Soviet unrest

AGDAM, Azerbaijan (AP) — Amid protests calling for his resignation and fierce fighting in Nagorno-Karabakh, Azerbaijan's hard-line Communist president today told legislators he intends to step down, an aide said.

The aide, Gyulshat Zanbaliev, told The Associated Press that President Ayaz Mutalibov informed opposition members of parliament he was planning to resign. The reported move came as thousands of protesters surrounded the parliament building, demanding the president's ouster.

The independent Interfax news agency confirmed the aide's statement.

Virus discovered here

From local, wire reports

Most computer experts weren't looking for the well-publicized Michelangelo virus to cause widespread damage today, but it has reached as far as Snyder.

Computer Solutions owner Drew Bullard confirmed that the virus has been located in several computers here. He said that he has checked about 30 computers and found the virus in five.

If unchecked, the rogue program found in machines built to the IBM standard can destroy all the information in a machine.

Experts said computer owners could prevent triggering of the virus today by simply not turning on their computers or by adjusting the computer's internal clock. Many others — including companies, schools and others that cannot afford to let their computers stay idle an entire day — have guarded the machines with anti-viral software.

"The virus infected a computer at Computer Solutions so we disinfected our computers and checked those of our customers, a few of which were also infected," said Bullard. "We believe we got it through outside software."

The virus got to only one computer on which the date had been set forward one day. In that case, Bullard said, they were able to retain most of the information from a hard drive the owner had previously used.

The National Computer Security Association estimates no more than 20,000 computers could be damaged if no precautions are taken. That's about one in 2,500 of all personal computers in the United States.

John McAfee of the Computer Virus Industry Association estimated 5 million machines may have it worldwide.

A newspaper in Uruguay reported Thursday that Michelangelo wiped out counterintelligence information in military computers. A military spokesman denied the report.

Computer viruses are the electronic equivalent of biological bugs. They sneak into computer systems aboard infected disks or in sabotaged programs copied from electronic bulletin boards. There are more than 1,000 known viruses.

The most common virus Bullard has seen is the "Stoned" virus.

"It's one of the most common ones we see around here. It slows the computer down over a period of time," Bullard explained. "People usually detect it. One day you realize your computer is not work-

Retirement units proposed

Construction of 40 new retirement apartments in Snyder could begin early next year members of the chamber's tourism and retirement committee were told Thursday.

The construction is being considered in response to a growing waiting list at the city's retirement complex, Golden Terrace Village. Eighty-five people are on the list.

The new apartments would be built at 37th Street and Houston Avenue, on land owned by Lone Star Gas Company, said City Manager John Gayle. There is no room to expand Golden Terrace Village, which has 40 units.

According to Gayle, the 12.8 acres owned by Lone Star has the potential for up to 120 new units.

Plans for 40 units and a market study will possibly be submitted to FmHA sometime next week.

"If all goes well, we should know what type of financing is available in September," said Gayle. "We could start the bidding process in February, and possibly start construction a year from now."

Tourism committee members also heard reports on the economic development tax, a suggestion to put R.V. parking spaces in Towle Park, and the possibility of bringing Junior Olympic boxing to the city.

The newly appointed Economic Development Corporation will meet Tuesday for an organizational meeting, according to Mayor Troy Williamson. The EDC is responsible for administering the sales tax funds for economic development.

Williamson told committee members that the tax would begin being collected July 1. Snyder should receive its first check in September.

"We want to begin meeting and have some plans prepared when the money from the tax starts coming in," said the mayor.

Jerry Baird presented the committee with plans for turning land east of prairie dog town in Towle Park into overnight R.V. parking spaces.

Baird stated that TU Electric has agreed to provide poles and security lights that could be run at a cost of around $7 per month. Wiring for the R.V. hookups and signs promoting the spaces could be provided at a nominal fee, according to Baird.

Committee chairman Gay Hickman stated that the project could be completed for about $200 to $300. Baird will present the plans to county commissioners next week.

Baird also stated that the recreation area at the Senior Citizens Center could be developed for use by senior citizens and children living in the area.

Johnny Vasquez, representing the Snyder Boxing Team, spoke to the committee about the possibility of bringing the Junior Olympic Boxing Tournament to Snyder sometime in May.

Vasquez stated that bids are due by April 15. He said it would prob-

Snyder native killed in private plane crash

From Local, Wire Reports

Six workers of a Fort Worth medical services company — including a Snyder native — were killed Thursday when their twin-engine private plane encountered stormy weather and crashed in rough terrain 15 miles west of Glenwood Springs, Colo.

The plane was on a flight from Fort Worth to Aspen, when it went down.

The pilot was Tim Williamson, 49, a partner and president in the Fort Worth firm Emergency Medical Consultants, and the others were staff members who had accompanied him on a spur-of-the moment ski trip.

