County's Centennial Queen To Be Selected in Pageant

The Centennial Queen of Collingsworth County will be chosen Friday evening, August 20, and never again can this honor be duplicated. Seven girls, all beauties, are seeking the title.

The Collingsworth County Centennial Pageant gets under way at 8:00 p.m. in the Wellington High School Auditorium, sponsored by the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce.

The title of Centennial Queen will not be a fleeting one, for she will be designated Chamber of Commerce official hostess to serve during the coming year in a variety of pleasant capacities, both in and out of the county.

Besides beauty in the seven contestants, there will be talent. The girls and their numbers are:

•DiAnna Schaub, who is the retiring director. He had served three 5-year terms on the board and chose not to run again. He was chairman of the board.

Mr. Carson farms in the Marella community north of Quail, while Mr. Emmert lives west of Quail.

The annual re-organization of the board will be held at its next breakfast meeting Tuesday, September 14, at 7:30 a.m. in the Cherokee Inn.

Other officers were John Brim, vice-chairman; Earl Patterson, secretary, Dan Henard, Jr., and Douglas Coleman, members.

Several co-operators with Salt Fork SCD will attend the semi-annual meeting of the Panhandle Association of Conservation Districts in Pampa on Wednesday, August 25, Mr. Powell said.

This is the 30th annual Wheatheart pageant and will begin at 8:00 p.m. It is the climax of a week-long series of events celebrating the 57th anniversary of Perryton and the 200th anniversary of the nation.

The winner will receive a $1,000 college scholarship, while the second place contestant will be awarded a

Chairmen Announced For Fair Departments

Chairmen of most divisions of the Collingsworth County Fair have been named, and most already have plans for their departments under way. The Fair, honoring the bicentennial, will be Friday and Saturday, Sept. 10 and 11.

Included in this year's event will be all the traditional departments, along with at least one new section, a Country Store, according to Henry Wells, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Haskell Manuel will head the women's division, which includes both clothing, foods and household textiles.

Chairman of the youth division is Mrs. P.M. Scott, head of the Wellington Home Economics department. She will be assisted by Mrs. Anita Blanton, county extension agent, Mrs. Billy Colson, and the home ec instructors of three schools, Nancy King of Wellington, Becky Cochran of Quail and Judy Barber of Samnorwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Porter will be in charge of the art department.

Wellington Garden Club will again direct the flower show, with Mrs. Tom Caterlin as chairman.

The Livestock Show has Billy Moseley as chairman and he will name his assistants.

Services Thurs. For Mrs. Hamman

Mrs. Pearl Hamman, formerly of Dodson and Wellington, died in Amarillo Tuesday night, August 17.

Funeral services will be conducted at Kelso Chapel Thursday at 4:00 p.m. with burial in the Arlie Cemetery. Kelso Funeral Home is in charge.

Mrs. Haman is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Elbert Warren of Amarillo.

Gary Brewer is in charge of carnival arrangements. The carnival will be set up this year on lots northwest of the City of Wellington water tower, one block west of West Ave. It will open Monday, Sept. 6 and continue through Fair Week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Henard are co-chairmen of the opening Fair Parade and they will be assisted by the festival committee of the Bicentennial Committee.

Mrs. David Peters is chairman of the Old Settlers Reunion and she has announced preliminary plans.

The women of the Firemen's Auxiliary will hold the Country Store and they also have begun plans.

Tommy Thomas will be in charge of the games, always a popular feature at the Fair.

Three chairmen remain to be named, according to Mrs. Margaret Vines, CC secretary: barbecue, agriculture and hobbies.

Entries in most divisions will be set up Thursday, September 9, in Bura Handley Community Center.

The Parade will open the Fair Friday morning, and following it, the community building will be opened.

The Fair will end at 5:00 p.m. Saturday, September 11.

All dispatching for the Wellington Volunteer Fire Department will be done through the office of Sheriff John Rainey, effective in approximately 30 days. Announcement of this change was made by City Manager Glen Taylor following a meeting of the City Council Monday, August 16.

This will be done at no additional cost to the city, as it will be handled as part of the duties of the combined City-County law enforcement program, it was explained.

At the same time, the city will no longer use a certified paid fireman, who in the past has handled dispatching duties. Mr. Taylor cited the difficulty in keeping a trained certified man in the position.

With this change, in order to keep the city's present key fire insurance rate, two additional three-way fire hydrants will be installed, and a used car purchased for Fire Chief David Peters.

The city manager emphasized that purchase of the car is a requirement. A 1975 Ford from Lubbock Police Department has been located for $1,700.

