SMALL LAND BILL BECOMES LAW

MEXICAN FEDERAL TROOPS MOVE ON MONTEREY

VE COLUMNS OF REGULARS CONVERGING ON NORTH CITY NOW IN REBELS' POSSESSION

(By Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 6.—Federal troops converged rom five directions today on Monterey, capital of Nuevo eon. A counter attack which would attempt recapture rom General Gonzalo Escobar was imminent.

So seriously did the government regard rebel successes in Northern Mexico and capture of Monterey Monday by General Gonzalo Escobar that a large body of roops was taken from the Vera Cruz campaign and dispatched to Nuevo Leon. General Andreu Almazan, commanding the Vera Cruz campaign, was sent northward with the contingent which this morning was well past an Luis Potosi.

Meanwhile another Federal contingent was advancing northwestward from Tampico under General Eulogio Ortiz.

Another federal column started from Matamoras, northeastern Tamaulipas, while General Braulio Serratos at the head of federal troops advanced from Nuevo Laredo southward and reached Salias Victoria, a few kilometers north of Monterey. General Mesa, formerly of General Escobar's command, advanced from Coahuila to join with the Serratos contingent.

Thus in the space of 24 hours government efforts to quash the rebellion shifted from Vera Cruz where opening the port as an outlet to the gulf was a matter of some necessity, to the north where railroad communications with the United States had been broken by rebel successes.

8,000 Federals Moving

The contingents moving against Monterey will prove a formidable army. General Escobar has 2,000 troops at the city for its defense. It is believed he will face as many as 8,000 federals.

The government announcement telling of the plans for the offensive expressed the belief Monterey would shortly be retaken and General Escobar defeated.

Against reverses in the north the government had to its credit victories in Vera Cruz, including recapture of Orizaba, and return to its fold of the unit commanded by General Molinar.

BOOST BONDS FOR BUILDING SCHOOL HERE

UBBOCK BOARD TALKS OVER PROJECT AT MEETING HERE

A new public school building for he city of Lubbock by the 1930 chool term, satisfying the present eed for additional space, loomed s a possibility following a meeting f the Lubbock School Board last ight.

cting on a report made by a committee of local representative itizens appointed recently to investigate the school question here, he members of the board voted nanimously in favor of the proposed project. It is thought that a ond election will be called for some ime in May.

The board authorized Neil H. Wright to prepare a complete report concerning the action of the board. The report is expected to be completed and made public today.

A firm of local architects has been authorized to begin plans for the proposed school building. The cost of the new building has not been definitely determined, it was announced today.

With more than 5,000 pupils enrolled in the city schools this year, lack of room has handicapped the school throughout the entire session.

Beauty Experts Claim Men Are Vain Creatures

DALLAS, Mar. 6 (AP)—Woman's charge that man is as vain, is true, according to beauty shop operators of Texas holding their fourth annual "forum" here.

"More and more men are taking treatments to ward off outward signs of age," the beauty experts declare.

One specialist told of a Dallas shop which had "private room for gentlemen" who craved "facials," but not publicity. That shop is doing a rushing business, it was reported.

Dainty males patronize the beauty shops not only to get facials, but marcels and other similar "treatments."

NEW ORLEANS, March 6 (AP)—Thomas Little, under arrest at Houston, was the third person captured of the trio who sawed their way out of the New Orleans prison a week ago. The other two men were captured in Tennessee and returned to New Orleans.

Some More About This Weather

A range of fifty-two degrees in yesterday's temperature from the low mark of 27, five degrees below freezing, to the high point of 79 degrees, regular summer heat, was experienced by Lubbock thermometers.

Standing below freezing at 7 o'clock in the morning, the thermometer sky-rocketed almost to the eighty mark by early afternoon, marking the warmest temperature of the year.

De Valera Freed From Belfast Jail

BELFAST, Northern Ire., March (AP)—Eamonn De Valera, Irish republican chieftain, was released today from jail four days before the completion of a 30 day sentence he had been serving for illegally entering Ulster territory.

De Valera was arrested at Newry on the Ulster-Free State frontier February 5, as he was attempting to reach Belfast in violation of an order prohibiting him from entering Ulster.

Girl Recovering From Kidnaping

PRENTISS, Miss., March 6 (AP)—A 16-year-old girl was in a serious condition here today after she reported being kidnaped yesterday by a white man.

The girl, Shirley Dumas, stumbled into the home of Luke Allen, farmer, last night. Her clothes were torn and her face and body were bruised.

She said she was riding alone in her car after school when a man jumped on the running board of her car, climed into the rear seat and shoved a pistol against her back.

STEWART OIL ROW NEARING END OF FIGHT

'BATTLE OF BILLIONS' COMES TO CLIMAX ON THURSDAY

(By Associated Press)

WHITING, Ind., Mar. 6.—Oil formed the background today for a picture unique in industrial history. It was the end of a nationwide scramble for stockholders' votes to control a billion dollar corporation—the Standard Oil company of Indiana—the culmination of John D. Rockefeller, jr.'s fight to force Colonel Robert W. Stewart from the chairmanship of the board of directors.

MOTORCYCLIST IS HURT IN ACCIDENT

Rane Karnes, about twenty-two, of Lovington, N. M., is in the Lubbock Sanitarium suffering from painful injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident on the Slaton highway early last night.

The extent of the youth's injuries had not been determined today due to the fact that he was unconscious all night, regaining consciousness only a short while this morning. He has a number of cuts and bruised about the head and body.

How the accident happened is unknown. He was found by passing motorists lying in the road, and was brought to the sanitarium here where medical aid was rendered. It is not known whether he lost control of his machine and fell or collided with an automobile.

WARNS AGAINST DIVIDING STATE

TEMPLE DOCTOR IS SPEAKER AT ROTARY CLUB TODAY AT NOON; FINE ATTENDANCE RECORD

Sounding a warning against any effort at dividing the state of Texas, and congratulating the club upon its international renown, gained from its fine attendance record, Dr. A. C. Scott, famous surgeon, of Temple, was the principal speaker at today's Rotary luncheon at the Lubbock Hotel.

Dr. Scott's warning came with his reference to the passage of the Small bill, by the state legislature, over Governor Dan Moody's veto. "I think every native Texan ought to be disposed, from start to finish, to fight against any division. The folks in East Texas may not be interested in the same things you are, but they are interested in this state and they will fight for it. It is not right for anybody to try to popularize a division of Texas," he said.

"I congratulate you on the progress of your town and of your country. Ordinarily, we think of railroads, good farms and schools and churches, as being responsible for building countries, but these things are insignificant if you do not have the right sort of people. That's what has made Lubbock and the South Plains. And any club that can make a record that yours has made is to be congratulated." Dr. Scott said he had been closely watchful of this territory for many years, having land holdings near Lubbock, and that if he ever lived anywhere but in Temple, he would like to live in the South Plains country.

President Bob Murray, in opening the meeting, explained that the Lubbock Rotary club had been re-

Child Is Lost For Several Hours Here

A four-year-old baby, described as one who couldn't talk plain and as wearing striped overalls—too small for the baby, was lost for several hours yesterday, according to reports made to police headquarters.

The child wandered from 1416 Avenue L about 10:30 o'clock and was found later at 1814 Avenue M.

Electric Drill Is Cause Of Accident

Pete Arnold, mechanic for the Kuykendall Chevrolet company, was painfully injured about the face yesterday afternoon when an electric drill with which he was working slipped and struck his face. His nose was broken and his cheek bone painfully injured.

Arnold was reported resting in the Lubbock Sanitarium today. It was thought that he would be released this afternoon.

GERMANY TALKS AT TRIAL TODAY

Failure of J. R. Germany, former city secretary, and one of the principal witnesses in the cast of the State of Texas against M. S. Ruby former city manager, charged with swindling of city funds, to show up this morning resulted in the delay of the trial until afternoon. He was located shortly after noon today and was placed on the stand as soon as the court opened.

Germany testified yesterday afternoon and was scheduled to resume his testifying this morning. He is scheduled to come to trial in the 99th district court next Monday on several counts of embezzlement. Ruby formerly was tried and convicted here on an embezzlement charge but the decision was reversed by the court of criminal appeals.

It is thought that the trial of the case will consume the remainder of this week's court session.

County Judge Robert H. Bean returned last night from Austin where he went Saturday to confer with H. Mr. Chandler was leaving town upon the arrival of Judge Bean, but he agreed to write his opinion on a number of questions submitted by Judge Bean. This opinion probably will bring to a close a controversy concerning the contract.

DEATH CALLS TOM TAGGART, DEMO LEADER

INDIANA VETERAN IS VICTIM OF STOMACH AILMENT TODAY

(By Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 6.—Thomas Taggart, veteran Indiana Democratic leader, died at his home here today following an illness of several months. He was 72 years old.

Funeral services probably will be held Friday with burial here.

Mr. and Mrs. Taggart returned from their summer home at Pannisport, Mass., last fall and in October he underwent an operation for a stomach ailment. Since then his condition had gradually become weaker. Yesterday he took a turn for the worse.

His illness had prevented him from attending the Democratic convention last year, the first he had missed for years. A boom Taggart started for the nomination of Evans Woollen, Indianapolis banker, for the presidency sent Woollen to the convention with the support of the Indiana delegation.

Taggart's influence in National Democratic politics was last felt in the long drawn out New York convention of 1924, when he personally directed a move to nominate the late U. S. Senator Samuel Ralston of Indiana for the presidency. The convention was said to have been on the verge of turning to Ralston as a way out of the Smith-McAdoo deadlock, when Ralston withdrew from the race because of ill health.

The last trial of the case here several months ago resulted in a hung jury. Relatives of McDonald contend he was not of sound mind when he left $1,250,000 to Texas University for an observatory.

HOUSE FOLLOWS SENATE AND OVERRIDES MOODY'S VETO OF TITLE VALIDATION MEASURE

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Mar. 6.—Senator Cling C. Small's bill validating land titles crossing water courses became a law today when the house overrode Governor Moody's signature by a vote of 112 to 18.

The Senate yesterday passed the bill, 24 to 6.

Thunderous applause rolled up from the crowded gallery of West Texas land owners when Acting Speaker Fred Minor announced the final vote, the first move of the session to pass a measure over objection of the state's chief executive.

The ballot came after more than an hour and a half of debate on the floor, consumed largely by proponents of the bill which affects river beds in 33 counties of the state.

"The legislature never was intended to have the power to give away that which belongs to public schools of Texas, and by my vote I am going to act with the attorney general and the governor," Petsch declared.

The Fredericksburg law-maker defended Governor Moody's action in disapproving the bill by asserting that the state's chief executive might have taken the easy path and signed it, but that he followed his convictions.

Representative Ben J. Woodall of Marshall, staunch opponent of the bill, asked that an editorial characterizing the measure as unconstitutional be read. Other than this gesture, there was no attempt to frustrate passage.

Graves Staunch Supporter

Representative H. N. Graves of Georgetown, strong administration follower, fired the first gun in defense of the Land Validating act.

Confining himself almost entirely to the moral necessity of granting relief to Texas pioneers whose properties were endangered by vacancy suits, Graves declared no issue had been raised until the discovery of oil had transformed barren properties into valuable holdings.

"It is not the land they are seeking," Graves said in reference to persons who had instituted suit against certain surveys, "but the oil that is under it, and it is manifest-

She's Started To Washing Dishes Just Like Boy

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6 (AP)—Far out on the Pacific, bound for the tropical isles of Tahiti, Miss Hezel Cooke, San Francisco society girl, today was helping the stewards aboard the liner Tahiti because she was a stowaway.

Mrs. William J. Kierferdorf, wife of a prominent San Francisco banker and mother of Miss Cooke, yesterday received a radiogram from the skipper of the Tahiti saying the girl had turned up as a stowaway and asking for instructions.

"Put her to work," Mr. and Mrs. Kierferdorf radioed back.

In her 18 years of life Miss Cooke has crossed the Pacific more than a dozen times, and knows the Orient almost as well as her native land. But the lure of travel has always held her.

"Some day," she recently told here friends here, "I'll stow away aboard a ship bound for some outlandish port."

