St. Joseph's Gets Accreditation

St. Joseph's Hospital has received accreditation from the Board of Commissioners of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals for a one-year period, Sister Mary Perpetua, administrator, was notified Thursday, August 26. This follows an inspection earlier in the summer by a representative of the Joint Commission, Dr. Lett.

This is the second time that St. Joseph's has received one-year accreditation, and Sister Perpetua warned that if it does not get full three-year accreditation after the 1972 inspection, the hospital will lose all accreditation with the Joint Commission.

Dr. Lett appraised the hospital on a number of points, including its cleanliness and the excellent condition of the doctors records, and he indicated he was pleased with the overall condition of St. Joseph's. Several new recommendations were made which the hospital must carry out, and those recommendations made last year must be completed.

Installation of the sprinkler system is No. 1.

It is to be pointed out, however, that all recommendations, both those in 1970-71, come from a tightening of regulations by the Joint Commission and must be met by all hospitals to maintain accreditation.

New recommendations include:

- A separate blood bank (refrigerator) with audible and visual automatic systems. This should be on an auxiliary power system to assure continued working.

- A better documentation of staff meetings.

- Documentation of quality control in the laboratory. This control is already exercised but better documentation is asked.

- An eye washer and a shower in the laboratory.

While the need for this is greater in large laboratories where accidents are more likely to occur, it is a regulation and must be complied with, Sister Perpetua pointed out. A simple unit will answer and should be no trouble to install, she continued.

Sister Perpetua reviewed progress on the recommendations made by the Board of Commissioners after the 1970 inspection.

Meeting Set On Weevil Spray Plans

Cotton growers who are interested in keeping the State Insect Control Program alive are asked to meet at the Heritage Room of the Wellington State Bank at 8:00 p.m. Thursday, September 2, Elbert Watts, president, has announced.

The diapause boll weevil spraying program will be discussed.

This is the co-operative state-local program which for several years has been carried out in early September as a measure to control the spread of boll weevil.

It covers all of Collingsworth County and Childress County north of Red River.

All farmers of this area are urged to attend.

Because of the state tie-in it is necessary to keep the organization in force, it has been pointed out.

If spraying is carried out again this year, it will be with the state Department of Agriculture paying one-half the cost and the cotton grower the other half.

Under the program, a series of four sprayings about a week apart are made to kill boll weevil which would otherwise overwinter, forming the bases for next year's infestation.

Those wanting information on the program can contact Mr. Watts or Raymond Cearley at the Farmers Co-op Gin in Dodson.

History Survey Group to Meet

The Collingsworth County Historic Survey Committee will meet Thursday, September 2, to consider by-laws and other business of the organization.

Mrs. Clyde Drake, president said the meeting will be in the Heritage Room of Wellington State Bank, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Final plans will be made for the Fair display and there will be a report on membership and finances by the drive chairman, Mr. and Mrs. John Holton.

All members are urged to attend.

More Lights on Trailers Required

Effective September 1, a series of new "rules of the road" will affect a majority of all Collingsworth drivers.

As yet, local law enforcement agencies have received little information on the scope of these laws, passed by the 62nd Legislature.

They are among the more than 300 statutes dealing with everything from home wine-making to student riots.

The rules of the road create a new traffic offense -- homicide by vehicle -- under which negligent persons in fatal accidents could be fined up to $2,000 and given up to one year in jail.

A number of these Rules of the Road pertain to trailer lighting and reflector requirements.

The Texas Co-operative Ginners Association has furnished the Farmers Co-op Gin with the information.

Gross weight is no longer a factor in determining lighting requirements on trailers.

Apparently, the only change going into effect August 30, 1971, is that an amber side marker lamp and an amber reflector must be installed on each side and halfway in the front and back of the trailer 80 or more inches in width and more than 30 feet in length.

FOR QUICKER CRIMINAL APPREHENSION

This is one of 17 county and city law enforcement agencies that on Wednesday hooked up to a new teletype communications network. With the teletype, recently installed in the sheriff's department, are Sheriff John Rainey, left, and Deputy N. E. Childers, one of the two dispatchers.

Highway Commissioner Visits County Sept. 8

Charles E. Simmons, member of the Texas Highway Commission, will visit Wellington Wednesday September 8, on a trip through the Panhandle, which will help him to better understand the area which his commission serves.

V.J. McGee, district highway engineer from Childress, will accompany Mr. Simmons here, where they will first be met by County Judge Zook Thomas and members of the Commissioners Court.

Mr. Simmons will be honored at a luncheon at noon in Bura Handley Community Center, when he will be able to discuss with those gathered anything pertaining to the Texas Highway system he wishes to bring out.

Invited to be the guests of the Collingsworth commissioners are the commissioners and county judges from Childress, Hall, Donley, Wheeler, and Gray Counties.

