Farmers-Merchants Meet At Welch

Baseball Directors Will Name Manager Soon

Still Dickering For Services Of Hack Miller

Fans Are Promised A Good Ball Club Regardless Of The Managerial Choice

Following the baseball meeting last Monday night, and the expression from the fans, directors of the baseball club in Lamesa, have redoubled their efforts to secure Hack Miller as the Lobo skipper for 1941.

In conversation with a Courier representative Wednesday afternoon, one of them stated that the prospects of getting Miller were still pretty dim, as there were yards of red tape to unwind before he could secure his release, unless his contract could be purchased.

He indicated that an attempt was being made to find out how much the Meridian Club would take for Miller, but expressed the fact that the Lamesa club was in no financial condition to pay very much.

It is understood that a wire was sent to the Meridian officials Monday afternoon, asking their price on Miller, but at the last reports, no word had been received in Lamesa as to their decision.

In the meantime, club officials have been talking with a Mr. Weaver who managed and played second base for the Hamlin Oilers, one of the fastest semi-pro teams in West Texas, in regard to managing the club, provided Miller's services cannot be secured.

Officials also stated that several promising prospects are being lined up, and regardless of who is secured as manager, Lamesa will have a representative club in the West Texas-New Mexico League for 1941.

Tenth Annual Boy Scout Kite Tournament Will Be Held Sunday Afternoon

Will Climax Active Week Of Celebration For Thirty-First Birthday Of Scouting In America

The Tenth Annual Boy Scout Kite Tournament will be held Sunday afternoon, climaxing a busy week among local scouts in their celebration of the thirty-first anniversary of Scouting in America.

The tournament will be held on the hill south of Sulphur Draw, just off the Stanton road, and will begin promptly at 2 o'clock.

Scouts have been grooming their entries for the past several days, and if this year's contest equals past performances, there will be thrills aplenty for the kiddies and grown-ups alike.

Patrol, as well as individual competition, in several classes will see a large number of Scouts participating.

Events in each division will be: Best made, highest flying, most unique and 100-yard dash. These Scouts take this competition seriously, and each kite entered represents several hours of tedious labor on the part of the Scout, and for the past several years the competition has grown steadily keener.

More especially is this the case among the builders of the most unique kite. Some of these entries are really commendable and show the originality of the scouts who build them. The unique kites must all fly, or they are barred from competition.

Drive out Sunday afternoon. You will live again your boyhood days, when you, too, were flying kites as these boys are doing. It will make you younger, at least for the time you are there, and your presence will be appreciated by the boys.

Production of eggs and poultry in Colorado in 1939, totaled approximately $10,000,000.

Camp Bowie ... Now Bustling With Army Activity

Monday Will Be Date Of Monthly Get-Together

Will Be Fifth In Series Of Monthly Meetings Which Will Cover Entire County

Dates for the Farmer-Merchant Banquet, have been changed to Monday night instead of Tuesday night, according to Raymond Lee Johns, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, who is sponsoring these monthly meetings.

The banquet this month will be held with Welch, and this will be the first community in the north-west part of the county to be visited by the Lamesa merchants, in an affair of this kind.

The Welch affair will be the fifth in a series of monthly get-togethers between the merchants and professional men of the town and the farmers of the various communities over the county. It is the plan of the Chamber of Commerce to visit every community in the county before the series is ended.

It is purely a program of fun and good fellowship, with a penalty for talking business or any affairs of a serious nature. The Home Demonstration Clubs, who have served the meals for the various gatherings, have collected a tidy sum in fines, which have been imposed by the Tail Twisters, who are chosen for each meeting, to see that all rules are closely followed. However, more fines have been collected for throwing bins than for all other offenses combined.

The plan, which has been followed at all previous gatherings, and which will be used for the Welch meeting, is for the Lamesa business or profession man to select some farmer from the list at the Chamber of Commerce offices, who lives in this community, as his guest for the occasion. All along there has been a larger number of Lamesa people than there were farmers in the community. Present indications are that this will be the case at Welch, Johns stated Wednesday night.

First Baptist Church Members To Put "Money On The Barrel Head"

Dal-Paso Drug To Hold Open House Monday

Attention is called to the ad of the Dal-Paso Drug Store in this issue, announcing the completion of their remodeling program and the grand opening of their new store on Monday.

Complete new fixtures, which were especially designed and made at the factory for the local store, have been installed. They are of maple veneer and are modernistic in their trim. A sanitary new fountain has been installed, and a new addition is a luncheon service.

The building was enlarged to take care of the new program. Several large booths are provided at the back, and these are private, being hidden from the front of the store. Complete luncheon equipment has been installed and they will feature short orders and regular meals.

For their opening, they have many souvenir gifts for the ladies, as well as cigars for the men.

This store is owned and operated by Durwin Echols and Carl Peterson, both of whom have been practically reared in this county.

The new store is one of the most beautiful and modern drug stores in West Texas and not a thing has been spared to not only make it beautiful, but convenient for their patrons.

Look up their ad and attend their opening on next Monday.

County Basketball Tourney To Get Underway At The Local Gymnasium Tonight

County Championship Games Will Start Tonight With Final Rounds Being Played Saturday

The Dawson County Basketball Tournament, to choose a county winner to take part in the district meet on don up in the state race and as long as they can be a victor, got underway tonight (Thursday), Mr. R. H. Huddleston, county director of athletics, announces that there will be at least two games and maybe three played tonight. The teams scheduled to take part tonight are O. K. and Grandview for the first game, Woody and Key for the second. It may be necessary for a Class B game to be played also. Then on Friday night two games will be arranged between Lamesa, Klondike, Sparenberg, Union and Dawson, depending upon which teams survive the Thursday night game in the event a game is necessary.