The city will save approximately $700 per month through these changes, and that will be applied to the city's part of the combined law enforcement program, Taylor said.

The 30-day time period is needed to set up and test radio equipment, already on hand. Until that time, persons reporting a fire will still call 447-2242.

The public will be notified of the date of the change, according to the city manager.

John Carson was elected a director of the Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation District in an election held at Alston's Store in Quail Saturday, August 14. He represents zone 3, according to Tommy Powell, Soil Conservation Service unit supervisor.

Otis Emmert was the retiring director. He had served three 5-year terms on the board and chose not to run again. He was chairman of the board.

Mr. Taylor presented the council with a rough draft of a budget which will later be formally presented. This calls for an expenditure of $416,997.50, about the same as the cost of operating the city for the 1974-75 year.

He asked the members to consider the proposed budget for any changes or any reduction of expenses until the next meeting.

The four members of the council who were present, with Mr. Taylor out of the chambers, approved an increase in his salary to $1,200 per month, a raise of $100. It also gave him a spontaneous vote of confidence.

Present for this meeting were Mayor Bill Hatch, Mr. Taylor, Mrs. Lorene Jenkins, city secretary, and council members Tom Wilkins, Lyndon Crelia, Gus Barton and J.L. Harper.

Rockets Scrimmage Seymour on Friday

Wellington Skyrockets will scrimmage Class AA Seymour at Vernon Friday, August 20. Game time is 7:00 p.m.

This is the first of two pre-season scrimmages for the Rockets, who will meet Wheeler either Friday or Saturday, August 27 or 28, at Powell Field.

"They look good after the first workouts, but to really evaluate the team, we will have to wait until after the scrimmage with Seymour," Head Coach James Williams said early Wednesday.

Friday's meeting will probably be a controlled type scrimmage, Coach Williams explained. Each team will start on the 20 yard line and run a specific number of plays, then the other team will take the ball on the 20 and run so many plays.

The Skyrockets are fairly quick, although their coaches haven't timed them. Everything so far has been the normal workouts, but it is safe to estimate their speed is about the same as Seymour's.

"They are kind of sore from two-a-days and they have been having quite a bit of contact. We'll have to let up a little this week," Coach Williams said.

"It's going to be a good scrimmage. I think our kids will play real competitive ball."

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Henard are co-chairmen.

Former Residents Tour Six Western States

Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Howard, Jr., Bill, Kelly and Dennis traveled from the oldest town in the Texas Panhandle, Mobeetie, to the oldest national park, Yellowstone. The family returned home early last week from the trip that took them through six states, Oklahoma, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, Utah, and New Mexico.

The first real tour began in Cheyenne, Wyoming at the state capitol building and museum.

The overwhelming beauty of the Grand Teton National Park is combined with the abrupt, soaring peaks of the Teton Mountain Range, sky blue lakes, clear mountain streams, and lush forests. Also located in the park and enjoyed by the boys is "the last of the Old West" known as Jackson Hole.

Yellowstone National Park is the largest, (2,213,206.55 acres of Federal Land) oldest, (established in 1872) and most famous of national parks and offered the Howards many unforgettable sights. It's a part of the high country of the middle Rocky Mountains containing geysers, hot springs, and other thermal features which are the result of volcanic activities prevailing in the area for ages. The park includes within its boundaries small portions of Idaho and Montana. The average elevation of the park is between 7,000 and 8,000 feet. Both the surrounding mountains and the interior plain are composed largely of material once ejected as ash and lava from depths far below the earth's surface. Its geysers are unequal in number, size, and variety of action, yet the most famous of all is "Old Faithful". Other attractions visited were the mighty Lower Falls, nearly twice as high as Niagara or 308 feet, and the Grand Canyon of Yellowstone River. If there were no geysers or other hot-water phenomena in Yellowstone, the spectacular Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone River would surely warrant national park status. It's the cameo of canyons, with the dominant color, particularly on a sunny day, yellow or a glaring white. Closer inspection reveals a great variety of colors.

The fishermen in the family were impressed with Yellowstone Lake. It's the largest body of water in North America at so great an altitude. Lying 7,731 feet above sea level it covers 139 square miles and has a shoreline of about 100 miles. Its maximum depth is 300 feet. The boys spotted some 40 groups of antelope, several groups of moose and elk which they got close up pictures, as close as they dared!

