Purchasing procedures of the Federal government will be the topic of discussion at a conference scheduled Oct. 3 at Lubbock.

The conference is being sponsored by Congressman George H. Mahon of the 19th District of Texas in cooperation with the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Purchasing officers of the Federal government will be on hand to meet with businessmen from throughout the region. Notices of the session indicate that some 40 Federal purchasing specialists will be available to talk to businessmen on sales opportunities in government. They will not only represent the military, or defense, agencies, but a number of civilian agencies as well, all of whom purchase millions of dollars worth of items from a variety of sources each year.

The conference was arranged to give businessmen in this area an opportunity to learn procedures for selling products or merchandise to the Federal agencies.

According to Harry C. Meyers, director, U. S. Department of Commerce Field Office at Dallas, the Federal personnel and material assembled at the conference would require businessmen three months in time and $3,000 in cash to contact individually. Also, it was noted that the Defense Department also will have on hand at the conference approximately $50 million of current invitations to bid and requests for proposals.

Anyone who would like to do business with the Federal government should find the conference informative.

J. D. Hinton is a good example of the ever-optimistic Aggie. Submitting his selections as guest forecaster on the Daily News' first football forecasting weekend, Hinton penciled in an extra contest at the bottom of his ballot: "Texas A&M vs. The Southwest Conference."

He circled the Aggies as winners, of course. The Snyder High Tigers got a unanimous vote of confidence on the Daily News ballot, but elsewhere nearly everybody was picking Dunbar. A lot of people don't like to go against defending champions. —WACIL McNAIR.

Document Shows Pueblo Told To Snoop

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The USS Pueblo was told to snoop on Soviet ships passing near Japan as a follow-up to her electronic surveillance of North Korea, a U.S. document shows.

The intelligence ship was supposed to visually inspect and photograph Soviet naval vessels, openly, while returning to the U.S. base at Sasebo, Japan.

The additional mission was forestalled when the North Koreans captured the Pueblo—in North Korean territorial waters, they claim—on Jan. 23, four days before she would have headed for Sasebo.

The secondary snooping job was disclosed for the first time Thursday as the U.S. government broke out of secrecy a Jan. 5, 1968 order to refute a new North Korean allegation.

The North Korean radio said the Pueblo was authorized to go as near as three miles from the North Korean coast, under a Feb. 28, 1966 order. The United States recognizes a three-mile limit. North Korea claims 12.

The State Department acknowledged such an order went out to "a great many" Navy vessels operating near foreign shores but this was superseded in the case of the Pueblo by a specific instruction Jan. 5, 1968.

That message, couched in cryptic, often garbled military lingo, set out general details for the Pueblo's North Korea spy assignment, code-named "Ichythymic One."

A key passage, so far as the U.S. government's effort to refute the North Korean claim is concerned, said:

"CPA (closest point of approach) to Korcom (Communist Korea)-Soviet Land Mass-Offshore islands will be thirteen NM (nautical miles).

Said State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey:

"We continue to have no reason to believe that the captain of the Pueblo did not adhere to the 13-mile restriction in his sailing order."

The instruction told Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, skipper of the Pueblo, to leave Sasebo about Jan. 8, proceed through the Tsushima Straits and up the Korean coast to operational areas designated Mars, Venus and Pluto.

These were Sea of Japan zones delineated on a north-south basis by the 39th to the 42nd parallels.

The Pueblo, according to the publicly released copy of the order, was to operate from 13 miles offshore to 60 miles out between the 39th and 42nd parallels.

Under these guidelines she would have been permitted to go to within about 20 miles of Soviet territory adjacent to northern North Korea.

NEAR CAMBODIAN BORDER

Allies Battle Strong Force

SAIGON (AP) — Allied forces battled strong enemy troops in two areas near the Cambodian border and killed at least 217 of them under a rain of bombs, artillery and machine-gun fire, military spokesman reported today.

An American task force reinforced by tanks and dive-bombers clashed with a North Vietnamese regiment in a 14-hour fight Thursday that swirled through rubber plantations in an arc north to east of the pivotal district town of Loc Ninh, 65 miles north of Saigon.

U.S. Headquarters said 113 enemy troops were killed. But more important, a U.S. intelligence officer said, "We think we probably pre-empted an attack on the city."

Fourteen Americans were killed and 60 wounded.

The enemy force was believed to be the North Vietnamese 32nd Regiment which moved down from the central highlands earlier this summer to bolster the veteran North Vietnamese 7th Division operating north of Saigon.

Fighting eased off during the night. The enemy regiment could have slipped back across the border into Cambodia, out of bounds to American troops, leaving a rear guard to cover its withdrawal. Enemy gunners slammed 25 mortar rounds into the Loc Ninh airstrip during the night.

The Viet Cong tried unsuccessfully to take Loc Ninh last November and more than 1,500 of their men were killed.

The fighting last November was the first phase of an attempt to draw allied troops to the border area and tie them up while enemy forces maneuvered into position for massive assaults on cities, towns and allied installations.

U.S. officers think the Communist command may be trying the same thing with their attacks on Loc Ninh and Tay Ninh, the provincial capital 50 miles to the southwest.

Enemy gunners poured 600 mortar rounds and rocket grenades early today into an artillery camp of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division just outside Tay Ninh, then enemy soldiers tried to storm the camp.

The attackers knifed through the northwest barbed wire perimeter, but American troops in armored personnel carriers turned 50-caliber machine guns and artillery point-blank into the 500 charging enemy troops. Jet fighter-bombers and helicopter gunships swooped out of the darkness and raked the invaders.

The main part of the enemy force which invaded Tay Ninh on Wednesday appeared to have escaped with only minor losses. Only a few enemy bodies were found, but late field reports said 37 South Vietnamese marines, paratroopers and militiamen had been killed and 120 wounded in clearing the city and its suburbs. Eight civilians caught in the crossfire were reported killed and another six wounded.

U.S. Headquarters reported two convoys from the 25th Division were ambushed Thursday on the outskirts of Tay Ninh, with three Americans killed and 15 wounded.

Fortas Nixes New Queries

WASHINGTON (AP)—Justice Abe Fortas refused today to appear again before the Senate Judiciary Committee, which resumed hearings with testimony he was paid $15,000 to conduct a summer seminar at American University.

Dean B. J. Tennery of the university's law school told the committee, in its consideration of Fortas' nomination to be chief justice, that Paul A. Porter, a former Fortas law partner, helped raise funds for the seminar.

Tennery, a surprise witness before the committee, said Fortas had left the matter of compensation to him. "I did not even discuss with the justice what compensation he should receive," the dean said.

Earlier this morning Fortas declined the committee's invitation to return for further "interrogation." He testified over four days in July on his nomination.