An alternate schedule has been worked out because of the situation at Klondike, who had the misfortune to lose a member of their team, and it is not known definitely as to whether or not Klondike will take part in the annual meet this year. The finals will be held on Saturday night.

Thirty Thousand Dollars Expected To Be Secured

Windy Beckham Will Have A Barrel Ready To Receive Cash For New Building

The First Baptist Church is really getting down to business on the building of their new edifice in Lamesa, according to a display ad which they are running in this issue of the Courier.

On next Sunday morning, they are asking everyone who has made cash pledges, to put their "money on the barrel head" and this is not just a figure of speech either. They are going to have a real barrel in the church Sunday morning, arranged by Windy Beckham, chairman of the finance committee, and they want everyone to step up to the barrel Sunday.

They also state that any who have not pledged, but who will contribute funds to this worthy cause, that they also place their donations on the "barrel head" that day.

This church has enjoyed a remarkable growth during the past several years under the pastorage of Rev. E. F. Cole, and even though they have built several additional structures to attempt to house the large crowds who attend, they still do not have the room. They have delayed the building of a new structure until they felt that they were financially able to construct the type of building which they felt they needed.

They hope to raise $30,000 in cash Sunday morning, and Beckham stated that a large part of this had either been paid in or would be paid Sunday.

Palace Theatre Has Some Good Pictures Coming

Audrey Cox, owner of the three theaters in Lamesa, stated Wednesday, that just because "Gone With the Wind" had come and gone again, was no reason that all the good pictures were gone, for he has two outstanding pictures coming to the Palace during the next few days.

On Saturday afternoon and night the three goofy Marx Brothers will star in "Go West", and for Marx fans this is their tops, in a series of hilarious comedies. You will roar at their antics and their ideas for taming the West.

On Sunday and Monday, one of the greatest outdoor pictures of the year, "Arizona", will come to the Palace. The story is by Clarence Buddington Kelland, and co-stars Jean Arthur and William Holden, with a supporting cast of thousands.

Some of the most beautiful photographs ever shown on the screen will be seen in this great outdoor epic directed by Wesley Ruggles.

Old Timers Even Notice Sandy On Wednesday

Many an old timer rubbed his chin Wednesday and stated that "this is the best one we have had in a long time," while some of the newer ones stated that if they came any worse than that, they wouldn't like to see it.

They were referring to the sandstorm, for the Old West really lived again Wednesday, with the skies overcast with sand, hiding the sun most of the day.

The general opinion was that it was the worst sandstorm, at least in the last several months.

The wind has been rather high throughout the week heralding the approach of Spring. West Texas doesn't have any May flowers unless the sand blows in February and March. Of course, it is pointed out that the sand doesn't have anything to do with the flowers growing, but simply that it always blows in February and March.

Wednesday saw a good sandstorm anyway.

A Fable . . .

Once upon a time there was a man who ran a country newspaper, and once each week, sometimes oftener, he called upon the business firms of his town in an attempt to sell them advertising in his newspaper.

The man was a persistent sort of a fellow and he felt that the only reason every firm in the town didn't advertise in his newspaper alone, was simply because they were not acquainted with the facts, so in his eagerness to sell them, he was very prone to make bold statements, with the plea that he could prove anything he said.

One day this fine fellow dashed into a home town store to try and peddle a little of his advertising, and broached the store owner about the same.

Advertising Man: "We have a circulation which we guarantee to be the largest in the county, and we can prove it with the receipts."

Advertiser: "If you have such a large circulation, and you say it is larger than your competitor's, how did you get it?"

Advertising Man: "We have a larger circulation, because we have offered contestants large premiums to get out and solicit subscriptions to our newspaper, and I expect we have paid out at least seventy-five per cent of what we have collected on subscriptions, in order to get this circulation, and the reason we know that we have the largest number of subscribers is because we can prove it by a comparison of receipts with those of our competitor."

The advertiser seemed a little puzzled by all the boast, and our newspaper man waxed warmer and warmer in his talk of being able to prove that he had a larger circulation. The conversation continued:

Advertising Man: "Of course we are willing for you to call our competitor on the telephone and have him bring his receipts along, and we'll get ours for comparison."

Advertiser: "You keep talking about receipts. What do you mean by receipts, Tax Receipts?"

Highly chagrined, our newspaper advertising man, like the Indian, silently folded his tent and walked away, for that was not the kind of 'Receipts' he had reference to.

Moral: Do not get your receipts confused!

Anti-Graft Program Of Chamber Of Commerce Bears Its First Fruit

Approximately One Hundred Dollars Has Already Been Saved Merchants Of Lamesa By Movement

The manager and directors of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce are to be commended on their program to protect the merchants of Lamesa from the petty racketeers who prey upon business people under the guise of some advertising scheme.

The program which was only recently inaugurated here, and which has not yet been completely set up, has already borne fruit, according to officials of the body.

Only last week, an out-of-town solicitor decided that he could milk the merchants of Lamesa out of some easy money on an advertising promotion. The first merchant he approached, told him that he must submit his proposition to the advertising committee of the chamber of commerce for their approval before they could spend their money with him. The committee investigated his proposition, and recommended to Manager Johns that it be turned down, because it had no advertising merit, and was merely a scheme to pick up some easy money for the solicitor. Of course the out-of-town solicitor didn't like the decision, but the merchants of the town were saved around $75.00.

Another scheme was also turned down, which meant a saving of some thirty dollars to the town's business firms.

