GOVERNOR COX IS MAKING A STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN

For two weeks, Governor Cox, Democratic nominee for President, has been making a most strenuous campaign in the Northwest. He was delivering half a dozen or more speeches and talks, and since his voice went back on cassettes to the principal points of his itinerary. Quite a large crowd, but it cannot be claimed that he did Roosevelt great enthusiasts as did Bryan, or Bryan, to imitate. He is attempting quite a feat. Whilest places, at had to come, and as a result, was on record, and at all that he can do to get the law re-issued, a no attempt to do it was his wet ad-vice to it, is another ques-tion. It will be in Oklahoma here, as will Senator the Republican opponent. Each speak at the State. A special train is to run from Worth and Dallas to take to Oklahoma City to hear Cox. The latter will make more other speeches in that area. Even Oklahoma is beginning to be a debatable ground between the two parties, it seems.

Gotthard-Schwethelm

At high noon on Sunday, September 12th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Schwethelm, their daughter, Mrs. Emma, was married to William C. Gotthard of San Antonio. The wedding was a very quiet one, but prettily and tastefully appointed.

The ceremony took place in the living room of the Schwethelm home, which was decorated with flowers. The bride was attired in a tailor-made suit of navy blue with accessories to match, and carried an arm bouquet of white roses and ferns with bow of white maline.

The wedding ceremony was followed by a dinner which was enjoyed by the twenty-five or thirty persons present. These included only the nearest relatives and a few friends of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Gotthard left on the 4:30 o'clock train for San Antonio, where they will reside. Their many friends wish them much success and happiness.

Mrs. Julia Reed and daughter, Evelyn, have returned from a ten days' visit with relatives near Georgetown. They stopped off in San Antonio a few days on the return trip.

NOTRE DAME STARTS OUT WITH LARGER ATTENDANCE

The enrollment of pupils in Notre Dame Institute at the beginning of the year, and it is expected that the attendance will exceed the one hundred mark as soon as the school is in full swing.

Notre Dame offers thorough education for giving subjects from the kindergarten to twelfth grade and academic studies, and especially efficient instruction in commercial work and bookkeeping.

A limited number of young lady boarders can be cared for and the rate is very reasonable. The children of any or no religious denomination are admitted to Notre Dame and if unable to pay tuition none is charged. The family sending any number in excess of three are required to pay for only three.

The Protestant children who attend Notre Dame do not have to comply with the religious instruction for Catholics. The former can do so if desired by application of their parents.

For the Mexicans a school of their own is provided in connection with the congregation of Our Lady of Guadalupe. This edifice is a beautiful two-story building situated in the heart of the Mexican settlement and at least a mile distant from Notre Dame, which lies in the down-town belt. The Guadalupe School is entirely a chafitable undertaking, and in addition to the splendid curriculum in two languages, the poor Mexican children are liberally supplied with clothing and school necessities.

Both educational establishments are under the direction of the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word, whose mother-house is at Alamo Heights in San Antonio. Many of these nuns have not only a University degree but also the experience of a score or more of years in order to make them almost unsurpassable as teachers. Added to their intellectual qualifications, which are kept up to a rigorous standard by annual Normal School work even if they have taught for forty years, the nuns are consecrated virgins of highly respected families, who have given their lives and everything mundane unreservedly to the Great Master.

A spacious and carefully prepared playground in the rear of Notre Dame affords ample facility for outdoor sports which are heartily encouraged by the faculty. The health of the children is always one of the most important considerations of the devoted nuns. Every sanitary requirement is attended to, and in addition to these safeguards the children are placed continually in aesthetical and ethical environments that physically and morally are bound to exercise an indelible influence in their full rounded training. A large flower-house shelters the ferns and plants during the winter months. Adjoining this building is the Notre Dame private fire department with an Obenchain-Boyer chemical engine. Extinguishers of various types are scattered among all the buildings, and a city plug is located directly in front of the convent.

For the convenience of students who must come to school with auto or buggy, there is a fire-proof garage and also sufficient stables and horse yard.

On account of the healthy climate of Kerrville and particularly its many attractions as a summer resort, Notre Dame Institute has never been idle even in the vacation period; for it is then rather the rendezvous of private boarding students who are tutored by

CALM AND QUIET PREVAILED AT THE STATE CONVENTION

Clyde A. Sweeton of Greenville was unanimously elected permanent chairman of the Democratic State Convention, held in Fort Worth last week. There was some opposition to the selection of Mr. Sweeton, but when his name was reported to the convention by the committee on permanent organization he was received with acclamation.

This Democratic convention contrasted strangely with the campaign of which it was the finale. Just as that campaign established, probably, a record for noise and turmoil and violent emotion and expression, so this convention went in inverse ratio to the opposite extreme. Perhaps there has never been in Texas a State political gathering so calm and quiet and unexcited, so unruffled and unexcited and unexciting, so mild and perfunctory as this. Nor has any convention in recent years been attended by so few persons. An actual count of the galleries at a time when they seemed as well filled as at any time showed 427 men and women to be there. The number was considerably less at times. Not more than 500 delegates were on the floor, and not nearly that many at times.

The speeches were tempered and subdued. Mr. Bailey's name was not mentioned. Even the occasional references to the recent campaign and the "other side" were phrased, it seemed, with a determination to avoid a sting. There was no "crowing over the defeated enemy"—indeed, there was something of a conciliatory spirit shown throughout the session. "Our fight is over; we are all Democrats now; let's unite against the opposition party," was the tone of the speakers.

Frank C. Davis of San Antonio was elected chairman of the State Executive Committee; J. I. Kercheville of San Antonio, vice chairman, and the position of secretary was left open, to be filled at the discretion of the chairman, who announced he contemplated the selection of a San Antonio man.

The committee passed a resolution empowering each committeeman to appoint a woman assistant in each senatorial district.