Another radiogram from the captain last night, said:

"Following your instructions to the letter. Miss Cooke is not much help in the galley but by the end of the voyage she should be pretty good at bed-making."

WURZBACH GOES INTO CHARGES AGAINST G. O. P. FACTION

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Charges that the Republican organization in Texas controlled by R. B. Creager, national committeeman, "assessed" him $7,500 to put his name on the primary ballot as a candidate for Congress in 1926 were laid before the Senate patronage committee today by Representative Wurzbach, Republican, Texas. He said he refused to pay the money.

"This is the organization," Chairman Brookhart said, "that never coerced anybody in Texas."

Wurzbach testified that a man he described as "Bob" Coon, a member of the Creager organization, declared the "assessment was made so high that Wurzbach couldn't pay but if he does we're going to use the money against him in the primary campaign." This information Wurzbach said, was given him by three friends.

He added that he took the matter into the courts and obtained an order by which his name was placed on the ballot. His attorneys' fees, he said, were $1,200.

Fussy Sister Is Run-Away Cause

Because his sister "fussed so much," a 13 year old youth and his companion of the same age ran away yesterday afternoon from their homes in the Meadow community to seek their fortune in the world.

They planned to find a job in Lubbock, save up some money, then journey on to greener pastures. Spending the night wandering around the town, the youths thought it would be dawn this morning when they heard roosters crowing. They went to the light plant to find out the time. It was 3 o'clock, and about that time they were found by officers and locked up for the remainder of the night. They were still being held today.

REBELS MOVE FOR CAPITAL

FORCES CONVERGE ON MEXICO CITY FROM THREE AVENUES

(By Associated Press)

NOGALES, Ariz., March 6—General Francisco Borquez, revolutionary commander of the northern section of Sonora, declared in a statement today from his headquarters in Nogales, Sonora, that rebel forces steadily were converging toward the interior of Mexico from Ortiz, Chihuahua, Durango, Torreon, Chihuahua City, and other strategic points.

"Controlling as we do Sonora, Sinaloa, Coahuila, Durango, Zacatecas, Nuevo Leon, Vera Cruz, Navarit and Jalisco, we can sweep down on the national capital from the north, east and west," the statement said.

"The greatest battle of the revolution probably will be fought in Jalisco or Guanajuato," it continued. "It is reported that General Calles plans to go to Irapuato to organize his forces for an intended invasion of Sonora. If this is true I look for the issue to be settled near Guadalajara.

"Calles will find he can not make much progress in Jalisco, which is in our control and is full of Catholics who have been persecuted by him in the past. Calles, in fact, will never be able to organize the Jalisco Catholics."

AMERICAN PROPERTY REPORTED SAFE

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Millions of dollars of American money are invested in the Mexican revolutionary area but advices reaching here are that mining operations are going on as usual.

Officials of the Greene Cananea Copper company, which has properties at Cananea in the state of Sonora, said they had received word that there has been no interruption in work at its mines.

John D. Ryan, chairman of the board of the Anaconda Copper Mining company, said there had been no interruption in the company's work and that none was expected as most of its Mexican property is located near the American border.

'Marketing' To Be Acuff Club Topic

In connection with a series of similar meetings held throughout the county the Acuff Home Demonstration Club will hold regular session this afternoon, stressing the subject of "Marketing."

Miss Louise Baird, Lubbock county home demonstration agent, will attend the meeting and make a talk. She said this morning that landscape would be another subject discussed at this afternoon's meeting. Mrs. Earl Davis and Mrs. R. O. Moore, of the Acuff community, are both entered in the county yard contest.

Miss Baird also will meet with the 4-H Club girls of both the Acuff and McClung communities this afternoon.

Traffic Lines Are Painted On Streets

Broad amber traffic lines at street corners and down the middle of down-town streets have been painted in an effort to guide the lanes of traffic on the streets.

Drivers are supposed to stay on the right side of the lines and not go across in passing another car or in stopping for traffic light. It is thought that the stripes will improve the flow of traffic and eliminate a number of accidents.

REVOLUTIONISTS SET FORTH STAND IN DOCUMENT MADE BY SONORA GOVERNOR

(By Associated Press)

MERMOSILLO, Sonora, March 6—Governor Fausto Topete of Sonora, civil leader of the revolutionists in this state, late today issued a manifesto addressed to governors of Mexican states, military chiefs and the press setting forth the position of the revolutionary forces. The document itself carried more than 2,000 signatures, many of them of men prominent in civil and military life in Sonora.

The text of the manifesto describes Portes Gil, provisional president, as "the unconstitutional instrument of General P. Elias Calles," former Mexican president. Calles also is charged in the revolutionary document as being "directly responsible" for the death of General Alvaro Obregon, and of "trying to continue at all costs on the throne of the Caesars."

Continuing, the proclamation says: "We have been studying this situation with the longing to save the republic new sacrifices, but all plans of straightening out the national paths have come to naught, as a result of the decision of this Caesar to continue outraging the people and corrupting the national atmosphere. There remains no dignified way other than to say to our people: 'To arms.'"

A SURE TEST FOR OIL

"THAT fellow up there probably has -TP- Oil in his engine. -TP- was developed for airplanes first and was such a success that they had to make it for automobiles. An oil that stands up in one of those high-speed airplane motors has an easy time lubricating an automobile engine. The engine has an easy time, too."

-TP- Oils are the latest development in scientific lubrication. They are produced from pure, paraffine-base crude by a process for which patents are pending.

This process has marked advantages over other methods. It preserves all the lubricating bodies of the crude oil just as they occur in nature. There is positively no blending of light and heavy oils to produce various grades. It removes all the paraffine wax.

In terms of performance this means perfect lubrication at all times, smoother, more efficient operation for your engine, longer life, reduced repair bills, and more mileage. It means easy starting in winter with the same grade of oil that you use in summer—the one best suited to lubricate your engine.

It is wise economy to pay 45c a quart for -TP- Oil.

POISON BOOZE TOLL BOOSTED

SEVENTEEN DEAD MANY BLINDED AS RESULT WOOD ALCOHOL

(By Associated Press)

PEORIA, Ill., March 6—More names appeared on the poison liquor death list today, and the total stood at 17.

Two men and their wives were held for murder. It is charged they furnished the poison drink. Another man is charged with manslaughter.

The federal prohibition department has entered the investigation in an effort to trace the poison to its source. Morris Mansfield, one of those held under a murder charge, said he obtained his liquor supply from a Chicago dealer.

The beverage that resulted in the 17 deaths, the blinding of several persons and the serious illness of dozens more, contained 15 per cent wood alcohol, according to a chemist's report.

The murder charges against Mansfield, his wife, and G. O. Gu[illegible] and his wife were based on only one death, that of Clarence Hoppe, Saturday night.

John Cox, of Vermont, Ill., is held on the manslaughter charge. It is he the charges state, who sold liquor which is blamed for three deaths.

Mr. Overholser expressed himself as surprised at the rapid growth of this section and compared Lubbock to the Oklahoma City of several decades ago. He predicted a bright future for Lubbock and the South Plains.

While here, he visited the Myrick farms with A. B. Davis, and W. A. Myrick, sr. Connected with the development of the Frisco lines in this state, Mr. Overholser is extremely interested in the rapid rail development and expansion in this section during the past few years.

Presbyterian Will Give Tech Sermon

College authorities yesterday announced that Dr. Thomas W. Currie, president of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Austin and one of the leading theologians of the Southwest, had been secured to deliver the sermon for the commencement exercises of Tech college. The sermon will be in the college gymnasium at 11 o'clock on the morning of May 26.

Dr. Currie is well known in Lubbock and all local congregations will attend the sermon.

Dr. Edgar Odell Lovett, president of Rice Institute at Houston, will deliver the address for commencement exercises which will be held in the gymnasium on the morning of May 27. About 150 students plan to take part in commencement exercises this year, and plans for the program are being carried forward rapidly.

SENATE PASSES LAND MEASURE OVER MOODY VETO

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Mar 6.—The house today was faced with disposal of two knotty propositions, overriding the governor's veto of the Small river bed validating bill and the $175,000,000 statewide highway bond issue plan.

The river bed bill was set down for special order of business yesterday, and the resolution proposing a constitutional amendment to permit issuance of bonds for building highways will reach the floor on a minority committee report.

The senate yesterday voted to pass the Small bill over the governor's veto, 24 to 6. The house must give the bill a two to one vote to enact it in face of executive disapproval.

Proponents of the land bill are confident they will have the needed votes. Both proponents and opponents of the highway bond issue are claiming victory.

The house committee has voted twice not to favor the bond issue. The first time a minority report was was ordered printed and sponsors of the plan will bring it up for final action this time in the same manner.

The committee was instructed by the house yesterday to make its report on the resolution, sponsored in the senate by Senator Walter Woodul of Houston, and passed out of the upper house by a bare two-thirds majority of 21 votes.

Before voting to report the resolution unfavorably Rep. Preston L. Anderson of San Antonio, had succeeded in placing in it amendments which make it repugnant to its sponsors. He put in it the provisions that in the event bonds are issued the proceeds shall be expended by an elective highway commission, no bonds shall mature later than ten years, that bonds in excess of $10,000,000 could not be issued annually and that lateral roads should be included as beneficiaries of the proceeds.

Automobile Men To Meet Tonight

At the call of G. P. Kuykendall, president of the Lubbock Automobile Dealers association, all local dealers will meet in a business session at the Kuykendall Motor company at 8:30 o'clock tonight to work out final plans for the automobile show to be staged by the association the latter part of this month.

An arrangements committee, appointed recently by the president, will make its report tonight. Fourteen dealers have already agreed to enter the show and it is thought that others will come in tonight.

Quick Relief From Neuralgic Pains

To relieve those aches and pains that accompany and follow bad colds, lagrippe and flu, such as headache, neuralgia, rheumatic pains and aching limbs and joints, nothing is so quickly and delightfully effective as Capudine. It quickly banishes the chilly sensations, allays the aches and pains and gives a feeling of comfort to the patient.

Being liquid, Capudine acts almost instantly,—much quicker than tablets and powders. It relieves pain by soothing the nerves and does not upset the stomach. For thirty years millions of people have found Capudine satisfactory,—a joy and comfort to everyone who suffers from pain. Sold by all druggists,—30c and 60c sizes, also trial size. (adv.)

The best thing about the goodies that come out of a General Electric Refrigerator is that they're always healthfully fresh. All year round this quiet, automatic refrigerator maintains the scientifically correct temperature that checks the growth of bacteria—and safeguards health.

This perfect refrigeration is a necessity even in the coldest months. For kitchens do get warm, and food isn't really safe to eat unless it is kept below 50 degrees all the time.

The General Electric Refrigerator is entirely different from all others—it is indeed "years ahead" in design.

All its mechanism is up on top—safe from dust and difficulties—and sealed in an air-tight steel casing. You don't even have to oil it.

It is easy to keep clean because it is up-on-legs and because the gentle current of air which radiates from the coils prevents dust from settling.

These quiet, automatic, economical General Electric Refrigerators may be purchased either for cash or on deferred payments. Come in and see them or phone for a booklet.

Expert telephone workers begin task of constructing 2,500 mile network of storm-proof, dependable, underground cable.

Map of the new underground cable system.

a 45 million dollar Subway~for your voice

UNDERGROUND—beneath fields and valleys, across mountains, under rivers — will go the wires of a new long distance telephone system, built to serve the Southwest.

Twenty-five hundred miles in length, costing 45 million dollars, the new system will consist of underground telephone cable — a "subway" for your voice — safe, fast, modern.

Its purpose: To provide enough circuits to care for growing long distance traffic — to insure that these circuits will rarely be interrupted by storms, fires, floods.

Heretofore, most long distance lines have been constructed overhead and interruptions of service from such causes have been emergencies to be feared.

Completed, the system will mean long distance service more dependable than ever before.

It will be fast. Some cables contain more than 300 circuits — as many wires as ten heavy pole lines carry.

How underground cable looks.

It will be safe — from wind storms, from sleet, from fire.

It will be dependable. At 50-mile intervals "repeater" stations as large as the ordinary exchange building will be erected. Here the voice current will pass through powerful vacuum tubes, going on its way with renewed strength.