In southeastern Idaho we were amazed at the hillside farm plots, mostly wheat, and in all stages of growth. These fields were all irrigated. If we hadn't seen enough, Utah was next. We spent a day in Salt Lake City visiting the Anyone wanting additional information should contact Mrs. Henard. The parade format will be much the same as in other years. There will be floats in several categories, both adult and youth. More than the usual number of horses and their riders will be seen, since this is the centennial celebration. Commercial entries will be seen, and there will be a number of guest entries. Complete plans will be announced within a week or two, said Mrs. Henard.

"Let's everyone get involved and have a big, fun time and have a celebration that our children will remember and talk about in their old age," she urged.

#3—continued from page 1 Taylor told The Wellington Leader that paving, curb and gutter is now under way on several streets. Most of this is in short stretches and work, using city employees, will continue until the weather is too cold to pour asphalt. He said work is also scheduled for some private businesses, and he emphasized that the city is paid at standard commercial rates for the type of work involved. The substance existing in greatest proportion in the human body is water.

Hatch Dry Goods, Wellington Veterinary Hospital and West Texas Utilities Co. will present each contestant with a gift to denote this 100th birthday of their county and their participation in the pageant. Gifts to be presented the finalists are being displayed in the window of Mode O' Day. The Centennial Queen will be selected by out of county judges, along with a first and second runner up. Contestants will be judged in short sportswear, formal gowns and in their performing talent. Mrs. Joe Harris will be the auditor for judges, keeping tally of the points scored in each category. In addition to the talent numbers by the eight girls, there will be a program of dances by young students of Mrs. Dick Pendleton and Mrs. Nicky Watts. The guest vocalist will be Miss Mandi Moore of Hollis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore. Advanced tickets are now on sale for $1.50 each for adults and 75 cents for children through 12 years. Prices at the door will be $2.00 and $1.00.

Boys Ranch Announces Annual Rodeo

It will soon be rodeo time at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch where 370 boys have been getting ready for their 32nd nationally-known contest between pint-size cowboys and bucking stock.

It is a Labor Day weekend celebration and approximately 10,000 people are expected to drive to the Ranch over the two-day period, September 5 and September 6. Nearly 150 boys will be riding the calves, steers, Brahma bulls and broncs in the Boys Ranch Rodeo Arena, competing for trophies and belt buckles. Even the 3-to-6-year-olds will be awarded prizes for riding their stick horses around the barrels. Older boys will be riding professional rodeo stock under R.C.A. rules.

The rodeo is also a homecoming for the approximately 3,000 boys who have lived at the Ranch since it was started by Cal Farley in 1939. They are members of the Boys Ranch Alumni Association and some travel long distances to watch a kind of rodeo in which they, too, were once contestants.

An added attraction will be Texas-size bar-be-que beef plates that will be prepared and sold by the boys for only $1.50. Reserve box seat tickets at $2.50 are on sale at the Boys Ranch Office, 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo. General admission will be $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12-years-old. Performances are scheduled for 2:30 p.m. each afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Haralson were in Amarillo Sunday, August 15, when their son, Tommy Haralson, received a master of arts degree from West Texas State University.

The commencement was held in Amarillo Civic Center Auditorium. Haralson's major field of emphasis was in business and mid-management.

For two years, he has been in the mid-management department of Frank Phillips Junior College in Borger and will continue in that position.

A graduate of Quail High School in 1962, he received a bachelor of arts degree from WTSU in 1968 and then taught at Quitaque and Friona.

Group Attends Motorcycle Run

A group from the Wellington Cycle Club competed in the Panhandle Road Riders Night Owl Poker Run in Amarillo this weekend.

The 105 mile ride began at 9:00 p.m. Saturday and ended about 12:15 a.m. Sunday for breakfast at the Big Texan. Prizes and trophies were given, according to Mrs. Kenneth Foster of the Wellington Club.

Competing from Wellington were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Boyd Derryberry and Lynn Derryberry.

Several Wellington members will attend another poker run in Perryton Sunday, August 22. This is a benefit event.

She was second runner-up in the Miss Spirit of '76 contest in Childress July 3, and earlier she was first runner-up in the Miss Wellington Contest.

This summer she was employed, until last week, at C&H Pharmacy.

Trio Has Tour of Seven Western States

Mrs. B.B. Martin of Dason, along with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gear of Houston, have returned from a four weeks tour of 7 western states.

They started by seeing "Texas", then drove to Santa Fe, N.M. They visited old missions and churches, and found especially interesting Loretto Church, with its famous spiral staircase, built without supports.

Next came the Uranium Capitol and refinery at Moab, Utah, and from there they visited Salt Lake City, Reno, Nevada, and Lake Tahoe, and went through the Donner Pass and its monument.

