Cyclone To Travel
To Canadian Friday

The Memphis Cyclone, who upset the favored McLean Tigers last Friday night 18-13, will travel to Canadian to try their hand at the Wildcats on their own home field.

Cyclone Coach Charley Chambliss said Wednesday, "we'll have to play better football this week than we did last week to defeat Canadian on their home field."

The coach explained that weight and speed wise, both teams are on equal ground.

"Canadian's boys play good together and they have a lot of team effort on both offense and defense," the coach said.

"Last week," Coach Chambliss said, "our boys showed the best effort of the year, team wise, and Donnie Bridges, Larry Wynn and Jimmy Sturdevant showed their best individual efforts in the game."

The coach also stated that Jack Stargel was back in improved running form in the McLean game.

The Wildcats run from a straight-T with flankers and floaters. Their offense consists of dives, sweeps and passes, all of which they do well.

"They have the best team effort of any club we have faced this season," Coach Chambliss said.

Canadian has lost to Lefors and has defeated Clarendon. Memphis has lost to Wellington and has defeated McLean.

Coach Chambliss said, "Our boys will be ready for the game Friday because they know to stay in contention we have to win this one."

So far, Wellington is the only team in the district who has not lost a game in district play.

Only One Person
Has Voted Absentee

Only one person has cast an absentee ballot so far in the Constitutional Amendment election, it was announced this week by the Hall County clerk's office.

Residents who desire can vote absentee in the clerk's office any time between now and 5 p. m. Nov. 4, it was announced.

The Special Constitutional Amendment Election will be held Saturday, Nov. 9.

Jaycees Halloween
Carnival Is Ready
For Tonight's Fun

An evening of fun and frolic is planned tonight for the whole family at the Halloween Carnival, to be held in the Boren Building, located next door to J. C. Penney Co. Members of the Memphis Jaycees, the sponsoring organization, stated that plans are complete.

Cooperating in putting on the Carnival are various organizations and clubs of the city.

Doors will open at 5 p. m. In addition to all the usual games of chance to be found at a Halloween Carnival, there will be a large bingo table operated by the Women's Forum. Planned are numerous booths for the entertainment of children, such as Spook House, fortune telling, and fishing booth. There will be a cake walk, basketball shot, etc.

A highlight of the evening will be giving away "Hick Pockets," a Shetland pony, by the Jaycees.

Food

Several organizations will have food booths, and the public is invited to come early and enjoy eating at the Carnival. The Austin PTA will sell sandwiches and cup cakes; the Boy Scouts will sell hot dogs and other food, and the Jaycees will sell drinks.

Midway Rides

In connection with the Halloween festival, the South Central Midway Rides set up in Memphis Wednesday, and will be here through Saturday.

They have a number of rides for children including live horses. The rides are set up on the east side of the square and include among other things a Ferris wheel and small roller coaster.

Boy Scouts are selling hot dogs, hot chocolate, soft drinks and snowcones and coffee on the Midway during the four days the rides are here.

Rotarians Hear
Dist. Governor

Addressing the local Rotary Club Tuesday, J. M. (Jimmy) Willson, Jr., governor of this area, linked Memphis Rotarians with more than a half million other business and professional men who belong to Rotary Clubs in communities around the world.

"Rotary Clubs are functioning in more than 11,500 communities in 129 countries," he said, "and despite the diversity of their languages, customs, and political and religious beliefs, they are working toward such mutually desired goals as community betterment, the promotion of high standards in business, and the advancement of world understanding."

For De Ville Motel

Homer Tucker, J. W. Coppedge and O. M. (Bill) Cosby, Jr., announced Wednesday that work would start immediately on the new De Ville Motel, to be located on Highway 287 North.

The new motel will be ultra-modern with 68 units, swimming pool, restaurant, meeting rooms and a club room.

Shiver & Megert, Architects, of Amarillo, are now preparing the final plans and specifications, the men announced.

The new motel has been in the planning stage for several months, and will incorporate many features of the outstanding motels in the southwest area. Many inspection trips have been made to various areas of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas to assure that the De Ville Motel will be one of the finest and complete motels on Highway 287, the men said.

Nor-Tex Contractors, Inc., of

Borger will be the general contractor.

