GIVE TOYS FOR NEEDY KIDS — Sheriff Bob Hewes announced today that his department will again collect used and new toys for the underprivileged children of the Aransas County area for Christmas. Toys that are to be donated may be left at the Sheriff's Office in the Aransas County Jail building just behind the Courthouse. Hewes advised that last year some 40 to 50 children received toys from donations received by his department. Co-sponsors of the drive will be announced at a later date, Hewes added.

New Medicare Handbook Mailed to 23.5 Million

A new edition of "Your Medicare Handbook" is being mailed to 23.5 million people across the Nation, according to A.L. Finck, Jr., social security district manager in Corpus Christi.

"The new 1974 handbook is smaller and easier to handle than previous editions," Finck said. "A copy should be in the hands of everyone who has Medicare health care insurance protection by December."

The completely new edition is a result of major amendments made in the Medicare program in the past 2 years.

The new handbook explains in detail how Medicare hospital and medical insurance work. It tells what kinds of care Medicare covers and how much Medicare pays for each kind of care. It also tells what Medicare does not cover.

An index in the new handbook will help people quickly locate information about a particular Medicare subject.

"When people get their new Medicare handbook, they should throw away any old editions they have," Finck said. "They should keep the new 1974 edition where they can find it when they need information about Medicare."

Medicare helps pay the health care bills of people 65 and over, of disabled people who have been entitled to social security disability benefits for at least 24 consecutive months, and of many people with chronic kidney disease.

Medicare is administered by the Social Security Administration. The Corpus Christi social security office is at 5733 South Padre Island Drive. The phone number is 888-3361.

Work Program Is Operating

The Coastal Bend Work Experience Program is now in operation in Rockport. This is a federal revenue sharing program to help people of low incomes. It provides on-the-job training leading to a permanent job after six months. While in training the enrollees are paid eighty dollars a week, given all necessary educational expenses and counseling services.

Tom Davis, counselor in this program, is available at the City Hall, Rockport, every Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. to enroll new applicants, both men and women.

There are several openings with public service agencies. All applicants must be 22 years or over and looking for work. The head office is at 505 S. Water, Corpus Christi, telephone no. 883-3866.

Lock Up, Light Up

Sheriff Bob Hewes said now is the special time of the year for all persons to think more about protecting their own property.

Nearly all surrounding counties as well as Aransas County have had an increase in the thefts of property from homes, businesses and automobiles.

A few reminders are in order, Sheriff Hewes commented. If you have a business make doubly sure that all doors and windows are properly secured before you leave at night and make sure there are some night lights on.

Lighting is the cheapest form of insurance that you can have. No burglar or thief likes to work in a well lighted area; they always seem to pick the darkest spots in the area to work.

When shopping in town be sure to lock your car at all times. It is very inviting to some people to see a car unlocked with a rear seat full of nice Christmas presents.

Never leave your house unlocked. Most people have thousands of dollars worth of valuables in their homes and they should try to protect them. If you have items with serial numbers, jot them down.

If no serial numbers are on the items, obtain the marking gun from either the CPL Office or the Aransas Natural Gas office and put your Texas Driver's license number on the item.

For those going out of town for an extended period of time notify one or two of your neighbors and also notify the City-County Law Enforcement Communications Center at 729-2222 of your expected absence so that special patrols can be made of your residence. In the event that a suspicious person or automobile is seen in the neighborhood call the above number.

VFW Auxiliary Xmas Party

The Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW will hold their annual Christmas party at the Ramada Inn, Wednesday, December 11 at 7:00 p.m. A buffet dinner will be served. Christmas gifts will be exchanged and also secret pal gifts.

Police Record Here Is Good

Sheriff Bob Hewes reported that the records of his office show that on the report to the Federal Bureau of Investigation on major crimes that his department has a clearance rate so far this year of 54%.

Hewes stated that the State of Texas average is 24%. He attributed the good clearance rate to the close cooperation of the City of Rockport officers, the close coordination with State and Federal officers and the backing his department has received from the people in Aransas County.

"If we all work together, we can keep the good rate and maybe even improve on it," Hewes added.

Food Products Are Promoted

County Judge John D. Wendell has proclaimed the month of December as "Give Meat, Poultry and Dairy Products Month" in an effort to bolster the sale of some farm and ranch products that are currently in an economic slump.

Signed December 2, the proclamation urges the giving of certificates for the purchase of those products as holiday gifts. He signed the proclamation in cooperation with the Farm Bureau and other groups that are coordinating a campaign encouraging the gift idea.

The proclamation notes that selection of holiday gifts "often poses problems." It says the statewide promotion of gift certificates for meat, poultry and dairy products "presents a happy solution to this annual dilemma," and added the giving of these foodstuffs "expresses the true spirit of the season."

These products are in abundant supply at this time and are "good buys" at the stores, the proclamation noted.

Judge Wendell said the use of the gift certificates "not only solves the problem of what to give, it also represents a timely boost for producers of these essential foods."

The campaign to encourage the giving of certificates for the purchase of meat, poultry and dairy products is being coordinated statewide by the Texas Farm Bureau, Texas Department of Agriculture, Independent Cattlemen Association and other groups. They are also furnishing colorful gift envelopes.

For those who wish to send a check or money order, Farm Bureau will provide an attractive message card explaining the gift idea along with a nice gift envelope. These are available at the local Chamber of Commerce.

Fall Tennis Tourney Set

Virtually all arrangements have been completed for the 1974 Fall Tennis Tournament scheduled for this weekend—Saturday and Sunday—on courts of the Racquet Club and Key Allegro Tennis Club. Members of both clubs are eligible to participate.

