

Parents Of Lubbock Camp Fire Girls Making Trip To Post Tonight For Council

Summer Encampment Will Be Broken Officially Tomorrow After Breakfast

A group of Lubbock adults is planning to go to Post this evening to attend the grand council fire program which is scheduled to end the summer encampment for Lubbock Camp Fire girls.

Lubbock girls are now at Camp W-Ho-Lo which is on Two Dams lake near Post and have been in camp there since August 5. Miss Corinne Warner, Camp Fire executive for the city, has as her staff of adult helpers Miss Louise Jennings, Miss Anna Cecil Evans, Miss Mary Frances Gail, all of Lubbock, and Misses Teresa Vohle, Earleese Kirby, Louise Taylor and Marjorie Taylor, all of Sherman.

Parents who go to the camp this evening may bring their daughters home with them, although the encampment will not be officially broken until after breakfast in the morning, Miss Warner has announced.

Honors are to be awarded at the council fire this evening, which is the climaxing event of the summer conference.

This summer's encampment has been pronounced a success by those who have visited there during the last few days.

Among those who are at the camp are Elizabeth Ann Price, Ellen K. Clapp, Ruth Elaine Lewis, Lois Adair, Mary Thomas, Julia Blackwell, Mary Margaret Carter, Nannie Margaret Overton, Louisa Bristol, Katherine Klett, Carrie Jane Thomas, Jean Cantelou, Sallie Truman Stricklin, of Brownfield, Billie Bob Jones, Dorothy Rutledge, of Plainview, Austine McDonald, Helen Wagner, Ruth Wagner, Doris Mullins, Velma Blanton, Robert Myrick, Remella Anderson, Thelma Houston, Mimi Speed, Inez Ferguson, of Plainview.

Sterling-For-Governor Club To Have Rally Of County Women On Saturday

A rally of all the women in Lubbock County and the surrounding territory has been planned for Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the court house by the Sterling-For-Governor club of Lubbock.

Organization of this society was perfected yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the women upon the call of the chairman, Mrs. J. H. Hankins. Miss Della Wilkinson, secretary of the Sterling group among women, assisted Mrs. Hankins in arrangements for the meeting. A large number of local women attended.

Further organization of the women who are interested in the Sterling gubernatorial campaign is planned for committee near Lubbock, according to plans made at this meeting. Chairmen for the work were named yesterday as follows:

Mrs. Morton J. Smith, chairman of the planning committee; Mrs. A. T. Biggers, publicity for the town; Mrs. Fred Stubbs, publicity chairman for the rural districts; Mrs. J. A. Hodges, chairman transportation committee.

It is the stated purpose of the Sterling-For-Governor club to enlist the interest of the women of this district in swelling the gubernatorial vote in this section for Ross Sterling in the coming election.

Vaughn Wilson and Mrs. W. H. Blodson will be speakers at the rally tomorrow.

Society Cottons To Cotton; Sport Costumes Smart

Left to right: Mrs. Robert L. Stevens, Mrs. Paul Abbott, and Mrs. Deering Howe.

BY BETSY SCHUYLER

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., Aug. 15.

Not only sleeveless and backless beach frocks have greeted the tourists, but backless sport frocks for later on in the day have become quite the thing.

Linen, gingham, batiste and other cottons are to be seen in prominent parade at the Southampton Beach Club and elsewhere.

I saw Dorothy Kavanaugh wearing a pretty medium blue sleeveless linen frock with a long vestee, collar and pointed pockets lavishly embroidered. She wore a wide-brimmed hat and short, white slip-on shoes.

Mrs. Paul Morton Smith wears a light blue sleeveless frock topped by a navy blue dotted with light blue, shantung jacket that has no sleeves but little cape caps. Cool and smart looking. On the beach she wears a white terry cloth bath jacket to two the blue cap.

Commencement exercises for the First Presbyterian Daily Bible school are to take place this evening at the church and a program has been announced by Miss Virginia McLean, superintendent.

Following the program there is to be an exhibit of work done at the school, she said.

This school opened on August 1 and has been continuing since. It is an annual affair.

Processional At First

Following the processional at night, there is to be a fellowship period during which the flag will be saluted and the school songs.

And motto will be given. A worship period with the theme "Live With the King" will follow that and then each department will have charge of a part of the program. Beginning with the beginners department, the other departments will have parts as follows:

Intermediate, primaries and juniors.

Among those having parts in the intermediate section will be Pauline Edgett, Virginia Lee Barr, and Geraldine George.

Dr. J. B. McCorkle, 2427 19th street, left this morning for a visit to Dallas.

carried a white and brown purse to match her oxford.

Getting color to the fore in white frocks is one of the season's master strokes. Mrs. Paul Abbott has a sheer pink georgette frock that has bookend motifs worked out in narrow stripes of applied deeper pink material.

Looking Hot—and Cool!

Mrs. Deering Howe has a way of always looking cool and untroubled by the weather or anything else. I passed her yesterday day, grass and cool in the sweetest of lilac French printed linen, with an immaculate white collar with scalloped outer edges, and very short sleeves with cuffs. Her horsehair braided hat looked its trimming under the brim.

Every Talbot wears white a great deal and looks splendid in it. One of her frocks is a fitted one with buttons down the uncollared neck to the skirt's flounce. Her white straw hat had a fringed edge.

The old-fashioned gingham outfit has climbed into society, and look right good there. The not-so-many chic women who make use of gingham—Mrs. Robert Stevens for a one-piece frock in lavender and white with white hat and lavender shoes, Dorothy Kavanaugh, for a black and white checked gingham skirt and coat with a white blouse to complete it.

Big brimmed hats are popular and sensible so. Among those who wear them very well are Mrs. John, Mrs. George M. Pynchon, Jr., Mrs. Julian Peacock, and Mrs. Charles Minot Amory.

G. O. P. PLANS INVASION OF THE SOUTH

AGGRESSIVE CAMPAIGN TO BE WAGED IN NEXT ELECTION

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 15. (P)—Plans for an aggressive campaign to perpetuate in the South a Republican organization "based on principle rather than patronage" were outlined today by Col. Horace A. Mann, southern campaign manager for President Hoover in 1928.

Minister Says Daughter Now Health Picture

Suffered Night And Day All Of Life—Like Different Child
Now—Father Praises
Argotane

"My little daughter, Mary Ann, has gained wonderfully on Argotane and now she's getting to be the very picture of health," said Reverend C. L. Nickelson, well known Methodist minister at Water Valley, Texas while in the Schwab Drug Co., San Antonio, Texas, a few days ago.

"She was troubled with something like nervous indigestion almost ever since she was born," continued Rev. Nickelson, "and there wasn't a day or night she didn't suffer until we got Argotane for her and she's now three years old. Her stomach was in such a bad condition we had to feed her on malted milk and things like that and she couldn't eat any kind of meat or vegetables. She would have pains in her stomach all the time and would lose and roll all night for her. She wouldn't sleep well at all. She looked pale and sickly although we gave her most every kind of medicine and tried doctor's treatments but nothing seemed to help her."

"After hearing of some of the good work Argotane was doing we got some for Mary Ann and it has done wonders for her. She actually looks and acts like a different child and she has taken only one bottle of the medicine. She commenced picking up as soon as she started Argotane. Her indigestion is much better now and she can eat more substantial food than formerly. She's not nervous nor bilious now and sleeps better at night and we never hear anything out of her from the time she goes to bed until she gets up in the morning. Her skin is clearing up and her cheeks look fresh and rosy. You can just look at her and tell she's being aided by Argotane."

