Rains Wash Out More Lynn Crops

Several thousand more acres of crops have been washed out by rains the past week and planting delayed right down to the deadline on many acres. May and June rains have set all-time records on the South Plains, while most of the South, Midwest, and Rocky Mountain States are having an unprecedented drought.

Sunday midnight, Tahoka received 1.01 inches, late Tuesday night 2.1 inches, and Wednesday night .03 inches, ordinarily not big rains but with the ground soaked they were too much this time. In 50 days since May 1, rain or mist has fallen in Tahoka on 20 days.

Tahoka has received 2.02 inches the first four months of the year, 8.24 inches in May, and 3.21 so far in June for a total of 13.47 inches. Many acres of the county have received more than this, possible up to 20 inches or more.

Washing rains Sunday night of 1.5 or 2.5 inches destroyed many crops from West Point south through Three Lakes, New Moore, and Wells areas, dumped one to two inches on drowned-out Grassland, New Lynn, Wilson, and intervening areas of eastern and northeastern parts of the county. In fact, much of the northeast third of the county is so wet and so badly underwater, many farmers not only can't plant but some may not be able to get in their cotton acreage because of high lakes.

Tuesday night, a heavy rain washed out or badly damaged a strip three miles north of New Home. Robert Peor reported two to three inches of rain damaged land farmed by E. R. Blakney, Frank Lisenby, Carl Armes, Roger Blakney and other in that area.

Only light showers fell Wednesday night, one-half inch in areas west of town being the most reported Thursday morning to the News.

Mrs. Margaret Bartley of Wilson reported rains Sunday night totaled 1.5 at the A. N. Crowson place south of Wilson, 2.5 inches at Elmer Gumm's north of Wilson, and 2 inches at the Lawrence May place east. From Tahoka north, through parts of the Dixie, Crossroads, and Wayside areas much land is still too wet to plant.

"Heavy" Nelson says most of the northwest part of the county now has crops going, harring further rains.

W. F. Lester says crops are fair around Gordon, but this is about the only area left in the north-eastern sector. C. A. Walker and Curtis Morgan report one to two inches in the Grassland, Garolia, New Lynn and Central Church areas, and land under water east to the caprock near Post. Edith area is only partially planted and up.

C. O. Carmack and others report most of the Redwine, Draw, Joe Bailey, and Midway areas are in fair to good condition, considering circumstance. Much of the O'Donnell area is also in good shape.

Many farmers have planted two to six times, some not at all.

"Dub" Gurley At State Board Meet

W. W. (Dub) Gurley, line foreman of Lyntegar, is attending a meeting of the State Job Safety Training Board, of which he is a member, in San Antonio this Thursday and Friday. The board is sponsored by the Extension Service of Texas A&M College.

Mrs. Gurley and two sons, Ricky and Randy, accompanied Dub, and will visit and see sights in and around the Alamo City.

Church Birthday Speakers Named

Speakers for the 60th anniversary celebration of Tahoka's First Baptist Church on Sunday, July 7, have been announced by the pastor, Rev. T. James Efrid.

Rev. George A. Dale, retired former local pastor of Lubbock, will preach at the 11 a. m. service; Dr. Melvin Rathel, former education and music director and now pastor of Trinity Church in Lubbock, will speak during the afternoon; and Rev. Gordon Smith, reared here, youth director of Rosen Heights Church in Fort Worth and a student in Southwestern Theological Seminary, will be the speaker at the night services.

During the Sunday afternoon program, there will be a memorial service, an informal musical program, and Dr. K. R. Durham will give a review of the church history, and there will be other interesting program numbers.

Lunch will be served at noon during the all-day program.

Browning Attends World-Wide Meet

Don Browning, president-elect of the Tahoka Rotary Club, arrived home last Friday afternoon, somewhat ailing, but highly pleased with activities of the Rotary International Convention he attended in St. Louis Monday through Friday.

Highlight of the convention, according to Browning, was the outstanding speech by Mayor Willie Brandt of West Berlin who spoke of "World Cooperation." Also addressing the Rotarians was president elect R. I. Miller of Los Angeles, California who stated that Rotarians have had plenty of time to kindle the spark within and now it is time to put that energy to specific work. Miller plans to project the theme of "doing" during his year as Rotary head.

Browning reports the entire convention was enjoyable, including the tours offered in and around the city. Browning's wife and daughter spent the week visiting with her parents in Fluvanna.

Installation of the local Rotary officers will be held July 1 at the home of the current president, Calloway Huffaker. A covered dish supper in the backyard will precede the installation.

Tahoka Landmark Being Torn Down

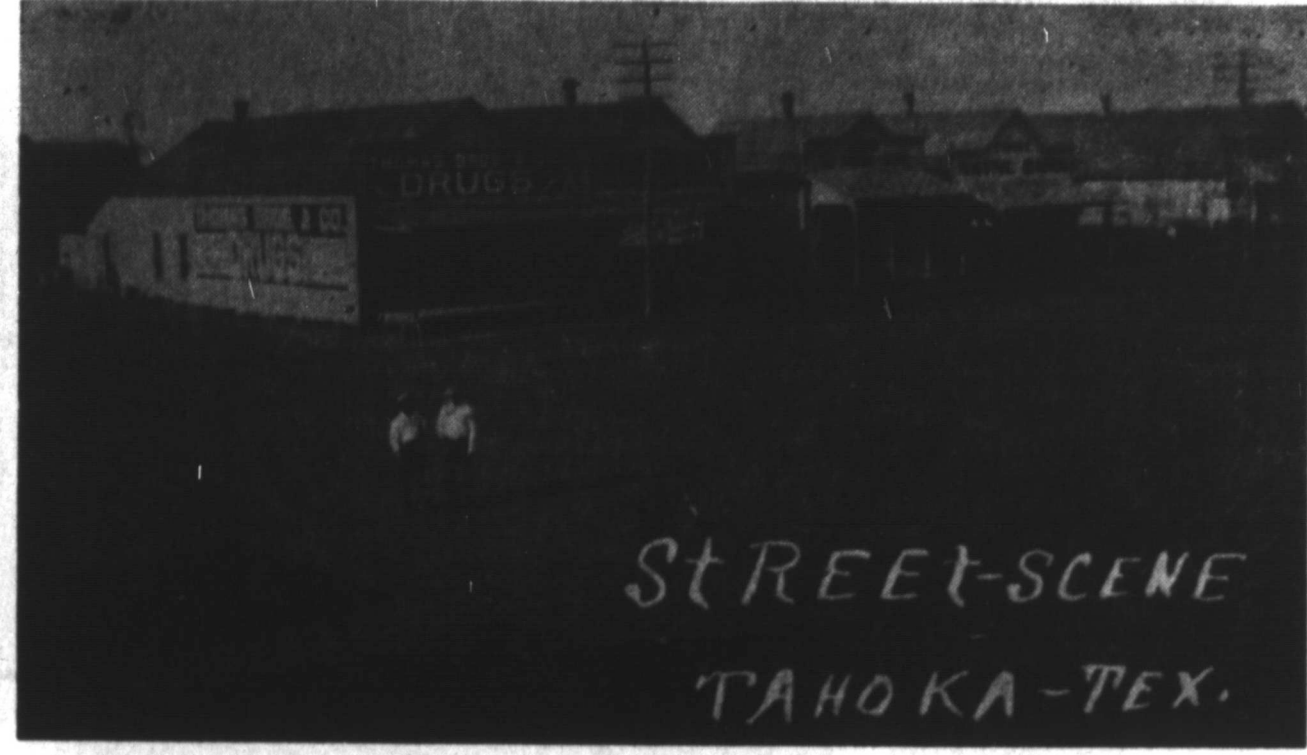

The old Howell garage building, now owned by Mitchell Williams, is being razed this week by Jack Curry. The frame and sheet iron building had become an eyesore, and Williams said he simply decided to wreck it as a "civic duty." He has no immediate plans for building on the lots.

H. B. (Belton) Howell erected the building in 1918, where he operated a garage. Most of the time since, it has been used by garages, the last occupant being Buck's Body Shop. Much of the time, it was owned by the late A. I. Thomas, and was acquired by Williams a couple of years ago.

Being in the fire zone, the City could not issue a permit for remodeling such a structure following a fire a few years ago which weakened the structure.

Incidentally, Belton Howell started the first garage in Tahoka in 1906 just south of the square about where D. R. Grayson's shop is now located.

Mrs. Mary Kelly entered Tahoka Hospital on Tuesday for a tonsillectomy and was dismissed the next day.

Tahoka City Employees Receive Service Awards

Tahoka city employees were honored Friday night by Mayor Mel Leslie and members of the City Council at a banquet at the City Legion building, when service pins were presented six employees. About thirty people attended, including wives of employees and the Council.

