PAMPA GRAVE MYSTERY IS PROBED

WOMAN'S VISCERA IS SENT TO AUSTIN; GRAVE OPENED

(By The Associated Press)

PAMPA, Jan. 29—Discovery that the grave of Mrs. Clyde Felvher, who died here recently, had been opened, led authorities today to send the viscera to Austin for chemical examination.

The woman was found dead in an automobile a short time ago. Coroner James Todd, jr., rendered a verdict of death due to alcoholism.

Found Shovel

The coroner late yesterday ordered the grave opened after the cemetary caretaker had reported finding a shovel and freshly turned earth beside it. Dr. V. E. Von Brunow examined the body and found that it apparently had been taken from the casket, then replaced and the grave refilled. The physician said that the body had not been molested but stockings worn at the time of burial had been removed. Partly burned matches and clods of earth were found in the casket.

Slight Improvement Noted In Miss Carr

A slight show of improvement in the condition of Miss Beatrice Carr, 19-year-old Lubbock girl who was critically wounded Monday night at Brownfield, was noted by attending physicians at the Lubbock sanitarium this morning.

The young girl was shot through the right lung and Mrs. J. Hugh Walker, also of Lubbock, is being held in the Terry county jail on a charge of assault with intent to murder in connection with the case.

A preliminary hearing has not been asked in the case and District Attorney T. L. Price, of Post, has declared that he will oppose efforts at bond for Mrs. Walker until the condition of Miss Carr has been determined. He also intimated that a speedy trial would be asked for Mrs. Walker.

The Terry county grand jury will investigate the case next Monday morning and there is a possibility that it will be set for trial the latter part of next week or the week following, according to Mr. Price.

Missing Ranger Rancher Found In Callahan County

WES MARSHBANKS SAFE BUT CAN'T TELL OF HIS WANDERINGS

(By The Associated Press)

RANGER, Jan. 29.—A three days' intensive search for Wes Marshbanks, 50, of Ranger, ended at Putnam, Callahan county, this morning when the missing ranchman was found, tired but in good health, by an old acquaintance, C. S. Flournoy.

Flournoy took Marshbanks to his Ranger home, and today the ranchman was resting in seclusion he said he did not recall leaving his ranch last Sunday morning, adding: "It seems to me I left home yesterday morning." He said he spent last night in a Putnam hotel.

Boots Cut Away

Marshbanks looked greatly worn. The boots he was wearing when he disappeared had been cut away, and he was wearing the tops with shoes underneath.

Flournoy, an oil field worker living north of Putnam, knew Marshbanks but had not seen him in five years. This morning, while driving his children to school, he saw the missing man in front of the Putnam hotel, and hailed him. They talked a moment, then Flournoy took his children to school and drove back to the hotel. Marshbanks was waiting.

UNIT ADDED TO FIRE SERVICE

NEWEST TYPE OF FIRE FIGHTING EQUIPMENT IS PURCHASED

Estimated to cost about $600, addition of one of the newest types of fire fighting equipment to the Lubbock fire department was announced by officials today. The new unit will probably be in use within the next ninety days.

Known as a booster pump unit, the new machine will carry about 300 feet of one-inch hose and 150 gallons of water. It will be equipped with a pump capable of delivering the water at 100 pounds pressure.

Answer All Calls

Fire Chief Twitty explains that the new unit will probably answer all first calls, due to its speed and facility in handling. It will be able to get at the root of fires immediately and will do away with the old chemical process. City officials stated that the booster pump equipment only came into practice during the last two years but that it has proven to be very practical wherever tried.

All equipment will be built on a Packard chassis and installation

SENATE CONSIDERING INVESTIGATION OF FLUCTUATIONS IN PRICE TRENDS OF COMMODITIES, SECURITIES, FOODS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A proposal for a general investigation of fluctuations in commodity and security prices was pending today in the senate, which previously had ordered inquiries into bread, sugar and meat costs.

The broad study of prices would be conducted by a special civilian commission appointed by Vice-President Curtis. Its purpose would be the determination of causes and remedies for price fluctuation.

Proposed In Resolution

It was proposed in a resolution introduced yesterday by Senator Steiwer, Republican, Oregon. The measure went over for future consideration.

The meat price investigation was added to the bread and sugar inquiry of a special committee headed by Senator Capper, Republican, Kansas, late yesterday. It was proposed by Senator Carey, Republican, Wyoming, and approved unanimously.

To Employ Investigators

Capper called the committee together for a meeting today to employ special investigators for the bread and sugar studies. He said these would proceed ahead of the meat investigation.

The committee at present is seeking to determine whether bread prices have declined in conformity with wheat quotations and, if not, the reason and remedy.

The commission proposed by Steiwer would be directed, under his resolution, to "consider all factors influencing price relationships and all practices which may directly or indirectly depress the prices paid to producers or enhance the prices paid by consumers of food products, including all practices which influence said relationships by affecting credits and values of securities and commodities.

DALLAS FAILS TO RESPOND

WILL ROGERS GRUMBLES OVER APPEARANCE IN METROPOLIS

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Jan. 29.—Still grumbling because a mere audience of 1,996 turned out here last night to hear his appeal for drouth relief, Will Rogers planned today to hop by plane to South Texas. His schedule called for an appearance during early afternoon at Port Arthur, at Beaumont later in the day and at Houston in the evening. He will reach Fort Worth Friday.

The audience which greeted America's favorite jester here last night contributed the official sum of $3,896 to the Red Cross fund. Rogers grumbled about it from the stage. He rubbed it in that smaller cities had paid more money to hear him.

GAS IS BELIEVED TO HAVE CAUSED BLAST; BODIES BURNED

(By The Associated Press)

LINTON, Ind., Jan. 29—The lives of 29 miners were snuffed out in an explosion at the Little Betty coal mine near here late yesterday. With the rescue of two men last night and seven more this morning, all of the men in the mine had been accounted for.

Identification of the victims proceeded slowly. Many of the bodies were so badly burned and disfigured a check of the dead was difficult.

Cause Believed Gas

The cause of the explosion had not been definitely ascertained this morning. Soon after the blast, it was understood the accident had been caused by a spark igniting a quantity of blasting powder. Later reports, however, stated the explosive had been found intact and that the disaster was the result of a gas explosion.

The dreaded "black damp" quickly filled the passages of the mine and hampered the work of rescue crews.

Two Barricaded Themselves

The men who were rescued this morning had barricaded themselves in an entry off one of the main corridors.

Throughout the night a constant stream of ambulances made their way from Linton to the Little Betty mine four and a half miles west. Hurriedly mobilized civilian guards endeavored to organize traffic and keep a lane open for the conveyances.

At the mine mouth serious faced men and women huddled in groups. A shaft covered the clay and spec-

OPERA STAR GETS HIGHEST AIR PAY

BY C. E. BUTTERFIELD
Associated Press Radio Editor

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—The amount of money involved in some of the contracts signed by broadcast artists apparently is to have no limit.

Such sums as $100,000 for a 26 weeks period by Maurice Chevalier, $5,000 per broadcast by Will Rogers and even the $15,000 Jascha Heifets was reported to have received for a single broadcast seems to have been topped.

It's the amount involved in the contract signed by Mme. Frances Alda, former operatic soprano, to appear once a week on a WEAF group and once a wek on WJZ and stations for a total of 104 fifteen minute periods.

A statement issued today said: "The quarter of a million dollar exclusive contract under which Frances Alda broadcasts twice a week over a period of 52 weeks was made by her with the Judon Radio Program corporation, division of the Columbia Concerts corporation, and was signed January 8."

This series began last week.

BODY IS HUNG FROM BRIDGE SAID TO HAVE SLAIN 6

(By The Associated Press)

SCHAFER, N. D., Jan. 29.—Charles Bannon, 22, confessed slayer of six members of the A. E. Haven family, was lynched by a mob here early today.

Overpowering a deputy sheriff, the mob broke into the Schafer jail, took Bannon to a bridge two miles east of here and hanged him. James F. Bannon, father of Charles, also held in connection with the Haven slayings, was not molested.

Tie Up Deputy

The mob arrived at the jail about 1 a. m., surrounded Deputy Sheriff Peter S. Hallan and tied him to a chair. Members of the crowd took the younger Bannon from his cell and spirited him away in automobiles.

Sheriff F. A. Thompson, aroused by the commotion, was seized and also tied up.

Although the mob was intent only on getting Charles Bannon, the latter pleaded that his father be not harmed. "Save my dad," he urged. He was told that the elder Bannon "would be given a chance" with the courts and would not be harmed by the mob.

Dropped Twenty Feet

Reaching the bridge, a rope was fastened to the railing and a slip-knot placed around Bannon's neck. He was pushed off the rail and dropped about twenty feet.

The mob dispersed. No shots were fired and, save for the sheriff and his deputy being tied up, no one else was bothered.

Sheriff Thompson, who lives two blocks from the jail, was seized when he came to investigate the noise of timbers breaking down the doors.

Were To Face Trial Friday

Young Bannon was brought to

All taxes unpaid by February 1, under provisions of the bill, would start drawing ten per cent interest. October 15 was given as the final date for payment of 1930 taxes.

To Charge Delinquents

After that date a five per cent delinquent tax penalty would go into effect.

A provision included by the O'Neal bill and incorporated in free conference committee's bill would allow taxes to be paid in two installments.

The tax bill stood out as the largest legislative accomplishment this session.

The house yesterday passed a resolution on a vote of 98 to 30, extolling the benefits of prohibition. The resolution admitted that the prohibition laws were being flagrantly violated but added that the state had benefitted by prohibition and opposed modification or repeal.

LONGVIEW NEWSPAPER MAN BLAMES SANTA CLAUS FOR $90,000 LOSS

(By The Associated Press)

LONGVIEW, Jan. 29.—Cyril Parker, young newspaper man of Longview, blames Santa Claus for a loss of at least $90,000, an amount he figured he would have made in the new East Texas oil field here if he had not succomed to a bankering for "a little Christmas money."

Early last spring he bought a 62-acre lease for $15 and when the lease rental became due December 1—a few days before drilling started on the big Lathrop discovery well—he sold his holdings for $2 an acre and made a few dollars.

R. C. Clemons, theater manager, who bought half of Parker's lease sold to one of the major companies for $1,500 an acre, yesterday.

"I sold because Christmas was coming on," Parker said. "I was married only last May and I wanted a little bit of Santa Claus for our first Christmas."

CHILDREN ANNOY PARENTS IN 2,124 WAYS; DISOBEDIENCE IS GREATEST

BY W. J. DAVIS.

ATHENS, Ga., Jan. 29 (AP)—There are 2,124 ways in which children annoy parents.

Dr. Mandel Sherman, director of the Child Research center, Washington, D. C., made that statement here today before the 24th annual farmers week and marketing conference at the Georgia State college of agriculture.

Dr. Sherman said a survey was made by 33 parents, who were asked to keep account of the ways in which their children annoyed them. They carried small notebooks around with them and kept a record each day of the week.

The greatest number of annoyances, Dr. Sherman said, was caused by disobedience, but all sorts of conditions were put down as annoying. Some parents were annoyed because their children were too slow, others because they were too quick or alert. A few parents were annoyed because the children

CHILD FACES DANGER IN SHOWING OFF BEFORE ADULTS

A little while ago I observed a program given by the young children of the Sunday school before the whole school filling a large auditorium. It was dignified, impressive, brief.

No little tots were send out on the platform alone to be so embarrassed as to forget their pieces, or to be laughed at for their cunningness. They appeared in groups talking together, singing in concert, doing team work.

I have come away from similar exercises enraged at what I saw and heard. Babies scarcely able to toddle lisping little songs or verses, roared at by the audience when they did anything unexpected of adults, laughed at in the midst of their performance; little children saying things which they thought were sacred but which, they discovered, big people of the church treated as mere jokes. Then how long the program was dragged out. The older children looked disgusted since they had no part in it. The weary little ones not engaged in the performance wriggled, lost interest and wanted to go home.

Those who with great diligence and patience train the little children for such a program don't have in mind the children. An entertainment is being put on for the grown-ups.

Why make such a program practice in our Christian churches? Why offer up the personalities of little children as a sacrifice to inconsiderate, unappreciative and unsympathetic adults? Many of the toddlers suffer; they often get a degraded notion of things they had learned to treat reverently; and a few are trained in vanity. The little child who alone spouts off pieces in public or at home before guests so as to win strong approval, is in grave danger of becoming priggish. He soon craves for more attention than he ought to have, and for more than he will get bye and bye. When, at last, he feels a falling off of marvel and surprise at his cleverness, he suffers terribly. He may become annoying to adults, avoided by his playmates. There is no more pathetic figure than a child of four or five who had been shown off until he became so repellant as to be sunned by other children, and adults.