A 1960 graduate of Snyder High School, Mr. Williamson was the son of Mrs. E.H. Williamson of Snyder. Two sisters, Barbara Owen and Sherry Thompson, also live in Snyder.

Other victims were Keryl Dawn Shirley, personal secretary to Williamson's partner, Dr. John Geesbreght; Laura Kaye Glacier, head of physician services for the group's subsidiary clinics; Dan Unsworth, 50, chief accountant for the company and a partner in the Fort Worth accounting firm of Simpson & Unsworth; June Buckingham, director of nursing for the group's clinics; and her sister, Lisa Kurtz, account executive for the clinics.

Wreckage of the 1981 Mitsubishi turboprop was spotted by a search plane at 2:45 p.m. Thursday following a day-long search hampered by storms and low-hanging clouds. Rescuers were expected to retrieve the bodies today.

Two Garfield County Sheriff's paramedics on snowmobiles were able to reach the site at nightfall Thursday. They reported no survivors and described the plane as

The SDN Column — By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "The unusual happens just often enough to make life either stressful or delightful."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors:

Lynn Brisendine, in the Brownfield News, offered some food for thought.

"If you had a bank that credited your account each morning with $86,400 which carried over no balance from day to day, allowed you to keep no cash in your account, and every evening canceled out whatever part of that amount you failed to use during the day, what would you do? Draw out every cent, of course.

"You have such a bank. Its name is Time. Every morning it credits you with 86,400 seconds. Every night it rules as lost whatever of this you have failed to invest for good purpose.

"It carriers over no balance and allows no overdraft. If you fail to use the deposit, the loss is yours. There is no getting it back, no drawing against tomorrow."

The Andrews County News, under Bits 'n Pieces, carried a story that points out the importance of perspective.

The father told his son that the ant is a wonderful example after which to pattern his life. "Every day the ant goes to work and labors hard all day long. He never wastes time. He has a goal. He never waivers, and that's why he's successful."

"Yes, sir," nodded the youngster.

"Now with the ant's example, what happens to him in the end?"

Unimpressed the boy ventured, "Someone steps on him?"

O.G. Nieman, in the Hereford Brand, decribed an optimist.

"He's the guy who saves the pictures in the seed catalog to compare them with the flowers and vegetables that actually come up."

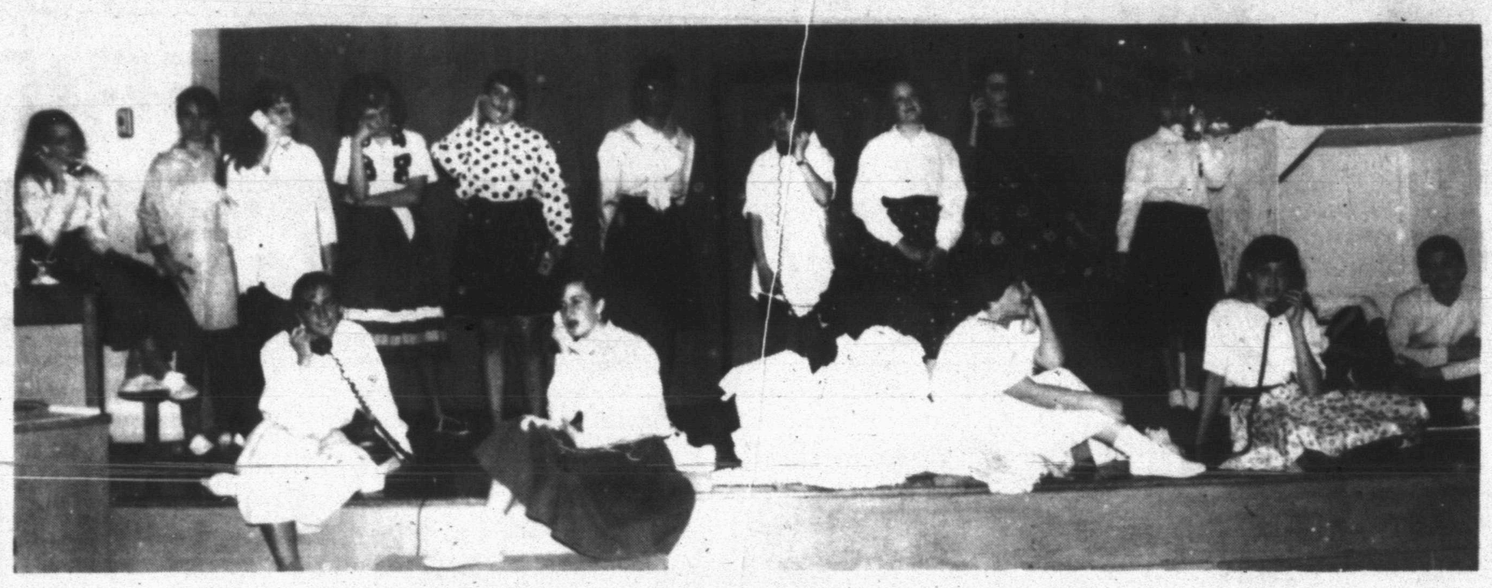
Quayle campaigns

DALLAS (AP) — Vice President Dan Quayle predicts Texans won't accept conservative commentator Pat Buchanan's protectionism and will say as much in the Super Tuesday Republican primary.