Mayor Leslie, who presided, said so far as he knew this was the first time such recognition had been given city employees for service rendered. He praised paid city employees for their loyalty to duty, courtesy to the public, and faithful service.

As a whole, the mayor declared, no town could expect a better group, and this praise went to the office employees, water and sewer, police, parks, sanitation, and fire departments.

Special praise went to Tahoka's Volunteer Fire Department, represented at the dinner by Chief Pat Patterson. The Mayor said Tahoka has just about as good a fire rate as a town can have, due largely to the volunteer firemen. (Cont'd. 66 Back Page)

MRS. JIM WHITE IMPROVES
Mrs. Jim White, who underwent surgery in Tahoka Hospital Tuesday of last week, was able to go home this Monday, and is reported improving nicely.

Methodists Plan New Sanctuary

First Methodist Church has definitely planned to erect its new sanctuary on the present church site, and the church building committee is meeting weekly to work out details for the structure, states Rev. Aubrey F. White, pastor.

The church has considered rebuilding the old church, selling this building and site and moving to another location, and has finally come up with the decision to build a new ground-level sanctuary adjacent to the present building on the half-block occupied by the present structure.

Although no final decision has been reached on what to do with the present building, Rev. White says the possibility is that this structure will be used as an education building when the new sanctuary is erected. But, plans will be made to replace it with a more modern building some time in the near future to blend in with the new sanctuary.

The building hopes to have its ideas worked out soon so the architect may proceed with more detailed plans.

Washington has a taxicab for every 84 persons.

School Board Approves Plan For New Building Program

Tahoka School Board had a busy session in its meeting Tuesday night at which it (1) approved preliminary plans for the new high school, (2) let a contract for an addition to Dunbar school, (3) sold the Jaquess buildings, (4) sold three of the older buses, and (5) accepted resignation of three teachers.

Arnold Maeker, architect, was authorized to proceed with plans for the new $550,000 high school building, cafeteria addition, and remodeling of the old high school and north elementary buildings. The board has decided to seek bids on all this work under one contract, but this contract probably will not be let before Sept. 1.

Higginbotham-Bartlett Co. was awarded a contract for construction of a 24 by 40-foot addition to Dunbar school on a bid of $66,512.00. The building will be added to the west end of the present building and be of the same type construction, and new lighting will be installed in the older building to meet State standards.

The new addition at Dunbar will also have a book room and storage room, and the main room will have a partition in the middle to form two classrooms and serve the dual purpose of an assembly room for the entire school.

Dunbar now has three teachers, but will have four next year for eight grades. High school students, transported to Slaton last year, will attend Tahoka High.

Bids on the J. W. Jaquess buildings, which occupy the lots recently purchased by the school for expansion of the cafeteria, were sold on high bids. The dwelling on the corner went to Irving Stewart for $425.00, the old rock building to H. E. Mock for $25.00, and the small store building to Joe Calvillo for $25.00. It to be removed as quickly as possible and lots cleared.

An El Paso dealer was high bidder for three old school buses at $1,800.00. These will be replaced by four buses bought by the State Board of Control. Two of the new buses on order are 60-passenger capacity, and two are 48-passenger.

Resignations of three teachers were accepted. They are: Mrs. Johnnie Hamilton, English and Spanish, who will teach in Garland schools next year; Jerry Kelum, driver education and PE, and Tim Roberts, sixth grade, who expect to return to college.

Pioneer Reunion Set For Saturday

Lyntegar Begins New Addition

Excavation work started Monday morning for the new addition to the Lyntegar Electric Cooperative headquarters building on Main street. Contractor for the 2,082 square-foot addition is the Purcell Construction Company of Lamesa.

The addition will be used principally by the accounting department, and a basement will be for storage of records. This is the third time since the first building was erected that the Cooperative has had to expand its office space.

The first floor addition will be 1080 square feet in size, on the south of the present building and extending eastward to within five feet of the sidewalk. The design will conform to the present structure.

A basement containing 1002 square feet under the ground floor addition will be utilized principally for storage of record.

Also in the improvement plans will be extension of the off-street parking strip in front of the building northward to the White Funeral Home lots, and installation of electric heating in the north-west wing of the building, which will make the entire building heated by electricity.

Plans are also in the making, according to Bert Stevens, for installation of IBM equipment for better handling of billing, book-keeping and records.

With this in mind, Mrs. Helen Ellis, office manager, and Charles Osborne are in Dallas this week attending an IBM school of instruction, and will be going back from time to time for further schooling.

Lyntegar, one of the largest electric cooperatives in this area, has had tremendous growth and is continuing to grow and increase its volume of business, much of which comes from conversion to electricity in operation of irrigation wells over the lower South Plains.

Meter connections in all or parts of 10 counties have passed 12,200 this year.

4-H Members Attend Leadership Camp

The Lynn county 4-H Club sent seven members to the Junior Leadership Camp held Tuesday through Thursday this week at South Plains Junior College in Levelland.

Attending were Ivah Kieth of New Home; Carla McNeely, Tahoka; Katie Garrett, O'Donnell; Barbara Carr, Tahoka; Ronnie Wood, James White and Frankie Scott, all of O'Donnell. The youths were accompanied by Mrs. Billie Carr, home demonstration agent; Bill Griffin, county agent; and Valton Hoffman, agent-in-training. During the camp, the participated in leadership training sessions through the day with various recreational activities offered in the evening. The seven members who attended have all participated in junior leadership activities in the county-wide club.

JEANNIE WHITE HOME

Mrs. Pistol (Jeannie) White who has been undergoing medical treatment at Houston for the past several months has returned home to spend about three months before returning for further treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Throckmorton and children of Larned, Kansas came Tuesday to visit Mrs. Stella Throckmorton and sister, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Urban Brown.

Mr. Josh Rumba was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Saturday as a medical patient.

Arrangements are complete for entertainment of a large crowd here Saturday at the annual Lynn County Pioneer Reunion, being held this time in the Tahoka school cafeteria and on the campus at the immediate rear of the building.

Registration will begin at 10:00 a. m. under direction of Mrs. Bill (Eloise) Griffin, and most of the morning will be devoted to visiting, according to Charles Reid, chairman of the Reunion.

Prior to the noon meal, a short business session will be held during which officers for the coming year will be elected.

In the afternoon, there will be a short and snappy program with Clint Walker as master of ceremonies and entertainment arranged by Mrs. Jack (Frankie) Fenton and Mr. and Mrs. Casey Jones of Plains.

Pioneers by years in which they came to the county will be recognized. Trophies will be presented the oldest pioneer lady present, the oldest gentleman, and the person coming the greatest distance, awards being limited to those who have not received the prizes before.

Merchants and salespeople of the town are being asked to dress in clothing fitting to the days gone by and to decorate store windows with relics and photos. Mrs. Doris Rutherford and Turner Rogers are in charge of this.

Food has already been arranged for by Elmer Sproles, "Booger" Redwine, Dan, Wiley and John Curry. Roy Stephens is in charge of building arrangements. Rainbow Girls will assist with serving food, and Maurice Huffaker is in charge of serving shut-ins of the town.

Members of the finance committee are: James F. (Sonny) Roberts, Sam Edwards, John Wells, Kenneth Turner, Charles Verner, and John F. Thomas.

George Hughes Band of Abertown will play for an old time dance Saturday night in the City-Legion building. Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Carroll are in charge of this entertainment.

Dusty Dan Wins At Ruidoso Race Track

Dusty Dan, the fine race horse of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. (Buford) Jones of Gordon, came in first in the quinella one day recently at Ruidoso Downs and paid the largest purse of the day.

The Jones now have seven fine race horses at the track and six more at home which will be entered during the summer.

"Horse racing isn't as bad as some people think, after all," Buford says.

"Buster" Phipps, another Tahoka man who has had race horses at Ruidoso Downs for a number of years, had a winner last Friday. His horse, Tribal Tip, trained by Don Herber and ridden by D. W. Whited, won the 10th race on that day.

Lynn County Abstract and Tahoka Cafe are the features of this week's "Neighbors On the Job" by caricaturist "Hut" Hutson. The advertisement and story are on the back page of Section Two of this issue of The News.

Pony Team Plays Outstanding Ball

In a Pony League game last Friday night the Braves defeated the Orioles, 4 to 1 with Pedro Pateres taking the win and Charles Sales the losing pitcher.

Gary Brooks and Alex Olivia also saw action on the pitcher's mound for the Braves.

A perfectly executed squeeze bunt by Wayne Thurman provided the scoring while two-hit pitching by Tommy Kidwell and the fielding of shortstop Creath Arbuckle sparked the defense as the Tahoka Orioles edged the New Home Eagles 2-0 in a Lynn County Pony League game Tuesday at New Home.