In a letter to the committee chairman, Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., Fortas noted the "lack of precedent for such appearance," also his "respect for the Senate" and his "profound and unshakeable devotion to the court and the Constitution."

And yet he did not explain specifically why he would not return.

The chief opponent of Fortas' confirmation, Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., said: "There can be no excuse for this refusal, which leaves the committee record incomplete."

The American University seminar, "Law and the Social Environment," was a nine-week course which met at least two hours each week. Earlier this week Tennery told a reporter that Fortas had met with the students, about 17, at least once a week.

Snyder Firm Low Bidder

Price Construction, Inc., Snyder, was the apparent low bidder for raising five oil well mounds in the Robert Lee lake basin when proposals were received Thursday by the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

Price offered to construct the five earthen mounds, with rock rip facings, for $39,830. The second low bidder was Roland Scherer, Weatherford, who figured the job at $75,073. The trird bidder was Lyles and Lyles, Ballinger, who submitted a proposal for $80,565. Price's bid was for 41 cents a yard on dirt work and $4 a yard on rip rap. The mounds are in the upper end of the basin for the new lake the CRMWD will impound in Coke County.

Mrs. Barron, former secretary at the Chamber of Commerce office, has been named temporary chairman of the women's group, and other sessions are planned to establish a permanent women's committee.

SOME CHARGES—SOME APOLOGIES

Candidates Busy With Words

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey has assailed Republican presidential rival Richard M. Nixon by name while Nixon's running mate was all but apologizing for a verbal attack on Humphrey.

"I am not concerned about the 'new Nixon' or the 'old Nixon.' What worries me is the real Nixon," Humphrey told a rally at Sea Girt, N.J., Thursday night.

Humphrey labeled Nixon as "that man who abused Mr. Truman, who heaped scorn on Adlai Stevenson, who fought John Kennedy every step of the way," and who has opposed efforts of President Johnson.

In Rochester, N.Y., the GOP vice presidential nominee, Spiro T. Agnew, said he erred describing Humphrey as "squishy soft on communism." Agnew said if he had realized the effect the statement would have, "I would have turned five somersaults to avoid saying it."

Nixon called for new leadership to restore respect for the United States around the world and urged a halt in trade with allies of North Vietnam as he campaigned Thursday in Indianapolis, Ind., and New Orleans, La.

"It is time we made clear that the flag of the United States is nobody's doormat," Nixon said.

Humphrey's running mate, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, also stepped up his attack on Nixon and charged, 'Unfortunately in this campaign, as in all the last 20 years, he has shown adeptness more at running against, than running for, a program for this country."

Third party candidate, George Wallace was heckled in Milwaukee, Wis., by pickets who shouted, "Bigot, bigot, bigot." Earlier Wallace said, "The worst bigots in the country are those who call other people bigots."

About 500 civil rights supporters walked out of the jammed 6,100-seat auditorium where Wallace spoke in Milwaukee. Wallace declared, "The anarchists in this country had better have their day now, because after Nov. 5, they're through."

NATO TROOPS OUTNUMBERED

Red Buildup Sparks Concern

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials say intelligence reports indicate the Soviet Union has built up its army in Eastern Europe to more than 50 divisions, about twice the number maintained by the West on the other side of the Iron Curtain.

While the Soviet divisions are said to be in very high state of readiness, some NATO divisions are below strength and lacking in sustained logistics support, by U.S. standards.

U.S. intelligence reports, charting Soviet moves connected with the occupation of Czechoslovakia, have sparked deep concern that the balance of power in Eastern and Central Europe has shifted against the West.

Officials stress they are talking about the threat in terms of Soviet capability rather than any Russian intent to attack.

Before the Russians led a Warsaw Pact invasion of Czechoslovakia on Aug. 20, the Soviet Union maintained 20 divisions in East Germany, two in Poland and four in Hungary.

NATO nations arrayed a total of 24 divisions in and near West Germany. France, no longer part of NATO, nonetheless contributed to Western military strength with two divisions in West Germany.

While the figures vary from nation to nation, a Soviet division contains about 10,000 men. An American division has about 15,000 men, exclusive of support troops.

Some of the Russian divisions invading Czechoslovakia came from East Germany and Poland, others from the Soviet Union itself.

According to the latest U.S. intelligence analysis, Russia now has 17 divisions in Czechoslovakia where there were none before the invasion.

Six of these divisions are deployed within striking distance of the Czech-West German border, which until Soviet occupation was manned only by Czech guards.

U.S. military authorities say the Russians are now astride a main avenue of approach to such important German cities as Munich and Nuremberg.

Israelis Report New Arab Attacks

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Israeli army reported attacks by Arab forces on three fronts today. At the same time an Egyptian military spokesman said two Israeli jets flew over the Suez area but were driven off by antiaircraft fire.

An Israeli army spokesman in Tel Aviv said "it was purely coincidental" that fighting broke out at virtually the same time on Israel's fronts with Syria, Jordan and Egypt. He added he saw no significance in any of the clashes.

The spokesman said Egyptian troops on the Suez Canal, scene of heavy fighting last Sunday, raked Israeli troops twice with light-arms fire at Port Taufiq on the southern end of the waterway.

The Tel Aviv spokesman said Israeli troops withheld return fire.

The spokesman made no mention of Cairo's claim that two Israeli jets flew into the Suez area apparently on a reconnaissance mission. The Egyptian spokesman said antiaircraft guns opened up when the planes flew over Egyptian troops in the area at 10:30 a.m.

On the Jordanian front, Israelis and Jordanians fought an artillery duel across the River Jordan in the Beisan Valley, south of the Sea of Galilee, the Isreli spokesman said. He claimed the Jordanians started the fight by shelling Israel's Yardena settlement,

DEAR ABBY: I am so burned up right now I could be treated for 3rd degree burns.

Last week, seven girls and I were to be in a big church wedding which never took place. All of us girls had paid for our own gowns, shoes to match, head pieces, and accessories, which came to a nice sum. FOUR days before the wedding the bride changed her mind and called the wedding off!

I think it's the bride's duty to pay us girls back for the money we forked out. Only two of the other girls agree with me. What do you think?

BUNRNED

DEAR BURNED: I think it would be lovely if all the brides who "changed their minds" were able to reimburse the girls for the money they "forked out." Unfortunately, few are. I'm afraid you are out of luck and out of pocket. I don't blame you for being "burned up," but try to cool off before you make an ash of yourself.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, having raised a fine family. They're all over 21 now. Their father has been gone since they were mere babies. I had no financial help, so it has been a struggle.

My husband died in a sanitarium from a form of insanity as a result of a social disease. (I told everyone he had a "stroke" and it affected his brain.)