A cross-section of the community leadership of the Wellington area will be present, including representatives of these organizations: Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club, B&PW, the three Lions Clubs, Wellington City Council, Chamber of Commerce and individual leaders.

Judge Thomas emphasized that those expecting to attend must notify him by noon Monday so that those preparing the luncheon will know how many to expect.

This will be a Dutch lunch.

Purcell Seeks Election in 13th District

Amarillo -- Incumbent U.S. Representative Graham Purcell (D-Texas) today announced that he would seek re-election in the redrawn 13th Congressional District in 1972.

In making the announcement, the six-term Democratic Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee's Subcommittee on Livestock and Grains said simply, "This is where I belong." Purcell's statement thus ended speculation that he would run in the newly created Dallas-Ft. Worth District.

1971 Fair Week Opens September 6

1971 Collingsworth County Fair Week opens Monday, September 6, when Golden Spread Amusements, with all its carnival equipment, rolls into town.

Jack Neeley and Don Welch, Fair co-chairman, announced plans for those events that will precede the two-day fair, the one big event each year when All Collingsworth get together.

This year, the carnival will be on the old East Ward School Ground, the 1500 block between 8th and Ninth Streets, just a block west of Highway 83.

"We believe this has much to offer over the downtown locations of the past fairs, said Mr. Neeley. It gives the owner, Jack Hoggard an opportunity to better space his rides, it gives much more parking space for the people, and altogether,

Grain Sorghum Harvest Starts; Prospects Good

Two and a half months ago it looked as if the county might not even plant its grain sorghum. During the last week delivery began on what may be one of the better crops of recent years.

Several loads have come in to both Wellington elevators, Singley's and Warrick's, all of it cut from irrigated land and earlier than the dry-land crop.

The highest yields reported so far were brought in by Faris Wood and his crop will average around 4,000 pounds per acre. This was from land he operates in the Fresno Community.

Both buyers reported the quality of the grain is good, all grading No. 1. A little has had too high a moisture content, however.

No grain sorghum has been delivered at Dodson, according to Raymond Cearley of the Dodson Co-op Enterprises, as the crop there is a little later than in the Wellington-Locho area.

Robert Barjenbruch, who lives south of town, delivered grain sorghum which he said was cutting around 2,950 pounds per acre on land that he watered only twice during the growing season.

David Caison brought in one of the earliest loads, said he was cutting around 2,000 pounds at that time, and the birds had done considerable damage.

Another of the better yields came from Merritt Durfee of Locho, around 3,000 pounds.

"It's going to be a bumper crop if we can get another

Californian Joins Historical Group

A former Wellington man with a keen sense of this area's history, Leon (Buck) Dial of Dimuba, Calif. has taken a Life Membership in the Collingsworth County Historical Foundation.

His check was enclosed with his letter to Mr. and Mrs. John Holton, membership chairman.

"Although I was a resident of Collingsworth County in Wellington, only about six and one-half years, I have felt like this was more my home town and county than any place I have lived.

"If it is permissible, I would like to become a member of the foundation. You will find a check herewith to cover a Life Membership, according to your statement in the August 12th issue of The Wellington Leader.

Sincerely yours,
Leon Dial

Varsity Named

Rockets Show Up Well in Scrimmage

Twenty-five, and possibly 27, players will make up this year's Skyrocket varsity squad Head Coach Jim Forrester announced after the A and B teams were divided Monday, August 30.

Besides the observations made by the coaching staff in daily workouts, one of the deciding factors in selecting the A team was the scrimmage with Clarendon Bronchos Thursday night, August 26.

"We looked pretty good in scrimmage, said Coach Forrester. "The boys showed a lot of hustle and we were up against a strong team."

The Bronchos won their Class A district the last two years and year before last went to quarter finals seeking the state crown. It was some of these same boys the Rockets were up against in scrimmage. "They have a lot of seasoned players and Coach Clyde Nonnester said they had a much stronger team than last year.

"Our defense made holes in their line and our backs hit the holes well, but we couldn't make the long gain because they outplayed us," the Wellington head coach continued.

"That is an indication that we have to work on our down field blocking and that is just

Entries Sought For Art Exhibit

All artists of Collingsworth County are urged to enter paintings in this year's art exhibit at the County Fair Friday and Saturday, September 10 and 11.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman are co-chairmen and this week explained rules to both the senior and junior divisions.

"We hope the artists in every community will respond. This exhibit belongs to the people of the county, and it is the only time during the year that the works of so many artists are brought together. Our only opportunity to show the public how rich this area is in talented artists," said the chairman.

It is emphasized that all paintings must be hung Thursday, September 9, between 3:30 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. and remain until 5:00 p.m. Saturday.