Genuine Argotane may be purchased in Lubbock at the Bowen's drug store.

the southern Republican organization would establish headquarters in Atlanta, would conduct an extensive educational campaign, including radio addresses and a wide distribution of literature, and would acquire or establish newspapers at a number of strategic points in the south.

Oppose Patronage

The statement was issued after a two-day meeting here of the organization's executive committee and was the first formal conference since the gathering at Savannah, Ga., three weeks ago. Mann and his followers have rebelled against the handling of southern patronage by the administration factions of Postmaster General Brown.

Mann, who presided at the meeting here, said application for a charter would be filed at Atlanta and then the list of permanent officers would be announced. "This movement for the perpetuation in the South of a Republican organization based on principle rather than patronage," he added, "is not for or against any candidate for office or any particular party."

Under present circumstances the popular political thought of the south has no means of expression. "For the first half century of the nation's existence southern statesmen were our most influential national leaders. During the last half century southern sentiment has played a small and declining part in national affairs."

"The Democratic party, to which the South naturally became attached due to issues arising out of the Civil war and the reconstruction period, has fallen into the hands of a group of northern city political machines, corrupt organizations interested only in jobs, contracts and licensed lawlessness."

"This leadership is alien in spirit to the South. It has taken the 'Solid South' for granted politically and treated it accordingly." Mann said the Republican party nationally had treated the South as an "enemy's country," important only as a means of collecting delegates to national conventions. He said no reconstruction attempt was made until 1928 to carry on any campaign of education and organization with a view to building up the party cause in the South.

CHILD'S CUSTODY SOUGHT IN WRIT

Mrs. Roy L. Montgomery with her husband, Wednesday filed petition in the 72nd district court asking a writ of habeas corpus requiring Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Isbell, of Hockley county, to produce their four-year-old son in court.

Billy Weidon Brown is the son of Mrs. Montgomery; the petition said, and charged that with force and threats Mr. and Mrs. Isbell had taken the child from his mother and are withholding him from her. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery reside in Lubbock county.

Airplane Lines Not To Pay Gasoline Tax

GUTHRIE, Okla., Aug. 15. (P)—Airplanes need not pay the state gasoline tax on fuel they use in interstate or intrastate transportation business, three federal judges ruled here today.

Handing down a decision in a suit brought by United Airways and other airlines operating in Oklahoma, United States District Judges Edgar S. Vaughn and Robert L. Williams and Circuit Judge John H. Cottrell declared that part of the state gasoline tax applying to airplanes unconstitutional and issued a permanent injunction preventing the state auditor from collecting the tax.

BERLIN, Gp.—The German Academic Exchange Service reports that it placed 78 foreign students in German schools last year and sent 73 Germans abroad. Of the foreigners, 56 came from America and an equal number of Germans went to the United States.

MORE DANGEROUS Horses Kill More People Than Planes In Wisconsin

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 15. (P)—Horses killed more persons than airplanes in Wisconsin during the second quarter of this year, the bureau of vital statistics of the state board of health announced today.

During April, May and June, 18 persons lost their lives as the result of accidents involving horses and horse drawn vehicles. In the same period, five persons were killed in airplane accidents.

FORT SILL IS SUITABLE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15. (P)—The war department announced today that the board of officers which investigated a possible change in the location of the field artillery school, Fort Sill, Okla., had recommended that the present location is most suitable. The board recommended that Fort Sill be designated as the permanent location.

The matter has been placed before Secretary Hurley and war department officials anticipate a decision in the board's recommendation.

JOINS SPUR DISTRICT

SPUR, Aug. 15. (Special)—The Red Hill school district has been officially joined to the Spur independent district by the county school board. Trucks will be used to bring the pupils to and from the Spur school to Red Hill. Action was taken on petition of residents of the rural district with the consent of Spur officials.

EARTH HAS ANOTHER GIN

EARTH, Texas, Aug. 15. (Special)—Earth's second cotton gin is now under construction. It is the Farmers Co-Operative gin and is located on the north side of the road just west of town. The building has been completed and the machinery is ready to be installed.

WIRTH DECLARES GERMANY IS "FREEST COUNTRY IN WORLD;" VERSAILLES PACT IS SOMEWHAT OF A THORN IN ITS SIDE

(By Associated Press)
BERLIN, Aug. 15.—Joseph Wirth, minister of the interior, in an address in the Reichstag marking the eleventh annual celebration of constitution day declared Germany had "been made safe for Democracy," although the consequences of the Versailles treaty in many respects remained a thorn in the country's flesh.

Economic distress is acute, the minister declared, but the republic still stands firm in spite of sharp political divergences within, due to the excessive individualism peculiar to the German character.

WIFE'S REAPPEARANCE MYSTIFIES

MODERN ENOCH ARDEN PUTS HER HUSBAND IN RATHER BAD WAY; MURDER INDICATED

BELLOWS FALLS, Vermont, Aug. 15.—The reappearance here of Mrs. Catherine Rockwell Packard, wife of George J. Packard, of Rutland, today had given her the role of a feminine Enoch Arden and had produced a mystery involving suicide or murder and mistaken identity which officials sought to unravel.

More than a year ago, Mrs. Packard disappeared from her Rutland home. In August, 1929, the body of a woman found in a Chester pasture was identified by Packard as that of his wife. On the body was a note which read: "I am sick of life and am going where I will be happy."

On July 14 of this year, Packard married again. His second wife was Margaret L. MacFarland of Rutland. On that same date, an insurance company refused to pay insurance on the first wife.

Recently the supposedly dead Mrs. Packard made an appearance in Manchester, N. H., she explained she had been "out west." She returned to Vermont Sunday.

Investigators said Mrs. Packard admitted having written the note found on the body of the dead woman, during a period of despondency. How another person obtained it she could not explain.

SEMINOLE, Aug. 15. (Special)—A. L. Hill, partner with Mrs. Cora C. George and her son, has sold his interest in the grocery store to the Georges. Mrs. George and her son will continue to operate the store. Mr. Hill is also owner of a cream buying station.

NO TROUBLE AT ALL NOW

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Has Benefited This Woman

Millions today are eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation.

The cause of constipation is the lack of roughage in food. Add sufficient roughage and constipation disappears. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is nearly all roughage.

Here is a letter from Mrs. H. Gilbert, 107 E. Knight Ave., Collinswood, N. J., which will be interesting to many sufferers:

"I had a very serious operation in October and when I came from the hospital my main trouble was constipation. One day I said to the doctor, 'I am going to eat ALL-BRAN,' and since I started I have no trouble whatever. So you see I can't praise it enough and am always telling my friends what it did for me."

You will enjoy the nut-like flavor of this delicious, ready-to-eat cereal. It is rich in iron, and when eaten with milk or fruit juices, adds important vitamins to the diet.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is an essential in any reducing diet. It means every-day health to people all over the world. Your grocer has it in the red-and-green package, served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

MOODY WANTS RELIEF FOR TEXAS

GOVERNOR SENDS WIRE TO PRESIDENT ON DROUGHT AID

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Aug. 15.—Governor Dan Moody instructed his office here to wire President Hoover asking that drought conditions in Texas be considered in the event the federal government decides to act on behalf of farmers in drought stricken areas.

The telegram follows: "I note from press accounts that you are giving attention to the serious effect of the drought on livestock and farming in certain sections of the country. Permit me to suggest that drought conditions in Texas are such as to seriously injure our farming and livestock interests and to ask that in your conference you take into consideration these conditions in Texas and determine what, if anything, the United States government can do in the premises."