Thursday of this week is the deadline for entries which are to be made in person or by telephone, 728-0880. Entry fees are $3.50 each for singles events and $2.50 per person for doubles. Balls will be furnished and trophies will be awarded winners and runners-up in all events.

There will be a total of seven events including two men's and two women's singles groups. In both instances there will be a more skilled and less skilled group to insure balanced competition. In addition there will be men's, women's and mixed doubles.

Scheduling of the tournament and pairings in the doubles events will be handled by the tournament committee. Members of the committee are Joe Hugenberg, chairman; Kay Stanley, George Cone, Jim White, Dewey Lingo, Roy Hicks and Dave Crooks.

Play is scheduled to start at 7:30 a.m. Saturday although there is a possibility some matches may be played Friday night under the lights on the Racquet club's four new courts depending on the number of entries. Participants may learn when they are scheduled to play by telephoning the pro shop not earlier than Friday afternoon.

The public is invited to witness tournament play without charge and seating accommodations for approximately 150 spectators are available in the court house here feted him with a coffee.

Drug Treatment Program for Youths In Aransas County

Sheriff Bob Hewes stated that the cooperative efforts set forth by him and Chief of Police James Craigmile in setting up a Drug Treatment program for Aransas County youths is near completion and will be operative by January 1, 1975.

The program, in cooperation with the Mental Health and Mental Retardation Community Center in Corpus Christi, will start off with mostly young, first offender marijuana users.

The program will normally start off with a young person being arrested for the misdemeanor charge of possession of marijuana and when treatment in the center is complete and the counselor determines in writing to County Judge John D. Wendell that the young person has successfully completed the counseling sessions, the Judge will hear in evidence a motion to dismiss the marijuana charge and wipe the person's record clean of that charge.

Hewes and Craigmile both feel that this is the first step in helping to combat the marijuana scene in the Rockport and Aransas County area. It also gives the youngster an opportunity to not have a narcotics violation on his record.

Hewes and Craigmile both point out that one does not need to be charged with a crime to enter the counseling course but that any young person who is smoking marijuana may enter the course for his own good, that is if he wants to give up the smoking of marijuana.

District Judge Joe C. Wade Is Retiring after 17 Years

JUDGE AND MRS. JOE C. WADE

Sinton -- Dist. Judge Joe C. Wade of Beeville called his last docket in San Patricio County Monday, but before he did officials and employees in the courthouse here feted him with a coffee.

They also presented the retiring judge and his wife, Merle, a silver tray.

Judge Wade was widely known and respected in Aransas County through his service presiding at civil case trials here.

Though Wade is stepping down from the 156th District Court bench Dec. 31, he will continue to work by assignment and his first appointment will be to preside in the new trial ordered by the 13th Court of Civil Appeals in the East will contest.

The appointment was made last week by Administrative Judge Joe Alamia of Edinburg. Wade, who has presided in the 156th District Court since it was created in 1957 by the Texas Legislature, will be succeeded on the bench by Mrs. Rachel Littlejohn of Beeville.

She won the seat in a contest with William Moser of Beeville. Wade served as Bee County judge from 1947-57, and during a stint in military service in the early 1940's served as a judge advocate general officer.

Brochure Wins Two Awards

At the annual awards dinner of the Corpus Christi Advertising Federation November 22, the Rockport Area brochure won first place in two categories - one for the entire brochure, and one for individual ad design on the inside front cover.

It is especially significant that the judging was done by outstanding agency personnel in three far-away places: Portland, Oregon, Birmingham, Alabama and Columbus, Ohio.

The publication was a joint effort by Loyce Landrum, Chamber of Commerce Manager; T.A. Shults, photographers; Wil Clay of C Graphics (art and cover design); Nancy Murphy of Our Town, composition; and all chamber member advertisers who made the project possible.

A copy of the Gold Award presented to C Graphics will be sent to the Chamber office soon.

West Joins Dingenary

Richard West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everal West, Sabinal, Texas, has returned to Rockport to work for Dingenary Real Estate.

He attended Fulton Elementary and completed the six-year curriculum at Schreiner Institute in Kerrville plus one year at the University of Texas at Austin.

He lives in Fulton and invites friends to call or stop by.

NOTICE

The Aransas County United Fund Board of Directors will have a special meeting Friday, December 6. The luncheon meeting will be held at Corky's Restaurant at 12:00 noon.

Dist. Court Trial Results

District Clerk Agnes "Tony" Harden reported the following results of trials conducted last week in 36th District Court, with District Judge John H. Miller presiding:

Steve Collins, 21, of Aransas Pass, waived trial by jury and pleaded guilty to robbery of Roy Lee Forrester at a lounge in Aransas Pass on June 28. He was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary, probated, and he was fined $1,000.

Victor Herrera of Rockport pleaded guilty to an indictment charging him with perjury in the trial of Jose David Silva on Oct. 10. Judge Miller sentenced Herrera to five years in the penitentiary.

Edward Ray Canales of Aransas Pass pleaded guilty to a charge of possession of more than four ounces of marijuana and he was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

Robert S. Brown, 18, of Victoria, Mike Everitt, 18, of Rockport, and Richard St. Julian, 18, of Victoria, each pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary. Their punishment was assessed at five years confinement in the penitentiary, and the defendants were placed on probation.

Kurt William Johnson of Brownsville pleaded guilty to theft of an airplane at Aransas County Airport on Sept. 16. He was arrested at the Brownsville airport the same day and the plane was recovered undamaged. Johnson was found guilty and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

Cheryl Dean Iles and Debra June King pleaded not guilty before a jury to an indictment charging them with possession of more than four ounces of marijuana. The jury found both defendants guilty. Then the defendants withdrew their request to have the jury assess punishment and requested to have Judge Miller assess punishment. He sentenced each defendant to five years in the penitentiary.