Subscription to the National Democratic campaign fund reached a total of $43,250, with Dallas County leading with a subscription of $6,000.

Outstanding planks in the platform demand of the Legislature are a law providing suffrage for citizens only; educational inquiry and extension for all schools, colleges and eleemosynary institutions; amendment to the minimum wage law for women and to the working man's compensation act; and a revision of State departmental bureau with clear-cut definition of the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture, and giving to the control of the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College all agricultural activities of an educational nature.

Neff Is Introduced

Mr. Neff had remained away from the convention until he made his speech of acceptance. He had not appeared before the platform committee, nor had anyone else represented him there. He carried out his announced purpose of not attempting to influence the convention or the committee in any way. After he had been nominated by R. H. Hamilton of Port Lavaca and presented by his friend of long standing, Cullen F.

MAINE WENT SWEEPINGLY REPUBLICAN ON MONDAY

If the old saying "As goes Maine in its September election so goes the country in November" is true this year, the Democrats had as well begin to get out life-saving devices.

Maine gave about 70,000 majority to the Republicans Monday, and doubtless could have raked up a few more thousand, which exceeds anything in the political history of the State. To think that Maine has actually gone Democratic at times, and now to act this way.

Of course, the women voters added to the sum total, and the Republicans secured about all of them, as the Democratic vote showed only an average record. If these new-made voting women are going to practice this kind of thing some of the Democrats may change their minds about the great beneficent and moral influence of the women voters.

The one disturbing feature of the Maine election to the Democratic managers of the National campaign is the swat that the League of Nations got. It was a wall-palooza. If the League of Nations is no more popular in other sections of the country than it is in Maine, President Wilson and Governor Cox and lesser lights will sure have a grievance after November 2nd.

However, you can't teach Democratic leaders anything—they have to learn by hard old experience. And that is one way that it will be longer remembered.

We simply won't believe in that old saying, "As goes Maine so goes the Nation." Now, there.

A. T. Adkins is assisting in the Palace Barber Shop temporarily. They will occasionally get back to their first love.

NEEDY AND UNFORTUNATE CAN GET FREE OPERATION

The Board of Trustees, composed of Julius Real, Geo. Morris, A. C. G. F. and L. A. Schreiner, selected by Capt. Chas. Schreiner for the control of his gift, the Kerrville Hospital Building, held a meeting Wednesday and selected A. C. Schreiner, chairman and L. A. Schreiner, secretary and treasurer.

The board has had one application for an operation under the conditions of the gift of free treatment for those in Kerr County of either Americans or Mexicans, who are unable to pay for an operation. The board is ready to receive other applications of such persons, and when made the patient will be properly cared for in the hospital and the needed operation performed by some of the physicians of Kerrville.

This is certainly a most beneficent gift on the part of Capt. Chas. Schreiner, the putting of which without cost to those in need of an operation and unable to have it done.

H. G. Hays and wife left Thursday morning for Salt Lake City, Utah where they will make their future home. Mr. Hays returns to a company he formerly worked for as assistant chief engineer. Mr. and Mrs. Hays carry with them the best wishes of many friends here.

ALL CAN VOTE WITHOUT POLL TAX; LEGISLATURE TO MEET

Austin, Tex., Sept. 13.—All men and women of Texas who are otherwise qualified to vote may participate in the general election to be held November 2nd without payment of poll tax, according to an opinion from the Attorney General's office made public late today by Governor Hobby.

The opinion further holds that male inhabitants are still liable for the payment of a poll tax, but failure to pay the same will not disqualify a man from voting who is otherwise a qualified voter.

Governor Hobby received the opinion after 5 o'clock. He had no comment to make, but it is expected he will shortly announce definitely as to the course he will pursue. It is expected that he will issue his proclamation convening the Legislature in special session either September 20 or 21 for the purpose primarily amending the election laws so as to prevent illegal voting in the November election, now that the Attorney General's Department has ruled that under the Federal suffrage amendment the doors are thrown open to both men and women to vote in Texas without payment of the poll tax.

Mrs. R. H. Chapoy and son, H. B. returned Monday evening from a tour of several weeks in Oklahoma and San Antonio.

The enrollment being larger than usual for the first day. A full faculty of well selected teachers were present, consisting of the following:
B. H. Hill, superintendent; Miss Min-

Goodlow and Morrow. School opened with appropriate exercises, consisting of music and short talks by members of the faculty, school board and citi-

J. L. Keith returned Sunday from Breckinridge, Texas, where he had gone to witness the bringing in of an oil well on his property near that town. Delay in receiving casing caused a shutdown for a few days and hence Mr. Keith had to return without being gratified. The Texas Company has his land leased and they have two wells nearing completion and there is no question as to the result as they have flowing wells near Mr. Keith's land on all sides.

Junction Jots

Eagle, Sept. 10: Robert Real of the Live Oak ranch was in Junction Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice, Miss Blossson and Seaton returned a few days ago from a delightful trip to England and Scotland, where they have been all summer visiting relatives and sight-seeing. Although having had a wonderful time they are all glad to be back in Kimble again and declare
"there is no place like home." Miss Jessie Prentice also returned with her brother and family from Scotland and will make an extended visit at their ranch on Bob's care.

On Wednesday, September 8, 1920, Edgar Ivy, living 10 miles east of Junction, brought in the first bale of the year 1920. This bale was ginned by the Llano Mill & Irrigation Company and weighed 540 pounds. The bale was graded as strict low middling and he was offered 20 cents, but did not sell at this price. Mr. Ivy has about 65 acres in cotton this year and will get above the average yield.
Junction ginned 1,060 bales last year and should get in the neighborhood of 1,500 or more this year.

If Kimble County becomes an oil field, and the prospects for this are considered very good by some of the keenest minds in the oil business, one big thing for the county will certainly be a railroad from Menard to Kerrville through Junction, and a great prosperity from drilling operations and vast wealth from the increase in the value of oil leases.

