Funnel Report Sets Off Tornado Scare

Snyder was getting light rains shortly before noon today, after dark clouds to the southwest had created a brief storm scare.

Local officials received reports that a funnel-shaped cloud had been sighted between Big Spring and Snyder at about 10:30 a.m. Radio units of the sheriff's department and city police department were dispatched to observe the clouds, but up to noon they had reported only rain, with little or no winds.

The initial report on the cloud broke up a meeting in the city hall fire station, where a group had assembled to view motion pictures of the tornado which struck Dallas on April 2. Roy Simmons, training officer for the Dallas Fire Dept., had brought the film here. City firemen, city and county government officials, school officials and other groups had assembled to view the films and to hear comments by Simmons on training values which could be derived from the experience. The Dallas tornado has been called the best documented storm in history, and observations of it are expected to be a valuable aid in portecting life and property in future storms.

A sprinkle of rain began falling in Snyder at about the time the alert came this morning. The fall gradually increased to a steady drizzle.

A steady rain was reported at Lake J. B. Thomas. Three quarters of an inch had been measured there by 11:30 a.m. and rain was still falling.

Radio units from law enforcement agencies which had gone to observe the clouds reported rain was falling in the Ira area and between Ira and Union.

Hundreds were driven from their homes as floods in Central and South Texas Thursday. Several towns and numerous roads were submerged.

At least five persons were drowned and a sixth was missing.

Downpours of up to 6.50 inches of rain, tornadoes, and violent weather raged over the state for the seventh straight day.

San Marcos, Georgetown, Belton, Killeen were the hardest hit by floodwaters. At Georgetown Sheriff Henry Matysek said flood damage in Williamson County alone would run between two and three million dollars.

A half a dozen tornadoes struck terror Wednesday, including a twister that demolished several houses and barns at Shilo near Belton.

The heaviest rainfall was in the Belton and Killeen area where 6.5 inches fell.

College Station had 2.75 inches, San Antonio 1.91, Corsicana 2.05, Waco 1.85, Texarkana 1.28, Dallas 1.23, Lufkin 1.17 and Austin 1.16.

In the Coy City area south of San Antonio rains estimated up to 3.50 inches accompanied by a heavy hail wiped out crops.

Most of the flood stricken areas reported streams receeding Thursday. The Weather Bureau said at mid-morning that except for West Texas, skies were heavily cloudy but no new rain was reported.

The continued downpours have broken the drought in a large part of Texas. Texas Extension Service agents estimate than only one fifth of the state, mostly in West Texas, can still be considered drought area.

In East, Central and South Texas the prolonged rains have washed out crops, carried away top soil and delayed planting. The rains, however, have been welcomed by officials of many cities as for the first time in years lakes supplying municipal water are brimming.

Nine major roads were temporarily closed because of flood waters, the Department of Public Safety said at 9:15 a.m.

These included Farm Road 247 between Huntsville and Midway. This road was under four feet of water. The department said it was not checking on lightly traveled roads at the present.

Roads blocked included: U.S. 183, West of Austin and south of Georgetown and Jonah; U.S. 290 nine miles east of Johnson City; U.S. 77 south of Rockdale; State 71, East of Llano; State 36 between Llano and Caldwell; U.S. 287, between Corsicana and Palestine; and State 7 between Crockett and Centerville.

IN WILLIAMSON COUNTY

Flood Damage Running High

GEORGETOWN (AP) — Sheriff Henry Matysek said today flood damage in Williamson County will run between two and three million dollars.

Roads were washed out, bridges swept away, hundreds of head of livestock lost, homes destroyed and scores of miles of fences swirled under, the sheriff said.

Damage was especially heavy in the flat country east of Georgetown where the North and South Gabriel Rivers, Berry Creek and Dry Berry Creek converge.

Typical of what happened was the total loss of Brady Marshall's store at Mankin's Crossing, east of here, Matysek said.

Marshall's store and his home just disappeared in the torrent, the sheriff said.

The rain-swollen river that covered the U.S. Highway 81 bridge in the north side of Georgetown bore the bodies of sheep, cattle and goats caught in the torrential downpours, west of here. Cattle were trapped in pastures and creek bottoms east where the terrain flattens.

In some spots, the combined flood water of the two rivers and three creeks covered the bottoms for a mile to a mile and a half.

"We are in a desperate condition," the weary sheriff said after an all-night tour of the county.

"The farmers and ranchers don't have any money and county funds are far from enough to repair or replace bridges and roads. Many places we couldn't get through to check the situation because of washouts," he said.

Georgetown was calm today in muggy and foggy weather.

The river bottom was a scene of wreckage and disolation littered with the remains of houses and barns swept into the flood.

"We're just beginning to see how bad it was," Matysek said.

One Injured In Accident

One man was slightly injured in a two-truck accident on the East Highway about 10 o'clock this morning.

Bruises and scratches on his left arm were received by Joe Long, a passenger in the DS&R Construction Co. of Sweetwater truck driven by G. C. Bromley, Jr.

The construction tank truck rammed into the rear of a van-type truck owned by Arrowhead Trucking Co., but driven by Ronnie Weber, employe of Eiland Motor Co., Oldsmobile-Cadillac and GMC truck dealer here.

Both trucks were heavily damaged.

The van truck was being road tested after mechanical repair.

Gary asked Kelly DeBusk, newly hired director of the state planning and resources board, to begin familiarizing himself at once with operation of the lodges with a view to cutting expenses.

The lodges are in financial difficutties and the state is having trouble meeting payments on bonds sold to build them.

DeBusk, former director of the Oklahoma Game Commission, has been named Planning and Resources Board director to succeed Jack Boyd who resigned effective June 30.

Plans Made To File Answer To Petition By Continental

Plans were made yesterday by the aviation committee of the Chamber of Commerce to file a rebuttal with the Civil Aeronautics Board in connection with the filing this week by Continental Air Lines of a petition requesting that air service to Snyder be discontinued.

The committee met yesterday. The meeting was headed by H. C. Denson, chairman. Included in those meeting with the committee were Edgar Taylor, county judge; Harold Bennett, mayor; Pat Moore, commissioner of precinct 3; Roy Dunlap, city manager; George Killam, county attorney; and James Rosser, attorney who was among those who led in getting air service here originally.

The committee stressed the importance of getting in a rebuttal to show to the CAB the need for air service in Snyder.

Continental, which some time ago purchased Pioneer Air Lines, a year ago secured from the CAB a three-year extension on the temporary permit to serve Snyder and other cities in this area. Pioneer had been the original airline which served Snyder, and Continental continued the service at the merger. Continental is now claiming losses from operations here and at other smaller cities such as Mineral Wells.

In addition to these cities, Continental is petitioning the CAB to discountinue service to smaller cities throughout its area. The idea was expected in yesterday's meeting that Continental is probably attempting to get out of feeder line operations and exclusively into truck line status. In its petition, Continental shows that by eliminating service to these smaller cities that federal subsidies to the airline will be cut, since it is for service to the cities on which Continental's feeder lines operate that subsidies are provided.

Continental, when informing cities that it was petitioning for discontinuance of service, said that U. S. representatives and senators from all the areas involved were notified ahead of time as to what Continental's plans were on discontinuance of service. At yesterday's meeting, Bennett said he would contact George Mahon, representative of this district, to learn what was told him by the airline.

Rosser said he would help the committee file the rebuttal with the CAB, which must be filed by April 30.

It was brought out in yesterday's meeting that there has been discussion that smaller feeder airlines, such as Trans-Texas and Central, may be interested in providing service here. A southwestern local service hearing before the CAB is scheduled for next fall, when one of those airlines is expected to make proposals for additional stops in West Texas.

Discussion yesterday was also that the airline schedule through Snyder is not ideal and may have been responsible for some lack of use. There is no flight here from the east in the morning. There is one eastbound flight in the morning, and the three other flights, one east and two west, in the evening.

In the petition to the CAB, the committee will show that improvement of facilities at the county airport here has been provided for. There is now an adequate north-south runway at the airport, and a new east-west runway is to be built in the near future. Funds have already been provided for such.

The new runway would increase the potential number of flights which could land here, since it would reduce the number of flyovers because of crosswinds.

Yarborough Cites Needs

HOUSTON (AP)—Sen.-elect Ralph Yarborough said last night the two most pressing issues before the Legislature are raise increases for teachers and old age pensions.

He urged a constitutional amendment to remove the ceiling on pensions. He said the Legislature "should never adjourn without submitting an amendment that would permit the payment of decent pensions to our old people, many of whom are starving on $15 a month."

Yarborough listed three objectives after he takes the oath Monday in Washington: An increase in personal income tax exemptions from $600 to $800, 90 per cent of parity in farm price supports and higher pensions for old folks.

He and Mrs. Yarborough were guests of honor at a reception given by Mrs. R. D. Randolph, national Democratic committeewoman.

Labor Racketeering Hit Sharply By Ike

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower today called labor racketeering "an abomination which must be eliminated." He said union leaders who abuse power and trust "are not fit to hold union offices."

Eisenhower expressed those views in a statement after a 90 minute conference here with Secretary of Labor Mitchell. The President called for swift enactment of legislation to provide for:

1. Registration, reporting and public disclosure of full data on union health and welfare funds. The administration already has a bill before Congress to take care of that.

2. Public disclosure of all other financial records of unions, including such items as dues collected, the salaries of union officials, and the amount of money in union treasuries.

In his statement the President said the administration has followed "with intense interest" the efforts of a Senate special committee "to bring to light disclosures of corrupt practices and abuses by officers and members of some labor unions."

"Labor racketeering, like corruption anywhere, is an abomination which must be eliminated if and whenever it occurs. Any officer and employe of labor—and it appears there have been few—who abuse the power and trust imposed upon them are not fit to hold union officers," he said.

"The American working man and woman deserve from labor leadership high standards of trust and fidelity."

A highlight of the Senate committee's activities so far has been its inquiry into the financial operations of Dave Beck, chief of the AFL-CIO Teamsters Union. Beck declined to answer questions in that field. He invoked the Fifth Amendment on grounds that replies might tend to incriminate him.