"They Came from Spain" Opens Sept. 2

"They Came From Spain" the story of the Palo Duro Canyon and the arrival of the Conquistadores there will open September 2, 1971, in the amphitheatre in the park. The star will be the Canyon. Starting with the Creation there in Light and Sound, the story will unfold until the arrival of the Spaniards in 1541 and the principal part will describe the events of their stay within the Canyon walls. This part of the story will be told with action and sound and light.

The 2000 mile trek from their gathering place in Compostela, Mexico, to the Canyon will be in still another technique, film. Cameramen have just finished shooting part of the march. On a typical day of filming the gateman at the park admit forty extras at six o'clock in the morning ready for make-up, beards, mustaches, shteburns and long Indian wigs; vans are opened to remove armor, helmets, swords, cross bows. Four beautiful Spanish saddles reaching two feet below the seat on each side are polished. Foot soldiers with halberds eight feet long, women that play and camp followers and some of their children, men with banners and flags, all gather at a place in the Canyon resembling a mountain pass for the first shots of the day. It will be located in Bura Handley Community Center, along with the other exhibits. Those participating must be 65 years of age or older, and the items they bring must have been made within the last year. Mrs. Manuel said.

The items they bring may be sold or they may be exhibited. They can include crafts or handwork, such as leathercraft, crochet, knitting, sewing, or a wide variety of other things.

These items will not be judged, nor will ribbons be awarded.

"We hope to recognize the senior citizens of our county and the contribution they are making," said the chairman.

County's 1970 Crude Output 59,894 Barrels

DALLAS, -- Production of Texas crude oil last year again hit an all-time high while additions to reserves continued to lag, according to the latest compilation of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

The state's oil fields produced 1.2 billion barrels of crude bringing the total for the past 81 years of recorded production to 34.1 billion barrels.

"Economic benefits from the production were felt throughout Texas," says Kenneth E. Montague, Association president. "As 205 of the state's 254 counties had producing oil wells. It is unfortunate that more oil was produced than was found in Texas -- pulling our reserves down for the third straight year."

Collingsworth County, which has had recorded production since 1936, had a total crude oil output of 765,895 barrels up to the beginning of 1971. Collingsworth County production in 1970 was 59,894 barrels at the rate of 164 barrels daily.

Fifteen counties produced more than 25 million barrels with Andrews topping the list with 71,684,656 barrels followed by Ector with 68,562,247 and Scurry with 58,085,376.

Annual Langley Reunion Draws 141 Relatives and Friends This Year

By MRS. AUBREY STUCKEY

The 1971, 18th session of the Langley family reunion was held Friday through Sunday, Aug. 13, 14 and 15th, at the Langley reunion grounds 10 miles west of Wellington.

The reunion brought together 101 relatives and 40 visitors, and of the 10 brothers and sisters, 9 were present. George Langley was unable to attend this year.

Eight states were represented in the get-together: Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Indiana, Arkansas and New York. The one coming the farthest for the reunion was Jimmie Hester from New York City, and one of the visitors was Miss Sue Cox of New York, guest of Mr. Hester.

The crowd started arriving Thursday night and by noon Saturday most everyone was there. The usual games were played but the horse-shoe pitching was a favorite sport for the men.

Mrs. Maude Clay and Mrs. Joyce Harris took care of the cooking chores, this year made the 8th year that they have handled this chore for the reunion and they have certainly done a magnificent job for us.

The rains came again this year, and we were thankful for them, no one was discouraged, we just gathered under the kitchen shed and the tabernacle and visited until the showers were over.

At the business meeting this year, Dan Langley turned in his resignation and Leonard Lowe of Conroe was elected president for the coming year. Loyd Langley has made such a good secretary and treasurer it was decided to just retain him at this post. Dwayne Crow of Norton, Kansas was elected as trustee replacing Jack Hester of Del Rio who

ONCE DELIVERED

By Caylord Cook

In the book of Jude, at verse 3, we read: "Beloved, being very eager to you of our common salvation, I found it necessary to write appealing to you to contend for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints" (RSV). Jude uses the term faith in this passage to include that which was the commonly believed teaching of the Christians of the first Century. He mentions that it must be defended, and he declares it was ONCE FOR ALL delivered. This emphasizes that God gave a complete revelation of Himself and His will in the Bible. We are not to expect later revelations or additional inspired testimony in the future. Paul emphasized this same thing when he told the Galatians that if he or even AN ANGEL FROM HEAVEN "preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." (Gal. 1:8). Anything revealed later that was different from that already revealed was to be accursed and a later revelation of the same thing would be unnecessary once the Word was written. My friends, the only guide man needs in religion is the Bible, the Word of God.

New School Bus Passing Law Stricter

AUSTIN - An new state law effective August 30 will no longer permit Texas motorists to stop and then pass a school bus which is loading or unloading children.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said the new law, passed by the 62nd Legislature, applies in both cities and rural areas and requires motorists moving both directions on the same roadway with a school bus to stop and remain stopped as long as the flashing lights on the bus are in operation.