Benedum & Trees, said to be the biggest wildcaters in the world, were the first to spy out the Kimble country as a possible oil field. It was this firm that drilled the Duke No. 1 in northern Comanche County and brought in the great Desdemona field which has produced hundreds of millions of dollars from oil and gas. It was also this firm of a hundred million dollars capital that proved the North Louisiana field.

With fourteen wells located and three actively drilling in Kimble County, the oil prospects of the county are very good for a beginning, but what makes the prospect yet more encouraging is the well being drilled by the Delva-Tex Oil Company on the Benedum & Trees lease on the Beasley ranch ten miles southeast of Junction.
It is known with regard to this particular section of the county that there is an oil structure there which has been surveyed by several geologists.

KERR COUNTY GRASS AND GRAIN GOOD; CATTLE FINE

For the second time in the history of the Hunt section of Kerr County the farmers made a test with cotton, using most any variety of seed. Some even sent to the Red River Country for seed of the long staple. The unprecedented rains of last year led them to believe that under favorable conditions cotton could be produced in the Guadalupe Valley, as the most fertile land in Texas is to be found there. This year nearly every farmer planted cotton and the most favorable conditions prevailed, but the cool nights evidently assisted the boll weevil to thrive, as the yield will be so light that it will really be a complete failure. Mr. Baldwin, a prominent farmer, says his cotton will average four feet in height, yet has very little fruit. The test has proven that the farmers here will go back to corn and small grain.

Corn

A bumper corn crop is being gathered and the average per acre is 40 bushels. The price is 80 cents per bushel. At this time last year corn was bringing $2 per bushel. About half the corn crop has been gathered and many farmers are selling their surplus, as they think the price will go even lower when the entire crop is harvested. So far the rats that infest the fields have done very little damage. In some fields squirrel are playing havoc with the grain.

Deer Injure Truck

Truck farmers, and especially those who have large sweet potato patches, are complaining of the depredations made by deer. They come down from the mountains at night and destroy many acres of truck in a few hours.

Hay and Grass

Many of these valley farms are reaping rich harvest from their Johnson grass. Two crops have already been cut and another is almost ready.
The hay is being baled and is said to be a splendid variety, and weather conditions are favorable to saving it.
Last year this kind of hay was hard to obtain and readily brought $35 per ton. This year the highest price paid so far is $15 per ton delivered baled.

Pastures and Live Stock

The range has never been better, good grass everywhere and cattle fat.
So far very few cattle have been put on the market, many holding for better prices. The sheep are in fine condition and bringing fancy prices, but the goat market is low. Last year at this time goats were bringing $6.50 and $7 per head with mohair selling at high as 90 and 95 cents a pound.
The same goats this year are a drug on the market at $2.25 to $3.00 per head with mohair at 26 to 30 cents per pound. Many ranchmen are already through shearing, and the average clip per goat is 2 1/4 pounds.
The low market is causing many to hold their clip.

New Clip Operations

The Commercial Bulletin (Boston),
Sept. 4: The chief item of interest latterly in the new clip field has been the sale of the Kerrville, Texas, twelve months wool, these being the best wools which come out of Texas.
It is reported that these wools were bought on a clean landed basis of about $1.25 to 1.30 and that they were taken by two well-known Boston houses, which are accustomed to operate in Texas wools.

Elsewhere through the West there has been comparatively little business done. In Ohio, there is a little buying of fine wool now and again, which appears to be on a rather low basis and which as yet is securing comparatively little wool. Operators in the fleece wool sections, however, are not anxious by any means to buy, except on a basis that is really reasonably safe.

Some quarter and three-eighths Missouri combing (stubby wool thrown out) is reported to have been sold on a landed basis Boston at 37 1/2 cents but this transaction is understood to have involved only a few cars and of course included short of "baby" combing wool.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. B. HOLT, Pastor

We had a congenial crowd and a good interest in our prayer meeting Wednesday night. These services will build up now as will everything else. The fall months will bring us better things all around and everyone is willing to do his best.

The teachers' meeting on Tuesday night was splendid and will help the entire Sunday School program. The growing loyalty and faithfulness of our teachers and officers is refreshing. We desire to develop a normal and healthy Bible School life for our church. Young and old will help us do this.

Sunday was a very good day indeed. We expect it to be better next Sunday.

The Senior Girls enjoyed the evening in the hospitable home of Mrs. F. E. Garrett, Monday night. The Senior Boys also came along at the invitation of their teacher, F. E. Garrett, and all had a big time together.

We are glad to have the new public and high school teachers in our city for the winter. They are welcome, and we hope they will enjoy their stay in our midst.

Our Missionary, Bro. J. E. Byrd, has bought a home on Water Street on the corner directly in front of St. Rees' residence. We welcome these good people to our town. They will help in every good thing.

That the churches of Kerrville are the city's principal asset no one doubts. Were it not for these great sanctifying, saving institutions no one of us would want to live here. Let us love them, attend them and support them. Will you be in God's house next Sunday? Are your children receiving any definite moral and spiritual training in any one of the churches? If we neglect them God will hold us responsible. If you allow your children to drift what will become of them? You will be sorry some day.

May we not now expect every Missionary Baptist in and around Kerrville to line up for God for a great year's work?

HOOPLA! GREAT CIRCUS

DAY IS ALMOST HERE

The world's two most famous circuses now merged into one and headed this way will exhibit at San Antonio, Monday, September 27.

It would seem as though everybody in this locality were planning to attend. The very name of the great new circus—Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined—has been sufficient to arouse far more interest than has ever before been shown in the coming of any amusement enterprise. And word from the Ringling Brothers, who are the directors of this gigantic circus, is to the effect that those who attend the performance will witness the greatest program ever presented in America. This is likewise true of the mammoth street parade, which will positively take place showday morning, the mammoth menagerie and all else connected with this biggest of all amusement institutions.

