secretary-general, in the midst of a bitter East-West clash over arms reductions.

The new fight took place in the assembly's 58-member political committee where Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky shook his pen at the U. S. delegate, Frederick H. Osborn, and shouted:

"You are preparing a Pearl Harbor for the Soviet Union, aren't you?"

The political committee rejected Russia's proposal for a one-third slash in the air, land and sea forces of the big powers within a year and prohibition of the atom bomb. The vote was 6 for 36 against, with seven abstentions.

The committee then approved 40 to 6 a Belgian proposal calling upon the Security Council's commission for conventional armaments to continue work on the general question of arms reductions.

In another major UN development, a seven-nation committee of the Security Council approved a plan submitted by the acting Palestine mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, to repair the broken truce on the Negev front. The plan apparently would demilitarize and place under UN control most of the disputed southern desert region.

The Lie-Evatt appeal was transmitted to President Truman, Prime Minister Stalin, Prime Minister Attlee and Premier Queuille in the form of a joint letter handed to the heads of the United States, Russian, British and French delegations here.

It was known by many that Lie and Evatt were in consultation, but few expected them to deliver an appeal above the level of the delegation chiefs.

Lie and Evatt said:

"Every day that the deadlock over Berlin continues, the danger to the peace and security of all nations continues undiminished. 'Fear of another war is crippling the efforts of all nations to repair the damage of the last war and return once more to the ways of peace. The work of the General Assembly and of the United Nations as a whole in every field of its endeavor is being delayed and undermined."

"It is within the power of the leaders of the great nations, to which this communication is addressed, to end this danger to the peace."

Evatt and Lie reminded the four great powers they had voted, with everyone else in the UN for a Mexican resolution which called on the big powers to try to settle their differences peacefully. They told the big four the world expects them to carry out the assembly's resolution.

Finally, the two UN officials offered to give the big powers all possible assistance in ironing out the Berlin crisis.

Death Claims S. H. Morrison, Local Pioneer

Death Saturday closed the career of S. H. Morrison, 90, dean of Big Spring attorneys, pioneer and Christian gentleman.

Mr. Morrison died at 4 a. m. at his home, 806 Scurry, apparently from heart attack. Mrs. B. Y. Dixon, who was staying with Mr. Morrison, victim of a stroke several months ago, heard him fall. He was dead upon arrival of a physician.

Mr. Morrison twice had rallied from seemingly certain death, once several years ago when struck by an automobile and a year ago when he virtually was abandoned for his recovery. Each time he bounced back with remarkable vitality, and as recently as Nov. 2 he was in his office.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. today at the East Fourth Baptist church, which he helped to organize, with the pastor, the Rev. James Parks, officiating, assisted by Rev. Preston Denton. Burial will be in the Morrison lot in the Masonic cemetery. Until time of services, the body will lie in state at Eberley chapel.

Survivors include his wife and four brothers, M. H. Morrison, Big Spring, with whom he formed a law partnership here in 1905, W. A.

Chiang Holds China Together

NANKING, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) Chiang Kai-shek's fierce insistence on carrying on the fight against Communism keeps the national government together.

Were it not for the 62-year-old Chiang, the fight against the Reds might have already wound up. In some sort of a compromise, there exists within his government an active group of top officials who believe the war of communist suppression is lost and that the only hope of salvation is a negotiated peace with the Reds. None of these people, however, have been able to muster the courage to make the suggestion to the president himself that he step down in favor of a coalition in which the Communists would have a dominant position.

Farm Labor Union Requests Action In Braceros Case

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) The AFL National Farm Labor Union today asked for prosecution of the "officials or others responsible for the entry of thousands of Mexican workers in the United States."

The union, in annual convention here, adopted a resolution on the matter after hearing its education directors report that thousands of such workers "are illegally held in virtual slavery in the United States."

Ernesto Galarza of New York, told the convention that when the foreign workers object to the "terrible conditions under which they are being worked, they are turned over to immigration authorities for deportation."

SOUTH SOLONS ADAMANT

Promise Filibuster Over Civil Rights

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) Southern Democrats will filibuster if leaders try to change the Senate debate rules to help push any civil rights proposals through Congress.

Sen. McClellan told a reporter he has heard that administration lieutenants are thinking of asking the Senate to make its cloture (debate limitation) rule apply to any motion, as well as a legislative bill.

Republicans, who lost Senate control in the election, had promised to try that maneuver.

Cloture is a procedure under which each senator is limited to an hour's talk on any bill or amendment before the Senate.

It could kill the time-consuming oratory by which Dixie senators always in the past have staved off a Senate vote on the anti-job discrimination, anti-lynching, anti-poli-tax and anti-segregation measures President Truman promised voters he will try to put through Congress.

But under present rules there are two catches in cloture:

1. Two-thirds of those voting have to approve before it can go into effect.

2. It can't be used to stop talk about a motion.

Southern Democrats always start filibustering when a motion is made to bring up a civil rights measure, several of which have been passed by the House in previous Congresses.

Rule changes — which require only a majority vote of the Senate — might wipe out the Dixie advantage on both counts.

So, McClellan said that to protect their rights, the southerners will have to filibuster against any change unless some compromise can be reached in advance.

Nov. 25 Is Proclaimed Thanksgiving

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) President Truman today proclaimed Thursday, Nov. 25, as Thanksgiving Day. He urged citizens to "render generous assistance to the hungry and homeless in other lands thus renewing our devotion to the cause of good-will among men."

The President asked divine guidance in helping to safeguard the "right to live in freedom and peace."

The text of the proclamation: "As the traditional day of Thanksgiving approaches, our thoughts incline, as in previous years, to the richness of our blessings. The spiritual endowments of our country are undiminished; we may, as always, walk as free men unafraid. Our resources have permitted us to aid the needy and helpless of other lands."

"We are privileged to participate in international efforts to advance human welfare. We are profoundly grateful for the existence of an international forum where differences among nations may be submitted to world opinion with a view to harmonious adjustment."

"We pray this year not only in the spirit of Thanksgiving but also as supplicants for wisdom in our approach to the problems confronting this nation."

Reviewing The Big Spring -Week-

The Community Chest is heading for the finish line and it needs the help of hundreds upon hundreds who have not yet given a thin dime to financing the work of the Salvation Army, YMCA, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, etc. It's close enough now that just a little help from those who haven't helped at all will put the campaign over the top. If you don't know how to give, just mail your check to this column and we'll see that it is turned in promptly to Chest headquarters.

Wayne White, Coahoma, won a distinct honor last week when he was selected as winner of the state contest in better electric methods and given a expense-paid trip to the national 4-H congress in Chicago.

One of the more promising signs on the school front is a quickening public interest. Last week more than 1,000 patrons visited the schools during education week. If that sort of interest grows, new attitudes will be formed and still better results obtained.

You'll be hearing about the Gilmer-Aiken committee in the next six months. To acquaint yourself with some of the leading points of the recommended legislative proposals for Texas school improvement attend the discussion Monday. See THE WEEK P. 9 Col. 6

Paving Work Will Start In December

First excavation work on Big Spring's 112-block paving program probably will begin early in December, city officials announced Saturday.

The contract with the Brown and Root Construction Co., which completed an earlier project here last spring, is to be fulfilled as soon as possible after the contractor finishes a project in Monahans.

Indications are that the Monahans project will be completed within the next two weeks.

A representative of the contractor has been in Big Spring for several weeks contacting property owners. City officials urged all owners of property abutting on designated units in the contract to sign the necessary papers if they desire paving since the city does not plan to undertake additional paving work in the near future.

Mayor G. W. Dabney said Saturday that there had been rumors that the city was planning a paving program concurrent with that of Brown and Root. Such is not the case, he said.

"We issued $60,000 in warrants to finance the city's share of the Brown & Root contract," he said.

"We do not have funds available for other paving and I don't know when we will."

"We have on application several blocks not included in the current work which Brown & Root will do," he continued, "and where blocks in the project do not materialize, then we probably will consider those on application to replace them."

The mayor added that the city had issued the warrants because of the demand it felt for paving, and that there was a general feeling that the original contract with Brown & Root could be extended because of satisfactory work before. The city certainly was not planning to operate any project concurrently with Brown & Root and did not have in mind any project of its own at all, he said.

Mishap Victims Are Resting Well

Three Big Spring people are resting well in local hospitals from injuries sustained Thursday evening near Monahans.

Paul Hill sustained a fractured vertebrae, it was reported at the Big Spring hospital, and Mrs. Hill, who also was under treatment, escaped with bad cuts on the knee and head, and bruises.

E. G. Money was at Malone & Hogan hospital, and it was feared he had suffered a skull fracture. He was resting well late Saturday.

Money and Hill are drivers for American Bus Lines and were returning from a deer hunt near Sierra Blanca when another car, suddenly seeking to pass an automobile ahead, met them head on. They were taken to Monahans in a Pyote Air Base ambulance and removed here Friday evening in a Daniel-Bouillon ambulance.

Guests Flee Fire

MALAD CITY, Idaho, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) Two score guests, many scantily clad, escaped safely early today before fire destroyed the Great Northern Hotel.

Fireman and the building owners estimated the loss at $110,000.

Compromises Should Lead To Pecos Pact

AUSTIN, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) Texas and New Mexico today agreed on nine basic principles which both sides said should lead to a Pecos River compact equitably dividing Pecos waters between the two states.

The number one principle for the accord stated that New Mexico agrees not to do anything that would cause Texas to receive a smaller portion of the water supply than is being received under present conditions.

The commission met about noon today after behind-the-scenes conferences had been held by both sides throughout the morning.

There was temporary disagreement on what percentage the two states should receive of water saved by reducing the present day consumption of water by nature. New Mexico proposed taking 62 per cent to Texas' 38. Texas countered by asking for 45 per cent to New Mexico's 55.

Federal Engineering Advisor R. J. Tipton suggested a compromise of 43 per cent for Texas and 57 per cent for New Mexico, noting that the amount of water involved is not great. Both sides quickly agreed.

Appointment of a committee to draft a Pecos River compact was authorized. The commission will begin work at Denver, Colo., Sunday, Nov. 28, and the Commission will next meet Dec. 1 at Santa Fe to review the compact.

Ex-Communist Spy Reported Missing

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) Whereabouts of Elizabeth T. Bentley, self-described former Communist spy, was reported unknown today.

Attorneys in a $100,000 slander suit filed against her said they had searched for her for a month.

The suit was brought Oct. 6 by William W. Remington, former Commerce Department employee, in connection with espionage charges Miss Bentley made against him.

In papers filed in federal court yesterday, attorneys for Remington described their fruitless search for Miss Bentley, and said congressional committees beforehand she had testified had been unable to help locate her.

MUSTN'T CUT IN ON OTHERS

Union Stops Musician Laughs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) Radio comedian Arthur Godfrey has ordered his musicians not to laugh at his jokes.

He said it would cost an extra $800 to $900 a week salary for each man.

Union rules, he explained, if they laugh or sing they'll come under an additional union — the American Federation of Radio Artists. They already belong to the AFL Musicians.

"Here for three years, the six boys in my band and I have been having all kinds of fun," Godfrey told a reporter today. "They'd sing choruses and we'd kid each other."

"Then all of a sudden AFRA begins to squawk and says they can't do it. If they open their mouths to sing they come under AFRA's jurisdiction. That adds the extra salary."

"They don't dare laugh even," Godfrey gave the explanation in answer to questions about a report that he appeared "very angry" in his Friday broadcast. No, he said, he was just squeezing some fun out of the situation.

"When one of the boys started to laugh," he said, "I'd say 'shut up, you can't do that.'"

Godfrey said he himself belongs to four unions — Equity, AFRA and musicians locals in Washington and New York. Everybody on the show has a musicians union card, he said.

"Nobody on AFRA is hurt because the band sings," the comedian said. "We're not going to hire anybody else."

"We go on having fun for three years and then all of a sudden they begin to squawk. Just when the show's going good and getting popular."

Firms, Individuals Are Fined $56,000 On Patent Pool Count

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. (U. S. —) A federal judge yesterday fined three companies and three individuals a total of $56,000 on charges they entered into a patent pool agreement with a German munitions firm.

Judge John C. Knox called the case "the first criminal patent pool anti-trust case" ever prosecuted in this country.

He ruled the defendants violated the Sherman Anti-Trust Act and the Wilson Tariff Act in a 1928 agreement with the Fried, Krupp, Aktiengesellschaft Co., of Germany.

The defendants were the

Vealmoor Area Is Continuing To Make Hole With Three Wells

In the area surrounding the Vealmoor field of extreme North Howard county, Seaboard Oil company of Delaware was continuing to make hole with its three projects.

The No. 2 Tora Campbell, Ellenburger wildcat in the region, 680 feet from south and east lines of section 29, block 32, T-3-N, TP survey, was beyond 9,824 feet, penetrating lime and shale.

Seaboard No. 2 W. C. Campbell, offset to proven production from the Pennsylvania lime above 8,000 feet in the Vealmoor field, was boring on from 5,590 feet in lime and shale.

It is located 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 29, block 32, T-3-N, TP survey.

Just across the line in South Borden county, Seaboard No. 1 Mayme Clanton, wildcat projected to the Pennsylvania, 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 20, block 32, T-3-N, TP survey, had reached 6,469 feet. It was drilling ahead through shale and lime.

This venture is approximately a mile northwest of the pool.

Seaboard Oil company of Delaware No. 2 Lee, deep prospector in Southeast Dawson county, 15 miles southeast of Lamesa, and 440 feet from north and east lines of section 4, block 34, TP survey, T-5-N, ran a 33 minute drillstem test at 10,679-737 feet, in a section thought by some geologists to be the Devonian.

There was a slight blow of air for 17 minutes, and it then died. Recovery was 45 feet of drilling. The mud, with an odor of sulphur. There were no indications of oil, gas or water.

It is due to drill ahead.

Southern Minerals Corp. of Corpus Christi last week prepared to start by Nov. 15 on its No. 1 H. Noble Read, a 3,000-foot cable tool venture northeast of Coahoma and four and a half miles north of Iatan-East Howard production. The test is to be 530 feet from the north and east lines of section 21-30-in, T&P.

Drilling was continuing at Seaboard No. 1 Charles C. Thompson, deep wildcat in Central Mitchell county, eight miles southwest of Colorado City. Last report had it making hole beyond 7,588 feet in an unidentified shale and chert formation.

Location is at the center of the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 6, block B-27, ps survey.

Borden Bids For Its First Oil Production

By JOHN B. BREWER

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 13.—Borden county bid for its first oil production this week while a second Pennsylvania lime pay was indicated in a Scurry county wildcat and Sun Oil's third strike became Coke county's largest well.

H. L. Hunt of Dallas No. 1 Clayton & Johnson in south central Borden county recovered 1,620 feet of clean oil and 180 feet of oil and gas-cut mud on a two-hour drillstem test from 6,493-6,523 feet. The section was believed to be lower Permian. A core from 6,964-74 showed two feet of black shale, one foot of brown lime with slight oil and fluorescence, and seven feet of black shale.

The prospect is in the C SW NW 24-31-4n-T&P, 5 1/2 miles south of Gail, and 3 1/2 miles north of Tide Water No. 1 Clayton & Johnson, which was abandoned dry in the Ellenburger at 9,162 feet in February.

Southern Minerals Corporation No. 1 McCabe, Southwest Coke county wildcat to test into the Ellenburger, and which is located 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 25, block Z, D&S survey, had reached 7,296 feet, in an unidentified lime, and was making more hole. It has not reported having encountered any signs of possible production up to now.

Sun Oil's third pool opener in Coke county, No. 1 P. W. Millican, flowed 575.9 barrels of 45.4 gravity, pipeline oil in 24 hours for completion at 5,971 feet. The gauge, setting a record for the county, was through a quarter inch tubing choke and perforations at 5,958-70 feet in a 5 1/2-inch liner. Gas-oil ratio was 1,075-1, flowing pressures 1,075 pounds on the tubing and 510 pounds in the casing.

The well had flowed 100 barrels in 24 hours before treating with 2,000 gallons of acid. The Strawn crinoidal reef lime was topped at 5,952 feet, 3,897 feet below sea level, about 200 feet higher than the gas-oil contact in the Jameson field but has no gas cap. Drilling stopped in porous lime. No. 1 Millican is in the C NE NE 230-2-HSTC, seven miles south of the Jameson field and 12 miles west of Robert Lee, on an 8 1/2-section block. An outpost 1,654 feet northwest, Sun No. 1 C. C. Millican, had spudded and a north offset, Sun No. 1 Annie Cummins, had been started.

Humble No. 22 J. E. Parker was finished as the second well in the West Parker Devonian field in southwestern Andrews county for a daily flowing potential of 250 barrels of oil from acidized pay at 8,245-8,330 feet. It is in the C SW SE 2-A54-psl, half mile east of Humble No. 13 Parker, the discovery.