If you have a child precocious in music, it may encourage him to practice if you have him play occasionally before your friends. But keep in mind that grave dangers face him and that, therefore, you are going to do your utmost not to ruin him.

As a rule, it is not good for children to perform individually in public, nor at home before company. Let the family and a few close friends be ample auditors to stimulate accomplishments.

A little child well educated in the home does not expect undue attention by the family's guests, but takes his proper place as a worthy member of the group, listening and joining in the conversation in a natural and reasonable manner. He is not ignored nor improperly played up.

Diets And Exercises For Reducing Are Features Of Lecture Today

Lecture On Friday Is Last Of Series

The fourth of a series of lectures in the Avalanche-Journal Charm school is being delivered this afternoon by Miss Nancy Earle at the Uptown Dance Palace on the topic, "Excess Baggage."

The school will end tomorrow afternoon with a lecture for women at 2:30 o'clock in the Palace. A feature for the afternoon will be a showing of lingerie.

At the conclusion of this afternoon's talk, Miss Earle is to demonstrate exercises for reducing and for toning up the body physically. Her talk will be in two parts, dealing with mental as well as physical "excess baggage." Reducing diets and foods for building up the body are to be included in the lecture today. Wednesday's lecture on "Face Facts" mental and physical, drew a crowd of several hundred women. The talk was concluded with a demonstration of correct ways of cleaning the face, removing wrinkles and caring for a dry skin.

Laughter Extolled

The value of a sense of humor, of a smile, one's mental attitude toward "nerves" and the danger of falling into a dull routine of household work were discussed by Miss Earle on Wednesday. Her panacea for many troubles was the substitution of one thought for another—the substitution of a good book for thoughts of troubles and the acquiring of interests outside the actual duties of the home. "Nervousenss" is often a mental attitude, she said, rather than a physical ailment and it can be cured with a little effort, she added, offering suggestions for avoiding drabness in personality and in dress.

Ways of overcoming overweight and underweight conditions are to be suggested in the school this afternoon and Miss Earle is to give platform demonstrations of exercises at the end of the afternoon.

Tomorrow's lecture, which will start at 2:30 o'clock, will be for women exclusively.

FIFTEEN CITIES IN MILLION CLASS IN UNITED STATES

BY CHARLES HONGE

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—Literal Uncle Sam says there now are five cities in the United States with a population in excess of one million, against three in 1920; but a more poetic license reveals that actually there are 15 municipalities in the magic million class.

Whatever Uncle Sam's 1930 census takers may say, the citizens of those municipalities always talk in terms of "greater city" millions.

Is Question Now

Whether the 1940 census count actually will show at least 12 cities with more than a million depends on how these cities and their suburbs solve the problems of union.

Already several municipalities are trying to do something about it through legislative action, annexation or rewording of charters.

The paradox of a metropolitan community listed by Uncle Sam at approximately a third of its actual strength is presented by Boston.

Boston proper has 781,188 citizens by the 1930 census, but 1,935,167 persons were counted in the closely packed network of 43 cities and towns separated as a rule by arbitrary and artificial boundaries.

Two Bills Introduced

Two bills have been introduced in the Massachusetts legislature, including one by Mayor Curley, for unification "in degree," establishing a municipal corporation in which the smaller towns would have local autonomy.

Where are these 15 potential million souled communities?

The government lists New York City, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, and Los Angeles, the latter two having climbed in the band wagon since 1920.

But New York actually has four boroughs — Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens and the Bronx, each with more than a million population. The Bronx and Queens likewise crossed the million mark since 1920.

Considering the boroughs separately, Brooklyn, which has outgrown Father Manhattan, is second city in the land with 2,560,401 population.

Complaints Made On Crossing Of Lawns

Numerous complaints have been received by the several departments of the city regarding a habit of Lubbock school children in walking across lawns of homes on their way to and from school. An appeal is being made today to parents of all children, asking that they give every cooperation posible in eliminating the practice.

Superintendent M. H. Duncan stated today that the question will be presented to all grades in the schools and teachers will seek to enlist children in a campaign to safeguard property of others.

It was said this morning that a majority of the complaints have been received from residents between the Dupre and Senior High schools and from those two buildings on into the business district.

There is no ordinance in the city statutes which cover such procedure, officials revealed, and its only elimination must come through cooperation of parents and children with teachers and local officials.

Be sure it's Kotex

if you want safe, sanitary protection

SAFETY! Security! A feeling of real protection—you simply must have those qualities in a sanitary pad. And to get them it is wise to specify Kotex.

Kotex, you know, is the sanitary pad that is shaped to fit. It absorbs laterally, which means that you get a larger area of protection than ordinary pads give you.

And you can wear Kotex on either side in perfect safety. It gives you the same degree of efficiency. Kotex stays soft, and it deodorizes, too. It is so easy to dispose of. Assures you of that daintiness particular women demand at all times.

Hospitals use quantities of Kotex for their women patients. They find nothing else so satisfactory.

CREAMERY AT RALLS ACTIVE

COMMUNITY PLANT IS PROVING SUCCESS; ROUTES OPERATED

By Staff Correspondent

RALLS, Jan. 29.—One of the successful community industries in Crosby county is the Crosby county Creamery, located in Ralls and a cooperative organization, financed by local capital and operated by local men.

The concern is housed in a handsome new brick building and began operation a little over a year ago. The first date of operation was December 30, 1929.

The plant is now turning out between 2,000 and 2,500 pounds of butter a week, depending on the demand. The product is sold in Ralls and the county generally, with a considerable sale being established in towns as far away as Brownfield.

City Route Operating

Bulgarian buttermilk and pasturized butter as well as raw milk, pasturized, are products of the plant. A city route for delivery of milk is in operation and it has a large number of customers.

The milk supply is from farmers in the trade territory of Ralls.

Eggs and poultry are also handled from time to time.

J. Edd McLaughlin, local banker, is president. Carey Stark is manager of the plant.

The machinery is new and modern, an experienced buttermaker is employed and the force is kept busy handling the business.

Farmers and owners of dairy cattle credit the creamery with keeping up the price of butterfat and cream. The competition of the local concern was the means of causing buyers from other sections to offer higher prices according to several farmers who have discussed the matter with farmers of other communities.

How Good Doctors Treat Bad Colds

Medical writers agree that the important point in the treatment of a cold, or cough due to a cold, is to relieve the congestion in the nose and throat, thereby preventing serious complications which may follow a neglected cold. To stop this congestion calomel was the accepted and standard remedy until Calotabs, the improved calomel compound tablet was introduced.

Now that science has robbed calomel of its nausea and danger, making it pleasant to take and perfectly safe for general use, over forty million Calotabs are consumed in the U. S. yearly with only the most pleasant and satisfactory results. In millions of homes Calotabs have proven their superiority in the prompt relief of colds and coughs due to colds.

One or two Calotabs at bed-time with a glass of sweet milk or water. No salts necesary. No nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning the congestion has subsided, your cold or coughs is relieved, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish,—no danger.

Get a family package of Calotabs, containing full directions, only thirty-five cents. Trial size, ten cents. At any drug store. (adv.)

SCHOOL PUPILS OF TODAY CAN SPELL BETTER THAN THOSE IN OLDEN DAYS; DICTIONARY FOR SCHOOLS SIMPLIFIED

BY W. H. MOBLEY

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 29. (AP)—Johnny and May Blank, 1931 model, spell better than grandpa and grandma ever could, no matter what notione supporters of the old blue back speller may have on the subject.

Dr. Harold H. Bixler, direction of tests and guidance in Atlanta public schools, says so, and he has spent years finding out.

Easier Way Found

Maybe the 1931 student couldn't handle "phthisis," a favorite jawbreaker of the blue back speller days, but Dr. Bixler believes Johnny and May, 1931, can do better with "pulmonary tuberculosis," and that is a better way to say it.

With collaborators, Dr. Bixler has boiled the English language to 2,500 words on which he says high school students should concentrate. The hardest of the lot is "annum," meaning year. Only 62 per cent of the twelfth grade students could spell it.

Tests Conducted

The tests were conducted in schools in Georgia, Tennessee, North and South Carolina, California, Iowa, Arkansas and New Jersey.

A list of 5,000 words compiled by Ernest Simmons in examining Iowa students was used. The "hardest" words follow, with the percentage of correct spelling by ninth and twelfth grade students. Accommodate, 54 and 85; affectionately, 56 and 83; annum, 26 and 62, anxiety, 59 and 83; approximately, 54 and 75; chauffeur, 47 and 70; debit, 52 and 68; imagined, 56 and 86; negotiations, 47 and 68; ordinarily, 56 and 78; pamphlets, 45 and 68; president's, 46 and 78; principles, 59 and 83; procedure, 45 and 64; recommendation, 50 and 72; representatives, 53 and 85; scheduled, 45 and 67; seized, 47, and 74; specimens, 60 and 80.

Thought For Today

Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity for vanity shall be his recompense.—Job 16:31.

* * *

The vanity of human life is like a river, constantly passing away, and yet constantly coming on.—Pope.

Who Said What?

Now that General Pershing has declared that he did not make that famous "Lafayette, we are here" speech in Paris during the war, we are beginning to have an uneasy and skeptical attitude toward famous remarks made by other great men. For Pershing's supposed speech was made in modern Paris, amid all of the modern devices for setting down exactly what happens; what possibilities for error must there not have been in the days before shorthand and the omnipresent newspaper reporter?

Did Lawrence, for example, really say, "Don't give up the ship"? Did Nelson really declare "England expect every man to do his duty"? Did Grant declare that he proposed to "fight it out on this line if it takes all summer?" Did Patrick Henry demand that he be given liberty or death?

All of this is disturbing. General Pershing really should not have disillusioned us. That "Lafayette, we are here" was too good a legend to kill. He ought to have left us believing in it.

Autos, Prosperity

The Business Conditions Weekly of the Alexander Hamilton Institute predicts that automobile production in the United States this year will be about equal to that of 1928, when approximately 4,350,000 cars were sold. This is well below the figures for 1929—the banner year for all time—but substantially above the record for 1930, when the total was only 3,350,000.

The importance of all of this lies in the fact that American industry as a whole cannot prosper if the automobile industry is sick. The institute remarks that "the attainment of the automobile saturation point in 1929 was more responsible for the general business slump in 1930 than any other factor"; and it is not hard to agree with that observation.

If the automobile industry is really on the verge of regaining its health, the outlook for other industries is measurably brighter; and, conversely, if Detroit should continue to suffer, the rest of the nation would suffer with it.

Pride

Human pride has queer forms, and sometimes manifests itself where you would hardly expect it.

The New York police commissioner reports that pride is actually a barrier to the administration of poor relief there. Relief depots have been established in police stations, and people in need can come there and get free clothing; but the commissioner says that the women usually "turn up their noses if the garments are not stylish," and even when in dire need examine clothing as critically as if they were buying it in a store.

This sounds odd, but is perfectly natural. To receive charity is one thing; to wear clothing which makes it perfectly evident that one has been receiving charity is different. The attitude may be deplorable, but it isn't hard to understand.

The Oath

New York's troubles with its crooked judges are, of course, New York's own concern, and they don't affect the rest of us very greatly but there is, nevertheless, no reason why we provincials should not get a quiet chuckle over Mayor Walker's recent action in calling on his city's magistrates to take solemn oath that they did not buy their offices.

As a gesture it probbably will do a certain amount of good. Surely it can do no harm; and that, to a harassed mayor like Mr. Walker, must be something. But there is something humorous in it, just the same. Imagine a man who has paid $10,000 to some crooked politician for a judgship being so conscience-stricken that he would fear to swear that he had not done so!

THE PLAINSMAN Says:

That Girl on Broadway says every girl is looking for a husband—both before and after marriage.

* * *

THE PLAINSMAN hopes he isn't chicken-hearted—and certainly he is in favor of punishing those who wilfully break the laws—but there is something pathetic in the case of John W. Brady, who has entered the penitentiary to serve a three year term for the slaying of his one-time paramour.

Understand, this column is of the opinion that John Brady, if he is guilty as the jury decided, should pay for his act and pay heavily for it. No matter what the law does to John Brady, it will never send the life blood pulsating again in the body of Lehila Highsmith. But regardless of what Brady did—regardless of the consequences of his act—it is pathetic to see the depths into which a once respected man has fallen.

* * *

One does not have to be reared in the forest country to feel a pall of sadness as a giant spruce shivers and falls before the axe. One does not have to be weak-willed or soft-hearted to dislike the scene of a once powerful and popular figure ridden by time and trouble at the sundown of life.