Further, by acting as a trunk line for long-haul traffic, the cable will release hundreds of miles of long distance pole lines. These will be free to handle traffic over shorter distances, between smaller towns.

Here, indeed, is a project that provides a modern rapid-transit system for your voice!

Luncheon Is Given For Mrs. P. Denton

Mrs. Percy Denton, bride, was honor guest yesterday afternoon when Misses Lucille Moxley and Kate Boyd entertained with a four-course luncheon at Hotel Lubbock.

Covers were laid for Mesdames Denton, Ross A. McWhorter, Carl Roberds, jr., Jack May, Dewey Campbell, Misses Mary Snyder, Anne Snyder, Edna Yonge, Wauwiece Stoker, Virginia Conley and the hostesses.

Appointments for the table were in pink and green with candles and flowers used in decorations. The honor guest was presented with a bronze ash tray.

Daleth Delphians In Meeting Tuesday

Mrs. H. L. Ligon was hostess to Daleth Delphians yesterday afternoon in her home at 2423 22nd street and a program on "Figures of the Italian Renaissance" was led by Mrs. Clementine Vaughn.

Mrs. R. I. Tubbs, president, gave a resume of the preceding program and Mrs. Vaughn gave an introductory talk, after which talks were made by Mesdames C. L. Fowler, Ligon, Alex McDonald, W. S. McDonald, Harry Hall, C. A. Burrus and Mary E. Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lindsey are business visitors in Dallas.

HUSBANDS OR CLASSES LURE SOUTHERN BEAUTIES

These beauty title winners of the Mississippi College for Women have succumbed to just two vocations—home making or teaching.

COLUMBUS, Miss., March 6.—Beauty contest winners at the Mississippi College for Women prove that pulchritude goes hand in hand with matrimony—or school teaching.

A canvass of the six winners at the Mississippi institution for the last seven years reveals that the school room and home have claimed every one of the girls who in their college days were the campus queens. Incidentally, there is not a blond—not even a titian head—numbered among them.

Miss Mattie Howard Scrape, winner in 1923, today is Mrs. Cram Leftwich of Memphis. If there were ever thoughts of a career, they have gone their way, for she is happy as ruler of the Leftwich domain. She formerly lived at Aberdeen, Miss.

Miss Eula Lee Sanford, acclaimed the most beautiful in 1924, has found the class room more alluring than anything else and she is enthusiastic in her work as a teacher at Mobile, Ala. Her home is in Columbus, Miss.

Two others, Miss Ruth Shaw, Vicksburg, Miss., winner in 1924, and Miss Helen Powers, Cary, Miss., winner in 1926, are teaching. Miss Shaw conducts a dancing school in Memphis and Miss Powers is teaching in Forest, Miss.

Miss Genevieve Kitchell, the only student to be given the honor for two years, after holding the title in 1927-28, decided upon married life and she is Mrs. Sam Bull of Greenwood, Miss.

Miss Marianne Nance of Jackson, Miss., the holder of the 1928 beauty title, is undecided what course she will follow.

Fortnightly Society Is Entertained

The Fortnightly club was entertained last evening by Misses Ruth Budd and Hazel Armstrong in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Adkins at 2223 Broadway.

A clever vari-colored motif was used in table covers, tallies and prizes for bridge games. Palatable refreshments were served.

Club members attending were Misses Tyler Lee Knight, Frances Small, Mabry Edens, Mary Meador, Blanche Bean, Eunice Cox, Lulu Mae Cravens, Dorothy Lomax and Bernice Phipps.

Guests were Misses Gladys McSpadden, Eunice Wulfman, Leona Allen, Dorothy Rushing, Zella Riegel and Louise Baird. High and second high scores were made by Miss Bean and Miss Riegel.

Novel Course Will Be Continued By Club

Members of the Junior Twentieth Century club are to continue a study of the novel next year, adding several modern volumes, according to an announcement made following a meeting yesterday afternoon at the Technological college.

Dr. Allan L. Carter, who is conducting the course this year, is to continue his lectures next year. He lectured yesterday on Samuel Butler and his works. The novel for yesterday was "The Way of All Flesh."

Camps Are Hosts To A-1 Society

The A-1 Forty-two club was entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Camp in their home at 2503 21st street and delicious refreshments were passed at the close of the games.

Guests playing were Messrs. and Mesdames Cecil Horne, W. P. Clement, W. W. Royalty, H. W. Richardson, M. E. Heard, George Smallwood, J. C. Hardgrave, W. C. Rylander, Mrs. C. R. Maxey of Beaumont, Mrs. L. C. Tatom and C. B. Powell.

Mrs. A. M. Dunlap of Slaton is seriously ill at a Lubbock hospital.

AT THE THEATERS

PALACE

"Lights of New York," first all-talkie, with all-star cast. Added acts include Winnie Lightner in "The Song-a-Minute Girl." Fred Ardath in "Men Among Men." Regular features.

LYRIC

"Stolen Love," with Owen Moore and Marceline Day.

REX

"Fire and Steel" a big fire drama and comedy.

First All Talkie' Unusually Fine Production

Lubbock's first opportunity at viewing a moving picture play in which the actors speak their lines throughout, begins tomorrow at the Palace, with the presentation of "The Lights of New York."

The opportunity is also an opportunity to see an unusually fine array of well-known stage and screen actors do the talking and the acting. Helene Costello and Cullen Landis with Mary Carr, Wheeler Oakman and every other prominent member of the cast being of that array of talent given to the screen by the stage.

It is a story of Main Street and Broadway. Cullen Landis, as the youth from Main Street, borrows $5,000 of his mother's money, so he and a barber friend might go to New York. The boy's sweetheart is in the big city. Once there, the two boys from Main Street discover they have been "gypped" as their metropolitan barber shop they bought is merely a "Speak-Easy."

Caught in the maelstrom of a need to survive rather than to return to Main Street, the young couple try to "duck it out." He turns to the "Racket" of bootlegging while she is employed at a night club. Follows mystery, intrigue, murder, to put the young man from Main Street in the shadows of prison. There's a happy ending, however.

Although the picture is an all-talkie, music is well sychronized in between spoken words and continues throughout the picture as a faint background.

Living and Loving

BY MRS. VIRGINIA LEE

So many little girls write me that they are thinking of getting married. And so many young wives who are unhappy also write me. It's pitiful to think of little girls of 14 and 16 marrying. They think they are, oh, so much in love and nothing can convince them that they are not old enough and mature enough to know their own minds. Time and again a girl pours out her heart to me, ending with, "It's not puppy love, Virginia Lee." Poor babies. If they could only look ahead a few years and see themselves as frustrated young women thrust into life with no preparatign, and wishing, oh, so hard, that someone or something could have prevehted that too early marriage.

One of these child wives writes me and asks my advice about getting a divorce. She and her husband have separated because of his cruelty. She was married when she was 14 and is now 18.

IN TROUBLE: It would be best for you to go to a court of domestic relations, and ask advice. You are very wise not to go with men friends until something is settled about a divorce. This girl friend you speak of does not seem very trustworthy, but she may be in love with the young man and so, possibly, may be excused, as you are not free to be his companion. Try to tread steadily in the right path, dear, and I hope your troubles will soon be over and you will be a happy woman and will do what you can to discourage other little girls from marrying as young as you did.

"BROKEN HEARTED" wants me to tell "Wondering Boy" that she has been making "a terrible fool" of herself and is sorry. "I have been hurt just as bad as he has," she says, and hopes he will come back to her. "Wondering Boy" couldn't understand his girl friend's changed attitude and was very much hurt by it. We can only hope he sees this and that "Broken Hearted" really is the girl in question.

"UNDECIDED" is 16 and writes at too great length to print. She is contemplating matrimony, but is undecided which of two boys who love her is the right one. They are considerably older than she.

Marry neither, Undecided. Make up your mind you are much too young to marry, and go to school and learn all you can and have a good time before you take on yourself the responsibilities of marriage.

Miss Blanche Bacon, who is visiting in Kansas City and other points in Missouri, is to go to Nashville, Tenn., to visit her sister, Miss Virginia Bacon, a student in Ward-Belmont college. She will return to Oklahoma City and Dallas for visits before returning to Lubbock.

Out-Of-Town Guests Are Among 75 At Meeting Of O. E. S.; Dinner Is Served

With a large number of out-of-town guests in attendance, about 75 were at a meeting of the local Eastern Star chapter last evening in the Masonic hall.

An invitation ceremony was conducted for Mrs. Nona Shell and after the regular order business there was a social hour and a turkey dinner was served.

Mrs. H. W. Sims extended a welcome to the visitors and Mrs. Gladys Howard of Floydada, assistant deputy grand matron, responded. Talks were made by Mrs. Hamber of Spur, Mrs. Alice Abbott, worthy matron of the Plainview chapter, Arch Keys of Plainview, Arthur Martin, F. A. Kleinschmidt, Ernest Nelson and George W. Foster of Lubbock.

Musical Numbers

Music was furnished by Miss Blanche Fann, violinist, and Mrs. Raymond George, piano accommanist, and there was a general singsong.

Out-of-town guests who registered were Mrs. Augusta Pruett of Temple, Mrs. Gladys Pennington of Floydada, Mrs. Catherine Hurman of Imperial, Kan., Miss Thelma Glover of Brownwood, Mrs. W. W. Lewis of Desdemona, Miss Minnie Jackson of Alamogorda, Okla., Mrs. Dixie Stevens of Gorman, Mrs. Minnye Smith of Ivanhoe, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Arch Keys of Plainview, Jessie Prosser of Plainview, Mrs. Minnie Woodall of Plainview, Mrs. L. L. Sefton of Tulia, Mrs. W. M. Abbott, of Plainview, Mrs. Gladys Howard of Floydada.

Baptist Programs To Continue Today

Women in the First Baptist W. M. S. are gathering at the church this afternoon for the second program in a week of prayer series. Mrs. George W. Foster is leading the devotional and the program is on "Mountain Schools."

Yesterday's program was on "Cuba and the Panama."

Issue Order For Mail Into Mexico

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., March 6 (AP)—Postmaster W. G. Bennett today received a new order modifying that of yesterday which directed that no mail be delivered to Mexico.

The new order said: "Where the exchange postoffice still is controlled by the Mexican federal government mail should be delivered. This modifies the order of yesterday withholding mail."

Make Every Effort To Guard Americans

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—American diplomatic and consular offices in Mexico are exerting every effort to protect the lives of Americans and their property in the sections of the republic where revolutionary disturbances are in progress. No reports of damage to American property has been received.

Dispatches received here indicated that Guaymas in Sonora was in the hands of the revolutionists, General Amernta with the 29 battalion of the Mexican army, loyal to the Portes Gil government has taken to the mountains.

The Mexican warship Bolivar has been seized in the harbor by the revolutionists. The small American fishing steamer Gloraiah is also in the harbor.

Wee Clowny watched the cherries run. To him it seemed a heap of fun. "Come back here quick," he shouted. "We have come here just to play. We will not eat you. No siree! I promise that. Leave it to me. I'll see that you're not harmed and we'll all have a lovely day."

One of the cherries stopped and cried, "Oh, we were going to run and hide. But, if you'll promise you'll be nice we'll gladly come right back. You see, most people eat us quick, and that's a very unkind trick. Sometimes they even take us on a long trip in a sack."

"Don't worry, you will shortly find that we are really very kind," replied one of the Tinies. Then the cherries joined the bunch. They played around an hour or so before the cherries had to go. Just as they ran off Coppy said, "I'd like one for my lunch."

A squeaking sound then filled the air and Carpy said, "Look over there. That tree trunk's like a teapot and it's tipping to and fro." They promptly scampered right up near and Scouty said, "Well, just look here! This tree is losing syrup. It is dripping out real slow."

And then the teapot-looking tree said: "I'm a maple tree you see. I'm filled up full with syrup that you eat on cakes and such. The syrup's spilling from my spout. Watch close. You'll see it running out. Please, someone, tip me up real straight so I won't lose too much."