In picking up his first victory of the season, Kidwell gave up only two hits and allowed base runs only in the fourth and fifth innings. He was backed up by a tight Oriole defense led by Arbuckle. The little shortstop gained applause with a diving catch of a line drive off the bat of Pancho Henry in the third inning.

For the home-standing Eagles, Duche Henry went the route on the mound striking out eight Orioles and giving up only three hits: one each to Arbuckle, Glass, and Mike Lankford.

Little Leaguers Are Active This Week

Little League Thursday night action saw the Cards beat the Yankees, 6-3 and the Giants defeat the Cubs, 10-1.

Larry Durham was the winning pitcher and Greg Thomas served as relief. Two Yankee pitchers, Jody Edwards and Tim Walker, saw action.

The Giants winning pitcher was Ray Chapa who was relieved by James Sayles and Billy Curry took the loss for the Cubs. He had relief from Jimmy Adams and Willie Brown, according to reporter, Gary Dan Thomas.

On Monday night, League games were Giants versus Yankees and Cards against the Cubs.

The Giants scored on the Yankees, 18-3 with Charlie Brown receiving the win and Randy White the loss. Ray Chapa relieved Brown and Robert Garza and Jimmy McCord relieved White.

The Cards defeated the Cubs, 13-8. Greg Thomas, who relieved Michael Glenn, was the winning pitcher and Billy Curry was the loser, relieved by Jimmy Adams.

Long-Time Resident Moves To Plains

Mrs. W. T. Clinton, a resident of Tahoka for 46 years, has moved to Plains to be near her two daughters, Mrs. R. B. (Casey) Jones and Mrs. Mary Sue Scott. She was back "home" this last week end visiting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Clinton, and Billy.

Mrs. Clinton says she left Tahoka with a lot of reluctance but realizes because of her age she needs to be near her daughters. She recently sold her home here as right-of-way for the new US

87 four-lane highway through town, and expects to build a home in Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton moved here from Cameron in 1917, and reared their family here. Mr. Clinton passed away about 11 or 12 years ago. Her home for many years has been home for a number of bachelor men as boarders. Mrs. Clinton has long been active in her church, the Methodist, and many friends will miss her.

Mrs. A. P. Stephens underwent major surgery in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Tuesday and is reported to be doing just fine.

MRS. BOBBY MACK FURLOW (nee Brenda Elaine Barnes) Photo by Finney

Mr. And Mrs. Bobby Mack Furlow On Trip To New Mexico After Friday Wedding

Miss Brenda Elaine Barnes and Bobby Mack Furlow were married at 7:00 p. m. Friday in the Draw Methodist Church with the Rev. Bervin Caswell, uncle of the bride from Carlsbad, N. M., reading the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Barnes, route 2, Tahoka, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Furlow, route 1, O'Donnell. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of de-lustered satin featuring pleated side and back panels which flowed into a chapel train. The lace bodice was designed with a scalloped neckline and full length sleeves tapered to a point over the hand. Her tiered veil of imported French silk illusion was attached to a crown tiara of seed pearls. She carried a single, white orchid surrounded by white carnations atop a white Bible.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Janie Barnes who wore a gown of yellow embroidered silk organza featuring a scoop neckline and an unusual back design. Her bouquet was heart shaped with yellow and white daisies.

The best man was Charley Shaw of O'Donnell. Rusty Hensley and Robert Goldston, both of O'Donnell, served as ushers.

Linda Caswell, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and Ricky Barnes, a brother, was the ring bearer. Bobby Furlow, brother of the groom and Jerry Droll of Fort Worth lighted the candles.

Mrs. Marlin Hawthorne accompanied Tim Rexrode in wedding selections.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride traveled in a two piece silk suit of dusty rose. She accented it with white accessories. After the honeymoon, they will be at home at route 1 in O'Donnell, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Mrs. Furlow is a graduate of O'Donnell High School and attended Draughon's Business College in Lubbock. Furlow is also a graduate of O'Donnell High School.

Pythian Sisters Honor Drill Team

Lynn Temple No. 45 of Pythian Sisters met Tuesday evening at the WOW Hall with Mrs. Eulalia Richardson Most Excellent Chief presiding.

Gifts were presented to drill team leaders, Mrs. Pauline Warren and Mrs. Bernice Carter; decorations committee, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brice; and to Mrs. Berta Williams as Grand Representative of Lynn Temple.

The local drill team, which won sixth place at the Grand Temple in Abilene last week, will be presented at a time and place to be announced later, according to Mrs. Lucy Brice.

Twenty-five members were present for the meeting and Mrs. Lucille Wright and Mrs. Florence McCracken were hostesses.

McMANIS VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McManis of New Home had about 15 visitors present for Father's Day Sunday, including one daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bleathrode of Lubbock, the Billy Smith family from Morton, and nieces and nephews from Hobbs and Lubbock. Mr. Mack says his wife was ready for them with a meal and two gallons of ice cream.

REV. WHITE HAS VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Ron White arrived in Tahoka last weekend to visit his father, Rev. Aubrey White, for a few days.

On Saturday, another son, Dwaine, arrived to assume his duties with the local ASC office. He will be employed here this summer while his wife and daughter will spend the summer months visiting in Midland and Louisiana.

Of the 22 starters in Texas Tech's football spring training windup game, five were seniors, seven juniors, 10 sophomores.

Reader Issues Rebuttal To Mrs. Verner's Letter

(Editor's Note: The following is from the pen of Nolan Porterfield of Lubbock, former Draw, O'Donnell, and Tahoka student, a former editor of the Lamesa Reporter, in answer to the recent article by Mrs. Myrna Verner.)

One of my earliest encounters with classical learning and the thoughts of great men was provided by The Lynn County News. For as long as I can remember, the News has carried beneath its masthead on Page One these words, attributed to Voltaire, the great French philosopher: "I wholly disapprove of what you say but will defend to the death your right to say it."

Reading the News as a small boy, I was profoundly impressed with this statement and the spirit behind it. Your "motto" became a part of my moral, social, and political conduct. It spoke for tolerance, and I assumed, with some pride, that it proclaimed the position of the "Oldest Business Institution in Lynn County."

After reading your edition of May 31, I'm not so sure. I think you have forgotten your own precept.

I refer to the article headed "Tahoka Housewife Condemns Atheism on Texas Tech Faculty." Certainly the article was written with the best intentions and published in good faith, but through distortion and misconception, it offers opinions and conclusions which are unjust, inaccurate, and most illogical. Not only does this sort of well-meaning but misguided rabble-rousing foster the prejudice, hatred, and fear that is dividing our nation, but it seeks to serve as judge, jury, and executioner for anyone who does not agree with it.

Mrs. Verner unfortunately interprets Dr. Hildebrand's statement that "Woolery" wraps himself in the church and flag" as "belittling . . . church and state." Surely it should be obvious that Dr. Hildebrand is concerned for the church and state, rather than "belittling" them, because he objects to the fact that Woolery and his kind use the church and flag as protection so that they can spout any kind of absurd, fear-riddled, emotional nonsense (at substantial fees) without danger of being questioned. But Mrs. Verner ignores this, and turns around to accuse Hildebrand of taking refuge in "academic freedom" (which, as anyone connected with the institution will tell you, is about as much protection at Texas Tech as a straw hat in a hailstorm).

Academic freedom has become a poor goat for every self-appointed censor and bigot. It is so easy to attack the "eggheads"; anti-intellectualism has been popular since the Romans burned Christians and Galileo was disgraced for hinting that the world was round. But the ironic thing today is that academic freedom is attacked in the name of Americanism, when academic freedom itself is nothing more than a simple embodiment of everything this nation stands for: open inquiry, freedom of expression, and due process of law. It disturbs me greatly to see a fine, intelligent woman like Mrs. Verner being deluded by these hysteric doom-cryers, so that the readers of the News are given a false conception of the situation.

When we reach the point where someone can invest himself with the power to abolish academic freedom, it will be easy enough for him or someone else to go to work on all our other freedoms. Destroy academic freedom—or any other of our cherished freedoms—and you open the door to fascism, communism, and all the other isms which seek to dominate the will of man. Dictatorships don't necessarily originate in Washington, D. C.

But let the significant pronouncement on Charles E. Woolery's brand of "Americanism" come from a good conservative Republican—U. S. Senator Thomas Kuchel of Calif., who denounces Woolery and his breed as "right-peddlers." They claim to be patriots, says Kuchel, but they are "unpatriotic and downright un-American."

