Plane Crash In Britain Fatal To 33

BOLTON, England (AP)—A chartered British airliner with 42 persons aboard smashed against a snow-covered mountain today only five minutes from its destination. A policeman at the scene said 33 persons perished.

An injured stewardess, the only woman aboard, and the copilot struggled through knee-deep snow to a television relay station on top of the mountain and gasped out the first word of the disaster.

Helicopters, snowplows and mountain rescue teams fought through a blizzard to the scene.

The twin-engine Bristol Wayfarer operated by Silver City Airways, was carrying automobile dealers from the Isle of Man in the Irish Sea on a one-day junket to Manchester, only 15 miles from here, to inspect a plant of the Exide Battery Co.

Wisecracking and jovial, the party of 39 businessmen boarded the plane for the 100-mile flight, waving goodby to wives and children. There was a crew of three aboard.

Thirty-five minutes later, with visibility cut by heavy clouds and the blizzard, the plane smashed to bits against Winter Hill, near the bleak moorlands of Lancashire and only 400 yards from a lonely TV tower manned by five engineers.

Stewardess Jennifer Curtis stumbled out of the wreckage with copilot William Howarth. Shocked, exhausted and injured, they staggered uphill into the TV station and gasped: "Our plane has crashed."

The snow was so deep that no vehicle could get within a mile of the wreckage.

Bulldozers and snowplows groaned through four-foot drifts, opening the way for ambulances, when the call for help went out from the TV station. Rescuers, lugging stretchers, blankets and medicines, struggled on foot the last distance.

Three helicopters took off from a nearby Royal Air Force base with doctors and nurses.

Men at a quarry some distance away helped carry survivors to the ambulances.

FUTURE LINKED WITH THE PAST—Mrs. Norma Luraas, left, Troy, N. Y., wife of a state trooper, told newsmen she was once married to Airman Donald Farrell of space chamber experiment fame and that they have a four-year-old daughter, Heidi, right. She said she made the marriage public through a letter to the New York Daily News in order to induce Farrell to allow her present husband to adopt the child. Farrell acknowledged the marriage which ended in annulment. (AP Wirephoto)

Deputy In Odessa Killed By Gunman

ODESSA, Tex. (AP)—A gunman killed deputy sheriff Thad West today when the deputy went to an apartment to investigate reports of an attempted sale of a 4-month-old baby.

The mother of the child, Mrs. Pat Ledbetter, 18, told officers the man in the apartment came out of the bathroom shooting. West never had a chance to reach for his pistol.

Charges of murder were filed against G. F. (Jack) McMichael, 36, an oil field worker. Charges of flight to avoid prosecution were filed with federal attorneys.

McMichael's abandoned automobile was found on a lonely country road 5 miles southeast of Odessa before noon. Officers immediately converged on the area. State police said they believed McMichael was on foot after leaving the car.

Bloodhounds handled by Constable Jack Merritt were sent to the area from Midland. A helicopter from Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring, Tex., joined in the search.

The car was found by State Policeman John White.

However, officers kept road blocks up in the area because of the possibility the fleeing man may have obtained another automobile.

State police at one time said the slayer might head for Mexico, 275 miles southwest, or into New Mexico, only about 40 miles west. But the location of the abandoned car indicated he may have headed deeper into Texas.

McMichael was driving a light green automobile (Mercury) when last seen.

The landlady of the apartment house, where the shooting took place, Mrs. Frank Matthews, said she saw West go into an apartment where McMichael was staying.

Deputy Sheriff G. K. Kelly said Mrs. Matthews reported she then heard shots and saw McMichael dive out a window and speed away in a car.

Charges of murder were filed at mid-morning.

Mrs. Matthews told Kelly that the apartment was rented by McMichaels and Mrs. Pat Ledbetter under the name of "Mr. and Mrs. Ledbetter."

Mrs. Matthews said Mrs. Ledbetter and her two children, one 4 months old and the other 2 years, were in the apartment when the shooting took place.

Kelly said West went to the apartment to investigate a report that an attempt had been made to sell the 4-month-old child.

He said the attempt was made to the Joyce Locke family, which contacted the sheriff's department and later the child welfare office.

West, 40, is survived by his widow and three children.

Mrs. Matthews was quoted by Kelly as saying McMichael went into the apartment about 7 a.m. In less than 5 minutes, Deputy West knocked on Mrs. Matthews' door and asked where he could locate McMichael.

Mrs. Matthews told him McMichael had gone into the apartment.

She then heard West knock on the door and be admitted. The shooting occurred shortly thereafter.

Officers said one of the bullets pierced West's heart.

State police described McMichael as 5 feet 11, about 160 pounds, with brown bushy hair and brown eyes. They said he was wearing khaki clothing and probably was armed with a 38-caliber blue steel revolver.

Roadblocks were put up in the area almost immediately.

Any attempt to drive into Mexico would be difficult. Highways are few through rugged Big Bend Country through which he would be forced to travel and blockades would be highly effective.

Mack Refuses To Quit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Richard A. Mack said today he will not resign from the Federal Communications Commission. He swore he was not influenced or swayed by appeals from friends in a contested television license case.

Mack further told a House investigating subcommittee under oath that he is getting rid of his interest in a Miami insurance agency which wrote the insurance on the successful applicant in the contest for Miami's TV Channel 10.

Mack said that it was only last Monday when he read the newspapers that he knew this agency, Sembler-Shelden Insurance Agency, Inc., had obtained the business from Public Service Television, Inc.

Mack acknowledged borrowings totaling $4,980 since 1950 from Miami attorney Thurman A. Whiteside. He said all but $250 has been repaid.

"Mr. Whiteside has never in his life attempted to use any financial obligation of mine to influence my actions, either private or official," Mack said.

A Republican member of the committee said earlier that Mack should resign immediately; and if he didn't, should be removed from office.

Mack had told reporters before going into the hearing room that he was not going to resign.

Whiteside has testified he contacted Mack in behalf of the application by Public Service Television, a subsidiary of National Airlines, for the Miami channel.

On a 4-2 vote, the FCC reversed an examiner's recommendation and gave the TV license last year to Public Service. The examiner had recommended that it go to radio station WKAT, owned by A. Frank Katzentine.

Mack came before the House committee with a 4,000-word, 13-page statement which he received permission to read.

Before he started reading, Mack told Committee Chairman Harris (D-Ark): "I want to apologize if I may seem a little nervous this morning but you can well understand."

Harris nodded and said he could.

Mack said he would do his best to explain in the statement questions which committee members may have in mind and then would answer questions.

Before letting Mack go ahead, Harris read into the record a letter he said he had received last night from Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn), whose name has been brought up in connection with Katzentine's bid for the channel.

There was testimony earlier in the hearings that Florida friends of Mack had contacted the commissioner, at Kefauver's request, on behalf of Katzentine.

In the letter, Kefauver said Katzentine had been known to him for many years and it was pleasing to him when he heard the FCC examiner had recommended Katzentine get the channel.

Then, Kefauver said, it was disturbing when Katzentine told him he's heard the examiner's ruling would be reversed and that Katzentine's support for him in the Florida primary was substantially responsible for the reversal.

Worker Testifies He Joined Union Following Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Herman Miesfeld, a Kohler Co. employe, testified today he joined the United Auto Workers Union under a threat he would be beaten if he didn't.

Miesfeld made the statement to the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee at the second day of its public hearings into the 45-month-old UAW strike against Kohler, manufacturer of plumbing fixtures.

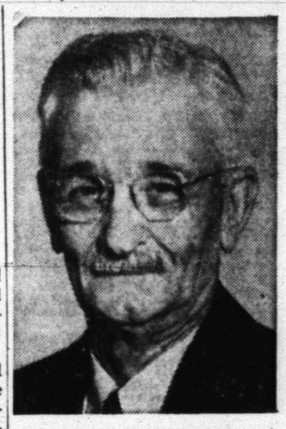

Joseph L. Rauh, counsel for the UAW, immediately demanded that Miesfeld's testimony be checked against statements Miesfeld made in other investigations of the Kohler strike and that it be seriously considered for perjury charges.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) reserved a ruling, pending a check of testimony Miesfeld said he had given at hearings of the National Labor Relations Board and Wisconsin Employment Relations Board.

Miesfeld testified that Emil Mazey, secretary-treasurer of the UAW, and Don Rand, an international representative, were present when he was threatened.

Miesfeld said he opposed the strike, and was captured by union pickets while attempting to cross the picket line. He said he was taken to a soup kitchen the union maintained outside the Kohler, Wis., plant, and told that it was either sign up with the union or get beat up.

He said he signed, but never did pay dues and "I wouldn't know" whether the union regards him as a member.

F. CARL HAIRSTON

F. C. Hairston, Former Judge Here, Dies

Newly Divorced Author To Wed

NEW YORK (AP)—Grace Metalious, author of the novel "Peyton Place," will marry T. J. Martin, a former disc jockey, tomorrow in Baltimore, her publishers said today. Both are 33.

Mrs. Metalious obtained a divorce Tuesday in Phenix City, Ala., from her first husband, George, a New Hampshire school teacher, to whom she had been married 15 years.

The wedding is scheduled to take place at 2 p.m. in the Red Room of the Sheraton-Belvedere Hotel.

12 Killed, 70 Hurt In Vicious Storms

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Daylight disclosed new damage today from a series of late winter tornadoes which ravished central Mississippi last night. Two more deaths brought the toll to 12.

One of the hardest hit spots was the world-famed Piney Woods Country Life School about 25 miles from south of Jackson. Roofs of at least four of the large buildings at the school for Negro children were shorn off.

Dr. Laurence C. Jones, the white-haired Negro educator who founded Piney Woods, said destruction there was "terrible."

The injured in 13 communities hit by the unexpected twisters numbered more than 70.

A U.S. forest ranger, Joe Couch, said at Laurel that many trees were felled in the big DeSoto National Forest and timber losses would be large.

Shattered buildings and shredded farm lands dotted a 140-mile long area in central and east Mississippi that stretched from Canton, 20 miles north of Jackson; and Poplarville, 120 miles to the south.