The new motel will be constructed on Highway frontage of the De Ville Addition, located between the Division Office Building of General Telephone Company of the Southwest and the new Hall County Hospital Building.

It is anticipated that the structure will be completed and open by the Spring of 1964.

Estelline To Open District Play
At Matador Friday

The Estelline Bear Cubs will open district play Friday night when they travel to Matador. Matador is a heavy favorite in the game.

Last Thursday night, the Bear Cubs were downed by a tough Quana B team, 24-6, in a game at Estelline.

Game time at Matador is 7:30 p. m.

Public Relations
Course Is Planned
For Next Week

Chamber of Commerce officials this week reminded all store clerks of the Public Relations course, scheduled to begin at 7:30 p. m. next Monday in the County Courtroom.

Many employers are paying the $2.50 fees for their employees to attend the four-day course, which is designed to help clerks become more efficient in waiting on customers.

A telephone survey this morning of the 14 Hall County gins revealed that 8,627 bales of cotton have been processed so far this season.

The total this week is only slightly less than 1,000 bales behind the report last year on Nov. 1, and as farmers are able to strip the defoliated cotton, it is expected that the crop will be gathered about as quickly as last season, despite the lack of hand pullers.

However, on Nov. 2, 1961, 25,967 bales had been gathered.

K. E. Voelkel, officer in charge of the USDA Cotton Classing Office in Memphis, said today that sample receipts are picking up with 2,500 received Wednesday.

Voelkel said that as of Wednesday, the office had classed 22,619 samples as compared with last year's 26,920.

"We received two additional classers yesterday," he said. This raises the total number of classers to six.

They are James "Ump" Tongate of Waco and Milton Hall of Greenwood, Miss. New clerks added this week include: Mrs. Louise Hatley of Brice, Mrs. Faye Allison of Hedley, Mrs. Nancy Montgomery of Memphis, and Mrs. Brenda Pate of Lakeview.

Cotton harvesting, which still continued slow for this time of the year, showed some increase in field operation during the week ending Friday, Oct. 25, according to Voelkel. The daily average receipts amounted to about 1290 samples, and slightly over 7,000 were classed.

Since 80 to 90 per cent of the cotton is open and could be harvested by hand labor, it is reported that most farmers are waiting for a killing frost so that harvesting might be done by the cheaper method—mechanical harvesting. A number of farmers who defoliated their cotton a week ago, stated that it would require at least another week before the cotton would be ready for harvesting. The light rain throughout this section, about a week ago, together with the heavy dew the latter

W. H. Reed,
Retired Farmer,
Buried Sunday

Funeral services for William Horace Reed, 72, retired farmer who had lived in Hall County for more than 50 years, were held at 3:30 p. m. Sunday in the First Baptist Church with Rev. Fern A. Miller, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Reed passed away Friday at his home, 419 North 10th St. He had been in failing health for some time.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery with services under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Mr. Reed was born Sept. 1, 1881, in Tishomingo County, Miss. He moved to Donley County in 1909 and shortly after that to Hall County.

He was united in marriage to Miss Iva Lavada Reed on Aug. 3, 1911, at Lakeview.

Mr. Reed retired in 1955 and he and his wife moved to Memphis where they have resided since that time.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife of the home; two sons, W. H., Jr., of Memphis and W. W. of Lindale; three daughters, Mrs. R. B. Spruill of Memphis, Mrs. Willie Benton of Amarillo, and Mrs. J. D. Evans of Memphis; 20 grandchildren; one brother, Wiley of Drumright, Okla.; two sisters, Mrs. Lon Moore of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Myrtle Dennis of San Diego, Calif.

Active pall bearers were grandsons of the deceased.

Honorary pall bearers included Ernest Foster, Raymond Foster, J. P. Godfrey, Dunbar Posey, S. A. Ellis, Olin Neighbors, John W. Molloy, Jude Gable, Ward Gurley, M. M. Shirley, Dr. O. R. Goodall, C. T. Snowdon and Clent Strygley.

100 Attend Field
Day Tour Mon.

Nearly 100 persons made the 1963 Field Day Tour of the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration program in Hall County Monday.

The tour was under the sponsorship of the Agricultural Extension Service and Experiment Station, cooperating with the Hall County Program Building Committee, Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Farm Bureau.

