

MISHAP EAST OF STANTON

Two Men Perish
In Car-Bus Crash

Collision of a bus and an automobile a mile and a half east of Stanton late Wednesday evening resulted in the death of two young men, and injuries to at least three other persons. Reports indicated that none of these three was critically hurt.

Killed instantly was the driver of the car, R. M. Mosier, Jr., 26, of Merkel. Charles Butman, 24, of Merkel, died about 2 a. m. Thursday in the hospital at Stanton.

The mishap occurred about 6:15 p. m. The bus, an American Bus Lines eastbound schedule, was being driven by Pat McKinney of El Paso, who was unhurt. It carried 14 passengers, most of whom were only shaken up by the impact. Mrs. Mary Jane Vale, Sherman, was treated for a broken arm at the Stanton hospital, and another passenger, Patricia Goodman, 17, Fort Worth, received medical examination in Big Spring.

A third young man in the Mosier car, Billy T. Shook of Rising Star, was injured, but the hospital at Stanton said it was probable he could be released today.

State Highway patrolmen and Sheriff Bob Wolf from Big Spring investigated the accident, and later the damaged bus was towed into Big Spring. The passengers were brought here on another bus. The Mosier car was practically demolished.

Bodies of Mosier and Butman were forwarded Thursday to Merkel, where funeral services for both are to be held Friday afternoon. Eberley Funeral home was in charge of local arrangements.

Each victim is survived by a wife and two small children, their parents, and brothers and sisters, all of Merkel.

Dewey May
Back Strong
Farm Program

Demos Offer
Agriculture
Vote Challenge

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19. (AP)—A Democratic farm vote challenge appeared likely to be answered by a campaign pledge from Governor Thomas E. Dewey to back a strong price support program.

Sen. Barkley of Kentucky put up the sign posts for Democratic farm belt strategy with his assertion at Springfield, Ill., that farmers can choose in November between high prices under the democrats or low prices under the Republicans.

Gov. Earl Warren of California had a chance—if he chose to take it—to answer his vice presidential opponent on the same Illinois State Fair platform today.

But the major Republican edict on agricultural policy is expected to come from Dewey on the GOP presidential nominee's projected cross-country campaign tour.

Unless he changes his mind, Dewey is expected to outline a program under which the government would continue to put a loan floor under farm prices.

Loans on most major crops now are made at 90 per cent of parity, a formula aimed at keeping farm prices in line with the prices of things the grower buys.

Congress continued the present price support program for a year, but voted to put into effect on Jan. 1, 1950, a long range proposal under which loan floors would be slightly lower on field crops but a little higher on livestock and dairy products.

Dewey is expected to indicate any changes he may have in mind for this long-range program.

Its parity formula doesn't take into account the cost of hired farm labor, a point that Dewey said in Corvallis, Ore., last May must be given "consideration." Experts said the labor cost factor would raise the price support level in most years.

President Doubts
Oil Industry's
No Shortage View

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19. (AP)—President Truman expressed doubt today whether an East Coast oil shortage can be averted this winter.

He was told at a news conference that representatives of the oil industry had expressed the view that there would be no shortage.

Mr. Truman replied he sincerely hoped the oil industry was right, but he doubted it.

Absentee Votes

A total of 112 absentee ballots for the Second Democratic Primary election August 28 had been cast in the county clerk's office at 11 a. m. today, a little more than one-fifth the aggregate compiled in the First Primary.

Persons have opportunity to cast absentee votes through Tuesday, August 24.

CLAIMS LOYALTY PLAN SUCCESS

Truman Says Investigation
Infringes On Bill Of Rights

WASHINGTON, August 19. (AP)—President Truman expressed the opinion today that the House hearings on Communist activities have infringed on the Bill of Rights.

He also told a news conference the government's loyalty program has been entirely successful in preventing infiltration of Communists into the government. He said he believes no war secrets have gotten out of this country.

Mr. Truman said the Department of Justice has been studying for a long time a new loyalty statute. But he said it is most difficult to work it out under our form of government guaranteeing certain freedoms without infringing on the Bill of Rights.

He said he is categorically opposed to any new law that would do that.

Mr. Truman has asked whether there has been any change in the controversy over letting congressional committees look at loyalty records.

He replied that employment files always are available to congress, but not confidential files.

Confidential data, he added, has been available to the FBI and loyalty boards, where anything of a criminal nature has been disclosed that information has been turned over to grand juries.

Water Consumption
Bobbing Slightly

Water consumption is bobbing slightly these days with the curve humping upward Wednesday.

The city metered out 4,307,000 gallons on that day. Tuesday the total was 4,146,000 gallons, just slightly higher than Monday.

Water levels are holding constant at the lakes, which contain more than a billion gallons in reserve.

Soviet Teacher's Condition Better

NEW YORK, Aug. 19. (AP)—Improvement was reported today in the condition of the Russian school teacher who a week ago leaped from the third floor of the Soviet Consulate.

During the night she had been reported sinking at Roosevelt Hospital.

A bulletin issued at 9 a. m. (CST) said: "Mrs. Kosenkina's condition shows improvement this morning. Her temperature is 101. Pulse is 110, which is strong. Breathing more easily since being put under an oxygen tent. She ate a good breakfast."

The writ directed Lomakin to produce Mrs. Kosenkina for a habeas corpus hearing last Thursday. This was delayed, but Dickstein told reporters he "could" nevertheless hold Lomakin in contempt for failure to obey the order.

Magr. Joseph F. Flannely was celebrant of the high mass for the great Yankee batter who died of cancer Monday night in memorial hospital at the age of 53.

The Babe's widow, Mrs. Claire Ruth; their two adopted daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Sullivan and Mrs. Richard Flanders; and the Babe's sister, Mrs. Wilbur Moderly, arrived early at the cathedral.

The list of those who filed up the wide grey steps of the cathedral read like the headlines of the sports pages—today's as well as yesterday's: Jack Dempsey and Connie Mack; Leo Durocher and Moe Berg.

As great as the tribute of the famous was the grave silence of a police-estimated 50,000 persons who waited dutifully outside the cathedral and on the route taken by the hearse from the funeral chapel to the cathedral.

The usually noisy canyons of midtown Manhattan were hushed as the Babe's body was born behind mounted police from the Lexington avenue funeral home.

Hiss Refuses
To Undergo A Lie Test

Pressman, Abt,
Witt Ordered
For Questioning

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19. (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee today ordered three former New Deal lawyers to appear for questioning tomorrow in its Communist spy ring investigation. They are: Nathan Witt, Lee Pressman and John Abt.

The committee also said that Alger Hiss, former State Department official accused of being part of a pre-war Red underground in Washington, has refused to submit at this time to a lie detector test.

Hiss has denied time and again under oath that he ever was a Communist. He now heads the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

It was learned from another source that Whittaker Chambers has not been a witness before a federal grand jury in New York City investigating espionage.

Chambers has acknowledged to the House Committee that he was a Communist from 1924-1937 and worked with a Communist underground in Washington.

The Justice Department has declined to comment on this in any way, repeating that it will not discuss proceedings still in progress before a grand jury.

Travel Fund Is In The Making
For Furio Family

OLD ORCHARD BEACH, Me., Aug. 19. (AP)—A travel fund is in the making today for the Furios—Cpl. Tony, his blonde wife, Marjorie and their 22-month-old son.

Its purpose is to get Mrs. Furio and Tony, Jr., to El Paso, Tex., without any more hitch-hiking.

The corporal hopes they'll have enough—he hasn't found out yet how much he needs—so the family can leave with him Monday. He has to report at Fort Bliss on the 25th.

The fund, started by their friend, Mrs. Madeline Holland, had reached $15 last night. She was confident there would be more.

"Tony has lots of friends here and is well liked," she said.

The corporal, who used to tend bar at the Old Orchard Country Club and later ran a restaurant at this resort, was reunited with his family yesterday.

Financed by generous Californians and some airline employees, he hastened east by plane and train to make his wife, who is expecting another child, give up any further idea of "hitchhiking."

Mrs. Furio didn't know about the transfer to El Paso when she started hitch-hiking from Bangor to San Francisco last Friday. She thought her husband was going overseas.

Russian Press
Says West Envoys
Change Attitude

BERLIN, Aug. 19. (AP)—Sections of the Russian-controlled German press charged today that contradictory attitudes of the Western Powers bogged down Moscow talks on the Berlin crisis and the German problem.

These newspapers made the charges of obstructionism along with a renewed propaganda broadside against western occupation policies and Berlin's anti-Communist city government.

The city government has just made known it may issue its own currency in an attempt to unravel the divided city's East-West monetary snarl.

The Moscow talks among representatives of the four big powers are reported nearing an end. The western diplomats there were conferring again today on the status of their negotiations with Prime Minister Stalin and Foreign Minister Molotov.

The intensity of the attacks by the Communist press seemed to indicate that the deadlock is continuing on major issues in Moscow. At the start of the Moscow talks, the Communist press of Germany had soft-pedaled such attacks.

City Requests
Warrant Notice
For New Paving

City commissioners today authorized the mayor to post notice of intention to issue warrants for street improvements, thus virtually fixing a date for the next step in a 100-block paving program.

The action came at a special meeting at 1 p. m., after commissioners had given individually their consent to such a meeting. Mayor G. W. Dabney was instructed to have published a notice of the commission's intention to issue warrants in the amount of $60,000 to finance the city's share in an anticipated big paving project.

Since the publication date will be Friday and 14 days must elapse before the commission takes positive action toward issuing the warrants, the issue date is projected for Sept. 4, 1948.

