Tracksters Place 4th In Comanche Relays

The Sonora Bronco Varsity track team opened their 1976 track season Saturday when they traveled to Fort Stockton to compete in the Comanche relays. The Broncos racked up 55 points to place fourth overall. The powerhouse Ozona Lions won the meet, followed by Alpine, Denver City and Sonora.

The Bronco's showing was impressive despite the fact the Broncos have had only one week to work out on their new track and try to adapt themselves to regular track conditions.

Larry Jones and Craig Parker made strong showings. Both placed first in their specialties. Jones won the 120 yard high hurdles with a time of 15 seconds flat, and Parker stepped off a 54.6 in the 440 yard dash.

Chip Savell ran a 3:58.9 in the mile run to place second, while Tony Mathews rallied for a 4th place finish in the same event.

Two freshmen made good showings in their initial Varsity competition. Manuel Lopez and Cody Savell placed 5th and 6th in the long jump.

Other Broncos tallying points were Larry Jones, 4th place in the 330 yard intermediate hurdles, and Garry Jones, 4th in the 100 yard dash.

The mile relay team composed of Louis Samaniego, Jeff Doan, Garry Jones, and Craig Parker, raced to a third place finish with a time of 3:46.

The 7th and 8th grade boys and the high school varsity will travel to Ozona Thursday afternoon to compete in a dual meet with Ozona.

Rabies Clinic Today

Persons who have not had their pets vaccinated against rabies within the past year, are urged to take them to the rabies clinic set up at the Sutton County 4-H Center this afternoon [Thursday].

Dr. John Fields and Dr. Mike Keller, local veterinarians, will be on hand to vaccinate all pets or animals, whether they be horse, cow, dog, cat, sheep, goat, or otherwise.

The clinic will begin at 1:30 p.m., and continue until 5:30 p.m.