My children have never questioned their father's illness or death. I have always built him up as a fine man. He was, in a way, but he paid with his life for his indiscretions.

How much should I tell my children? Part of it? Or all of it?

FEELING GUILTY

DEAR FEELING: None of it. I can't think of one good reason for you to now destroy the fine image your children have of their father. In this case your silence is more golden than 'guilt.'

DEAR ABBY: Aunt Lucy was widowed, and being up in years she didn't have much to do. She had always enjoyed writing, mostly poems and little short stories. I work for a newspaper so she let me read her "collection," and white they were sweet, they had no literary style or special value. But Lucy's friends thought they were "wonderful" and urged her to find a publisher.

All the legitimate publishers she sent her stuff to, sent it back immediately. But Lucy kept trying, and she finally found a "publisher."

For $2,000 they promised to publish her "masterpieces of literature" and practically guaranteed her a best seller with TV and radio interviews and autograph parties in all the major cities, etc.

I told Aunt Lucy not to send them $2,000, which she could ill afford, but she did anyway.

A few months later, she was delivered 50 copies of her "book," which she was asked to distribute to book stores, newspapers, etc. The public libraries wouldn't touch them, and the ones in the local bookstores failed to sell and were given back to her.

Finally her publishers told her they couldn't promote a book that didn't even sell in her home town, and they offered to SELL her (at half price!) all those they had on hand. (This, after she'd paid $2,000!) They said she could either try to sell them herself, or give them to friends as gifts.

Needless to say, Aunt Lucy is heart - broken. I don't know how these "publishers" can get away with this sort of thing, but apprently it's all legal. Perhaps if you print this letter it may save others from being hurt.

DEAR CONCERNED: May I add another helpful note: People who enter into "business deals" should FIRST consult a competent lawyer before signing anything. And would - be-authors would do well to work thru professional literary agents.

City Will Take Over HemisFair

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — HemisFair will close Oct. 6 and will be re-opened by the city the next morning under a new name—and at cut-rate prices, it was announced Thursday.

The fairgrounds will automatically be turned over to the city when Hemis-Fair ends its six-month run

On Oct. 7, plans tentatively approved Thursday call for it to become "Fiestaland," or "Fiestafair" as a second choice, with admission only 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. It would be open at least three months.

There is one hitch. Many of the exhibits will be closed, the kiddie rides aren't expected to remain, and several of the shows probably will have struck their sets and headed for new engagements.

The Tower of the Americas, the Institute of Texas Cultures, some restaurants and several boutiques are expected to remain open. Such rides as the mini-monorail probably will continue operations.

The announcement came after city councilmen tentatively approved the plan at an informal conference Thursday.

Czechs Plan More Talks With Soviets

By GENE KRAMER
Associated Press Writer

PRAGUE (AP) — Premier Oldrich Cernik said today that top Czechoslovak and Soviet leaders will meet again soon to discuss the "gradual" withdrawal of Soviet-bloc occupation troops from Czechoslovakia.

Cernik gave no date for the talks. He told the National Assembly the withdrawal still depends on "normalization" in Czechoslovakia; the word used in the Aug. 26 Moscow agreement produced by earlier negotiations. This has been interpreted to mean until the Kremlin's demands are met for a rollback in Czechoslovak liberal policies.

The assembly was called into session to approve a censorship law incorporating instructions issued to newspapers and broadcast stations two weeks ago when Soviet occupation forces began letting them reopen. The maximum penalty provided in the law is suspension of publication for three months. The return of censorship was a major Russian demand.

Cernik said the Aug. 26 Moscow accord is a "political document containing unpostponable steps for the normalization of life in our society." He said its provisions must be carried out "honorably and thoroughly" and that it would be unwise to think that formalities would be enough.

The premier said occupation forces were withdrawing from cities and villages into "special areas, predominately military ones" and that their air forces are moving to "special airports."

In what appeared to be veiled criticism of the Soviet intervention, Cernik said "tens of millions of people are disturbed over developments in Czechoslovakia." This was true, he said, in Communist countries as well as among progressive forces in the West.

Texas Steel Plant Plans For Layoffs

HOUSTON (AP) — A company official says the Armco Steel Corp. plant in Houston will lay off about 750 workers by Sept. 30.

W. M. Rankin, manager of Armco's Houston works, said Thursday the layoffs are necessary because of a drop in steel orders. He said the layoffs will reduce Armco's normal work force of 4,400 to 3,650.

"This reduction in steel orders is typical throughout the country, and widespread curtailments in operations are occurring in the steel industry," Rankin said.

Battery-Run Artificial Arm Demonstrated

BOSTON (AP) — Battery-powered artificial arms that move just by thinking about where you want them to go have been developed by a team of doctors and engineers.

The arms were demonstrated Thursday by two men who lost their limbs in industrial accidents. The movement of the arms is controlled by muscle-generated electrical impulses and they flex like a natural arm.

Rudolph Paquin, 59, of Tiverton, R.I., said the so-called Boston arm enables him to do many more things than he can with his regular artificial arm and "without so much effort." Parker Rand Jr., 20, of Bangor, Maine, agreed the Boston arm works better.

The artificial arms are powered by small electric motors in the elbows, which get their "instructions" from minute electrical signals given off by muscles in the upper arm.

The signals are received from electrodes attached to the skin to detect electricty generated by muscles when a person wants to move his forearm.

The artificial arm weighs 2 pounds 1 ounce. The battery pack, about the size of a portable radio and carried on the waist on a shoulder strap, weighs about 3 pounds.

An amputee can lift about 10 pounds and hold about 50 pounds with the arm.

Mann estimated that with mass production the cost per arm could be less than $1,000.

Demos To Gather To Plan Platform

AUSTIN (AP) — State Democratic Chairman Will Davis has invited all Democrats interested in presenting proposals for the party's state platform to come to Austin Monday.

Davis said Thursday a platform subcommittee will meet at 1 p.m. in the Driskill Hotel. Chairman of the panel is Sen. Tom Creighton, Mineral Wells. Other members are John S. Brunson, Houston; Democratic County Chairman Joe Rich of Dallas; and County Judge Max Smith of San Marcos.

Plains To Get Free Water Purifier

PLAINS, Tex. (AP) — The DuPont Corp. of New Jersey says it will install a free-of-charge water purification and softening process in the water system of the West Texas town of Plains.

Plains, southwest of Lubbock, is in a region where the water is unusually hard and the project will be considered research.

A team of DuPont scientists has been in the city since last November when plans for the project were first initiated.

Completion is set for November 1968.

James Earl Ray May Not Testify

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — James Earl Ray, who is charged with murdering Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., may never testify in his own defense.

Arthur Hanes Sr., Birmingham attorney who is chief defense counsel, said the decision to put Ray on the stand or keep him off may not be made until "the moment the prosecution rests its case and the judge tells me to call my first witness.