As for the general picture, Mitchell said:

"We are trying to help the American labor movement clean house in those areas where it needs to clean house."

But the Cabinet officer also called for a calm approach to the problem.

"We should not rush headlong, impelled by the hysteria of the moment, to secure punitive legislation aimed at undermining or weakening the general body of labor."

Mitchell urged elimination of "specific abuses of power."

In his statement after meeting with Mitchell at the Augusta National Golf Club Eisenhower said "corruption on the part of the few should not obscure the fact that the vast majority of those connected with organized labor are decent and honest Americans and that responsible labor leadership is moving speedily toward protecting their members from any such abuses, as far as their means permit."

He was found by firemen in a back bedroom of the house where he lived alone. Firemen said the door was barricaded against the fire and Olinger, still fully dressed except for shoes, was not burned.

Fireman Jack Gallion, a neighbor, said Olinger came home about midnight last night. Gallion turned in the alarm about 2 a.m. after he smelled smoke at the Olinger home.

Gallion said the front of the house was in flames and Olinger's front bedroom was badly burned.

Group Facing Hard Fight To Stop Segregated School Laws

AUSTIN (AP)—A minority of state senators faced an uphill grind today to stop segregated school legislation from becoming law in Texas.

After a three hours last night, the Senate State Affairs Committee approved five anti-integration bills passed by the House.

Senators voted 11-6 against sending one of the proposals to the attorney general for an opinion. If the motion had succeeded proponents said it probably would cause too much of a delay to allow the bills to pass before the Legislature adjourned.

Four bills are interlinked, in effect, to allow a continuance of segregated schools in cities opposing integration. The other prevents the state or school districts to employ a member of the NAACP.

Sen. Abraham Kazen Jr., of Laredo moved that the NAACP bill go to Atty. Gen. Will Wilson. Sen. David Ratliff made a motion to kill Kazen's proposal. It was adopted 11-6.

This was the lineup: For, Sens. A. M. Aikin, Dorsey Hardeman, Grady Hazlewood, Culp Krueger, Ottis Lock, Crawford Martin, George Moffett, George Parkhouse, Jimmy Phillips, Bill Wood and Ratliff. Against, Sens. Carlos Ashley, Searcy Bracewell, Jep Fuller, Jarrard Secrest, Doyle Willis and Kazen. Ratliff's motions to recommend the bill won on voice vote.

These battle lines may change on the question of passage when they are debated in the Senate. Opponents will have to dig up 11 votes to prevent bills from going on through.

Under Senate procedure, any 11 senators can vote to block a bill from being laid out for debate.

In a spirited speech before the final vote, Kazen said the bills would result in Texas having a school system "the worst in the United States." He warned that the eyes of the country were on the Legislature in its actions on the segregation problem.

Spying Subs May Be Off Florida

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said today Russian submarines may be prowling off Florida coasts in an attempt to watch U.S. missile experiments.

"It is no secret that we are experimenting with an ICBM—Inter-Continental Ballistic Missile—at Patrick Air Force Base, Fla.," Bridges said in a speech prepared for American Legion commissions on national security and foreign relations.

Bridges, who is a senior member of the Senate Armed Services and Appropriations committees, said a recent report was "that there were about a dozen submarines lying off Cape Canaveral, Fla."

"They were not ours or our allies," Bridges said. "The story was not substantiated, but we do know that the Russians spare no effort to learn what we are doing."

"If the submarines are in this vicinity and if they are Russian it may well be they are watching our progress on the first ICBM," he said.

"I am confident the Navy is pretty well alert to the submarine menace," he added. "One of its top jobs is to keep track of them and be ready to destroy them if the occasion arises."

Earlier this month, Adm. Jerauld Wright, commander in chief of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet, said an increasing number of unidentified submarines have been contacted in the last three years. But he declined to detail "either the numbers or the areas" involved.

Wright said he was not alarmed about the situation, although he said the Navy is "very much interested" whenever Russian subs are spotted in the Atlantic.

U.S. Fleet Ordered To Middle East

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—The future of Jordan hung in the balance today.

A new government was named and martial law was clamped on the country.

King Hussein declared his intention to fight out the crisis. He blamed international communism for bringing it on.

The United States voiced support anew for the independence and integrity of Jordan—and ordered its 6th Fleet back into the eastern Mediterranean.

Today a total curfew was imposed on the capital city of Amman, the Old City of Jerusalem, Nablus, Ramallah and Irbid near the Syrian frontier.

Under the decree of martial law police were put under control of the army, whose tough-core Bedouin fighters are loyal to King Hussein.

The country's 10 political parties were abolished.

Ibrahim Hashem, 83, was chosen to head a seven-man Cabinet of moderates.

The eight - day - old Cabinet of Hussein Khalidi resigned last night after six hours of rioting by mobs inspired by Communists and other extremist factions.

King Hussein insisted in talk with American reporters that he did not need outside assistance.

Hussein stressed this again today. He disclosed he would not invite Rep. James P. Richards, special representative of President Eisenhower, to Amman to explain the President's Middle East program. Hussein said he would decide "with other Arab states" whether they would accept the Eisenhower program.

The American stand supporting Jordan's integrity, and calling it vital to U.S. interests and world peace, was a restatement of the Eisenhower Doctrine. The White House reiterated it last night, presumably about the time orders were going out to the U.S. 6th Fleet to leave Italian and French ports. The aircraft carrier Forrestal left Cannes, France.

The fleet was in the eastern Mediterranean at the time of the Suez crisis last fall.

Maloney Is Witness In Elkins Trail

PORTLAND (AP) — Thomas E. Maloney, under indictment here on a number of state charges, was a prosecution witness yesterday in the federal trial of Portland gambler Big Jim Elkins.

Elkins and his employe Raymond Clark have been accused of illegally tapping, recording and revealing telephone conversations of Maloney, a Seattle and Spokane race track figure; Portland Dist. Atty. William Langley; Thomas O. Sheridan, former assistant administrator of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission; and Joseph McLaughlin, Seattle cardroom operator.

Maloney identified his voice on 17 excerpts of magnetic tape recordings which the government played in the courtroom and entered as evidence.

He identified the other speakers as Langley, Sheridan and possible McLaughlin. Another voice on one of the recordings—which he said was a long-distance call from Spokane—was that of his young son Rickey, Maloney said.

Maloney appeared to be under considerable emotional stress as this recording was played. He covered his face with his hands and at one point wiped away a tear. There was no explanation of why he was so moved by the playing of this excerpt.

Maloney is under indictment on a number of state charges, including gambling, bootlegging and conspiracy with Langley to open up the town to gambling.

Langley, also indicted on a number of state charges, has been convicted on a state charge of deliberate failure to prosecute gambling. He faces removal from office and a possible fine for this conviction, but he has not yet been sentenced.

Yesterday Langley's attorneys asked for a new trial.

More storms battered sections of the southern and central plains today as new floods threatened rain-soaked Texas.

Rivers and streams in many parts of Texas overflowed as torrential rains hit the big state again yesterday, along with tornadoes, hail and severe electrical storms. At least four persons drowned and hundreds were forced to leave their lowland homes.

No casualties were reported in the areas hit by tornadoes and property damage was light.

Larry Freed By Firemen

DENVER (AP) — If Larry Diekman's faith in the weaker sex is a bit shaken, there's reason.

Larry, 8, and sister Karen, 3, were playing yesterday with a toy pushmobile jeep. Karen experimentally poked a finger into a hole where there used to be a steering wheel.

Big brother followed suit, and quickly found he was trapped. He shouted for help. Karen hid. Finally their father, Keith, heard Larry's howls.

Butter was tried as a lubricant to free Larry's forefinger. No luck. At length city firemen arrived and sawed away the metal.

After controlling his sobs, Larry said he wasn't really mad at Karen. She wept louder than he while firemen came to the rescue They discovered later that Karen thought Larry's finger was being sawed off.

Dope Raids Held Over Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Squads of federal narcotics agents and local police early today rounded up nearly two dozen alleged narcotic peddlers and more arrests were expected.

Officers said a total of 32 persons were being sought as sellers of heroin and marijuana in one of the biggest narcotics roundups in state history.

The raids, on the city's East Side, were conducted by more than 50 officers under supervision of B. T. Mitchell, regional director of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics investigation in Kansas City; Ernie Hall, Oklahoma director; and the local police narcotics squad.

Officials said the roundup was the climax of a year's undercover work by agents who gradually worked themselves into confidence of "pushers."

Federal narcotics agents from Oklahoma, Kansas, Arkansas, Texas and Missouri had been working on the case for six months, authorities said.

In one East Side apartment house, raiders said they found 1½ ounces of high quality heroin valued at $4,500 on the black market. The peddlers bought their narcotics at about $400 an ounce, officers estimated.

Federal complaints will be filed against all those arrested, police said, adding that the narcotics traffic here may have repercussions in other cities which were a source of the local supply. The cities were not identified.

Humble and Shell will continue separate explorations outside the Kanatak area in Alaska.

Consumption Of LP Gas Will Double

HOUSTON (AP)—A. C. Cote, president of the National Liquified Petroleum Gas Council, forecast yesterday that consumption of LP gas will double within 20 years if present sales rates continue.

He said Texas produces more than one-half the nation's LP gases and consumes nearly one-third of the total output. He said Texas has 240 natural gasoline and cycling plants with a primary capacity of 10,600,000 gallons of LP gas daily.

Cote said natural gasoline and cycling plants are boosting production and new plants are being built. Capacity during the last two years, he said, has been increased by 4.5 million gallons daily, chiefly in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

The convention was told by Dr. F. W. Karasek of Phillips Petroleum Co. of Bartlesville, Okla., that the oil and petrochemicl industries will have to invest some 11 billion dollars in the next 10 years for new facilities to meet growing public demand.

C. L. Ballard of Shamrock Oil & Gas Co. of Amarillo warned that railroad requests for a 17 per cent increase in liquified gas product freight rates might turn much of the market to competing fuels.

