Local FTA members win in district competition

Two members of the Colorado High School chapter of the Future Teachers of America came away winners during the district convention Saturday at Andrews High School.

Of the 23 enrolled members at CHS, 18 made the trip to Andrews with 10 of them as voting delegates. The local group competed in all areas except theme writing.

Bhavesh Patel, a sophomore, was elected district vice-president, and Amy Chitsey, freshman, won the Miss FTA contest.

Patel and a "dancing group" of nine other members gave a political skit. Aurora Melendez and Tammy Loving were on the roster as candidates for other offices, but had to withdraw when Patel was elected because each school can have only one person in district office.

Miss Chitsey presented a theme and was judged on appearance, presentation and content to win the Miss FTA contest. Her poetry also won first place. She will now represent the district at state in both literary events and Miss FTA competition.

Tammy Loving and Trivicia Johnson, both freshmen, won second and third respectively in the poetry division.

cia, James Garza, Clay Yancey, Gina Gilstrap, Rosie Mayo, Shelly Barber and Moises Molina.

"Special thanks are due several others who contributed their talents to help make this a successful day - Orphie Conner and Kathy Wilson (calligraphy), Carl Moore (skit preview), Leanne Beights (scrapbook cover), Larry Blair (scrapbook frame), Al Sheldon, Mike Walla and David Woods (judging of talent)," said Mrs. Hicks.

Schools represented were Andrews, Colorado City, Seminole, Seagraves and Monahans. Several other schools are in the district but often only participate in the state convention, said Mrs. Hicks.

Sales tax rebate checks sent

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday sent checks totaling $32,555.65 in local sales tax to Colorado City, Westbrook and Loraine, three of the 1,033 cities that levy the one-percent city tax.

Statewide, 1986 payments to date are down 1.7 percent as compared to the payments to date in November of last year. Loraine's payments to date have increased this year while Colorado City and Westbrook payments have dropped behind.

Colorado City received $30,187.85 this period, compared to $32,861.87 for the same period last year. The 1986 payments to date are $238,780 down 3.27 percent from the 1985 payments to date of $246,860.

Westbrook received $1,192.80 this period, compared to $2,089.45 for the same period last year. The 1986 payments to date are $11,247, down 47.34 percent from the 1985 payments to date of 1,230.

Loraine received $1,175 this period, compared to $992.34 for the same period last year. The 1986 payments to date are $5,946 compared to the 1985 payments to date of $4,658.

November checks represent taxes collected on sales in September and reported to the comptroller by Oct. 20.

Teachers named to committee

The Colorado Independent School District board of trustees named 14 teachers to the 1986-87 textbook committee Monday night.

The teachers, along with Supt. Charlie Uselton, will select textbooks for the 1987-88 school year.

The teachers named are Janet Mayo, Juan Espinoza, Rita Hardegree, Monya Sanders, Debbie Blair and Jennifer Jenkins, reading; Brenda Johnson, handwriting; Orphie Conner, Texas History and geography; Sonja Hanks, earth science; Tom Kelly, driver's education; Jerold Epperson, health education; Leanne Beights, typing and word processing; Rick Robinson, U.S. government; and Walt Staats, chemistry I.

The board also adopted two school board policies as presented by Colorado High School principal Jerry Reynolds. One policy sets a two-week time limit for changing student schedules at the first of each semester and the second specifies that grades of local credit courses as well as required courses will be calculated for student grade point averages.

The board approved a tax refund in the amount of $117.96 to Douglas Bisnette due to a clerical error and approved the appraisal district budget of $192,680 for 1987.

Asst. Supt. Don Nimmo gave a presentation on the school district's instructional goals for 1986-87 and said to achieve the goal of developing students' abilities and talents to their fullest potential, each staff member will strive to increase proficiency with lesson cycle and to increase communication with parents.

"Each teacher in the Colorado Independent School District will provide, on every instructional day, an opportunity for each student to be successful as determined by that student's ability," said Nimmo.

Nimmo commended the principals and the teachers for their desire to improve teaching methods.

"Right now, principals are spending more time in the classroom than at any time in the history of education," said Nimmo. "What we're doing is going to pay off for the kids."

Loraine man shot to death

A 28-year-old Loraine man was killed Friday night after being shot in the chest during an argument at Butler's Cafe on First Street in Colorado City.