Sinclair Prairie No. 2-154 University, C SE NE 24-13-U, became the first test in the Shafter Lake triple-pay field in Andrews county to drill to the Ellenburger. It entered that formation at 11,695 feet, 8,484 feet below sea level, more than 2,000 feet below the average top in the nearest Ellenburger producers. In the Fullerton multiple-pay field six miles northwest, it recovered 9 barrels of oil in a 3 hour test from 11,695-11,746. The test had indicated three pays, the Wolfcamp and Devonian, and a new one for the area, the Pennsylvania.

Retail Sales Stay Stable In October

AUSTIN, Nov. 13. (U) — Texas retail sales showed little change between September and October, the Bureau of Business Research reported today.

The October volume was estimated at 224 million dollars. Durable goods sales were down four per cent from September, and jewelry stores showed the only increase; five per cent.

Officials Wonder If Hirohito Will Plead For Tojo

TOKYO, Nov. 13. (U) — Both Japanese and foreign sources speculated on whether Emperor Hirohito would make a gesture of some sort in sympathy with his former advisers, seven of whom were sentenced to hang yesterday and 18 to prison.

There have been consistent rumors since Japan surrendered that the emperor would abdicate in favor of a regency for his son. Most observers felt, however, that the emperor would stay where he is on the throne.

Shafter Lake North Outpost Is Spotted

A north outpost to the Shafter county has been spotted by Stanoil Oil & Gas Company.

It is to be that concern's No. 1-BH University of Texas, 660 feet from west and south lines of the northeast quarter of section 14, block 14, University survey. That puts it about 11 miles northwest of the town of Andrews.

Projected depth is 10,000 feet, with a string of rotary tools. That is scheduled to take it into the Devonian, one of the five pays in the pool. The Shafter Lake field also is proven for production from the Wolfcamp, Pennsylvania, Clear Fork, and recently from the Ellenburger.

Spudding operations are slated to start November 16.

Humble No. 7 Yarbrough & Allen, deep prospector in Northeast Ward county, about seven miles northeast of the town of Monahan, was boring ahead under 10,455 feet in an unidentified lime section picked by observers as possibly Ellenburger.

It is 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 17, block B-13, ps survey.

Approximately 30 miles south of Midland and across the line into Petroleum company No. 1-A TXL, possible discovery from the Pennsylvania, was making new hole from 12,069 feet in a lime formation unofficially identified as the Montoya, upper Ordovician.

This prospect is to go ahead for a test into the Ellenburger.

It is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 39, block Y, TCRR survey.

Shell Oil company No. 1 Hawkins, South-Central Gaines County discovery for heavy, natural production from the Devonian lime and chert above 10,508 feet, took a 30-minute drillstem test in the lower horizon of that formation at 10,579-675 feet.

Recovery was in excess of 150 barrels of salt water, and there were no shows of oil or gas. The prospector is drilling ahead, and so far as has been reported it will continue to its original objective of going to about 12,500 feet to try to find and test the Ellenburger.

The exploration is 15 miles south and slightly west of Seminole, two and one-half miles southwest of the Robertson field, where the production is from the Permian, above 7,500 feet. The drillsite of No. 1 Hawkins is 1,983 feet from north and 665 feet from east lines of section 8, block A-23, ps survey.

Bitter Greek Scrap

ATHENS, Nov. 13. (U) — The Greek army reported bitter fighting in progress today as guerrillas launched a strong attack against army positions on Mount Bikovik.

Drillstem Test Run On Schattell No. 2

A drillstem test was being run at Sun Oil Company No. 2 Emil Schattell, Southwest Scurry County wildcat, on an unidentified lime, shale and chert horizon at 7,910-30 feet.

That zone had logged some scattered signs of oil and gas.

This venture is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 186, block 97, H&TC survey. That makes it a northwest outpost to the same company's No. 1 Schattell, discovery for flowing production from the Canyon lime.

No. 2 Schattell failed to produce from the Canyon, and has been drilled deeper to try to find another pay.

Sun No. 4 Schattell, another flanker to the Schattell Canyon discovery, and 1,980 feet from south and 2,009 feet from east lines of section 186, block 97, H&TC survey, ran a drillstem test in a Pennsylvania lime at 7,005-25 feet.

The tester was open one hour. There was fair to good blow of air throughout the period.

Recovery was the 1,000-foot water cushion, 150 feet of gas cut drilling mud, and 1,850 feet of salt water, with a strong odor of sulphur. There were no signs of oil.

The venture is drilling ahead below 7,059 feet in lime. Development of the water considerably dampens the possibilities of this project being a producer from the Canyon.

An outstanding development in Scurry county for the week was the second showing of Standard of Texas No. 1 Jessie Brown, nine miles northwest of Snyder and 1,880 feet from the north and 1,980 feet from the west lines of section 440-97, H&TC. It had shown 40 to 50 barrels in sand and lime between Pennsylvania sections and on a drillstem test from 6,357-6,414 feet for one hour and 46 minutes it flowed 101.6 barrels of 45.2 gravity oil. Gas was to the surface in three minutes, mud flowed in eight and a half and oil in 10 minutes. The flow was gauged on the last 60 minutes of flow. It likely will be bottomed at 6,414 feet.

Sun Oil Company and The Ohio Oil Company No. 1 Sallie Helms, Northeast Scurry county exploration to a possible bottom of 8,000 feet to test into the Ellenburger, had reached 5,701 feet in sand and shale, and was drilling ahead.

on the pump for 87 barrels of 39.4 gravity oil plus 24 barrels of salt water in 24 hours. Production was through casing perforations at 7,429-42 feet. The section had been treated with 250 gallons of mud acid. The well failed in the Ellenburger and plugged back from 7,905 feet. It is 330 feet out of the northwest corner of tract 72, subdivision 37, Kirkland & Fields survey.

It is 20 miles northeast of Snyder, and 660 feet from south and west lines of section 636, block 97, H&TC survey.

No indications of oil or gas in any sort of commercial quantities have been reported from this venture.

Magnolia No. 1 Winston Bros., 3 1/2 miles east and slightly north of Sun No. 1 Schattell, was finished

MUST HAVE LAW TO OUST LION

DANVILLE, Va., Nov. 13. (AP)—Police busily leafed through Danville's statute books today to see if it's legal for Raleigh Payne to keep a mountain lion in his back yard.

The lion, young but growing fast, first came to the attention of the police when an agitated citizen phoned to report he'd seen a lion roaming near the city reservoir. Police cruisers howled to the scene. They found the lion, all right—in Payne's back yard.

Payne explained that he's always "had a way with animals."

That's when the authorities started dragging out the statute books.

No luck so far. The nearest applicable law they've been able to find was an ancient one forbidding the exhibition of jackasses.

CUE GIVEN IN SPEECH TO GRANGE

Brannan Says Future Farm Program Will Emphasize Abundant Production

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 13. (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan said today the Truman administration's future farm programs will emphasize "abundant" production.

As a consequence, he said, both farmers and the government will have to learn to "live successfully with abundance."

The cabinet officer gave this cue to future government farm policies in a speech prepared for the National Grange convention.

Before the war, the Democratic administration farm programs employed production control and curtailment measures to combat surpluses and low farm prices.

Brannan said three things will be needed to make a program of full farm output work. He listed them as:

- (1) Full employment and good wages for urban workers so that they might be good customers of the farmer.
- (2) An "adequate" export market.
- (3) Expansion in the present federal school lunch program and possibly new consumer subsidy programs to "take up the slack of commodities in temporary surplus and to place a floor under food consumption in times of low purchasing power."

With an obvious emphasis on abundant production, Brannan said that "if we are to have abundance, we must employ every reasonable means to assure a continued use of abundance."

Another problem facing farmers, he said, is a need of keeping the nation's land permanently productive.

The secretary did not elaborate on future farm programs in his speech.

However, he told a news conference last night that the long-range price support features of the farm act passed by the last Republican-controlled congress needs to be revised. Those features would be effective in 1950.

He said the so-called "flexible" farm price support provisions of the law will not work effectively in adjusting farm output from the abnormal wartime and postwar pattern to peacetime markets and needs.

Furthermore, he said, it would require too sharp a cut in current support prices at a time when farm production costs may still be increasing.

Brannan emphasized however that the administration does not want to disturb that portion of the GOP law relating to price supports on 1949 crops. The law directs that this year's relatively high supports be continued through next year on most crops.

Paris Community Will Honor Nevill On Day Book Published

PARIS, Nov. 13. (AP)—Judge A. W. Nevill of Paris—a grand old man in every sense of the term, his friends describe him—will celebrate his 84th birthday and the official publication date of his second book Nov. 17.

On that November day the entire community will honor the man who has lived with them, worked with them and for them for 69 years.

"Nevill Day" in Paris will extend birthday anniversary greetings and congratulations to the judge through posters in business houses, a luncheon, a special edition of the Paris News and open house in the vine-covered home of the judge and his wife.

Judge Nevill has been with the Paris News for 46 years, the last 20 as editor. Despite his age, he works regularly, is in excellent health and is an alert newspaperman.

His second book is "The Red River Valley—Then and Now." It is not history, but a collection of tales about this section of the Red River Valley. It is a kind of expansion of some of the better of his "Backward Glances" columns which have been running in the Paris News for more than 20 years.

The book is designed and printed by Carl Hertzog, the well-known type expert of El Paso. It contains 27 drawings by the Mexican artist, Joes Cisneros.

His first book, "History of Lamar County," is considered an authoritative reference book on this county. It was published in 1937.

Judge Nevill was born in Salem, Va., and came to Paris with his mother and other members of the family Dec. 6, 1879 after the death of his father. He has lived here ever since and has worked in the printing business for almost 60 years.

Glancing backward over the years, Judge Nevill's newspaper stories recorded history as it came to Lamar county—the first airplane ever seen in Paris—the first electric railway—the first automobile—the hanging of eight early day desperadoes—the last execution of an Indian under the old Indian law—Negro lynching—and the great fire of 1916 which destroyed nearly half of the city of Paris.

Good Books Can Be A Source Of Companionship And Inspiration

Here we stand once again on the threshold of another special week—this time national book week. Purpose of the interlude is, fundamentally, to focus attention upon the need for and appreciation of good books.

Anyone who has learned to read, which implies a little more than calling words, knows that there are books...and then there are books. A wide gulf separates good books and the vast accumulation of mediocre reading and sheer trash which has plagued the publishing business for generations.

Modern literacy has stepped up the tempo of publication, so much so that the pace of modern enlightenment has not kept pace. As a consequence, there was never a period in history, perhaps, when the output of books was so copious and so lacking in general quality. Robert Quillen's description of a current best seller ("a book that wouldn't get through the first printing with the smut removed") still stands.

It is not enough for writers to play upon the carnal emotions for a book to qualify as sound literature. To be sure there is abundant ugliness in the world, and few would say it should be ignored. Neither is there any point in emphasizing it to the exclusion of the finer, enduring and nobler impulses of life.

Books that capture these in style and flavor that do not dull with time are good books. They can be a real comfort and a constant source of inspiration. They can be companions in quiet hours which our generation so much needs. Many psychologists believe most of us would go crazy if left to solitude for a couple of days. But not if we have learned the fellowship of good books. They are friends indeed.

Next Big Stop On Capitol Train Will Be January 3

WASHINGTON, D.C.—WASHINGTON IS like a train which has just pulled out of one big station and is racing on to the next. The stop it just left was Nov. 2, election day. The next big one is Jan. 3, when the new Congress, the 81st, sits down to work.

A few days later President Truman will hand Congress his state of the union message—his program for 1949—and his budget message.

Then on Jan. 20—inauguration day—he will be sworn in as President. Then the show starts.

Meanwhile, a lot of wood is being thrown on the fire to keep the engine going.

This will explain what is happening now and what will happen:

MR. TRUMAN IS CONFERRING AT Key West, Fla., with some of his top aides on what he and his Democrats should do in 1949, and how to do it.

But here in Washington government departments began months ago to figure how much each of them will need next year to carry out its job.

All these estimates, after a lot of checking, are put together in a big book, big as a New York telephone directory, called the budget.

In his budget message, which goes to Congress together with the book, Mr. Truman will explain why he thinks Congress should vote the money called for by the budget estimates.

All this budget stuff will be taken over by the House Appropriations Committee which promptly divides itself into a number of sub-committees.

For months thereafter the heads and officials of the government departments and bureaus will have to parade before the committees.

They'll have to explain why their agencies need the money the budget says they need, and why the amounts shouldn't be cut down.

AFTER MONTHS OF SUCH HEARINGS the Appropriations Committee will

Dusty Gilt Was Pure Gold In Hookey-Playing Days

NEW YORK.—When I was a youngster playing hookey to see a matinee of "Blossom Time" at the wonderful old Shubert Teck Theater in Buffalo, no theater could be shabby.

To me dusty gilt was pure gold. The paste jewelry worn by the lovely ladies in the minimum wage ensemble were all large-carat diamonds. Their gowns were borrowed from some Egyptian glamor gal, probably Cleopatra. Their smiles were authentic proof they were living their lives on the Teck stage, not merely posing mechanically for the matinee trade.

The stiff boards of the seats in the peanut gallery never struck me as uncomfortable or ungainly, although I know now they were. When I proceeded upward in finances my seats went down to the balcony, later to the elegance of the loges and finally to the unbelievable luxury of an orchestra seat; sometimes even in the first row. Never did I have a feeling the dirtiest theater was anything but the most lavishly manicured premises in the world. I could resent the desolate starkness of my desk in school and later at the office, but I was utterly blind to the least depravity from esthetic perfection in the trappings of the Teck.

I gradually grew out of that stage. By the time I was eighteen, I was finished with liking just anything put on a stage and started to pick and choose. I discovered dust, dirt and shabby costumes. My ears quivering at sharpness and flattery by the hero of "The Vagabond King". If I ever realized previously there

Frenchmen Are Gathering Gifts To Repay U. S. Friendship Effort

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON.—JUST ONE year ago this week the Friendship Train traveled across the American continent gathering food for the then hungry people of Europe. Today, one year later, a similar train is traveling through France gathering gifts for the American people.

The French train is called the "Thank you train," and consists of 49 boxcars ("49 men 8 horses")—The kind American troops rode in during World War I.

These boxcars are being filled with gifts for the American people and one car will be left in each of the 48 states. The 49th car will go to the District of Columbia for transmission to the territory of Hawaii, which contributed an average of eight cents apiece from every man, woman and child in Honolulu to the original Friendship Train.

The French thank you train is coming not from the government of France but from the French people. It is being organized by Commandant Guy De La Vasselais, who served as liaison officer on Gen. Patton's staff and is an old friend of Americans. Several million French war veterans are contributing to make the thank you train a success.

The gifts in the 49 cars will not include food, luxuries or wine. Instead, they will be chosen from products which are typically French and will include several monuments, portraits, wood carvings, china, pottery, bells and native costumes. While the French are leaving it to the individual Friendship Train committees in the United States as to how the gifts will be disposed, it has been suggested that some of them may be suitable for American museums, colleges and schools.

The American railroads, which were such an important factor in making the Friendship Train possible, have patriotically offered to carry the French train free through various parts of the United States.

On Oct. 25, 1948, this column published an account of how ex-Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley received a decoration for "gallantry in action" on the morning of Nov. 11, 1918, the day World War I ended.

Further information has now come to hand regarding this decoration, and we now wish to apologize to Mr. Hurley.

The information comes from Col. Wilbur Rogers, formerly of the 77th Field Artillery, third division. Col. Rogers is the officer who stopped Hurley en route to the front lines and told him the war was practically over and that he was not needed at the front. Hurley was a member of the judge advocate general's office—in other words, an Army lawyer whose duty was behind the lines.

Col. Rogers now points out that Hurley knew that the "cease fire" order had been called and circulated before he ever went up to the front in order to get his decoration for "gallantry in action."

Therefore, concludes Col. Rogers, Hurley actually got the medal for action after he knew the war was over.

Col. Rogers also reported that Hurley later applied for membership in the Third Division Association in Washington, because his medal came from the Third Division. However, Third Division headquarters refused to accept the ex-Secretary of War for membership.

Our apologies to Mr. Hurley therefore for underestimating his gall in accepting a medal for "gallantry" after the war had virtually ended.

J. PARNELL THOMAS A few readers have chided this column for its original expose last August of how Chairman J. Parnell Thomas of the Un-American Activities Committee received salary kickbacks from employees—an expose which has now led to Thomas's indictment.

Some readers apparently confuse salary kickbacks with nepotism. Both are to be deplored, but the latter is not illegal. Nepotism is the employment of relatives. In fairness, it should be stated that some relatives, such as Arthur Vandenberg, Jr., and Mrs. Glen Taylor, wife of the senator from Idaho, work long hours on the job. On the other hand some relatives merely draw the salary, never come near the office, and let the rest of the staff do the work. This however, is not against the law.