Five of the dead were in the hard-hit rural area between Richton and Waynesboro, near the Alabama line. Three were at the Farm Haven community near Canton, one near Jackson and one near Walnut Grove, 40 miles east of Canton.

One of the Farm Haven victims was Sally Day, a Negro woman reported to be 110 years old.

The first twister reported was in the Jackson area.

Mrs. Leland Bolton, a 27-year-old housewife of the Luckney community east of here, said she was setting the table for supper when the rains and hard winds came.

"It sounded like a million bells," she said. "All I could think about was my babies and family. Only the good Lord saved us. An icebox held off the falling debris when the roof fell in."

The twister also hit in the Fannin community of the same area, killing 3-year-old Cathy Jones.

Hospitals in the Jackson area reported a dozen injuries.

Several dozen were reported hurt in the devastated Richton-Waynesboro area.

Percy H. Clark, 56, said he and his wife, 48, heard a sound like a tram as they sat in their living room.

"The next thing we knew we were sitting under it," he said. "We heard a roaring and all at once we were going."

He said his pickup truck was carried 100 feet and deposited in the top of a pine tree.

In the same area, the twister ripped up the house of Mrs. Alonzo Rylee, about 50, killing her and her son Billy, 13.

The town of Walnut Grove, where Mrs. Tarrin Ellis was killed, was another center of destruction.

George Keith, editor of the Carthage, newspaper, said the town was "literally torn up" with 50 or 60 houses damaged.

Twenty injuries were reported in the Poplarville area of Pearl River County.

Weather In Texas To Become Calm

By The Associated Press

The bad weather in Texas, which has plagued the state for nearly two weeks with downpours and floods and capped the works Wednesday with damaging winds and tornado threats, appeared at an end Thursday.

The Weather Bureau said winds Thursday would die by nightfall. No rain was forecast as a low pressure system centered over northern Arkansas moved dry, cool air over the state.

Freezing weather nipped at the Panhandle Thursday morning and another light freeze was expected in the Panhandle and South Plains early Friday.

Winds of near hurricane force slammed across Texas Wednesday. They caused thousands of dollars in damage at El Paso. A dust haze spread across the state was settling Thursday.

A tornado alert Wednesday for a wide band of East Texas expired with no twisters reported in the state. One hit at Hosston, near Shreveport, La., however, and another smashed into Moffett, Okla., near the Arkansas border. Still another hit Alderson, Okla., in the southeast part of the Sooner State. No deaths were reported.

Violent weather generally hammered mid-southern and western areas of the country, leaving a heavy toll of dead and injured and extensive property damage.

The El Paso wind storm reached a peak Tuesday afternoon with winds of 76 miles an hour. A motel roof was damaged and the roofs of at least two residences were blown off.

The flooding Guadalupe River left its banks south of Victoria in South Texas, chasing 165 families from their homes and flooding farmlands.

The dusty winds spread eastward from El Paso across the state late Wednesday. The strongest was clocked at 80 miles an hour at Marfa in the Big Bend Country.

Rain hit Dallas, Waco, Marfa, Beaumont, Fort Worth, Amarillo and El Paso, but spared soggy South Texas.

Snow fell in parts of the Panhandle, but quickly melted.

Dust cut visibility to a quarter of a mile at most points, but the front moved east and visibility improved quickly.

WEATHER

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Wednesday, 60 degrees; low, 39 degrees; reading at 7:30 a.m. today, 40 degrees.

East and South Central Texas: Clear to partly cloudy Thursday and Friday. Cooler Thursday night.

North Central Texas: Clear to partly cloudy Thursday and Friday. Cooler Thursday night with lowest 32-42.

West Texas: Clear to partly cloudy Thursday and Friday. Cooler Thursday night with lowest 22 to 32 in the Panhandle and South Plains.

School Play Set To Open

Tickets will be on sale at the door tonight at the first performance of "The King and I" musical being staged by students of the Snyder schools.

About 1,700 tickets have been sold for the three nights, probably about 500 so far for tonight. Some good seats are still left.

All seats are reserved and are $1. They will be on sale at the door each night. Curtain time is at 8 o'clock each of the three nights. Tickets are also on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office.

The musical lasts through Saturday night.

Producers Of Missiles Told To Keep Pace

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force told the missile-aircraft industry today to quicken the tempo of production, warning that there will be no contracts for those firms which fail to keep the pace.

Lt. Gen. C. S. Irvine, the Air Force's chief for materiel, said, "Companies have got to stop thinking up ways to stay in the old fashioned horse - and - buggy habit of long production runs."

Irvine chose as the forum for his warning the third annual Jet Age Conference of the Air Force Assn., which includes in its membership representatives of 319 firms dealing directly or indirectly with the Air Force.

In a speech prepared for the AFA, Irvine said missiles being developed for present requirements "fall far short of the needs that must be met in the near future." This means, he added, "that our scientists and engineers serving the Air Force and industry, working together, must progress as far in the next five years as we have in the past 50. . . .

"Since the major share of the production engineering burden falls on the shoulders of industry, this means that plants and factories must move toward better methods, tooling and techniques at a far greater rate than they have in past emergencies.

"Those that cannot keep the pace cannot expect much in the way of Air Force business."

Service Station Attendant Beaten

George Morton, 63-year-old lone attendant at a service station here was severely beaten in an attempted robbery of the station about 10:30 o'clock last night.

Morton was struck on the head and back by what investigating officers believed to have been a claw hammer.

Officers of the county sheriff's office and Snyder police department are investigating.

Morton was attendant at the Bud Miller Texaco Service Station, 2300 Twenty-fifth Street, and was the only attendant on duty at the time.

Both Morton and another man told investigating officers that two Mexican men were seen at the station, and Morton said the Mexicans were the assailants.

Jay Massingill, sheriff's deputy said that Morton's condition is "pretty bad."

Bond Posted For Suspect

J. E. McKinzie, about 44, of Lubbock, who has been in the county jail here for the past several days on an indictment of swindle, was released on bond yesterday afternoon.

McKinzie had three indictments against him, and bond was $10,000 in each case, or a total of $30,000.

Sureties on his bonds were Elmer D. Hagins and W. A. Hagins of Dickens County, H. W. Durham and Bishop B. Keeling of Hockley County, and A. D. Potiet and R. L. van Norman of Lubbock County.

McKinzie had been indicted in connection with sale of oil properties to Scurry County men in the estimated amount of more than $60,000.

He was arrested last week at Socorro, N.M., and returned here.

Fuchs Only 180 Miles From Goal

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—Dr. Vivian Fuchs has only 180 miles of easy territory to cover before reaching Scott base, the New Zealand Press Assn. correspondent there reported today. This expedition will be the first to cross the frozen continent by land when it reaches the British Commonwealth base.

SCHOOL VISITS URGED FOR EDUCATION WEEK

Texas Education Week will be observed in the Snyder school beginning Sunday, and an invitation to parents and other citizens to visit schools has been extended by school officials.

Pat Falls, director of instruction for the schools, said public visitation has been scheduled in all the elementary schools for next week.

Parents of first and second grade students in all schools have been asked to visit Tuesday, those of third and fourth grade students on Wednesday, and fifth and sixth grade on Thursday.

At the junior high, visitation is scheduled for parents of seventh grade students on Monday or Tuesday and of eighth grade students on Wednesday or Thursday.

Visitation at the high school will be at any time during the week.

Parents and other citizens have been asked to visit for whatever amount of time they can spend during the school day. Cafeteria meals are 50 cents for adults who desire to eat lunch with students.

Nominal Cuts Are Set By Committee

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee today commended the Treasury Department for "a valiant effort to stem the tide of ever-increasing government costs and employment."

Then it recommended a nominal cut of $2,240,000 in the department's request for $699,367,000 in new appropriations for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The committee's praise of the department was contained in a report sending to the House floor for debate next week a bill to finance the Treasury and Post Office departments for the next year.

It recommended $697,127,000 for the Treasury Department, $3,402,000,000 for the Post Office Department and $1,481,000 for the U.S. Tax Court.

The Tax Court got what it requested. The Post Office Department was cut $19,121,000 but was allotted 77 million dollars more than it was given this year. The Treasury Department's fund was $2,440,000 less than the agency received this year. It asked for $200,000 less.

In addition, the bill continues permanent appropriations and trust funds estimated to total $23,600,000,000. One of the larger items in this category is $7,800,000,000 to pay interest on the national debt.

The committee criticized the Coast Guard for having restricted its budget for Coast Guard Reserve programs and for not having used fully the funds provided for this purpose last year.

It approved the entire 325½ million dollars requested to finance the Internal Revenue Service.

It noted that the Post Office Department will have an estimated operating deficit of $676,121,000 next year in addition to the extra cost of proposed postal employe pay raises now pending in Congress and costing from 160 millions to 320 millions annually. However, it noted, postal rate increases now under congressional consideration may wipe out from 500 to 700 million dollars of the over-all deficit.

SUCCESSFUL RAINBOW OPENING—The grand opening of the Rainbow Market No. 2, located in the 3800 block of the Big Spring highway, is attracting thousands of customers. Parking areas on both sides of the new store and in front were jammed with cars all day yesterday, and store officials estimated that more than 5,000 customers came in the store. 'Show Cause' Order Issued Estate Life

AUSTIN (AP)—Estate Life Insurance Co. was ordered yesterday to show cause March 10 why it should not be put into receivership.

Insurance Commissioner William Harrison said a Sept. 30, 1957, examination showed the troubled Amarillo firm had a deficit of about $1,215,290 "which deficit renders the company totally insolvent."

The threatened receivership action burst just before the scheduled resumption of a Dallas hearing today into Estate Life's financial difficulties by the Senate Investigating Committee.

"It is no surprise to us," Sen. Charles Herring, chairman of the five-man Senate group, said when told of Harrison's show cause order. "It was pretty obvious to us what would happen when they had this Physician's Life business dumped on them."

Col. E. A. Simpson, attorney and spokesman for Estate Life Insurance Co., said the firm had been expecting a show cause order.

"We knew the auditor's report was going in and have been expecting something like this to happen ever since," Simpson said.