Roberto Antonio Aguilar was pronounced dead at the scene at 11:59 p.m. by the Justice of the Peace Joan Merket.

Arrested Sunday night and charged with murder is former Colorado City resident Felix Molina, 45, who was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Billie Forbes Monday. He was placed in Mitchell County Jail with bail set at $25,000.

Colorado City Police Lt. Pat Taylor said multiple shots were fired during the incident and that there apparently was a long-standing feud between the two men.

Funeral services for Aguilar were 2 p.m. Tuesday at the First Baptist Church in Colorado City with Rev. George Flores, pastor of Emanuel Baptist Church, officiating, assisted by Rev. Alfred Valdez. Burial was in Mitchell County Cemetery under the direction of Kiker-Seale Funeral Home.

Mr. Aguilar was born July 11, 1958 in Loraine. He was an oil-field worker.

Survivors include his wife, Rose Mary Aguilar; two sons, Robert A. Aguilar Jr. and Tomas Jesus Aguilar, both of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tomas Aguilar of Colorado City; two sisters, Diana Garza of Colorado City and Gloria Carrasco of San Angelo; and five brothers, Sammy Contreras, Jesse Aguilar, Ernest Aguilar and Narcis Contreras, all of Colorado City, and Ruben Aguilar of San Angelo.

Palbearers were Manuel Godina, Andrew Gonzalez, Felix Lujan, Sammy Lujan, Bobby Martinez and Ruben Silva.

County approves septic-tank fees

Mitchell County Commissioners Monday approved permit fees for the installation and inspection of septic tanks.

The court recently approved a set of guidelines concerning private sewage facilities in the county with Jerry Hammond named county sanitarian. Fees for the initial inspection of a septic tank will be $35 with fees to pay the county sanitarian's salary.

In other business, the commissioners awarded a contract to paint four county precinct buildings to Jimmy Harrison for $5,745. He was the sole bidder.

No action was taken on a request from Precinct 1 justice of the peace Joan Merket who had requested secretarial help for typing and bookkeeping. Instead, the commissioners requested Pct. 2 justice Ruby Claxton assist Mrs. Merket on a trial basis.

Commissioners also discussed how much to charge Colorado City and other county towns for keeping their prisoners in the county jail, but reached no conclusion. Sheriff Wendell Bryant said the county currently

Testimony begins in Snyder in capital murder trial

SNYDER - Testimony got underway here Monday in the capital murder trial of Dorsie Lee Johnson, Jr., 19, of Colorado City, accused of killing Allsup store clerk Jack Huddleston on March 23 during a robbery.

Diana Allen of Snyder testified that she went to the store on March 23 and when she didn't see a clerk, looked through the partially opened door of the walk-in cooler.

She said she saw Huddleston's body face down on the floor and when she couldn't find a pulse, called police from the pay telephone outside the store.

Snyder police officer Ronald Gloyd, the first officer on the scene, offered testimony confirming Allen's physical description of the store and the position of the body when he arrived at the scene.

Also testifying Monday was Snyder Police Sgt. Don Whittenberg who said he knew Huddles-ton 10 years and that Huddleston started to work at the store several weeks before the killing.

In his opening statements, district attorney Ernie Armstrong told the jury he intends to present his case against Johnson in three phases over three days.

The 12 jurors and two alternates hearing evidence in the case are sequestered in the custody of Scurry County sheriff Keith Collier. They will remain isolated until the trial is concluded.

Nimmo said grade comparisons for the first six weeks for grades 1-12 show that 77 percent of the students were passing in 1985 compared to 83 percent this year and that attendance is up this year over last year for the fall accounting period. The average attendance for the four-week period was 95.25 percent last year and 96.6925 percent this year.

Nimmo also showed how local students ranked in comparison to other schools in this district in the Texas Educational Assessment of Minimal Skills (TEAMS) tests. He said it will take another year to see if there is an improvement in test scores as a result of the new curriculum program.

Board members were also presented a break-down of the gate receipts for the first eight Wolf football games which shows that actual revenues are just over $5,000 under budget. Uselton said that because of the lower gate receipts, athletic director Tom Ramsey has been instructed to cut his budget expenditures for the remainder of the year.

Uselton said other budget and revenue comparisons for all the football games will be available at the next board meeting.

Commissioner Paul Hunter suggested that the county proceed at a slow pace with new jail rates and to study the possibility of a contract with the various entities once a price is agreed upon.