Thought For Today

Vanity has no sex.—Colton.

Aftermath
Trying to make sense out of the late news from China is an almost impossible job. Battle, murder and sudden death seem to have been let loose once more on a wholesale
scale, with the city of Changsha
coming in for the most attention.

But what is it all about, which faction is which, and what the upshot
is likely to be are questions that cannot easily be answered.

The one thing that stands out is
that China's long period of turmoil
is nowhere near an end. A few years ago the emergence of the Nationals party made it look as if
some sort of order would be maintained. Now the situation looks
just as bad as ever, and the one
safe bet is that there will be a great deal more violence and bloodshed
before China gets a rest.

Changsha was looted by an army
said to be under "Red" control. At this distance its leaders look very much like ordinary bandits; they are not like them, whether they are inspired by a desire for money or
a year for Communism, and it is very hard to find any definite set
of principles back of any of the revolutionary movements in that country.

That, of course, is what makes
the whole business so discouraging.
Really, though, the mess isn't quite
as puzzling as it seems.

In a general way, it is probably true that China, along with most of the rest of the orient, is still liquidating the World War. That final catastrophe brought on by the militaristic habits of imperialist white men was an even greater calamity than we usually suppose. Its reverberations have not died away yet, and it will be a long time until they do.

The World War was a most powerful ferment. It not only changed
the map of Europe; it loosed on the world a flood of new ideas and new movements, and they are working powerfully. It brought Bolshevism
to the surface, and the Bolshevik
undoubtedly is at least partly responsible for China's trouble. It filled India with a desire for freedom, as England is discovering to her dismay. From the Nile to the Yellow Sea it stirred men up, broke down old customs and routines and
deposited a heritage of turbulence
and unrest.

What the final solution will be no
man can say. We can understand things better, however, if we recognize the fact that the trouble in the orient today is largely an outgrowth of the war. It will be a long, long time before the explosion
that was touched off 16 years
ago stops re-echoing.

Idiotic
The muddle-headedness of which
some politicians are capable when they go on to enforce Sunday "blue
laws" is sometimes almost beyond belief.

In Philadelphia the other Sunday
two working boys' clubs played a
baseball game, with a group of kids
from an orphan asylum as their guests. No admission could be charged,
and no fewer than 10 policemen
were present to see that no fee was collected.

At the end of the fourth inning
the boys tried to take up a collection
from the crowd to pay the day's expenses—baseballs, ground rent and the like. They promised to give any surplus to the police department,
to be spent on charity. But the police were adamant. As soon as the boys started to go around the police
broke up the game and arrested the boys in charge.

Boys like that are simply silly.
"Blue laws," so-called, are designed to prevent the commercialization of the Sabbath. A game like this one ought to be innocuous enough for anyone.

When the British ambassador
to the United States added to his house supplies here, he was criticized by a public-spirited citizen
for showing "contempt for the law of our nation." But the ambassador's actions, by most standards, were 100 per cent American.

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says quiet
weddings are all right but what this country needs most is peaceful marriages.

A reformer is a man who wants to paint the town blue.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK—

That Texas Tech will have two-thirds as many students this year
as Lubbock had citizens in 1929?

That the east half of the south side
of the square has shown a wonderful improvement in appearance in the past four months?

That more people came to Lubbock to make their homes in 1929 than there were people residing here in 1929?

That O. L. Elston, who formerly practiced law and was a county attorney in Texas, went to law school
with Senator Gore?

That Jim Ferguson says he does not
let political differences affect his personal opinion of any man?

That another rain with-
in two weeks will assure the South Plains of the best cotton crop in
years, providing there is no abnor-
mally early freeze?

That there is a secret passage way from
the top to the bottom of the courthouse?

That the captain of the 1929 La-
mea High school football team, a powerful lineman, will play this year with the Amarillo Sander?

That Easton Wolfarth, through a
joking remark, furnished the name
for the Lubbock Avalanche?

And that in his younger days
Easton was regarded as a whale of
a bronc rider?

That Capt. W. E. Wyatt, of the Ft. Worth
Police department, who is holding school
here for the Lubbock coppers, has made some suggestions on keeping of public records of the police department and that the department will do well to adopt them?

That a lot of little oddities in
the news, like these, may be picked up and that The Plainsman
hopes the reporters on The Journal
will take the hint?

That man on Avenue Q says I
O U prove that a fellow needn't
be a desire to be classed as a
three-letter man.

It appears that Lubbock county
will not stay by the elections of 1930 without at least a touch of fire-works. The county judge's runoff in which Charles Nordyke is opposing E. L. Pitts for nomination, will likely grow plenty hot before the voters, in their customary
fury, decide the issue. Mr. Nordyke filled two terms as Lubbock county judge while Mr. Pitts served four terms in the same office in Palo Pinto county.

Several days ago handbills
attacking Pitts' official record in Palo Pinto county, were circulated over Lubbock. The handbills were not set forth
that they were being circulated
without knowledge of Nordyke.
Pitts answered the charges with
handbills of his own and fuel
was added to the flames.

The Plainsman wants it understood that he is not taking sides
in the Pitts-Nordyke race, at least not at this writing. He is, instead,
the self-appointed advisor to the
voters of the county and you
needn't take the advice unless you want it. Never-the-less, it is our opinion that Lubbock county
gain anything by a bitter political
fight between Nordyke and Pitts.
We urge the voters to cast their ballots on the basis of fitness for office, rather than through prejudice.

THIS column doesn't know who caused the Pitts-Nordyke circulars
to be printed and distributed.
Neither does it know whether or not the charges contained therein
were true. But whoever was at the bottom of it used poor political psychology as far as the Plains
country is concerned. Anonymous
attacks receive little credence in this country where men prefer to take things on face value. It is our opinion that the anonymous
circulars, because of their glaring
anonymity, will make voters for Pitts rather than Nordyke, and that will be hard on Nordyke who,
according to the circulars, knew
nothing about their being printed
or distributed. His friends bungled badly in his behalf.

The facts of the county
judge's race, briefly, are these:
Both men have served sufficient lengths of time in a county judge's office to become thoroughly acquainted and experienced with the work.

Both men have been admitted to the bar as practicing attorneys although neither has
had what might be called any great degree of experience as a practicing attorney.

Both men bear good reputations as citizens.

Surely the voters will be able
to decide which of the two they wish to entrust with the duties
of this important office, with-
out the handicap of a political fight.

Prohibition Foes Smile And Drys Groan Over Trick That May Send Wet To Congress Representing Capital Sector

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Another
election possibility has smitten
Washington with both delight and consternation, the former emotion
being that of the wets and the latter that of the dries.

The possibility
is that in the
next Congress the
three congressional districts
which surround
the District of Columbia will
each have a wet
representative in the House.

Of course that
would not be any
body blow to prohibition, but it
would not look
very good.

high prohibition enforcement officials of the nation and the chiefs
of the big dry organizations here
simply wouldn't be able to leave Washington without riding through or passing over wet territory, and
the psychological effect on a
might come to have an unfortunate influence.

The eighth Virginia district, one
of the three, is the home congressional district of the late George Washington. The other two are the fifth and sixth Maryland.

Washington is always interested in these nearby counties. Thousands of folks who work here live in the counties adjacent. Most of the Washingtonians either have
summer shacks in the three bordering congressional districts or spend their Sundays on motor jaunts over Maryland and Virginia roads and get to know the country as well as the streets of this city. Much of the food consumed here comes from farms in the same territory. That is why the wets are so interested
in what is distilled and shipped here
from all three districts.