Asked if it were true that the company was in the red $1,215,290, as claimed by the commission, he replied: "That's what the auditor's report said."

In recent hearings Senate investigators have criticized Harrison and State Liquidator J. D. Wheeler for allowing Estate Life to take over 11½ million dollars in business from defunct Physicians Life and Accident Insurance Co.

Harrison said the deal would not have been approved if the company had not presented a false picture of its financial status.

Herring said Harrison and Wheeler would be quizzed further on the Estate Life deal at still another investigation to be held in Austin, probably some time in March. Wheeler resigned this week, effective March 1.

Blow Struck For Romance

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Michigan lawmakers struck a blow for love and romance yesterday. By a 22-67 vote, the House killed a bill to raise the cost of a marriage license in Michigan from $2 to $5.

Rep. Adolph Blanchard of Bay City, who handled marriage license applications for 18 years as Bay City county clerk, said: "Five dollars is too much to ask for the privilege of getting married."

Rep. Chester Wozniak of Detroit asserted it was a matter of personal opinion. Married a little over a year, he said: "If I were to do it again, I wouldn't mind paying $5."

Surprise Probe Of Surety Firm Opens

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN (AP)—A surprise probe into alleged irregular stock sales of Empire Standard Life Insurance Co. opened today with Tom Moss of the State Securities Commission called as the first witness.

The House General Investigating Committee's five members unexpectedly appeared in Austin late yesterday and announced a session today over the financial dealings of the Tyler firm and its former president, Arlin Anderson.

Committee member Joe Chapman, representative from Sulphur Springs, said the committee would make a brief preparatory statement to open the investigation then Moss would be called as the first witness.

Rep. Reagan Huffman of Marshall, committee chairman, said "We have received numerous complaints about some irregularities about the sales of stock, concerning the insurance company."

Four witnesses subpoenaed to appear today were Will Davis, chief counsel for the Insurance Department; Tom Moss of the Securities Commission; H. L. Lemburg of the state auditor's office; and C. H. Langdeau, formerly with the state auditor and now with the liquidator's division.

Former Committee Counsel William Nance said Jan. 23 the investigation of Empire Standard and Anderson was cancelled. Huffman said Nance resigned effective Jan. 31.

Nance had said the committee was "absolutely satisfied" with the work of state agencies and at that time cancelled a scheduled hearing into the affairs of Empire Standard.

"There isn't any member of the committee that has made any statement to that effect," Huffman said. "And if there is any statement made to that effect it is untrue and unauthorized."

Anderson, meanwhile, is defending himself in a suit filed by Empire Standard seeking more than $600,000.

The suit is on trial in Seventh District Court at Tyler before Judge Otis Dunagan. It seeks $636,693.80 from Anderson and three companies he heads: Underwriters Fund Corp., Empire Industries, Inc., and Empire Standard Investment Co., all of Tyler.

The insurance company from which he resigned as president early this year is requesting his other three companies be put in receivership and a trustee named.

Points in the suit are: Empire Standard Life Insurance Co. wants $181,500 on a promissory note; $255,520.66 from a transaction made by Anderson and allegedly due the insurance firm, and $201,673.14 which the suit claims is owed by Anderson and one of his firms to the insurance company.

An earlier series of investigations by the attorney general's office, the securities commissioner and the Smith County Grand Jury was held into operations involving Anderson and Empire Standard.

Anderson testified earlier this year he sold stock in some of his firms to a brother-in-law with each of the three firms receiving one dollar and "other considerations." The other considerations were that the brother-in-law would help raise funds for the firms, Anderson said.

NEW YORK (AP)—Stocks were irregular with slightly lower tendencies in early trading today.

Changes were mostly in small fractions and turnover was light.

There was little major news to sway sentiment and the market appeared to be marking time.

Some aircrafts opened higher following an Air Force appeal for faster production of missiles and aircraft. These gains were shaved a bit. Boeing and United Aircraft clung to narrow gains while Douglas was steady.

Oils were mixed to higher as cold weather cut into heating oil stocks in some sections.

The steel group was generally lower. U.S. Steel gave up one-half point or so. Most of the others were down smaller fractions.

Coppers were mixed in the wake of a new price cut by a major Belgian producer. Kennecott was off a fraction, Anaconda about unchanged and Phelps Dodge up slightly.

Marilyn Now Sole Owner Of Company

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Marilyn Monroe now is the sole owner as well as the sole asset of Marilyn Monroe Productions, Inc.

The company was formed in 1955 by Miss Monroe and photographer Milton Greene to promote Marilyn's fortunes at a time when she was feuding with her movie studio, 20th Century-Fox.

Last year she accused Greene of mismanaging the company. He denied this but later was dropped as a vice president and director of the firm.

In an agreement announced yesterday, Miss Monroe bought out Green's 49.4 per cent of stock. The price was not disclosed.

Greenland has 27,000 inhabitants. More than 700,000 square miles of its total territory of 840,000 square miles are ice covered.

Other Mail Hikes Get Consideration

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate, after nailing a temporary 5-cent letter stamp into a postal rate bill, pushed ahead today to consider rate increases on other classes of mail.

Splitting largely along party lines, the Senate voted 49-42 last night to retain in the bill a provision to raise the present 3-cent rate to 5 cents for nonlocal letters. The 5-cent stamp would be in effect for three years.

The vote was a substantial victory for President Eisenhower, who had asked for the 5-cent stamp. Republicans held their ranks almost intact to keep the provision in the bill. Most Democrats backed an unsuccessful move to eliminate the section.

The matter will still have to be threshed out in conference with the House, which voted last year for a 4-cent letter rate.

The postal rate increase legislation appears to be over its big hump now in the Senate.

Forty Democrats and two Republicans supported an amendment of Sen. Monroney (D-Okla) to knock the 5-cent stamp provision from the bill. Forty-four Republicans and five Democrats joined to beat the amendment.

The effect was to retain the section calling for a 5-cent rate on nonlocal letters between July 1, 1958, and June 30, 1961, with a 4-cent stamp for local letters. The permanent rate would be 4 cents.

The 5-cent stamp is calculated to bring in an extra 175 million dollars for each of the three years. This money is earmarked in the bill for spending on modernization of post offices and postal equipment.

Blue, Gold Banquet Held

A total of 161 persons attended the annual Blue and Gold Banquet of Cub Scout Pack 36, sponsored by the East Elementary Parent-Teacher Association, Tuesday night.

Of the seven dens represented at the banquet, Den 3, won the loving cup for having the largest percentage of parents present.

After a welcome by Earl Perser, cubmaster, the pack was led in the pledge to the flag by Cub Rodney Williams. Invocation was by Joe Bohannan.

Films shown by T. S. Thomas and Max von Roeder were those made by Nolan von Roeder on a trip to Cuba anfl on calling wild animals. A Loretta Young film on Cub scouting was also shown.

Awards, made by Bohannan, included:

Jimmie Sarton, Wolf badge; Dickie Watson, Wolf badge; Mike Howard, Bear badge; Gary Perser, Bear badge and gold arrow; Lonnie Allgood, gold arrow for Wolf; Paul Rollins, gold and silver arrows for Wolf; Kelly Sikes, silver arrow for Bear;

Mike Stephens, Bobby Dirickson, Dennis Myers, denner's stripes Kinne Callaway, assistant denners stripe; Glenn Thomas, three-year pin; Charles Reddin, Bobcat; Charles Garrett, den chief's card.

College Sets Party Curb

ATLANTA (AP)—A curb on house parties and social functions has been imposed on Georgia Tech's Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity in the wake of a snowbound weekend in the Georgia mountains.

Dean John J. Pershing last night ordered the fraternity to have no more house parties until the spring quarter of 1959 and no social functions until after May 1, this year.

The dean acted on recommendations by Tech's Inter-Fraternity Council Board after a trial Monday night on charges of improper chaperonage and starting the party before the approved time.

More than 100 fraternity men and their dates were snowbound Feb. 14-17 at Lake Winfield Scott during one of Georgia's worst snow storms in years.

Five University of Georgia coeds were dismissed for the remainder of the term for attending the house party.

Test Tube Case Probed

LONDON (AP)—Can a British husband get a divorce on adultery charges if his wife has a test tube baby by someone else? The government is going to investigate the legal aspects of the question.

Prompted by a church attack on A.I.D.—artificial insemination from a donor other than the husband—the lord chancellor ordered the inquiry after debate last night on a House of Lords motion to make A.I.D. grounds for divorce and the test-tube babies resulting illegitimate.

A recent Scottish court ruling held that a woman who had been artifically impregnated without her husband's knowledge had not committed adultery. Estimates of Britain's annual crop of test-tube babies range between 5,000 and 10,000.

India returned 50 million fine ounces of Lend-Lease silver to the United States in June, 1957.

Altrurian Daughters Club Show Held Yesterday, Brought Back Many Memories

By KAYE POPE

The people of Snyder should feel a great sense of appreciation today, after viewing the unusual display of antiques and hobbies of local citizens yesterday at the Martha Ann Woman's Club. This show was sponsored by the Altrurian Daughters Club, and those who failed to make the tour can only chalk up about two hours of interesting entertainment they missed.