"That's when I'll have to decide, because under Tennessee law the defense must call as its first witness the defendant himself," if he is to be called.

If that happens, the prosecution under cross-examination could bring out Ray's hapless record as a thief and robber and the fact that he is an escaped convict.

Ray is scheduled to go on trial in Shelby County Criminal Court here Nov. 12. He is charged with first degree murder in the sniper assassination of Dr. King, who was slain by a single bullet April 4 as he leaned on the balcony railing of a downtown motel.

The Negro apostle of nonviolence was in Memphis to give support to striking garbage workers, almost all of them Negroes, who were locked in a vitriolic battle for higher wages with the city administration.

Hanes indicated in an interview in Birmingham that he may move for postponement in the trial date. He said security precautions at the Shelby County jail are unsettling to Ray, explaining that Ray is kept in constant light and is watched continually by shifts of two guards as well as by closed-circuit television surveillance.

"He may be unfit mentally to really participate in the defense," Hanes said. "He needs some rest and privacy."

In discussing the trial and possible defense problems or maneuvers, Hanes said that "as far as anything regarding Ray's background, it is all just newspaper and magazine material.

"The jury is going to have to be found that will be able to look at Ray as though it doesn't know anything at all about the press and television reports."

Ray fled from the Missouri State Penitentiary at Jefferson City, Mo., April 23, 1967, apparently by hiding in a three-by-five bread box aboard a bakery truck being driven to a prison farm area. He had served seven years of a 20-year sentence as an habitual criminal after conviction for armed robbery.

Snyder Woman Gets Probated Sentence

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—Mrs. Peggy Nell Clinkinbeard, 33, was given a 10-year sentence but was placed on probation for her part in the March 22 armed robbery of the Texas Bank and Trust Co. of Wichita Falls.

The Snyder woman, originally identified as Peggy Nell Golden, pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery by assault.

Jerry Golden, 37, received a 25-year prison sentence after he pleaded guilty June 19 to a charge of robbery by firearms.

GI Union Officials Are Fined

KILLEEN, Tex. (AP) — City court jury recommended maximum fines of $200 each Thursday for three officers of the American Servicemen's Union after they were found guilty of vagrancy charges.

The three—Andrew Stapp, 24, president of the organization, and William Smith, 22, and Richard Wheaton, 23—said they had come to this Central Texas city to render assistance to 42 Negro soldiers who face court martials at nearby Ft. Hood.

The 42 were charged with failure to obey an officer's lawful order to disperse during a demonstration Aug. 24, on the eve of the Democratic National Convention.

Marijuana In Lubbock

LUBBOCK (AP)— Police had to use two pickup trucks Thursday to haul away a cache of marijuana found growing here. They estimated its value at $225,000 on the illicit market.

Police Capt. Wayne Love said the marijuana was growing in 14 rows, each six feet high, between two vacant houses.

No arrests were made immediately. Love said his officers had the place staked out for some time.

Officers found a barrel full of cured marijuana and other stalks piled three feet high in one of the houses.

He said the remainder of the crop was harvested by his men and all was taken to police headquarters, where it probably would be burned.

OUTSIDE LIVING, so important in vacation or second homes, is given full play in this attractive A-frame. A huge outdoor lounging area is spread across the entire front and a portion of the side, with accessibility from both the inside and outside. A large amount of storage area is tucked in under the roof eaves. The roof over the door leading to the upstairs balcony is gently curved to soften the pitch as well as provide shelter. Living area on the first floor is 608 square feet, with 260 square feet on the second floor.

Peach Pudding

1 can (16½ ounces) lemon pudding
1½ teaspoons imitation rum flavor
5 drops yellow food coloring
1 cup diced peaches X
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 layer (8-inch) yellow cake
4 eggs whites
½ cup sugar

Blend pudding, rum flavor, and food coloring; stir in peaches. Fold in whipped cream. Line 1½ quart mixing bowl with aluminum foil; pour in pudding mixture. Freeze overnight. Unmold on cake; remove foil. Place cake on cookie sheet covered with brown paper or on wooden cutting board. Beat egg whites until frothy. Add sugar a little at a time, beating after each addition. Beat until stiff peaks form. Completely cover dessert with meringue, sealing carefully to edges of cake. Freeze until just before serving time. Bake at 400 Degrees F. for 10 minutes. Makes 8 to 12 servings.

X 1 can (1 pound) sliced peacres, drained.

Chicken-Cue Drumsticks

For out-of-hand eating at the outdoor grill, sprinkle chicken drumsticks with flavor enhancer, salt and paprika. Place on grill over glowing barbecue briquets. Brush with a mixture of ¼ cup melted butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 1 teaspoon tarragon. Grill 45 minutes or until tender, turning and basting occasionally.

Don't Be All Wet About The Bath

The bathroom has been with us so long that not many remember the days before it moved into the house. Even those who do remember have lived with one - or, more likely, two baths, for so long that they take bathrooms in the house for granted.

We all applaud the mechanical efficiency of the modern bath but that should not end our concern with it. Satisfactory bathroom design today is no longer merely a question of locating fixtures in the chosen space in some workable way.

Whether we're building or remodeling a house, the baths deserve our attention. Careful thought should be given to the type of fixtures to be used, to whether the bath's location is logical in terms of the over-all house plan, whether the bath should be compartmented and whether cleaning and upkeep will be easy.

When it comes to decor, only we and our families can choose the appearance we want — and the possibilities are endless. Ceramic tile, for example, today comes in thousands of shapes, sizes, colors and patterns and offers unlimited design opportunities. Fixtures come in a great variety of colors and shades. So do accessories.

Carefully planned storage, as everywhere in the house, is important. So are arrangements for special equipment your family may want, sunlamps, exercise machines or even saunas. If children or elderly persons are to use the bath, we probably should have a lock that can be opened from the outside with a key when an emergency arises.

To get the most beautiful and serviceable bath possible requires knowledgeable decisions on our part and close collaboration with contractor and architect.

East PTA Holds First Meeting Of Year

East Elementary Parent Teachers Association held a "Get Acquainted" meeting Monday evening in the school cafeteria.

President Jack T. Riley called the meeting to order and teachers and officers were introduced. Mrs. C. W. Stansell read the minutes and Mr. Riley was nominated to go to the State Convention. Plans were also made for colored pictures to be made at school in the near future.

Mrs. Bill Love, hospitality chairman, served refreshments to approximately 150 members.