"Sure! I will do it," Clowny cried. He climbed right up the queer pot's side and, after working rather hard, he straightened it up fine. "Oh, thank you," said the maple tree. "You've surely been real nice to me. Since I have had your kindness, I will give you some of mine."

(The maple tree pays the Tinies back in the next story.)

SECRET IS OUT

Now We Know Why Lindy Uses Just One Arm

MEXICO CITY, March 6 (AP)—The secret of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's driving an automobile with one arm was revealed today.

Since his crash at Valbuena Field last week he has driven frequently, sometimes on fairly long trips, with his right arm bandaged and in a sling, quite out of commission.

He steers with his left arm and while his finance, Miss Anne Morrow, who always sits beside him shifts the gears.

Despite the task of mobilization if Mexico's air forces to meet rebel attackers repairs on Colonel Lindbergh's damaged plane were proceeding today.

When they are finished, and possibly before, if he can borrow a plane, he is expected to leave for the United States.

Local Aggie Exes To Bible Banquet

At a meeting yesterday at Our Cafeteria, Texas A. and M. ex-students determined that five of their number would attend the celebration Saturday at Fort Worth in honor of Coach D. X. Bible.

The delegation from here will include W. G. McMillan, A. H. Leidigh, L. L. Coleman, H. G. Higginbotham, and W. L. Stangel.

With nineteen in attendance at the meeting, plans were formulated for a program on April 21.

Not To Interfere In Arms Shipments

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP) — President Hoover sees no reason to disturb the policy under which shipments of arms and munitions from the United States for the Mexican government have been permitted under license during the last five years.

Simon-Pure Demos Pass Wirtz Bill

AUSTIN, Mar. 6 (AP)—Simon-pure Texas democrats held a post of vantage today in regulation of the party's affairs by passage to engrossment last night of the Wirtz senate measure giving the executive committee power to purge democratic ranks of unfaithful followers.

The bill passed to third reading by a 73-47 vote, but proponents lacked sufficient strength to suspend the rules and act finally after the house chamber had echoed for more than two hours to the sound of party loyalty.

MANY APPEAR GIVING SUPPORT TO BILL NOW IN SENATE

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 6—A meeting of the senate committee on state affairs for today to give further consideration to the house automobile license fee reduction bill after several out of town persons had appeared last night in support of the measure.

The bill would provide for a reduction of almost 50 per cent. The state highway department would bear the revenue loss.

E. C. Blesi, president of the Dallas Automobile Club and the Texas State Automobile Association; L. M. Shepardson, president of the Waco Automobile League, and Col. H. M. Dichman, president of the San Antonio League, spoke at the committee hearing last night.

They asserted that a reduction in license fees with an offsetting gasoline tax increase would force the tourist to pay an equitable portion of the cost of highway building.

In reply to question they stated they did not believe motorists would object to a four cent gasoline tax if relief were given on the license fees.

Watson Is Chosen Republican Chief

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP) — James E. Watson of Indiana, was chosen republican leader of the senate today at a party conference. He takes the post held by Senator Curtis until he became vice president.

Senate republicans also nominated their officers for the senate, including Senator Moses of New Hampshire to be president protem.

Guessing Games

THEY were a lot of fun when we were youngsters, those guessing games. Guess who this is! Guess the number of means in the pot! Guess how long the pendulum will swing! Sometimes we came pretty close to the right answer. Sometimes we were a long way off. Whichever we were, we all had a good time, and the worst guesser got as much of the evening's refreshments as the best.

How far away those guessing games seem now! And how they have lost their appeal. Perhaps it's because we learned, as we grow older, that to know is better than to guess. Guess which is the best package on the grocer's shelf! Guess which bolt of cloth is pure wool! Guess which talking machine will give us most satisfaction! No, guessing for those things wasn't so much fun. We wanted to be certain. And that was one of the reasons we turned to advertising.

Advertising takes the guesswork out of buying. It lets us know what is best and what is cheapest and what will last longest. It does away with unsatisfactory uncertainties. The advertisements in these newspapers tell a concise, interesting and accurate story about articles you need. Reading them is the surest and quickest path to wise buying. It eliminates guessing.

By reading Avalanche and Journal advertisements regularly, and buying advertised goods, you take the guessing out of spending your money.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

By Henry L. Farrell

Why Was This?

Just a few days before the White Sox traded Bib Falk to the Indians for Chick Autrey and an unnamed sum of money, Manager Lena Blackburne was entertaining the Chicago correspondents.

Mr. Blackburne was discussing plans for the coming season.

"I'm going to groom Bib Falk for first base in case anything happens to Art Shires," he told them. "He played first base some in college and has been practicing around the bag for several years and he seems to get along swell on the job. You can't ever tell what may happen in this game, and, while I have great faith in Shires, I want to have somebody around if anything should go wrong with him."

Blackburne also informed the correspondents of some of the nice things he had been told about the young outfielders the White Sox had. And then out of a clear sky—

"I think this Autrey with Cleveland is a pretty nice catcher," he said. "In fact, I think he is one of the best. He does everything well. Hits nicely, works the pitchers smoothly, and thinks on the job. He looks like he will be a great catcher one of these days."

And, somehow or other, that indicated the trade.

Both Were Helped

It may seem, on the surface of things, that the Indians profited to a great extent from the swap while the White Sox gained only a third-string catcher and some money.

The Indians did nobly by themselves. The haven't used Autrey for much other than warming up the pitchers and as for the dough they parted with, that will never worry them.

The White Sox are minus a good outfielder who has been dissatisfied in Chicago for many seasons and gained a young catcher who may be all that Blackburne thinks. If he is, he will give the Sox the best catching they have had since Ray Schalk was forced out of active service.

All in all, it looks like one of those deals that may prove of benefit to both clubs in the long run. Cleveland needs experienced outfielders. They had only Jamieson before Falk was acquired. And the Sox need catchers. Well, time will tell who got the best of it as it does for all trades that look one-sided at first announcement.

Nearing the finish of another basketball campaign, it is interesting to note that Arkansas has won the championship of the southwest for the fourth consecutive season.

This is especially interesting in view of the fact that Arkansas recognized basketball only as an intramural sport when Coach Francis Schmidt took charge in 1922, and also interesting because of the fact that Schmidt never played the game while a collegian at Nebraska.

In winning its fourth successive title, the Arkansas team established eleven new conference records. These records include a new winning streak of 21 conference victories and different records for high scoring in single games and for the season, and in defensive play.

This is Schmidt's last season at Arkansas. He will leave soon for Texas Christian University where he will coach football and basketball, as he has at Arkansas. He succeeds Matty Bell, who went to Texas A. and M. when Danna X. Bible took the job at Nebraska.

GLENN WRIGHT IS ROBINS' CAPTAIN

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 6 (AP)—Glenn Wright, the former Pittsburgh star, is the new field captain of the Brooklyn Robins.

Wright, traded to Brooklyn during the winter for Jess Petty and Harry Riconda, was named captain yesterday and then led his regulars to a 15 to 1 victory over the Yannigans.

Selection of a new field leader was necessitated by the fact that neither Max Carey nor Dave Bancroft is classed as a regular any

HARD WORK IS SCHEDULED BY HARDY PILOT

INFIELD CHANGE WILL BE MADE BY TEAM IS BELIEF

By BRIAN BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

AVON PARK, Fla., Mar. 6—If it is true that uneasy lies the head that wears the crowdn of manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, Billy Southworth is concealing it. In spite of the fact that he is "the fourth manager of the Red Birds in four years, the little outfielder to all appearances is nonchalant.

Southworth

The former pennant winning Rochester pilot work and more of it. No club in Florida is working such long hours and at such speed as the National league champions.

A training camp innovation has been made by the construction of two batting cages, in addition to the regular batting practice at the plate and three divisions take many cuts at the ball during practice. Southworth also has two pitchers alternating in pitching to the batters.

Rookie to Play Short

The Cards are committed to one infield change and there may be more. Charley Gelbert, the sensational young shortstop from Rochester, will play short. Gelbert may face the handicap of too much boosting.

If Carey Selph, from Houston, comes up to specifications he will go to second base with Frankie Frisch moving over to third. If a tour of bench duty is considered necessary for Selph's baseball welfare, Fred Haney, former Detroit player, and the versatile Andy High are available for third. Jim Bottomley gets renomination at first base.

Six Outfielders

There are only six outfielders on the roster, including manager Southworth who probably will fill a utility role. Walter Roettger, who was batting at a terrific clip when he broke his leg July 4 seems to have recovered. Taylor Douthit and Chick Hafey will hold over in the other outfield posts. This arrangement will leave Ernest Orsatti and Roscoe Holm as reserves with the manager.

Jimmy Wilson will do most of the catching with the veteran Earl Smith available as first assistant. The other catching assignment awaits a contest between Gus Mancuso and Clarence Jonnard.

The pitching mainstays all know their way about. Grover Cleveland Alexander is the youngest player in the camp. He fields bunts by the hour and will be the first pitcher ready to take a turn. Willie Sherdel, Jesse Haines, Clarence Mitchell and Sylvester Johnson will complete the big five.

Herman Bell, back for another chance and Frankhouse and Hald, who were on the club last year, should stick and two Texas leaguers, Bill Hallahan and Harold Elliott have a chance.

FLOYD PLANS TRACK MEETS

TWO SCHOOL EVENTS TO BE HELD IN THAT COUNTY

(Special to The Journal)

FLOYDADA, March 6 — Two school track meets will be held in Floydada this month it was decided at a recent meeting of the directors of the interscholastic league in this county. March 15 and 16 are the dates set for a preliminary meeting in which the eliminations of rural school contestants will be made. This will precede the regular meet, in which the Class B and Class A schools compete, which will take place March 29 and 30. The change was made due to the rapid growth of the schools in the county which made it practically impossible for the entire meet to be held in two days.

Competition for honors has increased each year in the school fair and the participation of rural and Class B students in all events and the unusual growth of the schools in Floydada and Lockney has resulted in an attendance at the school meets that exceeds that of any county in this interscholastic district. To make the meet more convenient to participants and the judges the county board voted to hold two separate contests, the first being open to rural schools and the second open to the county.

Another change that is expected to assist in the selection of the winners of the various contests in record-breaking time is the increased number of judges that will be secured to judge the events. Five teachers from the West Texas State Teachers' College will be invited to judge the contestants instead of the three that were formerly used.

COOLIDGE BACK AS PRIVATE CITIZEN

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Mar. 6 (AP)—Calvin Coolidge settled down today to the quiet ways of his New England neighbors.

Yesterday was a day of homecoming, of an enthusiastic reception from his fellow townsmen and of poking about his half of the double house on Massasoit street to see that everything was as it should be. But today there was time for throwing himself thoroughly into the role of a private citizen.

There were old friendships to be renewed, a visit to be made to Mrs. Coolidge's mother, who is seriously ill at a hospital. Mrs. Coolidge hoped for a letup in the continual drizzle that followed her from Washington, in the hope that she might be able to indulge in her favorite recreation of walking.

Odd jobs to be done about the house appealed to Mr. Coolidge. Getting out a few tools and attending to the little repairs that constantly are necessary in one's own home has always been a great source of pleasure to him.

Mr. Coolidge, as always, anxious about his health, joined Mrs. Coolidge in looking for an opportunity for a brisk walk, which he has termed the most beneficial form of exercise. Moreover his desk in the law office that throughout his years in high office still bore his name, remained to be visited.

TEXAN NAMED SOX CAPTAIN

SHIRES, IN LONE STAR LOOP LAST YEAR GETS POST

(By Associated Press)

DALLAS, Texas, March 6 —Some idea of what Lena Blackburne intends to do with his large crop of ball players was obtained today when he sent the White Sox through an abbreviated ball game.

Blackburne announced his regular lineup as Mostil, Barrett and Reynolds in the outfield; Shires on first, Kerr at second, Cissell at shortstop, Kamm on third and Crouse catching. Only Barrett and Mostil appear uncertain to appear in the starting lineup when the season opens. Clarence Hoffman, a rookie, and Alex Metzler, who has not yet reported, are scheduled to hold down two of the outfield berths.

With the retirement of Kamm as field captain, Blackburne has named Art Shires to hold down the job temporarily. Other players, however, will be tried during the preseason games.