Consumer protection vital

By Jim Mattox
Attorney General

Some business people view consumer protection as merely pro-consumer and anti-business. This just isn't the case. The Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act seeks to put a stop to false, misleading and deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of trade and commerce. Its aim is to put a stop to outright fraud. This isn't anti-business. It's anti-BAD business.

The consumer protection law was supported by many diverse organizations—including the Texas Retail Federation—when it was being considered by the legislature in 1973. Why? Because business people realized that by maintaining high ethical standards in the marketplace in general, all legitimate businesses benefit from renewed confidence by consumers.

We have told you about the numerous complaints we receive from consumers on various matters. In addition, we hear from businesses that want us to know about other businesses violating the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act. Violations of the law, such as false advertising, hurt not only the public but also businesses that compete by advertising honestly.

My Consumer Protection attorneys recently sued a large department store chain that had been advertising books at half price. After investigating, we learned that the books were reprints of older materials and had been manufactured to be sold at the price the store claimed was reduced.

Our investigators also learned that the stores regularly advertised sales on items that had never before been stocked in the stores. The merchandise was purchased specifically to be sold at the "sale" price.

Of course, these activities are in violation of the consumer protection laws and attract customers away from businesses that advertise truthfully.

As a result of the lawsuit, the chain has agreed to stop its false advertising and to pay a fine.

Student dance, contest scheduled

A student dance and dance contest sponsored by the Crime Prevention Unit of the Colorado City Police Department will be held Saturday from 8 p.m.-midnight at the Civic Center. Cost will be $4 per person, $6 per

The dance contest will be for the first eight couples to register at the Colorado City Police Department. The dance contestants must bring music of their choice on cassette tape no longer than two minutes.

First prize will be $25, second, $20 and third, $10.

Coles presents Garden Club program

Garden Club members heard Mrs. Roy Davis Coles, experienced gardener, at Wednesday's meeting in the C. C. Thompson Room. "Indoor Gardening" was the topic discussed.

"Whenever you re-pot, the nutrients in the soil will supply your plant with enough food for 30 to 60 days. Observe the plant often to give proper attention during this stress period," Mrs. Coles said.

"Most plants today come in plastic, decorative ceramic or metal containers. In these containers, plants need less fertilizer than those in clay pots.

"Water and food seep through clay pots but not non porous materials. Use less water with plastic.

"There are two types of fertilizer. One is for flowering, fruiting plants. The other, called "all purpose", may be used on the foliage plants. Both contain nitrogen, phosphorous, potassium and small amounts of trace elements. Liquid feeder is convenient to use for it is balanced.

"A gardener should know proportions because plant requirements are different. Look for mildew and rot, and keep leaves clean."

For showing, Mrs. Coles had a prayer plant, sansevieria and a cast iron plant given by her by the late Mrs. Jerold Riordan. Mrs. Coles has shared hers with others also. Guides for feeding, watering, light and tender, loving care were stressed.

Handouts on indoor gardening were given to the members.

Mrs. O. B. Trulock presided at the business session. A letter of appreciation from the Chamber of Commerce, thanking Garden Club members for help at the Mitchell County Fair, horticulture division, was read.

Membership present voted to donate $50 to the Big Spring Veterans Hospital for Christmas gifts.

Mrs. Genevieve Moore was introduced as a new member. She was an active member of an El Paso club before moving here.

Coffee and apple strudel were served by hostesses Mrs. W. O. Daniel and Mrs. Stephen DeCovic.

Others attending were Mmes. Frank Brownfield, A. R. Davis, Gerald Gordon and C. C. Myers.

Next meeting will be the annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Bruce Johnson.

Refund application sought by TUEC

Texas Utilities Electric Company has filed an application with the Public Utility Commission asking authorization to refund about $58.4 million to its customers.

The company also is asking authorization to decrease fuel revenue by about $42.8 million from the level previously approved in early 1986.

The company is asking the PUC to decrease its composite charge for fuel from 2.45 cents per kilowatt-hour to 2.19 cents. Because of the lower fuel charge, the average residential customer will save about $30 per year, a 3.7 percent reduction.

The proposed reduction in the fuel charge will be the second for TUEC customers this year. The charge was reduced in March, lowering residential customers' bills by about 5 percent annually.