The fifth Maryland district, which includes Montgomery, St. Mary's, Prince Georges and Anne Arundel
counties, will be represented by a wet in any event. That seems appropriate. St. Mary's county produces the famous product known as
"S. M. R." The initials stand for "St. Mary's river" or "Southern Maryland river" as you will. When a good citizen goes to jail in St. Mary's county he is allowed out during the day, but forced to come in at night.
If he happens to be a newly-married man who is still in love with his wife he is given the option of
spending his days in jail and nights
at home.

Anyway, that district is now represented by Congressman Stephen W. Gambrill, and his opponent for November, A. K. Love, the Republican leader of St. Mary's county—
recently joined Gambrill in the wet
ranks.

Congressman Frederick N. Zihl-
man of the sixth Maryland is a
dry, and he will be opposed to November by former Congressman David J. Lewis, one-time member of the tariff commission, who uses
to be a dry, but lately announced
his conviction that prohibition was
a failure and must either be thoroughly revamped or abandoned.

Zihlman May Reconsider
One hears that Zihlman may re-
consider his views on prohibition,
too, but in any event Lewis will be giving him a strong contest in the fall campaign. His district includes Montgomery and Frederick counties.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

RAW FOODS NECESSARY IN THE DIET

There was a dream once that
some form of concentrated food
could be found. This would do away with the necessity of having a great deal of bulk to carry home from
the grocery store and find storage
room for in the house. Instead
you would have three small cubes
placed out on the mantelpiece in
the morning wrapped in tin foil, and
a month or two later you would represent your daily allowance of food. You would unwrap one from its tin foil in the morning and in the evening, and you would be taking in the car, one at noon and one at
you got home in the evening. They would have sort of magical properties
and would relieve fatigue and
restore vigor immediately.

The accomplishment of this
dream would have been of extraordinary value to armies in wartime.
Instead of great lumbering community caravans and kitchen supplies
of cumbersome dimensions, every
soldier would carry in his knap-
sack enough food to last him for a month or two.

It was a beautiful dream but it didn't work out. Experiments were tried on soldiers. Keeping them on concentrated preserved food for weeks, but they all got sick and weak. They had sore tongues and eruptions on the skin and other
manifestations of illness.

Finally in 1906 Professor Gow-
land Hopkins showed that fresh foods contain a substance or substances necessary to healthy living. These substances were later called vitamins. The discovery of preserved food and often when
food is cooked Hopkins found them particularly in fresh milk. His experiments were performed on white rats. He had one group of white land rats as you will. When a sufficient amount of energy and tissue replacement. There was another group which got the same
food as the first, but also an ounce
of fresh milk a day. The first lot got sick and failed to grow. The second group, however, thrived. Therefore Hopkins concluded animals cannot live on preserved or concentrated
food alone.

It has been abundantly proved
since that he was right.

Therefore—in every diet there should be some raw food. Besides milk the fruits, oranges lemons and limes—have some of these substances. Yeast has many. Cod liver

In New

York

With

Swan

Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Now that
everyone and his brother has decided that what would be the ten best books
to take to a desert island, along
comes the question of what ten
movies might be the most interesting under the same circumstances.

Thus far, only one group of men
has had a chance to try it out. It seems that before Commander Byrd
sailed for his South Pole hazard,
the National Board of Motion Picture Review presented the leader
and his comrades with a library of films to be observed at leisure in
the most out of the way movie theater conceivable.

Byrd, then, becomes somewhat of
an authority on what a group of
stranded men consider good film entertainment during long months of incarceration beyond barriers of snow and ice.

And discussing this the other night, disappointing as it may be to
the fans, there wasn't a single hot
clinch nor a Clara Bowish comment in the lot.

Such screen classics as "Changing," "Moana," "Grass" and "Nannook
of the North" headed the list of pictures most in demand and most enjoyed in the "Little America Theater."

Charlie Chaplin had a large vote
and old Harry Langdon funnier
also was popular. Felix the Cat had a considerable following. But being
on exploring and adventure bent,
the men were extremely interested
in other explorers and their film
records—such as Shackleton's last Antarctic expedition, Snow's Big Game Hunting in Africa, and a dozen similar records of game hunts
and exploits were frequently reviewed.

From down on the waterfront
comes word via the Seamen's Institute that the men who go down to the sea in ships have been singularly inspired by the experience of John Macfield in capturing world
honors.

"Findings of this Institute," writes
Miss Marjorie Candler, "and we're in daily contact with men right to twelve thousand seamen, prove to us that each week there is an invasion of would-be poets, sculptors,
novelists and the like. In the pocket
of many a nautical jacket are
sheaves of verse and sketches created during the leisure hours at sea.

Well, it's nice to believe that in these days of ocean giants there still clings a magic of ships and the sea.

Which reminds me that artists
can get permits to sit on the Central Park grass if they guarantee to do some painting. Grass is so scarce
in this town that they have to protect rigidly the few acres that remain.

And of all the strange sights beheld in this town in two years, the
one attracting most attention was a man running for a street car. If you can't see anything funny about that
it's because you don't understand
how street cars generally crawl
through the Manhattan traffic.

Since I travel very little on trains,
carrying traveling men hither and
on, I'm not acquainted with the type of smoking room stories heard thereon.

But each Monday morning, I find
myself stooping to stogie with bankers,
millionaires and such returning
from a week-end at Southampton.
And eight out of ten of these oldster's conversations concerns their youngsters and what they are up to.

No Run-Off Needed
For Dawson Office

In a special dispatch from La-
mea (yesterday) The Daily Journal
reported that a run-off race between V. O. Key and Dixie Kilgore
would be necessary to decide the Democratic county Democratic chairmanship.

That report was in error according to Vic Lamb, The Journal's Lamea correspondent, who called
by telephone this morning to correct it. Mr. Key won the place in the first primary on July 28.

Judging from the late of Mexican presidents, the Mexican Congress is said to be considerably
flattered now that one of its members has been assassinated.

HUDSON TELLS OF CO-OP IN FLOYDADA

HALE CENTER MAN IS SPEAKER IN MEET HELD WEDNESDAY

"Never before have we had the protecting arm of the government around us in our efforts to organize properly and control the selling end of our business," said M. S. Hudson, of Hale Center, director of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association, in speaking at the county-wide meeting at Floydada Wednesday. "The government is putting forth $500,000,000 in money and obtaining the services of some of the greatest minds in the nation to help organize the farmers and solve their marketing problems."

"We must accept the hand being offered us by the federal government with confidence, realizing that the government is making a sincere effort to help place agriculture upon an equal basis with other industries of the country. By joining hands with the government you are not only doing something for yourselves but also for your children," he continued.

Believe in Government
"We firmly believe the government is trying to find a solution to our problems and that we at least are started in the right direction. We must do our part by organizing. It is worth the effort and worth giving a trial and that is all that is asked."

The reason the federal government has stepped into the picture to help farmers organize is because their purchasing power has been so greatly depleted it has injured the entire business structure of the nation, declared R. J. Murray, president of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the district organization committee of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association. "This is the first opportunity farmers of America have had to organize and protect their interest with government support and supervision. The old organizations asked capital. Now the government is putting up the capital."

Herman F. Dietrich, district organization director, explained the liberal features of the new marketing agreement.

SLEEPY FELLOW

Jake Gets Into Trouble For Not Being Awake

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 15. (AP)—Jake Pettis is pretty much upset about being in the lockup, but he's catching up with a lot of much-needed sleep. The fact is, if Jake hadn't fallen asleep on the "job," goodness knows when he'd been able to get such a long rest.

