Clayton, N. M. Home Established by Mr. And Mrs. Bill Depue After Wedding Here

Miss Bonnie Leigh Duke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Duke, was married recently to Bill J. Depue, son of Mrs. Nellie Depue of Clayton N. M.

The afternoon ceremony was performed by the Rev. Russell Pogue in the home of the bride's parents.

The wedding party stood before an arrangement of greenery, tied with satin bows, and alternating with tighted tapers in branched candelabra.

Recorded music, including the traditional wedding marches were played.

Mr. Duke gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a dress of white satin and lace, made with a fitted bodice and low rounded neckline accented with dainty pearl buttons. The long sleeves came to points at her wrist, and the full skirt was ballerina length. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. R. D. Beck of Lufkin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink brocaded cotton dress with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Carrel Depue of Clayton, N. M., was best man. Lighting the candles were nieces of the bride, Patsy Lou and Betty Dianne Beck of Lufkin.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Duke wore a brown linen dress with white accessories, while Mrs. Depue chose a gray alpaca dress with black accessories. Both had corsages of pink and white carnations.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and centered by the bride's bouquet, with lighted candles on either side. Appointments were of crystal. Miss Nina Harrison served the wedding cake and Mrs. Carrel Depue of Clayton poured punch. Miss Patsy Beck registered the guests.

As the couple left on their wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride was wearing an aqua dress with white accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Depue are now at home at 307½ Locust, Clayton, N. M.

The bride was graduated from Wellington high school this spring. She had been a member of the high school trio for two years.

The bridegroom graduated from Clayton high school in 1955, where he lettered in football. He also has served two years in the United States Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilkins at Home in Fort Lewis, Wash. After Recent Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilkins are now at home at Ft. Lewis, Washington, after their marriage Sunday, June 23, in the First Baptist Church, Childress.

The bride is the former-Miss Paula Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Whitlock, 809 Avenue D, Northwest, Childress, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wilkins Sr., Wellington.

The Rev. Russell Pogue, Wellington, performed the double ring ceremony, assisted by Al Brian of Childress.

White gladioli and lighted tapers in branched candelabra decorated the altar, and garlands of greenery were along the chancel rail. Pews along the bridal aisle were marked by white satin bows.

Mrs. Glen Buckley, Childress, gave the pre-nuptial program of organ music including "Ave Maria," "Clair de Lune," "To a Wild Rose," "In My Garden" and "Wedding Prelude." She accompanied La Noel Castleberry, Childress, as he sang "Because" and "Wedding Prayer."

Mr. Willock gave his daughter in marriage. Her bridal gown was of white imported French lace and tulle over taffeta. A portrait necklace, edged in pleated tulle, accented the fitted basque, which was closed at the back with dainty lace buttons. Brief sleeves completely revealed the close pleated neckline of the bouffant-length skirt. Her finger-ring was attached to a pill-box hat, trimmed with pearls. She carried a white orchid, surrounded with garlands of white fringed carnations, atop a Bible.

Miss Linda Carter, Childress, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Delores Bohannon and Miss Wanda Broughton of Childress. They wore identical orchid dresses, fashioned with tight-moulded bodices and bouffant skirts. Their headbands were of orchid maline leaves and flowers, and they carried bouquets of fringed orchid carnations.

Lighting the candles were Miss

Barbara Fleming and Miss Barbara Edmondson of Childress. Their dresses were like those of the other attendants and they wore orchid carnation wristlets.

Pat Wilkins, Wellington, was best man, and Lloyd Wilkins, Lindsey, Okla., and T. B. Wilkins Jr., Amarillo, were groomsmen. They are brothers of the bridegroom. Ushers were Jimmy Landrum and Ernest Holloman, Childress.

For the wedding, the mothers of both the bride and groom wore navy dresses, with white corsages.