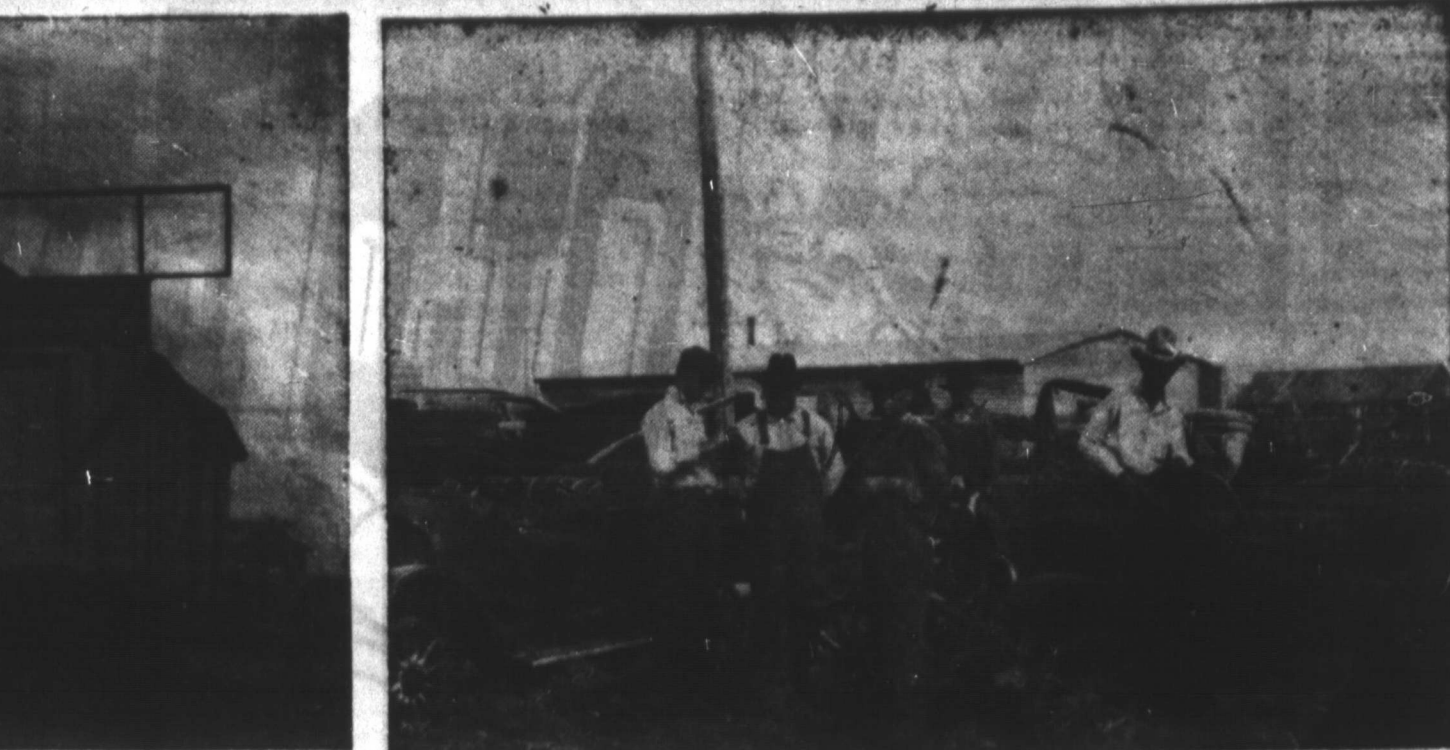

Mrs. Verner's main argument, however, seems to be with Dr. Manning, who had the temerity to proclaim himself an atheist. In addition to ignoring Manning's pertinent question, "What is wrong with atheism," Mrs. Verner has followed Woolery's ridiculous reasoning that, because Manning is an atheist, it naturally follows that he doesn't believe in the Constitution of the U. S.

What in God's Holy Name does being an atheist have to do with believing in the Constitution? Does the Constitution demand that you accept God before you can believe in it? Does God demand it?

And while Woolery poisoned the air with such nonsense, how many good Christians throughout the South were denying their black brothers entrance to God's House and their own schools, in direct violation of both God's law and the Constitution which the

First picture above is of Tahoka Coal & Grain Co., once located on South First near the Santa Fe depot, and was owned by A. L. Jones, father-in-law of Mrs. Clyde Jones. Pictured in front of the building are Mrs. A. L. Jones and son, Weems Jones. The other picture is of the first auto wrecking yard established in Tahoka in about 1922 or 1923, located east of the square and owned by Marshall Stewart, Belton Howell and Happy Smith. There's a lot of argument about the identity of one or two men in the picture. The man on the left, wearing cap, is Marshall Stewart; the man in the black hat is probably W. R. (Bob) Trawick; and both of these men still live here. Several have identified the other man in a cap as "Curley" Gamble, but no one is able to identify the man in the background. There's a lot of argument about identity of the man in the cowboy hat, and the names of Marvin Wood, Clay Hughes, Fred McDaniel, and Wiley Fortenberry have been suggested. Possibly some of the readers of The News will be able to furnish some further information.

good Mr. Woolery is so concerned about?

Why is atheism suddenly such an awesome terror? Many of history's greatest figures professed no faith in a supreme being (our friend Voltaire, for instance). Our Constitution specifically denies the establishment of any religion, clearly advocating "free exercise" to the extent that only the most twisted mind could deny that "freedom of religion" equally guarantees "freedom from religion," if one so desires.

Atheism is not "anti-God," but simply "non-God"—and the distinction is important.

I certainly cannot speak for or defend atheists—but neither can I accept their persecution—caused by the idiotic reasoning that, since communism is atheistic, all atheists are communists. Was Clarence Darrow a communist? He certainly was an atheist, as were other such patriots as H. L. Mencken, Frank Lloyd Wright, and Mark Twain. Many others, like Tom Paine and good Ben Franklin, held to "deism," which by definition "rejects the conception of a supreme being as ruler and guide of men."

Listen to the noble voice of Rev. Joseph Dawson, respected Baptist minister and leader in church-state affairs: "I, who have spent 65 years in the Christian ministry and wish that everybody in the world would be a Christian, would not lift the weight of a feather to compel any man by law and police force to be a Christian."

Dr. Manning has not yet come to me or anyone else and said, "Let's overthrow the government and shoot all the Christians," but several of those like Mr. Woolery, citing Bibles and waving flags, have tried to enlist my support to "impeach Kennedy, throw out the Supreme Court, kick the atheists out of their jobs, and get them niggers out of our schools." I deny that this is support of church and state, and I accuse those who propose it of hypocrisy, inhumanity, ignorance, and bigotry.

It might interest Mrs. Verner to know that Dr. Manning teaches "History of Theology" at Texas Tech. Moreover, this "openly-avowed atheist professor" conducts the class in a manner that is not only thorough, accurate, and objective, but highly inspirational as well. Certainly Dr. Manning has never brought his personal convictions into the classroom.

But apparently Mrs. Verner has not bothered to investigate this, and in resorting to name-calling, innuendo, and loaded words to smear Manning, she has done a great disservice to a man whose conduct and morals are above reproach. She has further cast, by implication, an unfavorable shadow upon his students, his colleagues, and the college itself. It is this sort of irresponsible emotionalism which may one day drive Americans to burn not only books but each other as well.

Mrs. Verner, very rightfully, expresses concern for the nation's youth. But if they are vulnerable, as she feels, then parents must take the blame. Either prepare them at home—take the vulnerability out of them—or don't send them to college and then cry that they're being "brain-washed" (which is very nearly libel). College is not simply a continuation of high school, a super-level nursery for coddling Johnny or Mary through four years of lip exercises so he or she can get "a good job." It is a place for mental maturity, for the open gathering, exchange, and dissemination of ideas—a place where a person learns that every question has not two but two million sides: everything isn't so cut and dried as Mrs. Verner seems to believe.

Raise Johnny and Mary to distinguish right from wrong, send them to college with confidence in their ability, and leave the professors alone!

Before you start a witch-hunt to "exert influence over the choice of instructors" at Texas Tech, first exert a little responsible thinking and action. Interview these men who are supposedly warping the minds of our youth, talk to people who know them, investigate their professional standing, observe their moral behavior. Don't, on the basis of one brief encounter, proclaim yourselves an omnipotent power capable of deciding such complex matters as the character of a human being's moral, mental, social, and/or religious make-up. Read your masthead again. I think God is more unhappy with bigots than with atheists.

"I wholly disapprove of what you say but will defend to the death your right to say it." Of course, what Voltaire really said was "Think for yourselves and let others enjoy the privilege to do so too." But either way, it makes good sense. It's a good thing for the News to have on its front page—if you really believe it.

There's also a good one from Tom Jefferson which covers a little more ground: "I swear before the altar of God eternal hostility toward every form of tyranny over the mind of man."

Former Lynn Folks Describe Missouri Ranching Country

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. (Burr) Morrow and daughter, Carolyn, formerly Lynn county residents, were here this week to visit friends and relatives. The Morrrows are now ranching in Everton, Missouri which is about 29 miles northwest of Springfield.