Their Marriage Is Really For The Birds

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Marital bliss literally flew out the window for Mr. and Mrs. Chastain Nolan when their parakeet left.

Mrs. Nolan, 27 and the mother of three, told Constable Thelma Hardison that her husband taught the bird to say vulgar words at her.

She let the bird go and Nolan retorted by storming out, taking along most of his wife's clothes.

Nolan returned for a final stroke of revenge, she told the constable, yanking out the telephone and removing locks from the doors.

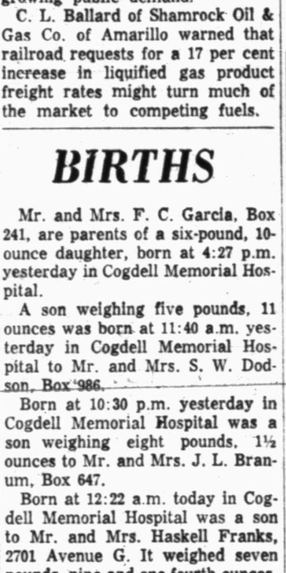

Mrs. Nolan swore out a warrant and filed for divorce.

IN HIGHWAY AID

Texas Leading The Parade

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal-aid highway construction in Texas topped the list of all states April 1, from the standpoint of miles under improvement.

A report issued by the Public Roads Bureau showed projects under way in Texas on that date totaled 1,678 miles, with a total estimated cost of $153,675,000. The federal share of this was $93,411,000.

In addition to projects under way, contracts have been advertised for 272 more miles of highways in Texas at a total cost of $56,155,000 of which the federal share is $38,191,000.

A new FBI report shows Texas below the average of all states in crime.

The report shows a 13 per cent increase in major crimes over the nation during 1956. The increase in Texas was 11 per cent.

There were 2,563,150 major crimes in 1956 throughout the cojntry, up 300,700. The Texas total was 103,425; for 94 reporting communities. The 1955 total was 92,992.

Crimes in Texas last year, with the 1955 figure in parentheses: Murder and manslaughter, 383 (360); manslaughter by negligence, 165 (167); rape, 417 (414); robbery, 1,603 (1,536); aggravated assault, 3,984 (4,347); burglary, 25,598 (22,469); larceny-theft, 61,345 (54,658); auto theft, 9,957 (9,041).

BARGAIN OFFERED IN DOLLAR BILLS

GRIGGSVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Dollar bills—some 25,000—will be for sale at 89 cents each at the Western Illinois Fair at Griggsville one hour daily for five days starting June 30.

There will be no limit on the number of times a customer may buy a buck and make 11 cents. But he can buy only one at a time. If he wants more he must return to the end of the line.

Fair officials in Griggsville, a town of about 1,200, explained the only reason for the sale is to prove there will be at least one genuine bargain offered the public in 1957.

AT PARIS

Youths Launch Decency Drive

PARIS, Tex., (AP) — Paris youngsters, hearing too much of "juvenile delinquency," have formed "Juvenile Decency at Paris High Schoo."

Three worth causes profited an average of $253.27 each.

Paris High School student council launched a month-long drive to get money for the March of Dimes, Heart Fund and "Texas Tribute to Freedom," a student-supported Hungarian relief program. They labeled this effort: Juvenile Decency at PHS."

After expenses of the "Operation Decency" were deducted, student council had $759.91 to divide between the three causes. Gross profit was $812.45.

The event which provided most fun for students and most funds for the pot was inter-class competition to select "Mr. and Mrs. Heart Throb of PHS."

Each class selected a boy and a girl to run on a straight ticket. Votes were a penny per. Devices to help individual class candidates win the title added up to $660.60.

Other enterprising ventures undertaken were curb hopping, pizza suppers, soft drink parties, Saturday breakfasts, ribbon, coat hanger, chewing gum, pencil and candy sales, white elephant parties, dances, pie and cake walks —and even an expurgated variation of the spin-the-bottle parties.

SCREAMING NEED:

Etiquitte Book For Hollywood

By INEZ ROBB

My good deed for this day is a gratis presentation of a million-dollar idea to Amy Vanderbilt and her host of imitators. The etiquette authorities, in their eagerness to transform us into a nation of Fauntleroys and Miss Prisses, have somehow overlooked a virgin territory ripe for their ministrations.

The ladies have prescribed the ground rules for every social contingency from apple bobbing to zebra hunting, but they have let their public down woefully on a "Book of Etiquette As She Is Practiced in Hollywood."

There is a crying—well, maybe, a screaming—need for such a tome. Such a volume if written by Mme. Fearless Fairless, would clear up the justifiable confusions that assail the civilian or non-Hollywood mind when Miss Shelley Winters, the inflammable Bernhardt of the screen, and her fiance, Anthony Franciosa (who is incandescent on his own), become entangled with (1) a news photographer and (2) with the law.

The nuances of Hollywood social usage and the delicate shadings of custom in the cinema capital are splendidly illustrated by this fracas —and also the necessity of a book that will explain these tribal taboos to outlanders.

To being with, Miss Winters and Franciosa have made no secret of their bethrothal in any gossip, Broadway or theatre column which would print the word. Nor has the phrase "Postively Top Secret" been stamped on the news that they would be wedded once the finance was divorced by his wife.

Furthermore, Miss Winters has never shown any more repugnance to being photographed by the press then, say, Jayne Mansfield. So when Miss Winters and her fiance went publicly and together to the Superior Court Building in Los Angeles to make an open and public bid on a home in Beverly Hills, a news photographer started to make a routine picture of the pair.

This is where the plot thickens and confusion reigns for us barbarians beyond the hills of Hollywood. The attempt to take a picture of Miss Winters and Franciosa together obviously fractured a strictly cinema social taboo. It caused Franciosa to fall upon the photographer and aim and placekick at his groin. And caused the law to jail Franciosa.

"We can't have out pictures taken. He is still getting a divorce," screamed Miss Winters. "He doesn't want to be photographed because he doesn't want any scandal."

(Sure enough, Franciosa was getting a divorce, on that very day. Or rather, his wife received such a decree in Reno.)

Anyway, there you have the epitome of the delicate social usages that make Hollywood a trap for the unwary and a book of etiquette a necessity. Apparently, one of the basic rules says that if one is engaged to a man in the process of getting a divorce, it is all right to say it in print but not in pictures. That would constitute scandal.

Of course, any book of etiquette is one-tenth politesse and nine-tenth anthropology. So my nominee as the author to tackle Hollywood's etiquette problems is Anthropologist Margaret Mead. Her study of the natives of Samoa made her world famous and ought to prepare her handsomely for research among the Hollywoodenheads.

U.S. Ships Break Off French Visit

CANNES, France (AP)—The U.S. supercarrier Forrestal and a force of cruisers and destroyers broke off good will visits to southern France today and put to sea, presumably for Middle Eastern waters.

Destination of the force was not announced but it was assumed the ships were bound for the area where Jordan's King Hussein is fighting to keep leftists and Communists from control of his kingdom.

With the 60,000-ton supercarrier, the Navy's biggest, went the cruisers Salem and Des Moines and a covey of escorting destroyers.

The Forrestal and Salem had been scheduled to stay on the French Riviera until April 30. The Des Moines and her three escorts had been visiting Marseille.

The Forestal's orders came so suddenly that she left 150 of her 3,500-man crew on leave in Paris. The U. S. naval attache in the French capital was alerted to round up the men, presumably to fly them to join their ship.

Spadea's American Designer Pattern

There's a new feel in fashion, a fullness so soft and seemingly uncalculated that one is hardly aware of it except that the general overall apparance is one of extreme femininity. Mollie Parnis handles this new feel with great sublety in a charming version of a shirtwaist, its bodice slightly bloused—as are the three quarter sleeves. The sleeve treatment is especially noteworthy since it is now being seen more and more frequently. True to her fine sense of styling, Miss Parnis sets the collar well away from the neck, and in front cuts it in one with the front pieces of the bodice so that it gracefully rolls over. The skirt is a beautiful continuation of side pleats, again achieving fullness without emphasis. Make this exclusive designer-sized pattern with its accurate perforations that assure professional results in any drapeable, pliable material such as printed silk or rayon crepe, surah, pima cottons, thin wools. Size 16 requiring 7⅞ yards of 39 inch material for dress. To order Pattern No. 1302, state size, enclose $1.00. Address American Designer Patterns, Box 535, G.P.O. Dept. S-13, New York 1, N.Y. Choose Your Graduation Dress To Double At Summer Parties

By DOROTHY ROE

EVERY GIRL wants a graduation dress that can be tranformed into a party dress after the diploma is safely in hand. The best way to get exactly the right dress is to sew it yourself, suggest local sewing center experts.

One smart solution is to make a bare-topped party dress of white pique, with a little coverup cape. This season capes are all the rage, so it's possible to have a halter top party dress, with the cape making it a graceful and appropriate graduation dress.

One of the most flattering styles for any girl is a dress cut on princess lines, high-waisted, with a full-gored skirt, a halter neckline and a low-dipping back. The cape, made from only two major pattern pieces, is a pretty balance for the flared skirt. The cape should fall about three inches above the elbow. The girl who is extra-short or extra-tall will appreciate the inch-rulers printed on the pattern, so alterations can be made accurately and easily.

For the sheath minded, the same pattern contains directions for a slender dress, which might be teamed with a back-buttoning bolero. If you want a more formal look, you might make it in white silk shantung. After graduation, you may give the dress a new look with a variety of bright cummerbunds, ranging from gay red-and-white checked gingham for a pique dress to turquoise taffeta for the white shantung. And for a really gala look, try a wide sash of organza or chiffon, with long streamers clear to the hemline. Just for fun, tip the streamers with artificial flowers.

DOUBLE LIFE—This white pique graduation dress becomes a halter-top party dress when cape is removed.

Dear Miss Brandow:

What advice can you offer a boy who likes a girl who has too expensive tastes How can he keep from running out of money when the girl keeps wanting to go places and buy things?

Lance

Such a boy will have to keep his wits about him, and handle this feminine dish with suave determination. Wouldn't it be easier to find another girl?

