SACKED WITH SERVICE AND A SMILE - Bill Ritter and Kenneth Lambert, co-owners of B & K Grocery, offer their customers quality merchandise and service based on friendship.

No Promotion Like Service Claim B & K's Veteran Grocerymen

Sales promotions, "Gimmicks" and trading stamps have all proven effective boosts for businesses but "the greatest draw is service," says Bill Ritter, co-owner of B & K Grocery. Partner and uncle, Kenneth Lambert, is in complete agreement.

"There just isn't any promotion good enough to get customers if you don't offer them service," Ritter says with assurance.

The grocery duo have reason to speak with authority since together they have compiled close to 50 years experience in the grocery business.

Lambert had two years experience in wholesale groceries and 12 years in the retail business before coming to Hart in 1958 as manager of the Homer Hill Store. In July, 1959, he and his son-in-law and daughter, Bob and Marlene Bennett, purchased the store and it became known as B & K Grocery and Market.

Ritter purchased Bennett's share in April, 1972, moving to Hart from Dumas. A native of Oklahoma, Ritter grew up in Plainview and learned the grocery business as he grew up. Bill's father, who is Christine's brother, is a longtime grocer in Plainview. With a brother, he owns and operates Ritter Grocery on the old Amarillo highway.

A lot of change has been noted in the last two decades the two grocerymen recall. One of the most notable differences came with the advent of frozen and "convenience" foods.

Today's housewife may make as many trips to the grocer's in one day as the housewife of a quarter-century back did in one week and her grandmother did in one month.

Time was not so long ago when women purchased all the family's food needs for at least a week on the family's Saturday trip to town. Farm folks also brought in their eggs and cream to be bartered for the needed staples.

The Hill store had stopped buying cream about a year before the Lamberts came to Hart but Kenneth recalls it has

Spaghetti Supper Set

A spaghetti supper will be served Friday, Sept. 14, prior to the Longhorns-Shallowater Mustangs football game, in the school cafeteria. Sponsored by Xi Mu Iota, serving hours will be 5:30 to 8 p.m.

Supper tickets are selling for $1.50 for adults and $1 for students. Proceeds will be applied to the sorority's scholarship fund to provide a college scholarship to a deserving 1974 HHS graduate. Sorority members invite everyone to "come to supper."

Horns Seek Repeat Of '72

Savoring last year's record, the Longhorns of Hart High are stomping to get a new season started and will seek to retain their winning way on foreign past Friday. The Horns of maroon and white land will invade Lazbuddie's corral in hopes of a repeat of last year's results when they whipped Lazbuddie, 28 to 12. Lazbuddie's Longhorns will try just as valiantly to get even for the humiliating loss.

Head Coach Lonnie Phillips praised the players this week for the way they have worked during the pre-season workouts and the two scrimmage games. The Horns looked good in both outings, he said, but would have to battle to be winners. Pre-season "predictions by the experts" show the Longhorns to finish in fifth, third and first.

Probable starters Friday night are Jimmy Brown, James McLain, Randy Finch, Kent Irons, Mario Martinez, Sonny Mancias, Freddie Mancias, Jesse Perez, Cecil Jackson, Danny Carson and Barry George.

Other members of the squad are Gilbert Rodriguez, John Henry Robinson, Joe Ponce, Terry Hill, Joe Reyes, Kenneth Davis, Kent Irons, Jim Clifford, Darrell Lacy, Dean Hill, George Hernandez, John Robledo, Danny George, Jimmy Kennedy and Ismael Carasco.

Managers are Doyle Davis, Curtis Callender, Albert Martinez and Charles Jones. Mike Cox is trainer. Coaches along with Phillips are Wes Poarch, Bill Taylor, Glen Gleghorn and Jerry Reed.

Contest Begins This Week

Just a little time remains for persons to enter the first week of the Hart Beat football contest. Deadline for entering is 4:30 p.m. today (Friday).

Everyone is eligible to enter, the only requirement is that contestants may not enter but once each week. The contest can be a family affair with competition at home to see which member is the best predictor.