The jurors in the Iles-King trial were Mrs. Avie M. Grobe, Bonnie Fletcher, James L. Cross, Hazel Owens, Mrs. Ottie Mundine, Daniel Corpus, Mrs. D.C. Strickland, Roy R. Longino, George Zbraneck, John M. McDavid, Jr., R.W. Cleveland and Thomas Goodin.

Miss Bonner to Attend Demo Conference

Miss Lola L. Bonner will attend the Conference on Democratic Party Organization and Policy in Kansas City on December 6, 7, and 8 as a national delegate. Miss Bonner was selected as a Delegate-at-Large at the State Democratic Convention in Austin on September 17th.

The conference, the first of its kind and referred to by some as the Mini-Convention, has as one of its purposes, the adoption or rejection of a Charter for the Democratic Party of the United States. The formation of the Charter arose out of the McGovern oriented Rules Convention of 1972 and held in Washington, D.C. Readers may remember that Miss Bonner served as a member of that Committee and reported on her return that the only minority groups she saw were unmarried men above the age of 40 and Texans.

Texas' 76-member Delegation to Kansas City consists of 2 delegates selected by each of the 31 Senatorial Districts, 15 Delegates-At-Large selected by State Convention, Governor Briscoe, Senator Lloyd Bentsen and 20 Ex Officio members consisting of U.S. Representatives.

Each Senatorial District was encouraged to elect one male representative and one female representative. The 17th Senatorial District (of which Aransas County is a part) elected two men: Leo Riedel, a strong liberal from Galveston County and O.D. Kenmore, a labor leader from Brazoria County.

It is estimated that the majority of the Texas Delegation are persons of conservative to moderate political philosophy. Unless a delegate has a special interest group which bears the expense of such attendance, the total expense is borne by the delegate. Miss Bonner represents no special interest group.

Editorial

After two months of effort the 1974-75 Aransas County United Fund campaign has achieved a little more than 70 percent of its $11,500 goal. If this modest goal is to be reached there must be more contributions and pledges from more residents of this area.

Most of the individuals and business concerns which traditionally have supported this community effort have made contributions, but there are hundreds who have not yet given, some, doubtless because they do not understand the importance of this one-time drive to get financial support for the 11 charity, welfare and youth-oriented agencies that look to the United Fund for a part of their operating expenses.

These agencies perform an important - even essential - function in helping to make this community a better place in which to live and raise our children.

Further, a United Fund type of solicitation program is the easiest and most efficient method of raising the necessary funds. Without it, all of us would be bothered with multiple individual drives as was the case before the United Fund was established.

We - the community - cannot afford to let the United Fund campaign fall short of its goal. If everyone who has not yet contributed makes even a modest gift or pledge the goal will be reached.

Contributions or pledges should be mailed or taken to the Chamber of Commerce office, headquarters for the campaign. Our United Fund needs a United Effort.

Shown at the dedication ceremonies for the new Rockport-Fulton Tourist Association Civic and Recreation building is Jim Fowler, (second from right), president of the association with country and western recording stars Barbara and Bob Clawson.

The building is now officially opened for public use and anyone desiring to rent the building should contact Don Milks at the Sea Gun Resort Hotel. The new building is located at the airport and will comfortably seat 200 people and is ideal for small groups. Wednesday night tourist activities will be held at the new building in the future.

Coping with Kidnapping

Sheriff Bob Hewes has successfully completed a one-day course in Victoria on kidnapping and hostage situations.

Several lectures were given on problems of kidnapping and also on jail hostage situations and how to cope with each. The jail hostage program was put on by Jim Estelle, director of the Texas Department of Corrections and the man who thwarted the recent escape attempt at Huntsville.

Following are items of information that were presented by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents on kidnapping. Suggestions for Children:

The following suggestions are tentative and incomplete as must be any list of precautions dealing with such a complex and unsettled crime as kidnapping. However, their observance may do much to reduce the chance of kidnapping.

1. Travel in groups or pairs.
2. Walk along heavily traveled streets and avoid isolated areas where possible.
3. Refuse automobile rides from strangers and refuse to accompany strangers anywhere on foot.
4. Use city-approved play areas where recreational activities are supervised by responsible adults and where police protection is readily available.

5. Immediately report any one who molests or annoys you to the nearest person of authority.

6. Never leave home without telling parents where you will be and who will accompany you.

Suggestions for Parents:

1. Make certain that outside doors, windows, and screens are securely locked before retiring at night.
2. Keep the door to the children's room open so that any unusual noises may be heard.
3. Be certain that the child's room is not readily accessible from the outside.

4. Never leave young children at home alone or unattended, and be certain that they are left in the care of a responsible, trustworthy person.

5. Instruct the children to keep the doors and windows locked and never to let in strangers.

6. Teach the children as early as possible how to call the police if strangers or prowlers hang around the house or attempt to get in.

7. Keep the house well lighted if it is necessary to leave the children at home.

8. Avoid obvious indications that you are not at home. Opened garage doors and newspapers left outside the house are obvious indications that you are away from home and that your children may be inside unprotected.

9. Instruct servants not to let strangers in the house.

10. Do not advertise family finances or routines. Kidnapers frequently have their victims under surveillance for several days prior to the abduction, so that they may acquaint themselves with the family's habits.

Suggestions for Business Officials:

1. Instruct your family and business associates not to provide information concerning you or your family to strangers.

2. Avoid giving unnecessary personal details in response to inquiries from information collectors that would be used in such publications as business directories, social registers, or community directories.