TO BE sure, Judge Brady was dealt with mercifully—possibly too mercifully in the minds of many Texans. Yet the best civilization can expect to glean from occurrances such as the slaying of Lehila Highsmith is the experience—the moral lesson to stay the hands of those in the future who might otherwise walk blindly into a similar predicament.

* * *

The case of John W. Brady should serve as an object lesson to every person capable of understanding. How the mighty can—and do—fall when they forsake the paths of decency is an awful thing. The Brady affair should stand as a warning to those who might mistake today's power as a safe-guard against tomorrow.

Life is much like a set of books. As long as the reckoning is kept up to date and the right care is exercised, credits and debits are balanced. But a man may keep a set of books in perfect order for forty years, then forsake them for a year and lose track of where he stands.

Judge Brady handled his life like that. He found—and in his example the rest of us can find—that there is a day of reckoning somewhere along the line. It ust can't be put off.

That Man o' Avenue Q says distance doesn't lend enchantment when you run out of gas.

I HAVE only barely met Miss Nancy Earle, who is conducting the Avalanche-Journal's second annual Beauty, Culture and Charm school but from all I can hear she is as charming, personally, as she is acquainted with her subject. Before Miss Earle ever showed up in Lubbock I knew she was one of the leading experts along her line and from what I have been able to get from those who have heard her, the advance information was all to the mustard.

Ladies of Lubbock should grasp this opportunity to hear Miss Earle. There were more than 1,000 people present Tuesday night and several hundred others were turned away, due to lack of space in the hall. Like West Texas itself, Miss Earle had to be good to get where she is. The Plainsman deems the Avalanche-Journal fortunate to secure her and the charm course a real feature for the ladies.

Sometimes life seems to be a proposition of finding just how much trouble we can stand.

A NEW law which members of the current legislature might well consider for Texas is one which ans the careless exhibition of wild beasts. Last fall a carnival leopard attacked and injured a child in Colorado City. The show troupe went on its way and the next thing West Texas learned the same beast had mangled a Littlefield child so badly that it dide. Charges were filed against the owner of the cat but that didn't help the dead child or its parents any. Now reports come filtering from San Antonio that a lion has killed a two year old baby and its owner is facing homicide charges.

There is no one who gets a bigger kick out of circuses, carnivals and their wild animals than The Plainsman, who is a regular kid about such attractions. But there are ways and means of handling these beasts and sufficient safeguards to shield the public. The right kind of a law ought to simplify matters and the legislature will doubtless spend more time on ideas important measures.

BEULAH LIMERICK MURDER CASE ATTRACTS ATTENTION OF CAPITAL; CLUES ARE PUZZLING AS OFFICERS PROBE DEATH

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 — An obscure little girl who was an usher in a theater has attracted more attention within the capital itself of late than Mr. Hoover, Congess and the cabinet combined. Her name was Beulah Limerick and someone murdered her.

The intense interest in the Limerick case has been characteristic of the Washington citizenry, which appears to welcome its murder mysteries as a relief from the humdrum of federal activity and politics and society.

Lately it has been common to hear some of our folks boast, with pardonable pride, that Washington has been having a fine series of mysterious murders and pointing out that probably no city of equal size, at least, has had such a neat series of unsolved cases.

You may remember the strange murder of Mary Baker and the previous killing of Virginia MacPherson. And quite a few other killings, including a run of deaths which large sections of public opinion still consider neither suicidal nor accidental.

Policeman Suspected

Beulah Limerick lived in an isolated small frame house at one end of town with her brother Vernon and another young man who posed as her husband. One morning she was found dead in bed. That evening the undertakers discovered she had been shot through the head.

A policeman named Robert F. Langdon was held as a suspect when it appeared that he had been bothering Beulah and had found, strangely enough, such clews as a bullet shell in a coffee cup and a bullet under the bed after detectives had failed to find them in a search.

Senator Carey of Wyoming started a small investigation of the police department. Tabloid reporters swooped down from New York. Other cops raided Langdon's home, seized two stills, liquor and mash.

The inquest developed plenty of conflicting testimony, such as over the point whether there had been any blood on Beulah's pillows. There was testimony about a young folks society known as the Skyhigh hoopee Club of which the victim had been an organizer and officer.

Four Finally Held

Lots of men were dragged into the case, as always happens when a Washington girl is murdered. There was evidence about a mysterious gun which had been hidden in Miss Limerick's stove and had disappeared. Several suspects were arrested and released. Four men were finally held without bail for the grand jury—Langdon, Beulah's brother Vernon and two boy friends named Richard Reed and Ed Paddy.

And all this has been the talk of the town. The President was fighting with Congress. Drouth relief and unemployment arose as huge national issues. Mr. Lucas and the Senate progressives were locked in bitter combat. The power fight grew hot as Hoover tried to rebuke the Senate. The Wickersham committee concluded its strange report. Statesmen bellowed. But officials and government clerks, members of Congress and ordinary citizens united in finding more dramatic human interest in a murder story whose principal figures were truck drivers, filling station attendants, cops, barbers, house painters, soda jerkers and whoopee girls.

Just as a matter of comic relief, did you hear how Ambassador Paul Claudel of France finally got Lindbergh decorated with the cross of a commander of the Legion of Honor?

The cross was on a long red ribbon and the ribbon had to be hung around Lindbergh's neck. Lindbergh's neck is way up in the air. No part of pudgy little Claudel is very remote from the ground.

Claudel's mistake had been in failing to get the ribbon all tied so that he could pitch the loop at Lindbergh's head as one does a quoit. Lindbergh bent over and Claudel stretched, but the ambassador couldn't make both ends of the ribbon meet. The moment is described by eyewitnesses as quite tense, but Counselor Jules Henry of the embassy dashed to the rescue and tied the knot.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Four pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Hygiene of Women," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

VITAMIN A WILL FIGHT INFECTIONS

Recent studies indicate that food vitamins are concerned in the ability of the body to throw off infections. No such functions have previously been ascribed to them. Growth and the healthy development of certain structures—bones, skin, eyes, etc. — have been the functions of the body they are supposed to supervise.

Dr. Clendening

Vitamin A is the one which has been experimented with. Vitamin A is found in egg yolk, in milk and butter, and in fish oils. Some believe it is contained in certain vegetables, such as carrots and tomatoes. It is associated with fats.

If Vitamin A is removed from the diet of a litter of rats, they will grow to about half the size of rats on a normal complete diet.

The disease particularly associated with the deficiency of Vitamin A is a peculiar disease of the eye called xerophthalmia. It is rare in human beings, but does occur, mostly in babies. It is very destructive, on account of the ulcers on the eyeball which develop, and often destroys sight in the affected eye.

Babies who are brought up on skimmed milk and cereals are most likely to develop it. It is cured by the administration of butter and cod liver oil. Among Japanese babies it is more common than elsewhere, presumably because of the diet low in fats and high in rice. Among the children of Japanese fisherfolk it does not appear, because they naturally get fish oil in their diet.

The recent studies refer to experiments by Greene and Mallanby in 1930, which indicate that all the symptoms of Vitamin A deficiency are due to infection. When stunted rats, whose growth has been impaired by a lack of Vitamin A, were autopsied, they were found to have infections in the tongue, glands, middle ear and kidneys; these infections might stunt their growth. The essential feature of the eye disease also, it is pointed out, is an infection.

These physicians gave large amounts of Vitamin A containing foods to patients with severe infections, and found a great improvement.

If the body's power of resistance can be improved by adding proper vitamins to the diet, great possibilities of preventive medicine are at hand. Perhaps still unsuspected vitamins, which might easily be omitted from certain people's diets, all unknown to them, lower resistance so that infections are easily acquired.

NEW ARTICLE

A new article by Dr. Clendening, "The Atonic Abdominal Wall," is now ready for distribution. It contains exercises for strengthening the abdominal muscles and reducing the abdomen. This article may be obtained for 2 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

S. M. U. PROFESSOR HAS NEW THEORY

DALLAS, Jan. 29. (AP)—Dr. Richard Amma Meentz, member of the geology faculty of Southern Methodist university, has made a revolutionary attack on explanations currently accepted by scientists as to the causes of the fourteen great ocean currents, such as the Gulf stream and Japan current.

To replace existing hypotheses, Dr. Meentz advanced a complete new theory of the structure of the interior of the earth.

According to Meentz, the interior of the earth, instead of being a molten mass with a temperature of 9,000 degrees fahrenheit at the center, as some scientists have contended, is in reality composed of gaseous vapors, plastic materials and solids.

Roller Skating Is Latest Co-Ed Fad

What co-eds at Texas Tech won't try hasn't yet been introduced.

And roller skating holds the spotlight of interest at the present time—centering around co-eds at Lovell hall.

Here and there along the campus walks may be seen a fair lady with wrapped ankle, plastered head or painful leg motion—but they're all game and keep right on "learning."

A slogan has been adopted by the skaters, one suggested by a physician, "Your head won't bother you anymore if you'll stay on your feet." That's just what they are trying to do, but—,

Gilbert Swan

In New York

With Swan

NEW YORK, Jan. 29—He is no scientific giant. . . .

Nor is he a Titan of the business world. Yet it is said of Walter Thornton that he "uses his head more than any man in New York."

Millions of people know him by sight, but few have ever met Thornton.

For he sells his head to artists, sculptors, advertising men, movie cameras; he sells it again and again and again, with a slight change in face almost every time. Thornton holds the reputation of having the most demanded head of any male model.

One of the records he can claim is that of having 1500 copies of his head done in plaster.

You see Thornton just can't be everywhere, and so many commercial artists want his head in a hurry that this vast number of plaster casts were made. These casts became a best seller over night. More than a thousand of them are scattered over the town, paid for at so much per head. And there are several hundred more than can be used after the fashion of the circulating libraries. These are rented out at so much a day.

This, of course, gives Thornton more time to keep his head, as it were. He can busy himself running from place to place where photographers and others are waiting for him.

Another of Manhattan's many fantastic success stories is this same Thornton. You never can tell in this man's town what accident will change the whole scheme of a lifetime and completely re-assort the cards.

Thus, he started out to be a bricklayer. He was a handsome young man, tall enough and muscular. One day he got out of a job and was looking around when an artist asked him if he minded modeling. That was the beginning.

Within a few months, Thornton had discovered to his own amazement that he was the perfect he-male American that they were all looking for.

To his continued amazement, he began to look around and found his likeness staring down at him wherever he went—

The subway signs revealed him as the collar-and-shirt man. The elevated signs proved that he could smoke that "particular cigaret." The weekly magazines assured you that he was the young man who was going to study five minutes a day and the snooty periodicals showed him driving that super-plus car. Thus it went until orders for sittings came in faster than he could fill them. Naturally, his value went right up also.

It was about this time that he got the bright idea of having a number of heads cast. A "library" of these can be found in the offices of a Manhattan model's bureau. And he has a little place that keeps making new heads of him.

Ah, but that isn't all! Having a good head on his shoulders, Thornton found that he could "double" as several men. Thus he has appeared as five or six different men—all in the same illustration. A false mustache, a wig, a little powder on the hair and bit of make-up—and he's two other fellows.

In his time he's appeared as everything from a member of the Foreign Legion to the gent whose best friend wouldn't tell him.

All of which, you might imagine, would make the young man more of a matinee idol than he cares to be. He is well aware that youth is transient and he watches his step carefully against dissipation, lest the tell-tale marks be left.

Yes, he certainly uses his head—and to good advantage!

If they keep on filming Bernard Shaw's plays it won't be long before they'll be calling them "the Shawkies."

Hsuan Tung, China's "Boy Emperor," says he wants to become a tennis star. As though he doesn't shine in court as it is.

Many folks who don't believe in signs have considerable respect for the dollar sign.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tinies' trip around the town soon ended. As the sun went down, they set sail in their big canoe. The Travel Man said "We will sleep right in the boat tonight. I know that all will be all right. With blankets all around us we'll be comfy as can be.

"I've brought some fruit that we can munch. I think it was a happy hunch. Don't eat it now, though. Wait until you're hungry. That is best. I'm glad the moon is shining bright. 'Twill make a very wondrous night. It seems that every place we go, with moonlight nights we're blest."

Then Clowny started in to croon a very pretty little tune. The others all were quiet and appreciative. Then the Travel Man said. "That was voice. Your voice is just as good as mine." This made the Tinies laugh a bit. Then Clowny sang again.

The natives who were in the craft, one in the bow, the other aft, kept working with their paddles and the boat moved very fast. For hours the Tinies stayed awake. Then they agreed that they should take a turn at restful sleeping and they soon were sleeping fast.