Jake was drowsy when he arrived in a residential district. The neighborhood still was asleep. That's why he fell asleep while waiting for the folks to go to bed.

Four hours later he awoke and crawled through a window. The police report shows Jake found his intended victim already up for breakfast and that the said "victim" grabbed a gun, took a shot at Jake and ran into the arms of a policeman and the policeman put Jake to bed in the station house.

Soldier Is Held For Wife's Death
SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 15. (AP)—James R. Adams, Port San Houston soldier cook, is being held in custody today in connection with the death of Mrs. Lillie Adams, his wife, whose body was found in a wrecked automobile in the Salado creek Saturday night. No charges will be filed until investigation determines whether Mrs. Adams was killed on the United States military reservation or on state property.

Several wounds, apparently inflicted by a heavy sharp instrument, were found on Mrs. Adams' head which was wrapped in a towel.

COUNTY TAX RATE SET
DALLAS, Aug. 15. (AP)—The county tax rate was fixed at 92 cents on the $100 valuation by the commissioners' court today, an increase of four cents over last year. The rate was based on an assessed valuation of $10,000,000.

LINA BASQUETTE, STAGE STAR, FOUND POISONED; SOUGHT CUSTODY OF CHILD

(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—Lina Basquette, stage and film actress and widow of Sam Warner, motion picture executive, was treated for a slight case of poisoning at the receiving hospital here late Wednesday after police said she admitted a suicide attempt.

Miss Basquette was registered at the hospital as "Eleanor Copeland," but later admitted her identity. Police said, after her maid, Irene Zastro, had broken down under questioning and given her employers' true name.

Wanted Her Child
Police surgeons found the actress had not been seriously poisoned and later released her to her personal physician and allowed her to go home. Today she told them her act was prompted by failure to obtain custody of her four-year-old daughter, Lita Warner. The child was adopted by a brother of Sam Warner following the latter's death.

As Miss Basquette was being treated for minor burns about the face and arms, her present husband, Peverell Marley, a cameraman, called at the hospital. He seemed much affected but the actress said she didn't care to see him. Attendants said she ordered him from the room. They have been separated since last June.

Miss Basquette was operated upon for appendicitis a month ago and still is convalescent. Physicians said she would not suffer any ill effects from her experience last night. She took the poison after a party at her Wilshire boulevard apartment. E. H. Sears, Jr., and Miss Basquette's maid were with the actress at the time and notified police.

STRENGTHENING OF WORK ASKED

AUSTIN, Aug. 15. (AP)—Plans have been submitted to the federal department of agriculture bureau of public roads, calling for an increase of the personnel of the Austin bureau and for concentration of government road activities in Texas in the state capital. It was learned today. Tentative approval has been given the plan. It was said.

Under the present set up, plans for federal highways in north Texas are handled by the district office at Fort Worth. The arrangement has resulted in some confusion and the change will be made to obtain closer cooperation between the state and federal departments. The district office at Fort Worth will maintain its general supervision of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas but the detail work on federal highways in Texas will be handled by the Austin bureau. Two new engineers will be added to the Austin force if the plan is approved.

Plane Forced Into Top Of Tall Pine In Wyoming

POCATELLO, Idaho, Aug. 15. (AP)—Jud Parker, Pocatello pilot and two passengers trudged into town, told a story of being forced to climb back to earth from an airplane ride.

They said a terrific storm forced their plane into the top of a tall pine in the Targhee forest, near Jackson Hole, Wyo. The trio said they descended fifty feet to earth, uninjured. Parker said he would have to chop the tree down to retrieve his plane, only slightly damaged in the crash.

DAMAGE SUIT IS FILED AS ECHO TO MABEL WILLEBRANDT PRO ARTICLES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15. (AP)—Mabel Walker Willebrandt, former assistant attorney general in charge of prohibition enforcement, David Lawrence, writer, the Current News Features, Inc., and Hilmar Baukhage, all of Washington, today were named defendants in a $200,000 damage suit filed by Gus O. Nations of St. Louis in the District of Columbia supreme court. The suit is based on statements contained in a publication August 14, 1929, made in one of a series of articles by Mrs. Willebrandt on the "Inside of prohibition." In an advance notice of the article it was said she would tell "how she had to fight the Anti-Saloon League to remove a crooked but popular agent." Nations said that as a result of the publication of the Willebrandt articles he had been brought into disrepute and injured in the performance of his duties as a director of the Anti-Saloon League and as an attorney for the league in Missouri.

Aerial Wrangler Is Latest In Oregon

VALE, Ore., Aug. 15. (AP)—The aerial horse wrangler has made his appearance on the Owyhee plains. Archie Meyers has bought a plane to use in scouting bands of wild horses his riders are rounding up for chicken feed. The government is aiding in ridding the ranges of the wild mustangs which have become infected with a contagious disease.

FINAL SESSION IS HELD ON CAMPAIGN

Closing a series of community meetings which have been held in Lubbock county, the final gathering was held last night at New Hope. Guion Gregg, chamber of commerce captain, and L. W. Wilke, community chairman, were in charge of the assembly. Plans at this time call for an intensive house to house canvass to be made in each community. Carlisle, Hardy and County Line communities already have been canvassed partly and committees began the field work program in New Hope yesterday. Workers have reported successful returns thus far and it is believed a major portion of cotton farmers in all Lubbock county communities will align with the cotton cooperative association.

CUBS AND ROBINS TO BATTLE FOR NATIONAL LEAGUE TITLE

FINAL CLASH OF SERIES IS TODAY

TWO TEAMS ARE NOT TO MEET AGAIN UNTIL SEPT.

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

Unless today's final clash of the "decider" series between Brooklyn and Chicago finally brings something like a decision, it looks as if their race for the National League pennant might continue indefinitely, or at least until they meet again in September. Despite the big margin they hold over the Robins in their season's play, the Cubs have not been able to get far ahead in the three games of their current series.

Pat Malone Master

Chicago has won two clashes and sent one full game yesterday as Pat Malone pitched a fine game for a 5 to 1 Cub triumph. But still the big advantage for the Robins is that the difference in the losing column where Brooklyn is two games to the bad. The future schedule shows little possibility of a "break" for either team.

The Cubs, held in check to some degree through the second game, were completely superior yesterday as Malone stopped the thunder of Brooklyn's big bats. They went out ahead in the very first inning and did all their scoring in the first three to win without much difficulty. Bill Clark, Brooklyn's southpaw ace, lasted less than two innings and Clise Dudley could not check the Cub slugging until the damage had been done. Malone, his speedball working at its best clip, gave the Robins only three hits in the first six innings and had a shutout in hand until two were up in the ninth, when a Cub error permitted the only Brooklyn run across the plate.

Rain Halts Others

With four teams kept idle by rain and wet grounds, the National League as a whole made little progress yesterday. The St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Braves divided a close double header, that was principally notable for the appearance of some of the league's older pitchers. Socks Seibold lost a tough struggle in the first game as the Cards put on a two run rally in the ninth to win, 4 to 3, although outlasted by the Braves. Old Tom Zachary outlasted Bugh Grimes and held St. Louis to six hits while the Braves pulled out a 3 to 2 triumph. The Card winning streak went to six games before it was broken in the second game.

Three pitchers, Wes Ferrell, Earl Whitehill and Eddie Durham, provided the features of the American League's day. Ferrell won his 20th victory of the season as Cleveland came back from five straight defeats to pound out a 15 to 9 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics.