The $60,000 in warrants is estimated to care for the city's portion of possible street improvements and will be retired serially over a period of five years.

The maximum interest rate is pegged at three and a quarter per cent. If the warrant issue is authorized finally on Sept. 4, as it is due to be, commissioners are expected to enter an order on the engineer's estimates of costs for paving slightly more than 100 blocks.

Public hearings then would be ordered for the improvements and on the basis of the testimony, commissioners will order such a portion as seems justified. Brown & Root, contractors, would then be in a position to move in and resume a contract that they have with the city.

A called meeting was advocated Thursday by commissioners who expressed a desire to expedite the paving project as much as possible.

Gen. Weathered
Will Be Honored
By Texas Guard

CAMP HOOD, Aug. 19. (AP)—Veterans of Texas' 36th Infantry Division will honor Lt. Gen. Preston A. Weathered of Dallas, commander of the Texas National Guard and former commander of the 36th, with a review at his retirement Saturday.

Gov. Beauford Jester will retire the general at 10 a. m. ceremonies following inspection of the guard area at Camp Hood, where the guard is attending its first two-week camp, since the war.

Weathered will be honored by Maj. Gen. H. Miller Almsworth, present commander of the 36th, during the afternoon and later at a dinner and dance at the Officers' Club.

Weathered, longtime 36th officer, reorganized the division after the war. He was promoted to lieutenant general last July 8 and given command of the Texas National Guard.

Sees Danger
In Jerusalem

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 19. (AP)—The United Nations Palestine mediator warned the Security Council today that the situation in Jerusalem is "gradually getting out of hand."

He said it is doubtful whether the Holy City can be demilitarized in the near future.

Count Folke Bernadotte, asking the council for prompt action to halt the renewed Arab-Jewish strife, declared in an interim report that the Arabs have accepted in principle the plan to disarm regular and irregular troops in Jerusalem.

"But the Jews, who stated initially they did not exclude demilitarization, have shown no readiness to accept it up till now," Bernadotte added.

Under these conditions it would be necessary to have a "strong and well-armed international force to bring about demilitarization of the Holy City," the report said.

Demilitarization of Jerusalem has been one of the mediator's primary aims in his negotiations with Jews and Arabs. His latest attempt to bring about a cease-fire failed to halt the fighting there.

Bernadotte's report expressed fear these clashes might bring about new full-scale warfare.

General Eaker Gives Support To Johnson

Lt. Gen. Ira C. Eaker, retired deputy commander of the Army Air Forces, warned of grave national danger and recommended the support of Lyndon Johnson in a San Angelo speech which was broadcast over KBST Thursday night.

The noted airman warned that Russia, in effect has already declared war. He described America as in "her greatest danger" and said that danger exists because the "most powerful tyranny that ever cursed the world rides today unchecked."

In backing Johnson, Eaker said the lawmaker's services should be continued on a high level.

Eaker also named two things prudent Americans can do in this period. They were, first, to realize the danger to national security and, second, to select wise leaders.

The air officer followed his radio address with an informal talk before 200 persons at a barbecue sponsored by veterans supporting Lyndon Johnson, the 10th District congressman who faces Coke Stevenson in the runoff primary election next week.

Eaker also spoke before the Eldorado Lions Club in his one-day visit to West Texas. He was born in Llano County 32 years ago; his father lives at Eden.

Eaker will return Thursday to Los Angeles, where he is working for Hughes Aircraft.

In state and national elections this year, Americans face the same opportunity the French passed by when they failed to choose vigorous leadership before World War II engulfed them, Eaker said.

Only rainfall in the state in the 24 hours up to 8 a. m. was a shower of .61 inch at Galveston.

Skies were generally fair this morning except for a light fog along the coast. The forecast was for not much change in temperature today and tomorrow.

RUSSIAN GIRL WANTS TO STAY IN SWEDEN — The Stockholm newspaper Dagens Nyheter identified the "Swedish Kosenkina" as Lydia Makarova (above), 19, Miss Makarova, a musical student in the Swedish capital, has refused to leave Sweden and return to Russia as requested by the Soviet Embassy. She said she had fled to Sweden in 1944 after her mother had died at Leningrad. ESTIMATED 56,000 PEOPLE COME FOR RITES

Noisy Canyons Of Midtown Manhattan Hush
As Body Of Babe Ruth Carried To Cathedral

NEW YORK, Aug. 19. (AP)—Funeral services for Babe Ruth in St. Patrick's cathedral today climaxed the nation's mourning for the king of baseball.

Silent thousands of persons—the famous who knew him in person and the obscure who admired him in spirit—thronged the Roman Catholic cathedral and overflowed into Fifth avenue.

Francis Cardinal Spellman presided at the requiem high mass for the "big guy" with the happy grin who rose from a Baltimore orphanage to undisputed monarch of the national sport.

The great doors of the cathedral were open to the public—symbolic, said friends, of the Babe's open heart to the people in the bleachers and the kids in distant places to whom his name meant great sportsmanship.

About 6,000 persons crowded the cathedral to the doors. A police-estimated 50,000 others stood gravely outside. A 250-man police detail was on duty for the largest funeral in New York in years.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey headed the list of honorary pallbearers who included prominent sportsmen and sports writers.

Among those present were Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York; Mayor James M. Curley of Boston; where the Babe began his big league career with the Red Sox; Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro of Baltimore, where Ruth got his first feel of a baseball mitt detail was on duty for the largest funeral in New York in years.

Shaw Asks Diplomatic Dictionary To Clear Up Confusion In Charges And War Jitters

Shaw, whose own prose is generally considered among the clearest in modern times, went on:

"I myself find it impossible to make myself understood, though when I describe myself by this or that adjective I know precisely what I mean . . . I am basically a Marxist Communist, but I cannot say so without being set down as an infantile advocate of catastro-over imaginary differences and de-

Robstown Youth Really Loves Pets

that will enable them to lie unambiguously. To the truthful, the present impossibility of wordings of their messages without being misunderstood is an agony.

"A dictionary will not cure our habit of mistaking the association of ideas for logic, but it will do all that can be done at short notice."

Fear Of Oil Boom Needless One When It Understood

Over in a neighboring city a young entrepreneur is running his course over an old question of an oil boom. It all started when an editorial appeared, expressing the hope there would be no oil boom in this particular community.

The point was that the editor hoped his town would never become a ghost town as many a mushroom community had. He went on to say that "we hope the new impetus given to our possibilities will mean more leasing of lands at good rates, casual development of our fields without waste and without depletion of the reserves under the surface. Nominal production for years to come will mean more than gushers that soon play out."

Perhaps few would quarrel with this thesis. However, the debate arose with the additional contention that "much of the riff-raff of labor that follows the boom towns are of low moral character; unchaste women follow the boomers; crime breeds on the elements of the boom."

Well sir, the oil fraternity isn't exactly thrilled over such a stigma. The word "oil" seems to have been read into the term "boom town." Years and years ago some few Big Springers had fears of boomers debauching the community. Instead, Big Spring found that some of the best people in the world, some of the most substantial, some of the most energetic are those who come in with oil development. Doubtless, there are many kinds of people in the oil industry, but there are in the newspaper trade, too. In all realms, good is where you find it.

Time To Attend To Chore Of Getting Youngsters Checked

Chances are that most parents of children, who are entering school for the first time this year, have attended to the little chore of having a physical examination of the child.

In event this has not been done, we should like to add our recommendation to it and to remind patrons that time is short. Sept. 7 will be here before we know it, and if many parents wait until the last week, the poor doctor will be snowed under. So why not now?

There are many things to be gained by such examinations, certainly not the least of which will be peace of mind that the child is in sound health, that necessary inoculations and vaccinations are behind.

One of the real values, too, is the discovery of defects. Certainly if there were the slightest impairment of a child's heart, the parent would want to know about it and the teacher would want to know. Together they could help adjust the child's schedule of work and play so as not only to avoid aggravating the condition, but perhaps help to overcome it. More likely is the discovery of speech and hearing defects. Instances where such disabilities, which more often than not can be corrected, have led to the conclusion that a child was backward are legion. If a youngster can't hear or see properly, certainly he can't be expected to progress with the ease of other children.

The best way to find out about these things is to have a thorough check. Youngsters entering school for the first time certainly need to see their family physician. It might not be a bad idea to have other youngsters in for a periodic check just to see that they are getting along all right.

My, My The Growing Boy Has Many Opportunities

WASHINGTON, D.C.—My, my, the opportunities a growing boy has nowadays! When I was a squirt in Monet, Mo., there didn't seem to be many careers to choose from.

At various times I seriously considered such interesting careers as driving a delivery truck for Floret's hardware, being a switchman on the railroad, or beating a bass drum in a circus band. I don't recall that at any time I ever thought much about working for the U. S. government.

That may have been a mistake. For the government today, with more than 2,000,000 employees, is the world's greatest employer. And a boy, or girl, can look forward to being anything from a community management specialist to a senior chief cost auditor.

Government is so complex and varied there is almost no end to the types of jobs at which the growing boy can aim. Like to inspect tracks? The interstate commerce commission has a track inspector. He peers at railroad tracks.

Want to be a copyright clearance specialist? See the library of Congress.

Have a yen to be a chief of estimation and jacket preparation? No, this has nothing to do with gents' clothing. The job is in the government printing office.

Your government worries about you all the way. For the social security administration has these jobs:

For the baby—consultant in maternity and infant nursing service.

For the child (good)—child welfare analyst.