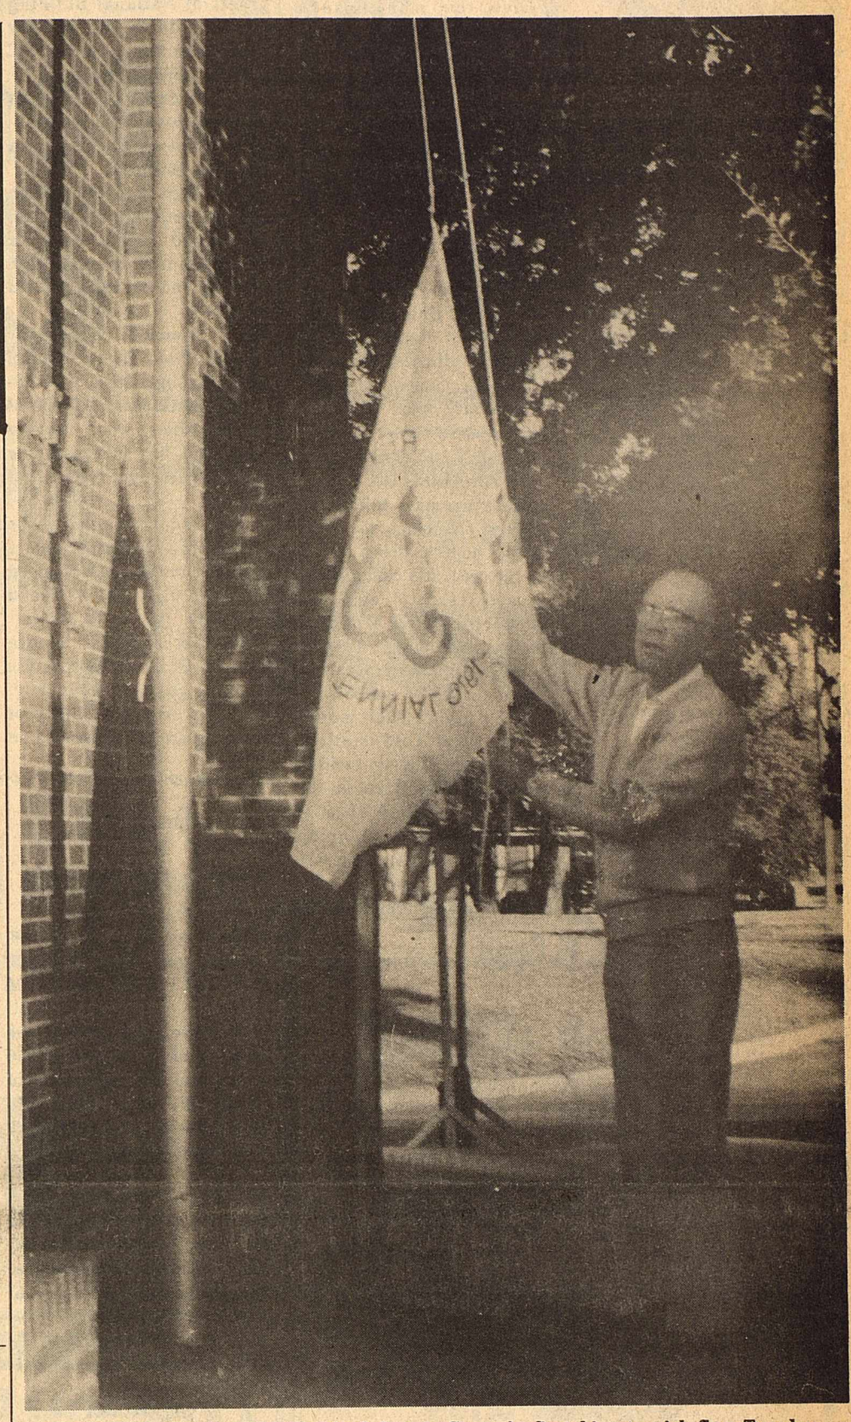

Pet owners are urged to comply with the rabies vaccinations necessary for confined pets, as Sutton County ranked first in Texas in 1975 for the highest number of confirmed cases.

March 1-5 ... Texas Public Schools Week

March 1, through March 5, has been set by the State Board of Education for the Twenty-Fifth Annual Observance of Public Schools Week in Texas. During this week, local parents and all other interested citizens are invited to visit their schools and evaluate the schools' needs.

The operation and control of our local schools have been delegated to the local board and local officials by the citizens of Sutton County. If we are to maintain the control and operation of our schools, then we must be informed concerning their needs and local problems. If we fail as citizens to support our schools locally, then someone else will do it. Therefore, we all should take an active part in this Twenty-Fifth Annual Observance of Public Schools Week in our community and in so doing, visit the schools.

Each guest in the local schools during Public Schools Week will be asked to register and wear a ribbon which reads: "I have visited my school."

Postmaster James D. Trainer raised Sutton County's first bicentennial flag Tuesday morning at the post office. The flag, carrying the bicentennial symbol, will fly the remainder of the year.

Interest Grows In School Board Race

Interest in the April 3 school board election has been sparked with the addition of two more names added to the list of contenders.

In place 3, now occupied by James Hunt who is seeking re-election, Victoriano (V. L.) Chavez and Max. L. Martin are contenders for that place.

In place 4 Mrs. Lupita (Lou) McMillon has announced she will run, as will incumbent W. L. (Bud) Whitehead.

With still a few more days left in which to announce, more names may possibly be added to the list.

In the April 3 city election Alderman Walter C. Pope, III, has stated that he will not seek re-election. His term, and that of Doyle Morgan, expire this year as does the term of Mayor Norman Rousselot. Neither Morgan nor Rousselot have announced for re-election.

Seeking spots on that board of city aldermpersons are Billie Wright Taylor, Belia B. Castaneda and Rebecca P. Chavez. Possible contenders have until March 3 to file for one of these positions.

The only other contested race of local interest is that of Sutton County Sheriff. Sheriff A. P. (Pryce) Taylor is being contested for that office by W. W. (Bill) Webster, who is presently City Police Chief. This election is subject to the May 1 primary.

Persons who are new to the county are reminded that they must be registered to vote in the county where the election is being held thirty days prior to that election. Persons who voted in this county in any election held last year are automatically registered and need not do so again.

Lou McMillon Announces For School Board

Mrs. Lupita (Lou) McMillon announced her candidacy for School Board Trustee, Place 4, on February 19th.