TUEC had announced on Oct. 15 that it planned to ask approval of the refund and a lower fuel charge.

The $58.4 million refund represents a continuation of savings to customers brought about by lower costs for fuel used to make electricity.

Under the company's proposal, the refund would be made through a credit to bills in the first billing month after commission approval. Residential customers would receive refunds averaging about $10.

The company also has made two previous refunds this year—a $140 million refund in May and a $64.8 million refund in October.

The year-long savings to customers have been made possible by the declining cost of natural gas, which has allowed TUEC to pursue lower-priced fuel supplies. The company's average cost of gas has declined from $3.74 per million BTU in 1984 to $3.41 in 1985 and $2.88 for the 12 months ended in September, 1986. The company expects its average cost of gas to be $2.54 per million BTU in 1987.

Texas Utilities Electric Company provides electric service to about one-third the population of Texas through its operating divisions—Dallas Power & Light, Texas Electric Service and Texas Power & Light.

Agencies need secure communications tools

By Lloyd Bentsen
United States Senator

For $12.95 anyone—drug smugglers included—can mail order a catalog detailing the radio frequencies used by the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other federal agencies.

Then, with a simple scanner purchased at a consumer electronics store, anyone can listen to the radio conversations of our law enforcement agents—broadcast mostly in the clear, without voice encryption or frequency security.

It's no secret to drug smugglers that they can simply and legally obtain that catalog. They know they don't have to buy a van crammed with sophisticated electronics gear to avoid being caught in the net of a drug bust.

This is a ridiculous situation. We spend hundreds of millions of dollars a year fighting drug traffickers, yet we do nothing to stop these criminals from electronically snooping on our tactical communications of our law enforcement agencies. For example, when DEA requested $7 million this year for secure voice walkie-talkies, the Office of Management and Budget completely cut the funding.

The original version of the comprehensive anti-drug bill recently approved by the Senate included funds for secure voice communications equipment for the Customs Service and Coast Guard.

But it left out the DEA, the FBI, and the Secret Service—which is often drawn into drug trafficking investigations while enforcing credit card fraud and counterfeiting laws.

To remedy this, I introduced—and the Senate has approved—an amendment to provide these three agencies with secure communications equipment. It increases the total cost of the anti-drug bill by $9 million. To close such a serious gap, this one-time expense is a small price to pay.

And when Congress reconvenes, I will continue my long-time fight to improve the tools we have to combat drug smuggling—especially in Texas.

Back in 1978, I authored the Psychotropic Substances Act which restricted purchase of a key ingredient in the drug PCP or "angel dust," and stiffened penalties for trafficking in PCP—which produces horrifying psychotic reactions.

In 1983, the Caribbean Basin Initiative included my amendment requiring cooperation in U.S. drug fighting efforts from countries wanting CBI benefits.

The Comprehensive Crime Control Act of 1984 contained two Bentsen anti-drug provisions. One increased the maximum sentence for trafficking in non-narcotic drugs—such as angel dust, LSD and amphetamines—to the same as the maximum 15-year and $25,000 sentence for trafficking in narcotic drugs—such as heroin, morphine and codeine. Second-offenders are now subject to 30 years in prison and a $50,000 fine.

Another provision I authored allows the Federal Aviation Administrator to revoke the licenses of pilots involved in drug smuggling. Smugglers who fly after their licenses are revoked risk five years in prison and a $25,000 fine.

And last year, the DEA Administrator complied with my request to restrict use of the drug MDMA or "ecstasy," thus making its abuse illegal.

While cocaine confiscations on the Texas-Mexico border were skyrocketing from nine pounds in 1983 to 846 pounds in 1985, the number of drug enforcement agents in Texas—from both the DEA and Customs—remained at about 180. I went to the mat many times during those years to fight repeated attempts to take away some of those agents.

All indications are that the latest war on drugs will mean a beefed up federal drug enforcement presence in our state.

SPORTLIFE LENSES...FEATURE A COATING THAT IS ACTUALLY A SERIES OF COATINGS.....
*First, a special yellow-brown coating is applied to the concave side of the lens. This special combination of materials increases visual acuity and aids "seeing" regardless of weather conditions even when it's overcast.
*Next, on the convex side, a double-gradient filter is applied which is designed to reduce glare from above and below.
*Finally, a reflection-reducing coating is applied to the concave side, and is instrumental in reducing reflections from behind. The Final result of this process is a lens capable of eliminating 100% of ultra-violet light, 80% of infra-red light and 90% of distracting blue light to provide the wearer with optimum eye protection and distortion-free viewing comfort. Church to hold anniversary

Payne Chapel C.M.E. Church, 700 Front Street, will hold its 103rd anniversary celebration at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 16.