Those making the tour entered buses, furnished by the Memphis School District, at 9 a. m. They arrived at Roscoe Ellard's farm at 9:10 where they saw the first 15-minute demonstration on cotton fertilizing.

Next, the tour took them to the Brown Smith farm where an alfalfa variety study was demonstrated. Here six varieties were turned under and cotton was planted on the land. This demonstration showed the benefit and results of deep-rooted legumes preceding cotton. The cotton will make about twice as much as that which did not follow legumes, it was explained.

At the next stop, at the Harold Hodges farm, a grain sorghum hybrid research study was displayed. This makes seven years that this type of study has been conducted at the same location. In the past three years the Texas hybrids RS 630, RS 610 and Texas 660 has produced about 25 per cent more than standard varieties such as 7078 and Martin, it was explained.

Next, the group went to Mrs. L. M. Thornton's farm where a bindweed research demonstration was displayed. Herbicides used were furnished by the Hooker Chemical Co., DuPont Co., Amchem Products, Inc., and U. S. Borax and Chemical Co. Funds were supplied by the Roland-Gordon Co. of Plainview and Taylor

Evans of Amarillo and Tulia.

On the Wayne Hutcherson farm, a cotton variety result demonstration was seen. Nine varieties were in the demonstration. On another Wayne Hutcherson farm, a Johnsongrass control with lateral and spot oiling demonstration was seen. Three years ago, this land was covered completely with Johnsongrass. It is expected to produce a bale of cotton per acre this year, since the infestation has been reduced to only spotted patches which would not affect the yield.

Explaining the result demonstrations to those taking the tour were Thomas K. Hunter, area farm management specialist, of Vernon; Billy C. Gunter, area agronomist, of Lubbock; and Dr. A. P. Wiese, agronomist of Bushland Experiment Station.

Don R. Rummel, area entomologist, of Lubbock, and J. G. Simmons, district agent, of Vernon, were also present for the tour. County agents from several counties, as well as farmers from Estelline, Memphis, Hedley, Lakeview, Childress, Wellington, Tulia, Benjamin and Plasko, and business men from Memphis made the tour. The Memphis FFA chapter and Neil Hindman, sponsor, also made the tour.

Those making the tour were guests of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and the Hall County Farm Bureau at a luncheon at the Big O Restaurant.

County Agent W. B. Hooser said this was one of the most successful of any of the Field Day Tours.

At the luncheon, Mayor H. J. Howell and C. of C. President Jack Norman each presented a welcoming address. J. G. Simmons of Vernon praised the Chamber, Farm Bureau, the School District, and everyone who have devoted facilities and time to making the tour a success.

Highway 287 Project
Claimed 'Big Step'

AUSTIN, Oct. 25.—A four-lane, divided U. S. Highway 287 facility spanning Hardeman, Childress, Hall and Donley counties was a big step nearer reality today as the Texas Highway Commission authorized work on two projects in Hall County.

Citing "gratifyingly fast action on the part of Hall County officials in securing right of way to enable the Texas Highway Department to push this project toward completion," the Commission:

1. Authorized construction of grading, structures and surfacing on 6.4 miles of U. S. 287 from the Donley County line southeast to Farm to Market Road 1619 in Hall County. Cost of the project is estimated at $497,000.

2. Okayed reconstruction and widening of U. S. 287 in Hall County and the City of Memphis in cooperation with local governments. Involved is a three-mile section from the present curb and gutter section northwest to about 850 feet northwest of the north City Limits of Memphis, and a section from a point southeast of State Highway 256 extending southeast for 4 mile.

In the second action, the Commission's authorization was made subject to acceptance by the City of Memphis and Hall County of customary maintenance and construction responsibilities.

In response to an appeal from delegates representing the four counties, the Highway Commission last December had authorized the Highway Department to begin advance planning aimed at upgrading U. S. 287 to expressway standards through Hardeman, Childress, Hall and Donley counties.

By March, Hall County officials announced their county was ready to finance its share of right of way costs on the project. The Highway Commission immediately authorized a 50-50 split-cost agreement to secure right of way.