But it is against the law to hire a clerk or stenographer and then require them to kick part or all of their salary to the congressman. Clerks and Stenographers are paid not by the congressman but by the government. Therefore, kickbacks merely mean that the government—without its knowledge—is increasing the congressman's salary.

A congressman's salary is fixed by law. In fact, he himself votes to fix that salary and recently Congressman Thomas and others voted to give themselves a wage increase of $2,500 a year, plus $2,500 a year for expenses, making a total of $15,000.

The result of Congressman Thomas's kickback deals meant that he was paid considerably more than his legal salary. Thomas has a long record of kickbacks going back to 1940, plus two known instances when he kept soldiers out of combat and later collected $850 from their families.

The Merry-Go-Round makes no apologies for its expose of Congressman Thomas's activities.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

There was a good reason why the Voice of America so consistently informed Europe that Dewey was going to be elected. Charles Thayer, New York manager of the "Voice," was in constant touch with Allen Dulles, brother of John Foster Dulles, and one of Dewey's right-hand men. Diplomats are wondering what will now happen to Thayer and the many other Deweyites inside the State Department. Probably nothing. When Gov. Kim Sigler of Michigan, the man who did not refer the Sen. Hooper murder case to Police Commissioner Toy of Detroit, was defeated, he jumped into his plane and vanished. Sigler ran 100,000 behind his own Republican ticket.

Mrs. Truman thinks that Tade Styka, world-famous Polish-American portrait painter, is the only artist who has been able to reproduce the elusive blue-gray color of her husband's eyes. The teachers voted almost 100 per cent against Dewey. They did not forget Dewey's diatribe against the teachers' lobby at the Governors' Conference in Portsmouth, N. H. last summer.

Larry Parks Won't Be Typed A Jolson

HOLLYWOOD.—Far be it from Larry Parks to get typed as Al Jolson's film ego. He's seeking an action story as his next film.

Under his new Columbia contract, Larry gets 35 weeks as a free agent after he finishes "Jolson Sings Again." He wants to use at least part of the time in producing his own picture, which is the only way for a star to make real money in this town.

Despite rising costs, the "Jolson" sequel will cost less than the sensational original. There will be no production numbers. Jolson's voice and Parks' face will have to put over the songs.

Gene Kelly turned down a film treatment of the lives of Montgomery and Stone, famed theatrical team. MGM would have bought it for him, but Gene figures he's too young to play it now.

Ginger Rogers came back from her Oregon ranch for retakes of her Sarah Bernhardt scenes in "Barkleys of Broadway." The sequence was so good that people thought someone else doubled for Ginger. So she'll do some closeups to prove it's all hers.

"I Married a Communist" will pull no punches. It's about life on the San Francisco waterfront and the Bay City should find it interesting. One of the writers on the RKO film is Art Cohn, former Oakland

Texas Might Act On Her Own To Change The Voting System

Not the least of the speculation over new administration policies in the wake of Harry Truman's resounding triumph concerns what Truman actually wants done about various phases of the "civil rights" proposals.

You'll remember that Strom Thurmond protested that the administration is committed to a four-pronged program: repeal of all state poll taxes; enactment of a federal anti-lynch law; enactment of an anti-segregation law; and enactment of the FEPC (fair employment practices commission) which bans the racial factor in consideration of employment.

Although Mr. Truman did all right in the South, as elsewhere, I can't quite conceive of the Southern bloc of congressmen changing from their past views. They have filibustered to death such proposals in the past, and it seems reasonable to expect they would do so again.

Nevertheless, some commentators on the national scene are suggesting that Southern states would be smart if they'd go ahead and meet some of the federal pressure at least half-way. That is, to enact some legislation of their own, to remove the arguments that the federal government has to act.

Specifically, states probably could (if they haven't already) pass anti-lynch statutes that would be enforced. As a matter of fact, lynching is no longer to be regarded as one of the prevalent crimes in the South, anyway.

More to the point of my comment today concerns the poll tax law. Texas is one of only about eight states which still retains the poll tax, and it seems to me if there is any changing done on the issue, Texas ought to do her own changing.

Only Economic Reform Can Stop Chinese Catastrophe

THE QUESTION OF WHAT-IF ANYTHING—America can do within reason to save Chiang Kai-Shek's nationalist regime from utter collapse in face of the Chinese Communist onslaught has received no satisfactory answer thus far.

Hourly the situation becomes more critical.

Actually not only the fate of Nanking is in the balance in current battles but control of all North-Central China.

On top of this military crisis the political and economic situations continue a shocking deterioration. China is in a state of chaos.

THE FIRST MAJOR SHIPMENT OF American guns and ammunition to China since the Red victories in Manchuria is said unofficially in Washington to be nearly ready for departure. Of course any help is good help—but it will take more than a bucket of water to halt the Chinese "conflagration."

That's what makes America's position so difficult. How can she give worth-while aid without going to the unthinkable extreme of taking over the military burden herself?

Matter Of Fact — Joseph And Stewart Alsop

Naval Games Prove Value Of Red Sub Concentration

WASHINGTON.—Another Manhattan District is needed. That is the only possible conclusion from the shocking results of the Navy's recent Newfoundland war exercises. For those who missed the all too brief stories from the scene, the Newfoundland results may be summarized as follows:

The plan for the exercises was for a strong task force of 100 Naval vessels to establish a bridgehead on the Newfoundland coast. The defensive role was assigned to eight Schnorkel-equipped submarines, modeled on the high-speed, long-range, radar-proof German Type 21. The eight defenders "sank" virtually the entire Naval task force, and of course theoretically prevented the landing.

The significance of these results lies in a single bleak and simple set of facts, first reported in this space many months ago. The Soviet Navy is now primarily an undersea fleet. Under reparations the Soviets secured from Germany component parts, complete submarines and equipment for building the Type 21. According to the most sober official estimates, the Russians already have 100 of these craft in operation, as well as 100 short-range submarines for coastal defense, and 100 long-range submarines without Schnorkel or "breathing" equipment. Their program for building additional Type 21's is known to be important.

Russian Naval planning is of course hampered by restriction to the Baltic, Black Sea, Arctic and Manchurian ports and Vladivostok. Even so, however, the Red Fleet is estimated to be capable of maintaining thirty-five Type 21's continuously at sea. But the Schnorkel-breathing device, radar-proofing, and great speed render these craft almost wholly immune to the old methods of anti-submarine warfare. Hence the fate of the Newfoundland task force. Hence, also, the conclusion that if war should come soon, thirty-five Type 21's would come perilously close to severing the vital sea supply lines across the Atlantic. Until this threat has been countered, all American strategic planning must be considered a mere gamble.

The picture is not all black, to be sure. A small number of vessels in the Newfoundland task force were especially equipped with new submarine detecting and destroying devices experimentally developed with the Type 21 in mind. While all but a small proportion of the total task force was "destroyed," all but about 15 per cent of the specially equipped ves-

State Senator Rogers Kelley of Edinburgh already has come forth with a proposal for a state-wide referendum on the question of removing the poll tax as a requisite for voting. He would continue the tax, so that the funds would still be forthcoming, but he would not require a poll tax receipt as a right to vote.

The poll tax, as you know, is $1.75. Of this, the state general fund gets 50 cents, the state school fund gets $1, and the county gets two bits. The major concern of most people, from a monetary standpoint, is for the school fund. It got something over a million dollars in 1946, the last year I could find accurate records, probably gets around a million and a half by now.

Whether people would pay a poll tax, if they didn't have to, to get to vote, is quite a question. So that the state school fund might suffer a lot, regardless. The million and a half or so that the school fund gets would have to be replaced, from some source.

A registration system such as many other states require, might be the answer for Texas. A small fee, to pay at least the cost of holding elections, might not be out of order. After all, voting is a privilege, and in many people's book it's a privilege that is worth something.

Poll tax receipt or no poll tax receipt, we have got to demand some form of evidence at the polls that the holder is a bona fide resident with the right to vote. Texas election laws are allspice enough now, with too much indifference as to enforcement. That doesn't apply just to Duval county, either.—BOB WHIPKEY.

Truman Win Gives Texas Liberals The Party Axe

AUSTIN, Nov. 13. (AP)—President Truman's victory and the National Democratic sweep put the liberals firmly back in the saddle on the democratic donkey in Texas.

Dissolution is not the word to describe the party's future in Texas. Realignment is nearer to it. This started back in 1944 and came to a more definite head in 1948, with extreme leftwingers joining the progressives and right wingers lining up either with the Republicans or with the States Righters.

Many Texas Democrats have felt that most of the ultra-conservatives who at times have been top leaders were at heart Republicans. There have been, for example, many instances where big contributors have chipped in to the war chests of both parties.

Some Democratic leaders believe that during the next four years, quite a few one-time Democrats will openly join the Republicans and it might even result in less squabbling and bickering within the party ranks. This warfare between factions which could not agree on party principles has broken out at numerous recent conventions.

Republican state chairman Henry A. Awfield has frankly invited "purged" Democrats to join the G. O. P. He believes the Republican vote polled Nov. 2 has given Texas a good start toward becoming a real two-party state.

Very few thought it had in 1928, even though the Texas electoral vote went to Herbert Hoover instead of Democratic nominee for president, Al Smith. Most Republicans then admitted the issue in that race was not partisan, nor has it been in some governor's races where Republicans ran strong—but never strong enough to win.

Evidence of the new Republican hope is the fact the party will set up at Austin a permanent headquarters, looking four years ahead. In their public pre-election statements, Republican leaders were loud in predicting their party would elect Jack Porter to the senate and name Republican electors. Privately, they said they thought they had a fighting chance to name Porter, but no chance of going Dewey.

If they can persuade some of the new thousands who voted Republican Nov. 2 to stay put, they believe they have a better chance of taking Texas at some future day.

Gov. Beauford H. Jester, titular head of the Democratic party in Texas, was supported in his first election by many big shots who this year broke away from the Democratic party to join the southern revolt.

Many of the present liberal leaders fought him then, but they joined with him when he made up his mind to stick with Truman although he had opposed Truman's civil rights program as a federal project. He has always insisted the southern states can handle it, and that Texas is—for example, in providing better higher education for Negroes.

He expressed hope the party has "proved itself strong enough to get along without its dissenting elements; now I hope it will prove itself strong enough to get along with them."

Jester called for reeducation to "true democratic principles" and said if the party can't follow a reasonable, middle-of-the-road course, the Truman victory will be only temporary and perhaps costly.

This still leaves Jester somewhat at odds with many of the group who went all-out for Truman at Fort Worth, but many observers believe the governor has become more liberal as his administration progressed. Here is what he said he is looking forward to:

"During the next two years I want to work closely with the legislature in a program of state services that will strengthen our claim to states rights. In that direction only lies our only chance to meet and defeat a trend toward governmental centralization and federalization."

FRESH BLOOD A MUST FOR FREE ENERGY

Do you feel like you are tied to a drag every time you try to do something? If so, don't let a low blood count hold you down when you may release vibrant energy to every muscle, fibre, cell.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps build sturdy health.

COMPLETE COURSES—Glen Henderson, fever therapist, and Mrs. Mattie B. Rose, junior sociologist, represented the Big Spring State hospital in a special state-wide workshop for instructions and attendants, which concluded Saturday in Austin. The course, which began on Nov. 1, is the initial offering in a new training program for hospital attendants in state institutions throughout Texas. W. P. Watts, executive director of the Texas Public Employees Association, praised Hall H. Logan, chairman of the state board of control, for the step for betterment of public service.

Texas Range Feed Lowest Since '34

AUSTIN, Nov. 13. (AP)—Texas state range feed was at 69 per cent of normal condition on Nov. 1, the lowest condition for that date since 1934, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported Saturday.

The report covered the month of October and did not reflect possible improvement resulting from rains which have fallen this month.

Deterioration of range feed continued in the eastern half of the state as drought conditions prevailed through October. Grass and winter range feed prospects were very good in South Texas as the result of timely rains, and a generally adequate supply of cured range feed was available in northern plains counties.

Winter wheat pasture had sharply improved prospects in the Northern High Plains area. Range feed was critically short and general rains were needed as of Nov. 1 in the southeastern and upper coastal counties.

Cattle and calves showed heavy shrinkage during October in upper coastal and most eastern counties, but cattle were in good flesh and gaining in the southern and western Edwards Plateau counties. Cattle were reported at 77 per cent condition compared with a 10-year average condition of 84 per cent on Nov. 1.

Condition of sheep was 77 per cent, compared with a 10-year average of 84 per cent, improving conditions in southern and western Plateau counties offsetting the decline in most northern and eastern counties in the main sheep country.

Missing American Girl Is Found Ill In Hospital

FRANKFURT, Germany, Nov. 13. (AP)—U. S. Army authorities report that a missing American girl employed by the Army counter-intelligence corps has been found in a Wiesbaden hospital.

Authorities said the girl, Miss Lydia Briggs, 26, of Greenville, N. C., is a patient at the Army's 317th Station Hospital in Wiesbaden. The nature of her illness was not disclosed.

A wide search for the pretty brunette, reported missing since Oct. 27, had been under way throughout west Germany.

An army announcement said last night hospital authorities "were of the opinion that Miss Briggs had advised her organization in Frankfurt of her whereabouts. Hospital authorities said that should her present progress continue, she will return to duty in the next two or three weeks."

AFL Bus Drivers To Ask Increase In Wages Soon

DALLAS, Nov. 13. (AP)—A union official has announced AFL Bus Drivers and station attendants in Texas and seven other states will ask wage increases.

R. M. Foster said a contract covering workers in Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Colorado, New Mexico and Memphis, Tenn., expires Dec. 15. He did not disclose the amount of increases the union planned to seek.

PONTIAC

Above everything else... a good car!

Pontiac has one manufacturing principle which takes precedence over all others: Pontiac must always be a good car!

There is no other motor car quality which people value so much as goodness. That's why Pontiac engineers and production specialists spend so much time and energy and money to insure Pontiac quality. Pontiac cars must last long—and they must last well—and they must function through the years with a minimum of upkeep cost.

Owners have been quick to appreciate this. Some of the testimonials they send to the factory, and to Pontiac dealers, tell of performance feats that seem almost impossible of attainment.

Pontiac has many other outstanding virtues, of course. It is a wonderful performer. It is delightfully comfortable and easy to handle. It is a great beauty, and unusually distinctive in appearance.

But its greatest virtue is goodness. This year, or any year, you just can't beat it for faithful performance.

SMU Professor Wins $1,000 Literary Prize

DALLAS, Nov. 13. (AP)—The $1,000 prize by the Texas Institute of Letters for the best Texas book of the year went Friday to Herbert P. Gambrell, Southern Methodist University professor.

Gambrell won for his "Anson Jones, The Late President of Texas." The prize, given by Carr P. Collins of Dallas, was awarded at the Institute's banquet here.

Vance Johnson won the $500 prize given by the Dallas News for the runner-up with his "Heaven's Table Land," a history of the Dust Bowl. Johnson, Washington correspondent for the San Francisco Chronicle, was a newspaperman in Amarillo during the Dust Bowl era.

David Weathermer of Houston won the McMurray Bookstore prize of $250 for the best Texas-first novel with "Summer On The Water."

A $100 poetry prize given by the Daedalian Quarterly of the Texas State College for Women was awarded Valda Montgomery's "Hail For Rain." She and her husband run the Kaleidograph Press, which specializes in poetry, in Dallas.

ADLAI STEVENSON, LAUSCHE MENTIONED

Truman Hint He Won't Run Again Causes Leader Hunt

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (U.P.)—President Truman's post-election hint he isn't going to run again has plowed the field for a new crop of democratic presidential contenders.

With four years in which to make a record, two new Democratic mid-western governors may give veteran party leaders a hot race for the 1952 nomination.

They are Adlai E. Stevenson, who won a smashing victory in the politically important state of Illinois, and Frank J. Lausche, who takes over again in Ohio after a two year lapse while the Republicans were in control. Lausche had to buck the regular Democratic state organization to get the nomination.

Stevenson has a four year term but Lausche will have to win re-election in 1950 to be in the running for the next presidential campaign.

Two other new Democratic governors may be heard from around party convention, time four years from now—Chester Bowles of Connecticut and Paul Dever of Massachusetts. But they aren't as well placed geographically as Stevenson and Lausche.

The governors probably will have some strong rivals in Congress for Democratic honors.

Strangely enough, two of them hail from Illinois—Sen. Scott Lucas, who is slated to become Senate majority leader, and P a u l Douglas, newly elected senator from that state.

Although he comes from little Rhode Island, Sen. J. Howard McGrath also may have to be reckoned with among new presidential contenders. As Democratic national chairman, McGrath did what his friends call a masterful job in keeping his party's quarrelsome factions well enough in line to help Mr. Truman win his surprising victory at the polls.

Friends are likely to push Hubert Humphrey, new Democratic senator from Minnesota, for one of the places on the ticket.