3. Review your organization's security plans to determine their effectiveness. Make certain all employees are aware of these plans.

4. Establish simple, effective signal systems which, when activated, will alert your business associates or family members that you are in danger.

5. Be alert to strangers who are on business property for no apparent reason.

6. Vary your daily routines to avoid habitual patterns which kidnapers look for. Fluctuate your travel, as to times and routes, to and from the office.

7. Refuse to meet with strangers at secluded or unknown locations.

8. Always advise a business associate or family member of your destination when leaving the office or home and what time you intend to return.

'Tourists of the Week'

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Versino of Creve Coeur, Illinois were the lucky winners of the second Tourist of the Week drawing for this season sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. This is their eighth winter in the area and the first time to have won in the drawing although they have registered several times in the past years.

Mrs. Versino's brother, Tom Farall of Abingdon, Illinois had spent 12 years in Rockport as a "winter Texas" and was instrumental in getting his sister and brother-in-law to decide to do the same. When Versino retired from the Caterpillar Tractor Company they decided to spend half of their time here. They have stayed at Sun Tan Motel, owned by Dee and Lila King, these past years.

Versino spends his leisure time golfing and bowling while Mrs. Versino enjoys needlecraft and card games. She is a regular Monday afternoon visitor at the Woman's Club card parties.

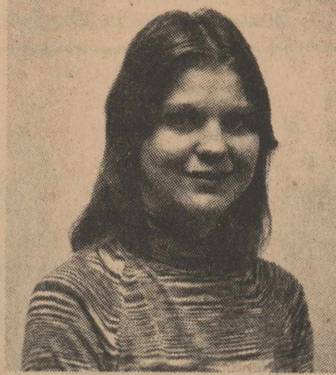

The Versinos are ardent boosters of Aransas County and encourage their friends and relatives back home to visit, knowing that one time here will convince them this is the place to be.

Businesses contributing gift certificate prizes are Winn's Store, H.E.B. Family Center, Clothing Care Center, Corky's Restaurant and Islander Boutique. Also included is a painting donated by Louise Zeisler.

Charlyne Robbins and son, Wayne, spent Thanksgiving in Brazoria visiting the Dwight Ball family.

B&PW Holds Meeting

The Rockport Business and Professional Women's Club meeting Nov. 25 was called to order by President Loyce Ogle at 7:30 p.m. in the District Courtroom. Bernita Kinsey, Women in Government chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Betty Harris, president of the League of Women Voters in Corpus Christi.

In her talk, Betty Harris emphasized the fact that most meetings in the communities are open meetings. She asked how many know the community leaders. Members were also asked if the minorities have a voice in the community.

She stated that those people wishing to become leaders need to attend meetings, listen to issues, ask questions, find out who makes the decisions and be a member on some of the committees.

Betty also emphasized that issues be studied, and that support be given to a political party. She said, "Join an action group, know the platform, subscribe to public news magazines, write to Congressmen, read the bills listed in the Sunday paper that are coming up for discussion and voting, and attend a precinct convention, but before you go find out your rights and the rules."

Following this was a question and answer period covering the Equal Rights Amendment and the meeting was adjourned.

Lady Pirates Win Pair

The Lady Pirates opened their basketball season Nov. 9 when they traveled to Corpus Christi to take on the TCIL state champs, Incarnate Word.

The Lady Pirate J.V. found I.W.A.'s J.V. too much to handle as they fell 29-62.

Scoring for the J.V. was Jena Miller with 12 points, Debbie Edler added 9 and Rhonda Frazier had 6 points.

The Varsity girls came up short of a victory as the Angels squeezed by the Lady Pirates by the score of 55-49.

The Angels found that they needed to stall the ball the last five minutes of the 4th quarter as the Lady Pirates came within three.

High scorer for the Lady Pirates was Alice Carter with 21 points.

On Nov. 26 the girls basketball teams journeyed to Woodsboro for a pair of games. The J.V. outlasted their opponents with a 49-38 victory.

Leading the scoring for the J.V. was Debbie Edler with 17 points. Seeing action on the guards end were Betty Baldwin, Jane Ratliff and Oralina Tamez.

The varsity girls got off to a slow start the first quarter but rallied the next three to maul the Eagles 74-25.

Scoring in the double figures for the Lady Pirates were McLead with 21, Haigood dropped in 13, and Carter and Picton added 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Playing defense for the Lady Pirates were Corina Rivera, Katy Sanchez, Patsy Wright, Sandy Williams and Barbara Lewis.

The Lady Pirates were idle over Thanksgiving holidays but will resume play when the varsity girls participate in the Woodsboro tournament Dec. 5, 6, and 7. Their first round play will begin Thursday night at 8:00 p.m. when they tackle the Greyhounds from Taft.

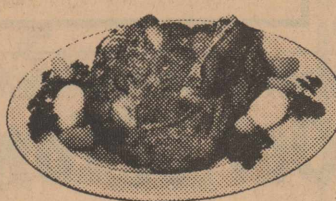

Next Tuesday, Dec. 10, the girls will be home hosting the I.W.A. Angels in a non-district clash. Game times are 6:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Junior High Loses Game

The 7th and 8th grade Bucs opened their basketball season Nov. 25 when they traveled to Flour Bluff and lost 42 to 27.

The Bucs had 32 turnovers and fouled 20 times. While Flour Bluff had 24 turnovers and committed just 4 fouls.

Shooting was not one of the strong points for the Bucs either. They connected 12 times out of 41 attempts for a very cold 29% average. Things got warmer at the charity line.

The smaller Bucs connected on 3 of 4 attempts for a very respectable 75%.