They stopped at Sacramento, Calif., then went on to San Francisco, where they attended the Gideon International Convention with 109 countries represented.

In San Jose, Calif., they visited a brother, Milton Gear and saw the San Jose Mission built in 1789, the Winchester House and Rosicrucian Egyptian Museum, where the benediction stone, scarabs, jewels and paintings are shown.

They also visited a niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Crawford, who took them sightseeing in Oakland and San Leandro.

They had planned to visit Yosemite Park, but it was so crowded the gates were closed until some of the people left and then tourists were taken only on a day to day basis.

The trio visited Monterey and Carmel, and took the famous 17-mile Carmel drive. They watched the seals playing on the rocks, and saw the Bing Crosby Golf Course, and Collings Stables and Polo Field.

They drove on down the coast, following the Old Mission Trail to Los Angeles. There they visited a sister, Mrs. Raymond Bowen.

At San Diego, they were guests of a niece, Mrs. Michael Kingsbury, and saw many old Spanish missions and the race track.

They returned home via the Mojave Desert, Grand Canyon National Park and Gallup, N.M., where they encountered a flash flood.

While in San Francisco, they toured the city, seeing Chinatown, the Italian district, and Marine World.

"People were crawling like ants. America is really on the move," said Mrs. Martin.

Back in Texas, they attended the wedding anniversary of a sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G.H. Vaughn, in Dallas.

Fireman Hurt At Shamrock

Deputy Sheriff Steve Vines received eye injuries, believed to be minor, while fighting the blaze which heavily damaged Shamrock Compress Tuesday afternoon, August 17.

The accident occurred as firemen turned water into the interior of a pickup that was burning. Steam and ashes struck Vines in the face, according to Buster Hughs, one of the Wellington firemen present.

The deputy received emergency treatment at Shamrock Hospital and was dismissed.

Damage to Traders Compress Co. warehouses were estimated at several hundred thousand dollars. The blaze also spread to and destroyed five small houses nearby. The fire is believed to have started by sparks from a passing freight train that apparently ignited parched grass near the compress.

Upon a request for help from the Shamrock Fire Department, Wellington sent two units, as well as the Sheriff's department unit. A number of Wellington firemen responded to the call.

on top of the earlier increase. Premiums have jumped as much as 53.6% in New Jersey, 50% in Florida, and 48% in New York.

The problem isn't going away. As long as there is a 5% to 8% inflation rate in our economy, the cost of repairs and replacements parts will continue to soar. The result is a shift from a market where many companies were fighting to get the car owners business to one of the reducing activities in car insurance or even getting completely out of the market. Claims and expenses on automobile were 7% higher than premium income last year and the automobile insurance industry had underwriting losses of over $2 billion last year. The rate increases have helped but they will have to increase sharply above present levels to offset the tremendous repair and medical costs. Another innovation is the $200 deductible which helps hold down premium increases.

The heart of the problem is our present personal injury system. More and more people are finding that excessive damage awards are becoming standard in lawsuits arising from automobile accidents.

The Wellington High School classes of 1928-29 held their joint annual luncheon at Carroll's Saturday, August 14, in conjunction with the Ex-Students Reunion.

Visiting and reminiscing filled the hour. Two guests were present, Elva Masten Armstrong of Ft. Worth and Mack Willis.

Holcombs Back From Six-State Vacation

Dr. and Mrs. Carter Holcomb returned early this week from a tour of the Rocky Mountain States.

A major stop was at the Grand Teton National Park, below Yellowstone. They praised the beauty of this park and joined the many who consider it one of the loveliest spots in the country.

They then visited Yellowstone National Park.

After turning toward home, they stopped for sightseeing in Salt Lake City, Utah, at Lake Powell in southern Utah and the Grand Canyon National Park.

TO STATE 4-H DRESS REVUE

Kay Coffee is one of five Panhandle Girls who will represent Extension District I in the State 4-H Club Dress Revue later in the year. She won the honor in the district revue in Amarillo Thursday, August 12. Kay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Coffee.

Kay Coffee Qualifies for State Four-H Dress Revue

Amarillo -- Under the theme "Bell Ringing 4-H Fashions", five young ladies showed off their own creations and earned themselves a trip to the State 4-H Dress Revue in San Antonio by winning top honors in district competition here Thursday, Aug. 12.

The event, held in the Fine Arts Building of Amarillo College, also netted top winners in seven categories. The winners are Kay Coffee of Collingsworth Co.; Lisa Hill, Hartley Co.; Sue Smith, Gray Co.; Lenita Hershey, Dallam Co.; and Kim Diedrichsen of Moore Co.