The same may be true of Clinton M. Anderson, former secretary of agriculture and senator-elect from New Mexico, as well as Guy Gillette, who returns as Iowa senator after a four-year lease.

MURDER SUSPECT HELD—Samuel B. Gibson, 23-year-old Negro farm laborer, was charged with the murder of Juan Olague, 14, following an arrest made by Big Spring Police Chief Pete Green, Capt. L. P. Trammell and Officer Kirby. The arrest was made shortly after the Olague youth was stabbed to death in his parents' home. The picture shows Green with the suspect while questioning was underway in the police chief's office. (Jack M. Haynes Photo).

CAA Radio Set-Up Will Be Outlined

Workings of the Civil Aeronautics Administration, communication set-up will be outlined at the meeting of the Big Spring Amateur Radio club Monday at 8 p. m.

H. A. Culp, member of the club and associated with the CAA, will be the principal speaker.

The meeting is to be held at the club's "shack," one of the NYA buildings just east of the city park. Entrance is approximately 200 yards south on a lateral road off US 87. Club members emphasized that the meeting is open to any one interested in radio, whether they are licensed "hams" or not. For assistance in locating the meeting place, interested persons can call M. B. Beam, Andy Jones, or Culp.

The CHIROPRACTOR-and You

This is One Of A Series Of Articles Published In The Public Interest To Explain And Illustrate The Practice Of Chiropractic.

CASE HISTORY No. 274. A girlcondition had existed for seven months, during two of which the patient had been unable to work. Analysis showed a displacement of a segment of the spine which had interfered with the nerve supply to the wall of the stomach. This interference was removed and immediately the patient began to show improvement. In a short time the stomach had normalized itself.

Further, eyesight so improved that within a short time she was able to discard her glasses and has not worn them since.

CASE HISTORY No. 742. A severe case of asthma resulting from the drainage of mucous from diseased sinuses which had affected the bronchial tubes. The middle aged man had tried every available means of relief without success. Brought to a Chiropractor "doubting that anything could be done," he was restored to normal health within a few weeks. The cause of his condition was simply nerve pressure between the brain and the sinuses. When this pressure was removed by spinal adjustment the abnormality quickly cleared up.

CASE HISTORY No. 17. A typical case of gastritis. The patient complained of headaches, pain in the stomach, a feeling of fullness and distress, heartburn, and was given to vomiting after food. The

WHAT IS CHIROPRACTIC? Chiropractic is based on the fact that the brain is the human power house. It creates vital energy. Without brain energy no organ or part of the body can function. Brain energy is transmitted over the body's network of nerves. These nerves radiate from the spine, and it is in the spine that the nerves can be "pinched" by vertebrae, and the flow of energy over them impeded or cut off. When, in this way the connection is broken between brain and one or more parts of the body, disease is the inevitable result. By skillful analysis and precise spinal adjustments, the Chiropractor is able to locate and release impinged nerves and restore an uninterrupted flow of brain energy to the part affected. Health follows naturally.

T&P Changes Its Schedule

Effective today, the Texas & Pacific is making some passenger schedule changes.

In most instances, the departure times are being advanced here and these conform roughly to the previous arrival times for the same schedules.

Train No. 1—the Eagle—does not change. The Westerner (No. 5) now arrives at 12:45 a. m. and will leave at 1:05 a. m. and will bound journey.

Train No. 7, the Southerner, is not changed in this area on its westbound junket. The Texas Eagle, eastbound, likewise is not changed in this vicinity. No. 6, the Westerner, now arrives at 12:05 a. m. and leaves at 12:20 a. m. going east. No. 8, the eastbound Southerner, arrives in Big Spring at 8:50 p. m. and leaves at 9:10 p. m. It is this last schedule which draws the heaviest outboard traffic from Big Spring.

MAN HAS REAL FAMILY PROBLEMS

TOWSON, Md., Nov. 13. (U.P.)—A 33-year-old bachelor has figured out a problem that might have stumped the advice-to-the-laymen experts:

How to clear up a double involvement with two women, each of whom has borne him three children?

Attorney Bennett B. Cockey said in Baltimore County circuit court Friday that his client proposed to marry the mother of the three of the children, divorce her, and marry the mother of the other three.

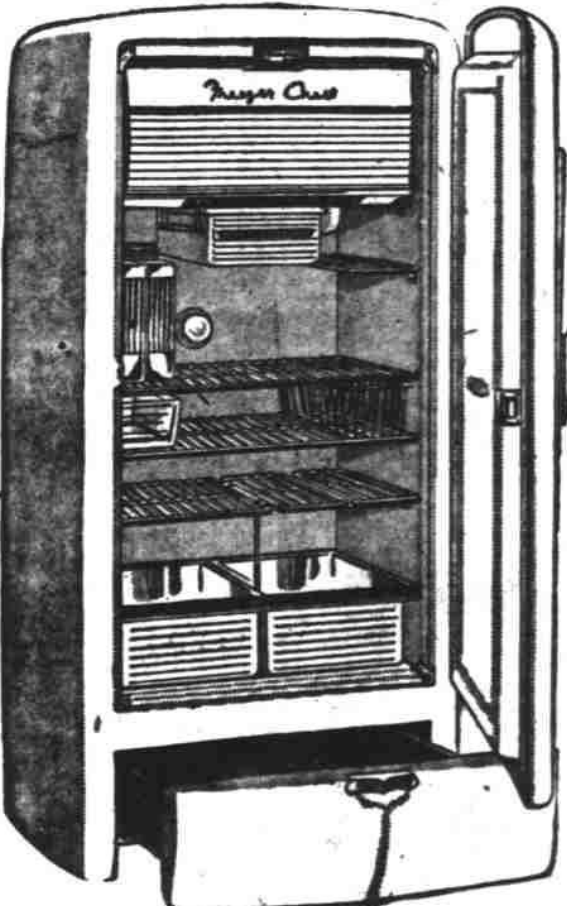

The defendant, William C. Cranston, was up for violation of probation, after it was reported he struck one of the women. The probation was ordered in September when he was convicted of assaulting a policeman.

Not mentioned was which woman Cranston would marry first and divorce, or whether he must prefer to divorce the second one as well. However he must serve 18 months in jail before crossing that bridge.

Longhorn Heads Meet In Angelo

Longhorn baseball league officials are due to convene at 10 o'clock this morning in San Angelo and attempt to untangle some of the business office woes that beset that city's colts during the 1948 season.

The complications confronted the Concho City franchise when C. West, the original owner of the club, transferred his holdings to a group of San Angelo business men. Since the club fared poorly in a financial way prior to the sale, the league assumed some of the obligations. Several of the matters which have not yet been learned up will be on the agenda today, and the discussion is expected to require most of the time at the session.

Early Morning Fire Damages Cotton Load

COAHOMA, Nov. 13—An early morning fire here damaged a truck load of cotton which was parked near the Acuff gin.

The truck had been loaded with 26 bales of cotton Friday night in preparation for transportation to the compress on Saturday. The blaze, which was discovered at about 1:15 a. m. Saturday, inflicted heavy damage to most of the bales. Cause of the fire was not known.

HCJC Conducting A Course Survey

A survey is being conducted to determine demands for additional vocational courses at Howard County Junior college.

Postal cards, on which preference can be indicated, are being distributed by various means. E. C. Dodd, president of HCJC, said that those who do not receive cards should drop a letter or card to HCJC, telling which of these courses they might be interested in taking: General metal, general woodwork, machine shop, electric motor and amateur repair, auto and tractor mechanics, sheet metal and pattern, upholstery and body work, furniture repair and upholstery. Possibly only two courses can now be added at HCJC.

Thousand People Are School Visitors For Education Week

More than 1,000 people took advantage of American Education Week—concluded Saturday—to visit Big Spring schools.

Nearly 700, or 694 to be exact, visited at their leisure in elementary school classrooms during the week, said Dean Bennett, elementary supervisor. On Tuesday evening, W. L. Reed, high school principal, reported 350 patrons "went to school" in following their children's daily schedule.

Although not directly a part of the week's observance, between 200 and 400 persons visited the high school cafeteria Friday evening during the South Ward P-T-A "Stew party" affair.

W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, declared the week one of the most successful staged here and expressed thanks to patrons for "seeing our school in action." He and Bennett said that plans were to get expressions and suggestions from patrons who visited elementary classrooms during the week.

With 119 patrons visiting, South Ward led with 62 per cent of its enrollment represented in the visitation. Central Ward had the largest number, 177 visitors, and 52 per cent of its enrollment represented.

Airport had 49 visitors for 45 per cent; College Heights 139 for 44 per cent; West Ward 185 for 35 per cent; East Ward 18 visitors for eight per cent; and North Ward 17 visitors for eight per cent.

By grades the visitation stacked up as follows: First, 123 or 41 per cent; second grade 107 or 39 per cent; third grade 105 or 38 per cent; fourth grade 99 or 39 per cent; fifth grade 90 or 31 per cent; sixth grade 95 or 38 per cent; seventh grade 85 or 37 per cent.

Stephen Hugh Morrison came to devote himself wholly to practice of law for a livelihood. He was rebuked by Judge George Walthall, presiding over the old 32nd district court, for thinking he could earn a living without engaging in real estate and assorted sidelines.

Although there were times when he may have reflected on the wisdom of Judge Walthall, Mr. Morrison lived to donate thousands of dollars to missions and benevolences—and all of it out of the earnings of his practice.

Born in a one-room log house in Wood county Jan. 27, 1858, Mr. Morrison learned to love the law from his father, who served part-time as a justice of peace for the good he could do rather than for fees. He patched up differences of litigants and settled matters out of court more often than not.

With his father off to the war as a Confederate soldier, young Morrison was obliged to do a man's chores and wrestled behind a Georgia stock plow before he could well reach the handles. Not so many years later, monoxide gas, while he was working on a well, changed the course of his life.

He almost died and was advised to "go west." He settled in Denton, where he completed school and was urged to go to college. He had known of Dr. R. C. Burleson and so he enrolled at Baylor University, graduating in the class of 1885 with an expert knowledge of Greek and Latin. Returning to Denton, he studied law under Owsley and Walker.

It was not long afterwards that he was admitted to the bar in 1887 and decided to "go west" again. While many urged him to settle in Colorado City, he somehow was impelled to choose Big Spring, obtaining an office over Fisher's store in 1891.

To prevent Judge Walthall's dire predictions from coming true, he used part of the space for living quarters, and inheriting a horror of debt from his Scotch Presbyterian minister grandfather, he simply went without meals when he exhausted his limited funds.

But he won out and his success seemed assured half a dozen years later when Miss Kate Pope, who had come to apply for a teacher's position at Garden City, visited here. Mr. Morrison met her at a mid-week prayer meeting at the Baptist church and they were married on June 7, 1897. Many long-time acquaintances point to this as one of the happiest and most benevolent unions known, for both Mr. and Mrs. Morrison were devout Christian workers and were charter members of the East Fourth Baptist church. Never a man of more than substantial means, Mr. Morrison and his wife managed, nevertheless, to spare hundreds of dollars during his lifetime to worthy causes. So unostentatiously was this done that few people know of his modest but steady philanthropies.

Not only was he dean of the Big Spring bar, but Mr. Morrison was, beyond a doubt, the most highly regarded member of it. Colleagues and opponents alike hailed him as a "good and meticulous attorney and an honest man." In his later years, as his strength gradually failed, he was accorded almost reverent courtesy when he came into court to practice.

K-P Dignitaries Will Visit Here

Two well-known dignitaries of the Knights of Pythias will pay official visits to the Frontier Lodge No. 43 here Tuesday night, it was announced Saturday.

W. C. Ross, Sr., Grand Chancellor of Texas is due to be here for a meeting beginning at 7:30 p. m. at the lodge hall, located at 1407 Lancaster street.

The Texas Grand Chancellor will be accompanied by Raleigh W. Petteway, Past Grand Chancellor of Florida. Petteway, a Miami, Fla. attorney, also has served that state as Supreme Representative to the Supreme Lodge, and is recognized as an outstanding speaker and energetic worker for the Knights of Pythias.

All members of the local lodge have been urged to attend the Tuesday night session.

Morrison

Morrison, Quittman; J. W. Morrison, Palestine; Walter Morrison, Elkhart; several nephews and nieces.

Mr. Morrison had a remarkable record of activity in this community. He had served as special judge on numerous occasions; was for many years a school board member; was county democratic chairman for a long tenure; held life membership in the Masonic lodge; helped organize the East Fourth Baptist church and taught a Bible class there for almost half a century.

Stephen Hugh Morrison came to devote himself wholly to practice of law for a livelihood. He was rebuked by Judge George Walthall, presiding over the old 32nd district court, for thinking he could earn a living without engaging in real estate and assorted sidelines.

Although there were times when he may have reflected on the wisdom of Judge Walthall, Mr. Morrison lived to donate thousands of dollars to missions and benevolences—and all of it out of the earnings of his practice.

Born in a one-room log house in Wood county Jan. 27, 1858, Mr. Morrison learned to love the law from his father, who served part-time as a justice of peace for the good he could do rather than for fees. He patched up differences of litigants and settled matters out of court more often than not.

Carr Opening Is Attended By Hundreds

Hundreds of visitors were welcomed Saturday at the formal opening of the Carr Bros. Grocery and Market, 2000 West Third street. Formerly operated as the Lakeview Grocery No. 1, the establishment has been purchased by Bryan and Dalton Carr, who are now operating the store under their own name. They purchased the store from Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mitchell, who operated under the Lakeview name for several years.

Both new owners have lived in Big Spring for some time, and Bryan Carr was associated with the Lakeview No. 1 store from 1943 until he joined his brother in purchasing the firm.

The new owners said late Saturday that they were deeply appreciative of the public response to their formal opening event and that they planned standing policy of courteous service, attractive prices and quality merchandise. Both of the new owners are veterans of World War II.

New Street Lights Will Be Erected

Twelve locations for new street lights have been selected in the northwest part of town, City Manager H. W. Whitney reported Saturday. The lights will be erected as soon as possible.

Wesley Pearce was certificated for instrument flying last week after being given his check by Emmerson Carpenter.

Jack Cook, Muny manager, and W. E. (Pete) Anderson made a duck survey Friday afternoon, spotting thousands of ducks on lakes west of town. Saturday morning they were up bright and early and after the ducks, which incidentally must have heard of the junket. Anyhow, Cook and Anderson returned empty-handed.

The CAA has approved preliminary plans for the city's new airport terminal. Puckett & French, Big Spring, are preparing the working plans and specifications and upon their approval by CAA, bids can be asked.

The CAB examiner, Curtis C. Henderson, last week recommended the certification of Continental Air Lines for an intermediate stop at Pecos on the Carlsbad-Hobbs, N. M. run. Trans-Texas and Pioneer also had filed to offer Pecos service.

High winds up to 45 mph, with gusts, dislodged two PT-12 (Steermans) tied down at the port last week, damaging them substantially. One took off as though taxiing down the runway.

J. D. Church, CAA district airport engineer, took off Saturday noon a week ago for Ontario, Calif. for a visit, spent a day there and returned here 5:30 p. m. Sunday. Total cost of the trip to him was less than $20.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Ward took off Saturday in their Navion for Akron, Colo. to attend the funeral of his grandmother.

Several local fliers are due to hop to Odessa today for its airport celebration, among them J. J. Jackson, CAA district representative, and Eric Huddleston, CAA control tower. Herb Page, acrobatic flier who is to perform in Odessa, brought his "world's smallest airport" to the Muny during the week. It is a Mercury, topped by a platform on which a plane lands at 75 mph.

A precursory check on finances of the Howard County Fair association indicates that it will emerge from its first—and successful—showing, with a modest profit which will enable it to plan a bigger and better show for next year.

The oil celebration at Vealmoor last week proved to be a nice affair and one appreciated by the Seaboard Oil Corp. officials and employees. Oil company development is too often taken for granted. Vealmoor women did themselves proud in the heaping array of cakes and pies furnished for the event.

Out in Arizona a scientist has forecast possible complications from laughing gas in stratospheric flying. Perhaps that means if living costs go one notch higher it will be a laughing matter.

Accidents enroute to and during hunting expeditions seem to abound this year. One Stanton man (Henry Houston) was fatally injured in a car mishap on the way to a hunting camp and others were injured. Two Big Spring men were severely injured while returning home.

When commissioners counted the number of votes polled in the Nov. 2 general election last week, they found that 5,235 names were on poll lists. More than 5,000 voted in the governor's race, making this easily the best general election turnout.

Frank Grandstaff, the versatile Tennessee prison inmate who wrote the cantata, "Big Spring," is at it again. Recently he had Shine Phillips, who had befriended him, to apply for a patent on a ball-point show-card pen set. This week he sent Phillips two musical scores, one a "Sandstorm Rhapsody," a rather difficult piece, and the other a capricious number, "Nancy."

Desk sergeants at the city police station would like the public to remember city offices close at noon Saturdays. So many calls clog the lines after lunch that it is difficult to get emergency calls through.