Early this month Hall County announced that right of way had been secured. Today's action followed. Said Highway Commission Chairman Herbert C. Petry:

"The entire experience serves as a fine example of how the state and county governments can work together efficiently and rewardingly to achieve mutual goals."

What Other Editors Say

AND WHAT IT DOES

The newspaper trade magazine Editor and Publisher this week quotes comments of three business executives, made in speeches to large groups, on the value of newspaper advertising in major merchandising fields. Experts from these comments were:

David L. Yunich, president of Macy's New York: "Retailers must invite—they must attract people to their stores. The most powerful way of doing this . . . through advertising in strong, interesting and widely read newspapers . . . The newspaper is the backbone of the retail advertising structure."

Orville W. Johler, vice president for advertising of the Independent Grocers' Alliance: "Nothing excels newspapers when it comes to selling merchandise or building a substantial image for the company . . . No other media that I know of can give you the cooperation of the dual job of selling merchandise and building a solid image of your store that comes anywhere near the newspaper in the towns you serve."

And, Carl Uren, assistant advertising director of Chevrolet: "We regard the newspaper as the most local, retail and urgent of the media we use Because newspaper readership is nearly universal, we know that at the same time we are reaching the mass audience, we are reaching the single, most likely group of prospects we have—present and satisfied owners"

These comments by advertisers accent the well-known fact that presenting a diversity of advertising of many products each day is one of the very real and continuing services of a newspaper to the public.

Cyclone Upsets McLean

18-13 Thriller Friday

Memphis Cyclone Friday night upset the much favored McLean 18-13 in a thriller.

The Cyclone this season has not been able to put up a good tough defense, but Friday night, the Cyclone defense unit held the McLean offense to a scoreless game.

With the defense, the Cyclone offense caught up by using every thing in the book, the local lads kept the game in a close thriller.

A crowd of fans was on hand to witness the game. The weather was ideal for the final game.

After taking advantage of a Cyclone fumble deep in the end zone, the Cyclone offense moved the ball to the 10 yard line.

McLean's Bob Patton missed his kick on the PAT.

The Cyclone took over the ball on the kickoff on their own 30. HB Toby Crooks got the drive going with a 10 yard carry to the 40 yard line.

On the next play, Sturdevant quarterback sneaked the ball across the goal line, and Memphis went ahead in the game, 12-6.

The Tigers came out after the intermission, fired up and determined.

They took the ball on their own 41 after a fine kickoff return. The Tigers moved for a first down to the Memphis 49, and another first to the Memphis 38.

In the next series, Dickie Crockett on three fine carries, made a first to the Memphis 28. The Cyclone defense stopped the drive and they took over the ball on the 25.

Not being able to make a first in three downs, End James Odom went back and booted the ball 42 yards, one of two fine punts off Odom's foot during the game.

McLean was held, and they punted, but the kick was short, going out of bounds on the McLean 45.

A pass from Sturdevant to Odom was good for 27 yards to the McLean 21. Four plays netted Memphis 6 yards, and McLean took over on their own 15.

This started McLean's longest drive of the night. McLean's big fullback Crockett reversed the field on a sweep and scampered 55 yards to the Memphis 30 before being pulled down from behind.

On the next play, Graham carried to the Memphis 15. The third period ended at this point. The Cyclone went into their

Memphis Scores
Running from their own 45, the Cyclone FB Mike Crow carried for four yards, and on the second down, QB Jimmy Sturdevant, kept the ball on the option play and scampered 47 yards down the sideline to the McLean 4 yard line before being downed from behind.

With four minutes left on the clock, the Cyclone, on a third down carry by Mike Crow, pushed over for the score. The extra point carry was no good and the score was 6-6.

McLean took over on their own 37 after the kickoff. A 15-yard penalty stepped off against Memphis moved the ball to the Memphis 46. However, at this point, on the second down, the Tigers went to the air, only to have their pass intercepted, giving Memphis the ball on the 41.

Jack Stargel picked up 15 yards on the first play, moving the ball into McLean's end of the field. In the next series, the Cyclone was faced with a 4th and 6 situation, but James Waites carried around end and picked up plenty of yardage for the first.

Running from the 30, QB Sturdevant carried on a keeper up 11 yards to the 19. A pass from Sturdevant to Odom was good for 5 yards, and then HB Toby Crooks circled left end and scampered to the McLean 5 yardline.