Burr Morrow farmed extensive land in the New Home community and also leased T-Bar land for ranching until about a year ago when he turned his Lynn county interests over to his son, Wendell Burr, and his son-in-law, Bill Eckert. Morrow then moved to Missouri where he could devote his time to Hereford cattle. He describes his ranch as rolling hills with quite a bit of timber and says the Sac river flows through his place.

His 17 year old daughter will be a Senior at Everton next year and seems pleased with their new home.

Average expenditure for drilling wells in Texas is $11.40 per foot.

Grassland News

By Mrs. Lucille Walker
Farmers are still trying to plant crops in between showers. A lot of us don't have much land showing on our farms, just a corner here and there. Guess we might as well invest in a boat and try sowing some rice paddies. We've got to figure out some way to make a living. We're not complaining, just trying to think of something to plant instead of "King Cotton."

Mrs. E. A. Thomas drove down to Weatherford Friday to meet some of her cousins from Yuma, Arizona and Fresno, California. They all visited relatives and friends in Weatherford Friday then drove over to Brock Saturday for a reunion. Mrs. Thomas returned home Sunday and Mrs. Pauline Hopper of Yuma came home with her.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Walker and sons of Littlefield dropped by for a visit with his parents, the Leucian Walkers, Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Bobby Huffaker and family visited his parents, the H. E. Huffakers through Friday of last week. Bobby is pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Clarendon.

Cindy Childs of Colorado City has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. B. B. Childs.

Mr. Arch Aten, former resident of Grassland, now living in Harper, Texas, was here Saturday visiting Mrs. Era Aten and friends. Gordon Apppling from Mount Blanco visited in the Roy Apppling home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McDonald and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McDonald and children, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Laws and family visited in the home of the James Murrys Thursday evening.

Visiting in the W. G. McCleskey home Sunday were the C. O. McCleskeys and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gribble.

Rev. and Mrs. Ira Campbell were luncheon guests in the Odie Campbell home Sunday.

Bud Inklebarger and son visited the Doyle Terrys and J. D. McGrew families in Lamesa Sunday. Father's Day visitors in the C. A. Walker home Sunday were their daughter and family, the Bill Moore's of Seagraves.

Mrs. V. V. Laws has bought a house in Tahoka. We understand they are redecorating it this week.

Mrs. Kelly Laws and Mrs. Dean Laws are hanging paper and helping her get things in order. Mrs. Laws has lived in Grassland community for a number of years.

She and her husband moved out to Hobbs, N. M. where they lived two years. After Mr. Laws' death in February of this year, she sold her home in Hobbs and bought her home in Tahoka where she will be near her sons who both farm in the Grassland community.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McDonald and children left Friday morning for their home in Selah, Washington, after spending some time with her parents, and visiting other relatives and friends. They arrived home around one o'clock Sunday morning. Jo Nell called Mrs. "C", and said they made the trip without any trouble.

Mrs. O. C. Harrison was in Lubbock Sunday to visit her granddaughter, Aleta Parks, and to help care for her. Dottie, the baby's mother, was ill with strep throat.

Miss Gladys Fox had a pleasant surprise Friday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Nash and Patsy of Bluff Dale, dropped by and spent the night with her.

Bert Cash of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cash of Artesia, New Mexico were visitors in the Ruel Smith home Sunday. Both families are former residents of Garnolia and Grassland communities.

Freedom Foundation Award Is Presented To Former Tahokan

Special to The News:
Irving, June 19—School Supt. W. T. Hanes is one of 17 Americans and one of three Texans selected to receive the American Education Award Medals of Freedom Foundation, Valley Forge, Penn., for 1963.

Announced last week end, the awards are for "exceptional leadership within schools in bringing about educational programs which build up a better understanding of the Foundation's credo upon which the American way of life is based."

Other Texans receiving the award are Dr. J. W. Edgar, State Commissioner of Education in Austin, and Mrs. E. J. Woodward, coordinator of the American Heritage Program in Sweetwater public schools.

Supt. Hanes was awarded the prize primarily because of his project of teaching Americanism in the Irving schools. This program, begun two years ago, has since attracted nation-wide interest and acclaim.

Goal of the project in Irving is to take the "positive approach" in combating Communism—not by telling its flaws but by holding the American way of life up to a closer study than before and showing the good points of free enterprise and democracy.

"We have a better product in America to sell than the Communists do," Hanes said. "But we've been doing a poorer job of salesmanship."

The study of American history, government and economics is designed to fight what Hanes calls America's worst enemy—complacency.

"The love of America is not a subject which can be taught by reciting the pledge of allegiance," Hanes says. "Our schools need to implant the realization of a heritage so great that the complacent acceptance of such is a sacrilege."

The program called for a close look at America and all its history and political activities. The first year, a 30-minute school-wide period for discussion was set aside each Thursday morning during which time students and teachers alike would discuss the previously assigned topics.

(Editor's Note: "Trap" Hanes was superintendent of the Tahoka schools for five or six years back in the early 1940s. He is credited with pulling the Irving schools out of chaos a few years ago following a "blow up" which split the town wide open. A suburb of Dallas, Irving has grown from a population of four or five thousand to about 50,000 since Hanes took over the superintendency.)

Former Star Athlete Arrives For Visit

Chief Warrant Officer Cecil L. (Seabiscuit) Caraway, wife, and three children arrived Sunday from El Paso for a visit until June 28 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Caraway, and other relatives and friends.

"Seabiscuit", who has spent 10 years in the service, 33 months in Alaska and the last eight months at El Paso, where he works at the White Sands Missile Base with the Air Defense Board in test evaluation of electronic equipment. His job gives him opportunity to travel quite a bit. Just recently he has finished a digital computer course on the Nike Zeus missile.

He is one of the Tahoka athletes fans will long remember, and played football here under Leo Jackson, now athletic director of the Irving city schools. He attended Sul Ross State College, following which he taught school a while.

He and his wife, Margie, an Odessa girl, have three children, Tricia, 14, Teresa, 5, and Cecil L. Jr., 3. The oldest girl made the National Honor Society in the El Paso High Schools this last year, and won the citizenship award for all 9th grade classes in the city.

He says another old Tahoka boy, Kenneth Freeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Freeman, is in the same work at El Paso and also a Chief Warrant Officer.

Tahoka Jaycees Plan Melon Feast

Sunday afternoon at 5:30 p. m. the Tahoka Jaycees are planning a watermelon feast. All Jaycee's and their families are invited to attend. Those Jaycee's who were not at the last meeting are urged to contact the Secretary to let him know how many each member is going to bring.

Tuesday night the Tahoka Jaycees had a meeting with Mr. Pat Patton of Lubbock presenting the program. The subject of the program being Jury service and Court procedure.

A short film was shown the men on the Jury in action.

This program was arranged by Charles Brookshire and Binie White.

Mrs. D. B. English Is Some Improved

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Small returned home Sunday from the bedside of her mother, Mrs. D. B. English, who is critically ill in the home of another daughter, Mrs. Ed Bergfeld, at Seguin, where she has been living a part of her time since Mr. English's death.

Mrs. English was taken to a Seguin hospital a week ago Friday for surgery. She was some improved last week end and her doctor advised that she would be as well off at home and she was released Saturday.

Only one state, Washington, has been named for a U.S. President.

regular members attended the meeting.

Zip Number Will Zip Deliveries

Tahoka has received some publicity among the nation's post offices from a postal official in Washington who was reared here as the member of the pioneering Brewer families.

He is Seth T. Brewer, long in the government service, who is now Chief of the Inventory and Distribution Branch, Procurement Division, Bureau of Facilities, U. S. Post Office Department in Washington, D. C.

Recently, Seth sent out a memorandum to post offices regarding "special print envelopes" explaining the use of the ZIP Code number there.

In the letter explaining use of the ZIP Code, he says, "As an example, the proper style placing of the ZIP Code number for the Tahoka, Texas, post office would be 'Tahoka, Texas 79373'."

According to Postmaster Happy Smith, the new ZIP Code program which will go into effect soon is an expansion of the present postal delivery and zone system.

It seems, each postoffice and zone will have a ZIP Code number, 79373 presumably being Tahoka's, to speed up mail delivery.

In the 5-digit number, the first digit designates the geographical area, the second and third digits identify the major city or sectional center, and the fourth and fifth digits identify the post office or other delivery unit.

The country is being divided into 552 sectional center areas, and a new directory of post offices and code numbers is to be issued immediately, or before July 1.

Mr. Smith says it is not quite clear to him when, if ever, the ZIP Code will be required on all mail, but right now large mailers are being encouraged to use the code number and all postal patrons will be encouraged to use the ZIP Code in his return address on all classes of mail following the city and state.

For example, address of The News will become: "The Lynn County News, Drawer D, Tahoka, Texas 79373."