Completes Course

Dr. J. M. Woodall has returned from New York City where he has been taking a four-weeks postgraduate course in clinical pediatrics.

No News Is Good News In Grading

No news will be good news for parents of students in Howard County Junior College.

E. C. Dodd, president, said Saturday that when grades go out this week only those on the borderline or with unsatisfactory work will be notified.

Thus, parents will know if they do not receive grade notification that the work of their children is entirely satisfactory.

Notification will be sent in the case of those who may be making passing grades but not doing the sort of work of which they are capable, said Dodd. A letter explaining the new system will accompany the grades.

The change in grade notification is being made in an attempt to remove restriction of effort to merely attain certain grade levels. The new plan puts the student against not only grades but his or her capabilities.

Texas Comes From Behind To Turn Back Frogs, 14-7

Borneman, Clay Are Standouts

FT. WORTH, Nov. 13. (U-P)—Texas' bruising power paid off with two quick touchdowns in the third quarter and the Longhorns plugged their leaky pass defense enough to dump Texas Christian University, 14-7, here today.

The pin-point passing of Lindy Berry sent Texas Christian into a second quarter lead, but big Ray Borneman and Randall Clay tore the middle of the Horned Frog line to bits in the second half.

On the third play of the third quarter, Borneman broke through the center of Texas Christian's line and squirmed and twisted his way 80 yards to a touchdown.

Within six minutes the Steers struck again. Byron Gillory clinched a 64-yard drive with a wide end sweep that ate up the needed two yards for the touchdown that beat the Frogs. It was the Frogs' fourth straight defeat in their home stadium this year.

Berry engineered a 53-yard drive for Texas Christian in the second period and big Pete Stout finished it up with a nine-yard jump to score.

Clay kicked both extra points for Texas and Homer Ludiker made good on the only opportunity the Horned Frogs had.

A fearsome display of passing completely bewildered Texas in the first half. Berry missed on his first aerial, but connected on the next nine attempts.

Texas held for downs on its 16-yard line and again on its 27-yard line in the first quarter. It staged its first big offensive march of the game immediately after the Horned Frogs' touchdown.

Paul Campbell mixed in two passes with ten punting plays, mostly by Borneman on that drive, as the Longhorns moved 80 yards to the Texas Christian one yard line. The Horned Frog line then held, but couldn't keep up the race.

Berry completed 15 of 29 attempted passes to account for 189 of the 204 yards the Horned Frogs gained in the air.

Texas stuck to the ground for 215 yards, attempting only 10 passes and completing four for 74 yards.

Sooners Gain 41-14 Decision

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 13. (U-P)—After penalties and fumbles kept them scoreless the first 25 minutes, Oklahoma bowled over Nebraska 41-14 here today in a Big Seven Conference football game.

The victory before 25,000 spectators was Oklahoma's seventh straight of the season and fourth in the conference. A triumph over Kansas next week would give Oklahoma the championship.

Nebraska made the game's first score with 4 1/2 minutes gone in the second quarter on a 49-yard pass play. Frank Collopy unlimbered a 37-yard pass to Howard Fletcher, who ran the rest of the way to the goal.

The Cornhuskers' final tally was at the start of the fourth quarter when Ralph Damkroger snatched a fumble out of the air and scooted untouched 42 yards. Jerry Moore made both extra point kicks.

Oklahoma rang up three touchdowns in the last 4 1/2 minutes of the second quarter and then closed out with three more in the third quarter as Coach Bud Wilkinson cleaned his bench.

Six different Sooners made touchdowns, but Oklahoma's flashy left half, Darrel Royal, pitched to two besides scoring himself. The other scorers were George (Junior) Thomas, Jack Mitchell, Frankie Anderson, Lindell Pearson and George Brewer. Leslie King sent five of six extra point kicks true.

ONE POINT EDGE

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13. (U-P)—Western Michigan shaded Miami University of Oxford, O., defending champ, by one point, 40-41, today in the Mid-American Conference cross-country title.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

The local polo team, Dr. M. H. Bennett's pride and joy, should have won the consolation round of the high-goal tournament at Fort Bliss last week without a playoff. . . . A title game with Lamesa was arranged despite the fact that the Dawson county team drew a first round bye. . . . Big Spring gained a second round forfeit when San Antonio withdrew. . . . Dr. S. Williams, who replaced Bennett in the lineup when the local man had to return home, suffered bruises when he fell twice last Wednesday but is due to be back in the saddle shortly. . . . J. B. Neeley, the former Big Spring coach now with the Veterans' Administration, was down from Lubbock the past week. . . . The first thing he asked about was the lot of 'his boys,' Cecil Gilstrap and Gerald Burrow, now with the San Angelo Junior college grid eleven. . . . Neeley had the talented pair on the Steer B team last fall. . . . Bud Wilkerson, the Oklahoma grid coach, lists among the reasons his Sooners lost to Santa Clara, (1) The Sooners scored too easily to begin with, (2) The Sooners were disheartened by the small turnout of 3,500, and (3) Jack Mitchell played at half instead of at quarter. . . . Roy Easterwood, an old baseball catcher, may manage Lamesa in the WT-NM league next season. . . . Red Cowley, who played regularly for San Angelo last baseball season, tried out here in 1938 but couldn't hit. . . . Dory Detton, the Amarillo wrestling impresario, is said to be tiffing with San Angelo and Abilene promoters, who want to bring women grapplers into their clubs. . . . Dory says he'll stop all male tiffers from appearing in those towns.

Herd Guards, Tackles Real Iron-Men

Many local fans are hoping Odessa will book Sul Ross as part of its Permian Bowl football game New Year's Day, since two local boys (Hal Battle and Frank Barton) are on the Lobo team. . . . The Alpine school, by the way, is one of three teams in the country owning nine victories and no defeats. . . . The others: Bloomsburg, Pa., and University of California. . . . Midland's Bulldogs ran off four different formations in the Big Spring and most other games this season. . . . The guards and the tackles of Our Town's Steers have worked without relief since the Brownfield game in mid-October. . . . In fact, only 15 boys have been available for action the past three games. . . . Billy Cunningham, the big Steer guard who has another season of eligibility with the Stocktons, is married. . . . He's one of the few benedicts in recent Steer football history. . . . Married life must be agreeing with the red-head. . . . He weighed about 187 at the beginning of the season, it is up to 199 now. . . . Fred Herrington, the reserve Longhorn end, plans on attending Texas Christian university next fall. . . . Carol Cannon, due to play a lot of football for Stockton next fall, may have his appendix taken out immediately after the season is over. . . . His side has been giving him trouble for some time now. . . . All boxing divisions of weight now have champions within the state. . . . They are: Heavy and Light-heavy, Dolf Quijano; Middle, Jimmy Curli; Welter, Bert Linam; Light, Gordon House; Feather, Lauro Salas; Bantam, Hector Marquez; Fly, Pablo Zamora.

Texans Prominent in Longhorn Zep

Of the 275 players who saw action in the Longhorn baseball league last season, no less than 98 were Texans. . . . The league hopes to function with even more native-born sons in 1949. . . . Ballinger's Cats employed the most Lone Star State lads last season, 22 being with the club at one time or another. . . . Big Spring also had the smallest turnout. Spring had only two: Manager Pat Stasey and Jake McClain. . . . Big over in personnel. . . . Only 24 boys were used here during the 140 games. . . . The Del Rio management looked at no less than 50 athletes. . . . Stasey's real first handles are

Frank Herschel. . . . Actual first name of Gumbo Helba, the pitcher, incidentally, is Gomersindo. . . . A league which will campaign to pare expenses in 1949 is the Lone Star (Class C) circuit in East Texas. . . . The organization operated with a $3,400 salary limit in 1948 ($800 more than the Longhorn loop) and not many teams stayed within the boundary. . . . Horsemen are expecting a new track record when "Peter Pan" and "Red Bird" get together at the Sheriff's Posse grounds here this afternoon. . . . The quarter-horses are supposed to be the best in this part of the country.

UNION BOBCATS WIN DISTRICT 4 TITLE

FLOWER GROVE, Nov. 13. (U-P)—A sensational 65 yard run by Billy Joe Lambright, coming in the last two minutes of play on a kickoff, enabled the Union Bobcats to defeat the Flower Grove Dragons, 12-6, here Friday afternoon.

The victory clinched the District Four six-man football championship for the Cats, although the Dawson county team has another game to play with Klondike.

Lambright took Don Butler's kickoff, hit straight down the middle and almost fell as he was hit hard in mid-field. However, he kept his footing and sprinted to the goal. Flower Grove tied the score in the waning moments when Jack Murphy plunged over from the two-yard stripe, climaxing a drive that started out around the midfield stripe.

Murphy himself broke loose in the third quarter but stumbled and tell. Union had one touchdown called back due to unnecessary roughness.

The Bobcats led at all-time, 6-0, by virtue of a second quarter rally. The champions will meet Forsan, District Seven titlist, the Friday after Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 26).

Gavilan Looks To Title Bout

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. (U-P)—Kid Gavilan, flashy Cuban contender, will leave for Havana in a day or two with the hope that upon his return in January it will be to meet Welterweight Champion Ray Robinson in a title bout.

Gavilan, who won a decisive, unanimous 10-round decision over tough Tony Pelonne of New York in Madison Square Garden Friday night, is very anxious to meet The Sugar Man for the 147 pound crown. Pelonne, scaling 146 1/2, made last night's scrap interesting in the first three and last four rounds. He was slowed up, however, in the fourth by Gavilan, and blew that, the fifth and sixth which just about cost him the fight as he appeared tired. He got his pep back in the seventh, but it was too late. Gavilan weighed 147.

Wildcats Outlast Courtney, 12-6

WATER VALLEY, Nov. 13. (U-P)—Water Valley's Wildcats edged the Courtney Eagles, 12-6, in a six-man football game played here Friday afternoon. The victory secured fourth place in District Seven standings for the Cats.

Only Forsan, with a record of six wins and no losses, Mertzon and Sterling City, finished ahead of the Felines.

Buckeyes Crush Illini In Late Rush, 34 To 7

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 13. (U-P)—Rampaging Ohio State, lone obstacle between Michigan and an undefeated season, today plastered its worst defeat on favored Illinois, 34-7, and kept the Buckeyes' faint Rose Bowl hopes alive.

The super-charged Buckeyes, who close their Big Nine campaign against Michigan next Saturday, pulverized the Illini with grinding land power and opportune passing.

An Illini homecoming throng of 65,732 saw the Bucks methodically fashion a 13-7 lead through three quarters and then explode for three last period touchdowns.

The Bucks struck for a 13-0 three-quarters lead on Pandel Savic's 10-yard payoff pass to Jerry Krall in the first period and Krall's 10-yard end sweep early in the third period.

Illinois showed its teeth for the first and only time in the third period when Bernie Krueger hit End Walt Kersulis on a 17-yard touchdown pass, trimming Ohio's lead to 13-7.

But the determined Buckeyes, growing stronger all the way, made three last period touchdowns.

First, Krall pitched a 5-yard touchdown toss to Back Alex Verdova. Then Bucky Wertz, third string quarterback, flipped a 39-yard pass to Jim Hague on Ohio's five and burly Whisler banged over from that point.

The fifth Ohio State touchdown came on an unscheduled play. Sub Fullback Curly Morrison was back to punt, with fourth down 10 on Ohio's 45. Hard rushed, Morrison started to run and, behind a phalanx of blockers, easily scampered 55 yards for a touchdown.

Billies Explode Late To Win

KNOTT, Nov. 13.—In the most sensational football game ever seen on the Knott gridiron, the resident Billies turned back the Klondike Cougars, 28-24, here Friday night. The contest was a District Four six-man struggle.

Trailing, 24-7, going into the last period, the Billies came to life with a surge but it wasn't until the last 30 seconds that Joe Beall hit Gerald Cockrell with a 20-yard gainer that swung the outcome.

Landon Burchell tallied two touchdowns and a field goal in the last period while Murphy Daniels accounted for Knott's other six points.

Klondike led, 6-0, at the end of the first period and Coach Travis Green's troops were out in front by a 12-7 county at half time.

The Billies close out their season with Ackerly next week.

Columbia Wins From Middies

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. (U-P)—Columbia snapped a four-game losing streak today with a 13-0 gridiron triumph over a Navy team that positively refused to cash in on numerous opportunities to put together its first victory of the season.

Led by Gene Rossides, the home club drove 52 and 71 yards for touchdowns midway in the game after turning period before a capacity crowd of 35,000 in alternating rain and sunshine at Baker field.

Only 12 seconds of the first half remained when Rossides ripped off a four-yard pass to End Bill Lockwood for the first Columbia marker after Bill Olson had intercepted a Navy pass on the Lion 48.

Two forwards by Rossides, who completed eight of his 11 heaves during the day, and a 13-yard toss from Johnny Nork to Lou Kusserow ate up most of the yardage.

Lockwood's 17-yard return of the second half kickoff started the Lions toward their second score.

Justerow and Rossides ripped off longer gains despite a driving rain and Kusserow circled right end for the final 16 yards and the touchdown.

Charley Klemovich kicked the extra point after the first touchdown but missed on the second.

BIG RED

Cornell Cops 27-26 Thriller

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 13. (U-P)—Bob Dean led Cornell to a rousing two-touchdown rally in the last quarter today to nip Dartmouth, 27-26, in a spine-tlinging Ivy League game that sent 30,000 spectators home talking to themselves.

Subbing at fullback for Jeff Fleischmann who was carried from the field with a broken ankle in the second period, Dean drove over from pointblank range, less than one foot out, to tie the game with two minutes and 40 seconds to go.

Green Wave Kayoes Baylor To Stay In Bowl Picture

Bruins Absorb Worst Beating

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 13. (U-P)—Tulane's Green Wave stayed in the bowl picture and just about knocked Baylor out of it here today by thoroughly trouncing the Bears 35-13.

About 45,000 persons saw Tulane run up its highest score of the season and that against one of the finest defensive clubs in the Southwest.

All Baylor had was the passing of Quarterback Adrian Burk, which engineered the Bear touchdowns but backfired on two interceptions which set up Tulane scores.

The Wave line completely outplayed the Texans, opening huge holes for Fullback Ed Price and Halfbacks George Kinek and Bill Svoboda. Meanwhile, Quarterback Joe Ernest passed on about even terms with Burk.

Price's hard running paced Tulane on a 71-yard drive to its first touchdown. He circled left end for the last 11 yards.

Baylor came right back for a 54-yard scoring march on Burk's passing. He threw five yards to Harold Riley for the touchdown.

The Wave surged 66 yards to another touchdown, made on Ernest's 21-yard pass to Kinek on fourth down with 15 seconds remaining in the half.

A three-period punt exchange worked the ball to the Baylor 34 where Ernest sparked another score. Svoboda crashed right guard for the final foot.

Again Baylor brought the kickoff back for a scoring march on Burk's passing. This time 72 yards.

Jasper Flankin took a toss from Burk and slipped away from Tulane tacklers to go the last 27.

Tulane intercepted three Burk passes in the final period and turned two of them into touchdowns. Price went one yard around right end for the first six points, and his brother-in-law, Ray Pratts, went six in the same direction for the next.

The net rushing yardage, 292 for Tulane and 39 for Baylor, about expressed the superiority of the Wave's line play. Tulane completed nine passes in 14 attempts for 102 yards, and Baylor made 14 out of 24 good for 129.

BUFFS AHEAD

Loop Activity Is Terminated

FORSAN, Nov. 13. (U-P)—Forsan's Buffaloes, who succeeded Sterling City as champions of the 7 six-man football district, come down to their bi-district championship game with Union with nothing but victories in their eight-game record.

Many observers who have watched the abbreviated sport in West Texas for years insist the Bisons have the top team of them all. The South Howard County School has speed to burn, a good line, a fine passing attack and fine reserves.

The Forsan offense is built around Wayne Huestis, Elton Prater and Dan Fairchild and all can get places in a hurry.

In addition to six conference victories, the Buffs punched out wins over Southland (19-0) and Grandfalls (36-28). Coach Frank Honeycutt's team averaged better than 55 points a game.

They scored an aggregate of 441 points to 85 for the opposition.

Conference play closed this week-end with Sterling City smothering Garden City Thursday, 80-30, and Water Valley winning from Courtney on Friday, 12-6.

Final standings:

Purdue Upset By Pittsburgh

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 13. (U-P)—Pittsburgh's Panthers shook loose Jimmy Joe Robinson for a 100-yard touchdown run and scored two others with short rushes today in a 20-13 victory over the Purdue Boilermakers.

Purdue had a big margin in the statistics but lost the ball four times on fumbles and twice was held for downs on the Pitt nine-yard stripe.

Pitt's Lou Cecconi returned a Purdue punt 40 yards to set up a one-yard scoring plunge by Fullback Carl DePasqua in the early minutes of the game.