Under current law, which applies only in rural areas, drivers must stop for a stopped bus, but may then proceed around it at a speed of not more than 10 miles per hour if safe to do so.

The new law will not require those vehicles on another roadway of a divided highway to stop, and stops are not required if the bus has stopped in a loading zone of a controlled access highway where pedestrians are not permitted to cross.

Speir noted that provisions of the new law will be strictly enforced to afford maximum protection to the school children of Texas.

Tech Offers New Course at Pantex

LUBBOCK -- Faculty planners of a graduate course to be offered this fall by the College of Agricultural Sciences at Texas Tech University aren't worrying in the least over "how we're gonna keep 'em down on the farm" because -- in a sense -- the course is being organized to specifically reach persons either already there or at least close by.

The graduate course is in animal nutrition, and -- although not new to the curriculum itself -- it will be taught for the first time at the Texas Tech University Research Center at Pantex northeast of Amarillo.

It is, in fact, the first such university credit course ever to be offered exclusively at the Pantex research center by Tech.

According to Dr. Anson R. Bertrand, dean of the College of Agricultural Sciences, the graduate level course in animal nutrition is being primarily aimed at high school vocational agriculture instructors, county agents, cattle and feedlot industry personnel and feed and livestock pharmaceutical company people as well as to agriculture graduate students and others needing or desiring instruction in the field.

Dr. Bertrand emphasized, however, that enrollment in this Animal Science 538 courses will of necessity be limited to 25.

Teaching the course will be Dr. R. Hollis Klett, superintendent of the Pantex research center, in association with Dr. Lloyd Seherrod, Tech animal science professor.

Outlining motives for conducting the course for the first time at Pantex, Dr. Klett explained that the center had been receiving many inquiries from persons in the area and elsewhere concerning their desire to take courses which would apply toward an advanced degree. "Many, however, were tied down close to home by the responsibilities of a full-time job," he explained, "and would have found it impossible either to live on or near the main campus or to commute while taking one or two courses."

It was with this in mind that the course at Pantex has been organized. Moreover, training to be made available will be especially pertinent and valuable to the rapidly expanding livestock feeding industry of the area, Dr. Klett added.

To make the course offering even more convenient, it will meet one night a week with the day of the week and time to be arranged.

ART CAN BE very serious business, especially among the very young. Three young ladies in Warsaw, Poland, give total attention to their projects in a learn-while-playing course.

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

IS THE CATHOLIC CHURCH FIGHTING OBSCENITY IN BOOKS AND FILMS?

Catholic viewing of movies is guided by the National Catholic Office for Motion Pictures in New York. There is also a Center of Books in every Diocese, but until we have a Supreme Court that can tell us what obscenity is, we'll be fighting with one hand tied behind our backs.

WHAT DO PRIESTS THINK OF THE ROCK-OPERA, JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR?

Conservatives condemn it, liberals like it. I have not seen it, so I reserve my judgement.

DOES THE CHURCH CONSIDER MINI-SKIRTS AND HOT-PANTS IMMODEST?

I don't think the Church has an official position on such garments. Personally, I think if the girl is young, pretty, with a nice figure, she should go ahead and wear them. To me, obscenity is seeing older and badly-shaped women wearing them on the streets and even in Church.

Personal ID Cards Available Through DPS

AUSTIN -- Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of Texas Department of Public Safety said today that effective September 1, Texans will be able to obtain a special personal identification card.

The card, which was authorized by the 62nd Texas Legislature, is laminated and contains a color photograph of the holder. It is the same size as a Texas drivers license.

Information appearing on the card will include the holder's date of birth, height, sex, and eye color. Each card will have a special identification number issued by the DPS.

Speir said the cards should be of value to those persons who do not hold a Texas drivers license, but who need some sort of official card to help establish their identity.

In order to obtain a personal identification card, the applicant must appear at a PDS drivers license field office on or after September 1, execute a special application form, present birth certificate or other documentary evidence of identity and date of birth, be fingerprinted and pay a statutory fee of $5.00. The special cards, which will be mailed from DPS Headquarters in Austin, will be dated to expire four years from the applicant's next birth date.

Accident-Free Labor Day Week End Sought in County

It is projected that 52 Texans will die in traffic accidents over the Labor Day week end, and the Sheriff's Department and Highway Patrolmen call for greater care on the part of Collingsworth area drivers.

There will be added traffic on our own highways, some of it passing through, others our own people taking advantage of the final holiday week end of the summer, although school has started.

Col. Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, calls for motorists to do three things:

- Avoid drinking while driving.
- Avoid fatigue.
- Modify their driving speed in accordance with traffic conditions.

All available uniformed officers in the DPS will be on the highways to enforce state traffic laws, and maximum use will be made of radar and breath testing instruments.