Mayberrys Attend Killeen Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mayberry and niece, Betty Kennedy, and Vinnie Potts were down to Killeen the week end of June 8-9, where they enjoyed a reunion with relatives at the home of the Mayberry's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. (Juanell) Miles. Meeting them there were Chas. (Buddy) Mayberry and family of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. S. D. (Clara Gene) Goodwin and son Jimmy and little daughter, Donna Gene, who is two and a half years old, from Nacogdoches.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin and Donna Gene returned to Tahoka with them and visited here until Saturday.

Clara Gene says they have bought a farm at Nacogdoches, and she is right where she has wanted to be ever since her late grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Banister, moved from the farm in Tahoka.

Recalling her days in Tahoka High, Clara Gene said when they came to town she wanted to quit school. Her folks asked her to try it a month, and at the end of that month she says she had made the girls basketball team and would not have quit for anything. She says she still likes the active physical work in living on the farm, especially since they have a farm of their own.

Texas operators spent $751 million drilling in 1961; $266 million lost to dry holes.

He revealed firemen have bought out of their own pockets, without cost to taxpayers, a new station wagon to add to the fleet of three fire trucks, which addition gives Tahoka a one percent credit on its key rate.

Speaking on behalf of city employees, City Secretary J. M. Uzzle expressed appreciation to the Mayor and Council for their help, understanding, and cooperation. He declared the City workers have better equipment with which to work than ever before in the history of the town.

Pat Hines, water and sewer superintendent for 40 years, said he had a "complaint" to make. Back on January 1, 1923, he said the mayor at that time, Dr. J. R. Singleton, hired him on a six-months trial basis. "If everything worked out all right," Dr. Singleton told him, "I was promised a steady job. I worked 12 hours a day seven days a week for a long time. Now, this employment has just been hanging there and I don't know where I am yet." Pat's talk brought a lot of laughs.

Mr. Hines said only one member of the 1923 City Council is still living, G. M. Stewart. Some of the mayors he has served under are Dr. Singleton, Judge C. H. Cain, Jim Dye, Dean Nowlin, Joe Bovell, J. L. Heare, Dr. E. R. Durham, Jim Applewhite, E. R. Edwards, Clint Walker, H. B. McCord Sr., and Meldon Leslie.

Service award pins were presented Pat Hines, 40 years service; A. C. Davis, 13 years; Warren Smith, eight years; J. M. Uzzle, five years; Jack Miller, five years; and Evon Wilson, five years.

Councilmen James Roberts, J. E. Nance Sr., and Jack Jaquess assisted Mayor Leslie in making the presentations.

A steak dinner was served the group by Al Smith.

Copies of a recent ordinance of personnel policies were passed out to all who had not already received the same. The ordinance sets out salary policies, work hours, vacation and sick leave, fringe benefits, and other items to promote better relations between the employer and employee.

Mrs. Connie Jones of Meadow was admitted to Tahoka Hospital on June 11 as a medical patient and was dismissed on June 15.

Rev. Efird Tells Club Of His Experiences In Japan

"Impression of Japan," was the subject of a talk Thursday at the Rotary Club by Rev. T. James Efird, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who just recently returned from that country where he preached in Japanese churches for three weeks as a part of the Japan Baptist New Life Movement.

He learned the Japanese economy is in good shape, business fairly good, and the country has made the fastest economic growth of any nation in the world since the war.

Transportation is superb, although there are few private cars. Most people travel by very fast trains which run on time, modern buses, and taxis, all of which seem to be in a hurry all the time. There are many modern buildings, and there are no signs of war damage where he went.

In describing private homes, many of which he visited, he said they are mostly wooden structures built of cedar, unpainted but stand the weather for 250 or more years, roofs are of tile, rooms small but efficient. The typical home has its flower garden of exceptional beauty and cared for delicately.

Both city and farm homes are immaculately clean, consist of a kitchen, bath, and as many other rooms as necessary for the family. One takes off his shoes before entering the house, which helps keep the house clean, sits on the floor to eat from a low table, sleeps on a mat, and in the bathroom he bathes from a bucket of water and later soaks in a tile tub, and heat is usually from a small charcoal burner.

Dress is very modest, about half the women and some of the men wearing kimonos, and the others Western type clothing. The Japanese eat with chopsticks, and raw fish is the basic food. Living is very simple, not too much in the way of modern frills is needed or desired. A church pastor drew $36 a month, house furnished, considered a fairly good income. School children wear uniforms. The study of English is required in the junior year of high school.

The average Japanese is very small, but he is getting taller due to better diet. The people are very industrious, seem to be working like bees all the time. He said he never saw a Jap just sitting, doing nothing. They are very graceful, gracious, polite, and punctual.

He spent time in Tokyo, Osaka, Kobe, and preached at Sasebo, where the naval base is located and about 3,000 U. S. personnel are stationed. He was told three persons out of 1,000 are Christians.

A native told him, "We are not a war-like people, our military leaders got us into war."

He visited Rotary Clubs in Tokyo, where he heard (through translation) a local business man speak on "Japanese-American Relations"; in Kobe, where the head of the police spoke on "Juvenile Delinquency"; and in Hong Kong, which he also visited, where the head of the police from an area of that city closest to the Communist zone was the speaker.

E. L. Short, in charge of the program, introduced the speaker.

This was the first dinner furnished by Leighton Knox to which the club had been looking forward for several weeks. President Calloway Huffaker expressed thanks to Clyde Tatum of Lubbock, Leighton's boss and guest, for his many civic contributions.

The president announced that the incoming president, Don Browning, was in St. Louis attending the Rotary International convention and sent a telegram warning member "to get their work clothes on."

Flowers were ordered sent J. P. (Pete) Hewlett, county superintendent and club treasurer, who had undergone surgery in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock that morning.

Tom Hale and George McCracken were announced as new members coming into the club this Thursday.

"Wildcat" wells were drilled in 220 of Texas' 254 counties during 1961.

Lynn County Paychecks Buy More Than In '58

(Special to The News)

New York—How much more can the average worker in Lynn county buy with his weekly wages than he was able to buy five years ago?

His income is larger than it was then, and so, from that standpoint, he is better off.

However, his living expenses have been rising also. The cost of housing, medical care, food and transportation are all greater than they were.

Where does he stand, as a result? The answer is that his income has risen faster than his living costs, leaving him a net gain in purchasing power.

He is able to buy somewhat more in the way of goods and services now, after a day's work, than he could have a few years ago.

Latest reports on the subject, based on national studies released by the Department of Labor, the Tax Foundation and others, indicate the changes that have occurred since 1958.

They show that the average Lynn county family had an income last year that was approximately 12.5 percent higher than it was in 1958.

Partially offsetting this gain was an increase of 3.5 percent in the cost of goods and services.

An indication of how the average production worker in the United States has fared, what with the changes in income and in living costs, it brought out in work-time figures issued by the Labor Department.

They show that he must work 34 days now to pay his rent whereas he needed only 3 days in 1958.

A 1-pound can of coffee, which he now earns with 19 minutes of work, took 27 minutes previously.

A dozen grade A eggs, large, takes 15 minutes instead of 18 minutes.

An automobile tire, size 6.70x15, represents 10 hours and 11 minutes, compared with 11 hours and 9 minutes in 1958.

For the wage-earner with a better-than-average income, the amount of working time needed is, of course, relatively less.

Although most things are cheaper, in terms of hours of work, than in 1958, taxes cost more. It now takes approximately 51 hours a month to meet the Federal, state and local tax bills. It took 48 hours then.

For the average family in Lynn county, on the basis of latest income figures, this is equivalent to $169 per month.

Registration Set For Day Camp

Registration for Day Camp for Tahoka Girl Scouts will be from 3 to 5 p. m., Friday, June 28, at the Scout Hut, according to Mrs. Blain Draper, camp director.

Brownie and intermediate girl scouts are eligible to attend the Day Camp. The scouts are asked to complete the registration form in the summer magic book and bring it with them to register.

The Day Camp will be on the T-Bar Ranch July 8 through the 12. The $3.50 fee will cover insurance, food for the cook-out and crafts. Thursday, July 11, will be visitors night when the girls will display their camping skills.

Those planning to attend the camp are urged to be present for registration next Friday.

INTER-CHURCH YOUTH GROUP MEET FOR VOLLEYBALL

Last Thursday night the young people from the First Methodist Church, First Baptist Church, Sweet Street Baptist Church, and the Church of Christ, enjoyed volley ball games together at the City park. Even though rain prevented them playing for about fifteen minutes, they continued playing when the rain let up some. Refreshments and a devotional followed the ball game.

About 5,500 persons visit the White House daily.

Jackie Burnett In Concert At Tech

Jackie Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Burnett, will be among the 167 area band students who will present at concert at 8:30 p. m. tonight in the Tech Union Building.