Next morning they pulled up to shore. A brand new town was reached once more. The Travel Man said, "This is Tananarive! Soon we will find more natives who can weave. And they'll have things you won't believe." And, sure enough they found them. What a wondrous sight to see.

Small tables and small chairs were there, saitting in the open air. It was the weavers' market place. The things were all for sale. Said Clowny, "Gee, but they look strong. I wish we could take some along, but they would just be trouble and my thought's to no avail."

(The Tinymites see some oxen in the next story.)

Maybe the linotyper knew what he was up to when he spelled it "The Lickersham committee."

SENATE PASSES THREE BILLS

RESOLUTION CALLING FOR PAID HIGHWAY BOARD PRESENTED

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 29—A bill introduced by Senator Thomason of Necogdoches would have members of the state highway commission serve full time. Each member would be paid $10,000 per year. Other provisions of the bill were: The highway commissioners should meet at least once each month. A biennial report would be made to the governor, with a quarterly report in which would be detailed the expenditures of the commission.

The electorate of Texas would be called on to vote on a constitutional amendment in determining whether the office of county treasurer would be abolished under the provisions of a resolution by Senator Holbrook of Galveston.

Holiday Designated

The senate passed a resolution by Senator Margie Neal of Carthage making January 19, Robert E Lee's birthday, a holiday.

The office of state librarian would be created in a bill introduced by Senator Berkeley.

A second resolution by Senator Neal calling on congress to provide for the establishing in Texas of one national park was passed.

A bill passed by the senate provided that seventy inmates of the Confederate women's home be transferred to women's quarters in the Confederate men's home because of crowded conditions. The bill was introduced by Dr. Beck. It was submitted by the governor as an emergency.

DEBUTANTES STILL CHAPERONED AS PARTY SEASON ON

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan 29—Chaperones go places with even the wealthiest debutantes.

The fact they are officially launched and enjoying their first winter season in New York hasn't exempted from chaperonage Barbara Hutton, granddaughter of the late Frank W. Woolworth, or Doris Duke, whose grandfather was the late James B. Duke.

Neat Little Sums

Doris Duke's inheritance is estimated conservatively at $50,000,000. Barbara Hutton received a third of her grandfather's $58,000,000 estate.

Both girls are 18. Both are popular members of the first-season debutante set. Three dances a night was a habit with them when the deb season was at its height.

But chaperones go with them wherever they go. Usually the girls are accompanied by their mothers or one of their mother's friends.

Share Four Homes

Doris Duke and her mother share four large homes. The one they occupy most is on East Seventy-Eighth street in New York. They have a 2,500-acre farm at Hillsborough, N. J., a home at Rough Point, Newport, R. I., where Doris made her debut last spring, and an estate at Meyers Park, Charlotte, N. C.

Barbara Hutton's great fortune represents the third of the Woolworth estate which would have gone to her mother had she lived. Barbara shares the estate, which was estimated at $58,000,000 when the five and ten cent store founder died, with two aunts—Mrs. Charles E. F. McCann, Oyster Bay, and Mrs. James P. Donahue, Southampton, Long Island.

Most of Barbara's time is spent at her father's home on Fifth Avenue, where she has apartments of her own.

Judge Allows 'Legger Time To Collect For Fine

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29. (AP)—Convicted of liquor possession Alfred Burgess yesterday was given his choice of paying a $500 fine or spending 200 days in jail.

"I can't pay the fine," he told the police judge.

"Then you'll have to go to jail."

"I can't do that," Burgess objected, "it would ruin my business."

"Just what is your business?"

"Bootlegging."

The judge gave him 48 hours to raise the money.

Snow use talking, fellows; snow use talking! All this chatter about hard sledding for girls who aspire to be movie stars is all wrong, for here are two of them who have made good in a big way, showing that sledding isn't at all hard. In case you haven't already recognized them, the fair sledders are Frances Dee and Rosita Moreno, snapped during a little winter fun at a mountain resort near Hollywood.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

such a simple thing as that?

THINK of the women you consider unusually attractive and you will think of women who have freshness and animation. Invariably, brilliant smiles go with a charming personality.

Certainly then, attractive teeth are very important. And their proper care is not only an aid to all-round health, but one of the most effective aids to beauty.

You will find that Squibb Dental Cream takes wonderful, gentle care of teeth and gums. It cleans beautifully because it is an antacid dentifrice. Before you finish the first tube, your teeth become lustrous and your mouth begins to keep that healthy, fresh feeling.

And Squibb's is especially effective in protecting The Danger Line, where gums meet teeth. For Squibb's contains more than 50% Squibb Milk of Magnesia, a soothing antacid dentists have used for years.

Squibb's is safe in every respect—it contains no grit, no astringents, nothing which might injure enamel or delicate tissues.

HERE'S WHAT DENTISTS SAY:

E. R. Squibb & Sons asked a prominent research institution to conduct an investigation among 50,000 American dentists as to proper care of teeth. Here is the summary of the replies received:

95% of the answers stated that gum acids most frequently cause tooth decay and gum irritation;

95% of the answers agreed that the most serious trouble occurs at the place where teeth and gums meet;

85% stated that the best product to prevent these acids from causing decay and irritating the gums is Milk of Magnesia.

Squibb Dental Cream is made with more than 50% Squibb Milk of Magnesia. What stronger assurance could there be that its formula is correct and that it will protect your teeth and gums?

CALL TO MINISTRY IS NOT GRANT TO BECOME "A CLOWN" OR "A CAESAR," PRESIDENT BROOKS OF BAYLOR SAYS

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 29.—A call to the ministry is not a grant to become a "clown or vaudeville performer" nor a license "to walk among other men as some mighty Caesar astride the whole world," Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor University, Waco, Texas, last night told the annual bible institute here in his lecture.

The "God-called minister," he said, will visit the sick, encourage the weak and instruct his parishioners and not be known for his "social familiarity with women."

Carl C. Wilson Is Named Fisher Judge

ROBY, Jan. 29 (AP)—Carl C. Wilson, attorney of Rotan, has been appointed county judge of Fisher county, succeeding R. R. Patterson, who lately became superintendent of the state Confederate home at Austin.

The commissioners court earlier had appointed Vernon D. Carothers, banker of Sweetwater, as Patterson's successor, but Carothers, after accepting, did not qualify.

False Teeth Is The Right Word To Use, It Seems

CHICAGO, Jan. 29 (AP)—The National Society of Denture Prosthetists went into session yesterday, provoking attempts to find out just what it was all about.

"What," members were asked, "is a denture prosthetist?"

"Perhaps you have heard of the term 'prosthetic,'" replied one member, "'prosthetists' is derived from that."

"To make it quite simple we are interested only in endentulous mouths," said another.

But Dr. I. L. Furnas of Cleveland, secretary, gave more detail.

"Our line," he said, "is artificial dentures, the common term, which we don't like to use is—" and he stopped.

"False teeth?" he was asked.

"Exactly," was the reply.

PAST YEAR'S BUSINESS EXCEEDS 1929 BY 2,000 CARLOADS

(Special To The Journal)

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 29.—In spite of the snow and freeze early in 1930 carload shipments of Texas fruits and vegetables the past calendar year exceed 1929 by more than 2,000 carloads, according to tabulation completed today by Marvin G. Longino, market news bureau here.

Tomatoes led the single item list with 7,513 cars; spinach coming second with 6,989, and onions third, 6,307. Watermelons totaled 6,048; irish potatoes 5,530 and cabbage 5,412. These were the only items above 5,000 except mixed vegetables 7,360. The total of all items was 59,415 cars.

The heavy percentage of some items truck to local markets over good roads are reflected in two items, peaches and apples, Longino said. Where Texas carload shipments of peaches used to run around 1,000 cars a year, last year the number was only 21. Ten carload of apples was reported.

In former years several carloads of apples have moved. Apples from irrigated orchards in Limpia Canyon of Davis mountains and El Paso valley have been trucked to large centers, Logino believed, and the same is true of tomatoes.

TEXAS RAPPED ON VITAL STATISTICS

(By The Associated Press)

GALVESTON, Jan. 29.—Dr. Morris Fishbein, prominent medical authority and fighter of quackery, rapped Texas yesterday for its failure to provide sufficient funds for the registration of births and deaths.

The Chicago physician pointed out in an address before the University of Texas medical students here that it was a "shame for a state with such fine medical schools and hospitals to be so backward in its facilities for handling vital statistics."

"I told the Texas legislature that it was a blight on the state to belong with the other backward few whose records of births and deaths are ignored by the national public health service in its vital statistics reports," he declared.

"With such a fine institution as University of Texas, the John Sealy hospital and others. I have reason to believe that the state realizes the value and need of medicine. For that reason it should be able to pay more than three cents per head for public health work. Lack of funds has naturally resulted in the failure to keep complete records."

Simultaneously, a motor caravan bearing employes and company equipment to the new headquarters here began streaming in from Ponca City, Okla.

A bedraggled, drowned Kansas jackrabbit, apparently entrapped in the pipe while it was being laid, popped out. Several cottontails followed.

The Kansas City Barnsdall unit of the pipeline, which is being extended to the north, traverses approximately 360 miles.

MOST POWERFUL STROKE OF LIGHTNING WOULD RUN NEW YORK CITY'S SYSTEM OF LINES FOR ONLY HALF A SECOND

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE,
Associated Press Science Editor

NEW YORK, Jan. 29. (AP)—The most powerful stroke of wild lightning ever measured by man would run New York City's power lines only half a second.

This stroke, 5,000,000 volts, was caught on an Arkansas electric line (between Camden, Ark., and South Magnolia), and its measurements in watts and amperes was reported to the American Institute of electrical engineers. It was trapped with photographic apparatus by Julius J. Torok of the Westinghouse company and Ralph E. Pittman of the Arkansas Power & Light company.

Bear Out Statement

The figures bear out a statement by the electrical genius, the late Charles P. Steinmetz, that lightning is weak compared with the silent flow of power from man-made dynamos.

The 5,000,000-volt bolt equalled about 15,000,000 watts. Eighty times greater than this was the power which flowed over the lines of the New York Edison company at 5 p. m. December 23, the hour of the highest peak load of 1930. The New York current then measured 1,247,800,000 watts.

Would Make Big Noise

Allowing for the time element, at least two and possibly considerably more lightning strokes per second would have been needed to run the city lines. This means from 120 to several hundred 5,000,000 volt strokes a minute, a noise fit to shake the city for miles.

The Arkansas lightning picture was taken with oscillographs, photographic devices which operated in millionths of seconds. The big shot sent between 100,000 and 160,000 ampheres over four miles of power line. Its whole force was expended in about one six-thousandth of a second.

Delicate instruments showed that lightning striking very close to the lines had scarcely any effect, only direct hits being harmful.

WOMAN'S GREAT LOVE REVEALED IN WILL ACTION

(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 29.—Love so great that she gave her husband in marriage to Phoebe Armstrong, a woman 14 years younger than herself, is professed by Mrs. Stella Marlenee in contesting the will of her divorced husband, Dr. Charles L. Marlenee.

"I even prepared Phoebe's wedding garments for her," she testified in superior court yesterday. "She always exerted a sort of hypnotic influence over me."

Dr. Marlenee, an optician, died last September of injuries received in a fall from a ladder. His estate was valued at $500,000 by Mrs. Stella Marlenee and $125,000 by the widow.

"Stella asked me to marry Dr. Marlenee, saying I could make him happy," Mrs. Phoebe Marlenee, who was willed the bulk of the estate, testified. "But I told them I would not consider it until I was convinced they could not get along together. Later Stella wrote me she would have a divorce herself if the doctor hadn't."

His divorce was obtained in Las Vegas, Nevada, in September, 1927.

CITY FIRE SERVICE

and building will be done by members of the local department. Officials pointed out that to buy the equipment complete would cost approximately $2,500 and that a saving is being affected of almost $2,000.

DETERMINATION OF CITY RATE PENDING

Efforts to determine whether Lubbock will receive credit for a good fire record during 1930 or whether a penalty will be levied by the State Fire Insurance commission will be made during the next two days, according to announcement this morning at the city hall.

All insurance agents of the city are being asked today to report to the city manager's office the amount of premiums colected and losses paid for the year. When all have been received, officials will be able to determin, by comparison with the records of the last two years what Lubbock's position will be during 1931.

Forty Agents Here

Forty agents have ben listed by the city as doing business here in 1930. Some of these have been combined while others have been purchased during the year. Of the forty names, three were listed as out of town agents.