It is not the purpose of the committee, according to the leaders in the movement, to set up an autocracy and prohibit the soliciting of all funds in Lamesa, but rather to weed out the good from the bad. It is the desire of the committee and the business firms of the towns to assist those things which are worthy, but in late years the grafter has taken advantage of this fact and the merchants of this, as well as other towns, have been filched out of many thousands of dollars.

The project certainly deserves the support of every Lamesan.

SAM ROBERTS IS VISITOR

Sam Roberts, publisher and owner of the Haskell Free-Press, accompanied by Mrs. Roberts, were visitors in the home of old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Norman, over the week end. ### OUT OF THE HILLS AND INTO THE DRAFT

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — Since last August Steve Dorn has been cutting timber in the isolated South fork country. So when he arrived in Helena recently, the first question he asked was:

"What's this about the draft?" He explained he had known nothing of it "until I decided I needed a radio and walked to Wolf Creek, 12 miles from my cabin, and bought one."

"When I got back in the hills and turned in I kept hearing about selective service so I decided I'd better catch a bus at Wolf Creek and come on to the state capital and find out what it was all about."

The clerk of the Helena draft board gave Dorn number 2907—highest in the county.

If The U. S. Had A Court Jester, His Name Would Likely Be George O'Connor

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON — In a good many years of battling around in the news game, I have found a lot of people in the theater who have no business there and darned few who should have been on the stage and aren't—but George H. O'Connor certainly is one of the latter.

From President McKinley to Roosevelt II, probably more people have called O'Connor "George" than ever called all the nation's Pullman porters by that name. For the purposes of this little story I'm going to join the fond parade.

George is a portly gent, with whitening hair and a Muldoon map. His father's name was Patrick and his mother's maiden name was McCarthy. Born thus in the shade of the shamrock, he held trumps to start with. He has played them right and probably given more laughs to more Washingtonians than any other native.

He is, by vocation, a title insurance executive—but it is his avocation that has made George O'Connor one of the greatest toastmasters and after-dinner entertainers that your banquet-ridden capital has ever known. George is the composer of a number of melodies, including "He May Be a Barvarian on Broadway," and "He Ain't No Relation of Mine," which was a great favorite of the late President Taft. Add to that a throaty baritone, which wouldn't necessarily make Lawrence Tibbett take off his topper, and a footlight personality which probably would and maybe you are beginning to get a picture of George H. O'Connor.

Won Rogers' Praise
Once George was spotlighted on a banquet with another native Washington boy who had done quite a bit of wandering—Al Jolson. Will Rogers was in the audience and when the two finished their little numbers, Will turned to his neighbor and remarked, "Looks to me as if the wrong boy stayed at home."

Not so long ago, George was in top form at the White House correspondents' annual dinner. He sang "Little Tommy Murphy," and a mournful ballad called "Saloon." When he had finished, a waiter handed him a card. On it was scribbled, "Dear George—Like rare old wine, you grow better with age." It was signed "F. D. R."

The story goes that George was one of the few men—if not the only—who could always get a laugh out of Calvin Coolidge. George first met President Coolidge at a Massachusetts State Society reception. The President looked a little puzzled. "Are you from Massachusetts?" he asked. "No, I've been sick," answered George. "That's what makes me look this way." The story has been kicked around every vaudeville stage in the land in half a dozen forms, but it was fresh enough then to make the unsmiling Mr. Coolidge guffaw.

Numerous Stories
A few months later at a banquet Coolidge attended, George sang his vitriolic lampoon, "Cohen Owes Me $97." As the applause died down, one recalcitrant guest "boomed." The President turned to his dinner partner and asked, "Who's that? Cohen?"

George's life is full of stories like that. There was the time at the Lambs club in New York, when Wilton Lackaye, the actor, introduced him this way: "Gentlemen, you think you're good. But I want to introduce to you a man who plays New York as a one-night stand."

Then there was the time the dejected President Taft attended a party shortly after his defeat by Woodrow Wilson. George got up, took the notes in his teeth, and sang, "If He's Going In, I'm Going Out." Some who were there will insist today that Taft laughed so hard he cracked the dining room plaster.

Texas Aggie Banner

The splendid football record of the Texas Aggies the past two seasons has been placed on an attractive banner. Buddy Wilson, former Aggie from Dallas, is shown with the bright-colored banner which he and A. M. students designed. E. J. Kiest, publisher of the Dallas Times Herald and a director of the school, received one of the first banners.

Wilson Thanked Him
For President Wilson, just after he had taken office, George sang, "My Cousin Caruse." When he had finished, President Wilson came over and put his arm around O'Connor's shoulders, took him over to a corner and thanked him profusely. It was three months before George could fight his way out of the flood of job-hunters who beseeched him to say a word to the President in their behalf.

At one party some years ago, George and the late veteran speaker of the House, "Uncle Joe" Cannon, put on an act together. When they had finished, an excited theatrical agent in the audience rushed up and offered them a contract at $1,000 a week to tour the country. They turned him down, of course. Probably they were right. But you can still find a lot of banquet habits around Washington who would have been glad to put it on the line and see that the agent came out on top.

Mrs. Irvin Bailey attended the funeral services held for Mrs. Grady Boyd of Wilson, Friday at the Slaton Baptist Church. Mrs. Boyd died Thursday morning in a Slaton hospital.

ALL FOR THE SAKE OF FRIENDSHIP

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — City Jailer Charles R. Jordan was afraid for awhile that Blue Reynolds, who was in jail when Jordan took over a quarter of a century ago, wouldn't be on hand for his 25th anniversary. Reynolds had been released a few days before it arrived.

But on the important day he appeared in police court, drew a 30-day sentence for drunkenness and went back to jail to help celebrate.