Persons do not have to be football experts to win - lucky guesses often earn the prizes. Contestants should not give up because of a poor beginning either since standings can easily change as the season progresses with leaders hitting a "slump" and others hitting lucky streaks.

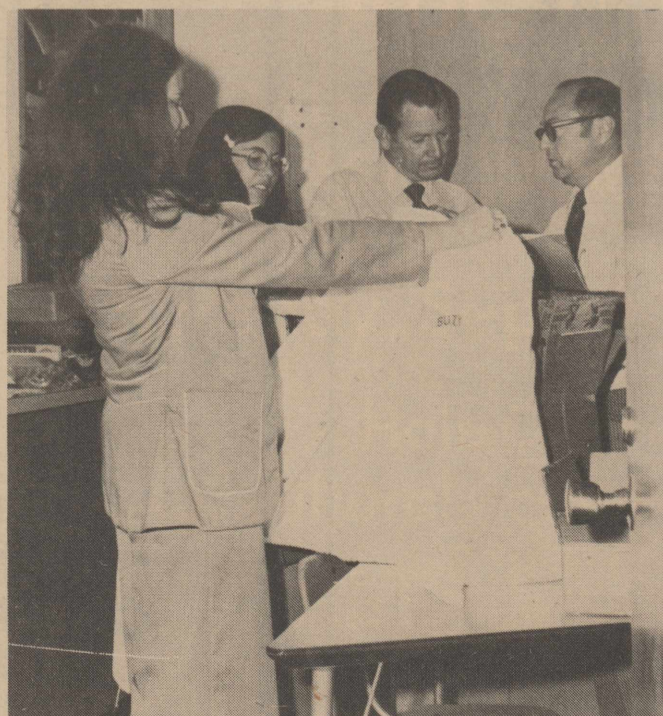

It's easy to enter. Get a copy of last week's Hart Beat, select the winners of the games appearing in the sponsoring merchants' ads and circle each team's number on the entry blank. Then predict the score of the Longhorns-Lazbuddie contest, completely fill in the entry

natural energy HOME

CLEAN ENERGY FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW

A Natural Energy Home uses natural gas for heating, cooling, water heating, cooking and clothes drying to save you money and help conserve our cleanest natural energy resource . . . natural gas.

That's because electricity in West Texas is generated by burning natural gas, and in the process of generating and transmitting electricity to your home, 2/3 of the gas energy is lost.

So, by using gas directly in the home for the jobs it can do, you're helping to conserve it and you're getting more energy for your money.

PIONEER NATURAL GAS COMPANY

The Editor's Viewpoint

Service Unbelievable

The telephone service in this city is absolutely and totally unbelievable BAD.

Working from Olton in order to put out the Hart Beat, we frequently have to make "long distance" calls to Hart to check out details of stories, etc.

And, without fail, we either can't hear well, we get disconnected or "the line is busy" when in reality the doggone thing is out of order!

We are not the only ones that have complaints against the telephone company.

Residents here have stated that numerous times, in attempting to get the operator to place a long distance call is next to impossible.

One incident was reported involving a sick person's need for ambulance service, which is long distance, and it was precious minutes before the operator answered.

We think it is high time that the telephone system was improved --- and greatly, for the residents of Hart!.

MRS. BOBBY REED

Cook Of The Week

A resident of Hart since her marriage in 1958, our Cook of the Week is Mrs. Bobby Reed, housewife, mother and city secretary of Hart.

Virginia and Bobby are the parents of two sons. Keith, 13, is an eighth grader. Leslie, 10, is in the fifth grade. Both boys were active in Club Scouts and Virginia served as Den Mother during their Cub days.

As city secretary, a job she had held since November, 1963, Virginia also acts as collector for the natural gas and electric utilities which makes a busy month's beginning even more involved. She is also a registrar for Selective Service.

Virginia enjoys working in the yard and when she can find time for hobbies, likes to play golf. She also enjoys creating Christmas decorations.

Recipes Virginia shares this week are timely ones for those persons still busily preparing and preserving foods for the fall and winter. She also shares a recipe for easy baked beans.

been a short time since they still purchased eggs.