The famous showmen have made a complete survey of both the great circuses and merged the finest and best of each into one. Hundreds upon hundreds of performers will appear in the gigantic main tent. There will be scores upon scores of the cleverest and most amusing animal acts. A gorgeous and magnificent pageant of stupendous size will open the program. Great companies of characters, representing the best-loved stories of fable and nursery lore will appear. There will be splendid and many groups of beautiful horses in jeweled trappings. The army of clowns exceed all past records for fun and numbers. All contribute to the biggest circus in history.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES

By Father Kemper

Unsurpassed Opening

Our parochial schools began with an enrollment of one hundred and twenty students, most of whom registered at Notre Dame Institute, but we anticipate that number alone at Our Lady of Guadalupe School as soon as the Mexican families return from cotton picking. At the American school we feel confident of again exceeding the hundred mark as soon as the scholastic work is in full swing. Many children delayed coming on account of after-effects of vacation.

Tuition is absolutely free to every boy and girl from Kindergarten to Twelfth Grade inclusively, regardless of religious affiliation, if they cannot pay the nominal price of only one dollar per month. Instruction in Sacred Scriptures are given prior to 9 a. m. and exclusively to Catholic children unless parents expressly demand otherwise.

Labor Day was observed as a National holiday and some of the Notre Dame students on this occasion visited the faculty at Holy Angels Academy in Boerne. The new superiors of this school is Mother Anthony Roche, formerly connected with Notre Dame, St. Bridgetine, one of our old teachers, is an infirmarian at St. Mary's Sanatorium in Boerne.

On the opening day of school, Ernest Rahn took a dozen panoramic exposures of both of our institutions. Some of the proofs have reached us and are indeed a credit to this photographer, who has won seventeen first prizes in San Antonio exhibits.

Brownson Literary Circle

Fall of pep and earnest resolve from the very start, the High School and upper grade students of Notre Dame reorganized their literary and dramatic club on the first Thursday. Officers elected for the current year are: Miss Meta Michon, president; Miss Frances Michon, vice president; Miss Mona Ducote, secretary, and Miss Ella Marie Doyle, treasurer. Like last year, the Brownsonites will hold a public meeting on the last Thursday of every month unless some patriotic occasion happens to fall around this date. Friends and patrons of the school are cordially invited to these carefully prepared entertainments, which are always as full of instruction as they are replete with amusement.

The Knights of Columbus began their free night school in San Antonio on Monday of this week with an enrollment of about six hundred ex-service soldiers and sailors. Some local members intend to profit by this splendid opportunity and will matriculate later, because students may enter at any time and are taught in convenient groups.

K. C. Election

On Thursday evening of this week the Knights of Columbus will hold their annual election of officers in their beautiful new club house on Romana Street in San Antonio. A Kerrville representation will attend this important meeting. Some of the members participated in the monster parade last Sunday for the opening of the Central Convention of all affiliated German Catholic societies in the United States.

Father Kemper held his monthly engagement at Comfort on Sunday and administered the sacrament of baptism to the infant son of Ernest Offer, whom Father Kemper had united in marriage to Ella Esser while they resided in Kerrville. On the same occasion an adult convert received his First Holy Communion.

Another adult of one of the Protestant sects was admitted into the Mother Church on Wednesday by baptism. A convert class is in progress at present, and any honest inquirer is invited to join the ranks whether his ultimate object is to join the apostolic church or not.

Florin Sanchez, director of Mexican Orchestra, brought his brother, Silverio Fredolin, to the baptismal font at the Guadalupe Church. On Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week the quarterly En Days are observed.

Visitors

Mrs. Joseph Bader of Galveston is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Ed Kaiser and Mrs. Wm. Kuesel.

Rudolph Stehling has for guests Mrs. Thos. Anderson and her sister, Miss Lilly, of San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Kastny of the Alamo City, who had spent their honeymoon in Kerrville two years ago, came up for the week-end.

Other transients from the metropolis are H. W. Truchear, Mr. Anthony and Mrs. S. E.

We regret to lose the A. Wing, who moved on account of a bettering.

Michael and Al have been visiting Ambrose Torres, re to continue their nando High School.

Miss Margie Fater of the Notre Da. came back from her last on Labor Day.

Misses Gussie Kaiser, Lillie Newton and Wilhelmina Mosel were treated to a motor ride to Comfort by Miss Mary Mosel.

St. Mary's Convent. Besides housing the faculty it accommodates young lady boarders.

PILING UP HAPPINESS

DOES each year find you wishing and hoping for better things in the future—and regretting lack of accomplishment in the past?

There is one sure way to fill your horn of plenty to the brim with all the good things of life. It entails no sacrifice now. It merely means the forming of a good habit.

Save! That good old formula for success is as true now as when it helped build the fortunes of our pioneer railroad builders, manufacturers and promoters.

Applying it on a small scale in your own way will bring you results in proportion.

KERRVILLE'S OPPORTUNITY

Every individual is said to have at some time in life the opportunity to accomplish something worth while if availing himself of it. This is particularly true of towns and cities, as we see exemplified on every hand.

Nature has done a full measure in concentrating within the radius of Kerrville's environments sufficient advantages that will justify the considerable size city as and to populate Kerrville.

place, been laid for San Angelo, but the most Otto awaits taking was mark and grasping Monday, long it to realize.

Quite a gathering of more people crop is excess territory the heretofore at any the season. The will be more next year. Part of this influx this year was due to the extra accommodations at the Westminster Presbyterian Encampment and its more extensive publicity. There will be more improvements made there for next year and a still larger crowd.

Kerrville has also been more extensively advertised and will be for next season. This has resulted in more people coming here for health and recreation. And more will be here in future.

The completion of even the part of the Kerrville Sanatorium now under construction will bring many more people here to visit their relatives and friends who may be patients in that institution.