During 1930 Lubbock has enjoyed a credit of 15 per cent but officials are of the opinion that this record will be broken and state that a penalty probably will be levied by the state commission.

CHILDREN BOTHER

were not neat, while others were disturbed by their primping.

"The results," Dr. Sherman said, "showed that the attitudes of the parents, their emotions at a given time, and their feelings of well-being affected greatly the kind and number of annoyances with their children."

Discussing "education of parenthood," he said the problem of personal welfare and of happiness can be solved by properly preparing the youth for life—and education for parenthood can do much in this respect.

"Many people still believe that a child develops 'naturally' and that what he inherits determines what he will be later on. But our work with children in the past 25 years has given proof that the way in which a child is brought up determines what he will be later on as a youth and as an adult.

"The most easily influenced of all a child's development is personality. All of us can agree that one of the most important causes of unhappiness is a personality which fits in poorly with conditions and with other people."

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—Stocks declined sluggishly today, encountering little volume on the downward trend. There was a pause in the movement when the mail order shares rallied in response to Montgomery Ward earnings statement but the list again turned heavy establishing moderate losses among the pivotal shares.

U. S. Steel dipped to 139 1-8 where it was off 1 1-4. There were recessions of 1 to 1 1-2 in American Telephone, North American, Stone & Webster, Eastman Kodak, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Atchison and American Tobacco "B". Ludlum steel preferred broke 7, Bethlehem, whose earnings statement appears after the close, was steady.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 29. (AP)—Cotton opened a shade easier although Liverpool cables were better than due. First trades showed losses of one to three points and the market continued to ease off after the start, March trading down to 10.25, May to 10.50 and October to 10.97, or four to five points below yesterday's close. This early decline was attributed to good rains in the southwest, where dry weather heretofore has delayed early planting.

Towards the end of the first hour, the market was somewhat steadier and had recovered one to three points of the early loss.

The market was moderately quiet all morning, but prices gradually improved, owing to firmness in the New York market and some trade buying. March advanced to 10.31, May to 10.55 and October to 11.01, or 5 to 6 points above the early lows and 1 to 2 points above yesterday's close.

At noon the market was steady and at the highs.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 29. (AP)—Cotton opened steady unchanged to a decline of 3 points under some further hedging and scattering liquidation.

Some buying was reported on the relatively steady Liverpool cables, while there was some buying to fix prices for the trade in near months and the comparatively light offerings were well enough taken to give the market a steady undertone at declines of 2 to 3 points from yesterday's closing prices. May sold off to 10.51 and was holding within a point or two of that figure at the end of the first half hour.

Opening unchanged to 3-8 cent down, corn later showed an all around upturn. Wheat started at a shade decline to 1-4 advance, and subsequently fluctuated with corn.

the McKenzie county jail here several days ago from the Williams county jail at Williston, N. D., where he had been held for safekeeping since his arrest. He and his father were to have been arraigned here tomorrow on first degree murder charges.

Officials estimated that 80 men were in the mob. All wore masks and some were armed. They gathered quietly at the jail, and then using huge timbers, battered down the front door of the place.

Smash Down Doors

Leaders of the attackers argued with Deputy Hallan for some time in an endeavor to get keys for the cells. Hallan, however, refused to say where they were and the leaders left. They returned within a few moments, however, and using the timbers again, smashed down a steel door to reach young Bannon.

Confession by Charles Bannon early in December that he had slain Mr. and Mrs. Haven and their four children climaxed one of the most sensational crimes in North Dakota's history.

Burned Bodies

Bannon had been employed on the Haven farm, near Schafer. Last February, he told authorities that after a quarrel, he shot and killed first one, and then another of the Havens and burned their bodies in a barn on the place.

He told friends and neighbors the Havens had left the farm to live in Oregon. No suspicion attached to him until late in November when he was arrested on a charge of selling property that did not belong to him—hogs from the Haven farm.

Authorities continued a search for his father, James F. Bannon, who was wanted for questioning on certain details. He was arrested December 13, near Toledo, Oregon, and returned to North Dakota. He has denied any connection with the killings.

ADMIRAL RICHARD E. BYRD TO MAKE PERSONAL APPEARANCE IN AMARILLO TOMORROW IN LECTURE; SHOWS FILM

(Special to the Journal)

AMARILLO, Jan. 29.—Admiral Richard E. Byrd, internationally known flyer and explorer, will be here Friday, January 30th, for two personal appearances at the City Auditorium.

The first appearance will be a special students' matinee, beginning at 2:45 o'clock Friday afternoon. The price for students will be 50 cents, regardless of whether they are from grade school, high school or college, and for adults the admission will be $1.50. This matinee was made possible through the efforts of Wilbur C. Hawk and the Tri-State Fair Association, and a special invitation is extended to all college and high school students throughout the Panhandle of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. The evening performance will begin at 8 o'clock.

Admiral Byrd has with him 9000 feet of film, taken on his explorations to the South Pole with which he illustrates his talk. Each appearance is scheduled to last at least two hours. Byrd gives a 30-minute talk at the beginning of the performance, telling of his experiences (and those of his pals) after which the picture starts. Byrd accompanies the picture with a descriptive lecture. Most of these scenes have never been shown before. Many of those who have seen and heard this lecture in the east say that they have never seen or heard anything like it. "Best two hours of entertainment through which I ever sat," is the concensus of opinion.

ADMIRAL RICHARD E. BYRD

It is believed that Amarillo is the smallest city that has booked Byrd on his present tour, which is expected to be his last tour. The nearest city in Texas that has booked Byrd is Dallas. Only two other cities in Texas will have the pleasure of hearing him.

According to Wilbur C. Hawk he has set aside a good block of seats for out of town people. The prices for the night performance range from 75 cents to $2.50.

WILL ROGERS

tain went up at 8:35 P. M. Twenty minutes earlier, the revelers' quartet, donated by the national broadcasting company, arrived on a special train and was whisked to the auditorium to appear on the same program.

Often during the evening, Rogers turned earnest in his plea that Dallas raise its Red Cross quota for drouth relief. He pointed out that 69 counties in Texas will benefit from the fund. He related in detail his conversation with President Hoover and said the president's position was that government relief would establish a bad precedent. He quoted Grover Cleveland's veto of a similar relief measure in which Cleveland declared: "the people support the government but the government does not support the people."

Rogers noticeably avoided indorsing President Hoover's position but went so far as to say, "I am beginning to see his point."

The King of quips started out on Governor Ross Sterling and mentioned the rumor that the chief executive has 22 bathrooms in his Bayshore home. "Your Governor goes home every Saturday night for a bath," he said. "That is a good thing. I have seen your governor's mansion in Austin. It must have been laid out by a specialist; probably by Chic Sale's grandfather."

Then he came to the Wickersham prohibition report, prophesying that President Hoover soon would appoint a commission to find out what the Wickersham commission said.

The only way to solve the prohibition question, he said, is with a device that will "register the breath; the ballot and the breath must correspond before they can be counted."

He poked fun at the Trinity River navigation, saying that "some day a herd of cattle will cross that stream and drink it up."

Fitch To Speak

J. P. Fitch, of Dallas, executive of region No. 3, arrived in Lubbock Wednesday night and will be the principal speaker at this afternoon's session. A number of other scout officials from surrounding towns were arriving here this morning and early afternoon and a full attendance was expected by late today.

Interest in the night program has been manifest by scoutmasters in practically every troop of the council. A pageant, "A Year's Scouting," will be presented at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium with a cast of 13 Lubbock scouts under direction of D. T. Jennings, area executive. Several scoutmasters of troops in nearby towns have indicated that they will bring representation. Parents of scouts are especially invited to attend.

What Is Gum-Dipping?

Gum-Dipping is the Firestone trade name for that patented, basic process which makes Firestone Tires fundamentally different from all other tires. It is one of the reasons why Firestone, through many years, has easily been able to make good the statement: "Most miles per dollar." It is not something done to a tire after it is made. It is something very vital done before the tire is made.

To grasp the full significance of Gum-Dipping, it is necessary to know something about how a tire is made and what goes on within a tire on the road. The body of the tire bears the principal strains in service. To it is attached the tread which provides traction and takes the wear of the road.

The usual tire body is built up of layers or plies of cotton cords between which rubber has been forced. Rubber is incompressible. Hence the tire body practically does not expand or contract to meet road shocks. It flexes—that is, it changes form.

The strain of the flexing tends to pull the plies apart and also to pull the cords themselves apart. A tire flexes about seven hundred times in a mile—which gives some idea of the strains and the friction which a tire must endure.

The great enemy to tire life is internal friction. Years ago the fabric was square-woven—and the cotton cords sawed, one across another.

If cotton rubs against cotton; the tire soon heats up and collapses. That is why the square-woven fabric tires were so short-lived. Then came the tires with parallel cords that could not saw each other. The best square-woven fabric tire would go scarcely four thousand miles.

The Mark of Quality

A poor cord tire will give at least twice that mileage. Making the cords parallel was a great advance—but it was only part of the battle against internal friction.

It was realized that if the fibers of cotton in a cord could be insulated one from another, then a step-up in tire life could be had comparable to that made by shifting from square-woven fabric to parallel cords. That is what all tire makers have been striving for. That is what Firestone has achieved.

Every cord used in Firestone Tires has been treated with a rubber solution which penetrates every cord and coats every fiber; and thus not only the cords, but also the very fibers within them are insulated.

Eight pounds of fine, pure rubber are, by the patented Gum-Dipping process, integrated into every one hundred pounds of cotton cords. This means three extra pounds of pure rubber added to an average set of tires—and added where it means most to the strength and the life of the tire. This extra rubber all goes into the cords of the tire—where you never see it.

Why does Firestone put in this extra value? And what does it mean to you? It means just this. The performance—the extra value—has been shown for years on the road and in the laboratory. It has been proved that Gum-Dipping:

—increases the flexing life of a cotton cord by 58%.

—increases tire life by from 25% to more than 40%, according to the severity of the service—the more severe the service, the higher the percentage.

Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires are not just tires. They are thirty years of organized experience. They are sold only through Firestone Service Dealers and Service Stores and only as Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires—bearing the Firestone name and bearing the Firestone emblem that appears on this page.

Wherever you live—city or country—a fresh and complete stock of Firestone products is near-by.

A. C. C. WILDCATS OPEN SERIES AT TECH TONIGHT

TECH QUINTET FAVORED TO COP GAMES

REDUCED PRICES ARE OFFERED FANS IN TWO CONTESTS

The next feature on the 1931 basketball showcard for Lubbock is the Texas Tech-A. C. C. series tonight and tomorrow night on the Tech floor. The games start at 8 o'clock.

Coach "Bugs" Morris brings one of the fastest basketball teams in the college realm of West Texas today with the arrival of the Abilene Christian college cagers. Always finishing in the top division or thereabouts in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic association, the Wildcats have so far failed to get off to their usual winning ability this season, but reports show that the team is constantly improving. Due to its fast breaking offense and quick passing the team promises to give one of the best shows of the year here tonight and tomorrow night.

Matadors Favorites

The Matadors are favorites to win the series, though it was after a hard fight that they were able to overcome a rallying Christian team in Abilene two weeks ago. Off to a good lead and carrying a 10-point margin over the Wildcats for a greater part of the game, the Matadors saw that lead diminish to a bare two points before the game was over and it was with great efforts that they were able to come out ahead in the end.

In Lawrence and Pippen, Coach Morris has two of the best forwards in the T. I. A. A. today. They are high in the individual scoring for the season. The rest of the Abilene lineup probably will consist of Watkins at center, Powell and Reese at guards.

Coach Crip Golightly probably will start Captain Hodges at one forward, Fisher at center, and Tadlock and Dunn at guards. The other forward position is doubtful, though Moody, Crews and Baker are the leading candidates for the berth.

The athletic council announced early this week a further reduction in the prices for admission to go into effect tonight. Additional chairs have been placed in the gymnasium and the extra cost of 25 cents heretofore charged for chairs has been abandoned. General admission, entitling ticket bearer to any seat in the house, will be 50 cents.

RAY CONGER WINS FROM DR. MARTIN

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 29 (AP)—The band played the Star Spangled Banner and then Ray Conger stepped out and won the first international race of the indoor track season, defeating Dr. Paul Martin of Switzerland.

The band played the Swiss national anthem too at the Newark A. C. track games last night but it takes more than a song to win a footrace from the boyish looking star of the Illinois Athletic club, America's premier middle distance runner.

Dr. Martin, making his first appearance of the winter and only off the boat a little more than a week, made a gritty effort to stay with Conger and beat him to the tape in the 1,000-yard struggle as he did three out of four times they met last winter, but he didn't have the stamina of his frail-appearing rival.