She has lived in Sonora for two years, having moved here from South Texas, when her husband C. A. McMillon was transferred to Sonora as Area-Foreman for a gas gathering company. He is now employed by a local gas corporation as head of the production and construction departments.

Mrs. McMillon has been employed by the City of Sonora as secretary for the Police Department for a year and a half.

In announcing her candidacy Mrs. McMillon stated, "Having children in school I am very interested in the education of every child and am also interested in the growth of Sonora. I believe that there should be varied representation on the School Board, and would like to have the opportunity to serve, and will represent each and everyone equally."

The McMillons reside at 103 East Third with their two children, Micheal Robin 12, and Gina Denise 7.

JAYCEE-ETTES TO HOLD BAKE SALE FRIDAY

The sale will begin at 9 a.m., and will feature cakes, cookies, brownies, sandwich fillings, dips, sausage balls and casseroles.

Fire Station Suffering From Growing Pains

One of the most vital community services of Sonora and Sutton County is suffering from growing pains. The Volunteer Fire Department's fire station is in urgent need of repair and expansion.

The present roof leaks are beyond repair. Many repairs have been made, but new felt is required. The over-head doors are in a constant state of dis-repair due to the crowding of the trucks. It is almost impossible to close doors without damaging them on the truck's bumpers.

Preliminary plans have been made to repair the roof and expand the present building to the north and west. Construction would consist of a metal building with large overhead doors facing the street. The metal on the street side will be bricked to conform with the existing building. A large concrete slab will be poured providing access into the building from the rear, allowing for departure facing the street.

Preliminary bids have been made to cover these costs. Conservatively figuring, they will run in the neighborhood of $35,000, possibly less.

The existing building contains 1,768 square feet. The planned expansion would add 3,600 square feet.

Monies required will come primarily from contributions, and secondarily from county funds. In the near future a drive will be underway for contributions.

I ask you, how secure you would feel in your home, business, or ranch without these hard working men and the equipment at their disposal. Let's support them whole-heartedly.

EYES OF TEXAS TO BE AIRED ON CBS

There's a new television program on doings in Texas that we hope is being shown in your area. It's called "The Eyes of Texas." and was produced by Ray Miller of Houston's KPRC-TV. In Austin, the 30-minute program is shown on three successive Monday nights each month on the local CBS station. Since it shows many exciting things to do and see in the state, it is a treasure chest of ideas for Texans planning "more of a vacation and less of a trip" this year.

Bob Krueger's Weekly Report

One of the most difficult tasks facing a legislative body is striking a reasonable balance between the conflicting pressures that come upon it, making decisions that serve the needs of the full nation rather than only part of it.

Currently, the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, on which I serve, is dealing with a bill revising the Clean Air Act. No one wants to oppose clean air; it has been given us by nature, and we wish to preserve it for our own benefit and that of the next generation. Unfortunately, the air is constantly changing, and the scientific community has not yet agreed upon which changes are dangerous and destructive and which changes are reasonably harmless, the inevitable by-products of an increasingly industrialized society.

One of the more controversial provisions in the bill now before us is the "significant deterioration" section, which attempts to balance the needs and demands of continued industrial growth and power generation with the need to protect our health and environment. Under the proposed amendments, however, the state and local governments would determine in most areas the levels to which pollution could increase, up to the already existing national standards. Of course, the difficulty in devising this type of legislation is that a situation must be avoided which would force industry to remain in those cities which already have high levels of pollution, since the air quality in industrialized parts of the country would be protected against further deterioration. Such a bill would cripple industrial growth, and the entire nation would suffer as industry stagnated and national productivity decreased.

Over the past five years, the population in America has been shifting noticeably to southern and western states; Texas has become one of the fastest growing states in the nation. Many communities, large and small in the 21st District would like to bring in additional industry in order to supply more jobs and expand the local economy, but legislation of this sort, if poorly drafted or recklessly enforced, could prevent such desirable growth. Small towns prevented from expansion will probably decline, and we must encourage, not discourage, the further development and growth of this vital segment of American culture. We must reinvigorate our small communities, and I will be watching my committee's actions on Clean Air Act Amendments to make certain that the bill promotes this objective. Of course, I would appreciate any comments on this subject which my readers might have, since this will increase the chances for legislation in the best interests of the 21st District and the nation.