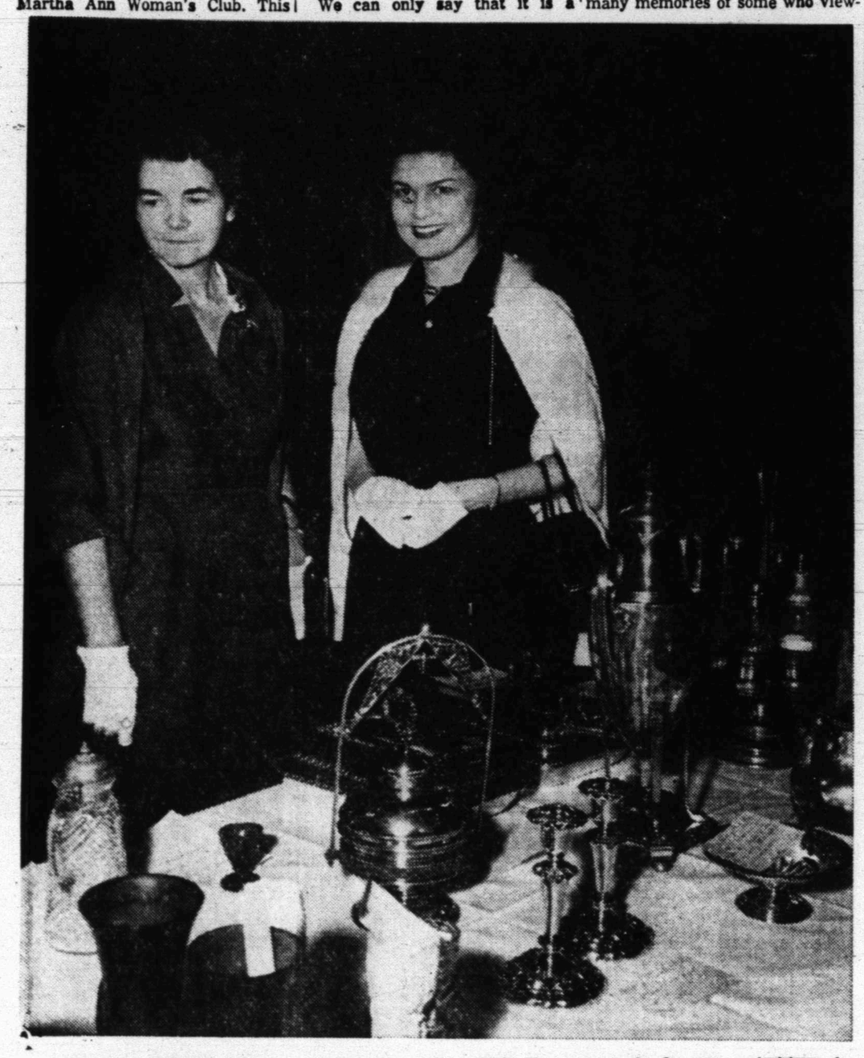

We can only say that it is a shame Snyder does not have a museum for such articles as shown at the show yesterday for they certainly merit such. Preservation of some of the antiques was remarkable; they brought back many memories of some who viewed, of the manners customs and history of the past." Everything from the old country doctors medical case and pill bottles, christining dresses, spinning wheels and coffee grinders to the old guns, one in particular which looked like it might have belonged to Ole Pistol Packin' Pete.

Another fascinating collection which included antiques and hobby were the music boxes displayed by Mrs. C. T. McLaughlin. In her display were 32 boxes with each playing different tunes, which entertained the oldsters as well as the youngsters.

Pictures, Bibles, and family heir looms were among the priceless items displayed. It would be utterly impossible to itemize the many items on display, but some of the owners of the various articles were: Patsy Jones Aaron, Mrs. Elizabeth Beggs, Mrs. Gene Best, Mrs. Wayne Boren, Mrs. Boten, Mrs. E. A. Brooks, Mrs. H. P. Brown, Elizabeth Connell, Nancy Eaton, Mrs. G. B. Clark, Sr., Mrs. Nina Lee Cooper, Mrs. J. O. Dodson, Mrs. Harold Lacik; Mrs. R. E. Gray, Mrs. Fred Grayum, Ida Sue Johnson, Mrs. Wallace Johnson, Mrs. Ray Keenan, Mrs. Frances Lamb, Mrs. Ola B. Leath, Mrs. W. B. Lee, Mrs. Florence Leftwich, Betty Long, Mrs. J. W. Labenske, Mrs. R. E. Patterson, Mrs. S. D. Hays Jr., Rosalie McGlaun, Mrs. C. T. McLaughlin, Mrs. Edith McKanna, Helen Trix McMullen, Mrs. W. E. Patrick, Dick Roberts, J D. Scott, Mrs. Forrest Sears, Mrs. John Sentell, Fritz R. and Jewel Smith, Mrs. John Spears;

Mildred Stokes, Dr. H. P. Redwine, Mrs. Joe Stinson, Mrs. A. J. Towle, Mrs. H. G. Towle, Mrs. Katie Thrane, Mrs. Allan Warren, Sterling Williams, Mrs. W. Winston, Mary Wilson, and H. P. Wellborne Jr.

The Altrurian Daughters Club should certainly be commended for presenting such an interesting show, as many, many hours of planning and work were implicated. We hope that the 200 persons registering for the show enjoyed it as much as we did. Due to the inclement weather many who were planning to see the display were unable to do so, but maybe before to long, with some sound persuation, we could have another.

ANTIQUE SHOW—Mrs. J. W. Burleson Sr., 811 Twenty-ninth Street and Mrs. J. W. Burleson Jr., Denver, Colo., viewed some of the Burleson family heirlooms shown yesterday at the Altrurian Daughters antique and hobby show. They are standing in front of two silver covered vegetable dishes owned by Mrs. W. D. Beggs. The dishes have the Beggs family crest on them and are 500 years old. (Lee Watson photograph)

Easy Does It

Cigarette burns or nail polish stains in your rubber flooring may be removed by rubbing them gently with steel wool.

Molded Avocado And Orange Salad

Ingredients: 1 cup cold water, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1½ cups sieved avocado, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1-3 cup mayonnaise, 1 teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon white pepper, 1 teaspoon finely grated onion (pulp and juice) or ½ teaspoon instant dehydrated onion, salad greens, 3 or 4 oranges.

Method: Put water in a saucepan and sprinkle gelatin over it. Stir over low heat until gelatin softens and dissolves. Mix sieved avocado with lemon juice, mayonnaise, salt, pepper and onion; stir in dissolved gelatin thoroughly. Fill individual molds with mixture; cover tightly with plastic transparent wrapping; refrigerate until set. Unmold; garnish with salad greens and orange slices or sections. This is a rich salad, so servings may be small; there will be about 2½ cups of the mixture use molds that hold ¼ to 1-3 cup.

Keep Cookies Fresh

Sneak a slice of apple or orange, wrapped loosely in waxed paper, into the air-tight jar or tin in which you're storing cookies—to keep them fresh and soft.

Miss Worten poured punch and Miro Miller served cake squares.

Approximately 40 guests registered.

Awards Established

NEW YORK (AP) — A $5,000 Kenneth Roberts Memorial Award has been established by the novelist's publisher, Doubleday, to be given to any author who, in the opinion of the judges, meets the standards Roberts set for himself.

Antheneum Club Has Interesting Japan Program

Mrs. W. T. Davis was hostess to the Atheneum Study Club Tuesday afternoon at the Martha Ann Woman's Club. The group enjoyed a very interesting program.

Mrs. Bill Brown, vice-president conducted a short business meeting and welcomed one new member, Mrs. Delores Watts.

Mrs. B. J. Weaver introduced Mrs. Edith McKanna, who brought greetings from a Japanese setting of her personal collection that she had brought from Japan. She told many facts and experiences she had had while living there. She told the group: "There are more than 3,000 islands in Japan and are located in an earthquake and typhoon belt. Hando, Honshu and Hokkaido are among the largest and wealthiest.

"The many warm water seaports are the seaports for trade. There are two definite classes of people. The rich people are well educated and do a great deal for the betterment of education, libraries and architecture. There are 157 universities in Toyko alone. They are a gracious, tactful and polite people. Usually small in statue and wear the ancient picturesque kimono, they are a great sportsman, industrious and loyal to death to the emperor and their family.

"Their unsanitary living conditions account for 67 percent being tuberculor. Some 1500 years ago there was a great Christian following, but they were dominated. Shintoism and Buddism are the leading religions today.

"Their temples have huge bronze bells, lacquered togadas, and tall lanterns lighting the paths and the torie are gates, which have a very signigicant meaning to the people."

Refreshments were served to eleven members and three guests.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

WE'VE NOW SEEN three of the four teams play who'll be competing for the Regional 1-AAA basketball championship this week end at Lubbock, Hereford being the lone exception.

The three we've seen in action, Graham, Kermit, and the Tigers, all have possibilities to capture the tournament title.

But, from reports we hear on Hereford, it appears the Whitefaces are the team to beat.

Hereford seems to have the necessary ingredients that make up a strong basketball team, height, and good shooting from close and long range. If you have height then it is almost understood that you will have good rebound strength.

And Hereford, too, has the experience. Two of the Whiteface starters have lettered three years while another has lettered twice.

In comparison, the Hereford squad has a total of 14 letters to only four for the Tigers.

So, the Whitefaces will have two distinct advantages over the Tigers tomorrow night, height and experience.

We're not trying to discourage the Tigers or the local fandom. We've found out one thing, you can't discourage the Tigers. They have faced tremendous odds before this season and have come through.

Ag Upset May Boost Tiger Hopes

The Bengals might have benefited more than they bargained for in going to Lubbock Tuesday night to witness the Texas Tech-Texas A&M game. There the Tigers saw what a distinct underdog can do.

A&M wasn't given a "Chinaman's" chance of beating Tech on her home court but the Aggies did it — and good. The Cadets ripped Tech apart in the second half to win 79-63.

Tech has been rather invincible in the Lubbock Coliseum. Tuesday's loss was only the second home defeat for the Raiders this season. And the 16-point defeat was the worst licking the Raiders have suffered in the two-year old Coliseum.

The main purpose for Coach J. P. Ward taking his charges was to get the Tigers familiar with the big Coliseum. The Aggie upset should give the Bengals more hope in their game with Hereford tomorrow night.

We feel sure of one thing, Hereford won't excell in one phase of the game with the Tigers — all-out hustle. This has attributed heavily to the Tiger success this season.

The Tigers will certainly have to go all out to stay with Hereford tomorrow night and we believe they'll make "believers" out of the Whitefaces before it's over with.

Fan Support Needed

A little backing from the fans, of course, will inspire the Tigers even more. It would be a shame if we let the Hereford rooting section outnumber the Tiger cheering section.

Hereford isn't quite as big as Snyder and they will have to travel a little further to get to the scene of tomorrow's game.

Let's not let the Tigers down, fans. They deserve all the backing you can give them.

As you perhaps already know, tickets for tomorrow's regional tournament at Lubbock, are now on sale here.