The Rev. Earl L. Shelton, pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, will preach the anniversary sermon.

The congregation, now known as Payne Chapel Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, was organized in 1883. The organization of the congregation was due largely to the efforts of William Baxter and Mesdames Emily Alexander, Flora Dunn and Amanda Vanella (Nellie) Everett.

Growing out of services held jointly by members of the Baptist and Methodist faith, the Methodist congregation was formally organized in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Dunn by the Rev. J. I. Turner of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church.

Rev. S. H. Washington served as pastor from 1883 to 1888 when he was succeeded by Rev. J. E. Payne, who was concerned about a suitable place to worship. A church building, completed in 1889, was located where the Dawson Hotel now stands. The church was named "Payne Chapel" in honor of Rev. Payne.

In 1909, the congregation moved to its present location on Front and Erie Streets. In 1964, the name of the church was changed to "Payne Chapel Christian Methodist Episcopal Church."

Rev. James R. Galbreath has been pastor of the church since 1983.

Wolves end 1986 season 1-8-1

Friday's 28-8 loss to Sonora here Friday night was a fitting end for the Colorado City Wolves' 1986 football season.

Defense kept the Pack within range of victory. After struggling the first half, the Wolves got on the scoreboard and back into the game only to have it slip away. The record for the Pack will go down as 1-8-1 and 1-6 for district 5AAA play.

Frustration probably best describes the latest Colorado High School gridiron year. The frustration of 23 fumbles and 21 interceptions that did more to halt the Wolves than any opponent did.

And the frustration of a usually tough defense breaking at the most unopportune times.

Just last week Sonora took a 14-0 lead on plays of 76 and 42 yards. The Wolves made it 14-8 with a score by Beau Rees but six fumbles make it hard to win any game.

It's (turnovers) not something positive to dwell upon but nothing else sticks out like that thorn. Unless it's youth, which was a cause and/or addition to the Wolves woes. Injuries played another big part on a team already lacking in depth.

"I guess I'm somewhat disappointed," said head CHS coach Tom Ramsey of the just completed season. "We played pretty well most of the time."

"We might have played probably our best game against a good football team. We just didn't make it."

"We're so young. We only started one senior defensively and two offensively so we'll have everybody back for next year. I can't see any other bright spots. We made too many mistakes."

One bright spot has to be junior Ismael Silva's passing in the final game. Silva completed 7 of 9 throws for 88 yards.

Silva split time with fellow junior Cary Ritchey and the two combined for 1,169 yards passing while opponents passed for 989 yards. The Wolves completed 81 of 206 passes for a 39 percent completion rate, 21 interceptions and six touchdowns.

"I rate them pretty even," said Ramsey. "Earlier when one was on the other was off. They're very comparable in size, speed and strength. I would like to go with one starter next year—whichever takes the job over. They both have the experience now and one's going to have to be the starter and the other the backup."

Opponents completed 55 of 117 passes for 47 percent with eight interceptions and six touchdowns.

On the ground the Wolves rushed for 985 yards to 2,143 for opponents. Colorado City made 12 first downs a game while allowing 16.

The Wolves lost 23 of 46 fumbles while recovering 12 of 31 bobbles by opponents.

Leading rusher for the Wolves was sophomore Beau Rees, who gained 346 yards and 107 carries for a 3.2 average. Because of injuries, Rees was the only back to carry in all ten games and the only runner to average over ten carries per game. Rees had a season high 75 yards on 18 carries in a 14-0 loss to Wylie.

Senior Ralph Gonzales added 267 yards on 77 carries for a 3.5 average. Gonzales saw limited duties because of injuries—carrying in eight games and over ten times in only four contests. Gonzales rushed for 94 yards and 17 carries against Coahoma and for 84 on 18 carries against Wylie.

Senior Terry Jackson began the season with 106 yards on 19 carries in a season opening tie with Slaton but missed six games completely because of a deep thigh bruise.

Ritchey had timely gains from his quarterback position and ended with 128 yards running.