As more Texans drive more cars, observing the traffic laws becomes the responsibility of each of us.

Other Editors Say . . .

Skip It

The nutritionists, like the swallows at Capistrano, come back every year. They are right on schedule with the annual jeremiad about American breakfast-eating habits.

One poll showed recently that one out of every two adult Americans is willing to skip breakfast—that is, to skip anything resembling a real fast-breaker, which, as everyone knows, should provide at least one-fourth of the day's protein, calories, vitamins and minerals.

Not eating breakfast — and this, too, is common knowledge — brings out nervousness, irritability and inefficiency. Anyone who ever tried to teach an 8 o'clock class of college freshmen knows this to be nothing less than gospel truth.

Well, sir, if all these people know they ought to eat a good, balanced breakfast — why don't they?

The reason has something to do with the American's God-given right to go on doing what he knows he shouldn't. Until there is some alteration of natural law, he is going to keep on jaywalking, getting sunburned trying to draw to an inside straight — and eating a lousy breakfast.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Small Town People

One gets a little weary of all the quips and smart alec remarks in some metropolitan news columns about small towns and small town people. Perhaps we feel that way because we are "small town" and would not choose to be otherwise. By and large, small town people or rural folk have a dignity of simplicity that is wholesome and refreshing and a characteristic trait of a typical American. Besides that, such remarks are really not true to begin with. As opposed to such, we once had a friend, now deceased, who was widely traveled, both in her own country and abroad. She was indignant at snide remarks about country folk and told us once that the most provincial people she had met in her entire life were native citizens of New York City.

The Other Space Race

"SCANDAL" HEARINGS HELD - House General Investigating Committee held the opening round in its hearings on stock-loan scandals involving high state officials.

Frank W. Sharp, onetime head of Sharpstown State Bank and National Bankers Life Insurance Company, was the star witness. He told Committee members he and House Speaker Gus Mutscher had a "tacit understanding" that there was a link between stock purchases in NBL by the speaker and passage of banking bills favorable to Sharp in 1969.

Speaker Mutscher borrowed money from the Sharpstown Bank to buy the stock, as did a few other state officials including Governor Smith.

Sharp denied, however, he ever gave anything of value to a state official in exchange for a political favor.

Former Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, appearing before the Committee, called the federal Securities and Exchange Commission investigation of stock-loan transactions an "Republican inspired political 'hatchet job'."

AG OPINIONS - Counties adopting workmen's compensation for their employees must carry appropriate insurance or lose common law defense of contributory negligence and assumed risk, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In a flood of other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

- * A local option election legalizing the sale of mixed alcoholic beverages may be held in any city of Precinct 7, Jefferson County within a year after May 18, 1971.
- * Regional planning commissions may be created by two or more counties and/or cities and membership extended to other subdivisions, with the governing bodies determined by agreement among members.

- * Bexar County commissioners have no authority to expend money for the purpose of making a grant to a non-profit corporation to promote industrial development in the county.
- * Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations has authority to try eminent domain cases transferred to it by district courts.

- * Hidalgo County Housing Authority has no statutory authority to dispose of any property by transferring it without consideration to a non-profit organization.
- * Orange and Jefferson County district attorneys may commission a regional juvenile legal services officer as an assistant d.a.

- * Bill to abolish county school superintendent in Matagorda County is void, so the office continues to exist.
- * New law eliminates requirements for certification on invoices to state agencies by contractors or sellers of contracts and purchases.

- * State Comptroller cannot issue a new or duplicate warrant to pay on original unemployment compensation benefits warrant presented more than a year after issuance.
- * Bill allowing county commissioners in Denton and Comanche counties to set their travel expenses and depreciation at a different rate from that set for the county judge is unconstitutional.

WELFARE POLICY CHANGED - State Board of Public Welfare has changed its policy to permit Old Age Assistance recipients to earn up to $50 a month without loss of assistance payments, effective November 1.

Under current eligibility rules, only $7.50 of any income source is exempted in calculating an OAA recipient's budgeted needs for an assistance check.

New policy will exempt the first $20 of earned income and one-half remainder up to $80 a month.

Governor said OAA recipients will be permitted a better standard of living and not be penalized for working. OAA average monthly grant is about $62.28.

SHORT SNOTS - Roy R. Evans of Austin is the new president of Texas AFL-CIO and Harry Hubbard is the new secretary-treasurer. They won elections at labor's convention August 14.

Governor has been urged to permit the Legislature in special session next year to consider a competitive rate system for auto insurance.

New "Texas Hunting Guide" for 1971-72 is available from Parks and Wildlife Department showing seasons, bag limits and game law summaries.

More than $1 million has been allocated for restoration and development projects at San Jacinto Battleground and Mission Tejas state parks.