The concert is the climax of Texas Tech's annual Summer Music Camp held the last two weeks on the campus. Jackie has been staying in Lubbock with relatives and attending the training school.

Don't you read before you buy?

Most people do. They don't do advertising in print to give them the information they want on products and services. They don't do it to make them... designs... and prices, for example.

People not only read about products and services, they show ads to their family and friends. They also coupons for information and coupons they tear out ads to take along when they go shopping.

When you add it all up, print advertising—the kind you read in the pages of this newspaper—makes sense.

And because it measures up to the buying habits of most consumers, print makes sense. Most people read—and then buy. Don't you?

Say or think what you will, the Negro as a race, is not ready to take his place of responsibility in our nation. Some are, but the masses of the race are not. Furthermore, the white public is not ready to accept the Negro in its social circles, clubs, churches, or even school and businesses. This is no special discredit to the Negro. As a race, he has made remarkable advances in just a few generations out of the jungles of Africa. Bayonets and bullets, armed forces and law can not force such a rapid change in the minds and customs. The Negro needs to do more for himself in the fields of education, home and social life. The present revolution is just making things harder for him. Our Administration has stirred up strife that can very easily lead to bloodshed. Some politicians will do anything for the vote.

One thing you can say about former President Harry S. Truman, he doesn't beat around the bush. The other day, Harry exploded with, "This civil rights thing is being promoted by a bunch of demagogues... Their (the Negroes) rights are set out in laws that have been on the books since 1868, and if they go at it in a common sense, honorable way, they won't have any trouble getting their rights. And that's all I have to say about it!"

Before long, we're afraid, this number business is going to get out of hand. We're going to have to give up a first name and our sur-name, possibly. We have just now got our new ZIP Code number, which is 79373. The first number we were given was while a student at West Texas State, 5042. Then, the government gave us a Social Security number, 456-54-9631. The Internal Revenue Service gave us 11-4018093 for our personal affairs and 75-0406440 for our business. Texas Employment Commission numbered us 106,822, the State Comptroller gave us 298611-1 for state sales tax purposes. Our office phone is 998-4888, if you call us from Lubbock it's 112-908-4888, and if you call us from Dallas it's 112-908-998-4888—then, our home phone is 4228, the last four digits. Our car number is BZ-5808, but changes each year. Then, there's our courtesy card numbers, fishing license number, ABC bridge number, insurance policy numbers, and maybe a dozen others, to say nothing of those of members of our family and employees. Oh, yes, we forgot, we've got farm numbers. The only number we can think of that we haven't received is a number from Leavenworth or Huntsville—but we'll bet they've got numbers reserved for us. Good morning, Mr. 724-XYZ-7961, how are you this fine day?

Following the search for the young man who drowned in floodwaters recently near Tahoka Lake, a citizen suggests that some equipment is badly needed for such instances, namely about two "walkie-talkie" radio sets and a portable generator. These could be used profitably in many ways by officers, storm watchers, on man-hunts, in rescue efforts, and in other activities out in the field. During the drowning, "walkie-talkies" borrowed from Slaton Brownfield police departments and Lubbock sheriff's department, proved very valuable in the search.

Charles Didway who writes the interesting "Thursday to Thursday" column in the Post Dispatch, had this last week from the Houston Post, hatched up by a Dr. Raphael R. Haley of the latter city from a Texas road map, from which the good doctor concluded "sadly that the Society for Naming Small Texas Towns was a disorganized group if there ever was one:

A local attorney has a suggestion for city officials interested in getting stalled or parked cars off city streets and alleys. He thinks an ordinance would be legal which would prohibit such cars on public property that do not bear a current license tag. Some cities, Amarillo being one instance, have an ordinance prohibiting the parking of any car overnight on the streets, even in the residential section. Such cars found parked are hauled in by city officers, and owners are forced to pay hauling charges and possibly fines to reclaim their vehicles.

In the story last week on the vote to integrate Tahoka High, we said the vote was 56 to 20 in favor. This should have been 56 to 26.

Mrs. Perle (Ketter) Foote of 256 Coombs street, Napa, Calif., writes that she gets a "kick" out of this column. Thanks, Perle, we miss "old-timers" like you who have moved away.

Thanks to Paul and Viola (Ellis) Bleimeyer of El Paso for kind comments about this column.

A man can wear his hair one of three ways: parted, unparted and departed.—Exchange.

It's a good thing Amarillo officials turned down that free elephant for a proposed city zoo. If Amarillo had gotten an elephant, Lubbock would have had to acquire two elephants to keep up with her old rival. Since the 1960 census, we haven't heard much from our bustling big sister 30 miles north about how much bigger Lubbock is than the Panhandle city. Sort of a relief!

Every day is a safety day.

GENERAL TELEPHONE TOWNS ON THE MOVE

How Community Spirit Built Perryton

Population figures more than double... 30 new industries added... all since 1950! That is the miraculous record of Perryton in the Texas Panhandle wheat growing area.

When oil was discovered in the early 50's, an aggressive, long-range program was launched by the Chamber of Commerce. An 84-acre industrial tract was secured and plotted; its streets were paved and a railroad spur was built.

So successful was this community development that today a second industrial tract has been acquired and plotted. Perryton, former population 4417, is now known as The Oil Center of the Anadarko Basin, with 9400 citizens. It is another reason we say big things are happening in General Telephone towns.

These towns are on the move. Community improvements are under way, local resources are being developed, new businesses, new industries are coming in. If your town seeks additional information about expansion perhaps we can help. Just write our Community Development Department, Box 1001, San Angelo, Texas.

AFCO FLAME CULTIVATION

FOR WEED-FREE CROPS

Time-tested and proved, AFCO Flame Cultivation is the best answer yet for complete weed, grass and vine control in rowcrops.

Weed control means higher yields — flaming means less weeds. Gas costs average less than $1 per acre. Crops can be flamed at 4 to 10 acres per hour. And flaming does not harm the crop when used as recommended.

You owe it to yourself to learn more about AFCO Flame Cultivation. Let us discuss flaming with you, or better yet we can arrange a demonstration.

Abstract Firm Is Pioneer Business

Lynn County Abstract Co., located in the northeast corner of the courthouse basement and owned by Mrs. Beulah Pridmore, is one of the oldest businesses in the county and on the South Plains. Although the owner is a member of a pioneer family, she has only owned the business since January 1, 1959.

Mrs. Pridmore, county clerk for many years, bought the business from W. S. (Skip) Taylor, owner for 35 years, on January 1, 1959. Then on April 1, last year, she bought the Pioneer Abstract Co. from Don Bradley when he retired, and combined the two firms. Pioneer had likewise been in business since the early days of the county.

Lynn County Abstract was started by Mr. Whipp, who established the firm late in 1903 or in 1904, and he sold out to M. M. Herring in 1912. G. E. Lockhart and J. H. Edwards bought the firm in 1917, and sold to B. H. (Hall) Robinson the next year, and Hall operated the business until 1922 when he sold out to T. G. Marks. The latter sold to Skip the next year.

Although born at Hawley, Mrs. Pridmore came to Lynn county with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Smith, in 1907. She attended school at New Home, Hardin-Simmons University, and Baylor University. She served as county clerk of Lynn county for 10 years, 1949 to 1959, when she retired on buying the abstract business.

Naturally, her biggest interest in life is in her three children and three grandchildren. Her daughter, Bennie, and husband, Lieutenant Commander James Duane Carter of the U. S. Navy, and their two daughters live in Monterey, Calif. Her son, Sam, and wife, the former Betsy Adams, and their little son live at New Home where Sam is in the fertilizing, crop dusting and spraying business. The other son, Ted, and wife, the former Jerrie LeMond, live in Grand Prairie, where she teaches while Ted is attending Southwestern Medical School in Dallas.

Mrs. Pridmore has able assistance in her business by two capable employees.

Mrs. Ira G. (Wilma) Tyler, abstractor, has had many years experience, was reared at Spur, attended a business college, and has been with the firm most of the time Beulah has owned it. Wilma and husband have two children, Mrs. Jack (Iris Gayle) Hoskins and John, and one grandchild, Sandy.

Mrs. Jesse (Kathy) Dorman came from Paducah, is a business college graduate, and joined the

Fire Training Is Offered By Bureau

The Lynn County Farm Bureau is participating in a program to assist local volunteer fire departments in fire prevention and protection in rural areas, according to Loyd McCormick of Wilson, president.

The local county FB leader said the Farm Bureau will help defray the expenses for sending a limited number of volunteer firemen to a Firemen's Training School to be held July 21-26 at Texas A. and M. College. The Farm Bureau will pay $45 of the $50 registration fee for members of local volunteer fire departments to attend the school which furnishes up-to-date information on fire protection and fire prevention as well as fire fighting techniques. The $50 registration fee also covers lodging and meals, he explained.