Krueger Says Campaign Debt Paid

21st District Congressman Bob Krueger (D-Tx) has announced that all of his creditors from the 1974 Congressional race have been paid in full.

"I have analyzed my campaign contributions and found that our contributors come from all walks of life and from all over the state," Krueger reported. Noting that the average number of contributors to a congressional race is about 500, Krueger revealed that 2252 people helped to finance his campaign.

THE DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ.....

He Has Discovered Greatest Crisis Facing Nation Today

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on the Dry Devil's River thinks he has discovered some news of grave importance, his letter this week reveals.

Dear Editor:

Some people think that the greatest problem facing us this year is the election of a President. Others say the problem is inflation, others unemployment, others the energy crisis, while others say it's our foreign policy and worldwide unrest.

They are all wrong. The greatest crisis facing the people of the United States this year is the fact that Dr. Benjamin Spock is changing his baby book.

Here's the situation: 28 million copies of his book, "Baby and Child Care," have been sold since it came out in 1946. Figuring the average of three and one-third children per family, although you could round it out at four on the basis that at least one out of every three kids is a double handful, that's over 93 million people living today who were brought up according to the precepts of Dr. Spock, as he was thinking in 1946.

But now Dr. Spock says, "The way I was thinking before is not the way I'm thinking now," so he has re-written the book to reflect this change in attitude.

Do you realize what this means? There are 93 million people spread out over the country who now have to be called back in and trained all over again. All that stuff they were brought up on, with their mothers patting their back for colic with one hand and holding their copy of Dr. Spock in the other, has now been re-called.

You stop and figure, if 93 million out of our population of 200 million were trained wrong as babies, what else could you expect than to find the country in the shape some people claim it's in? No wonder the country's got problems.

Changing the subject, I notice that Henry Kissenger has been complaining again about leaks, but unless somebody leaks his papers, how would the State Department ever find out what our foreign policy is?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Salad Days To Remember

The glory that was Caesar's is not confined to old Rome. Thanks to Deluxe Caesar Style Salad, glory shines through on any salad day of your choosing.

Perk up a dark, wintry, dismal day with a bowl of fresh, bite-size salad greens, combined with oil, vinegar and egg. Good Seasons salad makings -- Caesar with croutons -- adds the finishing touch. A subtle blend of seasonings and special croutons all sprinkled on the mixed greens and the salad is tossed lightly, politely, yet with authority.

Served with a platter of fresh cold cuts and cheese, sesame bread sticks and your favorite beverage, Deluxe Caesar Style Salad makes your salad day one to remember.

Deluxe Caesar Style Salad

- 6 cups bite-size pieces lettuce or other salad greens*
- 6 tablespoons salad oil
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 1 uncooked or 2-minute coddled egg
- 2 envelopes Caesar salad makings with croutons

*Vary amount and type of salad greens to suit taste.

Place lettuce pieces in bowl. Add salad oil; toss. Then add vinegar and egg. Sprinkle contents of salad makings envelopes over lettuce pieces; toss well. Serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

Goals for this club are Community Benefits and Public Relations. Eleven new members joined Thursday night and we are hoping for more.

The next meeting will be Thursday night 7:30, February 26, at the Methodist Church basement.

Many a village began at the crossroads. Most towns grew up around the intersection of two important thoroughfares. And the vast cities which now fight the penetration of traffic with beltways, thruways, and by-passes were themselves spawned by the very highways they would now escape.

Our civilization is largely the product of men's encounter with men at the crossroads of geography, sociology, history and science.

Never lose sight of the vital Crossroads . . . Religion.

That is the encounter of men with God! It has constantly offered positive, constructive approaches to the problems that surround the other intersections in time and experience.

When you hear the church bells next Sunday, remember. It is good to live at the Crossroads where Christ touches all human relationships with His power and love.