Named as alternates are Carla West of Deaf Smith Co. and Shannon Lemons of Hemphill Co. These two girls will fill in at San Antonio, Sept. 17-18, in case any of the others can't compete in the finals during the State 4-H Dress Revue.

Special honors went to Sue Smith of Gray Co. for best model and best cotton garment, Lanita Hershey of Dallam Co. for best wool garment, Kim Diedrichsen of Moore Co. for best synthetic garment, Debbie Hales of Randall Co. for best western garment and Lisa Kuker of Moore Co. for best recycled garment.

A tie for best 4-H record went to Carla West of Deaf Smith Co. and Kim Diedrichsen of Moore Co. All 19 contestants, who represented a 20-county area of the Panhandle High Plains, made and modeled their own outfits.

In addition to senior level competition, 40 juniors vied for honors. They'll not compete beyond the district level.

There are no 1-2-3 placings in the annual dress revue. Contestants are judged on their sewing and construction skills, overall appearance, modeling abilities and their 4-H record books.

Parents, 4-H leaders and special guests were treated to a tea sponsored by the Texas Home Demonstration Association after the revue. Eight exhibitors and donors of awards participated in the show. Among them were Amarillo College, Hancock Fabrics, The Fabric Mart, The Cloth World, Stretch and Sew, Bernina Sewing Studio, Singer Sewing Machine and Extension Clothing Specialist Becky Culp.

Joyce Shipp, county Extension agent (home economics)

Party Honors Mrs. M. Reed

Mrs. Morris Reed of Memphis, Tenn., a former Wellington resident, was a recent house guest of Mrs. Luther Gribble.

During the time, Mrs. Gribble entertained with an informal party, attended by a group of Mrs. Reed's friends in her church.

Attending were Mrs. Elmer Hiett, Mrs. Bill Tarter, Mrs. Lottie Handley, Mrs. Earl Hunter, Mrs. Les White, Mrs. Jack Nelson, Mrs. Frank Thomason of Clarendon, the honoree and hostess.

Mrs. Reed taught for a number of years in the Memphis Schools on both the elementary and junior high levels.

She has now retired and told friends here that she is planning to travel during the coming months.

Homemakers Still Have Home Laundry Problems

Although modern washday is a "breeze" compared to frontier days, homemakers still experience problems with home laundry, Beverly Rhoades, a clothing specialist, says.

"Commonly heard complaints relate to energy costs, lack of cleanliness and excessive wrinkling.

"While these problems sometimes can be blamed on the ineffectiveness of laundry products or equipment, often they can be eliminated by changing laundry practices," she added.

Miss Rhoades is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

DETERGENT TYPE

If clothes feel harsh, have a white residue and colors fade or appear gray, the problem may be habitual use of low- or non-phosphate detergents which produce carbonate deposits on clothes and in washing machines.

The residue often can be lifted by soaking clothes in a vinegar, or other acid, solution and then washing thoroughly.

But do not put the clothes in the washing machine to soak in Deaf Smith Co., served as chairman of the event, and Sue Farris, district agent (home economics), served as coordinator, with a number of county Extension agents serving on committees.

Two other Collingsworth County girls received ribbons.

Renee Lacy was one of 5 girls who received blue ribbons in the Junior Division (age 12-13 years). This is the third consecutive year she has won a blue ribbon in district competition. Other winners were Brenda Straffuss of Deaf Smith County, Bobbie Skaggs of Gray County, Karen Kay Kenney of Hansford County, and Sherry Wilson of Hartley County.

In the youngest group, Juniors, 9 to 11 years, Catrina Atkinson received a red ribbon. Eight girls were in this group.

Hightower Family Reunion To Honor California Couple

The Hightower reunion, bringing together the descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hightower, will be held Sunday, August 22, in the Heritage Room.

Guests of honor will be Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Dawson of Ontario, Calif. She is the former Jenell Hightower. Both were raised in the Dodson area.

Friends who would like to visit with them are invited to call between 3:00 and 4:00 p.m.

Other out of town members of the family will be present: Mr. and Mrs. Orville Roediger (Garnetta Cornelius) and three children of Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Duncan (Joyce Hightower) of Richardson, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rowe (Cindy Hightower) of Moore, Okla.

Their friends are invited to call during the same hours.

The family, including several generations, will have lunch together and the remainder of the day will be given over to visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hightower came to the Dodson area in 1906, living first on the Tom Cornelius farm at Arlie. Later Mr. Hightower built the home where his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hightower, now live.