¼ teaspoon white pepper
¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon
½ teaspoon paprika
1 tablespoon curry powder
3 tablespoons flaked coconut
2½ tablespoons tomato paste
1½ cups leftover cubed roast lamb
Salt to taste

Stir together flour and 1 cup of the broth. In a 10-inch skillet over low heat melt butter; stir in onion, garlic, pepper, cinnamon, paprika, curry powder and remaining ¼ cup broth. Makes 2 large or 3 small servings.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969

Economists' Reports Bullish

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — At least two well known economic consultants to large corporations here are about to release bullish reports on prospects for the economy in 1969.

Both reports are described as surprising, even before complete data are in. They are based on surveys of spending plans for expansion by large companies.

Unexpected business confidence is shown in the reports despite higher taxes and other slowdown tactics of the Federal Reserve and the Johnson administration. Spending increases of as much as 7 per cent are foreseen.

One obvious conclusion is that business will be giving its endorsement to a balanced rather than inflated economy. Economic stability is always desired by those responsible for making large spending plans.

In general, these and other economists now foresee a flattening of the economy during the next few months, but with little likelihood of a recession, despite fears that have been expressed even by administration officials.

As inflation is squeezed from the economy, these economists feel, a foundation for real growth will begin to solidify.

In the second half of 1969, the two upcoming reports suggest, the economy will be in the mist of a resurgence. At least one of the forecasts indicates that the upturn will be sharp.

These reports tie in with what appears to be a return of business confidence in the ability of officialdom, represented by the Federal Reserve and the administration, to steer the economy in the right direction.

Confidence had fallen badly in the past two years as inflation spread almost unchecked. Optimism seems to have risen following government spending cuts, the tax increase and other measures. Hard lessons learned in the past two years may pay dividends in the future, it is felt.

Of interest to investors are records showing that stock market advances precede upturns in capital spending, which the upcoming reports indicate will be strong in the latter half of 1969, by six to 12 months.

This may or may not hold true for the stock market in 1969. Other factors, such as corporate profits, also must match increases in capital spending before a general rule can be stated.

However, some stock market analysts with unusual courage or confidence have gone out on a limb to forecast better stock prices in 1969, primarily for sound, blue chip companies that tend to benefit from stability.

Among these is John Wright, of Bridgeport, Conn., adviser to well-to-do individuals and institutions, one of whose policies is to deal almost solely in stocks of premium investment quality.

"Twelve month from now," says Wright, "today's stock market pricing of most blue chips will, in our opinion, look like a fisherman's view of the big ones that got away."

Wright feels that with inflation receding the price per share of marginal companies will retreat also and that the money will go tinto the large, blue chip companies that are less subject to short-term changes.

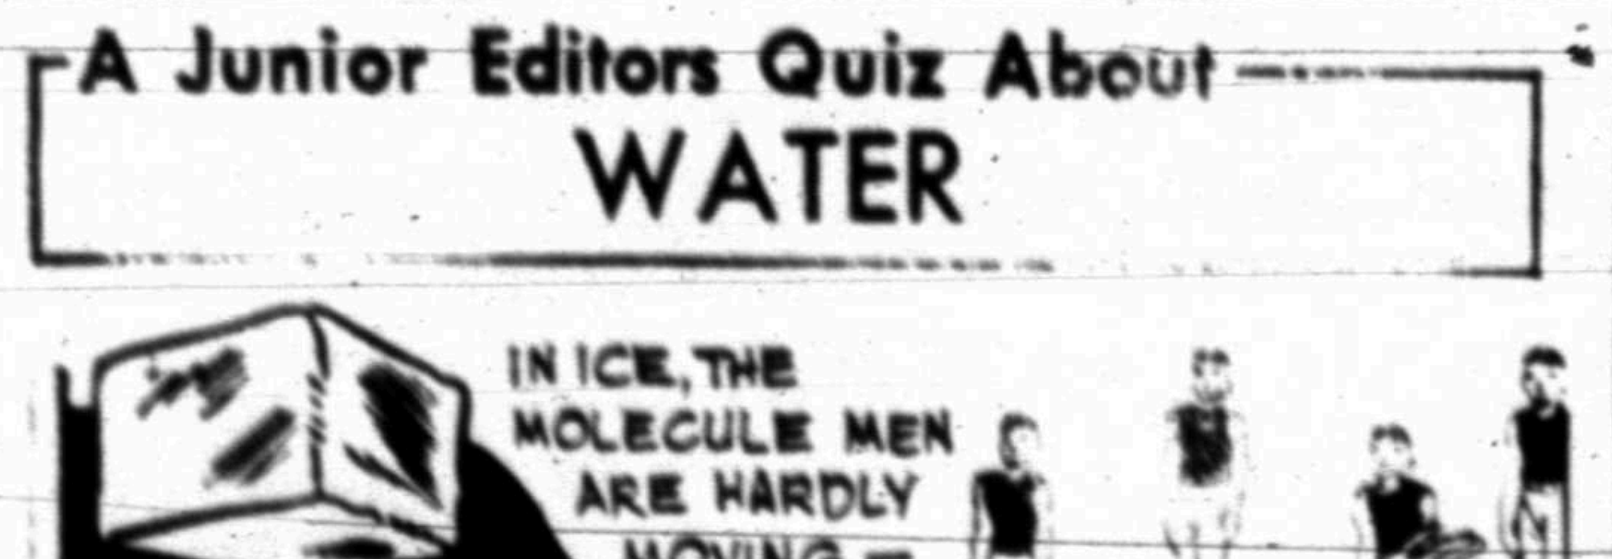
"We're at the end of one economic cycle, which began in 1960, and we're about to enter a new one," Wright says, adding that he expects to commit his own and customers' funds to the stock market by late October.

Such optimism and straight talks is rare. Although neither the directness nor uncommonness makes them correct, such attitudes do give an idea of how some economists and analysts are changing their thinking.

The fallibility of the seers is too easily realized when you consider the political, military and diplomatic hazards of 1969. Nobody can foresee events as they will occur, but they can take a position.

A few respected economists and analysts, backed by sureys and studies such as those on capital spending, now seem to be taking a stand. And in some instances their confident posture is one that a few months ago they would have darned not take.

A Junior Editors Quiz About WATER



IN ICE, THE MOLECULE MEN ARE HARDLY MOVING —
I LOVE WATER-
BECAUSE IT'S SO··
··WET
IN LIQUID WATER, THE MOLECULE MEN KEEP MOVING AROUND
coulton waugh

QUESTION: Why is water wet?