Col. Wilson E. Speir, Texas Department of Public Safety director, was named lawman of the year, by veterans of Foreign Wars.

Attorney General Martin filed suit against City of Galveston for environmental law violation in refuse disposal and city dump burning.

Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall said he will announce for lieutenant governor in September.

Flag's First Flying

Adopted in 1947, the flag of the United Nations was first flown by armed forces at war in July, 1950, when the Security Council authorized its use by Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Korea.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

Because they have got the high card, the federals don't get very worried when the governor of a mere state gets unruly and defies Washington.

After all, Article VI, Section 2, of the U.S. Constitution does say that federal law is the supreme law of the land.

But the writers of said Constitution made what may turn out to be a fatal mistake for the nation when they failed to write down that federal law also takes precedence over union labor bosses' whims.

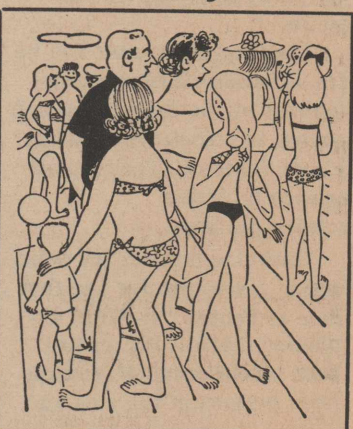

The current mania of federal ukaseers to flood southern streets and highways with school buses is hard for people without legal minds to understand.

In 1954 it became Unconstitutional to assign kids to schools according to their skin color. Now it is commanded, by the same Authority under the same laws, that skin color must be the primary consideration in pupil assignment.

Sort of like if the Lord announced that people must start stealing or else go to Hell for breaking the Eighth Commandment.

Cards of Thanks

I wish to take this means to thank the Sisters, Dr. Holcomb and the entire hospital staff for your kindness and care during my stay at the hospital. Also for the cards, the lovely flowers and gifts and for the cheerful visits of my friends and neighbors. All these helped to make my stay in the hospital a very pleasant one.

Mrs. Roy Tisdale.

FAIR TIME is almost here. In fact it is only a week away. We wonder if the date has crept up on many of the prospective exhibitors as it has one of us here at the newspaper. We can hardly realize that fair time, fall time and school time are here since August went by in such a hurry.

THERE SHOULD be some wonderful agricultural exhibits at the fair this year for the rainfall has been excellent in most places. It takes more than rainfall to make a winning fair exhibit. Casual visitors to a fair admire the excellent showing of farm products; but few realize how much care must be taken in selecting the exhibits and then arranging them. I might be able to pick out a good pumpkin or head of maize; but when it came to arranging a large number of items, I am afraid I would be lost.

DOVE SEASON opened here September 1 and little notice was taken of the event for it opened over the entire Panhandle at the same time. It is the opening of the quail season in this county that causes the furore. Again we have an early date while our neighbors on the south and west have a later opening date. All of the Panhandle proper except Wheeler has a later date. As a result the hunters rush in the first two weeks and few birds are left for the native hunters. It is a peculiar arrangement and those nearest the scene think it makes no sense.

AUGUST OF 1971 is gone; but not before setting a record for pleasant cool weather. To correctly evaluate what a remarkable month this has been, we need to remember some of the sultry August nights before most homes had air conditioning. On the worst of the nights there was no breeze and the temperature remained in the 90's until after midnight. People did not think of going to bed before midnight and then it was to sleep on a porch or out in the yard. By contrast the first 15 days of August of 1971 had night readings in the 60 degree range and the day temperature seldom reaching 90. The last half of the month was also refreshingly cool and the first morning of September came in with a mild 70 degree reading.

CYCLE RACING that is being held on the C.A. Wilbur farm each Sunday afternoon is an interesting sport and it has other practical values. It lets the youngsters from 6 to 81, particularly those about 20, let off steam and work some of the recklessness out of their systems. It also makes them more prudent riders and more skillful and skill is an important safety factor riding a motorcycle as well as driving a car.

FARMERS AND RANCHERS who drive a pick-up, truck or tractor on Butane or Propane will have an opportunity to get a Farm Users Permit placed on their vehicle next Tuesday September 7. On that day a representative from the Comptrollers office will be in Wellington at 10 o'clock in the morning and will begin placing the Farm Users Permit on the cars, pickups and trucks. The four Butane dealers of Wellington have an advertisement in this issue giving the details. You should bring your Social Security card with you. The dealers can't sell you tax free fuel without this permit on your vehicle.

Teletype Network

Law Enforcement Hookup Wednesday

On Wednesday, September 1, seventeen county and city law enforcement agencies in the Panhandle will hookup to a new teletype communications network.

One of these is the Collingsworth Sheriff's office. Equipment has been installed, according to Sheriff John Rainey, and this move will greatly speed up the apprehension of law violators and suspects.