HE LIVES WHILE LIVING'S GOOD

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — In Oklahoma's prison it's traditional that a prisoner sentenced to die may have anything he wants to eat. But Ben Butler, head prison steward, is baffled by a 20-year old occupant of death row.

"The boy lived in the hills and probably never ate anything but turnips and sowbells before we got him," Butler reports.

"Now he orders things like caviar and a special brand of crab meat that we have difficulty getting. I don't know where he heard about such foods."

Death row guards point to the novels the boy reads and surmise he chooses his menu from them.

GLAMOUR MIXED BY WOMEN'S CORPS

LONDON (AP) — The Women's Legion Corps of Transport Drivers is no place for glamour girls. Colored fingernails are forbidden and only the minimum of make-up passes muster.

Grandmothers are welcome to join since many women are too old to join the smartly-uniformed auxiliaries of the fighting services. The members drive staff cars for the home guard, take patients to and from hospitals, dispense food in mobile canteens, and pay about two dollars a year for the privilege of serving.

A SLIGHT MIXUP IN GRAMMAR

TOPEKA, Kas. (AP) — It's the job of Walter G. Pyle to learn why school children miss classes. So he called at a Topeka home and asked why the son hadn't been in school.

"He's been building me a chicken coop," explained the mother.

"Don't you know he can't do that?" said Pyle.

"Oh, he can't, can't he?" commented the mother, indignantly.

"Well, he's sure done it and if you don't believe me just go 'round to the back yard and see for yourself."

"WHAT IT TAKES WE'VE GOT"

"Come On, You Howling Devils," shout the linemen and trouble shooters of the power maintenance crews. Wind, rain, sleet, snow, floods or fire throw down the gauntlet...and these unsung heroes accept the challenge. Trained to deft skill...hardened to any danger...they brave any odds to maintain the nation's light and power.

Geat reminders of the havoc wrought by a recent nature's freak; full grown trees crushed and stripped of all but the central trunks, following an ice storm in Amarillo, Texas. Amarillo is served by a neighbor of Texas Electric Service Company.

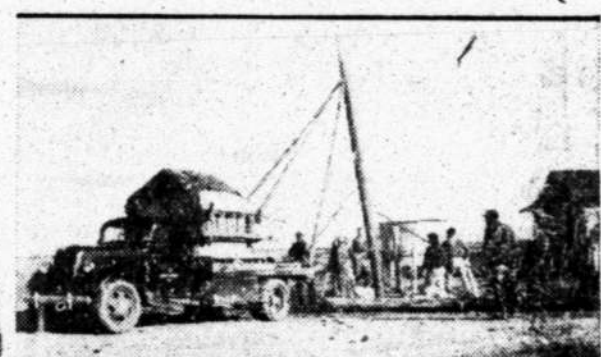

Pole Holes Presto—Power for locomotion and for boring holes almost on the run. This modern power line crew is made up of R. E. Darter, left, and J. P. Gilmer, both of Fort Worth, and two helpers. New construction or reconstruction is their "meat."

Construction Cruiser on Wheels carrying everything required for construction for a field—from a pair of pliers to a pole-holing winch, a self-sufficient workshop for a crew of six. Bing Barron, Big Spring, Wayne Gregston, Midland, and Doug Rayburn, Big Spring, are the men shown working on a which line.

Victory at Amárrillo in 36 Hours—freezing mist; ice five inches thick on every exposed surface. The crushing weight of countless tons; shrinking, tightening; like a vise. Tree trunks snapped; poles and wires a tangled mass of wreckage. Yet, said the papers: "Power was restored to part of the business district within 36 hours."

"On Your Toes and Up She Goes"—one moment the pole with cross-arms assembly is on the ground. A few turns of the hoisting winch, a bit of strong arm stuff and, presto, it's ready for wire stringing. Photo shows Bing Barron and Doug Rayburn, Big Spring; Mastel Wadkins and Goodner Driver, Midland; E. O. Shoulders and E. P. Novacek, Wichita Falls; Carly Ort, Fort Worth.

One reason why the giant poles of electric distribution and transmission lines can withstand the terrific strains that they do is because they are so carefully stored wherever possible. Here Mastel Wadkins and Wayne Gregston of Midland make secure the guy wires on a transmission line dead-end.

The Head of Fate dealt kindly with J. A. Harrington. Many times a back seat passenger in this test, this time riding with driver. Pole crushed back, front-seat passenger and driver, Glee Sanders, unharmed.

ELECTRIC POWER IS PREPARED FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE

THE NATION'S ELECTRIC POWER INDUSTRY IS READY NOW!

War bombers in droves could not have wreaked more havoc on electric lines than Amarillo's ice disaster. Electric power's preparedness was put to a crucial test. Picked crews from 15 neighboring power companies, including contingents from Texas Electric Service Company, rushed to the aid of the company serving Amarillo. The amazing achievement of quick restoration is a peacetime example of what could happen in war. But in preparing for defense, it's good to know that present power facilities exceed our needs; can be stepped up to meet defense demands.

Texas Electric Service Company is but one system of a great family of similar systems which net the nation with wires. Power plants, strategically located, are interconnected by high voltage transmission line systems. These lines of various systems are largely interconnected. Power can flow either way. Thus our national network or "Grid" is ready to meet defense demands. Present capacity and distribution facilities are greater than those of England, Germany and Italy combined. Power workers of America fling the challenge: "What it Takes, We've Got... We're Ready for Peace or War!"

It has been decided to call an election for the purpose of voting on a $75,000 Revenue Bond issue, a part of which is necessary now, and the balance needed later on. These revenue bonds are different from the regular type of tax bonds, in that they will be paid off from the revenue from the water system, and not by the levying of taxes on real estate. They also specify that they cannot later be converted into tax bonds. In other words, officials point out, that the water system must make the money to pay off these bonds.