You might ask "why buy a ticket in advance, the Coliseum will take care of all who will be wanting to attend?"

That's very true but the reason for the advance sale is for the benefit of the fans who don't like to stand in line at the box office at the game.

Adult tickets are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce Office and student tickets at the high school. Prices are $1 and 50 cents.

Disaster struck the Merket basketball squad before its bi-district game with Plains Tuesday night.

Manley Denton, top scorer in the Merkel ranks, came up with the measles the day of the game and didn't get to play. Needless to say the Badgers lost to Plains.

As local fans who saw the Tiger-Merkel game will attest, the Badgers would just be another team without Denton. Manly pour ed in 20 points against the Tigers.

Maxwell Head Texas Group

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Nine Texans are in the field that tees off today in the annual Mexican National Open golf tournament.

Billy Maxwell of Odessa heads the Lone Star State linksters. He is a former champion.

Other Texas professionals are Dick Metz of Fort Worth; Elroy Marti, J. B. Hutchens and Nat Johnson of Houston; Hal Winston of Laredo and Jake Clark of Alice.

There are two Texas amateurs —S. J. Mueller of Houston and Bob Troth of Dallas.

Bob Rosburg of San Francisco is the defending champion in the 4-day tournament that has $7,000 in prize money.

Former Texans playing here include Billy Erfurth, Chicago; Tony Holguin, Chicago; Ken Hulen, Chicago, and Bob Watson, Ardsley, N.Y.

R. A. Curfman New Pampa Grid Coach

PAMPA, Tex. (AP)—R. A. Curfman, former college coach, will be head coach of Pampa High. Curfman, who played football at Texas Tech, coached Tulia and Las Cruces, N.M., high schools and at Stephen F. Austin, Idaho and Trinity University, was given a 2-year contract yesterday to succeed Jack Lockett, who resigned last December.

Big Gyms Boost SWC Basketball

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editors

Basketball is booming in the Southwest Conference. The main reason advanced is that there now are adequate places in which to play the game and provide room for those who might like to see it.

SMU built a coliseum that handles 9,000 fans. Indications are that this isn't adequate. Many people can't get tickets when there's a big game.

The real reason for the boom in basketball came when SMU was playing in its cracker box gymnasium that handled less than 3,000. Coach Doc Hayes decided that a nationally ranked team couldn't be produced by use of only Texas boys. Basketball hadn't progressed in the high schools like it had in other areas because there wasn't any emphasis on the game. Boys didn't play it the year around. Football ran long and kept all the attention.

Hayes went into the Midwest, a hotbed of basketball, and got some top players. With them he molded a team that attained a No. 4 ranking nationally. Last year it as as good as any team in the nation.

With the national glory came a demand for a place that could accomodate the crowds and would attract the top teams of the country.

Texas Tech build a fine coliseum that would find it ready for big-time basketball when it got into the Southwest Conference. That came in 1956 and Tech started competing in the conference this year. It has a contending team. Attendance at Lubbock has been phenomenal. In 9 home games Tech has drawn more fans than it did for 14 games last year. Then the total was 63,300. Through 9 games this season Tech drew 66,525 and set an all-time attendance record for a single game in the conference —10,250.

SMU came up with a team this year that wasn't supposed to be a contender. It had finished winning three championships in a row but had lost all except one regular player. The SMU record this season isn't anywhere near as good as last year but already the attendance is within 4,000 of last season. Ten home games this campaign have drawn 60,046 while last year 12 pulled 64,471.

Still another reason is advanced for the boom in basketball in Dallas. The migration of people from the East and Midwest, where basketball always has been considered a major sport, was another boost. Many people in the Dallas area want to see basketball like they did in their former homes.

There are adequate places in most of the southwest conference cities now. Texas A&M can handle 8,500 fans, Rice 6,000, Arkansas 6,500 and Texas 7,800.

The way the sport is drawing at SMU and Tech this year means it now is a paying proposition. Until recently basketball was pretty much a dead weight. Only football was paying a profit.

EYE REGIONAL CROWN—Pictured are the Tiger basketeers who wil be gunning to bring Snyder High School her first regional basketball crown this weekend at Lubbock. The Tigers will meet Hereford in the opening game of the regional tournament at the Lubbock Coliseum tomorrow night at 8:30. The Tigers won the District 3-AAA championship while Hereford copped the 1-AAA title, both with identical 7-1 records. The Tigers, from left to right, are: KNEELING—David McIntosh, Gary Vice, Kenneth Drake, Israel Hinojos, Johnny Drake and Jimmy Allen. STANDING—Danny Tankersley, John Ward, Bill Phillips, Coach J. P. Ward, Leon Reed, Dwayne Merritt and Bill Jennings. (Lee Watson photograph)

Graham, Hereford Favored In Region Tourney Openers

Graham and Hereford will be favored tomorrow night in opening round games of the Region 1-AAA tournament in the Lubbock Coliseum on the Texas Tech campus.

Both Graham and Hereford are loaded with height and experience Graham will meet Kermit in the opening game of tomorrow night's doubleheader at 7. Following immediately will be Hereford and Snyder at 8:30.

In 6-6 Sonny Gibbs and 6-4 Bob Bernard, Graham can boast of the tallest team in the tournament. And both Gibbs and Bernard were starters last year.

Herefore can just about match Graham in height with 6-5 Terry Higgins and 6-4 Jim Curtsinger.

Kermit and Snyder are lacking in the height department although Kermit has one "giant," 6-4 Dwayne Wright.

Snyder doesn't have anyone above 6-3. Bill Phillips, John Ward and Leon Reed, all 6-3, give the Tigers fair height but it isn't much as compared to the height boasted by Hereford and Graham.

Graham will carry a 24-5 record into the tournament, the most impressive record of the four-team affair. Hereford has the second best mark with 17-7.

The Tigers have a 15-13 record while Kermit is all even for the year at 13-13. All records include the "warmup" games since the completion of the regular season.

Tickets for the tournament went tickets, priced at $1, are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce Office while the student tickets, at 50 cents per, may be purchased at the high school.

Each ticket is good for both games tomorrow night. Snyder fans will be seated in the southeast section of the Coliseum.

Following are the probable starting lineups and the players' height for the four teams:

TIGERS

Forwards — Leon Reed, 6-3, and John Ward 6-3.
Center — Bill Phillips, 6-3.
Guards — Gary Vice, 5-10, and Israel Hinojos, 5-9.

HEREFORD

Forward — Jim Curtsinger, 6-4, and Steve Slagle, 6-3.
Center — Terry Higgins, 6-5.
Guards — Fred Lookingbill, 6-0, and Bobby Shelton, 6-0.

KERMIT

Forward — Gene Williams, 6-2, and Jackie Probst, 6-2.
Center — Dwayne Wright, 6-4.
Guards — Marvin Kettle, 5-10, and Cecil Bryant, 6-0.

GRAHAM

Forwards — Bob Bernard, 6-4, and Mike Rice, 6-0.
Center — Sonny Gibbs, 6-6.
Guards — Mac Miller, 5-11, and Jerry Don Logan, 5-10.

Houston Continues Major League Plans

HOUSTON (AP)—A Houston syndicate, apparently stymied last weekend in one effort to get a professional football team here, plans to keep on trying for major league football and baseball.

Craig Cullinan Jr., spokesman for the businessmen's syndicate, said yesterday a new approach to the Chicago Cardinals or another team will be made shortly. He said negotiations to move the Cardinals to Houston on a 50-50 ownership basis with Walter Wolfner, current owner, have been terminated by mutual agreement.

"The ground work already has been laid for making the next move in a campaign to make Houston a major league city," Cullinan said, adding he had in mind baseball as well as professional football.

BIG SPRING GOES TO PAMPA

Regional Fields Set In Skulboy

By The Associated Press

Regional playoffs and tournaments Friday and Saturday will determine the 24 teams that go to the 5-way schoolboy basketball tournament at Austin next week.

In Class AAAA there are three regional playoffs while one region will determine its one team in a tournament at Houston.

Defending champion Port Arthur is in the regional tournament meeting Pasadena in the first round. Wilbur and Pelham, big Houston teams, clash in the other game.

Big Spring and Pampa play at Pampa Saturday. Dallas Woodrow Wilson and Wichita Falls meet at Dallas Friday and Austin and San Antonio Jefferson battle at San Marcos Saturday to select the other three teams for the state tournament.

In Class AAA, Sulphur Springs, which took out Garland 62-61 in a bi-district game Wednesday, meets Waxahachie; Killeen battles Beaumont French at Huntsville Friday and South San Antonio takes on Weslaco at Corpus Christi Friday. Hereford, Kermit, Snyder and Graham meet in a regional tournament at Lubbock Friday and Saturday.

In Class AA the schedule will be:

At Lubbock Saturday—Tahoka, Childress, Seminole and Coleman; at Denton Saturday—Bowie, Terrell, DeKalb and New London; at College Station Saturday—Rusk, Belton, Gonzales and Cypress-Fairbanks; at Victoria Friday and Saturday—Clear Creek, Karnes City, Taft and Edcouch-Elsa.

The lineup in Class A is as follows:

At Lubbock Saturday—Gruver, Morton, Plains and Big Lake; at Denton Saturday—Llano, Holliday, Midlothian and James Bowie; at College Station Saturday—Brownsboro, Huntington, Waco Midway and Warren; at Victoria Friday and Saturday—Needville, Boerne, Moulton and Woodsboro.

Eight regional tournaments will be held in Class B. They will be at Canyon, Brownwood, Sherman, Kilgore, Brenham, San Marcos, Kingsville and Odessa.

Big Sandy, the Class B champion, will be after a spot in the state tournament in the regional tournament at Brenham.

Big Sandy and Port Arthur are the only defending state champions left. Smiley of AAA, Buna of AA and White Oak of A were eliminated in the bi-district round.

Three Texans Gain GG Quarter-Finals

CHICAGO (AP)—Texas had three fighters left and was making a bid for team honors today in the Tournament of Champions.

Jesse Leija of San Antonio, the Texas flyweight Golden Gloves champion; Gilbert Martinez of Galveston, bantamweight, and Gaspar Sanchez of El Paso, featherweight, survived the quarter-finals last night and will return March 5 for the semi-finals and finals.