A spokesman at Southwestern Bell Telephone offices in Amarillo said Friday that all 16 machines (Tulia police department and Swisher County Sheriff's office using one) have been installed.

Actual hookup will come from the Department of Public Safety in Austin, said Paul Harvell, communications supervisor for the DPS in Amarillo.

The equipment was provided and installed independently by three telephone companies, said Don Black, special representative of Southwestern Bell in Lubbock.

Black said that Bell, which is acting as coordinator, has installed eight machines, General Telephone has installed five machines and West Texas Telephone has installed three machines.

Since May, Harvell has instructed 30 persons from the law enforcement agencies, which includes at least one person from each hookup point, in actual operation of the machine.

Mrs. Alvin Minatrea, dispatcher in the Sheriff's office, and Deputy N.E. Childers took their training with the DPS at Childress.

During the courses, which were completed this month, students worked with the DPS teletype machine which is like the one now installed in their office.

The judge said that any other interested individual may attend by notifying him before the deadline.

The Texas Highway Commission is the policy making body for the Texas Highway Department, one of the nation's largest State highway organizations. A former Mid-west newspaper man, Mr. Simmons came to Texas as Capitol correspondent for the Associated Press in Austin.

In 1936, he took up the dual duties of editor of Texas Parade and director of public relations for the Texas Good Roads Association. In 1942, he became executive vice-president of TGRA.

He devised and managed the successful campaign for the adoption of a constitutional amendment protecting highway user taxes in Texas from diversion, and also was among the leading sponsors of the amendment providing a retirement system for State employees.

From 1947 to 1971, he was executive vice-president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association with headquarters in Dallas. He was appointed to the Highway Commission in 1971.

begin going up Saturday morning, September 4, with members of the Wellington Lions Club doing the work. It will remain through Fair Week.

Several organizations plan to set up food or game booths, either downtown during the Fair itself, or at the carnival grounds, according to Mrs. Margaret Vines, Chamber of Commerce Secretary.

Organizations wishing to do this are welcome, she pointed out, but they must clear with the C-C office by Monday, September 6. One restriction is that they must not duplicate food or game booths that are part of the carnival.

Mr. Neeley again urged all business firms, organizations, and individuals to have an entry in the big parade that opens the Fair Friday, Sept. 10, at 10:00 a.m.

He further pointed out that this Fair and the parade are for everyone in the county, and he urged that as many communities as possible be represented in the parade.

No more than two people were trained at a time, Harvell said. Training lasted for eight-hour shifts during a one or two-day period, he said.

Law enforcement officials in the Panhandle now have to go through the DPS offices for information requested. But with the new hookup, they can handle their own traffic faster and free the DPS of some of their transmitting.

Art Class Begins Sept. 6

Dord Fitz, widely known artist and art instructor, will open his classes for the fall term on Wednesday evening, September 8.

These are open to both beginners and advanced students, and individual attention to helping the student develop his own potential in his own style is stressed.

There will be instruction in both oils and water color.

Mr. Fitz formerly was on the faculty of the art department of the University of Kentucky, but a number of years ago, he returned to this area to work toward developing an appreciation for art and the talent lying undeveloped in the people of the Panhandle and western Oklahoma.

Those interested in joining the class may contact Mrs. John Sherman or Miss Bonnie Willis.

No. 1 —from page one gth, and on the pole trailer 30 feet or more in length, according to information furnished the Farmers Co-op Gin by the Texas Cooperative Ginners Association.

These apply to cotton trailers, horse trailers and general use trailers.

The law also requires trailers with gross weights of more than 3,000 pounds to have brakes on all four wheels, sets new regulations for towing trailers and mobile homes, prohibits vehicles from having television sets visible from the driver's seat, and prohibits the use of flashing lights or signs within 1,000 feet of any intersection without permission of the State Highway Commission.

Other traffic measures adopted by the legislature include raising the speed limit for motorcycles to 70 miles per hour, exempting disabled veterans from driver's license fees, requiring cars to be re-inspected after they have been involved in major accidents, and prohibiting the passing of school buses even after a stop.

Burial Rites Held Here for Sam Gholson

A former Wellington business man, Sam E. Gholson, 56, of Muleshoe died Monday morning, August 30, in West Plains Memorial Hospital after a long illness.

Graveside rites were conducted in Memorial Gardens Cemetery here at 5:00 p.m. Tuesday, after funeral services at 10 a.m. in First United Methodist Church, Muleshoe.

The Rev. J.B. Fowler, pastor, officiated at both services. The body lay in state from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. at Kelo Funeral Home.

Mr. Gholson came here in the late 1930's and established White's Auto Store.

He was married to Miss Virginia Curry, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R.F. Curry.

They had lived in Muleshoe since 1955 where he owned and operated Sam's Auto Store. He was born in Elk City, Oklahoma, May 11, 1915.