Aside from the fact that the city has had a shortage of water for commercial and domestic uses, it is felt that a more adequate supply will either lower the present insurance costs, or save property owners from additional penalties which may be imposed under the present system. Mr. Roberts is widely known among engineers and was only recently elected president of the Texas section of the American Society of Civil Engineers, and his findings indicate that the city will have to have more water and a more adequate distributing system, as well as an additional 200,000 gallon elevated storage tank.

Lamesa Retail Merchants Has State Visitor

Charles T. Lux, State Secretary of the Texas Retail Merchants Association, was a visitor in Lamesa this week. He visited the offices of the Lamesa Retail Merchants Association and accepted the work and reports from the local association. Lions Club Hold Regular Meeting On Wednesday

The Lamesa Lions Club held its regular meeting at the Plaza Hotel Wednesday at noon with a good crowd present. Wright Boyd explained to the various committees, their duties in the Livestock Auction Sale which the club will hold soon. He also told of the need for funds, which it is hoped will be derived from this auction, to take care of glasses for children of the county, who otherwise would not have them. Two gold keys were also awarded at the meeting, one to W. W. Griffith and the other to Bob Brown, for securing two new members each, to the club. The fellowship book will be with Joe B. Whitlow this week.

SHOULD WE LOOK BEFORE WE LEAP

Some six months ago, it was learned, an effort was being made to get the Federal Government to build a Migrant Camp at, or near Lamesa, to accommodate some two hundred to five hundred or more, "Migrant" families, presumably on account of Labor needs and conditions in this area, the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce being the agency through which the move was made, the initial project to cost $225,000 and upward.

After considerable study on the part of many individual citizens of Lamesa and Dawson County, a letter or petition signed by 105 local citizens was presented to the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce, asking that such application not be made at this time. Among other reasons set forth for asking delay in seeking the establishment of such a facility, were that labor conditions here now do not seem to warrant the establishment of such a camp; that it might bring in such a surplus of migrants as to create a serious relief problem in our town and county; and, in the face of the present emergency everything that is not urgently important, should be deferred in order that our NATIONAL DEFENSE PROGRAM may be pushed to the utmost.

If the camp were built and some 500 families housed, would it be possible for some CIO or other organizer to come in and lead them into a sit-down strike unless the farmer raised his cotton as to create a price more than he could afford to pay?

These are questions we think the citizenship have a right to know something about before asking for one of these camps. It may be just what we need, but hasn't our citizens a right to hear both sides and decide for themselves whether or not it is what we need and want, rather than have some small group decide on something and DUMP IT IN OUR LAPS!

Seven government men were recently here at one time to discuss the matter, but no community-wide hearing has yet been held concerning it. And not one word of information or publicity has been given the matter thru our local papers. If it is so important, and it will cost a lot of money, why should it not be brought into the open? When we got our Federal Building, we all wanted and all knew about it and all got behind it. The same is true of E. E. A. the CCC Camp and other things we appreciate. Why should getting a camp of this kind be different? Let's bring it before the public, find out something about it, and give our folk a chance to unite on what they decide best.

LET US LOOK BEFORE WE LEAP

LEAVE GUARD FIT TO CHASE

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The movie studio guard had heard plenty of reasons why youngsters had to jump studio fences and get "inside". The boys—or girls—wanted to "see the stars" or "get a job" or "get autographs" or "see pictures made." The newest jumpers were different. Apprehended, they explained: "Now, we don't care about pictures or picture people. It's just that we're huntin' frogs—and that pond has a lot of 'em."

London's great fire of 1666 destroyed four-fifths of the city.

Proposed National Park Site At Big Bend - Many Legends

Indications are the legends that have sited from Texas' Big Bend area, now a proposed national park site. Many of the freak names in the area, such as Mule Ear Peak and Elephant Tusk Mountain, originated from the marked resemblance of geologic formations to animals. Here is the most all-inclusive map that has been drawn of the proposed park area.

Rates Of Payment For 1941 Conservation Program In Dawson County Announced

Part of the rates of payment for the 1941 agricultural conservation program in Dawson County have just been announced.

The rate for cotton allotments is 1.37 cents per pound of the normal cotton yield. For example if the 1941 normal yield is 200 pounds, the conservation payment per acre for cotton would be 200 times 1.37 cents or $2.74 cents per acre for each acre in the cotton acreage allotments.

The soil building allowance for 1941 may be determined by allowing 50c per acre for each acre of cropland in excess of the total soil depleting allotment (neutral cropland) plus 8c per acre for each acre of grassland on the farm. The soil building allowance may be earned at the individual rates of payment allowed to each soil building practice in the county goal of soil building practices. The Dawson County goal of soil building practices, if approved by the State Committee is as follows:

Terraing, 75c per hundred feet; construction of reservoirs and dams, 15c and 10c per cubic yard; construction of ditches, 60c per hundred feet; contour listing or chiseling, 1 1/2c per hundred feet and not over 50c per acre; strip cropping on contour 75c per acre; protected summer following, 35c per acre; contour farming intertilled crops, 20c per acre; contour listing cropland, 20c per acre; solid seeding close grown

The rate of payment for the general acreage allotment has not been announced for Dawson County, however, it is expected that since the rate of pay for the nation has not changed that there will be very little difference in the rate of payment in 1941.

No rates of payment for parity payments have been announced for 1941.

Vernon Martin, Secretary, Dawson County A. C. A.