Whitehill won his tenth successive game, setting a major league record for the season as he beat the New York Yankees, 5 to 1, on a seven hit and eleven strike out pitching performance. Elias Funk's triple with the bases full in the fifth gave the Tigers most of their runs. Durham, pitching in a lesser cause, turned in the best hurling job of the day. He shut out the St. Louis Browns with four singles and without a free trip to first in giving Boston a 3 to 0 victory.

Washington's Senators used three hurlers in their final clash with Chicago and obtained the best results of them all so far as the standings were concerned although they had something of a struggle to win a 5 to 4 decision. At New York and Philadelphia both lost, the Senators gained a full game on their only important rivals, placing themselves eight games ahead of the league leaders and two ahead of the Yankees.

VIC FRAZIER ON WAY BACK HOME

CHICAGO, Aug. 15. (AP)—Young Victor Frazier, White Sox right handed pitching prospect, today was on his way back to Dallas to continue his lecture until next February.

Frazier, who was purchased from the Dallas Texas league club last fall, deserted the Sox after the spring training season, but later experienced a change of heart. He came to Chicago to see about re-instatement, but learned his application was useless because he failed to file it before August 1.

The pitcher was regarded as a fine prospect by Manager Donie Bush, but for some reason decided he didn't want to leave Texas. Sol Dreyfuss, president of the Dallas club talked him out of that notion, and he will have another chance to try for a major league berth in 1931.

Allison and Wife's Father In Finals

PORTLAND, Maine, Aug. 15. (AP)—Walter Allison, Davis cup star and his father-in-law, W. L. Casswell, teamed in the doubles of the Maine championship tennis tournament here Thursday and battered their way to the finals.

After defeating L. W. Knox and S. P. Snyder, 6-4, 5-7, 6-1, in the quarter finals, they repeated over C. Chaffee and Albert Horton in the semi-finals, 6-3, 5-7, 6-6, 6-4.

The spotlight in the men's singles was focused on Frank Shields, defeated conqueror of Bill Tilden, who defeated A. M. Wilder, 6-2, 6-1.

SPUDS CLIMB BACK IN LEAD

PANTHERS ARE GOING DOWN; CUBS LOSE

INDIANS BEATEN OUT IN SERIES; SHIVER HITS 2 HOMERS

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

Harvey Baller, well known San Antonio outfielder, juggled a lively ball yesterday and the Wichita Falls Spudgers were back atop the Texas League standings.

Baller's costly miff enabled the Spuds to make it two straight from the Indians, 14 to 12, after a 12-inning struggle. The tallenders were leading, 12 to 11, going into the last of the ninth and had every intention of winning until Harvey went haywire on Euler's loop and Irving Burns trotted in with the tying run. That was all the leeway the Spudgers needed. In the twelfth, Fitzgerald bunted one out of the lot with a mule aboard to make the victory official. It was Pitt's fifth blow of the melee.

Bufs Jolt Cats

The Fort Worth Cats were handed another jolt by the Bufs, 7 to 6, dropping into second place. The Panthers nursed a three-run lead into the ninth, when the Bufs suddenly jumped on Buchanan for four scores to break up the game. Denny Dean went in and set the Cats down in order in their half.

The win lightened Houston's hold on third place, three and one-half games off the roof.

Waco continued to feel the loss of its regular third sacker, Jodie Tate, as the Dallas Steers handed the erstwhile sensations their sixth straight loss on the road, 6 to 4. The venerable Del Pratt, filling in at the hot corner, muffed up a pair of bunts that led to as many Dallas runs and had a miserable day at bat. Twice he was the victim of a third out with the bases loaded, and again with two outs on. What the Mats fell on four opposing chumpers in timely fashion.

Tahoka Wins Again

Tahoka and Brownfield tied in one of the best games of the season over at Tahoka yesterday with the winners of the first half of the season emerging with a 2 to 1 win.

Shiver Hits Couple

Chuck Shiver smacked two homers to account for half of his team's runs at the Beaumont Exporters made it two in a row at Shreveport 19 to 6. The league's leading hurler, Shiver, was the victim being charged with his fourth loss of the year. Beat to a whimper by seven runners, the Sports fell to Market for five runs and drove him from the hill in the eighth, but Green muffed and stopped them before they could do more damage.

ANTON TEAM SMOTHERS LUBBOCK IN FIRST APPEARANCE HERE; TAHOKA IS WINNER OVER BROWNFIELD IN HOT TILT

Inability to judge the offerings of one Dixon, Anton chunker, and poor base running on the part of the Hubbers, together with frequent fielding bobbles gave the Anton team, newest addition to the South Plains League, a 13 to 2 victory over Lubbock here yesterday.

The Hubber team was without the services of some of its leading hitters, but the Anton Sluggers were all on hand to smother Del Morgan for fifteen safeties and walk away with an easy win.

The visitors were off to a five run lead in the first stanza as a result of two singles, two doubles, and a triple by the heavy hitting Antonites. Dixon, although king of the mound for the day to give up only four hits, walked eight men, and would have walked as many more if given the chance. Little Rob, Hubber short stop, was the leading hitter for Lubbock with a single and a double in four trips. Scott, visiting left fielder, hit three singles and a double in five trips.

ROSS STERLING IS HEARD IN TALK HERE

OVER 3,000 GATHER TO HEAR HOUSTON MAN IN ADDRESS

"When I'm governor you needn't fear what Texas Tech will get," declared Ross Sterling, Houston gubernatorial candidate, before a gathering of more than 3,000 persons in Lubbock last night.

Sterling made his second 1936 address here on Avenue K, between Main and Broadway, and was aided by State Senator Walter Woodward, of Coleman. Both men flanked Jim Ferguson continuously and predicted a victory for Sterling.

To Be For All
Sterling emphasized that he would be a governor for all Texas, West as well as South, east or north. "I will be the governor for the ranchman, the farmer, the laboring man—for all Texans," he said.

"A vote for me is not a vote for a bond issue," he continued. And he stated his desire was to make the man who uses the highways pay for building them, citing instances where large cities using paved highways most, were paying the least in taxes. A declaration was made for rural schools, with the aim to give rural school children the same opportunity as those in the cities.

Wilson Presides
Last night's gathering was under direction of Roscoe Wilson, Lubbock attorney and chairman of the Lubbock Sterling for Governor organization.

Texas' Opportunity
Mr. Wilson stated this race is the greatest opportunity Texas ever had to elect a successful business man as governor. Mr. Klett referred to his support of Senator Clint C. Small in the first primary because of need for West Texas recognition in the state. He said the vote of more than 100,000 cast for Small was proof of balance of power existing in this campaign in this section of the state.

Senator Woodward complimented the presence of so many women, and eloquently appealed for their support of Sterling, saying the woman and ministers of Texas were for their rulers. He said that Sterling's forefathers came to Texas with Austin's colony fought with Sam Houston at San Jacinto and led as confederate officers in the civil war.

Aid For West Texas
It was Woodward's prediction that West Texas would secure greater development with Sterling as governor than with Ferguson in power.

Ross Sterling believes Texas Tech should be made the greatest institution of its kind in the United States," was Woodward's statement. At this point the amplifier speaking system was disconnected and he said Ferguson men had cut the circuits on the systems at other places during the past few days. "Sterling's bond issue proposition is misunderstood and misrepresented," said Woodward. "He does not advocate any bond issue that will impose any tax on any property, or that will take any money from school funds. But, he says it is wrong in principle to vote a tax on the people to build roads with."