Quayle, on a three-city Texas tour to stump for President Bush Thursday, was greeted in Dallas by a marching band and about 150 [illegible] supporters waving flags and posters.

He spent the night here and was scheduled to leave today just as Buchanan arrives in President Bush's adopted home state for campaign stops in San Antonio and Dallas.

"The question Texans want (Buchanan) to answer is 'Why did you oppose the president in the Persian Gulf?'" Quayle said.



MUSICAL COMEDY — "Bye Bye Birdie," a presentation of the Snyder Junior High drama and choir departments, opened last night at the school auditorium. Tickets to the musical comedy are $3. Party chairman says Democrats will win

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Democratic National Committee chairman Ron Brown says his party can be successful in November if members don't repeat past mistakes.

"We're geniuses at beating up on ourselves," he said Thursday at a rally for various state and local candidates. "We've got to change the way we think about each other. Democrats are the only folks harder on each other than on adversaries."

Brown added any Democrat running for president could beat George Bush.

"Bush has an economic plan for Russia, an economic plan for Kuwait and economic plan for Eastern Europe, but he doesn't have one for America," Brown said.

"He has no clue. George Bush doesn't get it.

"George Bush can, must and will be defeated. It will happen because we make it happen."

At the Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport before the rally, Brown said he was surprised by the early exit Thursday of Nebraska Sen. Bob Kerry from the presidential race.

"I don't know what went wrong," Brown said. "This came as a surprise to many people — a lot of people expected him to take off like a rocket as a candidate because he has such a compelling personal story to tell, (he's) such a quality guy."

Former U.S. House Speaker Jim Wright, who introduced Brown during the luncheon and rally, said the Democrats are committed to electing a Democratic president in November.

"We're on our way back," he said.

Your Birthday

Your probabilities for success are much stronger in the year ahead than they were last year. This is because you've learned some priceless lessons.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) There's a possibility you might be attracted to someone today who represents forbidden fruit. Think things through so that you don't get involved in a situation with ready-made problems. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. The Astro-Graph Matchmaker instantly reveals which signs are romantically perfect for you. Mail $2 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Your reputation is one of your most precious assets. Today, an acquaintance might try to use something — where you were blameless — against you in an attempt to belittle you to a friend. Defend yourself.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) An alliance of convenience might have its durability tested today, and the results could be rather disappointing. The substance that binds this union is not firm enough.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Your handiwork will be closely scrutinized by superiors and associates today. Don't send anything out to which you wouldn't proudly affix your signature.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Social involvements will have a significant effect on your image today, so be on your best behavior. If you're a guest, leave before you wear out your welcome.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Don't do things for others today out of a sense of obligation. If you do not do them from your heart, the recipient could feel uncomfortable, wishing you hadn't done anything.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Instead of being appreciative of the efforts others expend on your behalf today, you might criticize them for the way they do things. This won't encourage them to help again.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your resources must be managed prudently today with an eye toward future needs. Failing to budget wisely now could cause problems down the road.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) If you know that what a youngster wants is not for the child's good, don't give in today. You may have to face a situation where tough love is necessary.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Guard against the inclination today to take full credit for something in which you played only a small part. You could be embarrassed later, when the truth comes to light.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) If you haven't been getting as much mileage as you think you should be getting from your budget, it's time to make some revisions. Begin today by curbing non-essential expenditures.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Significant achievements are possible today, but the world isn't going to strew rose pedals on your path just because you're a nice person. Motivation and effort are also required.

What is this awesomely powerful industry? It's us! It's our own personal shopping and spending power. Many people from other counties come and shop in Scurry County, but to a large extent our citizens and our government doesn't. "Either we hang together or most assuredly we will hang separately"!

If elected I, for one, will do my part to see that our county government shops at home! Won't you do the same? Thank you for your support on March 10th!

Who was right, North or South?

By Phillip Alder

Today's hand caused a debate between North and South. If you would like to arbitrate, cover the East-West cards and decide on your line of play in four spades. West leads the club king.

South had an uncomfortable bid on the second round because his spade spots were so bad. But three spades worked well here, the right contract being reached.

At the time, South won the first trick with dummy's club ace (correct because clubs could be 6-1), cashed the spade king, crossed to hand with a diamond to the ace and drew two more rounds of trump, learning he had a loser there. Next he finessed the diamond jack. But East produced the queen and a second club so that West could cash two club tricks to defeat the game.