Harry Sulborski of Purdue, leading rusher in the Western Conference, made a 56-yard, S-shaped touchdown run in the second quarter. Robinson took the following kickoff on his goal line and zigzagged the length of the field.

A blocked Purdue punt set up an eight-yard scoring run by Robinson in the fourth quarter.

Purdue scored with 40 seconds to go on an 80-yard punt return. Bob Hartman catching the kick on his 20 and handing it to Kenny Gorgal for the rest of the trip.

SCORE EARLY AND OFTEN

Bulldogs Rout Big Spring Longhorn Eleven, 37 To 0

MIDLAND, Nov. 13.—A big, bruising Midland football eleven, boasting senior veterans at almost every post, toyed with the Big Spring Steers on the way to a 37-0 victory over Coach Mule Stockton's game but outclassed troops here Friday night.

The triumph was the second for Big Spring.

Price breezed for 30 paces early in the second for the next Midland score. The Bulldogs found it very easy to move on the ground after gaining possession on their own 44. The Big Spring attack caught fire briefly after that outbreak but the rally was short lived. Davis powered a drive to the Midland 44 from which point Jennings flipped a pass at Cui Grigsby down field. Grigsby didn't quite make connections but he relayed it on to Cleonne Russell who nabbed the pigskin and roared across. The eagle-eyed officials, however, brought the ball back to the original spot because there's legislation against such things.

Big Spring opened up with another attack after the half and seemed bent on collecting at least one touchdown but an interception chilled them for good. Jennings threw out in the flat on the Midland 25 and huge Dan Brannan, a tackle, grabbed it out on the zone and outspurred Davis and the others to the pay window.

Early in the fourth, Price—that eternal thorn-in-the-side—broke off tackle and cruised 65 yards to the end zone to make it 30-0. Gene Heji booted the point, the first successful one of the evening.

Coach Fouts Milam of the home forces flooded the game with subs and that appeared to be the end of the scoring spree but Larry Buckingham later broke loose from proved to be a busy evening when he took a hand-off from Cecil Stephens and galloped 42 yards into the end zones in the first 4 1/2 minutes of play.

Big Bill Little ground over from the ten shortly before the end of the first quarter for Midland's second tally. The drive went 83 yards. That particular offensive required eight plays.

Practically every man on the Bulldog bench saw action. Coach Stockton of the Big Spring had to use his meagre forces sparingly. Most of the hands went all the way.

Aubrey Armstead was a bearcat on defense for Big Spring along with Davis.

SMU Scores On Last Play To Win, 14-12

Page Catches 16-Yard Pass

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Nov. 13. — Southern Methodist University's Mustangs scored on the last play of the game to defeat the Arkansas Razorbacks 14 to 12 here today.

An Arkansas homecoming crowd of 22,000 watched Halfback Paul Page snag a 16-yard pass from Quarterback Johnson and fall into the end zone as the final gun sounded to end a seemingly certain defeat into victory.

The win was the Mustangs' fourth against no losses in their bid for a second straight Southwest Conference title.

An expected duel between SMU's Doak Walker and Arkansas' Clyde Scott failed to materialize. Scott was carried from the field with a knee injury in the first quarter. Walker carried the ball seven times but wound up with a new ten yards lost. His two place kicks, however, produced the points that spelled the difference.

Scott netted 31 yards on the five times he carried before leaving the game. Arkansas was hurt seriously by 14 penalties for 121 yards.

The Razorbacks scored in the first period when Fullback Leon Campbell, punted over from the 60-yard line, culminating in a 60-yard drive that started with a 19-yard punt return by Scott.

They made it 13-0 in the third quarter as Campbell broke through the left side and ran 68 yards for a touchdown. Campbell cleared his last obstacle by stiff-arming Walker out of the way on the Mustang 30.

The usually reliable Jim Reichert was wide on his first try for point and his second kick was blocked.

SMU marched back 80 yards for its first tally. Frank Payne, Gene Roberts and Dick McKissock accounted for most of the yardage and Kyle Rote dived over from a yard away.

After stopping a Razorback drive on the SMU 11, in the waning minutes, the Mustangs started rolling from their own 16. Rote's 55-yard dash and passes from Johnson to Rote, Walker and Payne carried the Mustangs to the Arkansas 21.

An offside penalty gave the Mustangs the ball on the 16 and nullified a pass interception by Arkansas' Alvin Duke. Johnson passed to John Milam, but the big end caught the ball out of the end zone. Then, with good protection, Johnson faded far back and pitched to Page who made the catch with his back to the goal.

Peter Pan Goes Against Champ

A race between the proud "Red Bird" Roy Foreman's Lamona all-winning thoroughbred, and the three-year-old speedster, "Peter Pan," is due to pack 'em in at the Sheriff's Posse grounds here this afternoon.

Peter Pan has won 31 of 35 races in his brief span of years. A win over the Foreman sprinter would put him at the top of the heap among quarter horses here. The two will go at two furlongs. Post time is 4 o'clock.

Coahoma 'Dogs Bowl Over Bronte Eleven, 27-14

COAHOMA, Nov. 13. — Wendell Shive and Bobby Cathey scored two touchdowns each as Coahoma trounced the Bronte Longhorns, 27-14, in a District 9B football game here Friday night.

The Coahomans dominated play throughout.

Shive galloped ten yards around end for the first Coahoma touchdown and Cathey added the point on a plunge.

Later in the period, Cathey broke loose on a 40-yard run for a TD and Johnston Hall furnished the extra point.

In the second canto, Shive went off tackle from the nine yard line for a score and Bruce Lindsey scored the point on a quarterback sneak.

In the third, it was Cathey again from the eight for a score.

Gerald Sandusky broke the scoring ice for Bronte in the initial period on a pass play that carried 70 yards. Bill Westbrook scored the point on a plunge.

In the fourth, another pass to Sandusky scored from three yards out and Westbrook again added the point.

Jackie Wolf, Maurice Duncan and Edwin Dickson stood out on defense for Coahoma while Lindsey, Cathey and Shive were all impressive in the backfield.

The Coahomans close their season's play here Friday night in a game with Robert Lee.

Deer Hunters Coming And Going As One Season Ends, Another Gets Underway

Deer nimrods will be in their glory from Tuesday until the season winds up on Dec. 31. As long as they stay in the country designated as "east of the Pecos," they can hunt as long as they want—until they bag their season's limit of two white-tail deer.

The season on black-tail deer ended "west of the Pecos" on Armistice Day.

Ammunition in most calibers was plentiful, perhaps more so than at any time since the war. Such grades as 30.06 were still short but generally the hunter could have what he wanted. New guns were very much in evidence too.

Some of the local sportsmen stole the march on the Texas season and went in quest of game in the New Mexico mountains. Ted Phillips and J. D. Jones in one party and Kyle Gray and Clyde Winans in another were due in Saturday night, with either their game, their tail tales or both.

Bob Wolf led a party into the wilds of New Mexico several days ago that bagged its limit in deer.

R. C. Lomax and Arthur Stallings returned from the hunting regions on the other side of the Pecos with the limit in deer. They bagged them the first day of the season.

A party consisting of Dewey Martin, T. B. Atkins, Carl Hammond, Boone Horne and Lester Newton are to leave Monday for Mason where they will set up camp for a bright-and-early start Tuesday.

Fifteen persons make up the group that goes to Llano this week-end. That would include Luke LeBlau, Don Bohannon, Jack Roden, Jack Smith, V. A. Merrick, Jim Hartley, Grover Dunham of Dallas, W. E. Ramsey, Wayne Laswell, C. L. "Curley" Rowe, Harry Stalcup, Shirley Robbins, Carl Blomshild and a couple of out-of-town men.

D. D. Douglass and Fred Hyer returned from an expedition a couple of days ago that carried them into Oklahoma and New Mexico. Douglass reportedly bagged a 10-point buck.

Robert Reed has returned from a trip to the Davis mountains when he bagged two bucks on a seven-day excursion while Jake Hancock took off last Tuesday for New Mexico with a group of Abilene hunters.

Everything was pronounced ready in the Dr. G. T. Hall camp, who ordinarily has from a dozen to 20 men from several Texas cities with him.

Six members of the Thomas clan were to leave for Mason and the hunting recesses Monday. They include L. H., Fred, R. C., R. V., Stewart and Coy Thomas.

Duck season opened up Friday and extends through Nov. 26. Ducks were reported plentiful in some sections but duck stamps were at a premium here. Bag limit of the featured creatures was five a day.

Ducks were reported thicker on the coast than at any time in recent years.

IN HITTING

Stasey, Broncs Dominate Loop

Big Spring's baseball Broncs failed to win the Longhorn league championship after finishing in first place in the standing for the second year in a row but the locals hogged the batting laurels, according to official records released by Official Statistician Bill Weiss last week.

Pat Stasey, Big Spring's outfielder-manager, finished strong to top the individual batting crown with a .389 mark. He succeeded Jim Prince of Midland, minor league ace leader in 1947, who finished in sixth place among regular hitters the past season.

Bobby Fernandez, Big Spring, was out front in total hits with 203. He was the only man to collect more than 200 during the campaign.

Big Spring captured the team batting crown with a mark of .284, four percentage points better than second-place Odessa. The Broncs led in total hits with 1461, total runs scored with 942 and doubles with 246. They also tied Ballinger in stolen bases with 177.

Trudell Teams Up With Rod Fenton Monday

Benny Trudell, the bearded giant from Canada, returns to the Big Spring Athletic Club Monday night in the role which shows him to best advantage—that of part of a villainous team in an Australian tag match.

His partner in this instance will be Rod Fenton, like Trudell a Canadian and like Trudell a black-hearted ruffian. The two are big and tough. What's more, what dastardly tricks they don't employ in the arena haven't been perfected yet.

Still and all, the two are in for a hard time. They will be opposed by Dick Trout and Dory Funk of San Diego, Calif., and Hammond, Indiana, respectively.

Trout is a favorite of long standing here. Funk won quite a following last week by slipping the mickey to Al Getz, who, incidentally, will fill in as arbiter in this week's matches.

Trout and Funk ought to make a fine combination. Trout is potent while doing a solo. Trudell and Fenton had best be ready for anything, if Funk is in the mood to co-operate.

Two 20-minute preliminary matches will lead up to the main event. The show gets started around 8:15 p. m. Scene of action is the Pat O'Dowdy Sportatorium on East Third street.

Rice Owls Ambush Texas Aggies In Mud Battle

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 13. (AP) — The Rice Owls ground Texas A&M into its ninth straight defeat of the season today, cashing in on three fumbles and an intercepted pass for a 28-6 mud-caked triumph.

The vicious Rice ground game swept up a 21-0 margin in the first half and the Aggies never could get their offense to clicking consistently although having the better of it in the final periods. A blocked kick gave A&M its score.

Despite intermittent rain that turned the field into hog wallows, a crowd of 25,000 watched the blue-clad Rice legions hammer virtual-clad Rice through the Aggie line and throttle a Cadet passing attack that almost beat Southwest Conference-Leading Southern Methodist last week.

The loss today was the 12th straight for the hapless Aggies. They dropped their last three in the 1947 season.

The Owl ground attack gashed the Aggie line for 211 yards while A&M could get only 66 through the bruising Rice wall. In the air A&M led with six completions out of 17 attempts for 51 yards. Rice got 40 yards on two connections in six.

Rice jumped out to a two-touchdown lead in the first period. The initial counter came after Bob Goode, who was the "goat" today for A&M, fumbled on the Aggie 38 on the opening play from scrimmage. In eight plays Rice had the touchdown and Bobby Lantrip battered to the five and on fourth down Kenney shot through right tackle for the score. Jim (Froggie) Williams converted.

The ensuing Rice kick-off hit Marion Settergast and bounded off to the Aggie 47-yard line, where Kenney fell on the ball.

Kelly, Lantrip and Kenney methodically battered to the Aggie 25 where a five-yard backfield in motion penalty halted the drive only temporarily. Tobin Rote passed over the goal line to Williams for the score. Williams again kicked the extra point.

Goode fumbled a punt early in the second period and Gerald West, who was the "goat" today for the Aggie 17, Kelly ramed the line twice to put the ball on the four. A 5-yard penalty moved it out but Gordon (Sonny) Wyatt rushed left guard to move to the six and Kelly cried left end for a touchdown. Williams planted the ball between the crossbars.

Late in the fourth period a recovered fumble gave the Aggies the ball on the Rice 23 but they couldn't move and surrendered the oval on the 16. Andy Hillhouse blocked Wyatt's punt, picked up the ball on the 13 and ran across for the Aggie score. Herb Turley missed the conversion.

Russia Gets Tough On Berlin Question

BERLIN, Nov. 13. (AP) — The official Soviet press here said today any new attempts to solve the Berlin blockade crisis in the United Nations could be successful only on terms already laid down by the Russians.

The Soviet mouthpiece, Tagliche Rundschau, discussing reported new compromise efforts at Paris, declared the Russian attitude was well-known and unchanged.

Adm. Stanley Sees No Immediate War

MANILA, Nov. 13. (AP) — Adm. William H. Standley, U. S. war-time ambassador to Russia, said in an interview today he felt "there was no immediate threat of war because Russia is not prepared." The admiral, on a business trip, said he had an opportunity to travel freely in Russia and "from what I know of them, Russian agriculture and industry have not been sufficiently geared for immediate war."

Griffis To Parid

CAIRO, Nov. 13. (AP) — U. S. Ambassador Stanton Griffis arranged to leave Cairo today for Paris and Washington in response to what he said was a summons for consultations with State Department officials.

Gilmer-Aiken Proposals Are Reviewed Here

"Education in Texas will cost more than ever before," said Walker Bailey, county superintendent of public schools, in his address to the American Business club in Hotel Crawford Friday noon.

Bailey reviewed the Gilmer-Aiken committee's proposal on the Texas public school educational bill to be put before the 50th Texas state legislature. Proposals include (1) The state guarantees 12 years of public schooling to all children from the ages of six through 18, (2) The committee promises continuous vocational education to all school pupils (3) One competent teacher for every 25 students (4) No classroom containing more than 25 students (5) One superintendent for 50 or more school teachers and (6) A minimum salary of $2400 per year.

Bailey stated that the Gilmer-Aiken committee proposed that the money for these points on education be raised by each district, which is self-supporting to the extent of one-fifth of the money needed. The state guarantees to provide the minimum amount of school services required.

Howard Salisbury made announcement that the local ABC club will be responsible for the program in Odessa Wednesday.

Garner McAdams was introduced as a new member and Jimmy Johnson was welcomed as a guest.

Kitty Hawk Will Return To U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (AP) — The rickety little airplane which made the world's first successful passenger flight will return home to America aboard a majestic U. S. aircraft carrier.

The Wright Brothers' historic "Kitty Hawk" will be carried on the last leg of its trip from England by the carrier Palau, the navy announced.

Originally scheduled to arrive in New York yesterday aboard the liner Mauretania, the plane was sidetracked to Halifax when the British ship put in there to avoid the dock workers' strike along the United States East Coast.

The Palau will leave the Nova Scotia port on Nov. 17. On its arrival in New York, the "Kitty Hawk" will be loaded aboard Navy vans and transported here to take the top honor position in the Smithsonian Institution.

Texas Delegation Will Be Honored By Demos Nov. 20

DALLAS, Nov. 13. (AP) — Loyal Democrats will gather here Nov. 20 for a dinner honoring the Texas delegation in the new congress. Harry L. Seay, chairman of arrangements of the dinner, said speakers will include Rep. Sam Rayburn, Sen. Tom Connally, Senator-elect Lyndon Johnson and Attorney General Tom Clark.

Commodity Drop Noted In Survey

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. (AP) — The Associated Press index of 35 wholesale commodities declined to 179.14 this week from 179.45 a week earlier and 199.55 a year ago.

In the index, the base year 1926 equals 100. The only individual component of the index to decline this week was livestock, which fell to 231.46 from 240.12 the previous week.

Still Striking

LAREDO, Nov. 13. (AP) — A strike of 25 union job printers, which went into effect Thursday at three firms here, still was in progress today. Pickets marched in front of the South Texas Citizen Commercial Printing Co., the W. S. Cantrell Co. and the Aldape Printing Co. The union demands a minimum wage scale of $60 weekly. Current wages are from $30 to $55 weekly.

Stock Market Finds Resting Place After Election Upset

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. (AP) — The stock market found a temporary resting place this week after a $6,500,000,000 post-election price crash.

That loss in the market value of all shares listed on the exchange occurred in three disastrous trading days. The most recent was last Tuesday when the general price level plunged to the lowest since late March. Since Tuesday prices leveled off, for the most part straying a point or less from the previous close.

In Saturday's short session gains outweighed losses and the price average showed a slight advance. Changes either way, though, were mostly fractional.

Major exceptions were American & Foreign Power $7 and $6 preferreds, each of which dropped to new lows for the year. The $7 issue lost 3/4 at 51 1/4 and the $6 was down 5/4 at 43 1/4.