For the child (erring)—juvenile delinquency consultant.

For the parent (good or erring)—consultant in parent education.

And when we grow old, the federal security agency totters in. It has a gerontology, a specialist in the characteristics of old age.

One government job should especially appeal to the young. Over in the commerce department there's a man whose chores include counting the nation's annual output of jellybeans.

But whoa, there! I saw it first.

Radio Comic Combines Dozens Of Professional Interests

NEW YORK—Morey Amsterdam is one of those fellows who combines a dozen or so professional interests in a single working day and still has time for a home life. While no one nationally knows too much about him, rest assured they will. Morey's now on a network show. Morey laughs up his expensively tallored sleeve when he hears the hoots and howls over the impudent way Henry Morgan treats his sponsors. Morey has been twitting the gentlemen who pick up his radio tabs for years. He started this public impudence back when he was 16 years old in Chicago. A callow café comic, Morey played a benefit show and met the then-vice-president, Charles G. Dawes. That evening he also met Al Capone. Later, during the floor show, he described the two meetings, adding: "What a parody—the vice-president and the president of vice!"

"I didn't realize that I stood a good chance of having my head handed to me, but even in those days a gag was a gag. Fortunately, Capone laughed his head off. And may I add I was a little happy about the way he took it?"

Morey has lost many jobs because of his former undisciplined brashness. Broadcasting for a soap sponsor, he couldn't resist asking: "I don't know why they keep advertising B. O.—who wants it?" "Another time I was briefly employed by a used car dealer who fired me when I reported: 'Get these cars while they're hot—and they probably are.'" He says there's no way of keeping a job for yourself once it's told to more than two people.

It Happened Back In—

FIVE YEARS AGO—Loading zone for city bus line set up at Third and Main; Tommie McCrary and Kathaleen Underwood leave for vacation in Denver, Colo.

TEN YEARS AGO—Young people of First Baptist church take outing on Lake Sweetwater; Wanda Neel vacationing in Ruidoso; local camera addicts form photography club.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO—Mrs. Kate Gilmore returns from three months visit in Los Angeles; in order to acquaint Big Springers with gas appliances local gas company offers to install and pipe gas to any home free of charge for period of 60 days.

"WAIT A MINUTE—WHAT ARE WE LAUGHING AT?"

Taking The Pulse Of Europe

France, England Show Pessimism Is Not Rule Everywhere In Europe

England, 1948

Dear Son:

We left France today. This is a contrast of two Bomb-racked and shell-torn Channel ports — Dieppe and New Haven—and of two families of those ports. Because in both cases only a few miles across the Channel we find hope and energy, we are to arrive in England with some of the confirmation we found in Italy. There are everywhere in every country signs of growth through adversity.

For instance, in Dieppe was a truly bright spot of France at the Hotel du Rhin where we spent the night before taking the Channel boat for England. This sea town was almost completely destroyed. It was formerly a resort town—a spot where the English as well as the French could go quickly across the Channel for a holiday on the seashore. We were told that the hotels listed in the Guide were not in condition to stay in, but that the Hotel du Rhin on the water front could take care of us and would be the most satisfactory.

We found it in a sad state. The buildings on either side were skeletons and the front of the Hotel du Rhin was cracked and dreary. It had been occupied by all combatants, the last evidently being the Americans. The Merciers, who owned it, had every thing spotlessly clean, had used paint when they were able to get it, and had a kitchen which would have been the envy of any American housewife. And the meals were perfect. But on the door of my bedroom, the sign was still left because this small amount of paint had been used on what furniture they had, and it read: "Naval Exchange Office—No Admittance except on Duty." Their furniture was gone, but by degrees, a piece at a time, they were getting more rooms ready for occupancy. The only son who would have inherited the hotel business, had been killed in the very last days of the war, and the little grand-daughter was there to be his incentive. But this French couple were smiling and cheerful and full of a desire to get back and going again.

With the Merciers waving a friendly adieu to us we left to board the boat to take us to New Haven. It was noon so we went to the dining saloon for lunch and talked to the pleasant English waiter who served us. He lived in New Haven which was more than half destroyed. The harbor and many of the houses had been fixed up to be livable and the English countryside is so green and neat always that it looks beautiful even where it has been damaged. But it is hard to "carry on" in a small town where five thousand houses have been destroyed. Comment was about as follows: "It is pretty hard about the butter and meat and things, but don't let any Englishmen tell you that we are down and out. We are doing all right, but we are griping too much. It will be a long time before our homes and our pot is really filled up. It may be even longer before England is again the big shipping country. But I know that the worst is over. Families have been smashed up. There are orphans and widows and all that. But the gripers don't get us anywhere and England is coming through. I can feel it every month."

I was impressed that the common people have many, many problems to work at daily, and a mere fact of work itself. Two of the great estates we visited were certainly on their way out. Anyone can see that the ancient grandeur of Brittany and Normandy are passing out along with the castles on the Rhine and the great English and Irish estates. But for the plain people we can see a reasonable future while pathetically in France the so-called "little ones" have not yet grasped the need of unity in government. It is quite possible that they will do so. After all Italy and Ireland are rapidly rushing through to a better nationalism than were hill towns or counties cemented only by a common religion. DeValera may have done it for Ireland and Mussolini helped much in his early days of "living dangerously" before fat and women took him. But when one sees Madame Mercier planning to buy a new chair next month; when one finds a cheerful Channel-crossing waiter going home to a bombed out dwelling, anyone can feel that pessimism is not the rule anywhere in Europe.

James Mason May Be Regular U.S. Addition

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, D.C.—James Mason may become a regular addition to the Hollywood film colony. The star has rented his English home, obtained a year's lease on a house here and says he'll hunt for another local residence after that.

Among Mason's plans is an independent company to make the film version of the novel, "Del Palma," written by his wife Pamela Kellino. Both will appear in the picture, but, oddly enough, she will play the second lead. Another actress will co-star with Mason.

Adams, leader of a local gypsy colony, to see "The Loves of Carmen" to check his reactions on the way gypsies are pictured. Big George approved, particularly the way Rita Hayworth ate a chicken with her hands. "That's how, a gypsy would do it," he said. However, he thumbed down "Golden Earrings" because Marlene Dietrich was too sloppy in it, "dipping her hands in fat and licking them."

RKOites wonder how Howard Hughes can remove the "Message" from "The Boy With the Green Hair," as has been reported. They think there wouldn't be much left. The film is a preachment against war, which is a pretty non-controversial issue.

Capsule review: "Red River" (UA) contains everything a western should have and throws in a few things more. It is better constructed than most horse operas, being a grand-scale story of a huge cattle drive from Texas to Kansas in 1865. John Wayne and Montgomery Clift, as the feuding Damon and Pythias, carry their chores with assurance, aided by an equally rugged cast.

Man Of Action

SINGAPORE.—There's at least one man here who believes in rushing to the door when opportunity knocks. When Major-General L. H. Cox, retiring C. D. C. of Singapore District, made his farewell broadcast recently, he warmly invited anyone from Malaya going to England to visit him at his home there.

Scarcely had the broadcast ended when Radio Malaya got a phone call. "I wonder if you could give me Major-General Cox' home address?" the caller asked. "I plan to accept his invitation."

Legion Grows

MANILA.—Reactivated posts of the American Legion in the Philippines have a membership of 1010, highest in history. Marc A. Stice, Philippine department head says. Seven posts are in existence.

Propaganda Banned

SAIGON, Indo-China.—A long list of Communist publications has recently been banned by the French authorities. Included are: Communist propaganda pamphlets printed in Russia and China in the English or Chinese languages; the works of the principal Marxist theoreticians, biographies of Communist leaders, recent speeches by the heads of the Soviet government and Chinese Communist newspapers.

Modern Line Riders Check On Scurrying Oil Surveyors

The old time line rider's mouth would certainly drop open if he should stumble upon his modern oil company counterpart on the range today.

I am referring to the inspectors hired by the University of Texas to check the oil surveying done on its vast land holdings southwest of this area. The big state school has an estimated $55 million endowment in the territory deeded it by Texas and law suits for damages could hit out big chunks of it if such should occur and not be righted. It's the inspector's job to see that justice is done.

The cowboy's job was and is to ride the fences of his boss's spread, whether on horse, in pickup or plane, to repair broken places, check herds—and if the wire showed evidences of being cut—to look for rustlers.

The U. T. inspector's duties run along similar but broader lines. He must not only check fences which may be torn down by the scurrying oil survey crews, but he must look for livestock that may have been injured, holes that have not been plugged, survey permits that have been violated and ranch facilities such as water tanks and windmills that have been damaged. He must know the position of every outfit in his area which usually covers 70 to 100 square miles.

To keep such a lookout, an oil line rider must be on the ranch road in his auto most of the day. His designated section may have 300 to 400 miles of "ranchways" that he may possibly cover.

The investigator must have many of the talents of his stockman "twin." He must be able to spot and follow fresh tire tracks to find where the fast moving petroleum hunters have gone from their previous position. It's no easy job, for the oil outfits move faster and further than any cow or sheep ever did. Why even helicopters are being used to run survey lines these days. It takes a sharp eye to spot a slender drill rig in the seemingly endless stretches of mesquite and prairie. Often times, there is no rig up yet and the crew must be spotted by a flash of sun on a windmill.