With only seconds left on the clock, Crooks carried around left end again, and his forward progress took him out of bounds on the goal line flag. The officials spotted the ball on the one-inch line. On the next play, Sturdevant quarterback sneaked the ball across the goal line, and Memphis went ahead in the game, 12-6. The PAT attempt was missed.

Second Half Action
The Tigers came out after the intermission, fired up and determined.

They took the ball on their own 41 after a fine kickoff return. The Tigers moved for a first down to the Memphis 49, and another first to the Memphis 38.

In the next series, Dickie Crockett on three fine carries, made a first to the Memphis 28. The Cyclone defense stopped the drive and they took over the ball on the 25.

On the next play, Graham carried to the Memphis 15. The third period ended at this point. The Cyclone went into their goaline defense, and stopped the Tigers on four downs, yielding only 5 yards.

The Cyclone was then held and elected to punt, and Odom got off the longest punt of the season season from Memphis, 52 yards, which gave McLean possession on their own 29.

This punt, plus a second down interception by Odom on the McLean 24, set up the Cyclone's third score.

Crooks carried for three, Waites carried for 4, and Sturdevant carried 5 more, to the McLean 12 yardline.

On a third down from the 8 yardline, Waites carried for six yards giving Memphis the ball on the McLean 2.

On the next play, Sturdevant passed to Odom in the endzone for the TD. A pass attempt for PAT was incomplete. The score was 18-6 with six minutes and 11 seconds on the clock.

Memphis kicked off to McLean and the ball was returned to the 40 yardline.

The Tigers moved for one first down to the Memphis 48, but lost the ball on a fumble.

Memphis made one first down, and then lost the ball to the Tigers on a pass interception.

With 2:41 left on the clock, on a second and six situation, the Tigers unbalanced their line to the left, making Tackle Bob Patton an eligible pass receiver. On the snap from center, the McLean quarterback bobbled the ball but recovered, and just before the gate closed on him, he passed to Patton who was wide open. Patton raced all the way to the goal-line for McLean's last TD of the night. Patton also placed kicked the PAT, making the score 18-13.

The Tigers tried an on side kick, but the Memphis linemen were expecting it, and Memphis got possession of the ball, and kept it until the clock ran out.

J. G. Wilson, Retired Trucker, Buried Saturday

Funeral services for James Granville Wilson, 72, retired trucker, were held at 3 p. m. Saturday, October 26, from the Spicer Funeral Home Chapel with Tom Posey, minister of the Christian Church, officiating.

Mr. Wilson died Thursday in the Hillhaven Convalescent Hospital in Amarillo.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery with services under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Mr. Wilson was born May 26, 1891, in Oklahoma. He had resided in Memphis until three months ago when he moved to Amarillo.

Hall County Soil Conservation District News

Due to the types of soil and intensity of rainfall in the Hall County Soil Conservation District, erosion by water is a major problem. Small drainage areas can be handled by a good system of terraces and diversions. Larger drainage areas of a few hundred acres can be controlled by means of waterway. When large amounts of water accumulate from large drainage areas of 500 to 1000 acres or more, stabilizing measures such as sod-chutes, concrete-chutes, drop structures or detention structures should be used to prevent erosion in the form of gullies or canyons.

Stabilizing measures, as mentioned above, can control water and release water in an orderly manner to prevent damage to cropland and rangeland. Water can be controlled when it is handled by a good structure in its natural course. Water taken out of its natural course can cause more damage than in its natural course regardless of types of structure used.

Your local Soil Conservation technicians will be glad to help you with any question you have. Cost - share of stabilization structures is available through the Great Plains Conservation Program and the Hall County Agriculture Stabilization Committee.

ABOUT GIVING...

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

-Acts 20:35

There are many kinds of "giving." The rich man may give to the poor. The public servant may devote endless hours of his free time to some kind of good work that is not an official responsibility. A great star or entertainer, who usually commands a tremendous fee, may often labor for nothing more than the satisfaction of making others happy.

Is it done for publicity, or for recognition? Sometimes, perhaps. More often than not however, a rich man will give anonymously to the poor; another individual may labor unselfishly all his lifetime, working with children, with the indigent, with the sick or the aged, without fanfare.