The Farm Bureau will also pay any local organized fire department for answering calls outside of the city limits to fight fires involving this property of Farm Bureau members carrying fire insurance with the Farm Bureau insurance company, he said. The amount of payment will be $75 per call.

The county president said local fire departments are being urged to cooperate in the plan to reduce fire losses in rural areas of the county. Any volunteer fire department that will agree to serve rural areas will be eligible to submit an applicant for the fire training school. But the total number of persons that can attend is limited, and only one applicant for each fire department can be accepted, he said.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank Lawrence and Ruby Harvick and Mr. White and all the rest of the folks for being so nice to me. I want to thank the doctors and nurses for being so nice while I was in the hospital at Tahoka. I want to thank my dear friends for the visits and cards and I thank the Assembly of God Church for the lovely flowers. I enjoyed them so much. May God bless everyone of you in my prayer.—Mrs. Jack Curry, Box 432, Levelland, Texas. 1t

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

The average working person during 1963 will work 2 hours and 21 minutes out of each 8 hour day to pay Federal, state and local taxes.

The same average worker will only work 1 hour and 24 minutes out of each 8 hour day to supply housing and housing operation.

Thus, a roof over the head costs less than half the cost of taxes.

Of course, the great gulf in these comparisons is that the average worker is supporting more than one roof. Sen. Robert Byrd of W. Va., on the committee that administers civil affairs in Washington, D.C. picked 236 district welfare cases at random and found about 60% of these cases did not deserve welfare payments in the first place.

And the bitter fact remains that every taxpayer is not only burdened with the welfare load, but also with the salaries and expenses of almost 10,000,000 people employed by federal, state and local government.

While the major attention is focused on the costs of federal government, it is a fact that state and local governmental costs are contributing mightily to the cost of existence.

As the situation now stands, in ten years federal spending on non-defense items has jumped from approximately $23½ billion to $55½ billion, and at the same time state and local spending has jumped from $22 billion to $40 billion.

The nation's independent businessmen, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, feel strongly that a reduction in income tax rates is essential to preserve a free economy, and to provide more employment.

Yet, the nation's independent business proprietors have also voted strongly in favor of cutting government expenses to offset, at least in part, a tax cut.

As shown by the above figures, there is plenty of water to be wrung out of governmental spending to provide sizeable tax cuts.

On the other hand, reflection on these figures cause wonder if the water must be wrung out of the federal budget alone, or whether at the same time local governments all through the land should be forced to cut back on their expenditures.

Today, the public debt of the federal government is over $100 billion more than the combined public debt of all the free nations of the world combined, yet these nations receive billions of U.S. dollars in foreign give-away funds.

Thus, perhaps Castro is not the greatest concern of every American.

Perhaps of far greater concern is the actual solvency of the nation.

Cafe Owners Of Pioneer Families

Although Tahoka Cafe is not one of the pioneer institutions, its owners, Mae and W. H. Norman, have lived in the Lynn-Garza area all their lives and feel they are "almost pioneers."

W. H., nicknamed "Oddie" while attending school at Grassland, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Norman, long prominent citizens of Grassland community who settled on C. W. Post lands. He was born here, one of the Norman's 11 children, grew up on the farm and is still farming. Interested in all sports, W. H. just a few years ago gave up playing softball. A musician of some note, he still likes to play with string bands. He is a member of Grassland Methodist Church, the Masonic Lodge, and T-Bar Country Club.

Mae Stewart was born at Post the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. N. Stewart, who still live in Post. Mae was one of 12 children in the family, a happy family group, as were the large Norman family. She attended school at Graham Chapel, where she played basketball. She married W. H. in April, 1935, and they lived at Grassland until she bought the cafe Aug. 2, 1961, and moved into town to be near her work. Prior to coming here, she managed a shoe store in Post for five years.

While raising a family, Mae has been active in Grassland Methodist Church, where she has helped in Sunday School and WSCS. She is an Eastern Star, member of the Garden Club, T-Bar Country Club, and Tahoka Chamber of Commerce.

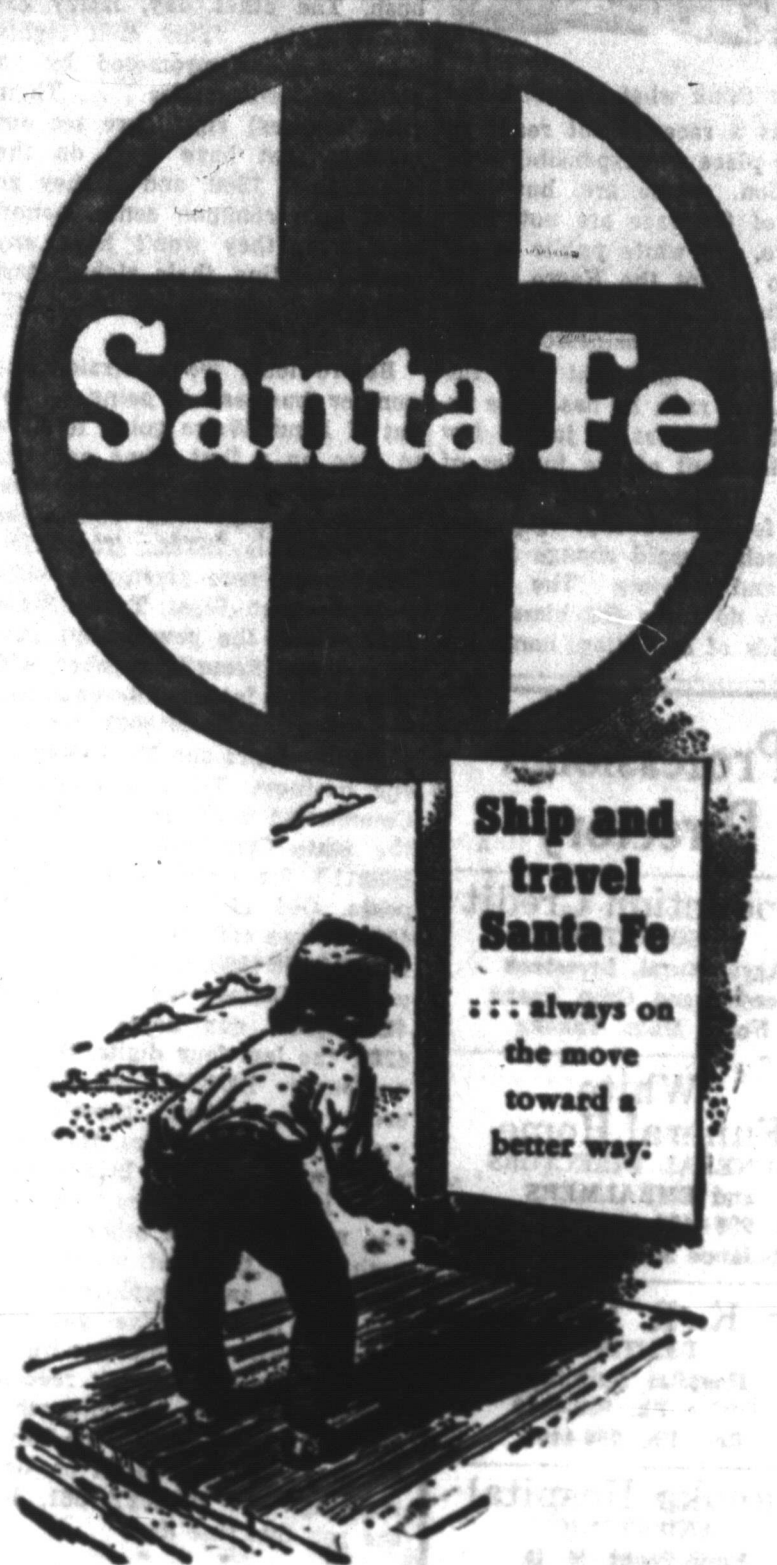

W. H. and Mae are proud of their four children and two grandchildren. The three oldest children are Tahoka High graduates. Wendell, 26, who married Mary Jane McCord last April 26, attended North Texas State University and now farms at Grassland and lives in Tahoka. Lindell, 24, is a North Texas graduate and lives in Dallas, where he works for Great American Life Insurance Company. Patsy and husband, Richard Brooks, who is bookkeeper at Wayne Waters Ford Sales, have two children, Roddy and Suzanna. The youngest daughter, Penny Renea, is six and will start to school in September.

Mae says they are also very proud of the type help they have at their cafe, which enables them to serve the tastiest of meals and short order. Mrs. Frank (Flossie) Makovy is the head cook, and Mrs. Harold (Edna) Smith is the night cook. Both are experienced and cooking is their hobby as well as their vocation.

All the forces at Tahoka Cafe says they take delight in congratulating Old Lynn and its people on this 60th anniversary.