Stricter requirements put the final end to the trade of eggs for groceries. Not only was it a requirement that all eggs be candled, but new regulations made it necessary that eggs be graded according to weight and thus brought about the end of an era.

Christine has helped out at the store ever since they took over and has served not only a checker but "stock girl" and janitor, as well. She and Kenneth remember how welcome one change was - the decision to observe regular hours instead of the "dawn till dark-thirty" that once was routine.

Bill's memories, here, bring back boyhood recollections when the store where his dad once worked would stay open "until the last show was over" and folks returned to the store to pick up the groceries they had bought earlier in the day. With names written on the bags, groceries were placed in a corner of the store and safely left there until the family was ready to "call it a day."

Late hours on Saturdays were still the routine thing just the few short years ago when harvest time meant busy hours as farm hands came into town to cash payroll checks and purchase quantity supplies.

Some future years, 1973 may be recalled as the year that the calendar began to be turned back to the days of "bulk" groceries, Kenneth and Bill observe. Bag shortages may see that return forced, they say, recalling the time when beans, raisins and prunes were just three of the items received in bulk and weighed out by the grocer.

One of the most prevalent shortages right now, they note, has been in fruit jars to meet the unforeseen demand in canning supplies.

"Suppliers just weren't ready for the demand," Bill says of the current interest in home food preservation. "Women who have never canned before canned this year and those who have always canned, canned more than ever," he says.

Retail grocery business has come a long way, Lambert recalls, since the day when the name was literal. Today's store, he explains, is a composite of groceries plus the wares of other businesses - the market, the drug store, the hardware, the seed store, the dry goods store and the beauty parlor!

Bill recalls an indignant shopper a few years back complaining about "the high cost of groceries."

"I let her get through and then I said, 'Mrs. X, let's see just how much your groceries cost you.' After I'd separated thirty dollars worth of cosmetics from her purchase, she wasn't quite as complaining," he remembers.

Laughing, he also recalls his and Betty's first grocery bill. "Having to buy all the staple items and all, it came to $40 and when we got everything put away, there wasn't anything for supper and I had to take her out to eat."

Bill and Betty are the parents of eight children. A married daughter, Sherry Borchardt, lives in Stratford. Their other daughters are Jennifer, Belinda, Jackie and Heather. Pat, Joey and Brett are their sons.

Christine and Kenneth have another married daughter, Jan Cooper of Plainview. They are also the very proud grandparents of six grandchildren.

Friendly service is a pledge made and kept by the Lamberts and the Ritters. It's a service that is rewarded with friendship and summed up with sincerity by Kenneth, "We got a lot, lot of GOOD customers."

Hart Woman's Mother Dies

Funeral services were conducted Saturday in the First Baptist Church of Amherst for Mrs. Nancy Long, 79, mother of Mrs. J.B. Allensworth.

The Rev. Glen Willson, pastor, officiated. Burial was in Amherst Cemetery under the direction of Paynes Funeral Home.

Born March 4, 1894 in Oklahoma, Mrs. Long had lived in Amherst for many years. She was preceded in death by her husband, Sam, in 1966.

Other survivors include one other daughter, Mrs. Robert Nichols of Amherst; two sons, Lavern Long and Alvin Long, both of Amherst; one sister, Mrs. Bertha Mandrell of Frederick, Okla.; three brothers, Jim Roberts of Bovina, Fred Roberts of Mason and Hubert Roberts of Corcoran, Calif.; 11 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Education Color Special To Be Viewed Friday

"Work is Child's Play," a 30 minute color special which shows the concept of Career Education at work in Texas schools, will be broadcast over a 19 station television network during "Career Oriented Education Week," Sept. 2-9. Station KGNC-Amarillo will carry the program at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

"Work is Child's Play," was filmed on campuses in six school districts around the state and in community locations in Arlington, Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston. The program stresses the personal side of Career Education, examining the concept from the student's point of view. The special also portrays the various approaches to Career Education at different grade levels: awareness in elementary grades, exploration at junior high level, and skill training in high school situations.