The reception was held in the church parlor. A lace cloth over orchid covered the bride's table, and it was centered with the bouquets of the attendants. Miss Jimmie Lightfoot, Childress, served the four-tiered wedding cake, while Miss Alix Hargrave, Childress, poured punch. Registering the guests was the bride's aunt, Mrs. Oliver Byers, Tulsa, Okla. Others in the house party were Miss Louise Veale, Miss Mary Goodson, Miss Claudia Robinson, and Mrs. David Collins, all of Childress.

As the couple left on their wedding trip, the bride wore a toast-brown sheath dress with white accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Wilkins was graduated from high school in Childress and attended Texas Christian University, Fort Worth. She has been on the office staff of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office in Childress.

The bridegroom was graduated from high school in Wellington and until he entered the Army a short time ago, he was associated with his parents in business here.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

We spent our last three days in California visiting Lieut. and Mrs. Ansel McDowell at Oceanside, and seeing our newest granddaughter. As all grandparents may well appreciate she is the loveliest of babies with large hazel eyes and beautiful hands and feet. She is the best baby and one of the most cheerful you ever saw, which I judge is simply a matter of good health.

Diane leads a fairly secluded life here at the officers quarters at Camp Pendleton; but she keeps very busy with the two children and her household duties. Her neighbors are the wives of other young officers. There are a host of young children with whom little 4-year-old Marian can play. I saw her going down the street to play with other children at a plastic swimming pool. The next day I gave her enough money to buy a good plastic swimming pool of her own. She showed it to her mother who asked her where she got it. Marian pointed to me and said: "Him" gave it to me. It seems to me that they could teach her the word grandfather or granddaddy.

Ansel has been out in the field with the troops a good part of the time during the past year. He took part in the maneuvers this spring in which helicopters were used to make a simulated amphibious landing for the first time in Marine history. He has also been on maneuvers in the desert and in the mountains. Next year he will have more time at the base hospital and less in the field. He is in the Navy, but his medical unit is attached to the First Division of the U. S. Marines.

Camp Pendleton is the home of the First Division, and is the largest Marine training ground in the United States. It goes inland some 10 miles from Oceanside and extends northward some 20 miles. It is situated on one of the most famous land grants of history — The Rancho Santa Margarita Y Las Flores, once owned by the ancestors of movie star Leo Carrillo. It contains three mountain ranges and 20 miles of beach. The mountains and valleys, beaches and rivers are considered to be ideal terrain for the training of Marines. Diane took us driving one morning and we saw only a small part of the giant spread. In all it has some 125,566 acres in its boundaries.

Marines who served in the Korean War know Camp Pendleton well. So do many who served in World War II; for this was the reservoir from which replacements were sent to the far Pacific. Men from the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 9th Divisions were trained at Camp Pendleton. Yesterday the artillery was having target practice, and Henry and I at first confused the sound with that of jet air planes breaking the sound barrier, both of which were happening.

Cold weather training is held in the mountains. Just as amphibious training is held on the beaches in the vast camp itself. But the desert training is held at 29 Palms, where the Marines have 450 square miles of desert land.

On our last day at Oceanside Henry and I spent some time at the beach from noon till 2 p. m. The sun was very hot and the water was quite cold and the air was pleasantly cool. They had been having a heat wave just as had the rest of the nation. It was the first time that he had ever been in the ocean, and I never saw a lad have such a good time. Oftentimes he can't swim in Wellington due to allergies and sinus but the salt water did not seem to affect him.

On leaving Oceanside I goofed in my translation of Pacific Daylight time into Pacific Standard time. As a result we got back into Los Angeles two hours early. We had lunch in the mammoth Union Terminal with its courts and flowers and Henry had a busy time inspecting the time tables and the exit and entry gates. It was perhaps as educational an experience as he had on the entire trip. Because his mother does most of the car driving, he is not yet convinced that I know how to find my way out of and back into Collingsworth County.

It was just as well that we did take an early train. Otherwise we would have had just 10 minutes to get out baggage through the giant union terminal.

From Los Angeles we came out toward San Bernardino and through the beautiful San Bernardino Mountains. They are nothing to compare with the Sierra Nevada, the highest in the U. S., but they are quite impressive. With the exception of the irrigated spots, it looked dry from California to the Texas border. Although they were bothersome at times we should be very thankful for the wonderful rains we have received.