Bulgarian Arms Depot Explodes Yesterday

SOFIA, Bulgaria, March 6 (AP)—Twenty eight persons were dead, 25 serious injured in an explosion at the largest military arsenal in Bulgaria yesterday. Most of the dead were women. Property valued at $1,000,000 was destroyed.

Cause of the explosion has not been determined, but one theory is that a workman, seeking warmth from a stove, carried a fuse signal too close to the coals.

King Boris, who directed the rescue work by telephone from Snietkovo where he was snowbound ordered the 28 victims of the catastrophe buried at the expense of the state and their relatives paid life pensions.

Gilchrist To Aid In Highway Plan

Gib Gilchrist, state highway engineer, will be in Lubbock in the near future to help work out plans for a countywide highway project, according to County Judge Robert H. Bean, who returned yesterday from Austin.

Mr. Gilchrist told Judge Bean that the highways here were state highways, not county highways, and that the county was helping the state and not the state helping the county when any improvement was made. He said that for this reason the state should have a right to determine the type of highways to be constructed. He intimated that all of the roads would not be concrete.

Pledging his co-operation in every way possible, Mr. Gilchrist said that he would advise and go over the situation carefuly and help work out a suitable plan.

ATHENS FIVE MENACES FOR STATE CROWN

ESTELLINE, FROM THE PANHANDLE, RATED AS DARK HORSE

(Special To The Journal)

COLLEGE STATION, March 6.—Season's record and performance of Athens, Denton, Corsicana and El Paso stamp these four teams as the outstanding favorites to survive the first round of the state basketball tournament which opens here Friday morning under the auspices of the Interscholastic League. Main Avenue, San Antonio, and Estelline also have crack quintets, but their opposition in the first round is strong. Estelline is the dark horse of the meet.

Little has been heard of the Estelline team this season, but it comes from the Panhandle section, which has always placed an outstanding quintet in the tournament.

Athens, Denton Strong.

Athens and Denton boast the strongest teams of the year. The Hornets have bowled over all opposition with the exception of Denton, which divided a series with Jimmy Kitts' aggregation. These two teams are in separate brackets and may be brought together in the finals. The Denton quintet is facing less dangerous opposition in the opening rounds and for this reason may have the inside track to beat the Hornet crew if the former is able to use second stringer in the early games.

Corsicana is ranked with the leading teams of the state, because of its victory over Temple in bi-district play. Temple was runnerup to Austin in 1928. Austin won the championship but was later disqualified. El Paso has always had good teams, winning the tournament in 1921 and 1922. Andy Cohen, now of the New York Giants, was star of the quint in '21.

Athens, El Paso, Main Avenue, Cisco, May, Denison and Knippa have been placed in the upper bracket of the tournament. Knippa drew a bye and does not see action until the second round. The first round schedule of the bracket is: Athens vs. May, Brown county; El aso vs. Denton; Main Avenue vs. Cisco.

Athens and El Paso should win their contests, while the outcome of the Main Avenue-Cisco game is doubtful. Cisco has a strong team this season, but Main Avenue has always sent a crack quint to the tournament.

In the second round Knippa plays the winner of the El Paso-Denison game and Athens battles the Main Avenue-Cisco survivor. Athens appears certain to reach the finals from the upper bracket.

The competition will be stiff in the lower bracket with such teams as Corsicana, Denton, Estelline, Perryton, McAllen, Mryan and San Jacinto high, Houston, listed. San Jacinto drew a bye. The first round schedule is Corsicana vs. Perryton, Denton vs. McAllen and Estelline vs Bryan.

Urge Farmers To Ask Prairie Dog Poison

Lubbock county land owners who reside here are requested to call at the county agent's office in the courthouse for a supply of poison grain being used in the county-wide prairie dog extermination campaign.

D. F. Eaton, Lubbock county agent, said this morning that farmers had ben coming in from all parts of the county, and that the land owners living in town should cooperate in ridding the county of the harmful prairie dogs. He said that it would take about one tablespoon of the grain to each prairie dog hole, explaining that the grain was to be placed outside, not in the holes. It is estimated that one quart can effectively be used to kill fifty of the dogs.

Baby Beeve Show Is Held At Post

With twenty-five calves, owned by vocational and 4-H Club boys, entered, a Baby Beef Show was held at Post yesterday in connection with the two-day farmers' short course of the International Harvester company, according to Lubbock County Agent D. F. Eaton.

Mr. Eaton attended the second and last day of the short course yesterday, making a talk on "Dairy Associations." He also acted as judge in the Baby Beef contest, awarding a number of prizes. He reported today that the show was very good.

Fifteen of the calves will be entered in the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show, Mr. Eaton reports.

Fear Child Died In Corsicana Fire

CORSICANA, Texas, March 6 (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin early today destroyed a 10-room residence in the eastern part of Corsicana. The loss was estimated at $7,000.

Firemen were searching the ruins for a possible victim, after a check revealed that a small child was missing.

DEMPSEY IS UNDECIDED OVER FUTURE WITH THREE BUSINESS COURSES OPEN

(By Associated Press)

MIAMI, Fla., March 6—Jack Dempsey left Miami and Miami Beach last night for New York, not as former heavyweight champion, but in his role of successful promoter of the recent battle between Sharkey and Stribling.

"I don't know what I'll do yet," he said. "I have three things in mind."

One of the three lines of activity facing Dempsey is understood to be a berth with the Garden Corporation as a promoter.

He has an offer from Humbert Fugazy, former rival of Tex Rickard, for a partnership in a two-man firm of promoters.

The third opportunity for continued association with the business side of fighting, he said, is a proposition to go in with Floyd Fitzsimmons of Detroit in the development of a world's championship lightweight fight between Sammy Mandell, champion, and Ray Miller, Michigan youth who has forged to the upper part of the list in his class.

And then, of course, Dempsey may decide to don the gloves again.

Jack said he had made an offer to Paulino Uzcudun, Spanish battler, for a bout with Sharkey, the former having asked for a guarantee of $100,000.

FINAL TUNING UP PRACTICE IS UNDERWAY

ENTIRE LIST OF MEET ENTRIES IN HANDS OF OFFICIALS

With the entire list of entries in the hands of college athletic officials and the date for the meet one day off, contestants for the fourth annual track and field meet at Tech will go through a final tuning up this afternoon under the direction of student coaches.

The Engineers and Aggies have been working strenuously to develop teams to compete with the Liberal Arts aggregation that carried off honors last year an dseemed headed for another championship this season. Incoming speed merchants who were stars on high school track teams have bolsfered up the hopes of the underdogs and indications point to a meet filled with fast competition.

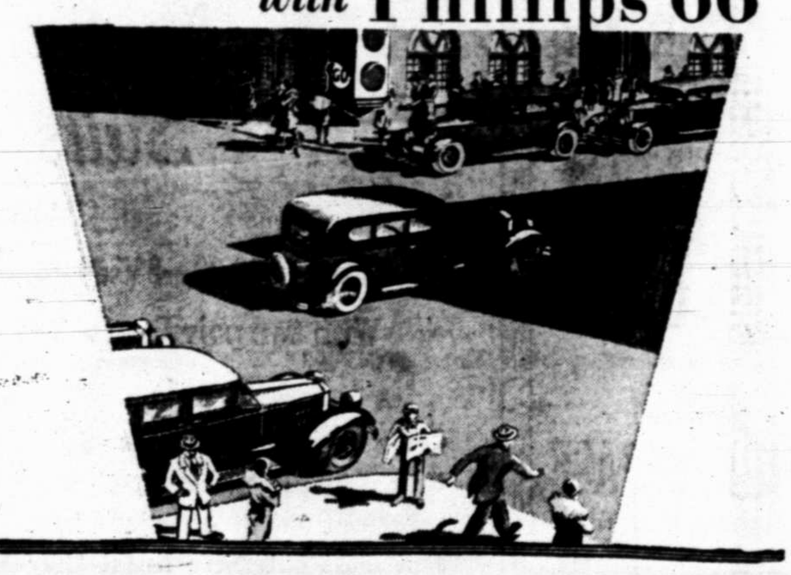

An unusually large number of entries are in the hands of school authorities this season, the contestants expected to go beyond the one hundred mark.

With a competent corps of officials on hand to handle the meet and the three schools on edge for the first event Thursday afternoon, nothing should prevent a record turnout for this outstanding event of the early track season.

Thought For Today

Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in dark, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days.—Colossians 2:16.

* * *

The most generous and merciful in judgment upon the faults of others are always the most free from faults themselves.—Aughey.

A Senator's Estate

Oscar Underwood, the late senator from Alabama, left an estate of approximately $50,000 when he died recently, letters of administration filed at Birmingham, Ala., revealed.

Once again it is proved that the size of a man's estate bears no relation whatever to the extent of his services to the public. Senator Underwood, for many years, was one of the south's most valuable citizens. Not only his own state—indeed, not only the south as a whole—but the entire nation is better for his having lived and worked.

Yet he leaves an estate of only $50,000—a large sum, to be sure, for the average man, but nothing like what a man of Senator Underwood's talents could have acquired if he had worked for himself and not for the nation.

Some of our public servants, to be sure, are grossly overpaid. But the good ones get far less than they deserve.

Lindbergh

These suggestions that Col. Lindbergh be given a post in Hoover's air cabinet, so-called, are sure to strike a responsive chord. As assistant secretary of commerce in charge of aviation, the young flyer would have his opportunity to aid the cause of civilian aviation in the United States greatly increased.

However, in his present capacity as private citizen, Colonel Lindbergh has been doing that job pretty well. There is no way of telling just how much of the present interest in flying is due directly to him, but surely he is largely responsible. He flew the Atlantic and gave us confidence in planes; then he toured the United States, flew down through Mexico and Central America, and helped establish a transcontinental trainpipane service. Now he has just given the Central American air line a sendoff.

Really, he couldn't do much more if he did have an official position.

A Heart

The story of little Billy Newhart of Bellaire, O., is the sort of thing that restores one's faith in humanity.

Billy, you remember, is the lad whose bones are so brittle that he's all the time fracturing them. He has spent eight of his 12 years in bed; about his only diversion is reading postcards that friends send him.

The newspapers recently printed a little story about him. What happeneus Newspaper readers, all over the country, took the trouble to write him. To date he has received approximately 40,000 letters, and enough toys to last him a lifetime. There are, after all a lot of kindly people in the world.

And, best of all, Billy isn't spoiled by it. He won't pose for pictures because, he says, "folks would think I was trying to get some more gifts." He is behaving himself under somewhat trying circumstances as well as Lindbergh did.

Mariners

Join the U. S. marine corps and see the world!

The catchword of the blue-clad recruiting sergeant is pretty nearly justified, at that. Major General John A. Lejeune, commandant of the corps, reveals in his annual report that in 1928 approximately two thirds of the entire corps was service outside the United States.

The bulk of these, of course, went to Nicaragua. A large detachment was in China, and a good many more served in Haiti. Then, in addition, the marine contingents on various battleships and cruisers did considerable traveling.

It begins to look as if the recruiting sergeant's slogan just about fits the facts.

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says some hostesses make you feel at home and other make you wish you were.

Efforts are being made—or at at least will soon be made—to retain Lubbock's franchise in the Class D, West Texas baseball league, revived last year after several seasons of dormancy. It's the same old question and urge which arises, year after year, when the grass starts to turn green in the spring—and all that sort of thing.

The Plainsman is a dyed-in-wool baseball bug—you know, one of those kind who believes, deep down in their hearts, that they know more baseball than John McGraw and Sled Allen put together. In former years, when he had more time and energy, the writer used to spend his hours perusing batting and fielding averages and could have told, without batting an eye, who played left field for the Podunk Swatters in 1898, had he been asked. As years have rolled by, and the necessity of making a living grown more gnawing, he has forsaken the average charts but not the love of the pastime.

Last year when the "Get Lubbock Into the West Texas League" campaign was begun, The Plainsman was right in the big middle of it. During the season he managed to be in the press box most of the time the locals were booting the ball around the home orchard and will probably do the same thing this year if we have a club in the loop.