The work is not without its romance despite the dust, rocky trails that look impossible for a car, and the never-ending roads. Ruins of early army garrisons where the pioneer soldiers were stationed to guard travelers from Indians and historic stage posts are visited from time to time. Tourists eyes have never seen them. Old stage trails are traveled and wild game such as antelope is seen daily.—ADRIAN VAUGHAN

Army Turns Cold Shoulder To Its Disabled Veterans

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON.—Some of the cockeyed inconsistencies of Washington officialdom are verily wondrous to behold.

Here is the latest beast:

On Tuesday, President Truman made an address ardently pleading for public support of the national employ the physically handicapped week, October 3-9. He pointed out two significant facts: (1) that industrial record shows conclusively that when given the opportunity to work, handicaps almost invariably prove above average in productivity, regularity and loyalty, and (2) that with the marked labor shortages existing in many fields, it is both good business and good humanity to give jobs to handicaps.

With deep feeling, Mr. Truman urged employers to give handicaps a chance to make themselves useful and self-supporting beings. The President's speech was moving, and a real credit to him.

REVERSE PICTURE

Yet, at the same time the President was making this touching appeal to private employers, one of the biggest government employers was giving the cold shoulder to thousands of highly competent handicaps whom it had made.

This is the U. S. Army—of which the President, as commander-in-chief, is boss, and which is now moaning to the high heavens about a desperate shortage of officers to train the forthcoming draft levy.

The Army says it needs 37,000 additional officers for this purpose. To date, about 2,500 reserve officers have volunteered to return to active duty. The Army is talking of drafting officers to meet its urgent needs.

But at the same time that the army is doing all this whining and blustering, it has on its rolls thousands of retired combat veterans who would make the finest type of training personnel. These officers were shelved because their battle-injured impairments do not square with the Army's high, and in some respects archaic, physical requirements for field duty.

But the Army's immediate need is not officers for rigorous field duty. It needs officers to train men for such duty. This untapped reservoir of battle-experienced veterans is a matchless source for such trainers. These men have been through the mill. This knowledge and skill can't be bought for love or money. Their very disabilities give them an added value as an inspiration.

When Gen. Dwight Eisenhower was chief of staff, he saw that clearly. He put through an order allowing disabled noncommissioned officers to enlist for limited duty in the regular army. The Navy, today, has an admiral on active duty who lost a foot in battle.

HOT ROD

Vacationing in his home state, Oregon, Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas was asked by the townsfolk of Joseph to lead the parade of a rodeo they were staging. The boyish, tousled-haired jurist agreed. A frisky cayuse was saddled up for him to ride.

"What's his name?" Douglas asked.

"Cyclone."

"Has he bucked recently?"

"Not since the last parade," was the cheerful reply.

EXIT GRISWOLD

Dwight Griswold is quitting as U. S. aid administrator in Greece. The former Nebraska governor is now packing in Athens to return to the U. S. early next month. Griswold is resigning to take part in the republican election campaign. He hopes to land in the Dewey cabinet—if there is one.

By dint of a combination of wheedling and booting, Griswold has effected some administrative reforms in the graft-ridden and incompetent Greek government, and its heavily padded payrolls still re-its budget still remains to be balanced, main to be pared down. But a little pro-and honesty.

However, there was one particularly gress has been made toward efficiency smelly deal that Griswold was unable to block—thanks to the state department.

As part of the "aid Greece" program, the state department put through a sale of 100 liberty ships to Greek shipowners. The contention was that these vessels would improve Greece's dollar position. Actually, it was a lush bonanza to a small group of wealthy, royalist Greeks who live in New York, pay little taxes either in the U. S. or Greece.

U.N. Reaches Inevitable End Of World Disarmament Trail

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The United Nations Arms commission finally has reached the inevitable conclusion that the world isn't yet ready for arms reduction—that international tension must be ended before countries will be willing to slash armaments.

That is, 9 for the 11 nations on the commission have agreed on this point. Soviet Russia and the Soviet Ukraine of course say "Nyet" (no).

The communist maintain that the way to create confidence is to disarm. The western powers, on the other hand, hold that this is putting the cart before the horse; they insist that peace and confidence are what will inspire disarmament. They hold that essentials for the establishment of world confidence include the following:

(1) Agreement on atomic control, (2) creation of a world police force, and (3) signing of German and Japanese peace treaties.

While the commission was debating this momentous issue at Lake Success yesterday, Britain's Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery (chief of the imperial general staff and so England's top soldier) made some pointed remarks on the subject. In a speech calling for 150,000 reserves to back up the country's defenses, the Field Marshal declared that "the best chance of avoiding war in modern times is to be prepared."

"A somewhat uneasy truce is brooding over the world," said Montgomery. "It is more of a truce than a peace; it is a period of exhaustion, ill-described as 'peace.' We must be ready and prepared to face sudden attack by an aggressor."

Montgomery was only reading the writing which all nations can see clearly on the wall.

A nation doesn't disarm when it is in the midst of war—and there is no halt in the "cold war" which Russia is waging. The Bolshevik world revolution, under direction of Moscow, is the only major aggression today. And it is indeed an ironic circumstance that the Soviet, while making this war, should try to persuade the United Nations to vote for disarmament.

Agreement by the western powers to disarm would be suicidal appeasement of which the Red arm would take prompt advantage.

So Now It Is Smart To Be Middle-Aged

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

Maybe you haven't noticed—it's been happening gradually—but the movies and magazines have stopped selling the idea that life ends with the 30th birthday.

The people who had slipped past that fatal birthday never believed all their fun, romance and productive years were behind them. But if they trusted what the short-story writers and the films told them, they should have been set for a porch and carpet-slippers routine. Seems like it was only yesterday that the classic heroine of magazine fiction was a fresh young maiden on the threshold of the twenties. She, and she alone, was allowed to find Real Romance. Romance with a boy a couple of years older. All such stories ended when he finally broke down and proposed.

All this has changed. Indeed, some of our most popular fiction heroines today are boldly presented as having known more than 30 summers. Many are even permitted to be young widows with children. Just the other day I read a short story about a wizened old girl of 40, with a couple of kids, who met up with a senile widower of 45. And they were allowed to fall in love, just like that.

Most of the popular ones are the same people who were around 10 or more years back. No one tries to pass off Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Spencer Tracy, Jimmy Stewart, Cary Grant, Clark Gable or Charles Boyer as juveniles, but there they are, making a play for the heroine and often as not winding up the picture in a clinch with her. And they don't try to cover up the fact that they've sprouted a gray hair here and there—or have a little trouble hanging on to the tassets.

There's Katharine Hepburn, Greer Garson, Joan Crawford, Rosalind Russell, Ginger Rogers—to pick a few at random—and none of them is trying to make like she's fresh out of high school.

Furthermore, lots and lots of movies are written about mature people. No longer does a film mandatorily revolve around the tired boy-meets-girl theme and end with the sound of wedding bells and the whisper of white satin. Many's the popular picture about adults pursuing adult courses of life.

All this is very hopeful to those of us who are a bit past our prime. It's a good thing to remember back when the talkies came in and Roosevelt's first administration. It's made a lot of the kids, who ordinarily would scorn us as aged and ultra-conservative any one past 25, look forward to living the full, happy life of the middle years.

But mostly it's given us a sense of a feeling that life can be beautiful—or at least interesting—when we're past getting bids for the junior prom.

Maybe, just maybe, after awhile, people will even say proudly: "I'm middle-aged."

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drug store and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Barcortrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if redudible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic, from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Stewed Peaches With Thick Custard Sauce

Peel 4 medium-sized (1 pound) peaches; cut in half and remove pits. Put 1 cup water, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar and a few grains of salt in a wide, shallow saucepan; stir over low heat until sugar is entirely dissolved. Bring to a boil over high heat and drop the peaches into the syrup; cover and simmer from 7 to 10 minutes, until the fruit is tender but holds its shape. Watch carefully so as not to cook too fast or too long. Chill and serve with this sauce: Scald 1 cup of milk. Mix well 6 tablespoons sugar and $\frac{1}{4}$ tablespoons flour; add to hot milk, blending well with whisk or mixing spoon as you do so. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Beat 1 egg slightly, add the hot mixture gradually, beating vigorously as you do so. Return to saucepan, place over very low heat, and cook for a few minutes longer, stirring constantly. Place over cold water immediately to cool, stir in $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon vanilla; chill in refrigerator. Arrange peach halves and syrup in individual dishes and surround with sauce. Makes 4 servings.

To make cinnamon toast prepare a mixture of two tablespoons of butter or margarine, 4 tablespoons of brown sugar and 4 teaspoons of cinnamon. Spread this on thin slices of toasted bread and place in a hot oven or under the broiler until the sugar melts.

Tartar Sauce for seafood is made by adding chopped olives, chopped pickles, capers, parsley and onion juice to mayonnaise.

Panfried Chicken

PANFRIED CHICKEN: Have a 3 to 3 $\frac{1}{4}$ -pound frying chicken cut up into 6 to 8 pieces. Wash, clean and dry well. Mix 1 cup flour, 2 teaspoons salt and $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon pepper together well in a medium-sized brown paper bag. (Two teaspoons of paprika may be added to this flour mixture if desired.) Put two pieces of the chicken in the bag at a time and shake well to coat evenly. (Reserve leftover flour for use in coating chicken another time or use it to thicken gravy.) Put 1-3 to $\frac{1}{4}$ cut butter or margarine in a large skillet and heat; when the fat is quite hot but not brown put the chicken pieces in carefully, skin side down. Brown over moderate heat, then turn to brown other side—this will take from 20 to 30 minutes. Add 2 tablespoons water to the skillet, cover tightly and steam over low heat until chicken is very tender, about 15 or 20 minutes longer. Remove cover, cook a few minutes longer, to crisp crust. Remove to hot platter and keep warm. Add 2 to 4 tablespoons of water to pan and stir over low heat to take up all drippings; serve this pan-gravy over hot cooked noodles along with chicken. Makes about 6 servings.