They also spent some time sight-seeing in Grand Canyon. In New Mexico they went through Carlsbad Caverns, and on the return trip home visited in Bovina, Texas, with a son, Mr. and Mrs. Von Bowen, and in Plainview with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bowen.

Rev. R. L. Flowers Dies at Atascosa

Friends in the Methodist Church here have learned of the recent death of the Rev. R. L. Flowers, Methodist evangelist who conducted two revivals here and spent considerable time here at another period.

He had been an evangelist in the Methodist church 40 years. His last revival here was only a few years ago.

Revival Continues At City Church

Special features are the singing of David and Jimmy Best, the evangelists sons.

Rev. Calabrese extended a cordial invitation to the public to attend the services, held nightly at 7:45 p. m. with the exception of Saturday. "A great Sunday School is planned at 9:45 a. m. Sunday when the Evangelist will be opening and awarding the Mystery Box," the pastor said.

Mrs. Rufus Sweat, and her sister, Mrs. Jack Lowry of Lutie are attending the summer session of West Texas State College, Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn moved from Bartlesville a year ago and he is with Fleur Corporation, builders of machinery for refineries and other similar industries. Mrs. Lynn will be remembered here as Eddie Jo Gilbert.

The Dodson City Council in a recent meeting voted to lower the water rate, Mayor Bynum Hightower said this week.

The new minimum is 2.75 per 2,500 gallons per month, replacing the old rate of $3.50.

The council last year raised the amount of water under the minimum from 2,000 to 2,500 gallons.

"We have plenty of water and the pressure is good. Several months ago we bought an extra pump as a spare," Hightower said.

There are approximately 105 users on the Dodson water system.

Members of the council are Marvin Wynn, Robert Tabor, Junior Owens, Rufe Jameson and Buster Fillpot.

RA Boys of Three Towns at Retreat

The retreat closed with the noon meal Saturday.

There were four boys and two sponsors from Wheeler, 11 boys and two sponsors from Shamrock and five boys and one sponsor from Dodson.

The Rev. Bill Hendricks, Dodson pastor, planned and directed the retreat.

McKinney Leases Henard Lake

Dan Henard announced this week that he has leased the lake at the east edge of his place, northeast of Wellington, to Bill McKinney, caretaker of Panfork Baptist Encampment. The lake is at the west edge of the Encampment grounds.

The lake will be open to the public for picnicking, boating and fishing, with Mr. McKinney in complete charge of its management. Reservations are to be obtained from him and charges paid at the main house of the encampment.

Henard pointed out that this lease does not include any other lake on his place, and the remainder of his land is posted and trespassing is forbidden.

Reeves Tours Lumber Operation

R. T. Reeves has returned from East Texas, where he was one of 26 managers of Cicero Smith Lumber Company yards who were guests of Temple Industries at Diboll and Pinedale.

This company is the second largest yellow pine producers in the United States, having a half million acres of timber under contract.

Reeves and the other managers visited both the hardwood and soft pine mills.

"One of the outstanding things of the entire operation is that from the time a log goes in the mill, not so much as a chip of the bark off the tree is wasted," Reeves said. Bark waste, as an example, is ground into wood flour, then moulded into toilet seats, which are sold to a nationally known mail order house.

Tyler Wins Sales Trip to Canada

Hershel Tyler, owner of Tyler Electric, has returned from a fishing trip to Ft. Francis, Ontario, Canada, which he won in a Zenith Sales contest, sponsored through the Zenith distributor of this area.

He was one of 12 dealers to receive all expense paid trips. The group traveled by air and spent one day in Chicago looking over the 1958 Zenith line. From there they flew to International Falls, Minn., and on to Ft. Francis. They then traveled three hours by boat up Rainy River to Northern Light Camps for 5 days of fishing.

With Indian guides, they found fishing good.

"We caught so many fish we got tired. The first caught by our group was a northern pike 18 inches long, but the guide threw it back and said it was too little and skinny," he said.

Tyler's largest fish measured 25 inches.