And it is not only the rich and the prominent who give. The Christian, in his daily life, many times is presented with the opportunity to give—to lend a helping hand to a worthy cause, to help a friend or neighbor in distress.

Those who meet the challenge learn that it is, indeed "more blessed to give than receive."

AUSTIN - TRAVIS NEWS

Mrs. Farmer's 4th grade at Travis is finishing a unit on the Vikings and Lapps. Each of the children has made colorful pictures of Viking ships, flags, the people themselves, and scenes of Scandinavian Countries. The class has put all the pictures and information together to make a very attractive and interesting bulletin board. Johnny Deaver brought his grandmother's sun dial to class and all the pupils learned to tell time by it.

Austin has had a Halloween visitor two days this past week. A nice friendly cat spent most of Wednesday in the first grade room, on Thursday, he walked into the Kindergarten and stayed a while with them. A Halloween cat? We think so!

The 4 - H Club at Austin had their Halloween party at the school Thursday, October 24th, at 7:30. The members enjoyed the refreshments and prizes for the best costumes were given. The first place winner in the costume contest was Timmy Fowler; second place, Vicki Clifton; and third place, Barry Pounds.

There are five new pupils in Travis this week, four in the third grade. In Mrs. Stroeble's 3rd grade class the new pupil is Brenda Elliot from Albany, Tex.

Mrs. Gailey's 3rd grade has 3 new pupils who are: Carlos Gonzales, Adan Loera, and Irma Restender. Miss Clara Pyeatt's sixth grade has one new pupil, Marilyn Stone.

The Austin Elementary school cafeteria manager and helpers wish to thank Mr. Davis, superintendent of Memphis Schools, and the School Board of Trustees for our new stove. We are always grateful for any new equipment.

And this new stove is really appreciated. We thank you. Cafeteria personnel, teachers, and students.

Police Department, and others who helped in the observance of Fire Prevention Week October 6-12. We feel that a great deal was learned about safety, and in addition to that the observance of the week helped Austin School to get an excellent rating when it was visited by an inspector from the State Department at Austin the week following the observance.

The second graders at Austin have been collecting seeds for their science table, noticing especially those that furnish food. They have also enjoyed their colorful Bird Migration Map.

Whirlwinds To Play Turkey Thursday Night

The Junior High Whirlwinds lost their game Thursday night to Canadian 30-8.

"We improved over our last game," stated Coach Bert Glasscock.

The only score for Memphis came when Tony Pounds passed to Gary Rea during the last 11 seconds of the game.

The Whirlwinds will play at Turkey at 6:30 p. m. Thursday, October 31.

Chuckle of the Week
What did the elephant say when the bull fell out of the tree? That's the way the bull bounces.

How are you going to Have Fun Halloween?

By Kay Stinson
With Halloween so near how many evil minded MHS students are sitting in class thinking of mischievous they can do tonight? I can see a boy sitting in English brightening at the thought of smearing some poor, unsuspecting girl with shaving cream or eggs. While you are sitting there why not think of the Golden Rule—"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." - If you are a language authority you might think in Confuciusism - "Do not unto others what you would not they should do unto you." or in Hinduism - "Do not unto others which if done to you would cause thee pain."

Remember Halloween can be just as much fun by following the GOLDEN RULE as following the crowd.

Band News

By Lowell McKown

The Memphis half-time show was a set of routines to Salutation, March of Aida, Rock Around the Clock, Give My Regards to Broadway, and Victory March. Kay Wines and Jerry Burleson were crowned Band Favorites during the show.

The "Cyclone Down - Beat" seems to be an up - and - around concern at M. H. S. The editor, Suzanne Sexauer did a fine job last year and is doing an equally fine job this year. The paper is published every Friday after school and is the main topic of conversation on bus trips. The "Down - Beat" seems to be equally as popular with nonmembers. The first copy came out early last year and is published every week during the school year. Different students write for the paper each week. The weekly articles are: B Flat Award, Best Marchers of the Week, Senior Corner, Jokes, and the ever popular Gossip Section. The paper frequently includes an editorial and comments by Mr. Bradley on last week's half - time show. The paper is a main line of information for the band. During the contest week a schedule was published of the clinics and section rehearsals.