Now, to reap the full benefit of this expected increase in visitors and to make a favorable impression, as well as to properly care for them, is a duty that Kerrville must not shirk. It is going to require considerable planning, organization and hard work. If Kerrville citizens do not meet the situation and solve it satisfactorily, the people expected will not repeat their visits to the same extent, nor will they go away with praises for this city.

The Sun suggests a meeting of the citizens at some convenient time and have a luncheon spread so as to put those present in a friendly peace of mind, and then let us dissect this situation that presents itself and see if the remedy can't be presented and later solved.

JAB 'EM, UNCLE, JAB 'EM!

Junction Eagle: It is reported from Washington that Uncle Sam has annexed a sharp stick and is beginning to jab the profiteers, with the result that a decline in the price of living is announced.

Just where the decline is we don't know, but we hope it is somewhere. One thing, though, is certain. Uncle's stick will have to be mighty sharp and mighty long before it will make even a dent in the alligator hides of the gougers.

Gouging is a pleasant and lucrative pastime to the gougers—and they can hardly be expected to reform their ways until they feel the point of the stick or the weight of the "star spangled" foot.

But Washington says there is a decline, and because Washington says so it must be so.

But, personally, we decline to fall for a decline that declines to decline.

Ministers of Kerrville churches have the free use of all reasonable space they desire in The Sun to publish the programs, locals and other church matters connected with conducting the affairs of their work, and if this offer is not made use of, the fault is with the ministers. Such church news is of interest to the membership of each church and also others. It gives the opportunity for letting be known what is being accomplished in a religious way in Kerrville. It also might cause an increase in the attendance at the churches.

J. W. Burney came in the other day and asked that a local advertising certain article be omitted as they had sold out the stock earlier than expected. He stated that he couldn't find the local himself, but knew it was in the paper as everybody else appeared to have seen it and availed themselves of the opportunity to do as requested. Of course, they all read The Sun, and that is the way to sell anything you want to get rid of.

Thomas (who was chairman of the committee that escorted him to the platform), Mr. Neff produced a copy of the platform previously adopted by the convention.

"This is not my platform," he said. "It is the platform of the Democrats of Texas, and I am glad, as your nominee, to stand on that platform."

The Neff land plank, as such, is not in the platform, nor was it presented or proposed to the committee or convention. However, the platform contains an expression under the general subject of home-ownership that Mr. Neff construed as satisfactory on point. It reads: "With our abundant area of undeveloped and uncultivated agricultural land, the landless man and the manless land should be speedily brought together."

Mr. Neff referred to this in his speech accepting the nomination. "I did not write that plank," he said. "If I had I would have elaborated it. I would have declared the opening of the idle, uncultivated agricultural lands of this country to be one of our great problems, and would have declared for legislation that would be conducive to the putting of such lands, held in large tracts by alien owners, upon the market so homeseekers and home builders and home lovers could secure and develop them."

Mr. Neff commented also upon the labor plank of the platform—which is, in effect, the labor plank of the National Democratic platform. In that connection he said that he did not attribute his election to the attitude of "any class" in Texas.

"I did not denounce any class, nor was I the defender of any class," he continued. "I declared in the campaign and now I repeat that I will go into the Governor's office as the friend of both capital and labor."

"This is a splendid, beautiful platform," said Mr. Neff. "It is far reaching in its beneficence. There is enough merit in this platform to appeal to every man and woman, regardless of past political affiliations." At other points in his speech he "invited back" into the Democratic party all who may have gone from it, and, again, invited "all who believe in Democracy" to rally together on this platform.

Mr. Neff said that he intended to work, and work hard, as Governor of Texas. "I do not expect to be a meteor across the political skies of Texas," he added. "But I do intend, by hard faithful work, to try to render you some real service. I intend to be a steady-working plow horse; maybe not so much show and speed, but in the end I believe by long, hard, faithful work I can show you something done." He said that he goes into the Governor's office "solely to be of service to mankind," and he repeated a phrase he used in his first announcement, his first speech and frequently during the campaign—"I intend, if I can, to make Texas a better place in which to live."

There were tears in Mr. Neff's eyes and on his cheeks just before he came to the platform, while R. H. Hamilton of Port Lavaca was nominating him. His emotions seemed very intense toward the close of his speech of acceptance—the latter part of which was, really, a prayer for aid in the work he is to do—although it was not phrased in the form or ritual of such a supplication. As he concluded, in a low and husky voice, he turned and embraced his wife and daughter, who sat nearby on the platform. Then as the convention adjourned, he was surrounded by delegates and visitors who crowded around to greet and congratulate him.

Attention, Masons

On Saturday evening, September 14th, at 5:30 o'clock, Kerrville Lodge No. 697, A. F. & A. M., will give a barbecue for Masons at Lakeside Park. Members of lodges at Fredericksburg, Willow City, Boern, Center Point, Bandera and Junction are invited to attend.

After the barbecue we will repair to the lodge room, where a team of prominent Scottish Rite Masons from San Antonio, headed by P. D. Mathis, will confer the Master Masons Degree upon two candidates. Lodge will be opened at 8 o'clock.

We are hoping for a good representation from all lodges invited, also that our own members will turn out in force to welcome the visitors. All visiting brethren are cordially invited to attend. Come and have a good time.

A SUCCESS Built On Superior Prescription Service

If you will serve successful drug stores in any community, you will find that most of them owe their success to the development of some special department of their business.

Some of the modern drug shops give more attention to side lines than they do to the dispensing of drugs or the compounding of prescriptions.

Our principal success has come through our Prescription Department. This is true because we have a reputation for providing the best and most drugs and unexcelled service. We have never permitted side lines to detract from our original and most important business—Pharmacy.

Let us fill your prescriptions and supply your other drug needs.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix H. Watson, from their ranch near Junction, visited Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Davey of Kerrville and left their son, Joe, here to attend the Public Schools. Mrs. Watson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davey.