• • • •

ANSWER: Water is called by the scientists H_2O, by which is meant that it is two parts of hydrogen to one of oxygen. By water we usually mean the familiar liquid we drink and swim in. But there can be other forms of H_2O, such as the solid form (ice) and the gaseous form (steam, water vapor — some of which is always present in the air). Liquid water is wet because wetness is a characteristic of liquids. In the solid form of water — ice — the tiny molecules have moved apart into crystal forms. They are now hardly in motion, which makes ice a solid mass. But in liquid water, the molecules are decidedly in motion, and this makes water a fluid mass with no actual shape of its own. It takes the shape of its container. It is this looseness of structure which makes water wet. The surface of water has what is called surface tension; here, the molecules cling tightly together. Soap or detergents break up this surface tension and so actually make water wetter. In this condition, it is better fitted to rinse grease and dirt away.

Fashions Decidedly Fickle

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Dame Fashion refuses to behave like a lady, but she does act like a spoiled girl—contrary, demanding, unpredictable.

She's completely inconsistent. First she decrees that sunglasses must be almost bigger than the face behind them, and then she provides a purse to carry them in too small for any eyegear except contact lenses.

Each time she mandates a new mode—[illegible] [illegible] shoes more suited for weapons than wearing, footwear as squared-off as a beak of a duckbill platypus, or clumpy types a podiatrist would hesitate to prescribe even when necessary—I vow they are not for me.

By the time I finally succumb to her dictates my new shoe style has been replaced by something even more unflattering and again I'm out of step and out of style.

If I could only learn to dispose of my clothes the moment they fall from fashion I would be spared a good deal of frustration. The way I operate is to save them for years, deciding each time I attempt to make the final sacrifice that they are too good to discard. Finally, in a clean sweep of the closet, out they go. The next season, in they come—back in style.

Through the long period of the sack and shift I steadfastly refused to give up my collection of wide leather belts. At last, convinced that the waistline had gone the way of the dinosaur, I parted with them with all due ceremony. Now belts are again de rigueur and I've had to buy a whole new supply.

But I did get the best of that fickle female in one case. When my daughter was getting set to enter junior high school a number of years back, she decided to invest her entire clothes allowance in a few good skirts, although I pointed out that it was an uneconomic move since she would soon outgrow them.

Time and tide of fashion proved me wrong. As she shot up, so did the length of skirts. Each year, as her height became maxier and maxier, skirts became minier and mimer. She was still in business with her original stock.

This fall, before leaving for school, she tried them on and declared they were all too long for campus wear.

However, these ancient skirts of hers are still in use. This year they're just the right length for me.

A Little High While Reenlisting

DALLAS (AP) — Chief Petty Officer Ronald F. Brown got a little high when he shipped over for another Navy stint recently —40,000 feet high.

He was in a plane when he re-enlisted with his commanding officer, Lt. Cmdr. Darrell Murray, presiding at the ceremonies.

Brown, a 14-year veteran, is with a small test and evaluation crew attached to Collins Radio.

IN TIGER STADIUM
Battle Of Cats Set Tonight

It could produce more fireworks that a 4th of July celebration.

That is, the District 3-AAA opening battle between Snyder and Lubbock Dunbar could be a high-scoring affray. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. today in Tiger Stadium.

The visiting Panthers are defending champions and will be seeking their 8th straght 3-AAA verdiict. With one of the fastest teams in the state, Dunbar features a wide open style of attack with quarterback Frank Melton, a 155-pound junior, at the throttle. Coach James Hillyer hopes to throw the ball a little more this time around.

If so, then tonight's clash on Tiger turf could develop into an aerial circus. Junior Lee McNair, a 170-pound aerialist, is due to man the launching pad for Snyder tonight. Senior signal caller, Steve Holder, still isn't at full strength due to a muscle injury, but he could be used sparingly.

The Panthers have sort of a hully - gully type of offense, and they're liable to try anything.

"They've got so much speed they can score by accident," declared Tiger Coach Wayne Tryone.

A. G. Perryman, a 205-pound senior who made all-state as a guard last year, has been moved to fullback in the Panther attack. He probably will do most of the ball-carrying in Hillyer's I alignment. Half backs will be Earnest Davis, who normally operates as reserve quarterback, and Ronald Kinner, a returning regular.

The Panthers have size to go with their speed and, with 18 seniors, have more experience than the Bengals.

Joining McNair in the Bengal backfield — Snyder's strongpoint — are fullback David McGinnis and halfbacks Mitch Rambin and Willis Harrison. McGinnis, a 180-pound senior, alternated with Holder at quarterback last year. Rambin, a 170-pound senior, has great natural ability but was slowed with injuries last season. Harrison is a fleet 152-pound junior wingback, who was outstanding as a runner on the "B" team last year.

Plenty of topnotch runners are available to spell the first stringers. What the local staff is more concerned about is the ability of the line to hold the fast - stepping Panthers. Only four lettermen return in the trenches — guards Valvin Garcia, Tommy McDorman, Robert Sadler and Eddie Ray McClain. However, a good crop of sophomores and juniors could provide stability up front. Moreover there was a sufficient number of experienced backs that some of them can be switched to end posts.

The Tigers will have a strong first unit but are lacking in experienced reserves.

Look for the Bengals to hit the field rnning their first time out. They have proven veterans in the backfield while the Panthers may need a little more seasoning to get their timing down right.

Would you believe Snyder 21, Dunbar 20?

Card Party Set In Astrodome?

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The bubbly stuff is ready and it looks like the St. Louis Cardinals will taste it before the Detroit Tigers do.

Champagne, the traditional celebration liquid for pennant winners, will be on ice in the St. Louis dressing room at Houston this weekend as the Cards close in on their second consecutive National League pennant.

The magic number is four and with a little cooperation from Cincinnati, the Cards could wrap it up Saturday or Sunday. The Reds are in San Francisco this weekend to play the second place Giants. Any combination of four Cardinal victories—St. Louis plays the ninth place Astros three times this weekend—or Giant losses ends the race.

The American League Tigers will have to wait a little longer. Their magic number is seven after Washington whipped second place Baltimore 4-1 in the only game played Thursday.

Detroit is at home for three games with Oakland this weekend and then the streaking New York Yankees, who have won six straight, visit for three. Baltimore will be in Cleveland for three games starting tonight and then the Orioles go to Boston for a three-game set.

The earliest the Tigers can clinch is Monday and to do that, they would need help from the Indians and perhaps the Red Sox. They got plenty of help from Frank Howard against the Orioles Thursday.

The big Washington slugger slammed his 41st and 42nd home runs of the year, driving in three runs and tagging Dave McNally with his first loss in more than two months.

McNally, 20-9, had won 12 straight since the All-Star break. Howard's first home run tied the game at 1-1 in the fourth and his second shot gave the Senators a two-run bulge in the seventh.

The Tigers send Earl Wilson, 12-12, against the A's tonight with Oakland countering with Catfish Hunter, also 2-12.

In other American League games tonight, Minnesota is at Boston, Baltimore at Cleveland, California at Chicago, and New York at Washington for a twi-night doubleheader.