Texas had 13 points and ranked third in the team standings. That was four points back of Chicago and just one behind Toledo.

Leija outpointed Joe Olguin of Roswell, N.M.; Martinez decisioned Charles Brown of Cincinnati, and Sanchez defeated Wardell Brown of Streator, Ill.

The Texas heavyweight representative, Carl McClure of Dumas, lost to Louis Coleman of Chicago.

Heavyweight Dan Hodge, wrestler turned boxer, leads 22 Golden Gloves, into next Wednesday's [illegible] last night.

Hodge, a member of the Wichita, Kan., team, was a U.S. Olympic wrestler at Helsinki in 1952 and at Melbourne in 1956. Now the big blond belter has scored 12 knockouts in winning 15 amateur bouts.

Championships in the heavyweight, lightheavy, middleweight, welterweight and lightweight classes will be held Wednesday with some of them being televised nationally, 10 p.m. EST, over ABC. The other three weight divisions move into the semifinals and then on to the finals the same night.

After three nights of action, the original field of about 250 from 32 centers in 20 states was whittled down to the 22 finalists. Missing was the tournament's only defending champion, Billy Braggs of Kenosha, Wis. The lightweight champ was eliminated in the semifinals — Billy Collins of Nashville, Tenn.

CINCINNATI ROLLS ON

Oscar Hot Again; Hits 50 Points

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Oscar Robertson, a quiet kid who plays the role of hatchetman for Cincinnati, has shot back into the individual scoring lead in major college basketball while giving the Bearcats all but an official berth in next month's NCAA championships.

He bagged 50 points, 25 in each half, as Cincinnati downed the tourney-hopeful St. Louis Billikens last night 91-73. The Bearcats, No. 3 in the Associated Press poll, now are 21-2 and have pocketed no worse than a tie for the Missouri Valley Conference title.

Even if Cincinnati should be upset by Wichita Saturday and wind up in a deadlock with Bradley for the crown, it's a sure bet the Mo-Valley will select the Bearcats as its NCAA representatives.

Miami (Ohio) and Tennessee Tech won their conference championships, which carry automatic berths in the NCAA Tournament, but only Miami definitely is going to the playoffs.

Miami knocked off Marshall 82-73 for its fifth Mid-American title in seven years and now will meet Pitt in the MidEast regionals at Evanston, Ill., March 11. Tennessee Tech defeated Morehead 66-63 in overtime for the Ohio Valley crown, but may not go to the NCAA since three men on the squad are four-year men and are not eligible for the tournament. Morehead, the runner-up, might go instead, meeting Notre Dame at Evanston.

The Billikens, who had their eye on the National Invitation Tournament, grabbed a quick lead against Cincinnati and hung on for six minutes. After that, Oscar had 'em hanging by their thumbs, boosting his season scoring average to 34.4 points a game.

Idle Elgin Baylor of Seattle tumbled to second with a 33.8 average after a 25-day stay on top. Elgin has totaled 709 points in 21 games while Robertson has scored 792 in 23. Each has three games left.

Miami blew a 10-point lead at the half and didn't bag the title until John Powell gained a 74-73 edge and set off a 10-0 spurt with a jump shot with two minutes left. Wayne Embry led the champs with 26 rebounds and 33 points.

Tennessee Tech came from four points back in the closing minutes for a 58-58 tie at end of regulation play, then capped the overtime tussle as Larry McDonald sank a pair of free throws with 19 seconds left.

Temple, ranked No. 8 and headed for the NCAA, ran its winning streak, longest in major college play, to 20 with a breezy 77-54 job on Lafayette as Guy Rodgers scored 21. St. Joseph's (Pa.) rapped La Salle 82-77 in a battle of NIT hopefuls.

Ten Braves Are Unsigned

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Milwaukee Braves General Manager John Quinn is beginning to frown just a little because 10 of his world champions remain unsigned and some of them won't even talk to him.

"Sure it would be a relief to have everyone in the fold and ready to go to work Saturday when spring training opens for the full squad," Quinn said. "I'm doing my part trying to contact all the unsigned, but if they don't answer the telephone we can't get together."

Quinn is not sure where most of them are. They are always "out" when phone calls are put through to their winter homes.

Those sitting it out include pitchers Lew Burdette, Bob Buhl, Gene Conley and Don McMahon; infielders Red Schoendienst, Johnny Logan, Frank Torre and Felix Mantilla; and outfielders Wes Covington and Bob Hazle.

City League Season Finals Set Tonight

The curtain will fall on the City League basketball season tonight at Junior High Gym.

The league championship hangs in the balance in tonight's game. Canyon Reef Sports Center has clinched a tie for the title but needs to win tonight to lay full claim to the title.

Canyon Reef meets Brooks Oil in the second game of tonight's doubleheader at 8:30. Meeting in the first game will be D&H grocery and Boys Club.

If the Boys Club wins tonight and Canyon Reef loses, the two teams would finish in a two-way tie for the title. Canyon Reef currently leads the race with an 8-3 record as compared to the Boys Club's 7-4.

Brooks owns a 5-6 record and D&H 2-9.

Bob Epperson, Michigan State sophomore boxer from Donora, Pa. won the All-Navy middleweight title in 1955.

SAUSAGE TYPES MAY BE DISTINGUISHED WITH AID OF KEY
. . . just like cheese, they come in infinite variety of sizes, shapes

Sausage Line's More Than 'Just A Lot Of Bologna'

Almost everyone recognizes skinless frankfurters, bologna and liver sausage on sight — but how many other of the illustrated sausage favorites can you identify?

Try your skill by checking the key.

Like fine cheeses, sausage varieties are practically unlimited. Not only does every nationality have its own specialties, but every manufacturer has his own methods of preparation.

Additional differences come from the kinds of meats and spices used, the manner of blending, the ingredients, the shape, and whether the sausage is cooked, uncooked, smoked, fresh or dry.

Again, like cheese, sausage lends itself to savory, unusual dishes.

FRANKS, BEANS BAKED FOR SUPPER SPECIAL

1 pound pea beans
Water
1 1-pound, 13-ounce can tomatoes
3 medium dill pickles chopped
½ cup molases
½ cup olive or salad oil
1 medium green pepper, chopped
1 medium onion, chopped
Salt and pepper to taste
8 frankfurters
1 cup grated Cheddar cheese (about ¼ pound)
Sliced dill pickles

Cover beans with water. Cover and cook over low heat 2 hours; drain. Combine beans, tomatoes, chopped pickles, molasses, oil, green pepper, onion, salt and pepper; mix well. Pour into 3-quart casserole.

Cover and bake in 325 degree oven 1¼ hours. Uncover and bake 1¼ hours, or until beans are tender.

Meanwhile, cut slits in frankfurters without cutting all the way through. Fill with cheese and sliced pickles. Arrange on top of beans. Bake 15 minutes or until cheese and frankfurters are browned.

CHEF'S SALAD BOWL EMPLOYS CERVELAT

3 cups shredded crisp lettuce
1½ cups shredded romaine or chicory
1 cup shredded young spinach
2 tablespoons each, sliced red radishes and scallions
1 shredded pimiento
3 tablespoons Bleu cheese
¾ cup ½-inch squares cervelat or salami, casing removed
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons salad oil (about)
1½ tablespoons vinegar

Rub large salad bowl with cut section of garlic. Heap in greens, pimiento, cheese and sausage. In to a salad spoon, measure dry mustard, salt and pepper. Fill spoon with salad oil. Stir to mix in the seasonings; sprinkle over the salad.

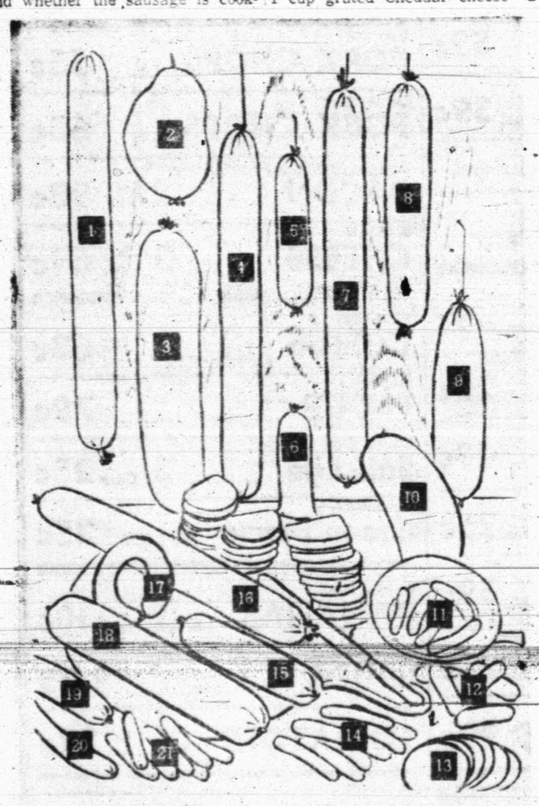

Add 2 more tablespoons salad oil. Toss in 1½ tablespoons vinegar until the dressing is completely absorbed.

SAUSAGE, HASH, EGGS PROVIDE NOVEL BAKE

Salami or cervelat, cellulose casing removed
2 1-pound cans corned beef hash
1 tablespoon minced onion
6 eggs
1 tablespoon butter
Salt
Coarse black pepper

Around the edge of slightly oiled 10-inch pie plate, stand up a half-moon slices salami or cervelat. Fill center with corned beef hash, seasoned with onion. Bake 15 minutes in 375 degree oven.

Make 6 slight depressions in the hash and break an egg into each. Dot with butter; dust with salt and pepper. Return to the oven; bake until eggs are set, about 10 minutes.

RECOGNITION KEY—1, summer sausage; 2, head cheese; 3, cooked salami 4, thuringer; 5, beerwurst; 6, bulk fresh pork sausage; 7, liver sausage; 8, bologna; 9, salami cotto; 10, blood sausage; 11, fresh pork sausage links; 12, garlic sausage; 13, ham sausage; 14, skinless frankfurters; 15, dry salami; 16, Kosher salami; 17, ring bologna; 18, cervelat; 19, praski, 20, Polish sausage; 21, smoke pork sausage links.