But despite his love for the game the writer wants to go on record for one thing—namely that if there is a West Texas League and Lubbock is in it, the brand of baseball be improved or else the league disbanded.

Frankly, the writer believes that organized baseball, like any other kind of organized business, should be self-supporting or else thrown on the scrapheap. This thing of passing the hat and passing the hat for baseball, or anything else, gets monotonous to the average man. This plea of " a team in organized baseball is good advertising for the town" is a lot of hooey. If a city has a top-notch team it may bring good publicity but it can not be called advertising. Can you imagine a man moving his family to a city because it has a pennant winning ball club?

This isn't a lot of cold water or propaganda against Lubbock's re-entering, or if you please, remaining in the West Texas League. It's merely an expression of a fan who in the past has seen 'the best laid plans of mice and men" go to pot in Class D baseball.

People feel the same way about baseball as they do about clothes, picture shows or automobiles. The product must be good or they are going to 'run out" on the proposition. And if the people don't support a picture show, an automobile dealer or a clothing store business it's just another case of too bad. The man behind the business doesn't grab his hat and go round the square for enough money to stay in business. He either improves his product to the point where the public wants it or he goes broke if he doesn't quit. That much is true as Gospel.

And there's the whole point in a nutshell as far as The Plainsman is concerned. Lubbock should have good baseball and, in all probabilities is ready to support good baseball. But Lubbock, or no other city should be expected to support bad baseball, whether it's organized baseball or not. The City League year before last was more interesting locally and often displayed a better brand of the national pastime than the West Texas League did last year. If the league this season can't beat its record of last year then we'd better go back to the sandlots and the City circuit.

Only Opposition To New Tariff Raid Seems To Be From President Hoover Himself, Rodney Dutcher Discovers

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—The only noteworthy opposition to the anticipated general tariff raid, except that from foreign sources, appears to have come from President Hoover himself, in private conversation.

Tariff fights in the past have aroused the country. But this time there isn't any fight. There are two reasons generally given for the lack of opposition. One is that the country is pretty well sold, rightly or wrongly, on the protective tariff. The other is that there is now hardly a member of congress, so wide has been the expansion of our industrialization, who hasn't some industry in his district which yells for protection.

Concerning the first factor, it may be said in passing that judging from the speals heard before the house ways and mean committee most American manufacturers are on the verge of bankruptcy which can only be averted by higher duties, which might seem to indicate some doubt about prosperity.

The other is a matter of stern reality for any congressman. It doesn't do for him to ignore the wishes of business men in his district, especially those of powerful manufacturers or other producers, and if he seeks protection for his own home folks he must support similar pleas from other members, for tariff bills are always a beautiful and touching example of mutual aid.

Just what sort of a tariff rejiggering Mr. Hoover really wants will soon be apparent. The more intriguing problem concerns what sort of a tariff rejiggering he will have to accept and the question whether or Mr. Hoover will actually stand up and make a fight against the raid.

At last reports Mr. Hoover favored increases merely on about 15 per cent of the duty list embracing only those things which would help the farmer. It doubtless will be pointed out early in the special session, as no one has bothered to mention lately, that increased tariff rates would hardly help raisers of the six major crops in this country because there is in each one an annual exportable surplus.

These crops are wheat, corn, hogs, cotton, tobacco and rice and no way has yet been approvel which would give their producers the benefit of the inoperative protection which they now enjoy. Meanwhile everyone else who would profit by more protection is horning in on what was originally supposed to be the grain belt's own show.

Of course, there are many other crops which would benefit by higher duties. Increases on Cuban sugar and restrictions on Filipino sugar would help our own sugar interests, beet and cane. Wool growers could get still higher prices if there were no foreign competition to keep prices within reason. And producers of such items as fruits, nuts and olives, so many kinds of which are grown in Mr. Hoover's own native state of California, could be helped immediately. But that wouldn't be anything for the grain belt to cheer about. That section wants effective protection for what it sells rather than what it buys.

Meanwhile some embarrassment has been occasioned to long suffering congressmen whose back-home interests seek protection for themselves and want to deny it to others. Shoe manufacturers, for instance, want prohibitive tariffs on shoes and none on hides. Cattle raisers and tanneries, of course, are demanding a duty on hides. The congressman who has both shoe factories and tanneries in his district, as some have, is in a bad way.

The wool growers and the manufacturers of woolens solved such a problems long ago by banding together for plenty of protection all around, allowing the consumers to pay the bill. It has been charged before the ways and means committee that between them they have managed to drive up some rates as high as 387 per cent.

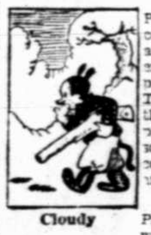

Some New England manufacturers are vigorously protesting the proposed new duties on Egyptian cotton, which they claim they must have. Southern congressman are seeking a prohibitive duty on Egyptian cotton, but are more than willing to vote a "compensator" tariff on finished cotton goods with the idea of helping both cotton growers and manufacturers. It's tough, of course, on any manufacturer to whom the long staple Egyptian cotton is essential.

Candy manufacturers want prohibitory duties on candy, claiming increased imports from Germany, France and England since the war. But they are putting up a howl at the proposed increase on sugar duties. The public, as usual, will pay the increased costs or additional profits which are made possible.

The jewelry industry presents a unique case. Most of it is devoted to making medium and cheaper grade products. Imitation stones are made largely in Czechoslovakia; we don't make them here, for some reason. The jewelry manufacturers thus pay 20 to 60 per cent duty on these stones when they import them.

Sad to relate, Czechoslovakia has lately turned to making jewelry as well as stones and has become our principal competitor. Thus the jewelry men are opposed to any increased duty on the stones, but they do ask for increased protection on finished products in which the stones are used.

Special Plane Is Ordered To Mexico

KANSAS CITY, March 6 (AP)—Earle P. Hallburton, president of the Southwest Air Fast Express, said here last night that Gen. Alva Niles former head of the Tulsa National Bank of Tulsa, Okla., had ordered the dispatch of a plane to remove Mrs. Niles and a party of friends from Mexico City, where they are visiting the home of Ambassador Morrow.

Mrs. Niles communicated with her husband by radio, Hallburton was advised. He said that Tom Park, one of the company's pilots, would leave here today for Brownsville, Texas, where he would attempt to secure a passport.

Gunman Slain In Raid On Hotel Clerk

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 6 (AP)—A gunman was fatally wounded yesterday in a pistol battle with police in the lobby of a downtown hotel here after he had held up the night clerk in an attempt to rifle the cash drawer. He died in a hospital after he had been partly identified as A. H. Browne of New Orleans, alias Frank Thompson of Lancaster.

MAIL FRAUD SENTENCE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Mar. 6 (AP)—James R. London, former Marietta abstractor, today was under sentence of three years in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth following a plea of guilty to a charge of using the mails to defraud.

Brownsville Made Air Mail Station

SAN ANTONIO, March 6 (AP)—Brownsville's airport has been selected as site for an air mail post-office sub-station to work and record Mexican mail following establishment of the International air mail route from San Antonio through that city into Mexico, H. W. McCool, chief clerk of the railway mail service at San Antonio, announced Tuesday.

In New York

By Swan

NEW YORK, March 6—Black Harlem has a slang lingo all its own—even as has Broadway, or the underworld. It is partly out of the midtown argot factory and partly of negro descent.

Thus what passes as "high-hat" or "arty" around Times Square, becomes "dicty" by the time is passes 125th street. A "snooty" person is "hincty"—possibly a negro variation on "hoity-toity." "Goofer dust" is the magic voodoo powder peddled by the wrinkled mammies and a "monkey chaser" is a negro from the West Indies.

The expression "two-time," meaning to "double cross," came from Harlem. So did "sweet man," "sweetie," "big sugar," "lily livered" "picked," "mess around," and many more.

Some recent additions to the Broadway dictionary include: "making boom-boom," which is the same as "making whoopee"; "look and listen show," meaning a "talkie"; a "yawn" is a person who makes you weary . . . A butter-and-egg-man is now a "ripe olive." . . . And nickles are called "slot food." . . . The latter, I am told, originated in the automats where nickels are dropped in slots for pie, potatoes and coffee.

Some more Big Town gossip. . . . Fannie Brice, who got married again the other day, started out in life peddling newspapers in Flatbush and way points of Brooklyn. . . . And Joan Lowell, who will appear as author of the next Book of the Month, is now an actress down in New Orleans. . . . But she spent the first 15 or 16 years of her life aboard a South Sea trading sloop, encountering innumerable adventures. . . . "Cradle of the Deep" will be the name of her opus. . . . When one of the wisecrackers heard of this South Sea writing discovery, he commented. . . . "Ah, Trader Horn with sex appeal."

Fred Stone is back on his feet again. . . . Hope to see you dancing soon, Fred! . . . Just to show you that this home-career stuff really can and does work, Elsa Shutta who is one of Broadway's shapeliest damsels, will soon be a mamma. George Olsen, the band king, is her hubby.

Which reminds me that I saw Paul Whiteman at a party Sunday and he's really taken off weight. . . . But who wouldn't with this schedule: Arises almost at dawn to get out to Camden, N. J., to make phonograph records. . . . Rushes back to appear on stage at "Whoopee' matinees. . . . Meets managers, reads mail and answers letters. . . . Shows up for night performance of "Whoopee." . . . Takes charge of orchestra at Ziegfeld's Midnight Frolics. . . . Goes home with the dawn and gets up shortly after to start all over again. . . . Yet they talk about the soft life of a performer.

The party, by the way, was to introduce to the Broadwayites, the very popular French songster, Mons. Chevalier, who has been out Hollywood way making a "singie." . . . When he first came to town something like $15,000 worth of bottles were opened by the movies so he could see America thirst.

If you can believe it, there is now a compact for men on the market . . . And the face powder is scented variously with menthol and camphor. . . . Whoops, my dear! . . . . Also those fancy spats you see at the Longchamps race course in Paris have arrived on this side of the pond.

Sylvia Townsend Warner, who wrote "Lolly Willows," and more recently, "The True Heart," happens to be a "guest writer" in New York just now. . . She wears extremely original clothes of Chinese coloring and design, though tailored in lines . . . The answer is, she tells me, a Chinese tailor she found in London.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

BRISK HAIR BRUSHING GOOD SCALP EXERCISE AND AIDS THIN THATCH

He Reduces His Weight and Increases His Hair

"I have your book, 'Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories, and in about six weeks lost from 190 to 174 — 16 pounds. My wife thinks I should stop at 170, and I agree with her. But according to your table, I should weigh around 154, as my height is 5 feet 8 inches. Of course, if the weight of my clothes, shoes, etc., was deducted, I would weigh less than 174, probably 168 or less.

"What I want to know is if, when I reach 170 pounds dressed, I then eat 2,310 calories a day (sedentary occupation, although I have to travel around and inspect real estate), will that number of calories maintain me at 170 pounds? As I figure it, if I eat not more than 2,310 calories a day, I should not gain anything. For years I weighed 132, but after I married I went up to 193. Believe it or not, I ate far more when I was 132 than I ate when I gained up to 193!

"Your advice about brushing the hair has helped mine greatly. It makes me puff to do it 200 times without stopping, but I do it just the same. My left arm is sore right now. MR. F."

If you get down to 165 or 170 without clothes, that would make you about 10 pounds above the average normal weight, Mr. F., but it may be possible that your bones are heavy and you need the extra 10. The number of calories that you will need to keep you normal, will have to be determined from your personal experience. Simply watch your weight, and if you find you are gaining, then cut the number down. For a man of your height, you should be able to keep your weight at normal on around 2,300 calories; but if you have ten extra pounds on you, you will find you will have to continue being careful of your diet, for any excess weight seems to act as an invitation to more.

I smile at the 10 at the end of your caloric computation, for you cannot figure so accurately unless you know the exact ingredients in the foods and have weighed them. For instance, a dish that you count 150 calories today may be served the next day in slightly larger quantity, or it may be made a little richer. However, counting the approximate number does the work. (Always give a dish the benefit of a high count when you are not certain, if you wish to lose—and the reverse if you want to gain.)