Raps Jim's Record
The senator told several detail stories of the Ferguson's pardon record, claiming this to be the worst blot on the state's political record. He said Jim Ferguson was barred from running for an office, that he could not even be a notary public, or justice of the peace or constable. Impachment proceedings were related.

"A vote for Ma will place Jim in power," an interruption by a Ferguson supporter brought from Woodward the statement: "Perhaps the Ferguson man who interrupted me expects to receive a pardon." At this some one from the audience called out "Pour it on, Walter."

"I am going to introduce a bill to repeal the pistol carrying law of Texas, so honest folks can protect themselves," he claimed. Ferguson acted as lobbyist for the Bullough interests of the state when the legislature was trying to tax them for fairer taxes.

Sterling reviewed several cases included in the highway scandal during the Ferguson administration. He told of dealings with Jim years before he was first elected governor. He reviewed his own life story from boyhood and in referring to Ferguson's reference to his home having so many bairns, said:

"I don't know about Jim's home, but if it had 100 bairns in it, they would not be enough to wash his hide clean, not even if he had a dipping vat."

"We're going to bury Old Jim deep on August 23, and face down, that he never will scratch his way out, he claimed."

Sterling claimed that Fort Worth interests, interested in race track gambling, had been promised by him to make Texas wide open for race track gambling. If his wife is elected governor, he stated he was opposed to such gambling and would fight it in every manner to prevent it.

Woodward said Sterling had raised newspapers from liability on libel for anything they printed at Ferguson had said about him, and he challenged Ferguson to do the same.

"That was Tuesday, and old Jim isn't replied yet," Woodward said. He is not a candidate in law, but being behind this wife's skirts."

Statements said false
He declared false the Ferguson statement that he helped Clint Hall in the passage of his land donation bill.

"The people of this section know members of the legislature who helped that bill," Woodward shouted.

Woodward said "if Texas Tech has

PRINCE'S PLANE IS SHOT DOWN!

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS IN CENTER OF THRILLS AS PLANE IS MISTAKEN IN "WAR IN AIR"

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Aug. 15.—The Prince of Wales was the central figure of a story of thrills being told today of the "war in the air" now being waged in the Royal air force manoeuvres.

The prince, flying with Squadron Leader Don, his personal pilot, in a fairy plane to watch the aerial conflict's progress, was mistaken for an "enemy raider" and "shot down" by the vigilant air defendants.

The territory over which the manoeuvres are taking place in the southern counties of England is divided into "red land" and "blue land." When the Prince set out from the Northolt airdrome yesterday his route took him over the blue territory. Widespread scouts of the blue force quickly discovered the supposed new enemy among them and six bristling fighting machines pounced upon the Prince's plane without, of course,

COLLEGE PLANS FOR SEASON

FACILITIES ARE TO BE ENLARGED; PRICES ARE FIXED

Completion of plans to enlarge athletic facilities and create additions to the present inadequate space for athletes were accomplished at a regular meeting of the Texas Tech Athletic Council yesterday. The new plans call for a field house for football men to be erected beneath the stands at the gridiron, enlargement of room in the gymnasium to care for an increased class in physical education, and the laying aside of a club room for lettermen, which will also contain trophies won by the Tech athletes.

Work on the building was actually started last week, and the erection of a field house will begin early next week, according to plans by the council. Authorization was given for the remodeling and repainting of ticket booths and press box at the meeting yesterday. This work will also start immediately.

A definite rate of admission to games this fall was set by the council yesterday, the decision being featured by special concessions to Lubbock public school children, including high school students. The council agreed to admit students of primary and secondary schools of the city for twenty-five cents, provided the students hold coupon books issued by the local high school. The regular rate of admission to adults was fixed at one dollar, general admission, to bleachers on the east wing, $1.50 for reserved seats in the west wing, and $2 for box seats. Reserved seats in the west wing will be in sections A, B, and C. Tech students will occupy sections D and E. Tickets for the games will be on sale at the hotel drug stores of Lubbock.

RESIGNS PASTORATE
FLOYDADA, Aug. 15. (Special)—Rev. A. A. Collins, for the past five years pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church here, has resigned. He will move after September 1 to Norman, Okla., where his daughter, Miss Ollie Belle, will attend the school of Journalism of the University of Oklahoma. She is a junior.

got to wait for help until Ma and Jim get back into office, God help that school."

The candidate so far had travelled through 12 counties of West Texas, speaking only a few miles distant from James E. Ferguson, as both campaigned vigorously, seeking the vote west Texas counties gave Clint Small in the first primary.

P. B. PENNEY IS HEAD OF PIONEERS

LUBBOCK COUNTY BODY HOLDS ANNUAL MEET HERE THURSDAY

P. B. Penney yesterday was elected president of the Lubbock Pioneer's association for the ensuing year to succeed Frank Wheelock, while Mrs. George R. Bean was named secretary to succeed Bob Crump, of Shallowater. The elections were made at the annual gathering of the association which was attended by approximately 100 persons.

The meeting opened yesterday shortly before noon at the Fairhandle South Plains fair park and a basket lunch was served at noon. Immediately following the lunch a business session was held.

Change Eligibility
The members yesterday voted a change in the constitution making one eligible for membership when he has lived in the county for 25 years. It was also decided that a metal emblem, symbolical of early days, is to be cast for the association in such form that it may be worn as a watch charm by the men or as a pin by the women. A committee composed of Mrs. J. E. Vickers, Mrs. Earl Hunt and E. P. Earhart was appointed to have the trinket made.

This emblem is to be presented to P. E. Wheelock, who came to the section now designated as Lubbock county in 1881 and has maintained a continuous residence here since. It was determined yesterday that he was the oldest resident of the county. When he leaves Lubbock, this emblem is to be presented to the one having the next longest residence and this will become a custom.

Among speakers who appeared on the program were M. G. Abernathy, George R. Bean, Frank Wheelock and Marion Coleman.

RALLY FOR MA IS PLANNED

IDALOU TO BE SCENE OF GATHERING ON SATURDAY

Announcement was made here yesterday that a plea for votes for Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson will be made at Idalou Saturday when W. W. Campbell, local attorney, and Dan Powers, high school teacher, take the stump in that city for the woman candidate.

The local men are scheduled to speak at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and, according to J. A. Humphries, local Ferguson chief, will answer some of the charges hurled at Mrs. Ferguson by Senator Walter Woodward and Ross Sterling in Lubbock last night.

A Lubbock Ferguson rally is being planned for Lubbock next Wednesday night. Mr. Humphries stated, with T. H. Cummings, Wichita Falls attorney, as principal speaker. Cummings defended former Governor James E. Ferguson in the latter's impeachment trial which ended in his being barred from rights of office holding in Texas.

On the platform with Cummings will be Mrs. Emma Orvis Mayhew, of Plainview, who served as secretary of state under Governor Miriam A. Ferguson in 1923 and 1925. She will also speak here.

Time of the meeting will be a week and place will be announced later.

Mears And Pilot To Study Conditions

NEW YORK, Aug. 15. (P)—John Henry Mears, globe girder, and his pilot, Henry J. Brown of Cleveland, will sail for London within ten days, to fly in a Moth plane across Russia and Siberia and familiarize themselves with conditions they expect to confront in an attempted round the world flight in the summer of 1931.

Mears and Brown returned today by ship from Harbor Grace, N. F., where their plane cracked up on August 3 as it took off for Dublin on a flight in which they hoped to traverse the globe in fifteen days or less and to bring back to Mears the globe circling record which he lost last year to the Graf Zeppelin.