Lamesa Lions Club Will Sponsor Livestock Auction For Children's Glasses

According to plans completed this week by the Lamesa Lions Club, an auction sale of livestock which has been donated by farmers and ranchers over the area, will be conducted within the next few weeks, for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of glasses for needy children.

Last year the Lions Club of America bought over $50,000.00 worth of glasses for children whose parents were not able to provide them. In Dawson County alone, a large number of glasses have been purchased.

drive. The Gathering Committee consists of Bill Boyd, Bob Brown, Rev. E. D. Landreth and M. E. Boren. It is their duty to head the drive for the stock donations. Guy Weekes, aided by Ebbey Lee, and Oliver Cates will make arrangements for caring for the stock as they are collected. Mayor W. L. Marr, Connally Baldwin and Weldon Lindsey are in charge of the arrangements for the auction sale. J. H. Norris, J. R. Earnest and W. W. Griffith are in charge of publicity.

The Lions Club feels that this is the biggest task they have ever set themselves to do, but they also feel that it is the most worthy. No greater joy should come to any organization than to be able to say that they have saved the sight of a child who undoubtedly would have lost it.

The Lions Club earnestly solicits the aid of every organization and club in the county that this may be known as a drive, not for the glory of the club, but for the conservation of the sight of the underprivileged children of Dawson County.

Workers Get Half of Texas Oil Cost Dollar

DALLAS, Feb. 12.—Texas workers receive half of the money spent in the production of Texas oil, according to a booklet just issued by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association. The booklet, entitled "Important Facts About Texas Oil", is now being distributed by the association from its headquarters in the Continental Building here.

Wages and salaries to Texas oil production workers amount to 49 1/2 per cent of the net cost of producing the average barrel of oil in Texas, the booklet shows. One-eighth of the net cost dollar goes to Texas tax-collectors for State and local taxes. Supplies cost about 26 1/2 per cent, while depreciation, depletion, overhead and Federal taxes make up the remaining 11 per cent.

To this net cost must be added an extra one-eighth of the price of the oil which is paid as royalty to the Texas farmer or rancher who owns the land on which the oil is produced.

Texas petroleum workers and Texas farmers together receive $400,000,000 a year in wages and salaries and lease and royalty payments from the Texas Petroleum industry, the book shows. Of this huge sum, the workers get $272,000,000 annually and the farmers and other land-owners $128,000,000. The $400,000,000 paid these two groups of Texans is four-fifths of the total value of all crude oil produced in Texas. Texas tax collectors get from the petroleum industry another $75,000,000 a year.

These huge sums are spent and respend in Texas to benefit every Texan, the book points out.

"Fortunately for Texas and its people," it states, "the development of this great natural resource has not only revealed the existence of underground supplies of oil and gas but also has created a permanent home industry which directly provides living for one-sixth of the State's population. Directly or indirectly, practically everyone in Texas today shares in the distribution and redistribution of money created by this one industry. Every Texan has a stake in the future of this business."

Champion Truck Driver

M. A. Wilson of Fort Worth is Texas' most skillful truck driver, according to the Texas Motor Transportation association. Miss Charmayne Smith of Dallas is pinning on him the association's gold medal in recognition of his safe handling of heavy vehicles.

ISN'T THE CHURCH WORTHLESS?

Isn't the Church worthless? Well, it's easy to see that it is. Many folks have had their privileges all their lives and yet never take their children to their church. The folks who belong to it will use excuses that wouldn't hold axle grease, much less water, to keep from going to it. These same folks will give their children dimes to go to the show and pennies to go to church. They'll say that they love the church and never give it anything but "left-overs" of time, talent, or money. They will criticize everybody in it, assuming thereby a right that isn't theirs, giving a bad name to the people of God, meanwhile forgetting that when their church's reputation goes down, theirs goes with it. They'll use the day that should belong to their church for business, pleasure, and sin; they'll use the money that ought to go to the church for ice cream, confections and carousing. They'll use their homes, that should honor God, as night clubs, breweries, cocktail-bars and gambling dens.

Is the church worthless? Well, that's the picture some folks make of it. That's the picture that speaks the loudest, because this worldliness, neglect, and carousing make more noise than the decency, honor, and purity of those who faithfully honor their church.

Is your attitude and your life helping to convince the world that the church is worthless? Hitler, Mussolini, and Stalin all want you to do that. That's what they are trying to prove.

Let's not cooperate with our enemies. If the church is worthwhile,

CIRCULATION... alone is not enough...

For a newspaper to successfully serve its advertisers it must have more than just circulation... It must have reader interest... in other words, regardless of the circulation a newspaper boasts, unless your ad is read, it is worthless.

The Courier has circulation as well as reader interest, and that circulation has not been forced through the use of contests or the offering of large sums of money, but simply on the merits of the paper itself.

Courier Subscribers pay for the paper, because they want it... and READ it!

NOT QUITE SO GOOD, BUT STILL

SIX TO ONE!

Shortly before Christmas, the One-Stop Grocery, owned and operated by Ike Houston, ran an ad in The Dawson County Courier and one in the other paper published in Lamesa, offering free gifts to the women of this territory for clipping out a part of the ads and bringing it to the store.

In each ad the following copy ran: "Cut out the first two words in this ad and bring it to us and we will give you a little gift — ladies only."

The copy was set in different type from the rest of the ad in each paper, so that it would be easy to distinguish the difference.

MR. HOUSTON REPORTS THAT FOR EACH CLIPPING HE RECEIVED FROM THE OPPOSING PAPER, HE GOT SIX FROM THE DAWSON COUNTY COURIER! HE WILL BE GLAD TO TELL YOU THE SAME THING! ASK HIM!