As far as your gaining when you were eating less is concerned, there are two points to be thought of. You got married. Your wife probably served you much richer food than you were in the habit of getting, and though you ate more in quantity before, you had more calories later, for it is the quality as well as the quantity of the food that determines their number. There is another point to be thought of: when you are thin, you need more food than when you are overweight, for you radiate more heat—not having the insulation of the excess fat—and your food is used up to produce that heat. Then every move you make probably has more pep in it; this also uses up more calories.

It is interesting to know that you got good results with the scalp exercises. I believe that baldness and thinning hair can be prevented if sufficient care is taken of the scalp and of the diet.

For those who are interested, we have a pamphlet containing instructions on how to gain and lose, and an article on the care of the scalp.

Editor's Note: Dr. Peters cannot diagnose, nor give personal advice. Your questions, if of general interest, will be answered in the column, in turn. Requests for articles must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope and 2 cents in coin for each article, to cover cost of printing and handling. For the pamphlet on reducing and gaining, 10 cents in coin, with fully self-addressed, stamped envelope, must be enclosed. Address Dr. Peters, in care of this paper.

PRIZES FOR BEST AMERICAN ART PROPOSED

BY MILLARD E. TYDINGS
Senator From Maryland

(Millard E. Tydings was born at Havre de Grace, Md., April 6, 1890. He is a graduate of Maryland Agricultural college and the University of Maryland. Admitted to the bar in 1913, he began practicing in his native city. He was elected to the Maryland house of delegates in 1916, serving as speaker from 1920 to 1922 and then as member of the state senate for a year. He was then elected to congress and served four years before being sent to the senate in 1926. He served on the Mexican bordr in 1916 and later in France, receiving the Distinguished Service Medal.)

A bill I have just introduced in the senate provides for an annual contest and exhibition of paintings and sculpture by citizens of the United States. Awards are to be made by the United States government for the five best paintings and the five best pieces of sculpture. The awards in each case are as follows: first prize, $10,000; second prize, $5,000; third prize, $2,500; fourth prize, $1,500, fifth prize, $1,500.

Appropriate medals and certificates would show the pre-eminence of the successful contestants in their respective fields. The winning pictures and objects then become the property of the United States government. This collection is to be preserved and will eventually, I hope, find its place in a gallery of American painting and sulpture here in Washington.

The exhibition should be held annually in Washington and would, I believe, attract those interested in art from all over the world. It certainly would be a great stimulant to all citizens engaged in either painting or sculpture tending to develop American art in these fields, and would increase the appreciation of the American people for the beautiful.

The plan is inexpensive and would require only $50,000 per annum for prizes and incidental expenses. The prestige of winning any one of the five awards from among all American competitors would amply compensate the contestant for the surrender of his creation.

I believe the scheme is sound, and wise, and needed, and I hope it will meet with the support and encouragement of the people.

Speaking generally, it has often been said that our people are material. I shall not attempt to debate this statement. I cannot be denied that many of our ills are psychological and that, to some extent, we are the victims of the harshness of rapid progress. The softening and civilizing influence resulting from an appreciation of the beautiful cannot be other than wholesome in our country as an antidote to force and intolerance, which, from time to time, are so apparent. The unseen value resulting from an appreciation of art is of great worth to many people and, in my judgment, can well afford this small bit of encouragement for its educational value.

A report of a revolt in Mexico was denied the other day. Are they getting modest down there?

RARE OFFER

We wonder if you would be interested in the best purchase of raw land on the Plains. If you will take the pains to go to Morton, then about two miles this side, on the north side of the highway, and lying broadside with it, you will see what you yourself will say is the best looking quarter section of land you ever saw. Big statement, you say? Yes it is, but every word true.

No soil any richer, no table any more level, no sand, no grubs, two miles from fine school, court house and gin, an ideal location for a home.

We are authorized to sell this land for $25 per acre, and when we say that do not get it confused with blow sand lands at $20 and $15, and that are not worth one-half this land.

Its special value is due to the high quality of its soil, its beauty, its location close to Morton, the ease and certainty of getting a bountiful supply of the finest water. As a matter of fact if this land should sell for its value it would not be one cent less than $35.00 per acre. Let us tell you more about it.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE
State of Texas, County of Lubbock:

Whereas by virtue of order of sale issued out of the 99th district court of Lubbock County, Texas, on February 12, 1929 on a judgement rendered in said court on January 17, 1929, in favor of Liberty National Bank of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, a corporation and against Mrs. Jessie F. Summers Killin, H. E. Killin, T. T. Fisher, James L. Dow, J. O. Garlington, J. B. Jay, D. B. Jay, Mrs D. B. Jay, Charles F. O'Neall, Magnolia Petroleum company, W. L. Lowrance, and the Peacock Bank for foreclosure on lien of lot No. 5 block No. 31 of the Overton Addition to the City of Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas, to satisfy a judgement for $2504.70. The said cause being number 3386 on docket of said court and the said order of sale being directed and delivered to me as sheriff, I did on the second day of March, 1929 at 4 o'clock p. m. levy upon the property herein before described and on the second day of April, 1929, same being the first Tuesday of the said month between the hours of 10 a. m, and 4 p. m. at the Court House door of Lubbock County, Texas in the City of Lubbock, I will offer for sale and sell at public auction for cash all the right, title and interest of the said defendants in and to the said property.

Witness my hand this the 4th day, of March 1929.
Wade Hardy,
Sheriff of Lubbock County, Texas

STOCKS AGAIN ARE ERRATIC

SOME ISSUES RECORD GAINS AND OTHERS SLIP DOWNWARD

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Mar. 6—Widespread irregularity in price movement developed at the opening of today's stock market. Wright Aeronautical opened 2 points higher and initial gains of a point or more were recorded by U. S. Steel common, Kennecott Copper, General Electric, Atchison and Hudson Motors. Union Carbide and American Telephone each fell 2 points and American Power and Light, American Smelting, Cerro De Pasco and Chesapeake and Ohio fell a point or more. Anaconda Copper, directors of which authorized an additional stock issue to retire outstahding bonds after the close of yesterday's market, opened with a block of 10,000 shares at 158, off 1-2.

Some of the early selling in today's market presumably was influenced by yesterday's 10 per cent call money rate, the highest figure reached in any March since 1920.

The initial selling movement quickly subsided, and the market rallied under the leadership of the railroads, copper and automotive shares. Internation Silver quickly ran up five points, St. Louis Southwestern 2 3-4, Union Pacific 2 1-2 and U. S. Steel common, Collins and Aikman and Murray corporation sold 2 or more points higher.

Kreuger and Toll advanced a point to a new high record at 48 3-8, General Motors, Commonwealth Power, Calumet and Hecla, Nevada Copper, Lambert and Baltimore and Ohio also sold a point or more higher.

Foreign exchanges opened steady with cables unchanged at 4.85 7-32.

STRESEMANN ASKS MINORITY RIGHTS

GENEVA, March 6 (AP)—Speaking calmly and eloquently before the League of Nations council, Dr. Gustav Stresemann, the German foreign minister, today delivered an address in behalf of improved protection for the rights of minority peoples.

There was no trace of the explosive emotion he had displayed at the Lugano session of the council in December when he had a wordy altercation with Foreign Minister Zaleski of Poland over the question of German minorities in Polish Upper Silesia.

Proposing the creation of a special commission to study the whole problem of minorities, Dr. Stresemann declared in solemn tones that the peoples attached to nations not their own have "eternal right to speak their own language and to keep their souls and faith."

Convey Mail To Eaker Aircraft

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6 (AP)—Captain Ross G. Hoyt of the army air corps, hopped off from Bolling field today at 4:25 a. m. on a non-stop flight to Kelly field, Texas, to turn over to Captain Ira C. Eager mail for high officials of Central and South American governments.

Captain Hoyt, who with Captain Eaker was a member of the crew of the record breaking plane, the Question Mark, plans to stop only once, at Kelly field, on the round trip flight.

Captain Eaker expects to leave March 10 on a dawn-to-dusk flight from Brownsville, Texas, to Panama, and will carry official mail from Washington to the Latin-American capitals.

Truck Kills Youth

ODESSA, March 6.—Gordon, 21, son of Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Tom Jones of his city, died from injuries received early Tuesday morning when run over by an oil field truck on the Andrews road a few miles north of the city. The youth was taken to the Headlee Hospital but never regained consciousness.

Besides his parents he is survived by a sister. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at the Christian Church with burial at Midland.

COTTON RISES AFTER DECLINE

OPENS EASIER WITH LOWER LIVERPOOL CABLE NEWS

NEW ORLEANS, March 6 (AP)—The cotton market opened easier in response to lower Liverpool cables than due. First trades showed declines of 3 to 6 points but the market rallied on a weather and crop report.

May sold up to 20.44, July 20.49 and October 20.15, or 9 to 11 points above yesterday's close. At the end of the first hour the market was steady and at the highs.

The advance extended to levels 10 to 11 points above the previous close but met considerable realizing and all the gain was lost. May traded off to 20.35, July 20.38 and October 20.05; or 10 to 11 points down from the highs and parallel with yesterday's close. At noon the market was quiet and steady with narrow price fluctuations.

IRREGULAR NOTE AT NEW YORK

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Cotton opened today at an advance of 2 points to a decline of 5 points. Most months were lower under realizing and some southern and local selling.

The market became firmer after the early realizing had been absorbed. May sold up to 21.20 and the new October contracts to 20.39. This carried active months 6 to 14 points net higher by the end of the first half hour.

The market met realizing at the higher prices. This was sufficient to cause reactions later in the morning, when May sold off to 21.02; or six points net lower, offerings tapered off on the decline which apparently attracted renewed Wall Street and local support. The market was steady at mid-day, with active months ruling net unchanged to 3 points higher.

CONTROL BOARD LETS TWO BUILDINGS BE INCLUDED

After eliminating an item for $654,000 to complete the quadrangle of the administration building and $56,000 to equip the building in additon to several items of salary and maintenance, the state board of control has recommended appropriations of $678,290 for the first year and $580,440 for the second year of the next Tech biennium, it was made known at the college today.

The budget as originally made up by college officials called for $1,540,825 for the first year, and $1,690,225 for the second year.

This recommendation will be considered at a special session of the legislature in April, at which time a number of appropriation measures will be taken up. College authorities feel that the bill will pass, as it contains provisions for a new $175,000 library building and a $50,000 dairy products building.

'I'VE NEVER SEEN A MEDICINE EQUAL IT'

Lubbock Real Estate Man Says Wife Is Gaining On Orgatone And Is Well For First Time In Two Years

Another wonderful endorsement for Orgatone that will be read with interest was given recently by W. S. Curry, who resides at 2001 Twenty Sixth St., Lubbock, Texas, and who is in the real estate business here. In an interesting interview with the Orgatone man at Bowens Drug Store, Mr. Curry said:

"Orgatone is nothing short of a wonder. "I've never seen anything in the way of medicine to equal it. It has not only gotten my wife over serious trouble, but she actually feels better and stronger than in the past two years. She lost her health about two years ago, and in spite of all we did, she kept getting worse. Her stomach got so weak and out of order there was very few things she could eat at all and what she did eat seemed to do her harm instead of good. She had sharp pains up and down her back, from disordered kidneys, and intense pain in her stomach caused by the gas and she was constantly belching up sour, undigested food. She was very nervous and run down, and never got very much sleep at night. She had a bad case of constipation, and was just getting worse in every way, every day.

"She had the very best treatment and I bought every kind of medicine anyone would suggest, but nothing did her any good. I had been reading so much about Orgatone, and every where we went Orgatone was being praised for its fine work, so I bought a bottle and my wife began taking it. Well, it proved to be what she needed, and in a few days she began to get better. She has just taken one bottle, and she looks, acts, and feels better than she has in two whole years. She has gained in strength and eats anything she wants. She sleeps well every night, and has the color she used to have before she got sick. I am glad for anybody to know what we think of Orgatone. I am more than glad to give this statement."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent remedy but a new scientific treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Lubbock exclusively by the Bowens Drug Store under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative.

Tires for the new Ford are specially made to give long wear

WHEN the new Ford was designed, it was immediately apparent that a new tire would have to be made to match the car's performance. It was distinctly a new problem, for here was a car with quicker acceleration, greater speed and more braking efficiency than any car of similar size or weight.