Flour Bluff jumped out to an 8 to 0 lead before the Bucs scored. By half-time, Flour Bluff upped the score 21 to 10. With a little over 3 minutes to play in the game, the Bucs had closed the gap to 6 points. It was at this point that the turnovers and fouls took the heaviest toll.

The Bucs next game will be Dec. 5 at Calallen.

Doctors are testing a drug that will dissolve gallstones, eliminating the need for surgery.

upcoming holiday season, according to CPL Manager Bill Janecek.

Janecek announced today that CPL is asking customers to decorate "tastefully and not wastefully" during Christmas in an effort to "uplift the spirit and add to the enjoyment of the holidays in our homes and neighborhoods."

CPL's lighting experts are recommending South Texans concentrate on one or two outdoor features: a favorite tree, the view window or front door, said Janecek. "Customers can further reduce energy consumption by using less lights and using time switches that automatically turn their Christmas lights off."

The use of little midget type bulbs indoors and out was stressed by Janecek. "They're extremely efficient users of electricity."

The CPL experts caution customers that outdoor midget lights should be weatherproof. It is also noted that bare branches and shrubs take on a lacy, Christmas-like look when decorated with midget lights.

"If you want to double your savings," added Janecek, "you can use twinkle indoor bulbs for your Christmas tree. They use about half as much power over the same period of time."

He added, "With a little thought and care, we can all enjoy the traditional Christmas and decorative lighting which mean so much to so many South Texans on our holidays."

OUTDOORS 'n things

by

The red wolf still lives in Texas, but his status is a source of concern to conservationists. At one time this wolf was found from central Texas to the coasts of Georgia and Florida, and along the Mississippi River Valley as far north as central Illinois and Indiana. Now, as far as we know, he occurs only in portions of Liberty, Chambers, Jefferson, Brazoria, Galveston, and Harris Counties in south-eastern Texas and in Cameron Parish in Louisiana. All this area is coastal prairie and coastal marsh - habitat markedly different from the forest areas found over the majority of his historic range. Although his present range extends to the very edge of the "Big Thicket", no red wolf has been found there.

Most laymen would not be able to distinguish the red wolf from a coyote if they saw him in the field. Biologists, however, say that there are certain definite characteristics that are so pronounced that the two species can be readily told apart. The term "red wolf" is misleading. The animals have been described by biologists as "cinnamon-buff", "cinnamon", or "tawny" with gray and black. The middle of the shoulders and down the back is sometimes overlaid with the black. The muzzle of the red wolf often tends to be very light. The area of white around the lips may extend well up the sides of the muzzle, leaving only the bridge of the nose with a tawny or gray coloration. In contrast, the area of white around the lips of the coyote is narrow and sharply defined. Light areas are also found around the eyes of the red wolf. A light tan spot may be present over each eye, which adds to the almond shaped or slanted eye effect. This slanted eye effect, with the broader face and proportionally larger ears, which he holds at an angle, gives the red wolf the look of having a triangular shaped head. The coyote holds his smaller ears more erect.

The first thing the observer in the field will notice is the "legginess" of the red wolf. Not only does he have longer legs than the coyote, but he is relatively smaller in the chest area. This gives him a rangy look and makes him look even taller than he is, and he is a good bit taller than the coyote.

Their voice is described as a cross section between the gray wolf and the coyote. It is deeper than that of the coyote yet his howl is not as long and drawn out as that of the gray wolf. It often ends in a series of "yaps" as the coyote does.

Because the red wolf will cross readily with the coyote and because man is constantly decreasing his habitat, it appears to most scientific observers that this little wolf will probably soon pass from the picture. One more species of American wildlife gone forever.

Over 200 members and guests of Rockport Chapter #1536, American Association of Retired Persons, gathered at the Airport Community Center Wednesday, Nov. 27, for a Thanksgiving dinner. Turkey and ham were provided by the Chapter, with an abundance of trimmings being brought by those present.

and treat as members of the family.

This applies to my wife and me. We have a cat who came to us as a wild stray and now bears the name, Goldie. The cat is very fond of my wife but she doesn't much care for anyone else including me.

The dog is a springer spaniel named Shan who loves everybody.

The cat usually sleeps outside at night and the dog sleeps on the floor beside my bed.

During the last two cold nights the cat was permitted to sleep in the recreation room snuggled in an old blanket on a chair.

Saturday night, all went well, but Sunday night was another matter. At 3 a.m. Monday the dog had to go outside so she awakened me to let her out.

In letting her out, I walked through the recreation room and discovered that the cat had wet on my prized pool table.

To put it mildly, I was a bit upset. I tried to go back to sleep but it didn't do any good.

I guarantee you there are going to be some changes in the sleeping arrangements for our two pets.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. William Bush announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Brenda Kay, to John Frederick Ratliff, son of Mrs. John Dittmar and the late John Albert Ratliff.

A winter wedding is planned in the First Assembly of God Church.

Hill on Youth City Staff

After completing almost seven years' service as rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Rev. Lester A. Hill conducted his final service at the local church Thanksgiving Day prior to his departure to join the staff of Youth City in Driscoll, Texas.

He will become house parent and counselor at the institution which provides a home, education and guidance for delinquent and abandoned boys and girls in an effort to guide them into responsible adulthood, and to avoid possible commitment to state correctional institutions. Youth City, which is not financed by public funds, has a population of about 100 youths of junior and senior high school age.

The Rev. Hill is a graduate of the University of Texas with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and of the Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Southwest in Austin with a Master of Theology degree.