Thus it is clearly demonstrated that the Courier has a strong reader interest among the people of this territory, and advertisers are continuing to see that results are easily obtained from the advertising columns of the Courier.

There is little argument about the reader interest in this newspaper, when the ratio of answers to the same ad, ran SIX TO ONE in favor of the Courier!

GUARANTEED!

Tracy-Locke-Dawson, one of the largest advertising agencies in the United States, and who handle Continental Oil Company advertising, has the following to say in regard to circulation:

"This agency naturally frowns on any type of forced circulation. We do not think there is any doubt in anyone's mind that voluntary subscribers present a far truer circulation than do contests, prize giving or free distribution."

Workers Must Have Social Security Cards

Thousands of workers are now being called into industry to help build army camps, equipment for defense projects, and perform various other type of work connected with the national defense program. It behooves every individual, therefore, to know what his social security account number is and where it is, according to a statement made by Robert M. Mayne, manager of the Big Spring, Texas, office of the Social Security Board.

"We have reminded workers many times in the past that a number of employers have adopted a rule whereby an individual is not placed on the payroll until he has his social security account number recorded on the employer's books. This is necessary in order to enable the employer to make his quarterly wage report to the collector of Internal Revenue." It was further explained by Mayne that the Social Security Board's field office at Big Spring, in the Petroleum Building, will furnish a duplicate card to any person who has lost or misplaced his original card. This procedure may require a delay of two or three days but, if a worker is applying for his initial social security account card, he may secure it over the counter of the office by calling for it in person.

"Your social security account number card is evidence that you have an insurance account with the United States Government through the Federal old-age and survivors insurance program of the Social Security Act, the purpose of which is to pay a regular monthly income to a worker when he reaches the age of 65 years and retires, or to his family when he dies," Mayne explained.

"A worker needs a social security account number so that his wages may be counted toward his insurance benefits. But only one account number is needed. For each account number issued, there is set up by the Social Security Board a separate insurance account; therefore, if a worker has more than one number, he should go to the nearest Social Security Board field office and find out which one he should use."

Commerce Dept. Set Up Service Office At Capital

Thomas U. Purcell, Houston District Office Manager, Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Commerce Department, reports that Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones has announced the establishment of a Service and Information Office in the Department of Commerce to simplify and expedite contact between business men who come to Washington and government officials. Utilizing the services of men detailed from the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce and others with long experience in and association with the affairs of government, the office has been instructed to reduce wherever possible the time required by representatives of business and industry who come to the Capital to transact official business.

The primary objective of the Service and Information Office will be to put business men, wherever possible, in direct touch with the government official who can best give consideration to the particular problem presented. In this way it is anticipated that it will be possible to reduce the number of calls that the business visitor will have to make and also save the time of government officials who now see many persons whom they have to refer to someone else.

The development of the defense program has so increased the number of business men coming to Washington and consequently the demands on the time of government officials, that the new function of the Department of Commerce should, it is expected, facilitate the transaction of business and prove of value to business, industry and government.

Quarters for the Service and Information Office have been established and are in operation just off the main lobby of the Department of Commerce Building in Room 1600

THE MELODY LINGERS ON FOR YEARS

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) The best books on psychology probably don't recommend an uppercut to the jaw as a successful method of making friends, but once in a while it works.

An elderly gentleman walked into Pueblo police headquarters, shook hands with Detective Captain Luther Walton and asked him if he remembered him.

"I sure do," said the detective.

The old fellow explained he just wanted to renew an old friendship. Later the detective explained that 30 years ago he had to knock the man down at least once a week to keep him subdued when he was a loafer on Pueblo streets.

Since the first general purpose tractor, the Moline Universal introduced in 1915, there has grown quite a tribe of row crop general purpose tractors. And like all tribes, there must be a chief—a leader, more powerful, more equipped, more useful than any other member of the tribe. That's the Universal "U". The new MM Universal "U" has everything to qualify it for leadership—unexcelled power, greater economy, many extra comfort and safety features, and unusual utility. It is built to stand up and deliver sturdy, dependable, economical power on drawbar, belt, power take-off and power lift, season after season.

Olin Nix Home To Be Among County's Best

Construction work on the 7-room rock farm home of Olin Nix is progressing nicely.

The home is located about four miles south of Lamesa on the west side of the Big Spring highway.

It will be modern in every respect and will be among the finer homes of Lamesa and Dawson County when completed.

Mr. Nix is in business in Lamesa, with the Olin Nix Motor Company. Oldsmobile dealers, and the Earnest and Nix Implement Company, dealers in International machinery

Income Tax Men To Assist With Income Returns

Attention of Courier readers is again called to the fact that on next Thursday and Friday, February 20-21, the department of Internal Revenue, will have two agents in Lamesa, for the purpose of answering questions in regard to the filling out of income tax forms.

Attention is also called to the fact that every married man who had a gross income of two thousand dollars or more in 1940 and every single person who had a gross income of $800 or more for the same period, must make a return. This is required, regardless of the number of dependents you may have or the amount of exemptions you may claim. It does not necessarily mean that you must pay a tax, but it does mean that you must make a return.

There are many who heretofore were below the gross income necessary, who will have to make returns this year for the first time, and that is the purpose of the visit of these men, to acquaint the people with the requirements.

They will be at the Lamesa post office and their office hours will be from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. on the dates mentioned above. Deputy Collectors Burl Bedford and R. A. Chast have been assigned to the local office and they will serve everyone they can on these days.

WEEK END VISITORS

Mrs. Cleve E. Wilson, who has been a patient at the Dunn Clinic for the past week, had as visitors over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Pink Wilson of Anson, A. U. Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson of Abilene. Mrs. Wilson plans to return to her home today (Thursday).