The Main reason for the Down-Beat's success is the Gossip Section which gives a run - down on the student's activities after school. The most powerful person in the band is the one who writes the section for that week. The band members have realized that just because they made a I in contest they can not take it easy now. We still have to make I's in Concert and Sight Reading to make Sweepstakes.

All students trying out for All Region went to the try - outs Monday here in Memphis. It was necessary to eliminate a certain number of students to satisfy the U. I. L. rules on the possible number from any one school.

Fashion News—

By JANICE POUNDS

Shiny, satin-like hair has always been the ideal look, and today a point is being made of it. Today, looks are lustrous; they flow so glowingly, and the reasons are many.

First, the teased look is out. Teasing gives a dulling all-over effect. Second, the hair is getting more care than it ever has before. Girls are learning to pamper — the right way. And third, the silky look just looks so right, so new.

Agileam with lights, the silky coif has a special way of emphasizing the line, sending off glowy sparks at the brow, the cheeks, the back. With every direction it takes, every wave it turns, every curl it furls, the silky look dramatizes excitement and beauty.

MOST BEAUTIFUL — Selected as Most Beautiful girl in M. H. S. is Miss Lynn Foxhall. Lynn is a junior at M. H. S. and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Foxhall.

First it's the mother-in-law; then it's the father-in-law; next it's the sister-in-law; and then it's the brother-in-law. Finally it's the attorney-at-law.

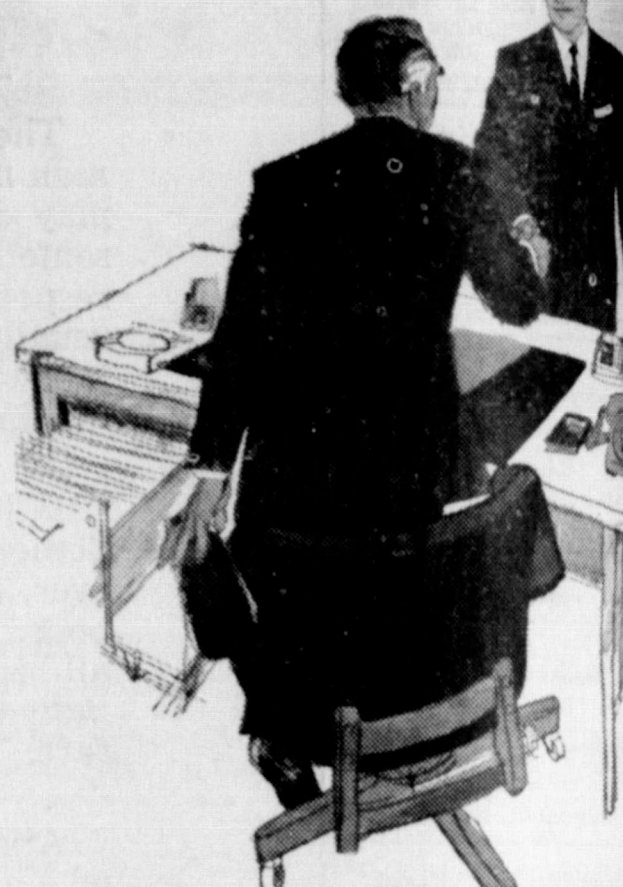

When the end draws near you will wish that you had a lot of the time that you have wasted.

Cotton Guessing Contest Closes Saturday; 275 Persons List Guesses

Two hundred and seventy-five persons listed guesses in the 1963 annual Cotton Guessing Contest, which came to an end Saturday. The contest is sponsored each year by this newspaper.

Guesses ranged all the way from 30,460 bales to 65,400 bales. However, most of the persons guessing took a middle-of-the-road approach basing their predictions in the 40 and 50-thousand-bale range.

To mention a few of those persons who have an optimistic outlook for the crop this year there were Mrs. Sam Jackson who listed the high estimate of 65,400, Mrs. O. R. Lambert of Estelline who guessed 63,000 bales and Paul Blevins who guessed 63,820.

On the other extreme, there were those persons who thought the crop would be way short this year and based their prediction down in the 30-thousand range. Some of the guesses: Freida Markham, 30,360; L. E. Jenkins of Amarillo, 32,400, and Guy Cox, 32,999.