"I was very unlucky," South protested. "The spades were 4-2, West didn't have the diamond queen despite his two-level overcall, and East had a second club."

North felt that it wasn't bad luck but poor play. He suggested that, at trick six, South should have played a diamond not to the jack but to the king. Then he should have led the diamond jack for a ruffing finesse, discarding a club loser if East didn't play the queen.

Who is going to become your best friend, North or South?

North was correct. This latter play guarantees the contract. Here the finesse wins, but suppose West has the diamond queen. He may cash one club trick, but South's heart loser will disappear on the diamond 10.

Readers are invited to send card-play questions to Phillip Alder, in care of this newspaper. They can be answered only through the column.

School lawsuit plaintiff endorses three judges

AUSTIN (AP) — Three Texas Supreme Court candidates have picked up endorsements from Demetrio Rodriguez, the San Antonio man whose 1968 lawsuit started the long battle over public school finance.

Joined by his son and grandson, Rodriguez on Thursday backed incumbent Supreme Court Justice Oscar Mauzy, and candidates Rose Spector and Paul Banner. He said the current court has been "playing games" over the school funding issue.

Mauzy and Ms. Spector are unopposed in Tuesday's primaries, while Banner is challenging incumbent Democrat Jack Hightower.

Mauzy will face either Republicans Craig Enoch or Charles Ben Howell in November for the Place 1 seat, a race that includes Libertarian Alfred Adask; Ms. Spector will challenge incumbent Republican Justice Eugene Cook for Place 2; the Banner-Hightower winner faces George Barbary or John D. Montgomery, both Republicans, for Place 3.

EMS official seeks gun safety law

HOUSTON (AP) — Parents of the growing number of children killed by firearms in Houston are pushing for a local ordinance that would penalize adults for allowing their children access to firearms.

Thirty-five children under 17 were killed by firearms in Houston last year, more than double the number only two years before.

In addition, statisfics show 103 children have been killed by gunfire since 1988 — 27 of them accidentally — and children age 14-17 are three times more likely to be shot than adults.

Dianne Clements, whose 13-year-old son, Zachary, died last August when a hide-and-seek playmate accidentally blasted him in the chest with a 12-gauge shotgun, said she thinks an ordinance on the safe storage of guns and ammunition would help.

"A dog owner is responsible when his dog bites someone, but you allow a child to have a loaded pistol and the parent is not responsible. This law would be a deterrent," she said. "We're not asking that guns be taken out of the home, just that they're managed safely in the home."

Dr. Paul Pepe, director of Houston's emergency services, asked the city council Wednesday for a new law that would punish adults who fail to keep guns out of children's reach.

"When we see these children coming in (to hospital emergency rooms) with gunshot wounds, it really is just heartbreaking," Pepe said. "And it shouldn't be happening."

Possibilities could include forcing gun owners to use trigger locks, store weapons behind locked doors or keep them dismantled when not in use, or pass a safe-storage certification test.

Councilwoman Sheila Jackson Lee asked the city legal department to start crafting such an ordinance, saying, "We must at least make a statement to our community that we have to protect our children."

But Mayor Bob Lanier questioned whether such an ordinance would help. He said Wednesday that he would have city officials study the matter.

"If we can't find something that works, I would not be in favor of doing something merely for appearance," Lanier said. "A large part of this is going to have to be done by the families themselves."

Police Chief Sam Nuchia also was less than optimistic, saying that any enforcement probably would come after a tragedy, such as an accidental child shooting.

American best, TWA worst in new airline rankings

WASHINGTON (AP) — American Airlines was the air carrier most likely to arrive on time and least likely to lose its passengers' baggage last year, an aviation research institute reports. Trans World Airlines was in last place.

Dallas-based Southwest Airlines finished second in ratings.

The National Institute for Aviation Research at Wichita State University in Kansas rated the nine major airlines based on factors including on-time performance, accidents, customer service, the age of an airline's fleet, lost and mishandled baggage, overbookings and financial stability.

"Being on time, not losing bags, having a fair pricing system, all of those things play a part," Dean Headly, who helped produce the study, said Thursday.

The institute ranked the airlines in this order: American, Southwest, Delta, United, USAir, Northwest, Continental, America West and TWA.

Brent Bowen, the study's organizer, said all airlines showed improvement over previous years. But he said some are clearly doing better than others in terms of the quality they offer.

The three carriers at the bottom of the list have all experienced financial troubles and have also sought protection from creditors under the federal bankruptcy laws while they reorganize.

Don Fleming, TWA's public relations director, said the airline was hit especially hard in the first half of 1991 by the effects of the recession and the Persian Gulf War.

Stringent security arrangements made necessary by the war delayed many international flights and caused a ripple of delays on TWA flights throughout the United States, he said.