Prior to coming to Rockport in March, 1968, the Rev. Hill was college chaplain at Southwest Texas State University for two years. He helped start and sponsored the Rockport Youth Recreational Association, is a former member of the Rockport Rotary Club and was instrumental in helping to organize the Aransas County Institutional Chaplaincy which conducts a counseling service in the county jail and John D. Wendell Juvenile Shelter.

For three years the Rev. Hill was president of the Aransas County Ministerial Association. During that period the association was awarded a Chamber of Commerce citation for outstanding service to the community. For several years he has been a director of Aransas County United Fund. He served on the board of directors of the Texas Mental Health Association and at various times held offices in the Coastal Bend Association for Mental Health.

The Rev. Hill was for several years chairman of the Site Committee of Bishop Elliott Conference Center on Copano Bay. During that period the present chapel and recreation building were built. The Center is the site of summer camps for various youth groups including retarded children. During the off-season it is used for week-end church conferences by groups from the Coastal Bend area.

While he was rector of St. Peter's an education building was built adjacent to the church to accommodate Sunday School classes. Also, major repair and redecorating projects were completed on the century-old church building.

The Rev. Hill wrote the historical booklet for the Aransas County-Rockport Centennial celebration in 1970. He is an avid tennis player, a confirmed jogger and an amateur astronomer.

Mrs. Louie Hill was a member of the staff of First National Bank for several years. More recently she wrote a weekly newspaper column titled "Chamber Corner" detailing activities of the local Chamber of Commerce. She also served briefly in the editorial and mechanical departments of The Rockport Pilot.

The Hill children, Leslie and Leah have been attending Rockport-Fulton High School where the former is a senior and the latter a freshman. Both girls play flute in the Rockport-Fulton Fighting Pirate Band. They have participated in solo and ensemble competitions for the band. Leslie and Leah have been on the school Honor Roll in high school, and the former is a member of the National Honor Society. Leslie also has been active in debate and drama at the school. In 1973 she was awarded a letter as a member of the tennis team.

A committee of the congregation at St. Peter's has been appointed to work with the bishop in selecting a successor to the Rev. Hill, whose resignation became effective Nov. 30.

MOSIER HERE TEN YEARS

As Bob Mosier was saying this week, time sure passes in a hurry.

Ten years ago, on Dec. 1, 1964, R.D. Mosier, Jr. was appointed Aransas County Auditor. He was living in Sinton at the time but moved to Rockport a short time later.

Some years later, he resigned his county post here to become associated with First National Bank of Rockport and now is executive vice president and comptroller of the bank.

The girl, unimpressed, "They came with my head."

Conversion Tables for Cane Sugar

With the holiday baking season beginning, homemakers are searching for ways to substitute other sweets for expensive cane sugar, one observer reported this week.

Miss Karen R. Prukop, Assistant County Extension Agent, suggested honey, molasses or sorghum, corn syrup and cane syrup are sweetening agents that will work as well as white sugar in baking.

Some general guidelines for these substitutions will help homemakers achieve economical-and high quality-baked goods, she said.

Honey. For one cup of sugar in baking, use one cup honey and reduce liquid one-fourth cup for each cup of honey used.

If about half the sugar is retained in a recipe and honey substituted for the other half, a better quality product will result, Miss Prukop noted.

In baking, use one-fourth teaspoon soda for each cup of honey. This is in addition to baking powder in the recipe when honey is substituted for sugar.

Molasses or sorghum. For one cup sugar, use one and one-half cups molasses or sorghum and reduce liquid one-fourth cup for each cup of molasses and sorghum used.

Corn syrup. For one cup of sugar, use two cups corn syrup

Meat Carving Is An Art

College Station -- Skillful carving of meat is an art. And one main reason to master it is that properly carved meat is more tender and manageable on the plate, according to Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

The carver needs proper cutlery or tools. The standard carving set contains a sharp knife with a curved blade about eight or nine inches long, a matching fork and a steel. This set, or an electric knife, can be used for any cut of meat," she said.

When carving at the table, the carver may stand or sit. The platter of meat is placed in front of the carver, with stacked plates close by. Be sure to carve enough for everyone, she noted.

"Thick cuts of meat are carved across the grain. This makes the fibers shorter, yielding tender slices. Cuts that are too thin to carve across the grain--such as beef brisket--are carved diagonally across the grain. Very tender loin or rib steaks may be cut with the grain," the specialist said.

St. Peter's to Have Services

The Vestry of St. Peter's Church is trying to secure visiting ministers to ensure that all regularly scheduled Sunday services will be continued.

The Rev. Barnard Short of Corpus Christi will hold the two Communion services and Church School on Dec. 15. He will also conduct Christmas Eve Services, times to be announced later.

The Right Rev. Harold Gosnell, Bishop of the Diocese of West Texas, will conduct services on Sunday, Dec. 29.

Episcopalians are asked to check the announcement board for names and times of other services. Every effort is being made to stay as close as possible to the normal programming.

The Lieutenant Governor's Report

By BILL HOBBY

It has been my pleasure during the past weeks, to address a meeting of the International Good Neighbor Council and the opening of the Mexican Trade Fair in San Antonio. These occasions gave me the opportunity to reflect on the good will existing between the people of Texas and the people of Mexico.

knows, our people have not always lived together in friendship. We have had our disagreements, some violent. But, it is remarkable that the violence which once marked the interaction of our people has been so quickly replaced by respect and affection.

The people of Texas and the people of Mexico are different in many ways. But, more numerous than our difference are our similarities. We have much in common, and it is this commonality which merits our attention.

The greatest danger to the unity of nations at this time in the history of world civilization is that the severe crises of the moment frighten our people so much that they turn inward. The first reaction, when threatened, is to withdraw, like a turtle, into a shell. But, withdrawal is not the answer to the particular dangers we face today.