Hunters in the Fairbanks district of Alaska, report bands of wolves diminished 75 per cent in 1930 compared to 1929.

Mentor To Champ

George E. Marshall, to whom has been assigned the duty of directing Bobby Jones when the golf champion makes his movie debut shortly in the series of films, "How I Play Golf." Marshall, in addition to being a veteran movie director, is a director of the Southern California Association, a four handicap man and one-time champion of the Lakeside Country Club in Los Angeles.

RURAL SCHOOL TOURNEY ON AT TECH

SIX LUBBOCK COUNTY UNITS SEEKING 1931 CAGE TITLE

Ten basketball teams from six Lubbock County schools today begin the annual Class B county cage tournament at the Texas Tech gymnasium. Four of the schools send boys' and girls' teams, one is represented by only a boys' team and another by a girls' combination.

The tournament gets under way this afternoon at five o'clock when the Hardy and New Hope boys play the first game on the schedule. Following that game, at 6 o'clock the boys' teams from Grovesville and Foster will play. The tournament this week, lasting through Friday and Saturday, will be confined to the second division in the Class B circuit. Starting next Thursday the first division, or larger schools of Class B in this county will stage their annual tourney. The winners of the divisions will meet the following week for the championship of the county.

The championship will be decided on the percentage basis. Each team plays the other once. Championships in both boys' and girls' divisions will be determined.

G. G. McWhorter, county athletic director, states that teams appearing as much as fifteen minutes later than the schedule demands will lose the game by forfeiture.

INTENTIONS FILED

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 29. (AP)—As the climax to a romance of high school days, Rodney Pantages, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Pantages, theater owner, has filed an application for a marriage license with Miss Veryl Sweeney, 24. They said they would not be married for two or three months.

RIFT IN FIGHT PLANS IS SEEN

PRO-AMATEUR EVENT OF TEXAS OPEN IS ON TODAY; NO FAVORITES APPEAR AMONG PROS FOR FIRST PRIZE MONEY

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.

SAN ANTONIO Jan. 29 (AP)—Filled with a vast energy after having been cooped up by a slow rain for two days, the professionals comprising golfdom's traveling circus welcomed the opportunity to team up with their amateur cousins today in te 18-hole pro-amateur event, curtain raiser to the tenth annual Texas open.

Brackenridge Park Municipal course, roped off for the last two days, was in splendid condition despite the surplus moisture. Willow Springs, a semi-public layout, was employed by the amateurs yesterday in qualifying for today's play.

Speer and Dawson Survive

Jack Speer of San Antonio, a ranking Texas amateur, survived the sticky going to post a 73, two over par, and Johnny Dawson, stocky Chicago star, turned in a 74. They far outdid most of the field, the scores averaging in the 90's, and as a result were expected to do well in the 72-hole main event starting tomorrow.

The professional winning today's best ball event stood to pocket $100, his amateur helper a gold medal. Second money was $75 and third $50, with still more medals for their simon-pure assistants.

Fewer Prizes This Year

Although the total purse for this year's Texas open has been chopped from $7,200 to $6,500, the principal prizes remain the same. First money for the 72-hole medal event will be $1,500, second $800, or the fourth largest rewards on the winter circuit. There will be fewer prizes of the $50 and $25 variety.

Due to the fact they haven't been able to hit a lick since their arrival from the west coast, the leading pros have given the experts no grounds upon which to install a favorite. Perhaps the best liked of the crack field, however, was Densmore Shute, Columbus, Ohio, flash, who burned down the course with a 72-hole total of 277, seven under par, to capture first prize a year ago.

Other star campaigners who will try to snatch Shute's crown include John Golden, Horton Smith, Ralph Guldahl, Harry Cooper, Wiffy Cox, Abe and Al Espinosa, Joe and Mike Turnesa, Tony Manero, Frank and Martin Walsh, Jack Forrester, Charles Guest, Willard Hutchinson, Ray Mangrum, John Rogers.

MILK FUND NOT TO BENEFIT IN CHICAGO

ILLINOIS OFFICIAL HAS STATEMENT SAYING CITY NEEDS FUNDS

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 29—Chicago is all in favor of holding next summer's heavyweight championship battle between Max Schmeling and young Bill Stribling, says George Getz, a member of the Illinois athletic commission, but not if the milk fund or any New York charity is to share in the proceeds.

Addressing his remarks to an informal gathering that included Schmeling, his manager, Joe Jacobs, and Bill Carey, president of the Madison Square Garden corporation, Getz added this complication to the fight plans yesterday, explaining that "charity begins at home and Chicago needs all the charity it can get." The milk fund has been carrying on the negotiations for the fight.

YOUNGSTERS MEET FOR CUE HONORS

BY PAUL MICKELSON

CHICAGO, Jan. 29 (AP)—Allen Hall and Arthur Thurnblad, mere youngsters as masters come in the most intricate field of billiards cross cues tonight for the three-cushion championship of the world and the pot of gold that goes with the crown.

The two 30-year-old Chicagoans, who brushed aside the defending champion and two former title-holders in their sweep to the finals of the 1931 tournament, will match artistry and nerves over a 50 inning route. A salary of $6,000 a year, $1,200 in cash, a percentage of the gate receipts and the tidy sum available to a champion for exhibitions will bring the winner approximately $30,000.

Hall, conqueror of the three-time champion and his former teacher, Johnny Layton of Sedalia, Mo., was a big favorite to win in the deciding match but a hard, nerve wracking duel was certain. Both play a great defensive game and both have that extra ounce of nerve that makes champions. Both have won five and lost one during the ten-day tournament.

KEEPING IT HOT

Stove League Gossip

There will be a dearth of hard-socking second sackers in the major leagues this season unless some of the youngsters pop into regular duty. Frisch of the Cards, Thompson of the Robins and Grantham of the Pirates are the only current National league keystoners who can mangle ye olde apple in approved form.

* * *

Only four of the Yankees and none of the Giants have holdover contracts, which means that Messrs. Joe McCarthy and J. J. McGraw may have considerable headaches before the last dotted line is inked washed.

* * *

Hack Wilson's reported demand for 40,000 skins for 1931 outfield duty because Babe Ruth gets $80,000, recalls Ty Cobb's demand 10 years or so ago for $20,000 because that was what the Babe was then being paid. Twenty grand! Such trifles!

* * *

Maybe Hack hasn't read those stories on the market pages to the effect that a dollar today buys $1.37 worth. That would make Hack's salary—if he got it—about fifty-four grand and—you figure it!

* * *

Mike Donlin, the one-time major league star, filled a vaudeville engagement recently despite doctor's orders. When the trip was over Mike had gained six pounds and a big laugh.

Another depression story. Women, admitted free to Sally league ball yards last season will have to pay admissions this year.

* * *

Innkeeper Vance will pitch for the Robins next season. Dazzy has just invested some of his earnings in a hotel in Hom[illegible]sea, Fla.

Ruth And Terry To Have Real War Clubs

MEMPHIS, Jan. 29 (AP)—Babe Ruth and Bill Terry are to have new war clubs of ash 20 years old, Graham Boyd of Memphis, a former ball player, cut the wood on his Arkansas plantation in 1911, put it away to season and forgot all about it until recently, when he gave it to the stars.

ROVING THE SPORTS WORLD

WITH COLLIER PARRIS

JOURNAL SPORTS EDITOR

The annual county basketball tournament begins at the Tech gymnasium this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The tournament is for Class B schools only, and the smaller schools in that division. Boys' teams of Hardy and New Hope will open the program at 5 o'clock this afternoon, followed at 6 by the Grovesville and Foster boys. Twenty games are included in the schedule, all of them to be played between this afternoon and 7 o'clock Saturday evening.

At 8 o'clock tonight the Tech Matadors will oppose the Abilene Christian College quintet on the local floor. Coach Golightly's forces are favorites to win, but we would counsel the Matadors and their followers not to take too much for granted. Tech bumped the Wildcats in a football game last fall and Captain Hodges and his followers defeated them again in the pointed court in Abilene a couple of weeks ago, but that does not make A. C. C. the doormat for the Matadors. Neither is Tech the doormat for Abilene's three colleges.

In Pippen and Lawrence the Abilene Christians have two of the leading point-getters in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The team usually rates rather high in the T. I. A. A. race and it will be no push over for Tech tonight, not tomorrow night. The teams play twice this week.

* * *

This department is requested to make special mention of a further reduction in ticket prices for Tech basketball games. The price of admission to Tech games is lower than at any college, we believe, and Lubbock fans should take advantage of the opportunity. At most places, formerly at Tech, the price was $1. It was cut to 75 cents this season. Later the athletic board voted to cut it again, charging 50 cents for general admission and affixing an additional cost of 25 cents for chairs, or reserved seats in the center of the east side benches. Preferring a full house to two pair, the department has made another reduction. From now until further notice a charge of 50 cents will be made for any seat in the house. Additional chairs will be added to the section standing and comfortable seating arrangements for a packed house will be available.

We note in the records of the winter meeting of the Texas Tech board of directors that the belief that Tech should become affiliated with a conference—one already established or a new one—was expressed. We further note that the college is out of debt save in the department of athletics. A further scrutiny of the minutes reveal that the directorate voted to pay its proportionate of the cost of a survey of athletic conditions in the state. The board agreed to underwrite the deficit incurred by the athletic department. All of which means that the board is behind athletics and seeks to push Tech athletics to the top. Which is a fine attitude and which we appreciate.

If Lubbock as a city would support the college in proportion to the support given by the board of directors of the school, the coaching staff, the athletes themselves, and the president of the institution, Texas Tech would blossom into one of the greatest institutions of the south. It would be on a par with the best in the land. Say what you please but, though some may consider it untrue to the standard for which educational institutions are purposed, a school gains in all departments with the progress made by the athletic department. The latter is the money-making, it should be the money-making, part of a school. Tech's athletic department is in debt. The citizenship of Lubbock would not miss the few dollars per year each individual should spend for his own entertainment and for the building of the school. The money, or a great part of it, remains in Lubbock building the town as well as the school.

The foundations for a great school have been laid in Lubbock. When the city and when West Texas shows an appreciable interest in it, the state will come across with funds to make for a truly great educational center.

* * *

SHORT SPORT SHAVINGS: Crip Golightly and Del Morgan, Tech coaches, will organize baseball teams this spring and play against each other . . . and perhaps anybody else who wants to play. . . . The strictly amateur South Plains baseball league has not, can not and will not exist. . . . Promoters should come to a definite understanding and make it at least semi-pro. . . . There is hardly anything more cut-and-dried than radio athletic interviews. . . . Tech's intramural football season will be wound up Saturday with two games.

LEGAL NOTICE

ORDINANCE NO. 477

An ordinance licensing and regulating the sale at public auction of jewelry, diamonds and other precious or semi-precious stones, watches, clocks, pictured paintings, bric-a-brac or such like articles and prescribing a penalty and providing for an emergency.

Whereas, on account of the general complaint which has grown out of the practice of unregulated auctions and auctioneers of the hereinafter described kind and character of goods and the great amount of imposition made upon the public by misrepresentation and practices of deceit and fraud growing out of unregulated and irresponsible auctioneers and auctions it is deemed advisable by the City Commission of the City of Lubbock, Texas, to pass suitable regulations governing the same so as to secure honesty and fair dealing and avoid such evil practices that have grown up on account of the want of proper regulations, now, therefore:

Be it ordained by the City Commission of the City of Lubbock, Texas:

Section 1. That it shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell, dispose of or offer for sale in the City of Lubbock, at a public auction, or cause or permit to be sold, disposed of or offered for sale at a public auction within the City of Lubbock, jewelry, diamonds or other precious or semi-precious stone, watches, clocks, platinum, gold or silverware or plated ware, glassware, chinery, glassware, porcelain, bric-a-brac or such like articles, whether the same shall be their own property or whether the sale of the same shall be by or through the agency or employment of others, without first complying with the provisions of this ordinance and obtaining a license from the Assessor and Collector of Taxes of the City of Lubbock, and holding a license therefor as hereinafter provided, provided, however, that this section shall not apply to judicial sales or sales made by executors or administrators, nor to sales made by or in behalf of deceased persons or sales deemed pledges, which are made in the manner provided by law.

Section 2. That any person desiring to hold an auction sale for the sale of the goods hereinabove described shall make written application to the Assessor and Collector of Taxes of the City of Lubbock, as herein provided, for thirty days before the proposed sale begins, and shall state in the said application the period of days any such person desires to hold the said auction sale and the said Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall issue to such person a license upon complying with the terms of this ordinance for the period of time so designated, provided, that no license shall be issued for a longer period than thirty days.