Fredericksburg Standard, Sept. 11: Sheriff Alfred Klaerner arrested a man near Harper last Monday and two at Cherry Springs last Tuesday. It is alleged that these three men are soldiers from Camp Travis and are accused of stealing in Center Point and Harper. When arrested they wore civilian clothes. The two men arrested at Cherry Springs are here in the county jail.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. King were pleasant callers at The Sun office Monday. Mrs. King is the capable Hunt correspondent of this paper. She attended the State Democratic Convention at Fort Worth. She was a strong advocate of the nomination of Pat M. Neff, and says he is an able man and will make a highly creditable Governor. We trust she is right, but we "are from Missouri" in this instance.

You Get the Goods and More Besides

We Are Interested in Our Implements After You Buy Them

If you were to buy an implement from a peddler, here today and gone tomorrow, you would get only the implement.

The peddler wouldn't be interested in whether or not the implement would give you satisfaction afterward.

The immediate sale—getting your money—would be his only concern.

If the implement proved a disappointment, you would have no recourse—the peddler and your money would be gone.

We couldn't afford to sell implements in that way—no more than you could afford to buy them on that basis.

Because our store is established in this community, instead of being a transient or far-away concern, we are vitally concerned in the satisfaction that our implements give after they leave our store.

We know that we can't make future sales by selling unreliable goods.

We do business over and over with the same people, and the extent of our business depends upon how well we serve, again and again, the people of this community.

To make it as easy as possible to meet this obligation, we handle the highest grade of implements. And, if anything proves wrong in the use of any of these implements, we take steps to find and remedy the trouble.

The confidence of the people of this community, built on good goods and good service, means more to us than anything else.

Make our store your headquarters when in town.

BAILEY IS INSPECTING HORSES IN KENTUCKY

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 13.—Former United States Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey of Gainesville, Texas, who was recently defeated for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination of the Lone Star State by Pat M. Neff, prominent Waco lawyer, has arrived here for a short stay.

While here, Senator Bailey will inspect his trotting horses, which are quartered on a bluegrass farm near this place.

The defeated candidate declined to discuss politics with newspaper men and said that he was here for a few days' rest from his recent arduous campaign, to look over his horses and to inspect the farm, four miles from this city, where, it is rumored, that he intends to have erected a summer home before long.

Before returning to Texas, he will go to Washington and New York.

Married at Kyle

San Antonio Express, Sept. 13: Mr. and Mrs. I. K. Howell of Georgetown, Texas, arrived in the city last night and registered at the Gunter Hotel for a week's honeymoon. The marriage was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nance, parents of Miss Flora Lee Nance, the bride, in Kyle yesterday in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

Mr. Howell is a ranchman of Texas and Oklahoma, and a commission and live stock merchant.

Mrs. Howell has a number of friends here, having made several visits at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bunbury.

SAMMY SAVER SAYS

It's high time folks quit trying to keep up with the Joneses, Sammy says. Folks with two-bit incomes shouldn't try to act like their grand mother had died and left them the Bank of England. Lots of folks are wearing their sales on their backs while their grocer is charging up their accounts to the profit and loss column.

A War Savings Stamp or two gotten at the postoffice every payday means more in the long run—and life is a long old run, Sammy Saver says.

OTTO H. KAHN SAYS GROWN-UPS SHOULD BUY SAVINGS STAMPS

Dallas, Texas.—"It really seems odd that some people think the Savings movement with investment in War Savings Stamps and Registered Treasury Savings Certificates is a sort of child's game," said Dinmore W. Hume, Federal District Director of Savings for the Eleventh Federal Reserve District. "This is in direct conflict with the belief of Otto H. Kahn, of the great international banking house of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., of New York."

In a recent personal letter to Mr. Hume, Mr. Kahn says: "No safer, more attractive or more convenient medium for savings was ever offered in this or any other country than our War Savings Stamps and Registered Treasury Savings Certificates. Their advantages are well known and universally appreciated. It is the duty of all banks and bankers throughout the nation to aid and assist the Thrift campaign of the Government in its efforts to induce people to place their savings in War Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates. By so doing they will complete and perpetuate a valuable public service done by them with such splendid patriotism and admirable efficiency during the war."

Such an opinion expressed by a man of Mr. Kahn's undoubted ability as a financier and student of world affairs, admits no argument; surely if a man of Mr. Kahn's prominence sees in this movement a place for his activities, if a man accustomed as he is to big things in finance, gives such an endorsement to the Thrift movement, it may well become any business man or other person or any banker, to follow Mr. Kahn's example.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK SAYS 753,960 BOUGHT FOURTH LIBERTY BONDS

Dallas, Texas.—When the Fourth Liberty Loan Drive was on in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District, 753,960 persons bought bonds, according to Dinmore W. Hume, Savings Director of Dallas. The entire amount, value of 34¢, bonds then bought was $145,988,525. Interest on these bonds is due semiannually, the next payment coming October 15, 1920. At that time the interest to be paid will be $2,192,231.15. A like sum will be payable on March 15, 1921. Regret has been expressed in banking circles that many bond owners have never presented their interest coupons for payment, as is contemplated by the government.

DESIRE SAVINGS TAUGHT TO TEXAS SCHOOL PUPILS

The Texas Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers' Association has pledged its undivided support to the Government Savings Division in getting the fundamental principles of thrift and savings taught in Texas schools. Mrs. E. A. Watters of Fort Worth, president of the Congress, has advised Dinmore W. Hume of Dallas, Federal District Director of the Government Savings Division, that she believes every school child should be taught these lessons in school which will so materially contribute to its opportunities for success and progress in life. Texas school children alone now own more than $13,000,000 of Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps.

The National bill for pianos, graphophones and records, all luxuries, was $104,446,724. That sounds like jazz, not thrift. It should have bought $4,668,268 War Savings Stamps.