In the National League, Ray Washburn, 12-6, goes for St. Louis at Houston with the Astros using Dave Giusti, 8-13.

Elsewhere it will be Pittsburgh at New York, Atlanta at Los Angeles, Cincinnati at San Francisco and Chicago at Philadelphia for a twi-night doubleheader.

Golf Men To Agree?

By JAMES R. POLK
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The men who put up the money have forged two-thirds of a compromise in the player rebellion on the rich pro golf tour. But the players still are silent on whether they will accept the peace proposal.

The sponsors' plan for a new 12-man super board to govern the golf tour won acceptance Thursday from the Professional Golfers Association on the condition that the PGA continue to handle the day-to-day operations of the tournament circuit.

Gardner Dickinson, head of the players who bolted last month with plans to set up their own tour, said he would have a statement later today when he finished play in the Kemper Open at Sutton, Mass.

Arnold Palmer said immediately that he was extremely disappointed in the PGA acceptance of the super board.

Palmer, one of golf's greats, had proposed his own compromise that called for a 14-man committee, with the players filling seven of the seats. The PGA spurned that plan in endorsing the sponsors' suggestion.

The PGA agreed with the sponsors on the outline of a 12-member board with three men each from the players, the sponsors and the PGA.

Those nine would select three other members from the ranks of retired golf greats, such as Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson and Lew Worsham.

Baseballers To Throw Curve?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Baseball players may stage a mass holdout next spring in the sport's first strike, a spokesman for the players association said Thursday.

Richard Moss said players are refusing to sign contracts for the 1969 season until they can win improvements in pensions, insurance, spring training pay and other fringe benefits.

"I think the players are prepared to go all the way," Moss said.

Moss, representing the Major League Baseball Association in a legal panel on collective bargaining in professional sports, said the negotiations will open next month.

Fellowship For Gridders

A fellowship honoring football players of Snyder High School will be held Sunday evening at Colonial Hill Baptist Church.

The session will begin at 8 p.m. in the old auditorium of the church. All high school football players have special invitations to attend and they are urged to bring their dates to the fellowship.

Refreshments will be served and there will be a special program arranged by Mike Watts, Youth Director of Colonial Hill Baptist Church.

Vols, Cornhuskers Ready

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tennessee and Nebraska, two of the top 20 teams in The Associated Press' preseason poll, help kick off college football's 100th campaign Saturday. Both could lose their ranking before the day is over.

Tennessee, 9-1 a year ago before losing to Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl, is ranked No. 9. The defending Southeastern Conference champion Vols entertain SEC-rival Georgia on their new $250,000 all-weather Tartan turf in Knoxville in the first nationally televised game of the season (ABC, 3:45 p.m., EDT).

Nebraska's 13th-ranked Cornhuskers, trying to rebound from the worst season (6-4) Coach Bob Devaney ever had, are at home against Wyoming, only major team to go unbeaten in 1967 regular season play but not as strong this time around.

Other afternoon action finds North Carolina State at Wake Forest, New Mexico State at Utah State, Buffalo at Iowa State and Arkansas State at Western Michigan.

At night, Tulane is at Houston, Richmond at Toledo, Lamar Tech at West Texas State, Miami of Ohio at Xavier, Kent State at Dayton, Parsons at East Carolina, Morehead State at Marshall, Colorado State U. at New Mexico, California-Santa Barbara at Texas-El Paso and Furman at Mississippi College.

In a battle of small college powers, San Diego State, voted tops in the country last season, hosts Texas-Arlington, No. 6.

Hungry Porkers Set New Pro Type Attack

By HARRY KING

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. AP) —The Arkansas Razorbacks have turned to the wide-open pro-type offense in an attempt to perk up their running game.

Make sense? Coach Frank Broyles thinks so, or at least he hopes so.

"If the running game can't be improved, we can't expect to improve our record," Broyles says. "Our poorest running games have come in 1963 and in 1967."

The Razorbacks went 5-5 in 1963 and 4-5-1 last year—Broyles' second losing season at Arkansas in 10 years.

"We haven't had so much enthusiasm since 1964, when we went to the wide-slot I-formation," he says. "The strength of our ball club in 1968 comes from the optimism of our players."

Broyles says Arkansas is attempting "to take the basic pro passing game and fuse it with the best parts of the Arkansas running and passing attacks."

Actually, Broyles says, the ideas are not new.

"Change is the trend," he says. "This is why we led the league in defense in 1964 with a 180-yard defensive average per game. Last year, we led again, but the average jumped to 276 yards per game."

The increasing offensive changes have forced Broyles to partially abandon the 5-2 monster defense Arkansas helped popularize. Broyles says the Razorbacks will use the 4-3 protype defense often.

"Everybody gets dissatisfied with his old defense: apparently it isn't working as well as it used to," he says. "So coaches have spent the year at the drawing boards, changing."

Broyles is hopeful the new offense, which features two wide receivers and a third potential receiver stationed between the slit end and tackle, will force the opposing defenses to spread out—thereby giving some talented backs more room in which to operate.

David Dickey, who scored 16 touchdowns last year, returns at tailback along with Russell Cody, who gained 383 yards on 95 tries. A third candidate is Bill Burnett, a sophomore.

"This is a very deep position," says Broyles. "Dickey's a leader and he has great hands for catching the ball. Cody's showing great improvement. He's the quickest and is cutting down on mistakes of last year. Burnett is the shiftiest. He can break for the long one."

Fullback is also well-stocked with Glenn Hockersmith, last year's starter, and Bruce Maxwell, a bruiser who started two years ago as a sophomore but sat out last season.

Max Peacock, who snagged 25 passes during the last half of 1967, will be the split end and Chuck Dicus, a sophomore with 10 second speed and good hands, will be the flankerback.

Tight end Mike Sigman is also a capable receiver.

Who's going to run this potentially high-powered offense?

Broyles isn't saying. He'll tell you that senior Gordon Norwood, junior John Eichler and sophomore Bill Montgomery are all running on the first team at quarterback.

"I hope one of them comes to the top, but all three men will see more action this year," Broyles says. "Montgomery is the best runner. He has quick feet and a quick arm. All three are throwing well."

Broyles will admit that Montgomery, a 6-foot-1, 172-pounder from Carrollton, Tex., is an "outstanding prospect." But, reminds Broyles, he's a sophomore.

"If he is going to be No. 1, I want him to earn it on the field and not have me give it to him," says Broyles.

Broyles seems far more worried about the defense than the offense.

"The defense is suspect," he says. "If you don't believe that, then check into the number of sleeping pills my defensive coaches are taking."

Broyles says the defense has four "established" players and he tics off the names of halfback Gary Adams, safety Terry Stewart, end Tommy Dew and tackle Terry Don Phillips.