Creamed eggs are an excellent luncheon or supper dish; garnish them with something colorful such as strips of pimento or green pepper, finely chopped parsley or short sprays of watercress. Finely grated carrot also makes a good tasting and attractive garnish for the dish.

Honey Dressing

TOMATO HONEY DRESSING: 2 teaspoons salt, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon paprika, Juice of $\frac{1}{4}$ lemon, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup honey, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup cider vinegar, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup salad oil, 1 tablespoon finely grated onion, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce. One 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ -ounce can condensed tomato soup.

Put all ingredients in a wide-mouthed jar, cover tightly and shake well—for several minutes. Shake again for a few minutes before using.

In new shoulder pads, the shoulder line is less built up and is squared off.

Battles Illiteracy

MADRID, (AP)—One fourth of the population of Spain is illiterate but the percentage is dropping steadily each year, according to official published statistics. The most illiterate regions of Spain are the Basque and Navarre provinces, the report stated. The highest illiteracy rate is found in the Canary Islands where 63 percent of the population is unable to read or write.

Kedgeree is a combination of cooked flaked fish, cooked rice, parsley and salt and pepper; be sure that the parsley is finely chopped. Melted butter and an egg yolk may be added to the mixture to bind it together and then the whole thing reheated gently.

ROBBERS KNEW THEIR FREEZER

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 19. (AP)—The 200 pounds of meat in the freezer at a Mishawaka restaurant didn't tempt the thorough thieves who broke into the place today. They dug down beneath the meat and took 54 $100 bills which had been iced there, co-owners George Hoffman and Betty Dhulvetter told police.

Texas, California, North Carolina Polio Cases Rise

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19. (AP)—Polio cases reported this year have set an all-time high through Aug. 14, a count of 8,439 cases against 7,025 for a similar period in 1946, the Public Health Service said yesterday.

However the agency said that the disease is still epidemic in parts of only three states. They are North Carolina, Texas and California, all of which again showed increases last week.

The Detroit Lions says they have the "classiest" name in football in Kinsley van Rensselaer Dey, 23-year-old end from the University of New Hampshire.

AN AD!

IT HAPPEN to be an advertisement. And goodness knows, you've read hundreds of ads.

The object of an ad is to sell somebody something. And what I have to sell today is advertising itself.

Just look at all the other ads all through this paper. You usually look at them to find out what you want to buy. But look at them a little differently today.

Look a little more closely and see the job they're doing. Every ad is selling something—goods, an idea, services.

And every job in America ultimately depends on somebody selling something to somebody else. That's what makes the wheels go 'round. And advertising is the lowest cost way yet devised to sell goods.

So no matter what kind of job you have, be thankful to the ads like me. The advertising you see and hear is selling goods. And in the last analysis, that's what makes your job secure.

HERE'S HOW U. S. NATIONAL INCOME ROSE IN THE LAST 36 YEARS—THE GOLDEN AGE OF ADVERTISING

This rise in the standard of living for you and yours is unequalled in all history. Advertising helped raise this standard—is needed even more today to sell industry's new developments.

FORMER VICE-PRESIDENT'S WIFE BURIED

Final Tributes Are Paid Mrs. Garner By Many Leaders Throughout The U. S.

UVALDE, Aug. 19. (AP)—Former Vice President John Nance Garner was alone today in the buff brick home he built 26 years ago for "Ettie, my right hand."

Mrs. Garner was buried in the Uvalde Cemetery yesterday after brief services in her home. She died Tuesday afternoon at 78.

Her physician said she died of Parkinsonian disease, a paralysis that had afflicted her for six years. For the last year, she had been unable to move from her wheelchair.

"It was a privilege for me to have her friendship," wired President Truman, who was a Senator when Garner was the 32nd vice president of the United States. "She was a great and gallant soul."

Gov. Beauford Jester wired, "Personally and for the entire state of Texas I express profound sorrow over the passing of Mrs. Garner."

OTHER MESSAGES

Other messages poured in from people the Garners had known during the long public career in which "Ettie" served as "Cactus Jack's" personal secretary as the South Texas lawyer rose from the state legislature to Congress and then to the vice presidency.

All Uvalde offices and business houses closed at 3 p.m. Friends from Uvalde and surrounding towns gathered at the home at 4 p.m. to hear the funeral service read by the Rev. Smythe H. Lindsay, pastor of St. Luke's Episcopal Church in San Antonio.

Garner, 78, rode to the cemetery with Tully Garner, Uvalde banker who is his only child, and Mrs. John J. Currie of Amarillo, his only grandchild. Two great-grandsons also survive Mrs. Garner.

Palbearers were Jake Schwartz, Uvalde merchant; John J. Currie, husband of the Garners' grand-daughter; Owen Williams, Crystal City, Tex., banker; Ross Brumfield, Uvalde garageman and longtime friend and neighbor of the Garners; Sumner Hunter, Uvalde businessman, and D. W. Suttle, Uvalde lawyer.

Gov. Jester said Mrs. Garner was "a distinguished citizen in her own right and a faithful helpmate to a great American."

"She was noted for her graciousness and personal charm and was beloved by all who were fortunate enough to know her. I offer in behalf of all the people of Texas deep and genuine sympathy," the governor said.

Other messages bore these signatures: Bernard Baruch, Charles G. Dawes, Raymond Moley, Jesse Jones, Secretary of the Treasury, Snyder, Comptroller General Lindsey Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Cordell Hull, Walter Chamberlain.

Charley Grimm of the Chicago Cubs, who has been with that club since 1944, is the oldest manager in point of continuous service, with any team in the National League.

sugar from these leaves is about enough to equal the size of the head of a pin, or if liquid, is a droplet not greatly larger than a piece of mist.

But this is enough. For the radioactive carbon is really "hot." Mixed with ordinary sweets, of the same kind, the radioactive sugars make batches big enough for large experiments. A pin-head of radioactive sugar may mix with a quarter of a pound.

The plants do, easily, an otherwise difficult and tedious chemical job. The sugar laboratory is in the biology department, headed by Dr. L. F. Nims. The sugar-grower is Dr. Martin Gibbs, assisted by Mrs. Rosemary Dumrose and Miss Francis Acher. Assisting Dr. Gibbs in the use of the new sugars is Dr. Robert T. Steele.

To make atomic sugar, plants are first put in total darkness for three days. In the dark the leaves no longer can manufacture sugars. But the sweet is the plant's food and as it lives in the dark it eats the sugar already stored in the leaves. At the end of three days all the leaf sugar is gone. Then the leaves are cut off and placed, with their stems in water, inside a sealed chamber about the size of a small trunk. Hundred-watt electric bulbs substitute for sunlight, and the leaves resume their sugarmaking.

The leaves do this by taking carbon dioxide gas from the air and hydrogen from water. In their chamber the carbon dioxide is radioactive and the radioactive part of this gas is its carbon. The leaves pick up the carbon from the air, atom by atom, and they use six atoms of carbon to make each molecule of sugar.

Ordinary air contains only a small amount of carbon dioxide, but in the chamber the radioactive gas amounts to about 45 times more than normal. In 24 hours in this air, leaves make sugar with all its carbon radioactive.

As in all atomic energy, a little bit does big jobs. Only ten grams, hardly a handful of leaves, is placed in the radioactive chamber. The

Atomics Are Pushing String Bean Science

BROOKHAVEN, N. Y. Aug. 19.

String beans, sunflowers, dahlias and other plants are growing radioactive sugars at the Brookhaven National Laboratory.

The string beans produce glucose, the kind of sugar in human blood. Dahlias make fructose, used in chemistry. Sunflowers make ordinary table sugar. All of them are radioactive.

Another plant, Byrophyllum Calycinum, makes iso-citric acid, a white liquid, valuable because it is present in the human body. The liquid is radioactive. Tobacco, barley and many other plants can be used and all of them make radioactive sugars.

The plants do, easily, an otherwise difficult and tedious chemical job. The sugar laboratory is in the biology department, headed by Dr. L. F. Nims. The sugar-grower is Dr. Martin Gibbs, assisted by Mrs. Rosemary Dumrose and Miss Francis Acher. Assisting Dr. Gibbs in the use of the new sugars is Dr. Robert T. Steele.

Coffee Should Be Measured For Best Results In The Brewing

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
By the Associated Press

It may be that you are the kind of cook who doesn't like to measure accurately—who cooks with a lot of experience and judgment. That's all right for a great many dishes, but it has been my experience that you cannot make consistently good coffee unless you carefully measure both the coffee and the amount of water you use. Plus this you have to know your coffeemaker and your coffee.

Brands of coffee differ in flavor and strength, and different grinds, used in different kinds of coffeemakers, all give different results. The freshness of the coffee also makes a big difference; that's why many families like to own coffee grinders, buy coffee beans and grind their own coffee as they use it. Many people swear by the refrigerator—keep their coffee in it and feel it keeps fresher there than in a cupboard. Certainly, ground coffee always needs to be kept in a tightly closed container.

When it comes to the coffee grind many good cooks prefer to use a pulverized grind in a drip coffeemaker—with a good filter, of course—and the drip grind in a percolator. You'll have to experiment with the kind of coffee you use, with grinds, and with your particular coffeemaker. Measure accurately and jot down your measurements; when you achieve the kind of brew you like, stick to all the conditions that achieved it!