Three children are still living, Bob Hightower, Mrs. Roy (Vela) Tisdale and Mrs. Ocie Lewis, all in this county. Three are deceased: C.E. Hightower, Owen Hightower and Virdie Hightower Cornelius.

Make Sauerkraut This Year To Preserve Extra Cabbage

Making sauerkraut may be the answer for home gardeners with more cabbage than the family can eat fresh.

Sauerkraut is an economical source of Vitamin C

About one pound of cabbage fills one pint of kraut.

Remove the outside green and dirty leaves. Wash well. If worms are present, soak in four tablespoons salt per gallon of water for 30 minutes. Quarter the head and shred the cabbage finely.

Put five pounds cabbage and two ounces (three and one-half tablespoons) of salt into a large pan and mix with the hands. Pack gently into the crock with a potato masher. Repeat until crock is nearly full. Cover with a cloth, plate and weight. During the curing process, kraut requires daily attention. Remove scum as it forms and wash and scald the cloth often to keep it free from scum and mold. Fermentation will be complete in 10-12 days.

As soon as kraut is thoroughly cured, pack into sterilized jars, adding enough

Congratulations are in order for Patsy Mitchell and the Wellington Ex-Students Association for a job well-done last weekend.

The Silver Anniversary of the Ex-Students Reunion was one of its most successful—people from Wellington and across the country gathered here to remember the good times and the bad times of school days and to see old classmates, some for the first time in many years.

The efforts of Mrs. Mitchell and her friends are an example of how the entire community benefits when a person chooses a civic job and carries through on it. Too often we spread ourselves too thin, joining several organizations and not doing a good job at any of them. Or we refuse to help with any activity at all.

There are plenty of jobs to go around and there are plenty of talented people to do them. It is hard to imagine the type of community we might have if everyone found himself one job and did it well.

If you're not involved in an activity or group that benefits the community, you're missing an opportunity to get to know some different people and to have a good time yourself.

Congratulations to the Ex-Students Association for setting a good example for all of us.

Prosperity and Hunger

A Filipino sociologist garnered a lot of publicity when, during the recent four day World Food Conference in Iowa, she blamed affluent individuals for lingering hunger and malnutrition. She said that if the rich people of the world would alter their lifestyle so as to eat less, then the other people of the world would have more.

This week the Roman Catholic Church held a conference in Philadelphia and the delegates called upon the Western World to cut back on consumption of food and materials in order that the poor nations of the world may have more.

The conference concluded that there is malnutrition, hunger and starvation in the Third World because there is over consumption in the West.

The facts do not bear this out.

It is not the fault of the democracies that there is hunger and malnutrition in the Communist countries or in the African dictatorships.

If Communist China would adopt the agricultural policies of Free China it would be exporting food instead of buying wheat from Canada. If Russia allowed her farmers to "go into business for themselves" it would almost certainly result in dramatic food production increases.

The Soviet Union allows a farmer to have a plot of ground which he can use as he wished and dispose of the products of this plot any way he wants. For years these individual plots have been a major source of Soviet food, especially produce.

There may be some other explanation to account for the fact that the hungry nations of the world are either Communist or dictatorships. But this is the explanation that seems to be the most logical and until governments change, people in these lands will likely remain hungry.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Auto insurance rates are going up again — but not nearly as much as they would if the State Insurance Board hadn't installed automatic deductibles.

The average statewide increase for private passenger cars will be 7.1 per cent, effective for policies renewed or taken out October 1. This follows a 15.5 per cent hike effective January 1.

Deductibles of $200 for collision and $50 for comprehensive coverage will be written into all policies unless the holder orders otherwise at an additional premium. Policyholders pay the deductibles themselves in event of claims. Companies pay the balance over $50 or $200.

Insurance companies put in for a 27.9 per cent increase, and Insurance Board staff members recommended 19.3 per cent using present optional deductibles.

Actually, car owners in 29 of the 40 rating territories over the state will have reduced premiums under automatic deductibles.

More than 90 per cent of motorists are expected to accept the new system.

Deductibles of $100 are written into most collision policies but not into comprehensive coverage.

Actuaries estimate the deductibles will eliminate $55 million in administrative expenses for insurance companies and save the companies $76 million in pay-outs to drivers.

Premiums vary on the basis of driving record, age, location, uses, make and model of car. Bexar County (San Antonio) drivers would bear the largest increase — about $13 — and those in Waller County would get the biggest reduction, $35.

Study Released
Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation adopted a study calling for a new approach to road planning and new financing methods.

The department earlier instituted one of the recommendations placing highway planning on a statewide system basis rather than the old project-by-project basis.