Section 3. That application for a license shall be in writing and sworn to, stating the name of the applicant, his residence, the street and number of the proposed place of sale, the length of time for which the license is desired, and if the applicant has been previously engaged in a like or similar business, to designate the places where the sale was conducted and shall furnish the Assessor and Collector of Taxes with such further evidence as shall be necessary and reasonable to establish the truth of the statements made in said application and the right of the applicant to a license.

Section 4. Said application for a license shall have attached to it a sworn inventory of such stock or merchandise setting out the quality, quantity, kind or grade of each item and invoice cost thereof. To such inventory there shall be attached an affidavit that such inventory is in all respects true and correct. In the case of an individual, such affidavit shall be made by him as such; in case of a firm, it shall be made by one of the partners; and in case of a corporation, it shall be made by the president, general manager, secretary or treasurer. Such inventory and affidavit when so made shall be kept on file in the office of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes as a part of the public records pertaining to the sale. No merchandise shall be sold at such auction sale except that referred to and included in the inventory made part of the application. That whenever any extension of the license so granted hereunder to grant, for any person holding an auction, said application shall be made therefor as provided herein, which shall be granted by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes, provided that should it appear to the said Assessor and Collector of Taxes, from the application so made, that new or additional articles, commonly known as "fill ins," are added to the list of articles made by any such person, then it shall be the duty of the said person to furnish an additional bond in the amount as hereinabove described for the sale of the additional articles, or as is required for the sale of the original articles.

Section 5. That all persons desiring a license shall, upon complying with the application herein provided for, and before a license shall be issued to any such person shall tender a bond to the City of Lubbock duly executed by the said applicant, as principal, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars, which bond shall be made payable to the City of Lubbock, at Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas, and when in compliance with the terms of this ordinance shall be approved by the City Commission of the City of Lubbock, Texas, and shall be conditioned that the said principal thereon shall pay all losses and damages which may lawfully be claimed against him on account of any material misrepresentations of fact and belief or any material suppression of facts concerning the merchandise to be auctioned at such sale, or which may grow out of a violation of any of the terms of this ordinance. Such bond shall be made amendable to any person who may sustain any loss or damage on account of any such misrepresentation and shall cover all auction sales of merchandise described in the inventory made and required to be filed with the Assessor and Collector of Taxes, and any such person sustaining any damage or loss may bring suit in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover the same and the provisions of the said bond shall be construed liberally in favor of any such person on account of any loss or damage sustained by any such person either directly or indirectly. All remedies upon or under such bond shall be in addition to any cumulative of all other remedies the parties may have at law or in equity for recoupment of any such losses or damages. The bond shall be signed by a surety company doing business in the State of Texas. Cumulative recoveries may be had on said bond to the full amount thereof.

Section 6. That the Assessor and Collector of Taxes may inspect and investigate any part or all of such stock or merchandise coming within the purview of this ordinance before issuing the license in order to determine the truth of the statements made in the application and the inventory.

Section 7. That before any license shall be issued the applicant shall pay to the City of Lubbock a license fee in advance in the sum equal to $5.00 per day for each day during which the auction is entitled to be held according to the license.

Section 8. It shall be unlawful for any person acting as auctioneer to make any statements which are false in any particular, or which have a tendency to mislead any person present, or to make any misrepresentation whatsoever or as all as to the quality or quantity, character or present condition, or value or cost or general selling price or whether new or second hand, or partly so, of any property offered for disposal by auction sale.

Section 9. That it shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale any article hereinbefore described as "fill in" unless in each and every advertisement of whatever kind with reference to said auction, there be contained a clear and unequivocal statement of the fact that goods and merchandise herein described as "fill in" have been added to the "stock on hand."

Section 10. That it shall be unlawful for any person acting as auctioneer to sell or offer for sale any article hereinbefore described as "fill in" without first stating such fact in a clear and audible voice to the bystanders and all persons present at said auction.

Section 11. (Definitions). That a sale or offering for sale, to the highest bidder of any jewelry, diamonds or other precious or semi-precious stones, platinum, watches, clocks, platinum, gold or silverware or plated ware, glassware, porcelain, bric-a-bric, or such like articles, in any building, in any of the streets or alleys, or in any other public place, where any and all persons who choose are permitted to attend and offer bids, shall be deemed to constitute a public auction within the meaning of this ordinance.

That by the words "stock on hand" as herein used is meant such jewelry, diamonds, or other precious or semi-precious stones, watches, clocks, platinum, gold or silverware or plated ware, glass ware, porcelain, stationery, bric-a-brac and such like articles which a merchant usually and ordinarily carries throughout the year, and does not include jewelry, diamonds, or other precious or semi-precious stones, watches, clocks, platinum, gold or silverware or plated ware, glass ware, porcelain, station, bric-a-brac and such like articles as may be added to the stock on hand as above defined and intended to evade the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 12. It shall be unlawful for any person to act as by-bidder or what is commonly known as a "capper" or "booster" at any such auction or place where any such auction sale takes place, or to offer or make any false bid or to offer any false bid to buy or pretend to buy any such article sold or offered for sale at any such auction.

Section 13. That the term "person" as used herein shall include and comprehend any person, firm, or association of persons or any corporation, their agents, servants or employees.

Section 14. That any person, firm, association of persons, or any corporation, their agents, servants or employees violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction in the corporation court, be fined in any sum not exceeding Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars, and each and every day that a violation of this ordinance occurs shall be deemed a separate offense, and in addition to the penalty herein provided for any such person convicted in the corporation court, or upon appeal thereof, the judge of the said corporation court, or any judge upon appeal thereof, may revoke the license under which the said auction is being held and it shall thereafter be unlawful for any person whose license is revoked to hold any auction under the terms of this ordinance, provided, however, that any person whose license is revoked, may make application to the mayor and City Commission, and after a hearing upon such application for a reinstatement of any such license and may have a new license granted any such person upon the order of the mayor and City Commission to the Assessor and Collector of Taxes, provided, that any such person whose license is revoked shall comply with the terms and provisions of this ordinance.

Section 15. That should any portion or part of this ordinance be held for any reason invalid or unenforceable, the same shall not be construed to affect any other valid portion hereof, but all valid portions shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 16. Whereas, on account of the promiscuous auction sales made by traveling auctioneers, as well as on account of the many acts of extortion and oppression, growing out of misrepresentations and deceits practiced on the public by unregulated auctioneers, engaged in the sale of articles hereinabove described creates an urgency and an emergency in behalf of the preservation of the public peace, health and safety that requires this ordinance to become effective upon its passage and it is accordingly so ordained that this ordinance shall become effective immediately upon its passage as in the character in such cases is made and provided.

Passed, approved and adopted by a unanimous vote of the City Commission this the 11th day of December, 1930.

Passed and approved this the 18th day of December, 1930.

COLOR ENGINEERS CREATING MODERN WORKING SCHEMES

BY R. A. BRUNER

CLEVELAND, Jan. 29 (AP)—Realization that the machine age man for all his greasy overalls and monotonous routine is stimulated by the pleasantries of harmonious light and color, has put engineers here to work creating a new environment for him.

This new environment will take the form of schemes of color and lighting for interiors of factories offices and school buildings. Some of the colors that have beautified the homes will now go into factories.

Workers Happier

Color scheme charts are being worked out by Matthew Luckiesch, director of lighting research at Nela Park. He believes a majority of the workers are happier, more enthusiastic and consequently more efficient when they work in an environment that has the color appeal.

He is working out schemes of cool colors for factory interiors where hard, muscular work is done. Offices, he says, should have warmer colors. Where women work on some delicate feminine material, some such color as orchid should predominate. School rooms with windows on the north should be colored with warmth and on the south kept colorfully cool.

Austin Firm Has Ideas

Practical application of these ideas is being made by the Austin company of Cleveland, engineers constructing the new windowless plant of the Simonds Steel industries at Fitchburg, Mass.

The plant, on one floor, will be 360 feet long and 360 feet wide.

Imitating the environment of the forest and sky, which made the life of the ancestors of the machine-age man pleasant, the walls and ceiling of the factory interior will be blue, green and white, while the machines will be colored orange The orange color wil raise the visibility of the machine parts and promote safety.

Florida 'Legger Kept Right Hand In Ignorance

CLEARWATER, Fla., Jan. 29 (AP)—Theodore Cerallo, haled to count here on charges of bootlegging, quoted the Biblical admonition against letting one hand know what the other is doing and admitted he concurred in the thought.

Testimony disclosed he had rented the front part of a building he owned to a Baptist congregation for religious worship and at the same time had sold liquor in the rear part of the house.

The judge sentenced him to serve ten days in prison.

Cold Checker Is Woman's Benefactor

CANTON, Ill., Jan. 29 (AP)—Several Canton merchants indulged in a little charitable work yesterday that was as unexpected to them as it was to the recipient.

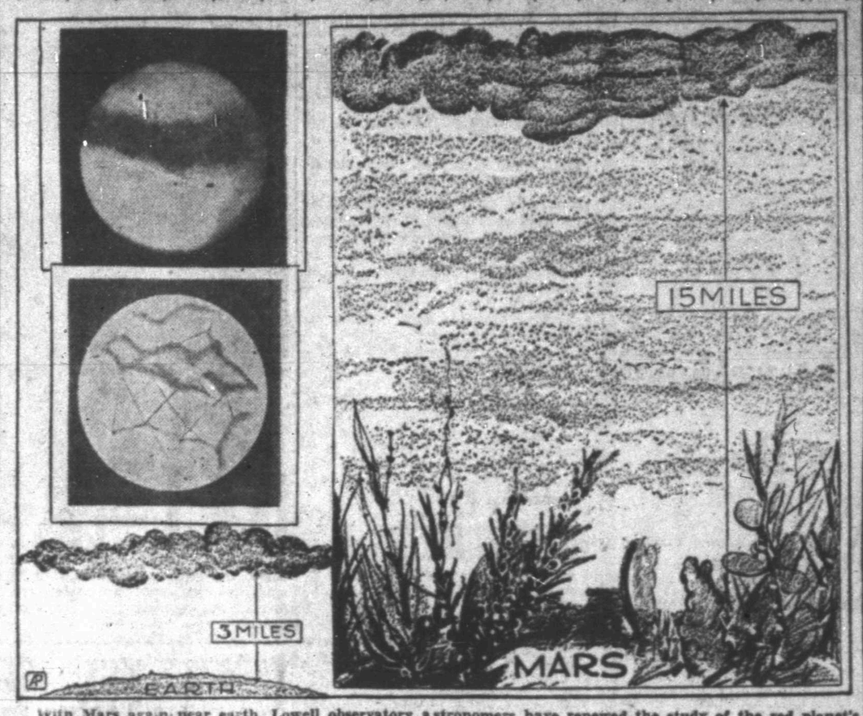

A well filled basket of groceries and a load of coal were delivered to a poor widow. She was sure she had been singled out for relief by some charitable organization.

The merchants got together today, found that a "William Wright" had ordered the supplies, that he had left town and that none of his checks was good.

"WEATHERMEN" FOR MARS AT ARIZONA TELESCOPE MAPPING SUMMER RESORTS FORTY MILLION MILES IN THE DISTANCE

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Jan. 29—A 35-year-old quest to solve the riddles of Mars has been renewed at the Lowell observatory this winter.

Now, while the red planet is closest to earth, the 24-inch telescope nightly swings toward Mars, directed by E. C. Slipher, Lowell astronomer who is making the Martian studies his life work.

There are four divisions of these observations. The chief study is change of seasons and all related matters. They are more regular on Mars than on earth. Spring summer, winter and fall arrive always within two or three days of the same date.

It is suspected the general absence of large bodies of water gives this great regularity to the Martian calendar, which has long been well recorded.

Other observations will carry forward the making of a complete photographic record which began in 1905. This affords a valuable permanent record of the planet throughout the years.

Another will record temperatures by regional readings, not only for zones such as temperate or torrid, but figuratively country by country—if there are national boundaries on Mars.

These readings are made with a thermocouple, an instrument capable of recording the heat from a single star too faint for the eye to see. This is done by Dr. C. O. Lampland.

The temperature readings confirm previous evidence by Dr. Percival Lowell that Mars alone among planets shows undoubted signs of a climate like earth's.

Mars reflects only 15 per cent of the sun's light, compared with 50 per cent reflection by the earth, and this accounts for Mars absorbing about the same amount of heat, although approximately 40 million miles farther from the sun.

The fourth work is analysis of Mars' light through a spectroscope which breaks up light into its wave lengths, or colors, and shows what substances are involved in the reflection. This is one method of detecting water and oxygen.