Mr. Gholson was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Muleshoe.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Virginia Gholson; two daughters, Mrs. Ann Mason of Muleshoe and Mrs. Nell Corn of Denver, Colorado; his mother, Mrs. Rena Gholson of Quanah; two sisters, Mrs. Vera Scott of Quanah and Mrs. Ruth Rodriguez of Muleshoe; two brothers, Dick Gholson of Hereford and Dub Gholson of Quanah; and three grandchildren.

No. 2 —from page one to install the sprinkler system. This is to eliminate a fire hazard and is a requirement which has become mandatory since the hospital was accredited in 1967.

Removal of the oxygen generator to a place outside the hospital building. The contract for this was let to Villard's with that for the sprinkler system.

Emergency Power source. Cables have been installed and a generator is being sought, as the one now in the hospital cannot be used.

A fire door at the foot of the stairs to the second floor. Frank Jones, young Amarillo architect, is to study this problem and recommend a solution.

An auxiliary water source to be used should the city water become contaminated. Sister Perpetua said an agreement has been reached with a commercial tank truck to bring water from Zook Thomas wells northwest of Wellington.

Four-H Beef Club to Meet

The Collingsworth 4-H Beef Club will hold its first meeting of the season Monday September 6, at 7:30 p.m., County Agent Don Reeves has announced.

The meeting will be in the new steer barn behind the Soil Conservation Service office.

Part of the meeting will be given over to cleaning and repairing the barn in preparation for the County Fair livestock show to be held Saturday, September 11.

Grooming and preparing steers for the show will be discussed.

All boys and girls who will exhibit steers are urged to attend, Mr. Reeves said.

No. 7 —from page one rain," said Jones Singley of Singley Mill and Elevator.

"We have a lot of good grain sorghum on both the sandy land and tight land in the county, and the area that makes the best crop from here is going to be the one that gets the rain."

If the average date for a killing frost holds again this year, there will be plenty of time to mature this crop, it is believed, and a number of growers are predicting it will be the biggest crop the county had seen in a long time — more acres yielding more.

So far there have been no reports of damaging insects in the grain sorghum.

There is no way of telling accurately the county's grain sorghum acreage. The base under the government farm program is just over 90,000 acres, according to the ASCS, but records for this crop are not required, and many farmers have interchanged wheat and grain sorghum acres.

No. 3 —from page one rict established when the Texas Legislature redrew Congressional District lines earlier this year. The announcement also set the stage for what would undoubtedly be the most difficult campaign Purcell would ever wage — against Republican Bob Price who also has his eye on the new District which combines the Panhandle and other counties eastward.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Martin of Ralls were here over the week end to visit her mother Mrs. Edith Estes, and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Estes.

Band Parents Begin Year September 6

The Band Parents Club will hold its opening meeting Monday, September 6, at 8:00 p.m. in the band hall, and parents of all band members are urged to attend, according to Dee Burba, president.

Plans for the coming year will be discussed and committees will be appointed. The possibility of securing new equipment for the concession stand will be brought up.

Mr. Burba said construction on the new combination concession stand and ticket booth is coming along fast, but more volunteer labor is needed to complete it by the first home football game Friday, September 17.

The stand has been put almost altogether with volunteer labor, he added.

This will give a whole new appearance to the north end of the field. New ticket booths will be in each end and the old ticket booths at the northeast corner, and near the northwest corner will be closed.

The concession stand, of concrete block construction, will be about equal distance from the east and west seats.

No. 4 —from page one what we have been doing this week.

The Rockets and their coaches learned some more of their weaknesses, and one of these is on pass defense.

"But that is what scrimmages are for — to find weaknesses and work on them, so we should look better in our next scrimmage," said Coach Forrester.

The Rockets have one more scrimmage before they begin season play at Hollis September 10. The coach reminded that pre-scrimmage announcement is against Interscholastic League rules.

Some of the Rockets who impressed coaches with outstanding play included Backs Denny Carter, Randy Vaughan and Bruce Oney, and linemen Charley Taylor, Billy Henard, Barry Long and Ronnie Pennon.

The A team includes: Halfbacks: Mike Peterson, Rozell Outley, Jay Thomas, Robin Maddox, Bruce Oney, Kenneth Porter and Gary Wright;

Quarterbacks: Mike Williams and Denny Carter; Fullbacks: Randy Vaughan,

Randall Hodges and Louis Gonzales;
Centers: Charley Taylor and Don Judd.
Guards: Paul Wilbur, Dennis Powell, Keith Davis, Trinidad Cantu and Randy McKinney.
Tackles: Billy Henard, Teddy Sango, Steve Hunter and Leslie Bailey.

Ends: Gary Cummings, Ray Shrubs, Barry Long and Ronnie Pennon.
Randy Amonett is manager and he is assisted by injured player Steve Kane.