"We had a tremendous swell of passenger problems that eventually became complaints," he said.

But Fleming said TWA has made many "painful changes," restructuring its operations, and that improvements were evident in the last half of the year.

Lady Tigers host Saturday tourney

Snyder's Lady Tigers, fresh from a third-place finish at Ft. Stockton a week ago, will host their annual Snyder Invitational Girls' Golf Tournament at Snyder Country Club Saturday.

"These girls did pretty well," said SHS coach Matt Glenn of his team's performance at the Blue Ribbon City Classic last weekend. "They're figuring out this golf thing.

"They played plain old smart golf."

Snyder came in with a 718 total, behind perennial power Andrews' 673 and a 697 from Odessa Permian.

Both teams that finished ahead of Snyder at the Ft. Stockton event will also compete here.

"We've got some heavy hitters coming to play," said Glenn of the Snyder tourney's field.

"Andrews and Permian will be here. And so will Abilene Cooper and Amarillo High. That's some of the best girls' golf teams in this area."

Snyder will be counting heavily on freshman Brooke Lowrance, who fired an 82-77--159 in Ft. Stockton to wind up second in the medalist standings.

Other SHS scores from last week featured a 91-93--184 for Kelli Lockhart; Amy Steakley's 92-93--185; a 91-103--194 by Jenny Fenton and Tiffany Greene's 99-99--198.

The tournament, which is set to tee-off at 9 a.m., will cause the closure of Snyder Country Club's course to members until early Saturday afternoon.

Non-district baseball...

Tigers power past Big Spring

BIG SPRING — A good combination of offensive power, steady pitching and solid defense pulled the Snyder Tigers to a 14-6 non-district baseball win over Big Spring Thursday.

Home runs by catcher Brad Hart, left fielder Bobby Clinkinbeard and shortstop Mark King highlighted the SHS explosion behind senior pitcher Jason Rios, who went the distance for the win.

Rios allowed only eight hits and four walks while fanning five in the complete-game victory. He is now 2-0 on the young season.

Complementing Rios' effort and the long-ball offense was the Tiger defense, which committed just one error on the night.

The game went only six innings and was called due to darkness.

Big Spring's Gerald Cobos was the loser Thursday, going four innings, giving up seven hits and nine runs, including all three Tiger round-trippers.

Rios helped his own cause early in the game. Hitting third in coach Albert Lewis' lineup, he ripped a first-inning double that scored Bryan Crawford, who had reached on a walk.

Following Rios was Hart, who slammed the first pitch from Cobos out of the park to give SHS a 3-0 lead.

The Steers got on the board in the second when Mike Oliva tagged home on a Pat Martinez hit.

Snyder got the run back in the third on King's solo shot before blowing the game open in the fourth frame.

Already holding a 4-1 advantage, lead-off hitter Michael Fields got on base on an error charged to BSHS third baseman Mike Ross. Fields went home on a Crawford single to make it 5-1.

Crawford was the next Tiger across the dish, scoring on an error that put Hart on the base paths. Hart came in on a Wacey Parks single before Clinkinbeard's homer drove in Parks and set the tally at 9-1.

The Tigers added five more in the top of the sixth, including a walk for an RBI issued to King that plated Hart, a two-run single from Fields that drove in Parks and Clinkinbeard, and an RBI double by third baseman Raymond House that brought in Fields.

Big Spring never mounted a serious threat to the lead, in spite of scoring three runs in the fourth and adding a pair in the sixth.

Snyder's non-district season continues Saturday when the Tigers, now 2-1, host Hobbs, N.M. in a double header at Moffett Field in Towle Park.

Starting time for Game One is 1 p.m.

Odessa claims women's title

LEVELLAND — Defending national champion Odessa College used a Lorna Ware free throw with just five seconds left on the game clock to notch a 62-60 win over South Plains College and claim the Region V NJCAA women's basketball crown.

Neither team was expected to be in the tourney finals after Odessa, now 18-14, finished third in the Western Junior College Athletic Conference, and South Plains, 19-13, barely qualified for the event with a fourth-place WJCAC finish.

Each team posted huge upsets getting into the championship battle, Odessa bumping off No. 3 Howard in the semifinal round and the Lady Texans upending No. 12 Grayson County JC in the quarterfinals.

Lakeita Richardson, who led the Lady Wranglers charge with 16 points, and Stacie Tave, who managed 11, were each named to the all-tournament team, with Richardson earning MVP recognition.

South Plains' Shannon Willis and Jeanna Wilson each earned spots on the all-tournament roster, as well.

Willis led all scorers in the final with 19 points. Wilson canned 18.

Odessa will now advance into the national tournament to be played March 17-21 in Tyler.