MEXICAN EXHIBIT LEAVES FOR TEXAS

The big Mexican National Exhibit, feature of this year's State Fair of Texas, will be en route to Dallas by September 12, reaching the State Fair grounds about September 17. This information was contained in a telegram just received from Luis Lupian, secretary of General J. B. Trevino of the department of Commerce and Industry at Mexico City by the State Fair management. Mr. Lupian stated also that the official coterie of Mexican ministers and high officials, probably ten in number, will accompany the exhibit to Dallas at that time.

At a later date between 300 and 500 Mexican business men will arrive in Dallas, to be guests of the State Fair of Texas from October 9 to 24.

DUROC ROUND-UP TO BE HELD IN DALLAS

Dallas, Texas.—State Fair of Texas officials announce that Dallas and the state fair grounds have been chosen as the scene of the 1920 Southwest National round-up of Duroc-Jersey futu-urity pigs, given annually under the auspices of the National Duroc-Jersey association, and this year affiliated with the Texas Duroc Breeders' association and the State Fair management.

The round-up is a competitive affair and each year attracts hundreds of breeders from throughout the United States. This year a total of $2,409 in prizes has been guaranteed.

SHEEP EXHIBITS WILL BE LARGE THIS YEAR

Dallas, Texas.—A greater interest is being manifested in the sheep division of the State Fair of Texas this year at this time than during any previous year, according to announcement just made by J. M. Jones of the Texas A. & M. college, who is superintendent of that division. "Not only have the premium classifications in this division been increased states Mr. Jones, but in addition a modern, commodious sheep barn has been completed, which will be ready for occupancy at the opening of the fair. Mr. Jones has called attention of sheep men to the fact that Rule 14 in the sheep and goat division reads this year as follows: "Flock—A flock shall consist of one ram any age, one ewe two years old or over, one yearling ewe, and one ewe lamb."

She is entering the college under a scholarship won by her at the State Fair of Texas last year, award of which has just been sent to her credit to President F. M. Brawley at Denton by Secretary W. H. Stratton of the State Fair.

Seven scholarships for boys and girls of the Texas clubs are offered this year by the State Fair of Texas, which opens October 9 and continues until October 24.

MEXICAN CONSUL IS BUSY AT STATE FAIR

Consul Roberto Garcia, representing the Mexican government in Dallas, is actively engaged just now in aiding preparations at the State Fair of Texas Coliseum for arrival of the mass of exhibits from Mexico which this year make up the great Mexican National Exhibit, foremost feature of the exposition, October 9 to 24.

GREAT MEXICAN BAND COMING TO STATE FAIR

Don't fail, when you attend the State Fair of Texas, which of course you are going to, to hear that Estado Mayor Band from Mexico City, one of the most famous musical organizations in the world. It consists of 100 pieces and is sent to the State Fair of Texas by the Mexican government.

"SMILES OF 1920" IS STATE FAIR FEATURE

A message from Mars is coming to the State Fair of Texas, dates of which are October 9 to 24, at Dallas. The message from Mars is the theme of an elaborate scenic extravaganza, taking the form of a musical revue, staged by the noted French producer, Emil de Recat, and known as De Recat's "Smiles of 1920."

De Recat and his scenic artists are already on the grounds at Dallas preparing for the extravaganza. An afternoon and night performance will begin each day at the State Fair of Texas. This will be the first time that the production has been shown the public, the French producer choosing the State Fair of Texas' gigantic coliseum to offer his elaborate Revue to the theatre world.

1921 MODELS ARE COMING TO STATE FAIR OF TEXAS

Dallas, Texas.—State Fair of Texas officials have never doubted that the 1920 automobile exhibit at the 1920 fair would exceed previous exhibits at these grounds, but it has come seriously to the attention of officials now preparing for the exposition that the huge automobile building, despite the added space made available by extensive improvements, is not going to be able to accommodate the large list of entries. To provide for an overflow the merry-go-round and figure eight, former landmarks of the state fair grounds, have been torn down. All automobiles exhibited at the State Fair this year will be 1921 models, the State Fair of Texas having the distinction of showing these models first in the United States, as all other exposition dates are too early for manufacturers to release their 1921 designs.

MEXICO'S TOLD ABOUT STATE FAIR

Fifteen thousand eight page booklet, printed in Spanish have been mailed by the State Fair of Texas to as many business men and Chambers of Commerce in Mexico relating the extent of the State Fair this year, with especial reference to the big Mexican National Exhibit which is a foremost feature of this year's exposition. The Spanish booklet is one of the most elaborate publicity attempts ever undertaken by the State Fair and is being given wide circulation throughout the Southern Republic. The book was printed in four colors and highly illustrated.

SCHOLARSHIP GOES TO TEXAS WINNER

Dallas, Texas.—Miss Dow Murray, Route 4, Stephenville, Texas, will be one of the new students at the College of Industrial Arts, Denton, Texas, next term.

She is entering the college under a scholarship won by her at the State Fair of Texas last year, award of which has just been sent to her credit to President F. M. Brawley at Denton by Secretary W. H. Stratton of the State Fair.

What Good Is a Dollar?

IT'S LARGELY UP TO YOU. It depends on how you spend it—on the value to you of what you get for it—on your ability to find where that value is to be had.

Of course, it's all right to shop around a bit if you like, but why not let the other fellow make it easier for you by doing a little shopping after your dollar—by showing you what you want and where you can get most of it for your money?

It's a great idea, once you get the hang of it. There's how!

It in The Mountain Sun you'll find numerous advertisements offering you merchandise. Some things you'll need today; some tomorrow; some next week or next year—but the point is that these merchants are coming to you, looking for your dollar and offering the best they have to get it.