There's another condition that affects coffee brew, and that's the number of cups you make at one time. If you make only a few cups of coffee in the morning, and have a small coffeemaker designed for that small number, you can easily work out measurements you like. But it has been my experience, with a drip coffee pot designed for two, four or six cups, that you cannot simply double the amounts of coffee and water used in similar proportion. You may need less coffee when you make four or six cups, to achieve a good brew, than when you make just two.

So much of the iced coffee served in both restaurants and homes these days isn't good because it isn't strong enough. A weak brew to start with, it's tasteless when it's diluted still further with ice, milk or cream. Here again you are going to have to experiment. If you like to pour hot, freshly-made coffee into a pitcher and chill it immediately with ice cubes you are going to have to use a stronger brew than if you make your coffee, chill it in the refrigerator, and serve it with say, only a few cubes of ice in each glass.

By the way, I said "pour the hot, freshly-made coffee into a pitcher and chill it immediately with ice cubes" advisedly. Even when you fill a glass chockfull of ice cubes, and pour the hot coffee over it, frequently the result isn't cold enough. I prefer to pour the freshly-made coffee into a pitcher, and keep adding ice cubes until it is just cold enough, then pour the coffee at once into individual glasses with perhaps a few ice cubes in each. This method also gives the room needed for stirring cream and sugar—since individuals will want to add the amounts of these they prefer.

As a general guide in making good coffee use two level measuring tablespoons to each 6 ounces of water (¾ of a standard measuring cup). Use freshly drawn cold water for making the coffee, since it has been found by some coffee-making laboratories, that water preheated or drawn from the hot water faucet may impart an undesirable taste to the brew. And always serve coffee as soon as possible after it is made; to keep extra cups hot place over very low heat—do not boil.

Here is a recipe for a delicious tasting coffee-flavored frozen dessert. The macaroons for its topping may be bought ready-baked in many chain grocery stores these days; or you can buy a macaroon mix, already prepared, that is quickly baked at home.

COFFEE MACAROON BISQUE
Ingredients: 1 tablespoon (1 envelope) unflavored gelatin, 1 ¼ cups strong, clear cold coffee, 2 eggs (separated), ¼ cup sugar, few grains salt, 1 cup heavy cream, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup fine dry macaroon crumbs.

Method: Sprinkle gelatin on ¼ cup of the cold coffee. Beat the egg yolks, add remaining coffee, sugar and salt. Cook over hot (not boiling) water, stirring constantly, until slightly thickened. Add softened gelatin and stir until dissolved. Chill until syrupy. Whip cream; add vanilla and fold into gelatin mixture. Beat egg whites stiff; fold in. Pour into refrigerator tray. Sprinkle top with macaroon crumbs. Freeze until firm. Makes about 8 servings.

Hearing Scheduled On Drunkenness Case

Farm Credit Increase Told

A 20 percent increase in farm operating credit, which will provide loans to 2,500 more families in Texas than in 1947, has been announced by L. J. Cappleman, state Farmers Home administration director through Gus N. Long, county FHA supervisor.

The increase was made possible through legislation voted in the last long session of the nation's congress, Long stated. Long pointed out that direct or insured farm purchase loans are now available to farmers, tenants, share croppers and veterans who can find sound-value farms and who can't get the credit they need anywhere else.

FHA also has funds for water facility loans in 17 Western states, including Texas, Long said. Texas will participate in the loans for water facilities in the amount of $170,000.

Changes recently made in the insured mortgage program are designed to broaden the opportunities for family-type farmers to become farm owners. Lenders not get three percent instead of 2½ percent interest on their money.

NTSC-Denton Water Dispute Heads For Court

AUSTIN, Aug. 19. (AP)—Disagreement between the city of Denton and North Texas State college over the college's water supply is headed for court settlement.

Attorney General Price Daniel said Tuesday the state will enter suit for a declaratory judgment to set aside the validity of a water contract between the school and the city. The suit, he said, was asked by city officials and agreed to by the college board of regents. The city is without authority to bring suit against the state without permission of the legislature.

Daniel said the contract under dispute calls for the city to furnish water free to the college as part of the agreement in locating the college there. The college has grown to such an extent since the legislature located the college, however, Daniel said, that the city has found free water supply to the college "an undue burden."

He said the suit would be filed here, probably this week.

Agreement to bring the suit was made here yesterday at a conference of the attorney general, NSTC representatives and Denton city council members.

MEAT-CUTTERS JOIN BOYCOTT

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 18. (AP)—The butchers have joined the housewives in a fight to bring down the price of meat.

About 15 West Philadelphia shops have signs in their windows announcing their co-operation with a housewives' three-day buyer strike starting today.

The signs read:

"This store will sell no meat on Thursday, Friday and Saturday in support of a meat strike against high prices."

Co-operation of the butchers was obtained by more than 5,000 housewives who canvassed the neighborhood and circulated petitions.

Garbo Returning To Movie Work

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 18. (AP)—Actress Greta Garbo is returning to the screen after a seven-year absence.

Producer Walter Wanger said she had signed a contract to star in a picture he will make in Europe next spring, the principal scenes to be filmed in Paris and Rome.

He didn't announce the title of ITINERARY OF PRESIDENT'S CRUISE — Arrows and ship symbols show route of President Truman's scheduled nine-day cruise during which he will rest and make plans for a country-wide campaign tour. He will board presidential yacht Williamsburg on Friday and will cruise down the Potomac, into Chesapeake Bay, through Chesapeake-Delaware ship canal and into Delaware Bay. (AP Wirephoto Map).

Bingle Bridge Bunyip Poses Big Mystery

SYDNEY, Aug. 18. (AP)—The Bunyip of Bingle Bridge is dead—or is it?

That problem is dividing the sheep town of Gundagai in south eastern New South Wales.

The Bingle Bridge Bunyip first came into the news 10 months ago. Two local hunters reported they had seen "a thing that might be a bunyip" on a lagoon near Gundagai. The "thing" had a body a little more than 3 ft. long, was apparently covered with hair, had a neck like the thick part of a swan's neck but no head. Two ears were hanging from the upper part of the neck and it roared like a bull. That was their story.

It promptly hit the headlines. The Australian bunyip is a legendary fearsome man-eating swamp creature with a preference for aborigines. They were terrified of it long before white men came to Australia 150 years ago. No one has ever caught or killed a real bunyip; many say they have seen one. Descriptions vary. Some say the beast has a body like a seal, others that it is the size of a bullock with a mane and tail like a horse. In other accounts the creature has

CATCHES FLIES, SERVES AS TOWEL

Dali's Mustache Stays Busy

PARIS, Aug. 18. (AP)—Did you ever wonder what a mustache was good for?

This may surprise you, but Surrealist painter Salvador Dali says he uses his handlebar adornment for:

1. Catching flies.
 2. Wiping his hand.
 3. Collecting dust.
 4. Seeing sunsets.
- During a recent interview with a French newspaper, the Spanish artist said:
- "When I eat dates, I never ask for water to wash my hands. I sleep my mustache with my sticky hands. It stays stiff for two days."

Of course, Dali added, "It droops on the pillow during the night, but in the mornings I put it back at horizontal."

"Then, when I paint, the dust, instead of settling on the canvas, which is very annoying, sticks to my mustache."

With his tongue still tightly in his cheek, Dali went on:

My mustache also sewes or an antenna, like a lobster. When the sun sets, I see two red balls at each end of it. So of course, I am spared the boredom of turning around. I know the sun is setting."

Dali, visiting Europe after a long stay in America, said, "and, then, especially, I catch flies with my mustache. It is very convenient."

The famed artist lashed out at American "barbarism," declaring:

"Note that in America there are very few flies. This is a bad sign for America. When I get near Spain I can hear the flies snoring. That is the sign of a country of old spiritual traditions."

Dali professed to see great historical significance in flies, for according to him "Socrates and Plato were men who were covered with flies, from head to foot, swarming with flies. That is very important."

The painter, who has done considerable commercial art in the United States, said he never paid any attention to all the flies caught in his mustache "until I look at myself in the mirror at night."

If he did notice the flies during the day, Dali explained, it would mean he was being distracted.

"Plato didn't worry about all his flies," he contended. "That, also, is very important."

Why important?

Because, explained Dali, en route to Spain to eat orange and violet sea urchins:

"Flies accompany genius, but genius ignores flies."

Calloway, who pleaded innocent, was assessed a three-year prison sentence by the district court jury.

Two witnesses testified that Dunlap had a pistol in his hand before he was shot.

SOIL CONSERVATION

Farmer Plants Crop In Former Lakes

Frank Loveless started harvest of grass seed last week on the Big Spring Municipal Airport. Loveless, who is supervisor of the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District in Zone 3, is combining sand, drop seed, side oats grama, and blue grama to provide a source of seed supply to district cooperators. Grass seed, especially side oats grama, has been hard to get the past few years, Loveless said. He expects to harvest enough seed to meet the needs of farmers who are planning to plant retired fields in these grasses.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Five men are still in the race for individual batting honors in the Longhorn baseball league, though at the present time Pat Stasey of Our Town has the lead all to himself.

The Irishman, who was out of the lineup about a month because of a pulled muscle, was hitting at a .388 clip in games through last Tuesday, which represents a jump of around 19 points from the time League Statistician William J. Weiss released his last official averages.

At that time (for games through Tuesday, Aug. 10) Stasey was third to George Calola of Del Rio and Ballinger's Stu Williams. Calola, who had batted an average of .378, experienced a mild slump here when he ran into nothing but left handed pitching and collected a solitary safety in eight trips.