Thus far no great differences from earth's air have been observed, except as Lowell many times noted the atmosphere is less dense on Mars.

The presence of this Martian atmosphere is not merely a scientific deduction. For more than a quarter of a century clouds have been observed and measured by Lowell and others at Flagstaff, where sometimes they have been seen as high as 15 to 17 miles above the planet's surface.

One such "storm", lasted through four nights of observing in 1922 and covered more than 300,000 square miles.

Martian clouds hang higher than earth's probably because the lesser gravitation pull on Mars does not compress the atmosphere so closely.

The "canals" still are mysteries, but the observations indicate strongly that they may be ribbons of vegetable growth.

"THE SNOW GANG" IS NO MORE WITH MEMBERS IN JAIL, PAPER BROUGHT TO PRESS STATES

Complete dissolution of a group of young criminals, self-styled as "The Snow Gang" was revealed late Wednesday by county officers. A pencilled sheet of tablet paper, relayed to the police by three young girls Wednesday brought first news of the gang.

"They sent this down and wanted it put in the paper," said a loud dark headed little girl. She further explained that a member of the gang was her "feller" and that each of the two slender sisters with her also had "fellers" in the "Snow gang."

Police yesterday stated that members of the gang long had been known to them but that existence of such an organization into a group had not been revealed.

"The trio will pay dearly for their crime—The end of the famous Snow gang," the slip of paper concluded. The girls stated that writer of the slip was known as the "main leader" of the gang

"The main leader—and his two right-hand men—the gunman—the gang director—they were all tried today before Sir Judge E. L. Pitts," the paper reported.

"The trio all got sentences at the state reform school."

Other interesting phrases followed such as "they didn't tell a tale," and "they have proved to be faithful to the famous Snow gang."

The young sweethearts of the self-styled desperadoes, chattered at length about their exploits, one stating:

"They are the champions—they can steal more than anybody."

Three members of the gang—all brothers from whose family name the girls explained the name of the gang was derived—are in the county jail. An older brother, who officers said had served terms in two state penitentiaries, escaped from the county jail Wednesday.

BANK IS SUING 'IT' GIRL

BEVERLY HILLS BANK OUT TO COLLECT ON $400 CHECK

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 29.—Clara Bow, flaming-haired screen star, and Daisy De Boe, her blonde erstwhile secretary, recently opposed to each other when Miss De Boe was on trial for alleged stealing from her employer, were named joint defendants today in a $400 suit by the Beverly Hills National bank.

Miss De Boe is in the county jail awaiting sentence next Monday on one count of grand theft.

Cash and jewels valued at $3,000, which Miss De Boe proved were her own during her trial, were attached when the suit was filed.

The bank claimed Miss De Boe wrote a check for $400 on Miss Bow's special account before she left the actress' employ, and that payment on it was stopped.

REDISTRICTING IS PLANNED IN BILL

AUSTIN Jan. 29. (AP)—Every county in Texas would be limited to one senator and not more than four representatives under the provisions of a proposed constitutional amendment drawn by Senator Loy of Sherman.

Senator Loy said under the proposed new redistricting plan being prepared in the house some counties would have two senators and as many as ten representatives.

He said he opposed the redistricting plan on the ground it centralized the powers of legislation with both population and wealth.

Senator Loy said a large part of Texas was rural and that the rural interest must be served.

He said there were 94 counties now served by four senators while on the other hand there were four senators who repesented one county each.

Bishop Says Politics Cause Of Depression

DALLAS, Jan. 29. (AP)—Bishop Harry T. Moore, in his annual address before the council of the Dallas diocese of the Episcopal church, blamed political leaders for much of the confusion attending the 1930 business depression.

"The church is on trial today and must re-dedicate itself to its spiritual mission if it is to be the one dependable element in our world," Bishop Moore asserted.

TROTZKY, MUTE AFTER TWO YEARS OF EXILE, GIVES UP HOPE OF SUCCESS

By PRISCILLA RING

PRINKIPÓ, Princes' Islands, Turkey (AP)—The second year of Leon Trotzky's banishment is drawing to a close with no sign of a break in his exile.

The feverish attempts Trotzky made to seek a refuge more congenial than Turkey have ceased. So, too, have his cries that were heard when several European doors failed to open at his knock.

Trotzky talked much after he was brought to Istanbul by Soviet agents February 12, 1929. But he talks no more.

One of his chief occupations now is slamming his own door in the faces of scores of itinerant newsgatherers, mostly American.

Writers make vain pilgrimages to this island in the Marmora sea, braving the wild south wind in a small Turkish steamer on a passage that can be as epically melancholy as an English channel crossing.

With luck, Ivan, the ruddy young son of Trotzky, is sometimes visible and monosyllabic, but Trotzky himself, never.

Nor is there any one in Istanbul, except the doctors who frequently visit the villa, who has seen Mrs. Trotzky. She does not even seem to emerge into the long vegetable garden which stretches from the gate of their villa back to the Marmora shore.

LEON TROTZKY

There Trotzky daily embarks in a rowboat on a fishing expedition.

For seekers after information there are his son, a plain-clothes man and police dog, who severally bow and bark them away.

That two events, one good, one bad, have marked the past year in the life of Trotzky was learned from the briefly responsive son.

The first was that he has completed the first half of his history of the Russian revolution. He writes day in and day out.

The unfavorable news is the recurrence of the malaria from which he formerly suffered. When he first arrived here, Trotzky repeatedly said the climate was detrimental to him. Now he apparently is resigned to the climate, and to the loneliness imposed by the strict Turkish surveillance.

Ivan denied rumors that attempts would again be made to enter some other country.

"Do you think of trying America?" he was asked.

"Too far," Ivan answered, and then with a short laugh, "unless one takes a dirigible."

PEACHES' SLEUTHS HAVE BETTER EYES THAN THE CAMERA

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—If Mrs. Frances "Peaches" Browning's sleuths saw what they say they saw in "Daddy" Browning's Rolls Royce they have better eyes than the camera.

So his attorney contended in opposing Mrs. Browning's plea for $20,000 counsel fees by which she hopes to get divorce on the grounds of improper conduct.

Fourteen photographs of the limousine, taken from every possible angle, were submitted to Supreme Court Justice Hatting in an effort to show that it is impossible to see into the tonneau. More than that, it was shown, a plate glass windshield between the front and rear seats prevents even the chauffeur from taking a peek through his mirror.

Browning's attorney also submitted affidavits testifying that Peaches is in a sound financial condition. She occupies a $250 a month apartment in a fashionable section, it was averred, and she recently had it redecorated at a cost of $6,000. Some of her worldly goods was listed as follows: 30 modish gowns, up to $350 each; 15 pairs of shoes, $15 to $20 a pair; fur coats and clothes, $20,000; jewelry, $10,000 and more.

Decision was reserved and both sides were directed to file briefs.

CURTIS DECLARES ADVERTISING WILL MAKE FORTUNES

(By The Associated Press)

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 29—Cyrus H. K. Curtis, president of the Curtis Publishing company, Philadelphia, last night told the committee of 100 social organizations here that advertising will make fortunes.

The policy of some advertisers to save expenses by cutting down on advertising is "foolish," he said, adding "everything that is done is built on advertising and intelligent advertising will make your fortunes."

He said his company spent $1,000,000 last year in advertising and plans to spend $2,000,000 this year.

"In a period of depression," he said, "we must run as fast as we can to stay where we are."

Thomas B. King of Stephenville, Tex., who was graduated from the University of Missouri 72 years ago, recently gave his alma mater a gift of $100.

FLU EPIDEMIC IS SPREADING

PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE NOTES INCREASES IN CASES

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A rapid spread of influenza was reported by the public health service today, with a total of 7,275 cases now as compared with 3,876 a week ago.

The public health service estimates the disease is about five times as prevalent as shown in the report, since several states do not require influenza reporting and others have only the statistics furnished by physicians.

States showing the heaviest increase were Massachusetts, 114 cases now as compared with 17 a week ago; Connecticut, 140 now and 82 a week ago; Illinois, 26 and 41; Maryland, 1,226 and 113; West Virginia, 159 and 33; North Carolina, 177 and 112; South Carolina, 1,968 and 1,078; Tennessee, 187 and 162; Arkansas, 209 and 101; Texas, 102 and 85.

Baptists Plan To Raise $600,000

DALLAS Jan. 29. (AP)—Baptist leaders from all Baptist districts of the state met here Tuesday to outline a campaign for raising nearly $600,000 for general purposes of the denomination's Texas work in 1931.

District rallies are to be held in February, associational rallies in March, and a "flying squadron" of Baptist speakers will present the cause in every church or zone according to the campaign program presented by Dr. W. R. White, state executive secretary.

Plans were made to hold two major mission rallies, one in Fort Worth on Feb. 18 and another in Houston on Feb. 19.

ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER DESCRIBES CONDITIONS IN DROUTH-STRICKEN AREA IN ARKANSAS; PEOPLE BARELY LIVING

BY J. C. STARK

MARVEL, Ark., Jan. 29. (AP)—One meal a day, consisting usually of bread and molasses and perhaps beans or plain salt pork, is what the average drouth sufferer's family gets out of what the Red Cross gives him.

"But we're thankful to get that because it keeps us from starving," said Jacob Miller, a negro tenant farmer and life long resident of this community. "About all it does is keep us alive though."

Case Is Typical

Miller's case is typical of that of most of the tenant farmers of this and other counties—whites and negroes alike.

He has a wife and two children and has been receiving food from the Red Cross for three weeks. It amounts to about $5 a month.

"We eat one meal a day," he said. "If we tried to get more than that out of the food we get, it wouldn't last two weeks."

The food is allotted every two weeks.

Does Without Something

"We don't get enough at the one meal. If I ate all I wanted, there wouldn't be any left for my family so lots of times I do without.

"The people over here, both white and colored persons, have just about killed all their hogs that didn't die. I lost five hogs and was afraid to eat them. I know of lots of others who also lost their hogs. I don't know what was the matter with them—I suppose it was because they hadn't got the right kind of feed.

Going to Kill Cows

"Now people are going to have to kill their cows as poor as they are, to get enough to eat."

Miller's children are not in school because he said they did not have clothes to keep them warm. Many others are keeping their children out of school for the same reason.

Like many of the other tenant farmers Miller saved nothing from last year's crop. His cotton brought ten cents a pound and barely paid for the picking. He could not pay for the food furnished him on that crop. He bought a mule which he lost because he could not pay for it.

BY J. C. STARK

FOREST CITY, Ark., Jan. 29. (AP)—Two-thirds of the entire population of St. Francis county, of which this is the county seat, is now living on the meager rations supplied by the Red Cross, and the number is growing daily.

Out of a total population of 32,500 in the county, more than 21,000 are on the dependent list for the provisions given out every two weeks.

All Of County Needs Aid

Since residents of the towns are not receiving help from the Red Cross, these figures indicate that virtually the entire rural population of the county is independent on the national relief organization.

George E. Parker, general relief chairman for the county, predicts the Red Cross relief list will reach 25,000 in two weeks, which will leave only 8,000 persons in the county not receiving food from this organization.

Many of these, however, are on other forms of charity.

Livestock is on the verge of starvation and some actually has perished.

The Red Cross authorized $5,000 for feed for livestock and the fund was exhausted in three days. Only 2,000 of an estimated 6,000 head in need received aid.

Francis county had a flood each of the three years prior to 1930 and then came the drouth. The drouth produced a far greater relief task than did any of the three floods.

Most of those receiving Red Cross food are unaccustomed to luxury, making each year from their crops only enough to provide the bare necessities of life. They receive for food from the Red Cross about a third of what they normally have to live on, rural merchants in the county say.

Having Hardtime

This means they are having one and two meals a day made up of bread and molasses, rice and beans.

Disease produced by undernourishment is spreading rapidly among the negro families, a survey reveals. Pellagra especially is on the incline.

The present mild weather is preventing widespread suffering from lack of clothing.

School attendance in the rural sections has fallen off because children have not sufficient clothes to attend school.

Hatcher's Accounts Are Ten Cents Off

DALLAS, Jan. 29. (AP)—After handling Texas' funds for six years, W. Gregory Hatcher, former state treasurer, returned here from Austin to resume the practice of law, having taken a receipt from Charley Lockhart, his successor, for $63,060,000 representing balances in state funds.

Hatcher said that every account, save the permanent school fund, balanced, and it was 10 cents off.

"The state owned me 10 cents," he said.

During his tenure of three terms Hatcher paid out $515,000,000 in state funds, he said.

The total of all water commerce handled by the port of New Orleans in 1929 was 11,681,870 tons.