New test is how much a project contributes to the overall state system rather than how it answers a community's needs.

The report by McKinsey and Company of Dallas (result of a 15-month, $600,000 study) also recommends a moratorium on right-of-way purchases, since a large inventory is on hand which cannot be used for several years.

Many McKinsey proposals for financing highways due to the decrease in projected gasoline taxation already had been recommended by Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

Prisons Crowded

Texas' prison population will increase about 50 per cent in the next five years, Department of Corrections Director W.J. Estelle told a House committee.

Estelle estimated the number of prisoners will increase from 20,847 to 30,153.

He is pushing for approval of a new prison facility. The prison system can build it for $72 million, he said, but the institution would cost $111 million if it is handled entirely by contract.

Estelle suggested the legislature consider giving counties authority to start work-release programs for their prisoners in local jails.

He backed a restitution program by which the inmates would use part of their earnings to pay victims of their crimes.

AG Opinions

University of Texas regents have to make public a UT system nursing school report and other documents backing their decision to close it, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

— A tax exemption for disabled veterans and their families is constitutional.

Over 350 Wellington Exes Register at Reunion Saturday

Over 350 Wellington Ex-Students gathered here last weekend to celebrate class anniversaries and visit with former students and teachers. The classes of 1928-29, 1946, 1951, 1956 and 1966 held special events. A dinner and dance for all ex-students and their guests was held Saturday evening.

Registration at Bura Handley community center included visits with old friends—some of whom had not seen each other since graduation. Former students reminisced about classes, pranks and the big events of school days—Vernon Stafford, Class of '26, for example, remembered the balloting in the spring of 1925 that selected the name "Skyrockets" for the school team. Stafford was captain-elect of the football team that year and he recalled that he and several others decided the team needed a name and that "Skyrockets" was the winner in a vote.

Registering for the 25th Wellington Ex-Students Reunion were:

Turquoise is more fragile than diamonds, so Indian jewelry should be treated carefully, Mrs. Anita Blanton, County Extension Agent, says.

Avoid wearing the jewelry when doing rough work that could scratch or chip the stones. Also, chemicals found in some detergents and hand lotions can discolor turquoise and effect the patina of the silver.

The silver itself should not be polished with any kind of solvent. The patina would be stripped, removing the natural highlights of the silver. To clean the silver, use a jeweler's polishing cloth (for sale at jewelry stores) to remove surface tarnish.

To store jewelry, wrap the pieces in old cloths and avoid stacking the pieces. Some jewelers suggest using the Indian method for storage—

You can BANK on it!
By BILLY MOSELEY
President
CITY STATE BANK

What is money? Sure, in the U. S. it's dollars and cents in different denominations, but does money have to be paper and metal?

"Money," a Notre Dame economics prof said, "is anything commonly used as a medium of exchange or as a standard of value."

Tobacco, the principal form of currency in Virginia in 1619, was used to purchase wives from England for the Virginia colonists, for example. The price: 100 pounds of tobacco ($36-$48 in today's currency).

Corn, musket balls, sea shells, beaver fur, nails, rice — anything "commonly used" was classified as "money" in colonial days because of the shortage of hard coin.

The first recorded instance of official paper money legally created by an American governmental body was in December 1690, when Massachusetts issued bills valued from 5 shillings to 5 pounds.

Money then can be anything if everyone agrees on it as a medium of exchange.

Sixty Attend Luncheon For Class of 1946

Sixty members of the Class of 1946 and their guests held their reunion at a luncheon in the home of Bethine Adkins Wolf Saturday, August 14.

The nine members who still live here were hosts: Mrs. Wolf, Billye Tension Castleberry, Kay Carter Feemster, Marshall Peters, S.B. Jackson, Gay Reeves McAlister, Betty Hunt Conant, Nettie Beth Gulley Green. Coordinating the work was Beth Bowen White of Phoenix, Arizona.

There were 46 in the class when they graduated. Nine have died and most of the remainder are accounted for.

Special guests were two of their teachers, Miss Hattie D. Wells and Miss Bonnie Willis. Several parents were present.

The luncheon was served buffet style, and the centerpieces on the smaller tables were monkeypod leaves holding home grown tomatoes and home canned pickles. Their dinner was described as "good old Collingsworth food."

Letters were read from several members:

Richard Morton is area supervisor for Chrysler Corp. in three states, Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri. He spends six weeks each year in Detroit studying engine changes in Chrysler motors.

The reunion class recalled that while they were in high school, Morton tinkered on the car of every student who had one. He also worked in the Plymouth Dealership and garage belonging to his father, Floyd Morton.