Dawson County Teachers To Hold Next Regular Meeting Wednesday Night

The next regular meeting of the Dawson County Teachers will be held in the basement of the First Methodist Church, at 7:30 P. M. Wednesday night, February 19, with a very interesting program planned for the occasion, according to Fred Dahnke and P. K. Humes. They also state that for the first time in two years the teachers of each school are to bring their trustees and their wives as their guests for the occasion.

The program will consist of a round-table 40 minute discussion by a group of business and professional men and women of the county, followed by a period of discussion allowing anyone in the audience to take part. Programs are being mailed from the county superintendents office this week announcing the detailed program.

Plans are being made to take care of 200 trustees and their wives and 150 teachers and their guests. Excellent attendance is expected since every teachers meeting in the past two years has been well attended. Those who planned this program are exceptionally enthusiastic as to its success.

The laymen who are to serve in the panel discussion are Mrs. Rupert Townsend, civic leader and clubwoman, S. I. Forrest of Forrest Lumber Company, Rev. E. D. Landreth, pastor of the First Methodist Church, W. J. Beckham, farmer and merchant, Fred Sanders, merchant, Dr. J. C. Loveless, county health officer, Carl Rountree, attorney, and Mrs. J. D. Dyer, past president of the Lamesa P. T. A.

Church services were well attended Sunday.

Ernest Randolph is at home after being in a San Angelo hospital.

The Senior and Intermediate B. T. U. classes enjoyed a party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cassie Earnest Thursday night.

First Sermon In Series Will Be Given Sunday

"Eight Weeks With God," a series of nine sermons to be preached by Rodney D. Glascock, pastor of the local Christian Church, has been announced. This series will include these subjects: The Reality of God, The Saviorhood of Christ, A Moral Order, The Worth of Man, Divine Relation, The Church, The Kingdom of God, The Reality of Redemption, and The Necessity of Commitment.

The first of these sermons will be delivered this Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. If God somehow seems too far from the world and too careless to attempt directing world events, this discussion of His reality should hold both instruction and guidance.

The leaders and membership of the Christian Church would be pleased to have many Dawson County people hear each of these special messages.

Texas Electric Service Co. Has New President

A. J. Duncan, formerly president, was made chairman of the board, and J. B. Thomas, formerly vice president and general manager, was made president and general manager of the Texas Electric Service Company, at a meeting of the company directors.

In the course of Mr. Duncan's management of the local electric company, he has trained many young men who now occupy important positions throughout the industry. In relinquishing his duties as president of the company, Mr. Duncan stated that he desired to be relieved of the responsibilities which he has shouldered for many years and that he wished to conform to the company's long established policy of putting responsibilities on younger men. Mr. Duncan also stated that he knew that the policies of the company with respect to participation by the company in every worthy civic enterprise would be continued and that the object of the company in furnishing complete metropolitan electric service to Ft. Worth and West Texas at the lowest possible cost would be maintained.

Mr. Thomas, a native Texan started his engineering career at Texas Agricultural & Mechanical College from which he graduated in 1911. He has been continuously engaged in the electric light and power business since 1912, except for 18 months in the United States Army during the last world war.

Mr. Thomas joined the Texas Power & Light Company organization in 1912 in its engineering department, serving as chief engineer of that company and associated companies from 1921 to 1929. During that period, he was active in construction of the great high tension transmission grid that serves Texas.

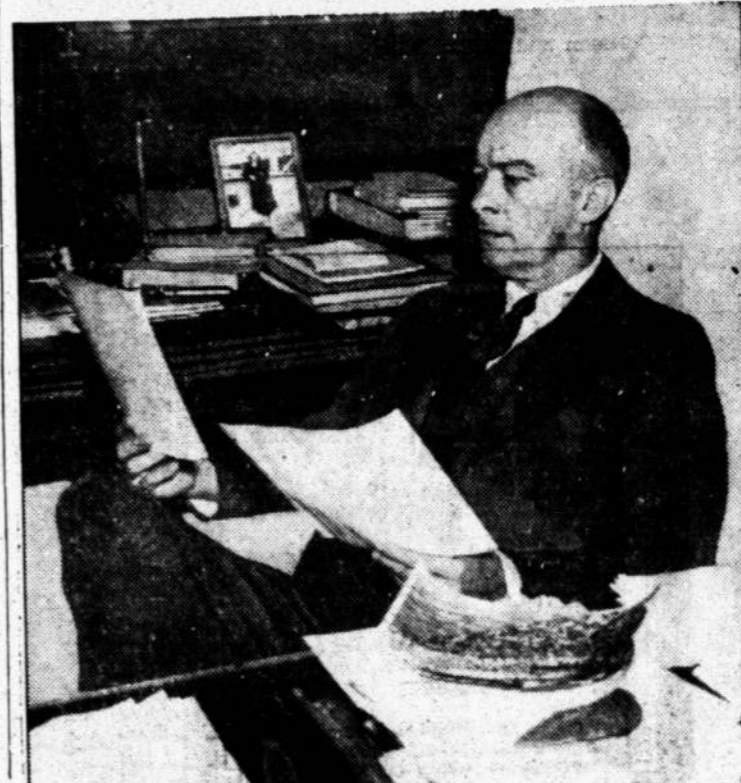

Always interested in West Texas and the development of its resources, Mr. Thomas was instrumental in the initial development of the Texas Electric Service Company and became vice president in charge of operations of that company in 1929, later occupying in turn the position of executive vice president, and vice president and general manager.

The modern steam locomotive contains about 7,500 parts.

Two river basins — the Amazon and the La Plata — comprise about three-fifths of Brazil's total area.