Texas Governor, Dolph Briscoe, introduces the special with a 30 second endorsement of the film and the concept it embodies. "The following television colorcast, 'Work is Child's Play,' portrays children becoming aware of themselves and the world of work," the Governor says. "Career oriented education is relevant education for all students," he concludes, "and it is a dream becoming a reality."

Funding for the special was provided by the Agency, Department of Occupational Education and Technology and was produced by the Region XII Service Center and Fred

EDITORIAL:
AMERICA: Believe in it?
By Brent Lemons

After attending the Farm Bureau citizenship seminar in Waco this summer, I realized what believing in America really means. Have you ever stopped to think about all the wonderful freedoms and rights we as Americans can use and enjoy? We can own land for our own personal profit, but, in Russia, a man can only farm 1/3 of an acre for his own profit and all other produce goes to the government and the farmer is paid a wage.

In America one can criticize the government anytime he wants to and take action to protect himself against any wrongdoing. In Russia, if a person does not like what the government does, he cannot criticize or take action against the government. Communism is a system that doesn't like to be criticized in any form or fashion.

If you were a sixteen-year-old in Russia today, you would start work for the government. Boys and girls often do the same labor such as working in a factory. You would not have a choice; at sixteen you would be a government paid worker.

Communism is a socialistic disease that is spreading across the world and especially in America. There are twelve goals that communists publicly announce that they have to achieve before they can take over a country; America is on number eight. Deterioration of religion, family and armed forces are just a few of these goals. Russia is now number one in armed naval forces.

If we let America become weak, we may realize someday how great a country America WAS.

Don't be afraid to "Believe in America," it's something to hold on to.

SPORTS

The Hart Longhorns have started the 1973 season with strenuous workouts and scrimmages. The Horns scrimmaged Hale Center Aug. 24 and looked promising. They are trying to work out some "bugs" before the season opener Friday with Lazbuddie. Captains for the Horns this season are James McLain, Jimmy Brown and Cecil Jackson.

The Longhorns had a scrimmage game with Dimmitt and looked better than the week before.

GO-O-O HORNS!!!!

MINI HA HA'S
By Kathy & Suzy

April 18, 1775
Mrs. Paul Revere: "I don't care who's coming. I'm using the horse tonight!"

Carol: I just got the bill for my operation. Now I know why they wear masks in the operating room.

An elephant was swimming in a swimming pool. A mouse came by. "Please get out of the water," the mouse said. "Please, get out!"

The elephant crawled slowly out of the pool. "What do you want?" he asked the mouse.

The mouse said, "I wanted to know if you were wearing my bathing suit."

The evening my bride cooked her first dinner for me, I choked on a bone in the chocolate pudding.

ORGANIZATIONS:
By Shirley Flippo & Joyce Welty

The Future Teachers of America have a new sponsor, Mrs. J'Lynn Ryan of Dimmitt. The group will be having a meeting Sept. 10 at 4 p.m. Ice cream, cookies and punch will be served. All members are urged to bring a guest and everyone is invited to come.

The new band director, Jerry Jansa, released the 1973-74 band officers. They are president, Brent Lemons; vice president, Kathy Cheves; secretary, Dawn Phillips and reporter, Arlene Aven. The new twirlers are LeAnn Friday, Becky Miller, Carla Rambo and Sharla Carson with Kathy Cheves as drum majorette. Karen Foster is assistant drum majorette.

The Future Homemakers of America will have installation of officers at the bank Sept. 11 at 4 p.m. This is a Mother-Daughter tea and all prospective members are urged to come.

LINDAWATI

This year, FHA members are sponsoring a ten-year-old Indonesian girl and will send $12 monthly to the Christian Children's Fund. Lindawati, the girl, is fatherless and the mother cannot provide the necessities for her so she released Lindawati to the home.

Hart High School Pep Squad has elected new officers for the year. Vicky Martinez is president; Nena Montemayor, vice president and Alice Rodriguez, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Rebecca Scribner is the group's sponsor.