Texas are concerned, as are all the people of the United States, with the continuing inflation, the absence of mortgage money, the shortages of commodities and all the other symptoms of an unhealthy economy. We are also concerned with the prospect that energy supplies are being depleted and other natural resources are being destroyed by pollution.

What we must acknowledge is that we are not alone in facing these problems. Inflation, shortages, energy cut-backs, pollution are problems shared by virtually every nation of the world.

The problems do not end at a nation's borders. They did not result from the actions of the United States alone or will they be solved by the United States alone. A step taken in Houston triggers a reaction in Mexico City which results in worries in London.

Once the people of the world recognize their interdependence, they will also come to understand the necessity of greater cooperation.

In the relationship between Texas and Mexico, we can see a growing recognition of the interdependence of nations. I call upon our people to work together in such a way as to make this relationship an example of the type of relationship which must come to exist among all the nations of the world.

It really should not be difficult for us to work together in this way. We only have to expand the feelings of good will, the understandings, the willingness to cooperate which are already present in the relations between Texas and Mexico.

What our people have been able to do in overlooking our difference and stressing the things we have in common should be a lesson for all the world. And, we have much in common.

In addition to working together as members of the international community to combat worldwide problems, Texas and Mexico have many areas in which to help each other. We have lived as neighbors for many years. We can understand each other and each other's needs. We can see more clearly than others far removed from our borders how best to deal with the pressing questions facing our people.

We should encourage increased commerce between Texas and Mexico. Texas needs new markets for her products as Mexico needs for hers. We can expand our service as each other's marketplace.

Our agricultural industry is very similar, being concerned with many of the same type of crops and much the same weather and growing conditions. We can share from each others agricultural advances and together fight common threats to our crops.

Above all, Texas and Mexico must always remain good neighbors. In a world where too many people seem to thrive on disagreement and conflict, there is still room for friendship and cooperation. And, what more is a good neighbor than one who offers friendship and pledges cooperation?

In the Kitchen

CRANBERRY POCKETS

- 1 loaf white bread, crusts trimmed (1 pound loaf)
- 1 cup butter or margarine, melted
- 12 to 14 boiled ham slices
- 1 can (8 ounce) jellied cranberry sauce
- Toothpicks

With a rolling pin flatten the slices of trimmed bread until thin and flexible. Brush one side with butter. Trim ham slices so they are the same size as the slices of bread. Put ham slices on top of buttered side of bread. Cut cranberry sauce into 1/2-inch thick slices and cut each slice into halves. Place one half on top of each slice of ham. Fold over to make a triangular shaped pocket. Fasten 2 corners together with a toothpick. Brush both sides of pockets with remaining melted butter. Bake in 400-degree oven for 10 to 15 minutes or until pockets are brown and crusty.

B.J. Crowley's HOROSCOPE

Week of December 8, 1974
SAGITTARIUS -- Those born under this sign are friendly and generous. Always good natured, the Sagittarian must curb the tendency of which he is usually aware of being too outspoken.

SAGITTARIUS -- Nov. 23 to Dec. 21 -- Money should present no problem during this period. Be careful about accepting gifts.

CAPRICORN -- Dec. 22 to Jan. 19 -- Be happy with your daily routine. Happiness can be yours by enjoying the little things in life. Enjoy the beauty of nature.

AQUARIUS -- Jan. 20 to Feb. 18 -- Forget the mistakes you made in the past. There is no point in looking back. You can be extremely productive if you live in the present.

PISCES -- Feb. 19 to March 20 -- Put some sparks back into your love life by spending some leisure time with someone you love. Better walk the straight and narrow.

ARIES -- March 21 to April 20 -- Set your goals and work on them, even if you spend only a few minutes a day on each one. Get your wardrobe in order for an enjoyable holiday season.

TAURUS -- April 21 to May 20 -- Keep your plans extremely flexible during this period. If someone wants to quibble over small details, sidestep the issue or change the subject.

GEMINI -- May 21 to June 20 -- You had better settle down or you could lose something you value. As difficult as it is for you, you may as well reconcile yourself to the fact that you are not footloose and fancy free.

CANCER -- June 21 to July 22 -- A busy week can be expected. Face reality and the picture will be prettier than you expected. Drink and eat moderately.

LEO -- July 23 to Aug. 22 -- Demand a partnership, not a dictatorship, in a relationship with someone you love.

VIRGO -- Aug. 23 to Sept. 22 -- Avoid a tendency to shirk responsibility during this period. Pay more attention to your home and family. Your home situation should then settle down to a comfortable pace.

LIBRA -- Sept. 23 to Oct. 22 -- Become involved in the church of your choice. There you will find the help and peace of mind you are seeking. Harbor no malice in your heart.

SCORPIO -- Oct. 23 to Nov. 22 -- Someone may try to sell you a bill of goods. Don't buy it. Avoid persons who irritate you. Cultivate your friends from among those whose company you enjoy.

disturbance -- usually the former is on its way.

This is true because the leading edge of a warm front leans forward. The slant is so gradual, upward, that the cirrus edge of a warm front might move in above you while the surface front is several hundred miles behind.

If you are planning a picnic or some fair-weather activity for the next day and see this sky above you, make alternate plans just in case.

What is the sign of the sky when high up, on an otherwise clear day, you see an increasing spread of webby cirrus?

This is a bad weather sign. It means a disturbance, which could be either ordinary warm front activity, including rain, or a severe

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Q - I just sold my house. I understand that I can reduce the taxable profit from the sale by taking into account additions made to the basis of my property. To what "additions" does this rule apply?