Williams, one point from Calola's aggregate in the latest official readings, has been out of the lineup because of water on the knee. His ailments might handicap him for the remainder of the season.

Big Jim Prince of Midland, batting king of the minor leagues as well as the circuit last year, has also been on the shelf but returned to the game Tuesday night and crashed out two blows in five times. He was hitting .366 last week. He is still a dangerous contender for the honors.

Then there is Cotton McCaskey of Vernon, minor league mace champ in 1945, who keeps within hailing distance of the leaders every week. Cotton was banging away at a .359 clip last week and apparently will add to that figure between now and season's end.

STASEY ON BATTING RAMPAGE IN PAST WEEK

Stasey has been hard to cut down since his return to the lineup. In a space of nine games through Tuesday night, Patrick had crashed out 20 hits without drawing the "collar" once. He had scored 12 runs and driven home 17 others, bringing his RBI total to a surprising 90. Had he been in the lineup regularly all year, he would probably be the leader in the department at the present time.

FERNANDEZ TAKES CUE FROM BOSS, START HITTING

Bobby Fernandez, the Braves' left fielder, did almost as well as his boss in those nine games. He collected 19 base blows in 36 tries. He upped his average six percentage points to .346. He now has 176 hits, scored 101 times and driven home 97 buddies in 509 attempts.

LONGHORN LEADER WON'T BE MINOR LEAGUE CHAMPION

One thing is a near certainty. The minor league batting king will not come out of this circuit this year. It took a .429 mark by Prince last year to win the honor. There's no Longhorn league player within hailing distance of a .400 average at the present time. Several players in other leagues are way over that mark and have a good chance of remaining there.

WEBB STOPS SLUMPS WITH ADDITION OF PLAYERS

One can't accuse Harold Webb of the Midland Indians of letting grass grow under his feet.

The Tribe has experienced three slumps of consequence this season and each time Prince Hal went out and bought players that helped snap the team out of its doldrums.

The first time he purchased Leland Crissman from Marshall and Criss is about the top hurler in the Midland reservation.

Then he obtained the services of Ernie Nelson, which proved quite a tonic. Last week, he made a trip to Lamesa and came back with Tony Flarito, a short fielder who was hitting over .400 for the Lobos.

Flarito was serving as acting manager of Lamesa when Harold obtained him.

With Tony in the lineup, the Indians will be making a major bid for the Shaughnessy championship. Webb put Flarito under contract just in time to make him eligible for the playoffs. Yesterday was the deadline.

Ballinger's Stu Williams is expected to sign on with the San Angelo Colts next spring if he can obtain his release from the Cats.

Skipper Stasey thinks Ernie Klein's natural position is third base. He says the rookie can't make the turn on a double play as a keystone but had one of the greatest throwing arms in the league.

Borger Blanks Lamesans, 29-0

The West Texas-New Mexico league just won't rest on its laurels of being the hottest circuit in professional baseball.

The Borger Gassers did their bit to keep the loop's reputation last night by clouting four Lamesa pitchers for 25 hits and shutting out the Lobos 29-0. Borger got eight home runs, three of them by Hugh King, a pitcher who was playing center field for the night. Ed Carnett gave Lamesa only two hits.

League-leading Albuquerque trimmed Pampa, 5-4, with Frank Shone notching his eighteenth pitching victory.

Second-place Amarillo battered Abilene 10-1 with John Budny winning his eighteenth.

Lubbock whammed Clovis 10-4 as Virg Richardson paced a 12-hit attack with two homers, a double and a single.

T-C Managers Meet Monday

Managers and directors of the Tri-County baseball league will gather at the Settles hotel at 7:30 p. m. Monday to discuss plans for the playoff for the league title between the Forsan Oilers and Howard County Junior college, presentation of championship trophies and a banquet which would wind up league business for the year.

Plans for the 1949 season would be made at such a get-together.

The Monday parley was called by Jack Lamb, chief executive of the circuit.

Top Field Entered In Longview Meet

Brooklyn Banks On Hill Staff In Flag Drive

A new found strength on the mound is making the Brooklyn Dodgers the team to beat in the National League.

Burt Shotton's Brooks shut out the Philadelphia Phillies last night 1-0, to climb within one game of the slipping Boston Braves. The Braves were beaten by the Giants in New York 8-2.

Rex Barney for the Brooks gave the best performance of his major league career. He permitted only one hit.

The third place St. Louis Cardinals also took advantage of Boston's defeat, coming from behind to edge the Cincinnati Reds 4-3. The Cards now are only two and a half games off the pace.

Eight-hit pitching by Sheldon Jones and home runs by Johnny Mize (No. 29) and Sid Gordon (No. 24) were the highlights of the Giants' victory over the Braves. It was Jones' 12th triumph.

The Pittsburgh Pirates rallied for six runs in the top of the eighth to come from behind and defeat the Chicago Cubs, 7-4.

The Cleveland Indians extended their first place margin in the American League to three full games over the Boston Red Sox and Philadelphia Athletics by defeating the St. Louis Browns, 3-0.

The Red Sox climbed over the Athletics into second place by two percentage points when they unleashed a 17-hit attack against three Philadelphia pitchers to whip the A's, 10-2.

Vic Raschi earned his easiest victory of the season when the New York Yankees defeated the Washington Senators, 4-1, in a game called at the end of the fifth because of rain.

FORSAN, Aug. 19. — Blacky Hines' Cosden Pipeliners wind up their Texas Softball league play here with a double header tonight, meeting the Odessa aggregation. First game is scheduled to start at 8:15 p. m.

The Pipeliners are certain to finish in the circuit's cellar this year but Hines has had the satisfaction of seeing his charges spoil several playhouses.

Only last weekend the Cosdens split a double bill with Ragsdale's Sports of San Angelo to shatter that team's hopes for a second place finish.

L. D. Cunningham, who hurried the victory over Ragsdale, will probably toe the slab in both outings for Cosden. If he falters, his brother, Winfred Cunningham, will be ready to enter into competition.

Stringbean Pope is Odessa's ace hurler. If those two get together, the fans are for an interesting evening.

A meeting of representatives of contingents still involved in the Texas Softball league title playoff will be conducted at the Settles hotel in Big Spring at 3 p. m. tomorrow.

The session has been called to determine locations and dates of the playoff games. The first four teams in the standings will be involved.

Padres Regain First Division Spot With Win

Associated Press Sports Editor

It's wearing on the nerves for a couple of managers but the only race left in the Texas League campaign—the battle for fourth place—is working like a see-saw.

In four nights the spot has changed hands four times. Today San Antonio is in the saddle. Tonight it could be Shreveport again.

Last night Johnny Crocco pitched a five-hitter as San Antonio clipped Fort Worth 5-1 while Shreveport was losing to Tulsa 7-2 with Bud Lively twirling a four-hitter—so today San Antonio is one half-game ahead of the Sports.

Houston broke a losing streak at three-games by downing Dallas 6-5 and Beaumont whipped Oklahoma City 4-3.

San Antonio got three runs in the first inning and coasted in. At the same time San Antonio's manager, Gus Mancuso, heard from the league office that his protest of Tuesday night's game in which Fort Worth beat the Missions had been overruled. Mancuso protested where there were conflicting rulings on a play by two umpires. He contended the umpire who called one of his runners safe was closer to the play but the umpires decided the other umpire was in a position to see the play better, so the runner was called out.

Dallas moves to Shreveport tonight with Fort Worth at Beaumont, Oklahoma City at San Antonio and Tulsa at Houston.

Mexia Team Plays Today In Tourney

WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 19. (AP)—The National Semi-Pro Baseball tournament began its sixth day of competition today, but some of the teams haven't played their first game yet.

Two clubs will play their initial games in the double-elimination meet tonight. The Jacksonville, Fla., Terminal Roadrunners, who finished in third place last year, will meet the Quincy, Ill., Bluejays and the Mexia, Tex., Oilers will clash with Limington, Me.

Riegel To Have Man Size Job In Tournament

NEW YORK, Aug. 19. (AP)—Robert (Skee) Riegel, who opens defense of his National Amateur Golf Championship at Memphis Aug. 30, now has his work cut out for him—and it looks rugged.

The 33-year-old ironmaster from Upper Darby, Pa., will face eight past U. S. and British champions and 201 survivors of the largest list ever to enter the venerable tourney.

The field was decided in sectional qualifying trials yesterday from coast-to-coast, paced by a pair of golfers hardly known outside their own sections—William Roden of Odessa, Tex., and Julius Boros of Bridgeport, Conn.

Qualifiers include: Dallas (11 places, par 70)—Jack Munger, Dallas, 68-73-141; Don Schumacher, Dallas, 71-71-142; Jimmy McGonagill, Shreveport, La., 70-77-147; John Oliver, Dallas, 76-75-151; Mally Reynolds, Dallas, 78-74-152; Leroy McMullen, Dallas, 76-76-152; Claude Wilde, Jr., Austin, Tex., 77-75-152; Gilbert Stubbs, Corsicana, Tex., 77-76-153; Robert Mitchell, Dallas, 77-76-153; Walter Atwood, Jr., Dallas, 78-80-153; Edwin Hopkins, Jr., Dallas, 74-80-154.