Leading receiver for the Wolves was Michael Swann, who caught 16 passes for 280 yards and an 18 yard average per catch. Also with 16 catches was Reggie Gardner, whose 223 yards gave him a 14 yard average.

Marty Cleckler made 15 receptions for 233 yards on a 16 yard average. Larry Mayes averaged 32 yards on five catches for 156 yards. Rees added 69 yards on 11 receptions while Ricky Arispe had 95 yards receiving on eight catches.

The Wolves were outscored 275-103. Rees led the Wolves scoring with four rushing touchdowns and one extra point run for 26 points. Scoring two touchdowns were Jackson on the ground while Swann and Gardner caught two passes for scores.

Other scores were runs by Jerry Hulme, Silva and Gonzales, catches by Cleckler and Mayes and an interception return by Ritchey.

Silva kicked the only three successful point after attempts.

Ballinger won the district title with a 7-0 mark and takes its 10-0 and number three ranked record to a first round playoff game against 6AAA runnerup Iowa Park. Clyde, 5AAA runnerup at 5-2, plays 6AAA champ Breckenridge. They were followed by Brady, Merkel and Sonora at 4-3, Wylie at 3-4, Colorado City at 1-6 and Coahoma—the only team the Wolves beat—at 0-7.

Loraine Bulldogs 6-0
in first sixman season

The 1986 football season ended for a lot of Texas high schools Friday night—except for those teams whose records qualified them for the state playoffs.

An exception to that rule can be found over at Loraine High School.

The Bulldogs defeated Midland Christian 46-36 Friday night in a season-ending Homecoming game that gave the Gold and Black an undefeated 6-0 record. It was the second victory by the Bulldogs over Midland Christian.

Loraine began the season by defeating Midland Christian at Midland after having dealt Paint Rock's junior varsity a loss. The Bulldogs followed with wins over Strawn and Patton Springs then moved to 5-0 with a forfeit win over Christoval.

Loraine had games against Panther Creek and Midland Baptist cancelled before Friday's win at home against Midland Christian.

Loraine had Midland down 46-6 at one point and coach Tommy Meredith used the opportunity to give playing time to all Bulldogs.

Loraine led 14-0 after one period on a 15 yard run by Ector Castro and 5 yard pass from Eddie Benitez to Freddie Benitez. Castro kicked for the extra points after Benitez's score.

After Midland closed to within 14-6 Loraine made a 34-6 half-time lead on a 37 yard run by Rudy Sanchez, a 65 yard score on a downfield pitch from E. Benitez to F. Benitez and a 10 yard run by E. Benitez.

A safety recorded by Castro made it 36-6. Benitez passed 35 yards to Castro for another third quarter score before Castro ended Loraine's scoring with a 28 yard field goal.

The Bulldogs gained 568 total yards to 243 for Midland. Sanchez rushed 19 times for 220 yards and adding 123 on 6 carries was Castro. Leading tacklers were Freddie Benitez and Castro, who were in on 20 and 14 tackles respectively.

It was another big night in a big, winning season for the Bulldogs, who completed their first ever sixman season. Therein lies the problem. Loraine dropped down to sixman too late to join a district so there was no playoff spot to earn.

"Apparently it's Loraine's best season in a long, long time," said Meredith. "The kids are really excited. It's really changed their attitude. Hopefully we can follow in Jayton's footsteps."

The Jaybirds, defending state sixman champs, also have yet to lose since making the drop to sixman.

"The season exceeded my expectations," said Meredith, who added that there is a "slim to no" hope of joining a district for next season.

For the season, Sanchez gained 674 yards on 65 carries for a 112.3 yards per game average. Castro was second with 248 yards on 27 carries and Shawn Finley added 157 on 27 tries.

Eddie Benitez completed 38 of 65 passes for 853 yards, 12 touchdowns, 2 extra point conversions and 2 interceptions.

Leading receiver was Freddie Benitez with 12 receptions for 280 yards and 3 scores. Sanchez made 130 yards on 8 catches for 2 scores and Castro caught 5 for 143 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Sanchez led Loraine's scoring with 78 points followed by Castro with 60 and F. Benitez with 36. F. Benitez, Finley, E. Benitez, Sanchez and Castro were the leading tacklers in that order. Regardless of how they did it the 1986 Bulldogs went undefeated. No one or no asterisk can take that away.