SS Thon is a hit in Ranger camp

PORT CHARLOTTE, Fla. (AP) — Veteran shortstop Dickie Thon, signed by the Texas Rangers during the off-season, quickly made himself welcome in spring training camp.

Leading off and playing short during the club's first intrasquad game, Thon ripped a single to left off Jeff Robinson to open the game. He ended up with a 2-for-4 night under the stars in Port Charlotte.

"I feel ready to go. I'm in great shape physically," Thon said. "I think I'm gonna get a chance to play here. Ideally, I want to play every day."

The Rangers hope Thon can help improve their defense. The Rangers committed 134 errors last season to 116 for the opposition and turned 17 fewer double plays.

"It's a help to any team to have a veteran anchoring the middle defense," Rangers pitching coach Tom House said.

Snyder Junior High's annual track meet is slated for Friday with the field events to begin at 5 p.m. and the running events starting at 5:30 p.m.

Also competing will be Sweetwater, Lamesa, Andrews, Big Spring and San Angelo Lincoln.

Little Dribblers wind up season

Championship games and the naming of all-stars will highlight Saturday's closing ceremonies for boys' Little Dribblers.

A coaches' game pitting minor league coaches against the coaches from the major league will begin at 5:30 p.m. followed by the minors' championship tilt at 7 p.m..

The majors' title game is set to tip-off at 8:15 followed by the naming of all-stars in each division and the actual closing ceremonies.

Saturday's games and ceremonies will be held at Travis Gym.

SHS thinclads to run at Andrews gathering

Snyder's track teams will each travel to the Andrews Mustang Relays Saturday in the season's second stop for each squad.

The Lady Tigers, coached by Patty Grimmett, grabbed fifth place at the season-opening Frenship ABC Relays a week ago.

Highlighting the girls' finish were several personal bests, including a 5-2 first-place high jump by sophomore Annie Ragland.

"I can't really complain at all about the places we finished," said Grimmett. Almost everyone set a personal best or close to it."

Besides Ragland's top high jump, Snyder scored field-event points with Vicky Green's fourth-place shot put distance of 34-113/4, another SHS personal best.

Also setting a new personal standard was Trina Thompson, who registered a 17.19 100 meter dash time to finish second in the event.

The Lady Tigers placed in every running event at the meet.

The Tigers, under the direction of first-year coach Tommy Doyle, came in 11th at the Ft. Stockton Comanche Relays a week past, with junior Jason Green leading the charge.

Green turned in a 6-0 effort in the high jump to claim second, and was part of the 1600 meter relay team that took sixth with a 3:45.14.

Also placing for the Tigers in the Ft. Stockton gathering was Eddie Martinez, who tied for fifth in the high jump with teammate Ricky Post, each going over the 5-8 bar.

Additionally, Martinez posted an 11.17 clocking in the 100 meters for third place.

Todd Iglehart was the other SHS thinclad to place, earning fifth in the shot put with a 44-5 3/4 heave.

Field events begin at 9 a.m. Saturday in Andrews. Running preliminaries are slated for a 9:30 a.m. starting gun.

Port Arthur refinery...

Chevron USA to layoff 700 workers

PORT ARTHUR, Texas (AP) — The layoff of 700 workers at Chevron U.S.A. Products Co.'s Port Arthur refinery is part of a plan to bring the facility up to date, Chevron officials say.

The layoffs, announced Thursday and beginning in May, are intended to eliminate inefficiencies and save millions of dollars in retooling costs. The 1,900-person workforce will be cut by about 30 percent as one of two production lines is eliminated.

"The new configuration will bring our refinery's average equipment age to 15 years instead of 30, making it one of the most modern, competitive refineries in the Gulf Coast region," Lance Gyorfi, the refinery general manager, said.

"I'm confident that the plan we have developed jointly with employees, union leaders and the local community will be effectively implemented, avoiding closure of the refinery and a reduction of hundreds of additional jobs," he said.

San Francisco-based Chevron U.S.A. Products Co. announced in January it was considering closing, selling, downsizing or finding a joint-venture partner for its Port Arthur refinery, the company's largest, as part of a 5 percent companywide reduction of its 50,600-member workforce.

Chevron considers the plant, which was built in 1901 and covers 14,000 acres, one of its least efficient.

The company on Jan. 15 announced a series of changes designed to trim expenses as it faces spending more than $2 billion in the next five years to bring its eight refineries into compliance with new environmental regulations.

The oil company had said that at the very least about 500 of the Port Arthur plant's 1,900 jobs could be cut as the plant goes to a single line operation for processing crude oil.

"It's unfortunate, but at least they're not shutting the whole thing down," said Kathy Schwartz, a spokeswoman for the Texas Department of Commerce. "That would have been worse for the whole community. It's certainly unfortunate that 700 people will lose their jobs. Hopefully they can be placed elsewhere in the community."

The company has said it hopes the corporate changes will save $600 million a year by 1993 by reducing operating costs 50 cents per barrel.