The declines followed word that several stockholders had appealed a reorganization plan which had been approved by a federal district court.

Volume amounted to only 380,000 shares. The market started off the week on a steady footing. Some industrial stocks ran into heavy weather but by and large it was a pleasant change from the previous week's dive.

On Tuesday another battering ram hit the price list. Numerous new lows for the year were established and individual losses ranged from 1 to 5 points. It was the last selling thrust — for the week at least — by investors and speculators who didn't like the implications they unearthed in the Truman victory.

Selling came from all quarters, from the little investor and the big-time operator. Traders seemed to be taking their cues from announcements by a handful of administrator spokesmen who brought out into the open some of the latent fears created by the election results.

For instance: Housing Expediter Tighe Woods said he would ask the new Congress for tighter rent controls for at least another year.

Secretary of Labor Tobin called the Truman victory a clear-cut mandate for flat repeal of Taft-Hartley legislation.

On Wednesday the market dug in and held its ground in the face of heavy offerings. More than 2 million shares of stock were traded in the exchange but the price line barely bulged. Wall Street claimed that a calmer view was being taken of the political upset. After the Thursday recess the market slowed down and prices seasawed in a narrow range.

Non-Residential Awards Still High

AUSTIN, Nov. 13. (AP) — Non-residential building awards remained at a high level in Texas this week, accounting for $10,666,869 of the $15,890,188 total.

The Texas Contractor, weekly building trade journal, reported residential contracts totaling $2,861,332. Engineering awards reached $2,361,487.

Construction contracts for 1948 now stand at $813,905,229.

Lettings for homes costing less than $7,000 amounted to $1,667,250 for 221 units. Apartments providing 80 one-family units were placed under contracts totaling $500,000.

In the non-residential class, school building maintained a fast pace as contracts hit $3,418,040. Business buildings were next at $3,231,520.

Cotton Firm Asks Returns Of Funds

DALLAS, Nov. 13. (AP) — A cotton firm has filed suit to recover $16,000 taken by the government under the alien property law.

In the suit filed in federal court Friday J. Kahn & Co. asked recovery of the money which it said was credited erroneously to Ashai Menka Schokot, an Osaka, Japan, cotton merchant after cotton deals in 1941 were not completed.

MANILA, Nov. 13. (AP) — Twenty Huk guerrillas were reported killed in a Philippine constabulary attack on two Huk concentrations Friday.

HE'LL DO OKAY IF MONEY LASTS

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 13. (AP) — Cuban Sugar Magnate Jose Gasch Friday stepped off the liner Mauretania, diverted from New York because of the longshoremen's strike, and wanted to get to New York in a hurry. His limousine was aboard the ship, his chauffeur in New York and the senator can't drive. So he is en route to New York in a taxi. Driver Ralph Heisler took the job at $20 a day plus expenses.

Man, Wife Face Charge Of Having Concealed Weapons

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 13. (AP) — A distinguished looking man and his pretty brunette wife faced further police action today after their arrest yesterday and the confiscation of a large collection of guns, furs, jewelry and cameras. The pair, who identified themselves to police as John Frederick Weaver, 31, Jacksonville, Fla., and his wife, Florice, 28, were to be arraigned today on charges of possession of concealed weapons and bringing stolen goods into New Jersey.

ITU Purge Ordered By Monday Deadline

CHICAGO, Nov. 13. (AP) — The AFL International Typographical Union, striking against 49 newspapers in 29 cities in the United States, Canada, and Alaska, has been given until midnight Monday to purge itself and four top officers of contempt charges.

Federal Judge Luther M. Swygert found the union guilty of evading his March 27 injunction against Taft-Hartley law violations. He held that the union was seeking to maintain closed shop conditions in negotiations with newspaper publishers.

The union appealed the contempt convictions but lost in the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals. The higher court Wednesday cancelled a stay it had granted previously and ordered Judge Swygert's contempt order reinstated.

In fixing the deadline for compliance with his injunction, Judge

Swygert directed the union's officials to show proof by Monday that they are carrying out terms of the order. Unless sworn statements to that effect are filed before the deadline, the officers must appear before the court Nov. 18.

The widespread strikes against newspaper publishers in the United States began Nov. 20, 1945, in St. Petersburg, Fla. Those against publishers in Canada began Nov. 8, 1945.

The work stoppages became nationwide in the United States in 1946 and 1947, involving 28 newspapers. In Canada the number of publications affected increased to seven. Another 14 newspapers in the United States, and one in Alaska, were struck by the printers this year.

The work stoppages resulted from disputes between the publishers and the union over wages, working conditions and contract forms. In the United States, the Taft-Hartley Law, enacted in 1947, became a major issue in the dispute.

Despite the handicap of losing their union composing room employees, the newspapers, with one exception, have continued to publish regular editions.

Mexico May Establish More Zones That Are Custom-Free

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 13. (U)—More "free zones," exempt from custom duties, may be established by President Miguel Aleman.

A bill passed by the Chamber of Deputies and sent to the Senate would authorize the president to establish free zones as he thinks necessary.

The president asked Parliament to hurry passage of the bill. The bill is likely to become law soon because Parliament normally approves whatever the president proposes. After passage the bill must be signed by the president and published in the Diario Oficial.

The object of the bill is to extend present free zone facilities in Lower California, now effective only in the north. The president might include all of Lower California.

Under such a law, however, the president could make free zones anywhere along borders. In the chamber debate there was no mention of Matamoros or other places, but free zones could be established any place.

When Mexico prohibited the import of many articles, in the summer of 1947, there were protests from Nuevo Laredo, Ciudad Juarex, and other points where Mexicans were accustomed to cross the border for much of their shopping. Some of these privileges were restored when it was shown that strict customs enforcement meant hardship. In many cases, as at Nuevo Laredo, there were no stores selling certain articles and inability to buy them easily in Laredo, Texas, created a large black market.

New Records Are Expected To Be Made

Within another day or two Big Spring probably will be establishing two new records each time a building permit is issued by the city. A new record on total construction has been attained with each permit since the Veterans Hospital project was listed last March, and current figures for the year show that previous standards for construction work of local origin are due to fall soon. Permits issued last week accounted for $41,240, which was enough to boost local construction for the year to $1,212,080. The record is $1,220,121 established in 1946. The current total for the year including the Veterans Hospital project is $6,834,730.

Despite an increase over the previous week, real estate activity was slack, compared to the year's average. Warranty deeds filed in the county clerk's office recorded four transactions involving $15,265. That increased the 1948 total to $1,963,189.

A slight gain for new motor vehicle deliveries was noted during the week, based on registrations at the county tax assessor-collector's office. Licenses were issued for 22 new passenger cars, five trucks and two motorcycles.

BOOK WEEK—As representative of what books and their authors mean locally, the Herald presents a few shots taken in school libraries and of some of the people who write, read and work with books. At the upper left hand corner of the page is Shine Phillips, well-known business man and author of "Big Spring," the casual biography of a prairie town. Reference books are a vital part of a high school student's work. Pictured at the reference shelves in the center of the page are: Elva Thames and Petty Jo Raley, seated, and Rodney Staggs and Frank House, selecting books. Officials of the Howard County Library Friends Association are pictured in the upper right hand corner. They are: (left to right) Mrs. G. K. Chadd, chairman of children's activities; Mrs. T. C. Thomas, association president and the author of a poetry book; Mrs. V. Van Gieson, chairman of memorial gifts; Mrs. James T. Brooks, social committee chairman; and Neil Brown, member of the book selection committee. Second picture on the left, is an informal scene in the Howard County Junior College Library. Looking over a large collection of magazines, which have become books to a lot of people, are (left to right) Lloyd Robinson, Clovis Phinney, Jr., Robert Odum, Jr., Lillian Tamsitt, Erma Jean Slaughter and Billy Wheeler. Third left, is Mrs. B. F. LeFever, local book reviewer, and Marie McDonald, book agent. They are discussing Berryman's "Pioneer Preacher," a new publication with a Lamesa setting. Lower left, is a scene in the county textbook library. Seated at the desk is Mrs. Helen Acuff. W. G. Bailey, county school superintendent, stands. (All photos by Jack M. Haynes).

National Book Week Observance Begins

Of all National weeks, the one which probably should mean the most to the greatest number of people is National Book Week, which is being observed this week. Millions of printed pages are leaving printing presses every day to find their way into the homes of all kinds of people with all degrees of education and of all ages, colors and creeds.

Whether he's a college professor with a Ph. D. degree or just a small school boy struggling through his first school reader, every person seems to have an interest in books. The only difference in readers is not their interest in books as a whole, but the type of book they choose.

It is almost amazing to try to think of the various types of books that do leave the presses. There are deep philosophical and religious books which a few write and understand and which a few others like to look over and think they understand. There are books of history, geography, social problems, economics, language, biography, autobiography, hobbies, medicine, psychology, fiction, drama, music, poetry and prose. And there are old stand-bys used by everyone—the Bible, dictionaries, cook books and what have you? (Not to mention complete lines of children's books.)

Some people seem to debate the idea that Americans are an educated group, but they are certainly well-read or should be with the opportunity they have.

In our own town, there are libraries in the schools for the use of the students and a county library for the use of the county's citizens. There are a number of individual libraries. Almost every home possesses books of some variety and an increasing number of selections are being offered to the general public either by sale or through the local libraries.

There is almost no end to the wealth of knowledge that is at the finger tips of every American citizen through the printed page. This fact should make National Book Week of some significance to the people of Big Spring and of the nation.

Ruth Bryan Owen Will Give Lecture For Big Spring Town Hall Group

First of the attractions offered by the Big Spring Town Hall association is on the calendar for Thursday night of this week, when association members will hear a lecture by the widely-known figure in public affairs, Ruth Bryan Owen.

Mrs. Owen will be heard at the municipal auditorium, at 8 o'clock. The Town Hall organization, being developed under leadership of the Big Spring Federation of Women's clubs, will be open only to holders of season tickets. Mrs. H. W. Smith, Federation president, said that memberships still are available, and may be purchased through Thursday at the chamber of commerce offices. Dual season tickets are $10, single memberships $6 and student memberships $3.50.

Much interest is attached to the appearance here of Mrs. Owen, due to her wide background knowledge of international affairs, and due to the fact that she has just completed a summer trip to Europe. From the vantage points of Denmark and Sweden, she was able to survey much of what is transpiring in Russia, Germany and the rest of Europe.

Regarded as one of the outstanding women of her generation, Ruth Bryan Owen is the daughter of famed William Jennings Bryan. Her mother was renowned in her own right, having studied law at a time when few women attempted

Members of the Town Hall Association in Big Spring have the privilege of using their memberships at any Town Hall presentations given in neighboring towns.

First program in the immediate area is to be at Lamesa Tuesday evening, Nov. 16, when a musical group, the Deep River Singers, will perform. Other Lamesa dates are not immediately available.

Dates of Town Hall attractions in other neighboring towns are as follows:

COLORADO CITY—Nov. 16, Ruth Bryan Owen; Dec. 13, Henry Gerald, humorist-mentalists; Feb. 7, Knickerbocker Quartet; April (date to be fixed), Metropolitan Artist Group.

ODESSA—Nov. 19, Cornelia Otis Skinner; Dec. 2, Chicago Civic Opera Ballet; Feb. 3, Bartlett Theatre (play); March 29, Metropolitan Artist Group.

PECOS—Dec. 10, Henry Gerald; Jan. 7, male trio; Feb. 6, Knickerbocker Quartet; March 16, No-Young Park, lecturer; March 27, Metropolitan Artist Group.

such professional work. Mrs. Owen was constantly around

RUTH BRYAN OWEN

Washington in her youth and spent much time with her father when he served as a congressman from Nebraska.

Mrs. Owen herself entered politics and served as a congressional representative, later was appointed minister to Denmark. There she gained valuable insight into international affairs and the world of diplomacy.

She has visited the far corners of the world, having lived for three years in India, three years in England, three years in Egypt and another three years in world travel.

Study of citizenship and the instilling of appreciation of what it means to be a citizen of the United States has been one of Mrs. Owen's objectives. She has served as head of the public speaking department of the University of Miami and while there gave her salary to a scholarship fund for the furtherance of good citizenship. As a member of congress, she arranged to have a boy and a girl from each of the counties in her district spend two weeks in the capital as her guests, to be guided in the ways of government.

For years Mrs. Owen has been in great demand as a lecturer.

Coffee Home Is Scene Of Study Club Meeting

HI TALK

BSHS Joins In Week Of Special Activity

By DOLORES FRANKLIN

Greetings from a new Herald correspondent! One who will attempt, from week to week, to report the activities of the BSHS crowd—activities in the classroom and after-hours, too. If you've got some dope, yours truly would be glad to hear from you at any time.

Some 75 students went to Midland Friday night to whom it up for the Steers. Approximately 35 went by special bus chartered by the high school.

The B team certainly needs more support from the Students, but at least three couples, Janelle Beane and Billy Van Pelt, Sue Wasson and Billy Satterwhite, and Nancy Lovelace and Kimball Guthrie, were backing the boys in their game last Saturday night.

Waldo Young, football ace from Monahans, was visiting Katie Lou
Jones this weekend.

Part of the program for Education week was the open-house at high school Tuesday night. Some 300 parents turned out for the event and most of them were completely exhausted trying to carry out the schedules of their sons and daughters.

Approximately 425 copies of El Rodeo, the high school annual, have been sold. Students still have a chance to obtain one until February. Mrs. Steward, journalism instructor, announced that she had already selected three juniors, Joyce Choate, Sue Wasson and Dolores Franklin, to work on the annual next year.

The Methodist Youth of Big Spring and surrounding towns enjoyed a Fellowship Rally Tuesday night. Attending were Betty Lou Hewett, Rose Nell Parks, Sue Wasson, Jane Stripling, Richard Las-well, Vevagene Apple, Charles Rainwater, Richard Deats, and Billy Bob Watson.

Elwyn Bass, a former Big Spring student who now resides at Ackerly, was visiting high school the past week.

A special Armistice Day assembly program was given by six students of the high school. Culin Grigsby was master of ceremonies while Richard Laswell read the invocation. Patsy Ann Young read a poem entitled "The Unknown Soldier" followed by a solo, "My Buddy," by Peggy Lamb. The band played several marches and the program was ended with the playing of Taps by Larry Evans.

Earlynn Wright and Ray Russell have set their wedding date for the twentieth of November. They were honored with a kitchen shower Saturday afternoon at the home of Nell Parks, 1507 Runnels. Hostesses for the affair were Mary Robbins, Jean Pearce, Nancy Lovelace, and Miss Park. Approximately 50 guests attended.

Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary Is Observed By Ackerly Couple

ACKERLY, Nov. 13. (Spl)—Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Etchison observed their 50th anniversary at a reception in the home of Mrs. J.
B. Edwards, a daughter, near Osage, Oct. 31.

Mrs. Etchison, the former Alma
Byrd, was attired in a navy blue dress with a baby orchid corsage.
The couple lived in Osage until 1932 when they moved to Ackerly. They have been connected with the farming industry all these years.

The couple was presented with yellow gold watches by their children.

The house was decorated with cut fall flowers. The lace-laid dining room table was centered with a wedding cake on a silver tray surrounded by fern and Queen's wreath arranged around the tray.
Peggy Jean Etchison and Betty Jo Etchison, granddaughters of the couple, attended the refreshment service. Billy Verne Graham, another granddaughter, attended the guest register.

Those in the receiving line were
J. B. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. R.
D. Etchison, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis
Candle of Cedar Bayou, Claude

Etchison and Mrs. Lynn Martin of Osage.
Hosts for the affair included Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Edwards, Jack Edwards of Osage, Jim Edwards of Okmulgee, Okla., Mr. and Mrs.
Hillie Etchison and Peggy Jean.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Etchison and Betty Joe of Osage, Mr. and Mrs.
Gordon Graham, Billy Verne and Linda of Galesville, Mrs. Chester
Graham of Odessa, Bobbie Etch-ison, Ralph Etchison, Billy Ray
Etchison, Mr. and Mrs. Waymon
Etchison and Taylor of Big Spring.

Approximately 100 persons called during the afternoon.

Kate Morrison Class Meet Held

West Side Baptist Kate Morrison
Class held a social in the home of Mrs. Perry Burleson. During the business session, class officers were elected as follows: Mrs. J. R.
Phillips, president; Mrs. Alta Dunbar, vice president; Mrs. Perry Burleson and Mrs. Jeff Chapman, group captains.
Mrs. L. D. Patterson will be hostess to a Christmas party scheduled for December 16.
Those present were: Mrs. J. R.
Phillips, Mrs. Estella Yates, Mrs.
A. L. Harrison, Mrs. Johnnie Waddell, Mrs. Jeff Chapman, Mrs. L.
D. Patterson, Mrs. Onita Rode,
Mrs. Hipp, Mrs. Fred Winn and the

Parents Hailed
Before Court

SOMERSET, Pa., Nov. 13. (AP)—An Amish farmer says he won't send his children to school because his Bible says—no, don't.