Houston (nine places, par 72)—Tyrrell Garth, Jr., Beaumont, 71-71-142; Jack Sellman, Houston, 72-72-144; Ed White, Houston, 73-72-145; Buddy Weaver, Houston, 74-72-146; Dick McCreary, Houston, 73-74-147; Bobby Riegel, Houston, 70-77-147; Normal Lewis, Houston, 74-74-148; Leon Thomas, Houston, 77-72-149; Louis Douglass, Houston, 76-73-149; Morris Williams, Austin, 73-76-149.

San Angelo (four places, par 71)—William (Red) Roden, Odessa, 70-68-138; Lloyd French, Jr., Odessa, 72-71-145; Ted Roden, Odessa, 77-71-148; Hezzie Carson, San Angelo, 76-73-149.

BAEZ HITS HOME RUN

Taylor Again Stops Hosses With Seven-Hit Job, 6-2

SWEETWATER, August 19. — Treating the Big Spring Broncs like anything but league leaders, the Sweetwater Sports turned back Pat Stasey's gang, 6-2, in the first of a three-game series here Wednesday evening.

Coy Taylor, who beat the Hosses last week in Big Spring, limited the Steeds to seven hits in registering his 11th victory of the campaign. He has lost 11.

Freddy Rodriguez, who started on the pitching rubber for Big Spring, was charged with the loss, his third of the year. He has won eight.

Melvin Wiebel started the fireworks for Sweetwater in the fifth with a home run. Shortly thereafter, Howie Reynolds scored on a misplay by Justo Azpiazu.

In the sixth, Dave Steger, Kenny Peacock and Hal Jackson drove home tallies.

Bert Baez hit a round tripper for Big Spring in the third. Pat Stasey singled home Ray Vasquez later in the frame after the Big Spring short stop had doubled.

College Stars Marking Time

CHICAGO, Aug. 19. (AP)—Seventy college football stars rested in a downtown hotel today before clashing with the National Football League Champion Chicago Cardinals tomorrow night before a sell-out crowd of 100,000.

The squad went through a snappy drill under the Soldier Field lights last night.

Perhaps never has an all star line been so strong and so deep end to end. The same goes for the line backing, which will be handled by such giants as Oklahoma's John Rapacz, Navy's Dick Scott, Kentucky's Jay Rhodemyre, Indiana's Howard Brown and Alabama's John Wozniak.

BLUE RIBBON FIELD

DENVER, Aug. 19. (AP)—A blue ribbon field of 93 golfers, including most of the leading pro hustlers on the pro circuit, teed off today in quest of the Denver Open tournament's $12,500 in cash prizes.

MEN! FEEL YOUNG AGAIN

Have the passing years left you tired and uninterested in the joys of life? Do you feel old at 40, 50 or more? Don't let the feeling of advancing years make you discouraged. You may once more enjoy the best of living as you did in former years. Regain the pleasure of youth. Go to your drugstore and ask for a bottle of Caltrone tablets. Take as long as you feel you need them. You will be amazed at the difference it will make in your entire outlook on life. Women too find Caltrone beneficial. Get Caltrone from your drugstore at the new reduced price.

Three other golfers playing here Wednesday earned chances to play in the meet, which takes place in Memphis Aug. 30 to Sept. 4. They are Lloyd French, Jr., Odessa, 145; Ted Roden, Odessa, 148; and Hezzie Carson, San Angelo, 149.

Next to Roden in state scoring was Jack Munger of Dallas, who qualified in his home town with a 141. In all, 24 linksmen qualified to represent the Lone Star state in the tournament.

Hearing Set Tonight On. HCJC Budget

Public hearing on the proposed $106,000 budget for Howard County Junior College comes up at 8 p. m. in the college library today.

The figure is roughly $3,000 above the past year's guide, and expenditures are expected to run some $5,000 less than the amount, this being the value of the contingency item.

Instructional costs, including some increment and one new instructor, which brings the staff to full strength at 17, are booked at $60,000, an advance of $5,000. Most other items are pared down.

A recapitulation shows $150 estimated for printing and advertising, $500 for student activities, $3,000 for health and physical education, $1,400 for travel, $1,000 for library, $11,400 for debt service, $7,000 each for utilities and custodial-student assistant salaries, $2,500 each for repair and industrial education, and $700 for science supplies.

Revenues are estimated to show $60,000 from district taxes ($7,000 less than this year's collections), $9,000 from state subsidy, $31,500 in tuition and fees, $5,000 in rentals.

Expenditures this year have amounted to $169,000, but several non-recurring items are $42,500. Liquidation short-term loans, $7,000 purchase of buildings, $17,000 in full payment of five years of insurance, $3,000 cost of conversion of heat to gas, $3,000 industrial equipment, and $2,100 GI book due bills.

New Afternoon Mail Service Set

Mail received on Texas and Pacific passenger Train No. 1, west-bound, ordinarily is placed in the post office boxes by 4:30 p. m. on the day of its arrival, Post Master Nat Shick said this morning.

The train, when on time, arrives here at 3:30 p. m. and departs at 3:45 p. m. Formerly, it reached here at 10:30 p. m.

Postal receipts for the current year are running more than $9,000 over 1947 and there is no indication business is slackening, Shick stated.

Receipts for last month amounted to $11,199.60, compared to $10,077.34 for July, 1947.

Aggregate for the first seven months of the year is $71,680.73, compared to $62,620.69 for the corresponding period in 1947.

Shick said the August business is about on a par with the 1947 figure, though a carload of catalogues sent the August, 1947, total soaring.

Airey Purchases Beaumont Plant

BEAUMONT, Aug. 19. (U-P)—Stuart Stadium, where the Beaumont Exports play their Texas league games, had its second owner in 20 years today.

The stadium, erected in 1929 by R. L. Stuart, was sold yesterday to Guy Airey, who has been operating the Beaumont franchise three years, using the field under lease.

GAME CALLED—Robert Peterkin, 11, (left) and Michael Walsh, 9, hold their baseball equipment as they gaze on the body of Babe Ruth in his casket at Yankee Stadium, New York. The youngsters were playing in a nearby sandlot when they learned the Babe's body was being brought to the Stadium. They joined a line of thousands who paid their last respects to the home run king. Stevenson Talks Tax Reduction

By the Associated Press
Coke Stevenson, talking about taxes and how he would reduce them, moves his senatorial campaign today from the Houston area to Austin.

Lyndon Johnson, who says his opponent misrepresented the facts about a CIO "blacklist," goes to Fort Worth. He spoke in Paris last night.

Stevenson, in a radio speech at Baytown, proposed a $3,000 income tax exemption for veterans. "I've advocated a reduction in federal taxes throughout this campaign," he said, "and I offer this proposal as a specific example of what I have in mind."

Stevenson's headquarters in Austin said he would discuss taxes further and talk about his opponent's campaign expenditures in a statewide broadcast originating there at 6:45 p. m. today.

Johnson said Stevenson's statement about the "blacklist" was made Tuesday. "The CIO News of Aug. 11, 1947, which he says is the basis of his documentary evidence that the CIO has not placed me on the blacklist, does not even carry a blacklist," Johnson said at Paris. The CIO paper "does carry a gray list, that is a map showing the districts of congressmen who voted for the Taft-Hartley bill," Johnson said. "That map lists my district on the gray list."

In Fort Worth today, Johnson was to make a radio speech at 12:45 p. m. At 8 p. m., he was scheduled to make a "non-political" speech sponsored by the Fort Worth Chapter of the Air Reserve Association.

Of Communism, both candidates sang the same tune yesterday, but with slightly different lyrics.

In a radio speech at Dallas before he went to Paris, Johnson said he was "no recent convert" to the fight against Communism. Stevenson said he was not a "new recruit" in that fight.

Before and after his Baytown speech, Stevenson discussed his tax proposal with reporters. "I'll introduce a bill on it when I get to Congress," he said. "I never take a stand and fail to back it up."

The former governor said that the $3,000 exemption he proposes would be in addition to present exemptions. He said it would apply to all veterans for at least five years.

A veteran with current exemption of $600 would not have to pay income tax on $3,600, under his plan, Stevenson said. "It would enable that veteran to have an income of $300 a month without being burdened by an income tax."

Johnson, speaking of the CIO News, said that besides the "gray list" the paper "does carry the voting records of all congressmen, including Lyndon Johnson. That tabulation shows that by CIO standards I voted right four times and wrong six times."

He said the paper showed that he voted wrong, in the opinion of the CIO, four times on votes cast on the Taft-Hartley law and voted wrong on a cut in funds for rent control and on the anti-poll tax bill. He said it showed the CIO thought he voted right on housing laws for veterans, on the President's veto of the tax bill, on the school lunch program, and on the land reclamation program.

BANKS CLOSED

Gold Standard Is Adopted By China

NANKING, Aug. 19. (U-P)—China today adopted a new gold standard currency and ordered all banks closed for the next two days to permit an orderly conversion.

Government spokesman Hollington Tong said the currency will be called "gold yuan" and that it will be backed by 100 per cent reserves. He said it would be convertible to foreign exchange under control.

The official announcement did not disclose rates for which the new currency will be exchanged for the old, inflated paper money. But official sources said the rates would be one gold yuan for 3,000,000 Chinese dollars of the national currency now in use, four gold yuans for each U. S. dollar and two gold yuans for each Chinese silver dollar.

On this basis it was estimated that the government must issue at least half-a-billion gold yuans to cover the 150-trillions in national currency outstanding.

President Chiang Kai-Shek flew back here last night from Kuling with the new money plan. He outlined it immediately to the central political council of the Kuomintang party. The council approved it and sent the plan to an emergency meeting of the executive yuan (legislature). The official announcement followed that meeting.

In the past four years, 11 National League baseball managers have either resigned or been fired.