Never decide how to spend the evening after you arrive at her house. Decide beforehand just how much you can afford and ask her out for something specific such as a certain movie, bowling, or miniature golf. This way she either accepts or rejects your offer, and cannot politely alter it.

When inviting her out to dinner, you can also name the place you intend taking her by saying, "How would you like to go to dinner with me before the movie: I'd like to take you to the Cup 'N Saucer."

You're the man, so take the lead.

When she's in a mood to go on a spree with your money, you can always play dumb and ignore her hints.

If she's presistent, be frank. Tell her you like her but you can't afford to be extravagant. It's not your pride but hers that should then feel crest fallsen. In the future she'll be more understanding if she really likes you. If she's only a gold digger, you'll find that out, too.

To Good Eating

Higher incomes do not necessarily mean better diets states the U. S. Department of Agriculture. People spending more money for food are likely to have good diets, but their nutrient levels show relatively little improvement over what they purchased before more money was spent on the food.

Cosmorama Club Plans Fund Drive

Mrs. Fred Bullard was hostess to the Cosmorama Study Club in its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Martha Ann Woman's Club.

The president, Mrs. Ross Hemphill, presided at the business meeting.

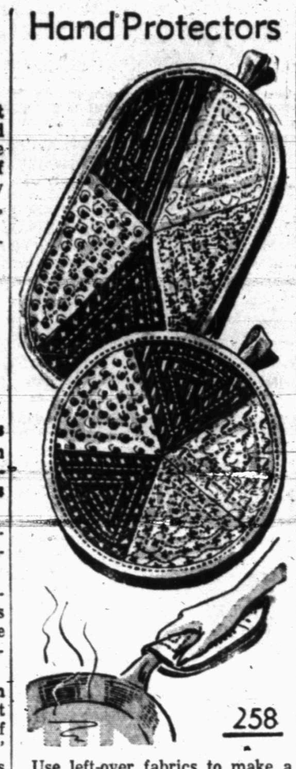

Plans for the fund raising activities for the Martha Ann Woman's Club fund were made. These are to be executed by various individual projects.

Mrs. Jack Bowden was program leader and she introduced the cast for an entertaining skit titled, "If Men Played Cards As Women Do." The cast of characters, all students from the Snyder High School drama department, under direction of Mrs. John Casebier, were the following: Jimmy Pior as John, David Floyd as Bob, Fred McFarland as George and Bill Smallwood as Mark.

A dessert plate was served to 20 members present.

The next meeting will be a dinner on Friday evening, May 3, at 7 o'clock in the Martha Ann Woman's Club. Husbands of members will be special guests.

Initial Meeting Held Here By League Of Women Voters

Unit 1 of the Snyder provisional League of Women Voters met for its initial session Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bill Butler, 3203 Fortieth Street.

Stressing the responsibility of the individual in the conduct of government, Miss Ethel Roberts, discussion chairman, gave a brief review of league background from its beginning in the Suffragette movement of the 1920's to its present form.

League informative material on bills now before the Texas state legislature were read and discussed. Special attention was given to Senate Bill 24, which secures for married women the right to control separate property possessed prior to marriage here.

At the invitation of the Texas Legislative Council, the state League of Women Voters advised with the preparation of Bill 24 and companion bills relating to the legal status of women. The bill was passed by the Senate April 16 and will now go to the House.

Also discussed at Tuesday's meeting was House Bill 695 relating to the codification of juvenile laws to faciliate the efficient operation of juvenile courts. No charges in existing laws are proposed. This bill is expected to come up for House action in the near future.

In connection with the League aim of improving election laws, the group discussed House Bill 107, providing for the issuance of annual exemption certificates for everyone now exempt from the poll tax. This would effect a complete registration of voters. The bill will be brought to the floor of the House April 29.

All three bills have been under extensive study by Leagues throughout the state and have the support of the League.

Local members will write to Representative Robert T. Patterson in Austin expressing their approval of these bills.

Each discussion unit of the local League meets once a month. Unit 1 will hold its second meeting Tuesday, May 14, at the home of Mrs. Sterling Williams.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

MOST OF THE MINOR LEAGUES around the country have now opened a new season and there's quite a bit of speculating on whether all or any of the leagues will make it through the season.

Minor League baseball is at it lowest ebb, in regards to the number of competing. The list continues to dwindle each year.

Texas, for instance, has had as many as 45 teams in organized baseball since World War II but this year only 18 teams answered the call.

When such cities as Lubbock, San Angelo, Waco and Galveston, to name a few, have to throw in the towel because they can't support pro ball, it's a wonder how some of these cities four and five times smaller than those can make the grade.

Acutally, none do and finish in the "black." In most cases, it's two or three wealthy individuals or maybe more who are willing to fork over the cash that keeps these clubs in business.

Until the TV bug dies out, minor league baseball will continue to suffer at the gate.

West Texas Cities Have Surrendered Clubs

There are nine cities in West Texas alone on the "sidelines" now who have been in pro baseball at one time or another since World War II. They are San Angelo, Sweetwater, Big Spring, Odessa, Vernon, Lamesa, Borger, Del Rio and Lubbock.

The president of the Southwestern League recently said Ballinger and Hobbs, N.M., were the only clubs in that league that finished in the "black last season.

Ballinger players, thus, must have been playing for free because total attendance for the Ballinger home games last year showed a little over 24,000 in 70 games.

That's only an average of slightly over 300 per game. The general consensus is that unless a club can average 1,000 fans per game the club will finish in the "red."

Big League Scout Views Game Here

Sid Hudson, former Washington Senator and now a scout for that club, was a spectator at Tuesday's Tiger-Big Spring game.

Some players are prone to tighten up when big league scouts are watching them. But such wasn't the case with Tiger first baseman Milton Ham.

Ham, in fact, seemingly was inspired by the presence of the major league scout as he probably turned in his best performance of the season. Ham doubled in the first inning and then hit his first homerun of the season in the fourth.

Ham's homerun poke was a terrific blow since it was hit into the wind some 350 feet away over the left field fence.

Joe Reaves and Neil Boyd realized something in Tuesday's game for the first time this season. Neither Reaves or Boyd had drawn a walk in the first 19 Tiger games.

Both, however, drew free tickets to first Tuesday with Reaves getting two. Before Tuesday's game, Reaves had appeared at the plate 69 times and Boyd 64.

Reaves broke his "walkless" spell on his first trip to the plate Tuesday while Boyd gained his initial pass on his second time up against the Big Springers.

The six passes the Tigers received Tuesday was the most they have been issued in a single game this season. It seems that the Tigers had rather swing way than wait for that free pass.

Bases on balls, however, can be pretty damaging at times. The six walks coupled with six hits produced a lot of runs for the Tigers Tuesday and it's the runs that baseball teams are after, of course.

Tigers Journey To Odessa Tomorrow

The Tiger baseballers will be gunning for victory No. 13 tomorrow when they take on the Odessa Broncs at Odessa.

It will be the third game between the two teams. Each owns a victory in the first two.

Ronnie Baker has drawn the starting assignment for the Tigers in tomorrow's "rubber" game with the Broncs.

Baker will carry a 3-3 record into the Odessa tilt. It will be Baker's first time to face the Broncs this season.

Dwayne Prince hurled both of the games with the Broncs so far this season, winning 1-0 and losing 4-3.

The Tigers will carry a 12-8 season record to Odessa.

Tiger coach Speedy Moffett announced this morning that a make up game with San Angelo will be played Monday at San Angelo. The Tigers and Bobcats were weathered out of a doubleheader at San Angelo April 13. Only one of the games, however, will be made up.

The Tigers have a regularly scheduled game with San Angelo here next Tuesday.

Texas, Kansas Renew Rivalry

DES MOINES (AP)—Standing six triumphs apiece, Kansas and Texas renew their struggle for baton kings of 1957 this weekend when they battle it out in the Drake Relays. The Longhorns will ship their two world-record setting sprint combines, the 440 and 880, to the Penn Relays but will meet the Jayhawkers in two face-to-face distance battles in the relays here.

The two teams' 3-3 standoffs at the Texas and Kansas Relays were heightened at Lawrence, Kan., last Saturday when the Longhorns whipped Kansas in the distance medley and the Jayhawks returned the defeat in one of Texas' favorites, the mile relay.

There is little doubt the Longhorns will sail far ahead of the two sprint fields at Philadelphia. No one would be surprised if they picked up the mile, too. All of which means Kansas must win both head-to-head matches at Des Moines, plus another gold medal, if it is to gain an even split in this spring's running relay carnival battle.

San Francisco Team Soars To Top In ABC

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A San Francisco team rolled the best series in the open division of the American Bowling Congress last night, but neither the open division or booster standings had any newcomers.

The L&L Delicatessen team of San Francisco shot a 2,838 to lead the scoring parade; rolling games of 797, 915 and 926.

John Bazzanella led off for the Californians with a 619 series.

The Amour Star Smokies of Fort Worth tallied 2,510 for last night's best booster team score.

Southern Presses Wolcott As Texas' Greatest Trackster

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

For those who recall Fred Wolcott of Rice, and who have seen Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian, it would seem incorrect to label Eddie Southern this state's greatest track man. But who's to say he won't be?

Southern has participated in few meets—he's only a sophomore at Texas now—in which he didn't either set a record or push somebody to one. Speaking of durability, consider what Texas Eddie has just done: He ran in eight events in three different meets over a period of only seven days; he set records or helped set records in seven of them.

Sunday he was doing the 200 meter low hurdles in 23.8 and the 100-meter high hurdles in 15.2, plus running a leg on the 400-meter relay team that turned in 41.7—all records—at Mexico City.

Thursday he was running the high hurdles in 13.9, the low hurdles in 22.8 and running a leg on the 440-yard relay team that tied the world's record in 40.2—all records in Dallas' invitational meet.

Saturday he was finishing second to a 14.1 120-yard high hurdles and running a grand leg on the 440-yard relay team that set a new world's mark of 39.9 at the Kansas Relays.

Southern was pretty tired, as were all the Texas tracksters, what with all that travel and all that participation in a week. It was amazing that they could call upon their reserve strength to run the greatest sprint relay in history.