CABBAGE RECHAUFFE HAS NOODLES ADDED

1 medium cabbage
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1-3 cup chopped onion
1 cup sliced skinless frankfurters; or small-diced Polish sausage, pepperoni or cervelat, cellulose casing removed.
1 pound wide noodles
Chopped chives or parsley

Shred cabbage. Wash, rinse and drain. In large skillet, melt, butter and add onion. Cook until yellowed. Add cabbage and sausage.

Cover and slow-fry, stirring often until cabbage looks translucent. Meantime, cook noodles according to package directions.

Drain. Add to cabbage. Continue to cook until well heated. Garnish with chopped chives or parsley.

VEGETABLE PLATE HAS SAUSAGE DUMPLINGS

1½ cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg
2 tablespoons cold water
1-3 cup minced bologna or pepperoni, casing removed
1 minced hard-cooked egg
1 tablespoon minced sauteed onion
2 tablespoons minced fresh or canned mushrooms

Sift together flour and salt. Blend in egg mixed with cold water. Knead dough until smooth. Roll paper-thin. Cut in 3-inch squares. Place 1 teaspoon sausage filling on each. Fold over corners and pinch together.

Slip into boiling salted water, or tomato, thick chicken or vegetable soup. Cover and boil 15 minutes.

For suasage filling, mix sausage, egg, onion and mushrooms.

SAUSAGE ADDITION ENHANCES CARROT DISH

1½ pounds carrots, in ¼-inch cubes
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 small onions, peeled and chopped
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon each pepper, cloves and nutmeg
1½ cups hot water
½ pound sliced skinless franks or
1 cup small-diced ham bologna, polish sausage or pepperoni, casing removed

Pare and dice carrots. Melt butter or margarine in frying pan. Saute 5 minutes, add flour, salt, pepper and spices. Stir in hot water. Cook-stir until boiling.

Add sausage. Turn into 3-pint casserole. Cover. Bake 45 minutes in 375 degree oven.

HOT LIVERWORST BAKE GOES WITH VEGETABLES

1 pound liverwurst
3 tablespoons minced onion
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon minced parsley
2 beaten eggs
1-1-3 cups milk

Remove casing from liverwurst. Slow-saute onion in butter or margarine. Add to the liverwurst with salt, pepper parsley, eggs and milk. Turn into oiled shallow 7-11 inch baking dish.

Place in a pan. Surround with boiling water to the depth of 1 inch. Bake 40 minutes in 375 degree oven, or until firm and lightly browned. Serve warm with a creamed vegetable; or broiled or escalloped tomatoes; or sauerkraut with apples. Slice cold for a tasty sandwich filling.

EGG BENEDICT STYLE IS QUICKIE SUPPER

Hollandaise sauce
3 English muffins, halved
6 thin slices salami, casing removed
6 eggs
Ripe olives
Red radishes
Capers or parsley

Make Hollandaise sauce. Toast and butter 3 halved English muffins. Saute thin slices of salami. Neatly poach 6 eggs. Top muffin halves with salami, then the eggs. Smoothly spread over the Hollandaise sauce. Top each egg with a slice of ripe olive, red radish, capers or parsley.

Arrange on a platter. Garnish with tomato wedges and parsley.

GRATED POTATO SOUP MAY BE FIRST COURSE

1 medium size onion
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1½ cups coarse-ground raw potato
5 cups soup stock, any kind, or
5 cups wafer and
5 beef bouillon cubes
3 sliced skinless franks, or pepperoni or Polish sausage.

Fine-chop onion; saute in butter or margarine. Add potato and soup stock, or use water and beef bouillon cubes. Simmer 10 minutes. Add franks or other sausage. Simmer 5 minutes. Garnish with minced parsley or chives.

OUR VIEW

Living With Our System

The Supreme Court of the United States, which, of course, is the highest judicial authority in the land, has seen its prestige decline in some sections of the country, largely as a result of its decisions involving so-called civil rights questions.

However, the American Bar Assn. doubts that conditions justify a move to modify the high court's powers of review. Lawyers attending the bar association's meeting in Atlanta the other day voted to oppose a bill by Sen. William Jenner (R-Ind.) which would cut the Supreme Court's authority to review congressional and school cases.

From its infancy, this country has depended upon an independent judiciary. The lawyers apparently feel that it would no longer be independent if the Jenner bill should be passed.

The strength of our courts always has been found in integrity. Basic factors have been dignity and wisdom on the bench. Isolated instances where these factors are ignored crop up from time to time, but on the whole there has been little to indicate that it is of enough consequence to scrap the system.

The Jenner bill would take certain types of cases from the jurisdiction of the courts, and in some areas of dispute apparently would throw the issues into the popular opinion mills.

Courts have been sensitive to popular opinion on occasion, but seldom without logic and wisdom, and almost never without basis in law.

We suspect that enough "scrapping" already has taken place in other areas of our system of government. Perhaps too many are spending too much time seeking loopholes, and too little in trying to live with the system we have.

Soviet Ambassador Is Expert Talker

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new Soviet ambassador to the United States, looking like a small-town banker in his Western clothes and expensive Italian hat, has lost no time spreading his gospel.

The gospel —as expounded by Mikhail Menshikov, 55—is better understanding between East and West, more cooperation, more trade, more friendly relations all around. He's an expert on trade.

He's done a lot of talking since his arrival here Feb. 6 —both to newsmen outside the doors of offices he's visited and in interviews —but so far he hasn't said anything his bosses in the Kremlin could be angry about.

He talks in English, which he knows well. He started talking immediately after he landed in a 500-mile-an-hour Russian jet plane. He marched right up to a battery of microphones.

Those first words at the airport set the pattern for practically everything he's said since: "I have been sent to your country by my government as an ambassador of peace, friendship and cooperation."

There's quite a switch between the way he handles newsmen and the way his predecessor Georgi Zarubin did it. Menshikov talks for publication although what he says is pretty much what he said before.

Zarubin went in a lot for off-the-record statements. But where Zarubin spoke broken English, Menshikov is fluent with it. Even the difference in the appearance of the two men is a switch.

Menshikov looks like a kind of happy salesman. The dark and somber Zarubin looked almost like a character out of a mystery novel.

Menshikov lost no time visiting Secretary of State Dulles, with whom he exchanged pleasantries. Then he visited President Eisenhower and stayed half an hour. Most ambassadors presenting their credentials at the White House stay about 10 minutes.

Drivers Get Day In Court

EAST ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—A group of motorists tagged for overtime parking when they couldn't move their snowbound cars had their day in court—and a hectic day it was.

The session started with lawyers for the defense claiming the 13.4 inch snowfall last Feb. 15 was "an act of God" and that their clients had been entrapped by nature.

Four hours, thousands of words and $830 later, the score:

156 motorists convicted.

14 dismissed.

500 absent and subject to contempt of court charges, and

1 lawyer evicted from the courtroom.

The motorists who jammed the 75-seat courtroom here were among 1,500 ticketed in the wake of the near-blizzard.

Seven of the 14 dismissals were on tickets issued by patrolman Paul Hart, who admitted writing them at a time when he knew the cars were snowed in and couldn't be moved.

Stock Sale Denied

AUSTIN (AP)—White's Food Stores Inc. of Dallas was denied a permit to sell stock because the company's earnings record did not support the proposed stock price, Securities Commissioner William King said yesterday.

Hot Dispute Over Fair Trade Laws

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the hottest disputes in the retailing world — whether the manufacturer should fix prices under fair trade laws — has popped onto front pages again.

General Electric, one of the foremost proponents of such price setting, is throwing in the towel after a long and costly battle in the courts against merchants who flaunt its policy.

It says retailers can now set their own prices on all its small home appliances except flashbulbs. Several years ago the company stopped suggesting retail prices for its large home appliance.

Price wars already started among some stores — with consumers picking up bargains, just as they do in gasoline price wars — could have widespread effects in the appliance industry.

The battle over fair trade has been particularly hot since the rise of the discount houses. But it has flared in the courts, in Congress and in various state legislatures for years.

Fair trade laws still exist in 32 states. A number of manufacturers are still staunch advocates of fair trade and GE's action may or may not affect their policies.

After a series of defeats in state courts, advocates of fair trade — notably the National Assn. of Retail Druggists — are urging Congress to pass a federal law sanctioning the policy.

Most state fair trade laws permit the manufacturer to force all retailers in the state to sell its products at fixed prices, if such a practice has been fixed in a contract with at least one retailer in the state. Courts in 11 states have held this provision unconstitutional.

Advocates of fair trade argue that the manufacturer has the right to protect his brand from being downgraded through price wars. They also say that such laws protect the small business man against being undersold by large firms and thus being driven out of business.

Foes of fair trade say that it is only a price-fixing scheme that squelches competition and that the consumer suffers. They hold that a free market system is far more just to all concerned.

Fair trade got its big boost in the depression of the 1930s when most states set store price floors to protect small business firms. Only Vermont, Texas, Missouri and the District of Columbia have never had fair trade laws.

A federal law passed during the depression was held unconstitutional in 1951 by the U. S. Supreme Court as applying to goods moving in interstate commerce. Price-cutting wars broke out that summer and in 1952 Congress passed the McGuire Act permitting states to set up their own fair trade laws. Thirty-five did, but three dropped them last year.

Sharp wars with discount houses recently have led to court battles. Last October the Supreme Court refused to review a lower court ruling that the Masters Mail Order Co. of Washington might advertise and sell by mail GE goods at cut prices.

This refusal, plus the costly court battles, may have caused GE to throw in the towel. Trying to enforce its fair trade prices has cost the electrical equipment firm about half a million dollars a year.

Westinghouse abandoned its fair trade battle in September 1955. Among leaders in the fair trade fight are makers of drugs, cosmetics, hardware and tobacco. Westinghouse's defection didn't budget them. It remains to be seen if GE's will.

No Crime In Office 'Bug'

NEW YORK (AP)—A Manhattan grand jury found no evidence of crime in the "bugging" of the offices of the Motormen's Benevolent Assn.