Mary Crouch Koster of Los Angeles, a chemist, wrote of her round-the-world tour recently as a consultant for Occidental Petroleum Company.

Several members class of 1946 were present and this prompted one member of the reunion class to say they hadn't changed. They always crashed the parties of the class of 1946 in high school, too.

Table favors were mimeographed copies of the graduation program. Most revealed they no longer had one.

Registering were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Peters, Frances Vernon Roberts of Ulysses, Kansas, Beth Bowen White of Phoenix, Bonnie Morton Waller of Ft. Worth,

Peter N. and Mary A. Terry Cousins of Skellytown, Sid Jackson, Nettie Gulley Green, Tim and Tommie Ann Campbell Hatch of Lubbock,

Guidelines Given On School Traffic

In an effort to insure the safety of elementary school children, the Sheriff's Department this week issued guidelines for drivers bringing children to school and picking them up.

The entire block on the south side of 15th Street, between Childress and Dalhart Streets, will again be a "No Double Parking Zone" and beginning with the opening of school, this will be enforced, Chief Deputy Richard Keller said Tuesday.

There is to be no stopping of vehicles or standing along Childress Street, the east side of the school, except to leave or pick up children. Part of this is the School Bus Loading Zone, also.

For children leaving school, Deputy Keller said that students in Mrs. W.P. Estes and Mrs. Walter Camp's rooms will be dismissed on the west side of the play area and picked up on Dalhart Street.

Students in Mrs. Tarver's, Mrs. Jack Campbell's and Mrs. Garry Bowen's classes will be dismissed on the east side of the school and picked up on Childress Street.

The school crossing guard will be on duty again this year, and new signs controlling the speed zone during hazardous hours will be put up, said Deputy Keller. The speed in a school zone is 20 miles per hour.

Citations will be issued for violation of these regulations. "We are not out to 'get' anyone. We just want to protect our children," said Keller.

This is a Class C misdemeanor and upon conviction in justice court is subject to fines of up to $200, it was explained.

Roth Named To Extension Service Post

COLLEGE STATION -- Joe H. Rothe has been named associate director of the Extension Service, effective August 1. He has served as Extension assistant director and state agent since May, 1971.

Rothe's appointment was announced July 27 by the Texas A&M University System Board of Regents. The Extension Service is the TAMU System's public service agency which provides educational assistance in agriculture, family living and consumer information, 4-H and youth, and community resource development to thousands of Texans.

Rothe has served with the Extension Service for 29 years in roles ranging from state agricultural agent to district agent, county Extension agent and assistant county agent.

Exemplifying Rothe's leadership has been the success of the Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis (VEE) control program for Texas horses in the summer of 1971, continuing educational efforts on the part of Extension for the screwworm eradication program, other animal health programs, hurricane and disaster emergency preparedness programs, and in-depth educational programs.

Rothe began his Extension career in 1947 as assistant county Extension agent in Lavaca County, and transferred the following year to Brown County as agent. From 1954 to 1963, he was district agent for Extension District 12, and then served as district agent for District 11 from 1963 to 1965, when he became state agricultural agent.

He received the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Superior Service Award in 1973.

Former City Man Missing

A former Wellington man, Paul B. Scoggins, 54, of Amarillo, has been reported by his family as missing for almost four weeks, and a reward of $5,000 is offered for information leading to his discovery and exact whereabouts.

Friends here said his parents taught in the Wellington Schools many years ago and identified the missing man as a nephew of the late Dr. and Mrs. J.W. Harper.

Both Amarillo police and private detectives are working on the case.

Mr. Scoggins disappeared between his home and downtown Amarillo. Searches on foot and by helicopter have been made at his farm near Claude.

Mr. Scoggins worked as a U.S. Bureau of Mines petroleum engineer assigned to Amarillo Helium Operations.

Texas Tops in Cattle Slaughter

COLLEGE STATION -- Texans can now brag about one more distinction of their great state. For the first time in history Texas is number one in cattle slaughter in the U.S.

Dr. Ed Uvacek, a livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says this information is based on 1975 statistics and applies only to federally inspected cattle slaughtering plants.

In 1975, Texas had 82 federally inspected slaughtering plants, and 28 of these plants slaughtered more than 50,000 head each. These 28 plants accounted for 11 per cent of the total federally inspected cattle slaughter, says Uvacek.

Thirty slaughtering plants reported a slaughter of between 10,000 and 49,999 number of cattle slaughtered cattle while remaining 24 in federally inspected plants. The element that exists in largest quantity in the air is nitrogen.