Amos J. Yoder didn't use exactly those words to tell Judge Norman T. Boose of Somerset County court why he disregarded the state's educational laws.

He stated his case Friday in Pennsylvania Dutch dialect because he found English inadequate.

Bishop Joseph J. Yoder of the Mennonite Church interpreted Yoder's remarks as:

"It says in Scriptures, be not conformed to this world."

Amos Yoder, and three other Amishmen are appealing jail sentences twice imposed by a justice of the peace after they refused to send their minor children to school.

Enos Mast, another appellant, testified:

"I thought it was better for my daughter to be kept at home to learn practical things. I feel she is better off doing practical work at home than studying books at school."

Judge Boose reserved decision.

'Where Goes The Groom' Is Junior Play Title

"Here Goes the Groom" will be presented by the members of the Junior class at the City Auditorium, Tuesday, Nov. 23 at 7:30 p. m. The plot revolves around two young girls, Connie Wade and Tootsie Jones, who are trying to break up a wedding, they believe to be for money rather than love. The confusion that results from their efforts provide three acts of hilarity.

The production crew is composed of stage manager, Howard Jones; property managers, Kathleen Uthoff, Juanita Hobbs and Barbara Petty; prompters, Geraldine McGinnis, Janelle Beene and Dana McLanahan; make-up, June Cook, Pearl May Clanton and Betty Simmons; sound effects, Wayne Horne and Dolores Franklin; heavy props, Tommy Porter and Gerry Nichols; advertising, Dee John Davis, Sue Wasson, Dicky Cooper, Joyce Kilpatrick and Omar Pitman.

The bride-elect is employed in the office of the county treasurer. The bridegroom-to-be served in the infantry during the war. He is associated with Kountz-Carter Supply Company.

The couple will be at home in Big Spring.

Attending the Hi-Y meeting last week were Jackie Jennings, Jimmie Jennings, Doyle Jenkins, Howard Washburn, Rodney Stagg, Wayne Bartlett, Woodie Woods, G. H. Hayward, Jr., Lawrence Wilson, J. W. King, Jr., advisor, and Lee Milling.

Hi-Y members are working on a "bill" which they plan to submit as a part of the Youth in Government demonstration being undertaken as a state Hi-Y project.

They also are laying plans for a social with the Tri-Hi-Y club in the near future.

Firefighter Says He Started Blaze That Cost $500,000

BRYN ATHYN, Pa., Nov. 13. (AP)—Arson charges were lodged against a 29-year-old fire-policeman who told authorities "I hate to see anything destroyed" and then admitted he started a blaze that wrecked a $500,000 school building.

Evan Hall was arraigned Friday before Justice of Peace Otto Heilmann. He was charged with starting the fire that destroyed Benade Hall, main building of the academy of the New Church.

State Fire Marshal Charles W. Taylor told the justice Hall also confessed, starting a $75,000 blaze that destroyed a wing of a barn on a farm two miles from the academy a week ago.

Hall said he didn't know why he started the fires, Taylor testified.

Mrs. C. H. Vick has returned from a week's visit in Kilgore and Dallas.

LOCAL BOYS MAKE GOOD!

As local boys it has always been our policy to make good on EVERYTHING we sell. That's why so many people like to buy APPLIANCES here — they know that we stand right behind any appliance we sell — they take no chances on mechanical difficulties — they can be perfectly sure that we are going to be right here on the job, ready to back up every guarantee the manufacturer has made — ready to go to bat for them and act as their agent in ALL dealings with the manufacturer. "Local Boy Makes Good" is a true saying in this town.

Red Dean Says
Better Living
Soviet Interest

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. (AP)—The dean of Canterbury Cathedral, here for a six-week tour of 13 states, says Russia is primarily interested in atomic energy for raising her peoples' living standards.

The Very Rev. Dr. Hewlett Johnson made the statement on his arrival here by plane Friday.

He said he would "not be surprised" if Russia has "an atom weapon," but added:

"They are more concerned with getting the additional energy which they lack to heighten their standards of life, rather than a bomb."

The so-called "Red Dean," said Russian church leaders are friendly toward the Soviet government.

Asked if Premier Josef Stalin was an atheist or Christian, the Dean said: "He is kind and interested."

Davis, Montgomery Try Comedy Talents In Ritz's 'June Bride'

Bette Davis and Robert Montgomery, who have spent most of their recent efforts on film drama, turn to comedy in Warner's "June Bride," beginning today at the Ritz.

Bette plays a successful magazine editor, one who hires and fires with ease. Bob comes back into her life after a European assignment, and is put on her staff. This creates a problem, as the two still go for each other in a way. When the staff moves into Crestville, Indiana to build up their special June feature, their affair takes on added zest.

The film abounds with situations all on the strictly humorous side. Bob has an apple-cider spree with Tom Tully which is a riot. Betty Lynn, as the youngest Brinker belle, vamps small-town fashion and gets her man, Barbara Bates, as the more beautiful Brinker, has a somewhat smaller part, but clicks. Mary Wickes' dry remarks add pepper, and Fay Bainter, in smart garb, gives additional interest to the proceedings.

Broadway director, Bette Davis' method of building laughs is particularly interesting. There is a super love-chase around Bette's apartment, with Bob following her, turning the lamps on and off with great alacrity. Another stand-out bit is when Raymond Roe as the young Romeo answers Bob Montgomery with a mere "Boo," meaning of course Betty Lynn, who goes under that nickname.

Bette herself has never been in better form. Edith Head has her

Brooks To Support Rayburn In House

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 13. (AP)—Rep. Overton Brooks (D-La.) will support Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) for speaker of the House of Representatives and Rep. John McCormack (D-Mass.) for Democratic floor leader when the 81st Congress convenes in January.

Brooks said "both men have shown themselves fully capable of genuine bipartisan legislation where it should be had."

Editorial Writers Will Discuss Work

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 13. (AP)—Readers who bypass newspaper editorials in their haste to look at the sports page, society columns and the comics will be the chief concern of newspapermen from Maine to Texas who meet here Nov. 13-20.

The National Conference of Editorial Writers calls it a convention, but it might better be called a seminar or a clinic.

The men and women who pen the "think pieces" on American newspaper editorial pages must be well posted in almost every subject from atomic energy to local garbage collection. But planners of the convention say editorial writers also must be able to present their facts in a spritely, popular style so the page assigned to them won't be unexplored country to the average reader.

The breadth of knowledge expected of editorial writers is reflected in the varied topics of the conference program.

The opening discussion will be on "The National Problem of Natural Resources." Discussion leaders will include Tom Wallace, Editor Emeritus of the Louisville Times and a veteran in conservation work; Dr. William A. Albrecht, University of Missouri; Fairfield Osborn, author of "Our Plundered Planet," and George L. Peterson of the Minneapolis Star.

Other topics will include editorial comment on public questions, research, typography, cartoons, Mrs. Oreta Culp Hobby, executive vice president of the Houston Post, wartime commander of the WAC and now a member of the United Nations conference on freedom of information, will speak on the American overseas information program. Aspects of European affairs will be discussed by J. M. Roberts, Jr., Associated Press Foreign Affairs writer, and Walter Cronkite, formerly United Press Bureau Chief in Moscow.

NTS Homecoming To Be Nov. 19-20

DENTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—November 19-20 have been set as the dates for North Texas State College's annual homecoming celebration; when thousands of ex-students return to the campus to take part in traditional festivities.

Activities on the program will include the Lone Star Conference grudge battle between the NTSC Eagles and the East Texas State Lions, a barbecue for exes, a homecoming parade, and special dances for students and exes.

Former students returning for the homecoming will have a chance to view the new Student Memorial Union Building being constructed on the campus. A bronze plaque in the structure will pay tribute to the ex-students of NTSC who were killed in World Wars I and II.

HIGHLIGHTS ON KBST

'Valley Forge' To Be Guild's Production

Claude Rains (as General Washington), June Duprez (as Mary), George Coulouris (as Lt. Col. Trench) and Dean Jagger (as Alcock) star in "Valley Forge," by Maxwell Anderson, on "Theatre Guild on the Air," tonight at 8:30 over KBST.

In the bleak, bitter setting of winter at Valley Forge, Washington and his followers, Lt. Col. Trench and Alcock, face not only cold and hunger, but men less imbued with the spirit of liberty than themselves. Washington's hope for eventual victory, however, is shaken by Mary, an old sweetheart sent to him by Howe, the British General: a materialistic Congressman, and traitors within his ranks. Feeling that he is 'virtually alone in his convictions, the General arranges a surrender meeting. When he learns, through their heroic efforts in a small incident, that his men actually choose the desolate uncertainty of following him, the vigor of his faith is restored and he turns the meeting into a new declaration of their unconquerable spirit.

"GREATEST STORY"

"The Reward is Great," a drama showing the true colors of a would-be "pillar of the community" will be broadcast on the Greatest Story Every Told today at 5:30 p. m., over the American Broadcasting Company and KBST.

A cast of leading radio actors and an orchestra and chorus will join in telling the story of what happened to a truly just and humble man when he sought help from a leading citizen—"Cyrus, the Just"—of the ancient town of Capernaum.

A striking fallacy of the "great" man's philosophy—"Help only those who can help you"—will be dramatically illustrated as the impact of an immortal teaching is revealed.

"THE VAGABOND KING"

"The Vagabond King," a romantic story of a ragged poet who became king of France for a day, starring Dorothy Kirsten and Lucille Norman with singing host Gordon MacRae, will be presented on the ABC-KBST broadcast of The Railroad Hour MONDAY at 7 p. m.

"FINE ARTS QUARTET"

Jean Cras' "Quintet for Harp and Strings" will be played by ABC's Fine Arts Quartet in a broadcast heard over KBST today at 10 a. m. This work, by a French naval officer, contains some of the most rhythmic passages in the chamber music repertory.

This is the 20th of a series of special Cosden presentations, recognizing the long and valued service of those employees who have been associated with Cosden for 15 years and longer. Cosden is proud of the scores of its workers who have contributed to its success through so many years.

AUBRA CRANFILL

On December 7, Aubra Cranfill will have been a Cosden employee for 19 years, but actually his connection with the Big Spring refining plant dates even further back.

Cranfill helped to build the refinery, while he was in the employ of the Graver Construction company. A year after that work was completed, he came back to Big Spring to join Cosden.

He worked in the yard for three and a half years, at the loading rack for three years, and has been a pumper for the past 12 years.

Cranfill is a native West Texan, having been born in Scurry county. He received his schooling in Mitchell county. He was married to Miss Minnie Mays of Coahoma in 1930, and they have a daughter, Wanda. The Cranfills own their home at 409 Park street.

Cranfill is a member of the Church of Christ, has served as elder and song leader. For recreation, he is a sports follower, and puts first choice in fishing.

TEXAS POLL

Majority Thinks U. S. Should Declare War If Reds Strike

By JOE BELDEN
Director The Texas Poll

AUSTIN, Nov. 13. — A large majority of Texas adults think the United States should be ready to declare war immediately if the Russian army invades western Europe. Movement of the United States toward a military alliance with the Western European Union thus finds widespread support in this state's public opinion.

In its latest statewide survey, The Texas Poll finds only two out of every ten adults think it would be better to try to help Europe without going to war ourselves. This is a complete reversal in the climate of opinion since the days before Pearl Harbor.

In October, 1941, three out of every four believed it was better not to declare war but to stay out and merely supply the countries fighting Germany. At that time, Hitler's armies had been on a rampage in Europe for more than a year.

By way of comparison, the direction of public opinion today shows up in the results to the following question, which was put to a cross section of men and women in all parts of Texas:

"If the Russian army invades Western Europe, what do you think the U. S. should do—remain neutral, try to help Europe without going to war ourselves, or declare war on Russia immediately?"

The proportion in favor of declaring war is larger among men than women. It is also greater among older adults, among people of the upper standards of living, and among the better educated, as the following breakdown shows:

By age groups:	Would Declare War
20 to 39	61%
40 and over	54%
By socio-economic level:
Below average	54%
Average and above	72%
By education:
Grade school or less	54%
High school	63%
College	79%
By sex:
Men	72%
Women	54%

Since President Truman's victory at the polls, there has been increasing evidence that the U. S. will soon back up its economic support of Western Europe with a military alliance pledged to check Russian aggression. Such a military alliance would commit the U. S. to go to war against Russia in case the Soviet army invades Western Europe.

Boy 17, Declares He Killed Man Who Was Breaking Home

WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 13. (AP)—A 17-year-old boy signed a police statement admitting he fatally beat a man who tried "to go out with my mother"—but a district attorney says "the entire case looks like an accident."

"There seems to be no evidence the boy intended to kill," District Attorney F. Frank Doctor said last night after Valoren Lee Neth was booked on a general charge of homicide.

Neth, in his statement, said he struck Lee J. Beam, 51, special officer for the borough of Spear, for "breaking up my parents' home."

Commented Doctor: "From what our investigation has determined so far we will not ask the grand jury to return a first degree murder indictment. We will probably ask for no more than a verdict of involuntary manslaughter. As a matter of fact, the entire case looks like an accident."

Doctor said the juvenile court must investigate the case before he can proceed with any prosecution.

The district attorney said the youth related he went to see Beam. Several blows were struck. Beam fell to the ground "apparently hitting his head on some stones," Doctor added.

AUSTIN, Nov. 13. (AP)—The first postwar reunion of the 8th Infantry (Golden Arrow) Division will be held at San Antonio Nov. 19 to 21, the state adjutant general's office announced Friday.

Fugitive Hearing Scheduled Dec. 3 In Kidnap Case

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 13. (AP)—Hearing on a fugitive complaint against Mrs. Margaret Hodges, 37, of Atlanta, Ga., charged with kidnapping, will be held in Walters, Okla., Dec. 3.

The complaint was filed in Walters late Friday.

Mrs. Hodges has been held in Walters since Wednesday night. She and two Atlanta taxicab drivers were charged with kidnapping after her eight-year-old son was taken from a school playground here Wednesday about noon.

At an examining trial Friday one of the drivers was released and the other held on bond.

The boy, Jack Hodges, was taken to Walters, Okla., where officers took him in custody and returned him to his father, Dr. Claude Hodges, here. Dr. Hodges and the boy's mother were divorced in 1946.

Jester Bag Limit On Hunting Trip

AUSTIN, Nov. 13. (AP)—Gov. Beauford H. Jester found duck hunting good at Chocolate Bayou on the coast Friday.

He telephoned his office today that he got the limit of five ducks and three geese. He bagged two greenhead ducks, one mallard and two pintails, and brought down one snow goose, one gray goose and a blue.

Traffic Light On East Third May Be Approved

Another new traffic signal on East Third street may be authorized by the state highway department and a further study of traffic conditions on Gregg street is expected within the next few weeks, City Manager H. W. Whitney reported Saturday.

Whitney said he had been informed unofficially that a traffic count at East Third and Benton justified a stop and go signal, based on the highway department standards. The traffic count at that intersection was made after others had already been completed at four locations on Gregg street and two on East Third.

Official authorization has been received and the city manager has been instructed to install signals at Third and Nolan and at Third and Johnson streets.

Whitney said that highway department officials have indicated that a special study of conditions at South Gregg and 18th, South Gregg and Park, North Gregg and Northwest Third and at North Gregg and Northwest Fourth streets will be made. Signals at those intersections were disapproved on the basis of traffic counts conducted last summer. City commissioners protested the disapproval vigorously, and Whitney said he had learned that a special delegation from the department's engineering office planned to come here soon to survey the situation.

Fraternity Is Ousted Because Negro Is Pledged

AMHERST, Mass., Nov. 13. (AP)—The Amherst College chapter of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity plans to initiate a Negro student despite its suspension by the national organization.

The chapter (Massachusetts Alpha) reported Friday it had been informed of its indefinite suspension by National President Howard L. Hamilton of Columbus, Ohio, for alleged "unfraternal conduct."

The local chapter said that Thomas W. Gibbs of Evanston, Ill., already pledged, will be initiated with 15 other pledges Nov. 23.

The communication from the national organization said the suspension action was unanimously voted by the fraternity's 10-man executive council.

The national executive council ordered the Amherst chapter to depledge Gibbs at its national convention in Estes Park, Colo., last summer. Amherst complied but repledged him last Saturday.

Porter's Campaign Expenses $24,061 He Says In Report

HOUSTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—H. J. (Jack) Porter, Houston oilman who ran on the Republican ticket for United States senator, spent $24,061.47 during his campaign, he reported to County Judge Glenn Perry late Friday.

Porter said that $12,610.39 was spent on travel, subsistence, printing, communications and other expenses excepted under the federal corrupt practices act. He listed $11,451.08 spent on radio, advertising and expenses which are covered by the act.