A listening device was found in the MBA headquarters last Dec. 14 while the subway motormen were on strike. Apparently it had been installed some time before members of the independent union walked out.

Installing of such devices except by police and other law enforcement agencies became illegal under state law last July 1.

The City Transit Authority police admitted placing the "bug" in MBA headquarters but contended they were among the exempt authorities.

Whiz Kids Putting Knowledge To Use

WASHINGTON (AP) — Interested in an automatic door-opener powered by a washing machine motor — or a household intercom system "to save mother steps"?

Get in touch with some of the teen-aged scientific whiz-kids who showed up today as finalists in the annual Westinghouse science talent search.

They're full of ideas on such complex subjects as "the dimensions of right triangles with integral sides" and "the nutritional value of algae." But you'll also find quite a number who have already used their scientific know-how in developing some pretty useful, down-to-earth gadgets.

Among their projects or ideas are:

A cleaner for mimeograph ink stains . . . gas-powered scooters . . . solar-heated greenhouses . . . an atom smasher machine that can be built for $150 . . . a technique for computing orbits of Sputniks . . . a burglar alarm that would detect the presence of a person by the heat given off from his body . . .

Selected in a nationwide competition that originally involved more than 25,000 high school seniors, the 32 boys and eight girls are competing for $34,250 in scholarships and awards. The first-place winner will walks off with a $7,500 scholarship. Four other top awards range from $6,000 to $3,000, and all others will get $250 each.

Junior Editors Quiz on HISTORY

QUESTION: How many days did it take to build Rome?

• • •

ANSWER: You probably have often heard the expression that Rome wasn't built in a day. People use it to emphasize that a tough job can't be done in a hurry.

If you ever watched a big building going up, you know that it could not be built in a day, even with our modern methods. So you can imagine how long it must have taken to construct even a few buildings back about 750 B.C., when Rome was first founded. There were more than 237,000 days from then until the time when ancient Rome fell, about 1500 years ago.

The early Romans had a talent for building strong structures. Today there are many centuries-old buildings still in use. One of the most famous structures still standing is the Colosseum, the 80,000-seat arena where gladiators battled and Christians were thrown to the lions for the amusement of the spectators. Construction on the Colosseum began in 75 A.D. and was finished five years later.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Here is a Roman official showing a stone cutter how he wants an inscription cut for an arch. Cut out the picture, paste it on cardboard and color it.

Reservists Training Set

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Maj. Gen. G. S. Meloy Jr., 4th Army deputy for reserve forces, said yesterday an estimated 25,000 reservists will attend two weeks of annual training at 4th Army installations from June 1 through Sept. 7.

The largest participation will be at Ft. Polk, La., where about 8,500 men will train, including members of the 90th Division of Texas, June 7-21. The 95th Infantry Division of Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana will train at Ft. Chaffee, Ark., Aug. 10-24.

Ft. Sill, Okla., will be host to an estimated 4,700 reservists: Ft. Chaffee, Ark., 3,800; Ft. Hood, 2,200; Ft. Sam Houston, 2,100; and Ft. Bliss, 1,000. Other installations to be utilized will be Camp Leroy Johnson, La.; Camp Wolters, Tex., and San Jacinto Ordnance Depot, Tex.

Awards Are Presented To Cub Scouts

Awards were presented to members of Boy Scout Cub Pack 112, sponsored by the St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church, during the annual blue and gold banquet last night.

The banquet was held in the recreation room of the church.

Joe Dicus, cubmaster, presented wolf badges to Joey Dicus, Dwaine Boydston, and Lowell Martin.

Tommy Sinclair received a bar badge, and Bob Winstead a Lion Badge.

Douglas Balhorn received a webelas badge.

Lee Van Tucker received one silver arrow point, Lowell Martin two, Jimmie George one, Bob Hand four, Peter Wadleigh six, Richard Lutkins seven, Douglas Balhorn three, and Dall Thompson four.

Gold arrow points were presented to Tommy Sinclair, Richard Lutkins, Dale Thompson, Lowell Martin, Peter Wadleigh and Jim George.

To Break Relations

HONG KONG (AP)—A Red China newspaper report says 156 Catholic leaders in north China's Hopei province have voted to break relations with the Vatican.

Unemployment List Up 2,000

AUSTIN (AP)—More than 2,000 Texas workers were added to the growing list of unemployed and there has been a decrease in working hours for those with jobs, the Employment Commission said yesterday.

"It looks bad," a TEC spokesman said. "Our unemployment claims are almost three times what they were at the same time last year."

Figures were not available as to the total employment for January.

For the week ending Feb. 20, the TEC said 77,784 claims for unemployment insurance were filed. The previous week 75,746 claims were filed. This compared with 43,558 filed last year during the week ending Feb. 21

A total $1,417,884 was paid out last week for unemployment claims compared to only $567,545 for the same period in 1957. Last week's figure jumped from the $1,250,018 high mark for the week ending Feb. 13.

The commission said total employment for December, 1957 was recorded at 3,042,500 compared with 3,007,900 for November and with 3,009,800 for December of 1956.

No figures were available which showed unemployment among workers not covered by state employment insurance. This would include agricultural workers and many white collar jobs.

The third week in February normally shows a decrease in unemployment in Texas. However, the increase in unemployment began earlier and spread faster during recent months than it has in several years.

Gov. Daniel reactivated the Texas Industrial Commission yesterday with one of its objectives to study unemployment. Daniel said he also would ask the commission "to do everything possible toward bringing new industries to areas where workers are available and in need of jobs."

Monthly earnings and hours worked were down in every field except the apparel industry, the TEC's monthly earnings and hours report showed. The increase in the apparel industry was credited to government contracts.

Margaret Wants To Visit America

LONDON (AP)—A visit by Princess Margaret to the United States this summer is under top-level consideration in London.

The pretty, 27-year-old princess has long wanted to see America, a country she reads about avidly and admires.

She is due in Canada July 12 for a 24-day official visit. It would be easy for her to take a side trip south of the border.

No British-American consultations about a visit are known to have taken place on any official level. A U.S. stopover apparently is still an idea rather than a project being actively planned, but protocol considerations and other aspects are already being thought about in high places.

Under consideration are such questions as:

Would the British Commonwealth countries which Margaret has not yet visited feel slighted if the princess visited the United States first?

Since Margaret is not a head of state, but has high status as the sister of the Queen, where should any invitation originate?

Would teen-agers and others in America, whose sympathy for Margaret grew after she renounced Peter Townsend, stage frantic welcoming demonstrations that would embarrass the princess and the crown?

On the other hand, would there be any unwanted effect on American opinion if the princess goes to Canada without paying a courtesy call across the border?

Such questions would be weighed carefully here before any moves were made to arrange a visit.

California's Bold Rush Is Easing Off

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The bold rush to southern California shows signs of easing off for the first time in years.

Officials blame business conditions for the migration decline.

After World War II thousands of 20th century pioneers trekked overland to sunny southern California — described as the roomy land of the big boom, the big deal and the big job.

Almost a million and a half out-of-state visitors came in during 1947, for instance. Thousands stayed on to get jobs and build homes.

The population of Los Angeles and its suburbs jumped from 1,970,358 in 1950 to an estimated 2,358,120 on Jan. 1, 1958.

Officials said the over-all population growth of the city is beginning to level off.

"Oh, the city's still growing; it's just not growing as fast as it did in the past 10 years," one official said.

The population has increased only 3,820 over last summer's official estimate, the City Planning Department announced.

Border crossings last month totaled 188,984 persons, compared with 205,383 in January 1957.

In December 1957, 218,175 persons crossed into California, compared with 263,587 in December 1956, state records show.

Actress Ponders Attractive Offer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Sharon Lee today mulled a California fruit grower's offer to set up a $500,000 trust fund for her if she will marry him.

"I need time to think," she said yesterday at a news conference called by her and Tony Vito in his apartment to explain the status of their romance. Both confirmed the offer.

Vito, 38, an ex-Marine from Boston, said of his offer: "I'm not trying to influence Sharon by this. I merely want her to know that if she marries me she won't have to support me."

The blonde Miss Lee, 27, said when she recently divorced singer David Street after less than a month of marriage that she helped support him. Street and actress Debra Paget have since married.

Vito lives in Hollywood when not at Lodi, Calif., on business. Miss Lee said they met at a Hollywood party and have been dating since Feb. 12 but she has also been going out with others.

Said Vito: "This town is full of sharpshooters who want to know what you can do for them but Sharon is different. She won't take anything.

"I gave her a mink stole and a Cadillac and she made me take them back. I had a birthday party all planned for 400 guests that would have cost $5,000 or $10,000. She canceled it. She thought it would cost too much."

Said Sharon: "He's a wonderful person, a fine person, but it all happened too fast. We have never been on a date without my manager or girl friend. I intend to see him but I need time to think. Marriage must be built on love, not money."

Yarborough Seeks Crude Tariff Hike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ralph Yarborough (D-Tex) introduced a bill yesterday which would hike tariff on crude oil to 84 cents a 42-gallon barrel.

The tariff now averages approximately 8 cents, depending on grade.

Yarborough said the voluntary oil import curtailment program has not been effective.

His bill also would increase the 2½ cents per gallon import tax on gasoline to 3 cents, and the 4 cents a gallon tax on lubricating oil to 5 cents.

Vanguard Is Delayed By Weather

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Heavy rains and an unfavorable wind forecast blocked the Vanguard rocket launching program today, at least until next week.

They thus crowded one U.S. space program against another, into two possible satellite launching attempts in the first week of March.

The Army is waiting to launch a second Explorer satellite, atop a Jupiter-C four-stage rocket, as soon as the Navy puts up its three-stage Vanguard with a 6.4-inch satellite sphere in its nose.

Repeated rainfall has flooded parts of the low, flat missile test area and forced workers to keep the 72-foot Vanguard rocket buttoned up under protecting cover to hold moisture away from the test vehicle's many delicate instruments, fittings and connections.

This has so delayed the preparation of the rocket for firing that informed sources said a Vanguard launching this week was out of question.