RALLY CONFLICT IS PREVENTED

CISCO, Aug. 15. (P)—For a time today it seemed likely Ross S. Sterling of Houston and James E. Ferguson of Austin, rivals in the Democratic gubernatorial campaign, would meet here Saturday but partisans of the two got together and avoided two competitive meetings.

The Sterling rally will be held as planned while a Ferguson meeting was called off. Sterling's date was announced Tuesday by J. E. Spencer, head of the Sterling club. Yesterday J. M. Williamson, mayor and head of the Ferguson club, announced Ferguson would spend eight hours in Cisco Saturday en route to Breckenridge and rival rallies were being arranged. The committees later decided to avoid a conflict in dates.

Shark's Tail Is Brought To Port To Prove It

NEW YORK, Aug. 15. (P)—A tale of a shark, with a tail of a shark to prove it, was brought to port today by passengers of the liner Santa Theresa, arriving from Callao, Peru.

The shark was caught by members of the crew off the Delaware capes, they said, with a rope for a line and beefsteak for bait. It surrendered when it dived, struck the propeller and was stunned.

The tail of the shark, a fourteen footer the crew said, was cut off and brought to port.

While they were standing by the well, the Tines heard wee Clowey yell. "Hey, look at who is coming. What a funny man is he." The Tines looked and what they saw just seemed to fill them all with awe. The man they watched walk to the well, was strong as he could be.

Upon his back there must have been about forty cans, all made of tin. "Why don't they fall?" said Coppy. "Gee, at balancing he's a fine!" The Travel Man then said, "That man's an expert with a water can. He very seldom drops one cause he keeps them all in line."

The cans were soon stacked round about the well. "Oh, gee, let's help him out," cried Coppy. "We can fill them up with water. He won't mind," the man looked up and said, "Why, say, I'm really rather tired today. If you will fill these cans up, I will think you're very kind."

And so the task was shortly done. The Tines thought it heads of fun. "Twice take me several trips to take them back," the man declared. "When full, I can't take them all. They are too heavy and they'd fall," said Clowey. "My, I'll bet your back is glad that it is spared."

The Travel Man soon said, "Well, we must move along so we can see some other sights. What say we take a plane ride through the air? The flying field is not far away. For some time place we'll start today. And so they started hiking and the whole bunch soon were there.

The Travel Man arranged so they could soon be on their merry way. Before they left, however, all the Tines looked around, and eyed the plane from tail to nose. Said Clowey, "Think how fast this goes. And we will soon be in it. My, I wonder where we're bound."

Lamb County Has 200 Girls In Clubs

AMHERST, Aug. 15. (Special)—Lamb county has nine women who are poultry demonstrators, under the direction of Miss Ruby Mashburn, home demonstration agent.

One of the women, Mrs. L. L. Massengill, president of the Littlefield club, has averaged a profit of $1.50 from her hens the past six months.

Other demonstrators include: Mrs. J. E. Holland, Fieldton; Mrs. L. O. Jameson, Sandhill club; Mrs. W. O. Roebuck, Circle club; Olson; Mrs. L. O. Fox, Ruby; Mrs. W. H. Bewley, James Chapel; Mrs. V. H. Matthews, Littlefield; Mrs. Harry Behmer, James Chapel and Mrs. A. Clark, Ruby.

Besides the poultry demonstrators there are 12 garden demonstrators and 90 women cooperators, and 57 women who entered the dress contest.

Lamb county has 16 clubs with an average of from 20 to 35 women in each club and a total membership of around 400 women. The county sent nine women to College Station last week in July for the annual Short Course.

FARMERS URGED TO RAISE PRODUCTS U. S. IMPORTING RATHER THAN USING

RIVERTON, Utah, Aug. 15.—Farmers were advised by J. R. Howard, field representative of the Federal Farm loan board, to raise products which the United States is importing, rather than those in which there is a domestic surplus in an address at a county farm bureau outing here today.

He pointed out that the country

imports 200,000,000 pounds of wool yearly, and said the population increase of the nation should mean the consumption of 93,000 tons more of sugar annually.

To stabilize both production and marketing so as to get rid of the glut and famine is the end toward which the farm board is working, he said.

GANG BULLETS CLAIM SIX

DANNY VALLO KILLED FROM AMBUSH IN CHICAGO

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Danny Vallo, notorious gunman and a suspect in the St. Valentine's Day massacre, was shot to death from ambush last night in Niles Center, a northwest suburb. His death, police believed, was a reprisal for Niles Center beer runners for protection Vallo promised and did not deliver.

DETROIT'S 15TH GANGSTER KILLED

DETROIT, Aug. 15.—Detroit's fifteenth recent gangster assassination was recorded last night. The victim was Cleo Mangiapani, suspected of having been a liquor operator. He was shot five times by a short, dark man who was riding beside him in his automobile in Grosse Pointe park at 11:30 p. m. The assassin leaped from Mangiapani's automobile and escaped as the car, out of control, crashed into the curb.

THREE SLAIN IN ST. PAUL

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 15.—Three men were slain last night, victims of a gangland warfare in what police believed was the outgrowth of a quarrel over slot machine concessions.

One man still unidentified and Frank Coleman, Kansas City, who was wounded fatally, were found last night by General W. F. Rhinow, head of the state bureau of criminal apprehension, while touring a lonely road near Wildwood, an amusement resort on White Bear lake, northwest of here.

The third victim, also unidentified, was found early today after authorities searched the vicinity following the discovery of three hats.

WOMAN IS KILLED FROM AMBUSH

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 15.—Mrs. Bessie Perri, who as wife of Rocco Perri, wealthy self-styled "bootleg king," was called mentor of the rum ring which built up her husband's wealth during the days of the Ontario temperance act, was shot dead last night on the back steps of her home.

She fell under three charges of slugs, fired from two shot guns out of the darkness of the Perri garage where only a few moments before she and her husband had alighted from their automobile.

Perri was unharmed. He stood maneuvering the garage door, out of range of the guns.

BOSTON, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Frederic H. Toye, 44, widely known in the musical advertising and newspaper fields, was dead at his home here yesterday.

Toye was manager of Isadora Duncan, dancer, for about 10 years when she was at the height of her career.

Austrian Travels 94 Miles In Glider

WASSERKRUPPE, Germany, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Racing 94 miles before a thunderstorm in a frail little glider, Robert Kronfeld, Austrian ace, bettered his former world record for distance flying yesterday by nearly two kilometers. Other pilots participating in the international soaring competition had landed, unwilling to fly in the approaching storm. Kronfeld decided to go aloft and "hooked onto" a cloud that was sweeping over the mountains. He landed at Hof near the spot where he set his previous record last year.

DID YOU KNOW THAT

Seven of the muscles in the lower leg are attached to the foot? When you wear a lop-sided shoe those muscles are pulled and weakened, causing severe foot pains and extreme tiredness in the whole leg.

But you need not throw the old shoe away. It can be straightened. Take it to the Master Shoe Re-builder at

PORTO RICO TAKES POLITICS MORE SERIOUSLY, FORMER TEXAS BOY SAYS

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Out in Porto Rico where, according to James R. Beverley, youthful attorney general of the island, Al Capone is unknown and there has been only one unsolved murder in five years, the citizens take their politics much more seriously than do inhabitants of the U. S.

That was one reason, Beverley explained, why he was taking copious notes on the national conference of commissioners on uniform state laws.

Beverley said of the acts which the commissioners are considering for recommendation for adoption by the various state legislatures, Porto Rico is especially interested in divorce, child labor, fire arms, criminal extradition and narcotics.

The attorney is from Amarillo, Texas, and a graduate of the University of Texas.