Tilton's lawsuit...

Judge extends restraining order for now

AUSTIN (AP) — A controversial television evangelist has praised a federal judge's decision to extend, for now, a court order prohibiting the state from getting his records.

"I felt like we finally had someone fair, intelligent to listen to us," Robert Tilton said Thursday after the hearing before U.S. District Judge Sam Sparks of Austin.

"None of us have anything to hide, but we don't like to get undressed very easily ... especially with millions of people watching," he said.

Sparks said he needed more time to sift through the numerous legal arguments before making a decision on a permanent order. He said he would make a decision by March 21.

He issued the original temporary order Feb. 7.

Sparks' announcement capped two days of lengthy, often stormy testimony in which Tilton accused the state of trying to shutdown his Word of Faith World Outreach Center Church, which according to Tilton's wife grossed $65 million last year.

Tilton accused Texas Attorney General Dan Morales of feeding a media frenzy that had resulted in his 8,000-member church losing 1,000 members. He also claims that Morales' investigation is unwarranted.

Joe Crews, chief of the Consumer Protection Division of the attorney general's office, denied Tilton's accusations.

"Michelangelo is one of the most vicious ones. It gets into the boot sector and waits for March 6. Then it destroys the information on your hard drive."

Bullard said that most people with personal computers shouldn't worry.

"It's not anything for the average person to worry about. But the person going through a modem or who swaps a lot of disks would be subject to it. You can put a write protect tab on your floppy disk if you use someone else's computer and the virus can't get to the disk."

The escalation of viruses means those who use or sell computer equipment will have to be more careful.

"We're initiating a real strict policy (at Computer Solutions)," said Bullard. "Viruses are easy to get. We don't even use a modem, and we got it."

Task force recommends closing two state schools

AUSTIN (AP) — A task force recommendation to close two of Texas' 13 state schools for the mentally retarded is being called a step forward by some, but others fear its consequences.

Gov. Ann Richards has 20 days to consider Thursday's proposal to shut down Mexia State School and Travis State School in Austin, and to increase the state's emphasis on community programs.

Closing two schools is part of a settlement meant to end a long-running lawsuit against Texas' system of caring for mentally retarded people.

Mexia Mayor Richard Duncan said closing his town's state institution would have a huge economic impact because it is the area's largest employer, with a $29.2 million annual payroll.

It also is the state's largest institution for the mentally retarded, with about 751 residents.

"If there's any avenue at all to fight it, we will fight this decision," Duncan said.

Austin Mayor Bruce Todd said he was disappointed in the recommendation for Travis State School, which has about 600 residents and an annual payroll of $24.4 million.

Fred Snyder, who heads a group of parents with children in state schools, promised to continue trying to keep all the schools open. He said he believes a significant number of state school residents would be abused or receive poor services if the schools are closed.

His group, the Parent Association for the Retarded of Texas, has appealed the federal lawsuit settlement. A separate lawsuit also has been filed in state district court in Limestone County by the father of a Mexia State School resident challenging the task force's authority.

Officials with the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation said all state school residents will be provided for.

The task force's recommendation won praise from the Association for Retarded Citizens-Texas (ARC) and Advocacy, Inc., which represents people with disabilities.

ably take a $1,000 bid to secure the two-day tournament for Snyder.

Chamber Manager Ricky Fritz has been working with Vasquez to help find funding for the bid. A suggestion was made that hotel/motel tax funds could be used to help fund the event. Mayor Williamson noted the city council would have to give its approval to use the funds.

The committee discussed holding the tournament in the coliseum, but due to conflicts in scheduling decided that the event could be held at the National Guard Armory or Towle Park Barn.

The committee was reminded of upcoming events, including the Snyder Wheels car show and Kiwanis Club pancake feast this weekend, the annual wildflower program at Western Texas College scheduled in April, a 4-H Hereford sale in July and a fiesta being planned for September by Scurry County Museum.

Committee members present at the meeting were Jack Denman, Bill Davies, Donna Gray, Bernard Bartels, Art Feinsod, Roy Carter, Hickman and Baird. Others present were Williamson, Gayle, Vasquez, Golden Terrace Manager Alisa Cain and Scurry County Museum Curator Steve Bell.

Police arrest 5 individuals

Snyder police made five arrests Thursday and early today, mostly on drinking-related charges.

Officers arrested a 26-year-old female from Municipal Court at 9:43 a.m. Thursday and transported her to the county jail to lay out fines for no driver's license.

At 12:10 a.m. today, officers arrested a 20-year-old male for public intoxication in the 4100 block of Brick Plant Road.

Three males were arrested on drinking-related charges at 1:15 a.m. today in the 1600 block of 19th Street. A 19-year-old male was arrested for minor in possession of alcohol and two others, ages 22 and 24, were arrested for public intoxication and making alcohol available to a minor.