Despite Handicap, Three Persons Lead Useful Lives

Despite what some people think of as a handicap, three Memphis residents are leading completely normal lives and going about their daily tasks in the same manner as other citizens of the city.

This fact was called to our attention this week when it was learned about three local residents attending a banquet and dance for members of the Silent Club at the Cross Roads Motel in Amarillo.

The Silent Club is a special club for persons of this area who are deaf and mute. More than 100 persons were in attendance at the banquet Oct. 19, at Amarillo. Going from here were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bradley and Linda Bucklew, all three of whom are gainfully and usefully employed in Memphis.

J. C. Bradley, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Bradley, was born and reared in Memphis. He entered the state school for the deaf in Austin when he was eight years of age. It was there that he met and married his wife who was a native of Dallas.

Mr. Bradley is now employed with Selby Shoe Shop and learned his trade as an expert repairman through a government training program in Pampa. Mrs. Bradley is employed at the Postex Mills. The couple have three children all of whom have normal hearing and speech.

Linnie Bucklew is employed here with Lusk Cleaners, and has been with the firm for six years working in Turkey prior to moving to Memphis.

Miss Bucklew was reared in Matador and she, too, attended the state school for the deaf in Austin. Her employer, Leonard Lusk, taught her the cleaning trade, and she has made a worthwhile and valuable employee. Samuel Colt invented the revolver in 1835.

Several Men Pay $26 Fines For Gaming With Cards

Fourteen men were taken before Justice of Peace J. S. Grimes Saturday on charges of gaming with cards. They were each fined $26.75. The men, consisting of five Latin-Americans and nine Negroes, were apprehended by Sheriff Elmer Neel Friday night at Estelline.

Due to the large number involved, Sheriff Neel asked for and received the aid of Highway Patrolmen Presley Thomson and Don Collins in bringing the men to Memphis.

part of the week were not conducive to defoliation practices.

The quality of cotton classed this past week showed a slight decrease in the white grades, with 39 per cent in this category compared with 47 per cent the previous week. Middling white represented 16 per cent. About 61 per cent graded light spotted and spotted as against 53 per cent the week before. Middling light spotted was 29 per cent of this week's classing. Slightly over two per cent of the samples classed were reduced in grade because of bark.

The staple length ranged from 13-16 inch to 1 5-32 inches, with 90 per cent of the cotton classed stapling less than 1 inch. Ten per cent stapled 1 inch to 1 5-32 inches.

The predominant quality classed during the week was middling light spotted 15-16 inch.

Micronaire results continued to reflect good quality, with practically no readings less than 3.5. The readings from 3.5 to 5.0 represented 70 per cent, and those from 5.0 and above amounted to 30 per cent. At this time last season much of the cotton was classified as wasty, and this meant a loss to the farmer of about $20 a bale.

The fiber strength of the cotton classed ranged from fair to very strong. The groupings for the week were as follows: 70,000-74,000 (fair), 15 per cent; 75,000-79,000 (average), 26 per cent; 80,000-84,000 (average), 22 per cent; 85,000-89,000 (strong), 15 per cent; 90,000-94,000 (strong), 15 per cent; and, 95,000 and above (very strong), 7 per cent.

Cottonseed price at gin points was $55.00 per ton. Hand labor was receiving $1.75 and $2.00 cwt., delivered to the gin, for pulling cotton.

GENERAL TELEPHONE TOWNS ON THE MOVE

MoorMan

Manufacturing

comes to

Comanche

When a Texas town of about 4000 population gains a branch plant of one of the Nation's top manufacturers of livestock mineral and protein concentrates, it is a shining example of civic progress.

Because this is the heart of a vast market area, the Comanche Chamber of Commerce was able to secure a division of MoorMan Manufacturing Company. In its new plant, MoorMan makes a large number of products with other products warehoused and distributed from the Comanche facility. This is another reason we say big things are happening in General Telephone towns.

These towns are on the move. Community improvements are under way, local resources are being developed, new businesses, new industries are coming in. If your town seeks additional information about expansion, perhaps we can help. Just write our Community Development Department, Box 1001, San Angelo, Texas.