A - The basis or cost of property should be increased by adding to it: the cost of improvements having a life of more than one year, purchase commissions, legal fees, such as the cost of defending and perfecting title including title insurance) or the cost of obtaining a reduction of an assessment levied against property to pay for local benefits, certain finance charges, interest and taxes you have elected to capitalize and all other capital expenditures. The adjusted basis is subtracted from your sales price to determine the gain on the sale.

For more information, see IRS Publication 523, "Tax Information on Selling Your Home." It's available free from your IRS office.

Q - My uncle died recently. In his will he named me executor of his estate. How much time do I have to file a Federal estate tax return?

A - An estate tax return must be filed whenever the deceased leaves an estate valued at more than $60,000. The deadline for filing is nine months after date of death. For more details, see IRS Publication 448, "A Guide to Federal Estate and Gift Taxation." It's available for 50 cents from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Q - I'm taking a new job and a big pay cut. Can I use income averaging to reduce the taxes I have paid over the last couple of years?

A - No. Income averaging works only in the reverse of your situation. It is used to reduce taxes on an unusually large amount of income in the present year by averaging the four immediately preceding years of lower income.

Q - I'll probably sell my home at a profit and have to report it as a capital gain. Is there any way I can reduce the amount subject to tax by having the buyer pay me in installments?

A - Yes. The installment method may be used for reporting profits on the sale of real estate when the buyer agrees to make two or more payments in two or more of the seller's tax years. The installment method may not be used if the collections, if any, in the year of sale exceed 30 percent of the selling price. However, a sale may be reported on the installment method even though no payments are made in the year of sale.

For more information, see IRS Publication 537, "Installment and Deferred - Payment Sales." It's available free from your IRS office.

Q - On my doctor's advice, I installed an air-conditioner in my room to relieve difficulty in breathing due to an allergy. Is the cost of the air-conditioner a deductible medical expense?

A - Yes. The cost of the air-conditioner plus operating expenses less any resale or salvage value constitute a medical expense provided that the need for it is substantiated by proof that the air-conditioner is used primarily for the alleviation of a person's illness, it does not become a permanent part of the dwelling and it may be removed to other quarters.

Q - Would it make any difference for purposes of claiming my son as a dependent whether I paid his college tuition or he did?

A - Yes. Tuition payments are included in total support for determining whether or not you furnished more than half and are thus entitled to claim your son as a dependent. If your son pays the tuition, it is included in the amount of total support furnished by him; if you pay it, the tuition payments are included in total support furnished by you.

Q - Is it true that a student can be exempt from income tax withholding?

A - Yes. Students and other individuals are exempt from withholding if they did not owe tax last year, expect to owe none in 1974, and have filed a Withholding Exemption Certificate (Form W-4E) with their employer.

However, if tax has already been withheld this year, the taxpayer must file a return next year to have it refunded.

Money multiplies the power of man, either for better or for worse.

Agricultural Credit Good In Texas

College Station -- Texas country banks may be out-of-step with the rest of the country--they appear to be in good shape to serve farmers and ranchers, says an economist in agribusiness for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Wayne Hayenga recently surveyed the state's agricultural lending institutions to determine the agricultural credit climate. There were 98 respondents among banks, production credit associations, Federal Land Banks, Farmers Home Administration and other credit agencies.

Sixty-one per cent of Texas banks reported they were actively seeking new farm and ranch accounts as compared to only 19 per cent that reported cutting back on loans because of a fund shortage. Also, last year they had to refer fewer customers to non-bank credit agencies or to correspondent banks. Loan-deposit ratios were reported normal in 55 per cent of the banks; 33 per cent reported a drop in loan-deposit ratios.

Thirty-one per cent of Texas agricultural lenders reported more farmers and ranchers were borrowing this year than last, "points out Hayenga. "This compares to 10 per cent that reported a decrease in customer numbers and 59 per cent that had no change."

Seventy-three per cent reported average loan increases as compared to only eight per cent that saw loan size go down. Greatest increases reported were for machinery and operating loans while demand for feeder cattle loans decreased.

Interest rate charged by the responding lenders as of June 1 averaged 9.49 per cent for cattle loans, 9.03 per cent for farm and ranch operating loans and 8.51 per cent for real estate loans.

The average margin requirement reported for cattle loans was 37 per cent. Only 15 per cent reported margin requirements of less than 20 per cent, but 45 and 40 per cent reported margin requirements in the 20-30 per cent and 30-40 per cent range, respectively.

"Collateral requirements were reported to be higher than last year by 20 per cent of the respondents, while 78 per cent reported requirements were the same," notes the Texas A&M University System specialist. "Only two per cent reported collateral requirements were down."

Lenders reported loan repayments were up compared to last year except for cattle loans. The predominant cash crop areas reported the highest rate of loan repayment. Of the total responses, 39 per cent reported repayments up, 37 per cent were about the same and 24 per cent were lower than last year.

Seventy-seven per cent of the respondents expected farm income for the next six months to be lower than the past year while only 12 per cent thought farm and ranch earnings would be higher.

The greatest agreement was that farmers and ranchers are spending more money on purchased inputs. Ninety-one per cent reported higher farm expenses.

Thirty-three per cent of the lenders answering the survey reported current demand for refinancing debt was up from last year, but 48 per cent indicated they expected higher demand for refinancing in the next six months.

Short-term loan demand is expected to increase by 70 per cent, according to the responding institutions. Forty-seven per cent expect interest rates to remain about the same while 29 per cent expect a decrease.

Nearly half of the lenders reported that both current and expected demand for real estate loans would remain at current levels. Sixty-three per cent indicated that long term interest rates would remain about the same, with 19 per cent expecting rates to go down.