In one other entry, police filed a report of family violence at 9:52 p.m. Thursday in reference to an altercation in the 3700 block of Austin.

Trusty found in Louisiana

A trusty who walked off while doing chores outside the county jail has been apprehended in Louisiana, Scurry County Sheriff Keith Collier said today.

Twenty-two-year-old Luther J.D. Smith of Rt. 3 Box 76 was a trusty in the county jail awaiting a revocation of probation hearing when he was let outside to do some work at about 1 p.m. on March 2.

The Sheriff's department immediately sent teletypes to other law enforcement agencies after determining that Smith had left the area. Smith was apprehended by the highway patrol in Monroe, La., the following day, March 3.

Also arrested was 29-year-old Laura Ann Foster of Rt. 1 Box 56A. She allegedly helped Smith leave the area.

"He had been working here as a trusty. It's just one of those things that happens," said Sheriff Collier. "It's embarrassing, but it happens."

Collier said Smith will be charged with escape and Foster will be charged with hindering apprehension. They are expected to be brought back to Snyder next week.

Smith had been in Scurry County Jail since January after being arrested in Houston for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle — a violation of his parole. The sheriff said Smith was on probation at the time for felony criminal mischief.

North Korean armed forces struck across the 38th parallel in a surprise invasion of South Korea June 25, 1950. North Korea was declared an aggressor by the U.N. Security Council, and U.N. forces led by Gen. Douglas MacArthur began the defense of South Korea. The conflict, which saw the Chinese Communist forces join the North Koreans, lasted until July of 1953, when a truce was signed.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1992 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: As a platoon commander stationed in the Far East, I see firsthand the effects of separation on a relationship. None of my young Marines are permitted to bring wives or family with them on a standard one-year tour.

It would seem that the wife would understand this time apart as an unfortunate reality of the job. However, a week does not pass that a Marine doesn't receive a "Dear John" letter or phone call. I have nothing but contempt for these women. If they could only be here to see the anguish these men endure. These wives and girlfriends must show the same courage their husbands and boyfriends do every day, and tough it out.

Whatever happened to good old-fashioned loyalty and commitment? What's a man to do?

SEMPER FI, JAPAN

DEAR SEMPER: Unfortunately you see only the anguish the men endure; be assured there are a great number of wives and girlfriends "toughing it out" and waiting faithfully until their men come home. And by the way, Semp, there are female Marines "toughing it out," too.

DEAR ABBY: As a child, I did as I was told, followed all the rules and was a model student. I went a bit astray as a teen-ager. I gave myself to my boyfriend in every way. I turned my back on my family — especially on my mother, who raised me alone since my father had died many years before.

After seven years of mostly heartache with that boyfriend, I jumped into a relationship with a man who turned out to be both mentally and physically abusive. I was scared and embarrassed, and didn't want anyone to know the terror I was living in. When things got so bad that my life was in danger, I literally escaped from that terrible man. Guess where I went?

I went back to my mother. We did a lot of talking and I did a lot of apologizing. Together, we worked at rebuilding the bridges I had burned. During the next four years, we developed a wonderful relationship, and my mother became my best friend.

When she retired (after three and a half of those four years), I didn't have enough money to give her a big gift, so I gave her an invitation to have lunch with me every Tuesday. (By then I was working full-time and living on my own.) This gave us guaranteed time together on a regular basis. As it turned out, the "gift" I thought I was giving my mother, I gave to myself. My mother died suddenly six months after she retired. The memories I have from our lunches together are treasures to me.

I live in peace now — at peace with myself for having "righted" things with my mother, and at peace with my caring husband and two beautiful children.

DAUGHTER, HAMPTON, MASS.

DEAR DAUGHTER: Though you learned it rather late in the life of your mother, you finally learned that the best gift a person can give is a part of themselves: time alone and one's undivided attention.

Burial was scheduled in his hometown of Mena, Ark.

Shivers quits post

HOUSTON (AP) — Allan Shivers Jr., senior commissioner of the three-member Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, has resigned to devote more time to personal business interests.

Shivers, son of the late Texas Gov. Allan Shivers, resigned in a letter sent to Gov. Ann Richards late Wednesday, the Houston Chronicle reported.

The resignation came at time when a search was under way for a new administrator for the state agency.

"As you know, the Alcoholic Beverage Commission is about to undergo the Sunset Review process. It is also in the midst of a search for a permanent administrator," Shivers wrote in the letter to the governor.

"Both of these activities require a good deal of time. At the same time, my personal business interests are requiring more and more of my attention," he said.

The Austin investor was appointed in 1988 by Gov. Bill Clements and had two years remaining on his six-year term. The other two TABC commissioners were appointed last summer by Richards.

Shivers could not be reached Thursday, the newspaper reported.