Southern isn't as great hurdler yet as Wolcott was in his prime. Flyin' Freddie beat them all, set all kinds of records and must be considered among the finest hurdlers of all time. Wolcott also was a top sprinter; faster at 100 yards than Southern. Not as fast, however, as Morrow, who is the greatest sprinter alive today.

Wolcott could do anything. He once broad jumped, without any previous practice, and leaped better than 24 feet.

Morrow could be probably the finest quarter-miler in the world if he worked at it as he does the 100 and 220. He ran it in 47 seconds in the first competitive quarter he ever tried—in the Texas Relays. Many men go a lifetime trying to hit 47 seconds, and fail to make it.

But potentially, Southern is the greatest of them all. Two years from now, as he competes for the last time as a collegian, Eddie should be the world's best.

'56 Finalists Eye Repeat

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—A replay of last year's North and South Amateur Golf Tournament final was in the making as the eight survivors of yesterday's two rounds moved into the quarter-finals today.

Defending champion Hillman Robbins, Air Force lieutenant from Memphis, Tenn., was top man in the upper bracket and the 1956 runner-up. Bill Hyndman of Abington, Pa., was shaping up as the sharpest golfer in the lower half.

Robbins teed off against Don Bisplinghoff, 1955 champion from Winter Park, Fla., and Don Weiland of Phoenixville, Pa., met Dr. Bud Taylor of Pomona, Calif., in upper half tests.

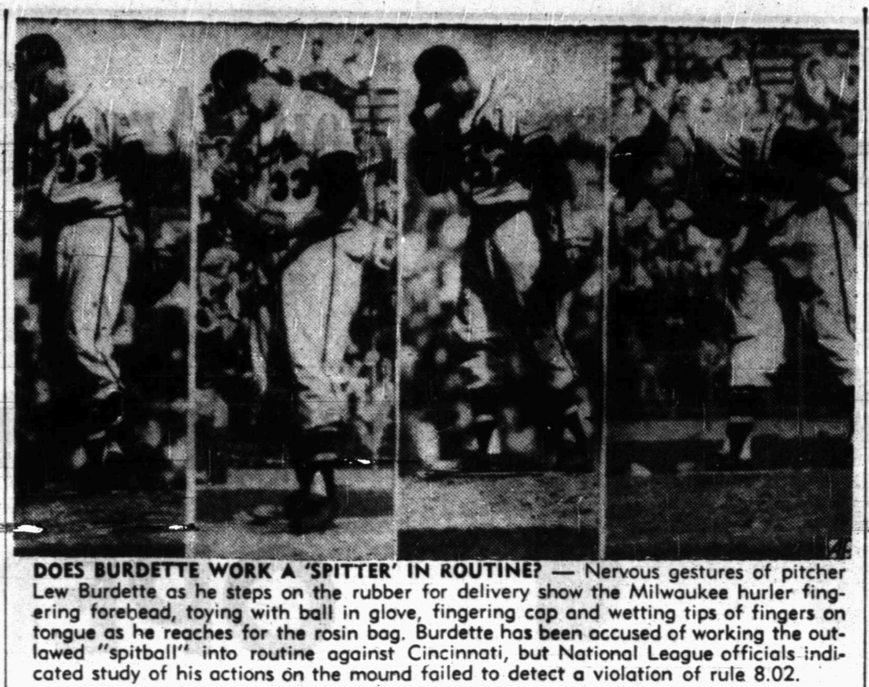

In the lower half Hyndman met a rugged customer in Arnold Blum, Southern amateur champion from Macon, Ga., and Lawrence Cook, the Wrightsville Beach, N. C., policeman with the cross-hand grip, engaged two-time champion Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va.

Robbins was a sharp two under par in his 5 and 4 afternoon victory over Ed Tutwiler of Charleston, W. Va., yesterday.

Hyndman, six under par in three matches over a sun-baked No. 2 country club course, breezed by formidable Jack Penrose of Miami, Fla., 3 and 2, in his third-round test.

Tom Wilson of the Los Angeles Rams led the National Football League in kickoff returns in 1956. He carried 15 returns for 477 yards.

Shortstop Johnny Logan of the Milwaukee Braves led the National League in sacrifice bunts in 1956 with 31. He also hit 15 home runs.

DOES BURDETTE WORK A 'SPITTER' IN ROUTINE? — Nervous gestures of pitcher Lew Burdette as he steps on the rubber for delivery show the Milwaukee hurler fingering forehead, toying with ball in glove, fingering cap and wetting tips of fingers on tongue as he reaches for the rosin bag. Burdette has been accused of working the outlawed "spitball" into routine against Cincinnati, but National League officials indicated study of his actions on the mound failed to detect a violation of rule 8.02.

Redlegs Finally Get Moving; Rip Cubs For 3rd Straight

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

You have to figure Birdie Tebbetts finally got around to smiling at himself in the mirror when he shaved this morning.

It's been a tough first week of the season for the chubby Cincinnati manager what with his Redlegs, loaded with pennant potential and power, losing their first four games; Ted Kluszewski benched with a bad back; Frank Robinson coming up with a new sore arm; Johnny Temple giving in to a sore throat; and his pinch hitters delivering only three times in 15 at bats.

But things looked great today. The Redlegs have won three in a row.

They got their third last night, piling up seven runs in the fifth inning with one hit and nine walks for a 9-5 decision over the Chicago Cubs.

The nine walks set a National League record, finally disposing of a 47-year-old lapse by the Redlegs themselves. They set the old mark by granting St. Louis eight walks in one inning back in 1910.

The victory left Cincinnati three games back of the coleaders — Milwaukee and Brooklyn. The Braves kept the pace with a four-home run job that beat the St. Louis Cardinals 8-7 and the Dodgers made the most of five hits to beat the New York Giants 4-3.

Philadelphia also grabbed a seven-run inning while defeating Pittsburgh 8-5 in the other NL game.

In the American, the New York Yankees beat Baltimore 3-2; Kansas City belted Cleveland with five home runs for a 17-6 breeze; and Boston nudged Washington 4-3 in 10 innings.

The Redlegs took their record walks from loser Moe Drabowski, Jackie Collum and Jim Brosnan to overhaul a 2-1 lead. Bob Thurman, subbing for Robinson, homered but it was the Cubs who showed the power with three homers.

Del Crandall put the Braves over the hump with his solo home run in the ninth off losing reliefer Willard Schmidt. Milwaukee twice had scrambled from behind, scoring every run on homers — Joe Adcock's second of the year and three-run smacks by Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron. Del Ennis helped build the early Card lead off Ray Crone with a two-run homer, but Herm Wehmeier couldn't hold it.

The Dodgers had all sorts of troubles with the Giants, but piled up three hits, a walk, sacrifice fly, error and passed ball to score all four runs in the fourth and chase rookie Curt Barclay to his second defeat.

Rookie Bob Bowman hit a two-run homer and rookie Ed Bouchee added a three-run triple in the Phillies' big sixth that beat Bob Friend, who had given just two hits for the first five frames.

Mickey Mantle's second home run of the year did the job in the eighth for reliefer Bob Grim of the Yanks after Art Ditmar, in his first start as a Yankee, failed to hold on to the 2-0 lead Yogi Berra's homer supplied in the first inning.

Hector Lopez walloped a pair of home runs and drove in six runs for the A's, who got rid of Bob Lemon early in winning their third in a row.

Ted Williams' third home run of the season gave the Red Sox a 3-all tie in the eighth, and a single by Jackie Jensen, following Billy Klaus' double, bagged it in the 10th.

Kell Nears 2,000 Base Hit Circle

NEW YORK (AP)—Day by day George Kell climbs steadily toward his lifetime goal of 2,000 hits in a brilliant American League career. At the latest count he was 28 hits short.

"It will mean a lot to me," said the veteran Baltimore infielder, who alternates between first base and his old third base job this spring. "Last winter I thought about retiring to the farm (in Swifton, Ark.) but I decided to give it one more whirl at least to get those 2,000 hits. They tell me I'll be the 100th player to do it, if I get that far."

Although Kell at 33 hasn't long to go in the majors, he is a cinch to hit the 2,000-mark within a month. Three yesterday brought his total to 1,972.

Manager Paul Richards had Kell back on third yesterday, playing Bob Boyd at first against a right-handed pitcher. However, he has played first a great deal to give Richards a good look at Brooks Robinson, his rookie third baseman.

"I like it at first base," he said. "It's easier on me and could extend my career. You don't have to make the long throw and you don't have to field so many ground balls."

FOR PENN RELAYS

Longhorns Invade Quaker State

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Texas University Longhorns, bent on winning three relay titles at Friday and Saturday's Penn Relays, are in town a day early to warm up.

The Texans last invaded Franklin Field 21 years ago and established a Carnival record in the quarter-mile relay which this year's quartet plans to lower. The 440 Carnival record of 0:41.1 is the oldest mark on the Penn Relays' books.

Coach Clyde Littlefield, who is referee of this 63rd annual Penn Track and Field Show, will send teams after the 440, 880 and mile relay crowns, and to say he has a chance of winning all three is no exaggeration.

Wally Wilson, Ed Southern, Hollis Gainey and Bobby Whilden will carry the baton for the Longhorns in both the quarter and half, vents in which this foursome already has lowered the existing world records. At the Kansas Relays last week, the quartet was clocked in 0:39.9 for the quarter, and in the recent Texas Relays ran the half in 1:22.7.

The Texans appear safe in the 440 and 880, but the mile should be a humdinger as the Long Star State runners clash with Villa-champions. Texas has recorded a 3:12.8 this year and will be shooting at Villanova's 1956 Carnival record of 3:11.9.

Running for Coach Littlefield will be Jimmy Holt, Lavern Voight, Ed Southern and Wilson. Coach Jumbo Elliott plans to use Ed Collmore, Charley Stead, Ron Delany and Charley Jenkins for Villanova.

O-City Keeps On Rolling

By The Associated Press

It seems time for Texas League clubs to face the fact that Oklahoma City has a good ball club and might well lead the race under its own power.