So that every Ford owner might be assured of maximum tire mileage at the lowest cost, the Ford Motor Company devoted many months to research and experiment in conjunction with the leading tire manufacturers.

As a result, certain definite specifications were developed for tires for the new Ford. These specify cords of certain strength and texture, a large volume of tread and side-wall rubber, sturdy non-skid design, and reinforced plies for protection against bruise breaks—all the strong features of construction formerly considered for only the largest tires.

Great care also was taken to secure the best riding qualities in connection with the transverse springs and Houdaille shock absorbers used on the new Ford.

Though the Ford tires are 30 x 4.50 in size, they have the resiliency and air space of much larger tires because of the drop center rim of the steel spoke wheels.

Another unusual feature of the new Ford tires is the provision for balancing the tire assembly. Every tire is marked on the side-wall with a red spot to show where the valve stem should be when the tube is inserted. This is just a little thing, but it assures a uniformly high standard of tire performance at all speeds.

For best results, the tires on the new Ford should be kept inflated to an air pressure of 35 pounds and checked regularly to insure this pressure all the time. This is important. Low inflation breaks down the side-walls of a tire. By causing overheating, it also destroys the rubber that acts as an insulation, with consequent separation of the cord.

At the end of each 5000 miles, when you have the front wheels packed with grease, it is a good plan to have the wheel alignment checked. This will prevent the possibility of premature wear of the tires.

When punctures come, as they will with any tire, you will find the Ford dealer particularly well-equipped to make repairs quickly and at small cost. See him, too, for replacements. Then you will be sure of getting tires built specially for the Ford car according to definite Ford specifications.

MILLION DOLLAR ANNUAL VOLUME FOR SALES IN TEN BARRIER BROS. STORES

In 12 years, from a general merchandise store, in a 25 by 120 feet dimension, one-story building, located on the north side of the courthouse square, employing four sales people, to a department store, employing about 40 sales people, occupying a three-story building, and operating 10 stores in all, is the history of Barrier Brothers, of Lubbock.

Twelve years ago this month Barrier Bros. began business in this city carrying a $10,000 stock of goods. Their growth has been in keeping with the rapid expansion of the South Plains, as is evidenced by an annual sales volume in their 10 stores of approximately $1,000,000.

Drop Grocery Department

After operating the general merchandise store on the north side of the square, the John P. Lewis store, in the Conley building, was purchased and the grocery department of the original Barrier Brothers was abandoned. Until November 3, 1926, the concern was a partnership, being incorporated since that time under the name of Barrier Brothers, Inc. In addition to the department store operated here, the concern operates the South Plains Bargain store, formerly the W. O. Stevens Co., and stores at Spur, Slaton, Colorado, Levelland, Idalou, Crosbyton, Abernathy and Petersburg.

"We feel like there is a big future for the South Plains," said Paul Barrier of the company, "and we expect to put in more stores from time to time throughout this area. With our expansion, the added advantages in buying in much larger quantities, coupled with our recently instituted cash sales policy enables us to make better prices and to give the people more value for their money than before.

"Our firm is affiliated with Marshall Field and company, the world's largest distributors and manufacturers of merchandise, and people of Lubbock and the South Plains have the same access to quality merchandise as those residing in the larger cities of the nation do."

dictment at Waco, for violation of the corrupt practices act, Wurzbach declared that C. K. McDowell, former assistant attorney in the treasury department, who was one of the contributors, sought his endorsement as collector of customs in Texas.

Wurzbach said he learned McDowell had made an "improper proposition" to Daniel Sullivan and company, Texas bankers, who had a tax refund case pending. He offered in evidence a letter said to have been written by McDowell to John C. Sullivan, a son of Daniel Sullivan, in which McDowell asked for a $10,000 retainer fee and a further fee of $150,000 in the event the case was decided favorably to the Sullivan company by McDowell's intercession.

"Creager can tell you about it," Wurzbach said.

Creager replied he had "never heard of it."

"It is a common practice," commented Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, "that as soon as an employee of the treasury department finds that the refund may be made, he begins to negotiate with the company interested. It is all done in secret."

Wurzbach charged that "bogus letters" were shown to President Harding in an "attempt to discredit him."

"I never showed such letters to Harding," Creager said, "and I did not use them although I believe them to be authentic."

ROTARY

ceiving international attention from its fine attendance record for many months, standing among the ten best clubs of its class and ranking in sixth place for January, with more than a 98 per cent attendance record for February,, the club had a record of 100 per cent in attendance. Ray Grisham, chairman of the attendance committee, told the club the committee's work, not his, was responsible, when called upon to tell how he had done it.

New Member Introduced.

W. W. Graves, a new member with the classification of gas appliance distributing, was introduced by Jerry Clements.

R. W. Blair, of Dallas, formerly of Lubbock, among the club's visitors, was introduced by Murray as having helped to build this city, when he resided here. "If I ever have been of service to Lubbock," Mr. Blair said, "it was merely in cooperating with this fine citizenship. Without your fine team work, Lubbock would not have this hotel, nor the Denver railroad, and many other things. The longer I stay away, more I appreciate Lubbock and feel that I made an unwise decision in leaving."

Riley Huie was in charge of the day's program, which included talks by Homer Grant and Fred B. Caylor, the first on building and the latter on the subect of bricks.

STEWART OIL

telephone wires under the auditorium stage, press tables in the pit, and loud speakers linking the men's and women's gymnasiums with the main hall.

Indeed, Whiting expected to witness a real convention fight, with Col. Stewart sounding the keynote in his annual business report, Rockefeller representatives presenting their side of the argument, and individual stockholders being heard from the floor. Mr. Rockefeller himself is in Egypt.

Winthrop Rockefeller Envoy

He will act as chairman to open the meeting and then is expected to surrender the chair to E. G. Seubert, president, as he did last year, inasmuch as he is under fire. Winthrop W. Aldrich, New York, attorney, will be on hand to speak for John D., jr., in any fight which may develop. He arrived in Chicago Monday with 16,000 proxies in metal class under armed guard.

Fifty nine per cent of the more than 9,000,000 shares of Standard oil stock had been lined up against Col. Stewart, Mr. Aldrich said. The Rockefeller group has only 16,000 of the 56,000 stockholders on its side. The big blocks of stock, however, are held by the easterners. Col. Stewart had on his side the proxies of 99.67 per cent of the 7,000 employe-stockholders. Unless the uncontested proxies of one side greatly outnumbered those of the other, a long tedious check at the meeting is foreseen.

Court Battle Looms

Although Mr. Aldrich denied other Standard Oil companies were behind Rockefeller in his fight, and attorneys for Col. Stewart denied any legal action was contemplated, the rumor persisted that the contest might eventually find its way into the courts. The grounds would be that Rockefeller, in opposing the company head, was violating the anti-trust act.

A suspicion that the Standard Oil companies of New York, New Jersey, Kentucky and Louisiana, rather than the younger Rockefeller, were conducting the fight, was expressed in the senate at Washington last week and again yesterday. Col. Stewart has been an individualist in his development of the Standard of Indiana.

LAND BILL

ly unfair to sit here in the legislature and see men cheated of that which is rightfully theirs.

Graves said that he would have followed the governor's course in submitting the bill to the attorney general's department for a ruling as to its legality, but maintained the opinion was not worthy of consideration.

Reading from a supreme court opinion, Representative Coke R. Stevenson of Junction, maintained that the legislature did not have to charge the attorney general with incompetency in ignoring his report of the bill.

"The legislature clearly has the power to validate any void sale," Stevenson said. "That opinion has been rendered by one of Texas' greatest statesmen, Charles A. Culberson."

$3000 Subscribed In Boy Scout Move

With about $3000 already donated in the annual Boy Scout financial drive which began yesterday, workers resumed solicitations with renewed impetus this morning in an effort to reach the goal of $10,000.

Only about one-third of the citizens carded were seen yesterday, and K. N. Clapp, Scout commissioner and acting executive, said today that the organization still had hopes of reaching the $10,000 goal. The drive will continue throughout today and tomorrow with a final wind-up campaign scheduled for Friday.

REBELLION

Portes Gil ascribed the return to the federal fold of the troops of General Molinar in Vera Cruz to action of aeroplanes in dropping pamphlets urging loyalty to the government among revolting forces.

Seek to Avoid War

"The government has availed itself of every means to avoid spilling of blood," the president said, "and the results are now forthcoming."

The statement quoted a telegram from General Molinar to the President thanking him for his magnanimity in allowing the unit to surrender. The telegram said:

"I cannot but feel intense gratitude for your benevolence not only towards me but towards everybody under my command. I beg of you send me a message that I may show it to my staff letting them as well as myself know that they have been pardoned for the error they have committed."

Both President Portes Gil and General Calles sent messages to Molinar.

TEXAS KEEPS WATCH ON MONTEREY TODAY

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 6 (AP)—Observers on the Texas border watched developments at Monterey, 150 miles south of Laredo today with the expectation that another battle would be fought for possession of that railroad center.

Reports from the border and the interior yesterday indicated that General Escobar had captured Monterey for the rebels after most of the regular garrison had been dispatched to Vera Cruz under General Andreu Alamazin.

Brownsville, the most southern and eastern of all border railheads, seemed well insulated against the revolution by the apparently loyal state of Tamaulipas and by a strong concentration of loyal soldiers at Reynosa, presumably for a sortie against Monterey.

The capture of Monterey by the revolutionists not only put another stopper in the channel of rail communications between the southern part of Mexico and the United States border, but also tied up the lines which loyal troops in Tamaulipas must use in reaching Nuevo Laredo and the scene of revolutionary activities in Coahuila, where the rebels are reported to be almost completely in control.

Army Gathers at Reynosa

More than 3,000 regular soldiers had been concentrated at Reynosa under Brigadier General Jesus Garcia. The force was said to be well equipped and to have sufficient rolling stock to move it toward Monterey. Telegraph reports said that the rails had been torn up, however, about 18 miles from that city.

At Laredo another concentration of regular troops was reported apparently for the purpose of striking at Monterey from another side. Although Col. Zenos Avila was reported enroute to Nuevo Laredo at the head of 2,000 rebelling soldiers, General Benigno Serratos, in command at Nuevo Laredo exhibited a telegram from Col. Avila in which the latter promised to participate in a counter attack on Monterey.

Further west on the Mexican border, where the garrisons are small, conflicting reports were received. Del Rio, which is not a railhead, and Eagle Pass, both across the river from the state of Coahuila reported that the garrisons at Villa Acuna and Piedras Negras had been ordered to Sabinas, 70 miles from the border. Whether this was a move to concentrate loyal troops on the Mexican national railway south of the Eagle Pass railhead, or an attempt to persuade the soldiers to join the revolution was uncertain. The commanders of both garrisons had previously announced they were loyal to the government.

At El Paso, the only other border point of importance in Texas, conflicting reports were received as to the situation in the interior of the state of Chihuahua. General Manuel Limon, commandante at Juarez left early today a large force to destroy railroad track in the face of a large rebel force reported to be approaching the city. This lent color to rumors from the interior that Chihuahua City had fallen, or gone over to the rebels. Reports from cities further west indicated that the military leaders in Chihuahua had joined the revolt. In the meantime it was reported that 2,000 additional loyal soldiers were enroute to Juarez to reinforce that important port of entry to the United States.

CATTLE MEET CLOSES TODAY

AUCTION SALE OF BABY BEEVES IS HELD AT AMARILLO

AMARILLO, Tex., March 6—The annual convention of the Panhandle Livestock Association closed today with an auction sale of baby beeves.

An average of $341 per animal was realized on 39 head of registered Herefords auctioned yesterday. A yearling heifer put up by F. M. Love of Dumas, Texas, brought the top, $1,000.

May of the visiting cattlemen will remain over until Thursday to attend funeral services for Pat Landergin, 75, veteran cowman, who died here Monday night. The convention held memorial services for Landergin, as well as for Lee Bivins, Fred Hornsburgh and John Puckett, other leaders o fthe cattle industry who died recently.

Landergin owned approximately 200,000 acres of ranch land at the time of his death.