Gordon McNulty, a junior in eligibility who sat out two years after transferring from Vanderbilt, and Rick Kersey, an aggressive sophomore, should help the defensive line.

The secondary should be sound but there are some unanswered questions at linebacker.

Broyles summed up the switch to the more wide-open brand of football by saying:

"It's good for the game, good for the fans that we're making more yards, more points. It's tough on the coaches. It's sudden six. And you don't know whether it's for us or them."

Seismic Crew Busy In NW Territory

RESOLUTE, N.W.T. (AP) — An explosion shatters the high arctic stillness, and a column of dirt and water rises dramatically from the flat, treeless landscape.

Somewhere in the general area of the blast, on the northern half of Melville Island, a drilling crew next March, hoping to tap what one consultant describes as the largest untapped oil and gas basin in the Western Hemisphere.

The report from J. C. Sproule of Calgary, which followed extensive surveying of the area, led to the formation of Panarctic Oils Ltd., a consortium of the federal government and 20 oil companies—19 of them Canadian-controlled in December, 1967. This is Panartic's maiden effort.

The exact location of the well will depend on the results of more than 1,500 explosions, set off by seismic crews which began their tests in mid-April. These will continue until Oct. 1. When evaluation of the tests is completed in Calgary, they will have covered about 1 million acres.

When the site is decided, a drilling rig will be flown, a section at a time, to Melville Island, 1,500 miles north of Edmonton, and drilling will start.

The government holds a 45 per cent interest in Panarctic, which has $20 million capitalization. The largest private investors are two Canadian Pacific subsidiaries, Canadian Pacific Oil and Gas Ltd. and Cominco Ltd., each with slightly more than nine per cent.

Its exploration permits, stretching in a 700-mile arc across the upper Arctic islands, total 44,137 million acres. Three wells—drilled in the area before Panarctic's birth—proved unsuccessful.

In preparation for the Melville Island operation, Panarctic is developing a staging area on the eastern side of the 16,141-square-mile island at Rae Point. A barge, on its way from Resolute, 180 miles east, will be frozen into the ice for the winter.

A second barge, loaded with cement, drilling mud and other chemicals, will be unloaded at the site by stevedores flown from Montreal, who will live in portable prefabricated housing.

The barge then will be ballasted with sea water in order to test its alexbow, a device similar to a snowplow which is designed to clear shipping lanes by tifting ice and throwing it to the side. Alexbows have been tested in the St. Lawrence Seaway and the Great Lakes, but never in the Arctic.

Showdown Brews On Birth Control

By WILLARD H. MOBLEY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The conflict between Washington's Roman Catholic officialdom and a group of priests over the right of church members to use artificial birth controls appears headed for a showdown with a settlement deadline only one day away.

On it's face, the dispute involves only Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle and 51 priests within the Washington diocese who disagree publicly with Pope Paul VI's edict against the use of mechanical contraceptives.

But the split mirrors a church-wide division over whether Catholics are bound by the Vatican edict or, the priests maintain, can ignore the pronouncement on the grounds that birth control is a matter of personal conscience.

Here is the setting:

—The 51 priests and some theologians adopted a statement holding that Catholic couples may responsibly decide according to their consciences that artificial contraception is permissible in some circumstances.

—The cardinal directed them to give up that stand and accept the Pope's ruling fully. He gave them until Saturday to recant and mentioned the possibility of canonical penalties for those who do not.

—As if to emphasize his point the cardinal dismissed the Rev. T. Joseph O'Donoghue as assistant pastor of a Washington church for delivering a sermon August quoting high church officials who disagree with the encyclical.

—In another action the trustees of Catholic University asked last week that a panel he appointed to investigate whether 18 teachers have violated their responsibility to the university by publicly dissenting on the issue.

Neither side has budged and nothing was settled in a two-hour closed-door session Tuesday to which Cardinal O'Boyle summoned the 51 priests by telegram. Some 40 of them showed up.

A spokesman for the dissenters reported there was only "discussion" and the priests were "not able to judge what he (O'Boyle) might do."

Later the Rev. Mr. O'Donoghue, addressing a meeting of supporters, said it was up to them to band together to protect their viewpoint. He suggested, that "even Cardinal O'Boyle can be reached by a petition."

One of his former parishioners said that during masses he had collected 353 signatures protesting "unjust punishment" of O'Donoghue.

The cardinal followed up on Wednesday with release of a sternly worded statement saying he condemns as "erroneous, scandalous and offensive to faithful Catholics" the voices of dissent from the Pope's ruling.

Police Puzzled By Considerate Car Thief

WICHITA FALLS (AP) — The case of the considerate car thief is being considered by Wichita Falls police.

Doyle Conner of Wichita Falls reported his 1960 pickup truck was stolen from its parking place.

Later Conner drove past the spot in another vehicle and found the truck had been returned. When stolen, the truck had only about a quarter of a tank of gasoline. But when it was returned, the tank was almost full.

Actor's Message: Don't Be Loser

NEW YORK (AP) — "Don't be a loser." That's the message of a dramatic antismoking film left by actor William Talman who died of lung cancer two weeks ago.

Talman, who became television's biggest loser playing the prosecutor on the Perry Mason series, made the one-minute commerical for the American Cancer Society six weeks before his death at age 53.

A three-pack-a-day cigarette smoker for his entire adult life, Talman says in the film: "Before I die, I want to do what I can do to leave a world free of cancer for my six children."

At the opening of the commercial, which was filmed at the Talman home in Encino, Calif., on July 17, the actor introduces his wife, Peggy and the children.

Then the film cuts to a scene of Talman sitting next to a photograph of Raymond Burr, who played Perry Mason. Talman recalls that Burr "used to beat my brains out on TV every week for about 10 years."

"You know, I didn't really mind losing those courtroom battles," the actor says, "but I'm in a battle right now I don't want to lose at all because if I lose it, it means losing my wife and those kids you just met. I've got lung cancer.

"So take some advice about smoking and losing from someone who's been doing both for years," he continues. "If you haven't smoked, don't start. If you do smoke, quit. Don't be a loser."

Donald S. Hillman, director of TV films and radio for the cancer society, said Talman, who is obviously ill during the sequence, was under heavy sedation and had received a cobalt treatment in the morning.

He said Talman volunteered to make the commercial after reading that the society had difficulty in getting actors to appear in antismoking films because they feared cigarette sponsors would not consider them for their commercials.

The society said it would distribute the commercial to networks and local stations around the country next week. Spokesmen at the three major networks said they had not yet seen the film and had not decided whether to use it.

WICHITA FALLS (AP) — Mrs. John W. Bowden of Wichita Falls got more than she bargained for when she bought groceries at a store here.