You'll find, that by reading the advertisements in The Mountain Sun consistently this week and every week, you can increase the value—to yourself—of every dollar you have to spend. The things you see advertised are almost invariably as represented. The advertisers' statements are usually safer to trust than your own judgment. Advertised misrepresentation is business suicide.

the nuns until the end of August, or it is the encampment of an organization like the Daughters of Isabella. The fact that Notre Dame Institute is a veritable gem in its artistic setting, and that its conveniences from an educational, sanitary, or Christian standpoint are unsurpassed by any diocesan parochial school in her category, makes this school not only an illustrious monument of its magnanimous founder, Wm. Kemper, but also one of the greatest assets of the Hill Country encircling Kerrville. The pastor of both parishes is also superintendent of the respective schools, namely Rev. Henry M. Kemper, Ph. D., S. T. L., M. A., Litt. B., who came to the healthy "Texas Alps" on February 28th, 1911, soon after his ordination (December 8th, 1910) by Most Rev. Quigley in the Poor Clare Convent of Chicago.

Edwards County Echoes

Leader, Sept. 10: C. A. Pepper reports good sales of billies this season. The best buck he sold was to Sam Parker of Harper, and the price paid was $750.

According to reports, the Henderson well in Eastern Crockett County is now down 4,950 feet, and is said to be the deepest well between California and Virginia. They still have good indications of oil.

W. B. Kirchner and son, George, of Barksdale were in the county seat Monday. Mr. Kirchner says a whole lot of citizens down in his part of the county are favoring an election to do away with that last $300,000 of road bonds.

The Kerrville Mountain Sun had a half column last week, telling of the Rocksprings business men giving the Empire Oil and Fuel Co. a bonus of $10,000 as an inducement for them to drill to an unusual depth in the well on the Boggs & Rust ranch. The local people are wondering how this report got started. There is not a word of truth in it. The Empire people have not asked for help.

Farmers to Organize

Comfort News.
To the farmers in general and to the farmers of the Comfort community in particular:

Though I am not a strong believer in organization and think all business should be regulated by supply and demand, still as all other classes of people have organized except the farmers, who at present get less wages per hour than any laborer, I think it is now time for the farmer to organize if he does not want to be a slave.

We farmers should not only organize but co-operate with our business men, whom we should regard as our friends at all times, instead of only at those times when we have a subscription list for some new enterprise for which we are soliciting aid.

Last April the farmers of North Creek and Cypress Creek organized, and we had several interesting meetings. At the last meeting a resolution was passed to have a meeting in Comfort in the near future, at which all farmers are invited to be present. Senator Julius Real has kindly accepted an invitation to address the meeting. The exact date of the meeting will be advertised in The Comfort News later; perhaps it will be on September 25.

The members of the Cypress Creek Council will be pleased to meet all of you there. Very sincerely, HUGO WIENFELD.

News, Sept. 9: Arthur H. Ingenhuett will leave Saturday for Terrell, Texas, where he will have charge of the department of modern languages at the Texas Military College.

Mrs. J. L. Tullis and daughter, Miss Edith, of Kerrville, who have been spending the past week here, will leave tomorrow for San Marcos. Mr. Tullis joined them here on Wednesday, and will accompany them as far as San Antonio.

The fifteenth annual Kendall County Fair, which was held at the fair grounds near Boerne on September 3, 4 and 5, proved to be a record breaker in several respects. Favored by fine weather during the greater part of the three days, this year's fair enjoyed an attendance which surpassed even the very sanguine expectations of its promoters. The number of people present on the first day made a gratifying total; those who attended on the second day were so numerous as to make it the biggest day that the fair had ever known, and then came Sunday, the third day, with an attendance of 4,500 persons, and 991 automobiles, which wiped out the preceding day's record and set a new one that will not be easy to eclipse. The total attendance for the three days

OUR POLICY IS NOT TO SIDE STEP

Did you ever notice how peculiar most of us humans are in the matter of sidestepping? The man who can't play golf dubs it "an old man's game"; the chap who can't dance will side step a two-step and ask his partner to "sit it out" with him; the man who never had the pluck or price to go to Europe shouts "See America First!" One of the firmest policies of this firm is not to side step. We tell you what we have and we tell you the whole truth, not half truths. We don't claim to be infallible—all we can do is to try to have everything you want just when you want it and at prices that are reasonable. You may be sure that anything and everything you purchase from us is just as represented. If for any reason you think you have not received value for your money, bring back the goods. If you don't want them we don't want you to have them. We spend a lot of time studying your needs and means, and when we put anything in our stock you may be sure it is worth all we ask, most times a little more. We step straight ahead successfully, because our policy is never to side step.

was about 12,000 persons. The fair's receipts from other sources were equally gratifying, and the directors believe that, after paying all expenses of this year's fair, they will have a balance sufficiently large to pay off the entire standing debt, which amounts to $4,250.

Bandera Budget

New Era, Sept. 9: Miss Minnie Hudspeth of Kerrville, visited her aunt, Mrs. Mary Hudspeth, here last Saturday.

O. F. Thallman killed a monster rattlesnake Wednesday morning on the road to town from his ranch. It measured about 5½ feet and had 14 rattlers, with a number broken off.

Jas. E. Hughes, special representative of the Wood-Texas Company, of Charleston, W. Va., and Judge Sam

O'Bryant, field representative of the company, spent Tuesday night in Bandera. Mr. Hughes is well pleased with the work done by Judge O'Bryant, and with the progress being made. They report the drill going ahead and no serious obstacles encountered. Judge O'Bryant says he is receiving applications for purchase of stock from all sections of the country since his letter appeared in this paper.

The Leader again has nothing to report about the San Antonio, Rocksprings & Western, and the raising of the bonus for same. No new bonus notes have been signed. Sometimes we are asked what the company is doing toward starting work on the new road. Well, we don't know. Our citizens can more consistently ask what the railroad company is doing when we have done what was expected of us—springs Leader.

There is sadly too little interest in the railroad at Bandera. Some are anxious for the road and are willing to subscribe liberally, while others are indifferent. What we need is to get some good solid subscriptions, and see the people and get