Before the season started, nobody could see much for the Indians to do except linger around the bottom, winning a game occasionally. But here almost two weeks have gone by and the Redskins have lost just one game while winning six.

They widened their lead to one full game Wednesday night when they clipped Fort Worth twice, 6-1 and 5-4. At the same time, San Antonio was being cooled off 7-1 by Houston, which surely needed a victory in order to get its head up.

Rain again kept Dallas idle at Tulsa and Shreveport sitting around at Austin.

Walt Kellner limited the Cats to seven hits in the first game as Keith Little and Jerry immerman led a blustery Oklahoma City hitting attack. Little got three hits, one a double, while Zimmerman clouted a homer and double to drive in two runs.

In the second game Oklahoma City bounced two tallies across in the fifth to whip the faltering Cats, who now are resting in the cellar. Spencer Robbins singled in the deciding run.

Houston snapped a 5-game losing streak by finally bunching some hits. The Buffs pushed four runs across in the first inning and sailed along easily to victory.

Brooklyn rookie pitcher Bob Harnell had a 16-12 record for Portland in the Pacific Coast League in 1956.

New Faces Dot River Oaks

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — William Quillian and Barry MacKay, a pair of new faces, swept into the quarter-finals of the 23rd annual River Oaks tennis tournament today after staging upsets.

Quillian, former NCAA doubles champion from Seattle, Wash., yesterday ousted Grant Golden, the nation's No. 10 amateur, 6-2, 6-2. MacKay, national indoors doubles champion from Dayton, Ohio, eliminated seventh-seeded Don Candy of Australia. Golden had been seeded eighth.

Top-seeded Herbie Flam had a a rough go before defeating Richard Schuette of Houston in three sets, 3-6, 6-2, 6-1. Flam did not take command until the fifth game of the second set.

Third-seeded Dick Savitt of New York downed Eugene Saller of Zlin, Czechoslovakia, 6-3, 7-5, while fourth-rated Mervyn Rose of Australia eliminated Clint Nettleton of Baytown, Tex., 6-1, 6-1.

Mackay draws Savitt and Quillian meets Rose in today's quarter-finals. Flam meets Sammy Giammalva of Houston, U.S. Davis Cup star, and Bernard Bartzen of Dallas clashes with Vic Seixas of Philadelphia.

The meet will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday and will run through 3 p.m. with two hours off at lunch.

8-Way Tie For 1st In Southwestern

By The Associated Press

A league president's greatest desire is for his clubs all to be tied for first place. President W. J. Green of the Southwestern League finds it that way with his circuit with just two games played per team.

Clovis beat Carlsbad 6-1, Ballinger nosed Plainview 10-9 in 10 innings, Pampa trampled Midland 8-1 and Hobbs edged El Paso 9-8 Wednesday night. The upshot of it all was that each club now has won one and lost one—they're all resting at .500 per cent.

Rookie southpaw Jim Bailey of Clovis was as tight with his pitching as a new hatband, giving Carlsbad only five hits. John Coddington and Bobby Dear, toiling for the Potashers, not only were nicked for timely hits but issued nine bases on balls.

The Redleg attack included an inside-the-park homer by Doug Kassay. Glenn Rediger parked the ball for the lone Potasher run.

Joe Giel produced the clincher for Ballinger in its victory over Plainview. He singled in the deciding run in the tenth. He also had produced three other hits and was aided in the conquest by Stubby Greer, who socked a 2-run homer. Ralph Wilcox circuited twice for Plainview.

Pampa scored in clusters to hammer Midland. The Oilers blasted three across in the fifth and four in the ninth. Meanwhile, Tommy Harrison, an adept lefthander, was limiting Midland to five hits and was backed by an 11-hit Oiler attack that included home runs by Bob Flores and Ed Triggs.

Hobbs shoved over three runs in the seventh to beat El Paso in a slugfest. The clubs combined for 22 hits, 12 of them by Hobbs. George Payte, who started for Hobbs, lasted only six innings but got credit for the victory. He also helped the cause along with a couple of hits and a run batted in.

Tractors, Trucks To Be Displayed

Complete new International trucks in all sizes and new Farmall and International tractors will be displayed here tomorrow by Snyder Truck and Tractor Co. on the East Highway.

Included in the new line of farm tractors and equipment are the new 350 Utility tractor, 350 Farmall and 450 Farmall.

A completely newly styled and engineered line of International trucks ranging from glamorous new pickups to the big International giants of the highway will be on display in the truck division.

"We are proud of these new items of equipment and we believe that farmers, ranchers and persons who drive and use trucks will be surprised and pleased with the many advances in both design and engineering made for the 1957 models," Paul Keaton, owner of Snyder Truck & Tractor, said.

An idea of the acceptance of the new 300 and 350 Utility International tractors can be gained from the fact that Snyder Truck & Tractor has already sold this year nine of them equipped with industrial equipment such as backhoes, loaders, and other industrial equipments.

But what will be most surprising to the average individual will be the glamorous new International pickups and trucks.

"For many years International has been known as the workhorse of the trucking industry, but with these new trucks and pickups it can continue to be called the workhorse, but have all the glamor of a sleek new passenger car," Keaton said.

The bigger trucks as well as the smaller ones have received the complete re-designing treatment with the underlying theme of greater roadability and maneuverability.

A cab-forward feature of the new International trucks permits greater load capacity while retaining the handling ease and maneuverability of a shorter over-all length and wheelbase.

"The cab-forward trucks will be especially useful in downtown traffic for deliveries, in construction work where much of the driving is in tight places with sharp turns and frequent back-ups, and in service hauling such as delivery of butane where the truck must be maneuvered into and out of tight places such as back yards," he said.

Increased power of the engines is another new feature of the trucks.

A wide range of trucks of all sizes from pickups to the big 180's 190's and 200's will be on display, along with the new line of four-by-fours—newly introduced four-wheel-drive models.

In the farm tractor and equipment field, International Harverster has introduced this year for the first time new traction control and fast-hitch implements.

"The new traction control permits the driver of the tractor to regulate the traction of the tractor so that a perfect balance between the load and traction of the tractor can be maintained at all times," Bruce Evans, sales manager for farm equipment for the firm, said.

"There is no longer any need for wheel weights and water in the tires to give ultimate traction," he said.

The fast-hitch implements enables the farmer or tractor used to change from one type implement to a completely different type in just a few seconds time. A reversible disk braking plow which plows to either side of furrow is one of the new implements.

Everyone is invited to attend the showing of new equipment at Snyder Truck & Tractor Co. this weekend.

SNYDER TRUCK & TRACTOR INTRODUCES a completely new line of both International trucks and pickups and Farmall and International tractors here Saturday. One of the new International tractors is shown working above. It is equipped with Davis front loader and backhoe. The tractor was purchased by Partain & Tadlock, construction contractors here. Moroccan Aid Sought

DALLAS (AP) — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt yesterday said the United States must send some of its surplus food to Morocco or that country likely will fall under the influence of Egyptian Premier Nasser.

Mrs. Roosevelt said less than two months remain to organize food relief to keep the Moroccans from starving. She addressed a statewide workshop sponsored by the Dallas Assn. for the United Nations at Southern Methodist University.

The nation's former first lady criticized Vice President Nixon for not reporting to the American people what she called the "impending famine" in the North Africa country.

She said she visited Morocco shortly after Nixon's recent African tour and read his report on Morocco before she arrived there. Mrs. Roosevelt said Nixon did not mention a famine.

Food shipments should be sent through the United Nations, she said.

Sen. Knowland Sees Little Hope For Cut In Taxes Now

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) said today he doubts there will be any tax reduction legislation at this session, even if sharp cuts are made in President Eisenhower's budget.

"It would be more prudent and sound from a fiscal basis to wait until early next year before considering tax reduction," the Republican Senate leader said in an interview.

Some Democrats in Congress, among them Speaker of the House Rayburn (D-Tex), have been talking about a tax reduction bill this year to take effect next Jan. 1. House Republican Leader Martin (R-Mass) also has been forecasting a tax cut next year.

Knowland said no one is asking that a tax reduction take effect earlier than next January, and added:

"No responsible member of Congress is suggesting that we should reduce taxes in time of deficit that would just up the national debt."

"Personally, I would apply from two to three billion dollars a year on reduction of the national debt before any tax reduction is considered," he said.

By waiting until next January or later, Knowland said, Congress will have five or six more months to test estimates on government income and spending.

Along that line, he said he wants to look further into Pentagon reports that defense agencies now are spending at a rate of 38 billion dollars this fiscal year, which ends June 30, or some two billions higher than had been estimated.

Pentagon officers said there had been a speedup in production of guided missiles and other new weapons.

BANANA CORN MEAL LOAF
. . . long standing favorite

Banana Loaf Is Choice Dish To Serve At Special Parties

So many showers this time of year....bride showers, house-warming showers, newcomer showers, stork showers! Each shower is a challenge to the hostess to do something different, to serve something different.

Banana Bread itself is a favorite of long standing, but to this banana loaf something new has been added — corn meal! The corn meal gives lightness, and a faint, intriguing crunch.

Easy to make, especially when self-rising corn meal and self-rising flour are used, saving steps of measuring and mixing. Banana Corn Meal Loaf lends itself happily to informal entertaining. Guests can spread their own delicious slices with a mixture of cream cheese and cottage cheese fluffed with orange juice and sprinkled with chopped nuts.

Children really "go for" Banana Corn Meal Loaf, spread with butter or plain so. It is wholesome, and self-rising corn meal provides additional calcium. Toasted, Banana Corn Meal Loaf is an excellent breakfast bread.

BANANA CORN MEAL LOAF
1 cup self-rising corn meal
1 cup self-rising flour
2-3 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cup mashed ripe banana
1-3 cup melted shortening
1 cup chopped nuts

(If plain corn meal and flour are used, add 3 teaspoons baking powder and 1 teaspoon salt.)