Jr. High School Plans Bicentennial Festival

Sonora Junior High School is planning a Bicentennial Festival in observance of the Bicentennial and Texas Public Schools Week. There will be an open house at the Junior High from seven until nine, Tuesday evening, March 2, to allow parents and other interested citizens to visit the school and have a part in the Bicentennial Festival.

The program will be informal, and guests are invited to come and go as they wish. Activities will be taking place in virtually all the junior high classrooms and in the elementary cafeteria where refreshments will be served.

Guests are invited to just roam around over the junior high building from one activity to another.

Some of the events being planned include a presentation by the Junior High Choir, the Junior High Band performance, science and history projects on display, speeches presented, art projects displayed, and a gymnastics performance.

Guests will be given an opportunity to visit the Remedial Reading Center, Special Education Resource Rooms, library, and for those who have not seen the remodelling that has been done in the school's oldest building, this will be a good opportunity to see how an old, dilapidated building has been turned into some of the biggest, most attractive and most comfortable rooms on the entire campus.

Field Day, Ram Sale Scheduled March 18

A sale of tested rams is scheduled March 18 at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research Station at Sonora.

The date is also that of the annual Sheep and Goat Field Day at the station, where officials will use the day mainly to discuss results of their 27th annual Ram Performance Test, and for the first time in recent years, offer for sale the animals tested.

After a morning of inspecting the rams and a barbecue lunch catered by the Sutton County 4-H Club, the guests will hear about results of the test.

Other speakers will offer a plan for expanding the American sheep industry, discuss the problem of lice on sheep, and make selected research reports.

Sale of the tested rams begins at 2 p.m.

Child Disease Is Back

Despite effective measures to suppress children diseases, some are coming back -- notably MEASLES, a contagious virus recognized by skin rashes, high fever, inflammation of eyes, nose and throat with little white spots inside the mouth.

In 1963, a vaccine was developed to wipe out this dreaded disease. Soon afterward, the rate of reported cases dropped to a surprising low; but now they are turning up again.

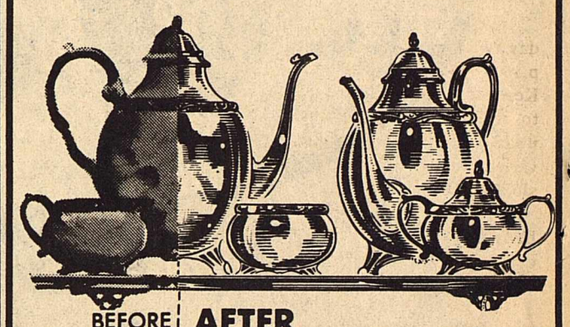

Authorities blame the recurrence to a failure in maintaining massive vaccination programs because of public apathy. They fear that this unconcern may well bring about a return, not only of Measles, but of other epidemics, such as Diphtheria and Polio.

TEXAS FARM BUREAU INSURANCE

Life insurance is often talked about as being an investment tool. How can life insurance be used this way?

The ownership of life insurance is considered by many people to be a sign of financial responsibility, integrity and maturity. Permanent life insurance accumulates cash value . . . sometimes referred to as an equity. Should you need to raise extra money and require collateral a potential lender might very well accept the cash value or paid-up value of your permanent life insurance as the collateral needed. Often, the only requirement is assignment of the policy for the term of the loan.

Battle Of Alamo Enactment To Be Held In Bracketville

The Texas Army and the National Re-enactment Society will engage in a fierce struggle for the Alamo at Alamo Village, Brackettville, on Saturday, March 6. A force of 150 soldiers plus women and children will take part in the official Bicentennial event, and you're invited to watch the excitement that will begin at 3 p.m. on March 6. Two cannons will be mounted inside the walls by the Texas Army to defend the Alamo, while four cannons will be used as siege artillery by members of the National Re-enactment Society, representing the Mexican army.

There will be charges and repulsions, hand-to-hand combat inside the Alamo, until the women and children exit to notify the world that no defenders survive. Participants will come from all parts of the U.S., as did the original defenders, and all will be fully costumed in 1836 outfits. They'll use tomahawks, flintlock rifles, and other weapons of the period. March is a good time to plan a trip to the Brackettville area--before the summer crowds arrive.