Sift the corn meal, flour and sugar together onto waxed paper. Beat eggs, add mashed banana and melted fat. Add dry ingredients to egg mixture and stir lightly. Add chopped nuts. Mix until just blended. Pour into a loaf pan (4½ inches x 8½ inches x 3 inches) which is greased on bottom only, and sprinkled lightly with corn meal. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 60 to 70 minutes or until done. Let bread partially cool in pan 20 to 30 minutes before turning onto rack. Cool thoroughly before wrapping for storage. Makes 1 loaf.

Young Prospectors Find Their Goal

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A couple young "prospectors" decided to take a look yesterday in the Knudsen Builders' supply warehouse because as the 6-year-old told police he remarked to the 7-year-old: "There's gold in that place."

Two warehousemen were gone 10 minutes from the building, but during that time the "prospectors," utilizing a single crowbar "for mining," wrecked 11 doors, one sheet of plywood and three cartons of tile..

Former Secretary Of Navy Sued By Wife

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former Secretary of the Navy Dan A. Kimball, 62, has been sued for divorce after 31 years of marriage. His wife, Dorothy, charges extreme cruelty.

Kimball, president of Aerojet-General Corp., and vice president of General Tire and Rubber Co., was secretary of the Navy under President Truman.

Mrs. Kimball's suit, filed yesterday, said they separated last Nov. 24. They have no children.

Meat 'n Potato Man Likes This

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

MAKE THAT MEAT-AND-POTATOES man in your family happy and cook him a boiled beef dinner. You may have to make a date with a piece of meat at your market before you do so — but it's worth the trouble. Not all shops carry fresh beef brisket, so talk to your meatman nd "engage" this cut ahead of time.

Although this dish is called "boiled," actually it's simmered. This means the water in which the meat is cooked is kept below the boiling point; when bubbles that rise stay just under the surface of the liquid, you know your heat is right.

Boiled beef dinners were popular with our grandmothers; one reason they remain popular is that they have a down-to-earth goodness. And an added inducement—there's only one pot to wash after them.

A fine grade of beef brisket will be streaked with layers of fat, and usually briskets are boneless. A whole brisket is a big wedge-shaped affair that is a couple of inches thick at one end and twice as thick at the other. You probably will want to buy a piece of brisket weighing about three pounds.

Old-fashioned cooks sometimes over-cooked vegetables that go into the boiled beef dinner. Nowadays we add the vegetables toward the end of the cooking time, potatoes and carrots first, later wedges of green cabbage. If you have big old-fashioned soup plates, you can serve meat, vegetabes and broth together in them. Or you can serve the broth in cups or bowls and the meat and vegetables on plates.

To go with the slices of boiled meat, have horseradish or mustard on hand.

Cooks have strong opinions on whether or not turnips should be part of a boiled beef dinner. Some hold that the pronounced flavor of the turnip obscures the flavor of the meat and other vegetables. Others say that turnips are as much a partner to the meat and other vegetables as tomatoes are to lettuce.

BOILED BEEF DINNER

Ingredients: 2 to 4 puonds fresh beef brisket, ½ cup chopped celery, a few celery tops, 1 to 3 teaspoons salt, ¼ to ½ teaspoon pepper, 1 bay leaf, 3 to 6 whole cloves, 6 medium-sized pottoes (pared), 6 medium-sized carrots (pared), 1 small head green cabbage (cut into serving-size wedge-shaped pieces).

Methor: Put beef brisket in a kettle and cover with water. Add chopped celery, celery tops, salt pepper, bay leaf and cloves. Cover and bring rapikly to simmering point; lower heat and simmer untiltender when a fork is inserted in center — about 2½ to 3 hours. About 30 minutes before beef is done add whole pared potatoes and carrots; about 15 minutes latter add cabbage wedges. Strain broth; slice meat. Serve broth in bowls or cups or use as stock for a soup.

Attorney Says There Are Too Many Stories

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — The district attorney's office has made a discreet withdrawal from the affairs of Yma Sumac and her estranged husband after listening to approximately 12 versions of Tuesday's brawl between the Peruvian pair and assorted associates.

"I will issue no complaint — that's definite," said Deputy Dist. Atty. Allan H. McCurdy yesterday. "Both sides tell completely opposite stories."

The hair-pulling, face-slapping spree was touched off when Miss Sumac, accompanied by three private detectives, called on her husband, Moises Vivanco, to collect some of her belongings.

FROM JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

Protest Is Sent To Red Premier

Charging that Soviet officials "may perhaps be found fighters actually against God," a strongly worded letter of protest from officials of the Watch Tower Bible an Tract Society, legal governing body of Jehovah's Witnesses, has been sent to Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin of the U. S. S. R.

J. D. Cook, presiding minister of the Snyder congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, in announcing the contents of the letter, cited the wholesale arresis and mass movements of Jehovah's Witnesses to slave labor camps in Siberia.

"For many years now," Cook quoted the letter as saying, "Jehovah's Witnesses within the Soviet Union have endured great difficulties and heavy persecution. They have constituted committees and delegations from among their own ministers for the purpose of registering their religious organization according to the statutes in force, but on each occasion they have been rebuffed and instead of being allowed to register their Christian organization they have had ministers in the delegations arrested."

The letter was written to accompany a composite petition that had been adopted over a period of nine months by a total of 462,936 of Jehovah's Witnesses, meeting in 199 assemblies throughout the world. It called attention to the 7,000 Jehovah's Witnesses, meeting in slave camps in the Soviet Union and, requesting their release, proposed that a delegation be permitted to proceed from the Sciety headquarters in Brooklyn, N.Y., to Moscow to fully acquaint the Soviet government with the true aims and purpose of Jehovah's Witnesses.

"We have acted only in good faith," Cook said. "Following the petition's adoption at each assembly, copies were sent by registered mail direct to Moscow and a copy for the Russian Embassy in each country was delivered in person. Most of the ambassadors would not see us," Cook reported, "but we were able to talk to some diplomatic officials. To date, the Soviet government has completely ignored our petitions.

"Furthermore, when a copy was offered to the embassies many of the Russian officals refues to accept it, not even wanting to touch it, as if it were dynamite. Others insisted that many lies had been circulated about Russia and openly scoffed at the mention of the name of Jehovah God and claimed that the law of Russia was higher than the law of Jehovah and that it had to be obeyed in Russia."

In spite of all these deliberate rebuffs, the Watch Tower Society's letter assured Premier Bulganin that Jehovah's Witnesses still stand ready to send their delegation to Moscow for the discussions proposed in the pitition.

"Maybe their hearts will be hardened against us just as Pharaoh's was many centuries ago when Moses was sent to Egypt to demand the freedom of Jehovah's chosen people so that they could worship Him without interference," Cook said. "But even if the Communists continue to arrest our ministers, as they are doing in the U.S.S.R. and most of the Satellite countries, Jehovah's Witnesses must — and will with the help of Jehovah God — continue to live Christian lives and worship the Most High."

Asserting their purpose was to inform the world of the bitter Christian persecution that still rages behind the Iron Curtain, Cook revealed, "A full report is being published in the April 15 issue of "The Watchtower," official magazine of Jehovah's Witnesses. This issue will have a stepped-up world circulation of 10,000,000 copies in 45 languages, which is three times normal circulation. Plans are being made by the Snyder congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses to call at every house in Snyder with this significant report."

Apple Streusel Is Favorite Dessert

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

SOME UNSUNG COOK had a heavenly idea when she borrowed the topping often strewn over German kuchen (coffee cake) and combined it with apples to make a now-classic American dessert.

'Do you know the topping we mean? The one called Streusel, made from flour, sugar and butter worked together until crumbs are formed. Sometimes spice is added; sometimes white instead of brown sugar is used.

In recent years the apple desert has been going strong, with many kitchen artists contributing their versions and usually calling it Apple Crisp or Apple Crunch.

We suspect the dish originally appeared in the pages of "The Settlement Cook Book"—that compilation of recipes, by fine cooks in Milwaukee, first published over 50 years ago. In our 1938 edition of the cook book, we find it under its rightful name—Apple Streusel Dessert.

Here's our adaptation of the recipe, made in individual pie dishes, and with crisp sweet-tart Winesaps for the base. If you like, you may serve the dessert with cheddar cheese. You can make attractive cutout garnishes, in any shape your fancy dictates, from thin slices of the cheese. Or if you want a sweeter ending to your meal the hot dessert is luscious served with scoops of vanilla ice cream melting over its golden-brown crust.

There are versions of this dessert that are richer than this one — more butter and sugar, and sometimes less flour, goes into it. But if you have one eye on the scales, you may be ready to settle for this rule.

INDIVIDUAL APPLE STREUSEL DESSERTS

Ingredients: 1 cup flour, ⅓ cup firmly-packed light brown sugar, ½ cup (¼ pound) butter or margarine, 3 very large (about 1½ pounds) Winesap apples, 2 tablespoons granulated sugar, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon.

Method: Stir flour and ½ cup brown sugar together in a medium-sized mixing bowl. With a pastry blender, cut in butter until it is evenly distributed and crumbs are formed. Pare apples; quarter and cut away cores. Slice paper-thin and arrange in even layers in 5 individual shallow baking dishes (each about 5 inches across inside top and 1 inch deep). Mix 2 tablespoons granulated sugar and the cinnmon; sprinkle over apples. Now sprinkle with crumb topping, patting it down lightly and making sure fruit is well covered. Bake in hot (425 degrees) oven about 15 minutes, or until crumb topping begins to brown around edges and apples are partly cooked; reduce heat to moderate (375 degrees) and bake about 15 minutes longer — until apples are cooked through. Serve at once with cheddar cheese coutouts or scoops of vanilla ice cream. (This dessert must be served hot.) Makes 5 servings.

Murder Confession No. 38 Is False

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A lie detector test has convinced police that Edward Aubele, 41, the 38th man to confess the "Black Dahlia" mutilation murder, is innocent.

Aubele was jailed after blurting out a confession to the 1947 murder in which Elizabeth Short was cut in half. He later repudiated the confession.

IT'S BIG JOB TO FIND RED PENCIL

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Last month a Navajo filed his income tax return, but he neglected to affix his signature.

The Internal Revenue Service sent it back with this notation: "Please sign on the lines indicated by red check marks and resubmit."

Yesterday the IRS got the return again. With it was a note.

"I'm sorry it's taken so long but I had an awful hard time finding a red pencil to sign this thing. I went all over this end of the reservation before I finally found one," the note said.

McClellan Is Tired Of False Testimony

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fresh information which Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) said may help show who was lying was sent to the Justice Department today along with conflicting testimony of a prostitute and a deputy sheriff.

McClelland declined to give any details of the additional information, except to say it went beyond that heard publicly by the special Senate committee he is directing in a probe of improper labor-management activities.

He concluded a one-day hearing yesterday with the comment that "I'm getting a little tired of this committee being imposed on by liars." He asked "appropriate action" by the Justice Department, and said this could be a perjury indictment.

Yesterday's session was a postscript to earlier public hearings on vice and corruption in Portland, Ore., and involved the credibility of the committee's key witness in the probe, Portland racketeer James B. (Big Jim) Elkins.

Mrs. Kathleen Lucille Cooper Weeks, 25, an admitted prostitute, testified she had sworn falsely in an affidavit that Elkins was mixed up in narcotics and prostitution in Portland.

She said she did so because of threats by Deputy Sheriff George Minielly that she would be sent to jail if she refused. She said Minielly suggested the answers she put in the affidavit.

Minielly then swore that this turnabout in her testimony was "the greatest hoax ever pushed onto the American public." He alleged that she changed her story under a threat from Oregon's Asst. Atty. Gen. Arthur Kaplan that she might be prosecuted for perjury. Minielly denounced Kaplan as "a mental case."

He denied her allegations and those of Mrs. Mary Childress that he had threatened them if they refused to sign an affidavit falsely accusing Elkins. The affidavit, he said, was "their own" and no product of coaching by him.

Mrs. Childress said she had been arrested on prostitution charges "only once," in 1933.

McClellan viewed the conflict as important because Elkins has sworn that although he was involved in gambling and many other rackets, he never profited from prostitution. The committee said it has found no evidence he is a drug addict, as alleged in Mrs. Weeks' now-repudiated affidavit.

The committee, meanwhile, disclosed it is "approaching readiness" for public hearings on labor relations in Philadelphia. McClellan declined to say whether the hearings would come ahead of some of the committee plans on union affairs in New York City.

He said the Philadelphia inquiry would involve "five or six" unions including the Teamsters, and charges of labor-management collusion, misuse of union funds and violence. He did not name the other unions.

A committee member, Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz), filed a brief with the committee urging an investigation of what he called "800 acts of violence" in the never-settled United Auto Workers strike against the Kohler Co. of Kohler, Wis. He said the committee also should investigate UAW expenditures he said totaled "some 12 million dollars" to support the strike.

Crazed Gunman Is Slain

MATAMOROS, Mexico (AP) — A crazed gunman, firing wildly at bystanders, ran through the streets of downtown Matamoros last night, killing a policeman and wounding seven other persons.

He was fatally wounded in an exchange of shots with an off-duty policeman. Police identified the gunman as Eusebio Cornado, about 32. He died from loss of blood at a hospital.

Cornado was shot after a brief running gun battle with policeman Rosalio Rodriguez Garcia.

Police Sgt. Felipe Zaragoza said the man left a tavern near the market place and dashed to a corner where patrolman Jose Reula was directing traffic. Zaragoza said the man grabbed the gun from Ruela's holster and shot him twice, killing Ruela almost instantly.

The persons reported wounded by the beserk gunman included cafe owner Romero Leal, Rodolfo Reyna; 13, Margarita Vargas, Jesus Martinez, David Mendez and Antonio Salana.

Garcia was shopping when he heard the shots, and tried to stop the gunman. He was wounded twice in the stomach before he pulled his own gun and felled the fleeing gunman. Garcia was reported in serious condition.

IN CHILDREN

Reverse Writing Is Studied

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A child is asked to draw a figure like a capital "L." He draws it backwards.

Another is shown a collection of pens and pencils and is asked to tell what they have in common (that they are all used for writing). He can't.

Another can't pay attention in school. Suddenly, for no apparent reason, he will jump up and run around the room.

A kindergartner doing finger painting will wipe his paint-smeared hand on his smock. Many children do that—but this child wipes the back of his hand, not the front.

Are these children mentally retarded or emotionally disturbed?

Perhaps, some educational specialists said today—but they may have suffered a brain injury at birth, or later through accident or illness, which will cause similar symptons. And there is some promise that brain injury can be corrected to some degree.

Interviewed at the convention of the International Council for Exceptional Children, these specialists said the possibility of brain injury is receiving increasing attention. Exceptional children are those who differ from run of the mine children in that they are either physically or mentally handicapped or exceptionally talented.

"More teachers are becoming aware of the possibility," said I. Ignacy Goldberg of the National Assn. for Retarded Children, New York. "Few teachers are equipped to handle brain-injured children, but they can report possible cases to their school psychologist. After that it's up to a medical - psychological - educational team to attempt to correct the condition."

That there is some hope brain damage can be corrected is indicated in early results of an experiment at the Illinois School for Retarded Children at Dixon.

James J. Gallagher of the University of Illinois, which is doing the experiment, said that 3 or 4 per cent of a group of 40 brain-injured children receiving special instruction appear to have gained about 20 IQ points in two years.

Water-Cooled Sows Turn Out The Pigs

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma A & M College researchers say that sows given shower baths have more pigs per litter than sows left to their own devices to beat summer's heat.

At a recent experiment, one group of expectant sows and gilts were cooled during the day by a water sprinkler. Another group was left uncooled.

The cooled sows and gilts had 10.6 pigs per litter. The non-sprinkled group farrowed 7.71 pigs per litter.

Aid For Poland Is Under Study

By WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — American officials negotiating an aid agreement with Poland are trying also to reassure Canada that the deal won't cut into Canadian wheat sales.

Officials said today they are hopeful they can sign an agreement by mid-May with Polish negotiators who have been in Washington since February.

The Poles came in response to the Eisenhower administration's invitation. The administration offered to lend economic aid to any country, such as Poland, which had managed to ease the yoke of Moscow domination.

The United States has offered to provide 105 million dollars in U.S. aid, officials said. This would include 30 million dollars in loans for such things as mining machinery and farm implements from President Eisenhower's special contingency fund, and 75 million dollars worth of surplus farm goods.

The Canadian government has expressed concern to Washington about wheat aspects of the deal. They consider Poland a continuing market for Canadian wheat.

The Canadians have been told, officials said, that whatever U.S. wheat goes to Poland will be ticketed for the Polish food reserve. They contend this stockpiling of wheat will interfere in no way with a continuing Canadian sales to Poland for day-to-day consumption.

The surplus farm stocks, principally wheat and fats and oils, would be acquired by Poland as a purchase with money provided on a loan. The repayment would be in Polish currency to be plowed back into economic development in Poland, or used there to pay any bills run up by the U.S. government, such as for the embassy.

Revitalizing Of Board To Be Studied

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel told a group of Texas naturopaths yesterday that he might consult the attorney general about revitalizing the State Board of Naturopathic Examiners.

The board has been held unconstitutional but an appeal is pending in the courts.

Two officials of the Texas Naturopathic Physicians Assn. asked Daniel yesterday to name new members to fill terms that had expired.

To back up their request Dr. Esther Giroski and Dr. Harris Santi, both of Harris County, presented Daniel with a petition of 2,500 names that they said were naturopathic practitioners and patients.

The governor took the request under advisement and said he might ask the attorney general for an opinion.

Harris, co-chairman of the TNPA legislative committee, said Texas naturopaths should have "the right to practice as free men under the law and remove the cloud of fear that they have had to practice under in Texas for so many years."

Both naturopaths have said previously that Texas naturopaths have had to "pay off" in recent legislative sessions to keep their licenses.

Both were witnesses before the Travis County grand jury Tuesday.

Anothr sssion of th grand jury Tuesday.

Another session of the grand jury was on today with an unannounced number of witnesses to be heard on alleged legislative payoff questions.

HOMESTEADS

Many Texans have the mistaken impression that their homestead cannot be seized and sold for deliquent taxes. In many cases, this idea has led to considerable grief and monetary loss which could have been avoided. A homestead should be rendered to tax assessors like any other property, and taxes assessed against it should be paid as faithfully as those on any other taxable property.

The deadline for rendering property for taxation is April 1, so far as most city taxing agencies are concerned. The last date for rendering real an personal property for state an county taxes is April 30. State taxes are collected by the County Tax Collector.

Under the Texas Constitution, each family is entitled to claim one piece of real property as their homestead. This claim must be established by an affidavit filed by the owner himself. A lending agency cannot do so, even though it may actually pay the annual taxes thereon from a fund created by the owner's monthly installments.

When the homestead affidavit is properly filed, the owner becomes entitled to an exemption of State taxes up to the value of $3,000 or 200 acres in the case of farm lands. This is an exemption from payment, not a complete exemption There is no similar exemption with reference to county or city taxes.

The homestead claimed for tax purposes need not be the property which is actually occupied by the owner as his residence.

When the homestead affidavit is not filed by April 30, the taxpayer loses his right to $3,000 or 2000 acre exemption, and consequently become liable for more taxes than he would otherwise be required to pay.

Property taxes are assessed against the person who is the record owner of each piece of real and personal property on the first day of January of each year. Individuals purchasing property during the year should make sure that the taxes for all previous years have been paid. Otherwise, the purchaser may be forced to pay hundreds of dollars in delinquent taxes to protect his property. Unpaid taxes create a lien against the property which can be enforced regardless of change of ownership.

One should also keep in mind to make some arrangement for the pervious owner to pay his pro-rata share of taxes for the current year. Otherwise, the buyer may find it necessary to pay the entire taxes for that year.

When taxes are not paid by the deadline prescribed for the particular taxing unit (city, county State, or district), monetary penalties and interest are added from month to month. In addition, the propety becomes subject to seizure and sale to satisfy the tax lien. This lien applies to all property, whether homestead or not.
